§ 834-a. Policing. Any county, city, town or village within the territorial limits of the district may, by ordinance or resolution of its governing body, make covenants with the authority which shall provide for the policing of designated property of the authority by the police of such county, city, town or village with the same powers as such police have in such county, city, town or village.