CHAPTER 870

AN ACT to compile in one chapter of the consolidated laws, for the purpose of public convenience, the several acts in relation to public authorities created or validated by the legislature, constituting chapter forty-three-a of the consolidated laws

Became a law June 15, 1939, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

PUBLIC AUTHORITIES LAW

CHAPTER 43-A OF THE CONSOLIDATED LAWS

ARTICLE 1

SHORT TITLE

Title 1. Short Title; Definitions (§§ 1-3)

TITLE 1

SHORT TITLE; DEFINITIONS

§ 1. Short title. This chapter shall be known as the public authorities law.

§ 2. Definitions. As used in this chapter:

1. "state authority" shall mean a public authority or public benefit corporation created by or existing under this chapter or any other law of the state of New York, with one or more of its members appointed by the governor or who serve as members by virtue of holding a civil office of the state, other than an interstate or international authority or public benefit corporation, including subsidiaries of such public authority or public benefit corporation.

2. "local authority" shall mean (a) a public authority or public benefit corporation created by or existing under this chapter or any other law of the state of New York whose members do not hold a civil office of the state, are not appointed by the governor or are appointed by the governor specifically upon the recommendation of the local government or governments; (b) a not-for-profit corporation affiliated with, sponsored by, or created by a county, city, town or village government; (c) a local industrial developmental agency or authority or other local public benefit corporation; (d) an affiliate of such local authority; or (e) a land bank corporation created pursuant to article sixteen of the not-for-profit corporation law.

3. "interstate or international authority" shall mean an international or interstate public authority created pursuant to agreement or compact with another state or with a foreign power, including any and all affiliates or subsidiaries.

5. "subsidiary" shall not include, for the purposes of this chapter, corporations that have been certified by the parent corporation to the authorities budget office as being inactive for the past twelve months, having an identical board of its parent corporation, or not having separate and independent operational control. Provided, however, the parent corporation, in response to any request, shall address any provision or provisions of this chapter.

6. "authorities budget office" shall mean the entity established pursuant to section four of this article.

§ 3. Pay equity. 1. In order to attract unusual merit and ability to the service of public authorities in the state of New York, to stimulate higher efficiency among the personnel, to provide skilled leadership in administration, to reward merit and to insure the highest return in services for the necessary costs of administration, it is hereby declared that public authorities shall, consistent with the federal Equal Pay Act of 1963 (29 U.S.C. § 206), the federal Civil Rights Act (42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2), article fifteen of the executive law, and section forty-c of the civil rights law, ensure a fair, non-biased compensation structure for all employees in which status within one or more protected class or classes is not considered either directly or indirectly in determining the proper compensation for a title or in determining the pay for any individual or group of employees, ensure that no employee with status within one or more protected class or classes shall be paid a wage at a rate less than the rate at which an employee without status within the same protected class or classes in the same establishment is paid for similar work or substantially similar work and provide regular increases in pay in proper proportion to increase of ability, increase of output and increase of quality of work demonstrated in service.

2. For the purpose of this section:

(a) the term "protected class" includes age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, or domestic violence victim status, and any employee protected from discrimination pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of subdivision one of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law, and any intern protected from discrimination pursuant to section two hundred ninety-six-c of the executive law.

(b) the term "compensation" shall include but not be limited to: all earnings of an employee for labor or services rendered, regardless of whether the amount of earnings is paid on an annual salary, hourly, biweekly or per diem basis; reimbursement for expenses; health, welfare and retirement benefits; and vacation pay, sick pay, separation or holiday pay, or any other form of remuneration.

(c) employees shall be deemed to work in the same establishment if the employees work for the same employer at workplaces located in the same geographical region, no larger than a county, taking into account population distribution, economic activity, and/or the presence of municipalities.

(d) the term "public authorities" shall mean any authority as defined in section two of this title.

3. (a) It shall not be a violation of this section for an employer to pay different compensation to employees, where such payments are made pursuant to:

(1) a bona fide seniority or merit system;

(2) a bona fide system that measures earnings by quantity or quality of production;

(3) a bona fide system based on geographic differentials;

(4) any other bona fide factor other than status within one or more protected class or classes, such as education, training, or experience. Such factor: (A) shall not be based upon or derived from a differential in compensation based on status within one or more protected class or classes; and (B) shall be job-related with respect to the position in question and shall be consistent with business necessity. Such exception under this paragraph shall not apply when the employee demonstrates (i) that an employer uses a particular employment practice that causes a disparate impact on the basis of status within one or more protected class or classes, (ii) that an alternative employment practice exists that would serve the same purpose and not produce such differential, and (iii) that the employer has refused to adopt such alternative practice; or

(5) a collective bargaining agreement.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, "business necessity" shall be defined as a factor that bears a manifest relationship to the employment in question.

(c) Nothing set forth in this section shall be construed to impede, infringe or diminish the rights and benefits which accrue to employees through collective bargaining agreements, or otherwise diminish the integrity of the existing collective bargaining relationship.

AUTHORITIES BUDGET OFFICE

§ 4. Establishment of the independent authorities budget office. There is hereby established the independent authorities budget office as an independent entity within the department of state, which shall have and exercise the powers and duties provided by this title.

§ 5. Director of the authorities budget office. The director of the authorities budget office shall be appointed by the governor, upon the advice and consent of the senate. The director shall hold office for a term of four years beginning on the date of confirmation. The salary of the director shall be established by the governor within the limit of funds available therefor; provided, however, such salary shall be no less than the salaries of certain state officers holding the positions indicated in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section one hundred sixty-nine of the executive law. The director may be removed by the governor only after notice and opportunity to be heard, and only for:

1. permanent disability;

2. inefficiency;

3. neglect of duty;

4. malfeasance;

5. a felony or conduct involving moral turpitude; or

6. breach of fiduciary duty.

§ 6. Powers and duties of the authorities budget office. 1. The authorities budget office shall:

(a) conduct reviews and analysis of the operations, practices and reports of state and local authorities to assess compliance with the provisions of this chapter and other applicable provisions of law;

(b) maintain a comprehensive inventory of state and local authorities and subsidiaries and the annual reports of such state and local authorities as defined in section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter;

(c) verify the existence of all authorities listed in state law;

(d) review the potential for consolidation or name change of certain authorities;

(e) assist state and local authorities in improving management practices and the procedures by which the activities and financial practices of state and local authorities are disclosed to the public;

(f) make recommendations to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly and the chairs and ranking minority members of the following committees: the senate finance committee, the assembly ways and means committee, the senate committee on corporations, authorities and commissions and the assembly committee on corporations, authorities and commissions and authority board members concerning opportunities to improve the performance, reporting, reformation, structure and oversight of state and local authorities;

(g) provide such additional information and analysis as may be reasonably requested by the legislature and state comptroller;

(h) promulgate regulations to effectuate the purposes of this title and title one of this article, and article nine of this chapter, relating to the statutory responsibilities of the authorities budget office;

(i) develop and issue, after consultation with the office of the attorney general, a written acknowledgement that a board member must execute at the time that the member takes and subscribes their oath of office, or within sixty days after the effective date of this paragraph if the member has already taken and subscribed his or her oath of office, in accordance with subdivision one of section twenty-eight hundred twenty-four of this chapter;

(j) develop a comprehensive definition of public authorities including a consolidated listing by class and name;

(k) standardize content and format of state and local authority annual reports;

(l) assess individual authorities and based upon their ability and resources, set a date by which changes made pursuant to this title shall be implemented;

(m) issue recommendations to the legislature and governor on setting debt limitations for authorities without statutorily required debt limits;

(n) make recommendations to the legislature and governor with respect to options for, and whether there should be, compensation for boards of directors; and

(o) review the potential for and make recommendations to the legislature and governor regarding change in the terms of office of public authorities board members.

2. The authorities budget office shall have the authority to:

(a) request and receive from any state or local authority, agency, department or division of the state or political subdivision such assistance, personnel, information, books, records, other documentation and cooperation as may be necessary to perform its duties;

(b) enter into cooperative agreements with other government offices to efficiently carry out its work and not duplicate resources;

(c) receive and act upon complaints or recommendations from the public or other persons or entities regarding any authority covered by this title;

(d) initiate formal investigations in response to complaints or appearances of non-compliance by an authority;

(e) issue subpoenas pertaining to investigations which such office is authorized to conduct under this title, for the purposes of effectuating the powers and duties of this title;

(f) publicly warn and censure authorities for non-compliance with this title, and to establish guidelines for such actions;

(g) recommend to the entity that appointed the officer or director suspension or dismissal of officers or directors, based on information that is, or is made, available to the public under law;

(h) report suspected criminal activities to the attorney general and other prosecutorial agencies;

(i) compel any authority which is deemed to be in non-compliance with this title and title one of this article or article nine of this chapter to submit to the authorities budget office a detailed explanation of such failure to comply; and

(j) commence a special proceeding in supreme court, when it does not receive from a state or local authority upon request information, books, records or other documentation necessary to perform its duties, seeking an order directing the production of the same.

3. The reports and non-proprietary information received by and prepared by the authorities budget office shall be made available to the public, to the extent practicable, through the internet.

§ 6-a. Power to suspend local authority board members and executive staff. 1. The authorities budget office shall have the authority, subject to subdivision two of this section, to suspend one or more members of a local authority board of directors, or the chief executive officer or equivalent position of a local authority for a period not to exceed ninety days when such individual or individuals knowingly fails or neglects to submit any report required by section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter within thirty-six months of its due date. The authorities budget office is authorized to terminate such a suspension if the board member or chief executive officer demonstrates that he or she has remedied their non-compliance. For the purposes of this section, the "suspension" of an individual shall mean the temporary removal of the rights, responsibilities, powers and duties of a person who is an appointed board member of a local authority or the individual who serves as chief executive officer through appointment or contract. Should the authorities budget office suspend the full board of directors or a majority of current board members the term "suspension" shall mean the board of directors is prohibited from taking actions, votes, or adopting resolutions, that bind the board to future agreements, contracts, financial commitments, indebtedness, or other actions, other than actions necessary to resolve the noncompliance or satisfy existing legal or administrative obligations.

2. (a) Pursuant to policies and procedures developed by the authorities budget office and made available on its website, when the authorities budget office has reason to believe that one or more board members of a local authority has knowingly failed or neglected to submit any report required by section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter within thirty-six months of its due date, the authorities budget office shall provide at least thirty days' notice of its intent to initiate suspension proceedings to the chairperson of the local authority, to the individual or individuals responsible for appointing such board members, and to each such board member. If the authorities budget office has reason to believe that the chief executive officer of a local authority has knowingly failed or neglected to submit any report required by section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter within thirty-six months of its due date, the authorities budget office shall provide at least thirty days' notice of its intent to initiate suspension proceedings to the chairperson of the local authority and to the chief executive officer. Such notice shall include, but shall not be limited to (i) the date and a brief description of the facts and nature of each non-compliance for which such suspension is proposed; (ii) the number of days that the authorities budget office proposes to suspend such board member or chief executive officer; (iii) the option to submit a formal response to the authorities budget office which demonstrates why such board member or chief executive officer should not be suspended; and (iv) if applicable, a period of time in which such local authority or board member or chief executive officer may remedy the non-compliance.

(b) If, after the expiration of the deadline set forth in the notice of intent pursuant to subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the board member or members or chief executive officer, whichever is applicable, has not responded to the notice or has not remedied the non-compliance to the satisfaction of the authorities budget office, the authorities budget office shall issue to the non-compliant board member or members or chief executive officer a notice of suspension which shall include: (i) the number of days of suspension; and (ii) the date that such suspension shall commence, which date shall be at least one hundred eighty days from the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension.

3. (a) Whenever the authorities budget office has suspended one or more board members of a local authority, the individual or individuals who appointed those board members may act to reinstate a suspended board member. If the appointing authority is a legislative body or a member of the legislative body, any action to reinstate a suspended board member shall occur in a public meeting of such body and following an opportunity for the public to comment. Such action shall be deemed valid upon passage of a written resolution of reinstatement by a majority and recorded vote of the legislative body. Such resolution shall describe the facts and circumstances by which the legislative body has reached this determination. If the appointing authority is the chief executive official of the municipality for whose benefit the local authority was created, any action to reinstate a suspended board member shall be through an official act of the chief executive official. Such act shall be recorded in writing and shall describe the facts and circumstances by which the chief executive official reached this determination.

(b) Whenever the authorities budget office has suspended the chief executive officer of a local authority, the chairperson of such local authority may initiate action to reinstate the suspended chief executive officer. Any action to reinstate a suspended chief executive officer shall occur in a public meeting of the board of directors and following an opportunity for the public to comment. Such action shall be deemed valid upon passage of a written resolution of reinstatement by a majority and recorded vote of the current board of directors. Such resolution shall describe the facts and circumstances by which the board of directors reached this determination.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "reinstatement" shall mean the restoration of the rights, responsibilities, powers and duties of a board member or chief executive officer of a local authority.

§ 7. Reports of the authorities budget office. On July first, two thousand ten and annually thereafter the authorities budget office shall issue reports on its findings and analyses to the governor, the chair and ranking minority member of the senate finance committee, the chair and ranking minority member of the assembly ways and means committee, the chair and ranking minority member of the senate standing committee on corporations, authorities and commissions, the chair and ranking minority member of the assembly standing committee on corporations, authorities and commissions, the state comptroller and the attorney general, with conclusions and opinions concerning the performance of public authorities and to study, review and report on the operations, practices and finances of state and local authorities as defined by section two of this article.

§ 8. Local authorities searchable subsidy and economic development benefits database. 1. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Economic development benefits" shall mean:

(i) funds made available by a local development corporation for economic development, or job creation purposes including, but not limited to, grants, loans, and bonds; and

(ii) bonds and tax exemptions which are applied for and preapproved or certified by or on behalf of an industrial development agency for economic development.

(b) "Qualified participant" shall mean a project operator pursuant to section eight hundred seventy-four of the general municipal law with a project pursuant to section eight hundred fifty-four of the general municipal law.

(c) "Full-time equivalent" shall mean a unit of measure, which is equal to one filled, full-time, annual-salaried position in a manner consistent with federal calculations.

(d) "The office" shall mean the authorities budget office.

(e) "The database" or "the searchable database" shall mean the database created pursuant to subdivision two of this section.

(f) "The project" shall mean specific work, action, endeavor, contract or agreement for which any economic benefit as defined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, is made available or awarded by a local development corporation or industrial development agency to a person, business, limited liability corporation or any other entity.

2. Notwithstanding any laws to the contrary, the office shall create a searchable database, displaying data regarding economic development benefits that a qualified participant has been awarded. Such searchable database shall include the following data, features and functionality to the extent practicable:

(a) the ability to search the database by each of the reported information fields;

(b) the ability to be searchable, downloadable, and posted on a publicly accessible website as well as referenced on the office's website, with a direct link to the database;

(c) the ability to digitally select defined individual fields corresponding to any of the reported information from qualified participants to create unique database views;

(d) the ability to download the database in its entirety, or in part, in a common machine readable format;

(e) a definition or description of terms for fields in the database;

(f) a summary of each separate economic development benefit defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section awarded to qualified participants;

(g) a user-friendly guide to outline the features and functionality of the database;

(h) a dedicated email account for the public to direct questions related to the database, and the office mailing address, office telephone number, and name of the chief officer;

(i) the following data on local development corporations shall be included:

(i) relating to grants, the source of funds for the grant, the name and address of the entity that received the grant, the date and amount awarded, how the grant funds will be used, whether the grant proceeds were expected to result in new jobs being created, and if so, how many jobs were planned to be created and how many jobs have been created to date;

(ii) relating to loans, the source of funds for the loan, the name and address of the entity that received the loan, the date and amount awarded, the loan interest rate, the length of the loan in years, the amount repaid to date, how the loan funds will be used, and whether the loan was provided to the recipient for the purpose of creating jobs, and if so, how many jobs were planned to be created and how many jobs have been created to date; and

(iii) relating to bonds, the name and address of the recipient of the bond proceeds, the amount and date of the bond issuance, the bond interest rate, the year the bonds are expected to be fully retired, the amount of bond principal retired during the reporting period, how the bond proceeds are used, whether the bond proceeds were provided to the recipient to create jobs, and if so, how many jobs were planned to be created and how many jobs have been created to date; and

(j) the following data on industrial development agency projects shall be included:

(i) project name, project type, project location, and the project's complete address, including the postal code in a separate and searchable field;

(ii) whether the project is part of another phase or multi phase, the category of the project purpose, the total project amount, the benefited project amount, if the project type was a bond, the bond amount, if the project type was a lease, the lease amount, whether the qualified recipient is a not-for-profit, the date the project was approved, whether the industrial development agency took title to a property, and if so, the date that title was taken, and the year financial assistance is planned to end;

(iii) the qualified participant's name and the qualified participant's complete address, including the postal code in a separate and searchable field;

(iv) the amount of project tax exemptions granted, including for state sales tax, local sales tax, county real property tax, local property tax, school property tax, mortgage recording tax, the total exemptions, and the total exemptions net of real property tax law section four hundred eighty-five-b;

(v) the amount of payments in lieu of taxes agreed upon and actually made to the county, local municipality, or school district, the total amount of payments in lieu of taxes agreed upon and actually made, and the net exemptions once the payments in lieu of taxes are subtracted from the total project tax exemptions; and

(vi) the total number of employees for the project prior to industrial development agency status, estimate of jobs to be created, average estimated annual salary of jobs to be created, annualized salary range of jobs to be created, original estimate of jobs to be retained, estimated average annual salary of jobs to be retained, current number of full-time equivalents, number of full-time equivalent construction jobs during the reporting fiscal year, and the net employment change.

3. The office shall submit a quarterly report to the governor, temporary president of the senate, and speaker of the assembly outlining key usage statistics of the database created pursuant to subdivision two of this section including, but not limited to, the total number of unique users that quarter.

ARTICLE 1-A

NEW YORK STATE PUBLIC AUTHORITIES CONTROL BOARD

§ 50. New York state public authorities control board; creation; procedure. 1. The New York state public authorities control board is hereby created to have and exercise the powers, duties and prerogatives provided by the provisions of this chapter and any other provision of law.

2. The membership of the board shall consist of five persons appointed by the governor, of which one shall be upon the recommendation of the temporary president of the senate, one upon the recommendation of the speaker of the assembly, one upon the recommendation of the minority leader of the senate and one upon the recommendation of the minority leader of the assembly. The members appointed by the governor upon the recommendation of the minority leader of the senate and the minority leader of the assembly shall be non-voting members whose comments shall be entered upon any official record of board proceedings in the same manner as voting members' comments, unless objection is raised by any of the voting members in which case, notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, such comments by non-voting members shall not be so entered. The term of the members first appointed shall continue until January thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-seven, except that the term of the members first appointed upon the recommendations of the minority leader of the senate and the minority leader of the assembly shall continue until January thirty-first, nineteen hundred eighty-four, and thereafter their successors shall serve for a term of one year ending on January thirty-first in each year. Upon recommendation of the nominating party, the governor may replace any member in accordance with the provision contained herein for the appointment of members. The governor shall designate one of the members to serve as chairman. The board shall act by unanimous vote of the voting members of the board. Any determination of the board shall be evidenced by a certification thereof executed by all the voting members. Each member of the board shall be entitled to designate a representative to attend meetings of the board in his place, and to vote or otherwise act on his behalf in his absence. Notice of such designation shall be furnished in writing to the board by the designating member. A representative shall serve at the pleasure of the designating member during the member's term of office. A representative shall not be authorized to delegate any of his duties or functions to any other person.

3. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of law, general, special or local, no officer or employee of the state, of any political subdivision of the state, of any governmental entity operating any public school or college or of any other public agency or instrumentality or unit of government which exercises governmental powers under the laws of the state, shall forfeit such office or employment by reason of acceptance or appointment as a member, representative, officer, employee or agent of the board nor shall service as such member, representative, officer, employee or agent of the board be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office or employment. The members, their representatives, officers and staff to the board shall be deemed employees within the meaning of section seventeen of the public officers law.

4. The members of the board shall serve without salary or per diem allowance but shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties pursuant to this section or other provision of law, provided however that such members and representatives are not, at the time such expenses are incurred, public employees otherwise entitled to such reimbursement.

§ 51. Powers, functions and duties of the New York state public authorities control board; limitations. 1. The New York state public authorities control board shall have the power and it shall be its duty to receive applications for approval of the financing and construction of any project proposed by any of the following state public benefit corporations:

a. New York state environmental facilities corporation

b. New York state housing finance agency

c. New York state medical care facilities finance agency

d. Dormitory authority

e. New York state urban development corporation

f. Job development authority

g. Battery park city authority

h. New York state project finance agency

i. State of New York mortgage agency

j. New York state energy research and development authority

k. Long Island Power Authority

l. Albany Convention Center Authority

m. State of New York Municipal Bond Bank Agency for bonds issued pursuant to section two thousand four hundred thirty-six-b of this chapter

n. North Country Power Authority

Any application made concerning a project shall include the terms, conditions and dates of the repayment of state appropriations authorized by law pursuant to a repayment agreement. Any subsidiary of, or corporation with the same members or directors as, a public benefit corporation subject to the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the provisions of this section. All applications and submissions to the board required to be made by a subsidiary shall be made on behalf of such subsidiary by the public benefit corporation which created the subsidiary. No public benefit corporation subject to the provisions of this section shall make any commitment, enter into any agreement or incur any indebtedness for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, or financing any project unless prior approval has been received from the board by such public benefit corporation as provided herein.

2. The board may require as part of such application such information as it deems necessary and shall act upon such application within a reasonable time. The board shall furnish the state comptroller with a copy of each such application within three days following receipt thereof by the board. The board shall not approve any such application prior to the earlier of (a) seven days following the receipt by the state comptroller of such application or (b) the receipt by the board of the state comptroller's comments on the application or his consent to an earlier determination by the board. Reference to the state comptroller in this subdivision shall include any authorized representative of the state comptroller.

3. The board may approve applications only upon its determination that, with relation to any proposed project, there are commitments of funds sufficient to finance the acquisition and construction of such project. In determining the sufficiency of commitments of funds, the board may consider commitments of funds, projections of fees or other revenues and security, which may, in the discretion of the board, include collateral security sufficient to retire a proposed indebtedness or protect or indemnify against potential liabilities proposed to be undertaken. A copy of such determination shall be submitted to the chief executive officer of the appropriate public benefit corporation and the state comptroller.

3-a. The board shall not approve recovery act bonds applications provided by the state of New York municipal bond bank agency unless the board finds sufficient interest rate and other savings to each participating municipality.

4. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the requirements of subdivisions one, two and three of this section shall not apply with regard to any project of the New York state environmental facilities corporation, the New York state housing finance agency, the New York state medical care facilities finance agency or the dormitory authority in progress on the first day of April, nineteen hundred seventy-six, with regard to any project of the New York state project finance agency or the New York state urban development corporation in progress on the first day of April, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, with regard to any project of the job development authority or the battery park city authority in progress on the first day of July, nineteen hundred eighty, and with regard to a project of any other public benefit corporation subject to the provisions of this section in progress on the first day of July, nineteen hundred eighty-three, as determined by the New York state public authorities control board whose affirmative determination shall be conclusive as to all matters of law and fact for the purpose of the limitations of this section.

5. Nothing contained in subdivisions one, two and three of this section shall limit the right or obligation of any public benefit corporation subject to the provisions of this section to comply with the provisions of any existing contract, including any existing contract with or for the benefit of the holders of any obligations of any public benefit corporation.

6. A member of the board must vote within the scope of his or her legal authority. The legal authority of a member of the board pursuant to this section is solely to determine whether the issuing authority has demonstrated that there is the commitment of funds sufficient to finance the acquisition and construction of the project subject to approval. Failure of a member to vote within the scope of his or her legal authority constitutes a violation of the public's trust for the purposes of paragraph h of subdivision three of section seventy-four of the public officers law. As the appointing authority, the governor has the full discretion to immediately remove a member of the board he or she finds to be acting, or threatening to act, beyond the scope of such member's legal authority set forth herein.

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes;

4. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs;

5. With the consent of the commission to use the agents, employees and facilities of the commission and to authorize the making of improvements by the commission when funds are available therefor and funds of the authority are insufficient for such purposes;

6. To appoint officers, agents and employees and fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, which shall apply to the authority as a municipal corporation other than a city;

7. To make contracts, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

8. By contract, or contracts, or by its own employees, but as a single enterprise, to construct the Meadowbrook parkway, the Loop parkway and to reconstruct the Wantagh parkway on lands acquired or to be acquired by the state of New York, together with incidental roads, structures, facilities and bridges, subject to such consents and approval of federal authorities in any case as may be necessary;

9. To maintain, reconstruct, and operate the Jones Beach parkway;

10. To charge tolls for the use of Jones Beach parkway subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that no tolls may be charged on Wantagh parkway until after the first day of January, nineteen hundred thirty-five;

11. To construct and maintain over, under, along or across Jones Beach parkway, telephone, telegraph or electric wires and cables, gas mains, water mains, and other mechanical equipment not inconsistent with parkway purposes, to contract for such construction and to lease the right to construct and/or use the same on such terms and for such consideration as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a period of more than ten years from the date when it is made;

12. To construct and maintain facilities for the public, not inconsistent with the use of Jones Beach parkway as a parkway, to contract for such construction, and to lease the right to construct and/or use such facilities on such terms and for such considerations as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a period of more than ten years from the date when it is made;

13. To issue negotiable bonds and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

14. To enter on any lands, waters and premises for the purpose of making surveys, soundings and examinations;

15. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly given in this title.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 153-a. Additional powers of the authority. The authority shall in addition have power: 1. By contract or contracts or by its own employees to construct, on lands of the state, Captree bridge subject to such consents and approval of federal authorities as may be necessary.

2. In the discretion of the board, but only if and as permitted in any agreement with bondholders, by contract or contracts or by its own employees to construct (a) Captree parkway; (b) such improvements along

Captree parkway and Captree bridge and on Jones Beach island as it shall deem desirable for park and parkway purposes, including but not limited to automobile parking places, bathhouses, swimming pools, restaurants, boat basins, docks and slips and other recreational facilities.

3. To maintain, reconstruct and operate Captree bridge and, but only if and as permitted in any agreement with bondholders, to maintain, reconstruct and operate Captree parkway and such park and parkway improvements as it shall construct along Captree parkway and on Jones Beach island.

4. Subject to and in accordance with any agreements with bondholders, to charge tolls for the use of Captree bridge and to charge rentals and make other charges for the use of any parkway or improvement operated by it.

5. To construct and maintain over, under, along or across Captree bridge and, if constructed by the parkway authority, over, under, along or across Captree parkway, telephone, telegraph or electric wires and cables, gas mains, water mains, and other mechanical equipment not inconsistent with park or parkway purposes; to contract for such construction and to lease the right to construct and/or use the same on such terms and for such consideration as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a period of more than ten years from the date when it is made.

6. To construct and maintain facilities for the public on and along Captree bridge and if constructed by it, on and along Captree parkway (not inconsistent with the use of Captree bridge as a bridge and Captree parkway as a parkway), to contract for such construction, and to lease the right to construct and/or use such facilities on such terms and for such consideration as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a period of more than ten years from the date when it is made.

7. To do all things necessary or convenient to enforce its rights and to carry out its purposes, duties and the powers expressly given in this or any other section of this title.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 153-b. Further additional powers of the authority. The authority shall have the power, in addition to the powers granted in other sections of this title:

1. To construct an extension of Meadowbrook state parkway from the Southern state parkway to the Northern state parkway with incidental roads, structures, facilities and bridges and to maintain, reconstruct and operate such extension;

2. To reconstruct, widen and otherwise improve and thereafter maintain, reconstruct and operate (a) Southern state parkway, together with incidental parkway facilities now existing or hereafter constructed, on and along said parkway, from and including a connection with the Belt parkway to Wantagh avenue and to acquire real property and rights therein for future widening of Southern state parkway between Wantagh avenue and the easterly boundary of Nassau county, (b) Meadowbrook state parkway from Merrick road to the Southern state parkway, and (c) Wantagh state parkway from Merrick road to the Southern state parkway;

3. To construct, reconstruct, improve and thereafter maintain and operate facilities such as gasoline, comfort, repair and storage stations and other similar facilities along the route of the extension of Meadowbrook state parkway referred to in paragraph one of this section and the parts of the parkways referred to in paragraph two of this section, to contract for such construction, and to lease the right to construct and use such facilities on such terms and for such consideration as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease be made for a period of more than ten years from the date when it is made;

4. To construct and maintain over, under, along or across the extension of Meadowbrook state parkway referred to in paragraph one of this section and the parts of the parkways referred to in paragraph two of this section, telephone, telegraph or electric wires and cables, gas mains, water mains, and other mechanical equipment not inconsistent with park or parkway purposes; to contract for such construction and to lease the right to construct and/or use the same on such terms and for such consideration as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a period of more than ten years from the date when it is made. The authority shall also have power to grant, with respect to any real property under its jurisdiction, on such terms and conditions and under such regulations and restrictions as the authority shall deem just and proper, licenses or easements to any governmental agency of the state of New York or to any municipal corporation, public district or governmental agency thereof, or to the United States of America or any governmental agency thereof for any public purposes and in addition thereto may grant licenses or easements to individuals, partnerships and corporations for drainage facilities, sewers, water and gas mains, electric and telephone conduits, and railroad facilities. The authority shall also have power to sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of any real property or interest therein acquired at the cost and expense of the authority pursuant to the exercise of the powers granted by section one hundred fifty-eight-b of this title which is not necessary for its corporate purposes or whenever the board shall determine that it is in the interest of the authority to do so. The proceeds of any such sale shall be paid to the authority and applied to its corporate purpose.

5. To charge tolls for the use of the part of Southern state parkway improved by the authority subject to and in accordance with any agreements with bondholders made as hereinafter provided. The toll shall be ten cents unless the revenues from such tolls and the income from the facilities authorized by the foregoing provisions of this section are insufficient to meet all obligations of such agreements and to pay the costs of operating and maintaining the parkways and facilities operated and maintained by the authority pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this section. The revenue from such tolls and the income from such facilities shall be used only to meet such obligations and to pay the cost of constructing, reconstructing, operating and maintaining such parkways and facilities;

6. To pledge the tolls from the Southern state parkway and any other revenues from the parkways operated and maintained by the authority pursuant to this section;

7. From time to time to issue bonds in the aggregate principal amount of forty million dollars for any or all of the following purposes and purposes incidental thereto: (a) purposes authorized by section one hundred fifty-three-b; (b) reconstructing, widening and otherwise improving Meadowbrook parkway from Merrick road to Jones Beach state park, Wantagh parkway from Merrick road to Jones Beach state park and Loop parkway; (c) constructing additional parking facilities on Jones Beach at a total cost of not exceeding one million two hundred fifty thousand dollars; and (d) the payment of all costs and expenses incidental to the issuance of such bonds, including interest during construction. Such bonds shall mature not later than forty years from January first, nineteen hundred fifty-four, and the authority shall not have power to refund the issuance of such bonds. The authority shall have power to employ financial advisors in connection with the issuance of such bonds. No revenues or moneys of the authority, other than the tolls and other revenues from the Southern state parkway and the proceeds from the sale of the bonds, shall be pledged for or shall be applicable to the payment of such bonds. All the provisions of this title relating to bonds which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, shall apply to the bonds authorized by this section except section one hundred fifty-eight and subdivisions two and three of section one hundred fifty-eight-a. The authority also shall have power from time to time in anticipation of the issuance of bonds pursuant to this section to borrow money on bank loans and to evidence such loans by notes or otherwise. Such loans and notes shall be subject to the same provisions of this title as relates to bonds issued pursuant to this section;

8. Bonds issued pursuant to this section shall be sold at public sale, upon sealed bids publicly opened and read, to the bidder who shall offer the lowest interest cost to the authority, or if the authority shall so determine, at the highest price. The notice of sale shall be published at least once, not less than seven nor more than thirty days before the date of sale, in a financial newspaper published and circulated in the city of New York. Such notice shall contain a statement of the time and place where all bids received in pursuance of such notice will be publicly opened and read. Such bonds shall be sold for a price not less than ninety-eight per centum of the par value thereof, plus accrued interest. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to notes of the authority issued pursuant to subdivision seven of this section;

9. Notwithstanding and in addition to any provisions for the redemption of bonds issued pursuant to this section which may be contained in any contract with the holders of such bonds, the state of New York may, upon furnishing sufficient funds therefor, require the authority to redeem, prior to maturity, as a whole, any issue of such bonds on any interest payment date not less than five years after the date of the bonds of such issue at one hundred five per centum of their face value and accrued interest or at such lower redemption price as may be provided in the bonds in case of the redemption thereof as a whole on the redemption date. Notice of such redemption shall be published at least twice in at least two newspapers published and circulated respectively in the county of Nassau and city of New York, the first publication to be at least thirty days before the date of redemption;

10. The authority shall have the right to possess and use for its corporate purposes the extension of Meadowbrook state parkway referred to in paragraph one of this section and the parts of the parkways referred to in paragraph two of this section, together with necessary facilities now existing or hereafter constructed on or along said parkways. Policing of the parkways and other facilities of the authority shall continue to be the responsibility of the force of park patrolmen under the direction of the commission. Such possession and use by the authority shall continue until its liabilities for such parkways and facilities have been met and the bonds authorized by this section have been paid in full or such liabilities having otherwise been discharged. Thereafter such parkways and facilities shall pass to the state and become subject to the jurisdiction of the commission;

11. All contracts involving payments of more than five thousand dollars, except for professional or financial advisory services or in connection with the issuance of bonds or notes, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder by sealed proposals publicly opened after public notice published at least once in the official newspapers of Nassau county, at least ten days prior to the day on which sealed proposals are to be opened; provided, however, the authority may reject any and all proposals and may advertise for new proposals as above provided if in its opinion the best interests of the authority will thereby be promoted.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 153-c. Financial disclosure by authority prior to toll or fare increase. 1. The ten cent toll which was in effect on December thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-four pursuant to subdivision five of section one hundred fifty-three-b of the public authorities law shall be restored to ten cents until all of the provisions of this section shall have been complied with.

2. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this chapter or of any other general, special or local law, the authority shall submit to the state comptroller, not less than one hundred twenty days prior to the proposed date of any future increase in tolls a detailed written report setting forth: (1) the need for such increase or imposition; (2) its receipts and disbursements, or revenues and expenses, during the prior five fiscal years, or so much thereof as it may have been in existence, in accordance with the categories or classifications established by such authority for its own operating and capital outlay purposes; (3) its assets and liabilities at the end of its last fiscal year including the status of reserve, depreciation, special or other funds and including the receipts and payments of these funds; (4) a schedule of bonds and notes outstanding at the end of its fiscal year and their redemption dates, together with a statement of the amounts redeemed and incurred during such fiscal year; (5) information on operations, debt service and capital construction setting forth the estimated receipts and expenditures for the next five fiscal years; (6) projections and estimates as to the effect which the proposed increase or imposition will have on the future use of the facilities, and the increased revenues which will accrue to the authority as the result of the proposed increase or imposition; (7) such other information and data as the comptroller may request in order to carry out the provisions of this section. The comptroller shall have the power to waive submission, in the detailed written report, of any records, data and information required by this subdivision, and in lieu thereof shall have the power to physically inspect any records, data and information required by such subdivision.

3. The comptroller shall review any proposed increase or imposition in tolls and the report required by subdivision two of this section and within sixty days make public his findings, conclusions and recommendations. The commissioner of transportation of the state of New York or his designated representative or agent shall, at the request of the comptroller, provide assistance to the comptroller in determining his findings, conclusions and recommendations, as required by this section.

4. The authority shall hold a public hearing upon any such proposed toll increase not less than fifteen days prior to the effective date of such increase. At least fifteen days prior to such hearing notice of such hearing shall be given by publications at least once in each of six daily newspapers within the state to be selected by the authority. Copies of the proposed increase or imposition, the report required by subdivision two of this section and the comptroller's findings, conclusions and recommendations shall be available for public inspection during a period of fifteen days prior to the hearing at the office or offices of the authority and at such other places throughout the counties of Nassau and Suffolk as it may designate. Following such public hearing, the authority shall reconsider the proposed increase or imposition and may rescind, change or modify the proposal as it then deems necessary or advisable.

5. Nothing contained in this section shall require the authority to refund any tolls collected in the period between January first, nineteen hundred seventy-five, and the effective date of this act.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 154. Towns of Hempstead, Babylon and Islip may convey land. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the town boards of the towns of Hempstead, Babylon and Islip without the submission of a proposition to the people of the towns and without town meetings or any other authorization are hereby authorized respectively to convey to the state any land and lands under water owned by said towns, respectively, for the purposes of this title. Said town boards are authorized, respectively, to permit the temporary use of town lands which may be convenient for construction undertaken by the authority and to permit the use of fill dredged from town lands under water.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 155. Title to additional lands acquired. Title to any additional lands, easements or rights in land which may be hereafter acquired for the purposes of this act shall be vested in the state of New York.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 156. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the comptroller as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the comptroller on requisition of the president of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the comptroller or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the parkway authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority, or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 157. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding ten million, fifty thousand dollars outstanding at any one time. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purposes. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, every issue of the bonds shall be general obligations payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular revenues.

2. Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding forty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding five per centum per annum payable semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Such bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine.

3. Such bonds may be issued for any corporate purpose of the authority including payment of the cost of the acquisition of any additional lands, easements or rights in land which may hereafter be acquired for Jones Beach parkway or Captree bridge or Captree parkway or any other improvements that the authority is authorized to construct.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the agreement with the holders of the bonds, as to (a) pledging the revenues of Jones Beach parkway and Captree bridge and Captree parkway and any improvements operated by the authority, or any part of such revenues to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(b) the rates of the tolls and rentals to be charged and of other charges to be made, and the amount to be raised in each year in revenues of any kind and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the commission and of the authority and their successors to restrict and regulate the use of Jones Beach parkway, Captree bridge, Captree parkway, or any other improvement in connection with which such bonds are issued;

(e) limitations on the purposes to which the proceeds of the sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to the payment of the bonds on such terms and conditions as the resolution may provide;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any agreement with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of revenues derived from Jones Beach parkway, Captree bridge, Captree parkway or any improvement operated by the authority to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section one hundred sixty-two hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under section one hundred sixty-two hereof or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4-a. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds maturing in not exceeding ten years from their date (hereafter in this subsection four-a referred to as "short term obligations") may contain, in addition to all other provisions authorized by this title, provisions, which shall be a part of the agreement with the holders of the short term obligations thereby authorized, as to (a) refunding the short term obligations by the issuance of bonds of the authority either by the sale of bonds and the application of the proceeds to the payment of the short term obligations or by the exchange of bonds for the short term obligations; provided, however, that the authority shall make no covenant to refund which shall require it to issue bonds, the aggregate principal amount of which shall exceed by more than ten per centum the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations to be refunded thereby;

(b) satisfying, paying or discharging the short term obligations, at the election of the authority, by the tender or delivery of bonds of the authority in exchange therefor; provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount of bonds shall not exceed by more than ten per centum the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations to satisfy, pay or discharge which the bonds are tendered or delivered;

(c) exchanging or converting the short term obligations, at the election of the holder thereof, for or into bonds of the authority;

provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount of the bonds shall not exceed by more than ten per centum the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations to be exchanged for or converted into bonds;

(d) pledging bonds of the authority as collateral to secure payment of the short term obligations and providing for the terms and conditions of the pledge and manner of enforcing the pledge, which terms and conditions may provide for the delivery of the bonds in satisfaction of the short term obligations; provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount of the bonds pledged shall not exceed by more than ten per centum the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations to secure which they are pledged;

(e) depositing bonds in escrow or in trust with a trustee or fiscal agent or otherwise providing for the issuance and disposition of the bonds as security for carrying out any provisions in any resolution adopted pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) hereof and providing for the powers and duties of the trustee or fiscal agent or other depositary and the terms and conditions on which the bonds are to be issued, held and disposed of;

(f) any other matters of like or different character which relate to any provision or provisions of any resolution adopted pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) hereof.

In computing the amount of bonds of the authority which may be outstanding at any one time, short term obligations shall be excluded to the extent that the resolution authorizing the issuance of such short term obligations shall provide for the issuance of bonds pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this subsection, but the bonds provided to be issued by such resolution shall be included in making such computation whether or not such bonds are outstanding.

The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of short term obligations, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase short term obligations from time to time on the terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments.

5. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

6. Neither the members of the board nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

7. For the purpose of refunding or reducing its debt the authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase any bonds issued by it at a price not more than one hundred and five per centum of the principal amount thereof and accrued interest. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 158. Competing highways not to be authorized. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds that the state will not authorize the construction or maintenance of any parkway, causeway, bridge, tunnel, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic, which will be competitive with Jones Beach parkway, nor will it limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect such charges and tolls as may be convenient or necessary to produce sufficient revenue to meet the expense of maintenance and operation and fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of principal and interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any actions or proceedings, by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged; provided that a parkway, causeway, bridge, tunnel, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic shall be considered as competitive only if it shall form a connection for vehicular traffic between the mainland of Long Island and the island of Long Beach east of the most easterly point of the present city of Long Beach or between the mainland of Long Island and the island on which Jones Beach park is located west of the most easterly point of Oak island, or between the island of Long Beach and the island on which Jones Beach park is located. This section shall be effective only so long as bonds issued by the authority prior to January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine shall be outstanding and unpaid.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 158-a. Covenants of the state. 1. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued pursuant to this act after January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine that it will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to construct, reconstruct, operate and maintain the parkway, bridges and other improvements, or any of them, and to collect revenues therefrom as authorized in this title insofar as such rights may be necessary in order that the authority may fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds and that it will not in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders of such bonds until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of principal and interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any suits, actions or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged.

2. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued pursuant to this title after January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine which are secured by a pledge of the revenues of Jones Beach parkway that it will not authorize or permit the construction or maintenance of any parkway, causeway, bridge, tunnel, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic which will be competitive with Jones Beach parkway until such bonds together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of principal and interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any suits, actions or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged; provided that a parkway, causeway, bridge, tunnel, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic shall be considered as competitive only if it shall form a connection for vehicular traffic between the mainland of Long Island and the island of Long Beach east of the most easterly point of the present city of Long Beach or between the mainland of Long Island and the island on which Jones Beach park is located west of the most easterly point of Oak island, or between the island of Long Beach and the island on which Jones Beach park is located.

3. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued pursuant to this title after January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine which are secured by a pledge of the revenues of Captree bridge, that it will not authorize or permit the construction or maintenance of any parkway, causeway, bridge, tunnel, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic which shall be competitive with Captree bridge until such bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of principal and interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any suits, actions or proceedings, by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged; provided that a parkway, causeway, bridge, tunnel, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic shall be considered as competitive only if it shall form a connection for vehicular traffic across Great South bay between the mainland on Long Island and either the island of Jones Beach or Fire island beach east of Wantagh state parkway and west of Smith point.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 158-b. Acquisition of real property. 1. The authority shall have power from time to time to acquire, in the name of the state, real property necessary in order to carry out its corporate purposes or exercise of the powers granted by sections one hundred fifty-three-b and one hundred fifty-eight-c of this title, by purchase, gift, devise or condemnation pursuant to the provisions for the acquisition of real property for public use provided for in the Nassau county administrative code (chapter two hundred seventy-two of the laws of nineteen hundred thirty-nine, as amended), except as otherwise provided by this section.

2. In exercising the powers of condemnation pursuant to the Nassau county administrative code

(a) The function of the board of supervisors shall be exercised by the board of the authority;

(b) The functions of the other county officials and employees referred to therein shall be exercised by such officers, agents or employees of the authority as the authority shall direct;

(c) "court" shall mean the supreme court in and for the county of Nassau;

(d) The map of the real property affected by the acquisition required by section eleven-twenty-two-zero of the said Nassau county administrative code shall be filed only in the office of the county clerk. Notice of such filing shall be given in the manner provided in said section but no notice of hearing on such map shall be given nor shall a hearing on such map be required;

(e) The authority shall furnish to the court such maps, surveys, diagrams or plans as shall be required for the purpose of this section.

(f) No part of the cost of acquisition shall be assessed on real property benefited thereby.

(g) With the consent of the county executive of the county of Nassau, the authority may designate the county attorney of the county of Nassau to conduct any such acquisition proceeding, paying to the county such compensation for such services as may be agreed upon, together with all costs and expenses payable or incurred by the county attorney in connection with such proceeding, as certified by the comptroller of said county.

(h) Where the compensation to be paid to owners of real property acquired has not been determined by agreement or settlement it shall be determined by the supreme court without a jury.

(i) The county board of assessors shall furnish to the attorney acting for the authority a duplicate copy of the tax map of the county relating to the real property to be acquired at the request of the attorney acting for the authority and the county clerk shall furnish such attorney block and lot maps relating to such real property and shall furnish information necessary to keep the maps furnished as accurate as practicable.

(j) All costs and expenses incurred in connection with the acquisition of real property by the authority, of any officers, employees, or departments of the county, including such amount of the salaries of such officers or employees as may be agreed between the authority and the county of Nassau, shall be paid by the authority forthwith upon the certification to the chairman of the authority by the county comptroller of the amounts of such costs and expenses.

(k) All compensation for the acquisition of property and damages shall be paid by the authority.

3. The county of Nassau or any municipal corporation may acquire by purchase, gift, devise or condemnation real property necessary for the improvements authorized in paragraphs one to five inclusive of section one hundred fifty-three-b of this title and may donate or dedicate such real property to the state or may release to the state for such improvements existing rights of way or easements not required for county or municipal purposes; the county of Nassau and any such municipal corporation may agree with the authority for the transfer of any real property acquired or to be acquired by the county or such municipality to the authority upon payment by the authority of such part of the cost of such real property to the county or such municipality as may be agreed.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 158-c. Relocation of dwellings. 1. It is hereby declared that any reduction in housing accommodations on Long Island would be detrimental to the community; that this condition requires that provision be made for the relocation and rehabilitation of dwellings affected by projects undertaken by the authority; that the necessity, in the public interest for the provisions of this section, is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the authority shall have power whenever it shall acquire real property with dwellings thereon (a) to acquire real property for the purpose of providing new sites on which such dwellings may be relocated by purchase, gift, devise or condemnation in the manner provided in this title, or, with the approval of the director of the budget, to use real property under the jurisdiction of the authority for such purpose; (b) to sell such dwellings or to provide for the removal and rehabilitation of such dwellings on new foundations at such new sites by contract or by its own labor force or by combination of such methods; (c) to contract for the installation of services and facilities including water, sewer, gas, electricity and other necessary appurtenances required for the complete restoration of such dwellings; (d) to landscape such sites; (e) to contract with any person, firm or corporation or with a municipality for the improvement or installation of streets, sewers, water lines or other facilities in connection with the relocation of such dwellings and to pay the cost thereof and any municipality is hereby authorized to enter into any such contract; (f) to contract with the several owners of such property for the conveyance of the new sites with improvements thereon to such owner in settlement in part or in whole of the compensation and damage to which they are entitled; and (g) to sell such sites with or without dwellings and improvements thereon.

3. The authority may agree with the owners of property acquired, in settlement in part or in whole of the damages to which they are entitled, to compensate such owners for the cost of acquiring new sites, removing dwellings thereto on new foundations, the installation of services and facilities including water, sewerage, gas, electricity, and other necessary appurtenances required for the complete restoration of such dwellings; and landscaping of the new site.

4. This section shall be effective only until January first, nineteen hundred fifty-six.

 § 159. State not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state and the state shall not be liable thereon nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 160. Bonds legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings institutions, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 161. Bonds to be tax exempt. The bonds shall be exempt from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes. This section shall apply only to bonds issued before January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine. Nothing in this section shall be construed to repeal any tax exemption granted by general law.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 161-a. Tax contract by the state. 1. It is hereby found, determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity, and for the promotion of their traffic, and that said purposes are public purposes and that the bridges, parkways and improvements constructed or operated by the authority are an essential part of the public park and parkway system and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by law, and the state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of the bonds issued after January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine by the parkway authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds that the bonds of the authority issued after January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine pursuant to this title and the income therefrom and all moneys, funds, tolls and other revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

2. Nothing herein shall be construed to repeal any tax exemptions granted by general law.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 162. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of such issue then outstanding by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Nassau or of Suffolk and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded may appoint a trustee, to represent the bondholders for the purposes herein provided.

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority and the board to collect revenues adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues and to require the authority and the board to carry out any other agreements with the bondholders and to perform its and their duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon the bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the bondholders;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the bondholders; (e) declare all bonds of such issue due and payable and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such issue then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of the bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in Nassau county or Suffolk county.

4. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue and such receiver may enter and take possession of said part or parts of the project and subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of said part or parts of the project and proceed with any construction thereon which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct the said part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues.

5. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of the bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

6. All bonds issued pursuant to the same resolution, although issued at different times and with different terms and provisions and although supplemental resolutions may be required prior to the issuance of part of such bonds, shall constitute one issue for the purposes of this section, but any resolution may provide that the bonds issued pursuant thereto shall constitute one or more separate issues for the purposes of this section.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 163. Rules and regulations. The use by the public of Jones Beach parkway, Captree bridge, Captree parkway and any other improvement operated by the parkway authority shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the commissioner of parks and recreation and the commission, as provided in the parks and recreation law, in the same manner as if such property were a park or parkway in the ninth park region under the jurisdiction of the commissioner of parks and recreation; provided, however that the commissioner of parks and recreation and the commission shall have no authority to alter or change any of the facilities hereby placed under the authority or do anything which will impair the security of the bondholders or violate limitations contained in any agreement with bondholders.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 163-a. Jurisdiction in certain suits against the authority. Exclusive jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the court of claims to hear and determine the claims of any person against the authority (a) for its tortious acts and those of its agents, and (b) for breach of a contract relating to construction, reconstruction, improvement, maintenance or operation, in the same manner and to the extent provided by and subject to the provisions of the court of claims act with respect to claims against the state, and to make awards and render judgments therefor. All awards and judgments arising from such claims shall be paid out of monies of the authority.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 164. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB (Authority abolished June 30, 1978)

 § 165. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

BETHPAGE PARK AUTHORITY

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 200. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Bethpage Park Authority Act."
* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 201. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context,

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section two hundred two of this chapter;

2. The term "commission" shall mean the Long Island state park commission;

3. The term "Bethpage Park" shall mean the lands which the authority is authorized to acquire as hereinafter provided;

4. The term "bonds" shall mean bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title;

5. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

6. The term "comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state of New York.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 202. Bethpage park authority. A board, to be known as "Bethpage Park Authority, " is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation. It shall consist of the commissioners of the Long Island state park commission and their successors. In case such commission shall cease to exist the board shall consist of three members who shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the consent of the senate; the term of office of the first members so appointed shall be two, four and six years, respectively, and thereafter the terms of office of members so appointed shall be six years. The president of the board shall be the president of the Long Island state park commission or if the commission shall cease to exist shall be appointed by the governor. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for all expenses incurred or to be incurred, in connection with Bethpage park. The power of such corporation shall be vested in and exercised by the board and a majority of the members of the board then in office shall constitute a quorum. The board may delegate to one or more of its members, or to its agents and employees, such powers and duties as it may deem proper. The board and its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of five years and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist all its rights and properties shall pass to the state and become subject to the jurisdiction of the commission. The board shall execute such instruments as may be required by the commission to accomplish transfer of title to the state.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 203. Purpose and duty of the authority. The purpose and duty of the authority is to acquire land in the town of Oyster Bay, Nassau county, and in the towns of Huntington and Babylon, Suffolk county, and to develop, improve, embellish, maintain and operate such land as a public park and public recreation center, and to charge fees for admission thereto and the use thereof sufficient with other revenues to meet its expenses and pay all debts contracted by it, and the authority shall have power to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out such purpose and duty in addition to the express powers conferred in this title.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 204. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have power

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of real and personal property or interests therein in its own name, subject to mortgages or other liens or otherwise and to pay therefor in cash or on credit, and to give mortgages thereon in full or part payment therefor or otherwise to secure or procure payment of all or any part of the purchase price thereof, on such terms and conditions as it shall determine;

4. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs;

5. With the consent of the commission to use the agents, employees and facilities of the commission and to authorize the making of improvements or the acquisition of property by the commission when funds are available therefor and funds of the authority are insufficient for such purposes;

6. To appoint officers, agents and employees and fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, which shall apply to the authority as a municipal corporation, other than a city;

7. To make contracts and incur debts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

8. To charge fees for admission to the park and for the use of the facilities therein subject to and in accordance with such agreements with holders of bonds as may be made as hereinafter provided;

9. To rent, buy, sell and deal in, goods, wares and merchandise in any way connected with the recreational facilities furnished, or to lease the right to exercise such powers;

10. To give instruction in sports, games and recreations and to lease the right to exercise such power;

11. To operate restaurants, cafes and other places for serving food and refreshments and to lease the right to exercise such power;

12. To lease the right to construct and/or use such facilities in Bethpage park on such terms and for such considerations as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a period of more than ten years from the date when it is made;

13. To issue negotiable bonds and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof, and to secure the same by a mortgage or deed of trust on its property;

14. To enter on any lands, waters and premises for the purpose of making surveys, soundings and examinations;

15. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly given in this title.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 205. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the comptroller as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the comptroller on requisition of the president of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the comptroller or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing. This section shall not be construed as limiting the power of the authority to agree as to the custody and disposition of moneys or fees and revenues for the security of its bonds.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 206. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding one million five hundred thousand dollars for any corporate purpose. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded.

2. Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall be issued in one or more series, shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding forty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding five per centum per annum payable semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, be subject to such terms of redemption, and be declared or become due before the maturity date thereof, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Such bonds may be issued for money or property (at public or private sale for such price or prices) as the authority shall determine, provided that the interest cost to maturity of the money or property (at its value as determined by the board, the determination of which shall be conclusive) received for any issue of such bonds, shall not exceed five per centum per annum. Refunding bonds exchanged for outstanding bonds may be exchanged on such terms and with such cash adjustments as the authority shall determine.

3. In connection with the issuance of bonds or in order to secure the payment of its bonds the authority shall have power

(a) To mortgage all or any part of its property, real or personal, then owned or thereafter acquired;

(b) To pledge all or any part of its revenues;

(c) To covenant against mortgaging all or any part of its property, real or personal, then owned or thereafter acquired or against permitting or suffering any lien thereon;

(d) To covenant against pledging all or any part of its revenues to which its right then exists or the right to which may thereafter come into existence;

(e) To provide for the release of property or revenues from any pledge or mortgage, and to reserve rights and powers in, or the right to dispose of, property which is subject to a pledge or mortgage;

(f) To covenant as to the bonds to be issued pursuant to any mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument and as to the issuance of such bonds in escrow or otherwise, and as to the use and disposition of the proceeds thereof;

(g) To covenant as to what other, or additional debt may be incurred by it;

(h) To provide for the terms, form, registration, exchange, execution and authentication of bonds;

(i) To provide for the replacement of lost, destroyed or mutilated bonds;

(j) To covenant that the authority warrants the title to the premises;

(k) To covenant as to the fees and rentals to be charged, the amount (calculated as may be determined) to be raised each year or other period of time by fees, rentals, and other revenues and as to the use and disposition to be made thereof;

(l) To covenant as to the use of any or all of its property, real or personal;

(m) To covenant to set aside or pay over reserves and sinking funds and as to the disposition thereof;

(n) To redeem the bonds, and to covenant for their redemption, and to provide the terms and conditions thereof;

(o) To covenant against extending the time for the payment of bond interest, directly or indirectly, by any means or in any manner;

(p) To covenant to maintain offices and agencies for any purpose connected with its bonds;

(q) To covenant as to the maintenance of its property, the replacement thereof, the insurance to be carried thereon and the use and disposition of insurance moneys;

(r) To covenant as to its books of account and as to the inspection and audit thereof and as to the accounting methods;

(s) To covenant and prescribe as to the events of default and terms and conditions upon which any or all of its bonds shall become or may be declared due before maturity and as to the terms and conditions upon which such declaration and its consequences may be waived;

(t) To covenant as to the rights, liabilities, powers and duties arising upon the breach by it of any covenant, condition, or obligation;

(u) To vest in a trustee or trustees the right to enforce any covenant made to secure, to pay or in relation to the bonds, or to foreclose any mortgage, to provide for the powers and duties of such trustee or trustees, to limit liabilities thereof and to provide the terms and conditions upon which the trustee or trustees or the holders of bonds or any proportion of them may enforce any such covenant or exercise the right of foreclosure;

(v) To make covenants in addition to the covenants herein expressly authorized, of like or different character;

(w) To execute all mortgages, bills of sale, conveyances, deeds of trust and other instruments necessary or convenient in the exercise of the powers herein granted or in the performance of its covenants or duties;

(x) To make such covenants and to do any and all such acts and things as may be necessary or convenient or desirable in order to secure its bonds, or in the absolute discretion of the board tend to make the bonds more marketable, notwithstanding that such covenants, acts or things may not be enumerated herein and notwithstanding that such covenants, acts or things may restrict or interfere with the carrying out of its corporate purpose; it being the intention hereof to give the authority power to do all things in the issuance of bonds, and for their security that a business corporation can do under the general laws of the state and no consent or approval of any judge or court shall be required therefor.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 207. State not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 208. Bonds legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital, in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 209. Bonds to be tax exempt. The bonds shall be exempt from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 210. Rights and remedies of creditors. 1. All real and personal property, including fees and revenues of the authority and debts owing to it are exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution and no execution or other judicial process shall issue against the same. No judgment against the authority shall be a charge upon real property or chattels real of the authority. This clause shall not limit the rights of mortgagees and pledgees to enforce their lien or other rights by any appropriate suit, action or proceeding.

2. Any purchaser at a sale of property of the authority pursuant to a judgment in an action to foreclose a mortgage thereon shall obtain title free from any trust or other obligation to operate or maintain such property as a public park or public recreation center and free from any obligation to the public or the state as to its use or disposition.

3. Any creditor of the authority, including a trustee for bondholders, shall have the right, subject to any contractual limitations binding upon such creditor or trustee, and subject to the prior or superior rights of others,

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding, to enforce his rights against the authority and the board, including the right to require the authority and the board to collect fees and revenues adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such fees and revenues and to require the authority and the board to carry out any other covenants and agreements and to perform its and their duties under this title;

(b) by action or suit in equity to require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust;

(c) by action or suit in equity to enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of such creditor;

(d) in the discretion of the court to the appointment of a receiver of the property of the authority or any part or parts thereof, who may enter and take possession of the property of the authority or any part or parts thereof, and operate and maintain the same and collect and receive all fees, rentals and other revenues thereafter arising therefrom in the same manner as the authority itself might do, and shall deposit all such moneys in a separate account and apply the same in accordance with the obligations of the authority as the court shall direct. The authority may give the holders of its bonds or any trustee for their benefit by agreement the right to the appointment of a receiver.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 211. Exemption from taxation. The construction, maintenance and operation of Bethpage park is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York for the increase of their pleasure, convenience and welfare and for the improvement of their health, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in carrying out its corporate purpose and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments of any kind whatsoever upon any of the property acquired by it, which said property shall be exempt from taxation so long as the same is owned or possessed by the authority, or upon its activities in the operation and maintenance of Bethpage park or upon any revenues or other income received by it, and any mortgage of real property executed, given or made by the authority shall be exempt from any tax imposed on the recording thereof and any person or corporation owning any debt or obligation of the authority secured by any mortgage of its real property shall be exempt from any tax on the recording of such mortgage. Nothing in this section shall be construed, however, to impress any trust upon such property as such or to limit the absolute character of any title which may be derived through the authority by sale or the foreclosure of any lien or mortgage thereon.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 212. Rules and regulations relating to park. The use of Bethpage park shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the commissioner of parks and recreation and the commission, as provided in the parks and recreation law, in the same manner as if such property were a park or parkway in the ninth park region under the jurisdiction of the commissioner of parks and recreation; provided, however, that the commissioner of parks and recreation and the commission shall have no authority to alter or change any of the facilities hereby placed under the authority or do anything which will impair the security of the bondholders or violate limitations contained in any agreement with the bondholders.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 212-a. Jurisdiction in certain suits against the authority. Exclusive jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the court of claims to hear and determine the claims of any person against the authority (a) for its tortious acts and those of its agents, and (b) for breach of a contract relating to construction, reconstruction, improvement, maintenance or operation, in the same manner and to the extent provided by and subject to the provisions of the court of claims act with respect to claims against the state, and to make awards and render judgments therefor. All awards and judgments arising from such claims shall be paid out of monies of the authority.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

 § 213. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

* NB (Abolished in 1975)

NEW YORK STATE THRUWAY AUTHORITY

§ 350. Short title. This title may be cited as "New York State thruway authority act".

§ 351. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section three hundred fifty-two of this title.

2. The term "thruway" shall mean generally a divided highway under the jurisdiction of the authority for mixed traffic with access limited as the authority may determine and generally with grade separations at intersections, and such bridges, buildings, tunnels, and other structures and facilities related thereto as the authority may determine.

3. The terms "bonds" and "notes" shall mean bonds and notes, respectively, issued by the authority pursuant to this title.

4. The term "comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state of New York.

5. The term "commissioner" shall mean the commissioner of transportation of the state of New York.

6. The term "municipality" shall mean a county, town, city, village, special district or other political subdivision.

7. The term "highway" shall mean a public road or parkway, maintained by the state or a municipality.

8. The term "real property" shall mean lands, waters, rights in lands or waters, structures, franchises and interests in land, including lands under water, riparian rights, property rights in air space and/or subsurface space and any and all other things and rights usually included within the said term and includes also any and all interests in such property less than full title, such as easements permanent or temporary, rights-of-way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right legal or equitable.

9. The term "state" shall mean the state of New York.

10. The term "department" shall mean the department of transportation.

§ 352. New York State thruway authority. 1. A board to be known as "New York state thruway authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public corporation. It shall consist of seven members appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The members first appointed shall serve for terms ending three, six and nine years, respectively from January first next succeeding their appointment. Provided, however, that two board members first appointed on or after the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand five which amended this subdivision shall serve an initial term of two years; provided further that two other board members first appointed on or after the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand five which amended this subdivision shall serve an initial term of three years. Their successors shall be appointed for terms of nine years each. A member to be designated as chairman in his or her appointment as a member shall be chairman of such board until his or her term as member expires. The chairman and the other members shall serve without salary or other compensation, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

2. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of law, general, special or local, no officer or employee of the state, or of any civil division thereof, shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his office or employment by reason of his acceptance of membership on the board created by this section; provided, however, a member who holds such other public office or employment shall receive no additional compensation for services rendered pursuant to this title.

3. The power of such corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

4. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue so long as it shall have notes, bonds or other obligations outstanding (including notes, bonds or obligations hereafter issued or incurred) and until its existence shall be terminated by law. Upon the termination of the existence of the authority, all its rights and properties shall pass to and be vested in the state.

§ 353. Purposes of the authority and benefits therefrom. The authority is created to and shall have power to finance, construct, reconstruct, improve, develop, maintain or operate a thruway system as provided by and subject to the provisions of this title together with facilities for the public incidental thereto. It is hereby found and declared that such purposes are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York for the increase of their pleasure, convenience and welfare, for the improvement of their health, to facilitate transportation for their recreation and commerce and for the common defense; and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in carrying out its corporate purpose and in exercising the powers granted by this title.

§ 354. Powers of the authority. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the authority shall have power

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and to alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes;

4. To acquire and hold in the name of the state by purchase or appropriation real property or rights or easements therein and to sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any real property not necessary for its corporate purposes or whenever the board shall determine that it is in the interest of the authority; and upon such terms and conditions and uses as the board shall determine, to lease or to grant permits to occupy real property not presently required for thruway purposes but held for future use in carrying out its corporate purposes;

5. To make by-laws for its organization and internal management and, subject to agreements with noteholders or bondholders, rules and regulations governing the use of the thruways and all other properties and facilities under its jurisdiction, which shall be filed with the department of state in the manner provided by section one hundred two of the executive law;

6. To appoint officers, agents and employees and fix their compensation, provided, however, that the appointment of the executive director shall be subject to confirmation by the senate in accordance with section twenty-eight hundred fifty-two of this chapter; subject however to the provisions of the civil service law, which shall apply to the authority as a municipal corporation other than a city;

7. To make contracts, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

8. Subject to agreements with noteholders or bondholders, to fix and collect such fees, rentals and charges for the use of the thruway or any part thereof necessary or convenient, with an adequate margin of safety, to produce sufficient revenue to meet the expense of maintenance and operation and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of its notes or bonds, and to establish the rights and privileges granted upon payment thereof.

9. To retain and employ private consultants on a contract basis for rendering professional and technical assistance and advice;

10. To construct, reconstruct or improve on or along the thruway in the manner herein provided, suitable facilities for gas stations, restaurants, and other facilities for the public, or to lease the right to construct, reconstruct or improve and operate such facilities; such facilities shall be publicly offered for leasing for operation, or the right to construct, reconstruct or improve and operate such facilities shall be publicly offered under rules and regulations to be established by the authority, provided, however, that lessees operating such facilities at the time this act becomes effective, may reconstruct or improve them or may construct additional like facilities, in the manner and upon such terms and conditions as the board shall determine;

11. To construct and maintain over, under, along or across a thruway under its jurisdiction telephone, telegraph, television, electric power and other wires or cables, pipe lines, water mains and other conduits and mechanical equipment, not inconsistent with the appropriate use of the thruways, or to contract for such construction; and upon such terms and conditions as the board shall determine, to lease all or any part of such property and facilities or the right to use the same, whether such facilities are constructed by the authority or under a contract for such construction, or to lease the right to construct and use such facilities or to grant permits or easements for such purposes to any governmental agency of the state of New York or to any public corporation, or to the United States of America or any governmental agency thereof for any public purposes or to individuals, partnerships and corporations, provided, however, that no lease or renewal thereof shall be granted for a period of more than thirty years from the date when such lease is made;

12. To borrow money and issue negotiable notes, bonds or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

13. To enter on any lands, waters, or premises for the purpose of making borings, soundings, and surveys;

14. To accept any gifts or any grant of funds or property from the federal government or from the state of New York or any other federal or state public body or political subdivision or any other person and to comply with the terms and conditions thereof;

15. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its purposes and exercise the powers expressly given in this title.

§ 355. Officers and employees; transfer, promotion and seniority. 1. Officers and employees of state departments, agencies, or divisions may be transferred to the authority and officers, agents and employees of the authority may be transferred to state departments, agencies, or divisions, without examination and without loss of any civil service status or rights. No such transfer from the authority to any state department, agency, or division may, however, be made except with the approval of the head of the state department, agency, or division involved and the director of the budget and in compliance with the rules and regulations of the state civil service commission.

2. Promotions from positions in state departments and agencies to positions in the authority, and vice versa, may be made from interdepartmental promotion lists resulting from promotion examinations in which employees of the authority and employees of the state are eligible to participate.

3. In computing seniority for purposes of promotion or for purposes of suspension or demotion upon the abolition of positions in the service of the authority or in the service of the state, in the case of an employee of the authority a period of prior employment in the service of the state shall be counted in the same manner as though such period of employment had been in the service of the authority, and in the case of an employee of the state a period of prior employment in the service of the authority shall be counted in the same manner as though such period of employment had been in the service of the state. For the purposes of the establishment and certification of preferred lists, employees suspended from the authority shall be eligible for reinstatement in the service of the state, and employees suspended from the service of the state shall be eligible for reinstatement in the service of the authority, in the same manner as though the authority were a department of the state.

§ 356. Thruway sections and connections; assuming jurisdiction. At any time after this title shall become effective the authority may adopt a resolution assuming jurisdiction for its corporate purposes of any or all of the thruway sections or connections below described and such connections with highways, hereinafter referred to as "highway connections," as the authority may deem advisable in the interest of the public to serve traffic needs, and the authority shall continue to have such jurisdiction so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

Pending the adoption of such resolution, the commissioner shall have all the powers herein conferred upon the authority to construct, reconstruct, improve, maintain, and operate such thruway sections and connections, and highway connections, and to acquire in the name of the state real property therefor. Subject to such deviations therefrom as the authority may deem advisable in the interest of the public to serve traffic needs, such thruway sections and connections shall be as follows:

1. Southern Westchester connection. Beginning at the northerly terminus of the Major Deegan expressway in the vicinity of Jerome avenue at the New York city corporate line, thence extending in a general northerly direction through the city of Yonkers to connect with the southerly end of the Hudson section at a point in the vicinity of Tuckahoe road to be determined by the commissioner. No fees or other charges may be imposed for vehicular use of this connection.

2. The Hudson section. Beginning at the northerly end of the southern Westchester connection at or near Tuckahoe road, thence in a general northerly and westerly direction crossing the Hudson river at a point south of Highland Falls, which crossing shall be known as "The Governor Mario M. Cuomo Bridge", including a highway connection between "The Governor Mario M. Cuomo Bridge" and the New England section of the thruway presently known as interstate route two hundred eighty-seven, thence in a general westerly direction to intersect with existing route number seventeen or to a connection with that route, including a thruway connection from that portion of the section west of the Hudson river, generally southerly to a point to be determined by the authority on the New York-New Jersey boundary line.

3. The Catskill section. Beginning at the northerly end of the Hudson section, extending in a general northerly direction in the vicinity of Central Valley, Highland Mills, Woodbury Falls, Vails Gate, thence through or passing Newburgh on the west, including a highway connection which runs from the Pennsylvania line at Port Jervis to the Connecticut border east of Brewster, presently known as interstate route 84, except for that portion of the highway connection between the interchange with the easternmost state highway on the west shore of the Hudson river (currently designated state touring route 9W) and the interchange with the westernmost state highway on the east shore of the Hudson river (currently designated state touring route 9D) which is subject to the jurisdiction of the New York state bridge authority, thence northerly past Plattekill and New Paltz, thence passing through or near the city of Kingston and continuing northerly to the west of Saugerties and Catskill, continuing northerly passing in the vicinity of West Coxsackie and Ravena, thence northerly passing the Feura Bush railroad yards in the vicinity of either their easterly or westerly extremities, thence continuing northerly passing to the west or through the westerly part of the city of Albany, and intersecting United States route number twenty in the vicinity of McKownville.

4. The Mohawk section. Starting at the northerly end of the Catskill section on United States route number twenty in the vicinity of McKownville, continuing in a northwesterly direction toward the city of Schenectady, and thence around the southerly side of Schenectady, continuing through or along the Mohawk Valley by-passing or passing through the city of Utica, thence westerly passing in the vicinity of Whitesboro and continuing to the north of the city of Oneida, thence westerly to the south of the Cicero swamp to a point on United States route number eleven north of the village of Liverpool.

5. The Ontario section. Starting at the westerly end of the Mohawk section at a point on United States route number eleven north of the village of Liverpool, thence westerly north of Onondaga lake, thence in a westerly direction passing in the vicinities of Warners, Memphis, Jordan and Weedsport, crossing the New York Central and West Shore railroads in the vicinity of the village of Port Byron, thence southwesterly crossing the Seneca river in the vicinity of May's Point, thence westerly north of the villages of Seneca Falls and Waterloo and passing in the vicinities of West Junius, Phelps, Clifton Springs and Manchester, passing north of Victor and in the vicinity of Fisher and Severance, continuing westerly to a point in the vicinity of the city of Batavia, thence westerly to a point in the vicinity of Williamsville, including a spur to Main street, in the vicinity of Kensington Avenue in the town of Amherst, thence southerly generally parallel to and west of Union road to a point south of the Lehigh Valley railroad tracks, thence southwesterly to a point at the junction of the Erie and Niagara sections in the vicinity of the crossing of Dingens street and the Lehigh Valley railroad in the town of Cheektowaga.

6. The Erie section. Starting at its junction with the Niagara section at a point in the vicinity of the crossing of Dingens street and the Lehigh Valley railroad in the town of Cheektowaga, thence southerly generally paralleling the Lehigh Valley railroad to Cazenovia creek and extending southerly and southwesterly to a point north of the village of Hamburg, thence in a southwesterly direction generally paralleling the existing Southwestern Boulevard to a point near the village of Irving, thence bypassing the village of Silver Creek to the south, thence extending in a general southwesterly direction to the Pennsylvania state line on a location lying in the vicinity of United States route number twenty and state touring route number five.

7. The New England section. Beginning at or near the point of intersection of the Bronx and Pelham parkway and the extension of Bruckner boulevard in New York city, extending in a generally northerly direction to a point on or near east two hundred twenty-second street, thence generally in an eastern direction to the New York city-Westchester county line north of Pelham Bay park, thence generally in a northeasterly direction through the town of Pelham, the city of New Rochelle, the town of Mamaroneck, the village of Mamaroneck, the town of Harrison, the city of Rye, the town of Rye and the village of Port Chester, to a point on the New York-Connecticut state line.

8. The Niagara section. Starting at the junction of the Erie and the Ontario sections at a point in the vicinity of the crossing of Dingens street and the Lehigh Valley railroad in the town of Cheektowaga, thence generally in a westerly direction to Erie street in the city of Buffalo, thence continuing in a general northwesterly direction to the Front, thence through the Front and north between Niagara street and the ship canal to the right of way of the abandoned Erie canal near the northern end of such ship canal, thence generally along such right of way, deviating therefrom to make a connection with the easterly approach of the South Grand Island bridge, thence across the Niagara river, utilizing the existing South Grand Island bridge or constructing another bridge parallel to such bridge, or both, thence along or parallel to existing Grand Island boulevard, across the Niagara river, utilizing the existing North Grand Island bridge, or constructing another bridge parallel to such bridge, or both.

9. The Berkshire section. Starting at a point or points on the Catskill section northeast of Becker's Corners, thence easterly to a point on the West bank of the Hudson river, which point shall be more than fifteen miles north of the Rip Van Winkle bridge, thence across a bridge to be constructed by the authority and which crossing shall be known as "The Castleton-on-Hudson Bridge"; and thence generally in a southeasterly direction and passing in the vicinity of the hamlets of Brookview, North Chatham, Old Chatham, and East Chatham to a point on the New York-Massachusetts boundary line near the hamlet of State Line.

The thruway constructed along the routes designated in this section shall be known as "The Governor Thomas E. Dewey Thruway".

§ 356-a. Names and designations of thruway sections and connections. To facilitate travel thereon, certain sections and connections of the thruway may be adequately marked by lettering, devices, emblems or signs by the authority to afford the following designations:

1. The thruway constructed along the routes described in subdivisions one, two, three, four and five of section three hundred fifty-six of this article shall be known as "The Iroquois Trail".

2. The thruway constructed along the route described in subdivision six of section three hundred fifty-six of this article shall be known as "The Erie Path".

3. The thruway constructed along the route described in subdivision seven of section three hundred fifty-six of this article shall be known as "The Mohican Path".

4. The thruway constructed along the route described in subdivision eight of section three hundred fifty-six of this article shall be known as "The Tuscarora Path".

5. The thruway constructed along the route described in subdivision nine of section three hundred fifty-six of this article shall be known as "The Algonquin Path".

§ 356-b. Thruway to be designated as a section of a national network of Blue Star memorial highways. The thruway sections and connections constructed as provided in section three hundred fifty-six, collectively, shall be designated, in addition to any official name, as the New York state section of a national network of Blue Star memorial highways as a living memorial and tribute to those men and women who served in the nation's armed forces in world wars I and II, the Korean conflict, the Vietnam conflict, the Grenadan conflict, the Lebanese conflicts, the Panamanian conflict and the Persian Gulf War known as Operation Desert Shield - Operation Desert Storm.

§ 357. Right of authority to use state property; payment for improvements. On assuming jurisdiction of a thruway highway section or connection or any part thereof, or of a highway connection, the authority shall have the right to possess and use for its corporate purposes so long as its corporate existence shall continue, any real property and rights in real property theretofore acquired by the state, including all improvements thereon.

§ 357-a. State police and state payment for services. 1. Enforcement assistance provided by the division of state police at the request of the authority shall be reimbursed by the authority to the division of state police from the general reserve fund established by the authority under its agreement with bondholders, after payment of any amounts due on any bonds or notes of the authority. The comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to deposit to the New York state thruway authority account, revenues received from the authority as reimbursement for personal service expenses including general state charges. In addition, the authority shall reimburse the division of state police for non-personal service expenses connected with such assistance. Such reimbursement shall be made from such general reserve fund. The authority shall deposit said reimbursement funds for non-personal service expenses to the credit of the division of state police. No payments made by the authority under this subsection shall be deemed operating expenses of the authority.

§ 357-b. Sharing employees, services and resources. A shared services agreement may be executed between the authority and the department only for an emergency situation or extreme weather conditions, to share employees, services or resources as deemed appropriate including, but not limited to, for the performance of work and activities by the department on the facilities and property under the jurisdiction of the authority, and for the performance of work and activities by the authority on the facilities and property under the jurisdiction of the department. Such agreement or any project undertaken pursuant to such agreement shall not be deemed to impair the rights of bondholders and may provide for, but not be limited to, the management, supervision and direction of such employees' performance of such services. Such agreement shall provide that the term shall not be longer than ten days. All shared employees shall remain employees of their respective employers and all applicable collectively bargained agreements shall remain in effect for the entire length of the shared service agreement. Further, such shared services agreement shall not amend, repeal or replace the terms of any agreement that is collectively negotiated between an employer and an employee organization, including an agreement or interest arbitration award made pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law.

§ 357-c. Indemnification and defense under shared services agreement. 1. The authority shall defend any unit, entity, officer or employee of the department, using the forces of the department of law pursuant to section three hundred sixty-two of this title in any action, proceeding, claim, demand or the prosecution of any appeal arising from or occasioned by the acts or omissions to act in the performance of the functions of the authority pursuant to a shared services agreement.

2. Defense pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall be conditioned upon the full cooperation of the department.

3. The authority shall indemnify and hold harmless any unit, entity, officer or employee of the department in the amount of any judgment obtained against the department or in the amount of any settlement the department enters into with the consent of the authority for any and all claims, damages or liabilities arising from or occasioned by the acts or omissions to act of the authority or its subsidiaries pursuant to a shared services agreement; provided, however, that the act or omission from which such judgment or settlement arose occurred while the authority or its subsidiaries was acting within the scope of its functions pursuant to a shared services agreement. No such settlement of any such action, proceeding, claim or demand shall be made without the approval of the board or its designee.

4. Any claim or proceeding commenced against any unit, entity, officer or employee of the authority that arises pursuant to any shared services agreement shall not be construed in any way to impair, alter, limit, modify, abrogate or restrict any immunity available to or conferred upon any unit, entity, officer or employee of the authority, or to impair, alter, limit, modify, abrogate or restrict any right to defense and indemnification provided for any governmental officer or employee by, in accordance with, or by reason of, any other provision of state or federal statutory or common law.

5. This section shall not in any way affect the obligation of any claimant to give notice to the state and the authority under section ten and section eleven of the court of claims act or any other provision of law provided, however, that notice served upon the state or the authority shall be valid notice on both parties to the agreement, when such claim arises out of such agreement. The state and authority shall notify each other when they receive a notice of claim, notice of intention to make a claim or a claim arising out of such agreement.

6. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to impair, alter, limit or modify the rights and obligations of any insurer under any insurance agreement.

7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when employed pursuant to a shared services agreement, employees of the authority, and its subsidiaries and the department shall be deemed employees of all such entities and the state for purposes of the workers' compensation law.

§ 358. Acquisition of real property by the commissioner. 1. On assuming jurisdiction of a thruway section or connection or any part thereof, or of a highway connection, the authority may from time to time determine what real property is necessary for the construction, improvement and operation thereof, in addition to real property theretofore acquired by the state. If funds are made available by the authority for payment of the cost and expense of the acquisition thereof, the commissioner when requested by the authority shall acquire such real property in the name of the state by appropriation, and, where necessary, remove the owner or occupant thereof and obtain possession according to the procedure provided by section three hundred forty-seven of the highway law. The authority shall have the right to possess and use for its corporate purposes so long as its corporate existence shall continue all such real property and rights in real property so acquired.

2. Claims for the value of the property appropriated and for legal damages caused by any such appropriation shall be adjusted and determined by the commissioner with the approval of the authority, or by the court of claims as provided in said section three hundred forty-seven. When a claim has been filed with the court of claims, the claimant shall cause a copy of such claim to be served upon the authority and the authority shall have the right to be represented and heard before said court. All awards and judgments arising from such claims shall be paid out of moneys of the authority.

§ 358-a. Acquisition of real property by the authority. On assuming jurisdiction of a thruway section or connection or any part thereof, or of a highway connection, the authority may from time to time determine what real property is necessary for the construction, improvement and operation of such thruway section or connection or part thereof, or of a highway connection, in addition to real property acquired or to be acquired by the state, and thereupon may acquire such real property by condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law. The authority may also, and in any case, acquire real property in the name of the state by deed and may pay such price therefor as shall be agreed with the owner thereof.

§ 359. Construction, reconstruction and improvement. 1. On assuming jurisdiction of a thruway section or connection or any part thereof, or of a highway connection, the authority shall proceed with the construction, reconstruction or improvement thereof. All such work shall be done pursuant to a contract or contracts which shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, by sealed proposals publicly opened, after public advertisement and upon such terms and conditions as the authority shall require; provided, however, that the authority may reject any and all proposals and may advertise for new proposals, as herein provided, if in its opinion, the best interests of the authority will thereby be promoted; provided further, however, that at the request of the authority, all or any portion of such work, together with any engineering required by the authority in connection therewith, shall be performed by the commissioner and his subordinates in the department of transportation as agents for, and at the expense of, the authority. A sealed proposal may be accepted through an electronic platform established or used by the authority, provided that any sealed proposal received electronically shall be made public at the same time as any competing paper proposal, and provided further that the authority shall, at minimum, provide the same opportunity and time for submitting sealed proposals physically as for sealed proposals submitted electronically, and shall provide the opportunity for bidders to submit sealed proposals physically any time that it provides the opportunity to submit sealed electronic proposals. In addition, the authority shall establish a process for accommodating force majeure events that prevent the submission of a sealed electronic proposal, including but not limited to internet and power outage events, and for automatically confirming receipt of any sealed electronic proposal received. All bidders shall be notified of the time and place of any such adjournment or rejection.

2. All construction, reconstruction and improvements and any engineering work required in connection therewith which are performed on behalf of the authority by the commissioner shall be carried on, generally, in the same manner and subject to the same provisions of law as apply to the construction and improvement of state highways.

3. Highway and railroad grade crossings shall in general be separated by structures to be determined by the authority, and the authority is hereby authorized to combine or relocate intersecting highways, to adjust traffic to such grade separation structures, except that the grade crossing elimination structures involved in public service commission cases number fifty-four hundred seventy-two and nine thousand fifty-eight shall remain under the jurisdiction of such commission. The cost of all such structures, except such part as is otherwise payable, shall be borne by the authority. Telephone and telegraph wires, power transmission and gas, oil and water lines, conduits, cables of every kind and nature, which may be affected by thruway construction, reconstruction or improvement, may, in the discretion of the authority, be relocated in suitable facilities and the expense of such relocation and of installing such facilities shall be borne by the authority. The work of such relocation may be done by the owner of such wires, lines, conduits and cables, and the authority is hereby empowered to enter into an agreement with such owner for the performance of all or any part of the work of such relocations at the expense of the authority.

4. In the case of a separation of a grade crossing pursuant to the preceding subdivision, the structure shall be maintained and repaired by the authority. Whenever the authority determines that a separation structure carrying a highway under the jurisdiction of a municipality requires major repair or reconstruction, the authority, with the approval of the commissioner of transportation and after consultation with such municipality, may close the bridge and provide adequate alternative detour routing and signing. In the case of municipal highways, the responsibility for rehabilitation and reconstruction of the wearing surface, sidewalks, curbs and railings shall be the responsibility of the authority. Highways combined, relocated or carried over or under a thruway section or connection, or a highway connection, under the provisions of the preceding subdivision, shall, upon completion of the work, revert to and become the responsibility, with regard to maintenance and repair, of the state or municipality, as the case may be, formerly having jurisdiction there over.

§ 359-a. Procurement contracts. For the purposes of section twenty-eight hundred seventy-nine of this chapter as applied to the authority, the term "procurement contract" shall mean any written agreement for the acquisition of goods or services of any kind by the authority in the actual or estimated amount of fifteen thousand dollars or more.

§ 360. Operation and maintenance. Operation and maintenance by the authority of any thruway section or connection or any part thereof or of a highway connection of which it has assumed jurisdiction shall be performed (a) by the use of authority forces and equipment at the expense of the authority or by agreement at the expense of the state or other parties; (b) by contract with municipalities or independent contractors; (c) at the request of the authority, by the commissioner and his subordinates in the department of transportation as agents for, and at the expense of the authority, or (d) by a combination of such methods.

§ 361. Traffic control. 1. (a) In addition to the powers conferred by the vehicle and traffic law, the authority is hereby authorized to promulgate such rules and regulations for the use and occupancy of the thruway as may be necessary and proper for the public safety and convenience, for the preservation of its property and for the collection of tolls and provided further that the authority, in consultation with the departments of environmental conservation and transportation, is hereby authorized to promulgate rules and regulations necessary to implement a heavy duty vehicle roadside inspection program pursuant to section 19-0320 of the environmental conservation law.

(b) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of any general, special or local law, the thruway authority shall mark, with appropriate directional signs, the exits nearest to any state owned unique natural attraction within forty miles of the thruway which lies wholly or partially within the state of New York, such as, lakes more than ten miles in length, excepting Lake Ontario and Lake Erie, and mountains more than five thousand feet in height.

(c) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of the general business law or of any other law, general, special or local, the landing and take-off of planes on the thruway system shall be governed by rules and regulations promulgated by the thruway authority.

(d) The violation of any such rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this section shall be an offense and a first conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than fifteen days or by both such fine and imprisonment; a second such conviction within eighteen months thereafter shall be punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than forty-five days or by both such fine and imprisonment; and a third or subsequent conviction within eighteen months after the first conviction shall be punishable by a fine of not more than two hundred fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than ninety days or by both such fine and imprisonment; provided, however, that the violation of any such rule or regulation relating to the transportation of explosives class a or class b shall be a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(e) For the purpose of conferring jurisdiction upon courts and judicial officers generally, violations of those rules and regulations of the authority which are herein defined as offenses shall nevertheless be deemed misdemeanors for the sole purpose of making applicable all procedural provisions of law relating to misdemeanors, and courts of special sessions outside the city of New York and in the city of New York, the criminal court of the city of New York, in the first instance, shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine charges of such violations and provided, further, that no jury trial shall be allowed for such violations.

2. Enforcement of the rules and regulations of the thruway authority and of those provisions of the vehicle and traffic law applicable to the thruway shall be by authority forces, provided however, that at the request of the authority, such enforcement shall be the duty of the division of state police. Violators shall be apprehended and prosecuted in the same manner as provided for the apprehension and prosecution of violators of the vehicle and traffic law who commit violations thereof upon the state highway system. Authority forces specifically employed for the enforcement of such rules and regulations, during the term of such employment, shall be uniformed, shall have the powers of peace officers, as set forth in section 2.20 of the criminal procedure law, and shall have, within the limits of any municipality within which any portion of the thruway system under the jurisdiction of the authority shall be located, all the powers of a peace officer in the execution of criminal processes; and criminal process issued by any court or magistrate of a municipality within which any portion of the thruway system under the jurisdiction of the authority shall be located, may be directed to and executed by any such employee notwithstanding the provisions of any local or special law, ordinance or regulation.

§ 361-a. Restriction and regulation of advertising devices. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the erection or maintenance of any advertising device located within six hundred sixty feet of the nearest edge of the right-of-way of the thruway without a written permit therefor granted by the authority pursuant to this section is prohibited.

