§ 3106. Contributions to the corporation. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law or the provisions of any certificate of incorporation, charter or other articles of organization, any corporation, association or person is hereby authorized to make contributions to the corporation.