§ 3500. Reservation of state right to adjust medicaid rates. Each corporation created under this article shall include as a provision in any agreement of the corporation with the holder of its bonds that the state reserves the right to adjust its medicaid rates in accordance with applicable law and implementing regulations, if any.