2. The term "advertising device" as used in this section shall include any billboard, sign, notice, poster, display or other device intended to attract or which does attract the attention of operators of motor vehicles on the thruway, and shall, where so determined by the authority, include a structure erected or used in connection with the display of any such device and all lighting or other attachments used in conjunction therewith.

3. The authority may from time to time adopt, modify, amend or repeal regulations governing the issuance of permits or renewals thereof for the erection and maintenance of advertising devices. Such regulations shall be designed to effectuate the general purposes of this article and the specific objectives and standards hereinafter set forth:

(a) To provide for maximum visibility along the thruway system and connecting roads or highways;

(b) To prevent unreasonable distraction of operators of motor vehicles;

(c) To prevent confusion with regard to traffic lights, signs or signals or otherwise interfere with the effectiveness of traffic regulations;

(d) To preserve and enhance the natural scenic beauty or the aesthetic features of the thruway system and adjacent areas;

(e) To promote maximum safety, comfort and well-being of the users of the thruway.

4. To effectuate the purposes of this section, the authority may limit the application of any regulation adopted hereunder to exclude or include, in whole or in part:

(a) Specified areas of the thruway system based upon use, population density, nature of the surrounding community, special conditions prevailing therein, or such other factors as may make differentiation or separate classification or regulation necessary, proper or desirable;

(b) Particular types or classes of advertising devices based upon size, design, lighting or such other factors as may make differentiation or separate classification or regulation necessary, proper or desirable;

(c) The erection or maintenance of advertising devices on particular sections or portions of the thruway system.

(d) Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of this section, the authority shall permit the erection of not more than nine advertising billboard signs in the city of New Rochelle along interstate route ninety-five where the location and erection of such signs are:

(1) consistent with and part of an urban renewal program which decreases the total number of advertising billboard signs in the renewal area;

(2) approved by such city;

(3) part of the subject of a United States District Court settlement order regarding the regulation of such signs within such city; and

(4) consistent with the size, lighting, spacing and all other requirements of federal law, including those established in the agreements entered into by the state pursuant to sections eighty-six and eighty-eight of the highway law.

5. Application for permits or renewals thereof shall be on forms prescribed by the authority and shall contain such information as the authority may require. The authority may by regulation adopt, modify, amend or repeal permit application fees, annual permit fees and permit renewal fees, provided, however, that such fees shall not exceed the advertising device fees established by regulation by the commissioner of transportation. Each permit shall be valid for a period to be established by the authority and may be renewed from time to time for such periods, as established by the authority, within thirty days of the expiration date thereof upon payment to the authority of the renewal fee.

6. The permit or renewal thereof shall be revocable at any time on thirty days notice to the permittee in the event of a violation of the requirements of this section or any regulation lawfully adopted hereunder. Any advertising device erected or maintained after September first, nineteen hundred fifty-two in violation of this section or any regulation adopted hereunder is hereby declared to be, and is, a public nuisance and such device may without notice be abated and removed by any officer or employee of the authority, or upon request of the authority, by any peace officer acting pursuant to his special duties, or police officer.

7. The authority by regulation may exclude from the coverage of this section advertising devices which it finds do not interfere with safety on the thruway system or contravene any of the other standards set forth in this section, including but not limited to

(a) Advertising devices which are to be erected or maintained on property for the purpose of setting forth or indicating

(1) The name and address of the owner, lessee or occupant of such property, or

(2) The name or type of business or profession conducted on such property, or

(3) Information required or authorized by law to be posted or displayed thereon.

(b) Advertising devices which are not visible from any traveled portion of the thruway system;

(c) Advertising devices indicating the sale or leasing of the property upon which they are placed.

(d) Directional or other official signs and signals erected or maintained by the state or other public agency having jurisdiction.

8. Nothing in this section shall apply with respect to any property which is owned or leased by the state of New York or any agency thereof or with respect to which the state of New York or any agency thereof has or shall have a valid easement or covenant with the owner thereof concerning the restriction, removal or prohibition of advertising devices.

9. Nothing in this section shall be construed to abrogate or affect the provisions of any municipal ordinance, regulation or resolution which are more restrictive concerning advertising devices than the provisions of this section or of the regulations adopted hereunder.

§ 361-b. Jurisdiction in certain suits against the authority. Exclusive jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the court of claims to hear and determine the claims of any person against the authority (a) for its tortious acts and those of its agents, and (b) for breach of a contract relating to construction, reconstruction, improvement, maintenance or operation, in the same manner and to the extent provided by and subject to the provisions of the court of claims act with respect to claims against the state, and to make awards and render judgments therefor. All awards and judgments arising from such claims shall be paid out of moneys of the authority.

§ 361-c. Tourist information facilities. The authority shall provide tourist information services at all service areas where food is offered for sale, provided that: the department of commerce and or local and regional tourist promotion agencies shall provide the authority with ample supplies of such literature and brochures necessary for distribution to the traveling public.

§ 361-d. Agreement with the office of parks, recreation and historic preservation. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and consistent with agreements with bondholders and noteholders, the authority may enter into agreements and contracts with the office of parks, recreation and historic preservation permitting the use of an electronic toll collection system used by the authority or components thereof for payment of any entrance fee or parking fee at any historic site, park or recreational facility subject to the provisions of this chapter, policies and such other conditions as may be established by the authority.

§ 362. Assistance by state officers, departments, boards, divisions and commissions. At the request of the authority, engineering and legal services for such authority shall be performed by forces or officers of the department of transportation and the department of law respectively, and all other state officers, departments, boards, divisions and commissions shall render services within their respective functions. At the request of the authority, services in connection with the collection of any charges or fees for the use of the thruway or any part thereof may be performed by the department of motor vehicles.

§ 363. Annual report. The authority shall submit to the governor, to the legislature, to the comptroller and to the director of the budget on or before the first day of February of each year a detailed report setting forth its operations and fiscal transactions during the preceding calendar year with a statement of its financial condition as of the end of such year and a statement of all receipts and expenditures during such year. Such report shall include detailed information relating to additional expenditures incurred by the authority as a result of the amendments made to subdivision four of section three hundred fifty-nine of this chapter pursuant to the chapter of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-two which enacted this sentence.

§ 364. Deposit and investment of moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the comptroller as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the comptroller on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person as the authority may authorize to make such requisition. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the comptroller or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the authority shall have power, subject to the approval of the comptroller, to contract with the holders of any of its notes or bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority, or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of notes or bonds or in any way to secure notes or bonds, and to carry out any such contract. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of notes or bonds or in any way to secure notes or bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

Moneys of the authority not required for immediate use may, in the discretion of the authority, be invested by the comptroller in obligations in which the comptroller may invest pursuant to section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law.

Subject to agreements with noteholders and bondholders and the approval of the comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

§ 365. Notes or bonds of the authority. 1. (a) Subject to the provisions of section three hundred sixty-six of this title, the authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable notes and bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in such principal amount as, in the opinion of the authority, shall be necessary to provide sufficient moneys for achieving the corporate purposes thereof, including construction, reconstruction and improvement of the thruway sections and connections, and highway connections herein described, together with suitable facilities and appurtenances, the payment of all indebtedness to the state, the cost of acquisition of all real property, the expense of maintenance and operation, interest on notes and bonds during construction and for a reasonable period thereafter, establishment of reserves to secure notes or bonds, and all other expenditures of the authority incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out its corporate purposes and powers.

(b) The authority shall have power from time to time to issue renewal notes, to issue bonds to pay notes, and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose. The refunding bonds shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds to be refunded.

(c) Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, every issue of the notes or bonds shall be general obligations payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of notes or bonds pledging any receipts or revenues.

2. The notes and bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board, shall bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times, in the case of notes and any renewals thereof within five years after their respective dates and in the case of bonds not exceeding forty years from their respective dates, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The notes and bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Bonds and notes shall be sold by the authority, at public or private sale, at such price or prices as the authority may determine. Bonds and notes of the authority shall not be sold by the authority at private sale unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by the comptroller, where such sale is not to the comptroller, or by the director of the budget, where such sale is to the comptroller.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any notes or bonds or any issue thereof may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders thereof, as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the fees, charges, gifts, grants, rents, revenues or other moneys received or to be received and leases or agreements to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any issue thereof subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) The rates of the fees or charges to be established, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby and the use and disposition of the fees, charges, gifts, grants, rents, revenues or other moneys received or to be received;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of notes or bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any issue thereof;

(e) limitations on the issuance of additional notes or bonds; the terms upon which additional notes or bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other notes or bonds;

(f) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with noteholders or bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of notes or bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(g) limitations on the amount of moneys to be expended by the authority for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(h) in the case of notes or bonds not guaranteed by the state, vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to this title, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under this title or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(i) the acquisition of jurisdiction over, and of property for, thruways, and the construction, reconstruction, improvement, maintenance or operation thereof;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the notes or bonds.

4. Whenever the authority pledges its revenues under a resolution authorized by this section, such resolution shall not prohibit the authority from financing for additional corporate transportation purposes authorized by law secured by an additional pledge of such revenues. Such additional pledge of revenues may, in the discretion of the authority, be subordinate to the pledge of such revenues securing other bonds, notes or other evidence of indebtedness of the authority. Provided, however, the authority shall not make any such additional pledge if the security of the bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness previously issued will be impaired as a result thereof.

5. It is the intention hereof that any pledge made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

6. Neither the members of the board nor any person executing the notes or bonds shall be liable personally on the notes or bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

7. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase notes or bonds, which shall thereupon be cancelled, at a price not exceeding (a) if the notes or bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date thereon, or (b) if the notes or bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the notes or bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to said date.

§ 366. Guaranty by the state. 1. To the extent authorized by the constitution at the time of the issuance of notes or bonds, the punctual payment of the notes and bonds shall be, and the same hereby is, fully and unconditionally guaranteed by the state, both as to principal and interest, according to their terms; and such guaranty shall be expressed upon the face thereof by the signature or facsimile signature of the comptroller or a deputy comptroller. In the event that the authority shall fail to pay when due, the principal of, or interest on, the notes or bonds, the comptroller shall pay the holder thereof, and thereupon the state shall be subrogated to the rights of the noteholders or bondholders so paid.

2. The authority shall have power to issue notes and bonds without the guaranty of the state and may issue such notes or bonds before and after the issuance of notes or bonds so guaranteed.

3. When guaranteed notes or guaranteed bonds are outstanding, notes or bonds secured by a pledge of receipts or revenues having priority over such outstanding guaranteed notes or guaranteed bonds shall not be issued, except with the consent of the comptroller, and unless the authority shall by resolution first find and determine that, notwithstanding such pledge, the authority will have adequate means to meet its obligations to the holders of such outstanding guaranteed notes or bonds.

4. When notes or bonds are outstanding secured by a pledge of receipts or revenues, guaranteed notes or bonds either unsecured, or secured by a pledge of receipts or revenues subordinate to the pledge securing such outstanding notes or bonds, shall not be issued unless the authority shall first find and determine by resolution that notwithstanding the pledge securing such outstanding notes or bonds, the authority will have adequate means to meet its obligations on the guaranteed notes or bonds about to be issued.

§ 367. State's right to require redemption of bonds. Notwithstanding and in addition to any provisions for the redemption of bonds which may be contained in any contract with the holders of the bonds, the state may, upon furnishing sufficient funds therefor, require the authority to redeem, prior to maturity, as a whole, any issue of bonds on any interest payment date not less than fifteen years after the date of the bonds of such issue at one hundred four per centum of their face value and accrued interest or at such lower redemption price as may be provided in the bonds in case of the redemption thereof as a whole on the redemption date. Notice of such redemption shall be published in at least two newspapers published and circulating respectively in the cities of Albany and New York at least twice, the first publication to be at least thirty days before the date of redemption. The provisions of this section relating to the state's right to require redemption of bonds, shall not apply to state-supported debt, as defined by section sixty-seven-a of the state finance law, issued by the authority. Such authority bonds shall remain subject to redemption pursuant to any contract with the holders of such bonds.

§ 368. Remedies of noteholders and bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of notes or bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of notes or bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the notes or bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Albany and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such notes or bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such notes or bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity enforce all rights of the noteholders or bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect fees, rentals and charges adequate to carry out any agreements with the holders of such notes or bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such notes or bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such notes or bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such notes or bonds;

(e) declare all such notes or bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such notes or bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences; provided, however, that this clause (e) shall not be applicable in the case of notes or bonds guaranteed by the state.

3. Such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds or notes represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the thruway, the fees, rentals, charges or other revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds or notes of such issue and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the thruway and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the thruway and proceed with any construction thereon which the authority is under obligation to do and shall operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the thruway, and collect and receive all fees, rentals, charges and other revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders or noteholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any tolls, rentals and other revenues derived from such part or parts of the thruway.

4. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders or noteholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

5. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such noteholders or bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Albany.

6. Before declaring the principal of notes or bonds not guaranteed by the state due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

§ 369. Liability of state. The state shall be liable on notes or bonds guaranteed hereunder but shall not be liable on notes or bonds not guaranteed by the state which shall not be a debt of the state.

§ 370. Notes and bonds legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The notes and bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and saving associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The notes and bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 372. Tax covenant. The state covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of notes and bonds issued by the authority, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the notes and bonds, that the notes and bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom and all its fees, charges, rents, gifts, grants, revenues, receipts and other moneys received or to be received, pledged to pay or secure the payment of such notes or bonds shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate or gift taxes and taxes on transfers.

§ 373. Agreement of the state. 1. The state does pledge to and agree with the holders of notes, bonds, or other obligations of the authority not guaranteed by the state that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect such fees, rentals and charges as may be convenient or necessary to produce sufficient revenue to meet the expense of maintenance and operation and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders thereof, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders until such notes, bonds, and other obligations, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The state does pledge to and agree with the holders of any notes or bonds of the authority, not guaranteed by the state, secured by a pledge of the tolls or other revenues or any part thereof from any bridge constructed by the authority across the Hudson river south of Bear mountain bridge or from any part of the thruway which includes such bridge, that no bridge or tunnel constituting a connection for vehicular traffic over, under or across the Hudson river between the present location of the Bear mountain bridge and the boundary line between the state of New York and the state of New Jersey at the west side of the Hudson river will be constructed or maintained so long as the obligations of such bonds for principal and interest shall not have been paid or otherwise discharged.

§ 374. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 375. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

§ 376. Further additional powers of the authority. The authority shall have the power, in addition to the powers granted in other sections of this title:

1. (a) To enter into a cooperative highway contractual agreement or agreements with the commissioner of transportation for the financing by the authority of expenditures made in advance by the state for design, acquisition, construction, reconstruction or the reconditioning and preservation of transportation facilities pursuant to the provisions of section eighty-eight-b of the state finance law, state highways, state parkways, state arterial highways in cities and related facilities and structures thereon, including bridges, the reconditioning and preservation of structures separating highways and railroads, and the traffic operations program to increase capacity and safety on existing street and highway systems in urban areas, capacity and infrastructure improvements to state, county, town, city or village roads, highways, parkways and bridges, in any case where the expense thereof is paid in whole or in part by the state.

(b) To issue use permits to the commissioner of transportation for projects financed by the authority of expenditures made in advance by the state in accordance with the provisions of a cooperative highway contractual agreement or agreements provided, that such projects are maintained and operated under the supervision of the department of transportation or the municipal agency designated by the commissioner of transportation without cost to the New York State thruway authority for the full term of such agreement or agreements, and, provided further that such use permit shall be granted by the authority for the use of such projects by the department of transportation or the municipal agency designated by the commissioner of transportation on a toll free basis.

2. From time to time to issue emergency highway reconditioning and preservation bonds and notes for the purposes of this section. All the provisions of this title relating to bonds and notes, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, shall apply to the bonds and notes authorized by this section. The authority shall not issue emergency highway reconditioning and preservation bonds and notes in an aggregate principal amount exceeding: (a) one hundred million dollars, excluding bonds issued to refund outstanding notes, in the period from April first, nineteen hundred seventy-two through March thirty-first, nineteen hundred eighty-two; and (b) an additional one hundred thirty-six million dollars, excluding bonds issued to refund outstanding notes, on or after April first, nineteen hundred eighty-two but before April first, nineteen hundred eighty-six.

2-a. From time to time issue emergency highway construction and reconstruction bonds and notes for the purposes of this section. All the provisions of this title relating to bonds and notes which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section shall apply to the bonds and notes authorized by this section. The authority shall not issue emergency highway construction and reconstruction bonds and notes in an aggregate principal amount exceeding: (a) one hundred million dollars, excluding bonds or notes issued to refund outstanding bonds or notes, before April first, nineteen hundred ninety and (b) an additional thirty-four million dollars, excluding bonds or notes issued to refund outstanding bonds or notes, on or after April first, nineteen hundred ninety and (c) an additional ninety-three million dollars, excluding bonds or notes, issued to refund outstanding bonds or notes on or after April first, nineteen hundred ninety-one and (d) an additional ninety million dollars, excluding bonds or notes issued to refund outstanding bonds or notes, on or after April first, nineteen hundred ninety-two.

2-b. From time to time to enter into agreements with the commissioner of transportation to finance the capital costs of projects authorized pursuant to section eighty-eight-b of the state finance law, and to issue bonds and notes for capital projects approved by metropolitan planning organizations or transportation coordinating committees pursuant to the provisions of such section eighty-eight-b. All the provisions of this title relating to bonds and notes which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section shall apply to the bonds and notes authorized by this section. No bonds or notes shall be issued for the purposes authorized by this subdivision after the thirty-first day of March, two thousand.

2-c. From time to time to issue additional emergency highway reconditioning and preservation bonds and notes for the purposes of this section. All the provisions of this title relating to bonds and notes, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, shall apply to the bonds and notes authorized by this section. The authority shall not issue such additional emergency highway reconditioning and preservation bonds and notes in an aggregate principal amount exceeding (a) forty-eight million dollars, excluding bonds or notes issued to refund outstanding bonds or notes, on or after April first, nineteen hundred ninety, and (b) an additional eighty-four million dollars excluding bonds or notes issued to refund outstanding bonds or notes on or after April first, nineteen hundred ninety-one, and (c) an additional eighty-five million dollars, excluding bonds or notes issued to refund outstanding bonds or notes, on or after April first, nineteen hundred ninety-two.

3. In addition to the provisions authorized by this title any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or notes for the purposes of this section may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of such bonds providing for the creation and establishment and maintenance of reserve funds and payments to such reserve funds as hereinafter in this subdivision set forth.

The authority may create and establish reserve funds to be known as the emergency highway reconditioning and preservation debt service reserve fund, the emergency highway construction and reconstruction debt service reserve fund and the suburban transportation debt service reserve fund and may pay into such reserve funds (a) moneys made available by the state for the purposes of such funds from the emergency highway reconditioning and preservation fund, or the emergency highway construction and reconstruction fund or the suburban transportation fund as created by section eighty-nine, eighty-nine-a or eighty-eight-b of the state finance law, respectively; (b) any proceeds of sale of bonds and notes to the extent provided in the resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance thereof; and (c) any other moneys which may be made available to the authority for the purposes of such funds from any other source or sources. The moneys held in or credited to such debt service reserve funds established under this subdivision, except as hereinafter provided, shall be used solely for the payment of the principal of bonds of the authority secured by such reserve funds, as the same mature, the purchase of such bonds of the authority, the payment of interest on such bonds of the authority or the payment of any redemption premium required to be paid when such bonds are redeemed prior to maturity; provided, however, that moneys in any such funds shall not be withdrawn therefrom at any time in such amount as would reduce the amount of such funds to less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on the bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such reserve funds, except for the purpose of paying principal and interest on the bonds of the authority secured by such reserve funds maturing and becoming due and for the payment of which other moneys of the authority are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or increment to, any such debt service reserve funds due to the investment thereof may be transferred to any other fund or account of the authority established for the purposes of this section to the extent it does not reduce the amount of such debt service reserve funds below the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such reserve funds.

4. The authority shall not issue bonds at any time for the purposes of this section if the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in a succeeding calendar year on the bonds outstanding and then to be issued and secured by any debt service reserve fund will exceed the amount of such reserve fund at the time of issuance, unless the authority at the time of issuance of such bonds, shall deposit in such reserve fund from the proceeds of the bonds so to be issued, or otherwise, an amount which together with the amount then in such reserve fund, will be not less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on the bonds then to be issued and on all other bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such reserve fund.

5. (a) To assure the continued operation and solvency of the authority for the carrying out of the purposes relating to this section provision is made in this section for the accumulation in the debt service reserve fund of an amount equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such reserve fund. In order further to assure the maintenance of such debt service reserve fund, with respect to bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section prior to April first, nineteen hundred ninety, there shall be annually apportioned and paid to the authority for deposit in such debt service reserve fund such sum, if any, as shall be certified by the chairman of the authority to the governor and state director of the budget as necessary to restore such reserve fund to an amount equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on the bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such reserve fund. The chairman of the authority shall annually, on or before December first, make and deliver to the governor and state director of the budget his certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore such debt service reserve fund to the amount aforesaid, and the sum or sums so certified, if any, shall be apportioned and paid to the authority during the then current state fiscal year.

(b) To assure the continued operation and solvency of the authority for the carrying out of the purposes relating to this section, provision is made in this section for the accumulation in the debt service reserve fund of an amount equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such reserve fund; provided however for such bonds issued by the authority after April first, nineteen hundred ninety-two, such debt service reserve fund may in the discretion of the authority and consistent with any covenants with any existing bondholders and without impairing the rights of any existing bondholders be sized in an amount equal to not less than one-half of the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on such bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such debt service reserve fund. In order to further assure the maintenance of such debt service reserve fund, with respect to bonds of the authority issued pursuant to subdivisions two-a, two-b and two-c of this section after April first, nineteen hundred ninety, the authority shall create a special subaccount in each revenue fund established pursuant to any resolution or resolutions authorizing such bonds. Such subaccounts shall consist of the moneys available after April first, nineteen hundred ninety, pursuant to sections two hundred eighty-two-b, two hundred eighty-two-c, two hundred eighty-four-a and two hundred eighty-four-c of the tax law, respectively, in the emergency highway reconditioning and preservation fund reserve account established pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section eighty-nine of the state finance law and in the emergency highway construction and reconstruction fund reserve account established pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section eighty-nine-a of the state finance law, apportioned and paid to the authority for deposit in such subaccount of the revenue fund. Amounts in each such subaccount shall be kept separate and shall not be commingled with any other moneys in the custody of the authority. Amounts in each such subaccount shall be applied solely to pay such sum, if any, as shall semi-annually, (on such dates as are established under the terms of any cooperative highway contractual agreement of the department of transportation with the New York state thruway authority entered into on or after April first, nineteen hundred ninety which is then in effect), be certified by the chairman of the authority to the governor and state director of the budget as necessary to provide funds in an amount sufficient together with other moneys available to the authority for such purpose, to pay one-half of the total annual principal and interest maturing and becoming due during the next succeeding twelve calendar months on all bonds of the authority issued pursuant to subdivisions two-a, two-b and two-c of this section after

April first, nineteen hundred ninety and maintaining or funding debt service reserve funds therefor. Any surplus of funds in excess of such certified amounts remaining in each such subaccount after such payments, if any, have been made shall on the dates established under the terms of such cooperative highway agreements, be paid over for deposit, respectively, in the emergency highway reconditioning and preservation fund reserve account established pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section eighty-nine of the state finance law and in the emergency highway construction and reconstruction fund reserve account established pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section eighty-nine-a of the state finance law.

6. In computing the debt service reserve fund for the purposes of this section, securities in which all or a portion of such reserve fund shall be invested shall be valued at par, or if purchased at less than par, at their cost to the authority.

7. The authorization, sale and issuance of bonds, notes or other obligations pursuant to this section shall not be deemed an action as such term is defined in article eight of the environmental conservation law for the purposes of such article. Such exemption shall be strictly limited in its application to such financing activities of the authority and does not exempt the department of transportation or any other entity from compliance with such article.

§ 377. Provision for servicing state vehicles with petroleum, etc. The authority shall have the power to provide and shall provide to state-owned or leased motor vehicles, gasoline and other petroleum by-products that are presently provided or will be provided to motor vehicles owned, leased or operated by the authority. The charge for providing such goods and services shall be equal to the cost to provide such to vehicles owned, leased or used by the authority except that a fee may also be charged to cover the necessary operating costs incurred as a result of providing such goods and services. Payment shall be accomplished by charging such cost-back against the centralized services fund established by state finance law section ninety-seven-g.

§ 378. Specially priced commuter tickets. In the event that the authority offers specially priced commuter tickets for use on its Grand Island bridges, such tickets shall be made available for any vehicle regularly operated by a resident of Grand Island, whether such vehicle is owned by, leased to or loaned by an employer to such resident.

§ 378-a. Emergency service permits. 1. The authority is hereby authorized and directed to issue refunds for tolls incurred by ambulances or fire vehicles engaged in an emergency operation, or, at the option of the authority, to issue emergency services permits for use by ambulances and fire vehicles which shall provide for travel at no charge between interchanges and barriers while such vehicles are engaged in an emergency operation. For purposes of this section, the term "ambulance" shall have the same meaning as such term is defined by section one hundred-b of the vehicle and traffic law, the term "fire vehicle" shall have the same meaning as such term is defined by section one hundred fifteen-a of the vehicle and traffic law, and the term "emergency operation" shall have the same meaning as such term is defined by section one hundred fourteen-b of the vehicle and traffic law. In any rules and regulations promulgated for the implementation of this section, the authority may establish the type of documentation or other proof satisfactory to the authority that an ambulance or fire vehicle was engaged in an emergency operation at the time a toll was incurred.

2. If, upon the completion of an audit conducted by a certified public accountant selected by the authority, the authority can demonstrate that the issuance of refunds or permits as authorized in subdivision one of this section causes a significant loss of revenue to the authority, the authority is authorized, pursuant to a resolution of the board, to offer such refunds or permits at a discount of the cash cost per mile; provided, however, that, prior to such board resolution, the authority shall hold at least two public hearings, at a time and location which will, to the extent practicable, maximize the participation of the general public.

§ 379. Further additional powers of the authority to finance certain repayment obligations of the state in connection with the purchase of real property for highway purposes. 1. (a) The authority is hereby authorized, as a corporate purpose thereof, to issue bonds and notes in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed fifty million dollars and to make available the proceeds from the sale of such bonds and notes, net of all costs to the authority in connection therewith, to the commissioner, for the purposes of financing a portion of the repayment to the treasurer of the United States of funds in an amount as determined by the secretary of the United States department of transportation to be equal to the amount of federal funds previously expended as adjusted by credits received to acquire real property for the portion of Interstate-478 which was withdrawn from the federal interstate system in accordance with federal law. Provided, however, that the authority shall not issue any bonds or notes authorized by this section until the federal highway administration has ruled on an application by the state, or the state and the city of New York, seeking a waiver of the repayment obligation of the state and city for federal funds expended to acquire real property for a portion of Interstate 478.

(b) Such bonds and notes shall be issued with the approval of the director of the budget and shall be special limited obligations of the authority, secured by and payable solely out of certain lease payments made by the state and funds and accounts held under the resolution pursuant to which such bonds and notes are issued, without recourse against other assets, revenues or funds of or other payments due to the authority.

(c) Such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that they shall not be deemed to be an obligation of the state and the state shall not be liable thereon.

(d) Such bonds shall be scheduled to mature over a term not to exceed thirty years.

(e) The provisions of title ten of article nine of this chapter, shall not apply in any way to the bonds or notes authorized to be issued by this section.

(f) All the provisions of this title relating to bonds and notes, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, shall apply to the bonds and the notes authorized by this section, including, but not limited to, the power to issue renewal notes or refunding bonds thereof.

2. (a) Notwithstanding any general, special or local law, the state, acting by and through the commissioner, shall have the power to convey to the authority or its successor agency, without public bidding, public sale, or public notice, for such term, and upon such terms and conditions as the parties thereto shall agree, a leasehold interest in the real property purchased in part with federal funds in the name of the state for the portion of then-designated Interstate-478 which was withdrawn from the interstate system in accordance with federal law. Any lease entered into pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be for a period not less than that for which debt service is due and payable on any bonds and notes issued by the authority pursuant to this section and not more than thirty days after the period for which debt service is due and payable on any bonds and notes issued by the authority pursuant to this section.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law, the state, acting by and through the commissioner, is hereby authorized to lease from the authority or its successor agency its interest in the real property purchased in part with federal funds in the name of the state for the portion of the then-designated Interstate-478 which was withdrawn from the interstate system in accordance with federal law, such lease to be upon such terms and conditions as the parties thereto shall agree, provided that such lease shall: (i) be for a period not less than that for which debt service is due and payable on any bonds and notes issued by the authority pursuant to this section and not more than thirty days after the period for which debt service is due and payable on any bonds and notes issued by the authority pursuant to this section, (ii) provide for lease rental payments equal to the amount needed to pay debt service on said notes or bonds as the same become due and equal to the amount needed to cover all direct and/or indirect costs incurred by the authority and not reimbursed from bond proceeds, (iii) provide that during any year in which no debt service is due and payable on any such bonds and notes such lease rental payments shall be in an amount equal to one dollar, (iv) provide that the authority shall have no obligations or duties with respect to such real property except as set forth in this section, (v) provide that during such leasehold any future proposed acquisition, disposition or new or different utilization, development or improvement of the real property subject to such leasehold interest shall be subject to the provision of paragraph b of subdivision five of section three hundred forty-b of the highway law, if applicable by the terms thereof, (vi) provide that the lease rental revenue stream thereunder may be assigned to a trustee for the payment of holders of bonds authorized by this chapter but prohibit the assignment of any other interests in the land subject to such lease to said trustee, and (vii) provide that the obligation of the state to make such lease rental payments shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of moneys made available to the state, and that no liability on account thereof shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for the purpose thereof, and that any obligation to make lease rental payments shall be subject to annual appropriation by the legislature.

(c) The attorney general shall approve or disapprove of the form and sufficiency and manner of execution of any lease executed by the commissioner pursuant to the provisions of this section.

§ 380. Further additional powers of the authority to finance certain local highway and bridge improvements and payments to the authority. 1. (a) The authority is hereby authorized, as additional corporate purposes thereof: (i) to issue bonds and notes and to incur obligations secured by the moneys as provided in the service contracts authorized pursuant to section eleven of chapter three hundred twenty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one, as amended; (ii) to make available the proceeds from the sale of such bonds and notes, net of all costs to the authority in connection therewith, for the purposes of financing all or a portion of the capital costs of local highway and bridge projects pursuant to sections ten-c, ten-f and ten-g of the highway law and sections sixteen and sixteen-a of the chapter of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one which enacted this section, section eighty-b of the highway law and section fifteen of chapter three hundred twenty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one which enacted this section, and project costs for: construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of rail freight facilities and intercity rail passenger facilities and equipment; construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of state, municipal and privately owned ports; construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of municipal airports; privately owned airports and aviation capital facilities, excluding airports operated by the state or operated by a bi-state municipal corporate instrumentality for which federal funding is not available provided the project is consistent with an approved airport layout plan; construction, reconstruction, enhancement, improvement, replacement, reconditioning, restoration, rehabilitation and preservation of state, county, town, city and village roads, highways, parkways and bridges, and construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of fixed ferry facilities of municipal and privately owned ferry lines for transportation purposes; (iii) to enter into agreements with the commissioner with respect to financing any such local highways and bridges owned, maintained or operated by a municipality, and (iv) to enter into service contracts, contracts, agreements, deeds and leases with the director of the budget or the commissioner of transportation and project sponsors and others to provide for the financing by the authority of project costs for: construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of rail freight facilities and intercity rail passenger facilities and equipment; construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of state, municipal and privately owned ports; construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of municipal airports; privately owned airports and aviation capital facilities, excluding airports operated by the state or operated by a bi-state municipal corporate instrumentality for which federal funding is not available provided the project is consistent with an approved airport layout plan; construction, reconstruction, enhancement, improvement, replacement, reconditioning, restoration, rehabilitation and preservation of state, county, town, city and village roads, highways, parkways and bridges; and construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of fixed ferry facilities of municipal and privately owned ferry lines for transportation purposes. The director of the budget and the commissioner of transportation are each hereby authorized to enter into service contracts, contracts, agreements, deeds and leases with the authority, project sponsors or others to provide for the financing by the authority of the project costs specified in subparagraph (iv) of the preceding sentence.

(b) Such obligations shall be issued or incurred with the approval of the director of the budget and shall be special limited obligations of the authority secured by and payable solely out of amounts appropriated by the legislature as authorized pursuant to such section eleven of chapter three hundred twenty-nine of laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one, as amended, and any other funds appropriated by the legislature to the authority therefor without recourse against any other assets, revenues or funds of or other payments due to the authority.

(d) Such obligations shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that they shall not be deemed to be an obligation of the state and that the state shall not be liable thereon.

(e) All of the provisions of this title relating to bonds and notes, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, shall apply to obligations authorized by this section, including but not limited to the power to issue renewal notes or refunding bonds thereof.

(f) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, any place where reference to paragraph (c) of this subdivision is made in law it shall be deemed to be a reference to paragraph (b) of this subdivision as relettered by chapter six hundred thirty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-six which added this paragraph.

2. Not less than one hundred twenty days before the beginning of each state fiscal year, the chairman of the authority shall certify to the comptroller and to the director of the budget a schedule of anticipated cash requirements for such fiscal year. The total amount so certified for such fiscal year shall be equal to the total amount of the debt service due or expected to be due during such fiscal year on obligations of the authority incurred pursuant to subdivision one of this section, including payments of interest and principal (including sinking fund payments), together with:

(b) the amount, if any, required to restore any applicable reserve fund to the applicable reserve fund requirement to the extent any deficiency therein has resulted directly or indirectly from failure by the state to make any payment provided for in this section;

(c) the amount, if any, required to be rebated to the United States to provide for continued exclusion from federal income taxation of interest on obligations of the authority; and

(d) the expenses of the establishment and continued operating expenses of the authority relating to local highway and bridge projects and project costs for: construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of rail freight facilities and intercity rail passenger facilities and equipment; construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of state, municipal and privately owned ports; construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of municipal airports; privately owned airports and aviation capital facilities, excluding airports operated by the state or operated by a bi-state municipal corporate instrumentality for which federal funding is not available provided the project is consistent with an approved airport layout plan; construction, reconstruction, enhancement, improvement, replacement, reconditioning, restoration, rehabilitation and preservation of state, county, town, city and village roads, highways, parkways and bridges; and construction, reconstruction, improvement, reconditioning and preservation of fixed ferry facilities of municipal and privately owned ferry lines for transportation purposes, funded pursuant to section eleven of chapter three hundred twenty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one, as amended, including, but not limited to, trustees' fees, fees payable to providers of credit facilities, fees for issuing and paying agents, remarketing agents and dealers, legal counsel, financial or other advisors or consultants, independent auditors, providers of interest rate exchange agreements, rating agencies, transfer or information agents, the publication of advertisements and notices, surety arrangements, and printer's fees or charges incurred by the authority to comply with applicable federal and state securities and tax laws; and any other costs of issuance in excess of the amount provided therefor from the proceeds of the sale of such obligations, to the extent that any of the foregoing amounts or expenses are not to be paid from other resources available to the authority for such purpose.

3. The chairman of the authority may revise such certification at such times as shall be determined by the chairman; provided, however, that the chairman of the authority shall revise such certification not later than thirty days after the issuance of any obligations authorized pursuant to subdivision one of this section including refunding bonds, and the adoption of any interest rate exchange or other financial arrangement affecting the cash requirements of the authority with respect to the obligations incurred pursuant to this section.

4. Such certification shall provide for payments on such dates as the authority deems appropriate to ensure that sufficient funds will be available from the sources identified in this section to enable it to meet its current obligations with respect to those obligations incurred pursuant to this section as they become due.

5. Upon receipt of such certification, or any revision thereof, the comptroller shall pay such amount to the authority in accordance with such certification, from the service contracts authorized pursuant to section eleven of chapter 329 of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one, as amended, or from any other amount appropriated for such purpose. Such payments shall be made on or before the date specified in each certificate or within thirty days after such receipt, whichever is later, provided that all such amounts shall have been first appropriated by the state.

6. The state, acting through the director of the budget, and the authority may enter into, amend, modify, or rescind one or more agreements providing for the specific manner, timing, and amount of payments to be made under this section, but only in conformity with this section. The agreement of the state contained in this section shall be deemed executory only to the extent of appropriations available for payments under this section and no liability on account of any such payment shall be incurred by the state beyond such appropriations.

7. The authorization, sale and issuance of bonds, notes or other obligations pursuant to this section shall not be deemed an action as such term is defined in article eight of the environmental conservation law for the purposes of such article. Such exemption shall be strictly limited in its application to such financing activities of the authority and does not exempt the department of transportation or any other entity from compliance with such article.

§ 381. Further additional powers of the authority. 1. The authority is hereby authorized, as additional corporate purposes thereof: (a) to issue bonds and notes and to incur obligations secured by the moneys as provided in the service contracts authorized pursuant to section fourteen of the chapter of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one which enacted this section; and (b) to make available the proceeds from the sale of such bonds and notes, net of all costs to the authority in connection therewith, to provide moneys to the authority to achieve the same corporate purposes as set forth in section three hundred sixty-five of this chapter. The authority is further authorized to issue such obligations in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed eighty million dollars, exclusive of the principal amount of bonds, notes or other obligations issued and applied (1) to fund any related debt service fund, or other reserve funds as may be needed, (2) to provide capitalized interest, and (3) to provide fees and other charges and expenses, including underwriters' discount and the purchase of any credit or liquidity enhancement facilities, related to the issuance of bonds, notes or other obligations and the maintenance of such reserves, all as determined by the authority and excluding bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds, notes or other obligations theretofore issued pursuant to this section. In computing the total principal amount of bonds, notes or other obligations that may at any time be issued for any purpose under this section, the amount of the outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations that constitutes interest under the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended to the effective date of this section, shall be excluded. Provided, however, that upon any refunding or repayment, except in connection with the termination of the existence of the authority or if otherwise authorized by the legislature, the total aggregate principal amount of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations may be greater than the amount authorized by this section only if the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations to be issued shall not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so to be refunded or repaid. For purposes of this section, the present values of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so refunded or repaid, shall be calculated by utilizing the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations from the payment dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and to the price bid including estimated accrued interest or proceeds received by the authority including estimated accrued interest from the sale thereof.

2. Such obligations shall be special limited obligations of the authority, secured by and payable solely out of payments received pursuant to service contract or contracts authorized by section fourteen of the chapter of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one which enacted this section, funded by amounts appropriated by the legislature and any other funds appropriated by the legislature to the authority therefor, without recourse against any other assets, revenues or funds of or other payments due to the authority.

3. Such obligations shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that they shall not be deemed to be an obligation of the state and that the state shall not be liable thereon.

4. Such obligations shall be scheduled to mature over a term not to exceed thirty years.

5. All the provisions of this title relating to bonds and notes, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, shall apply to obligations authorized by this section, including, but not limited to, the power to issue renewal notes or refunding bonds thereof.

§ 384. Additional powers of the authority to undertake and finance certain transportation projects. 1. (a) The authority is hereby authorized and directed, as an additional corporate purpose thereof, to enter into contracts or agreements with any private person or corporation or with the state or local governments or with other public corporations to finance, construct, reconstruct, improve or develop the following transportation projects subject to the limitations prescribed by this section: (i) the projects, or portions thereof, known as the inner harbor project and the intermodal transportation project located in Onondaga county, including but not limited to, the consolidation of the Syracuse canal terminal and the planning, design and construction of an intermodal transportation facility, provided, however, that prior to proceeding with the inner harbor project, the authority and the city of Syracuse shall enter into a memorandum of understanding regarding the undertaking of such project; (ii) the project, or portions thereof, known as the horizons waterfront development project generally located in and around Erie county, and the New York state canal system generally located along the Erie canal in Erie and Niagara counties; and (iii) the project, or portions thereof, known as the Stewart airport access project located in Orange county to provide direct access to Stewart international airport from interstate eighty-four in the vicinity of the airport. Notwithstanding the provisions of article VI-A and section one hundred thirty-eight-c of the canal law and paragraph (m) of subdivision seven of section three hundred eighty-two of this chapter, the New York state thruway authority, or the subsidiary corporation thereof, is authorized to enter into an agreement with the city of Syracuse for the leasing of the land comprising the inner harbor project in Onondaga county. Any projects for the construction, reconstruction or improvement of property or structures undertaken pursuant to this section shall be in full compliance with title thirteen of article twenty-seven of the environmental conservation law and shall be deemed public works for the purposes of section two hundred twenty of the labor law and section one hundred three of the general municipal law, except that any contracts let by the authority for the construction, reconstruction or improvement of such projects shall be subject to section three hundred fifty-nine of this title. For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law only, the authority shall be deemed a state agency as that term is used in such article and its contracts for such projects as provided in this article shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning set forth in such article.

(b) The authority is hereby authorized, as an additional corporate purpose thereof, to issue its bonds, notes and other obligations in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in a principal amount necessary to achieve purposes enumerated in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, including a principal amount necessary to provide capitalized interest for a period not to exceed six months subject to the limitations in subdivision three of this section. In computing the total principal amount of bonds, notes and other obligations that may at any time be issued for any purpose under this section, the amount of the outstanding bonds or notes that constitutes interest under the United States internal revenue code of nineteen hundred eighty-six, as amended to the effective date of this section, shall be excluded.

2. All of the provisions of this title, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, shall apply to the projects and obligations authorized by this section, including but not limited to the power to issue renewal notes or refunding bonds.

3. The authority shall make available a total amount of moneys not exceeding fifty million dollars, exclusive of federal funds and any state and local moneys which may be available, for capital purposes and for the other purposes enumerated in this section. The fifty million dollar amount shall be distributed as follows: (a) (i) an amount not to exceed fifteen million dollars shall be made available for the project, or portions thereof, known as the inner harbor project located in Onondaga county including, but not limited to, dredging of inner harbor, reconstruction of harbor piers including but not limited to site preparation, utility lines, and hard edging of the pier, marina development including the establishment of dock space, parking, hoists, and lifts, shoreline and west side harbor landscaping, gateway and finger park development, southern pier freighthouse rehabilitation, and the reconstruction of Solars Boulevard including design and construction, excavation, curbing, lighting and paving and infrastructure projects related thereto; (ii) an amount not to exceed five million dollars shall be made available for the project, or portions thereof, known as the intermodal transportation facility located in Onondaga county and infrastructure projects related thereto; (b) an amount not to exceed fifteen million dollars shall be made available for improvements related to the Buffalo inner harbor component of the horizons waterfront development project, or portions thereof, generally located in and around Erie county, and the New York state canal system generally located along the Erie canal in Erie and Niagara counties. The horizons waterfront development project improvements shall include the inner harbor project generally located in the city of Buffalo in the vicinity of the foot of Main street on the Buffalo river and may include, but not be limited to, the development of an automobile, bus, rail, water taxi, cycling, and pedestrian intermodal transportation hub and the waterfront area which will be serviced, including but not limited to design, environmental studies, real estate acquisition, construction, reconstruction, construction inspection, landscaping, excavation and dredging, enhancement related improvements and infrastructure improvements related thereto. The improvements to the New York state canal system may include but not be limited to construction, reconstruction, and development, terminal wall rehabilitation, transient docking, boater services, landscaping, and signage in the city of Tonawanda and the city of North Tonawanda; and (c) an amount not to exceed fifteen million dollars shall be made available for the project, or portions thereof, known as the Stewart airport access project located in Orange county to provide direct access to Stewart international airport from interstate eighty-four in the vicinity of the airport.

§ 385. Additional powers of the authority to issue special dedicated highway and bridge trust fund bonds. 1. (a) The authority is hereby authorized, as an additional corporate purpose thereof: (i) to enter into a dedicated highway and bridge trust fund cooperative agreement or agreements with the commissioner of transportation for the financing by the authority of disbursements made by the state or project sponsor for any of the activities authorized pursuant to the provisions of section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law in any case where the expense thereof is paid in whole or in part by the state or project sponsor; and (ii) to issue use permits or leases to the department of transportation, or project sponsor, as the case may be, for projects financed by the authority of disbursements made by the state or project sponsor in accordance with the provisions of a dedicated highway and bridge trust fund cooperative agreement or agreements, provided that such projects are maintained and operated under the supervision of the department of transportation without cost to the New York state thruway authority for the full term of such agreement or agreements, and provided further that such use permit or lease shall be granted by the authority on a toll free basis. Provided, however, that at any time after April first, nineteen hundred ninety-five, no dedicated highway and bridge trust fund cooperative agreement with the commissioner of transportation pursuant to this section, nor any supplement thereto, need provide any conveyance of an interest in the property to the New York state thruway authority in connection with any obligations incurred pursuant to this section; and any such conveyance evidenced by a dedicated highway and bridge trust fund cooperative agreement before such date shall, consistent with the rights of holders of any such obligations incurred pursuant to this section, revert to the people of the state of New York by appropriate instrument or instruments, by quitclaim deed or otherwise, in confirmation of such reversion and any related use permits shall be voided.

(b) The authority is hereby authorized, as additional corporate purposes thereof solely upon the request of the director of the budget: (i) to issue special emergency highway and bridge trust fund bonds and notes for a term not to exceed thirty years and to incur obligations secured by the moneys appropriated from the dedicated highway and bridge trust fund established in section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law; (ii) to make available the proceeds in accordance with instructions provided by the director of the budget from the sale of such special emergency highway and bridge trust fund bonds, notes or other obligations, net of all costs to the authority in connection therewith, for the purposes of financing all or a portion of the costs of activities for which moneys in the dedicated highway and bridge trust fund established in section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law are authorized to be utilized or for the financing of disbursements made by the state for the activities authorized pursuant to section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law; and (iii) to enter into agreements with the commissioner of transportation pursuant to section ten-e of the highway law with respect to financing for any activities authorized pursuant to section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law, or agreements with the commissioner of transportation pursuant to sections ten-f and ten-g of the highway law in connection with activities on state highways pursuant to these sections, and (iv) to enter into service contracts, contracts, agreements, deeds and leases with the director of the budget or the commissioner of transportation and project sponsors and others to provide for the financing by the authority of activities authorized pursuant to section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law, and each of the director of the budget and the commissioner of transportation are hereby authorized to enter into service contracts, contracts, agreements, deeds and leases with the authority, project sponsors or others to provide for such financing. The authority shall not issue any bonds or notes in an amount in excess of twenty-two billion three hundred nine million two hundred ninety-four thousand dollars $22,309,294,000, plus a principal amount of bonds or notes: (A) to fund capital reserve funds; (B) to provide capitalized interest; and, (C) to fund other costs of issuance. In computing for the purposes of this subdivision, the aggregate amount of indebtedness evidenced by bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this section, as amended by a chapter of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-six, there shall be excluded the amount of bonds or notes issued that would constitute interest under the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the amount of indebtedness issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds or notes.

(c) Such obligations shall be issued or incurred with the approval of the director of the budget and shall be special obligations of the authority secured by and payable solely out of amounts appropriated by the legislature as authorized pursuant to section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law without recourse against any other assets, revenues or funds of or other payments due to the authority. Upon payments of such appropriated amounts from the fund established pursuant to section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law to the account of the authority, such funds may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds, notes and other obligations authorized by paragraph (b) of this subdivision and shall be held free and clear of any claim by any person arising out of or in connection with articles twelve-A, thirteen-A and twenty-one of the tax law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and without limiting the rights and duties of the commissioner of taxation and finance under articles twelve-A, thirteen-A and twenty-one of the tax law, no taxpayer, or any other person, including the state, shall have any right or claim against the authority or any of its bondholders to any moneys appropriated and transferred from the dedicated highway and bridge trust fund established by section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law for or in respect of a refund, rebate, credit, reimbursement or other repayment of taxes paid under such articles of the tax law.

(d) The notes, bonds or other obligations of the authority authorized by this section shall not be a debt of the state and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority pledged therefor; and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. In addition, any agreements entered into by the department of transportation pursuant to sections ten-e, ten-f and ten-g of the highway law or any other entity on behalf of the state to effect the implementation of any of the activities financed in whole or in part with proceeds of the obligations of the authority authorized in this section do not constitute or create a debt of the state, nor a contractual obligation in excess of the amounts appropriated therefor and the state has no continuing legal or moral obligation to appropriate money for payments due under such contracts.

(e) All of the provisions of this title relating to bonds and notes, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, shall apply to obligations authorized by this section, including but not limited to the power to establish adequate reserves therefor and to issue renewal notes or refunding bonds thereof, provided, however, that the authority shall be authorized to issue variable rate bonds or notes pursuant to this section only until June thirtieth, two thousand, after which date no bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this section may have interest rates which vary, provided further that the expiration of such authority shall not affect any such bonds or notes issued prior to such date.

2. Not less than one hundred twenty days before the beginning of each state fiscal year, the chairman of the authority shall certify to the comptroller and to the director of the budget a schedule of anticipated cash requirements for such fiscal year pursuant to any agreements entered into by the authority with the commissioner of transportation pursuant to sections ten-e, ten-f and ten-g of the highway law. The amounts so certified shall constitute required dedicated highway and bridge trust fund cooperative agreement payments due pursuant to such agreements under sections ten-e, ten-f and ten-g of the highway law. The total amount so certified for such fiscal year shall be equal to the total amount of the debt service due or expected to be due during such fiscal year on obligations of the authority incurred pursuant to subdivision one of this section, including payments of interest and principal (including sinking fund payments), together with:

(a) the amount, if any, due to any provider of any insurance policy, letter of credit or other letter of enhancement or a related facility with respect to such obligations, representing payments made by it as provided in the applicable resolution or trust indenture as a result of any previous failure of the state to make any payment provided for in this section, including any related reasonable interest, fees or charges so provided;

(b) the amount, if any, required to restore any applicable reserve fund to the applicable reserve fund requirement to the extent any deficiency therein has resulted directly or indirectly from failure by the state to make any payment provided for in this section;

(c) the amount, if any, required to be rebated to the United States to provide for continued exclusion from federal income taxation of interest on obligations of the authority; and

(d) the expenses of the establishment and continued operating expenses of the authority related to the financing of activities funded with the proceeds of obligations authorized by subdivision one of this section, including, but not limited to, trustees' fees, fees payable to providers of credit facilities, fees for issuing and paying agents, remarketing agents and dealers, legal counsel, financial or other advisors or consultants, independent auditors, rating agencies, transfer or information agents, the publication of advertisements and notices, surety arrangements, and printers' fees or charges incurred by the authority to comply with applicable federal and state securities and tax laws; and any other costs of issuance in excess of the amount provided therefor from the proceeds of the sale of such obligations, to the extent that any of the foregoing amounts or expenses are not to be paid from other resources available to the authority for such purpose.

3. The chairman of the authority may revise such certification at such times as shall be determined by the chairman; provided, however, that the chairman of the authority shall revise such certification not later than thirty days after the issuance of any obligations authorized pursuant to subdivision one of this section including refunding bonds, and affecting the cash requirements of the authority with respect to the obligations incurred pursuant to this section.

4. Such certification shall provide for payments on such dates as the authority and the director of the budget deems appropriate to ensure that sufficient funds will be available from the sources identified in this section to enable it to meet its current obligations with respect to those obligations incurred pursuant to this section as they become due.

5. Upon receipt of such certification, or any revision thereof, the comptroller shall pay such dedicated highway and bridge trust fund cooperative agreement payments to the authority in accordance with such certification, from the dedicated highway and bridge trust fund established by section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law. Such payments shall be made on or before the date specified in each certificate or within thirty days after such receipt, whichever is later, provided that all such amounts shall have been first appropriated by the state.

6. The agreement of the state contained in this section shall be deemed executory only to the extent of appropriations available for payments under this section and no liability on account of any such payment shall be incurred by the state beyond such appropriations. The state, acting through the director of the budget, and the authority may enter into, amend, modify, or rescind one or more agreements providing for the specific manner, timing, and amount of payments to be made under this section, but only in conformity with this section.

7. The authorization, sale and issuance of bonds, notes or other obligations pursuant to this section shall not be deemed an action as such term is defined in article eight of the environmental conservation law for the purposes of such article. Such exemption shall be strictly limited in its application to such financing activities of the authority and does not exempt the department of transportation or any other entity from compliance with such article.

8. The state of New York shall and hereby agrees to and does indemnify and save harmless the New York state thruway authority from and against any and all liability, loss, damage, interest, judgments and liens growing out of, and any and all costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, counsel fees and disbursements) arising out of or incurred in connection with any and all claims, demands, suits, actions or proceedings which may be made or brought against the New York state thruway authority arising out of any determinations made or actions taken or omitted to be taken or compliance with any obligations under or pursuant to this section.

9. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to restrict the right of the state to amend, repeal, modify or otherwise alter statutes imposing or relating to any taxes or fees, including the taxes imposed pursuant to section two hundred eighty-four, articles thirteen-A and twenty-one of the tax law and fees imposed by section four hundred one of the vehicle and traffic law. The authority shall not include within any resolution, contract or agreement with holders of the bonds, notes and other obligations issued under this title any provision which provides that a default occurs as a result of the state exercising its right to amend, repeal, modify or otherwise alter any such taxes and fees.

10. Any resolution authorizing bonds, notes or other obligations shall reserve the right of the state, upon amendment of the New York state constitution allowing the issuance, or assumption, of bonds, notes or other obligations secured by revenues, which may include the revenues securing bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority, (i) to assume, in whole or in part, such bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority, (ii) to extinguish the existing lien of such resolution, and (iii) to substitute security for the bonds, notes, or other obligations of the authority, in each case only so long as such assumption, extinguishment or substitution is done in accordance with such resolution.

§ 386. Additional powers of the authority to issue special rail and aviation transportation bonds. 1. The authority is hereby authorized, as an additional corporate purpose thereof to enter into service contracts, contracts, agreements, deeds, leases with the director of the budget, the commissioner of transportation, municipalities and others to provide for the financing by the authority of rail and aviation transportation projects as authorized by section fourteen-j of the transportation law.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, as an additional corporate purpose thereof, solely at the request of the director of the budget: a. to issue special rail and aviation transportation bonds, notes or other obligations in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed forty million dollars plus a principal amount of bonds, notes or other obligations issued (i) to fund any related debt service reserve fund, (ii) to provide capitalized interest and (iii) to provide fees and other charges and expenses, including but not limited to legal fees, underwriters' discounts, related to the issuance of such bonds, notes and other obligations and the maintenance of such reserves, all as determined by the authority, excluding bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations issued pursuant to this section. Such bonds, notes or other obligations may be issued for a term not to exceed thirty years and shall be secured by the moneys provided pursuant to a service contract, contract, lease or agreement entered into with the director of the budget, the commissioner of transportation, municipalities or others pursuant to subdivision one of this section for the purpose of financing activities pursuant to section fourteen-j of the transportation law, such service contract, contract, lease or agreement to provide for the payment of debt service, funding of necessary reserves and all other expenses of the authority as agreed to by the parties, provided, however, that such service contract, contract, lease or agreement shall provide that the obligation of the state to make such payments shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of moneys made available to the state, and that no liability on account thereof shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for the purpose thereof and that any obligation to make such payments shall be subject to annual appropriations by the legislature; to make available the proceeds net of all costs to the authority in connection therewith in accordance with such agreements or as authorized and directed by law for the purposes of financing activities pursuant to and in conformance with section fourteen-j of the transportation law.

3. Such obligations shall be issued or incurred with the approval of the director of the budget and shall be special limited obligations of the authority secured by and payable solely out of amounts appropriated by the legislature for payments pursuant to a service contract, contract, lease or agreement authorized pursuant to subdivision one of this section and any other funds appropriated by the legislature to the authority therefor without recourse against any other assets, revenues or funds of or other payments due to the authority.

4. Such obligations shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that they shall not be deemed to be an obligation of the state and that the state shall not be liable thereon.

5. All of the provisions of this title relating to bonds and notes, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section shall apply to obligations authorized by this section, including but not limited to the power to issue renewal notes or refunding bonds thereof, provided, however, that the authority shall be authorized to issue variable rate bonds or notes pursuant to this section only until June thirtieth, nineteen hundred ninety-four, after which date no bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this section may have interest rates which vary, provided further that the expiration of such authority shall not affect any such bonds or notes issued prior to such date.

6. The authorization, sale and issuance of bonds, notes or other obligations pursuant to this section shall not be deemed an action as such term is defined in article eight of the environmental conservation law for the purposes of such article. Such exemption shall be strictly limited in its application to such financing activities of the authority and does not exempt the department of transportation or any other entity from compliance with such article.

7. The attorney general shall approve or disapprove of the form of any service contract, contract, lease or agreement authorized pursuant to this section.

§ 386-a. Financing of metropolitan transportation authority (MTA) transportation facilities. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation are hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of assisting the metropolitan transportation authority in the financing of transportation facilities as defined in subdivision seventeen of section twelve hundred sixty-one of this chapter or other capital projects. The aggregate principal amount of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed fifteen billion five hundred fifteen million eight hundred fifty-six thousand dollars $15,515,856,000, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation for principal, interest, and related expenses pursuant to a service contract and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, including the limitations contained in subdivision four of section sixty-seven-b of the state finance law, (A) any bonds and notes issued prior to April first, two thousand twenty-seven pursuant to this section may be issued with a maximum maturity of fifty years, and (B) any bonds issued to refund such bonds and notes may be issued with a maximum maturity of fifty years from the respective date of original issuance of such bonds and notes.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in order to assist the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation in undertaking the financing of such transportation facilities projects, the director of the budget is hereby authorized to enter into one or more service contracts with the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, upon such terms and conditions as the director of the budget and the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation agree, so as to annually provide to the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation, in the aggregate, a sum not to exceed the principal, interest, and related expenses required for such bonds and notes. Any service contract entered into pursuant to this section shall provide that the obligation of the state to pay the amount therein provided shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of monies available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for such purpose, subject to annual appropriation by the legislature. Any such service contract or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation as security for such bonds and notes, as authorized by this section.

§ 386-b. Financing of peace bridge and transportation capital projects. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation are hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of financing peace bridge projects and capital costs of state and local highways, parkways, bridges, the New York state thruway, Indian reservation roads, and facilities, and transportation infrastructure projects including aviation projects, non-MTA mass transit projects, and rail service preservation projects, including work appurtenant and ancillary thereto. The aggregate principal amount of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed eighteen billion five hundred sixty-two million three hundred eighty-five thousand dollars $18,562,385,000, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation for principal, interest, and related expenses pursuant to a service contract and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in order to assist the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation in undertaking the financing of such transportation facilities projects, the director of the budget is hereby authorized to enter into one or more service contracts with the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, upon such terms and conditions as the director of the budget and the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation agree, so as to annually provide to the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation, in the aggregate, a sum not to exceed the principal, interest, and related expenses required for such bonds and notes. Any service contract entered into pursuant to this section shall provide that the obligation of the state to pay the amount therein provided shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of monies available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for such purpose, subject to annual appropriation by the legislature. Any such service contract or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the authority, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation as security for such bonds and notes, as authorized by this section.

§ 387. Fees for searches and copies of accident and accident reconstruction reports. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the fees for searching the records of the authority for an accident report, for furnishing a copy of an accident report, and for furnishing a copy of an accident reconstruction report shall not exceed the fees charged by the division of state police pursuant to section sixty-six-a of the public officers law and/or by the department of motor vehicles pursuant to section two hundred two of the vehicle and traffic law, provided, however, that no fee shall be charged to any public officer, board or body, or volunteer fire company, for searches or copies of accident reports to be used for a public purpose.

§ 388. Limitation on powers of the authority. A department, authority, division or agency of the state shall not offer or permit any officer or employee of such department, authority, division or agency to use a pass to access and/or use the thruway without the officer's or employee's personal payment of tolls except when the use of such a pass and/or use of the thruway without personal payment of tolls occurs in the normal course of the employment or duties of such officer or employee. This section shall not diminish the rights of any employee pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement.

§ 389. Information concerning services for human trafficking victims in facilities at service areas. 1. In addition to providing information concerning services for human trafficking victims, including the national human trafficking hotline telephone number on its closed circuit television systems, any service area maintained or operated by the authority shall make available in plain view and in a conspicuous place and manner in the public restrooms and in any lactation rooms, informational cards and/or signs developed by:

(a) the office of temporary and disability assistance in consultation with the New York state interagency task force on human trafficking; or

(b) the United States Department of Homeland Security.

2. All informational cards and signs shall only contain information concerning services for human trafficking victims and shall prominently include the national human trafficking hotline telephone number.

3. For purposes of this section, "lactation room" shall mean a hygienic place, other than a restroom, that: (a) is shielded from view; (b) is free from intrusion; (c) contains a chair, a working surface, and, if the building is otherwise supplied with electricity, an electrical outlet; and (d) is intended to be used for the primary purpose of breastfeeding or expressing breast milk.

BRIDGE AND TUNNEL AUTHORITIES

TITLE 2

NEW YORK STATE BRIDGE AUTHORITY

§ 525. Short title. This title may be cited as the "State Bridge Authority Act."

§ 526. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context,

1. The term "authority" shall mean the New York State Bridge Authority created by section five hundred twenty-seven of this chapter;

2. The term "commissioner" shall mean the commissioner of transportation in the department of transportation;

3. The term "department" shall mean the state department of transportation;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mid-Hudson bridge" shall be deemed to mean the bridge constructed pursuant to chapter nine hundred of the laws of nineteen hundred twenty-three, as amended;

6. The term "Rip Van Winkle bridge" shall be deemed to mean the bridge constructed across the Hudson river north of the village of Catskill and south of the city of Hudson;

7. The term "Bear Mountain bridge" shall be deemed to mean the bridge constructed by the Bear Mountain Hudson River Bridge Company, pursuant to chapter three hundred and fifty-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred twenty-two.

7-a. The term "Hamilton Fish Newburgh-Beacon bridge" shall be deemed to mean both spans of the bridge constructed across the Hudson river between a location in the vicinity of the city of Newburgh and a location in the vicinity of the city of Beacon;

7-b. The term "walkway over the Hudson bridge" shall be deemed to mean the Poughkeepsie-Highland railroad bridge which was constructed across the Hudson river north of the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mid-Hudson bridge.

8. The term "Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge" shall be deemed to mean the bridge constructed across the Hudson river within five miles of the city of Kingston;

9. The term "bridges" shall be deemed to mean collectively Mid-Hudson bridge, Rip Van Winkle bridge, Bear Mountain bridge, Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge, both spans of the Hamilton Fish Newburgh-Beacon bridge, walkway over the Hudson bridge, and incidental roads, approaches, structures and facilities;

10. The terms "bonds" and "notes" shall mean bonds and notes, respectively, issued by the authority pursuant to this title;

11. The term "comptroller" shall mean the state comptroller.

§ 526-a. Ceremonial designation. All that portion of touring route 199 connecting Ulster and Dutchess counties which is identified and known as the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge shall be designated and known as the "George Clinton Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge".

§ 526-b. Ceremonial designation of the Bear Mountain bridge. 1. The Bear Mountain bridge, as defined in subdivision seven of section five hundred twenty-six of this title, shall be designated and known as the "Purple Heart Veterans Memorial Bridge".

2. The chairman of the New York State Bridge Authority shall provide for the installation and maintenance of adequate signing of the state highway system as designated pursuant to subdivision one of this section. However, to avoid confusion and to limit any possible disruption of commerce, the designation called for pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall be one of ceremonial nature and the official name of such bridge shall not be changed as a result of this act.

§ 527. New York State Bridge Authority. 1. The board known as the "New York State Bridge Authority," is hereby continued. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, shall have a corporate seal and be capable of suing and being sued. It shall consist of seven members who shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The present members of the board shall continue in office, unless a vacancy occurs, for the remainder of the time for which they were respectively appointed. Of the additional members, one shall be appointed for a term to expire February first, nineteen hundred fifty-one, and one for a term to expire February first, nineteen hundred fifty-two. Their successors and any additional appointees shall be appointed, one annually, for terms of five years each from the first day of February; provided that the person appointed as successor to the member heretofore appointed for a three year term which expired February first, nineteen hundred forty-seven, shall be appointed for a term to expire February first, nineteen hundred fifty. Vacancies in the office of such board occurring otherwise than by expiration of term also shall be filled by the governor by appointment by and with the advice and consent of the senate for the unexpired term, and the provisions of section thirty-nine of the public officers law relating to recess appointments shall apply to such board. Such board shall choose from its members a chairman. The members of such board shall be paid or reimbursed for their necessary expenses incurred under this title, but shall receive no compensation for their services.

2. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue so long as it shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding (including bonds or obligations hereafter issued or incurred) and until its existence shall be terminated by law. Upon ceasing to exist all of its rights and properties shall pass to the state.

3. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this section, on the effective date of this subdivision the term of each board member currently in office, or any vacant position, shall be deemed expired, and each such board members may continue to serve in holdover status until their successor is appointed by the governor and with the advice and consent of the senate and the provisions of section thirty-nine of the public officers law relating to recess appointments shall apply to such appointments. Initial appointments made pursuant to this subdivision shall be for the following terms, the first three of such initial appointments shall be for a term of three years, the second two of such initial appointments shall be for a term of five years, and final two of such initial appointments shall be for a term of seven years. After these initial terms have expired, board members shall be appointed for a term of five years, provided, however, that each board member may serve in holdover until a successor board member is appointed. Vacancies in the office of such board occurring otherwise than by expiration of term also shall be filled by the governor by appointment by and with the advice and consent of the senate for the unexpired term, and the provisions of section thirty-nine of the public officers law relating to recess appointments shall apply to such board.

1. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes;

1-a. To hold in the name of the state any real property acquired for its corporate purposes and, with the approval of the commissioner, to sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any real property or rights or easements therein, heretofore or hereafter acquired pursuant to the "state bridge authority act", determined by it to be not necessary for its corporate purposes, and shall accept ownership of the walkway over the Hudson bridge in the name of the state, and acquire such incidental roads, approaches, structures and facilities as may be necessary.

1-b. To accept from any person gifts of money or property for its corporate purposes.

2. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs;

3. With the consent of the commissioner to use the agents, employees and facilities of the department, paying its proper proportion of the compensation and expenses of such agents and employees and of the cost of such facilities;

4. To appoint officers, agents and employees and fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, which shall apply to the authority as a municipal corporation other than a city;

5. To make contracts, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

6. To conduct a study regarding traffic congestion and capacity needs in and around the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mid-Hudson bridge and to make recommendations concerning reasonable alternatives designed to alleviate any known capacity deficiencies in and around such bridge. Such study shall include, but is not limited to an investigation to determine whether it is in the public interest to construct a new bridge over the Hudson river at or near the city of Poughkeepsie and in connection therewith to contract with engineers, surveyors, contractors and others for environmental review, preliminary plans, borings, surveys and estimates of cost, and if the authority by resolution, and the commissioner in writing filed with the authority, shall determine that the construction of such bridge is in the public interest, to construct such bridge at a location approved by the commissioner, on lands of the state of New York or lands to be acquired in the name of the state of New York as hereinafter provided, together with incidental roads, approaches, structures and facilities, subject to such consents and approval of federal authorities in any case as may be necessary.

7. To maintain, reconstruct, and operate the bridges so long as its corporate existence shall continue;

8. To charge tolls for the use of the bridges, with the exception of the walkway over the Hudson bridge, subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders and noteholders as may be made as hereinafter provided, except, however, that subject to such agreements the rates of tolls charged on the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mid-Hudson bridge, the Kingston Rhinecliff bridge, the Bear Mountain bridge, the Rip Van Winkle bridge, and the Hamilton Fish Newburgh-Beacon bridge shall be the same.

9. To construct and maintain over, or along the bridges, or either of them, telephone, telegraph or electric wires and cables, gas mains, water mains, and other mechanical equipment not inconsistent with the use of the bridges for vehicular traffic, to contract for such construction and to lease the right to construct and/or use the same on such terms and for such considerations as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a period of more than ten years from the date when it is made;

10. To construct and maintain facilities for the public, not inconsistent with the appropriate use of the bridges, to contract for such construction, and to lease the right to construct and/or use such facilities on such terms and for such considerations as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a period of more than ten years from the date when it is made;

10-a. Subject to the approval of the commissioner, to construct, reconstruct and improve highway connections to any of the bridges; the construction to be under the supervision and control of the commissioner as agent of the authority. Upon completion thereof, jurisdiction of such connections to be transferred by the authority to the commissioner who shall thereafter maintain such connections in the same manner as other highways maintained by the state;

10-b. To contribute and pay over such amount as the authority shall determine to any city for such city's share of the cost, including damages and expenses, to be borne by or charged against such city for the acquisition of real property acquired by the state within such city for state highways connecting with any of the bridges and approaches situated within a radius of one mile from the nearest bridge abutment.

11. To issue negotiable bonds and notes and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

12. To enter on any lands, waters and premises for the purpose of making surveys, soundings and examinations;

13. To advertise the facilities and advantages of the bridges;

14. To appoint or designate one or more persons for the purpose of enforcing law, order and the observance of the rules and regulations established by the authority. Each person as and when so appointed or designated may, during the term of such appointment or designation be uniformed and shall be known as a "New York state bridge authority patrolman" and shall be a police officer as defined by paragraph (e) of subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law and shall have, within the limits of the cities, towns and villages within which any part of a bridge, or any ferry property, operated by the authority shall be located, all the powers of a constable, marshal, police constable or police officer of a city, town or village in the execution of criminal processes; and criminal process issued by any court or magistrate of a county, town, city or village within which any part of a bridge or any ferry property operated by the authority shall be located, may be directed to and executed by any such patrolman notwithstanding the provisions of any local or special act, ordinance or regulation.

15. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly given in this title.

16. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States of America, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them and, subject to any agreement with bondholders or noteholders, to enter into contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable in connection therewith, including, its bonds, notes or other obligation evidencing any such loan from the United States of America, the state of New York or any agency or instrumentality of either of them.

17. To enter into a lease or operating agreement, for a period not to exceed ninety-nine years, with the office of parks, recreation and historic preservation for all or a portion of the walkway over the Hudson bridge for the purpose of a state park. Such agreement may assign or allocate responsibility for the construction, operation, maintenance, replacement and management of the deck and approaches and structures providing public access to the state park, but the authority shall retain responsibility for maintaining the superstructure of the walkway over the Hudson bridge. The office of parks, recreation and historic preservation is authorized to enter into such agreement, which may include the installation and maintenance by the office of parks, recreation and historic preservation of any personal property and equipment used in connection therewith. The office of parks, recreation and historic preservation shall propose in its annual budget an amount for all costs and obligations under such agreement and these costs may be supplemented by private donations.

§ 529. Acquisition of land; dedication by counties, towns or villages. 1. Whenever the authority shall determine that any real estate or rights or easements therein are required for any of the bridges or for highway connections, and the commissioner shall approve such determination, the commissioner shall acquire such real estate or rights or easements therein in the name of the state by dedication, by agreement, by acquisition pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law, or by appropriation, in the manner provided by section thirty of the highway law.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the board of supervisors of any county, the town board of any town, the common or city council of any city, or the trustees of any village, without any election or meeting of the taxpayers or voters or other authorization, is hereby authorized to dedicate to the state for any of the bridges or for highway connections, any real property, easements or rights in land owned by such county, town, city or village which the authority may deem necessary.

§ 530. Construction contracts. The authority shall construct the bridges pursuant to a contract or contracts. Such contracts shall be let under the supervision of the commissioner and shall be subject to his approval. Such contracts shall be let by the authority in the manner, so far as practicable, provided in section thirty-eight of the highway law, but failure to comply with such section shall not invalidate such contracts. Requisitions for the payments to be made pursuant to such contracts shall be approved by the commissioner. The work under such contracts shall be subject to the supervision and approval of the commissioner.

§ 531. Moneys of the authority. 1. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the comptroller as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the comptroller on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person as the authority may authorize to make such requisition. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the comptroller or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing.

2. The authority shall have power notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds or notes as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority, or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or in any way to secure bonds or notes, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or in any way to secure bonds or notes and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

3. After reserving sufficient moneys to provide for payment of the cost of improvement and repair of the existing bridges, the authority shall apply the remainder of its funds not otherwise obligated in reduction or extinguishment of any bonds of the authority outstanding at the time this act takes effect.

4. Except as otherwise provided by this act, any moneys of the authority which are not immediately required may be invested in obligations of the categories specified in subdivisions one to five, both inclusive, of section ninety-eight of the state finance law maturing or redeemable at the option of the holder within two years of the date of such investments or in a certificate of deposit of a bank or trust company in this state.

§ 532. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any corporate purpose in the aggregate principal amount not to exceed one hundred fifty-three million two hundred fifty-five thousand dollars.

2. In addition to the bonds authorized in subdivision one of this section, the authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to issue bonds in such principal amount as the authority may determine for the purpose of refunding bonds then outstanding and to issue such additional bonds as may be necessary to pay the costs incurred in connection with said refunding, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds to be refunded, provided, however, that upon any such refunding or repayment the aggregate principal amount of outstanding bonds may be greater than one hundred fifty-three million two hundred fifty-five thousand dollars only if the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds to be issued shall not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds so to be refunded or repaid. For purposes hereof, the present values of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds and of the aggregate debt service of the bonds so refunded or repaid, shall be calculated by utilizing the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds from the payment dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds and to the price bid including estimated accrued interest or proceeds received by the authority including estimated accrued interest from the sale thereof.

3. Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding fifty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, payable semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (not inconsistent with subdivision four of this section) as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Any bonds of the authority may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine.

4. Every issue of bonds shall be subject to redemption prior to maturity at the election of the authority on notice by publication in a newspaper published in the city of New York of not more than ninety days, and if the state shall furnish the authority with sufficient money therefor, the authority shall redeem the bonds in accordance with the terms of redemption then applicable.

5. Except as otherwise may be expressly provided by the authority every issue of bonds and notes shall be general obligations payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreement with the holders of particular bonds or notes pledging any particular tolls or revenues.

6. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or notes may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds or notes, as to

(a) Pledging the tolls and revenues of the bridges or any of them to secure the payment of the bonds or notes;

(b) The rates of the tolls to be charged, and the amount to be raised in each year by tolls, and the use and disposition of the tolls and other revenues;

(c) The setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) Limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the bridges;

(e) Limitations on the purposes to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds or notes then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or notes or of any issue thereof;

(f) Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds or notes or on other debt;

(g) The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders or noteholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds or notes the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) Limitations on the amount of moneys derived from any of the bridges to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) Vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section five hundred thirty-seven hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) Any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or notes.

7. Neither the members of the board nor any person executing such bonds or notes shall be liable personally on said bonds or notes or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

8. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase any bonds or notes issued by it. The authority may hold, cancel, or resell such bonds or notes subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders or noteholders.

9. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of tolls or other revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the tolls or other revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

§ 532-a. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue its negotiable notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and from time to time to issue renewal notes, maturing not later than five years from their respective dates in an amount which together with bonds shall not exceed one hundred fifty-three million two hundred fifty-five thousand dollars pursuant to subdivision one of section five hundred thirty-two of this chapter, excluding bonds issued to fund said notes. Subject to any agreements with bondholders or noteholders thereof the authority may pledge such moneys or revenues for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

§ 533. Agreement of the state. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds or notes that the state will not authorize the construction or maintenance of any additional highway crossings for vehicular traffic over, under or across the waters of the Hudson river in addition to the bridges authorized by this title which will be competitive with the bridges, nor will it limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect such charges and tolls as may be convenient or necessary to produce sufficient revenue to meet the expense of maintenance and operation and to fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of the bonds or notes, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of bondholders or noteholders, until the bonds and notes, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any actions or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders or noteholders, are fully met and discharged. For the purposes of this section, any such crossing shall be considered as competitive only if it shall form a connection for vehicular traffic over, under or across the Hudson river south of a line drawn across the Hudson river fifteen miles north of the Rip Van Winkle bridge, and north of the Bear Mountain bridge.

§ 535. Bonds and notes legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds and notes are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds and notes are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 536 Tax contract by the state. (1) The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds and notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the making of any payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds, tolls and other revenue pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds and notes, shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

§ 537. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any of the bonds as the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Dutchess, Ulster, Greene or Columbia and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee, to represent the bondholders for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of the bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) By suit, action or special proceeding, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority and the board to collect tolls and rentals adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such tolls and rentals, and to require the authority and the board to carry out any other agreement with the bondholders and to perform its and their duties under this title;

(b) Bring suit upon the bonds;

(c) By action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the bondholders;

(d) By action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the bondholders;

(e) Declare all bonds due and payable and if all defaults shall have been made good, then upon written request of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of the bonds then outstanding, shall annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of the bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in Dutchess, Ulster, Greene or Columbia county.

4. Before declaring the principal of all bonds due and payable the trustee shall first give notice in writing to the authority and to the attorney-general of the state of New York and if, when such notice is given to the attorney-general the legislature shall be in session, the trustee shall not declare the principal of the bonds due before the legislature adjourns sine die, or if the legislature be not then in session the trustee shall not declare the principal of the bonds due until such an adjournment of the next regular session. If at such session the legislature shall take any action as a result of which past due principal and interest with interest on past due interest, together with the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, as fixed by the court, shall be paid within sixty days of its adjournment, default in the payment thereof shall thereby be cured.

5. Any such trustee shall, whether or not all bonds have been declared due and payable, be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver who may enter and take possession of the bridges or any part or parts thereof and operate and maintain the same and collect and receive all tolls, rentals and other revenues thereafter arising therefrom in the same manner as the authority itself might do and shall deposit all such moneys in a separate account and apply the same in such manner as the court shall direct. In any suit, action or proceedings by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any tolls, rentals and other revenues derived from the bridges.

6. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of the bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

7. Whenever the word "bonds" or the word "bondholders" shall have been used in this section five hundred and thirty-seven said word shall be deemed to apply only to the bonds or the holders of the bonds of the particular series affected by the default or failure, and the remedies conferred by this section shall be available only to the holders of the bonds of the series, and shall apply only to the bridge or bridges affected by such default or failure.

§ 538. Tolls, rules and regulations. 1. The authority shall have power to make rules and regulations for the preservation and use of the bridges and for the payment of tolls. Such rules and regulations shall be subject to the approval of the commissioner. Violations of such rules shall constitute an offense punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars; provided, however, that violators of such rules relating to traffic or pedestrian use of a bridge or highway within the jurisdiction of the authority, shall be apprehended and prosecuted in the same manner as provided for the apprehension and prosecution of violators of the vehicle and traffic law who commit violations thereof upon the public highways. For the purpose of conferring jurisdiction upon courts and judicial officers generally, violations of those rules of the authority which are defined as offenses shall nevertheless be deemed misdemeanors for the sole purpose of making applicable all procedural provisions of law relating to misdemeanors. The rates of tolls shall be determined by the authority subject to the approval of the commissioner, and to the provisions and limitations of any agreement with the bondholders or noteholders. Nothing herein shall give the commissioner any power or authority to require any act or thing which will constitute a breach of any agreement with the bondholders or noteholders.

2. The authority shall continue to maintain and collect tolls on the bridges and shall, subject to the terms of any agreement, now outstanding or hereafter made, with bondholders or note holders or with the commissioner, apply tolls and other revenues from the operation of the bridges to the following charges in the order named:

(a) For payment of the cost of maintenance and operation of the bridges;

(b) For payment of installments of principal and of interest maturing upon bonds of the authority, if any;

(c) For payments from time to time in such amounts as the authority shall deem necessary to be contributed to a city pursuant to subdivision ten-b of section five hundred twenty-eight of this chapter.

3. None of the bridges constructed prior to January first, nineteen hundred fifty-eight, shall be free from tolls until all of such bridges are free therefrom, subject to such agreements with bondholders and noteholders as may be made as hereinafter provided, and the rates of tolls on the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mid-Hudson bridge, the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge, the Bear Mountain bridge, the Rip Van Winkle bridge, and the Hamilton Fish Newburgh-Beacon bridge shall be uniform.

§ 539. Powers of the comptroller. Whenever the state and the funds of which the comptroller is custodian or trustee, or any of them, shall be the owner of any bonds or notes of the authority the comptroller is hereby authorized as to any of such bonds or notes: (a) by agreement with the authority to modify the terms of such bonds or notes or the terms of any contract affecting or securing such bonds or notes, provided that no such agreement shall reduce the principal amount of such bonds or notes or in the opinion of the comptroller jeopardize the payment of the principal thereof or the interest thereon at the rate thereafter payable thereon and provided that any agreement relating to toll rates shall be approved by the commissioner; (b) to sell such bonds or notes to the authority at a price not less than the principal amount thereof and accrued interest; (c) to surrender such bonds or notes to the authority in exchange for other bonds or notes of the authority in a principal amount not less than the principal amount of the bonds or notes surrendered, with such cash adjustments as the comptroller may deem proper; (d) to make such agreements and to do such acts and things as the comptroller shall deem necessary or convenient to exercise the powers hereby conferred; provided, however, that nothing done under the provisions of this section shall in any manner affect the rights of other bondholders or noteholders.

§ 540. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been filed within the time limit established by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law.

3. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 541. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

TRIBOROUGH BRIDGE AUTHORITY

§ 550. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Triborough bridge and tunnel authority act".

§ 551. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context,

1. The term "authority" shall mean the Triborough bridge and tunnel authority, the corporation organized pursuant to section five hundred fifty-two of this chapter as consolidated pursuant to section five hundred fifty-two-a of this chapter;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of New York;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title or by authorities consolidated with the authority;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the city;

6. The term "the project" shall mean any project or one or more or all of the projects described in subdivision nine of section five hundred fifty-three or in section five hundred fifty-three-a of this chapter;

7. The term "parkway" shall include elevated, surface or subsurface parkways and parking fields and other facilities connected therewith, and any bridge, viaduct, embankment or other structure that is part thereof or crosses the same;

8. The term "highway" shall mean any road, street, avenue or boulevard, whether elevated, surface or subsurface, and includes any parking fields and other facilities connected therewith and any bridge, viaduct, embankment or other structure that is a part thereof or crosses the same.

9. The term "metropolitan transportation authority" shall mean the corporation created by section twelve hundred sixty-three of this chapter.

10. The term "New York city transit authority" shall mean the corporation created by section twelve hundred one of this chapter.

§ 552. Triborough bridge and tunnel authority. 1. A board, to be known as "Triborough bridge and tunnel authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation. It shall consist of seventeen members, all serving ex officio. Those members shall be the persons who from time to time shall hold the offices of chairman and members of metropolitan transportation authority. The chairman of such board shall be the chairman of metropolitan transportation authority, serving ex officio, and, provided that there is an executive director of the metropolitan transportation authority, the executive director of the authority shall be the executive director of the metropolitan transportation authority, serving ex officio. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the authority and shall be responsible for the discharge of the executive and administrative functions and powers of the authority. The chairman and executive director, if any, each shall be empowered to delegate his or her functions and powers to the executive officer of the Triborough bridge and tunnel authority or to such person as may succeed to the powers and duties of said executive officer. The chairman and other members of the board hereby created, and the executive director, if any, shall not be entitled to compensation for their services hereunder but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

2. A majority of the whole number of members of the authority then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business or the exercise of any power of the authority. Except as otherwise specified in this title for the transaction of any business or the exercise of any power of the authority, the authority shall have the power to act by a majority vote of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is in attendance and except further, that in the event of a tie vote the chairman shall cast one additional vote. For the purposes of the voting and quorum requirements of this subdivision, the voting and quorum requirements set forth in subdivision three of section twelve hundred sixty-three of this chapter and in any by-law of the metropolitan transportation authority adopted pursuant to the provisions of such subdivision shall be applicable hereto. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of five years and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds, notes and other obligations have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds, notes or other obligations have otherwise been discharged, including bonds, notes or other obligations issued by the metropolitan transportation authority that are payable in whole or in part by revenues of the authority. When all liabilities incurred by the authority of every kind and character have been met and all its bonds, notes and other obligations have been paid in full, including bonds, notes or other obligations issued by the metropolitan transportation authority that are payable in whole or in part by revenues of the authority, or such liabilities or bonds, notes or other obligations have otherwise been discharged, all rights and properties of the authority shall pass to and be vested in the city, except those rights and properties held by it relating to the convention center which shall pass to and be vested in the state. The authority shall retain full jurisdiction and control over all its projects, with the right and duty, subject to the limitations of subdivision nine of section five hundred fifty-two-a of this title, to charge tolls and collect revenues therefrom, for the benefit of the holders of any of its bonds, notes or other obligations or other liabilities, even if not issued or incurred in connection with the project. Upon the authority's ceasing to exist all its remaining rights and properties shall pass to the city, except those rights and properties held by it relating to the convention center which shall pass to the state.

3. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of this or any other law, general, special or local, no officer or employee of the state or of any public corporation as defined in the general corporation law shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his office or employment or any benefits provided under the retirement and social security law or under any public retirement system maintained by the state or any of its subdivisions by reason of being a member or the chairman of the authority.

§ 552-a. Consolidation. 1. (a) Triborough bridge authority, the corporation created pursuant to section five hundred fifty-two of this chapter, as originally enacted, and the New York city parkway authority, the corporation created by section two hundred seventy-seven of this chapter, are hereby consolidated into a single corporation to be known as Triborough bridge authority, which shall be a continuance of the corporate existence of the authorities so consolidated.

(b) Triborough bridge authority, the corporation as consolidated pursuant to paragraph one-a of this section, and New York city tunnel authority, the corporation created pursuant to section six hundred twenty-seven of this chapter, are hereby consolidated into a single corporation to be known as Triborough bridge and tunnel authority, which shall be a continuance of the corporate existence of the authorities so consolidated.

2. In this section the words "original authorities" refer to authorities which are consolidated pursuant to subsection one of this section before their consolidation, and the words "consolidated authority" refer to the single authority resulting from consolidation.

3. The board created by section five hundred fifty-two of this chapter shall be the board of the consolidated authority and all powers of the consolidated authority shall be vested in and exercised by said board.

4. All property, rights and powers of each of the original authorities are hereby vested in and shall be exercised by the consolidated authority, subject, however, to all pledges, covenants, agreements and trusts made or created by the original authorities, respectively.

5. All debts, liabilities, obligations, agreements and covenants of the original authorities are hereby imposed upon the consolidated authority.

6. All bondholders and other creditors of the original authorities and persons having claims against or contracts with the original authorities of any kind or character may enforce such debts, claims and contracts against the consolidated authority in the same manner as they might have against the original authorities respectively, and the rights and remedies of such bondholders, creditors and persons having claims or contracts shall not be limited or restricted in any manner by this title.

7. In continuing the functions and carrying out the contracts, obligations and duties of any of the original authorities, the consolidated authority is hereby authorized to act in its own name or in the name of the original authorities as may be convenient or advisable.

8. All employees of the original authorities shall become employees of the consolidated authority. Nothing in this title shall affect the civil service status of such employees or their rights, privileges, obligations or status with respect to any pension or retirement system.

9. The foregoing provisions of this section and of all other sections of this title are subject to the following limitation: that the consolidated authority, after the consolidation effected by subdivision one-b of this section, shall not apply any tolls or revenues derived from projects which before such consolidation were under control of one of the original authorities to the payment of bonds, or interest thereon, either issued, or for the issuance of which a contract has been made, before such consolidation by the other of the original authorities, or to the payment of any certificate of indebtedness issued, at any time, for unpaid interest on such bonds; but this shall not limit the application of tolls or revenues from any project to the payment of bonds (including refunding bonds) authorized by the consolidated authority after consolidation.

§ 553. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have power

1. to sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

* 3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including, the power to dispose of personal property with a value of five hundred thousand dollars or less by public auction in accordance with guidelines adopted by the authority pursuant to title five-A of article nine of this chapter. The board shall adopt guidelines that shall provide for advertising and such other safeguards as the authority may deem appropriate in the public interest.

