§ 832. Bonds legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions may properly and legally invest funds in their control.