§ 3105. Public purpose of the corporation. The corporation is created and shall be operated exclusively for public purposes and not for pecuniary profit. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private individual.