* NB Effective until June 30, 2028

* 3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes;

* NB Effective June 30, 2028

4. To acquire, in the name of the city, by purchase or condemnation real property or rights or easements therein necessary or convenient for its corporate purposes, and, except as may otherwise be provided herein, to use the same so long as its corporate existence shall continue;

4-a. Whenever any real property is determined by the authority to be unnecessary for its corporate purpose.

(a) to surrender such real property to the board of estimate of the city for other public use or purpose of such city, or

(b) to sell and convey or lease in behalf of such city any real property acquired by the city at the expense of the authority. The proceeds of any such sale or lease shall be paid to the authority and applied to its corporate purpose. Any such lease shall run for a term not to exceed ten years, and a renewal thereof for a term not to exceed ten years.

4-b. To apply for and receive and accept grants of property, money and services and other assistance offered or made available to it by any person, government or agency whatever, which it may use to meet capital or operating expenses and for any other use within the scope of its powers, and to negotiate for the same upon such terms and conditions as the authority may determine to be necessary, convenient or desirable. Subject to the rights of the holders of any outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority, metropolitan transportation authority, and New York city transit authority, and to facilitate the efficient financial management of the authority, metropolitan transportation authority, its subsidiary corporations, and New York city transit authority and its subsidiary corporations (the "affiliated entities"), the authority may, and may permit and direct any affiliated entity to, transfer revenues, subsidies and other monies or securities to one or more funds or accounts of another affiliated entity for use by such other affiliated entity, provided at the time of such transfer it is reasonably anticipated that the monies and securities so transferred will be reimbursed, repaid or otherwise provided for by the end of the next succeeding calendar year if reimbursement or repayment is required by law or by any agreement to which any of the affected affiliated entities is subject. Any revenues of an affiliated entity that are transferred to another affiliated entity, which transfer was not authorized by a provision of law other than this subdivision, shall be considered to be required to be repaid to the affiliated entity which was the source of such revenues by the end of the next succeeding calendar year following such transfer.

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and subject to agreements with bondholders, rules and regulations for the regulation of the use of the project and the establishment and collection of tolls thereon. Violations of such rules and regulations shall be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not exceeding fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not longer than thirty days, or both, except that violation of any rule or regulation governing or regulating traffic on the projects of the authority shall be a traffic infraction as the same is defined in the vehicle and traffic law and shall be punishable as such;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees and facilities of the city, paying its proper proportion of the compensation or cost, and to use the corporation counsel as legal adviser;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees and fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

7-a. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, the bridge and tunnel officers employed by the authority shall have the power to issue simplified traffic informations for traffic infractions as defined in section one hundred fifty-five of the vehicle and traffic law, committed on the sites owned, operated and maintained by the triborough bridge and tunnel authority, such informations to be administered pursuant to the provisions of title A of chapter forty of the administrative code of the city of New York or article two-A of the vehicle and traffic law, as applicable and also shall have the power to issue notices of violation for transit infractions committed in and about any or all of the facilities, equipment or real property owned, occupied or operated by the metropolitan transportation authority or its subsidiaries and the New York city transit authority and its subsidiaries, as provided and in accordance with section twelve hundred nine-a of this chapter. Nothing set forth in this subdivision shall be construed to impede, infringe or diminish the rights and benefits that accrue to employees and employers through collective bargaining agreements, or impact or change an employee's membership in a bargaining unit.

8. To make contracts, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

9. To acquire, design, construct, maintain, operate, improve and reconstruct, so long as its corporate existence shall continue, the following projects,

(a) a bridge heretofore constructed, known as Robert F. Kennedy bridge, over the East river from the borough of Queens to the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, over and across Ward's island and Randall's island in said river, together with such incidental bridges and structures as shall be necessary or convenient in order to give access from the bridge to both of said islands, together with approaches to said bridges (herein collectively referred to as the "Robert F. Kennedy bridge project"); and

(b) a bridge heretofore constructed, known as Bronx-Whitestone bridge, over the East river from a point at or near Whitestone in the borough of Queens to the borough of the Bronx, together with approaches to such bridge (herein collectively referred to as the "Whitestone bridge project"); and

(c) a bridge heretofore constructed, known as Henry Hudson bridge, across the Harlem river ship canal together with approaches to such bridge and together with so much of the parkway known as Henry Hudson parkway as extends southerly from said bridge through Inwood Hill park to the northerly end of Riverside drive, (as it was before the construction of said parkway) (herein collectively referred to as the "Henry Hudson bridge project"); and

(d) a bridge heretofore constructed, known as Marine parkway bridge, to be known hereafter as the Marine parkway-Gil Hodges memorial bridge, from the borough of Brooklyn across the waters of Rockaway inlet to Jacob Riis park in the borough of Queens, together with the approaches to such bridge and together with the parkway of which said bridge is a part, (and the parking field connected therewith), from and including the toll plaza north of said bridge extending eastwardly from said bridge to the easterly boundary of Jacob Riis park (herein collectively referred to as the "Marine parkway bridge project"); and

(e) a bridge heretofore constructed known as Cross Bay parkway bridge, to be known hereafter as the Cross Bay Veterans Memorial bridge, from Big Egg marsh in Jamaica bay in the borough of Queens across the waters of Beach channel to Rockaway peninsula in said borough, together with the parkway known as Cross Bay parkway, of which said bridge is a part, from and including the toll plaza north of said bridge southerly to the right of way of the Long Island railroad on Rockaway peninsula (herein collectively referred to as the "Cross Bay parkway bridge project"); and

(f) a vehicular tunnel or tunnels heretofore constructed, known as Queens Midtown tunnel, under the East river from the borough of Manhattan to the borough of Queens, together with such incidental bridges and tunnels, including but not limited to, a tunnel or tunnels or bridge across Newtown creek from the borough of Queens to the borough of Brooklyn and such other structures, appurtenances, facilities and approaches as shall be necessary or convenient; and

(g) a vehicular tunnel or tunnels under construction, known as Hugh L. Carey tunnel, under the East river from the southerly end of the borough of Manhattan to the general vicinity of Hamilton avenue in the borough of Brooklyn, together with such incidental tunnels and such other structures, appurtenances, facilities and approaches as shall be necessary or convenient; and

(h) a vehicular tunnel or tunnels or bridge, herein called the Brooklyn Richmond project, under or across New York bay from the borough of Richmond to the borough of Brooklyn, together with such incidental tunnels, bridges and such other structures, appurtenances, facilities and approaches as shall be necessary or convenient; and

(i) a vehicular tunnel or tunnels or arterial highway across the borough of Manhattan connecting the Queens Midtown tunnel with the Lincoln (Midtown Hudson) tunnel, together with such incidental tunnels and such other structures, appurtenances, facilities and approaches as shall be necessary or convenient; and

(j) Bus stations or terminals or automobile parking garages at or in the vicinity of the Columbus circle in the borough of Manhattan and of the Manhattan plazas of the Queens Midtown and Hugh L. Carey tunnels. Any such project may, subject to zoning restrictions, include space and facilities for any or all of the following: public recreation, business, trade and other exhibitions, sporting and athletic events, public meetings, conventions and all kinds of assemblages, and in order to obtain additional revenues, space and facilities for business and commercial purposes. Whenever the authority deems it to be in the public interest, the authority may lease any such project or any part or parts thereof or contract for the management and operation thereof or of any part or parts thereof. Any such lease or contract may be for a period of not exceeding ten years, or, if any of the revenues therefrom are or are to be pledged to secure bonds then such lease or contract may be for a period extending not later by more than one year than the last maturity of such bonds.

(k) Subject to and in accordance with all contract provisions with respect to any bonds and the rights of the holders of bonds, a vehicular bridge across the East river between the boroughs of the Bronx and Queens, east of the Bronx-Whitestone bridge, together with such incidental bridges and other structures, appurtenances, facilities and approaches as shall be necessary or convenient (herein collectively referred to as the "Throgs Neck bridge project"). With the consent of the United States of America, the Throgs Neck bridge project or a portion thereof, if deemed necessary or convenient by the authority, may be constructed upon or pass over any part of the military reservation known as Fort Schuyler and owned by the United States of America. No lands, easements or rights in land shall be acquired by the authority for the purposes of this paragraph without the prior consent of the board of estimate of the city.

(l) Subject to section five hundred fifty-three-b of this title, a convention and exhibition center, including facilities ancillary or functionally related thereto, to be built in New York county at a location generally bounded by thirty-ninth street on the north, thirtieth street on the south, eleventh avenue on the east and twelfth avenue on the west (herein referred to as the convention center).

(m) Subject to section five hundred fifty-three-c of this title, the acquisition of new rapid transit cars and the transfer of the same to the New York city transit authority for a nominal consideration. The authority shall have no obligation to operate, repair, maintain or reconstruct such cars subsequent to their acquisition and transfer nor shall it be liable to the New York city transit authority by reason of any warranty, express or implied, in respect to such cars. Manufacturers or other warranties furnished to the authority in connection with the purchase of such cars shall be assigned to the New York city transit authority for enforcement.

(n) Subject to section five hundred fifty-three-c of this title, the rehabilitation of existing rapid transit cars of the New York city transit authority upon such terms and conditions as shall be agreed to by the parties. The authority shall have no obligation to operate, repair, maintain or reconstruct such cars subsequent to the rehabilitation and transfer back to the New York city transit authority nor shall it be liable to the New York city transit authority by reason of any warranty, express or implied, in respect to such cars. Manufacturers or other warranties furnished to the authority in connection with the purchase of parts or materials for such cars shall be assigned to the New York city transit authority for enforcement.

(o) Subject to section five hundred fifty-three-c of this title, the acquisition of new diesel self-propelled railroad passenger cars and the transfer of the same to the metropolitan transportation authority, for a nominal consideration, for use on commuter railroads owned or controlled by the metropolitan transportation authority. The authority shall have no obligation to operate, repair, maintain or reconstruct such cars subsequent to their acquisition and transfer, nor shall it be liable to the metropolitan transportation authority by reason of any warranty, express or implied, in respect of such cars. Manufacturers or other warranties furnished to the authority in connection with the purchase of such cars shall be assigned to the metropolitan transportation authority for enforcement.

(p) Subject to section five hundred fifty-three-c of this title, the acquisition of land in the name of the authority in the vicinity of Penn Station in the city of New York and/or the improvement of such land for the benefit of the Long Island Rail Road for a lay-up yard and other railroad purposes and the transfer of the said land and any improvements thereon to the metropolitan transportation authority, parent corporation of the said railroad, for a nominal consideration. The authority shall have no obligation to operate, repair, maintain or reconstruct such land or its improvements subsequent to such transfer.

(r) In its discretion and subject to and in accordance with all contract provisions with respect to any bonds and the rights of the holders of bonds, at the request of the New York city transit authority or the metropolitan transportation authority, (i) the planning for and the design, acquisition, construction, improvement, reconstruction or rehabilitation, in the name of the authority, of any capital asset, whether in the nature of personal or real property (or any interest therein) which is used or useful for a transit or transportation purpose other than a marine or aviation purpose of the requesting authority or its designated subsidiary (and in the case of such assets then owned, operated by or under lease to the requesting authority or its designated subsidiary, the receipt by the authority of the use, occupancy, control or possession of such assets for the purpose of planning, designing, constructing, improving, reconstructing or rehabilitating the same) and the transfer or transfer back of such asset to the requesting authority, its designated subsidiary or other designee for a nominal consideration upon its acquisition or upon the completion of such improvement, construction, reconstruction or rehabilitation; or, alternatively or in combination with the foregoing, (ii) the making of capital grants to the requesting authority or its designated subsidiary to permit it to undertake and to finance such planning, design, acquisition, improvement, construction, reconstruction or rehabilitation, or, alternatively or in combination with the foregoing, (iii) the financing of all or any part of the costs to the authority or to any other person or entity, public or private, of such planning, design, acquisition, construction, improvement, reconstruction or rehabilitation of any such capital asset through or accompanied by a leasing of the asset by such person or entity to the authority or through or accompanied by a sale by the authority to any such person or entity and leaseback to the authority, in each case for subleasing to the requesting authority, its designated subsidiary or other designee for a nominal rental, except that such leasing or leaseback from such person or entity may be directly to the requesting authority or its designated subsidiary or other designee, for consideration, with the consent and at the expense of the authority. The foregoing authorization shall extend to and include the continuation of projects enumerated in paragraphs (m), (n), (o) and (p) of this subdivision without regard to any limitations set forth in section five hundred fifty-three-c of this title. The authority shall have no obligation to operate or, except as may otherwise be provided in any lease to which it may be a party as aforesaid, repair or maintain any capital asset after its acquisition, construction, improvement, reconstruction or rehabilitation and subsequent transfer, lease or sublease, nor shall it be liable to the transferee, lessee or sublessee by reason of any warranty, express or implied, in respect thereof. Warranties furnished in connection with such acquisition, improvement, construction, reconstruction or rehabilitation shall be assignable and assigned as directed by the requesting authority and approved by the authority.

(s) The central business district tolling program to the extent specified in article forty-four-C of the vehicle and traffic law and in this title.

The word "approaches" shall include all structures necessary or convenient to give access to the project from connecting streets and roads;

10. In its discretion

(a) in the case of the Robert F. Kennedy bridge project and the Whitestone bridge project to pay to the city not exceeding thirty-five per centum of the cost (including awards for damages and expenses) of the acquisition of land for the widening of existing roads, streets, parkways or avenues and for new roads, streets, parkways or avenues, connecting with the approaches.

(b) to purchase from the persons, partnerships, associations or corporations who were the owners of any land acquired for the widening of existing roads, streets, parkways or avenues or for new roads, streets, parkways or avenues connecting with the approaches or of any interest in such land at the date title to such land was vested in the city in any proceeding heretofore or hereafter instituted for the acquisition thereof by condemnation, or from their successors in interest or legal representatives, their right, title, interest and/or claim in and to the award or awards or any part thereof to be made in such proceeding after the date of such purchase, and to take an assignment thereof to the authority, provided, however, that in the case of the Robert F. Kennedy bridge project and the Whitestone bridge project the aggregate amount expended by the authority on account of all such purchases together with the aggregate amount paid to the city in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subdivision, shall not exceed thirty-five per centum of the cost (including awards for damages and expenses) of the acquisition of land for the widening of existing roads, streets, parkways or avenues, and for new roads, streets, parkways or avenues, connecting with the approaches,

(c) to construct, in whole or in part, an elevated parkway in the borough of Brooklyn from the southerly terminus of the Gowanus creek bridge project to a point at or near Owls Head park connecting with the Gowanus creek bridge project, and

(d) with the consent of the city to construct and develop for the purpose of public parks so much of the area of lands, selected as in this title provided, or otherwise acquired or to be acquired and used in connection with the project and with new or existing roads, streets, parkways or avenues connecting with such projects, and so much of the area of lands now owned by the city to be used in connection with such projects or with new or existing roads, streets, parkways or avenues connecting with such projects, as shall be agreed upon under a contract or contracts hereby authorized to be entered into between the authority and the city, at the sole expense of the authority and done under construction contracts let and supervised by the authority, pursuant to plans and specifications prepared by the authority, the commissioner of parks and recreation of the city or other agency.

The city shall maintain such connecting roads, streets, parkways and avenues as provided by law. The public parks and the parkways herein referred to as connecting with the approaches, any part of the cost of which is paid by the authority, shall be under the jurisdiction of the department of parks and recreation of the city and shall be maintained by that department. Service roads appurtenant to said parkways shall be under the jurisdiction of the city commissioner of transportation and shall be maintained by him;

11. To design and with the consent of the city, to construct new parks, parkways or highways or improvements to existing parks, parkways or highways either connecting directly or indirectly with the project or for the purpose of attracting or facilitating traffic or improving approaches to and connections with the project. The authority shall have no jurisdiction or control over any new parks, parkways or highways constructed by it pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph eleven after the completion of the construction thereof. The general powers conferred in this subdivision eleven shall include the power heretofore conferred on the parkway authority to construct a northerly extension of Cross Bay parkway in the borough of Queens, as authorized in sections two hundred seventy-eight, two hundred eighty-two-a and two hundred eighty-two-b of this chapter, and such general powers shall not be construed to be limited by the provisions of this act granting the power to construct any particular improvement, but shall be construed as an extension of the powers of the authority.

12. To charge tolls, fees or rentals for the use of the project, subject to and in accordance with such agreement with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided. The toll rates charged for the use of either the Triborough or Whitestone bridge project shall, however, never be less than the toll rates charged for the use of the other, and this clause shall be deemed an obligation to the holders of any and all bonds at any time issued secured by the revenues of said projects. Subject to contracts with bondholders, all tolls and other revenues derived from any project shall be applied to the payment of operating, administration and other necessary expenses of the authority properly chargeable to such project and thereafter to the payment of interest or principal of bonds or for making sinking fund payments for bonds, not otherwise adequately provided for, whether issued in connection with such project or any other project. It is the intention hereof that surplus funds from any project remaining after providing for the payment of all operating, administration and other necessary expenses of the authority and all contract provisions with respect to any bonds, may be used to meet obligations incurred for other projects and if not so used or reserved for such use shall, at the discretion of metropolitan transportation authority, be transferred to metropolitan transportation authority or New York city transit authority pursuant to section five hundred sixty-nine-c of this title. Subject to contracts with bondholders, the authority may treat one or more projects as a single enterprise in respect of revenues, expenses, the issuance of bonds, maintenance, operation or other purposes;

12-a. To establish and charge variable tolls, fees and other charges for vehicles entering or remaining within the central business district and to make rules and regulations for the collection of such tolls, fees and other charges, subject to and in accordance with such agreement with bondholders and applicable federal law as may be made as hereinafter provided. Subject to agreements with bondholders and applicable federal law, all tolls, fees and other revenues derived from the central business district tolling program shall be applied to the payment of operating, administration, and other necessary expenses of the authority properly allocable to such program, including the capital costs of such program, and to the payment of interest or principal of bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority or the metropolitan transportation authority issued for transit and commuter projects as provided in section five hundred fifty-three-j of this title, and shall not be subject to distribution under section five hundred sixty-nine-c of this title or section twelve hundred nineteen-a of this chapter. The provisions of section twenty-eight hundred four of this chapter shall not be applicable to the tolls and fees established by the authority pursuant to this subdivision. Any such fares, tolls, and other charges shall be established and changed only if approved by resolution of the authority adopted by not less than a majority vote of the whole number of members of the authority then in office, with the chairman having one additional vote in the event of a tie vote, and only after a public hearing.

13. To construct and maintain over, under, along or across the project telephone, telegraph, or electric wires and cables, gas mains, water mains and other mechanical equipment not inconsistent with the appropriate use of the project, to contract for such construction and to lease the right to construct and/or use the same on such terms and for such considerations as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made except with the approval of the board of estimate of the city, or for a period of more than twenty years from the date when it is made;

14. To construct and maintain facilities for the public, not inconsistent with the use of the project, to contract for such construction, and to lease the right to construct and/or use such facilities on such terms and for such considerations as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a period of more than five years from the date when it is made except with the approval of the board of estimate of the city;

15. To issue negotiable bonds and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

16. To enter on any lands, waters, and premises for the purpose of making surveys, soundings and examinations;

16-a. With the consent of the city and notwithstanding any other provision of law, whenever real property having dwellings or other structures thereon has been acquired by the authority or the city for the purpose of constructing any project authorized by this title, (a) to acquire real property by purchase, gift, devise or condemnation in the manner provided in this title, and as the agent of the city, for the purpose of providing new sites on which such dwellings or other structures may be relocated; (b) to sell such dwellings or other structures or to provide for the removal, relocation and improvement of such dwellings or other structures on new foundations at such new sites by contract or by its own labor force or by a combination of methods; (c) to contract for the installation of water, sewer, gas and electrical facilities and other necessary appurtenances required for the completion and restoration of such dwellings or other structures; (d) to landscape such new sites; (e) to contract with any person, firm or corporation or with the city for the improvement or installation of streets, sewers, water lines or other facilities in connection with the relocation of such dwellings or other structures and to pay the cost thereof; (f) to contract with the several owners of such property for the conveyance of the new sites with improvements thereon to such owner in settlement in part or in whole of the compensation and damage to which they are entitled; and (g) to sell such sites with or without dwellings or other structures and improvements thereon.

The authority may agree with the owners of property acquired, in settlement in part or in whole of the damages to which they are entitled, to compensate such owners for the cost of acquiring new sites, removing dwellings thereto on new foundations, the installation of water, sewer, gas and electrical facilities and other necessary appurtenances required for the complete restoration of such dwellings or other structures and landscaping of the new site.

For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "structures" shall mean and include buildings used as and for hospitals, schools, community and religious institutions, cultural and recreational and other neighborhood and community facilities, but shall exclude retail stores, factories and commercial and industrial establishments of any kind.

17. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly given in this title and to assist and cooperate with the metropolitan transportation authority to carry out the powers of the metropolitan transportation authority in furtherance of the purposes and powers of the authority as provided in this article, including, without limitation, the transactions described in sections twelve hundred sixty-six-c, twelve hundred sixty-nine, and twelve hundred seventy-d of this chapter.

18. A copy of any report submitted by the authority pursuant to sections twenty-eight hundred, twenty-eight hundred one and twenty-eight hundred two of this chapter shall be submitted contemporaneously to the mayor of the city.

19. To acquire in its own name certain real or personal property, or any interest therein, including leasehold interests, air and subsurface rights, easements and lands under water at a site located in New York county and generally bounded by thirty-third street on the north, thirtieth street on the south, tenth avenue on the east and eleventh avenue on the west, such property or any interest therein to be acquired for railroad or other corporate purposes, and in the event such real or personal property or any interest therein is determined by the authority to be unnecessary for railroad or other corporate purposes, to sell, convey or lease in its own name such real or personal property or any interest therein.

20. Prior to the adoption after January first, nineteen hundred eighty-seven by the authority of a general resolution pursuant to which it is authorized to issue any general or special obligation bonds or notes to finance a project pursuant to the authorization contained in paragraph (r) of subdivision nine of this section, not including any series resolution or resolutions, and prior to the adoption of any amendment to a general resolution, whenever adopted, pursuant to which it is authorized to issue any general or special obligation bonds or notes for such purpose, not including a series resolution or resolutions, the authority shall submit a copy of such proposed resolution to the metropolitan transportation authority capital program review board (hereinafter referred to as the "board"). Within fifteen days of such submission, the board may notify the authority of its unanimous approval of the same by the members entitled to vote thereon, or if the resolution is not approved and no individual member of the board who is entitled to vote on such resolution has notified the authority in writing of his disapproval, the resolution shall be deemed to have been approved. Neither the board nor any member thereof shall disapprove a proposed resolution by reason of any covenant requiring the authority to charge and fix tolls, rentals and other charges sufficient to pay its operating expenses and the debt service, including the funding of requisite reserves, on the bonds and notes authorized by such resolution. If the board or any member thereof entitled to vote thereon shall disapprove a proposed resolution, the authority may, at any time, resubmit a reformulated resolution. Within ten days of the submission of such reformulated resolution the board may notify the authority of its unanimous approval of the same by the members entitled to vote thereon, or, if the reformulated resolution is not approved and no individual member of the board who is entitled to vote thereon has notified the authority in writing of his disapproval within such period, the reformulated resolution shall have been deemed to have been approved. Any individual member of the board who votes against a resolution or a reformulated resolution or who notifies the authority of his disapproval shall state his reasons therefor. The member appointed on the recommendation of the mayor of the city of New York shall participate in the action of the board with respect to any resolution of the authority submitted pursuant to this subdivision. The authority shall not adopt a resolution or any amendment to a resolution disapproved by the board as herein provided.

21. To invest any funds, accounts or other monies not required for immediate use or disbursement, at the discretion of the authority, in any of the investments in which the metropolitan transportation authority is permitted to invest its monies pursuant to subdivision four of section twelve hundred sixty-five of this chapter.

* 22. Section twenty-eight hundred seventy-nine of this chapter shall apply to the authority's acquisition of goods or services of any kind, in the actual or estimated amount of fifteen thousand dollars or more, provided that (i) a contract for services in the actual or estimated amount of less than one hundred thousand dollars shall not require approval by the board of the authority regardless of the length of the period over which the services are rendered, and provided further that a contract for services in the actual or estimated amount of one hundred thousand dollars or more shall require approval by the board of the authority regardless of the length of the period over which the services are rendered unless such a contract is awarded to the lowest responsible bidder after obtaining sealed bids and (ii) the board of the authority may by resolution adopt guidelines that authorize the award of contracts to small business concerns, to service disabled veteran owned businesses certified pursuant to article seventeen-b of the executive law, or minority or women-owned business enterprises certified pursuant to article fifteen-a of the executive law, or purchases of goods or technology that are recycled or remanufactured, in an amount not to exceed four hundred thousand dollars without a formal competitive process and without further board approval. The board of the authority shall adopt guidelines which shall be made publicly available for the awarding of such contract without a formal competitive process.

1. If and when the Port of New York authority (herein called the "port authority") is authorized to make agreements with the authority relating to the construction, ownership, maintenance and operation of the Brooklyn Richmond project as a bridge (herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Narrows bridge project") and to acquire land, easements and rights in land necessary or convenient therefor, the authority shall have power, in its discretion and subject to and in accordance with all contract provisions with respect to any bonds and the rights of the holders of bonds to make such agreements with the port authority on such terms and conditions and with such payments and considerations as the authority and the port authority shall deem in the public interest, as to any one or more of the following:

(a) the acquisition of such land, easements and rights in land for, and the design, construction and financing of, the Narrows bridge project by the port authority, including the payment therefor by the authority and the transfer of title thereto and the right of possession and use thereof, provided, however, that the agreement shall contain provisions as to the land, easements and rights in land to be acquired, and that such provisions of such agreement shall be subject to the approval of the mayor of the city, and provided further that such agreement shall provide that no other land, easements or rights in land will be acquired for Narrows bridge purposes by the port authority.

(b) the construction, with the consent of the city, either by the authority or the port authority, of new parks, parkways, highways, or improvements to existing parks, parkways or highways, either connecting directly or indirectly with the Narrows bridge project, for the purpose of attracting or facilitating traffic or improving approaches to and connections with such project, and the acquisition of land, easements and rights in land therefor,

(c) leasing the Narrows bridge project, in whole or in part, by the authority from the port authority and the payment by the authority of rents or other payments therefor, and for the operation, maintenance, construction and reconstruction thereof by the authority pursuant to and to the extent provided by the terms of such agreement for leasing,

(d) charging and fixing tolls, fees and rentals for the use of such project, sufficient to provide for the payment by the authority of the costs of construction, maintenance and operation thereof and all rents and other payments under any such agreement for leasing, for the payment of the principal of and interest on any bonds or other obligations to be issued by the authority to pay the cost of such project and all other payments to be made by the authority including reserves and sinking funds therefor, in accordance with any such agreement for leasing or other agreement made between the port authority and the authority in connection with such project,

(e) securing the payment of rents and other payments under any such agreement for leasing, or other agreement made between the port authority and the authority in connection with such project, by pledging such tolls, fees, rentals and revenues of such project and providing for the use and disposition of such tolls, fees, rentals and revenues, and for the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof, and, subject to and in accordance with all contract provisions with respect to any bonds, by pledging for such security tolls, fees, rentals and revenues of any or all of the projects,

(f) limiting the construction by the authority of vehicular crossings between Brooklyn and Richmond,

(g) acquiring from the port authority all or any part of the right, title and interest of the port authority in such project and the lands, easements and rights in land acquired for such project by the port authority,

(h) defining events of default under such agreement, fixing periods of grace and providing rights and remedies of the parties in case of default thereunder including the right to terminate and fix the terms and conditions for the termination of the same, and

(i) any other matters of like or different character for the protection of the interest of the port authority or the authority or the respective holders of bonds thereof or the public with respect to the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improvement, operation or maintenance of the Narrows bridge project.

2. The authority shall have power to do any acts or things, transfer such rights or interests and execute and deliver such papers as the authority may deem necessary or desirable to carry out any of the foregoing.

3. The authority, so long as its corporate existence shall continue, shall have power to operate, maintain, construct, improve and reconstruct the Narrows bridge project and to exercise all of the powers herein granted to the authority with respect to the Narrows bridge project in connection with any agreements between the port authority and the authority or otherwise, and subject to any such agreements shall have the use and occupancy of any lands, easements or rights in land acquired in the name of the city for such project. The powers conferred in this section shall be in addition to and shall not limit the other powers conferred in this title.

§ 553-b. Additional powers and provisions in relation to convention center. 1. In relation to the convention center and for the purpose of effectuating the development of the same, the authority shall have power, in its discretion and subject to and in accordance with all contract provisions with respect to any bonds and the rights of the holders of bonds, to:

(a) Finance all or any part of the costs of and incidental to studies, the site acquisition, planning, design, construction and development of the convention center, through the issuance of its negotiable notes or bonds or other obligations;

(b) Lease in its own name the convention center from the subsidiary of New York state urban development corporation (such subsidiary being herein referred to as the development corporation) created pursuant to a chapter of the laws of nineteen hundred seventy-nine for studies, site acquisition, planning, design, construction and development of the convention center, and sublease its interest therein to the state (acting by and through the commissioner of general services), each of such lease and sublease to be upon such terms and conditions as the parties thereto shall agree, provided that (i) such lease shall (a) provide for an initial lump-sum rental in the amount of the aggregate of those costs of and incidental to the studies, site acquisition, planning, design, construction and development of the convention center theretofore temporarily financed by the State and for a nominal rental thereafter, (b) provide to the lessee the option to purchase for a nominal price the leased property in its own name at the expiration or earlier termination of the term of the lease, and (c) relieve the development corporation of any obligation to operate, repair, maintain or reconstruct the convention center, and (ii) such sublease shall (a) provide for rental payments equal to the amount needed to pay debt service on said notes, bonds or other obligations as the same becomes due, (b) provide that the obligations of the state to make such rental payments shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of moneys made available to the state, and that no liability on account thereof shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for the purpose thereof, (c) provide to the sublessee the option to purchase for a nominal price any interest of the authority in the subleased property at the expiration or earlier termination of the term of the sublease, and (d) relieve the authority of any obligation to operate, repair, maintain or reconstruct the convention center;

(c) Agree with the development corporation (in the lease referred to in paragraph (b) above or by separate agreement) to make payments to the development corporation from the proceeds of the sale of the obligations referred to in paragraph (a) above upon requisition therefor by the development corporation, in an aggregate amount equal to the costs of and incidental to the studies, site acquisition, planning, design, construction and development of the convention center less the amount theretofore paid to the development corporation as rentals under the lease referred to in paragraph (b) above; and

(d) Additionally participate in the site acquisition, planning, design, construction and development of the convention center through representation on the board of directors of the development corporation.

2. Bonds, notes or other obligations issued for the purposes enumerated in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section shall be issued in the manner provided in section five hundred sixty-one of this chapter, subject only to the following limitations:

(a) The aggregate principal amount of such bonds, notes or other obligations shall not exceed three hundred seventy-five million dollars ($375,000,000), excluding bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds, notes or other obligations theretofore issued for such purposes; provided, however, that upon any such refunding or repayment the total aggregate principal amount of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations may be greater than three hundred seventy-five million dollars ($375,000,000) only if the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations to be issued shall not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so to be refunded or repaid. For purposes hereof, the present values of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so refunded or repaid, shall be calculated by utilizing the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations from the payment dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and to the price bid including estimated accrued interest or proceeds received by the authority including estimated accrued interest from the sale thereof; and

(b) Bonds issued for such purposes may be issued as a single issue or in series from time to time provided that (i) such issue or each such series shall be scheduled to mature over a term of not less than twenty and not more than forty years, (ii) with respect to bonds issued prior to the date of completion of the convention center, as estimated by the authority, any principal payments or principal installments to be made or provided for shall commence not later than two years following the estimated date of such completion, (iii) with respect to bonds issued on or after the date of completion of the convention center, as certified by the authority, any principal payments or principal installments to be made or provided for shall commence not later than one year following the date of issue of such bonds, and (iv) the aggregate amount of principal and interest or principal installments and interest payable in each year during which such principal payments or installments are made or provided for shall, (1) with respect to such issue, or (2) with respect to each such series or the aggregate of all such series, as the authority shall elect, be as nearly equal as practicable.

3. The authority shall have power to enter into such other agreements with the city, the state, New York state urban development corporation and the development corporation to effectuate the provisions of this article, and to perform any act or thing, transfer such rights or interests and execute and deliver such instruments, documents or papers as it may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out any of the foregoing. The powers conferred in this section shall be in addition to and not in limitation of the other powers conferred in this title.

§ 553-c. Additional powers and provisions in relation to railroad and rapid transit projects. 1. The authority shall have the power to finance all or any part of the costs of railroad and rapid transit costs enumerated in paragraphs m, n, o and p of subdivision nine of section five hundred fifty-three of this article through the issuance of its negotiable bonds, notes or other obligations in the manner provided in section five hundred sixty-one of this chapter subject only to the following limitations:

(a) The aggregate principal amount of such bonds, notes or other obligations shall not exceed three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) excluding (i) bonds issued to fund any reasonably required debt service reserve fund, and (ii) bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds, notes or other obligations theretofore issued for any of the purposes set forth in this subdivision, and

(b) Bonds issued for such purposes may be issued as a single issue or in series from time to time provided that (i) such issue or each such series shall be scheduled to mature over a term of not less than twenty and not more than thirty years, (ii) the aggregate amount of principal and interest or principal installments and interest payable in each year during which such principal payments or installments are made or provided for shall not exceed twenty-six million dollars, and (1) with respect to such issue, or (2) with respect to each such series or the aggregate of all such series, as the authority shall elect, be as nearly equal as practicable.

2. Moneys expended pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall be utilized insofar as practical to: (a) purchase at least one hundred twenty-four new subway cars for the New York city transit authority, (b) rehabilitate at least two hundred eighty existing subway cars for the New York city transit authority, (c) acquire at least fifteen new diesel self-propelled railroad passenger cars for the metropolitan transportation authority commuter service area and (d) provide a passenger car lay-up yard and other facilities for the Long Island Rail Road in Manhattan. The authority shall either apply for or make reasonable effort to secure federal assistance in support of each of the programs herein authorized and to the extent such federal assistance is forthcoming and/or other cost savings are realized with respect to any such program shall have the power to expand the size of that or any of the foregoing programs.

§ 553-d. Special Triborough bridge and tunnel authority special obligation bonds and notes. In addition to the powers contained elsewhere in this title with respect to the projects authorized by paragraphs (m), (n), (o), (p) and (r) of subdivision nine of section five hundred fifty-three of this title, and subject to the application of the revenues and other monies and assets of the authority pursuant to section twelve hundred seventy-d of this chapter, the authority may issue its bonds and notes to finance such projects payable from and secured by all or any part of the moneys received by the authority from the metropolitan transportation authority special assistance fund established under section twelve hundred seventy-a of this chapter, provided however that such bonds and notes may also be payable from and secured by any other moneys, securities and funds designated by the authority as additional security therefor. Debt service on bonds and notes issued by the authority pursuant to this section which is paid or reimbursed from moneys received by the authority from the metropolitan transportation authority special assistance fund shall not be deemed to constitute debt service incurred by the authority for purposes of subdivision three of section twelve hundred nineteen-a of this chapter. Such bonds or notes shall be issued in the manner provided in section five hundred sixty-one of this title.

§ 553-e. Laws applicable to certain activities. 1. (a) In its performance of any project authorized by paragraph (m), (n), (o), (p) or (r) of subdivision nine of section five hundred fifty-three of this title, the authority shall not be deemed the agent or instrumentality of any other public benefit or municipal corporation notwithstanding the fact that title to any real or personal property (or any interest therein) which is the subject of or is a part of such project is held by, or upon completion of such project is to be transferred to, any such entity, and the provisions of section five hundred fifty-nine of this title shall not be applicable with respect to any such project. In its performance of any such project for the New York city transit authority, however, the provisions of section twelve hundred nine of this chapter shall apply to the authority as if it were the "authority" referred to therein.

(b) Neither the provisions of section one hundred ninety-seven-c of the New York city charter, relating to a uniform land use review procedure, nor the provisions of any other local law of the city of New York of like or similar tenor or import shall apply (i) to the acquisition of any real property (or any interest therein) for the purposes of any such project by the city or by the New York city transit authority or any of its subsidiaries; (ii) to the subsequent transfer of any real property (or interest therein) so acquired to the authority or its designee for the purposes of such project or to the transfer to the authority or its designee for such purposes of any real property (or interest therein) then owned by the city or by the New York city transit authority or any such subsidiary; nor (iii) to the transfer to the authority or its designee for such purposes of the right of use, occupancy, control or possession of any real property (or interest therein), whether presently owned or hereafter acquired by the city or by the New York city transit authority or any such subsidiary; provided in each such case, however, that if at the time of such proposed acquisition or transfer the real property which is the subject of such acquisition or transfer is not then being utilized for a transit or transportation purpose or is not an insubstantial addition to such property contiguous thereto; (a) the authority proposing to acquire or receive such property shall, unless a submission with respect to such property has previously been made and approved as herein provided, submit to the community board for the community district in which such property is located, data with respect to the proposed use of such property and to the design of any facility proposed to be constructed thereon; (b) such community board shall inform the board of estimate of the city of New York, with copies to the city planning commission of the city of New York and the proposing authority, of its views and recommendations with respect thereto within forty-five days of such submission, and if the community board shall fail to so inform the board of estimate within such period it shall be deemed to have recommended the proposal; and (c) the board of estimate shall, within forty-five days of the recommendation of the community board, approve or disapprove such acquisition or transfer, and if the board of estimate shall fail to act within such period it shall be deemed to have approved the same.

2. After the transfer, transfer back, lease or sublease by the authority of any such project or part thereof, actions for damages to real or personal property or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, based upon the use, condition or state of such project or part thereof may not be instituted against the authority, which shall have no liability or responsibility to the transferee, lessee or sublessee or to third parties therefor.

3. If any property, real or personal (or any interest therein), needed or useful for or in connection with any such project is owned by any municipal corporation, such corporation may transfer the same, with or without consideration, to the authority for such purpose, and if such property is owned by the city of New York, such transfer may be by action of its mayor alone.

4. The authority, upon suitable notice to and an offer to consult with an officer designated by the city of New York, may occupy the streets of the city of New York for the purpose of doing any work over or under the same in connection with any such project without the consent of or payment to the city of New York.

5. The providing of any such project for the use or benefit of the New York city transit authority or any of its subsidiaries shall not relieve the city of its obligations under law or by lease to pay the capital costs of the said authority or of its subsidiaries.

6. Except as the authority shall otherwise agree, title to any such project or any part thereof or interest therein which shall have been transferred, leased or subleased to the New York city transit authority or its designated subsidiary, shall remain in such transferee, lessee or sublessee, any provisions of title nine of article five of this chapter or of any lease or other agreement entered into under the provisions of that title to the contrary notwithstanding.

7. The metropolitan transportation authority, the New York city transit authority and the designated subsidiaries of each of them are each hereby authorized (i) to request the authority to undertake any such project; (ii) to acquire in its own name by gift, purchase or condemnation, and, additionally, in the case of the metropolitan transportation authority, by appropriation pursuant to section twelve hundred sixty-seven-a of this chapter, any real or personal property (or any interest therein), which is needed or useful for or in connection with such project, the provisions of any lease or other agreement with the city to the contrary notwithstanding, and to surrender the use, occupancy, control or possession of or to transfer the same, or of any other such real or personal property (or any interest therein) which it owns, leases, operates or controls, to the authority; (iii) to accept a transfer, transfer back, lease or sublease of any such project or part thereof upon its completion; (iv) to undertake any such project itself, or to finance, through loans, leases or otherwise, any other person or entity, public or private, to do so, in each case using funds granted by the authority to pay all or any part of the costs thereof (such undertaking, in the case of the New York city transit authority and its subsidiary, the Manhattan and Bronx surface transit operating authority, being free of any restriction set forth in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph b of subdivision one of section twelve hundred three or in paragraph (c) of subdivision five of section twelve hundred three-a of this chapter); and (v) to make its agents, employees and facilities available to the authority in connection therewith.

8. No such project to be constructed upon real property theretofore used for a transit or transportation purpose, or on an insubstantial addition to such property contiguous thereto, which will not change in a material respect the general character of such prior transit or transportation use, nor any acts or activities in connection with such project, shall be subject to the provisions of article eight, nineteen, twenty-four or twenty-five of the environmental conservation law, or to any local law or ordinance adopted pursuant to any such article. Nor shall any project or acts or activities in connection therewith taken by any person or entity, public or private, pursuant to paragraph (m), (n), (o), (p), or (r) of subdivision nine of section five hundred fifty-three of this title be subject to the provisions of article eight of the environmental conservation law if such project, acts or activities to be taken in connection therewith require the preparation of a statement under or pursuant to any federal law or regulation as to the environmental impact thereof.

9. In connection with the negotiation, award and implementation of contracts of the authority relating to any project hereafter initiated pursuant to paragraphs (m), (n), (o), (p) and (r) of subdivision nine of section five hundred fifty-three of this title, the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subdivision thirteen of section twelve hundred sixty-six-c of this chapter shall apply to the authority as if it were the "authority" referred to therein, and the officer designated by the metropolitan transportation authority pursuant to paragraph (e) of that subdivision shall perform the duties therein described with respect to such contracts of the authority.

10. The financing of any such project through the issuance of bonds or notes of the authority shall be subject to the provisions of section twelve hundred sixty-nine-b of this chapter.

11. The aggregate principal amount of bonds and notes issued and outstanding at any time to finance projects authorized by paragraphs (m), (n), (o), (p) and (r) of subdivision nine of section five hundred fifty-three of this title shall not exceed one billion one hundred million dollars through December thirty-first, nineteen hundred eighty-six and three billion two hundred million dollars thereafter, provided however that such latter amount shall not exceed two billion two hundred million dollars for all bonds and notes other than those issued pursuant to section five hundred fifty-three-d of this title. This limitation shall not include (i) bonds and notes issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds or notes theretofore issued for such purposes, (ii) bonds issued to fund any reasonably required debt service reserve fund for bonds and notes, and (iii) an amount equal to any original issue discount from the prinicipal amount of any bonds or notes issued and then outstanding. From the proceeds of the bonds and notes provided for in the first sentence of this subdivision, other than bonds or notes authorized by section five hundred fifty-three-d of this title, the authority shall not expend more than one billion three hundred twenty million dollars for transit projects as defined in section twelve hundred sixty-six-c of this chapter nor more than eight hundred eighty million dollars for transportation facilities as such term is defined in subdivision fourteen of section twelve hundred sixty-one of this chapter other than marine or aviation facilities. For the purposes of this subdivision, facilities under the jurisdiction of the Staten Island rapid transit operating authority shall be considered transit projects.

§ 553-f. Tokens. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, but subject to agreements with noteholders and bondholders, the authority shall offer for sale tokens with respect to residents of the county of Richmond and may, except as otherwise provided herein, regulate the use thereof. Tokens for residents of the county of Richmond shall entitle the purchaser to crossings over the Verrazzano-Narrows bridge at a reduced cost of eighty per centum of the regular crossing fare imposed on nonresidents of the county of Richmond. In the event the authority shall impose a surcharge in addition to the regular toll for crossings over the Verrazzano-Narrows bridge, such surcharge shall not be deemed a part of the regular crossing fare for purposes of this section, and the tokens offered for sale to the residents of the county of Richmond as herein provided shall also entitle the purchaser to a permanent exemption from the payment of any such surcharge in an amount equal to the amount of any such surcharge imposed during calendar year nineteen hundred ninety-three. Application for such tokens or other payment devices shall be made in such manner as prescribed by the authority and shall contain such information as the authority may reasonably require.

§ 553-g. Fire training. All persons appointed to the position of bridge and tunnel officer and maintenance division employees of the Triborough bridge and tunnel authority on or after the effective date of this section shall participate in a training course of at least twenty-eight hours on the subject of fire prevention and control. The training courses shall be conducted by the Fire Academy of the New York city fire department. Such academy shall also administer any retraining or refresher courses attended by personnel of the authority. Any costs incurred by the city of New York for the aforementioned training shall be reimbursed by the authority.

§ 553-h. Tokens. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, but subject to agreements with noteholders and bondholders, the authority shall offer for sale tokens and may, except as otherwise provided herein, regulate the use thereof. Such tokens shall entitle the purchaser to crossings over the Cross-Bay Veteran's Memorial bridge at a reduced cost of sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the regular crossing fare imposed. In the event the authority shall impose a surcharge in addition to the regular toll for crossings over the Cross-Bay Veteran's Memorial bridge, such surcharge shall not be deemed a part of the regular crossing fare for purposes of this section, and the tokens or other payment devices offered for sale shall also entitle purchasers who are residents of Broad Channel or the Rockaway peninsula to a permanent exemption from the payment of any such surcharge in an amount equal to the amount of any such surcharge imposed during calendar year nineteen hundred ninety-three. Application for such tokens or other payment devices shall be made in such manner as prescribed by the authority and shall contain such information as the authority may reasonably require.

§ 553-i. Marine Parkway Bridge; tokens. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, but subject to agreements with noteholders and bondholders, the authority shall offer for sale tokens and may, except as otherwise provided herein, regulate the use thereof. Such tokens shall entitle the purchaser to crossings over the Marine Parkway Bridge at a reduced cost of sixty-six and two-thirds percentum of the regular crossing fare. In the event the authority shall impose a surcharge in addition to the regular toll for crossings over the Marine Parkway Bridge, such surcharge shall not be deemed a part of the regular crossing fare for purposes of this section, and the tokens or other payment devices offered for sale shall also entitle purchasers who are residents of Broad Channel or the Rockaway Peninsula to a permanent exemption from the payment of any such surcharge in an amount equal to the amount of any such surcharge imposed during calendar year nineteen hundred ninety-three. Application for such tokens or other payment devices shall be made in such manner as prescribed by the authority and shall contain such information as the authority may reasonably require.

§ 553-j. Metropolitan transportation authority capital lockbox fund. 1. The authority shall establish a fund to be known as the metropolitan transportation authority capital lockbox fund which shall be kept separate from and shall not be commingled with any other monies of the authority. The fund shall consist of two separate and distinct accounts: (i) the "2020 to 2024 capital program account" and (ii) the "2025 to 2029 capital program account".

(a) The 2020 to 2024 capital program account shall consist of all monies received by the authority pursuant to article forty-four-C of the vehicle and traffic law, subdivision twelve-a of section five hundred fifty-three of this title, and revenues of the real estate transfer tax deposited pursuant to subdivision (b) of section fourteen hundred twenty-one of the tax law, and sales tax pursuant to subdivision (c) of section eleven hundred forty-eight of the tax law, subparagraph (B) of paragraph five of subdivision (c) of section twelve hundred sixty-one of the tax law, and funds appropriated from the central business district trust fund established pursuant to section ninety-nine-ff of the state finance law.

(b) The 2025 to 2029 capital program account shall consist of all monies deposited pursuant to subdivision four of section twelve hundred seventy-h of this chapter.

2. Monies in the 2020 to 2024 capital program account shall be applied, subject to agreements with bondholders and applicable federal law, to the payment of operating, administration, and other necessary expenses of the authority, or to the city of New York subject to the memorandum of understanding executed pursuant to subdivision two-a of section seventeen hundred four of the vehicle and traffic law properly allocable to such program, including the planning, designing, constructing, installing or maintaining of the central business district tolling program, including, without limitation, the central business district tolling infrastructure, the central business district tolling collection system and the central business district tolling customer service center, and the costs of any metropolitan transportation authority capital projects included within the 2020 to 2024 MTA capital program or any successor programs. Monies in the 2020 to 2024 capital program account may be: (a) pledged by the authority to secure and be applied to the payment of the bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority to finance the costs of the central business district tolling program, including, without limitation, the central business district tolling infrastructure, the central business district tolling collection system and the central business district tolling customer service center, and the costs of any metropolitan transportation authority capital projects included within the 2020 to 2024 MTA capital program or any successor programs, including debt service, reserve requirements, if any, the payment of amounts required under bond and note facilities or agreements related thereto, the payment of federal government loans, security or credit arrangements or other agreements related thereto; or (b) used by the authority for the payment of such capital costs of the central business district tolling program and the costs of any metropolitan transportation authority capital projects included within the 2020 to 2024 MTA capital program or any successor programs; or (c) transferred to the metropolitan transportation authority and (1) pledged by the metropolitan transportation authority to secure and be applied to the payment of the bonds, notes or other obligations of the metropolitan transportation authority to finance the costs of any metropolitan transportation authority capital projects included within the 2020 to 2024 MTA capital program or any successor programs, including debt service, reserve requirements, if any, the payment of amounts required under bond and note facilities or agreements related thereto, the payment of federal government loans, security or credit arrangements or other agreements related thereto, or (2) used by the metropolitan transportation authority for the payment of or to reimburse the costs, including debt service, of any metropolitan transportation authority capital projects included within the 2020 to 2024 MTA capital program or any successor programs. Such revenues shall only supplement and shall not supplant any federal, state, or local funds expended by the authority or the metropolitan transportation authority, or such authority's or metropolitan transportation authority's affiliates or subsidiaries for such respective purposes. Central business district toll revenues may be used as required to obtain, utilize, or maintain federal authorization to collect tolls on federal aid highways.

2-a. Monies in the 2025 to 2029 capital program account shall be applied, subject to agreements with bondholders and applicable federal law, to the payment of the costs of any metropolitan transportation authority capital projects included within the 2025 to 2029 MTA capital program or any successor programs. Monies in the 2025 to 2029 capital program account may be: (a) pledged by the authority to secure and be applied to the payment of the bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority to finance the costs of any metropolitan transportation authority capital projects included within the 2025 to 2029 MTA capital program or any successor programs, including debt service, reserve requirements, if any, the payment of amounts required under bond and note facilities or agreements related thereto, the payment of federal government loans, security or credit arrangements or other agreements related thereto; or (b) used by the authority for the payment of such capital costs of any metropolitan transportation authority capital projects included within the 2025 to 2029 MTA capital program or any successor programs; or (c) transferred to the metropolitan transportation authority and (1) pledged by the metropolitan transportation authority to secure and be applied to the payment of the bonds, notes or other obligations of the metropolitan transportation authority to finance the costs of any metropolitan transportation authority capital projects included within the 2025 to 2029 MTA capital program or any successor programs, including debt service, reserve requirements, if any, the payment of amounts required under bond and note facilities or agreements related thereto, the payment of federal government loans, security or credit arrangements or other agreements related thereto, or (2) used by the metropolitan transportation authority for the payment of or to reimburse the costs, including debt service, of any metropolitan transportation authority capital projects included within the 2025 to 2029 MTA capital program or any successor programs. Such revenues shall only supplement and shall not supplant any federal, state, or local funds expended by the authority or the metropolitan transportation authority, or such authority's or metropolitan transportation authority's affiliates or subsidiaries for such respective purposes.

3. Any monies deposited in the fund shall be held in the fund free and clear of any claim by any person arising out of or in connection with article forty-four-C of the vehicle and traffic law, subdivision twelve-a of section five hundred fifty-three of this title, and article twenty-three of the tax law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no person paying any amount that is deposited into the fund shall have any right or claim against the authority or the metropolitan transportation authority, any of their bondholders, any of the authority's or the metropolitan transportation authority's subsidiaries or affiliates to any monies in or distributed from the fund or in respect of a refund, rebate, credit or reimbursement of monies arising out of or in connection with article forty-four-C of the vehicle and traffic law, subdivision twelve-a of section five hundred fifty-three of this title, and article twenty-three of the tax law.

3-a. Of the capital project costs paid by this fund: eighty percent shall be capital project costs of the New York city transit authority and its subsidiary, Staten Island Rapid Transit Operating Authority, and MTA Bus with priority given to the subway system, new signaling, new subway cars, track and car repair, accessibility, buses and bus system improvements and further investments in expanding transit availability to areas in the outer boroughs that have limited mass transit options; ten percent shall be capital project costs of the Long Island Rail Road, including but not limited to, parking facilities, rolling stock, capacity enhancements, accessibility, and expanding transit availability to areas in the Metropolitan Commuter Transportation District that have limited mass transit options; and ten percent shall be capital project costs of the Metro-North Commuter Railroad Company, including but not limited to, parking facilities, rolling stock, capacity enhancements, accessibility, and expanding transit availability to areas in the Metropolitan Commuter Transportation District that have limited mass transit options.

4. The authority shall report annually on all receipts and expenditures of the fund and each account within the fund. The report shall detail operating expenses of the central business district tolling program and all fund expenditures including capital projects. The report shall be readily available to the public, and shall be posted on the authority's website and be submitted to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the mayor and council of the city of New York, the metropolitan transportation authority board, and the metropolitan transportation authority capital program review board.

5. Any operating funding used for the purposes of a central business district tolling program shall only be from the 2020 to 2024 capital program account and shall be approved, annually, in a plan of expenditures, by the director of the budget.

§ 553-k. Traffic mobility review board. 1. The authority's board shall establish the "traffic mobility review" board (board), which shall consist of a chair and five members, that shall be made up of regional representation, one of whom shall be recommended by the mayor of the city of New York, one of whom shall reside in the Metro North Region, and one of whom shall reside in the Long Island Rail Road Region. Members of the board must have experience in at least one of the following areas: public finance; transportation; mass transit; or management. The chair and the members of the board shall be appointed by the authority.

2. The board shall make a recommendation regarding the central business district toll amounts to be established pursuant to article forty-four-C of the vehicle and traffic law, which shall include a variable-pricing structure, no sooner than November fifteenth, two thousand twenty and no later than December thirty-first, two thousand twenty, or no later than thirty days before a central business district tolling program is initiated, whichever is later. Such recommendation shall be submitted to the board of the Triborough bridge and tunnel authority for consideration before the Triborough bridge and tunnel authority board may approve central business district toll amounts that may be established and adopted.

3. For purposes of recommending a central business district toll or tolls in addition to the goal of reducing traffic within the central business district, the board shall, at minimum, ensure that annual revenues and fees collected under such program, less costs of such program, provide for revenues into the central business district tolling capital lockbox fund, established pursuant to section five hundred fifty-three-j of this chapter, necessary to fund fifteen billion dollars for capital projects for the 2020 to 2024 capital program, and any additional revenues above that amount to be available for any successor program. The board shall consider for purposes of its recommendations, factors including but not limited to, traffic patterns, traffic mitigation measures, operating costs, public impact, public safety, hardships, vehicle type, discounts for motorcycles, peak and off-peak rates and environmental impacts, including but not limited to air quality and emissions trends. The board shall recommend a plan for credits, discounts, and/or exemptions for tolls paid on bridges and crossings which shall be informed by a traffic study associated with the impact of any such credits, discounts and/or exemptions on the recommended toll. The board shall recommend a plan for credits, discounts, and/or exemptions for for-hire vehicles defined, and subject to a surcharge imposed by, article twenty-nine-C of the tax law for a for-hire transportation trip based on factors including, but not limited to, initial market entry costs associated with licensing and regulation, comparative contribution to congestion in the central business district, and general industry impact. The board shall produce a detailed report that provides information regarding the board's review and analysis for purposes of establishing its recommendations, including but not limited to, all of the considerations referred to in this subdivision. The board shall not recommend a toll that provides for charging passenger vehicles registered pursuant to subdivision six of section four hundred one of the vehicle and traffic law more than once per day.

4. The authority, its subsidiaries, affiliates, and subsidiaries of affiliates, the city of New York, and any state agency or authority shall provide any assistance necessary to assist in the completion of the board's work and promptly respond to any requests for information or consultation consistent with the purposes of this section.

5. The Metropolitan Transportation Authority capital plan shall be reviewed by the traffic mobility review board.

6. Members of the board shall serve without compensation.

§ 554. Transfer of officers and employees. 1. Officers and employees of any board or department in or of the city may be transferred to the authority, and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Notwithstanding the provisions of this title, the officers and employees of the city, who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system, shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems, as are now prescribed by law; and all such employees, who have been appointed to positions in the service of the city under the rules and classifications of the municipal civil service commission shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. Any person appointed by the authority under the rules and classifications of the municipal civil service commission of the city, originally or by transfer or otherwise, including persons employed or eligible for appointment under the board of education of the city or of any agency of any kind whatsoever subject to the rules and classifications of the municipal civil service commission of the city, shall have and shall continue to have all the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such pension or retirement systems, including not only the right to admission therein, but continuance and reinstatement therein, to the same extent and in like manner as though he had been appointed, transferred or restored to the civil service of the city, the board of education or any other agency of any kind whatsoever subject to the rules and classifications of the municipal civil service commission of the city. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law under the jurisdiction of the municipal civil service commission of the city.

2. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this section, no person shall be eligible for original appointment to a position of bridge and tunnel officer with the authority, unless such person has earned a high school diploma recognized as valid by the department of education.

§ 555. Selection of site. Notwithstanding any provisions of any other statute, the authority in conjunction with the commissioner of parks of the city or his successor, the commissioner of parks and recreation, and with the approval of the board of estimate of such city and with the separate approval of the mayor thereof, is hereby authorized to select sites in the boroughs of the Bronx and Queens of the city for the Whitestone bridge project and parkways connecting therewith, which sites may be in or through existing public parks, and to select sites for new public parks contiguous to such project or contiguous to the roads, streets, parkways or avenues connecting with such project. A site or sites may be selected for any or all of the aforementioned purposes and thereafter the use thereof shall be allocated by the commissioner of parks and recreation as herein provided. The property so selected solely for such project, not already owned by the city, shall be acquired at the sole expense of the authority in the manner provided for under this title. The property so selected solely for new public parks shall be acquired by the city at its sole expense. The cost of the property so selected for such project, combined with any other aforementioned purposes the use of which is to be thereafter determined, shall be divided between the city and the authority as may be determined by a contract or contracts hereby authorized to be entered into between the city and the authority, subject to the approval of the board of estimate of the city. So much of the sites so selected and acquired or such easements or rights of way therein as may be necessary or convenient for the corporate purposes of the authority may be assigned by the commissioner of parks and recreation of the city to the authority for its use so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

§ 556. Acquisition of lands by the city for the project. The city shall have power to acquire by purchase, or by condemnation in the manner provided by chapter twenty-one of the Greater New York charter, title in the name of the city to any lands, easements, or rights in land not owned by the city on the seventh day of April, nineteen hundred thirty-three, which may be required for the project, and payment therefor, and for any lands theretofore acquired but not paid for by the city, shall be made by the authority. The power hereby conferred upon the city shall not limit or restrict the power of the authority itself to acquire lands, easements, or rights in land in the name of the city.

§ 557. Grant of land by the city to the authority. The city shall have power and authority by resolution of the board of estimate of the city to assign to the authority, without consideration, any land owned by the city on the seventh day of April, nineteen hundred thirty-three, or thereafter acquired by it, needed or convenient for the project, including lands released or to be released by the state to the city pursuant to chapter three hundred seventy-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred twenty-nine as amended.

§ 557-a. Lands, easements and rights in land. 1. Lands in fee simple, easements and rights in land, including the right to cut off light, air and access (any and all of which are in this section referred to as "lands") shall after January first, nineteen hundred forty be acquired as provided in this section for the project and other authorized purposes, and the provisions of sections five hundred fifty-five, five hundred fifty-six and five hundred fifty-seven of this chapter shall not apply.

2. The authority may acquire lands for said project in the name of the city at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such lands so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

3. The city may, by resolution of the board of estimate, or by deed authorized by such a resolution, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority for the project the use and occupancy, for so long as its corporate existence shall continue, of any lands then owned by the city including lands which, by any other law, are inalienable by the city, and such conveyance may reserve to the city such rights as shall not restrict the authority in the construction, reconstruction, operation and maintenance of the project.

4. The city may acquire lands in the name of the city for the project or for the widening of existing roads, streets, parkways, avenues or elevated highways or for new roads, streets, parkways, avenues or elevated highways connecting with said project, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of land by the city. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the lands to be acquired by the city, and the part or proportion of the cost and expense to be paid by the authority, the balance to be paid by the city, and terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also determine the improvements and construction to be done by the authority. Such roads, streets, parkways, avenues and elevated highways connecting with the project shall be operated, maintained, and reconstructed by the city, and except for the original construction and improvement thereof by the authority, the city shall have exclusive jurisdiction over them.

5. The mayor may authorize a contract between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such a contract shall be necessary. Any such contract may be so authorized and entered into by the city and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by such capital budget of the city thereafter made, to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

§ 558. Consent of state. 1. The state of New York does hereby agree (a) to the use by the authority, so long as its corporate existence shall continue, of any lands necessary or convenient for the project in which the state has any right, title or interest situate, lying or being on Randall's island or Ward's island or in the waters adjacent thereto, provided, however, that no buildings used by or for the state, shall be razed or removed until the same have been vacated and (b) to the use by the authority, so long as its corporate existence shall continue, of any lands under water necessary or convenient for the project.

2. The state of New York does hereby agree to the use by the authority of any lands, lands under water or the air space over any of such lands in which the state has any right, title or interest and which are necessary or convenient for the Throgs Neck bridge project and, after title to the Narrows bridge project shall vest in the authority, for the Narrows bridge project.

§ 559. Construction contracts. The authority shall do all construction pursuant to a contract or contracts in the manner, so far as practicable, provided in the charter of the city for contracts of such city except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed ten thousand dollars such contract may be entered into without public letting, but failure to comply with this section shall not invalidate such contracts.

§ 560. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be deposited as soon as practicable in banks or trust companies to be designated by the authority. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York or of the city of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority, or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

§ 561. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any corporate purpose or power. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding advantageous or desirable, to refund, redeem or otherwise pay, including by purchase or tender any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose or power. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. The authority may issue general or special obligation bonds. Every issue of general obligation bonds shall be payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular tolls or revenues. Every issue of special obligation bonds shall be payable out of any revenues, receipts, monies or assets of the authority, the metropolitan transportation authority and its subsidiary corporations and the New York city transit authority and its subsidiary corporations identified for such purposes in accordance with agreements with the holders of particular bonds.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding fifty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, be payable at such time or times, be in such denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, such bonds as may be authorized by resolution of the board and issued on or before June thirtieth, nineteen hundred sixty-five, shall bear interest at such rate or rates as such resolution may provide.

3. The bonds may be issued for any corporate purpose of the authority.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the tolls and revenues of the project or of all or any part of any or all such projects to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rates of the tolls to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year by tolls, and the use and disposition of the tolls and other revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the project in connection with which such bonds are issued;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from any project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section five hundred sixty-seven hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under section five hundred sixty-seven hereof or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4-a. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds maturing in not exceeding ten years from their date (hereafter in this subdivision four-a referred to as "short term obligations") may contain, in addition to all other provisions authorized by this title, provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the short term obligations thereby authorized, as to (a) refunding the short term obligations and, if so provided, outstanding bonds by the issuance of bonds of the authority either by the sale of bonds and the application of the proceeds to the payment of the short term obligations and outstanding bonds or by the exchange of bonds for the short term obligations and outstanding bonds; provided, however, that the authority shall make no covenant to refund which shall require it to issue bonds, the aggregate principal amount of which shall exceed by more than ten per centum the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations and outstanding bonds to be refunded thereby;

(b) satisfying, paying or discharging the short term obligations, at the election of the authority, by the tender or delivery of bonds of the authority in exchange therefor; provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount of bonds shall not exceed by more than ten per centum the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations to satisfy, pay or discharge which the bonds are tendered or delivered;

(c) exchanging or converting the short term obligations, at the election of the holder thereof, for or into bonds of the authority; provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount of the bonds shall not exceed by more than ten per centum the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations to be exchanged for or converted into bonds;

(d) pledging bonds of the authority as collateral to secure payment of the short term obligations and providing for the terms and conditions of the pledge and manner of enforcing the pledge, which terms and conditions may provide for the delivery of the bonds in satisfaction of the short term obligations; provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount of the bonds pledged shall not exceed by more than ten per centum the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations to secure which they are pledged;

(e) depositing bonds in escrow or in trust with a trustee or fiscal agent or otherwise providing for the issuance and disposition of the bonds as security for carrying out any provisions in any resolution adopted pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) hereof and providing for the powers and duties of the trustee or fiscal agent or other depositary and the terms and conditions on which the bonds are to be issued, held and disposed of;

(f) any other matters of like or different character which relate to any provision or provisions of any resolution adopted pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) hereof.

In computing the amount of bonds of the authority which may be outstanding at any one time, short term obligations shall be excluded to the extent that the resolution authorizing the issuance of such short term obligations shall provide for the issuance of bonds pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this section, but the bonds provided to be issued by such resolution shall be included in making such computation whether or not such bonds are outstanding.

The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of short term obligations, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase short term obligations from time to time on the terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments.

4-b. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue notes (herein referred to as notes) for any corporate purpose or power and from time to time to issue renewal notes maturing not later than five years, from their respective dates whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner as herein provided for bonds or otherwise. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments.

4-c. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of tolls or other revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the tolls or other revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the board nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

§ 562. Redemption of bonds. Notwithstanding and in addition to any provisions for the redemption of bonds which may be contained in any contract with the holders of the bonds, either the state of New York or the city may, upon furnishing sufficient funds therefor, require the authority to redeem as a whole any issue of the bonds issued before January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine on any semi-annual interest payment date after January first, nineteen hundred forty-seven at one hundred and five per centum of their face value and accrued interest, or at such lower redemption price as may then be provided by contract, on not exceeding sixty days' notice by publication in such manner as may be provided by the authority upon the issuance of such bonds. Either the state of New York or the city may, upon furnishing sufficient funds therefor, require the authority to redeem as a whole any issue of bonds issued after January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine (provided such bonds are subject to redemption) at the time and at the price and in accordance with the terms upon which such bonds are redeemable.

All bonds issued for the Narrows bridge project or for the Throgs Neck bridge project shall be redeemable on such dates and on such terms as the authority shall determine, but shall, in any event, be redeemable as a whole on any interest payment date fifteen or more years after their date at not more than one hundred four per centum of their face value and accrued interest.

§ 563. Agreement of the state. 1. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with (a) the holders of the bonds that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to maintain, reconstruct and operate the project, to establish and collect such charges and tolls as may be convenient or necessary to produce sufficient revenue to meet the expense of maintenance and operation and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged, and (b) the holders of any bonds of the port authority issued in accordance with the terms of any agreement with the authority authorized hereby to finance the Narrows bridge project or secured in whole or in part by a pledge of the revenues thereof or both so issued and so secured until title to the Narrows bridge is vested in the authority or the city, that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of any agreements authorized hereby and made with the port authority respecting the Narrows bridge project or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the port authority thereunder until the obligations of the authority thereunder are fully met and discharged.

2. The state of New York does covenant and agree with the holders of any bonds issued after January first, nineteen hundred forty that no tunnel, bridge, parkway, causeway, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic (other than one of the projects), which will be competitive with the Robert F. Kennedy bridge project or the Whitestone bridge project or the Throgs Neck bridge project or the Marine parkway bridge project or the Cross Bay parkway bridge project will be constructed or maintained until the bonds together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged; provided that a tunnel, bridge, parkway, causeway, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic shall be considered as competitive with the Robert F. Kennedy bridge project or Whitestone bridge project or the Throgs Neck bridge project only if it shall form a connection for vehicular traffic over, under, or across the East river north of an extension to the east of the center line of Seventy-third street in the borough of Manhattan, and shall be considered as competitive with the Marine parkway bridge project or Cross Bay parkway bridge project only if such tunnel, bridge, parkway, causeway, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic shall form a connection for vehicular traffic with Rockaway peninsula across any part of the waters of Jamaica bay or Rockaway inlet west of seventy-three degrees, forty-six minutes of west longitude. The covenant herein contained restricting competitive traffic connections with any project or projects shall be only for the benefit of the holders of bonds secured in whole or in part by the pledge of the revenues of such project or projects. All covenants of the state made with the holders of bonds issued before January first, nineteen hundred and forty, are hereby confirmed and shall not be affected hereby.

3. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds that no tunnel, bridge, parkway, causeway, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic, which will be competitive with the Queens Midtown tunnel or the Hugh L. Carey tunnel or the Brooklyn Richmond tunnel or the Narrows bridge will be constructed; provided that a tunnel, bridge, parkway, causeway, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic shall be considered as competitive if it shall form a connection for vehicular traffic over, under or across the East river south of Queensboro bridge, or, if it shall form a connection for vehicular traffic between the boroughs of Manhattan, Brooklyn or Richmond over, under or across New York bay. The covenant herein contained restricting competitive traffic connections with any project or projects shall be only for the benefit of the holders of bonds secured in whole or in part by the pledge of the revenues of such project or projects and subject to and in accordance with all contract provisions with respect to any bonds outstanding on January first, nineteen hundred fifty-five and the rights of the holders of such bonds, the covenant herein contained shall not be deemed to prevent the construction of any bridge or tunnel exclusively for railway rapid transit purposes.

§ 564. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 565. Bonds legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and saving associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 566. Exemptions from taxation. It is hereby found, determined and declared that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity, and, in the case of some of the said purposes, for the promotion of their traffic, and is a public purpose, and that, in the case of those purposes which consist of vehicular bridges, vehicular tunnels and approaches thereto, the project is an essential part of the public highway system, and that the authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title, and the state of New York covenants with the holders of the bonds that the authority shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction, control, possession or supervision or upon its activities in the operation and maintenance of the project or any tolls, revenues or other income received by the authority and that the bonds of the authority and the income therefrom shall at all times be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes. This section shall constitute a covenant and agreement with the holders of all bonds issued prior to January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine.

§ 566-a. Tax contract by the state. 1. It is hereby found, determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity, and, in the case of some of the said purposes, for the promotion of their traffic, and that said purposes are public purposes and, in the case of those purposes which consist of vehicular bridges, vehicular tunnels and approaches thereto and the central business district tolling program, the project is an essential part of the public highway system and the authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred by this title, and the state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued after January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of any payment for the bonds that the bonds of the authority issued after January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds, tolls and other revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds, shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

§ 567. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of New York, or Queens or the Bronx or Kings and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority and the board to collect tolls and rentals adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such tolls and rentals, and to require the authority and the board to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its and their duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of New York, Queens, the Bronx, or Kings.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the tolls or other revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with any construction thereon which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all tolls and other revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any tolls, rentals and other revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 568. Continuity of jurisdiction. The authority shall be deemed and held to constitute a continuation, as to matters within its jurisdiction, of the department of plant and structures of the city for the purpose of succession to all such of the rights, powers, duties and obligations of the city and of the department of plant and structures of the city as relate to the designing and construction of the project.

§ 569. Protection of prior bondholders. Nothing in this title contained shall be deemed in any way to limit or alter the rights vested in the authority to establish and collect such charges and tolls as may be convenient or necessary to produce sufficient revenue to meet the expense of maintenance and operation and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of bonds issued or authorized to be issued prior to January first, nineteen hundred forty-six, or in any way to impair the rights and remedies thereunder of the holders of such bonds.

§ 569-a. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been filed within the time limit established by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 569-b. Restrictions on signs and billboards. 1. No outdoor advertising sign or device which refers to any subject other than the business actually conducted on the premises or to sale or rental of such premises and no such outdoor advertising sign or device exceeding ten feet in height above the sidewalk adjacent to the property on which such sign or device is located, shall be erected, reconstructed, painted, or repainted, after the applicable date hereinafter specified in this section, within five hundred feet of the Whitestone bridge project, the Throgs Neck bridge project, the Narrows bridge project or the Hugh L. Carey tunnel project or the approaches and connections of such projects, if within view thereof.

2. In the case of the Whitestone bridge project, the applicable date shall be April three, nineteen hundred thirty-nine, except that with respect to reconstruction, painting or repainting of any such sign or device within view of such bridge project, the applicable date shall be the effective date of this subdivision two.

3. In the case of the Throgs Neck bridge project, the Narrows bridge project and the Hugh L. Carey tunnel project, the applicable date shall be the effective date of this subdivision three.

4. A violation of any of the provisions of this section may be restrained at the suit of the authority.

§ 569-c. Transfer and receipt of surplus funds. Notwithstanding any provision of this title or any other provision of law, general, special or local, the authority shall, at the direction of the metropolitan transportation authority, from time to time transfer and pay over all or any part of its surplus funds to (a) metropolitan transportation authority or (b) New York city transit authority, all in accordance with the provisions of subdivision twelve of section five hundred fifty-three of this title and the determination of the proportional allocation of such amounts of surplus funds so deposited as between the New York city transit authority and the commuter railroads operated by metropolitan transportation authority shall be governed by the provisions of section twelve hundred nineteen-a of this chapter and the authority may accept and use any moneys transferred and paid over to it by metropolitan transportation authority or New York city transit authority.

§ 569-d. Protection of bondholders. Nothing in this title contained shall be deemed to limit or alter in any way the rights and obligations of the authority to establish and collect such tolls, fees, rentals and other charges as may be necessary or required to produce sufficient revenues to meet and to fulfill the terms and provisions of the contracts made with the holders and registered owners of the bonds or in any way impair the constitutional rights of the holders and registered owners of the bonds.

§ 570. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 571. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

THOUSAND ISLANDS BRIDGE AUTHORITY

§ 575. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Thousand Islands Bridge Authority Act."

§ 576. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section five hundred seventy-seven of this chapter;

2. The term "supervisors" shall mean the Jefferson county board of supervisors;

3. The term "bridge complex" shall mean all bridges which, together with their approaches and connecting roads, form a crossing from one particular area in the United States across the St. Lawrence river to a particular area in Canada, and shall include such approaches and roads as well as all buildings, facilities and other improvements which are necessary or incidental to the operation and maintenance of such bridges, approaches and roads or which serve the traffic over such bridges;

4. The term "bonds" shall mean bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title;

5. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

6. The term "treasurer" shall mean the treasurer of the authority;

7. The term "county" shall mean the county of Jefferson;

8. The term "state" shall mean the state of New York;

9. The term "comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state;

10. The term "revenues" shall mean all moneys received by or due to the authority from tolls, rentals, user fees, charges or other payments derived from the operation of the properties or facilities of the authority, as well as interest earned on deposits or securities, and other income of the authority, from whatever source it may emanate, but shall not include gifts, grants, or the principal of any loan, or the proceeds of any bond issue;

11. The term "political subdivision" shall mean any city, town, front, village, riding, municipality, water district, fire district, fire protection district, school district, improvement district, commission, bureau, division, agency, instrumentality, public corporation, public benefit corporation, board or department of the governmental body indicated, whether the same be in the United States or in Canada;

12. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, improvements to land, franchises and interests in land, waters, lands under water, riparian rights, space rights, air rights, and any and all other things and rights usually included within said term and includes not only fees simple and absolute but also any and all lesser interests, including but not limited to appurtenances thereto, easements, rights of way, uses, leases, leaseholds, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real property;

13. The term "properties" shall mean all the real property of the authority and all tangible and intangible personal property thereof of every kind, including but not limited to vehicles, equipment, plants, works, franchises, and contract rights;

14. The term "facilities" shall mean any of the properties of the authority or any other real property or personal property controlled or operated by the authority which is used or intended to be used in the furtherance of any of its corporate purposes;

15. The term "indebtedness" shall mean any obligation for the payment of a fixed or determinable amount of money, enforceable by an action at law, including but not limited to bonds, bond anticipation notes, notes, contractual obligations, rentals owed as lessee, and other financial liabilities.

§ 577. Thousand Islands Bridge Authority. 1. A board to be known as "Thousand Islands Bridge Authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation. It shall consist of five members who shall be appointed by the chairman of the board of supervisors subject to the approval of the supervisors.

2. The term of office of the members of the board hereby created who are first appointed shall be one, two, three, four and five years respectively, dating from January first, nineteen hundred thirty-three, and thereafter the term of office of members shall be five years. In addition, at any time when the authority has control of properties physically situated in Canada, the number of members of such board may, at the option of the supervisors, be increased to seven, any three of whom may be residents or citizens of Canada, with such additional two members to be appointed in the same manner. Members shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualify. An appointment to fill a vacancy shall be for the unexpired term. The chairman, vice-chairman and secretary of such board shall be elected annually by such board. The members of the board shall be entitled to such compensation, if any, for their services as shall be fixed by the supervisors and shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The power of such corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of such board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members, or to its agents and employees, such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

3. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue until all of its indebtedness created prior to April first, nineteen hundred eighty-one, and all notes and bonds issued as provided in this title shall have been paid in full, and thereafter until such existence is terminated by formal action of the supervisors, which shall specifically provide for the assumption by and agreement of the county to pay any and all liabilities, indebtedness and obligations of the authority.

4. The authority's right to own, control and operate properties or facilities situated within the Dominion of Canada depends and shall continue to depend upon grants in its favor by the federal government of Canada and the government of the province of Ontario, agreements between the authority and such foreign governments, or political subdivisions thereof and by the laws of such foreign jurisdictions.

5. When all of its notes and bonds have been paid in full and all of its other liabilities and obligations have either been met or paid in full or assumed by the county and when the existence of the authority has been terminated by the supervisors as hereinabove provided, then all its rights and properties, so far as the same are located in the United States, including the right to fix, charge and collect tolls for the use of the American channel bridge or bridges, shall be conveyed without cost or expense to the county and all its rights and properties, so far as the same are located in the Dominion of Canada, shall be conveyed without cost or expense to the province of Ontario, or otherwise as the lieutenant-governor in council thereof may designate. Such conveyance to the province of Ontario may also be made in the same manner at any time when the authority's right to own or control or operate properties or facilities in Canada has been terminated even though its existence and right to operate in the state or county may be unimpaired.

§ 578. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized:

1. To sue and be sued in courts of general jurisdiction, whether federal, state, or foreign, including but not limited to the supreme court of the state of New York;

2. To have a seal and alter the same as its pleasure;

3. To acquire real property or rights or easements therein by condemnation, pursuant to the condemnation law, and to acquire, purchase, hold, dispose of and use any real or personal property or any interest therein necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out any purpose described in this title and to sell, at public or private sale, convey, transfer, assign and dispose of any property or interest therein at any time required by it in the exercise of its powers or when it may determine it no longer needs the same for its corporate purposes, upon such terms and for such consideration, if any, as it shall deem fit;

4. To lease, as lessor or as lessee, any real or personal property or any interest therein for any purposes consistent with any purposes described in this title or with the appropriate use of the authority's facilities or with the convenience of the public using such facilities, upon such terms and for such consideration, if any, as it shall deem fit, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a term of more than ten years, including all renewal options, without the prior express and formal approval and consent of the supervisors;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and to establish and change a fiscal year for its operations and financial reporting purposes;

6. To determine as matters of policy what courses of action are in the best interests of any bridge complex or other authorized purpose and to pursue the same;

7. To appoint and remove such officers, agents and employees as it may require for the performance of its duties, and to fix and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation and to retain or employ and discharge counsel, auditors, engineers, architects and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice. To establish a practicable merit system for the appointment and promotion of its employees. Neither the authority nor any of its officers, employees, or agents shall be subject to the provisions of the civil service law nor be under the jurisdiction or subject to the rules of any civil service commission;

8. To use the agents, employees, facilities and equipment of the county or of any town or political subdivision within the county or of any board, agency or department thereof, to the extent agreement therefor may be reached with the appropriate governing body, and to pay such county, town or political subdivision its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

9. To make contracts and agreements and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To construct, maintain, repair and operate the following bridges and approaches thereto and roads:

One or more bridges across the easterly or American channel of the Saint Lawrence river at a point at or near Collins landing in the town of Orleans, in Jefferson county, New York, from the mainland to Wellesley or Wells island.

One or more bridges across the westerly or Canadian channel of the Saint Lawrence river at a point at or near Ivy Lea in the county of Leeds, in the province of Ontario, from the mainland to Hill island.

One or more bridges across the International rift from a point on such Wellesley or Wells island to such Hill island.

One or more roads on such Wellesley or Wells island connecting any bridge across the American channel with any bridge across the International rift.

One or more roads on such Hill island connecting any bridge across the Canadian channel with any bridge across the International rift.

The approach roads connecting any of such bridges and tunnels with the state highway system in New York and with the nearest highway in the province of Ontario.

Any road connecting any of its facilities with any other or with any state, county or town road, or any public highway, or any road providing access for vehicles or pedestrians from one part of its real property to another;

11. To construct and maintain over, under, along or across the bridges and roads hereby authorized, telephone, telegraph or electric wires and cables, gas mains, water mains, and other mechanical equipment not inconsistent with the appropriate use of the bridges and roads or such other facilities. To contract for such construction and maintenance and to lease the right to construct, maintain and/or use the same on such terms and for such consideration as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a term of more than ten years, including all renewal option, without the prior express and formal approval and consent of the supervisors;

12. To construct and maintain such buildings, structures, improvements, roads, parking and other facilities as may be necessary or convenient, to contract for such construction and maintenance and to lease the right to construct, maintain and/or use such facilities on such terms and for such considerations as it shall determine, provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a term of more than ten years, including all renewal options, without the prior express and formal approval and consent of the supervisors;

13. To fix, charge and collect tolls for traffic across its bridges, subject to any approval thereof or limitations or regulatory restrictions thereto as required, fixed, or imposed by federal law of either the United States of America or Canada, which shall in the opinion of the authority be adequate to provide complete operation and maintenance of all its facilities and programs, repay any indebtedness of the authority as scheduled and agreed, establish and fund reserves for the repair, improvement or replacement of any or all of its facilities or the construction of any new facility which it may be authorized to construct under this title, or which shall accomplish as many of the foregoing purposes as may be practicable, and at a level which shall not jeopardize or be unreasonably competitive with any other similar toll charging facilities within a radius of fifty miles of Collins Landing, New York;

14. To construct, maintain, repair and operate within the county one or more facilities for the performance or display of any medium of the arts, including but not limited to concerts, plays, exhibitions, and any activity which could reasonably contribute to the cultural improvement of the communities in the area of its influence;

15. To construct, maintain, repair and operate within the county one or more facilities for conventions, meetings, sporting events of all kinds, museums, any activity which could reasonably contribute to the attraction of tourists and recreational development and industrial and commercial developments;

16. To cooperate with the Watertown airport commission, the city of Watertown, the county and any other agency or agencies to assist in the improvement, enlargement, development, operation and promotion of the Watertown international airport as an essential transportation facility for the county and the adjacent territory, and to agree with said city and county for the acquisition by the authority of such airport and to operate and manage such airport;

17. To cooperate with the county and the municipalities therein bordering on the Saint Lawrence river and on Lake Ontario and to assist in the study, development, operation and promotion of suitable port and docking facilities on said river and lake within or bordering the county and the improvement of water-borne transportation, and to construct, operate and manage such port and docking facilities as it may determine to be in the public interest;

18. To make studies and surveys of the needs of the county for the development and improvement of its transportation facilities, whether by land, air or water and to report the results thereof and its recommendations to the supervisors;

19. To enter on any lands, waters and premises for the purpose of making surveys, soundings and examinations;

20. To fix and collect any payments, fees and other charges for the use of any facility under its control other than bridges;

21. To borrow money and issue its negotiable bonds and notes or other obligations for any of its corporate purposes and to provide for and secure the payment thereof and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof, subject to any limitations or conditions imposed thereon as elsewhere in this title provided;

22. To put into effect and maintain fiduciary bonds on its members and on any employee or agent who handles or controls money or assets of the authority which could be embezzled or stolen, in such amounts as the authority may deem reasonable or as requested by the county;

23. To put into effect and maintain insurance coverage protecting the authority and its individual members from liability for errors and omissions or from any act other than a willful violation of law which constitutes a crime;

24. To make payments to any domestic or foreign subdivision of government in which any of its facilities are situated, whether in lieu of taxes or otherwise, in such amounts and at such times as the authority may in its sole discretion determine, provided, however, that if the authority is at the time of reference operating both in the county and in the province of Ontario it shall endeavor in good faith to make any such payments to Canadian political subdivisions or municipalities and those to the county or subdivisions or municipalities of such county in proportion to its income generated in such different jurisdictions, as nearly as practicable, after taking into account any taxes which are required to be paid and any services or facilities which are required to be or are supplied for less than full payment;

25. To engage in such advertising and promotion of the bridges, bridge complex, and of the areas adjacent thereto and within a radius of fifty miles thereof, and of such of its other authorized purposes, as it in its sole discretion shall determine. Such promotion shall be deemed to include but not be limited to the promotion of tourism in the county and the southern portion of the province of Ontario, Canada, including the Front of Leeds and Lansdowne;

26. To cooperate and participate in or to initiate any public promotions, parades, special events, area promotions, historical pageants, and the like held within fifty miles of Collins Landing, New York;

27. To invest any funds held in reserve or sinking funds, or any moneys not required for immediate use or disbursement, at the discretion of the authority in (a) obligations of the state or the United States government, or any political subdivision, agency and instrumentality of either; (b) obligations of the province of Ontario or of the federal government of Canada, or any political subdivision or agency and instrumentality of either, (c) obligations the principal and interest of which are guaranteed by the state or the United States government, or by the province of Ontario or the federal government of Canada, (d) certificates of deposit of banks or trust companies in this state or in the province of Ontario secured, if the authority shall so require, by obligations described in (a), (b), or (c) above or other marketable securities eligible as security for the deposit of trust funds under regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System with a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit;

28. To combine any two or more of its purposes or facilities into a single project for financing purposes;

29. To use revenues, income or funds from any source to create, construct, reconstruct, support, operate, repair and maintain any one or more of its other purposes or facilities;

30. To make rules and regulations governing the use by the public of the bridges, the bridge complex, and any facility owned or operated by it;

31. To establish a code of ethics and rules regarding conflict of interest for the members of its board and its employees and agents;

32. To accept public or private gifts or grants of funds or property;

33. To engage in any activity permitted by law which in its judgment would be convenient for the public using any of its facilities;

34. To enter into agreements with the government of the Dominion of Canada or the province of Ontario, or any political subdivision of either, for the construction and operation in Canada of any of the bridges and facilities authorized hereunder and for the application of revenues collected by the authority for the use of the bridges and facilities operated by it in Canada;

35. To do in the province of Ontario anything it is authorized or permitted to do in the state of New York and which is permitted by the laws of such foreign jurisdiction;

36. To exercise any of its powers alone or in conjunction with any political subdivision;

37. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers enumerated above and to effectuate their general intent and purpose. The foregoing specification of powers shall not be construed as in any way limiting or denying the usual implied powers, it being the intent that the authority shall have full power to manage its affairs generally with the same freedom from the restrictions which apply to municipalities as do boards of directors of privately owned corporations.

38. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the authority shall not initially enter into any general activity category authorized in subdivisions fourteen through seventeen of this section, including but not limited to the construction or operation of any performing arts center, cultural improvement project, convention hall, sports arena, museum, industrial or commercial development project, airport, port, marina or docking facility, until and unless it has been formally requested to do so by the supervisors by resolution duly adopted.

§ 579. Transfer of real property to and by the authority. 1. Title to any real property which has heretofore been or may hereafter be acquired by or for the authority, whether with the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to this title or otherwise, shall be vested in the authority.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the governing body or the supervisors of any county, the town board of any town, or the trustees of any village, without any election or meeting of the taxpayers or voters or other authorization are hereby authorized to convey to the authority any land, easement or interest in land, including a public highway, which the authority may deem necessary.

3. The authority shall have the right to convey to the state of New York or the province of Ontario, or to any county, town or front thereof, any road or any part of any road which lies within the territorial boundary of the grantee whenever such grantee shall undertake to maintain the same as a public highway. Notwithstanding the above the authority shall not convey real property in Canada to any unit of government in the United States nor shall it convey land in the United States to any unit of government in Canada.

§ 580. Moneys of the authority. Subject to the provisions of any agreement with the holders of any bonds or notes of the authority which may provide otherwise, and except as otherwise provided or authorized herein, all moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks designated by the authority. The moneys in such accounts shall be withdrawn on the order of such person or persons as the authority may authorize. All deposits of such money shall, if required by the authority, be secured in such manner as the authority may determine. The treasurer of the county and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, reserves, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing, or to accept from the authority, in lieu of such an examination, an external examination of its books and accounts made at the request of the authority.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section or any other provision of this title to the contrary, the authority shall have the power to contract with the holders of any of its bonds or notes as to the custody, collection, securing, investment, and payment of any moneys of the authority, whether held in trust or otherwise, and to carry out such contract, and the provisions of such contract shall supersede any provisions of this chapter which are contrary thereto or inconsistent therewith.

§ 581. Bonds and notes of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds and notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in such amount as may be necessary to pay the entire cost of financing any one or more of the purposes authorized pursuant to section five hundred seventy-eight of this chapter, or for the purpose of refunding any bonds or notes previously issued, and such cost of financing shall be deemed to include but not be limited to refunding of any bonds or notes previously issued and then outstanding as well as any redemption premium thereon and any interest to accrue to the date of redemption of such bonds or notes, such other expenses as may be incident to the issuance of such new bonds or notes, interest prior to and during construction and for six months after completion thereof, and such other expenses as may be deemed necessary or incident thereto for placing the same in operation. The issuance of such bonds or notes, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties and obligations of the authority in respect of the same, shall be governed by the provisions of this title.

2. (a) Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, subject to the approval of the supervisors, and shall bear such date or dates, and shall mature at such time or times, not exceeding fifty years from the date of issue, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Such bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine.

(b) Whether or not the bonds or notes are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code, the bonds or notes shall be and hereby are made negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of article eight of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or notes may contain provisions which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds or notes as to:

(a) pledging the tolls and revenues of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds or notes;

(b) the rates of the tolls to be charged for use of the bridges and roads and the amounts to be raised in each year by tolls and the use and disposition of the tolls and other revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority and its successors to restrict and regulate the use of the bridges hereby authorized;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds or notes then or thereafter to be issued may apply;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds or notes;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given.

4. Neither the members of the board nor any person executing the bonds or notes shall be liable personally on the bonds or notes or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

5. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the bridges or other facilities, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the bridges and roads shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Nothwithstanding the provisions of section five hundred eighty of this chapter, the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the authority to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as an operating cost of the authority. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no power to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section five hundred eighty-six of this chapter upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

6. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of such notes, including renewals thereof shall not exceed seven years from the date of issue of such original note. Such notes may be paid from any moneys of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged or from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as the bonds and such notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which the bonds or a bond resolution of the authority may contain. Such notes may be sold at public or private sale. Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority.

7. The authority shall also have the power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable notes and renewals thereof in conformity with the applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code provided, however, that it shall not issue such notes in an aggregate amount of more than one hundred thousand dollars without the prior approval of the supervisors by resolution duly adopted. Such notes may be issued for any corporate purpose of the authority. The maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of the original note, unless otherwise approved by the supervisors. Such notes may be paid from any moneys of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged and the authority may pledge its revenues for the payment thereof. The resolution or resolutions authorizing such notes may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which the bonds or a bond resolution of the authority may contain. Such notes may be sold at public or private sale. Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority.

§ 582. Agreement of the state. The state does pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds that the state will not authorize the construction of any causeway, bridge, tunnel, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic, which will be competitive with the bridges authorized pursuant to this title nor will it limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect tolls and fix and collect payments, charges and fees or in any way impair the rights and remedies of bondholders; provided that a causeway, bridge, tunnel, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic shall be considered as competitive only if it shall form a connection for vehicular traffic between the state and the province of Ontario, Canada, across the Saint Lawrence river within a distance of thirty miles from the bridges authorized pursuant to this title.

§ 583. State and county not liable on bonds or notes. The bonds, notes, and other obligations of the authority shall not be a legal or moral debt of the state, nor a legal debt of the county, and neither the state nor the county shall be liable thereon, nor shall the same be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority, unless the county voluntarily and formally assumes liability therefor. No recent action by the state in recognizing any legal or moral obligation for any indebtedness of any other authority shall in any way be construed as creating any liability for any indebtedness of this authority.

§ 584. Bonds as legal investments. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings institutions and associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries in the state and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the notes of the authority are hereby made securities in which the county may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in its control or belonging to it, when approved by the supervisors.

§ 585. Bonds and notes to be tax exempt. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities, or upon the income therefrom.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

§ 586. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds then outstanding by instrument or instruments, filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Jefferson and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the bondholders for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of the bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority and the board to collect tolls and rentals adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such tolls and rentals, and to require the authority and the board to carry out any other agreements with the bondholders and to perform its and their duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon the bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the bondholders;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the bondholders;

(e) declare all bonds due and payable and if any default shall be made good to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of the bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceedings shall be laid in Jefferson county.

4. Before declaring the principal of all bonds due and payable the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not all bonds have been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver who may enter and take possession of the bridges and road then under the jurisdiction of the authority or any part or parts thereof and operate and maintain the same and collect and receive all tolls, rentals and other revenues thereafter arising from the American channel bridge in the same manner as the authority itself might do and shall deposit all such moneys in a separate account and apply the same in such manner as the court shall direct. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any tolls, rentals and other revenues derived from the American channel bridge.

§ 587. Actions against the authority. 1. In a case founded upon tort, a notice of claim shall be required as a condition precedent to the commencement of an action or special proceeding against the authority or any officer, appointee, agent or employee thereof, and the provisions of section fifty-e of the general municipal law shall govern the giving of such notice.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, no action or special proceeding shall be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor until at least thirty days have elapsed since the notice of claim referred to in the preceding subdivision was so served upon the authority, and the complaint or petition in any such action or special proceeding shall contain an affirmative allegation to that effect and must also allege that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment of such claim or otherwise satisfy the same for thirty days after such service. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

3. All actions by or against the authority of whatsoever nature shall be brought in the county or where it has facilities involved in the action.

§ 588. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 589. Construction. This title shall not be considered as a new act, but a restatement, clarification, amendment and continuation of title four as heretofore amended; nor shall this title affect or impair any right presently existing, including by way of specification but not of limitation, the rights of the county in and to the properties, franchises, and rights of the authority.

§ 591. Membership, quorum, removal, funds and accounts, and eminent domain taking. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law, or any other provision of this chapter:

1. No public officer or employee shall be ineligible for appointment as a member of the board, and any public officer or employee may accept such appointment and serve as such member without forfeiture of any other public office or position of public employment by reason thereof;

2. A majority of the whole number of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum at a meeting duly held at a time fixed by law or by any by-law duly adopted by such board, or as fixed at any previous meeting duly held, or at any meeting duly held upon reasonable notice to all of the members of such board, or at any duly adjourned meeting of any such meeting, and not less than a majority of the whole number of the members of such board may perform and exercise the powers authorized and provided in this title, and the words "whole number" shall be construed to mean the total number which such board would have were there no vacancies and were none of the members disqualified from acting, and shall mean either five or seven, depending only upon the circumstances set forth in section five hundred seventy-seven;

3. Every member of the board shall be removable by the chairman of the board of supervisors, with the consent of the supervisors, for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or misconduct in office, provided, however, that such member shall be given a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten days' notice;

4. The authority is empowered to establish such funds and accounts as it may deem necessary subject to such agreements as it shall conclude with the holders of its bonds or notes or other obligations;

5. When real property of the authority is taken in the exercise of the power of eminent domain, just compensation shall be made to the authority in the same manner, to the same extent and subject to the same limitations as though it were private property.

§ 592. Reports of the authority. In addition to any report required to be made to the state pursuant to any provision of law, the authority shall furnish to the chairman of the board of supervisors, the clerk of such board, the county attorney, the county treasurer, and the chairman and members of the planning committee of such board, the following reports:

1. Within ninety days after the end of its fiscal year, its annual report, which shall be a complete and detailed report setting forth; (a) its operations and accomplishments; (b) its receipts and disbursements, or revenues and expenses, during such fiscal year in accordance with the categories or classifications established by the authority for its own operating and capital outlay purposes; (c) its assets and liabilities at the end of its fiscal year including the status of reserve, depreciation, special or other funds and including the receipts and payments of these funds; and (d) a schedule of its bonds and notes outstanding at the end of its fiscal year, together with a statement of the amounts redeemed and incurred during such fiscal year;

2. Within thirty days after the end of each calendar month, a condensed monthly financial statement;

3. Not less than sixty days before the commencement of its fiscal year, in the form submitted to its members, budget information on operations and capital construction setting forth the estimated receipts and expenditures for the next fiscal year and the current fiscal year, and the actual receipts and expenditures for the last completed fiscal year;

4. Within thirty days after receipt thereof by the authority, a copy of the final report of every external examination of the books and accounts of the authority.

TITLE 7

NASSAU COUNTY BRIDGE AUTHORITY

§ 651. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Nassau county bridge authority act."

§ 652. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context,

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section six hundred fifty-three of this chapter;

2. The term "county" shall mean the county of Nassau;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interests in land, including lands under water and riparian rights, and any and all things and rights usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate;

6. The term "Reynolds channel" shall mean the waterway on the northerly side of the island of Long Beach, extending easterly from East Rockaway inlet and includes said inlet;

6-a. The term "Bannister creek" shall mean the waterway known by that name in the county of Nassau connected with Reynolds channel.

7. The term "Atlantic Beach bridge" shall mean the existing bridge known by that name crossing Reynolds channel;

8. The term "project" shall mean Atlantic Beach bridge and any new bridge constructed by the authority across Reynolds channel, or either of said bridges, and any park, playground, beach or other recreational facility created or acquired by the authority, including any land within the county of Nassau which has been acquired by the authority for such purposes, together with such structures, appurtenances, facilities and approaches as may be necessary or convenient in connection therewith;

9. The term "approaches" shall mean all structures necessary or convenient to give access to the bridge from connecting streets, roads and parkways;

10. The term "connections" shall mean all roads, streets, parkways or avenues connecting with the approaches.

11. The terms "note" or "notes" shall mean bond anticipation notes as authorized in this title.

§ 653. Nassau county bridge authority. A board to be known as "Nassau county bridge authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chairman and four other members who shall be appointed by the county executive of the county with the approval of the county legislature. The original appointments shall be made in such manner that the term of one member shall expire on the December thirty-first next after the appointment of the board and one member on the second December thirty-first after the appointment of the board and one member on the third December thirty-first after the appointment of the board. Their successors shall be appointed one annually for terms of five years each from the first day of January following the end of the term of his or her predecessor. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The county executive may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him or her a copy of the charges against him or her and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his or her defense upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to such compensation, if any, for their services as shall be fixed by ordinance of the county legislature and shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue until March first of the year nineteen hundred eighty-five, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its notes and bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or notes and bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the county.

§ 654. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have power

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes;

4. To acquire in the name of the county by purchase or condemnation, and use real property necessary or convenient for its corporate purposes, including real property of municipal corporations, public utilities and railroads. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the eminent domain procedure law, or in the Nassau county administrative code. The power to acquire real property hereby granted shall include the power to acquire Atlantic beach bridge and any or all rights or franchises connected with the operation of said bridge which it may be necessary or convenient for the authority to acquire;

* 4. a. To acquire in the name of the county by purchase, lease or gift, and use real property necessary or convenient for its corporate purposes, including real property of municipal corporations, public utilities and railroads except that no real property may be acquired by the authority for any park, playground, beach or other recreational facility which is not owned by the county of Nassau on April first, nineteen hundred seventy-three, and such real property must be located within the county of Nassau and, in addition, must be located within one mile and one-half from any point of the Atlantic Beach bridge. The power to acquire real property hereby granted shall include the power to acquire Atlantic beach bridge and any or all rights or franchises connected with the operation of said bridge which it may be necessary or convenient for the authority to acquire;

b. The Nassau county bridge authority, having been granted the power to acquire real property owned by the county of Nassau for a park, playground, beach or other recreational facility, shall have the power and authority with respect to such property, to pay or transfer out of any authority funds available to it, annual sums in lieu of taxes to the affected taxing jurisdiction, in order that no inequitable loss of revenue shall be suffered by virtue of such park, playground, beach or other recreational facility; provided further, that the amount so paid or transferred for any year shall not exceed the sum last levied for the benefit of such taxing jurisdiction as an annual tax on such property prior to the time of its acquisition for such purpose or purposes;

c. As used in this subdivision, the term "taxing jurisdiction" means any municipal corporation or district corporation, including any school district or any special district, having the power to levy and collect taxes and benefit assessments upon real property which has been acquired by the authority for park, playground, beach or other recreational facility purpose, or in whose behalf such taxes or benefit assessments may be levied or collected.
* NB Expired June 30, 1976

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and subject to agreements with the noteholders and bondholders, for the regulation of the use of the project and the establishment and collection of tolls, fees, rentals and other charges;

6. With the consent of the county to use agents, employees and facilities of the county, including the county attorney, paying to the county its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

8. To make contracts, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

9. To construct a new bridge across Reynolds channel, together with the approaches thereto, and all structures and facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith. Such new bridge shall be in the county of Nassau within one-half mile of the Atlantic beach bridge. Pursuant to an agreement with, or the consent of, the city of New York, the authority shall have power (but shall be under no obligation except as provided in any such agreement), to design, construct, reconstruct, widen, grade, surface and otherwise improve, existing or new roads, streets, avenues, parkways or service roads in said city as approaches to or connections with said new bridge on lands or rights of way now owned or hereafter acquired by said city. Such agreement may provide for the improvements to be made by the authority and the city, respectively, for the acquisition of land or rights of way by the city, for the part or share of the cost of such improvements and acquisitions to be paid by the authority and the city, respectively, and for the manner of payment thereof. The city shall maintain all the roads, streets, avenues, parkways and service roads so improved and shall pay the cost and expense thereof.

9-a. To relocate Bannister creek to the east of its present location, in case such relocation is necessary or desirable.

10. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the project or part or parts thereof;

11. After the acquisition of the Atlantic Beach bridge and after the construction of a new bridge over Reynolds channel in its discretion to demolish and take down the Atlantic Beach bridge.

12. To accept grants, loans or highway contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them and to expend the proceeds for any corporate purposes;

13. To fix and collect tolls, fees, rentals and other charges for the use of the project subject to and in accordance with such agreements with noteholders and bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

14. To construct and maintain over, under, along, within or across the project telephone, telegraph, or electric wires and cables, gas mains, water mains and other mechanical equipment not inconsistent with the appropriate use of the project and to contract for such construction and to lease the right to construct or use the same on such terms and for such considerations as it shall determine; provided, however, that no such lease shall be made except with the approval of the county legislature nor for a period of more than twenty years from the date when it is made;

15. To construct and maintain facilities for the public, not inconsistent with the use of the project, to contract for such construction, and to lease the right to construct or use such facilities on such terms and for such considerations as it shall determine; provided, however, that no such lease shall be made for a period of more than five years except with the approval of the county legislature, nor, with such approval, for a period of more than twenty years from the date when it is made.

16. To lease property of the authority to the Atlantic Beach fire district or its designee for the purpose of constructing and operating a rescue station on such property; provided, however, that no such lease shall be made except with the approval of the county legislature nor for a period of more than thirty years from the date when it is made.

§ 655. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the county may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the county who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the county under the rules of the county civil service commission shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the county civil service commission.

§ 656. Acquisition of land by the county for the authority. The county shall have power to acquire by purchase or by condemnation title in its name to any real property which may be needed or convenient for the project or in connection therewith, including real property of municipal corporations, public utility corporations and railroad corporations. Any municipal corporation may convey, with or without consideration, to the county any right, title or interest in real property without any election or vote of the electors, taxpayers or freeholders. Payment for real property so acquired by the county may be made by the authority. The power to acquire real property hereby granted shall include the power to acquire the Atlantic beach bridge and any or all rights or franchises connected with the operation of said bridge which it may be necessary or convenient for the authority to acquire. The power hereby conferred upon the county shall not limit or restrict the power of the authority itself to acquire real property in the name of the county.

§ 657. Grant of use of land by the county to the authority and agreements between them. 1. The county shall have power and authority by resolution of the county legislature to grant to the authority, without consideration, the use of any real property of the county needed or convenient for the project or in connection therewith.

2. In connection with any new bridge, park, playground, beach or other recreational facility to be constructed by the authority, the authority and the county may enter into an agreement determining the real property necessary for such bridge or project and for the approaches and connections thereto, and agreeing on the parts of such real property of which the authority shall have the use; determining what real property shall be acquired in the name of the county for the bridge or project and its approaches and connections, and what portion of the cost and expense of acquiring such real property shall be paid by the authority and the county respectively; determining the extent of the park, playground or other recreational facility and the approaches and connections, and agreeing on what parts thereof shall be constructed by the authority as part of the project and what parts thereof shall be constructed by the county as part of the connections, and agreeing on the portion of the cost of such construction to be borne by them, respectively; agreeing on what parts of said park, playground or other recreational facility and approaches and connections shall, after construction, be maintained by and at the cost of the authority and of the county, respectively; and determining and agreeing upon any other like or different matters relating to the respective rights and duties of the county and the authority in respect to the project. The authority may pledge any such agreement to secure notes and bonds and thereafter such agreement shall not be modified except as may be permitted by the agreement with the bondholders and noteholders.

3. Real property may be acquired, construction of park, playground or other recreational facilities and approaches and connections may be done, the payment of the cost of such acquisition or construction may be made, or such park, playground or other recreational facilities and approaches and connections may be maintained, either by the state of New York or by the county, as may be agreed between them, and any agreements with the authority made by the county in respect of such acquisition, construction, payment or maintenance may be carried out and performed either by the county or the state as may be agreed between them.

§ 658. Consent and transfer by the state. The state of New York does hereby agree to the use by the authority of any lands under the waters of Reynolds channel or of Bannister creek necessary or convenient for the project or in connection therewith. The state of New York does hereby release and transfer to the county any and all interest which it now has or may hereafter have in and to the Atlantic Beach bridge.

§ 660. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the treasurer of the county as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by said treasurer on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the treasurer or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The comptroller of the county is hereby authorized to audit the accounts of the authority. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its notes and bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of notes and bonds or in any way to secure notes and bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of notes and bonds or in any way to secure notes and bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller.

§ 661. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any corporate purpose in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding an amount fixed by the county legislature from time to time by ordinance. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, every issue of the bonds shall be general obligations payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular tolls or revenues.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding forty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, as the board shall determine and shall be payable semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine.

3. The bonds may be issued for any corporate purpose of the authority.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to

(a) Pledging all or any part of the tolls and revenues of the project to secure the payment of the bonds subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rates of the tolls to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year by tolls, and the use and disposition of the tolls and other revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the project in connection with which such bonds are issued;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from any project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section six hundred sixty-six hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section hereof or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

5. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of tolls or other revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the tolls or other revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

6. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

7. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

§ 661-a. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of such original note. Such notes shall be paid from any moneys of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged or from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as the bonds and such notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions, or limitations which the bonds or a bond resolution of the authority may contain. Such notes may be sold at public or private sale at not less than par and shall bear such rate or rates of interest as the board shall determine.

Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority. In the case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

§ 662. Agreements of the state. 1. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of the notes and bonds that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project, to establish and collect charges and tolls and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the notes and bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the note and bondholders, until the notes and bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the note and bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The state of New York does covenant and agree with the holders of the notes and bonds that no tunnel, bridge, parkway, causeway, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic which will be competitive with the project will be constructed or maintained until the notes and bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the note and bondholders are fully met and discharged; provided that a tunnel, bridge, parkway, causeway, street, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic shall be considered as competitive with the project only if it shall form a connection for vehicular traffic over, under or across Reynolds channel west of seventy-three degrees and forty minutes of west longitude.

§ 663. State and county not liable on notes and bonds. The notes and bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the county, and neither the state nor the county shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 664. Notes and bonds legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The notes and bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and saving associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in notes and bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The notes and bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of notes and bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 665. Tax contract by the state. It is hereby found, determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity, and for the promotion of their traffic and recreation, and that said purposes are public purposes and the project is an essential part of the public highway, park and recreational system and the authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred by this title, and the state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of notes and bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the notes and bonds that the notes and bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds, tolls and other revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such notes and bonds, shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

§ 666. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Nassau and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect tolls and revenues adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such tolls and revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Nassau.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the tolls or other revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of Atlantic Beach bridge or of any real property necessary or convenient in connection with Atlantic Beach bridge or any new bridge that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all tolls and other revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any tolls, rentals and other revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 666-a. Limitation of liability. Neither the members of the authority, nor any person or persons acting in its behalf, while acting within the scope of their authority, shall be subject to any personal liability resulting from the erection, construction, reconstruction, maintenance or operation of the properties or any of the improvements or from carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title.

§ 666-b. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. An action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limit established by, and in compliance with all requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law.

3. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 667. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

TITLE 8

OGDENSBURG BRIDGE AUTHORITY

717. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded.

§ 700. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Ogdensburg bridge authority act."

§ 701. Definitions. As used in this title, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings, unless some other meaning is plainly intended.

1. The word "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section seven hundred two of this chapter.

2. The word "board" shall mean the members of the authority.

3. The word "bridge" shall include approaches and all construction necessary to give access to the bridge from connecting roads, toll houses, toll booths and such facilities as may be necessary to the collection of tolls, buildings and structures necessary for the housing of customs and immigration officials and such other buildings and appurtenances necessary to the operation of the bridge as an international toll bridge.

§ 702. Ogdensburg bridge authority. A board to be known as "Ogdensburg bridge authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation. It shall consist of seven members who shall be appointed by the governor. The terms of office of the members shall be five years except as hereinafter provided. Of the two members first appointed to fill a vacancy created by reason of the increase in the membership of the authority to seven in number one shall be appointed for an initial term of three years and one for an initial term of four years. Each of the above terms provided for shall commence on the first day of January in the year in which the vacancy occurs. Each member shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his successor. An appointment to fill a vacancy shall be for the unexpired term. The board shall elect annually a chairman, a vice-chairman, a secretary and a treasurer of the board. The members of the board shall not be entitled to compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for all expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. The board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents or employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. When all its liabilities shall have been met and its bonds shall have been paid in full, all its rights and properties, so far as the same are located in the United States of America, including the right to charge tolls, shall be conveyed without cost or expense to the state of New York, and all its rights and properties so far as the same are located in the Dominion of Canada, including the right to charge tolls, shall be conveyed without cost or expense to the province of Ontario or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the laws of the Dominion of Canada. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until all its liabilities shall have been met and its bonds paid in full and until all its rights and properties shall have been conveyed as hereinabove provided.

§ 703. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes;

4. To acquire, by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law, such real property or rights or easements therein, as may be necessary or proper for the construction or operation of the bridge, and to sell any such property not needed for its corporate purposes;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs;

6. To contract for professional services and to employ consulting engineers for the design of the bridge and supervision of its construction, and to employ legal consultants in both the United States and Canada; to appoint officers, agents and employees and engineers, and fix their compensation;

7. To make contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

8. By contract or contracts or by its own employees to construct and to maintain and operate a bridge across the Saint Lawrence river at or near the city of Ogdensburg, in the county of Saint Lawrence, New York, and the approach roads which are necessary to connect the bridge with the state highway system in the state of New York at a point and in a manner approved by the state department of transportation and with the nearest highway in the province of Ontario and to acquire any property or rights of any person, firm or corporation deemed by the authority to be necessary or desirable in connection with the construction or operation of the bridge;

9. To charge tolls for the use of the bridge at rates sufficient to provide for payment of all expenses of the authority, the conservation, maintenance and operation of the bridge, the payment of the interest on and the principal of all bonds issued by the authority under the provisions of this title, and reserves for such purposes, subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

10. To exercise in Canada all rights, powers and authority which shall be granted or permitted to the authority by the proper authorities of Canada or of the province of Ontario, including the entering upon lands and acquiring, condemning, occupying, possessing, and using such real estate and other property in Canada as may be needed by the authority in carrying out the powers herein granted;

11. Prior to the opening of the bridge for automotive traffic, to purchase, maintain and operate all or any ferries across the Saint Lawrence river within five miles of the location which shall be selected for said bridge, subject to the conditions and limitations contained in this title, and subject to the approval of the proper authorities in the government of Canada, subject to the approval of the comptroller of the state of New York and subject to the approval of the form of contract by the attorney general of the state of New York. Nothing contained in this title shall require the authority or its successors to maintain or operate any ferry or ferries purchased under the authority of this title and upon opening of the bridge for automotive traffic such automotive ferry or automotive ferry operations shall be terminated, but nothing in this article shall prohibit any party from operating a non-automotive ferry between Ogdensburg and Prescott. Upon the termination of such ferry or ferries operations any ferry or ferries so purchased, with the appurtenances and property thereto connected and belonging, shall be sold in such manner, at such time or times and for such amounts as shall be approved by the director of the budget of the state of New York. The authority and its successors may fix such rates and tolls for the use of such ferry or ferries as it may deem proper, subject to the same conditions provided by this title as to tolls for traffic over the bridge. All tolls collected for the use of the ferry or ferries and the proceeds from any sale or disposition of any ferry or ferries shall be used, as far as may be necessary, to pay the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating the same, and any residue thereof shall be paid to the state comptroller as agent of the authority and deposited by him to the credit of the Ogdensburg bridge fund;

12. To construct and maintain over, under, along or across the bridge and approach roads telephone, telegraph or electric wires and cables, gas mains, water mains, and other mechanical equipment not inconsistent with the appropriate use of the bridge and approach roads, and to contract for such construction and to lease the right to construct or use the same on such terms and for such considerations as it shall determine; provided, however, that no such lease shall extend for a period of more than twenty years or beyond the final date of maturity of any bonds issued and outstanding under the authority of this title;

13. To purchase, construct and maintain facilities for the public, consistent with the use of the bridge, to contract for such construction, and to lease the right to construct or use such facilities on such terms and for such considerations as it shall determine; provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a period of more than thirty years from the date when it is made;

14. To issue its negotiable bonds and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

15. To enter on any lands, waters and premises for the purpose of making surveys, soundings and examinations;

16. To accept grants of money or real or personal property from the federal or state governments or agencies thereof, or from municipal corporations, or any other lawful source for its corporate purposes;

17. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly given in this title except that the construction of the bridge herein authorized shall not be begun or any property acquired until after the necessary consents and approvals of the federal government and of the government of Canada or any subdivision or agency thereof having jurisdiction shall have been obtained.

18. To establish, maintain and operate, either by contract or contracts or by its own employees, a public bus transportation system, from an area in the vicinity of Sophia street in the city of Prescott, province of Ontario, Canada, over and across the Ogdensburg bridge to an area in the vicinity of Saint Lawrence avenue in the city of Ogdensburg, county of Saint Lawrence, state of New York, in a manner to be determined by the authority subject to the laws, rules and regulations pertaining to public bus transportation of the government of Canada, province of Ontario and the city of Prescott and subject to the laws, rules and regulations pertaining to public bus transportation of the government of the United States of America, state of New York, county of Saint Lawrence and the city of Ogdensburg.

19. To rehabilitate and modernize the building known as "Garden Cottage" and utilize, operate and maintain such building as a port facilities building including therein suitable accommodations for the authority's administration headquarters, a tourist information and service center and other office accommodations which may be leased or rented for public or private purposes.

20. To assist and cooperate with the Ogdensburg port authority and other official agencies in promoting the development and use of the Ogdensburg bridge, harbor and port facilities and when requested by it to make available to the Ogdensburg port authority at a nominal rental suitable accommodations in the port facilities building for the administration headquarters of such port authority.

§ 703-a. Financing ferries. 1. In addition to other powers granted to the authority under the provisions of this title the authority shall have power to issue its negotiable notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in such amount as may be necessary to pay the cost of the ferries purchased by it under the provisions of this title, the costs of any improvements thereof and such expenses as may be deemed necessary or incident to such financing.

2. The issuance of such notes, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties and obligations of the authority in respect of the same, shall be governed by the provisions of this title which relate to bonds in so far as the same may be applicable.

3. Neither the authority nor the state of New York or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof shall proceed with the construction of any bridge across the Saint Lawrence river at or near the city of Ogdensburg, in the county of Saint Lawrence, New York, unless all such notes shall have theretofore been paid and cancelled either from the proceeds of bonds issued under the provisions of this title or from any other moneys which may be available for such purpose.

In case the authority shall issue its bonds under the provisions of this title, the amount required for making such payment shall be deemed to constitute the purchase price of the ferries.

§ 703-b. Tolls, rules and regulations. The authority shall have power to make rules and regulations for the preservation and use of the bridge and for the payment and collection of tolls, fees, fares and special charges. Until such time as the state of New York is fully reimbursed by the authority for the total amount of money advanced by the state to the authority, no rule, regulation, schedule or rate of tolls, fees, fares, special charges or rentals shall become effective or controlling unless approved by the director of the budget of the state of New York.

2. The state hereby further authorizes the commissioner of general services, with the consent of the commissioner of mental hygiene and approval of the director of the budget, to grant to the authority a portion of the lands of the Saint Lawrence state hospital located in the county of Saint Lawrence, upon such terms and conditions, including consideration, as such commissioner may determine. The portion of such lands of such hospital herein authorized to be granted shall be taken from the westerly end of the hospital property on the northerly side of Proctor avenue and to be bounded on the south by the northerly line of Proctor avenue, on the north and northwest by the high water line of the Saint Lawrence river, on the west by the westerly boundary line of said hospital property and on the east by a line running from the northerly line of Proctor avenue northerly to the high water line of the Saint Lawrence river so as to contain within said bounds approximately seventy-five acres of land together with a triangular parcel of land between Proctor avenue and the northerly line of arterial route thirty-seven, bounded on the west by a westerly boundary line of said hospital grounds, on the south and east by the northerly boundary of arterial route thirty-seven, and on the north by the south side of Proctor avenue, excepting therefrom any and all lands taken and devoted to highway purposes of the state of New York. The department of transportation shall make an accurate survey of the parcels so to be granted and the grants to the authority may describe the land according to such surveys. The commissioner of general services in determining the amount of the consideration for such grants shall take into account the obsolescence of the improvements on the land conveyed, the cost to the authority, as estimated by the commissioner of transportation, of demolition of such facilities as are considered obsolete, and providing such improvement to the Saint Lawrence state hospital property as the commissioner of mental hygiene with the approval of the director of the budget, deems necessary in consequence of the grants herein authorized and such grants shall contain appropriate conditions to ensure the providing of such improvements by the authority at its cost and expense. Actual payment of the consideration for the grants, as determined by the commissioner of general services, shall not be required as a condition precedent to the grants, but the amount thereof shall be certified by the commissioner to the state comptroller and shall be deemed an advance to the authority by the state to be repaid in the same manner as provided in section seven hundred fifteen of this article for repayment of appropriations made by the state to the authority.

§ 705. Moneys of the authority. 1. All moneys received by the authority from the bridge and all other moneys received from any other source whatsoever pertaining to the operations of the authority shall be paid to the state comptroller as agent of the authority and deposited in a separate bank account or accounts to be known as the "Ogdensburg bridge fund. " The moneys in such fund shall be available subject to the approval of the director of the budget of the state of New York for payment of any and all costs and expenditures as may be necessary for the corporate purposes of the authority. The moneys of the Ogdensburg bridge fund when made available shall be paid from such fund on the audit and warrant of the comptroller on vouchers approved solely by the chairman of the authority or his properly designated officer.

2. All moneys in such fund in excess of the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall on the first day of each month be paid by the authority to the state comptroller provided, however, that effective June thirty, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, the director of the budget and the authority shall establish within the provisions of a written agreement between the authority and the director providing for the repayment to the state by the authority of state advances the maximum amount of moneys which the authority may retain in the Ogdensburg bridge fund. The comptroller is hereby authorized to receive from the authority such amounts as shall be paid to the comptroller pursuant to the provisions of this section and to credit all such amounts to the capital construction fund. Upon certification by the state comptroller that all moneys due the state have been paid in full, the remaining balance of such fund shall be available to such authority and may be used by such authority for any corporate purpose. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to examination by the state comptroller. The state comptroller is hereby authorized and empowered to examine the accounts and books of the authority at such periods of time as he may deem necessary, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases and any other matters relating to its financial standing.

3. Nothing in this section shall prevent the authority and the state from entering into an agreement for the establishment of a revolving fund to be used to pay part of or all of the authority's operating expenses. This revolving fund shall be initially funded with moneys advanced from the Ogdensburg bridge fund and shall be replenished from time to time from such funds upon the audit and warrant of the comptroller.

§ 706. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in such amount as may be necessary to pay the cost of the bridge and approach roads herein authorized and the cost of all land, property, rights, easements and franchises deemed necessary for the construction thereof, and to pay interest prior to and during construction and for one year after completion of construction, for reconstruction and upgrades to the bridge, the purchase price of the ferry or ferries authorized to be acquired, the repayment of any advances or appropriations made by the state of New York to the authority and such other expenses as may be deemed necessary or incident to the financing and to the construction of the bridge and approach roads, and to placing the same in operation, and infrastructure, upgrade and expansion at the Ogdensburg international airport.

2. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for the purpose of refunding bonds of the authority theretofore issued, but the aggregate principal amount of such refunding bonds shall not exceed the aggregate principal amount of the bonds to be refunded and the amount of the accrued interest and the premium required to be paid upon such bonds by reason of redemption before maturity.

3. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board. The bonds shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding six per centum per annum, shall mature at such time or times all as may be determined by the authority and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the authority, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the authority prior to the issuance of the bonds. The authority shall determine the form and the manner of execution of the bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest, which may be at any bank or trust company within or without the state. In case any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery, and any bond may bear the facsimile signature of, or may be signed by, such person as at the actual time of the execution of such bond shall be duly authorized to sign such bond although at the date of such bond such person may not have been such officer. The bonds may be issued in coupon form or in registered form or both coupon form and registered form as the authority may determine, and provisions may be made by the authority for the registration of any coupon bond as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, for the reconversion into coupon bonds of any bonds registered as to both principal and interest, and for the exchange of either coupon bonds or registered bonds without coupons for an equal aggregate principal amount of other coupon bonds or registered bonds without coupons or both of any denomination or denominations. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title or any recitals in the bonds issued under the provisions of this title, all such bonds shall be deemed to be negotiable instruments under the laws of the state of New York. The authority may sell such bonds at public or private sale, to the bidders who shall offer the lowest interest cost to the authority, at such a price, not less than ninety-five per centum of their value, that the interest cost to maturity for the money received for any issue of such bonds shall not exceed six per centum per annum. Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds, the authority may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when such bonds shall have been executed and are available for delivery. The authority may also provide for the replacement of any bonds which shall become mutilated or shall be destroyed or lost. Bonds may be issued by the authority under the provisions of this title without any other proceedings or the happenings of any other conditions or things than those proceedings, conditions or things which are specifically required by this title.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to

(a) pledging the tolls and revenues of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds;

(b) the rates of the tolls to be charged for use of the bridge, the amounts to be raised in each year by tolls, and the use and disposition of the tolls and other revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the rights of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the bridge;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given; and

(h) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

5. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the bridge and the ferry or ferries, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the bridge and approach roads shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the bridge and the ferry or ferries to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation and repair of the bridge. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess, in addition to other powers granted by such trust indenture, all of the powers which are conferred by section seven hundred seven of this title upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

6. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the tolls or other revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

7. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing any bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

8. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase any of the outstanding bonds at a cost not exceeding the redemption price of the bonds purchased as fixed by the resolution of the authority which authorized their issuance. All bonds so purchased shall be cancelled.

9. No bonds shall be issued by the authority, except with the approval and consent of the comptroller of the state of New York, until and unless assurance, by appropriate legislation, agreements, or otherwise, shall have been obtained that Canada, the province of Ontario and the municipality or municipalities in which the Canadian terminal of the bridge is to be located will exempt the property and income of the authority from taxation so long as such bonds are outstanding.

§ 707. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any of the bonds after the same shall have become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds then outstanding, by an instrument or instruments in writing filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Saint Lawrence and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of the bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect tolls and revenues adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such tolls and revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the bondholders and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon the bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the bondholders;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the bondholders;

(e) declare all of the outstanding bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of the bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Saint Lawrence.

4. Before declaring the principal of all bonds due and payable the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not all bonds have been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver who may enter and take possession of the bridge and any approach roads and the ferry or ferries then under the jurisdiction of the authority or any part or parts thereof and operate and maintain the same and collect and receive all tolls and other revenues thereafter arising from the operation thereof in the same manner as the authority itself might do, and shall deposit all such moneys in a separate account and apply the same in such manner as the court shall direct. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any tolls and other revenues derived from the operation of the bridge and the ferry or ferries.

§ 708. State and county of Saint Lawrence not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the county of Saint Lawrence or of the state of New York, and neither such county nor the state shall be liable thereon, nor shall the bonds or other obligations of the authority be payable from any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 709. Bonds legal investments for public officers and certain others. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them.

§ 710. Exemption from taxation. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and it is a public purpose and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the properties acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities or upon the income therefrom.

§ 711. Agreements of the state. 1. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of bonds issued pursuant to this title that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the bridge, to establish and collect charges and tolls and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The state of New York does covenant and agree with the holders of bonds issued pursuant to this title that, except for structures constructed in connection with the development of the Saint Lawrence seaway or of hydro-electric power, no tunnel, bridge, parkway, causeway, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic except for ferry transportation which will be competitive with the bridge herein authorized will be constructed or maintained until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged; provided that a tunnel, bridge, parkway, causeway, road, highway or other connection for vehicular traffic shall be considered as competitive only if it shall form a connection for vehicular traffic between the state of New York and the province of Ontario, Canada, across the Saint Lawrence river within a distance of twenty-five miles from the bridge herein authorized.

§ 712. Rules and regulations relating to the bridge. The use of the bridge herein authorized shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the authority; provided, however, that the authority is not empowered to do anything which will impair the security of the bondholders or violate limitations contained in any agreement with bondholders.

§ 713. Acquisition and transfers of land. 1. Title to any lands, easements or rights in land which may be acquired for the authority with the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to this title shall be vested in the authority.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the board of supervisors of any county, the town board of any town, the trustees of any village, or the common council of any city, without any election or meeting of the taxpayers or voters or other authorization, is hereby authorized to convey to the authority any land, easement or interest in land, including a public highway, which the authority may deem necessary.

3. The authority shall have the right to convey to any appropriate governmental body of the state of New York any approach road in the state of New York, and to any appropriate governmental body of Canada any approach road in the province of Ontario, whenever such appropriate governmental body shall undertake to maintain the same as a public highway.

§ 714. Members and employees not to be interested in transactions. It shall be a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment, for any members of the board or any clerk, employee, architect, surveyor, engineer or superintendent appointed by the authority to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly, in furnishing materials, supplies or labor for the erection of a project or in any contract which such authority is empowered by this chapter to make.

§ 715. Repayment of state appropriations. All appropriations made heretofore or hereafter by the state to the authority shall be treated as advances by the state to the authority, and shall be repaid to it without interest out of the first proceeds of bonds issued by the authority for the construction of the bridge. The comptroller is hereby authorized to receive from the authority amounts advanced by the state to the authority and to deposit the same in the state treasury to the credit of the capital construction fund so that the state shall be reimbursed for the full amount of any and all such advances.

§ 716. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

RECONSTITUTION AND CONTINUATION OF OGDENSBURG BRIDGE AUTHORITY AS OGDENSBURG BRIDGE AND PORT AUTHORITY

§ 725. Ogdensburg bridge authority reconstituted and continued as Ogdensburg bridge and port authority. The Ogdensburg bridge authority, created pursuant to the provisions of title eight of article three of this chapter, is hereby reconstituted the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority and, as thus reconstituted is hereby continued with all the jurisdiction, functions, powers and duties possessed, exercised or performed by it pursuant to such title, together with such additional jurisdiction, functions, powers and duties as may be conferred or imposed by this title.

§ 726. Ogdensburg bridge and port authority. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the members of the Ogdensburg bridge authority in office on the effective date of this title shall become and be the members of the board of and shall thereafter constitute, the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority, and shall hold office for the balance of the terms for which they were severally appointed.

All of the provisions of title eight of article three of this chapter, respecting the qualifications, appointment, terms, officers, number of members and removal of members of the Ogdensburg bridge authority, including the filling of vacancies occurring for any reason, shall hereafter be applicable to the members of the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority, except that all members shall hereafter be appointed by and with the advice and consent of the senate.

§ 727. Ogdensburg port authority abolished; transfer of functions. Except as hereinafter provided, the Ogdensburg port authority, created pursuant to the provisions of title three of article six of this chapter, is hereby abolished, and all of the jurisdiction, functions, powers and duties possessed, exercised or performed by such authority, of whatsoever nature or kind, are hereby transferred and assigned to, and devolved upon, the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority.

§ 728. Transfer of records and property. Except as hereinafter provided, all the contracts, books, maps, plans, papers, records, moneys and property, of whatsoever nature or kind, owned or possessed or under the jurisdiction or control of the Ogdensburg port authority, and all debts or obligations thereof, are hereby transferred and assigned to, and devolved upon, the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority, and the same or evidences thereof shall be delivered to the secretary of such authority who is hereby authorized to take possession thereof.

§ 729. Continuity of authority; status of acts. For the purposes of succession, all of the functions, powers and duties of the Ogdensburg bridge authority, and of the Ogdensburg port authority, as prescribed and provided, respectively, by the provisions of title eight of article three, and title three of article six of this chapter, and hereby continued in, transferred and assigned to, and devolved upon, the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority, shall be deemed to constitute a continuation of the same, and all the acts, orders, rules, regulations and determinations of either the Ogdensburg bridge authority or the Ogdensburg port authority shall have, and continue with, the same force and effect as though done or made by the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority.

§ 730. Unfinished business; pending actions and proceedings. Any business or matter heretofore undertaken or commenced by or before the Ogdensburg bridge authority or the Ogdensburg port authority, or any action or proceeding brought by or against either of such authorities pertaining to or connected with the jurisdiction, functions, powers and duties hereby continued in, transferred and assigned to, or devolved upon, the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority, may be conducted, completed, prosecuted and defended by and in the name of the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority. In all such actions and proceedings, the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority, upon application to the court, may be substituted as a party.

§ 731. Terms occurring in law, or in contracts or documents. Whenever the Ogdensburg bridge authority or the Ogdensburg port authority is referred to or designated in any law, or in any contract or document, such reference or designation shall be deemed to refer to and include the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority, to the extent that such law, contract or document pertains to matters which are within its jurisdiction by reason of the continuation, transfer, assignment and devolution of jurisdiction, functions, powers and duties made to it by this title.

§ 733. Funds of the authority. Notwithstanding the reconstitution and continuation of the Ogdensburg bridge authority and the abolition of the Ogdensburg port authority, effectuated by this title, or any other provision of this chapter, moneys constituting the fund or funds of either the Ogdensburg bridge authority or the Ogdensburg port authority may be merged for the payment of debts and obligations, but separate accounting records shall be maintained.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and except as hereinafter provided in section thirteen hundred eighty-seven of this chapter, all moneys hereafter received by the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority pursuant to the provisions of title eight of article three of this chapter, and all moneys hereafter received pursuant to the provisions of title three of article six of this chapter, may be merged for the payment of debts and obligations, but separate accounting records shall be maintained.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, titles eight and nine of article three and title three of article six or any other provisions of this chapter, any moneys in either the "Ogdensburg bridge fund" or the "Ogdensburg port fund" not necessary or required for cash expenditures, as may be determined and certified from time to time by the state director of the budget, shall, in amounts also to be determined and certified by him, be available for and may be loaned to or from either of the funds above mentioned. Amounts so loaned between such funds shall be repaid without interest into the fund from which each such loan was made.

§ 734. Application of consistent provisions. All of the provisions of title eight of article three and of title three of article six of this chapter, so far as the same are applicable and not inconsistent with this title, shall apply to the Ogdensburg bridge and port authority; provided, however, that the provisions of title eight of article three shall supersede the provisions of title three of article six, in the event that the same are inconsistent.

§ 735. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. An action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served within the time limit established by, and in compliance with all requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law.

3. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

ARTICLE 4

MARKET AUTHORITIES

CENTRAL NEW YORK REGIONAL MARKET AUTHORITY

§ 825. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Central New York Regional Market Authority Act."

§ 826. Central New York Regional Market Authority. 1. There is hereby created and established a district to be known as the "central New York regional market district," hereinafter in this title referred to as "the district," which shall embrace all the territory included within the following named counties: Cayuga, Cortland, Madison, Oneida, Onondaga, Oswego, that territory in Wayne county lying east of the new pre-emption line. For the accomplishment of the purposes hereinafter indicated relative to that district there is hereby created and established a public benefit corporation, to be known as "Central New York Regional Market Authority," hereinafter in this title referred to as "the authority." Such authority shall have perpetual existence and the power to acquire by the exercise of the right of eminent domain or otherwise such real estate within the district and other property as may be necessary, to sue and be sued, to incur debts, liabilities and obligations, to issue bonds and other evidences of indebtedness, to have a seal, and to exercise all powers authorized by this title and reasonably necessary for accomplishing its purposes, subject to the provisions herein contained and the constitution and laws of the United States and of New York state. Such powers shall be exercised in the name of the "Central New York Regional Market Authority."

2. In fulfilling the authority's mission, the board shall work cooperatively and in consultation with the department of agriculture and markets to ensure the proper development of agriculture and regional market facilities, in the central New York regional market district. The board and the department of agriculture and markets, hereinafter in this title referred to as "the department," shall jointly develop a plan for the future development and viability of agriculture and regional market facilities in the district. Such plan shall include both short-term and long-term goals and objectives as well as actual and projected revenues and expenditures. Such plan shall annually allocate no less than seventy-five percent of the authority's available funds for the creation, development, and enhancement of agriculture and regional market facilities, in the district. For purposes of this subdivision, available funds shall mean the net amount available after contractually obligated expenditures are subtracted from, but not be limited to, cash, cash equivalents, certificates of deposit, and other receivables available. The board and department shall meet annually prior to the close of the authority's fiscal year to evaluate the effectiveness of the use of funds for that fiscal year, review the goals and objectives of the plan, and properly prepare for the allocation and use of such funds for the next fiscal year. The plan shall be updated annually to make appropriate modifications to such plan for the next fiscal year. Prior to any such funds being expended, both the board and the department must approve such plan, its goals and objectives as well as the projected revenues and proposed allocations.

3. The authority shall furnish an annual real estate report detailing all real estate holdings and detailed property information, including but not limited to the tenants, important lease terms, rents, durations of leases, as well as copies of each lease. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the authority shall furnish all required reports, audits, and reviews, including the annual real estate report, to all parties enumerated in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter, to the department of agriculture and markets, as well as publish such report on its website within ninety days after the end of its fiscal year.

§ 827. Board of directors. The board of directors of the authority, hereinafter in this title referred to as "the board," shall consist of seventeen voting members, as follows: The commissioner of agriculture and markets or the commissioner's representative. The board of supervisors of each of the counties in the district shall each name directors as follows: Onondaga, three; Oswego, two; Cayuga, two; Madison, two; Cortland, one; Oneida, one, and Wayne, one. Additionally, the following shall have appointments to the board: the county executive of Onondaga county, two; and the mayor of the city of Syracuse, two; One member from each of the above-named counties may be either a producer or non-producer of agricultural products; the other members named by the board of supervisors of the counties in the district entitled to additional directors shall be persons engaged in farming and deriving a greater part of their income therefrom, and all such appointments made after May first, nineteen hundred forty-four, shall be producers who actually sell all or part of their produce on the Central New York Regional Market.

Each member shall continue as a member during the pleasure of the body appointing such member, and upon a vacancy occurring by the filing with the secretary of the authority of a duly certified copy of the resolution signifying that an appointment has been terminated, or upon resignation of a member, or a vacancy occurring in any other manner, it shall be filled in a manner corresponding to the original appointment. Each member shall, before entering upon the duties of office, take the constitutional oath of office and file the same in the office of the secretary of state. One more than one half of the duly qualified members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and shall be necessary to the validity of any resolution, order or, determination. Any member may be removed by the governor for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, after a hearing upon charges and an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel upon not less than ten days' notice. The members shall not receive a salary or other compensation, but shall be paid actual expenses incurred in attending meetings of the board and in performing committee work assigned to them by the board. Expenses for travel shall not exceed the per mile rate allowed state employees for use of personal cars. Expenses of a special or extraordinary nature may be allowed by resolution of the board.

§ 828. Powers of the board. The board of directors may name a manager and such other officers and employees as may be needed, and fix their compensation; may determine the location, type, size, construction and equipment of requisite regional marketing facilities within the district; may prepare a plan for financing the acquisition, construction, equipment and operation of such facilities; and may exercise generally the powers of the authority to the end that there may be constructed, equipped and operated adequate regional marketing facilities within the district for the buying and selling of farm produce and any and all other businesses which reasonably tend to serve the public in connection with that business or make it more convenient, efficient, profitable or successful. In the exercise of those powers, either directly or through its officers and employees the board may do the following things, among others, and the following list of powers shall not be deemed complete or exclusive, or to deny the existence of other powers, whether similar or different, so long as they are reasonably necessary for accomplishing the purposes declared and indicated in this title.

(a) Make such investigations and hold such hearings and conferences as may be necessary to formulate, adopt and revise a financial, building and operation program for a regional market within the district.

(b) Acquire, lease, erect, construct, equip, maintain and operate market facilities within the district, and for such purposes to acquire real property within the district, by agreement or by condemnation, including options and leases thereon as well as all other forms of acquisition, and to improve and equip the same, and to mortgage, sell, rent, exchange or dispose of any property, real or personal, or interests therein or licenses affecting the same, as may seem advisable, including the leasing or sale of real property, heretofore acquired and now held and not required for market facilities, for agriculture business, commercial or industrial uses.

(c) Execute contracts, bonds, certificates of indebtedness and other obligations, and sell or dispose of the same in such amounts and at such rates of interest as may be advisable. This shall include the power to dispose of its bonds or other obligations to, and to borrow money from, the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or any corporation owned or controlled by the United States of America or the state of New York.

(d) Employ such manager or managers, and such clerical, engineering, legal or other professional assistance, services and labor as may be deemed necessary for accomplishing the purposes of this title, fix their compensation, and at pleasure discharge any of them.

(e) Fix, impose and collect rentals and license fees relative to all business which may be done upon the market or in any way involving the use of its facilities; make rules and regulations which shall govern all such business and all persons and vehicles coming upon the market; provide and enforce penalties and liquidated damages relative to breaches of such rules and regulations and any contracts entered into.

2. Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding six per centum per annum payable annually or semiannually, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, with or without premium, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Such bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the board shall determine, provided that the interest cost to maturity of the money received for any issue of such bonds shall not exceed six per centum per annum.

3. Such bonds may be issued for any corporate purpose of the authority.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds may contain provisions which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the gross or net revenues of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds;

(b) the rentals and license fees to be charged for use of the market facilities and the amounts to be raised in each year by rentals and license fees and the use and disposition of such rentals and other revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority and its successors to restrict and regulate the use of the market facilities;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied;

(f) limitations on the issuance of other or additional bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must give consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given.

5. Neither the members of the board nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase any bonds issued by it at a price not more than the principal amount thereof and accrued interest. All bonds so purchased shall be cancelled.

7. The authority shall have power, subject to the rights and with the consent of the holders of any outstanding bonds issued under the provisions of this title, to issue and sell or exchange its negotiable bonds to refund or to refinance all or any part of such outstanding bonds. All bonds issued by virtue of this section shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall be issued upon such terms, not inconsistent with the provisions of this title, as the board may determine. Such bonds may be authorized in combination with and as part of an issue of bonds authorized to refund or to refinance and to be sold to provide funds for any purpose for which the authority is now authorized to issue bonds.

§ 830. Agreement of the state. The state of New York does pledge and agree with the holders of any bonds that are issued under this title that the state will not authorize the construction of any market facilities which will be competitive with any market facilities owned or operated by the authority or within a reasonable sphere of operation and extension of market facilities by the authority, nor will it limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect such rentals and license fees as may be necessary or convenient to produce sufficient revenues to meet the expense of maintenance and operation of the market facilities and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of bond holders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid instalments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any actions or proceedings by or on behalf of the bond holders, are fully met and discharged.

§ 831. State and county not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state or of any county or counties included within the district, and the board shall have no power to make them payable out of any funds except those of the authority.

§ 832. Bonds legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions may properly and legally invest funds in their control.

§ 833. Exemption from taxation. The real and personal property of the authority shall be exempt from all taxation, and so shall all of its activities and operations, except that the owners of its bonds and other obligations shall be subject to transfer and estate taxes.

§ 834. Covenants with authority. Any county, city, town or village within the territorial limits of the district may by ordinance or resolution of its governing body make covenants with the authority which shall enure to the benefit of the holders of any bonds issued under this title and which shall be a part of the contract with the holders in such bonds, as to

1. the authorizing of the construction of any market facilities which will be competitive with any market facilities owned or operated by the authority or within a reasonable sphere of operation and extension of market facilities by the authority;

2. discontinuing of market facilities then owned or operated by the county, city, town or village or department or agency thereof;

3. limitations on the licensing of private market facilities within the territorial limits of the county, city, town or village which may compete with the market facilities owned or operated by the authority or within a reasonable sphere of operation or extension by the authority.

§ 834-a. Policing. Any county, city, town or village within the territorial limits of the district may, by ordinance or resolution of its governing body, make covenants with the authority which shall provide for the policing of designated property of the authority by the police of such county, city, town or village with the same powers as such police have in such county, city, town or village.

§ 834-b. Powers of municipal corporations. Any county, city, town or village within the territorial limits of the district, by ordinance or resolution of its governing body, shall have the following powers hereinafter enumerated which shall not be deemed to have any effect upon, or to modify, any other powers of any such county, city, town or village, and which shall not be deemed to have any effect upon, or modify, any of the other provisions of this title. Each such ordinance or resolution shall constitute a covenant with the authority which shall enure to the benefit of the holders of any bonds issued under this title, and which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of such bonds. Such ordinance or resolution may:

1. Provide for the establishing, locating, constructing, equipping, maintaining and operating of market facilities by the authority in such county, city, town or village, and for such purposes, or any of them, such county, city, town or village may:

(a) Sell any of its property, real or personal, or any interests therein, or grant licenses affecting the same to the authority for a nominal consideration or otherwise and upon such other terms, covenants and conditions, if any, as may be agreed upon between the authority and such county, city, town or village.

(b) Lease any of its property, real or personal, or any interests therein to the authority for a nominal consideration or otherwise and upon such other terms, covenants and conditions, if any, as may be agreed upon between the authority and such county, city, town or village, for a period of not to exceed fifty years and an option to renew for a period of not to exceed fifty years as may be agreed upon between the authority and such county, city, town or village.

(c) Provide municipal services, facilities or utilities to the authority for the benefit of the market facilities owned or operated by the authority in such county, city, town or village.

2. For the purposes of protection of public health, the facilitation of inspection of fruits, vegetables, live poultry and poultry products, the enforcement of sanitary regulations and the general welfare of the community, prescribe in such county, city, town or village an area, including and adjoining the market facilities owned or operated by the authority, wherein the buying and the selling of fruits, vegetables, live poultry and poultry products at wholesale may be confined to the market facilities owned or operated by the authority within such area and the dealing in such commodities within such area outside the market facilities owned or operated by the authority may be otherwise regulated, restricted or controlled. Such area shall be of such size as the county, city, town or village shall determine to be necessary for the accomplishment of such purposes.

§ 835. Assistance by counties within district. To aid and assist in the acquisition, construction and equipment of requisite regional marketing facilities within the district, including the acquisition of a site or sites and the construction of a regional market and marketing facilities within the district, is hereby determined to be a county purpose for each of the counties included within the district and the board of supervisors of each of the counties constituting the "central New York regional market district" shall have the power and may from time to time in its discretion, appropriate or loan its money to or in the aid of the same for the general improvement of agricultural and home conditions, and may raise moneys for such purposes by a tax on real property in the county, and may take and receive in return for such sums so loaned, the bonds or other obligations, senior, junior or otherwise, of the authority as security therefor.

§ 836. Remedies of bond holders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of the principal of or interest on any of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Onondaga and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the bond holders for the purposes herein provided.

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding, enforce all rights of the bond holders, including the right to require the authority and the board to collect rentals, license fees, and other revenues adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such rentals and to require the authority and the board to carry out any other agreements with the bond holders and to perform its and their duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon the bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the bond holders;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the bond holders;

(e) declare all bonds due and payable and if any default shall be made good to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of the bond holders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in Onondaga county.

4. Before declaring the principal of all bonds due and payable the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not all bonds have been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver who may enter and take possession of the properties of the authority then under the jurisdiction of the authority or any part or parts thereof and operate and maintain the same and collect and receive all rentals, license fees and other revenues thereafter arising therefrom and exercise such other powers of the authority as the court may deem advisable in the same manner as the authority itself might do and shall deposit all such moneys in a separate account or accounts and apply the same in such manner as the court shall direct. In any suit, action, or proceeding by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any rentals and other revenues derived from the marketing facilities.

6. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of the bond holders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 837. Members not to be interested in transactions. No member of the board shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any transaction with the authority, except the leasing as a grower of a stall or stalls upon the market and such transactions as are ordinarily incidental thereto.

§ 838. Repayment of state appropriation. The moneys appropriated by chapter eight hundred forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred thirty-five and expended, shall be repaid by the authority into the state treasury, when the cost of acquisition, construction and improvement of such markets, market sites and market facilities shall have been fully paid and the debt or debts created by the authority for such purposes amortized.

§ 839. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 840. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general, special or local, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

§ 841. Actions against authority. 1. In any case founded upon tort a notice of claim shall be required as a condition precedent to the commencement of an action or special proceeding against the authority and the provisions of section fifty-e of the general municipal law shall apply.

2. An action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of intention to commence such action and of the time when and place where the damages were incurred or sustained, together with a verified statement showing in detail the property alleged to have been damaged or destroyed and the value thereof, or the personal injuries alleged to have been sustained and by whom, shall have been filed in the principal office of the authority within ninety days after such cause of action shall have accrued.

3. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 842. Moneys of the authority. The state comptroller or such comptroller's legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, sinking funds, reserve funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing.

§ 843. Code of ethics. 1. As used in this section, the term "authority employee" shall mean any board member, member, officer or employee of the authority.

2. The authority shall make available their code of ethics on their website, which is applicable to all authority employees.

3. No authority employee shall have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engage in any business or transaction or professional activity or incur any obligation of any nature, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of such employee's duties in the public interest.

4. (a) No authority employee shall accept other employment which will impair such employee's independence of judgment in the exercise of any official duties.

(b) No authority employee shall accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which will require the employee to disclose confidential information which such employee has gained by reason of official position or authority.

(c) No authority employee shall disclose confidential information acquired by the employee in the course of official duties nor use such information to further personal interests.

(d) No authority employee shall use or attempt to use an official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for such employee or others.

(e) No authority employee shall engage in any transaction as representative or agent of the authority with any business entity in which such employee has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with the proper discharge of official duties.

(f) An authority employee shall not by conduct give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence such employee or unduly enjoy favor in the performance of official duties, or that such employee is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person.

(g) An authority employee shall abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which such employee has reason to believe may be directly involved in decisions to be made by the employee or which will otherwise create substantial conflict between duty in the public interest and such employee's private interest.

(h) An authority employee shall endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not raise suspicion among the public that such employee is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of trust.

(i) No authority employee employed on a full-time basis nor any firm or association of which such an employee is a member, where a substantial portion of the stock of which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such employee, shall sell goods or services to any person, firm, authority or association which is licensed or whose rates are fixed by the authority in which such employee serves or is employed.

(j) If any authority employee shall have a financial interest, direct or indirect, having a value of ten thousand dollars or more in any activity which is subject to the jurisdiction of a regulatory agency, such authority employee shall file with the secretary of state a written statement that such authority employee has such a financial interest in such activity which statement shall be open to public inspection.

5. In addition to any penalty contained in any other provision of law any such authority employee who shall knowingly and intentionally violate any of the provisions of this section may be fined, suspended or removed from office or employment.

6. The provisions of section seventy-three of the public officers law shall be applicable to all board members and employees of the authority.

GENESEE VALLEY REGIONAL MARKET AUTHORITY

§ 875. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Genesee Valley Regional Market Authority Act".

§ 876. Definitions. As used in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "district" shall mean the Genesee Valley Regional Market District created by section eight hundred seventy-seven of this title.

2. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section eight hundred seventy-eight of this title.

3. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority.

4. The term "bonds" shall mean bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title.

5. The term "municipality" shall mean a county, city, town or village.

6. The term "county" shall mean a county wholly or partly within the district.

7. The term "regional market facility" shall mean a place operated as a regional wholesale market primarily for perishable agricultural commodities, including the land, buildings, fixtures, equipment and other appurtenances necessary or incidental thereto, constituting a single integrated market for the district and which serves as the major source of supply of such commodities for a large consuming area.

8. The clause "all that territory in Wayne county lying west of the new pre-emption line" shall include the towns of Arcadia, Lyons, Macedon, Marion, Ontario, Palmyra, Sodus, Walworth and Williamson and the clause "that territory in Wayne county lying east of the new pre-emption line" shall include all the other towns in Wayne county.

§ 877. Genesee Valley Regional Market District. There is hereby created and established a district to be known as the "Genesee Valley Regional Market District", which shall embrace the area and territory bounded and described as follows: All the territory included within the following-named counties: Monroe, Ontario, Livingston, Orleans, Genesee, Wyoming, Steuben, Yates, and all that territory in Wayne county lying west of the new pre-emption line.

§ 878. Genesee Valley Regional Market Authority. 1. A board to be known as the "Genesee Valley Regional Market Authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation.

2. The board shall consist of fifteen members, as follows:

(a) The commissioner of agriculture and markets, or his representative designated in writing by him, shall be a member ex officio.

(b) The county legislative body of each county shall appoint the number of members as follows, who shall be residents of the county: Monroe county, three members; Livingston county, two members; Ontario county, two members; Wayne county, two members who shall be residents of that part of Wayne county lying west of the new pre-emption line; Genesee county, one member; Orleans county, one member; Steuben county, one member; Wyoming county, one member; and Yates county, one member.

3. One member of the board from each county may be either a producer or non-producer of agricultural products; other members from each county, if any, shall be persons engaged in farming and deriving a greater part of their income therefrom; provided, however, that all persons appointed as members of the board after May first, nineteen hundred sixty-one, shall be producers of agricultural products who actually sell all or part of their produce at regional market facilities maintained and operated by the Genesee Valley Regional Market Authority.

4. A member of the board shall continue in office during the pleasure of the body appointing him or her. Any vacancy which may occur by reason of the death, disqualification, resignation or removal of a member shall be filled by the body which appointed such member. Each member of the board shall, before entering upon the duties of office, take the constitutional oath of office and file the same in the office of the secretary of state. Any member may be removed by the governor for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, after a hearing upon charges and an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall not receive a salary or other compensation, but shall be paid actual expenses incurred in attending meetings of the board and executive committee and in performing committee work assigned to them by the board, and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses at the per mile rate allowed state employees for use of personal vehicles. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by the board and the provisions of section forty-one of the general construction law shall apply; provided that the board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

5. At the first meeting of the board, the board shall choose from their number a chairman, vice-chairman, secretary, and treasurer who shall serve during the pleasure of the board. Before entering upon the duties of his office the treasurer shall execute to the authority and file with the secretary of the authority a bond in such sum and with such sureties as the board shall direct and approve. The board may at any time require the treasurer to file a new bond for such sum and with such sureties as the board shall approve. In the event the surety on any such bond is a surety company authorized to transact business in the state of New York the expense of procuring such surety, not exceeding one per centum per annum upon the sum for which the bond is given, shall be a charge against the authority.

6. In fulfilling the authority's mission, the board shall work cooperatively and in consultation with the department of agriculture and markets to assure the proper development of agriculture and regional market facilities, in the Genesee Valley Regional Market District. The board and the department of agriculture and markets shall jointly develop a plan for the future development and viability of agriculture and regional market facilities in the district. Such plan shall include both short term and long term goals and objectives as well as actual and projected revenues and expenditures. Such plan shall annually allocate no less than seventy-five percent of the authority's available funds for the creation, development, and enhancement of agriculture and regional market facilities, in the district. For purposes of this subdivision, available funds shall mean the net amount available after contractually obligated expenditures are subtracted from, but not be limited to, cash, cash equivalents, certificates of deposit, and other receivables available. The board and department shall meet annually prior to the close of the authority's fiscal year to evaluate the effectiveness of the use of funds for that fiscal year, review the goals and objectives of the plan, and properly prepare for the allocation and use of such funds for the next fiscal year. The plan shall be updated annually to make appropriate modifications to such plan for the next fiscal year. Prior to any such funds being expended, both the board and the department must approve such plan, its goals and objectives as well as the projected revenues and proposed allocations.

The Genesee Valley Regional Market Authority shall furnish an annual real estate report detailing all real estate holdings and detailed property information, including but not limited to the tenants, important lease terms, rents, durations of leases, as well as copies of each lease. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Genesee Valley Regional Market Authority shall furnish all required reports, audits, and reviews, including the annual real estate report, to all parties enumerated in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter as well as to the department of agriculture and markets, within ninety days after the end of its fiscal year.

§ 879. Purposes and powers of the authority. The purposes of the authority shall be to assist in the establishment and development of agriculture and agriculturally related businesses in the district, and to acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, equip, operate and maintain adequate regional market facilities within the district for the buying and selling of agricultural products and to conduct such other business activities as reasonably are incidental to and in furtherance of the convenient, efficient, profitable and successful operation of such regional market facilities. For the purposes of this title, "agriculturally related business" shall include, but not be limited to, agricultural economic development projects in the district for production, manufacturing, processing, warehousing, distribution, marketing, training, research and diagnostics related to sale of crops, livestock and livestock products as defined in section three hundred one of the agriculture and markets law. Project costs may include, but not be limited to, land, buildings, machinery, equipment, processed or partially processed agricultural commodities, root stock, livestock, other personal property, materials, working capital, or stock in trade required to establish such project. Not-for-profit corporations, agricultural cooperative corporations, public benefit corporations, municipalities and educational institutions serving the district shall be eligible to apply for support under this title. To enable the authority to carry out such purposes, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued.

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure.

3. To acquire, hold, lease, sell, convey and dispose of any property, real or personal, or interest therein, for its corporate purposes.

3-a. To lease real property heretofore acquired and now held by it and not required for regional market facilities for agricultural, business, commercial or industrial uses.

4. To condemn real property which shall be necessary for its corporate purposes, in the manner provided in the condemnation law.

5. To determine the location, type, size, construction and equipment of requisite regional market facilities within the district.

6. To prepare a plan for financing the acquisition, construction, equipment and operation of such facilities.

7. To make such investigations and hold hearings and conferences as may be necessary or convenient to formulate, adopt and revise programs and plans for financing, building, acquiring and operating such facilities.

8. To acquire, erect, construct, reconstruct, improve, equip, maintain and operate such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary or convenient.

9. To appoint officers, agents and employees and fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law of the state of New York and such rules as the civil service commission of the county of Monroe may adopt and make applicable to public authorities.

10. To contract for expert and other professional services.

11. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient.

12. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of its property or facilities, subject to the provisions of section eight hundred eighty of this title.

13. To make by-laws for the organization, management and regulation of its affairs.

14. To borrow money and to issue negotiable bonds and notes and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof.

15. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly given by this title.

§ 880. Moneys of the authority. 1. The treasurer of the authority shall demand, collect, receive and have the care and custody of moneys belonging to or due the authority from every source. Not later than the business day next following the day of their receipt the treasurer shall deposit in his name, as treasurer of the authority, all such moneys in such banks or trust companies as shall have been designated as depositaries of the moneys of the authority by resolution of the board. The deposit of such moneys in a bank or trust company so designated shall release the treasurer and his sureties from any liability for loss of such moneys by reason of the default or insolvency of any such depositary. The board may require any bank or trust company so designated in which such moneys are on deposit or are to be deposited to deliver to the board a surety bond payable to the authority, executed by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state and securing to the authority the payment of such deposits. In lieu of such a depositary bond, the board may require such bank or trust company to deposit with the board or its authorized agent obligations of the United States, of the state of New York, or of any municipality or school district of the state of New York as security for moneys of the authority deposited in such bank or trust company. All banks and trust companies are hereby authorized and empowered to secure deposits of moneys of the authority as hereinbefore provided in this subdivision. Moneys of the authority shall be disbursed only on the signature of the treasurer by checks payable to the person or persons entitled thereto. No money shall be paid out by the treasurer except upon order of the board or of such other person or persons as the board may authorize.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, the authority shall have power to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that any such contract may be inconsistent with the provisions of subdivision one of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are hereby authorized and empowered to give such security for such deposits.

3. The state comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, sinking funds, reserve funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing.

§ 881. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code, for any corporate purpose of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. Except as may be otherwise expressly provided by contract between the authority and the holders of its bonds, all bonds of the authority shall be general obligations payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds the payment of which is secured by a pledge of particular moneys or revenues.

2. Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding four per centum per annum payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption prior to maturity, at par or a price not exceeding one hundred three per centum of the face value, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. All bonds shall be sold at public sale upon sealed bids, after public notice, to the bidder who shall offer the lowest interest cost to the authority to be determined by the board; provided that bonds may be sold at private sale, without notice, to the United States of America or to the state of New York or to any sinking fund or pension fund of the state of New York or any municipality thereof. The notice of sale shall be published at least once, not less than ten nor more than forty days before the date of sale, in a financial newspaper published and circulated in the city of New York and designated by the board. The notice shall call for the receipt of sealed bids and shall fix the date, time and place of sale. Bonds shall be sold for a price not less than ninety-eight per centum of the par value thereof, plus accrued interest, provided always that the interest cost to maturity of the money received for any issue of such bonds shall not exceed four per centum per annum.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance of any bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to:

(a) Pledging all or any part of the gross or net revenues of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bond holders as may then exist;

(b) The rentals, fees and other charges to be charged for the use of market facilities, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of revenues of the authority;

(c) The setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) Limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of market facilities;

(e) Limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of the sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied;

(f) Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, including the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured;

(g) The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must give consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given; and

(h) Any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. Any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made. The revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall be immediately subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act. The lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability by reason of the issuance thereof, excepting solely for things willfully done or willfully omitted to be done with an intent to defraud.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase any of its outstanding bonds at a price not more than the principal amount thereof and accrued interest. All bonds so purchased shall be cancelled.

§ 882. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue its negotiable notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code whenever the board shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide moneys to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed market facility. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. Such notes may be renewed from time to time but such notes, including the renewals thereof, shall mature not later than three years from the date upon which such notes are issued. Such notes shall be issued in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions as to price and interest rate as bonds, except that the board may determine the manner in which such notes shall be sold. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

§ 883. Agreement of the state. The state of New York does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the state will not authorize the construction or operation of any market facilities within the district by any public agency or public corporation, nor will it limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, equip, operate and maintain market facilities, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds together with accrued interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

§ 884. State and counties not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state or of any county or counties, and the board shall have no power to make them payable out of any moneys except those of the authority.

§ 885. Bonds legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business and all other persons whatsoever, except as otherwise provided in this section, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that notwithstanding the provisions of section twenty-one of the personal property law or of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds also are hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 886. Exemptions from taxation. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and it is a public purpose and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes upon any of the properties acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be free from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

§ 887. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of the principal of or interest on any of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Monroe and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the bondholders for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of the bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority and the board to collect rentals, and other charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such rentals, fees and other charges and to require the authority and the board to carry out any other agreements with the bondholders and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon the bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the bondholders;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the bondholders;

(e) declare all bonds due and payable and, if any default shall be made good, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of the bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceedings shall be laid in Monroe county.

4. Before declaring the principal of all bonds due and payable the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not all bonds have been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver who may enter and take possession of the properties of the authority then under the jurisdiction of the authority or any part or parts thereof and operate and maintain the same and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom and exercise such other powers of the authority as the court may deem advisable in the same manner as the authority itself might do and shall deposit all such moneys in a separate account or accounts and apply the same in such manner as the court shall direct. In any suit, action, or proceeding by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from the marketing facilities.

§ 888. Interest in claims and contracts prohibited. No member, officer, agent or employee of the authority shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any claim against or contract with the authority except for lawful compensation and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties; provided that any such member, officer, agent or employee may, as a grower or dealer, lease from the authority a stall, store or other facility upon a market and may engage in such transactions with the authority as are reasonably and ordinarily incidental to such leasing.

§ 889. Actions against authority. 1. In any case founded upon a tort a notice of claim shall be required as a condition precedent to the commencement of an action or special proceeding against the authority and the provisions of section fifty-e of the general municipal law shall apply. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued.

§ 890. Contracts. All contracts of the authority for the purchase of supplies, materials or equipment or for public work, which involve an expenditure of more than twenty-five hundred dollars, shall be let upon sealed bids, after public advertisement, to the lowest responsible bidder furnishing the security as required by the board.

§ 891. State's right to require redemption of bonds. Notwithstanding and in addition to any provisions for the redemption of bonds which may be contained in any contract with the holders of the bonds, the state may, upon furnishing sufficient funds therefor, require the authority to redeem, prior to maturity, as a whole, any issue of bonds on any interest payment date not less than five years after the date of the bonds of such issue at one hundred and three per centum of their face value and accrued interest or at such lower redemption price as may be provided in the bonds in case of the redemption thereof as a whole on the redemption date. Notice of such redemption shall be published in at least two newspapers published and circulating respectively in the cities of Albany and New York at least twice, the first publication to be at least thirty days before the date of redemption.

§ 892. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 893. Inconsistent provisions in other laws superseded. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

TITLE 5

LONG ISLAND MARKET AUTHORITY

§ 900. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "Long Island Market Authority Act".

§ 901. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. "Authority" means the corporation created by section nine hundred two of this title.

2. "Bonds" means the bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the authority pursuant to this title and the provisions of this title relating to bonds and bondholders shall apply with equal force and effect to notes and noteholders, respectively, unless the context otherwise clearly requires.

3. "Civil service commission" means the civil service commission of the county of Suffolk.

4. "Comptroller" means the comptroller of the state.

5. "Construction" or "constructed" means the acquisition, erection, building, alteration, improvement, increase, enlargement, extension, reconstruction, renovation or rehabilitation of the authority; the inspection and supervision thereof; and the engineering, architectural, legal, fiscal and economic investigations and studies, surveys, designs, plans, working drawings, specifications, procedure and other actions preliminary or incidental thereto and claims arising therefrom.

6. "Cost", as applied to any project, includes the cost of construction, the cost of the acquisition of all property, including real property and other property, both real, personal and mixed, improved and unimproved, the cost of the demolishing, removing or relocating any buildings or structures on lands so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved or relocated, the cost of all machinery, apparatus and equipment, financing charges, interest prior to, during and after construction to the extent not paid or provided for from revenues or other sources, the cost of engineering and architectural surveys, plans and specifications, the cost of consultant and legal services, the cost of guarantee, bond insurance or other credit support devices and the cost of other expenses necessary or incidental to the construction of any such project and the financing of the construction thereof, including the amount authorized in the resolution of the authority providing for the issuance of bonds to be paid into any reserve or other special funds from the proceeds of such bonds and the financing of the placing of any project in operation, including reimbursement to any municipality, state agency, the state, the United States government, or any other person for expenditures that would be costs of the project hereunder had they been made directly by the authority.

7. "County" means the county of Suffolk, New York.

8. "County executive" means the county executive of the county.

9. "County legislature" means the county legislature of the county.

10. "Governing body" means the members of the authority constituting and acting as the governing body of the authority.

11. "Municipality" means any county, city, town, village, special or improvement district located or operating within or partly within the service area.

12. "Person" means any natural person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture or corporation, exclusive of a public corporation as defined pursuant to article two-A of the general construction law.

13. "Project" means a regional wholesale market facility operated primarily for perishable agricultural commodities and commercial fishing products, including the lands, building, fixtures, equipment and other appurtenances necessary or incidental thereto, constituting an integrated market for the service area and which serves as a significant source of supply of such commodities to such area.

14. "Real property" means lands, structures, franchises, rights and interests in land, air space, waters, land underwater, riparian rights and air rights and any and all things and rights included within said term and includes not only fees simple absolute, but also any and all lesser interests including, but not limited to, easements, rights-of-way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise.

15. "Revenues" means all rates, fees, charges, payments and other income and receipts derived from the operation of the properties of the authority including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, investment proceeds and proceeds of insurance, condemnation, and sale or other disposition of assets, together with all federal, state or municipal aid, if any.

16. "Service area" means the area comprising the entirety of the county of Suffolk.

17. "State" means the state of New York.

18. "State agency" means any state officer, public benefit corporation, department, board, commission, bureau or division, or other agency or instrumentality of the state.

§ 902. Long Island market authority. 1. A public corporation to be known as the "Long Island market authority" is hereby created for public purposes and charged with the duties and shall have the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation.

2. The governing body of the authority shall consist of a total of seven members, to be appointed and serve as follows:

(a) The county executive, with the approval of the legislative body of the county, shall appoint seven members. Members appointed by the county executive shall be residents of the county. Any member shall forfeit his or her membership on the governing body upon such member's termination of residence in such area, which forfeiture shall create a vacancy. Three members appointed by the county executive shall be appointed for a term of office ending on December thirty-first of the third year following the year in which this title shall have become law. Two members appointed by the county executive shall be appointed for a term of office ending on December thirty-first of the second year following the year in which this title shall have become law. Two members appointed by the county executive shall be appointed for a term of office ending on December thirty-first of the first year following the year in which this title shall have become law. Subsequent appointments of members shall be made for a term of three years ending on December thirty-first of the last year of such term. All members shall continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and qualify.

(b) Four members of the board shall be persons engaged in farming, commercial fishing, the resale of farm produce or the resale of commercial fishing products and deriving a greater part of their income therefrom.

(c) Failure to appoint any member shall not invalidate the creation or establishment of the authority and shall result in the creation of a vacancy on the governing body of the authority which may be filled at any time by such party.

(d) Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as provided for the original appointment. Vacancies, occurring otherwise than by expiration of term of office shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired terms.

(e) Members may be removed from office for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office; provided, however, that such member shall be given a copy of the charges against him or her and an opportunity to be heard in person, or by counsel, in his or her defense upon not less than ten days notice.

3. The members of the authority shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the carrying out of the purposes of this title; provided, however, that no member shall be reimbursed for any expense exceeding one thousand dollars incurred with respect to any individual purpose unless the governing body at a meeting duly called and held when a quorum of four members are present shall have authorized the incurrence of such expense by such member. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and be exercised by the governing body at a meeting duly called and held where a quorum of four members are present. No action shall be taken except pursuant to the favorable vote of at least four voting members. All votes must be made in person at a meeting and no vote may be made by proxy. The governing body may delegate to one or more of its members, officers, agents or employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

4. The officers of the authority shall consist of a chair, a vice-chair, a treasurer and a secretary, who need not be a member of the authority. Such officers shall be appointed by the governing body and shall serve in such capacities at the pleasure of the governing body. In addition to the secretary, the governing body may appoint and at pleasure remove such additional officers and employees as it may determine necessary for the performance of the powers and duties of the authority and fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law. The governing body may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the governing body and the premium therefor shall be paid by the authority.

5. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of any general, special or local law, ordinance, resolution or charter, no officer, member or employee of the state, any municipality, or any public benefit corporation, shall forfeit his or her office or employment by reason of his or her acceptance of appointment as a member, officer, agent or employee of the authority, nor shall service as such member, officer, or employee be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office, membership or employment.

6. (a) The county executive shall file on or before December thirty-first of the year in which this title shall have become a law, in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate signed by such county executive setting forth: (1) the name of the authority; (2) the names of the members appointed by the county executive and their terms of office; and (3) the effective date of this title.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the payment or satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and vest jointly in the cities, towns and villages in the service area in such a manner as prescribed by law.

7. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the service area and the state for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that such purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

8. Nothing in this title shall be construed to obligate the state in any way in connection with the operations or obligations of the authority.

§ 903. General purpose and powers of authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, equip, operate and maintain adequate regional wholesale market facilities within the service area for the buying and selling of agricultural commodities and commercial fishing products and to conduct such other business activities as reasonably incidental thereto and in furtherance of the convenient, efficient, profitable and successful operation of such regional wholesale market facilities.

To enable the authority to carry out such purposes, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To borrow money and issue bonds for any of its purposes or its projects, or to refund the same, and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. To make and alter by-laws for its organization and management, and, subject to agreements with its bondholders, to make and alter rules and regulations governing the exercise of its powers and the fulfillment of its purposes under this title;

5. To acquire by purchase, grant, lease, gift, or otherwise and to hold and use property necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its corporate purposes, and to sell, convey, mortgage, lease, pledge, exchange or otherwise dispose of any such property in such manner as the authority shall determine consistent with and subject to local zoning ordinances and laws;

6. To condemn real property within Suffolk county which shall be necessary for its corporate purposes, in the manner provided in the eminent domain procedure law, consistent with and subject to local zoning ordinances and laws, provided, further, that the approval of the county executive must be granted before such power is exercised;

7. To acquire, construct, lease, expand, improve, maintain, equip, furnish, operate one or more projects consistent with and subject to the local zoning ordinances and laws, and, if necessary, to pay or finance the cost thereof;

8. To accept gifts, grants, loans or contributions of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from, and enter into contracts or other transactions with, the federal government, the state or any public corporation or any other source, and to use any such gifts, grants, loans or contributions for any of its corporate purposes;

9. To grant options to renew any lease with respect to any project or projects and to grant options to buy any project at such price as the authority may deem desirable;

10. To designate the depositories of its money;

11. To establish its fiscal year;

12. To enter into contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority to carry out any powers expressly given to it in this title;

13. To appoint such officers, employees and agents as the authority may require for the performance of its duties and to fix and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation subject to the provisions of the civil service law and any applicable collective bargaining agreement, and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional, management or technical services and advice;

14. To use employees, agents, consultants and facilities of the county, paying the county its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs pursuant to an agreement with the county;

15. To make and adopt plans, surveys and studies necessary, convenient or desirable to the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

16. Except as limited by state law or regulation, to fix and collect rates, rentals, fees and other charges for the services rendered by or for use of the facilities or in the exercise of the powers of the authority;

17. To enter upon such lands or premises as in the judgement of the authority may be necessary, convenient or desirable for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable for actual damage done;

18. To insure or otherwise to provide for the insurance of the authority's property or operations;

19. For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law only, the authority shall be deemed a state agency as that term is used in such article, and its contracts for procurement, design, construction, services and materials shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article; and

20. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable, including ancillary and incidental activities, to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

§ 904. Projects of the authority. 1. The authority shall undertake projects as authorized in this section upon a finding by the governing body of the authority that such project:

(a) is consistent with a local or regional strategic plan for economic development;

(b) will create or retain permanent, full-time private sector jobs in the service area or will result in a significant increase in business activity in such area; and

(c) complements existing and planned private sector investment in the service area and in proximity to the proposed project site.

2. The authority is authorized to apply for and accept funds from local, regional and state economic development agencies and public authorities.

3. If, at the end of five years, starting from the date that this title becomes effective, no projects have been adopted by the authority as determined by a public vote on such project, and no bonds for any project have been sold, this authority shall cease to exist.

§ 905. Transfer of officers and employees; civil service. 1. In accordance with the provisions of section seventy of the civil service law, any officer or employee of a municipality transferred to the authority shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment, without further examination, to applicable offices, positions and employment under the authority. Any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority pursuant to this section, who are members of or benefit under any existing pension or retirement fund or system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund or system as are now prescribed by law.

2. Nothing contained in this title shall be construed (a) to diminish the rights of employees pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement or (b) to affect existing law with respect to an application to the public employment relations board seeking a designation by the board that certain persons are managerial or confidential.

§ 906. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, notes or other obligations to pay the cost of any project or for any other purpose under this title, including the establishment of reserves to secure the bonds, the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the bonds and the payment of incidental expenses in connection therewith. The aggregate principal amount of such bonds, notes or other obligations shall not exceed ten million dollars ($10,000,000), excluding bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund or repay bonds, notes, or other obligations theretofore issued for such purposes; provided, however, that upon any such refunding or repayment the total aggregate principal amount of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations may be greater than ten million dollars ($10,000,000), only if the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations to be issued shall not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so to be refunded or repaid. For purposes of this section, the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations and the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations and of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so to be refunded or repaid shall be calculated by utilizing the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations from payment of dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations and to the price bid including estimated accrued interest from the sale thereof. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to enter into such agreements and perform such acts as may be required under any applicable federal legislation to secure a federal guarantee or other subsidy with respect to any bonds.

2. The authority shall have the power from time to time to renew bonds or to issue renewal bonds for the purposes authorized under this title, to issue bonds to pay bonds, and, whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bond by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds, partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose of the authority. Bonds issued for refunding purposes shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds or notes to be refunded.

3. Bonds issued by the authority may be general obligations secured by the faith and credit of the authority or may be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other monies as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject as to priority only to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular property, revenues or monies. The authority may also enter into loan agreements, lines of credit and other security agreements and obtain for or on its behalf letters of credit, insurance, guarantees or other credit enhancements to the extent now or hereafter available, in each case for securing its bonds or to provide direct payment of any costs which the authority is authorized to pay.

4. (a) Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the governing body of the authority, be in such denominations and bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times, as such resolution may provide, provided that bonds and renewals thereof shall mature within thirty years from the date of original issuance of any such bonds.

(b) Bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates, be payable at such times, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section shall be sold to the bidder offering the lowest true interest cost, taking into consideration any premium or discount not less than four nor more than fifteen days, Sunday excepted, after a notice of such sale has been published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the service area of the authority, which shall state the terms of the sale. The terms of the sale may not change unless notice of such change is published in such newspaper at least one day prior to the date of the sale as set forth in the original notice of sale. Advertisements shall contain a provision to the effect that the authority, in its discretion, may reject any or all bids made pursuant to such advertisements, and in the event of such rejection, the authority is authorized to negotiate a private or public sale or readvertise for bids in the form and manner above described as many times as, in its judgment, may be necessary to effect satisfactory sale.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, whenever in the judgment of the authority the interests of the authority will be served thereby, the governing body of the authority, on the written recommendation of the chairperson may authorize the sale of such bonds at private or public sale on a negotiated basis or on either a competitive or negotiated basis. The authority shall set guidelines governing the terms and conditions of any such private or public sales. The private or public bond sale guidelines set by the authority shall include, but not be limited to, a requirement that where the interests of the authority will be served by a private or public sale of bonds, the authority shall select underwriters taking into account, among other things, qualifications of underwriters as to experience, their ability to structure and sell authority bond issues, anticipated costs to the authority, the prior experience of the authority with the firm, if any, the capitalization of such firms, participation of qualified minority and women-owned business enterprise firms in such private or public sales of bonds of the authority and the experience and ability of firms under consideration to work with minority and women-owned business enterprises so as to promote and assist participation by such enterprises.

(d) The authority shall have the power from time to time to amend such private bond sale guidelines in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

(e) In addition to the authority to sell notes at private sale contained in this section.

(f) No private or public bond sale on a negotiated basis shall be conducted by the authority without prior approval of the state comptroller. The authority shall annually prepare and approve a bond sale report which shall include the private or public bond sale guidelines as specified in this subdivision, amendments to such guidelines since the last private or public bond sale report, an explanation of the bond sale guidelines and amendments, and the results of any sale of bonds conducted during the fiscal year. Such bond sale report may be a part of any other annual report that the authority is required to make.

(g) The authority shall annually submit its bond sale report to the state comptroller and copies thereof to the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee.

(h) The authority shall make available to the public copies of its bond sale report upon reasonable request thereof.

(i) Nothing contained in this subdivision shall be deemed to alter, affect the validity of, modify the terms of, or impair any contract or agreement made or entered into in violation of, or without compliance with, the provisions of this subdivision.

5. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds by the authority may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or part of the revenues, together with any other monies or property of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, or any costs of issuance thereof, including but not limited to, any contracts, earnings or proceeds of any grant to the authority received from any private or public source subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking the funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(c) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(d) the rates, rents, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected by the authority and the amount to be raised in each year thereby and the use and disposition of revenues;

(e) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or monies may be deposited;

(i) the terms and provisions of any trust, mortgage, deed or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(j) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustees appointed by the bondholders pursuant to this title or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(l) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any project or any part thereof or other property;

(m) limitations on the amount of revenues and other monies to be expended or operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other monies to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(o) any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of the bondholders.

6. In addition to the powers conferred under this section upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have the power in connection with the issuance of bonds to adopt resolutions and enter into such trust indentures, agreements or other instruments as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other monies or property, including the mortgaging of any property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, monies or property and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments. The provisions of any such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

7. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, monies, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

8. Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

9. Neither the members of the governing body of the authority nor the officers of the authority nor any person executing its bonds shall be liable personally on its bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

10. Subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist, the authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority, in lieu of redemption, at a price not exceeding, if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date, or, if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date. Bonds so purchased shall thereupon be canceled.

11. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of such original note.

§ 907. Remedies of bondholders. Subject to any resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to this title:

1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal office of the authority is located and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purpose provided in this section.

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect rents, rates, fees and charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such rents, rates, fees and charges and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of the twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth in this section or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be in the county of Suffolk.

5. Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days notice in writing to the authority.

6. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of any receiver of any part or parts of the project, the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with the holders of such bonds, shall take possession of all monies and other property derived from such part or parts of the project and proceed with any construction thereon or the acquisition of any property, real or personal, in connection therewith that the authority is under obligation to do, and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from the properties.

§ 908. State and county not liable on authority bonds. 1. The state shall not be liable on the bonds or notes of the authority and such bonds or notes shall not be a debt of the state, and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect.

2. The county shall not be liable on the bonds or notes of the authority and such bonds or notes shall not be a debt of the county, and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect or a statement describing the county liability thereon, if any.

§ 909. Monies of the authority. All monies of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks designated by the authority. The monies in such accounts shall be paid out or withdrawn on the order of such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such monies shall be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state or of any municipality of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. To the extent practicable, consistent with the cash requirements of the authority, all such monies shall be deposited in interest bearing accounts. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any monies of the authority or any monies held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or any way to secure bonds, and carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the provisions of this section. Monies held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such monies may be secured in the same manner as monies if the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any monies of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, be invested in accordance with section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders and with the approval of the state comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

§ 910. Bonds legal investment for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities for any purposes for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or hereafter may be authorized.

§ 911. Agreement with state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title and with those persons or public authorities who may enter into contracts with the authority pursuant to the provisions of the title that the state will not alter, limit or impair the rights hereby vested in the authority to purchase, construct, own and operate, maintain, repair, improve, reconstruct, renovate, rehabilitate, enlarge, increase and extend, or dispose of any project, or any part or parts thereof for which bonds of the authority shall have been issued, to establish and collect rates, rents, fees and other charges referred to in this title, to fulfill the terms of any contracts or agreements made with or for the benefit of the holders of bonds or with any person or public authority with reference to such project or part thereof, or in any way to impair the rights and remedies of the holders of bonds, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, including interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders of bonds, are fully met and discharged and such contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of bonds.

§ 912. Tax exemption and tax contract by the state. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its purposes under this title are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and is a public purpose. Accordingly, the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title, and the authority shall not be required to pay any fees, taxes, special ad valorem levies or assessments of any kind, whether state or local, including but not limited to fees, taxes, special ad valorem levies or assessments on real property, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other taxes, upon or with respect to any property owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision, or upon the uses thereof, or upon or with respect to its activities or operations in furtherance of the powers conferred upon it by the title, or upon or with respect to any fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges, fees, revenues or other income received by the authority. Provided, however, that any real property owned or acquired by the authority outside of the county shall be exempt from real property taxes, ad valorem levies or special assessments only pursuant to and to the extent provided by an agreement with the governing body of the municipality in which such real property is located.

2. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title together with the income therefrom shall at all times be exempt from taxation.

3. The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom and all revenues, monies, and other property pledged to pay or to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from taxation.

4. The authority may pay, or may enter into agreements with the county of Suffolk or any municipality to pay, a sum or sums annually or otherwise or to provide other considerations with respect to real property owned by the authority located within the county of Suffolk or such municipality.

§ 913. Actions against authority. 1. Except in an action for wrongful death, no action or special proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority, its members, officers or employees for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence, tort or wrongful act of the authority or of any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless (a) notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority within the time limit set by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law, (b) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused, (c) the action or special proceeding shall be commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based, and (d) an action, against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

2. Whenever a notice of claim is served upon the authority, it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

4. Any action or proceeding to which the authority or the people of the state may be parties, in which any question arises as to the validity of this title, shall be preferred over all other civil causes of action or cases, except election causes of action or cases, in all courts of the state and shall be heard and determined in preference to all other civil business pending therein except election causes, irrespective of position on the calendar. The same performance shall be granted upon application of the authority or its counsel in any action or proceeding questioning the validity of this title in which the authority may be allowed to intervene. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be in the supreme court of the county of Suffolk.

5. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment on its bonds, shall be the rate prescribed by section five thousand four of the civil practice law and rules. Interest on payments of principal or interests on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate borne by such bonds from the due date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

6. All actions or proceedings against the authority of whatever nature shall be brought in the county.

§ 914. Audit and annual reports. In conformity with the provisions of section five of article ten of the constitution, the accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller and an annual audit shall be performed by an independent certified public accountant. The authority shall annually submit to the county legislature, county executive, governor and the state comptroller and to the chairperson of the senate finance committee and the chairperson of the assembly ways and means committee a detailed report pursuant to the provisions of section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter, and a copy of such report shall be filed with the clerk of the county legislature and the county executive.

§ 915. Defense and indemnification. The authority shall not execute any of its powers, except as necessary to commence its corporate existence, until it has elected to make the provision of section eighteen of the public officers law applicable to its employees (as such term is defined in section eighteen of the public officers law) pursuant to subdivision two of such section; provided, however, that nothing contained within this section shall be deemed to permit the authority to extend the provisions of section eighteen of the public officers law upon any independent contractor.

§ 916. Contracts. All contracts for the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation and improvement of projects authorized pursuant to this title shall be subject to article eight of the labor law and shall also be subject to the provisions of law applicable to county contracts, except as otherwise provided herein.

§ 917. Code of ethics. 1. As used in this section the term "authority employee" shall mean any member, officer or employee of the authority.

2. No authority employee shall have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engage in any business or transaction or professional activity or incur any obligation of any nature, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest.

3. (a) No authority employee shall accept other employment which will impair his or her independence of judgement in the exercise of his or her official duties.

(b) No authority employee shall accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which will require the employee to disclose confidential information which he or she has gained by reason of his or her official position or authority.

(c) No authority employee shall disclose confidential information acquired by the employee in the course of his or her official duties nor use such information to further his or her personal interests.

(d) No authority employee shall use or attempt to use his or her official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for himself or herself or others.

(e) No authority employee shall engage in any transaction as representative or agent of the authority with any business entity in which he or she has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with the proper discharge of his or her official duties.

(f) An authority employee shall not by his or her conduct give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence such employee or unduly enjoy his or her favor in the performance of his or her official duties, or that he or she is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person.

(g) An authority employee shall abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which he or she has reason to believe may be directly involved in decisions to be made by the employee or which will otherwise create substantial conflict between his or her duty in the public interest and his or her private interest.

(h) An authority employee shall endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not raise suspicion among the public that he or she is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his or her trust.

(i) No authority employee employed on a full-time basis nor any firm or association of which such an employee is a member nor authority, a substantial portion of the stock of which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such employee, shall sell goods or services to any person, firm, authority or association which is licensed or whose rates are fixed by the authority in which such employee serves or is employed.

(j) If any authority employee shall have a financial interest, direct or indirect, having a value of ten thousand dollars or more in any activity which is subject to the jurisdiction of a regulatory agency, he or she shall file with the secretary of state a written statement that he or she has such a financial interest in such activity which statement shall be open to public inspection.

4. Violations. In addition to any penalty contained in any other provision of law any such authority employee who shall knowingly and intentionally violate any of the provisions of this section may be fined, suspended or removed from office or employment.

§ 918. Equal employment opportunity. The authority shall ensure that all employees or applicants for employment are afforded equal employment opportunity without discrimination.

§ 919. Separability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part of this title shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part thereof involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

POWER AUTHORITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

§ 1000. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Power Authority Act."

§ 1001. Declaration of policy. Those parts of the Niagara and Saint Lawrence rivers within the boundaries of the state of New York are hereby declared to be natural resources of the state for the use and development of commerce and navigation in the interest of the people of this state and the United States. In order to provide for the most beneficial use of these natural resources, for the creation and development of hydroelectric power in the interest of the people of this state, and to preserve and enhance the scenic beauty of the Niagara Falls and river, such natural resources, including the beds and waters of the said rivers as instrumentalities of commerce and navigation, and the beds, waters, power and power sites in, upon or adjacent to or within the watersheds of the said rivers, owned or controlled by the people of the state, or which may hereafter be recovered by or come within their ownership, possession and control, shall always remain inalienable to, and ownership, possession and control thereof shall always be vested in, the people of the state.

It is further declared that the need for obtaining and maintaining a continuous and adequate supply of dependable electric power and energy is a matter of public concern to the people of the state; that the maximum capacity of the hydroelectric developments on the Niagara and Saint Lawrence rivers of the authority can be best utilized and additional public benefit derived therefrom by provision for supplemental base load nuclear generating facilities or facilities utilizing new energy technologies and that for the purposes (i) of so utilizing such capacity and of deriving such additional benefit, (ii) of providing additional low cost power and energy to attract and expand high load factor industry, (iii) of continuing an adequate supply of power and energy for the future needs of its municipal electric systems and rural electric cooperative customers, and (iv) of assisting in the development of additional dependable hydroelectric power from other waters of the state and in the development of advanced facilities having substantial prospects of reducing electricity production costs, the public interest requires that the authority participate in the generation of supplemental electric power and energy by energy storage, hydroelectric and nuclear means and new energy technologies to the extent authorized in this title.

It is further declared that there is a shortage of dependable power capacity in the southeastern part of the state and that the public interest requires that the authority assist in alleviating such shortage by providing such base load generating facilities as may be necessary or desirable to contribute to the maintenance of an adequate and dependable supply of electricity for the metropolitan transportation authority, its subsidiary corporations, the New York city transit authority, the port authority of New York and New Jersey, the city of New York, the state of New York, the United States, other public corporations and electric companies within the metropolitan area of the city of New York within the state of New York.

It is further declared (i) that there should be full cooperation among private and public entities including the authority, municipal corporations and rural electric cooperatives engaged in power generation, transmission and distribution and in associated developmental and service activities, (ii) that it is desirable that the authority and the utilities which with the authority constitute the New York power pool exchange comparable cost, performance and operating data with respect to generation by nuclear means particularly reflecting the effect of the authority's tax-free status, (iii) that it is desirable and reasonable that the authority sell power and energy from its projects other than the Niagara and Saint Lawrence hydroelectric projects, not needed for its high load factor industrial, municipal, rural electric cooperative and public transportation customers to other members of the New York power pool for resale without discrimination under their respective tariffs, (iv) that it is desirable that the authority give its fullest cooperation to the energy research and development authority in advancing and promoting the development and implementation of new energy technologies, and shall fulfill its responsibilities for the development and maintenance of increased base load for New York state to the greatest extent possible by utilizing new energy technologies made available by the energy research and development authority to the extent deemed advisable by the trustees and, (v) that upon certification by the public service commission of the commercial and economic feasibility of a new electrical energy generating technology the power authority shall, in a manner consistent with its powers and purposes, promptly plan and construct a facility to demonstrate such new technology; except, however, the authority may plan and construct such demonstration facility in the absence of such certification.

§ 1001-a. Emergency provisions for the metropolitan area of the city of New York. The legislature hereby finds and declares that extraordinary circumstances, including excessive costs, shortages of supply, and the inflated price of fuel threaten the capacity to provide utility service essential to the continued safety, health, prosperity and well-being of the people of the metropolitan area of the city of New York and, by reason of the interconnection and interdependence of electric facilities, the reliability of such service throughout the state and require emergency action by the state and its agencies. It is therefore declared that:

1. To preserve reliability of electric service in the metropolitan area of the city of New York and throughout the state and to assist in deterring further extraordinary increases in rates for electric service the authority should provide such supplemental electricity for such use in the metropolitan area of the city of New York as is consistent with continuing and maintaining the exemption of interest on authority bonds from the income tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code of the United States and regulations and ruling thereunder.

2. It is essential that such electricity be provided at the earliest practicable time.

3. The authority should be authorized to acquire completed or partially completed generation, transmission and related facilities and fuel and fuel contracts.

4. Any cost savings realized in the production or delivery of electricity by reason of any such acquisition by the authority shall be passed on to consumers.

§ 1002. Power Authority of the State of New York. 1. For the purpose of effectuating the policy declared in section one thousand one of this chapter there is hereby created a corporate municipal instrumentality of the state to be known as "Power Authority of the State of New York", in this title referred to as "the authority", which shall be a body corporate and politic, a political subdivision of the state, exercising governmental and public powers, perpetual in duration, capable of suing and being sued, and having a seal, and which shall have the powers and duties hereinafter enumerated, together with such others as may hereafter be conferred upon it by law.

2. It shall report annually to the governor and the legislature upon its operations and transactions. Such annual report shall incorporate the requirements of section two thousand five hundred of this chapter, shall identify the authority by its statutory name, and include a letter of transmittal in the report to the governor and the legislature. The annual report shall also include, but not be limited to, the following: (a) the amount of power and energy produced by each project facility; (b) the amount of energy transferred between each project facility for use within the authority's system; (c) the amount of energy transferred between each project facility for sale outside the authority's system; (d) the kilowatt-hour sales by project facility and by customer including all intrastate sales to investor-owned electric corporations, municipal electric systems and rural electric cooperatives, and all sales on a temporary (i.e., eighteen months or less) basis; (e) the revenues and costs as allocated by the authority for each project facility; (f) the busbar price or prices for power and energy sold to each customer of the authority; (g) the accumulated provision for depreciation for each project facility; and (h) basic financial and operating information specifically detailed for the reporting year and including but not limited to income and expense statements, balance sheets, and changes in financial position, all in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, debt structure and a summary of funds on a cash basis. The requirement to provide information pursuant to this subdivision is not intended to affect the authority's responsibilities or obligations under this title or under any rate covenant or any pledge of revenues outstanding as of the effective date of the chapter of the laws of nineteen hundred eighty-four which added this sentence to this subdivision.

§ 1003. Trustees. The authority shall consist of seven trustees, five of whom shall serve respectively for terms of one, two, three, four and five years, to be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The sixth and seventh trustees shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, and shall serve initial terms of one and two years respectively. Each trustee shall hold office until a successor has been appointed and qualified. At the expiration of the term of each trustee and of each succeeding trustee the governor shall, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint a successor, who shall hold office for a term of five years, or until a successor has been appointed and qualified. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of the trustee by death, resignation or otherwise, the governor shall, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint a successor, who shall hold office for the unexpired term. Four trustees shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of organizing the authority and conducting the business thereof.

The trustee chosen as chairman as provided in section one thousand four of this title, shall receive an annual salary which shall be set by the trustees of the authority, and which shall not exceed the salary prescribed for the positions listed in paragraph (f) of subdivision one of section one hundred sixty-nine of the executive law. Each other trustee shall not receive a salary or other compensation. Each trustee shall receive his or her reasonable expenses in the performance of his or her duties hereunder. The trustee chosen as chairman may elect to become a member of the New York state and local employees' retirement system on the basis of such compensation to which he or she shall be entitled as herein provided notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law, municipal charter, or ordinance.

§ 1004. Officers and employees; expenses. The trustees shall choose from among their own number a chairman and vice-chairman. They shall select such officers and employees, including a chief executive officer whose appointment shall be subject to confirmation by the senate in accordance with section twenty-eight hundred fifty-two of this chapter, and such engineering, marketing and legal officers and employees, as they may require for the performance of their duties and shall prescribe the duties and compensation of each officer and employee. They shall adopt by-laws and rules and regulations suitable to the purposes of this title. As long as and to the extent that the authority is dependent upon appropriations for the payment of its expenses, it shall incur no obligations for salary, office or other expenses prior to the making of appropriations adequate to meet the same.

§ 1005. Powers and duties of authority. Forthwith upon the appointment and organization of the trustees and subject to the conditions and limitations in this title contained, the authority, in cooperation with the proper Canadian authorities and those of the United States as hereinafter directed, shall proceed with the improvement and development of the Niagara river and the international rapids section of the Saint Lawrence river (which is defined as that part of the said river from Ogdensburg to the point where it leaves the territory of this state) for the aid and benefit of commerce and navigation and for the development of the hydroelectric power inherent therein in accordance with the provisions of this title.

The authority is authorized to procure through a competitive solicitation process power and energy from the competitive market and to construct, improve and/or rehabilitate throughout its area of service (a) such hydroelectric or energy storage projects, as it deems necessary or desirable to contribute to the adequacy, economy and reliability of the supply of electric power and energy or to conserve fuel and (b) such base-load nuclear generating facilities or other facilities utilizing new energy technologies as in its judgment are necessary (i) to supply sufficient supplemental energy to make possible optimum use of the generating capacity of the authority's Saint Lawrence and Niagara hydroelectric projects, (ii) to supply low cost power and energy to high load factor manufacturers which will build new facilities in the authority's area of service or expand existing facilities provided such power and energy is made available to them, and (iii) to supply the future needs of the authority's existing municipal electric and rural electric cooperative customers.

The authority is further authorized to construct and/or acquire and complete such base load generating, transmission and related facilities as it deems necessary or desirable to assist in maintaining an adequate and dependable supply of electricity by supplying power and energy for the metropolitan transportation authority, its subsidiary corporations, the New York city transit authority, the port authority of New York and New Jersey, the city of New York, the state of New York, the United States, other public corporations and electric corporations within the metropolitan area of the city of New York within the state of New York; provided, however, that (i) the acquisition of completed or partially completed facilities shall be after public hearing and shall be limited to facilities located in New York city or Westchester county and the energy and power generated by such facilities shall be used, to the extent feasible, for the benefit of electric consumers in that area, (ii) not more than one such generating facility shall be acquired in each of New York city and Westchester county, (iii) the price to be paid pursuant to any agreement entered into with respect to the purchase, appropriation or condemnation of any such completed or partially completed facility, as the case may be, shall be subject to the approval of the state comptroller and (iv) transmission facilities shall not be so acquired pursuant to this paragraph unless such acquisition is necessary to assure delivery of power and energy produced by any acquired generating facility. The authority is further authorized, to the extent it deems it necessary or desirable, to provide power and energy, as it may determine it to be available, for the use by the Niagara frontier transportation authority or its subsidiary corporation. The authority is authorized to make energy efficiency services, clean energy technologies and, in the event that supplies of power and energy are determined to be available from the competitive market for this purpose, power and energy, available to public and nonpublic elementary and secondary schools throughout the state.

A high load factor manufacturer is one which normally utilizes a minimum electric demand of five thousand kilowatts and which will normally utilize energy at the rate of approximately five hundred forty kilowatt hours per month for each kilowatt of demand and of which the cost of electricity normally represents at least seven and one-half percent of its total product value.

The authority shall publish notice of any proposed allocation of firm power and associated energy except such allocations as are subject to the provisions of section one thousand nine of this chapter, at least thirty days prior to the delivery of any energy pursuant thereto, which notice shall, in the case of industrial allocations, document actions by the authority pertaining thereto including solicitation for competing proposals. In addition, such notice shall be transmitted to the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, and the respective fiscal committees of the legislature.

Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, the authority is authorized to enter into contracts prior to July first, nineteen hundred eighty-five to allocate a total of not more than thirty-six megawatts of power and associated energy, available for allocation as a result of voluntary relinquishment by high load factor manufacturers, of such power and associated energy from base load nuclear generating facilities of the authority, to furnish electricity to no more than three customers which: (a) are located in the southeastern portion of the state; (b) will build new facilities and/or expand existing facilities; (c) will expand employment and investment in the state; and (d) will normally utilize a minimum peak electrical demand of one thousand kilowatts.

The authority is further authorized to construct such generating, transmission and related facilities within the service area of the Long Island power authority, as the authority, in consultation with and upon such terms and conditions as the Long Island power authority, deems necessary or desirable.

Periodically, but no less often than annually, the authority is authorized and directed to identify the net revenues produced by the sale of expansion power and further to identify an amount of the net revenues from the sale of expansion power which amount shall be used solely for industrial incentive awards. Notwithstanding other lawful purposes for which such revenues may be used, it shall be the preferred purpose of the authority to make available all such net revenues for industrial incentive awards. Provided, however, that industrial incentive awards shall be made only in conformance with an economic development plan covering all such net revenues which is submitted no less often than annually by the authority and approved pursuant to section one hundred eighty-eight of the commerce law. For purposes of this paragraph, the term net revenues shall mean any excess of revenues properly allocated to the sales of expansion power over costs and expenses properly allocated to such sales.

Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this title, the authority shall make available all economic development power for allocation to or for businesses whose allocation of such power is recommended by the New York state economic development power allocation board pursuant to section one hundred eighty-seven of the commerce law. If the authority declines to make power available to or for a business whose allocation has been so recommended, the authority shall decline within the period specified by the board in its recommendation and shall issue in writing a statement of reasons for such denial.

a. Economic development power shall mean any power generated at the Fitzpatrick nuclear project that is voluntarily relinquished by businesses.

b. The authority shall report quarterly to the New York state economic development power allocation board on the anticipated availability of economic development power for the subsequent twelve-month period.

c. When the authority determines that economic development power is available, the authority shall notify the New York state economic development power allocation board.

d. The authority shall provide for the sale of power from the Fitzpatrick nuclear project to its industrial, business, and economic development power customers at a uniform non-discriminatory rate.

The authority is further authorized, as deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, to acquire, maintain, manage, operate, improve and reconstruct as a project or projects of the authority one or both of the steam generation facilities owned by the state known as the Sheridan avenue steam generating plant on Sheridan avenue in the city of Albany and used to supply steam to state facilities, together with any properties, buildings and equipment at the sites thereof or ancillary thereto, for the generation and sale of thermal energy and the cogeneration and sale of electricity for use by facilities of the state within the county of Albany. All the authority's costs, including its acquisition, capital, operating and maintenance costs, shall be recovered fully from the customers receiving service from such project or projects. Thermal energy and electricity not required by the state may be sold by the authority to others. The authority is not authorized to use refuse or refuse-derived fuel in operating the project or projects. Any agreement for such acquisition shall insure that the authority is not liable or otherwise responsible for circumstances arising from the prior operation of such facilities. The acquisition and purchase of such land, buildings and equipment by the authority, and any actions taken to effect such acquisition and purchase, are hereby exempt from the provisions of article eight of the environmental conservation law. The application of such exemption shall be strictly limited to the acquisition and purchase of such land, buildings and equipment by the authority and such agreements with the state. Nothing herein shall exempt the authority from otherwise applicable laws respecting the expansion, conversion, operation and maintenance of such land, buildings and equipment.

The authority is authorized and directed:

1. To cooperate with the appropriate agencies and officials of the United States government to the end that any hydroelectric project on the Niagara or Saint Lawrence rivers undertaken under this title shall be consistent with and in aid of any plans of the United States for the improvement of commerce and navigation along such rivers and shall be so planned and constructed as to be adaptable to the plans of the United States therefor, so that the necessary channels, locks, canals, and other navigational facilities may be constructed and installed by the United States, in, through, and as part of such project.

2. To negotiate with the appropriate Canadian authorities and agencies respecting the improvement and development of the Niagara river, and international rapids section of the Saint Lawrence river for the aid and benefit of commerce and navigation and the development of hydro-electric power therefrom, and to plan and agree with them upon cooperative action to that end including any shifting of international boundary lines between Canada and the United States and upon the use, control and disposition of the facilties to be created and the hydro-electric power to be developed by any project constructed in such rivers. Such negotiations and agreements shall be conducted and concluded with due regard to the position of the United States in respect to international agreements, and any such agreements as may be reached with Canadian authorities or agencies may be submitted by the authority to congress for its approval, if it be advised that such approval is necessary or desirable.

3. To apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the United States government and/or of Canada or its provinces, including the federal power commission, the atomic energy commission, and the international joint commission, for such licenses, permits or approval of its plans or projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and in its discretion, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate, to accept such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies or officials and such federal or other public or governmental assistance as is now or may hereafter become available to it; and to enter into contracts with such agencies or officials or utility companies relating to the construction or operation of any project authorized by this title. Neither the authority nor any trustee, officer or agent thereof shall have any power to waive or surrender for any purpose whatsoever any right of the state of New York, whether sovereign or proprietary in character, in and to the Niagara and Saint Lawrence rivers, their waters, power, channels, beds, or uses, or the right of the state to assert such rights at any future time; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting the power of the authority to accept licenses issued by the federal power commission pursuant to the provisions of the federal power act, as amended, or by the atomic energy commission pursuant to the provisions of the atomic energy act of 1954, as amended, and the terms and conditions therein imposed pursuant to law. If for any reason the authority shall fail to secure any such license, permit or approval as it may deem necessary or advisable, or shall decide not to make application therefor, it is authorized to institute suit, or to apply to congress for legislation, or take such other action in the premises as it may deem necessary or advisable, in the furtherance of the project and for the protection of its rights and those of the state.

4. To study the desirability and means of attracting industry to the state of New York.

5. To develop, maintain, manage and operate those parts of the Niagara and Saint Lawrence hydroelectric projects owned or controlled by it in such manner as to give effect to the policy hereby declared (and all plans and acts, and all contracts for the use, sale, transmission and distribution of the power generated by such projects, shall be made in the light of, consistent with and subject to this policy), namely, that such projects shall be in all respects for the aid, improvement, and benefit of commerce and navigation in, through, along and past the Niagara river, the Saint Lawrence river and the international rapids section thereof, and that in the development of hydro-electric power therefrom such projects shall be considered primarily as for the benefit of the people of the state as a whole. In furtherance of this policy and to secure a wider distribution of such power and use of the greatest value to the general public of the state, the authority shall in addition to other methods which it may find advantageous make provision so that municipalities and other political sub-divisions of the state now or hereafter authorized by law to engage in the distribution of electric power may secure a reasonable share of the power generated by such projects, and shall sell the same or cause the same to be sold to such municipalities and political subdivisions at prices representing cost of generation, plus capital and operating charges, plus a fair cost of transmission, all as determined by the trustees, and subject to conditions which shall assure the resale of such power at the lowest possible price, provided, however, that in disposing of hydro-electric power pursuant to and in furtherance of the aforementioned policy and purposes, appropriate provision may also be made to allocate a reasonable share of project power to agencies created or designated by other states and authorized to resell the power to users under the same terms and conditions as power is disposed of in New York state. To that end, the authority may provide in any contract or contracts which it may make for the sale, transmission and distribution of the power that the purchaser, transmitter or distributor shall construct, maintain and operate, on such terms as the authority may deem proper, such connecting lines as may be necessary for transmission of the power from main transmission lines to such municipalities or political subdivisions.

Contracts for the sale, transmission and distribution of power generated by such projects shall provide for the effectuation of the foregoing policy and shall provide:

a. Payment of all operating and maintenance expenses of the project.

b. Interest on and amortization and reserve charges sufficient within fifty years of the date of issuance to retire the bonds of the power authority issued for the project.

c. Continuous control and operation of the project by the authority.

d. The effectuation of the policy declared in this sub-paragraph.

e. Full and complete disclosure to the authority of all factors of cost in the transmission and distribution of power, so that rates to consumers may be fixed initially in the contract and may be adjusted from time to time on the basis of true cost data, provided that in fixing such cost of transmission and distribution no account shall be given to any franchise value, going value or good-will based upon the existence of the contract and the availability of the power for sale by the transmitting or distributing company or any company associated therewith.

f. Periodic revisions of the service and rates to consumers on the basis of accurate cost data obtained by such accounting methods and systems as shall be approved by the trustees and in furtherance and effectuation of the policy declared in this sub-paragraph.

g. That the rates, services and practices of the purchasing, transmitting and/or distributing public agencies or companies in respect to the power generated by such projects shall be governed by the provisions and principles established in the contract, and not by regulations of the public service commission or by general principles of public service law regulating rates, services and practices and that in the event any such public agencies or companies which purchase power from the authority shall sell any such power for resale, such sale for resale shall be made at rates no higher than those at which the power was purchased from the authority.

h. The rate structures agreed upon in such contract may provide different rates for different localities, classes of consumers, and amounts of current consumed, and for changes in the rates resulting from variation in operating costs and fixed charges.

i. For the cancellation and termination of any such contract upon violation of the terms thereof by the purchasing, transmitting or distributing public agency or company, or any subsidiary or associate thereof.

j. For such security for performance as the authority may deem practicable and advisable, including provisions assuring the continuance of service by the purchasing, transmitting and/or distributing public agencies or companies and/or the use of their facilities for such service and/or the continuance of an outlet and adequate market for the power generated by such projects.

k. Such other terms not inconsistent with the provisions and policy of this title as the authority may deem advisable.

6. To develop, maintain, manage and operate its projects other than the Niagara and Saint Lawrence hydroelectric projects so as (i) to provide an adequate supply of energy for optimum utilization of its hydroelectric projects, (ii) to attract and expand high load factor industry, (iii) to provide for the additional needs of its municipal electric and rural electric cooperative customers, (iv) to provide a supply of power and energy for use in the recharge New York power program as recharge New York market power, and (v) to assist in maintaining an adequate, dependable electric power supply for the state.

Contracts for the sale, transmission and distribution of power and energy generated by such projects shall provide for the effectuation of the policy set forth in this title relating to such projects and shall provide:

a. Payment of all operating and maintenance expenses of the projects.

b. Interest on and amortization and reserve charges sufficient within fifty years of the date of issuance to retire the bonds of the authority issued for the projects.

c. For the cancellation and termination of any such contract upon violation of the terms thereof by the purchasing, transmitting or distributing public agency or company, or any subsidiary thereof.

d. That the rates, services and practices of the purchasing, transmitting and/or distributing public agencies and rural electric cooperatives in respect to the power and energy from such projects shall be governed by the provisions and principles established in the contract, and not by regulations of the public service commission or by general principles of public service law regulating rates, services and practices and that in the event any such public agencies or cooperatives which purchase power from the authority shall sell any such power for resale, such sale for resale shall be made at rates no higher than those at which the power was purchased from the authority.

e. In the case of a contract with an electric corporation entered into on or after May first, nineteen hundred seventy-four (i) for assurances by the electric corporation of prompt and timely payment of all bills rendered by the authority and that failure to make such prompt and timely payment shall be grounds for immediate termination of the contract, and (ii) that in the event the contract is so terminated, the electric company will wheel to such purchasers as the authority may direct the power and energy that would have been sold to the electric company had the contract not been terminated.

f. Such other terms not inconsistent with the provisions and policy of this title as the authority may deem advisable.

7. To proceed with the physical construction or completion of any project authorized by this title, including the erection of the necessary dams, power houses and other facilities, instrumentalities and things necessary or convenient to that end, and including also the erection of such transmission lines as may be necessary to conduct electricity to users located at or near the site; and including also the acquisition, by contract only with the owners thereof, of transmission lines or the use of such transmission lines, available or which may be made available, to conduct electricity to such point or points at which the electricity is sold by the authority to any person, corporation or association, public or private, engaged in the business of distribution and sale of electricity to ultimate consumers or if the authority is unable to so acquire by contract the ownership or use of such transmission lines, including also the erection by the authority of transmission lines necessary for such purposes; and thereafter to maintain and operate the project in accordance with the provisions and policy of this title. The authority is specifically authorized to undertake the construction of any project in one or more steps as it may find economically desirable or advantageous, and as it may agree with the appropriate Canadian and/or United States authorities. Whenever in this title reference is made to "project", it shall be understood to refer to such part of any project authorized by this title as may from time to time be in existence or immediately projected.

8. To cooperate with and, when the trustees deem it feasible and advisable, to enter into contractual arrangements with utility companies;

a. With respect to construction and operation of pumped storage facilities by the authority and supply of all or part of the necessary pumping energy by the utilities and their purchase of all or part of the output.

b. With respect to construction, completion, acquisition, ownership and/or operation of baseload generating facilities, fuel, docks, sidings, loading or unloading equipment, storage facilities and other subsidiary facilities and disposition of the output of such generating facilities.

c. With respect to construction, acquisition, ownership, operation and/or use of transmission facilities.

9. To cooperate with and, when the trustees deem it feasible and advisable, to enter into contractual arrangements with municipal corporations with respect to construction, improvement, rehabilitation, ownership and/or operation of hydroelectric generating facilities and subsidiary facilities and disposition of the output of such generating facilities.

9-a. As deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, to design, finance, develop, construct, install, lease, operate and maintain electric vehicle charging stations throughout the state for use by the public. Such electric vehicle charging stations shall include at least one space that is large enough to accommodate wheelchair accessible electric vehicles, including but not limited to, vans and minivans. The authority shall annually post on their website a report on those activities undertaken pursuant to this subdivision, including but not limited to: the total number of electric vehicle charging stations in operation pursuant to such authorization, the locations of such charging stations, and the total costs to the authority associated with such activities.

10. To cooperate with and, when the trustees deem it feasible and advisable, to enter into contractual arrangements with New York state energy research and development authority in connection with the planning, siting, development, construction, operation and maintenance of generating facilities of the authority utilizing new energy technologies to the extent such action is consistent with the purposes and powers granted by law to New York state energy research and development authority.

10-a. a. To cooperate with and, when the trustees deem it feasible and advisable, enter into contracts with an owner or operator of a "class A" multiple dwelling, as defined in subdivision eight of section four of the multiple dwelling law, to administer and finance programs for the development, design, installation and provision of financial assistance with respect to the replacement of refrigerators with more energy efficient refrigerators; provided that no costs associated with such financial assistance shall be charged to the authority's customers. Financial assistance shall be repaid to the authority, over a period not to exceed ten years, based on projected savings in energy costs and related costs which accrue to the owner as a result of installing such measures and consistent with paragraph b of this subdivision.

b. If the owner of such multiple dwelling is a customer of the authority or of an electric corporation, as defined in subdivision thirteen of section two of the public service law, and if the refrigerator is provided by the owner, and if charges for electricity are included within the rent that the tenant pays to occupy such dwelling, the owner of such dwelling shall repay the authority for such financial assistance based on projected savings in energy costs that are estimated to accrue to the owner as a result of such replacement. As a condition of participating in the program established by this subdivision, such owner shall agree to be precluded from charging any additional fee or collecting any rent increase to such tenant as a result of such replacement.

11. To exercise all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this title; and as incidental thereto to own, lease, build, operate, maintain and dispose of real and personal property of every kind and character, to acquire real property and any or every interest therein for its lawful purposes by purchase, or by condemnation as hereinafter provided, to borrow money and secure the same by bonds or liens upon revenue from any property or contracts held or to be held by it, to sell water or electric power, and generally to do any and every thing necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of this title, provided that the authority shall have no power at any time to pledge the credit of the state nor shall any of its obligations or securities be deemed to be obligations of the state nor shall the authority have the power to lease or sell any dam, or power house at the site.

12. Notwithstanding any limitations hereinbefore expressed, the authority is authorized and directed forthwith or from time to time as it shall deem advisable and within the limitations of the appropriations made available for it to initiate and prosecute all inquiries, investigations, surveys and studies which it may deem necessary or desirable as preliminary to the effectuation of the other powers and duties conferred upon it by this title.

13. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary but subject to the terms and conditions of federal energy regulatory commission licenses, to allocate or reallocate directly or by sale for resale, two hundred fifty megawatts of firm Niagara project hydroelectric power as "expansion power" and four hundred forty-five megawatts of firm Niagara project hydroelectric power as "replacement power" to businesses within the state located within thirty miles of the Niagara project, and four hundred ninety megawatts of firm and interruptible power from the Saint Lawrence-FDR project as "preservation power" sold to businesses located within the counties of Jefferson, Saint Lawrence and Franklin, provided that the amount of expansion power allocated to businesses in Chautauqua county on January first, nineteen hundred eighty-seven shall continue to be allocated in such county and, provided further that up to seventy megawatts of replacement power, up to thirty-eight and six-tenths megawatts of preservation power from the Saint Lawrence-FDR project which is relinquished or withdrawn after the effective date of chapter three hundred thirteen of the laws of two thousand five which amended this subdivision and, for the period ending on December thirty-first, two thousand six, up to twenty megawatts of other power from the Saint Lawrence-FDR project which is unallocated as of the effective date of chapter three hundred thirteen of the laws of two thousand five which amended this subdivision, shall be allocated by the authority together with such other funds of the authority as the trustees deem feasible and advisable for energy cost savings benefits pursuant to the twelfth undesignated paragraph of this section. Provided, however, that the amount of replacement, preservation power, or the additional twenty megawatts of Saint Lawrence-FDR power for the period ending December thirty-first, two thousand six made available for such purpose, used for energy cost savings benefits that are relinquished by or withdrawn from a recipient thereof shall be offered by the authority proportionately for a period of six months for reallocation to applicants who qualify respectively for replacement or preservation power allocations as provided in this subdivision. If such power is not allocated within such period it shall be allocated for the purpose of energy cost savings benefits pursuant to subdivision (h) of section one hundred eighty-three of the economic development law. The authority shall negotiate contracts on reasonable terms and conditions to renew or extend every permanent contract allocation of expansion power in effect on the effective date of this subdivision and, to the extent consistent with such contracts, the authority shall negotiate contracts on reasonable terms and conditions to extend or renew all other allocations or allotments of such power in effect on such date. The authority shall negotiate contracts on reasonable terms and conditions to renew or extend for a period of at least five years every permanent contract allocation of replacement power in effect on the effective date of chapter three hundred thirteen of the laws of two thousand five which added this sentence and that would expire by its terms on or before the end of the initial federal energy regulatory commission license for the Niagara project; provided that, in negotiating the terms and conditions of such contracts, the authority may consider a business' compliance with all current contractual obligations, including employment and power usage commitments. Contracts entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall contain reasonable provisions providing for the partial or complete withdrawal of the power in the event the recipient fails to maintain mutually agreed levels of employment, investment, and power utilization. Expansion or replacement power relinquished by businesses or withdrawn by the authority shall be allocated directly or by sale for resale by the authority to businesses within the state located within thirty miles of the Niagara project provided, that the amount of power allocated to businesses in Chautauqua county on January first, nineteen hundred eighty-seven shall be allocated in such county. Preservation power that is relinquished by businesses or withdrawn by the authority shall be allocated directly or by sale for resale by the authority within the counties of Jefferson, Saint Lawrence and Franklin. Allocations made pursuant to this paragraph shall be made in accordance with criteria established by the trustees. Such criteria shall address the expansion of industry and employment pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision and the revitalization of existing industry pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision.

(a) Criteria for eligibility for expansion, replacement and preservation power. Each application for an allocation for expansion, replacement or preservation power shall be evaluated by the trustees under criteria which shall include but need not be limited to:

(1) the number of jobs created as a result of a power allocation;

(2) the business' long term commitment to the region as evidenced by the current and/or planned capital investment in business' facilities in the region;

(3) the ratio of the number of jobs to be created to the amount of power requested;

(4) the types of jobs created, as measured by wage and benefit levels, security and stability of employment;

(5) the amount of capital investment, including the type and cost of buildings, equipment and facilities to be constructed, enlarged or installed;

(6) the extent to which a power allocation will affect the overall productivity or competitiveness of the business and its existing employment;

(7) the extent to which an allocation of power may result in a competitive disadvantage for other business in the state;

(8) the growth potential of the business facility and the contribution of economic strength to the area in which the business facility is or would be located;

(9) the extent of the business' willingness to make jobs available to persons defined as eligible for services under the federal job training partnership act of nineteen hundred eighty-two and the extent of the business' willingness to satisfy affirmative action goals;

(10) the extent to which an allocation of power is consistent with state, regional and local economic development strategies and priorities and supported by local units of government in the area in which the business is located; and

(11) the impact of the allocation on the operation of any other facilities of the business, on other businesses within the region, and upon other electric ratepayers.

(b) Revitalization. In addition to the criteria provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision the trustees shall establish special criteria for the evaluation of applications for power allocated for the revitalization of industry. Such criteria shall include, but need not be limited to:

(1) that the business is likely to close, partially close or relocate resulting in the loss of a substantial number of jobs;

(2) that the business is an important employer in the community and efforts to revitalize the business are in long-term interests of both employers and the community;

(3) that a reasonable prospect exists that the proposed allocation of power will enable the business to remain competitive and become profitable and preserve jobs for a substantial period of time;

(4) that the applicant demonstrates cooperation with the local electricity distributor and other available sources of assistance to reduce energy costs to the maximum extent practicable, through conservation and load management; and

(5) that the allocation will not unduly affect the cost of electric service to customers of the local electricity distributor.

13-a. Recharge New York power program. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, but subject to the terms and conditions of federal energy regulatory commission licenses, to allocate, reallocate or extend, directly or by sale for resale, up to nine hundred ten megawatts of recharge New York power to eligible applicants located within the state of New York upon the recommendation of the New York state economic development power allocation board pursuant to section one hundred eighty-eight-a of the economic development law.

(b) Recharge New York power shall mean and consist of equal amounts of (1) four hundred fifty-five megawatts of firm hydroelectric power from the Niagara and Saint Lawrence hydroelectric projects to be withdrawn, as of the earliest date such power may be withdrawn consistent with contractual requirements, from utility corporations that, prior to the effective date of this subdivision, purchased such power for the benefit of their domestic and rural consumers ("recharge New York hydropower"), and (2) power procured by the authority through market sources, a competitive procurement process, or authority sources (other than the Niagara and Saint Lawrence projects) (collectively or individually, "recharge New York market power"); provided, however, that if such recharge New York market power comes from authority sources, the use of that power shall not reduce the availability of, or cause an increase in the price of, power provided by the authority for any other program authorized in this article or pursuant to any other statute.

(c) Notwithstanding section one thousand nine of this title or any other provision of law to the contrary, the authority is authorized, beginning July first, two thousand twelve, to make available, contract with and sell to such eligible applicants as are recommended by the economic development power allocation board up to nine hundred ten megawatts of recharge New York power for recharge New York power allocations. A recharge New York power allocation shall consist of equal parts of recharge New York hydropower and recharge New York market power as such terms are defined in paragraph (b) of this subdivision; provided, however, that prior to entering into a contract with an eligible applicant for the sale of recharge New York power, and prior to the provision of electric service relating to the recharge New York power allocation, the authority shall offer each eligible applicant the option to decline to purchase the recharge New York market power component of such allocation. If an eligible applicant declines to purchase such market power from the authority, the authority shall have no responsibility for supplying such market power to the eligible applicant.

13-b. Agricultural consumer electricity cost discount. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of this title or article six of the economic development law to the contrary, the authority is authorized, beginning in two thousand twenty-four, as deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, to use revenues from the sale of hydroelectric power, and such other funds of the authority as deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, to fund monthly payments to be made for the benefit of agricultural producers who receive electric service at the residential rate who enjoyed the benefits of authority hydroelectric power withdrawn pursuant to subdivision thirteen-a of this section, and who were previously eligible to receive benefits under the agricultural consumer electricity cost discount created by section four of part CC of chapter sixty of the laws of two thousand eleven, for the purpose of mitigating price impacts associated with the reallocation of such power in the manner described in this subdivision. Such monthly payments shall commence September first, two thousand twenty-four. The total annual amount of monthly payments shall not exceed five million dollars.

(2) The authority shall work cooperatively with the department of public service to evaluate the agricultural consumer electricity cost discount, which shall include an assessment of the benefits to recipients compared to the benefits the recipients received from the authority's hydroelectric power, withdrawn pursuant to subdivision thirteen-a of this section, during the twelve month period ending December thirty-first, two thousand ten, and compared to other agricultural consumers that did not choose to receive the discount.

(b) Energy efficiency program. (1) Beginning with the withdrawal of such hydroelectric power, the authority or the New York state energy research and development authority, shall conduct an energy efficiency program for five years to provide energy efficiency improvements for the purpose of reducing energy consumption for domestic and rural consumers. Such energy efficiency program may be undertaken in cooperation with other energy efficiency programs offered by utility corporations, state agencies and authorities including but not limited to the New York state energy research and development authority; provided however that energy savings attributable to such other energy efficiency programs shall not be included in determining the amount of energy saved pursuant to the program established by this paragraph;

(2) The authority or the New York state energy research and development authority shall annually post on their website a report evaluating the energy efficiency program, including but not limited to, the number of domestic and rural consumers who opted to participate in the program and, if practicable, the estimated savings the domestic and rural consumers received by participating in the energy efficiency program.

14. To provide to the governor, to the speaker of the assembly, and to the temporary president of the senate, on or before April first of each year, an economic development report including projections for the next succeeding twelve months of the amount of economic development power which will be or is expected to be available with a listing of the current recipients of that power, and data on the number and types of jobs resulting from allocation of economic development power. Such report shall also include the amount of revenues collected and used in the previous calendar year pursuant to the eighth unnumbered paragraph of this section.

15. To provide low cost electricity, as well as energy efficiency and conservation services and facilities using conventional or new energy technologies, to the following military establishments within the state: Fort Drum, Fort Hamilton, United States Academy at West Point, Watervliet Arsenal, Niagara Falls Air Reserve Base, Air Force Research Laboratory at Rome, Defense Finance Accounting Services at the former Rome Air Force Base, North East Air Defense Sector, Stewart Air National Guard Base, Hancock Field Air National Guard Base, Stratton Air National Guard Base and Air National Guard Base at Francis S. Gabreski Airport. Services provided pursuant to this section shall be provided only to support United States Department of Defense activities as they are conducted at such facilities. The authority may enter into contracts with the United States, its agencies and instrumentalities, and other public and private entities to effectuate the foregoing.

16. To complete a biennial energy plan in accordance with the provisions of article six of the energy law. In addition to any requirements of article six of the energy law, the authority shall provide copies of its biennial energy plan to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the chair of the assembly committee on energy and the chair of the senate committee on energy and telecommunications. Further, the authority shall cooperate and participate in the state energy planning procedures as enumerated in article six of the energy law.

17. (a) As deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, to finance and design, develop, construct, implement, provide and administer energy-related projects, programs and services for any public entity, any independent not-for-profit institution of higher education within the state, and any recipient of the economic development power, expansion power, replacement power, preservation power, high load factor power, municipal distribution agency power, power for jobs, and recharge New York power programs administered by the authority. In establishing and providing high performance and sustainable building programs and services authorized by this subdivision, the authority is authorized to consult standards, guidelines, rating systems, and/or criteria established or adopted by other organizations, including but not limited to the United States green building council under its leadership in energy and environmental design (LEED) programs, the green building initiative's green globes rating system, and the American National Standards Institute. The source of any financing and/or loans provided by the authority for the purposes of this subdivision may be the proceeds of notes issued pursuant to section one thousand nine-a of this title, the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section one thousand ten of this title, or any other available authority funds.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings unless the context indicates another meaning or intent:

(1) "Agency" means any agency, department, or office of the state of New York.

(2) "Energy-related projects, programs and services" means energy efficiency projects and services, clean energy technology projects and services, and high performance and sustainable building programs and services, and the construction, installation and/or operation of facilities or equipment done in connection with any such projects, programs or services.

(3) "Energy services contract" or "contract" means a contract pursuant to which the authority provides energy-related projects, programs and services.

(4) "High performance and sustainable building programs and services" means programs and services related to the renovation and retrofitting of buildings through the incorporation of standards, guidelines, rating systems, and/or criteria relating to design and building techniques established by the authority pursuant to this section, which are addressed to such issues as energy efficiency, energy conservation, the use of renewable energy, the reduction of air and other pollution, and the conservation of materials and resources such as water.

(5) "Public entity" means an agency, public authority, public benefit corporation, public corporation, municipal corporation, school district, board of cooperative educational services, public university, fire district, district corporation, or special improvement district governed by a separate board of commissioners.

(6) "Public authority" means a public authority formed by or under the laws of the state of New York to the extent its facilities are located within the state, and the port authority of New York and New Jersey to the extent that its facilities are located within the state.

(7) "Public benefit corporation" means a public benefit corporation as defined in subdivision four of section sixty-six of the general construction law.

(8) "Public university" means the city university of New York including any senior college or community college as defined in section sixty-two hundred two of the education law, and the state university of New York including four-year colleges established pursuant to section sixty-three hundred seven of the education law and community colleges as defined in section sixty-three hundred one of the education law.

(c) Any public entity is authorized to enter into an energy services contract with the authority for energy-related projects, programs and services that are authorized by this subdivision, provided that (i) the authority issues and advertises written requests for proposals from third party providers of goods and services in accordance with the authority's procurement policies, procedures and/or guidelines, and (ii) the authority shall not contract with a third party provider of goods and services if such person is listed on a debarment list maintained and published in accordance with New York law, as being ineligible to submit a bid on or be awarded any public contract or subcontract with the state, any municipal corporation or public body.

(d)(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any energy services contract entered into by the authority with any public entity: (1) may have a term of up to thirty-five years duration, provided, however, that the duration of any such contract shall not exceed the reasonably expected useful life of any facilities or equipment constructed, installed or operated as part of such energy-related projects, programs and services subject to such contract; and (2) shall contain the following clause: "This contract shall be deemed executory only to the extent of the monies appropriated and available for the purpose of the contract, and no liability on account therefor shall be incurred beyond the amount of such monies. It is understood that neither this contract nor any representation by any public employee or officer creates any legal or moral obligation to request, appropriate or make available monies for the purpose of the contract." A school district or board of cooperative educational services may only enter into an energy services contract with the authority for such maximum term as is prescribed in the regulations promulgated by the commissioner of education or the useful life of the facilities or equipment being constructed, installed or operated, whichever is less.

(ii) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in order to provide an interest in real or other property necessary for the construction of facilities or the operation of equipment provided for in an energy services contract, a public entity may enter into a lease or other agreement with the authority concerning real or other property to which it holds title or which is under its administrative jurisdiction, as is necessary for such construction or operation, for the same length of time as the term of the energy services contract and on such terms and conditions as may be agreeable to the parties thereto and are not otherwise inconsistent with law, and notwithstanding that such real or other property may remain useful to such entity for the purpose for which such real or other property was originally acquired or devoted or for which such real or other property is being used.

(e) Nothing contained in this subdivision is intended to limit, impair or affect the authority's legal authority to provide energy efficiency and energy services programs that existed as of the effective date of this subdivision.

(f) The authority shall complete and submit a report, on or before January thirty-first, two thousand twelve, on those activities undertaken pursuant to this subdivision to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the temporary president of the senate, the minority leader of the senate, the minority leader of the assembly, the chair of the senate finance committee, the chair of the assembly ways and means committee, the chair of the assembly energy committee and the chair of the senate energy committee.

18. For the purpose of furnishing the state with systematic information regarding the status and the activities of the authority, the authority shall submit to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate and the minority leader of the assembly, within ninety days after the end of its fiscal year, a complete and detailed annual report on each economic development power program it administers. Such annual report shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

a. the number of recipients of economic power program benefits, the economic region in which each recipient is located, the type and amount of assistance provided, megawatts of power awarded, length of current contract, current contract compliance status, last audit, number of jobs retained and/or added in the fiscal year, approximate energy efficiency savings and amount of power reallocated from previous years due to forfeited benefits; and

b. cost to the authority to provide economic development power programs during the previous fiscal year.

19. To cooperate with the western New York power proceeds allocation board and provide the board with such information and assistance as the board reasonably requests, including reasonable staff services, accounting, clerical and secretarial assistance, office space, and equipment reasonably requested by the western New York power proceeds allocation board to fulfill its duties.

20. To establish an account to be known as the western New York economic development fund, which shall consist of "net earnings" as defined in article six-a of the economic development law, deposited in such amounts as determined to be feasible and advisable by the trustees. Such earnings shall be deposited no less frequently than quarterly. The first deposit into the fund shall be made ninety days after the effective date of this subdivision, and shall include all such net earnings accrued since the effective date of chapter four hundred thirty-six of the laws of two thousand ten. At least fifteen percent of such funds shall be dedicated towards eligible projects which are energy-related projects, programs and services as such term is defined in subparagraph two of paragraph (b) of subdivision seventeen of this section. In addition to funding eligible projects, as defined in article six-a of the economic development law, the authority may use western New York economic development fund monies to cover reasonable costs and expenses of the authority related to the management and administration of the western New York power proceeds allocation program created by article six-a of the economic development law.

21. The authority may, in its discretion, consult with the western New York power proceeds allocation board in the application process relating to the allocation of expansion power and replacement power.

22. The authority shall establish processes for application review and allocation of fund benefits provided for in article six-a of the economic development law.

23. The authority shall include in the annual report prepared pursuant to subdivision eighteen of this section, an accounting for the subject year that provides (a) the amount of expansion power and replacement power sold into the wholesale market by the authority, and (b) the net earnings, as such term is defined in section one hundred eighty-nine-a of the economic development law, paid into the western New York economic development fund.

24. (a) For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "authority-TMED contract", "eligible project", "net earnings", "northern New York power proceeds allocation board" and "St. Lawrence county economic development power" shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in article seven-A of the economic development law.

(b) The authority shall be authorized to cooperate with the northern New York power proceeds allocation board, and provide such board with such information and assistance, including reasonable staff services, accounting, clerical and secretarial assistance, office space, and equipment, as the board reasonably requests in order to fulfill its duties under article seven-A of the economic development law.

(c) The authority shall establish an account to be known as the northern New York economic development fund, which shall consist solely of net earnings. The authority, as determined to be feasible and advisable by the trustees, shall deposit net earnings into the fund no less than quarterly, provided, however, that the amount of St. Lawrence county economic development power that may be used by the authority to generate net earnings shall not exceed the lesser of twenty megawatts or the amount of St. Lawrence county economic development power that has not been allocated by the authority under the authority-TMED contract for sub-allocations, and provided further that beginning five years from the effective date of this subdivision, the amount of St. Lawrence county economic development power that may be used by the authority to generate net earnings shall not exceed the lesser of ten megawatts or the amount of St. Lawrence county economic development power that has not been allocated by the authority under the authority-TMED contract for sub-allocations. At least fifteen percent of net earnings paid into the fund shall be dedicated to eligible projects which are energy-related projects, programs and services as such term is defined in subparagraph two of paragraph (b) of subdivision seventeen of this section. In addition to funding eligible projects, the authority may use northern New York economic development fund monies to cover reasonable costs and expenses of the authority related to the management and administration of the northern New York power proceeds allocation program created by article seven-A of the economic development law.

(d) The authority is hereby authorized to establish processes for application review and allocation of fund benefits, and to promulgate such rules and regulations as it deems necessary to fulfill the purposes of this subdivision and the duties assigned to it under article seven-A of the economic development law.

(e) The authority shall include in the annual report prepared pursuant to subdivision eighteen of this section, an accounting for the subject year that provides the amount of St. Lawrence county economic development power sold into the wholesale market by the authority, and the net earnings paid into the northern New York economic development fund.

25. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, to accept gifts, grants, loans, or contributions of funds or property in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentally thereof or from the state or any other source (collectively, "resources"), and enter into contracts or other transactions regarding such resources, and to use such resources for any of its corporate purposes.

26. (a) As deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, to plan, finance, construct, acquire, operate, improve and maintain, either alone or jointly with one or more other entities, transmission facilities for the purpose of transmitting power and energy generated by renewable wind energy generation projects that are located in state territorial waters, and/or in waters under the jurisdiction or regulation of the United States, which supplies electric power and energy to the state of New York that the authority deems necessary and desirable in order to: (i) provide, support and maintain an adequate and reliable supply of electric power and energy in the state of New York, and/or (ii) assist the state in meeting state energy-related goals and standards.

(b) The source of any financing and/or loans provided by the authority for any of the actions authorized in paragraph (a) of this subdivision may be the proceeds of notes issued pursuant to section one thousand nine-a of this title, the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section one thousand ten of this title, or any other available authority funds.

(c) The authority shall complete and submit a report, on or before January thirty-first, two thousand twenty, and annually thereafter, on those activities undertaken pursuant to this subdivision to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the temporary president of the senate, the minority leader of the senate, the minority leader of the assembly, the chair of the senate finance committee, the chair of the assembly ways and means committee, the chair of the assembly energy committee, and the chair of the senate energy and telecommunications committee. Such report shall be posted on the authority's website and accessible for public review.

* 27. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, as deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, the authority is authorized to undertake the following actions when it deems it necessary or desirable to address the energy-related needs of any (i) authority customer, (ii) public entity, or (iii) CCA community:

(1) (A) supply power and energy procured from competitive market sources to any (i) authority customer, (ii) public entity, or (iii) CCA community through the supply of such products through an energy services company or other entity that is authorized by the public service commission to procure and sell energy products to participants of a CCA program, provided, however, that the authority shall not supply at any point more than a total of four hundred megawatts of power and energy to authority customers and public entities pursuant to the authority of this clause;

(B) supply renewable power, energy, or related credits or attributes procured through a competitive process, from competitive market sources, or through negotiation when a competitive procurement is not reasonably feasible and such products can be procured on reasonably competitive terms to (i) any authority customer, (ii) any public entity, or (iii) any CCA community through the supply of such products through an energy services company or other entity that is authorized by the public service commission to procure and sell energy products to participants of a CCA program; and

(b) Nothing in this subdivision authorizes the authority to act as an energy supply company or administrator for CCA programs.

(c) Power and energy sold pursuant to the authority provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall only be sold for use at facilities located in the state.

(d) Any public entity is hereby authorized to contract with the authority for the purchase of power, energy, or related credits or attributes which the authority is authorized to supply under paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

(e) The source of any financing and/or loans provided by the authority for any of the actions authorized in paragraph (a) of this subdivision may be the proceeds of notes issued pursuant to section one thousand nine-a of this title, the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section one thousand ten of this title, or any other available authority funds.

(f) The authority shall complete and submit a report, on or before January thirty-first, two thousand twenty, and annually thereafter on those actions undertaken pursuant to this subdivision to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the temporary president of the senate, the chair of the assembly ways and means committee, the chair of the senate finance committee, the chair of the assembly energy committee and the chair of the senate energy and telecommunications committee. Such report, at a minimum, shall include: (i) an accounting of the total amount of power, energy, and related credits and attributes procured from competitive market sources and supplied to authority customers, public entities, and CCA communities; (ii) an accounting of the total amount of renewable power, energy, and related credits and attributes procured through negotiation and supplied to authority customers, public entities, and CCA communities; (iii) a description of all renewable energy generating projects financed by the authority, including the aggregate amount of financing; (iv) an accounting of all power, energy, and related credits and attributes purchased by the authority from such projects; and (v) an identification of all public entities, authority customers, and CCA communities to which the authority supplied, allocated or sold any power, energy or related credits or attributes.

(g) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated in this paragraph unless the context indicates another meaning or intent:

(i) "Authority customer" means an entity located in the state to which the authority sells or is under contract to sell power or energy under the authority in this title or any other law.

(ii) "CCA community" means one or more municipal corporations located within the state that have provided for the purchase of power, energy, or related credits or other attributes under a CCA program.

(iii) "CCA program" means a community choice aggregation program approved by the public service commission.
(iv) "Public entity" has the meaning ascribed to that term by subparagraph five of paragraph (b) of subdivision seventeen of this section.
(v) "Renewable energy resources" means solar power, wind power, hydroelectric, and any other generation resource authorized by any renewable energy standard adopted by the state for the purpose of implementing any state clean energy standard.
(vi) "Renewable energy generating project" means a project that generates power and energy by means of renewable energy resources, or that stores and supplies power and energy generated by means of renewable energy resources, and includes the construction, installation and/or operation of ancillary facilities or equipment done in connection with any such renewable energy generating projects, provided, however, that such term shall not include the authority's Saint Lawrence hydroelectric project or Niagara hydroelectric project.
(vii) "State" means the state of New York.
* NB Repealed June 30, 2033

27-a. (a) The authority is authorized and directed, to:
(i) plan, design, develop, finance, construct, own, operate, maintain and improve, either alone, or jointly with other entities through the use of public-private agreements established in paragraph (f) of this subdivision, renewable energy generating projects in the state, including its territorial waters, and/or on property or in waters under the jurisdiction or regulatory authority of the United States, or any component thereof, to: support the state's renewable energy goals established pursuant to the climate leadership and community protection act; provide or maintain an adequate and reliable supply of electric power and energy in the state, including but not limited to, high need areas and communities served by small natural gas power plants as defined in this section; and support the renewable energy access and community help program established pursuant to subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section; subject to the strategic plan developed and updated pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subdivision approved by the trustees of the authority, provided that the authority, or a wholly owned subsidiary thereof, shall at all times maintain majority ownership of any such project, and provided further that the authority, any subsidiary thereof, or any other entity participating in a public-private agreement established in paragraph (f) of this subdivision, shall only design, develop, finance, construct, own, operate, maintain and improve projects pursuant to this subdivision that have been identified in the strategic plan or its updates as provided in subparagraph (v) of paragraph (e) of this subdivision; and

(ii) notwithstanding any conflicting provision of title five-A of article nine of this chapter, acquire from willing sellers, lease, or dispose of property interests related to the development or disposition of renewable energy generating projects authorized by this paragraph through a competitive selection process or by negotiation, provided that the authority and any subsidiary thereof shall receive not less than fair market value, supported by an appraisal prepared by an independent appraiser, for the disposal of any interest in any renewable energy generating project.

(b) The authority, its subsidiaries or any entity participating in a public-private agreement established in paragraph (f) of this subdivision or acting on behalf of the authority, when developing renewable energy generating projects authorized in this subdivision, or subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section, shall: (i) not develop, except when necessary for generator lead lines and other equipment needed for interconnection of projects to the electric system, on property that consists of land used in agricultural production, taking into consideration whether the land is within an agricultural district or contains mineral soil groups 1-4, as defined by the department of agriculture and markets, unless a renewable energy generation project is in furtherance of an agrivoltaics project; (ii) minimize harm to wildlife, ecosystems, public health and public safety; and (iii) not build on lands located upon any Native American territory or reservation located wholly or partly within the state, except through voluntary sale or other agreement for such use with the consent of the relevant nation and any required consent of the federal government.

(c) Renewable energy generating projects developed by the authority, or a wholly owned subsidiary, pursuant to this subdivision or subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section that meet eligibility criteria under state programs administered by the public service commission and the New York state energy research and development authority shall be eligible to receive renewable energy certificates in accordance with such programs consistent with laws and regulations.

* (d) No later than one hundred eighty days after the effective date of this subdivision, and annually thereafter, the authority shall confer with the New York state energy research and development authority, the department of public service, climate and resiliency experts, labor organizations, and environmental justice and community organizations concerning the state's progress on meeting the renewable energy goals established by the climate leadership and community protection act. When exercising the authority provided for in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the information developed through such conferral shall be used to identify projects to help ensure that the state meets its goals under the climate leadership and community protection act. Any conferral provided for in this paragraph shall include consideration of the timing of projects in the interconnection queue of the federally designated electric bulk system operator for New York state, taking into account both capacity factors or planned projects and the interconnection queue's historical completion rate. A report on the information developed through such conferral shall be published and made accessible on the website of the authority.

* NB Effective until December 31, 2040

* (d) No later than one hundred eighty days after the effective date of this subdivision, and annually thereafter, the authority shall confer with the New York state energy research and development authority, the office of renewable energy siting, the department of public service, climate and resiliency experts, labor organizations, and environmental justice and community organizations concerning the state's progress on meeting the renewable energy goals established by the climate leadership and community protection act. When exercising the authority provided for in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the information developed through such conferral shall be used to identify projects to help ensure that the state meets its goals under the climate leadership and community protection act. Any conferral provided for in this paragraph shall include consideration of the timing of projects in the interconnection queue of the federally designated electric bulk system operator for New York state, taking into account both capacity factors or planned projects and the interconnection queue's historical completion rate. A report on the information developed through such conferral shall be published and made accessible on the website of the authority.

* NB Effective December 31, 2040

(e) * (i) Beginning in two thousand twenty-five, and biennially thereafter until two thousand thirty-three, the authority, in consultation with the New York state energy research and development authority, the department of public service, and the federally designated electric bulk system operator for New York state, shall develop and publish biennially a renewable energy generation strategic plan ("strategic plan") that identifies the renewable energy generating priorities based on the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision for the two-year period covered by the plan as further provided for in this paragraph.

* NB Effective until December 31, 2040

* (i) Beginning in two thousand twenty-five, and biennially thereafter until two thousand thirty-three, the authority, in consultation with the New York state energy research and development authority, the office of renewable energy siting, the department of public service, and the federally designated electric bulk system operator for New York state, shall develop and publish biennially a renewable energy generation strategic plan ("strategic plan") that identifies the renewable energy generating priorities based on the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision for the two-year period covered by the plan as further provided for in this paragraph.

* NB Effective December 31, 2040

(ii) In developing, and updating, the strategic plan, the authority shall consider:

(A) information developed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this subdivision;

(B) high need areas where transmission and distribution upgrades will be necessary to interconnect new renewable energy generation projects;

(C) the feasibility of projects, based on costs, potential benefits, and other relevant considerations;

(D) the fiscal condition of the authority and the impacts of potential renewable energy generating projects on the authority and its subsidiaries;

(E) ways to minimize any negative tax revenue impacts on municipalities that host renewable energy generating projects, including but not limited to, PILOT and/or community benefit agreements;

(F) the timing, characteristics and size of the renewable energy generating projects in the interconnection queue of the federally designated electric bulk system operator for New York state;

(G) in consultation with the federally designated electric bulk system operator for New York state, the power, energy and ancillary services provided by planned renewable energy generating projects, taking into account the historical completion rate of similar projects; and

(H) opportunities to work in partnership with private sector renewable energy developers to accelerate activity, catalyze greater scale, and spur additional market participation.

(iii) The strategic plan shall address the purposes stated in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, and prioritize projects that:

(A) actively benefit disadvantaged communities;

(B) serve publicly-owned facilities; and

(C) support the renewable energy access and community help program established pursuant to subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section.

(iv) The strategic plan shall assess and identify at a minimum:

(A) renewable energy generating high need and priority areas;

(B) priority locations for the development of renewable energy generating projects;

(C) the types and capacity of renewable energy resources to be utilized;

(D) the estimated cost of renewable energy generating projects to the extent known;

(E) a description of any delays or anticipated delays associated with completion of the renewable energy generating projects;

(F) which of the intended purposes in paragraph (a) of this subdivision each renewable energy generating project is intended to support;

(G) any prioritization given to the order of development of renewable energy generating projects;

(H) the benefits associated with the renewable energy generating projects, including any benefits to disadvantaged communities;

(I) any benefits to rate payers;

(J) the state's progress towards achieving the renewable energy goals of the climate leadership and community protection act; and

(K) any other information the authority determines to be appropriate.

(v) The plan shall include a list of proposed renewable energy generating projects. Such list shall include projects that are planned to be commenced prior to the next update or version of the plan, and at the authority's discretion need not include any projects in the planning stage. Each proposed project listed shall include, without limitation:

(A) location of the project, to the extent that property associated with such location has been secured for the proposed project;

(B) the type, or types, of renewable energy resources utilized;

(C) the potential generating capacity of each project;

(D) the estimated project cost;

(E) the timeline for completion; and

(F) the entity undertaking the proposed project and any public partnership agreements the authority or its subsidiaries enter into for such project.

(vi) In developing the strategic plan, the authority shall consult with stakeholders including, without limitation, climate and resiliency experts, labor organizations, environmental justice communities, disadvantaged community members, residential and small business ratepayer advocates, and community organizations. The authority shall also seek, where possible, community input through the regional clean energy hubs program administered by the energy research and development authority.

(vii) The authority shall post a draft of the strategic plan on its website for public comment for a period of at least sixty days, and shall hold at least three public hearings on the draft strategic plan in regionally diverse parts of the state. Consideration should be given to the availability of public transit when selecting locations for in-person hearings.

(viii) The authority shall after considering the stakeholder input publish the first final strategic plan on its website no later than January thirty-first, two thousand twenty-five.

(ix) The authority, until two thousand thirty-five, shall update each biennial strategic plan annually, after a public comment period of at least thirty days and at least one public hearing. Such updated strategic plan shall include a review of the implementation of the projects previously included in the strategic plan with necessary updates, including status in the interconnection queue. The authority may update the plan more often than annually provided that it follows the public comment and public hearing process for updated plans prescribed by this paragraph.

(x) The strategic plan and any update thereof shall not be deemed final until it is approved by the authority's trustees.

(xi) During at least three board of trustees' meetings per year, there shall be a public report delivered and published on the development and implementation of the authority's renewable energy generation strategic plan. A statement explaining that there is no update shall be acceptable.

(xii) The authority shall maintain a public dashboard on their website demonstrating their progress in implementing the authority's renewable energy generation strategic plan.

(f) The authority shall have the right to exercise and perform all or part of its powers and functions pursuant to this subdivision or subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section, through one or more wholly owned subsidiaries. The authority may form such subsidiary by acquiring the voting shares thereof or by resolution of the board directing any of its trustees, officers or employees to organize a subsidiary pursuant to the business corporation law, or the not-for-profit corporation law, or as otherwise authorized by law. Such resolution shall prescribe the purpose for which such subsidiary is to be formed, which shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this subdivision. Each such subsidiary pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to any provision of this chapter pertaining to subsidiaries of public authorities, except that subdivision three of section twenty-eight hundred twenty-seven-a of this chapter shall not apply to any subsidiary organized pursuant to this section. The authority may transfer to any such subsidiary any moneys, property (real, personal or mixed) or facilities in order to carry out the purposes of this subdivision. Each such subsidiary shall have all the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions and other exemptions of the authority to the extent the same are not inconsistent with the statute or statutes pursuant to which such subsidiary was incorporated; provided, however, that in any event any such subsidiary shall be entitled to exemptions from the public service law and any regulation by, or the jurisdiction of, the public service commission, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision or subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section. In exercising the authority provided for in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the authority or any subsidiary thereof, may enter into public-private partnership agreements, to the extent the authority determines that such collaborations are in the best interest of the state, and necessary to mitigate financial risks to the authority to manageable levels as determined by the trustees. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as authorizing any private entity that enters into a public-private partnership or a similar agreement, or any contract authorized herein, with the authority or a subsidiary thereof, to receive, exercise or claim entitlement to any of the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions or other exemptions of the authority or any subsidiary thereof.

(g) The source of any financing and/or loans for any of the actions authorized in this subdivision may include: (i) the proceeds of notes issued pursuant to section one thousand nine-a of this title; (ii) the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section one thousand ten of this title; (iii) other funds made available by the authority for such purposes; or (iv) any other funds made available to the authority from non-authority sources including but not limited to state or federal monies.

(h) For any renewable energy generating project authorized by this subdivision, identified in the strategic plan and developed after its effective date, the authority is authorized, pursuant to law and regulation, to:

(i) sell renewable energy credits or attributes to, the New York state energy research and development authority, including for the purpose of supporting the greenhouse gas emission reduction goals in the climate leadership and community protection act;

(ii) sell renewable power and energy and ancillary services to, or into, markets operated by the federally designated electric bulk system operator for New York state;

(iii) sell renewable power and energy and renewable energy credits or attributes to: (A) any load serving entity in the state, including the Long Island power authority (directly, or through its service provider, as appropriate), including but not limited to the purpose of providing bill credits to low-income or moderate-income end-use electricity consumers in disadvantaged communities for renewable energy produced by renewable energy systems as provided for in subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section;

(B) manufacturers of green hydrogen produced through electrolysis or other zero-emission technology to displace fossil fuel use in the state for use at facilities located in the state;

(C) any public entity or authority customer;

(D) community distributed generation providers, energy aggregators and similar entities for the benefit of subscribers to community distributed generation projects in the state, including low-income or moderate-income end-use electricity consumers located in disadvantaged communities; and

(E) any CCA community.

(i) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated in this paragraph unless the context indicates another meaning or intent:

(i) "Authority customer" means an entity located in the state to which the authority sells or is under contract to sell power or energy under the authority in this title or any other law.

(ii) "CCA community" means one or more municipal corporations located within the state that have provided for the purchase of power, energy, or renewable energy credits or other attributes under a CCA program.

(iii) "CCA program" means a community choice aggregation program approved by the public service commission.

(iv) "Disadvantaged communities" has the meaning ascribed to that term by subdivision five of section 75-0101 of the environmental conservation law.

(v) "Public entity" has the same meaning as in subparagraph five of paragraph (b) of subdivision seventeen of this section.

(vi) "Renewable energy generating project" or "project" means:

(A) facilities that generate power and energy by means of a renewable energy system;

(B) facilities that store and discharge power and energy; and

(C) facilities, including generator lead lines, for interconnection of renewable energy generating projects to delivery points within the state of New York.

(vii) "Renewable energy system" has the same meaning as section sixty-six-p of the public service law.

(j) The authority shall complete and submit a report, on or before January thirty-first, two thousand twenty-five, and annually thereafter, to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, and the temporary president of the senate, and shall post such report on the authority's website such that the report is accessible for public review. Such report shall include, but not be limited to:

(i) a description of the renewable energy projects the authority has planned, designed, developed, financed, or constructed and that it owns, operates, maintains or improves, alone or jointly with other entities, under the authority of this subdivision;

(ii) a description of the acquisition, lease or other disposition of interests in renewable energy generating projects by the authority under this subdivision;

(iii) a listing of all renewable power, energy, ancillary services and related credits and attributes sold or purchased by the authority from such projects;

(iv) a listing of the entities to which the authority has supplied, allocated or sold any renewable power, energy, ancillary services or related credits or attributes from such projects;

(v) a listing and description of all subsidiaries that the authority formed, public-private partnerships the authority has joined, and the subsidiaries and public-private partnerships from and to which the authority acquired or transferred any interests;

(vi) the total amount of revenues generated from the sale of renewable energy products from such projects; and

(vii) an explanation of how each renewable energy generation project supports the purposes listed in paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

(k) All renewable energy generating projects subject to this subdivision and subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section shall be deemed public work and subject to and performed in accordance with articles eight and nine of the labor law. Each contract for such renewable energy generating project shall contain a provision that such projects may only be undertaken pursuant to a project labor agreement. For purposes of this subdivision and subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section, "project labor agreement" shall mean a pre-hire collective bargaining agreement between the authority, or a third party on behalf of the authority, and a bona fide building and construction trade labor organization establishing the labor organization as the collective bargaining representative for all persons who will perform work on a public work project, and which provides that only contractors and subcontractors who sign a pre-negotiated agreement with the labor organization can perform project work. All contractors and subcontractors associated with this work shall be required to utilize apprenticeship agreements as defined by article twenty-three of the labor law.

(l) The authority shall include requirements in any procurement or development of a renewable energy generating project, as defined in this subdivision, that the components and parts shall be produced or made in whole or substantial part in the United States, its territories or possessions. The authority's president and chief executive officer, or his or her designee may waive the procurement and development requirements set forth in this paragraph if such official determines that: the requirements would not be in the public interest; the requirements would result in unreasonable costs; obtaining such infrastructure components and parts in the United States would increase the cost of a renewable energy generating project by an unreasonable amount; or such components or parts cannot be produced, made, or assembled in the United States in sufficient and reasonably available quantities or of satisfactory quality. Such determination must be made on an annual basis no later than December thirty-first, after providing notice and an opportunity for public comment, and such determination shall be made publicly available, in writing, on the authority's website with a detailed explanation of the findings leading to such determination. If the authority's president and chief executive officer, or his or her designee, has issued determinations for three consecutive years finding that no such waiver is warranted pursuant to this paragraph, then the authority shall no longer be required to provide the annual determination required by this paragraph.

(m) (i) Nothing in this subdivision or subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section shall alter the rights or benefits, and privileges, including, but not limited to terms and conditions of employment, civil service status, and collective bargaining unit membership, of any current employees of the authority.

(ii) Nothing in this article shall result in: (A) the discharge, displacement, or loss of position, including partial displacement such as a reduction in the hours of non-overtime work, wages, or employment benefits; (B) the impairment of existing collective bargaining agreements; (C) the transfer of existing duties and functions; or (D) the transfer of future duties and functions, of any currently employed worker of the state or any agency, public authority or the state university of New York.

(n) The authority shall enter into a memorandum of understanding for the operation and maintenance of a renewable energy generating project developed pursuant to this subdivision or subdivision twenty-seven of this section with a bona fide labor organization of jurisdiction that is actively engaged in representing transitioning employees from non-renewable generation facilities. Such memorandum shall be entered into prior to the completion date of a renewable energy generating project and shall be an ongoing material condition of authorization to operate and maintain a renewable energy generating project developed pursuant to this subdivision or subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section. The memorandum shall only apply to the employees necessary for the maintenance and operation of such renewable energy generating projects. Such memorandum shall contain but not be limited to safety and training standards, disaster response measures, guaranteed hours, staffing levels, pay rate protection, and retraining programs. The employees eligible for these positions shall first be selected from a pool of transitioning workers who have lost their employment or will be losing their employment in the non-renewable energy generation sector. Such list of potential employees will be provided by affected labor organizations and provided to the department of labor. The department of labor shall update and provide such list to the authority ninety days prior to purchase, acquisition, and/or construction of any project under this subdivision or subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section.

(o) For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law, any person entering into a contract for a project authorized pursuant to this section shall be deemed a state agency as that term is defined in such article and such contracts shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article.

* (p) Nothing in this subdivision or subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section, shall be construed as exempting the authority, its subsidiaries, or any renewable energy generating projects undertaken pursuant to this section from the requirements of article VIII of the public service law respecting any renewable energy system developed by the authority or an authority subsidiary after the effective date of this subdivision that meets the definition of "major renewable energy facility" as defined in article VIII of the public service law, as it relates to host community benefits, and section 11-0535-c of the environmental conservation law as it relates to an endangered and threatened species mitigation bank fund.

* NB Effective until December 31, 2040

* (p) Nothing in this subdivision or subdivision twenty-seven-b of this section, shall be construed as exempting the authority, its subsidiaries, or any renewable energy generating projects undertaken pursuant to this section from the requirements of section ninety-four-c of the executive law respecting any renewable energy system developed by the authority or an authority subsidiary after the effective date of this subdivision that meets the definition of "major renewable energy facility" as defined in section ninety-four-c of the executive law and section eight of part JJJ of chapter fifty-eight of the laws of two thousand twenty, as it relates to host community benefits, and section 11-0535-c of the environmental conservation law as it relates to an endangered and threatened species mitigation bank fund.

* NB Effective December 31, 2040

(q) All renewable energy generating projects the authority plans to undertake pursuant to the authority and directive of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, and identified in the strategic plan, shall be subject to review and approval of the authority's board of trustees.

27-b. (a) Definitions. For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(i) "bill credit" means a monthly monetary credit which is funded by the authority, as further determined by the public service commission and appears on the utility bill of a low-income or moderate-income end-use electricity consumer located in a disadvantaged community, for renewable energy produced by renewable energy systems developed, constructed, owned, or contracted for by the power authority of the state of New York and injected into a distribution or transmission facility at one or more points in New York state, together with any enhanced incentive payments for a community distributed generation project serving a disadvantaged community provided for in paragraph (b) of subdivision seven of section sixty-six-p of the public service law, together with any other funding made available by the authority for such purposes;

(ii) "disadvantaged community" means a community defined as a disadvantaged community in accordance with article seventy-five of the environmental conservation law;

(iii) "jurisdictional load serving entity" has the same meaning as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section sixty-six-p of the public service law;

(iv) "low-income or moderate-income end-use consumer" shall mean end-use customers of electric corporations and combination gas and electric corporations regulated by the public service commission whose income is found to be below the state median income based on household size;

(v) "renewable energy" means electrical energy produced by a renewable energy system;

(vi) "renewable energy systems" has the same meaning as defined in paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section sixty-six-p of the public service law; and

(vii) "qualified energy storage system" has the same meaning as defined in subdivision one of section seventy-four of the public service law.

(b) The authority is authorized and directed, as deemed feasible and advisable by its trustees, to establish a program, as soon as practicable, to be known as the "renewable energy access and community help program" or "REACH", that will enable low-income or moderate-income end-use electricity consumers in disadvantaged communities, including such end-use electricity customers who reside in buildings that have on-site net-metered generation or who participate in a community choice aggregation or community distributed generation project, unless they opt out of REACH, to receive bill credits generated by the production of renewable energy by a renewable energy system planned, designed, developed, financed, constructed, owned, operated, maintained or improved, or contracted for by the authority as a renewable energy generating project pursuant to subdivision twenty-seven-a of this section. Such bill credits shall be in addition to any other renewable energy program or any other program or benefit that end-use electricity consumers in disadvantaged communities receive. For purposes of this subdivision, a renewable energy system developed, constructed, owned, or contracted for by the authority shall be: (i) sized up to and including five megawatts alternating current and interconnected to the distribution system or transmission system in the service territory of the electric utility that serves the end-use electricity consumers that receive bill credits; or (ii) sized above five megawatts alternating current and interconnected to the distribution or transmission system at one or more points anywhere within the state.

(c) For purposes of implementing REACH, the authority is authorized and directed, as deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, to:

(i) pursuant to the authority provided in paragraph (a) of subdivision twenty-seven-a of this section, develop, construct, own, and/or operate renewable energy generating projects;

(ii) contract for the development, construction and/or operation of renewable energy systems;

(iii) sell, purchase, and otherwise contract regarding renewable energy, renewable energy credits or attributes and other energy products and services generated by renewable energy generating projects; and

(iv) enter into contracts for purposes of implementing REACH, including but not limited to agreements with developers, owners and operators of renewable energy systems, and agreements with jurisdictional load serving entities and the Long Island power authority, or its service provider, to provide for bill credits to end-use electricity consumers in disadvantaged communities for renewable energy produced by renewable energy systems, upon terms and conditions approved by the public service commission pursuant to subdivisions seven and eight of section sixty-six-p of the public service law.

(d) The authority shall complete and submit a report, on or before January thirty-first, two thousand twenty-five, and annually thereafter, to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the temporary president of the senate, the minority leader of the assembly, and the minority leader of the senate which shall be posted on the authority's website, and shall include, but not be limited to:

(i) contracts entered into by the authority for the development, construction and/or operation of renewable energy systems that are intended in whole or in part to support REACH, and the planned location of such projects;

(ii) renewable energy systems that are being planned and developed or that have been developed by or for the authority that are intended in whole or in part to support REACH, and the location of such projects;

(iii) an estimate of the aggregate amount of bill credits provided to end-use electricity consumers in disadvantaged communities under REACH;

(iv) an estimate of: (A) the total amount of revenues generated from the sale of renewable capacity, energy, renewable credits or attributes, and related ancillary services that are used to fund bill credits; and (B) any other authority funds, as determined to be feasible and advisable by the trustees, the authority has contributed for the purpose of funding bill credits under REACH;

(v) the amount of energy produced by each facility; and

(vi) the kilowatt-hour sales by project.

(e) The authority may request from any department, division, office, commission or other agency of the state or any state public authority, and the same are authorized to provide, such assistance, services and data as may be required by the authority in carrying out the purposes of this subdivision.

(f) Within one year of the effective date of this subdivision, the authority shall issue a report to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the temporary president of the senate, the minority leader of the assembly, and the minority leader of the senate that addresses the feasibility and advisability of implementing a program similar to REACH for the purpose of providing bill credits to low-income or moderate-income end-use electricity consumers located in disadvantaged communities in the service territories of municipal distribution utilities and rural electric cooperatives located in New York state. The authority may confer with any municipal distribution utility or its representatives, and any rural electric cooperative or its representatives, and may request from any municipal distribution utility, rural electric cooperative, department, division, office, commission or other agency of the state or state public authority, and the same are authorized to provide, such assistance, services and data as may be required by the authority to complete the report.

(g) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as authorizing any private entity that enters into a public-private partnership or a similar agreement, or any contract authorized herein, with the authority or an authority subsidiary, to receive, exercise or claim entitlement to any of the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions or other exemptions of the authority or any authority subsidiary.

27-c. (a) Within two years of the effective date of this subdivision, the authority shall publish a plan providing for the proposed phase out, by December thirty-first, two thousand thirty, of the production of electric energy from its small natural gas power plants. The plan shall include a proposed strategy to replace, where appropriate, the small natural gas power plants with renewable energy systems, as defined in section sixty-six-p of the public service law, including renewable energy generating projects authorized pursuant to subdivision twenty-seven-a of this section provided such projects shall be included in the strategic plan established pursuant to subdivision twenty-seven-a of this section. By December thirty-first, two thousand thirty, the authority shall cease production of electricity at each of its small natural gas power plants should the authority determine that such plant or plants, or the electricity production therefrom are not needed for any of the following purposes: (i) emergency power service; or (ii) electric system reliability, including but not limited to, operating facilities to maintain power system requirements for facility thermal limits, voltage limits, frequency limits, fault current duty limits, or dynamic stability limits, in accordance with the system reliability standards of the North American electric reliability corporation, criteria of the northeast power coordinating council, rules of the New York state reliability council, and as applicable, reliability rules of the utility in whose service territory a small natural gas power plant is located. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, the authority may continue to produce electric energy at any of the small natural gas power plants if existing or proposed replacement generation resources would result in more than a de minimis net increase of emissions of carbon dioxide or criteria air pollutants within a disadvantaged community as defined in subdivision five of section 75-0101 of the environmental conservation law. The authority shall file deactivation notices with the federally designated electric bulk system operator for the state of New York for the purpose of ceasing electricity production from the small natural gas power plants in a timeframe sufficient to facilitate the cessation of electricity production pursuant to this paragraph.

(b) In determining whether to cease electricity production from any small natural gas power plant, the authority is authorized to confer with the federally designated electric bulk system operator for the state, the New York state energy research and development authority, the department of public service, and the distribution utility in whose service territory such small natural gas power plant operates, in addition to such other stakeholders as the authority determines to be appropriate. Determinations shall be on a plant by plant basis, be updated no less than every two years, and be made publicly available along with the supporting documentation on which the determination was based. In making such determinations, the authority shall provide an opportunity for public comment of not less than sixty days prior to the public hearing and shall hold at least one public hearing in the affected community.

(c) Nothing in this subdivision is intended to, nor shall be construed to, prohibit the authority in its discretion from using, or permitting the use of, including through lease, sale, or other arrangement, any small natural gas power plant or its site or associated infrastructure in whole or in part for electric system purposes that does not involve the combustion of fossil fuels, including, but not limited to providing system voltage support, energy storage, interconnection of existing or new renewable generation, or the use of the generator step up transformers and substations for transmission or distribution purposes provided that such use, lease, sale, or other arrangement shall comply with existing law.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "small natural gas power plant" or "plant" means each of the seven electric generating power plants owned and operated by the authority located at six sites in Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Staten Island and one site in Brentwood, Suffolk county, which each use one or more simple cycle combustion turbine units, totaling eleven units, fueled by natural gas and which typically operate during periods of peak electric system demand.

27-d. Beginning in state fiscal year two thousand twenty-four--two thousand twenty-five, the authority is authorized, as deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, to make available an amount up to twenty-five million dollars annually to the department of labor to fund programs established or implemented by or within the department of labor, including but not limited to the office of just transition and programs for workforce training and retraining, to prepare workers for employment for work in the renewable energy field.

28. The authority may establish a subsidiary corporation for the purpose of forming a pure captive insurance company as provided in section seven thousand two of the insurance law. The members of such subsidiary corporation of the authority shall be the same persons holding the offices of members of the authority. The employees of any such subsidiary corporation, except those who are also employees of the authority, shall not be deemed employees of the authority.

29. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the authority is authorized, as deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, to enter into lease agreements with other state instrumentalities and municipal entities for the use of excess capacity in the authority's fiber optic communications infrastructure to provide affordable, high-speed broadband in unserved and underserved communities in the state.

(b) Any excess fiber optic communication infrastructure leased out by the authority to a state instrumentality or municipal entity pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be at a rate that is no greater than necessary to cover the cost of maintenance of such fiber optic communications infrastructure, provided that this paragraph shall not limit the authority from recovering other costs it incurs to make such excess capacity available in unserved and underserved communities in the state.

(c) Lease agreements authorized pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall allow for further sublease agreements between state instrumentalities and municipal entities and internet service providers for the use of such fiber optic communications infrastructure for the purpose of providing affordable, high-speed broadband in unserved and underserved communities in the state.

(d) Lease agreements authorized pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, and sublease agreements authorized pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision, shall be subject to review and comment by the division of broadband access within the empire state development corporation in consultation with the public service commission.

(e) Nothing in this subdivision is intended to limit, impair, or affect the legal authority of the authority that existed as of the effective date of this subdivision.

30. To establish decarbonization action plans for state-owned facilities as provided for in section ninety of the public buildings law, and to consult, cooperate, and coordinate with any state entity, as required or authorized in article four-D of the public buildings law.

The authority is authorized to allocate up to seventy megawatts of unallocated power from the Niagara project sold prior to the effective date of this paragraph as replacement power, up to thirty-eight and six-tenths megawatts of preservation power from the Saint Lawrence-FDR project which is relinquished or withdrawn after the effective date of this paragraph, and for the period ending on December thirty-first, two thousand six, up to an additional twenty megawatts of power from the Saint Lawrence-FDR project which is unallocated as of the effective date of this paragraph, for sale into the wholesale market, the net earnings from which and such other funds of the authority as deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, shall be used for energy cost savings benefits. Such energy cost savings benefits shall be made upon recommendation of the economic development power allocation board, pursuant to subdivision (h) of section one hundred eighty-three of the economic development law. For purposes of this paragraph, the term net earnings shall mean any excess of revenues earned from the sale of such power allocated to the wholesale market from the Niagara and Saint Lawrence-FDR projects over the revenues that would have been received had such firm power been allocated and sold on a firm basis by the authority prior to the effective date of this paragraph.

The governor shall establish a temporary commission on the future of New York state power programs for economic development as soon as practicable but no later than May first, two thousand six. On or before December first, two thousand six, the commission shall make recommendations to the governor and the legislature on whether to continue, modify, expand or replace the state's economic development power programs, including but not limited to the power for jobs program and the energy cost savings benefit program, and shall recommend legislative language necessary to implement its recommendations. The commission shall consist of eleven members, comprised of five members appointed by the governor, one of whom he or she shall designate as chairperson, two members by the speaker of the assembly, two members by the temporary president of the senate, one member by the minority leader of the assembly and one member by the minority leader of the senate.

§ 1005-a. Actions or contracts involving certain nuclear power plants. Whenever the authority undertakes or executes any action or contract involving the closure, maintenance, decommissioning or conversion of any nuclear power plant constructed by a utility corporation which has not entered commercial operation, the authority shall, in order to ensure that neither the authority nor its customers shall bear any of the costs associated therewith, provide for the full recovery from such corporation, its successors or assigns of:

(a) all direct and indirect costs and expenses incurred by the authority in connection with such actions or contracts;

(b) all direct and indirect costs incurred by the authority in connection with damages to third parties resulting from any actions of the authority in connection with such actions or contracts; provided, however, that the authority shall not be indemnified against damages for gross negligence or willful misconduct; and

(c) all damages incurred by the authority in connection with such actions or contracts other than damages resulting from its gross negligence or willful misconduct.

In no event shall the authority recover any costs or damages related to such actions or contracts from any of its customers other than such corporation its successors or assigns.

§ 1005-b. New York state canal corporation. 1. The public benefit corporation known as the "New York state canal corporation" (hereinafter referred to as the "canal corporation") created as a subsidiary corporation of the New York state thruway authority pursuant to chapter seven hundred sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-two is hereby continued and reconstituted as a subsidiary corporation of the authority and shall have only the power to operate, maintain, construct, reconstruct, improve, develop, finance, and promote all of the canals, canal lands, feeder canals, reservoirs, canal terminals, canal terminal lands and other property under the jurisdiction of the canal corporation pursuant to article one-A of the canal law (hereinafter referred to as the "canal system"). Reference in any provision of law, general, special or local, or in any rule, regulation or public document to the canal corporation or the canal corporation as a subsidiary of the New York state thruway authority shall be deemed to be and construed as a reference to the canal corporation continued by this section.

2. The management and administration of the canal corporation shall be an additional corporate purpose of the authority. To the extent that the trustees deem it feasible and advisable, the authority may transfer to the canal corporation any moneys, real, personal, or mixed property or any personnel in order to carry out the purposes of this section, provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to require the authority to apply any moneys, revenues or property or to take any action in a manner that would be inconsistent with the provisions of any bond or note resolution or any other contract with the holders of the authority's bonds, notes or other obligations.

3. The canal corporation and any of its property, functions, and activities shall have all of the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions and other exemptions of the authority and of the authority's property, functions, and activities. The canal corporation shall be subject to the restrictions and limitations to which the authority may be subject. The canal corporation may delegate to one or more of its members, or its officers, agents and employees, such duties and powers as it may deem proper.

4. Exclusive jurisdiction is conferred upon the court of claims to hear and determine the claims of any person against the canal corporation (a) for its tortious acts and those of its agents, and (b) for breach of a contract, relating to construction, reconstruction, improvement, maintenance or operation, in the same manner and to the extent provided by and subject to the provisions of the court of claims act with respect to claims against the state, and to make awards and render judgments therefor. All awards and judgments arising from such claims shall be paid out of moneys of the canal corporation.

5. The members of the canal corporation shall be the same persons holding the offices of trustees of the authority.

6. No officer or member of the canal corporation shall receive any additional compensation, either direct or indirect, other than reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties, by reason of his or her serving as a member, director, or trustee of the canal corporation.

7. The employees of the canal corporation shall not be deemed to be employees of the authority by reason of their employment by the canal corporation. All officers and employees of the canal corporation shall be subject to the provisions of the civil service law which shall apply to the canal corporation and such corporation shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the New York state department of civil service and the New York state civil service commission. The canal corporation shall participate in the New York state and local employees' retirement system. Nothing contained in a chapter of the laws of two thousand sixteen that added this section shall be construed to affect the rights and privileges of the canal corporation or any of its employees under any provisions of the civil service law or any existing or expired collective bargaining agreement in effect as of the effective date of transfer of the canal corporation from the thruway authority to the authority. Any such employee who at the time of such transfer shall have been in a negotiating unit represented by an employee organization which was certified or recognized pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law shall continue to be represented by said employee organization. There shall be no reduction of staff, loss of position, including partial displacement, such as reduction in the hours of non-overtime, wages, or employment benefits as a result of the transfer of the canal corporation from the thruway authority to the authority for twenty-four months following such transfer.

8. The fiscal year of the canal corporation shall be the same as the fiscal year for the authority.

9. The canal corporation shall have the power to:

(a) operate, maintain, construct, reconstruct, improve, develop, finance, and promote the canal system;

(b) sue and be sued;

(c) have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

(d) make and alter by-laws for its organization and internal management and make rules and regulations governing the use of its property and facilities;

(e) appoint officers and employees and fix their compensation;

(f) make and execute contracts and all other instruments necessary or convenient for the exercise of its powers and functions under this chapter;

(g) acquire, hold, and dispose of real or personal property for its corporate purposes;

(h) engage the services of private consultants on a contract basis for rendering professional and technical assistance and advice;

(i) procure insurance against any loss in connection with its activities, properties, and other assets, in such amount and from such insurers as it deems desirable;

(j) invest any funds of the canal corporation, or any other monies under its custody and control not required for immediate use or disbursement, at the discretion of the canal corporation, in obligations of the state or the United States government or obligations the principal and interest of which are guaranteed by the state or the United States government, or in any other obligations in which the comptroller of the state is authorized to invest pursuant to section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law;

(k) exercise those powers and duties of the authority delegated to it by the authority;

(l) prepare and submit a capital program plan pursuant to section ten of the canal law;

(m) approve and implement the New York state canal recreationway plan submitted pursuant to section one hundred thirty-eight-c of the canal law. The canal corporation's review and approval of the canal recreationway plan shall be based upon its consideration of a generic environmental impact statement prepared by the canal corporation in accordance with article eight of the environmental conservation law and the regulations thereunder. Prior to the implementation of any substantial improvement by the canal corporation on canal lands, canal terminals, or canal terminal lands, or the lease of canal lands, canal terminals, or canal terminal lands for substantial commercial improvement, the canal corporation, in addition to any review taken pursuant to section 14.09 of the parks, recreation and historic preservation law, shall conduct a reconnaissance level survey within three thousand feet of such lands to be improved of the type, location, and significance of historic buildings, sites, and districts listed on, or which may be eligible, for the state or national registers of historic places. The findings of such survey shall be used to identify significant historical resources and to determine whether the proposed improvements are compatible with such historic buildings, sites, and districts;

(n) enter on any lands, waters, or premises for the purpose of making borings, soundings, and surveys;

(o) accept any gifts or any grant of funds or property from the federal government or from the state or any other federal or state public body or political subdivision or any other person and to comply with the terms and conditions thereof; and

(p) waive any fee for a work permit which it has the power to issue if in its discretion the project which is subject to a work permit would add value to canal lands without any cost to the canal corporation, the authority, or the state.

10. (a) The canal corporation shall review the budget request submitted by the canal recreationway commission pursuant to section one hundred thirty-eight-b of the canal law.

(b) The canal corporation, on or before the fifteenth day of September of each year, shall submit to the director of the budget a request for the expenditure of funds available from the New York state canal system development fund pursuant to section ninety-two-u of the state finance law or available from any other non-federal sources appropriated from the state treasury.

(c) In the event that the request submitted by the canal corporation to the director of the budget differs from the request submitted by the commission to the canal corporation, then the request submitted by the canal corporation to the director of the budget shall specify the differences and shall set forth the reasons for such differences.

11. The canal corporation shall not have the power to issue bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, the canal corporation may agree to repay amounts advanced to the canal corporation by the authority and to evidence such agreement by delivery of a promissory note or notes to the authority.

12. The canal corporation may do any and all things necessary or convenient to carry out and exercise the powers given and granted by this section.

13. The authority and all other state officers, departments, boards, divisions, commissions, public authorities, and public benefit corporations may render such services to the canal corporation within their respective functions as may be requested by the canal corporation.

14. Whenever any state political subdivision, municipality, commission, agency, officer, department, board, division, or person is authorized and empowered for any of the purposes of this title to cooperate and enter into agreements with the authority, such state political subdivision, municipality, commission, agency, officer, department, board, division, or person shall have the same authorization and power for any such purposes to cooperate and enter into agreements with the canal corporation.

§ 1005-c. Additional powers of the authority to finance certain projects in connection with the New York state canal system. 1. (a) The authority is hereby authorized, as an additional corporate purpose thereof, to issue its bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for purposes of financing the construction, reconstruction, development and improvement of the New York state canal system.

(b) The authority shall issue any such bonds, notes, or evidences of indebtedness pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision on a basis subordinate in lien and priority of payment to the authority's senior lien indebtedness as the authority shall provide by resolution.

2. All of the provisions of this title relating to bonds, notes and other evidence of indebtedness, which are not inconsistent with this section, shall apply to obligations authorized by this section, including but not limited to the power to issue renewal notes or refunding bonds thereof.

3. Subject to agreements with noteholders or bondholders, the authority shall have the authority to fix and collect such fees, rentals and charges for the use of the canal system or any part thereof necessary or convenient, with an adequate margin of safety, to produce sufficient revenue to meet the expense of maintenance and operation and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of its notes or bonds, and to establish the rights and privileges granted upon payment thereof; provided, however, that tolls may only be imposed for the passage through locks and lift bridges by vessels which are propelled in whole or in part by mechanical power.

§ 1005-d. Sharing employees, services and resources; indemnity and defense. 1. For the purposes of this section, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings unless the context indicates another meaning or intent:

(a) "Department" means the department of transportation.

2. A shared services agreement may be executed between the department and the authority, canal corporation, or both of them, only for an emergency situation or extreme weather conditions, to share employees, services or resources as deemed appropriate including, but not limited to, for the performance of work and activities by the department on the facilities and property under the jurisdiction of the authority or canal corporation, and for the performance of work and activities by the authority or canal corporation on the facilities and property under the jurisdiction of the department. Such agreement or any project undertaken pursuant to such an agreement shall not be deemed to impair the rights of bondholders and may provide for, but not be limited to, the management, supervision and direction of such employees' performance of such services. Such agreement shall provide that the term shall not be longer than ten days. All shared employees shall remain employees of their respective employers and all applicable collectively bargained agreements shall remain in effect for the entire length of the shared services agreement. Further, such shared services agreement shall not amend, repeal or replace the terms of any agreement that is collectively negotiated between an employer and an employee organization, including an agreement or interest arbitration award made pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law.

3. The authority shall defend any unit, entity, officer or employee of the department, using the forces of the department of law pursuant to subdivision eleven of this section in any action, proceeding, claim, demand or the prosecution of any appeal arising from or occasioned by the acts or omissions to act in the performance of the functions of the authority or canal corporation pursuant to a shared services agreement.

4. Defense pursuant to subdivision three of this section shall be conditioned upon the full cooperation of the department.

5. The authority shall indemnify and hold harmless any unit, entity, officer or employee of the department in the amount of any judgment obtained against the department or in the amount of any settlement the department enters into with the consent of the authority for any and all claims, damages or liabilities arising from or occasioned by the acts or omissions to act of the authority or canal corporation pursuant to a shared services agreement; provided, however, that the act or omission from which such judgment or settlement arose occurred while the authority or canal corporation was acting within the scope of its functions pursuant to a shared services agreement. No such settlement of any such action, proceeding, claim or demand shall be made without the approval of the authority's board of trustees or its designee.

6. Any claim or proceeding commenced against any unit, entity, officer or employee of the authority or canal corporation that arises pursuant to any shared services agreement shall not be construed in any way to impair, alter, limit, modify, abrogate or restrict any immunity available to or conferred upon any unit, entity, officer or employee of the authority or canal corporation, or to impair, alter, limit, modify, abrogate or restrict any right to defense and indemnification provided for any governmental officer or employee by, in accordance with, or by reason of, any other provision of state or federal statutory or common law.

7. (a) The state shall defend any unit, entity, officer or employee of the authority and canal corporation using the forces of the department of law in any action, proceeding, claim, demand or the prosecution of any appeal arising from or occasioned by the acts or omissions to act in the performance of the functions of the department pursuant to a shared services agreement.

(b) Defense pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be conditioned upon the full cooperation of the authority and canal corporation.

(c) The state shall indemnify and hold harmless any unit, entity, officer or employee of the authority or canal corporation in the amount of any judgment obtained against the authority or canal corporation in the amount of any settlement the authority or canal corporation enters into with the consent of the state for any and all claims, damages or liabilities arising from or occasioned by the acts or omissions to act on behalf of the department pursuant to a shared services agreement, provided, however, that the act or omission from which such judgment or settlement arose occurred while the department was acting within the scope of its functions pursuant to a shared services agreement. Any such settlement shall be executed pursuant to section twenty-a of the court of claims act.

(d) Any claim or proceeding commenced against any unit, entity, officer or employee of the department pursuant to any shared services agreement shall not be construed in any way to impair, alter, limit, modify, abrogate or restrict any immunity available to or conferred upon any unit, entity, officer or employee of the department, or to impair, alter, limit, modify, abrogate or restrict any right to defense and indemnification provided for any governmental officer or employee by, in accordance with, or by reason of, any other provision of state or federal statutory or common law.

(e) Any payment made pursuant to this subdivision or any monies paid for a claim against or settlement with the department, authority or canal corporation pursuant to this subdivision and pursuant to a shared services agreement shall be paid from appropriations for payment by the state pursuant to the court of claims act.

8. This section shall not in any way affect the obligation of any claimant to give notice to the state, authority, or canal corporation under section ten and section eleven of the court of claims act or any other provision of law provided, however, that notice served upon the state, authority, or canal corporation who is a party to the shared services agreement shall be valid notice on all parties to the agreement, when such claim arises out of such shared services agreement. The state, authority and canal corporation shall notify each other when they receive a notice of claim, notice of intention to make a claim or a claim arising out of such agreement.

9. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to impair, alter, limit or modify the rights and obligations of any insurer under any insurance agreement.

10. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when employed pursuant to a shared services agreement, employees of the authority, canal corporation and department shall be deemed employees of all such entities and the state for purposes of the workers' compensation law.

11. At the request of the authority or canal corporation, services and assistance and legal services for the authority or canal corporation shall be performed by forces or officers of the department and the department of law respectively, and all other state officers, departments, boards, divisions and commissions shall render services within their respective functions.

12. The authority shall prepare and submit to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the attorney general, and the comptroller on or before the first day of February of each year, a report detailing each specific instance of resource sharing between the department, the authority, and the canal corporation undertaken pursuant to this section during the preceding calendar year.

§ 1006. Power to compel attendance of witnesses. For the purpose of exercising its powers and performing its duties hereunder and of securing such information as it may deem necessary hereunder, the authority shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents. The power hereby conferred upon the authority may be exercised by any one or more of the trustees if he or they are authorized so to act on behalf of the authority by resolution or by law. A subpoena issued under this section shall be regulated by the civil practice law and rules.

§ 1007. Acquisition of property. If, for any of the purposes hereunder, including temporary construction purposes and the making of additions or improvements, the authority shall find it necessary or convenient for it to acquire any real property as herein defined, whether for immediate or future use, then the authority may find and determine that such property is required for a public use, and upon such due determination, such property shall be and shall be deemed to be required for such public use until otherwise determined by the authority and with the exceptions hereinafter specifically noted such determination of fact shall not be affected by the fact that such property has theretofore been taken for, or is then devoted to, a public use; but the public use in the hands or under the control of the authority shall be deemed superior to the public use in the hands of any other person, association or corporation. If the authority is unable to agree for the acquirement of any such property, or if the owner thereof shall be incapable of disposing of the same, or if, after diligent search and inquiry, the name and residence of any such owner cannot be ascertained, or if any such property has been acquired or attempted to be acquired and title or other rights therein have been found to be invalid or defective, the authority may acquire such property by condemnation under and pursuant to the provisions of this title.

1. When any real property within this state is sought to be acquired by condemnation, the authority shall cause a survey and map to be made thereof, and shall cause such survey and map to be filed in its office. There shall be annexed to such survey and map a certificate executed by the chief engineer of the authority, or by such other officer or employee as may be designated by the trustees, stating that the property or interest therein described in such survey and map are necessary for its purposes.

2. Upon filing such survey and map the authority shall petition a special term of the supreme court held in the judicial district in which the property is located, or the county court of any county where such property is located, for the condemnation of such property or interest therein, as have not been otherwise acquired. Such petition shall be generally in the form prescribed by section four of the condemnation law, so far as consistent herewith. Such petition, together with a notice of pendency of the proceeding, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of such county and shall be indexed and recorded as provided by law. A copy of such petition together with a notice of the presentation thereof to such special term of the supreme court or to the county court shall be served upon the owners as provided in sections five and six of the condemnation law. The authority may cause a duplicate original affidavit of the service thereof to be recorded in the books used for recording deeds in the office of the county clerk of the county wherein the property described in such notice is situated, and the recording of such affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of due service thereof.

3. At any time after the recording of the petition and notice as above provided the authority may enter upon and use and occupy all the parcels of real estate described in the proceedings for the condemnation thereof, provided that it shall first deposit with the court a sum equal to the assessed valuation of such real property, or in the event that the assessed valuation thereof cannot readily be ascertained, such sum as in its judgment shall be sufficient as compensation for the real property acquired. The sum so deposited shall be applied as provided in section twenty-four of the condemnation law. Upon the recording of the petition and notice and the making of the deposit, the owner or person in possession of such real property shall deliver possession thereof to the authority upon demand, and in case possession is not delivered when demanded, or demand is not convenient because of absence of the owner or inability to locate or determine the owner, the authority may apply to the court without notice for an order requiring the sheriff to put it into possession of such real property. Such an order must be executed as if it were an execution for the delivery of the possession of the property.

4. The proceedings thereafter shall be in the manner prescribed by the condemnation law so far as consistent herewith.

5. The commissioners appointed to ascertain and determine the compensation which ought justly to be made to the owners of property or interests therein appraised by them as provided in section thirteen of the condemnation law shall make their report of the value thereof to the supreme court within one hundred days from the date of their qualification.

6. The persons or corporations whose property shall have been taken by condemnation and who shall have agreed upon the compensation to be paid therefor in settlement of the proceeding, or to whom an award of compensation shall have been made by the court, shall be entitled to payment of the agreed or awarded compensation within three calendar months after the date of the agreement upon the amount of the compensation or of the entry of the order confirming the report of the commissioners of appraisal, together with interest upon the amount of such compensation from the time of the entry and appropriation thereof by the authority, to the date of payment of such compensation; but such interest shall cease upon the service by the authority, upon the person or corporation entitled thereto, of a fifteen days' notice that the authority is ready and willing to pay the amount of such compensation upon the presentation of proper proofs and vouchers. Such notice shall be served personally or by registered mail and publication thereof at least once a week for three successive weeks in a daily newspaper, having a general circulation in the county where such property or any part thereof is located.

7. The authority may, at its option, acquire such real property within the state of New York, under the general condemnation law or, in the event it is a licensee of the federal power commission it may acquire such real property as is necessary for its purposes through the exercise of the right of eminent domain as provided in section twenty-one of the federal power act, as amended.

8. The authority and its duly authorized agents and employees may enter upon any real property for the purpose of making the surveys or maps mentioned in this section, or for such other surveys or examinations of real property as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of this title.

9. The term "real property" as used in this title is defined to include lands, structures, franchises and interests in land, including lands under water and riparian rights, and any and all other things and rights usually included within the said term, and includes also any and all interests in such property less than full title, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also all claims for damages for such real estate.

10. The authority may determine what real property is reasonably necessary for the construction or operation of any project authorized by this title including transmission facilities. If funds are made available by the authority to the state for payment of the cost and expense of the acquisition thereof, the commissioner of transportation, when requested by the authority, shall acquire such real property in the name of the state by appropriation and, where necessary, remove the owner or occupant thereof and obtain possession, according to the procedure provided by section thirty of the highway law, insofar as the same may be applicable. The authority shall have the right to possess and use for its corporate purposes, so long as its corporate existence shall continue, all such real property and rights in real property so acquired.

Claims for the value of the property appropriated and for legal damages caused by any such appropriation shall be adjusted and determined by the commissioner with the approval of the authority, or by the court of claims as provided in said section thirty. When a claim has been filed with the court of claims, the claimant shall cause a copy of such claim to be served upon the authority and the authority shall have the right to be represented and heard before said court. All awards and judgements arising from such claims shall be paid out of moneys of the authority.

The authority may determine whether any property appropriated pursuant to this section, while under its jurisdiction, should be sold or exchanged in whole or in part, on terms beneficial to the state and the authority, and in all cases where such a determination is made, the authority may sell or exchange such property. Where the authority finds it practicable and reasonable, the former owner, from whom the property was appropriated, his heirs, successors in interest and assigns, shall be given the first opportunity to purchase such property at its fair market value. In order to carry any such sale or exchange into effect the authority is hereby authorized to execute and deliver in the name of the people of the state a quit claim of such property. Money proceeds of any such sale shall be retained by the authority. Title to property received upon such exchange shall be acquired in the name of the state, and the authority shall have the same rights of occupation and use thereof and shall be vested with the same rights with respect thereto as is provided in this section and in section one thousand eight as to property of the state. Where property appropriated pursuant to this section is required by the Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation, created pursuant to public law three hundred fifty-eight of the 83rd Congress, or any successor corporation, the authority may convey such property to such corporation, and, if the license issued to the authority by the federal power commission shall so require, such conveyance may be made without consideration.

The attorney general is hereby authorized and empowered to certify to such Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation, the right, title or interest vested in the name of the people of the state of New York in and to property appropriated pursuant to this section and proposed to be conveyed to such Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation as hereinbefore provided.

§ 1008. Consent of state. The state of New York hereby consents to the occupation and use by the authority of any and all property of the state of whatever kind or character on the Niagara river or within the international rapids section of the Saint Lawrence river, and hereby vests the authority with and delegates to it the right to exercise any and every right and power of the state in connection therewith, whether proprietary or sovereign in character, which the state itself might exercise, provided that such consent and delegation of power shall not permit the impairment or limit or prevent the future improvement of the navigability of the Niagara river or the international rapids section of the Saint Lawrence river, consistent with the maintenance of such projects, but on the contrary the projects shall be such as will improve and benefit commerce and navigation therein and provided further that the authority shall have no power to limit, waive or surrender any right or interest of the state of New York in such rivers or the use thereof.

§ 1009. Contracts negotiated by authority. Contracts negotiated by the authority as provided in sub-paragraph five or six of section one thousand five of this title shall be entered into and executed as follows:

1. After agreement upon the terms of any such contracts shall have been reached by the authority and its co-party or co-parties, the authority shall promptly transmit a copy of such proposed contract to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the assembly, the chairman of the assembly committee on ways and means, the temporary president of the senate and the minority leader of the senate and the chairman of the senate finance committee and shall hold a public hearing or hearings upon the terms thereof. At least thirty days' notice of such hearing shall be given by publication once in each week during such period in each of six newspapers within the state to be selected by the authority. Copies of proposed contracts shall be available for public inspection during such period of thirty days at the office or offices of the authority and at such other places throughout the state as it may designate.

2. Following such public hearing, the authority shall reconsider the terms of the proposed contract or contracts and shall negotiate such changes and modifications in the contract or contracts as it then deems necessary or advisable.

3. When such contract or contracts are finally agreed upon in terms satisfactory to the authority and its co-party or co-parties, and which the authority believes to be in the public interest, the authority shall thereupon report the proposed contract or contracts, together with its recommendations and the record of the public hearings thereon, to the speaker of the assembly, the chairman of the assembly committee on ways and means, the temporary president of the senate, the chairman of the senate finance committee and the governor. The governor shall, within sixty days thereafter, indicate his approval or disapproval thereof and give his reasons therefor.

4. If the governor shall approve such contract, then the same shall be executed by the chairman and secretary of the authority and it shall thereupon come into full force and effect and be binding upon the authority and all other parties thereto in accordance with its terms.

§ 1009-a. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any corporate purpose and renew from time to time any notes by the issuance of new notes, whether the notes to be renewed have or have not matured. The authority may issue notes partly to renew notes or to discharge other obligations then outstanding and partly for any other purpose. The notes may be authorized, sold, executed and delivered in the same manner as bonds. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing notes of the authority or any issue thereof may contain any provisions which the authority is authorized to include in any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds of the authority or any issue thereof, and the authority may include in any notes any terms, covenants or conditions which it is authorized to include in any bonds. All notes shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any of its moneys or revenues, subject only to any contractual rights of the holders of any of its notes or other obligations then outstanding.

§ 1010. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for the purpose of financing any project authorized by this title, including the acquisition of any real or personal property or facilities deemed necessary by the authority.

2. In anticipation of the sale of such bonds the authority may issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of such original notes. Such notes shall be paid from any moneys of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged, or from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. Such notes shall not be issued in an amount in excess of the amount of bonds which the authority is authorized to issue, less the amount of any bonds or other notes theretofore issued and outstanding. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as the bonds. Such notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which a bond resolution of the authority may contain.

3. Except as may be otherwise expressly provided by the authority, the bonds and notes of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds or notes pledging any particular moneys or revenues.

4. The authority shall have power from time to time, whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinbefore described. Refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold with the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded.

5. The bonds may be issued payable in annual installments or may be issued as term bonds or the authority, in its discretion, may issue bonds of both types. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the trustees of the authority and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding fifty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. In the event that term bonds are issued, the resolution authorizing the same may make such provisions for the establishment and management of adequate sinking funds for the payment thereof, as the authority may deem necessary. The bonds or notes may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine. Pending preparation of the definite bonds, the authority may issue interim receipts which shall be exchanged for such bonds.

6. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds to be authorized as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of the project or any revenue producing contract or contracts made by the authority with any individual, partnership, corporation or association to secure the payment of the bonds or of any particular issue of bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of any project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the duties of the authority to holders of its obligations and providing the rights and remedies of such holders in the event of a default.

7. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, any such resolution or resolutions shall contain a covenant by the authority that it will at all times maintain rates, fees or charges sufficient to pay, and that any contracts entered into by the authority for the sale, transmission or distribution of power shall contain rates, fees or charges sufficient to pay the costs of operation and maintenance of the project, the principal of and interest on any obligations issued pursuant to such resolution as the same severally become due and payable, and to maintain any reserves required by the terms of such resolution or resolutions.

8. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys or of a revenue producing contract or contracts made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys or proceeds of any contract or contracts so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

9. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds or notes shall be liable personally on the bonds or notes or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

10. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds or notes. The authority may hold, pledge, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

11. Any bonds or notes issued by the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever, except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds and notes shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries except when any such individual fiduciary shall be acting in such capacity with one or more corporate co-fiduciaries. The bonds and notes are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1010-a. Deposit and investment of moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the comptroller as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the comptroller on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person as the authority may authorize to make such requisition. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the comptroller or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the authority shall have power, subject to the approval of the comptroller, to contract with the holders of any of its notes or bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority, or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of notes or bonds or in any way to secure notes or bonds, and to carry out any such contract. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of notes or bonds or in any way to secure notes or bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

Moneys of the authority not required for immediate use may, in the discretion of the authority, be invested by the comptroller in obligations of the United States government or of the state of New York.

Subject to agreements with noteholders and bondholders and the approval of the comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

§ 1011. Agreement of the state. 1. The state of New York does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any obligations issued under this title, and with those parties who may enter into contracts with the authority pursuant to the provisions in sub-paragraph five or six of section one thousand five above, that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority until such obligations together with the interest thereon are fully met and discharged and/or such contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority, provided that nothing herein contained shall preclude such limitation or alteration if and when adequate provision shall be made by law for the protection of the holders of such obligations of the authority or those entering into such contracts with the authority. The authority as agent for the state is authorized to include this pledge and undertaking for the state in such obligations or contracts.

2. Nothing in this title shall be construed as diminishing or enlarging any valid existing rights under any license heretofore issued pursuant to the provisions of the federal power act.

§ 1012. Exemption from taxation. It is hereby found and declared that the projects authorized by this title are for the aid and improvement of commerce and navigation and that such aid and improvement of commerce and navigation and the development, sale and distribution of power is primarily for the benefit of the people of the state of New York, for the improvement of their health and welfare and material prosperity, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in undertaking such projects and in carrying out the provisions of this title, and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it for such projects or upon its activities in the operation and maintenance thereof, provided that nothing herein shall prevent the authority from entering into agreements to make payments in lieu of taxes with respect to property acquired for any project where such payments are based solely on the value of real property without regard to any improvement thereof by the authority and where no bonds to pay any costs of such project were issued prior to January first, nineteen hundred seventy-two.

The securities and other obligations issued by the authority, their transfer and the income therefrom shall, at all times, be free from taxation within this state. It is furthermore declared that the object and purpose of this title is that such projects shall be in all respects self-supporting.

§ 1012-a. Emergency contributions to county of Niagara and city of Niagara Falls. 1. On June seventh, nineteen hundred fifty-six a collapse of the rock wall of the Niagara river resulted in the substantial destruction of a hydro-electric power generating plant which annually produced more than three billion kilowatt hours of low-cost electric energy, most of which was used by industrial plants employing great numbers of workers in the city of Niagara Falls and vicinity. These industries would be forced to curtail their operations drastically or abandon them and thousands of jobs would be lost if the industries were not able to obtain necessary power at high cost on a temporary basis from the hydro-electric power commission of Ontario. This commission is using not only Ontario's share of the water of the Niagara river under the treaty signed on February twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred fifty, between the United States and Canada, but also a large part of New York's share of such water. To provide for the retention and expansion of existing industry and the attraction of new industry vital to the economy of the area and to the defense of the United States, it is essential that power authority of the state of New York complete a power project to utilize all of the waters of the Niagara available in the United States. The destruction caused by the rock slide resulted in reducing to the extent of some ten million dollars the total valuation of real property subject to taxation in the city of Niagara Falls. This will result in a temporary tax loss to the county of Niagara and the city of Niagara Falls of approximately seven hundred thousand dollars per year with resulting hardship to taxpayers. An increase in the tax base sufficient to offset such loss cannot be brought about until industrial activities in the area are expanded and increased through the availability of low-cost power from such new New York hydro-electric power project. An emergency justifying financial relief to the county of Niagara and city of Niagara Falls exists and will continue until such a project is completed. It is recognized that public authorities constitute valuable governmental entities in the state, performing important functions on a businesslike basis through the use of private funds borrowed from prudent investors without state or municipal credit, and that the integrity and independence of these authorities must be maintained and their present exemption from taxation protected.

2. Power authority of the state of New York is hereby authorized to include in financing the cost of its Niagara river project a total sum of (1) three million dollars in addition to that otherwise required and to contribute such additional total sum as emergency relief to the county of Niagara and city of Niagara Falls on the basis of decreasing annual allotments over a five-year construction and expansion period; such annual allotments shall be allocated for school and other purposes in the same proportion as other moneys collected as real property taxes in such city; and (2) the power authority of the state of New York is hereby authorized to expend the sum of one and one-half million dollars for local improvements in the city of Niagara Falls incidental to or reasonably related to the Niagara power project of the authority.

§ 1013. Repayment of state appropriations. All appropriations made by the state to the authority shall be treated as advances by the state to the authority, and shall be repaid to it without interest either out of the proceeds of securities, or other obligations issued by the authority for the construction of any project pursuant to the provisions of this title, or by the delivery of non-interest bearing obligations of the authority to the state for all or any part of such advances, or out of excess revenues from such project subject however to any pledges of such revenues made pursuant to any resolution or resolutions of the authority authorizing the issuance of obligations of the authority issued prior to nineteen hundred and sixty.

 § 1014. Public service law not applicable to authority; inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. The rates, services and practices relating to the generation, transmission, distribution and sale by the authority, of power to be generated from the projects authorized by this title shall not be subject to the provisions of the public service law nor to regulation by, nor the jurisdiction of the department of public service. Except to the extent article seven of the public service law applies to the siting and operation of a major utility transmission facility as defined therein, article VIII of the public service law applies to the siting and operation of a major electric generation facility or a major electric transmission facility as defined therein, and article ten of the public service law applies to the siting of a major electric generating facility as defined therein, and except to the extent section eighteen-a of the public service law provides for assessment of the authority for certain costs relating thereto, the provisions of the public service law and of the environmental conservation law and every other law relating to the department of public service or the public service commission or to the environmental conservation department or to the functions, powers or duties assigned to the division of water power and control by chapter six hundred nineteen of the laws of nineteen hundred twenty-six, shall so far as is necessary to make this title effective in accordance with its terms and purposes be deemed to be superseded, and wherever any provision of law shall be found in conflict with the provisions of this title or inconsistent with the purposes thereof, it shall be deemed to be superseded, modified or repealed as the case may require.

* NB Effective until December 31, 2040

* § 1014. Public service law not applicable to authority; inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. The rates, services and practices relating to the generation, transmission, distribution and sale by the authority, of power to be generated from the projects authorized by this title shall not be subject to the provisions of the public service law nor to regulation by, nor the jurisdiction of the department of public service. Except to the extent article seven of the public service law applies to the siting and operation of a major utility transmission facility as defined therein, and article ten of the public service law applies to the siting of a major electric generating facility as defined therein, and except to the extent section eighteen-a of the public service law provides for assessment of the authority for certain costs relating thereto, the provisions of the public service law and of the environmental conservation law and every other law relating to the department of public service or the public service commission or to the environmental conservation department or to the functions, powers or duties assigned to the division of water power and control by chapter six hundred nineteen of the laws of nineteen hundred twenty-six, shall so far as is necessary to make this title effective in accordance with its terms and purposes be deemed to be superseded, and wherever any provision of law shall be found in conflict with the provisions of this title or inconsistent with the purposes thereof, it shall be deemed to be superseded, modified or repealed as the case may require.

§ 1015. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any term or provision of this title shall be declared unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part by a court of competent jurisdiction, then to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective such term or provision shall be enforced and effectuated, nor shall such determination be deemed to invalidate the remaining terms or provisions hereof.

§ 1017. Actions against authority. 1. In any action founded upon tort a notice of claim shall be required as a condition precedent to the commencement of an action or special proceeding against the authority or any officer, appointee, agent or employee thereof, and the provisions of section fifty-e of the general municipal law shall govern the giving of such notice. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued.

* TITLE 1-A

LONG ISLAND POWER AUTHORITY

* NB There are 2 A5 T1-A's

 § 1020. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "Long Island power authority act".
* NB There are 2 § 1020's

 § 1020-a. Declaration of legislative findings and declarations. The legislature hereby finds and declares that:

Constantly escalating and excessive costs of electricity in the counties of Suffolk and Nassau and that portion of the county of Queens served by the Long Island lighting company (hereinafter referred to as the "service area") pose a serious threat to the economic well-being, health and safety of the residents of and the commerce and industry in the service area.

There is a lack of confidence that the needs of the residents and of commerce and industry in the service area for electricity can be supplied in a reliable, efficient and economic manner by the Long Island lighting company (hereinafter referred to as "LILCO").

Such excessive costs and lack of confidence have deterred commerce and industry from locating in the service area and have caused existing commerce and industry to consider seriously moving out of the service area.

The decisions by LILCO to commence construction of the Shoreham nuclear power plant and thereafter to continue such construction were imprudent.

The investment of LILCO in the Shoreham nuclear power plant has created significant rate increases, straining the economic capabilities of ratepayers in the service area, and likely will require further substantial rate increases if such plant is placed in service.

It is uncertain whether the Shoreham nuclear plant ever will go into commercial service, or if it does whether its reliability, cost of construction, operation and maintenance will be such as to provide sufficient, reliable and economic electric service to ratepayers in the service area. The very substantial financial strain of the investment in the Shoreham nuclear plant has required LILCO to suspend dividends on its common and preferred stock, severely threatening the continued economic viability of LILCO.

For all the above reasons, a situation threatening the economy, health and safety exists in the service area.

Dealing with such a situation in an effective manner, assuring the provision of an adequate supply of electricity in a reliable, efficient and economic manner, and retaining existing commerce and industry in and attracting new commerce and industry to the service area, in which a substantial portion of the state's population resides and which encompasses a substantial portion of the state's commerce and industry, are hereby expressly determined to be matters of state concern within the meaning of paragraph three of subdivision (a) of section three of article nine of the state constitution.

Such matters of state concern best can be dealt with by replacing such investor owned utility with a publicly owned power authority. Such an authority can best accomplish the purposes and objectives of this title by implementing, if it then appears appropriate, the results of negotiations between the state and LILCO. In such circumstances, such an authority will provide safe and adequate service at rates which will be lower than the rates which would otherwise result and will facilitate the shifting of investment into more beneficial energy demand/energy supply management alternatives, realizing savings for the ratepayers and taxpayers in the service area and otherwise restoring the confidence and protecting the interests of ratepayers and the economy in the service area. Moreover, in such circumstances the replacement of such investor owned utilities by such an authority will result in an improved system and reduction of future costs and a safer, more efficient, reliable and economical supply of electric energy. The legislature further finds that such an authority shall utilize to the fullest extent practicable, all economical means of conservation, and technologies that rely on renewable energy resources, cogeneration and improvements in energy efficiency which will benefit the interests of the ratepayers of the service area.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-a's

 § 1020-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. "Acquire" means, with respect to any right, title or interest in or to any property, the act of taking by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or acquisition by purchase or otherwise.

2. "Act" means the Long Island power authority act, being title one-A of article five of the public authorities law, as added by this title.

3. "Authority" means the Long Island power authority created by section one thousand twenty-c of this title.

4. "Board" means the board of trustees of the authority.

5. "Bonds" or "notes" mean the bonds, notes or other obligations issued by the authority pursuant to this title.

6. "Fair market value" means the value of property, real, personal or mixed, which would be obtained in an arm's length transaction between an informed and willing buyer under no compulsion to buy, and an informed and willing seller under no compulsion to sell.

7. "Federal government" means the United States of America and any agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

8. "Final determination" or "finally determined" means a judicial decision (i) by the highest court of competent jurisdiction, or (ii) by a court of competent jurisdiction from which no appeal has been taken and the time within which to appeal has expired.

9. "Governing body" means, with respect to any municipality, the body having charge of the fiscal affairs of such municipality.

10. "LILCO" means the Long Island lighting company, its subsidiaries and their successors and assigns, other than the authority.

11. "Municipality" means any city, town, village, county, municipal corporation, district corporation, district or other political subdivision of the state.

12. "OCLD" means the original cost of assets, less depreciation.

12-a. "Project" means an action undertaken by the authority that:

(i) Causes the authority to issue bonds, notes or other obligations, or shares in any subsidiary corporation, or

(ii) Significantly modifies the use of an asset valued at more than one million dollars owned by the authority or involves the sale, lease or other disposition of such an asset, or

(iii) Commits the authority to a contract or agreement with a total consideration of greater than one million dollars and does not involve the day to day operations of the authority.

13. "Prudent utility practices" at a particular time means any of the practices, methods, and acts, which, in the exercise of reasonable judgment in light of the facts (including but not limited to the practices, methods and acts engaged in or approved by a significant portion of the gas or the electrical utility industry, as the case may be, prior thereto) known at the time the decision was made, would have been expected to accomplish the desired result at the lowest reasonable cost consistent with reliability, safety and expedition. Prudent utility practice is not intended to be limited to the optimum practice, method or act, to the exclusion of all others, but rather to be a spectrum of possible practices, methods or acts. In evaluating whether any matter conforms to prudent utility practice, the parties shall take into account the fact that the authority is a corporate municipality of the state with the statutory duties and responsibilities thereof.

14. "Real property" means lands, structures, franchises and interests in land, including lands under water and riparian rights, and any and all other things and rights usually included within such term, and includes also any and all interests in such property less than full title, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also all claims for damages for such real estate.

15. "RCNLD" means the reproduction cost of new assets, less depreciation.

16. "Security" means any note, stock (whether common or preferred), bond, debenture, evidence of indebtedness, transferable share, voting-trust certificate or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly known as a "security", or any certificate of interest or participation in, temporary or interim certificate for, receipt for, or warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase any of the foregoing.

17. "Service area" means the counties of Suffolk and Nassau and that portion of the county of Queens constituting LILCO's franchise area as of the effective date of this title.

18. "Shoreham plant" means the nuclear powered facility designed to generate electric power owned by LILCO and located in Shoreham, New York.

19. "State" means the state of New York.

20. "State agency" means any board, authority, agency, department, commission, public corporation, body politic or instrumentality of the state.

21. "Trustees" means the trustees of the authority appointed or elected, as the case may be, pursuant to section one thousand twenty-d of this title.

22. "Valuation date" means (i) the effective date of this title, (ii) the date of the taking of the stock or assets pursuant to this title or (iii) such earlier or later date or, in the case of equity or debt securities, such period of trading days in the primary established market in which such securities are traded, as may be determined to be necessary to exclude from the determination of the market value thereof any enhancement or depreciation in value arising from the announcement, expectation or accomplishment of the taking by the exercise of the power of eminent domain or otherwise, or speculative market activity intended to cause or having the effect of causing an increase or decrease in such market value.

23. "Service provider" means the entity under contract with the authority to provide management and operation services associated with the authority's electric transmission and distribution system and any subsidiary of such entity that provides such services under contract.

24. "Operations services agreement" means an agreement and any amendments thereto between the Long Island lighting company dba LIPA or the authority and the service provider to provide management and operation services associated with the authority's electric transmission and distribution system.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-b's

 § 1020-c. Long Island power authority; creation. 1. For the purpose of effectuating the policy declared in section one thousand twenty-a of this title, there is hereby created a corporate municipal instrumentality of the state to be known as the "Long Island power authority", which shall be a body corporate and politic and a political subdivision of the state, exercising essential governmental and public powers.

2. The area of operations of the authority shall be the service area.

3. The authority is not created or organized, and its operations shall not be conducted, for the purpose of making a profit. No part of the revenues or assets of the authority shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its trustees or officers or any other private persons, except as herein provided for actual services rendered.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-c's

 § 1020-d. Board of trustees. 1. Starting on January first, two thousand fourteen, the board of the authority shall be constituted and consist of nine trustees all of whom shall be residents of the service area, five of whom shall be appointed by the governor, one of whom the governor shall designate as chair, and serve at his or her pleasure, two of whom shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate, and two of whom shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly. One of the governor's appointees shall serve an initial term of two years; one of the governor's appointees shall serve an initial term of three years; and three of the governor's appointees shall serve an initial term of four years. One of the appointees of the temporary president of the senate and one of the appointees of the speaker of the assembly shall serve initial terms of two years; and one appointee of the temporary president of the senate and one appointee of the speaker of the assembly shall serve initial terms of three years. Thereafter, all terms shall be for a period of four years. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of trustee by death, resignation or otherwise, the respective appointing officer shall appoint a successor who shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term.

2. No trustee shall receive a salary, but each shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable expenses in the performance of duties assigned hereunder.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, no trustee, officer or employee of the state, any state agency or municipality appointed a trustee shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his or her office or employment by reason of his or her acceptance of a trusteeship on the authority, his or her service thereon or his or her employment therewith.

4. All trustees appointed under this section shall have relevant utility, corporate board or financial experience.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-d's

 § 1020-e. Officers and employees; expenses. The board, or the chairman pursuant to authority duly delegated to him, from time to time shall hire, without regard to any personnel or civil service law, rule or regulation of the state and in accordance with guidelines adopted by the authority such employees and consultants, including without limitation those in the areas of engineering, marketing, finance, appraisal, accounting and law, as it may require for the performance of its duties and shall prescribe the duties and compensation of each officer and employee, provided, however, that if any such employees are hired as a consequence of an acquisition of all the stock or assets of LILCO, they shall be hired subject and be entitled to all applicable provisions of (i) any existing contract or contracts with labor unions and (ii) all existing pension or other retirement plans. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law, the board may determine that, if any pension or retirement plan becomes inapplicable or is terminated, all or such class or classes of employees of the authority as the board may determine may elect to become members of the New York state employees' retirement system on the basis of compensation payable to them by the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-e's

 § 1020-f. General powers of the authority. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the authority shall have all of the powers necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes and provisions of this title, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the power:

(a) To sue and be sued in all courts and to participate in actions and proceedings, whether judicial, administrative, arbitrative or otherwise;

(b) To have a corporate seal, and to alter such seal at pleasure, and to use it by causing it or a facsimile to be affixed or impressed or reproduced in any other manner;

(c) To appoint officers, agents and employees, without regard to any personnel or civil service law, rule or regulation of the state and in accordance with guidelines adopted by the authority, prescribe their duties and qualifications and fix and pay their compensation. By January first, two thousand fourteen, the authority, through its governance committee, shall amend such guidelines to require that staffing at the authority is kept at levels only necessary to ensure that the authority is able to meet obligations with respect to its bonds and notes and all applicable statutes and contracts, and oversee the activities of the service provider;

(d) To purchase, receive, take by grant, gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, employ, use and otherwise deal in and with, real or personal property whether tangible or intangible, or any interest therein, within the state;

(e) To acquire real or personal property, whether tangible or intangible, including without limitation property rights, interests in property, franchises, obligations, contracts, and debt and equity securities, by the exercise of the power of eminent domain; provided, however, that any real property acquired by the exercise of the power of eminent domain must be located within the service area;

(f) To sell, convey, lease, exchange, transfer, abandon or otherwise dispose of, or mortgage, pledge or create a security interest in, all or any of its assets, properties or any interest therein, wherever situated;

(g) To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, hold, make a tender offer for, vote, employ, sell, lend, lease, exchange, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, mortgage, pledge or grant a security interest in, use and otherwise deal in and with, bonds and other obligations, shares or other securities (or interests therein) issued by others, whether engaged in a similar or different business or activity;

(h) To make and execute agreements, contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient in the exercise of the powers and functions of the authority under this title, including contracts with any person, firm, corporation, municipality, state agency or other entity in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred three of the general municipal law, and all state agencies and all municipalities are hereby authorized to enter into and do all things necessary to perform any such agreement, contract or other instrument with the authority;

(i) To borrow money at such rate or rates of interest as the authority may determine, issue its notes, bonds or other obligations to evidence such indebtedness, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property or any interest therein, wherever situated;

(j) To arrange for guarantees of its bonds, notes or other obligations by the federal government or by any private insurer or otherwise, and to pay any premiums therefor;

(k) To issue such bonds or notes or other obligations whether or not the income therefrom is exempt from federal income taxation;

(l) To purchase bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority at such price or prices as the authority may determine;

(m) To lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested;

(n) To procure insurance against any loss in connection with its properties or operations in such amount or amounts and from such insurers, including the federal government, as it may deem necessary or desirable, and to pay any premiums therefor;

(o) To create or acquire one or more wholly owned subsidiaries in accordance with section one thousand twenty-i of this title to carry out all or any part of the purposes of this title;

(p) To negotiate and enter into agreements with trustees or receivers appointed by United States bankruptcy courts or federal district courts or in other proceedings involving adjustment of debts and authorize legal counsel for the authority to appear in any such proceedings;

(q) To file a petition under chapter nine of title eleven of the United States bankruptcy code or take other similar action for the adjustment of its debts;

(r) To enter into agreements to purchase power from the power authority of the state of New York, the state, any state agency, any municipality, any private entity, or any other available source at such price or prices as may be negotiated; provided, however, that the authority shall not have the power to enter into any agreement or any negotiation for the purchase of power from the dominion of Canada, or any political subdivision, public authority or private corporation therein; but may enter into an agreement with the power authority of the state of New York for the purchase of such power;

(s) To enter into management agreements for the operation of all or any of the property or facilities owned by the authority;

(t) To transfer any asset of the authority to one or more (i) private utility or (ii) municipal gas or electric agency established pursuant to article fourteen-A of the general municipal law, for such consideration and upon such terms as the authority may determine to be in the best interest of the gas and electric ratepayers in the service area;

(u) Rate plans. Subject to subdivision six of section one thousand twenty-k of this title to fix rates and charges for the furnishing or rendition of gas or electric power or of any related service at the lowest level consistent with sound fiscal and operating practices of the authority and which provide for safe and adequate service. In implementing this power:

1. The authority and the service provider shall, on or before February first, two thousand fifteen, submit for review to the department of public service a three-year rate proposal for rates and charges to take effect on or after January first, two thousand sixteen.

2. The authority and the service provider shall thereafter submit for review to the department of public service any rate proposal that would increase the rates and charges and thus increase the aggregate revenues of the authority by more than two and one-half percent to be measured on an annual basis; provided, however, that the authority may place such rates and charges into effect on an interim basis, subject to prospective rate adjustment; provided, further, that a final rate plan issued by the authority that would not so increase such rates and charges shall not be subject to the requirements of paragraph four of this subdivision and shall be considered final for the purposes of review under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. The authority and/or the service provider may otherwise submit for review to such department any rate proposal irrespective of its effect on revenues.

2-a. The authority and the service provider shall not submit any rate proposal that shall assess any fee, penalty or other charge of any kind for the voluntary termination of electric service to any residential customer for the purpose of utilizing alternative sources of electric generation in excess of that charged to customers who terminate their electric service for any other reason.

3. The authority shall not fix any final rates and charges proposed that would not be subject to review by the department of public service pursuant to paragraphs one and two of this subdivision until after holding public hearings thereon upon reasonable public notice, with at least one such hearing to be held each in the county of Suffolk and the county of Nassau.

4. Any recommendations associated with a rate proposal submitted pursuant to paragraphs one and two of this subdivision shall be provided by the department of public service to the board of the authority immediately upon their finalization by the department. Unless the board of the authority makes a preliminary determination in its discretion that any particular recommendation is inconsistent with the authority's sound fiscal operating practices, any existing contractual or operating obligations, or the provision of safe and adequate service, the board shall implement such recommendations as part of its final rate plan and such final determination shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of this subdivision and be considered final for the purposes of review under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. The board shall make any such preliminary determination of inconsistency within thirty days of receipt of such recommendations, with notice and the basis of such determination being provided to the department of public service, and contemporaneously posted on the websites of the authority and its service provider. The board shall thereafter, within thirty days of such posting and with due advance notice to the public, hold a public hearing with respect to its preliminary determination of inconsistency. At such hearing, the department of public service shall present the basis for its recommendations, the board shall present the basis for its determination of inconsistency and the service provider may present its position. The authority and the service provider may, during the time period before such public hearing reach agreement with the department on disputed issues. Within thirty days after such public hearing, the board of the authority shall announce its final determination and planned implementation with respect to any such recommendations. The authority's final determination of inconsistency shall be subject to any applicable judicial review proceeding, including review available under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

(v) To enter upon any lands and within any building whenever in its judgment it may be necessary for the purpose of making surveys and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title;

(w) To enter into agreements to pay annual sums in lieu of taxes to any municipality with respect to any real property which is owned by the authority and is located in such municipality;

(x) To maintain an office or offices at such place or places in the state as it may determine;

(y) To make any inquiry, investigation, survey or study which the authority may deem necessary to enable it effectively to carry out the provisions of this title and, for that purpose, to take and hear proofs and testimony, and with the prior vote of a majority of the board which majority vote shall include the vote of the chairman to compel the attendance of witnesses and to require the production of records, books, papers, accounts and other documents, including public records, and to make copies thereof or extracts therefrom; and

(z) To adopt, revise, amend and repeal rules and regulations with respect to its operations, properties and facilities as may be necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of this title, subject to the provisions of the state administrative procedure act.

(aa) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary the authority shall not undertake any project without the approval of the public authorities control board created pursuant to article one-A of this chapter. Each application to the public authorities control board shall contain a project description and an explanation of why the project meets the standards for project approval set forth in this subdivision. The public authorities control board shall only approve a project proposed by the authority upon its determination that:

1. the project is financially feasible as the standard is defined in article one-A of this chapter;

2. the project does not materially adversely affect overall real property taxes in the service area;

3. the project is anticipated to result generally in lower utility rates in the service area; and

4. the project will not materially adversely affect overall real property taxes or utility rates in other areas of the state of New York.

(bb) Comprehensive and regular management and operations audits. 1. The authority and the service provider shall cooperate in the undertaking and completion of a regular and comprehensive management and operations audit conducted pursuant to the requirements of this subdivision and paragraph (d) of subdivision three of section three-b of the public service law. Such audit shall review and evaluate the overall operations and management of the authority and service provider, including such operations and management in the context of the authority's duty to set rates at the lowest level consistent with standards and procedures provided in subdivision (u) of this section, and include, but not be limited to: (i) the service provider's construction and capital program planning in relation to the needs of customers for reliable service; (ii) the overall efficiency of the authority's and service provider's operations; (iii) the manner in which the authority is meeting its debt service obligations; (iv) the authority's Fuel and Purchased Power Cost Adjustment clause and recovery of costs associated with such clause; (v) the authority's and service provider's annual budgeting procedures and process; (vi) the application, if any, of the performance metrics designated in the operations services agreement and the accuracy of the data relied upon with respect to such application; and (vii) the authority's compliance with debt covenants.

2. The department of public service shall notify the authority that said department is in the process of initiating a comprehensive management and operations audit as described in paragraph one of this subdivision in a manner that ensures the timeliness of such audit, and in accordance with the following timeframe: the first comprehensive management and operations audit shall be initiated as of the effective date of chapter eight of the laws of two thousand twelve and undertaken in a manner and to an extent that is practicable in the context of the authority's transition to a new management service structure; the second comprehensive management and operations audit shall be initiated no later than December fifteenth, two thousand sixteen; and all additional comprehensive management and operations audits shall be initiated at least once every five years thereafter. Within a reasonable time after such notification to the authority, said department or the independent auditor retained by the authority to undertake such audit shall hold public statement hearings, with proper notice, in both Nassau and Suffolk counties for the purpose of receiving both oral and written comments from the public on matters related to such audit as described in paragraph one of this subdivision.

3. Each such audit shall be completed within eighteen months of initiation absent an extension for good cause shown by the department of public service or the independent auditor under contract with the authority with notice of such extension to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, and the chairs of the authority and the department of public service. Such audit shall be provided to the board of the authority immediately upon its completion. The department of public service shall provide notice of completion of such audit to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, and the minority leaders of the senate and assembly, and the authority, upon receipt of such audit, shall post a copy of such audit, including findings and recommendations, on its website and the website of the service provider. Unless the board of the authority makes a preliminary determination that any particular finding or recommendation contained in such audit is inconsistent with the authority's sound fiscal operating practices, any existing contractual or operating obligation, or the provision for safe and adequate service, the board shall implement or cause its service provider to implement such findings and recommendations in accordance with the timeframe specified under such audit.

4. The board of the authority shall make any preliminary determination of inconsistency with respect to any such finding or recommendation within thirty days of receipt of the audit, with notice and the basis of such determination being provided to the department of public service. Such notice and basis shall be posted contemporaneously on the authority's website and the website of the service provider and the board shall, within thirty days of such posting and with due advance notice to the public, hold a public hearing with respect to its preliminary determination of inconsistency. At such hearing the department of public service or the independent auditor responsible for undertaking such audit shall present the basis for its findings and recommendations and the board shall present the basis for its determination of inconsistency and the service provider may present is position. The authority, service provider and auditor may during the time period prior to such public hearing reach agreement on disputed issues. Within thirty days after such public hearing, the board of the authority shall announce its final determination and planned implementations with respect to any such findings and/or recommendations. The authority's final determination of inconsistency shall be subject to any applicable judicial review proceeding, including review available under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that a comprehensive and regular management and operations audit as conducted in accordance with this subdivision indicates a finding of fraud, abuse or mismanagement by a service provider of the authority, and upon a finding by the public service commission that reasonable cause exists for the basis of such indication, the public service commission may order that any recommendations contained in the regular management and operations audit be implemented. The public service commission may also provide in their order, the date in which the recommendations be fully implemented. Failure to comply with any such order can result in the imposition of a civil penalty by the public service commission against the service provider.

(cc) To prepare an emergency response plan pursuant to this subdivision. 1. The service provider shall, in consultation with the authority, prepare and maintain an emergency response plan (i) to assure the reasonably prompt restoration of service in the case of an emergency event, defined for purposes of this subdivision as an event where widespread outages have occurred in the authority's service territory due to a storm or other causes beyond the control of the authority and the service provider, (ii) consistent with the requirements of paragraph (a) of subdivision twenty-one of section sixty-six of the public service law and any regulations and orders adopted thereto, and (iii) establishing the separate responsibilities of the authority and service provider. Such emergency response plan shall include plans setting forth how the communication and coordination of efforts between the authority, service provider, authority employees, service provider employees, authority company crews, service provider company crews, mutual aid crews, other utilities, local governments and any service provider or other entity performing services to assist the authority shall occur. Such emergency response plan shall include identification of and outreach plans for customers who have documented their need for essential electricity for medical needs, which shall include but not be limited to, apnea monitors for infants, cuirass respirators, hemodialysis machines, intravenous feeding machines, intravenous medical infusion machines, oxygen concentrators, positive pressure respirators, respirators/ventilators, rocking bed respirators, suction machines, and tank type respirators.

2. On or before February third, two thousand fourteen, the authority and service provider shall submit an emergency response plan to the department of public service for review. Contemporaneously with such submission, the authority shall provide notice of such proposed plan to the secretary of state for publication in the state register, the authority and service provider each shall post such plan on their websites and otherwise make such plan available for review in-person, and afford members of the public an opportunity to submit written comments and oral comments pursuant to at least one hearing to be held each in the county of Suffolk and the county of Nassau. Such written comments must be submitted by March fourteenth, two thousand fourteen. The authority and service provider shall provide a copy of all written comments they receive and a transcript of such public hearings to the department of public service for its consideration in reviewing the emergency response plan. The department shall provide any recommendations to the authority and service provider with respect to such plan on or before April fifteenth, two thousand fourteen. Such plan must be made final by June second, two thousand fourteen. For each year thereafter, the service provider shall submit an emergency response plan to the department of public service, and such department shall provide its recommendations, in accordance with a schedule to be established by such department and that is consistent with the schedule associated with such department's review of similar such plans provided by electric corporations pursuant to subdivision twenty-one of section sixty-six of the public service law.

3. By June second, two thousand fourteen, and by June first annually thereafter, the authority and service provider shall jointly certify to the department of homeland security and emergency services that the emergency response plan ensures, to the greatest extent feasible, the timely and safe restoration of energy services after an emergency consistent with the requirements of paragraph (a) of subdivision twenty-one of the public service law and the department's recommendations. The filing of such emergency response plan shall also include a copy of all written mutual assistance agreements among utilities. The authority and service provider shall file with the county executives of Nassau and Suffolk county and the mayor of the city of New York the most recent version of the emergency response plan, and make sure that such amended versions are timely filed.

4. Starting in calendar year two thousand fourteen, the service provider annually shall undertake at least one drill to implement procedures to practice its emergency response plan. The service provider shall notify and allow participation in such drill of all appropriate municipal emergency responders and officials.

5. If, during an emergency event, electric service is not restored in three days, the service provider shall within sixty days from the date of full restoration file with the department a report constituting a review of all aspects of the preparation and system restoration performance during the event, and shall thereafter take into consideration any recommendations made by the department associated with such review.

(dd) On or before January first, two thousand fifteen, and by January first of each calendar year thereafter, to submit for review to the department of public service a report detailing the service provider's planned capital expenditures.

(ee) On or before July first, two thousand fourteen, and annually thereafter, to submit for review to the department of public service any proposed plan related to implementing energy efficiency measures, distributed generation or advanced grid technology programs for the purpose provided pursuant to paragraph (g) of subdivision three of section three-b of the public service law.

(ff) To assist and cooperate with the department of public service with respect to any review undertaken pursuant to section three-b of the public service law, including providing the department with reasonable access to all facilities and premises owned or operated by the authority or its service provider, allowing review of all books and records of the authority and its service provider, providing copies of requested documents, allowing interviews of all appropriate personnel, and responding in a reasonable and timely manner to any inquiries or reporting requests made by the department; provided, however, that the obligations set forth in this subdivision shall not extend to affiliates of the service provider.

(gg) Renewable generation and energy efficiency programs. 1. The authority in coordination with the service provider, the power authority of the state of New York and the New York state energy research and development authority shall, to the extent the authority's rates are sufficient to provide safe and adequate transmission and distribution service, and the measures herein, undertake actions to design and administer renewable energy and energy efficiency measures in the service area, with the goal of continuing and expanding such measures that cost-effectively reduce system-wide peak demand, minimize long-term fuel price risk to rate payers, lower emissions, improve environmental quality, and seek to meet New York state climate change and environmental goals. Such actions shall also include implementation of any renewable energy competitive procurement or feed-in-tariff programs that were approved by the authority as of the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand thirteen which added this subdivision.

2. The service provider shall consider, consistent with maintaining system reliability, renewable generation and energy efficiency program results and options in establishing capital plans.

(hh) Starting in calendar year two thousand fifteen, the authority and the service provider shall submit to the department of public service for review, any and all data, information and reports which set forth the service provider's actual performance related to the metrics in the operations services agreement, including the authority's evaluation thereof, no less than forty-five days prior to the authority's determination of the service provider's annual incentive compensation.

(ii) The service provider shall assist and cooperate with the department of public service with respect to providing any data or information necessary for the department to post a compensation statement for the service provider in accordance with subdivision three of section one hundred eleven-a of the public service law.

* (jj) As deemed feasible and advisable by the trustees, to enter into contracts with the power authority of the state of New York for the provision of bill credits generated by the production of renewable energy by a renewable energy system developed, constructed, owned, or contracted for by the power authority of the state of New York under the renewable energy access and community help program established pursuant to subdivision twenty-seven-b of section one thousand five of this article and, unless such end-use electricity consumers opt out, to provide such bill credits to low-income or moderate-income end-use electricity consumers in disadvantaged communities, including such end-use electricity customers who have or who reside in buildings that have on-site net-metered generation or who participate in a community choice aggregation or community distributed generation project.

* NB There are 2 sb (jj)'s

* (jj) The authority and its service provider shall permit a residential customer to designate a third party to receive notice of the total amount due or past due on all bills, the amounts of any payments paid by or on behalf of such residential customer, and copies of all notices relating to termination of service and notices relating to collection of amounts due sent to such residential customer, provided that the designated third party indicates in writing a willingness to receive such notices, and provided further, where a residential customer opts for third-party notifications, such residential customer may opt to continue to receive such notices.

* NB There are 2 sb (jj)'s

(kk) The authority and its service provider shall permit a landlord, upon written request of both the landlord and tenant, to designate a third party to be notified of all requests for discontinuance of service to units occupied by such tenant, provided that the designated third party indicates in writing a willingness to receive such notices, and provided further, where the tenant and landlord customers opt for third-party notifications, such tenant and landlord customers may opt to continue to receive such notices.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-f's

§ 1020-g. Powers to provide and maintain generating, transmission and resource recovery waste to energy facilities. Without limiting the generality of the powers conferred upon the authority by section one thousand twenty-f of this title, the authority shall have the specific power:

(a) Subject to the provisions of subdivision one of section ten hundred twenty-s of this title, to acquire, construct, improve, rehabilitate, maintain and operate such generating, transmission and related facilities as the authority deems necessary or desirable to maintain an adequate and dependable supply of gas and electric power within the service area;

(b) Subject to the provisions of subdivision one of section ten hundred twenty-s of this title, to acquire, construct, improve, rehabilitate, maintain and operate such hydroelectric or energy storage projects within the state as it deems necessary or desirable to contribute to the adequacy, economy and reliability of the supply of electric power and energy or to conserve fuel;

(c) Subject to the provisions of subdivision one of section ten hundred twenty-s of this title, to determine the location, type, size, construction, lease, purchase, ownership, acquisition, use and operation of any generating, transmission or other related facility, provided, however, that in making such determinations relating to electric power facilities the authority shall give primary consideration to the construction of energy efficient facilities, energy conservation, load management programs, and cogeneration in the service area;

(d) To proceed with the physical construction or completion of any generating, transmission or related facility;

(e) To apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal and state governments, for such licenses, permits or approval of its plans or projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and to accept such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies or officials, upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate;

(f) To institute suit, or to apply to any legislative body for legislation, or to take such other action as it may deem necessary or advisable in the furtherance of the purposes of this title and for the protection of its rights, if for any reason the authority shall fail to secure any such license, permit or approval as it may deem necessary or advisable;

(g) To study means of maintaining the customer base in, and attracting commerce and industry to the service area;

(h) To implement programs and policies designed to provide for the interconnection of: (i) (A) solar electric generating equipment owned or operated by residential customers, (B) farm waste electric generating equipment owned or operated by customer-generators, (C) solar electric generating equipment owned or operated by non-residential customers, (D) micro-combined heat and power generating equipment owned, leased or operated by residential customers, (E) fuel cell electric generating equipment owned, leased or operated by residential customers, and (F) micro-hydroelectric generating equipment owned, leased or operated by customer-generators and for net energy metering consistent with section sixty-six-j of the public service law, to increase the efficiency of energy end use, to shift demand from periods of high demand to periods of low demand and to facilitate the development of cogeneration; and (ii) wind electric generating equipment owned or operated by customer-generators and for net energy metering consistent with section sixty-six-l of the public service law.

(i) To develop, with public participation, a comprehensive least-cost plan which shall consider practical and economical use of conservation, renewable resources, and cogeneration for providing service to its customers;

(j) To cooperate with and to enter into contractual arrangements with private utility companies or public entities:

(i) with respect to the construction and operation of facilities by the authority and the sale of all or part of the output therefrom;

(ii) with respect to the construction, completion, acquisition, ownership and/or operation of generating facilities, fuel, docks, sidings, loading or unloading equipment, storage facilities and other subsidiary facilities and the disposition of the output of such generating facilities; and

(iii) with respect to the construction, acquisition, ownership, operation and/or use of transmission facilities;

(k) To cooperate with and to enter into contractual arrangements with municipalities with respect to the construction, improvement, rehabilitation, ownership and/or operation of generating facilities;

(l) To cooperate with and to enter into contractual arrangements with the New York state energy research and development authority in connection with the planning, siting, development, construction, operation and maintenance of generating facilities of the authority utilizing new energy technologies;

(m) Subject to the provisions of section ten hundred twenty-aa of this title, to construct, maintain and operate resource recovery waste to energy facilities; and

(n) After the establishment of Long Island Power Authority (LIPA) and the commencement of its function as a utility, LIPA shall acquire from LILCO all franchise and utility service responsibilities for all ultimate consumers of gas and electricity within LILCO's former service territory, including the responsibility to provide safe and adequate service.

 § 1020-h. Acquisition of property, including the exercise of the power of eminent domain. 1. The legislature hereby expressly finds and determines:

(a) The acquisition by the authority, through purchase or the exercise of the power of eminent domain, of either the securities or assets of LILCO whichever is less expensive for the ratepayers, as the authority may determine will be just to the ratepayers in the service area, is the most appropriate means of dealing with the emergency involving the economy, health and safety of the residents and the industry and commerce in the service area, notwithstanding the fact that LILCO presently may be devoted to a public use, since the public use of such property by the authority is hereby deemed to be superior to the public use of such property by any other person, association, or corporation.

(b) The authority, prior to exercising its power of eminent domain to acquire the stock or assets of LILCO, shall enter into negotiations with LILCO for the purpose of acquiring such stock or assets upon such terms as the authority, in its sole discretion, determines will result in rates equal to or less than the rates which would result if LILCO were to continue in operation.

(c) The situs of all stock issued by LILCO, a New York corporation, is the state of New York.

(d) The compensation paid by the authority to LILCO shall be just to the ratepayers in the service area who must pay such compensation.

(e) If the authority determines that it is the stock of LILCO that should be taken, the proper measure of damages shall be the fair market value thereof as evidenced by the price of such stock on the exchange on which they are traded on the valuation date since there is an established market for such stock that is reflective of its value. In no event, however, shall consequential or severance damages be awarded if control of LILCO shall have been taken by the authority.

(f) If the authority determines that it is the assets of LILCO that should be taken, fair market value would not constitute just compensation to LILCO since there is an insufficient market in the usual sense for its assets to ascertain the value thereof from the market. In determining the compensation payable for such assets, there shall be taken into consideration the capitalization of LILCO's expected future earnings.

(g) LILCO has no reasonable expectation of realizing actual earnings from the Shoreham plant or of giving effect to any earnings or returns which may have been reflected on the books of LILCO for accounting purposes. Moreover, it would not be reasonable, under current and reasonably foreseeable circumstances, to expect that the Shoreham plant would be reproduced by a public or private utility in LILCO's present position.

(h) LILCO would have to phase in over a long period of time any rate increases based on the costs of the Shoreham plant.

(i) The public service commission has imposed a limitation on the earnings which LILCO may realize on its interest in the Nine Mile Point nuclear power facility.

(j) The public service commission has imposed on LILCO imprudence penalties with respect to the Shoreham plant.

(k) In determining just compensation, the following factors shall be evaluated in deciding whether OCLD or RCNLD or neither constitutes the proper basis:

(i) LILCO is a regulated utility. Under the laws of the state providing for the regulation of utilities, LILCO's future earnings are restricted to the permitted rate of return times LILCO's OCLD.

(ii) LILCO presently is being operated as an enterprise the economic viability of which is dependent upon extraordinary financial stability adjustments by the public service commission. Such extraordinary and unprecedented rate relief was granted by the public service commission in order to provide cash flow relief to prevent LILCO's bankruptcy with the expectation that ratepayers would receive the full credit of such in lower rates, and that the public service commission required such extraordinary rate relief to be discontinued in the event that LILCO filed a petition for relief in a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Act or if a final order for relief was entered involuntarily under such act. LILCO's lack of profitability results not from any repressive or other improper action taken by any governmental entity but from such factors as mismanagement, imprudent decisions regarding the Shoreham plant and general inefficiency.

(iii) There is no reasonable probability that, after condemnation of its assets, LILCO will reproduce them.

(iv) Use of RCNLD may result in an unwarranted windfall to LILCO and an unjustifiable penalty to the ratepayers who would have to pay it, since to the extent an award based on RCNLD would exceed an award based on OCLD, it would reflect to a large extent the effects of inflation which would not increase the value of the property to LILCO or its rate base for ratemaking purposes or to the authority for the purpose of continuing to generate and transmit electric power within the service area.

(l) Neither consequential nor severance damages are proper if the authority condemns all the assets of LILCO.

(m) In determining whether LILCO has any going concern value, the court shall take into consideration the fact that LILCO's continued operations are dependent upon the extraordinary financial stability adjustments granted by the public service commission.

(n) Such an acquisition by the authority of the securities or assets of LILCO serves the public purposes of assuring the provision of an adequate supply of gas and electricity in a reliable, efficient and economic manner and retaining existing commerce and industry in and attracting new commerce and industry to the service area, all of which are matters of state-wide concern.

2. In furtherance of the legislative findings and determinations set forth in subdivision one of this section, the authority is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire, through purchase or the exercise of the power of eminent domain, all or any part of the securities or assets of LILCO, as the authority in its sole discretion may determine; provided, however, that prior to proceeding with any such acquisition under this title, the board shall determine, in its sole discretion based upon such engineering, financial and legal data, studies and opinions as it may deem appropriate, that the rates projected to be charged after such acquisition and for such reasonable period of time as the board may determine will not be higher than the rates projected to be charged by LILCO during such period if such acquisition had not occurred.

3. The authority also is authorized and empowered, in its discretion, to make a tender offer or tender offers for all or any portion of the securities of LILCO at such price or prices as the authority may determine to be appropriate; provided, however that such tender offer or tender offers, in the sole judgment of the authority, will result in rates less than the rates which would result from continued operation by LILCO.

(a) The authority shall make such offer or offers or any adjustment thereof prior to acquiring any such securities or any assets of LILCO through the exercise of the power of eminent domain. The authority may pay for such securities in cash or by exchanging therefor the authority's bonds or a combination thereof.

(b) In the case of a tender offer in which a subsidiary of the authority acquires at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent of LILCO's common stock, such subsidiary may merge with LILCO and either continue in existence or dissolve, as it may determine.

(c) The provisions of section five hundred thirteen and article sixteen of the business corporation law and any other provisions of law relating to procedures in a corporate takeover, including without limitation chapter nine hundred fifteen of the laws of nineteen hundred eighty-five, shall not be applicable to the actions of the authority pursuant to this title.

(d) In determining whether acceptance of such a tender offer by the authority is in the best interests of LILCO, the directors of LILCO shall consider not only the dollar amount of such offer but the interests of employees, suppliers, ratepayers, creditors (including holders of LILCO's debt securities), and the economy of the service area and the state.

4. The authority, should it determine, in its sole discretion, to acquire the stock or assets of LILCO by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, shall not take title to nor possession of such stock or assets prior to a final determination of the amount of compensation to be paid for such stock or assets nor prior to a determination by the authority, in its sole discretion that the taking of such stock or assets will result in rates less than the rates which would result from continued operation by LILCO. Notwithstanding the provisions of the eminent domain procedure law, the provisions of subdivisions five and six shall apply to the acquisition of the stock or property of LILCO by the power of eminent domain, provided however, to the extent the provisions herein do not supersede or conflict with the provisions of such law the provisions of such law shall apply.

5. Procedure for acquisition of LILCO stock. (a) In the event the authority determines to acquire the stock of LILCO by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, having first entered into negotiations with LILCO for the purchase of such stock, the authority need not hold any public hearing on its intention to condemn such stock or on the question of the public use of such action, such finding having been made by the legislature herein. The authority shall commence such acquisition by serving upon LILCO and filing with the county clerk of the county in which the principal office of LILCO is located a notice describing the stock being acquired, the valuation date, as determined by the authority, and such additional information as the authority may reasonably deem necessary to facilitate the process of condemnation and payment. The notice shall state that it is a notice of pendency of an acquisition proceeding and that the authority will elect whether or not to pay the amount of such award when it has been finally determined. The authority also shall cause a copy of such notice (i) to be served upon the stock transfer agent or agents designated by LILCO for the transfer and registration of its stock and (ii) to be published in at least five successive issues of a daily newspaper of national circulation.

(b) Upon receipt of such notice, the stock transfer agent or agents, at the expense of the authority, shall forthwith serve upon each of the registered owners of such stock a copy of such notice. Service shall be deemed sufficient if mailed by certified or registered mail to the address of each such owner as shown on LILCO's stock transfer books. Service of the notice upon the stock transfer agent or agents and its publication shall not be jurisdictional prerequisites to the validity of the taking. Failure to notify any owner of stock to be taken will not invalidate any proceedings brought hereunder or any title acquired by the authority.

(c) Upon filing of the notice described in paragraph (a) hereof, the authority shall petition a special term of the supreme court in the judicial district in which LILCO has its principal office for the acquisition of the stock. Such petition shall be generally in the form prescribed by the eminent domain procedure law so far as consistent herewith.

(d) The supreme court in the district in which LILCO has its principal office shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all claims arising from the acquisition of stock by the exercise of the power of eminent domain and shall hear such claims without a jury and without referral to a referee or commissioners. Notwithstanding the provisions of section nine hundred one of the civil practice law and rules, upon motion to the court by the authority, the condemnation proceeding for the acquisition of stock shall be maintained as a class action, pursuant to remaining provisions of article nine of the civil practice law and rules, and the owners of the stock shall be deemed a defendant class on the basis of the following express legislative findings:

(i) the class of LILCO stock owners is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;

(ii) the issue of valuation of LILCO stock is common to all LILCO stock owners and there are questions of law or fact common to the members of such class which predominate over any questions affecting only individual members;

(iii) the claims or defenses, if any, of any representative owner of LILCO stock to acquisition thereof by the authority are typical of the claims or defenses of the class;

(iv) there are representative parties who will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; and

(v) the prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to the issue of valuation and other issues common to the class.

(e) The procedure for determining just compensation shall be in the manner prescribed by the eminent domain procedure law, except to the extent such procedure is inconsistent with the provisions of this title, in which case the provisions of this title shall control.

(f) Upon the entry of an award finally determining just compensation for the stock, the authority shall have sixty days after receipt of notice of entry of such award within which to elect to proceed with the taking or to abandon such acquisition as provided in subdivision ten hereof. Notice of such election shall be served by the authority and by the stock transfer agent in the manner described in paragraph (a) hereof. If the authority elects to proceed with the acquisition, it shall deposit with the supreme court in which the condemnation proceeding was held an amount equal to the award within one hundred eighty days after receipt by the authority of notice of entry of such award. Upon the making of such deposit, the authority shall notify LILCO's stock transfer agent in writing of such deposit. The sum so depositied shall be applied as provided in the eminent domain procedure law. Upon making such deposit and giving such notice to the stock transfer agent, title to all stock described in the notice of taking shall immediately vest in the authority and the authority shall have the immediate right thereto. In the event the authority elects to abandon the acquisition, the provisions of subdivision ten hereof shall apply.

(g) It shall be a condition precedent to the payment of compensation for any such securities that such securities be surrendered to the supreme court or to such other entity, including the issuer's stock transfer agent, as the supreme court may direct.

6. Procedure for acquisition of LILCO assets. (a) If the authority shall find it necessary or convenient to acquire any real or personal property of LILCO, (other than securities), whether for immediate or future use, then the authority need not determine that such property is required for public use, since the legislature already has made such determination in this title which determination shall be binding for all purposes. The authority need not publish any notice of its intention to acquire such property or hold any public hearing with respect thereto or to the public use of such action.

(b) When any real property of LILCO within this state is sought to be acquired by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, and after the authority shall have entered into negotiations with LILCO for the purchase of such property, the authority shall cause a survey and map to be made thereof and shall cause such survey and map to be filed in its office and in the office of the county clerk in which such property is located. There shall be annexed to such survey and map a certificate executed by the chief engineer of the authority, or by such other officer or employee as may be designated by the board, stating that the property or interest therein described in such survey and map is necessary for its purposes.

(c) Upon filing such survey and map, the authority shall petition a special term of the supreme court in the judicial district in which the property is located for the acquisition of such property or interest therein. Such petition shall describe the property being acquired, the valuation date, as determined by the authority, and such additional information as the authority may reasonably deem necessary to facilitate the process of condemnation and payment. The petition shall state that the authority will elect whether or not to pay the amount of such award when it has been finally determined. In all other respects, such petition shall be generally in the form prescribed by the eminent domain procedure law, so far as consistent herewith. Such petition, together with a notice of pendency of the proceeding, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the property is located and shall be indexed and recorded as provided by law. A copy of such petition, together with a notice of the presentation thereof to such special term of the supreme court, shall be served upon the owners of such property as provided in the eminent domain procedure law. The authority may cause a duplicate original affidavit of the service thereof to be recorded in the books used for recording deeds in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the property described in such notice is located, and the recording of such affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of due service thereof.

(d) Subsequent proceedings shall be conducted generally in the manner prescribed by the eminent domain procedure law except to the extent the provisions thereof are inconsistent with the provisions of this title, in which case the provisions of this title shall control.

(e) In any proceeding involving the valuation of LILCO property taken by the authority the supreme court shall ascertain and determine just compensation for the property taken as of the valuation date, giving due consideration to the applicable findings and determinations of the legislature set forth in subdivision one hereof.

(f) Should LILCO's property be taken by the exercise of the power of eminent domain and if LILCO shall have agreed upon the compensation to be paid therefor in settlement of the proceeding, if, LILCO shall be entitled to payment of the agreed or awarded compensation within one hundred eighty days after the date of the agreement upon the amount of the compensation or of the entry of the award, together with interest upon the amount of such compensation from the time of acquisition thereof by the authority to the date of payment of such compensation; but such interest shall cease upon the service by the authority, upon the person or corporation entitled thereto, of a fifteen days' notice that the authority is ready and willing to pay the amount of such compensation upon the presentation of proper proofs and vouchers. Such notice shall be served personally or by registered mail and publication thereof shall be made at least once a week for three successive weeks in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the county in which such property or any part thereof is located.

(g) Upon the entry of an award finally determining just compensation for the property of LILCO, the authority shall have sixty days after receipt of notice of entry of such award within which to elect to proceed with the taking or to abandon such acquisition as provided in subdivision ten hereof. Notice of such election shall be served by the authority on the owners of such property in the manner described in paragraph (c) hereof. If the authority elects to proceed with the acquisition, it shall deposit with the supreme court in which the condemnation proceeding was held an amount equal to the award within one hundred eighty days after receipt by the authority of notice of entry of such award. Upon the making of such deposit, the authority shall notify LILCO in writing of such deposit. The sum so deposited shall be applied as provided in the eminent domain procedure law. Upon making such deposit and giving such notice to LILCO, title to all property described in the notice of taking shall immediately vest in the authority and the authority shall have the immediate right thereto. The order setting forth the award, together with evidence from the clerk of the court of receipt of the amount of the award, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the property is located and shall be indexed and recorded in the same manner as a notice of pendency under the eminent domain procedure law. The owner or person in possession of such property shall deliver possession thereof to the authority upon demand, and in case possession is not delivered when demanded or demand is not convenient because of absence of the owner or inability to locate or determine the owner, the authority may apply to the court without notice for an order requiring the sheriff to put it into possession of such real property. Such an order shall be executed as if it were an execution for the delivery of the possession of the property. In the event the authority elects to abandon the acquisition, the provisions of subdivision ten hereof shall apply.

7. At any time the authority and its duly authorized agents and employees may, on reasonable notice and during business hours, (i) enter upon any real property proposed to be acquired for the purpose of making the surveys or maps mentioned in this section, or of making such other surveys, inspections or examinations of real and personal property and (ii) inspect and make copies of the books and records of the issuer of such securities, all as the authority may deem necessary or convenient for the purposes of this title.

8. Upon the acquisition of all the outstanding shares of stock of a corporate issuer representing all the voting rights and equity thereof, the authority shall as soon as reasonably practicable take all steps necessary to assure that the rights and claims of all the holders of any other stock and debt securities and all other creditors thereof are as secure as they were immediately prior to the acquisition by the authority. Nothing herein shall prohibit the authority from taking any appropriate and prudent action to renegotiate and restructure such debt or from purchasing the preferred stock and debt securities issued by such corporation at such prices as the authority may determine. The authority may also exchange its bonds for any outstanding preferred stock or debt securities with the consent of the holders of such preferred stock or debt securities.

9. As soon as practicable after the authority has acquired sufficient shares of LILCO stock to do so or after it has acquired all the property of LILCO pursuant to this title, the authority shall forthwith close and decommission the Shoreham plant and shall investigate and develop alternative uses, if any, for such plant.

10. If the authority determines, in its sole discretion, that the total cost of acquisition will result in rates in excess of the rates which would result from continued operation by LILCO, the authority shall abandon the acquisition. In such event, the authority shall serve notice of such abandonment (i) in the case of a stock acquisition, by causing to be mailed by certified or registered mail a copy of such notice to each former owner of stock as shown on LILCO's stock transfer books immediately prior to such acquisition at the address shown on such stock transfer books and by causing to be published a copy of such notice in at least five successive issues of a daily newspaper of national circulation or (ii) in the case of an asset acquisition, in the same manner as provided for the service of a petition for acquisition in paragraph (c) of subdivision six hereof. In addition, in the case of an asset acquisition the authority shall file a copy of the notice of abandonment with the county clerk of the county in which is located any real property that was taken and with the clerk of the supreme court in which the proceeding was instituted.

11. The provisions with respect to the valuation of stock and property set forth in this section shall apply only to stock or property of LILCO, as the case may be, acquired by the authority by the exercise of the power of eminent domain.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-h's

 § 1020-i. Subsidiaries. 1. The authority shall have the right to exercise and perform all or part of its powers and functions through one or more wholly owned subsidiaries by acquiring the voting shares thereof or by resolution of the board directing any of its trustees, officers or employees to organize a subsidiary corporation pursuant to the business corporation law, the not-for-profit corporation law or the transportation corporations law. Such resolution shall prescribe the purpose for which such subsidiary corporation is to be formed.

2. The authority may transfer to any subsidiary corporation any moneys, property (real, personal or mixed) or facilities in order to carry out the purposes of this title. Each such subsidiary corporation shall have all the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions and other exemptions of the authority to the extent the same are not inconsistent with the statute or statutes pursuant to which such subsidiary was incorporated provided, however, that in any event any such subsidiary corporation shall be entitled to exemptions from the state public service law and any regulation by, or the jurisdiction of, the public service commission, and the state environmental quality review act to the extent provided in subdivision two of section one thousand twenty-s of this title.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-i's

 § 1020-j. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any corporate purpose and to refund from time to time any notes by the issuance of new notes, whether the notes to be refunded have or have not matured. The authority may issue notes partly to refund notes or to discharge other obligations then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose of the authority. The notes may be authorized, sold, executed and delivered in the same manner as bonds. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing notes of the authority or any issue thereof may contain any provisions which the authority is authorized to include in any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds of the authority or any issue thereof, and the authority may include in any notes any terms, covenants or conditions which it is authorized to include in any bonds.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-j's

 § 1020-k. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any purpose authorized by this title, including without limitation (a) to acquire any real or personal property or facilities deemed necessary by the authority, (b) to pay interest on bonds or notes of the authority, (c) to establish reserves to secure such bonds and notes, (d) to establish or maintain such other funds or accounts for such purpose or purposes as the authority may deem necessary or desirable, and (e) to pay all other expenses of the authority incident to the issuance of such bonds or notes.

2. Except as may be otherwise expressly provided by the authority, the bonds and notes of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds or notes, or any trustee therefor, pledging any particular moneys or revenues.

3. The authority shall have power from time to time, whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose of the authority. Refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold with the proceeds applied to the purchase, payment or provision for payment of the bonds to be refunded.

4. Bonds may be issued, payable in annual installments or as term bonds or both. Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board of the authority and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding fifty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America or by check at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. In the event that term bonds are issued, the resolution authorizing the same may make such provisions for the establishment and maintenance of sinking funds for the payment thereof as the authority may deem necessary or appropriate. Bonds or notes may be sold at public or private sale at such price or prices as the authority shall determine but shall not be sold by the authority at private sale unless such sale and terms thereof have been approved in writing by the state comptroller. Pending preparation of definitive bonds or notes, the authority may issue bonds or notes in temporary form which shall be exchanged for bonds or notes in definitive form when available.

5. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may (a) delegate to an officer or officers of the authority the power to approve the issuance of bonds from time to time and to fix the details of any such bonds or issues of bonds by an appropriate certificate of such authorized officer or officers and (b) contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds to be authorized as to: (i) pledging or creating a lien on all or any part of the moneys, revenues or properties of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds or of any particular issue of bonds or any portion of any issue of bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(ii) the rates, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(iii) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(iv) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of any of its property;

(v) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied;

(vi) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured, and the refunding of outstanding bonds;

(vii) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended, the amount or percentage of outstanding bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(viii) defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the duties of the authority to holders of its obligations and providing the rights and remedies of such holders or of a trustee acting on their behalf in the event of a default; and

(ix) any other matters of like or different character, which in any way may affect the security and protection of the bonds and the rights of the holders thereof.

6. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, any such resolution or resolutions shall contain a covenant by the authority that it will at all times maintain rates, fees or charges sufficient to pay, and that any contracts entered into by the authority for the sale, transmission or distribution of electricity shall contain rates, fees or charges sufficient to pay, the costs of operation and maintenance of the facilities owned or operated by the authority, payments in lieu of taxes, renewals, replacements and capital additions, the principal of and interest on any obligations issued pursuant to such resolution as the same severally become due and payable, and to establish or maintain any reserves or other funds or accounts required or established by or pursuant to the terms of such resolution or resolutions.

7. It is the intention of the legislature that any pledge of moneys, revenues or property or of a revenue producing contract or contracts made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the moneys, revenues or proceeds so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge or lien is created pursuant to this subdivision need be recorded in order to perfect such pledge or lien.

8. Neither the trustees of the authority nor any person executing the bonds or notes shall be liable personally on the bonds or notes or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

9. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds or notes at such price or prices as it deems advisable. The authority may hold, pledge, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to agreements with bondholders.

10. All bonds, notes and other obligations issued by the authority under the provisions of this title are hereby declared to have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments under the applicable laws of the state.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-k's

 § 1020-l. State and municipalities not liable on bonds or notes. The bonds, notes and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state or of any municipality, and neither the state nor any municipality shall be liable thereon. The authority shall not have the power to pledge the credit, the revenues or the taxing power of the state or of any municipality, and neither the credit, the revenues nor the taxing power of the state or of any municipality shall be, or shall be deemed to be, pledged to the payment of any bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority. Each evidence of indebtedness of the authority, including the bonds and notes of the authority, shall contain a clear and explicit statement of the provisions of this section.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-l's

 § 1020-m. Legal investments. Any bonds or notes issued by the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all trusts, estates and guardianships and all other persons whatsoever, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds and notes are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-m's

 § 1020-n. Deposit and investment of moneys of the authority. 1. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived, except as otherwise authorized or provided in this title, shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks designated by the authority. The moneys in such accounts shall be withdrawn on the order of such person or persons as the authority may authorize. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured in accordance with section two thousand nine hundred twenty-five of this chapter. The state comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing; the authority shall not be required to pay a fee for any such examination.

2. The authority shall have power to contract with holders of any of its bonds or notes, or any trustee therefor, as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority and of any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes, and to carry out any such contract. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or in any way to secure bonds or notes and deposits of such moneys shall be secured in accordance with section two thousand nine hundred twenty-five of this chapter, and all banks and trust companies in the state are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

3. Subject to agreements with noteholders and bondholders or any trustee therefor, the authority shall prescribe a uniform system of accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-n's

 § 1020-o. Agreement of the state. 1. The state of New York does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any obligations issued under this title and the parties to any contracts with the authority hereunder that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority until such obligations together with the interest thereon are fully met and discharged and/or such contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority, provided that nothing herein contained shall preclude such limitation or alteration if and when adequate provision shall be made by law for the protection of the holders of such obligations of the authority, or those entering into such contracts with the authority. The authority as agent for the state is authorized to include this pledge and agreement by the state in all agreements with the holders of such obligations and in all such contracts.

2. Nothing in this title shall be construed as diminishing or enlarging any valid existing rights under any license heretofore issued pursuant to the provisions of the federal power act.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-o's

 § 1020-p. Exemption from taxation. 1. It is hereby found and declared that the operation of the authority is primarily for the benefit of the people of the state of New York, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in carrying out the provisions of this title.

2. The authority shall be required to pay no taxes nor assessments upon any of the property acquired or controlled by it or upon its activities in the operation and maintenance thereof or upon income derived therefrom, provided that nothing herein shall prevent the authority from entering into agreements to make payments in lieu of taxes with the governing bodies of municipalities, as provided for in section one thousand twenty-q of this title.

3. The securities and other obligations issued by the authority, their transfer and the income therefrom shall, at all times, be free from taxation by the state or any municipality, except for estate and gift taxes.
* NB There are 2 § 1020-p's

 § 1020-q. Payments in lieu of taxes. 1. Each year after property theretofore owned by LILCO is acquired by the authority by any means authorized by this title and, as a consequence, is removed from the tax rolls, the authority shall make payments in lieu of taxes to municipalities and school districts equal to the taxes and assessments which would have been received from year to year by each such jurisdiction if such acquisition had not occurred, provided, however, that for the calendar year starting on January first, two thousand fifteen, and for each calendar year thereafter, such payments in lieu of taxes shall not exceed the in lieu of tax payments made to such municipalities and school districts in the immediately preceding year by more than two percent.

2. The authority shall also make payments in lieu of taxes for those taxes which would otherwise be imposed pursuant to sections one hundred eighty-six-a and one hundred eighty-six-c of the tax law, and to former section one hundred eighty-six-b of the tax law as such section was in effect on December thirty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-nine, and any taxes imposed by a city pursuant to the authorization granted by section twenty-b of the general city law.

3. No municipality or governmental subdivision, including a school district or special district, shall be liable to the authority or any other entity for a refund of property taxes originally assessed against the Shoreham plant. Any judicial determination that the Shoreham plant assessment was excessive, unequal or unlawful for any of the years from nineteen hundred seventy-six to the effective date of this title shall not result in a refund by any taxing jurisdiction of taxes previously paid by LILCO pursuant to such Shoreham plant assessment. The authority shall discontinue and abandon all proceedings, brought by its predecessor in interest, which seek the repayment of all or part of the taxes assessed against the Shoreham plant.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-q's

 § 1020-r. Repayment of state appropriations. All appropriations made by the state to the authority shall be treated as advances by the state to the authority, and shall be repaid to it without interest either out of the proceeds of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this title, or by the delivery of non-interest bearing bonds of the authority to the state for all or any part of such advances, or out of excess revenues of the authority, at such times and on such conditions as the state and the authority mutually may agree upon.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-r's

 § 1020-s. Public service law generally not applicable to authority;

inconsistent provisions in certain other acts superseded. * 1. The rates, services and practices relating to the electricity generated by facilities owned or operated by the authority shall not be subject to the provisions of the public service law or to regulation by, or the jurisdiction of, the public service commission, except to the extent (a) article seven of the public service law applies to the siting and operation of a major utility transmission facility as defined therein, (b) article VIII of the public service law applies to the siting and operation of a major electric generation facility or a major electric transmission facility as defined therein, (c) article ten of such law applies to the siting of a generating facility as defined therein, (d) section eighteen-a of such law provides for assessment for certain costs, property or operations, (e) to the extent that the department of public service reviews and makes recommendations with respect to the operations and provision of services of, and rates and budgets established by, the authority pursuant to section three-b of such law, (f) that section seventy-four of the public service law applies to qualified energy storage systems within the authority's jurisdiction, and (g) that section seventy-four-b of the public service law applies to Long Island community choice aggregation programs.

* NB Effective until December 31, 2040

* 1. The rates, services and practices relating to the electricity generated by facilities owned or operated by the authority shall not be subject to the provisions of the public service law or to regulation by, or the jurisdiction of, the public service commission, except to the extent (a) article seven of the public service law applies to the siting and operation of a major utility transmission facility as defined therein, (b) article ten of such law applies to the siting of a generating facility as defined therein, (c) section eighteen-a of such law provides for assessment for certain costs, property or operations, (d) to the extent that the department of public service reviews and makes recommendations with respect to the operations and provision of services of, and rates and budgets established by, the authority pursuant to section three-b of such law, (e) that section seventy-four of the public service law applies to qualified energy storage systems within the authority's jurisdiction, and (f) that section seventy-four-b of the public service law applies to Long Island community choice aggregation programs.

  * NB Effective December 31, 2040

  2. The issuance by the authority of its obligations to acquire the securities or assets of LILCO shall be deemed not to be "state action" within the meaning of the state environmental quality review act, and such act shall not be applicable in any respect to such acquisition or any action of the authority to effect such acquisition.

  3. In the event that a comprehensive and regular management and operations audit, as provided by subdivision (bb) of section one thousand twenty-f of this article, indicates a finding of fraud, abuse, or mismanagement by a service provider of the authority, and upon a finding by the public service commission that reasonable cause exists for the basis of such indication, the public service commission may order that any recommendations contained in the regular management and operations audit be implemented. The public service commission may also provide in their order, the date in which any recommendation must be fully implemented. Failure to comply with any such order can result in the imposition of a civil penalty by the public service commission against the service provider or revocation of the service provider's authority to operate within the state.
  * NB There are 2 § 1020-s's

   § 1020-t. Authority not to construct or operate a nuclear powered facility in the service area. In no event shall the authority construct or operate a nuclear powered facility in the service area.
  * NB There are 2 § 1020-t's

   § 1020-u. Employees of the authority not subject to the public employees' fair employment act. All employees of the authority shall be exempt from the provisions of the public employees' fair employment act as set forth in article fourteen of the civil service law.
  * NB There are 2 § 1020-u's

 § 1020-v. Equal employment opportunity and minority and women owned business enterprise programs. 1. All contracts entered into by the authority pursuant to this title of whatever nature and all documents soliciting bids or proposals therefor shall contain or make reference to the following provisions:

(a) The contractor will not discriminate against employees or applicants for employment because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or marital status, and will undertake or continue existing programs of affirmative action to ensure that minority group persons and women are afforded equal opportunity without discrimination. Such programs shall include, but not be limited to, recruitment, employment, job assignment, promotion, upgrading, demotion, transfer, layoff, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selection for training and retraining, including apprenticeship and on-the-job training.

(b) At the request of the authority, the contractor shall request each employment agency, labor union, or authorized representative of workers with which it has a collective bargaining or other agreement or understanding and which is involved in the performance of the contract with the authority to furnish a written statement that such employment agency, labor union or representative shall not discriminate because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status and that such union or representative will cooperate in the implementation of the contractor's obligations hereunder.

(c) The contractor shall state, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of the contractor in the performance of the contract with the authority that all qualified applicants will be afforded equal employment opportunity without discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status.

(d) The contractor will include the provisions of paragraphs (a) through (c) of this subdivision in every subcontract or purchase order in such a manner that such provisions will be binding upon each subcontractor or vendor as to its work in connection with the contract with the authority.

2. The authority shall establish measures, procedures and guidelines to ensure that contractors and subcontractors undertake meaningful programs to employ and promote qualified minority group members and women. Such procedures may require after notice in a bid solicitation, the submission of a minority and women workforce utilization program prior to the award of any contract, or at any time thereafter, and may require the submission of compliance reports relating to the operation and implementation of any workforce utilization program adopted hereunder. The authority may take appropriate action, including the impositions of sanctions for non-compliance to effectuate the provisions of this section and shall be responsible for monitoring compliance with this title.

3. In the performance of projects pursuant to this title, minority and women-owned business enterprises shall be given the opportunity for meaningful participation. The authority shall establish quantifiable standards and measures and procedures to secure meaningful participation and identify those contracts and items of work for which minority and women-owned business enterprises may best bid to actively and affirmatively promote and assist their participation in projects, so as to facilitate the award of a fair share of contracts to such enterprises; provided, however, that nothing in this title shall be construed to limit the ability of the authority to assure that qualified minority and women-owned business enterprises may participate in the program. For purposes hereof, minority business enterprise shall mean any business enterprise which is at least fifty-one per centum owned by, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least fifty-one per centum of the stock or other voting interest is owned by citizens or permanent resident noncitizens who are Black, Hispanic, Asian, American Indian, Pacific islander, or Alaskan native, and such ownership interest is real, substantial and continuing and has the authority to independently control the day to day business decisions of the entity for at least one year; and women-owned business enterprise shall mean any business enterprise which is at least fifty-one per centum owned by, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least fifty-one per centum of the stock to other voting interests of which is owned by citizens or permanent resident noncitizens who are women, and such ownership interest is real, substantial and continuing and has the authority to independently control the day to day business decisions of the entity for at least one year.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not be construed to limit the ability of any minority business enterprise to bid on any contract.

4. In order to implement the requirements and objectives of this section, the authority shall establish procedures to monitor contractors compliance with provisions hereof, provide assistance in obtaining competing qualified minority and women-owned business enterprises to perform contracts proposed to be awarded, impose contractual sanctions for non-compliance, and take other appropriate measures to improve the access of minority and women-owned business enterprises to these contracts.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-v's

 § 1020-w. Audit and annual reports. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller and an annual audit shall be performed by an independent certified accountant selected by the authority, upon recommendation of its finance and audit committee. The authority shall submit annually to the governor, the state comptroller, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly and the county executives and governing bodies of the counties of Suffolk and Nassau, a detailed report pursuant to the provisions of section two thousand eight hundred of this chapter, which report shall be verified by the chairman of the authority. The authority shall comply with the provisions of sections two thousand eight hundred one, two thousand eight hundred two and two thousand eight hundred three of this chapter.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-w's

§ 1020-x. Authority subject to open meetings law. The authority shall be subject to the provisions of article seven of the public officers law relating to the open meetings law.

§ 1020-y. Court proceedings; preferences; venue. 1. Any action, suit or proceeding to which the authority may be a party in which any question arises as to the validity of this title or the valuation of stock or assets acquired by the authority by the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be preferred over all other civil causes in all courts of the state, except election matters, and shall be heard and determined in preference to all other civil business pending therein, except election matters, irrespective of position on the calendar. The same preference shall be granted upon application of counsel to the authority in any action or proceeding questioning the validity of this title or the valuation of stock or assets acquired by the authority by the exercise of the power of eminent domain in which such counsel may be allowed to intervene. The venue of any action or proceeding questioning the validity of this title shall be laid in the county in which the principal office of the authority is located.

2. In the event any party shall appeal an award of compensation for the taking by the authority of stock or assets, such party shall post a bond in such amount, if any, as the supreme court shall deem appropriate to adequately protect the interests of the other party under all the circumstances.

3. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority founded on tort shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limited by, and in compliance with all the requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1020-z. Corporate existence. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds, notes or other obligations outstanding, unless adequate provision has been made for the payment thereof.

§ 1020-aa. Conflicts of interest. 1. If any member, officer or employee of the authority shall have an interest, either direct or indirect, in any contract to which the authority is, or is to be, a party, such interest shall be disclosed to the authority in writing and shall be set forth in the minutes of the authority. The member, officer or employee having such interest shall not participate in any action by the authority with respect to such contract.

2. No member, officer or employee shall be deemed to have such an interest solely by reason of the ownership of two percent or less of the securities of a corporation which is, or is to be, a party to a contract with the authority, including without limitation the holding company of any banking institution in which the funds of the authority are, or are to be, deposited or which is, or is to be, acting as trustee or paying agent under any bond or note resolution, trust indenture or similar instrument to which the authority is a party.

3. Nothing in this section shall be deemed or construed to limit the right of any member, officer or employee of the authority to acquire an interest in bonds or notes of the authority.

§ 1020-bb. Exculpation. 1. The trustees and officers of the authority, while acting within the scope of their authority as trustees or officers, shall not be subject to any personal or civil liability resulting from the exercise, carrying out or advocacy of any of the authority's purposes or powers, unless the conduct of the trustees or officers is finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to constitute intentional wrongdoing.

2. The provisions of section seventeen of the public officers law shall apply to trustees and officers of the authority, in connection with any and all claims, demands, suits, actions or proceedings which may be made or brought against any of them arising out of any determinations made or actions taken or omitted to be taken in compliance with any obligations under or pursuant to the terms of this title.

3. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, the provisions of section eighteen of the public officers law shall apply to the employees of the authority, in connection with any and all claims, demands, suits, actions or proceedings which may be brought against any of them arising out of any determinations made or actions taken or omitted to be taken in compliance with any obligations under or pursuant to the terms of this title. Whenever the provisions of section seventeen of the public officers law do not apply to the trustees and officers of the authority, the provisions of section eighteen of the public officers law shall apply to such trustees and officers.

4. Any costs incurred by the state in accordance with subdivision two of this section shall be treated as advances by the state to the authority, and shall be repaid to it without interest either out of the proceeds of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this title, or by the delivery of non-interest bearing bonds of the authority to the state for all or any part of such advances, or out of excess revenues of the authority, at such times and on such conditions as the state and the authority mutually may agree upon. Any agreement entered into by the state and the authority for the repayment of any costs incurred pursuant to subdivision two of this section, shall be subject to the approval of the public authorities control board.

5. As used in this section, the terms "trustee", "officer" and "employee" shall include a former trustee, officer or employee and his or her estate or judicially appointed personal representative.

§ 1020-cc. Authority subject to certain provisions contained in the state finance law, the public service law, the social services law and the general municipal law. 1. All contracts of the authority shall be subject to the provisions of the state finance law relating to contracts made by the state. The authority shall also establish rules and regulations with respect to providing to its residential gas, electric and steam utility customers those rights and protections provided in article two and sections one hundred seventeen and one hundred eighteen of the public service law and section one hundred thirty-one-s of the social services law. The authority shall conform to any safety standards regarding manual lockable disconnect switches for solar electric generating equipment established by the public service commission pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision five and subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision five-a of section sixty-six-j of the public service law. The authority shall let contracts for construction or purchase of supplies, materials, or equipment pursuant to section one hundred three and paragraph (e) of subdivision four of section one hundred twenty-w of the general municipal law.

2. The authority and service provider shall provide to the state comptroller on March thirty-first and September thirtieth of each year a report documenting each contract in excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars per year entered into with a third party and related to management and operation services associated with the authority's electric transmission and distribution system, including the name of the third party, the contract term and a description of services or goods to be procured, and post such report on each of their websites. All contracts entered into between the service provider and third parties are not subject to the requirements of subdivision one of this section.

§ 1020-dd. Authority not to seek nor any subsidiary of the authority, to apply for or accept preference hydroelectricity. The authority nor any subsidiary of the authority, shall not seek, apply for, nor accept hydroelectricity produced by the power authority of the state of New York and marketed subject to the federal preference clause contained in the Niagara Redevelopment Act at 16 USC Section 836(b)(1) and distributed by the Power Authority of the State of New York subject to section ten hundred five of this chapter. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the authority from entering into agreements with public bodies within its service territory for the wheeling and/or distribution of such hydroelectricity.

§ 1020-ee. Nine Mile Point II; disposition of interest. The authority shall make every effort to convey its interest in the Nine Mile Point II nuclear generating facility through the sale of its interest in such facility to the power authority of the state of New York or to one or more of the co-tenants of such plant, provided, however, that in any acquisition of such interest by the power authority of the state of New York or by one or more of the co-tenants, the authority shall agree to remain responsible for the purchase of such share of the power generated by such facility as it is required to purchase under agreements entered into by LILCO and obligating the authority.

§ 1020-ff. Rates charged to veterans' organizations. 1. The authority shall charge a rate for electric service, regardless of the type of service offered, to any post or hall owned or leased by a not-for-profit veterans' organization that is no greater than the rate charged to domestic customers receiving single-phase service within the same village, town or municipality.

2. The authority shall not recover revenues foregone pursuant to subdivision one of this section from customers of the authority. To the extent that a lack of recovery of such foregone revenues may prevent the authority from meeting its bond coverage requirements, the authority shall reduce its non-personnel operating expenses by an amount equal to its foregone revenue.

§ 1020-gg. Energy plan. The authority shall complete a biennial energy plan in accordance with the provisions of article six of the energy law. In addition to any requirements of article six of the energy law, the authority shall provide copies of its biennial energy plan to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the chair of the assembly committee on energy and the chair of the senate committee on energy and telecommunications. Further, the authority shall cooperate and participate in the state energy planning procedures as enumerated in article six of the energy law.

§ 1020-hh. Green jobs-green New York on-bill recovery. 1. Within three hundred days of the effective date of this section, the authority shall establish a program to provide for the billing and collection of on-bill recovery charges for payment of obligations of its customers to the green jobs-green New York revolving loan fund established pursuant to title nine-A of article eight of the public authorities law. Such program shall be consistent with the standards set forth in subdivision three of section forty-two and section sixty-six-m of the public service law. To the maximum extent practicable, funding available from the New York state energy research and development authority shall be utilized to defray any costs associated with electronic data interchange improvements or other costs of initiating and implementing this program. Billing and collection services under such tariffs shall commence as soon as practicable after establishment of the program.

2. The authority may suspend its offering of the on-bill recovery charge provided that the authority makes a finding that there is a significant increase in arrears or utility service disconnections that the authority determines is directly related to such charge, or a finding of other good cause.

§ 1020-ii. Public notice before approval of utility transmission facilities. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "municipality" means a county, city, town or village in the service area;

* (b) "utility transmission facility" means any electric transmission line operating at sixty-five kilovolts or higher in the service area, including associated equipment. It shall not include any transmission line which is an in-kind replacement or which is located wholly underground. This section also shall not apply to any major electric transmission facility subject to the jurisdiction of article seven of the public service law; and

* NB Effective until December 31, 2040

* (b) "utility transmission facility" means any electric transmission line operating at sixty-five kilovolts or higher in the service area, including associated equipment. It shall not include any transmission line which is an in-kind replacement or which is located wholly underground. This section also shall not apply to any major utility transmission facility subject to the jurisdiction of article seven of the public service law; and

* NB Effective December 31, 2040

(c) " authority customer" means the customer of record located within five hundred feet of a proposed utility transmission facility.

2. The authority shall not construct any utility transmission facility without first providing public notice as provided by this subdivision. Such public notice shall be provided by the authority before the environmental significance of such action is determined by the authority, pursuant to article eight of the environmental conservation law. The public notice shall provide the following information:

(a) the location of the site or right-of-way;

(b) a description of the transmission facility to be built thereon;

(c) a summary of any studies including an environmental assessment or environmental impact statement pursuant to article eight of the environmental conservation law which have been made of the environmental impact of the project, and a description of such studies;

(d) a statement explaining the need for the facility;

(e) a description of any reasonable alternate location or locations assessed for the proposed facility;

(f) a description of the comparative merits and detriments of each location submitted; and

(g) a statement of the reasons why the primary proposed location is best suited for the facility.

When completed, copies of the environmental assessment form, environmental impact statement and studies referred to in the notice shall be filed with the authority and shall be available for public inspection.

3. Notice shall be provided by first class mail to:

(a) each municipality in which any portion of such facility is to be located, both as primarily proposed and in the alternative locations listed. Notice to a municipality shall be addressed to the chief executive officer thereof;

(b) each member of the legislature through whose district the utility transmission facility or any alternate proposed would pass; and

(c) each authority customer.

§ 1020-jj. Energy storage deployment policy. The authority shall encourage the installation of qualified energy storage systems in its service territory through implementation of the energy storage deployment policy as set forth and defined in section seventy-four of the public service law.

§ 1020-kk. Semi-annual expenditure and lobbying report. 1. On or before March thirty-first, two thousand twenty-two and every semi-annual period thereafter: (a) the authority shall report to the governor, the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly regarding advertising and lobbying on behalf of the authority by the authority, the trustees of the authority, or any employee of the authority; and (b) any service provider of the authority shall report to the governor, the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly regarding advertising and lobbying on behalf of the authority, or in connection with the service provider's provision of management and operation services or the operation of the authority's electric transmission and distribution system.

2. For the purposes of this title, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) Lobbying shall mean any attempt to influence:

(i) the passage or defeat of any legislation or resolution by either house of the state legislature including but not limited to the introduction or intended introduction of such legislation or resolution or approval or disapproval of any legislation;

(ii) the adoption, issuance, rescission or modification of a gubernatorial executive order;

(iii) the adoption or rejection of any rule or regulation having the force and effect of law by a state agency;

(iv) the passage or defeat of any local law, ordinance, resolution, or regulation by any municipality;

(v) the adoption, issuance, rescission, modification or terms of any executive order issued by the chief executive officer of a municipality; and

(vi) the adoption or rejection of any rule, regulation, or resolution having the force and effect of a local law, ordinance, resolution or regulation.

(b) Advertising shall mean any promotional activity or public service announcement that requires the purchase of media space, including television airtime, radio airtime, internet media space, billboards, newspaper space, magazine space or any private publication which requires the expenditure of any public funds.

3. The authority and its service providers shall prepare separate reports to include the following information:

(a) For lobbying, such report shall include, but not be limited to: the name of the trustee, employee of the authority or service provider engaging in lobbying; the name of the public official or public employee that was lobbied; the date and time of the meeting or communication; the subject matter of the lobbying, and any expenses incurred by the authority or its service provider for travel, lodging, or meals in connection with such lobbying.

(b) For advertising, such report shall include, but not be limited to, itemization of any public funds spent on advertising and information pertaining to the advertising marketing plan including measurable goals and objectives for the advertising campaign.

4. The requirements of this section shall not be construed to require the disclosure of information that is otherwise protected from disclosure by any law, regulation, order, or the civil practice law and rules.

§ 1020-ll. Pilot thermal energy network projects. Within three months of the effective date of this section, the authority and its service provider shall submit for review to the department of public service at least one and as many as five proposed pilot thermal energy network projects as defined in subdivision twenty-nine of section two of the public service law. Within six months of the effective date of this section, and upon recommendation by the department of public service, the authority shall determine whether it is in the public interest to approve or modify such pilot thermal energy network projects and shall direct the service provider to implement such proposed or modified pilot thermal energy network projects. The authority shall promulgate rules and regulations consistent with the standards set forth in subdivisions two and three of section sixty-six-t of the public service law.

§ 1020-mm. Prioritization of emergency services. 1. If, during a widespread prolonged outage that affects at least twenty thousand customers in the service territory of the authority, and the service provider is not able to restore electric power services within twenty-four hours to any affected police department, fire department, ambulance service or advanced life support first response service facility that is prewired with an appropriate transfer switch for using an alternate generated power source, such service provider shall notify the village, town or city in which such facility is located.

2. Towns, cities, and villages shall provide to counties, and counties shall to the extent practicable, provide the service provider and the division of homeland security and emergency services with a list of such police departments, fire departments, ambulance services and advanced life support first response services located within such municipality's territorial boundaries within one year of the effective date of this section, and periodically thereafter as necessary to update such list.

3. For the purposes of this section, "alternate generated power source" shall mean electric generating equipment that is of the capacity that is capable of providing adequate electricity to operate all life safety systems and the basic operations of a police department, fire department, ambulance service or advanced life support first response service.

§ 1020-nn. Implementation of Excelsior power program in authority's service area. The authority and its service provider shall develop and implement a program designed to reduce peak energy demand consistent with the provisions of section sixty-seven-b of the public service law. The authority shall annually submit a public report to the department of public service describing the implementation, operation, and results of the program. Pursuant to section three-b of the public service law, the department of public service may review and make recommendations concerning the implementation and operation of the program by the authority and its service provider.

§ 1020-xx. Liberal interpretation. This title, being necessary for the prosperity of the state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes hereof.

§ 1020-yy. Severability. The provisions of this title are severable, and if any part or provision hereof, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this title or the application of such provision to any other person or circumstance, but shall be confined in its operation to the provision, person or circumstance directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

§ 1020-zz. Inconsistent provisions of other laws superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law or any part thereof, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* TITLE 1-A

GREEN ISLAND POWER AUTHORITY

* NB There are 2 A5 T1-A's

 § 1020. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Green Island Power Authority Act."

* NB There are 2 § 1020's

 § 1020-a. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section one thousand twenty-c of this title.

2. The term "bonds" shall mean bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the authority pursuant to this title.

3. The term "comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state.

4. The term "civil service commission" shall mean the civil service commission of the county of Albany.

5. The term "district" shall mean the Green Island power district created by section one thousand twenty-b of this title.

6. The term "board of trustees" shall mean the board of trustees of the village of Green Island.

7. The term "mayor" shall mean the mayor of the village of Green Island.

8. The term "properties" shall mean the power distribution system or systems of the authority, whether situated within or without the territorial limits of the district, including the plants, works, structures, poles, lines, conduits, mains, systems, instrumentalities or part thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, transmission facilities and distribution facilities, or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions or betterments.

9. The term "municipalities" shall mean any county, city, town, village, school district, and any other political subdivision of the state.

10. The term "revenues" shall mean all rates, rents, fees, charges, payments and other income and receipts derived from the operation of the properties of the authority including, but not limited to, investment proceeds and proceeds of insurance, condemnation, and sales or other disposition of assets, together with all federal, state or municipal aid.

11. The term "state" shall mean the state of New York.

12. The term "village" shall mean the village of Green Island.
* NB There are 2 § 1020-a's

 § 1020-b. Green Island power district. There is hereby defined and established an area to be known as the "Green Island power district," which shall embrace all the territory located within the village of Green Island, Albany county.
* NB There are 2 § 1020-b's

 § 1020-c. Green Island power authority. 1. There is hereby created and established a public corporation, to be known as the "Green Island power authority". The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation, the objects of which in the judgment of the legislature cannot be attained under general laws.

2. The authority shall have the power to acquire such real estate and other property as may be necessary for its corporate purposes, to sue and be sued, to incur debts, liabilities and obligations, to issue bonds and other evidences of indebtedness, to have a seal, and to exercise all powers authorized by this title and reasonably necessary for accomplishing its purposes, or properly incidental thereto, subject to the provisions herein contained and to the constitution and laws of the United States and of the state.

3. The authority and its existence shall continue for a period of twelve years and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities and bonds have otherwise been discharged and thereupon all rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and be vested in the village.

4. The authority shall consist of five members, to be residents of the village and be appointed by the board of trustees on designation of the mayor. The term of office of a member shall be five years, but in the first instance such members shall be appointed to hold office, one for one year, one for two years, one for three years, one for four years and one for five years, the term of each to be fixed by the resolution making the appointment. Upon resignation of a member, or a vacancy occurring in any other manner, it shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. In other respects, all vacancies shall be filled in the manner corresponding to the original appointment.

5. The members of the authority may appoint an executive committee of not less than three members and may delegate full powers to such committee. They may appoint such other committees of not less than three members each with such powers as they may provide. They may elect one of the members as a chairman and may elect or appoint other officers and determine their powers. They may by a vote of a majority of members adopt by-laws and provide for their annual and regular meetings and for the calling of special meetings. The treasurer of the village shall be ex-officio treasurer of the authority and his compensation as such treasurer shall be fixed by the members. Each member before entering upon the duties of his office shall take the constitutional oath of office, which shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. Three members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the concurrence of three members at a meeting shall be necessary to the validity of any resolution, order or determination. Any member may be removed by the board of trustees for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, after a hearing upon charges and an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel upon not less than ten days' notice. The members shall receive such salary as shall be determined by the board of trustees. They shall receive no reimbursement for the ordinary expenses of attending meetings, but may by resolution of the members be allowed their expenses of a special or extraordinary nature. A member may receive additional compensation to be fixed by the members, if appointed an officer of the authority.

6. No public officer or employee shall be ineligible for appointment as a member or officer of the authority and any public officer or employee may accept such appointment and serve as a member or officer without forfeiture of any other public office or position of public employment by reason thereof. Any one or more members or officers of the authority may be an officer or employee of the village. In the event that an officer or employee of the village shall be appointed as a member or officer of the authority, acceptance or retention of such appointment shall not be deemed a forfeiture of his village office or employment, or incompatible therewith or affect his tenure or compensation in any way.

7. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers, purposes and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the village of Green Island and the state of New York, and that said purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

8. Neither the public service commission nor any other board or commission of like character, shall have jurisdiction over the authority in the management and control of its properties or operations or any power over the regulation of rates fixed or charges collected by the authority except as otherwise provided in this subdivision.

a. The authority's rates, services and practices with respect to power and energy purchased from the power authority of the state of New York shall be subject to regulation by such power authority pursuant to the provisions of the power authority act and any contract between the two authorities.

b. The authority's rates, services and practices with respect to power and energy that is either (i) generated by an electric plant owned, operated or managed by the authority, or (ii) purchased by the authority from sources other than the power authority of the state of New York shall be subject to regulations of the public service commission under the provisions of the public service law.

 c. Articles seven and eight of the public service law shall apply to the authority's siting and operation of a major electric transmission facility as therein defined and article ten of the public service law shall apply to the authority's siting and operation of a major electric generating facility as therein defined.

 c. Article seven of the public service law shall apply to the authority's siting and operation of a major transmission facility as therein defined and article ten of the public service law shall apply to the authority's siting and operation of a major electric generating facility as therein defined.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-c's

 § 1020-d. Powers of the authority. The power conferred by this title shall be exercised by the members of the authority, subject to the terms of this title. In the exercise of those powers, either directly or through its officers and employees, the members may do the following things, among others, and the following list of powers shall not be deemed complete or exclusive, or to deny the existence of other powers, whether similar or different, so long as they are reasonably necessary for accomplishing the purposes declared and indicated in this title:

1. To determine the location, type, size, construction, lease, purchase, ownership, acquisition, use and operation of any facilities or other structure or property, within or without the territorial limits of the district;

2. To acquire on behalf and in the name of the authority, whether by agreement with and purchase from the owner or owners, or within the district by eminent domain, or by lease, the whole or any part of any existing facilities or of any other property which it is authorized to acquire under this title; provided, however, that the authority may not acquire real property of a municipality or a political subdivision of the state unless such municipality or political subdivision shall consent thereto; and in connection with the purchase of such properties the authority may assume any obligations of the owner of such properties and, to the extent required by the terms of any indentures or other instruments under which such obligations were issued, the authority may assume and agree to perform covenants and observe restrictions contained in such instruments; and furthermore the owner of any properties, which the authority is authorized to acquire, is hereby authorized to sell or otherwise transfer the same to the authority. In the exercise of the power of eminent domain, as herein provided, the property being acquired shall be deemed, when so determined by the authority, to be for a public use;

3. To develop, acquire, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate and improve facilities for the transmission or distribution of light, heat, power or any connected service;

4. To maintain, operate and manage, and contract for the maintenance, operation and management of properties of the authority;

5. To apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal, state and local governments for such licenses, permits or approvals for its plans and projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate to accept, in its discretion, such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies and officials;

6. To enter upon such lands, waters or premises as in the judgment of the authority shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damages done;

7. Subject to its agreement with the village, to supply and sell light, heat and power and any connected services within the district, to fix rates and charges for the furnishing or rendition of light, heat or power or of any connected service, and to collect through bills therefor the revenues derived therefrom, so as to provide revenues to the authority sufficient at all times to pay, as the same shall become due, the principal of and interest on the bonds of the authority together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, in addition to paying as the same shall become due the expense of operating and maintaining the properties of the authority together with proper reserves for maintenance, contingencies and all other obligations and indebtedness of the authority;

8. To adopt, revise and amend bylaws for the management of its affairs and, subject to agreements with bondholders, rules for the sale of light, heat or power or of any connected service, and the collection of rates and charges therefor. A copy of such rules and bylaws, and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the authority, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the village;

9. To enter into cooperative agreements with other authorities, municipalities, utility companies, individuals, firms or corporations for the interconnection of facilities and the exchange of interchange or services and commodities, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable;

10. To execute contracts, borrow money, issue bonds and sell or dispose of the same in such amounts and at such rates of interest as may be advisable;

11. To appoint and remove a secretary and such clerical, engineering, legal and other professional assistants as it may deem necessary for the purposes of this title and to fix their compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law;

12. To appoint and remove all employees, to transfer employees from their positions to other positions and to consolidate or abolish such positions, subject to the provisions of the civil service law;

13. To make any plans, studies or investigation which it may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to enable it effectually to carry out the provisions of this title;

14. Within ninety days of the first sale of light, heat or power or any connected service, to promulgate regulations granting to residential customers, the protections afforded by article two of the public service law and section one hundred thirty-one-s of the social services law; and

15. To do whatever may be necessary to give effect to the purposes of this title, and in general to have and exercise all other powers necessary or incidental to the purposes of this title.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-d's

 § 1020-e. Power to furnish service within district. The authority shall have power to construct or acquire, and to equip, own and operate, within or without the territorial limits of the district, any properties and any and all other real and personal property, used, connected with or appertaining to the furnishing and transmission of electric current for light, heat and power, for the purpose of furnishing such service to the district and to any corporate or natural persons in such district and also, for such purpose, to purchase electrical energy from the power authority of the state of New York, or from any state agency, or from any municipality, or from any private or public corporation.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-e's

 § 1020-f. Sale of surplus. Whenever any electrical energy which the authority may acquire creates a surplus over the amount of light, heat and power, in any of such services, required by the residents of the district to which such service is contracted, the authority may sell such surplus in territory outside the district to persons or public or private corporations. In acquiring any facility or property which also serves any municipality or territory outside the district, the authority, if it deems it advantageous and economical so to do, may, with the consent of the board of trustees, serve any such municipality or territory or sell heat, power or electrical energy to persons, public or private corporations in such territory or to such municipality.

 § 1020-h. Bonds and notes of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any of its corporate purposes, including incidental expenses in connection therewith, and to secure the payment of the same by the pledge of the revenues of the authority or by lien on the property of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any of its corporate purposes. Bonds issued by the authority may be general obligations secured by the faith and credit of the authority or may be special obligations payable out of particular revenues or other moneys of the authority as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject only to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular moneys, earnings or revenues.

2. The authority is authorized to obtain from any department or agency of the United States of America or the state or any nongovernmental insurer or financial institution any insurance, guaranty or other credit support device, to the extent now or hereafter available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest or principal, or both, or any part thereof, on any bonds issued by the authority and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to any such insurance or guaranty, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of outstanding bonds of the authority.

3. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, except that bonds and any renewal thereof shall mature within forty years of the date of their original issuance and notes and any renewal thereof shall mature within five years of the date of their original issuance, bear interest at such rate or rates per annum payable at such times, be in such denominations, be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places and be subject to such terms and conditions, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Such bonds of the authority may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, provided that no issue of bonds may be sold at private sale unless the terms of such sale shall have been approved in writing by (i) the comptroller, where such sale is not to such comptroller, or (ii) the director of the budget, where such sale is to such comptroller. The foregoing provisions shall be applicable to bonds issued by the authority notwithstanding the provisions of any other general, special or local law to the contrary.

4. Any resolution or resolutions of the authority authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of the authority, together with any other moneys, securities, contracts or property of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rates, rentals, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the earnings and other revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the properties in connection with which such bonds are issued;

(e) limitations in the purposes to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which must consent thereto and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or other moneys of the authority may be deposited;

(i) the terms and provisions of any mortgage or trust deed or indenture securing the bonds or under which bonds may be issued;

(j) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine, which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section one thousand twenty-i of this title, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(l) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of its properties or any part thereof;

(m) limitations on the amount of moneys or revenues to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depositary, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(o) any other matters, of like or different character, which may in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of bondholders.

5. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including the mortgaging of any of its properties and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys or properties and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act, which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

6. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which such pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement relating thereto need be recorded or filed.

7. Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

8. Neither the members nor officers of the authority, nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

9. The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as then may exist, shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority, which shall thereupon be cancelled.

10. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of such orginal note. Such notes shall be paid from any moneys of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged or from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as the bonds and such notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which the bonds or a bond resolution of the authority may contain. Such notes may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, provided that no issue of notes may be sold at private sale unless the terms of such sale shall have been approved in writing by (i) the comptroller, where such sale is not to such comptroller, or (ii) the director of the budget, where such sale is to such comptroller.

 § 1020-i. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Albany and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders and require the authority to carry out any agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Albany.

4. Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the properties the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the properties and subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders shall take possession of such part or parts of such properties and proceed with any construction thereon or the acquisition of any property, real or personal in connection therewith which the authority is under obligation to do, and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the properties and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from the properties.

6. Such trustees shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-i's

 § 1020-j. State and village not liable on bonds and notes. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state or of the village and, subject to section one thousand twenty-o of this title, the board shall have no power to make them payable out of any funds except those of the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-j's

 § 1020-k. Agreements of the state. The state does pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect the revenues and other charges referred to in this title and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with or for the benefit of the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-k's

 § 1020-l. Bonds legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.
* NB There are 2 § 1020-l's

 § 1020-m. Exemption from taxes. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the village and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any of the properties acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf.

2. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, shall be exempt from taxation except for estate and transfer taxes. The revenues, moneys and all other properties of the authority shall be exempt from all taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including without limitation real estate taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-m's

 § 1020-n. Tax contract by the state. The state covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom shall be exempt from such taxation, as aforestated in subdivision two of section one thousand twenty-m of this article, and that all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from such taxation as aforestated in such subdivision.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-n's

 § 1020-o. Payments by municipalities. The board of trustees of the village and the governing body of any municipality in which surplus of the authority is sold pursuant to section one thousand twenty-f of this title are authorized to make payments to the authority for its support. It is hereby determined that such payments are for a public purpose for the benefit of the people of such village and such municipalities.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-o's

 § 1020-p. Duty of authority to maintain and operate. It shall be the duty of the authority, subject to any limitation on the amount of revenues to be expended for such purpose, to maintain and operate and where necessary to reconstruct its properties.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-p's

 § 1020-q. Transfer of officers and employees. Any public officer or employee under civil service, selected by the authority may, with the consent of the commission, board or department by which he or she has been employed, be transferred to the authority and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to comparable offices, positions and employment under the authority. The salary or compensation of any such officer or employee shall after such transfer be paid by the authority. But notwithstanding the provisions of this title, any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority, pursuant to the provisions of this section, who are members of or beneficiaries under any existing pension or retirement system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund, system or systems as are now prescribed by law, but during the period of their employment by the authority, all contributions to any pension or retirement fund or system to be paid by the employer on account of such officers or employees, shall be paid by the authority; and all such officers and employees who have been appointed to positions under the rules and classifications of the civil service commission of the county of Albany shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. It is hereby declared that in the interest of efficiency and insofar as may be practicable, all employees engaged in the operation of any property or properties, except in an executive capacity, at the time such property or properties shall have been acquired by the authority, pursuant to the provisions of this title, shall become the employees of the authority. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and such rules as the civil service commission of the county of Albany may adopt and make applicable to such authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-q's

 § 1020-r. Officers and employees not to be interested in transactions. It shall be a misdemeanor for any of the members of the authority, or any officer, agent, servant or employee thereof, employed or appointed by them to be in any way or manner interested directly or indirectly in the furnishing of work, materials, supplies or labor, or in any contract therefor which the authority is empowered by this title to make.

 § 1020-s. Contracts. All contracts, or orders, for work, material or supplies performed or furnished in connection with construction or any procurement shall be awarded by the authority pursuant to resolution. Such contracts, or orders, for work, material or supplies needed for any particular purpose involving an expenditure for more than five thousand dollars shall be awarded only after inviting sealed bids or proposals therefor. The notice inviting sealed proposals shall be published at least once in a newspaper or trade paper selected by the authority for such purpose, such publication to be at least ten days before the date for the receipt of bids. If the authority shall not deem it for the interest of the authority to reject all bids, it shall award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder. The bidder whose bid is accepted shall give security for the faithful performance of the contract, and such other security as the authority may require, and may be required to maintain for such period as shall be stipulated any construction done under the contract, all in the manner prescribed and required by the authority; and the sufficiency of such security shall, in addition to the justification and acknowledgment, be approved by the authority. All bids or proposals shall be publicly opened by the authority or its duly authorized agent. If the bidder whose bid has been accepted after advertising shall neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to him on his bid or proposal, or, if he accepts but does not execute the contract and give proper security the authority shall have the right to declare his deposit forfeited, and thereupon it shall be readvertised and relet as above provided. In case any work shall be abandoned by any contractor, the authority may, if the best interests of the authority be thereby served, adopt on behalf of the authority any or all sub-contracts made by such contractor for such work and all such sub-contractors shall be bound by such adoption if made; and the authority shall in the manner provided herein readvertise and relet the work specified in the original contract exclusive of so much thereof as shall be provided for in the sub-contract or sub-contracts so adopted.

No bid shall be accepted from or any contracts awarded to, any person or corporation who is in arrears to the authority, or the village of Green Island upon any debt or contract, or is a defaulter as surety or otherwise upon any obligation of the authority, or the village. Every contract involving an expenditure of more than five thousand dollars when made and entered into as herein provided for shall be executed in duplicate, one copy of which shall be held by the authority and one copy of which shall be delivered to the contractor.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-s's

 § 1020-t. Audit. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the comptroller.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-t's

 § 1020-u. Actions against authority. 1. In any action founded upon tort a notice of claim shall be required as a condition precedent to the commencement of an action or special proceeding against the authority or any officer, appointee, agent or employee thereof, and the provisions of section fifty-e of the general municipal law shall govern the giving of such notice. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority founded on tort shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-u's

 § 1020-v. Separability clause. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be held by a competent court to be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, in its terms or in its operation, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-v's

 § 1020-w. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* NB There are 2 § 1020-w's

NORTH COUNTRY POWER AUTHORITY

§ 1021. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "North Country power authority act".

§ 1021-a. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. "Acquire" means, with respect to any right, title or interest in or to any property, either the act of taking by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or the acquisition by purchase or otherwise.

2. "Act" means the North Country power authority act, being this title.

3. "Authority" means the North Country power authority established by section one thousand twenty-one-b of this title.

4. "Commission" means the Public Service Commission.

5. "Comptroller" means the state comptroller.

6. "Directors" means the board of directors of the authority.

7. "Federal government" means the United States of America and any agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

8. "Final determination" or "finally determined" means a judicial decision (a) by the highest court of competent jurisdiction, or (b) by a court of competent jurisdiction from which no appeal has been taken and the time within which to appeal has expired.

9. "NCPA" means the North Country power authority, and its successors and assigns.

10. "Municipality" means any county, city, town, village, municipal corporation, school district or other political subdivision of the state, including any agency, authority or public corporation of the state or any of the foregoing, or any combination thereof, other than the authority.

11. "Property" means the power distribution system or systems of the authority, whether completed facilities or projects in construction, whether situated within or without the territorial limits of the service area, including the plants, works, structures, poles, lines, conduits, mains, systems, instrumentalities or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, franchises and interest in land, including lands under water and riparian rights, space rights and air rights, contract rights, substations, and distribution facilities, or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions or betterments. The term "property" shall also include any and all interests in real property less than full title, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also all claims for damages related to such real estate.

12. "Revenues" means all rates, rents, fees, charges, payments and other income and receipts derived by the authority from the operation of the properties of the authority other than the proceeds of the sales of its securities, including, but not limited to, investment proceeds and proceeds of insurance, condemnation, and sales or other disposition of assets, together with all federal, state or municipal aid.

13. "Security" means any bond, note or other obligation issued by the authority.

14. "State" means the state of New York.

§ 1021-b. North Country power authority. 1. A corporation known as the North Country power authority is hereby established and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a state authority, a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation, a political subdivision of the state, exercising governmental and public powers, perpetual in duration, capable of suing and being sued and having a seal, and which shall have the powers and duties enumerated in this title, together with such others as may be conferred upon it by law.

2. The authority shall be governed by a board of directors consisting of nine directors, to be residents of the service area, and to be appointed by the governor. Seven such directors shall be appointed upon the recommendation of the supervisors and mayors of the municipalities within the following regions, with the designations to be made in the following manner: the village of Potsdam will designate one designee to be forwarded to the governor; the village of Canton and the town of Canton will jointly designate one designee to be forwarded to the governor; the towns of Bombay, Brasher, Fort Covington, Moira and Westville will jointly designate one designee to be forwarded to the governor; the towns of Fowler and Gouverneur will jointly designate one designee to be forwarded to the governor; the towns of Lisbon, Louisville, Madrid, Norfolk and Waddington will jointly designate one designee to be forwarded to the governor; the towns of Potsdam, Stockholm, Colton and the village of Norwood will jointly designate one designee to be forwarded to the governor; and the towns of DeKalb, Edwards, Hermon, Russell and Pierrepont will jointly designate one designee to be forwarded to the governor. Every decade the directors shall examine the population of the seven regions, and if needed, adjust the make-up or demarcation of the regions, for the necessity or convenience of performing its functions and administering its affairs and to maintain a reasonable equality of population between the regions.

The governor shall select one of the directors to serve as chair, and such chair shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The term of office of a director, including the director serving as chair, shall be five years, but in the first instance such directors shall be appointed to hold office as follows: three for one year; three for three years; and three for five years. Upon resignation of a director, or a vacancy occurring in any other manner, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. In other respects, all vacancies shall be filled in the manner corresponding to the original appointment. Each director shall continue to hold office and serve until a successor is appointed, qualified and assumes office.

3. The members of the board shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties, as may be authorized by the directors, in each case upon appropriate documentation by the submitting director. No director or any entity, the majority of which is owned or controlled by any director, shall receive any additional compensation from NCPA or be employed by NCPA in any other capacity by whatever means.

4. Five directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the affirmative vote of five directors at a meeting shall be necessary to the validity of any resolution, order or determination. The directors, in by-laws or by resolution, may allow for attendance at a meeting of the directors by speaker phone or any other electronic means by which all meeting participants can hear one another.

5. The directors shall appoint an executive committee of not less than three directors and shall delegate such duties and responsibilities of the directors to the executive committee as it may determine from time to time, except that the directors shall not delegate to the executive committee the power to authorize the issuance of securities. The directors may appoint such additional committees with such duties and responsibilities as they may determine from time to time.

6. (a) The directors shall from time to time select such officers and employees, including a chief executive officer and such engineering, management and legal officers, and other professional employees, including but not limited to accounting, planning, construction, finance, appraisal, banking and trustee services, as the directors may require for the performance of their duties and shall prescribe the duties and compensation of each such officer and employee.

(b) If any employees are hired as a consequence of an acquisition of the assets of National Grid, they shall be hired subject and be entitled to all applicable provisions of (i) any existing contract or contracts with labor unions and (ii) all existing pension or other retirement plans. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law, the board may determine that such class of employees of the authority may elect to become members of the New York state employees' retirement system on the basis of compensation payable to them by the authority.

7. (a) The authority shall be subject in all respects to the general supervision and jurisdiction of the public service commission in the same manner as a municipal electric utility is subject to the jurisdiction of the public service commission under the public service law.

(b) The authority shall not make any commitment, enter into any agreement nor incur any indebtedness unless prior approval has been received from the New York state public authorities control board pursuant to article one-A of this chapter.

(c) In addition to all of the powers of the public service commission, prior to acquiring any property and commencing operations, the authority shall secure an order from the commission authorizing such acquisition and commencement. The commission shall have the power to deny the authority's application to acquire property and commence operations. The authority shall comply with any and all requests for documents, materials, and testimony that the commission may seek. The commission shall consider, including but not limited to, the following factors before issuing an order: ratepayer impacts; system reliability; environmental impacts, conservation of energy resources; preservation or creation of economic opportunities; power efficiency and availability; public health and welfare; and any other factor it deems relevant. The authority granted pursuant to this paragraph shall terminate upon commencement of distribution of power.

8. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have securities outstanding, unless adequate provision has been made for the payment thereof.

9. In the event that the authority does not commence delivering electric power within ten years of the effective date of this title, the authority shall cease to exist and the provisions of this title shall be of no further force and effect, subject to the terms of any bonds, notes or other debt obligations then outstanding.

§ 1021-c. North Country power authority service area; extension of service area. 1. The service area of the North Country power authority shall include all the territory located within so much of the county of Franklin as constitutes the Towns of Bombay, Fort Covington, Moira and Westville, and so much of the county of St. Lawrence as constitutes the Towns of Brasher, Canton, Colton, DeKalb, Edwards, Fowler, Gouverneur, Hermon, Lisbon, Louisville, Madrid, Norfolk, Pierrepont, Potsdam, Russell, Stockholm, and Waddington and the Villages of Canton, Norwood, and Potsdam or such portions thereof as shall be determined by the directors, but the service area shall exclude the portions of said municipalities in Franklin and St. Lawrence counties which are served as of the effective date of this title by another existing non-profit municipal electric utility. The service area of the North Country power authority shall include such other territories, as shall be determined by the directors, wholly within Franklin or St. Lawrence county, and adjacent to one or more of the above-referenced municipalities, in which rate payers rely on uninterrupted electric service from power facilities of the authority located within said municipalities. A map of the service area shall be filed in the offices of the county clerks of Franklin and St. Lawrence counties.

2. The service area of the North Country power authority may be extended at any time to include additional territory within Franklin or St. Lawrence counties by the directors in accordance with the following procedure, provided however, the procedure does not conflict with any rule or regulation of the public service commission or any other law. Whenever the directors determine that the territory included within the service area should be extended, consistent with the provisions of this title, the directors shall adopt a resolution proposing the additional territory, wholly within Franklin or St. Lawrence county, to be included, which may be all the territory within one or more named municipalities or, by adequate description, a portion of any such municipality or municipalities. The directors shall fix the dates, hours and places for three public hearings before such directors upon the question of such extension and cause notice thereof and of the additional territory to be included within the service area to be published in two newspapers of general circulation in the county not less than twenty nor more than thirty days before such date. At least one of such hearing shall be held within the bounds of the proposed additional territory. At such time the directors shall hear all persons, taxpayers or officials who may wish to be heard and shall finally determine the additional territory, if any, to be included in such extension. Such determination shall be made by resolution of the directors adopted by a two-thirds vote of all directors then in office. A map of the service area, as extended, shall thereupon be filed in the offices of the county clerks of Franklin and St. Lawrence counties.

§ 1021-d. Powers and duties of the authority. The powers conferred by this title shall be exercised by the directors, subject to the terms of this title. In the exercise of those powers, either directly or through its officers and employees, the directors may do the following things, among others, and the following list of powers shall not be deemed complete or exclusive, or to deny the existence of other powers, whether similar or different, so long as they are reasonably necessary for accomplishing the purposes declared and indicated in this title:

1. To make and alter by-laws for the regulation of its affairs and conduct of its activities, to schedule annual, regular and special meetings of the directors, as the conduct of the business of the authority may warrant, and to adopt and amend an official seal;

2. To develop, acquire, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate and improve facilities for the distribution of electric power or any connected service;

3. To determine the location, type, size, construction, lease, purchase, ownership, acquisition, use and operation of any facilities or other structure or property, within or without the service area;

4. To investigate, implement and integrate, to the fullest extent practicable and economically feasible, such resource conservation and energy efficiency measures and equipment intended to reduce power demand and usage, utilize green technologies, alternative and renewable fuels, net metering and demand response programs, all as integral elements in its investments in new equipment for distribution of power, and in its marketing and sale of electricity to consumers;

5. To acquire on behalf of and in the name of the authority, whether by agreement with and purchase from the owner or owners, or by arbitration, or within the service area by eminent domain, pursuant to the procedures set forth in the eminent domain procedure law, or by lease, the whole or any part of any existing facilities or of any other property to be used in connection with power distribution by the authority as set out in this title; provided, however, that the authority shall not acquire real property of a municipality or a political subdivision of the state unless such municipality or political subdivision shall consent thereto; and provided further that the authority shall not acquire by the exercise of eminent domain any transmission or generation facilities; and provided further that the authority shall not acquire by the exercise of eminent domain any facilities for distribution operating at a voltage in excess of twenty-two thousand volts from any person, corporation or association, public or private, engaged in the business of distribution and sale of electricity to ultimate customers unless the authority is unable to acquire by contract with the owners or operators thereof, the right to use such facilities on just, reasonable and non-discriminatory terms. In the exercise of the power of eminent domain, as provided in this subdivision, the property being acquired shall be deemed, when so determined by the authority, to be for a public use;

6. To distribute electric power and any connected services within the service area, to fix rates and charges for the furnishing or rendition of electric power or of any connected service, and to collect revenues. Provided however, that prior to the first sale of electric power or any connected service, the authority shall promulgate regulations granting to customers the protections afforded by article two of the public service law and section one hundred thirty-one-s of the social services law;

7. To maintain, operate and manage, and contract for the maintenance, operation and management of properties of the authority;

8. To apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal, state and local governments for such licenses, permits or approvals for its plans and projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate to accept, in its discretion, such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies and officials;

9. To enter upon such lands, waters or premises as in the judgment of the authority shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damages done;

10. To enter into cooperative agreements with other authorities, municipalities, utility companies, individuals, firms or corporations, and the dominion of Canada and its political subdivisions, for the interconnection of facilities and the exchange or interchange of electric power or connected services, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable;

11. To execute contracts, borrow money, issue bonds, notes and other obligations as provided in section one thousand twenty-one-i of this title, and sell the same in such amounts and at such prices, interest rates and other financial terms as may be determined by the directors;

12. To enter into agreements to purchase power from the power authority of the state of New York, the state, any state agency, any municipality, any private entity or any other available source at such price or prices as may be negotiated, including the power to enter into any agreement or any negotiation for the purchase of power from the dominion of Canada, or any political subdivision, public authority or private corporation therein;

13. To make any plans, studies or investigations which it may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to enable it effectually to carry out the provisions of this title;

14. To do whatever may be necessary to give effect to the purposes of this title, and in general to have and exercise all other powers necessary or incidental to the purposes of this title.

§ 1021-e. Deposit and investment of moneys of the authority. 1. All moneys of the authority, from whatever source derived, except as otherwise authorized or provided in this title, shall upon receipt be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks designated by the directors, to be selected in accordance with such standards as the directors shall set forth in the by-laws or investment guidelines of the authority, which standards shall take into account the creditworthiness and capital position of the depositary bank or banks. The moneys in such accounts may be invested in obligations of the state or the United States, or guaranteed by either in accordance with practices that the directors shall set forth in the by-laws or investment guidelines of the authority. The moneys in such accounts shall be withdrawn on the order of such person or persons as the directors shall authorize in the by-laws of the authority and shall be applied to the use of the authority as the directors shall authorize in the by-laws of the authority. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured in accordance with section twenty-nine hundred twenty-five of this chapter. The state comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing; the authority shall not be required to pay a fee for any such examination.

2. The authority shall have power to contract with holders of any of its bonds or notes or other obligations, or any trustee therefor, as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority and of any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or other obligations, and to carry out any such contract. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or other obligations or in any way to secure bonds or notes or obligations and deposits of such moneys shall be secured in full in direct obligations of the federal government the payment of which is guaranteed by the United States of America. Such investments shall be held on deposit only in banks having a minimum credit rating and a minimum accumulated capital, as the directors shall specify in the by-laws or investment guidelines of the authority.

3. Subject to agreements with noteholders and bondholders or any trustee therefor, the authority shall prescribe a uniform system of accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

4. The directors shall adopt investment guidelines and standards to implement the foregoing provisions of this section, which guidelines and standards shall be reviewed annually by the directors and shall be made available to state and municipal officials and to the public.

§ 1021-f. Conflicts of interest. Eligibility for appointment as a director, officer or employee of the authority shall be subject to the provisions of section twenty-eight hundred twenty-five of this chapter. In addition to the requirements of such section:

1. If any director, officer or employee of the authority shall have an interest, either direct or indirect, in any contract to which the authority is or is to be a party, such interest shall be disclosed to the authority in writing and shall be set forth in the minutes of the authority. The director, officer or employee having such interest shall not participate in any action by the authority with respect to such contract.

2. No director, officer or employee of the authority shall be deemed to have such an interest solely by reason of the ownership of two percent or less of the securities of a corporation which is or is to be a party to a contract with the authority, including without limitation the holding company of any banking institution in which the funds of the authority are, or are to be deposited, or which is or is to be acting as trustee or paying agent under any bond or note resolution, trust indenture or similar instrument to which the authority is a party.

3. Nothing in this section shall be deemed or construed to limit the right of any director, officer or employee of the authority to acquire an interest in the securities of the authority.

§ 1021-g. Sale of surplus power. Whenever any electric power which the authority may acquire creates a surplus over the amount of electric power required by the residents of the service area, the authority may sell such surplus in territory outside the service area to persons, or public or private corporations. In acquiring any facility or property which also serves any municipality or territory outside the service area, the authority, if it deems it advantageous and economical so to do, may, with the consent of the directors, serve any such municipality or territory or sell electric power to persons, or public or private corporations in such territory or to such municipality.

§ 1021-h. Audit and annual reports. 1. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the comptroller and an annual audit shall be performed by an independent certified public accountant selected by the directors and shall be made available to the municipalities served by the NCPA and to the public.

2. The authority shall submit a detailed annual report pursuant to and as specified in section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter, and a copy of such report shall be filed with the county executives of the counties of Franklin and St. Lawrence, and with the mayors and supervisors of the municipalities within the service area and shall be made available to the municipalities served by the NCPA and to the public. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to exempt the authority from any rule or regulation, including public authorities law.

§ 1021-i. Bonds, notes and other obligations of the authority. 1. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its bonds, notes or other obligations, in an aggregate amount not to exceed one hundred twenty-five million dollars, for the purpose of financing any capital project authorized by this title, including but not limited to, the acquisition of any real or personal property or facilities deemed necessary by the authority, development and professional expenses, and funding any capital or other reserve funds established in connection with the authority's operations or issuances, in such principal amount as the directors shall determine necessary to perform its corporate duties and further its purposes as authorized in this title. The maximum maturity of any such bond shall not exceed thirty years from its date of issuance. The maximum maturity of any such note or other obligation shall not exceed five years from its date of issuance.

2. Except as may be otherwise expressly provided by the authority, the issuance of bonds, notes or other obligations, shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds, notes or other obligations pledging any particular moneys or revenues.

3. The authority shall have power from time to time, whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds, notes or other obligations by the issuance of new bonds, notes or other obligations, up to one hundred twenty-five million dollars in the aggregate, whether the bonds, notes or other obligations to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds, notes or other obligations partly to refund bonds, notes or other obligations then outstanding and partly for any other purpose described in this section. Refunding bonds, notes or other obligations may be exchanged for the bonds, notes or other obligations to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold with the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded.

4. Bonds may be issued either in a series with multiple discrete maturity dates or as term bonds with a single maturity date. The bonds, notes or other obligations shall be authorized by resolution of the directors and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. In the event that term bonds, notes or other obligations are issued, the resolution authorizing the same may make such provisions for the establishment and management of adequate sinking funds for the payment thereof, as the authority may deem necessary.

5. The bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine. For a private sale of its securities, the authority shall obtain the written approval of the terms of such sale from the comptroller if such sale is to a party other than the comptroller, or from the director of the budget where such sale is to the comptroller, in either case prior to closing the issuance transaction.

6. Any resolution authorizing any issuance of bonds, notes or other obligations may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract between the authority and the holders of the issued securities, as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of the authority or its projects or any revenue producing contract or contracts made by the authority with any individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation or association to secure the payment of the bonds, notes or other obligations, subject to such agreements with holders of securities of the authority;

(b) pledging, assigning or creating a lien on all or any part of assets of the authority, including mortgages and obligations security mortgages, to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with holders of securities of the authority;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) establishment of special funds for deposit of moneys received from the proceeds of the issuance of securities as the directors shall determine, consistent with the authorizing resolution and the provisions of this title;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issuance of bonds, notes or other obligations then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds, notes or other obligations;

(f) limitations of the issuance of additional bonds, notes or other obligations; the terms upon which additional bonds, notes or other obligations may be issued and secured; and the refunding of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) providing for the appointment and powers of a trustee for holders of securities, and the rights, powers and duties of such trustee as the directors may determine;

(i) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(j) defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the duties of the authority to holders of its obligations and providing the rights and remedies of such holders in the event of a default provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the laws of the state and the other provisions of this article; and provided, further, however, that nothing contained in this article shall be deemed to restrict the right of the state or of any municipality to amend, modify or otherwise alter statutes, local laws, ordinances, resolutions or agreements imposing or relating to taxes or fees or appropriations relating thereto; and there shall not be included in any resolution or contract or agreement with the holders of the bonds, notes or other obligations authorized by this article any provision which provides that a default shall occur as a result of the state or of a municipality exercising its right to amend, modify or otherwise alter laws, ordinances, resolutions or agreements imposing or relating to taxes or fees or appropriations relating thereto; and

(k) any other provisions not inconsistent with those enumerated in this subdivision and necessary to effect its issuances of bonds, notes or other obligations and the rights of the holders of its securities, or otherwise in furtherance of its corporate purposes.

7. Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, any such resolution or resolutions shall contain a covenant by the authority that it will at all times maintain rates, fees or charges sufficient to pay, and that any contracts entered into by the authority for the sale or distribution of power shall contain rates, fees or charges sufficient to pay the costs of operation and maintenance of the project, the principal of and interest on any obligations issued pursuant to such resolution as the same severally become due and payable, and to maintain any debt service coverage ratios and any reserves required by the terms of such resolution or resolutions. Provided however, that the total rates, fees, and charges shall not exceed the prevailing electric rate in the North Country. The prevailing electric rate in the North Country shall mean the average of the total rates, fees, and charges paid by customers of National Grid and New York State Electric and Gas, or any successors, in St. Lawrence, Franklin, and Jefferson counties. Compliance with the prevailing electric rates in the North Country shall be left to the sole determination of the public service commission.

8. It is the intent of this title that any pledge of revenues or other moneys or of a revenue producing contract or contracts made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys or proceeds of any contract or contracts so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

9. Neither the directors of the authority nor any person executing the bonds, notes or other obligations shall be liable personally on the bonds, notes or other obligations or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

10. The authority shall have the power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds, notes or other obligations. The authority may hold, pledge, cancel or resell such bonds, notes or other obligations, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

11. Any bonds, notes or other obligations issued by the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever who are authorized to invest in bonds, notes or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; subject to the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary.

12. The authority is authorized to obtain from any department or agency of the United States of America or the state or any nongovernmental insurer or financial institution any insurance, guaranty or other credit support device, to the extent available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest or principal, or both, or any part thereof, on any bonds, notes or other obligations issued by the authority and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to any such insurance or guaranty, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority.

13. In addition to the powers conferred in this section upon the authority to secure its bonds, notes or other obligations, the authority shall have the power in connection with the issuance of bonds, notes or other obligations to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, and for the acquisition, alteration or disposition of its property, real and personal, including the mortgaging of any of its properties and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys or properties and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act, which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have the power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority.

15. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to allow the authority to exceed its one hundred twenty-five million dollar aggregate debt limit.

§ 1021-j. State and municipalities not liable on bonds or notes or other obligations. The securities of the authority shall not be a debt of the state or of any municipality, and neither the state nor any municipality shall be liable thereon. The authority shall not have the power to pledge or restrict the credit, the revenues or the taxing power of the state or of any municipality, and neither the credit, the revenues nor the taxing power of the state or of any municipality shall be or shall be deemed to be pledged to the payment of any securities of the authority. Each evidence of indebtedness of the authority, including the securities of the authority, shall contain a clear and explicit statement of the provisions of this section. Nothing in this article shall be deemed to obligate the state or any municipality to make any payments or impose any taxes to satisfy the debt service obligations of the authority.

§ 1021-k. Agreement of the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds, notes or other obligations issued by the authority under this title, that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect the revenues and other charges referred to in this title and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with or for the benefit of the holders of the securities, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders until such securities are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge of the state in all agreements by the authority with the holders of its securities. Nothing contained in this article shall be deemed to restrict any right of the state or municipality to amend, modify, repeal or otherwise alter statutes imposing or relating to taxes or fees, or appropriations relating thereto. The authority shall not include within any resolution, contract or agreement with holders of the bonds, notes or other obligations issued under this article any provision which provides that a default occurs as a result of the state or of a municipality exercising its right to amend, modify, or repeal or otherwise alter any statute imposing or relating to taxes, fees, or appropriations relating thereto.

§ 1021-l. Exemption of the authority from taxation. 1. It is hereby found and declared that the operation of the authority is primarily for the benefit of the people of the participating municipalities, counties and the state, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in carrying out the provisions of this title.

2. The authority shall be required to pay no taxes nor assessments upon any of the property acquired or controlled by it or upon its activities in the operation and maintenance thereof or upon income derived therefrom, provided that nothing herein shall prevent the authority from entering into agreements to make payments in lieu of taxes.

3. The authority shall make payments in lieu of taxes to municipalities and school districts equal to the taxes and assessments which would have been received from year to year by such jurisdiction.

4. The authority shall also make payments in lieu of taxes for those taxes which would otherwise be imposed upon a utility corporation pursuant to: (a) section one hundred eighty-six-a and former section one hundred eighty-six of the tax law as such sections were in effect on December thirty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-nine; (b) any taxes imposed by a city within the authority's service area pursuant to the authorization granted by section twenty-b of the general city law; and (c) any taxes imposed by a village within the authority's service area pursuant to authorization granted by section 5-530 of the village law.

5. Notwithstanding the exemption in subdivision two of this section, the authority shall also be subject to the assessments imposed pursuant to section eighteen-a of the public service law.

6. The securities issued by the authority, and the income therefrom shall, at all times, be free from taxation, except for estate and gift taxes.

7. Nothing in this article shall relieve the authority from its obligations to register for sales tax purposes, collect state or local sales and compensating use taxes imposed by or pursuant to the authority of articles twenty-eight and twenty-nine of the tax law, and otherwise comply with those articles on its sale of property or services.

§ 1021-m. Actions against the authority. 1. Any action, suit or proceeding to which the authority may be a party in which any question arises as to the validity of this title or the valuation of stock or assets acquired by the authority by the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be preferred over all other civil causes in all courts of the state, except election matters, and shall be heard and determined in preference to all other civil business pending therein, except election matters, irrespective of position on the calendar. The same preference shall be granted upon application of counsel to the authority in any action or proceeding questioning the validity of this title or the valuation of stock or assets acquired by the authority by the exercise of the power of eminent domain in which such counsel may be allowed to intervene. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the supreme court pursuant to article five of the civil practice law and rules.

2. In the event any party shall appeal an award of compensation for the taking by the authority of stock or assets, such party shall post a bond in such amount, if any, as the supreme court shall deem appropriate to adequately protect the interests of the other party under all the circumstances.

3. An action against the authority founded on tort shall be commenced in compliance with all the requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law, except that an action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued.

§ 1021-n. Equal employment opportunity. All contracts entered into by the authority pursuant to this title of whatever nature and all documents soliciting bids or proposals therefor shall contain or make reference to the following provision:

The contractor shall not discriminate against employees or applicants for employment because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status, and will undertake or continue existing programs of affirmative action to ensure that minority group persons and women are afforded equal opportunity without discrimination. Such programs shall include, but not be limited to, recruitment, employment, job assignment, promotion, upgrading, demotion, transfer, layoff, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selection for training and retraining, including apprenticeship and on-the-job training.

§ 1021-o. Limitation of liability; indemnification. 1. The directors, officers and employees of the authority, while acting within the scope of their authority as directors, officers or employees, shall not be subject to any personal or civil liability resulting from the exercise, carrying out or advocacy of any of the authority's purposes or power unless the conduct of the directors, officers or employees is finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to constitute intentional wrongdoing or recklessness.

2. The provisions of section eighteen of the public officers law shall apply to directors, officers and employees of the authority in connection with any and all claims, demands, suits, actions or proceedings which may be made or brought against any of them arising out of any determinations made or actions taken or omitted to be taken in compliance with any actions taken pursuant to the powers of this title.

3. As used in this section, the terms "director", "officer" and "employee" shall include a former director, officer or employee and his or her estate or judicially appointed personal representative.

4. Nothing in this section shall limit the obligations of a "director," "officer," or "employee" of the authority or of a subsidiary of the authority as a "person required to collect tax," as such term is defined in article twenty-eight of the tax law, if such director, officer or employee is, or was, under a duty to act for the authority or subsidiary, or both, as the case may be, in complying with any requirement of article twenty-eight or related provision of article twenty-nine of the tax law.

§ 1021-p. Website. The authority shall make accessible to the public, via its official or shared internet website, documentation pertaining to its mission, current activities, most recent annual financial reports, current year budget and its most recent independent audit report unless such information is covered by subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public officers law.

§ 1021-q. Prevailing wage. Whenever the authority enters into any contract, subcontract, lease, grant, bond, covenant or other agreement for or in connection with any construction, demolition, reconstruction, excavation, rehabilitation, repair, renovation, alteration, or improvement project, such project shall be deemed to be a public works project for the purposes of article eight of the labor law, and all of the provisions of article eight of the labor law shall be applicable to all the work involved in the construction, demolition, reconstruction, excavation, rehabilitation, repair, renovation, alteration, or improvement of such project. Funds, financial assistance, or any other benefits provided pursuant to this article shall not be utilized for or in connection with the construction, demolition, reconstruction, excavation, rehabilitation, repair, renovation, alteration, or improvement of any project to which the provisions of article eight of the labor law are not applicable.

§ 1021-r. Periodic review by legislature. Beginning in the year two thousand fifteen, and not more than every ten years thereafter, the legislature of the state of New York shall conduct a comprehensive review, of the structure, activities and operations of the NCPA, and the NCPA shall provide such records, reports and testimony as the legislature may request to assist in the conduct of this review.

§ 1021-s. Severability. The provisions of this title are severable, and if any clause, sentence, paragraph, action or part of this title, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this title or the application of such provision to any other person or circumstance, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof or person or circumstance directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

ALBANY LIGHT, HEAT AND POWER AUTHORITY

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1025. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Albany Light, Heat and Power Authority Act."
* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1026. Albany Light, Heat and Power Authority. There is hereby defined and established an area in the county of Albany to be known as the "Albany light, heat and power district," which shall embrace all the territory comprised within the cities of Albany, Cohoes and Watervliet, the villages of Ravena, Green Island, Colonie, Menands, Voorheesville and Altamont, and the towns of Bethlehem, Coeymans, Colonie, Green Island, Guilderland and New Scotland, within such county. Such district may be extended at any time to include additional territory within such county, in the manner provided in section one thousand twenty-eight.

There is also hereby created and established a public corporation, to be known as "Albany Light, Heat and Power Authority," hereinafter in this title referred to as "the authority." The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation, the objects of which in the judgment of the legislature cannot be attained under general laws. It shall have the power to acquire by the exercise of the right of eminent domain or otherwise such real estate and other property as may be necessary, to sue and be sued, to incur debts, liabilities and obligations, to issue bonds and other evidences of indebtedness, to have a seal, and to exercise all powers authorized by this title and reasonably necessary for accomplishing its purposes, or properly incidental thereto, subject to the provisions herein contained and to the constitution and laws of the United States and of New York state. Such powers shall be exercised in the name of the authority. Such authority shall continue only until July first, nineteen hundred sixty-three, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged; provided, however, that no appropriation made to the authority by the state of New York or by any political subdivision thereof, shall be deemed a liability for the purposes of this section.

 § 1027. Members of authority. The members, constituting the board of directors of the authority, shall consist of not exceeding five persons, to be appointed by the board of supervisors of Albany county. Three members shall when appointed be residents of the city of Albany and shall be appointed by such board on designation of the mayor of such city. The term of office of a member shall be five years, but in the first instance such members shall be appointed to hold office, one for one year, one for two years, one for three years, one for four years and one for five years, the term of each to be fixed by the resolution making the appointment. Upon resignation of a member, or a vacancy occurring in any other manner, it shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. In other respects all vacancies shall be filled in manner corresponding to the original appointment. Each member before entering upon the duties of his office shall take the constitutional oath of office, which shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. Three directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the concurrence of three directors at a meeting shall be necessary to the validity of any resolution, order or determination. Any member may be removed by the board of supervisors for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, after a hearing upon charges and an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel upon not less than ten days' notice. The members shall receive such salary as shall be determined by the board of supervisors of the county. They shall receive no reimbursement for the ordinary expenses of attending meetings, but may by resolution of the board of directors be allowed their expenses of a special or extraordinary nature. A member may receive additional compensation to be fixed by the board of directors, if appointed an officer of the authority. The directors of the authority may appoint an executive committee of not less than three members and may delegate full powers to such committee. They may appoint such other committees of not less than three members each with such powers as they may provide. They may elect one of the members as a president and may elect or appoint other officers and determine their powers. They may by a vote of a majority of members adopt by-laws and provide for their annual and regular meetings and for the calling of special meetings. The treasurer of the county of Albany shall be ex-officio treasurer of the authority and his compensation as such treasurer shall be fixed by the board of supervisors.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1028. Enlargement of district. Whenever it shall appear to the board of supervisors that the area included within the district should be extended it shall adopt a resolution stating the additional territory to be included which may be all the territory within one or more named municipalities or by adequate description a part of any such territory. It shall fix the date and hour for a hearing upon the question of such extension and cause notice thereof and of the additional territory to be included within the district to be published in two newspapers of general circulation in the county not less than twenty nor more than thirty days before such date. At such time the board shall hear all persons, taxpayers or officials who may wish to be heard and shall finally determine the additional territory, if any, to be included in such extension. Such determination shall be made by resolution of the board adopted by a two-thirds vote thereof. A map of the district as extended shall thereupon be filed in the office of the county clerk.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1029. Powers of the board. The power conferred by this title shall be exercised by the board of directors of the authority, subject to the terms of such title. In the exercise of those powers, either directly or through its officers and employees, the board may do the following things, among others, and the following list of powers shall not be deemed complete or exclusive, or to deny the existence of other powers, whether similar or different, so long as they are reasonably necessary for accomplishing the purposes declared and indicated in this title:

1. To determine upon the location, type, size, construction, lease, purchase, ownership, acquisition, use and operation of any plant or plants or other structure or property, within or without the territorial limits of the district;

2. To acquire on behalf and in the name of the county or the authority, whether by agreement with and purchase from the owner or owners, or by condemnation, the whole or any part of any existing plant or plants or of any other property which it is authorized to acquire under this title;

3. Subject to the provisions of the public service law, and to its agreement with any municipality, to fix rates and charges for the furnishing or rendition of light, heat or power or of any connected service, and to collect through bills therefor which shall be rendered at least once in each calendar month the revenues derived therefrom;

4. To appoint and at pleasure discharge a secretary and such clerical, engineering, legal and other professional assistants as it may deem necessary for the purposes of this title and to fix their compensation;

5. To appoint and at pleasure remove all employees, to transfer employees from their positions to other positions and to consolidate or abolish such positions;

6. To enter upon any lands and within any building whenever in its judgment it may be necessary for the purpose of making surveys and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title;

7. When so authorized by resolution of the board of supervisors with respect to service within any town or by resolution of the governing body of any other municipality, to investigate the cost of operation of any light, heat or power utility or service within any municipality, and for such purpose to examine and inspect the records, books, papers, accounts and other documents of any owner, whether individual or corporate, of any plant or plants, within or without the territorial limits of the district, and to make copies thereof or extracts therefrom;

8. To make to the public service commission, the annual report prescribed by subdivision seven of section sixty-six of the public service law, which report shall be verified by the oath of the president of the authority;

9. By the whole, or by any one or more, of the members of the authority, to make any investigation which it may deem necessary to enable it effectually to carry out the provisions of this title and, for that purpose, to take and hear proofs and testimony, to compel the attendance of witnesses and to require the production of records, books, papers, accounts and other documents including public records;

10. To execute contracts, borrow money, issue bonds, certificates of indebtedness and other obligations, and sell or dispose of the same in such amounts and at such rates of interest as may be advisable. This shall include the power to dispose of its bonds or other obligations to, and to borrow money from, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the federal emergency administrator of public works or any other federal or state agency, and it may also accept a grant from such corporation, administrator or agency, and donations from any public or private source;

11. To adopt, revise and amend rules and regulations to enable the authority to carry out the purposes of this title, every such rule and regulation, and each amendment thereof, to be filed with the county clerk;

12. Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of section seventy-seven of the public service law, to do whatever may be necessary to give effect to the purposes of this title, and in general to have and exercise all other powers necessary or incidental to the purposes of this title which may be exercised by a gas and electric corporation under the transportation corporation law.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1030. Deposit for temporary possession of property. Whenever the authority, in any proceedings instituted by it for the acquisition of any existing plant or plants by condemnation, shall make application for temporary possession pursuant to the provisions of section twenty-four of the condemnation law, the sum to be fixed by the court for deposit, as a condition of granting such application, need not exceed ten per centum of the assessed valuation of the real property sought to be acquired in such proceeding as such assessed valuation appeared upon the last assessment rolls for state or county taxes prior to the commencement of such proceeding.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1031. Properties acquired by the authority. The board of supervisors, when appointing the authority, may adopt a resolution providing, or it may by later agreement with the authority provide, that all properties acquired by the authority shall be acquired in or transferred to the name of the county or taken and held by the authority as a governmental agency of the county. The board of supervisors may at such time or by a later resolution provide that the county shall raise all or any part of the money necessary for the purposes of this title and may provide a fund from which appropriations may be made by the board of supervisors for the acquisition, construction and equipment of such properties, and to pay all costs, charges, expenses and liabilities incurred or to be incurred by the authority, or which the county may properly advance to the authority for the purposes of this title. The county shall be reimbursed out of the revenues of the authority for any moneys so paid. In making advances to the authority the board of supervisors may require a resolution of the authority and agreements by it pledging the revenues of the authority to the county and giving to the county a prior charge upon such revenues substantially as provided under section one thousand thirty-five, and limiting the power of the authority including the power to issue any obligations of its own under this title. Whenever the authority shall be and continue in default for a period exceeding thirty days in meeting any obligation it may have assumed to the county, the board shall also have power by resolution to remove any one or more or all of the members and to fill the vacancies caused thereby.

 § 1032. Power to furnish service within district. The authority shall have power to construct or acquire, by purchase or condemnation, or to lease, and to equip, own and operate, within or without the territorial limits of the county, any plant, works, structures, poles, lines, wires, conduits, mains, systems, waterpower, franchises, and any and all other real and personal property, used, connected with or appertaining to the manufacture, conveying, transportation and furnishing of gas, whether natural or manufactured or a mixture of both, for light, heat and power and in the generation, furnishing and transmission of electric current for light, heat and power, for the purpose of furnishing such service to the county and to any municipality or district and to persons in such district, including the state capitol and the branches, departments and offices of the state government; and also, for such purpose, to purchase gas or electrical energy from the state of New York, or from any state agency, or from any municipality within or outside of the county, or from any private or public corporation.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1033. Power to contract with municipalities within district. The authority shall also have power to contract with the governing body of any municipality within the district with a view to the construction, acquisition, maintenance and operation of any such service for or within such municipality and except in the case of towns when so authorized by the board of supervisors it shall not have power to furnish any such service within any municipality except by agreement with the governing body thereof. In any such contract with a municipality the authority may agree with respect to the rates for services and any other matters necessary or incidental to construction, acquisition, maintenance and operation therein. It may, if it seems to it necessary or proper, provide for the collection of its revenue by the municipality and for an accounting between it and the municipality, and for compensation to the municipality for its services. It may likewise, with the approval of the board of supervisors, agree upon a basis by which all or any part of its properties, rights and interests in such municipality, including any properties taken or held in the name of the county, may thereafter be acquired by and transferred to such municipality. In any agreement as to rates, the power shall be deemed to be reserved, whether or not expressed, to charge adequate rates to properly operate and maintain any such service and to pay any bonds and other obligations of the authority, including any obligation to the county under this title.

 § 1034. Sale of surplus. Whenever the productive capacity of the plants and properties of the authority together with any gas or electrical energy which it may acquire from other sources, creates a surplus over the amount of light, heat and power, in any of such services, required by the municipalities and residents of the district to which such service is contracted, the authority may sell such surplus in territory outside the district, either within or outside the county, to persons, public or private corporations or other municipalities. In acquiring, by purchase or condemnation, any plant or property in the district which also serves any municipality or territory outside the district, the authority, if it deems it advantageous and economical so to do, may, with the approval of the public service commission and the consent of the board of supervisors, serve any such municipality or territory or sell gas, heat, power or electrical energy to persons, public or private corporations in such territory or to such municipality. The authority shall not in any case duplicate any service already existing in any municipality or territory outside the district, without the approval of the public service commission.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1035. Bonds of the authority. The bonds, certificates of indebtedness and other obligations of the authority, unless disposed of to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the federal emergency administrator of public works or any other federal agency, shall be sold at public sale at not less than par. A resolution or resolutions authorizing any such obligations may contain provisions which shall be part of the contract with the holders thereof, which provisions may:

(a) pledge the revenues of the authority to secure the payment of such bonds and agree to maintain adequate rates for such purposes;

(b) give to any such bonds a prior charge upon such revenues;

(c) require such revenues to be set aside for sinking funds and reserve funds, safeguarding the deposit, use and investment thereof;

(d) limit or restrict the power of the authority under this title insofar as the same may be deemed advisable to secure the payment of such bonds;

(e) limit the power of the authority to issue additional obligations or restrict such power by relation to the revenues of the authority and with respect to the purposes thereof and the use of the proceeds or otherwise;

(f) authorize the appointment of a trustee or receiver as provided in section one thousand forty, limit the rights of bondholders to enforce their bonds by independent action, and in the event of a receivership require the return of all properties to the authority when the bonds are paid or redeemed and all costs paid;

(g) contain any other provisions reasonably necessary or deemed advisable to secure and provide for the payment of said bonds and the rights and remedies of the holders thereof;

(h) provide for the form of such bonds, coupon, registered or registerable coupon, and for ascertaining the owners or holders thereof for any purpose under section one thousand forty or;

(i) provide for the amendment of any such resolution in any respect, and the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto or whose objection thereto after published or written notice may prevent such amendment.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1036. Referendum. No bonds shall be issued under this title by the authority in an aggregate amount at any time outstanding exceeding ten million dollars. No such bonds shall be issued by the authority without the approval of a majority of the electors of the district voting on the question of such approval. Such question may be submitted by the board of supervisors either at a general election or a special election called for such purpose. The question submitted to the electors of the district shall be: "Shall the authority issue not exceeding (filling in the amount) dollars bonds under the Albany Light, Heat and Power Authority Act?" If such proposition is adopted, the authority may issue bonds under the power so given. The submission of such question and the conduct of and canvass of the votes cast at such election in the district shall be provided for by the board of supervisors as nearly as may be in accordance with the provisions of the election law. Notice of the submission of such question and a general statement of the purposes to which the proceeds of the bonds are to be applied shall be published in the official newspapers of the county, designated by the board of supervisors, once a week for six weeks immediately preceding such election. At any time prior to the election at which such question is to be submitted to the electors for approval, the board of supervisors may, not later than fifteen days prior to such election, rescind its action in submitting the same whereupon such question shall not be submitted at such election, or, if submitted, the vote of the electors thereon shall be without effect. Neither the submission of such question nor the validity or result of such election shall be questioned in any court or elsewhere except in an action or proceeding commenced not later than twenty days after the determination of such result by the county board of canvassers has been filed in the office of the county board of elections.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1037. State and county not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state or of the county, and, subject to section one thousand forty-one, the board shall have no power to make them payable out of any funds except those of the authority.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1038. When bonds legal investments for fiduciaries. On or before January first of each year commencing with the year nineteen hundred thirty-six, the comptroller shall file with the superintendent of banks his certificate stating the average annual revenues of the authority, or of the properties acquired or to be acquired by the authority, for the then preceding five years, as the case may be, and the maximum amount required in any future year to meet the interest and maturing principal of the outstanding obligations of the authority. If in his opinion the obligations of the authority are on the facts so determined and in his judgment sufficiently secured to constitute a suitable investment for the public funds of the state, he shall so certify, but such certification may later be withdrawn by him. If and so long as such average annual revenues exceed one and one-third times such maximum amount so certified, and the comptroller's certificate that the obligations of the authority constitute a suitable investment for public funds shall be in effect, the comptroller and all other public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities, districts and subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations, all savings banks and savings institutions, including savings and loan associations, administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries in the state may properly and legally invest funds in their control in such obligations.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1039. Exemption from taxation. The real and personal property of the authority shall be exempt from all taxation, and so shall all of its activities and operations, except that the owners of its bonds and other obligations shall be subject to transfer and estate taxes.

 § 1040. Remedies of bondholders. 1. If, and to the extent, and in the events, provided in the resolution authorizing the bonds, the holders of not less than twenty-five per centum in the aggregate principal amount of bonds at any time outstanding, may by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Albany and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, appoint a trustee to represent all the bondholders for the purposes hereafter provided, which trustee or successor trustee may, however, be removed or a new trustee appointed at any time by the holders of not less than fifty-one per centum of such bonds by similar instrument or instruments so filed, and so proved or acknowledged. Subject to such authorizing resolution, such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of not less than twenty-five per centum in principal amount of the bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its name:

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority and the members or officers thereof to collect rates and other revenue adequate to carry out any agreements as to, or pledge of, such rates and revenue, and to require the authority and members or officers thereof to carry out any other agreements with the bondholders and to perform its and their duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon the bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the bondholders;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the bondholders;

(e) after thirty days' notice in writing to the authority and if, and in the events, specified in the resolution, declare all bonds due and payable, and thereafter if, and in the events, specified in the resolution, annul such declaration and its consequences.

2. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of the bondholders and the venue thereof shall be laid in Albany county.

3. Subject to the authorizing resolution, any such trustee, whether or not all bonds have been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver who may enter and take possession of the properties of the authority or any part or parts thereof and operate and maintain the same and collect and receive all rates, charges and other revenues thereafter arising therefrom and exercise such other powers of the authority as the court may deem advisable in the same manner as the authority itself might do and shall deposit all such moneys in a separate account and apply the same in such manner as the court shall direct. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any rates, charges and other revenues derived from such properties.

 § 1041. County may levy tax within district. Should it appear to the board of supervisors at any time that the revenue of the authority is or will be insufficient to provide for the payment of any bonds issued under this title and to reimburse the county for any moneys that it may have advanced to the authority, the board of supervisors shall determine the amount of money necessary to be raised for such purpose, and shall levy a tax on the territory of the district and upon the several parcels of real estate in the district in an amount sufficient to produce the amount necessary to be raised as aforesaid; provided that such tax shall not be levied to pay any bonds of the authority unless the authority with the consent of the board of supervisors has pledged such tax prior to the issuance of such bonds. Such tax shall be levied and apportioned upon such territory and collected from the several parcels of real estate in the district in like manner as other county taxes.

It is hereby determined that the liability imposed upon the territory included in the district is based upon the special benefit to such territory accruing under this title and that the tax to be levied because of such liability and in proportion to the taxable value of real estate in such territory will be in proportion to such benefits.

 § 1042. Examination by comptroller. The state comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time and when requested by the authority the comptroller is hereby directed, to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1043. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, in its terms or in its operation, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB Terminated July 1, 1963

 § 1044. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* TITLE 2-A

NEW YORK CITY MUNICIPAL WATER FINANCE AUTHORITY

* NB There are 2 A5 T2-A's

§ 1045-a. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "New York city municipal water finance authority act".

§ 1045-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. "Authority" shall mean the public benefit corporation created by section one thousand forty-five-c of this title, known as the New York city municipal water finance authority.

2. "Bonds" shall mean bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the authority pursuant to this title and the provisions of this title relating to bonds and bondholders shall apply with equal force and effect to notes and noteholders, respectively, unless the context otherwise clearly requires.

3. "City" shall mean the city of New York.

4. "Comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the city.

5. "Construction" shall mean the acquisition, erection, building, alteration, improvement, increase, enlargement, extension, reconstruction, renovation or rehabilitation of a water, sewerage or water and sewerage system or water project, as the case may be, as defined herein; the inspection and supervision thereof; and the engineering, architectural, legal, fiscal and economic and environmental investigations and studies, surveys, designs, plans, working drawings, specifications, procedures and other actions incidental thereto and claims arising therefrom.

6. "Contracting agency" shall mean any municipality, agency, authority or board, state agency, public authority or public benefit corporation authorized to award contracts for design, construction, services or materials for water projects authorized by this title.

7. (a) "Cost", as applied to any water project, shall include the cost of construction, the cost of the acquisition of all property, including both real, personal and mixed, the cost of demolishing, removing or relocating any buildings or structures on lands so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved or relocated, the cost of all systems, facilities, machinery, apparatus and equipment, financing charges, interest prior to, during and after construction to the extent not paid or provided for from revenues or other sources, the cost of engineering and architectural surveys, plans and specifications, the cost of consultants' and legal services, the cost of lease guarantee or bond insurance, other expenses necessary, reasonably related or incidental to the construction of such water project and the financing of the construction thereof, including the amount authorized in the resolution of the authority providing for the issuance of bonds to be paid into any reserve or other special fund from the proceeds of such bonds and the financing of the placing of any water project in operation, including reimbursement to any municipality, state agency, the state, the United States government, or any other person for expenditures that would be costs of the water project hereunder.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, with respect to any fund established to support a program of water projects in Westchester and Putnam counties from the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to this chapter, "cost" as applied to any water project shall also include any interest paid after January twenty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-seven, without any other limitation as to when paid and without regard to the availability of any other sources of payment therefor, on bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued by any local governmental entity after January twenty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-seven to finance expenditures that would otherwise be costs of such water projects.

8. "Mayor" shall mean the mayor of the city of New York.

9. "Municipal bond" shall mean a bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness lawfully issued by the city pursuant to the local finance law or any other law applicable thereto.

10. "Person" shall mean any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation organized or existing under the laws of the state or any other state, exclusive of public corporations as defined pursuant to article two-A of the general construction law.

11. "Real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises and interests in land, waters, lands under water, groundwater riparian rights and air rights and any and all things and rights included within said term and includes not only fees simple absolute, but also any and all lesser interests including, but not limited to, easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or rights, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise.

12. "Sewage" shall mean the water-carried human or animal wastes from residences, buildings, industrial establishments or other places, together with such groundwater infiltration and surface water as may be present. The admixture with sewage of industrial or other waste also shall be considered "sewage" within the meaning of this title.

13. "Sewerage facility" or "sewerage facilities" shall mean any plants, structures and other real and personal property acquired, rehabilitated or constructed or planned for the purpose of collecting, treating and disposing of sewage, including main, trunk, intercepting, connecting, lateral, outlet or other sewers, outfall, pumping stations, treatment and disposal plants, groundwater recharge basins, back-flow prevention devices, sludge dewatering or disposal equipment and facilities, clarifiers, filters, phosphorous removal equipment, and other plants, structures, equipment, vehicles, conveyances, real or personal property or rights therein and appurtenances thereto necessary or useful and convenient for the collection, conveyance, pumping, treatment, neutralizing, storing and disposing of sewage.

14. "Sewerage system" shall mean the sewage collection, pumping, treatment neutralizing, storage and disposal system or systems in the possession of, or under the jurisdiction and control of, the city or the water board, including all additions, increases, enlargements, extensions or improvements thereto.

15. "State" shall mean the state of New York.

16. "State agency" shall mean any state office, department, board, commission, bureau or division, or other agency or instrumentality of the state.

17. "System revenues" shall mean rents, fees, charges, payments and other income and receipts derived from users of a water system or sewerage system of the city or the water board including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, investment proceeds and proceeds of insurance, condemnation, sale or other disposition of any part thereof, together with all federal or state aid therefor.

18. "Water board" shall mean the water board or a sewer and water board, as the case may be, created by a special act of the state legislature, for the city as a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation, and having the powers and duties as provided in this title.

19. "Water facility" or "water facilities" shall mean any plants, structures and other real and personal property acquired, rehabilitated, or constructed or planned for the purpose of supplying, distributing or treating water, including but not limited to surface or groundwater reservoirs, basins, dams, canals, aqueducts, standpipes, conduits, pipelines, mains, pumping stations, water distribution systems, compensating reservoirs, intake stations, water-works or sources of water supply, wells, purification or filtration plants or other treatment plants and works, connections, water meters, rights of flowage or division and other plants, structures, equipment, conveyances, real or personal property or rights therein and appurtenances thereto necessary or useful and convenient for the accumulation, supply, treatment or distribution of water.

20. "Water project" shall mean any sewerage facility, water facility or water and sewerage facility, as the case may be, including the planning, development, financing or construction thereof.

21. "Water system" shall mean the water supply and distribution system or systems owned by, in the possession of the city or the water board or under the jurisdiction, control and regulation of the city, including all additions, increases, enlargements, extensions or improvements thereto.

§ 1045-c. New York city municipal water finance authority. 1. A corporation known as the New York city municipal water finance authority is hereby created for public purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation. It shall be administered by a board of directors consisting of seven members as follows: the commissioner of environmental protection of the city, the state commissioner of environmental conservation, the director of management and budget of the city, the commissioner of finance of the city, two public members to be appointed by the mayor and one public member to be appointed by the governor. One public member appointed by the mayor shall serve for a term of one year, one public member appointed by the mayor shall serve for a term of two years, and the public member appointed by the governor shall serve for a term of two years from January first next succeeding the date of their appointment. Their successors shall serve for terms of two years each. Members shall continue in office until their successors have been appointed and qualified. The mayor or the governor shall fill any vacancy which may occur by reason of death, resignation or otherwise in a manner consistent with the original appointment. A public member may be removed by the mayor or the governor, whichever appointed him, for cause, but not without an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel, in his defense, upon not less than ten days' notice. The mayor shall select a chairman from among the directors appointed by him who shall serve in such capacity at his pleasure. The chairman shall preside over all meetings of the board of directors and shall have such other duties as may be prescribed by the board.

2. Each director who is a public member shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties and a per diem allowance of one hundred fifty dollars when rendering service as such director, provided that the aggregate of such per diem allowance to any one director in any one fiscal year of the authority shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars.

3. Such public members may engage in private employment, or in a profession or business, subject to the limitations contained in sections twenty-six hundred four, twenty-six hundred five, twenty-six hundred six and twenty-six hundred seven of the New York city charter for members appointed by the mayor, and subject to the limitations contained in sections seventy-three and seventy-four of the public officers law for members appointed by the governor. The authority shall, for the purposes of such sections be a "city agency" or a "state agency," as the case may be and such directors shall be "officers" of the authority for the purposes of such sections.

4. Four directors of the authority of whom at least three members shall be ex officio shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business or the exercise of any power of the authority. Resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes of the authority and resolutions authorizing any loan, lease, sale or other agreement in respect to a water project shall be approved by not less than four members of the authority at a meeting duly called for such purposes at which a quorum is in attendance, but for the transaction of any other business or the performance of any other power or function of the authority, the authority may act by a majority of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is in attendance. The authority may delegate to one or more of its directors, or its officers, agents and employees, such powers and duties as it may deem proper. The commissioner of environmental protection of the city, the state commissioner of environmental conservation, the director of management and budget of the city, and the commissioner of finance of the city may each, by written instrument, filed with and approved as to form by the authority, designate a deputy or assistant in their respective departments or offices, to perform, in their absence, their respective duties under this title. The term "director" as used in this subdivision shall include such persons so designated as provided herein. The designation of such persons shall be deemed temporary only and shall not affect the civil service or retirement rights of any persons so designated.

5. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of this or any other law, general, special or local, or of any charter, no officer or employee of the city or the state, shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his office or employment or any benefits provided under the retirement and social security law by reason of his acceptance of membership on the authority, provided, however, that a director who holds such other public office or employment shall receive no additional compensation for services rendered pursuant to this title, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of such services.

6. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the payment or satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and vest in the city except as otherwise may be specified in such law.

7. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city and the state for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that such purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

8. Nothing in this title shall be construed to obligate the state in any way in connection with the operations or obligations of the authority.

§ 1045-d. General powers of the authority. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To borrow money and issue negotiable or non-negotiable notes, bonds or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. To make and amend by-laws for its organization and internal management, and rules and regulations governing the exercise of its power and the fulfillment of its purposes under this title and file such by-laws with the secretary of state and clerk of the city;

5. To enter into contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title;

6. To acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease, lease as lessee, hold, and use any real or personal property or any interest therein, as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the purpose of this title provided, however, the authority may not acquire or otherwise receive real property of the city without the consent of the city and to sell, lease as lessor, transfer and dispose of any property or interests therein at any time required by it in the exercise of its powers;

7. To appoint such officers and employees as it may require for the performance of its duties, and to fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the civil service commission of the city, and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

8. To make plans and studies necessary, convenient or desirable to the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

9. To make use of existing studies, surveys, plans, data and other material in the possession of any state agency, any municipality or the water board in order to avoid duplication of effort;

10. To enter upon such lands, waters, or premises as in the judgment of the authority shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damage done;

11. To conduct investigations and hearings in the furtherance of its general purposes, and in aid thereof to have access to any books, records or papers relevant thereto; and if any person whose testimony shall be required for the proper performance of the duties of the authority shall fail or refuse to aid or assist the authority in the conduct of any investigation or hearing, or to produce any relevant books, records or other papers, the authority is authorized to apply for process of subpoena, to issue out of any court of general original jurisdiction whose process can reach such person, upon due cause shown;

12. To enter into agreements with the water board and the city for the financing by the authority of water projects, as herein provided;

13. To apply for and to accept any gifts or grants or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any agency or instrumentality thereof or from any other source, for any or all of the purposes specified in this chapter, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof;

14. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

§ 1045-e. Approval of water projects. The authority shall not enter into any contract or agreement with the city or the water board with respect to the financing of any water project pursuant to section one thousand forty-five-i of this title, unless the state commissioner of environmental conservation and the state commissioner of health shall have completed all statutory reviews and approvals with respect to such project which, as of the date of such contract or agreement, are required by law. Nothing herein shall be construed to diminish the full authority and responsibility of each department of the state for statutory reviews and approvals.

§ 1045-f. Water board. 1. A city water board may be created by a special act of the state legislature at the request of the city, as a body corporate and politic, constituting a corporate municipal instrumentality of the state and having the powers and duties as provided in this title.

2. The water board shall consist of seven members appointed by the mayor. Terms of office of the members shall be two years except that the terms of four of the board members first appointed shall be one year. At least one member shall have experience in the science of water resource development. No member shall be a director of the authority. The mayor shall appoint a chairman from among the members of the board. All members shall continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for original appointments. Vacancies, occurring otherwise than by expiration of term of office, shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments for the unexpired terms.

3. Each member of the water board shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties and a per diem allowance of one hundred fifty dollars when rendering service as a member; provided that the aggregate of such per diem allowance to any one member in any one fiscal year of the board shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars.

4. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, general, special or local, or any city charter, no officer or employee of the city shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his office or employment or any benefits provided under the retirement and social security law, by reason of his acceptance of membership on the water board, provided, however, that a member of the board who holds other public office or employment shall receive no additional compensation for services rendered pursuant to this title, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of such services.

5. The mayor may remove any member for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office after giving such member a copy of the charges against such member and an opportunity to be heard and defended, in person or by counsel, upon not less than ten days' notice. If any member shall be so removed, the mayor shall file in the office of the clerk of the city a complete statement of charges against such member, and the mayor's findings thereon, together with a complete record of the proceedings.

6. Members of the water board, other than members holding other public office or employment, may engage in private employment, or in a profession or business, subject to the limitations contained in sections twenty-six hundred four, twenty-six hundred five, twenty-six hundred six and twenty-six hundred seven of the New York city charter.

7. A majority of the members of the water board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business or the exercise of any power of the board. The water board shall have power to act by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members in office at any duly held meeting thereof. The water board may delegate to one or more of its members or its officers, agents and employees, such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Any member who is an officer of the city may, by written instrument, filed with and approved as to form by the board, designate another city officer to perform in his absence his duties under this title. The term "member" as used in this section shall include such persons so designated as provided herein. The designation of any such person shall be deemed temporary only and shall not affect the civil service or retirement rights of the person so designated.

8. The water board and its corporate existence shall continue so long as it shall have contractual duties or obligations outstanding and until its existence shall be terminated by law. Upon termination of the existence of the water board, all of the rights and assets of the water board then remaining shall pass to and vest in the city.

9. It is hereby determined and declared that the water board and the carrying out of its powers and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city and the state, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that such purposes are public purposes and that the water board is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

§ 1045-g. General powers of the water board. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the water board shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To make and amend by-laws for its organization and internal management, and rules and regulations governing the exercise of its powers and duties and the fulfillment of its purposes under this title;

4. To establish, fix, revise, charge and collect and enforce the payment of all fees, rates, rents and other service charges for the use of, or services furnished by the sewerage system, water system, or both, as the case may be, so as to receive revenues which, together with other revenues available to the board, if any, shall be at least sufficient at all times so that such system or systems shall be placed on a self-sustaining basis in accordance with section one thousand forty-five-j of this title; provided, however that the water board shall not establish a limit of less than four years commencing from the date of the bill for services to challenge any fee, rate, rent or other service charges for the use of or services furnished by the water and/or sewerage systems; any such challenge shall specifically set forth the basis for such claim;

5. To enter into contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the water board to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title, provided nothing herein contained shall authorize the water board to borrow money or otherwise contract indebtedness;

6. To enter into an agreement pursuant to section one thousand forty-five-i of this title with the authority and the city to provide a means whereby the authority shall finance the cost of constructing water projects, as described in the agreement, and the water board may agree to assume title to the water or sewerage system, or both, and to raise revenues from users through fees, rates, rents or other service charges necessary or appropriate to secure such financing and to pay the cost of the operation, management and repair of such water or sewerage system;

7. To acquire, purchase, lease as lessee, hold and use any property, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this title and, subject to any limitations in any agreement with the city entered into pursuant to section one thousand forty-five-h of this title, to sell, lease as lessor, transfer or otherwise dispose of any such property or interest therein;

8. To appoint such officers and employees as it may require for the performance of its duties, and to fix and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the civil service commission of the city, and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

9. To acquire from the city title to the sewerage system, water system, or both the sewerage and water systems, as the case may be, of such city;

10. To make plans, surveys and studies necessary, convenient or desirable to the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the water board and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

11. To make use of existing studies, surveys, plans, data and other material in the possession of the city in order to avoid duplication of effort, and such city is hereby authorized to make the same available to the water board and otherwise to assist it in the performance of its functions;

12. With the consent of the mayor of the city to use officers or employees of the city and to pay a proper portion of the compensation or costs for the services of such officers or employees;

13. To conduct investigations and hearings in the furtherance of its general purposes, and in aid thereof to have access to any books, records or papers relevant thereto; and if any person whose testimony shall be required for the proper performance of the duties of the water board shall fail or refuse to aid or assist the water board in the conduct of any investigation or hearing, or to produce any relevant books, records or other papers, the water board is authorized to apply for process of subpoena, to issue out of any court of general original jurisdiction whose process can reach such person, upon due cause shown;

14. To apply for and to accept any gifts or grants of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any state agency, the city or from any other sources, for any or all of the purposes specified in this title, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof;

15. To invest moneys not required for immediate use or disbursement, subject to such restrictions as may be imposed by any agreement with the authority, in such obligations or deposits with such banks or trust companies as it may determine and designate, provided that any such deposit with a bank or trust company shall be continuously and fully secured by direct obligations of the city, the state or the United States of America, or obligations the principal of and interest on which are guaranteed by the state or the United States of America, of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit;

16. To establish and maintain such reserves, special funds and accounts, to be held in trust or otherwise, as may be required by any agreement with the authority and the city; and

17. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

§ 1045-h. Transfer of sewerage or water systems by the city to the water board. 1. The city may, acting either by the mayor alone or by resolution of the board of estimate of the city, enter into an agreement with the water board for the transfer to the water board, for use in the exercise of its corporate powers and purposes, the sewerage system or water system, or both, of the city as the same then shall be owned by the city. Any such agreement may provide for the transfer of title of such system or systems by deed, lease or other arrangement to the water board. To the extent not inconsistent with this title, any such agreement may impose such limitations or conditions as may be agreed upon by and between the city and water board with respect to the power of the water board to sell or otherwise dispose of any property acquired by the board pursuant to such agreement, and may provide for or authorize the water board to surrender to the city, property no longer required by the water board for its public purposes. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law or charter to the contrary, any action taken by the city pursuant to this subdivision shall not be subject to a permissive or mandatory referendum.

2. Any such agreement shall set forth the liabilities of the city which it is contemplated are to be paid by the water board from moneys available to it; provided, however, that such agreement does not require the water board to assume the liabilities of the city; provided further, notwithstanding the foregoing, the city shall continue to be the record owner for real estate tax purposes of any facilities located outside of its municipal boundaries.

3. Any such agreement may provide for the payment by the city to the water board from any funds of the city, of such amount as may be determined appropriate for use by the water board.

4. The city and the water board are hereby authorized and empowered to make or enter into any contracts, agreements, deeds, leases, conveyances or other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this title, and they shall have power and authority to do so and to authorize the doing of all things incidental, desirable or necessary to implement the provisions of this title.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, no agreement contemplated by this section shall become effective for any purpose unless and until the same shall have been approved in writing by resolution of the authority.

6. Upon the filing by the water board with the clerk of the city and the secretary of state of a copy of the instruments or documents effectuating the transfer authorized by this section, the water board shall take possession of the sewerage system or water system, or both, of the city thereby transferred.

7. Any application filed or proceeding heretofore commenced in relation to the sewerage system or water system, or both, transferred to the water board pending with the state departments of environmental conservation or health or any other state agency or with the United States environmental protection agency or any other federal agency or instrumentality shall inure to and for the benefit of the water board and be binding upon the water board to the same extent and in the same manner as if the water board had been a party to such application or proceeding from its inception, and the water board shall be deemed a party thereto to the extent not prohibited by any federal law. Any license, approval, permit or decision heretofore or hereafter issued or granted pursuant to or as a result of any such application or proceeding shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the water board and shall be assigned and transferred by the city to the water board unless such assignment and transfer is prohibited by federal law.

8. The rules and regulations of the water board may provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of the supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, by the city for non-payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the water board, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law. A copy of all by-laws, rules and regulations and amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the water board, shall be filed in the offices of the clerk of the city and the secretary of state within three months and thereafter published once in the official newspaper of the city. Violation of such rules and regulations shall subject the offending party to a civil penalty in an action brought by the water board, not exceeding one hundred dollars for each day the violation continues. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the civil court of the city and the environmental control board of the city to hear and determine, subject to the provisions of the civil practice law and rules, any violation of such rules and regulations.

§ 1045-i. Agreement among the water board, the city and the authority for the provision of water projects. 1. The authority, the water board and the city, acting either by the mayor alone or by resolution of the board of estimate of the city, may enter into agreements for the purpose of providing for the construction and financing of a water project.

2. Any such agreements (i) shall describe in sufficient detail for reasonable identification the particular water project to be financed in whole or in part by the authority, (ii) shall describe the plan for the financing of the cost of the construction of such water project, including the amount, if any, to be provided by the water board and the source or sources thereof, (iii) shall set forth the method by which and by whom and the terms and conditions upon which moneys provided by the authority shall be disbursed, (iv) may require, in the discretion of the authority, the payment to the authority of the proceeds of any state and federal grants available to the water board, (v) shall provide for the establishment of user fees, rates, rents and other charges and the charging and collection thereof by the water board for the use of, or services furnished, rendered or made available by such system such as to provide that such board receive revenues at least sufficient, together with other revenues of the board, if any, to meet the requirements of subdivision one of section one thousand forty-five-j of this title, provided that revenues received by such board shall be deposited in a special fund established pursuant to this title and disbursed to, and upon certification of, the authority, (vi) may provide for the transfer by the city to the water board pursuant to section one thousand forty-five-h of this title of ownership of the sewerage system or water system, or both, as the case may be, of which such project will form a part by the city, (vii) shall provide for the construction and completion of such water project by the city and for the operation, maintenance and repair thereof as an integrated part of the system of which such water project forms a part, subject to such terms and conditions, not inconsistent with this title, which may be in the public interest and necessary or desirable properly and adequately to secure the holders of bonds of the authority, provided, however, all contracts for public work and all purchase contracts shall be awarded by the city as provided by law for the award of such contracts by the city and that all contracts for construction shall be let in accordance with the provisions of state law pertaining to prevailing wages, labor standards and working hours. Except as otherwise provided in section two hundred twenty-two of the labor law, when the entire cost of constructing a building as part of any water project shall exceed three million dollars, the city shall prepare separate specifications for the following three subdivisions of the work to be performed: (a) plumbing and gas fitting; (b) steam heating, hot water heating, ventilating and air conditioning apparatus; and (c) electric wiring and standard illuminating fixtures, (viii) shall provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of the supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, for non-payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the water board, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law, and (ix) in the discretion of the authority, require reports concerning the project from the water board to the authority and the city.

2-a. Each bidder on a public work contract, where the preparation of separate specifications is not required, shall submit with its bid a separate sealed list that names each subcontractor that the bidder will use to perform work on the contract, and the agreed-upon amount to be paid to each, for: (a) plumbing and gas fitting, (b) steam heating, hot water heating, ventilating and air conditioning apparatus and (c) electric wiring and standard illuminating fixtures. After the low bid is announced, the sealed list of subcontractors submitted with such low bid shall be opened and the names of such subcontractors shall be announced, and thereafter any change of subcontractor or agreed-upon amount to be paid to each shall require the approval of the public owner, upon a showing presented to the public owner of legitimate construction need for such change, which shall be open to public inspection. Legitimate construction need shall include, but not be limited to, a change in project specifications, a change in construction material costs, a change to subcontractor status as determined pursuant to paragraph (e) of subdivision two of section two hundred twenty-two of the labor law, or the subcontractor has become otherwise unwilling, unable or unavailable to perform the subcontract. The sealed lists of subcontractors submitted by all other bidders shall be returned to them unopened after the contract award.

3. If the city executes an agreement pursuant to this section, relating to the financing of water projects by revenue bonds, it shall have and shall be deemed to have annulled its power to levy user fees, rents and other charges on participating properties or customers for the cost of financing, operating and maintaining such water or sewerage system or both, as the case may be, under its jurisdiction until all bonds of the authority shall have been paid or discharged in accordance with the agreement and the resolution of the authority authorizing such bonds. If the city has outstanding general obligation bonds issued for acquiring or constructing water or sewerage facilities, whether the bonds are payable from revenues, special assessments, or taxes, it may authorize the authority pursuant to the agreement to issue its revenue bonds under this title for the purpose of retiring the outstanding bonds.

4. No such agreement shall be executed until the city and water board shall have held a public hearing at which users of the water system or the sewerage system or the water system and sewerage system, as the case may be, shall have had opportunity to be heard concerning the proposed provisions thereof. Notice of such hearing shall be published at least thirty days in advance in the state register, in the official newspaper or newspapers of the city, and in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each of the areas served by the water system or sewerage system, as the case may be.

5. Such agreement shall be effective upon the issuance by the authority of notes and bonds to finance the cost of constructing water projects of the city.

6. Any such agreement may be amended, revised or extended by supplemental agreements authorized and executed in the same manner as the original agreement, provided that any such supplemental agreement shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this title.

7. (a) Following the execution of the agreement by and between the authority, the water board and the city pursuant to this section, the clerk of the city, shall publish a notice in substantially the following form: "Notice is hereby given that the city of New York has on   day of   entered into an agreement with the New York city municipal water finance authority in relation to the construction and financing of (here insert a brief description of the sewerage or water facility or facilities to which such agreement relates) pursuant to the New York City Municipal Water Finance Authority Act for the purpose of placing its water or sewerage system or water and sewerage system, as the case may be, on an independent basis, imposing fees and rents on water or sewerage system users, or both, which, together with other revenues available for such purpose, if any, are sufficient to pay to the authority debt service on bonds issued by the authority pursuant to the agreement and for operation and maintenance of the facility (title to which is transferred to the water board pursuant to the agreement). Such agreement in general terms provides (here insert a brief summary of the substantive provisions of such agreement). A copy of the complete agreement is on file for public inspection in the office of the clerk of the city where the same may be examined by any interested person during regular business hours. The validity of this agreement may be hereafter contested only upon the ground or grounds that: (i) such agreement violates, or the performance of any provision thereof by any party thereto would violate, the provisions of any law or the state constitution, or (ii) the provisions of law which should have been complied with in relation to the authorization and execution were not substantially complied with, and in any event an action, suit or proceeding is commenced within sixty days after the date of this notice.

(Clerk or other official designated by the city council of the city of New York)"

(b) The publication authorized by this subdivision shall be in the state register and in the official newspaper or newspapers of the city.

(c) After the expiration of the sixty day period set forth in such notice the validity of such agreement shall be conclusively presumed and the validity thereof shall not thereafter be questioned by either a party plaintiff or a party defendant and no court shall have jurisdiction in any action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity.

(d) Neither any error or omission in the notice of publication provided for in this subdivision shall affect or impair the validity of an agreement executed pursuant to this section so long as the notice substantially conforms to the provisions of this section.

§ 1045-j. Imposition and disposition of sewer and water fees, rates, rents or charges. 1. The water board shall establish, fix and revise, from time to time, fees, rates, rents or other charges for the use of, or services furnished, rendered or made available by, the sewerage system or water system, or both, as the case may be, owned by the water board pursuant to this title in such amount at least sufficient at all times so as to provide funds in an amount sufficient together with other revenues available to the board, if any, (i) to pay to the authority, in accordance with any agreement with the authority, an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying the principal of and the interest on the outstanding notes or bonds of the authority as the same shall become due and payable and maintaining or funding a capital or debt service reserve fund therefor and, to the extent requested by the city in, or annually pursuant to, the agreement to pay to the city, in accordance with the agreement, an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on general obligation bonds thereof issued for or allocable to the water system or sewerage system or both, as the case may be, as the same shall become due and payable, and to maintain or fund reserves therefor, (ii) to pay to the city, in accordance with the agreement, an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying the costs of administering, maintaining, repairing and operating and the cost of constructing capital improvements to the water system or sewerage system or both, as the case may be, (iii) to pay to the city in accordance with the agreement entered into pursuant to section one thousand forty-five-i of this title an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying liabilities issued for or allocable to the water system or sewerage system or both, as the case may be, as the same shall become due and payable, (iv) to meet any requirements of any agreement including requirements relating to the establishment of reserves for renewal and replacement and for uncollected charges and covenants respecting rates, (v) to pay all other reasonable and necessary expenses of the authority and the water board in relation thereto, and (vi) to the extent requested by the city in or pursuant to the agreement, to pay or provide for such other purposes or projects as such city considers appropriate and in the public interest. Any surplus of funds remaining in the water board after such payments have been made shall be returned to the city for deposit in the general fund.

2. There is hereby established in the custody of the water board a special fund to be known as the local water fund. Such fund shall consist of the revenues derived from the fees, rates, rents and service charges established, charged and collected pursuant to this title and any other income earned or moneys received by the water board. Revenues in the local water fund shall be kept separate and shall not be commingled with any other moneys in the custody of the water board. All moneys, properties and assets acquired by the water board, whether as revenues or otherwise, shall be held by it in trust for the purposes of carrying out its powers and duties, and shall be used and reused in accordance with the purposes and provisions of this article.

The water board shall deposit promptly, to the credit of the local water fund, revenues collected under this article in a bank, banking house or trust company as may be designated in or pursuant to the agreement.

3. No such fee, rate, rent or other charge shall be established, fixed or revised unless and until the water board has held a public hearing at which the users of the water system or sewerage system, or both, as the case may be, the owners of property served or to be served and others interested, have had an opportunity to be heard concerning the same. Notice of such public hearing shall be published by the water board at least twenty days before the date set therefor, in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each of the areas served by the water system or sewerage system, as the case may be. Such notice shall set forth the date, time and place of such hearing and shall include a brief description of the matters to be considered at such hearing. A copy of the notice shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the city and shall be available for inspection by the public. At all such hearings, any users of the water system, sewerage system, or both, as the case may be, owners of property served or to be served and any other interested persons shall have an opportunity to be heard concerning the matters under consideration. Any decision of the water board on matters considered at such public hearing shall be in writing and be made available in the office of the water board for public inspection during regular office hours. Such decision shall be published in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each of the areas served by the water system or sewerage system, as the case may be within thirty days after such decision is made. The fees, rates, rents or other charges so established for any class of users of property served shall be extended to cover any additional premises thereafter served which are within the same class, without the necessity of a hearing thereon.

4. The fees, rates, rents or other charges established, fixed and revised from time to time by the water board shall be collected by the water board at such times and in such manner as may be determined by the rules and regulations adopted by the water board consistent with the provisions of this title.

4-a. (a) The water board may enter into agreements with one or more financing agencies or card issuers to provide for the acceptance by the water board of credit cards as a means of payment of fees, rates, rent or other charges owed by a person to the water board. Any such agreement shall govern the terms and conditions upon which a credit card proffered as a means of payment of a fee, rate, rent or other charge shall be accepted or declined and the manner in and conditions upon which the financing agency or card issuer shall pay to the water board the amount of fees, rates, rent or other charges paid by means of a credit card pursuant to such agreement. Any such agreement may provide for the payment by the water board to such financing agency or card issuer of fees for the services provided by such financing agency or card issuer pursuant to such agreement, which fees may consist of a discount deducted from or payable in respect to the amount of each such fee, rate, rent or other charge or otherwise as the agreement may provide.

(b) If the water board has entered into an agreement pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, it may accept credit cards as a means of payment of fees, rates, rent or other charges, as provided in any agreement entered into pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision and may pay such fees as are specified in such agreement to such financing agency or card issuer in consideration of the services rendered by such financing agency or card issuer thereunder; provided, however, that the water board may require any person offering a credit card as a means of payment of such fee, rate, rent or other charge to pay to the water board a reasonable administrative service fee not to exceed the costs incurred by the water board in connection with such credit card transaction, which costs shall include any fee payable by the water board to such financing agency or card issuer.

(c) The water board may promulgate any rules or regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this subdivision.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "card issuer", "credit card", "financing agency" and "person" shall have the same meaning as provided in subdivision (a) of section five of the general municipal law.

5. Such fees, rates, rents or other charges, if not paid when due, shall constitute a lien upon the premises served and a charge against the owners thereof, which lien and charge shall bear interest at the same rate as would unpaid taxes of the city. Such lien shall take precedence over all other liens or encumbrances, except taxes, and may be foreclosed against the lot or building served in the same manner as a lien for such taxes. The amount which remains due and unpaid for sixty days may, with interest thereon at the same rate as unpaid city taxes and with reasonable attorneys' fees, be recovered by the water board in a civil action in the name of the water board against such owners. The city, and any state agency shall be subject to the same fees, rates, rents or other charges under the same conditions as other users of such water system or sewerage system, or both, as the case may be. Tax exempt organizations shall be charged according to the provisions of chapter six hundred ninety-six of the laws of eighteen hundred eighty-seven, as amended by chapters eight hundred ninety-three and eight hundred ninety-four of the laws of nineteen hundred eighty and by provisions which may by law extend the provisions of such chapters from time to time. Any agreement for the supply of water or sewerage services between the city or an agency thereof and any other municipality or water supply system, or any administrative determination by a state agency, or any other arrangement in this regard, in effect at the time the water board shall be established, shall remain in full force and effect and be binding upon the water board as if it were a party to such agreement, determination or other arrangement. All rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions provided by law with respect to the fixing of charges or rates for the supply of water or sewerage services to users outside the city, including but not limited to those set forth in article one of title K of chapter fifty-one of the administrative code of the city of New York and article eight of the environmental conservation law, shall be deemed to apply, as appropriate, to the water board established pursuant to this title. In addition to any other lawful enforcement methods and pursuant to rules and regulations of the water board promulgated pursuant to this title, the payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges for water service or sewerage service to any premises may be enforced by discontinuing the water service or sewerage service to such premises provided that such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a water-works corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law.

6. The water board shall pay to the authority such amounts at such times and in such manner as may be provided in the agreement by and among the authority, the water board and the city consistent with the priorities set forth in such agreement. There is hereby created a lien, by this title made a statutory lien within the meaning of the uniform commercial code and any other state or federal law, upon the gross revenues of the water board, in favor of the payment of all amounts due pursuant to such agreement and in the order and priority set forth therein and which lien shall be a first lien upon such gross revenues. The gross revenues so subject to such statutory lien shall be and remain subject to such statutory lien until the payment in full of each such item in accordance with such priority. Said statutory lien shall not be construed to give any holder or owner of any bond of the authority power to compel the sale of any water system or sewerage system, as the case may be.

7. If there be any default by the water board in the making of the payments to the authority required under this section, as a result of the failure by the water board to impose sufficient fees, rates, rents or other charges, the authority may petition for the appointment by any court having jurisdiction in any proper action of a receiver to administer on behalf of the water board, under the direction of said court, the affairs of the water board in order to achieve system revenues at least sufficient to make such payments; and by and with the approval of said court, to establish, fix and revise, from time to time, fees, rates, rents or other charges at least sufficient therefor in conformity with this title, and the resolution or trust indenture of the authority providing for the issuance of its bonds and in accordance with such orders as the court shall make.

8. The water board shall prepare and transmit to the city on or before the first day of December in each year a list of those persons or property owners within such city who are in arrears in the payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges for a period of sixty days or more after the last day fixed for payment thereof without penalty. The list shall contain a brief description of the properties for which the services were provided, the names of the persons liable to pay for the same and the amounts chargeable to each, including penalties and interest computed to the next succeeding December thirty-first. The city shall levy such sums against the properties liable and shall state the amount thereof in a separate column in the annual tax rolls of such city under the name of "delinquent water charges" or "delinquent sewerage charges" or "delinquent water and sewerage charges" as may be appropriate and as may be directed by the water board. Such amounts, as and when collected by the commissioner of finance of the city, shall be paid over to the water board. All of the provisions of the tax laws of the state covering the enforcement and collection of unpaid taxes of the city shall apply to the collection of such unpaid fees, rates, rents or other charges.

9. Neither the public service commission, nor any city or state agency, shall have any jurisdiction over the water board or authority or any power over the regulation of the fees, rates, rents or other charges established, fixed or revised by the water board except with respect to the supply of water or sewerage services to users outside the city as provided in article one of title K of chapter fifty-one of the administrative code of the city of New York.

9-a. The water board shall hold public hearings, in each borough of the city of New York, prior to promulgating or fixing annual water and sewer rates for such city. Notice of such public hearing shall be conspicuously published in a newspaper of general circulation, within each borough, at least one week prior to the hearing.

§ 1045-k. Tax exemption of the water board property and activities. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of a water board and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the city and is a public purpose and the water board shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any real property owned by it or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf. The water board shall be deemed a public authority for the purposes of section four hundred twelve of the real property tax law.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions one and four of this section, any real property of the water board located outside the boundaries of the city, shall be exempt from the payment of taxes, special ad valorem levies and special assessments only if and to the extent that such real property would have been exempt if owned by the city.

3. Notwithstanding any provision in this section to the contrary, the water board may pay, or may enter into agreements with any municipality to pay, a sum or sums, annually or otherwise, or to provide other considerations to such municipality, with respect to real property of the water board located within such municipality and provided that any such payment or agreement to pay shall be subject to approval by the authority.

4. The water board shall not be required to pay any taxes or other governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including without limitation franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes, or any other tax or charge upon its property or activities or upon any of its revenues or other income.

§ 1045-l. Pledge effective without filing or recording. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues or other personal property made or created by the authority, the water board or the city pursuant to this title shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority, the water board or the city, as the case may be, irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

§ 1045-m. Governmental capacity of the authority, the water board and the city. The authority, the water board and the city in carrying out their respective powers and duties under this title, shall be deemed to be acting in a governmental capacity and in the performance of an essential governmental function.

§ 1045-n. Transfer of officers and employees to and from city and state agencies; retirement rights of officers and employees. Officers and employees of city and state agencies may be transferred to the authority or water board and officers and employees of the authority or water board may be transferred to appropriate city and state agencies without examination and without loss of any civil service or retirement status or rights. Any officer or employee of the authority or water board who heretofore acquired or shall hereafter acquire such position status by transfer and who at the time of such transfer was a member of the New York city employees' retirement system shall continue to be a member of such system as long as he or she continues in such service, and shall continue to have all the rights, privileges and obligations of membership in such system. Employment by the authority or water board shall constitute city-service for the purposes of chapter one of title thirteen of the administrative code of the city of New York. Transfers shall be in accordance with section seventy of the civil service law or the rules of the civil service commission of the city, as the case may be. No such transfer shall be made except with the approval of the head of the agency involved, the director of the division of the budget or the director of management and budget of the city, as the case may be, and the chairman of the authority or water board, as applicable, and in compliance with the rules and regulations of the civil service commission of the city or the state, as the case may be.

§ 1045-o. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code, in such principal amounts as it may determine to be necessary to pay the cost of any water project or water projects, or for any other corporate purposes, including incidental expenses in connection therewith. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. Bonds issued by the authority shall be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other moneys of the authority as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject to any agreements entered into between the authority and the city, and the authority, the water board and the city, and subject to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular revenues or moneys.

2. The authority is authorized to obtain from any department or agency of the United States of America or non-governmental insurer any insurance or guaranty, to the extent now or hereafter available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest or principal, or both, or any part thereof, on any bonds or notes issued by the authority, or on any municipal obligations of governmental units purchased or held by the authority; and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to any such insurance or guaranty, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of the bonds or notes of the authority.

* 3. Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, be in such denominations and bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, except that bonds and any renewal thereof shall mature within forty years of the date of their original issuance and notes and any renewal thereof shall mature within five years of the date of their original issuance. Such bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates payable at such times, be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, provided that no issue of bonds may be sold at private sale unless the terms of such sale shall have been approved in writing by (i) the comptroller, where such sale is not to such comptroller, or (ii) the director of management and budget, where such sale is to such comptroller.

* NB There are 2 sub 3's

* 3. Whenever the authority shall determine that the issuance of its bonds is appropriate, the mayor and the comptroller shall make a joint recommendation as to the arrangements necessary for the issuance and sale of such bonds including the underwriting of such bonds through negotiated agreement or public letting or the private sale of such bonds and such recommendation shall include compensation for services rendered as they deem appropriate. The mayor and the comptroller shall recommend to the authority the price or prices, interest rate or rates, maturities and other terms and conditions for the issuance of the bonds, except that bonds and any renewal thereof shall mature within forty years of the date of their original issuance and notes and any renewal thereof shall mature within five years of the date of their original issuance. Following such recommendation, bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority which shall set forth the arrangements for the issuance of the bonds, the price or prices, the interest rate or rates, maturities, terms of redemption, form and other terms of the bonds. Such resolution and the minutes of the authority related thereto shall be transmitted to the mayor and the comptroller for their approval or disapproval thereof. Approval of such resolution shall be indicated by the execution of the resolution by the mayor and the comptroller whereupon such resolution shall come into full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

* NB There are 2 sub 3's

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or part of its revenues, together with any other moneys, securities, contracts or property, to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(c) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of any project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(e) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(f) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which must consent thereto and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(g) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or other moneys may be deposited;

(h) the terms and provisions of any trust, deed or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine, which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section one thousand forty-five-p of this title and limiting or abrogating the rights of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(k) limitations on the amount of revenues and other moneys to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(l) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(m) any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of bondholders.

5. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, consistent or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including the mortgaging of any property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys or property and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act, which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

6. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

7. Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

8. Neither the directors of the authority nor any person executing bonds shall be liable personally thereon or be subject to any personal liability or accountability solely by reason of the issuance thereof.

9. The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as then may exist, shall have power out of any moneys available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority, which shall thereupon be cancelled, at a price not exceeding (i) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable, plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date, or (ii) if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption, plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date.

§ 1045-p. Remedies of bondholders. Subject to any resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to paragraph (i) of subdivision four of section one thousand forty-five-o of this title:

1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the city and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purpose herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders and require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of New York.

5. Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

§ 1045-q. State, city and water board not liable on authority bonds. Neither the state, nor the city, nor the water board nor any subdivision thereof shall be liable on the bonds of the authority and such bonds shall not be a debt of the state, the city or such water board.

§ 1045-r. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks in the state designated by the authority. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the treasurer upon requisition by the chairman of the authority or of such other officer or officers as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured by obligations of or guaranteed by the United States, or of the state or of the city of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

§ 1045-s. Bonds legal investment for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officials and bodies of the state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities for any purposes for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or hereafter may be authorized.

§ 1045-t. Agreement with the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the state will not alter or limit the rights hereby vested in the authority or the water board to fulfill the terms of any agreement made with or for the benefit of the holders of bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of bondholders, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with bondholders.

§ 1045-u. Exemption from taxes, assessments and certain fees; payments in lieu of taxes. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city and of the state and is a public purpose and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any real property owned by it or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf. The authority shall be deemed a public authority for the purposes of section four hundred twelve of the real property tax law.

2. Notwithstanding any provision in this section to the contrary, the authority may pay, or may enter into agreements with any municipality to pay, a sum or sums, annually or otherwise, or to provide other considerations to such municipality with respect to real property owned by the authority located within such municipality.

3. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title together with the income therefrom shall be exempt from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes. The revenues, moneys and all other property and activities of the authority shall be exempt from all taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including without limitation real estate taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes. The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom shall be free from such taxation, as aforestated herein, and that all revenues, moneys, and other property pledged to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from such taxes as aforestated herein.

§ 1045-v. Actions against authority and water board. 1. Except in an action for wrongful death, no action or proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority or the water board for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence or wrongful act of the authority or the board or of any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless (i) a notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority or the water board, as the case may be, within the time limit by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law, (ii) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused, and (iii) the action or proceeding shall be commenced within one year after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based. An action against the authority or water board for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

2. Wherever a notice of claim is served upon the authority or the water board, it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority or the water board may require any person presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatever against the authority or the water board, as the case may be, to be sworn before a member, counsel or an attorney, officer or employee thereof designated for such purpose, concerning such account or claim and when so sworn, to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority or the water board shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority or the water board, as the case may be.

4. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority or the water board upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment against the authority on bonds, shall not exceed the rate of interest on judgments and accrued claims against municipal corporations as provided in the general municipal law from time to time. Interest on payments of principal or interest on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate borne by such bonds from the due date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

§ 1045-w. Interest in contracts prohibited. It shall be a misdemeanor for any member or any officer, agent, servant or employee of the authority or of the water board to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly in the furnishing of work, materials, supplies or labor, or in any contract therefor which the authority or the board, as the case may be, is empowered by this title to make.

§ 1045-x. Authority, water board and city to take affirmative action. 1. Each contracting agency which awards contracts for design, construction, services or materials for water projects authorized by this title shall require that such contracts and documents soliciting bids or proposals therefor shall contain or make reference to the following provisions:

(a) The contractor will not discriminate against employees or applicants for employment because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or marital status, and will undertake or continue programs of affirmative action to insure that minority group persons and women are afforded equal employment opportunity without discrimination. Such action shall be taken with reference, but not be limited to recruitment, employment, job assignment, promotion, upgrading, demotion, transfer, layoff, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selections for training or retraining, including apprenticeship and on-the-job training.

(b) At the request of the contracting agency, the contractor shall request each employment agency, labor union, or authorized representative of workers with which he has a collective bargaining or other agreement or understanding, to furnish a written statement that such employment agency, labor union or representative shall not discriminate because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status and that such union or representative will cooperate in the implementation of the contractor's obligations hereunder.

(c) The contractor will state, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of the contractor, in performance of the contract that all qualified applicants will be afforded equal employment opportunity without discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status.

(d) The contractor will include the provisions of paragraphs (a) through (c) of this subdivision in every subcontract or purchase order in such a manner that such provisions will be binding upon each subcontractor or vendor as to its working connection with a contract.

2. Each contracting agency shall establish procedures and guidelines to ensure that contractors and subcontractors undertake programs of affirmative action as required by this section. Such procedures may require, after notice in a bid solicitation, the submission of an affirmative action program prior to the award of any contract, or at any time thereafter, and may require the submission of compliance reports relating to the operation and implementation of any affirmative action program adopted hereunder. Such procedures and guidelines shall be consistent with the guidelines promulgated by the office of federal contract compliance programs of the United States department of labor pursuant to presidential executive order eleven thousand two hundred forty-six, as amended, and any state statutory or regulatory requirements. A contracting agency shall, in the promulgation of procedures and guidelines pursuant to this section, cooperate with any federal, state or local agency established for the purpose of implementing affirmative action compliance programs.

3. Any contracting agency empowered to award contracts for design, construction, services or materials shall seek meaningful participation in the performance of contracts by minority business enterprises and shall establish measures and procedures to identify those contracts and items of work for which minority business enterprises may best bid to actively and affirmatively promote and assist their participation so as to facilitate the award of a fair share of contracts to such enterprises. For purposes hereof, "minority business enterprise" shall mean any business enterprise which is at least fifty-one per centum owned by, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least fifty-one per centum of the stock of which is owned by citizens or permanent resident noncitizens who are Black, Hispanic, Asian, American Indian or women, and such ownership interest is real, substantial and continuing. The provisions of this subdivision shall not be construed to limit the ability of any minority business enterprise to bid on any contract.

4. In the implementation of subdivisions two and three of this section, the contracting agency shall consider compliance by any contractor with the requirements of any federal, state or local law concerning minority business enterprises or equal employment opportunity, which may effectuate the requirements of this section. If the contracting agency determines that by virtue of the imposition of the requirements of any such law, in respect to contracts affected by this section, that the provisions thereof duplicate or conflict with such law, the contracting agency shall waive the applicability of this section to the extent of such duplication or conflict.

5. In order to implement the requirements and objectives of this section, contracting agencies shall be responsible for monitoring the contractors' compliance with the provisions hereof, for advising contractors on the availability of competing qualified minority business enterprises to perform contracts proposed to be awarded and for making recommendations to contractors to improve the access of minority business enterprises to such contracts.

§ 1045-y. Audit and annual report. The accounts of the authority and the water board shall be subject to the supervision of the city comptroller. The authority and the water board shall annually submit to the mayor, the comptroller and the director of management and budget a detailed report. In addition, an annual audit of the authority shall be conducted by an independent certified public accountant. Such audited report shall be submitted to the mayor, the comptroller and the director of management and budget.

§ 1045-z. Limited liability. Neither the members of the authority nor of the water board, nor any officer or employee of the authority nor the water board acting in behalf thereof, while acting within the scope of his authority, shall be subject to any liability resulting from (i) the construction, ownership, maintenance or operation of any project financed with the assistance of the authority, (ii) the construction, ownership, maintenance or operation of any sewerage system or facility or water system or facility owned by the water board, or (iii) carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title. A director, officer or employee of the authority shall be deemed an "employee" for the purposes of section fifty-k of the general municipal law, provided, however that any director, either appointed by the governor or an employee of the state shall be deemed an "employee" for the purposes of section eighteen of the public officers law for any actions relating to their activities as a director of the authority created by this title.

§ 1045-aa. Separability clause. If any section, clause or provision in this title shall be held by a competent court to be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective, and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1045-bb. Effect of inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local or of the city charter or any local law, ordinance or resolution of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling, provided that nothing contained in this section shall be held to supplement or otherwise expand the powers or duties of the authority otherwise set forth in this title. Nothing contained in this title shall be held to alter or abridge the powers and duties of the state department of environmental conservation or the state department of health.

* TITLE 2-A

NEW YORK CITY WATER BOARD

Section 1046. New York city water board.

* NB There are 2 A5 T2-A's

§ 1046. New York city water board. For the benefit of the city of New York and the inhabitants thereof, a water board, to be known as the New York city water board, is hereby established for the accomplishment of any or all of the purposes specified in this title. It shall have the powers and duties now or hereafter conferred by this title upon a water board. It shall be organized in a manner prescribed by and be subject to the provisions of this title. The board, its members, officers and employees and its operations and activities shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of this title.

TITLE 2-B

BUFFALO MUNICIPAL WATER FINANCE AUTHORITY

§ 1048-a. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "Buffalo municipal water finance authority act".

§ 1048-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

7. "Contracting agency" shall mean any municipality, agency, authority or board, state agency, public authority or public benefit corporation authorized to award contracts for design, construction, services or materials for water projects authorized by this title.

8. "Cost", as applied to any water project, shall include the cost of construction, the cost of the acquisition of all property, including both real, personal and mixed, the cost of demolishing, removing or relocating any buildings or structures on lands so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved or relocated, the cost of all systems, facilities, machinery, apparatus and equipment, financing charges, interest prior to, during and after construction to the extent not paid or provided for from revenues or other sources, the cost of engineering and architectural surveys, plans and specifications, the cost of consultants' and legal services, the cost of lease guarantee or bond insurance, other expenses necessary, reasonably related or incidental to the construction of such water project and the financing of the construction thereof, including the amount authorized in the resolution of the authority providing for the issuance of bonds to be paid into any reserve or other special fund from the proceeds of such bonds and the financing of the placing of any water project in operation, including reimbursement to any municipality, state agency, the state, the United States government, or any other person for expenditures that would be costs of the water project hereunder.

9. "Mayor" shall mean the mayor of the city of Buffalo.

10. "Municipal bond" shall mean a bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness lawfully issued by the city pursuant to the local finance law or any other law applicable thereto.

11. "Person" shall mean any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation organized or existing under the laws of the state or any other state, exclusive of public corporations as defined pursuant to article two-A of the general construction law.

12. "Real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises and interests in land, waters, lands under water, groundwater riparian rights and air rights and any and all things and rights included within said term and includes not only fees simple absolute, but also any and all lesser interests including, but not limited to, easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or rights, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise.

13. "State" shall mean the state of New York.

14. "State agency" shall mean any state office, department, board, commission, bureau or division, or other agency or instrumentality of the state.

15. "System revenues" shall mean rents, fees, charges, payments and other income and receipts derived from users of a water system of the city or the water board including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, investment proceeds and proceeds of insurance, condemnation, sale or other disposition of any part thereof, together with all federal or state aid therefor.

16. "Water board" shall mean the water board created by a special act of the state legislature, for the city as a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation, and having the powers and duties as provided in this title.

17. "Water facility" or "water facilities" shall mean any plants, structures and other real and personal property acquired, rehabilitated, or constructed or planned for the purpose of supplying, distributing or treating water, including but not limited to surface or groundwater reservoirs, basins, dams, canals, aqueducts, standpipes, conduits, pipelines, mains, pumping stations, water distribution systems, compensating reservoirs, intake stations, water-works or sources of water supply, wells, purification or filtration plants or other treatment plants and works, connections, water meters, rights of flowage or division and other plants, structures, equipment, conveyances, real or personal property or rights therein and appurtenances thereto necessary or useful and convenient for the accumulation, supply, treatment or distribution of water.

18. "Water project" shall mean any water facility including the planning, development, financing or construction thereof.

§ 1048-c. Buffalo municipal water finance authority. 1. A corporation known as the Buffalo municipal water finance authority is hereby created for public purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation. It shall be administered by a board of directors consisting of seven members as follows: the commissioner of public works of the city, the state commissioner of environmental conservation, the chairperson of the finance committee of the common council of the city, the commissioner of administration and finance of the city, two public members to be appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the common council of the city, and one public member to be appointed by the governor. One public member appointed by the mayor shall serve for a term of one year, one public member appointed by the mayor shall serve for a term of two years, and the public member appointed by the governor shall serve for a term of two years from January first next succeeding the date of their appointment. Their successors shall serve for terms of two years each. Members shall continue in office until their successors have been appointed and qualified. The mayor or the governor shall fill any vacancy which may occur by reason of death, resignation or otherwise in a manner consistent with the original appointment. A public member may be removed by the mayor or the governor, whichever appointed him, for cause, but not without an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel, in his defense, upon not less than ten days' notice. The board of directors shall select a chairman from among the directors who shall serve in such capacity at the pleasure of the board. The chairman shall preside over all meetings of the board of directors and shall have such other duties as may be prescribed by the board.

2. Each director who is a public member shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties and a per diem allowance of one hundred fifty dollars when rendering service as such director, provided that the aggregate of such per diem allowance to any one director in any one fiscal year of the authority shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars.

3. Such public members may engage in private employment, or in a profession or business, subject to the limitations contained in chapter VIII sections ninety through ninety-two of the Buffalo city ordinances for members appointed by the mayor, and subject to sections seventy-three and seventy-four of the public officers law, for the members appointed by the governor. The authority shall, for the purposes of such sections be a "city agency" or a "state agency", as the case may be and such directors shall be "officers" of the authority for purposes of such sections.

4. Four directors of the authority of whom at least three members shall be ex officio shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business or the exercise of any power of the authority. Resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes of the authority and resolutions authorizing any loan, lease, sale or other agreement in respect to a water project shall be approved by not less than four members of the authority at a meeting duly called for such purposes at which a quorum is in attendance, but for the transaction of any other business or the performance of any other power or function of the authority, the authority may act by a majority of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is in attendance. The authority may delegate to one or more of its directors, or its officers, agents and employees, such powers and duties as it may deem proper. The comptroller shall be the chief fiscal officer of the authority. The commissioner of public works of the city, the state commissioner of environmental conservation, the director of the budget of the city, and the commissioner of administration and finance of the city may each, by written instrument, filed with and approved as to form by the authority, designate a deputy or assistant in their respective departments or offices, to perform, in their absence, their respective duties under this title. The term "director" as used in this subdivision shall include such persons so designated as provided herein. The designation of such persons shall be deemed temporary only and shall not affect the civil service or retirement rights of any persons so designated.

5. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of this or any other law, general, special or local, or of any charter, no officer or employee of the city or the state, shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his office or employment or any benefits provided under the retirement and social security law by reason of his acceptance of membership on the authority, provided, however, that a director who holds such other public office or employment shall receive no additional compensation for services rendered pursuant to this title, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of such services.

6. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the payment or satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and vest in the city, unless otherwise provided in an agreement between the city and the authority, and except as otherwise may be specified in such law.

7. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city and the state for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that such purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

8. Nothing in this title shall be construed to obligate the state in any way in connection with the operations or obligations of the authority.

§ 1048-d. General powers of the authority. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To borrow money and issue negotiable or non-negotiable notes, bonds or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. To make and amend by-laws for its organization and internal management, and rules and regulations governing the exercise of its power and the fulfillment of its purposes under this title and file such by-laws with the secretary of state and clerk of the city;

5. To enter into contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title;

6. To acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease, lease as lessee, hold, and use any real or personal property or any interest therein, as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the purpose of this title provided, however, the authority may not acquire or otherwise receive real property of the city without the consent of the city and to sell, lease as lessor, transfer and dispose of any property or interests therein at any time required by it in the exercise of its powers;

7. To appoint such officers and employees as it may require for the performance of its duties, and to fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the civil service commission of the city, and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

8. To make plans and studies necessary, convenient or desirable to the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

9. To make use of existing studies, surveys, plans, data and other material in the possession of any state agency, any municipality or the water board in order to avoid duplication of effort;

10. To enter upon such lands, waters, or premises as in the judgment of the authority shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damage done;

11. To conduct investigations and hearings in the furtherance of its general purposes, and in aid thereof to have access to any books, records or papers relevant thereto; and if any person whose testimony shall be required for the proper performance of the duties of the authority shall fail or refuse to aid or assist the authority in the conduct of any investigation or hearing, or to produce any relevant books, records or other papers, the authority is authorized to apply for process of subpoena, to issue out of any court of general original jurisdiction whose process can reach such person, upon due cause shown;

12. To enter into agreements with the water board and the city for the financing by the authority of water projects, as herein provided;

13. To apply for and to accept any gifts or grants or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any agency or instrumentality thereof or from any other source, for any or all of the purposes specified in this chapter, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof; and

14. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

§ 1048-e. Approval of water projects. The authority shall not enter into any contract or agreement with the city or the water board with respect to the financing of any water project pursuant to section one thousand forty-eight-i of this title, unless the state commissioner of environmental conservation and the state commissioner of health shall have completed all statutory reviews and approvals with respect to such project required by law to be completed prior to the date of such contract or agreement. Nothing herein shall be construed to diminish the full authority and responsibility of each department of the state for statutory reviews and approvals.

§ 1048-f. Water board. 1. A city water board may be created by a special act of the state legislature at the request of the city, as a body corporate and politic, constituting a corporate municipal instrumentality of the state and having the powers and duties as provided in this title.

2. The water board shall consist of seven members appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the common council of the city. Terms of office of the members shall be two years except that the terms of four of the board members first appointed shall be one year. At least one member shall have experience in the science of water resource development. No member shall be a director of the authority. The mayor shall appoint a chairman from among the members of the board. All members shall continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for original appointments. Vacancies, occurring otherwise than by expiration of term of office, shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments for the unexpired terms.

3. Each member of the water board shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties and a per diem allowance of one hundred fifty dollars when rendering service as a member; provided that the aggregate of such per diem allowance to any one member in any one fiscal year of the board shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars.

4. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, general, special or local, or any city charter, no officer or employee of the city shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his office or employment or any benefits provided under the retirement and social security law, by reason of his acceptance of membership on the water board, provided, however, that a member of the board who holds other public office or employment shall receive no additional compensation for services rendered pursuant to this title, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of such services.

5. The mayor may remove any member for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office after giving such member a copy of the charges against such member and an opportunity to be heard and defended, in person or by counsel, upon not less than ten days' notice. If any member shall be so removed, the mayor shall file in the office of the clerk of the city a complete statement of charges against such member, and the mayor's findings thereon, together with a complete record of the proceedings.

6. Members of the water board, other than members holding other public office or employment, may engage in private employment, or in a profession or business, subject to the limitations contained in chapter eight section ninety-two of the Buffalo code of ordinances.

7. A majority of the members of the water board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business or the exercise of any power of the board. The water board shall have power to act by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members in office at any duly held meeting thereof. The water board may delegate to one or more of its members or its officers, agents and employees, such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Any member who is an officer of the city may, by written instrument, filed with and approved as to form by the board, designate another city officer to perform in his absence his duties under this title. The term "member" as used in this section shall include such persons so designated as provided herein. The designation of any such person shall be deemed temporary only and shall not affect the civil service or retirement rights of the person so designated.

8. The water board and its corporate existence shall continue so long as it shall have contractual duties or obligations outstanding and until its existence shall be terminated by law. Upon termination of the existence of the water board, all of the rights and assets of the water board then remaining shall pass to and vest in the city.

9. It is hereby determined and declared that the water board and the carrying out of its powers and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city and the state, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that such purposes are public purposes and that the water board is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

§ 1048-g. General powers of the water board. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the water board shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To make and amend by-laws for its organization and internal management, and rules and regulations governing the exercise of its powers and duties and the fulfillment of its purposes under this title;

4. To establish, fix, revise, charge and collect and enforce the payment of all fees, rates, rents and other service charges for the use of, or services furnished by the water system, so as to receive revenues which, together with other revenues available to the board, if any, shall be at least sufficient at all times so that such system or systems shall be placed on a self-sustaining basis in accordance with section one thousand forty-eight-j of this title;

5. To enter into contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the water board to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title, provided nothing herein contained shall authorize the water board to borrow money or otherwise contract indebtedness;

6. To enter into agreements pursuant to sections one thousand forty-eight-h and one thousand forty-eight-i of this title with the authority and the city to provide a means whereby the authority shall finance the cost of constructing water projects, as described in the agreement, and the water board may agree to assume title to the water system, and to raise revenues from users through fees, rates, rents or other service charges necessary or appropriate to secure such financing and to pay the cost of the operation, management and repair of such water system;

7. To acquire, purchase, lease as lessee, hold and use any property, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this title and, subject to any limitations in any agreement with the city entered into pursuant to section one thousand forty-eight-h of this title, to sell, lease as lessor, transfer or otherwise dispose of any such property or interest therein;

8. To appoint such officers and employees as it may require for the performance of its duties, and to fix and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law and rules of the civil service commission of the city and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

9. To acquire from the city title to the water system of such city;

10. To make plans, surveys and studies necessary, convenient or desirable to the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the water board and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

11. To make use of existing studies, surveys, plans, data and other material in the possession of the city in order to avoid duplication of effort, and such city is hereby authorized to make the same available to the water board and otherwise to assist it in the performance of its functions;

12. With the consent of the common council of the city to use officers or employees of the city and to pay a proper portion of the compensation or costs for the services of such officers or employees;

13. To conduct investigations and hearings in the furtherance of its general purposes, and in aid thereof to have access to any books, records or papers relevant thereto; and if any person whose testimony shall be required for the proper performance of the duties of the water board shall fail or refuse to aid or assist the water board in the conduct of any investigation or hearing, or to produce any relevant books, records or other papers, the water board is authorized to apply for process of subpoena, to issue out of any court of general original jurisdiction whose process can reach such person, upon due cause shown;

14. To apply for and to accept any gifts or grants of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any state agency, the city or from any other sources, for any or all of the purposes specified in this title, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof;

15. To invest moneys not required for immediate use or disbursement, subject to such restrictions as may be imposed by any agreement with the authority, in such obligations or deposits with such banks or trust companies as it may determine and designate, provided that any such deposit with a bank or trust company shall be continuously and fully secured by direct obligations of the city, the state or the United States of America, or obligations the principal of and interest on which are guaranteed by the state or the United States of America, of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit;

16. To establish and maintain such reserves, special funds and accounts, to be held in trust or otherwise, as may be required by any agreement with the authority and the city; and

17. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

§ 1048-h. Transfer of water systems by the city to the water board. 1. The city may, acting by resolution of the common council of the city, enter into an agreement with the water board for the transfer to the water board, for use in the exercise of its corporate powers and purposes, of the water system of the city as the same then shall be owned by the city. Any such agreement may provide for the transfer of title of such system by deed, lease or other arrangement to the water board. To the extent not inconsistent with this title, any such agreement may impose such limitations or conditions as may be agreed upon by and between the city and water board with respect to the power of the water board to sell or otherwise dispose of any property acquired by the board pursuant to such agreement, and may provide for or authorize the water board to surrender to the city, property no longer required by the water board for its public purposes. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law or charter to the contrary, any action taken by the city pursuant to this subdivision shall not be subject to a permissive or mandatory referendum.

2. Any such agreement shall set forth the liabilities of the city which it is contemplated are to be paid by the water board from moneys available to it; provided, however, that such agreement does not require the water board to assume the liabilities of the city; provided further, notwithstanding the foregoing, the city shall continue to be the record owner for real estate tax purposes of any facilities located outside of its municipal boundaries. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law or charter to the contrary, any moneys received by the city in consideration for the transfer of such water system to the water board may be deposited in the general fund of the city and used for any lawful city purpose.

3. Any such agreement may provide for the payment by the city to the water board from any funds of the city, of such amount as may be determined appropriate for use by the water board.

4. The city and the water board are hereby authorized and empowered to make or enter into any contracts, agreements, deeds, leases, conveyances or other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this title, and they shall have power and authority to do so and to authorize the doing of all things incidental, desirable or necessary to implement the provisions of this title.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, no agreement contemplated by this section shall become effective for any purpose unless and until the same shall have been approved in writing by resolution of the authority.

6. Upon the filing by the water board with the clerk of the city and the secretary of state of a copy of the instruments or documents effectuating the transfer authorized by this section, the water board shall take possession of the water system of the city thereby transferred.

7. Any application filed or proceeding heretofore commenced in relation to the water system transferred to the water board pending with the state departments of environmental conservation or health or any other state agency or with the United States environmental protection agency or any other federal agency or instrumentality shall inure to and for the benefit of the water board and be binding upon the water board to the same extent and in the same manner as if the water board had been a party to such application or proceeding from its inception, and the water board shall be deemed a party thereto to the extent not prohibited by any federal law. Any license, approval, permit or decision heretofore or hereafter issued or granted pursuant to or as a result of any such application or proceeding shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the water board and shall be assigned and transferred by the city to the water board unless such assignment and transfer is prohibited by federal law.

8. The rules and regulations of the water board may provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of the supply of water by the city for non-payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the water board, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law. A copy of all by-laws, rules and regulations and amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the water board, shall be filed in the offices of the clerk of the city and the secretary of state within three months and thereafter published once in the official newspaper of the city. Violation of such rules and regulations shall subject the offending party to a civil penalty in an action brought by the water board, not exceeding one hundred dollars for each day the violation continues. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the city court to hear and determine, subject to the provisions of the civil practice law and rules, any violation of such rules and regulations.

§ 1048-i. Agreement among the water board, the city and the authority for the provision of water projects. 1. The authority, the water board and the city, acting by resolution of the common council of the city, may enter into agreements for the purpose of providing for the construction and financing of a water project.

2. Any such agreements (i) shall describe in sufficient detail for reasonable identification the particular water project to be financed in whole or in part by the authority, (ii) shall describe the plan for the financing of the cost of the construction of such water project, including the amount, if any, to be provided by the water board and the source or sources thereof, (iii) shall set forth the method by which and by whom and the terms and conditions upon which moneys provided by the authority shall be disbursed, (iv) may require, in the discretion of the authority, the payment to the authority of the proceeds of any state and federal grants available to the water board, (v) shall provide for the establishment of user fees, rates, rents and other charges and the charging and collection thereof by the water board for the use of, or services furnished, rendered or made available by such system such as to provide that such board receive revenues at least sufficient, together with other revenues of the board, if any, to meet the requirements of subdivision one of section one thousand forty-eight-j of this title, provided that revenues received by such board shall be deposited in a special fund established pursuant to this title and disbursed to, and upon certification of, the authority, (vi) may provide for the transfer by the city to the water board pursuant to section one thousand forty-eight-h of this title of ownership of the water system of which such project will form a part, (vii) shall provide for the construction and completion of such water project by the city and for the operation, maintenance and repair thereof as an integrated part of the system of which such water project forms a part, subject to such terms and conditions, not inconsistent with this title, which may be in the public interest and necessary or desirable properly and adequately to secure the holders of bonds of the authority, provided, however, all contracts for public work and all purchase contracts shall be awarded by the city as provided by law for the award of such contracts by the city and that all contracts for construction shall be let in accordance with the provisions of state law pertaining to prevailing wages, labor standards and working hours. Except as otherwise provided in section two hundred twenty-two of the labor law, when the entire cost of constructing a building as part of any water project shall exceed five hundred thousand dollars, the city shall prepare separate specifications for the following three subdivisions of the work to be performed: (a) plumbing and gas fitting; (b) steam heating, hot water heating, ventilating and air conditioning apparatus; and (c) electric wiring and standard illuminating fixtures, (viii) shall provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of the supply of water for non-payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the water board, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law, and (ix) in the discretion of the authority, require reports concerning the project from the water board to the authority and the city.

2-a. Each bidder on a public work contract, where the preparation of separate specifications is not required, shall submit with its bid a separate sealed list that names each subcontractor that the bidder will use to perform work on the contract, and the agreed-upon amount to be paid to each, for: (a) plumbing and gas fitting, (b) steam heating, hot water heating, ventilating and air conditioning apparatus and (c) electric wiring and standard illuminating fixtures. After the low bid is announced, the sealed list of subcontractors submitted with such low bid shall be opened and the names of such subcontractors shall be announced, and thereafter any change of subcontractor or agreed-upon amount to be paid to each shall require the approval of the public owner, upon a showing presented to the public owner of legitimate construction need for such change, which shall be open to public inspection. Legitimate construction need shall include, but not be limited to, a change in project specifications, a change in construction material costs, a change to subcontractor status as determined pursuant to paragraph (e) of subdivision two of section two hundred twenty-two of the labor law, or the subcontractor has become otherwise unwilling, unable or unavailable to perform the subcontract. The sealed lists of subcontractors submitted by all other bidders shall be returned to them unopened after the contract award.

3. If the city executes an agreement pursuant to this section, relating to the financing of water projects by revenue bonds, it shall have and shall be deemed to have annulled its power to levy user fees, rents and other charges on participating properties or customers for the cost of financing, operating and maintaining such water projects under its jurisdiction until all bonds of the authority shall have been paid or discharged in accordance with the agreement and the resolution of the authority authorizing such bonds. If the city has outstanding general obligation bonds issued for acquiring or constructing water facilities, whether the bonds are payable from revenues, special assessments, or taxes, it may authorize the authority pursuant to the agreement to issue its revenue bonds under this title for the purpose of retiring the outstanding bonds.

4. No such agreement shall be executed until the city and water board shall have held a public hearing at which users of the water system shall have had opportunity to be heard concerning the proposed provisions thereof. Notice of such hearing shall be published at least thirty days in advance in the state register, in the official newspaper or newspapers of the city, and in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each of the areas served by the water system.

5. Such agreement shall be effective upon the issuance by the authority of notes and bonds to finance the cost of constructing water projects of the city.

6. Any such agreement may be amended, revised or extended by supplemental agreements authorized and executed in the same manner as the original agreement, provided that any such supplemental agreement shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this title.

7. (a) Following the execution of the agreement by and between the authority, the water board and the city pursuant to this section, the clerk of the city, shall publish a notice in substantially the following form: "Notice is hereby given that the city of Buffalo has on day of entered into an agreement with the Buffalo municipal water finance authority in relation to the construction and financing of (here insert a brief description of the water facility or facilities to which such agreement relates) pursuant to the Buffalo Municipal Water Finance Authority Act for the purpose of placing its water system on an independent basis, imposing fees and rents on water system users which, together with other revenues available for such purpose, if any, are sufficient to pay to the authority debt service on bonds issued by the authority pursuant to the agreement and for operation and maintenance of the facility (title to which is transferred to the water board pursuant to the agreement). Such agreement in general terms provides (here insert a brief summary of the substantive provisions of such agreement). A copy of the complete agreement is on file for public inspection in the office of the clerk of the city where the same may be examined by any interested person during regular business hours. The validity of this agreement may be hereafter contested only upon the ground or grounds that: (i) such agreement violates, or the performance of any provision thereof by any party thereto would violate, the provisions of any law or the state constitution, or (ii) the provisions of law which should have been complied with in relation to the authorization and execution were not substantially complied with, and in any event an action, suit or proceeding is commenced within sixty days after the date of this notice.

(Clerk or other official designated by the common council of the city of Buffalo)"

(b) The publication authorized by this subdivision shall be in the state register and in the official newspaper or newspapers of the city.

(c) After the expiration of the sixty day period set forth in such notice the validity of such agreement shall be conclusively presumed and the validity thereof shall not thereafter be questioned by either a party plaintiff or a party defendant and no court shall have jurisdiction in any action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity.

(d) Neither any error or omission in the notice of publication provided for in this subdivision shall affect or impair the validity of an agreement executed pursuant to this section so long as the notice substantially conforms to the provisions of this section.

§ 1048-j. Imposition and disposition of water fees, rates, rents or charges. 1. The water board shall establish, fix and revise, from time to time, fees, rates, rents or other charges for the use of, or services furnished, rendered or made available by, the water system owned by the water board pursuant to this title in such amount at least sufficient at all times so as to provide funds in an amount sufficient together with other revenues available to the board, if any, (i) to pay to the authority, in accordance with any agreement with the authority, an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying the principal of and the interest on the outstanding notes or bonds of the authority as the same shall become due and payable and maintaining or funding a capital or debt service reserve fund therefor and, to the extent requested by the city in, or annually pursuant to the agreement, to pay to the city, in accordance with the agreement, an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on general obligation bonds of the city issued for or allocable to the water system as the same shall become due and payable, and to maintain or fund reserves therefor, (ii) to pay to the city, in accordance with the agreement, an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying the costs of administering, maintaining, repairing and operating and the cost of constructing capital improvements to the water system, (iii) to pay to the city in accordance with the agreements entered into pursuant to sections one thousand forty-eight-h and one thousand forty-eight-i of this title an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying liabilities issued for or allocable to the water system as the same shall become due and payable, (iv) to meet any requirements of any agreement including requirements relating to the establishment of reserves for renewal and replacement and for uncollected charges and covenants respecting rates, (v) to pay all other reasonable and necessary expenses of the authority and the water board in relation thereto, and (vi) to the extent requested by the city in or pursuant to the agreement, to pay or provide for such other purposes or projects as such city considers appropriate and in the public interest. Any surplus of funds remaining after such payments have been made shall be returned to the city for deposit in the general fund.

2. There is hereby established in the custody of the water board a special fund to be known as the local water fund. Such fund shall consist of the revenues derived from the fees, rates, rents and service charges established, charged and collected pursuant to this title and any other income earned or moneys received by the water board. Revenues in the local water fund shall be kept separate and shall not be commingled with any other moneys in the custody of the water board. All moneys, properties and assets acquired by the water board, whether as revenues or otherwise, shall be held by it in trust for the purposes of carrying out its powers and duties, and shall be used and reused in accordance with the purposes and provisions of this article.

The water board shall deposit promptly, to the credit of the local water fund, revenues collected under this article in a bank, banking house or trust company as may be designated in or pursuant to the agreement.

3. No such fee, rate, rent or other charge shall be established, fixed or revised unless and until the water board has held a public hearing at which the users of the water system, the owners of property served or to be served and others interested, have had an opportunity to be heard concerning the same. Notice of such public hearing shall be published by the water board at least twenty days before the date set therefor, in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the areas served by the water system. Such notice shall set forth the date, time and place of such hearing and shall include a brief description of the matters to be considered at such hearing. A copy of the notice shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the city and shall be available for inspection by the public. At all such hearings, any users of the water system, owners of property served or to be served and any other interested persons shall have an opportunity to be heard concerning the matters under consideration. Any decision of the water board on matters considered at such public hearing shall be in writing and be made available in the office of the water board for public inspection during regular office hours. Such decision shall be published in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the areas served by the water system within thirty days after such decision is made. The fees, rates, rents or other charges so established for any class of users of property served shall be extended to cover any additional premises thereafter served which are within the same class, without the necessity of a hearing thereon.

4. The fees, rates, rents or other charges established, fixed and revised from time to time by the water board shall be collected by the water board at such times and in such manner as may be determined by the rules and regulations adopted by the water board consistent with the provisions of this title.

5. Such fees, rates, rents or other charges, if not paid when due, shall constitute a lien upon the premises served and a charge against the owners thereof, which lien and charge shall bear interest at the same rate as would unpaid taxes of the city. Such lien shall take precedence over all other liens or encumbrances, except taxes, and may be foreclosed against the lot or building served in the same manner as a lien for such taxes. The amount which remains due and unpaid for sixty days may, with interest thereon at the same rate as unpaid city taxes and with reasonable attorneys' fees, be recovered by the water board in a civil action in the name of the water board against such owners. The city, and any state agency shall be subject to the same fees, rates, rents or other charges under the same conditions as other users of such water system. Any agreement for the supply of water services between the city or an agency thereof and any other municipality or water supply system, or any administrative determination by a state agency, or any other arrangement in this regard, in effect at the time the water board shall be established, shall remain in full force and effect and be binding upon the water board as if it were a party to such agreement, determination or other arrangement. All rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions provided by law with respect to the fixing of charges or rates for the supply of water services to users outside the city, including but not limited to those set forth in article eight of the environmental conservation law, shall be deemed to apply, as appropriate, to the water board established pursuant to this title. In addition to any other lawful enforcement methods and pursuant to rules and regulations of the water board promulgated pursuant to this title, the payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges for water service to any premises may be enforced by discontinuing the water service to such premises provided that such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a water-works corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law.

6. The water board shall pay to the authority such amounts at such times and in such manner as may be provided in the agreement by and among the authority, the water board and the city consistent with the priorities set forth in such agreement. There is hereby created a lien, by this title made a statutory lien within the meaning of the uniform commercial code and any other state or federal law, upon the gross revenues of the water board, in favor of the payment of all amounts due pursuant to such agreement and in the order and priority set forth therein and which lien shall be a first lien upon such gross revenues. The gross revenues so subject to such statutory lien shall be and remain subject to such statutory lien until the payment in full of each such item in accordance with such priority. Said statutory lien shall not be construed to give any holder or owner of any bond of the authority power to compel the sale of any water system.

7. If there be any default by the water board in the making of the payments to the authority required under this section, as a result of the failure by the water board to impose sufficient fees, rates, rents or other charges, the authority may petition for the appointment by any court having jurisdiction in any proper action of a receiver to administer on behalf of the water board, under the direction of said court, the affairs of the water board in order to achieve system revenues at least sufficient to make such payments; and by and with the approval of said court, to establish, fix and revise, from time to time, fees, rates, rents or other charges at least sufficient therefor in conformity with this title, and the resolution or trust indenture of the authority providing for the issuance of its bonds and in accordance with such orders as the court shall make.

8. The water board shall prepare and transmit to the city on or before the first day of December in each year a list of those persons or property owners within such city who are in arrears in the payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges for a period of sixty days or more after the last day fixed for payment thereof without penalty. The list shall contain a brief description of the properties for which the services were provided, the names of the persons liable to pay for the same and the amounts chargeable to each, including penalties and interest computed to the next succeeding December thirty-first. The city shall levy such sums against the properties liable and shall state the amount thereof in a separate column in the annual tax rolls of such city under the name of "delinquent water charges" as may be appropriate and as may be directed by the water board. Such amounts, as and when collected by the commissioner of administration and finance of the city, shall be paid over to the water board. All of the provisions of the tax laws of the state covering the enforcement and collection of unpaid taxes of the city shall apply to the collection of such unpaid fees, rates, rents or other charges.

9. Neither the public service commission, nor any city or state agency, shall have any jurisdiction over the water board or authority or any power over the regulation of the fees, rates, rents or other charges established, fixed or revised by the water board except as provided by law with respect to the supply of water services to users outside the city.

§ 1048-k. Tax exemption of the water board property and activities. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of a water board and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the city and is a public purpose and the water board shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any real property owned by it or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf. The water board shall be deemed a public authority for the purposes of section four hundred twelve of the real property tax law.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions one and four of this section, any real property of the water board located outside the boundaries of the city, shall be exempt from the payment of taxes, special ad valorem levies and special assessments only if and to the extent that such real property would have been exempt if owned by the city.

3. Notwithstanding any provision in this section to the contrary, the water board may pay, or may enter into agreements with any municipality to pay, a sum or sums, annually or otherwise, or to provide other considerations to such municipality, with respect to real property of the water board located within such municipality and provided that any such payment or agreement to pay shall be subject to approval by the authority.

4. The water board shall not be required to pay any taxes or other governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including without limitation franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes, or any other tax or charge upon its property or activities or upon any of its revenues or other income.

§ 1048-l. Pledge effective without filing or recording. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues or other personal property made or created by the authority, the water board or the city pursuant to this title shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority, the water board or the city, as the case may be, irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

§ 1048-m. Governmental capacity of the authority, the water board and the city. The authority, the water board and the city in carrying out their respective powers and duties under this title, shall be deemed to be acting in a governmental capacity and in the performance of an essential governmental function.

§ 1048-n. Transfer of officers and employees to and from city and state agencies. Officers and employees of city and state agencies may be transferred to the authority and officers and employees of the authority may be transferred to appropriate city and state agencies without examination and without loss of any civil service or retirement status or rights. Transfers shall be in accordance with section seventy of the civil service law or the rules of the civil service commission of the city, as the case may be. No such transfer shall be made except with the approval of the head of the agency involved or the director of the state division of the budget or the director of the budget of the city, as the case may be, and the chairman of the authority and in compliance with the rules and regulations of the civil service commission of the city or the state, as the case may be.

§ 1048-o. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code, in such principal amounts as it may determine to be necessary to pay the cost of any water project or water projects, or for any other corporate purposes, including incidental expenses in connection therewith. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. Bonds issued by the authority shall be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other moneys of the authority as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject to any agreements entered into between the authority and the city, and the authority, the water board and the city, and subject to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular revenues or moneys.

2. The authority is authorized to obtain from any department or agency of the United States of America or non-governmental insurer any insurance or guaranty, to the extent now or hereafter available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest or principal, or both, or any part thereof, on any bonds or notes issued by the authority, or on any municipal obligations of governmental units purchased or held by the authority; and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to any such insurance or guaranty, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of the bonds or notes of the authority.

3. Whenever the authority shall determine that the issuance of its bonds is appropriate, the comptroller shall make a recommendation as to the arrangements necessary for the issuance and sale of such bonds including the underwriting of such bonds through negotiated agreement or public letting or the private sale of such bonds and such recommendation shall include compensation for services rendered as he deems appropriate. The comptroller shall recommend to the authority the price or prices, interest rate or rates, maturities and other terms and conditions for the issuance of the bonds, except that bonds and any renewal thereof shall mature within forty years of the date of their original issuance and notes and any renewal thereof shall mature within five years of the date of their original issuance. Following such recommendation, bonds shall be authorized by bond resolution of the authority which shall set forth the arrangements for the issuance of the bonds, the price or prices, the interest rate or rates, maturities, terms of redemption, form and other terms of the bonds. Such bond resolution and the minutes of the authority related thereto shall be transmitted to the comptroller for his approval or disapproval thereof. Approval of such bond resolution shall be indicated by the execution of the bond resolution by the comptroller whereupon such bond resolution shall come into full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or part of its revenues, together with any other moneys, securities, contracts or property, to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(c) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of any project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(e) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(f) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which must consent thereto and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(g) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or other moneys may be deposited;

(h) the terms and provisions of any trust, deed or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine, which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section one thousand forty-eight-p of this title and limiting or abrogating the rights of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(k) limitations on the amount of revenues and other moneys to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(l) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(m) any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of bondholders.

5. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, consistent or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including the mortgaging of any property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys or property and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act, which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

6. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

7. Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

8. Neither the directors of the authority nor any person executing bonds shall be liable personally thereon or be subject to any personal liability or accountability solely by reason of the issuance thereof.

9. The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as then may exist, shall have power out of any moneys available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority, which shall thereupon be cancelled, at a price not exceeding (i) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable, plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date, or (ii) if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption, plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date.

§ 1048-p. Remedies of bondholders. Subject to any resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to paragraph (i) of subdivision four of section one thousand forty-eight-o of this title:

1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the city and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purpose herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders and require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Erie.

5. Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

§ 1048-q. State, city and water board not liable on authority bonds. Neither the state, nor the city, nor the water board nor any subdivision thereof shall be liable on the bonds of the authority and such bonds shall not be a debt of the state, the city or such water board.

§ 1048-r. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks in the state designated by the authority. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the treasurer upon requisition by the chairman of the authority or of such other officer or officers as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured by obligations of or guaranteed by the United States, or of the state or of the city of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

§ 1048-s. Bonds legal investment for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officials and bodies of the state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities for any purposes for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or hereafter may be authorized.

§ 1048-t. Agreement with the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the state will not alter or limit the rights hereby vested in the authority or the water board to fulfill the terms of any agreement made with or for the benefit of the holders of bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of bondholders, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with bondholders.

§ 1048-u. Exemption from taxes, assessments and certain fees; payments in lieu of taxes. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city and of the state and is a public purpose and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any real property owned by it or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf. The authority shall be deemed a public authority for the purposes of section four hundred twelve of the real property tax law.

2. Notwithstanding any provision in this section to the contrary, the authority may pay, or may enter into agreements with any municipality to pay, a sum or sums, annually or otherwise, or to provide other considerations to such municipality with respect to real property owned by the authority located within such municipality.

3. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title together with the income therefrom shall be exempt from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes. The revenues, moneys and all other property and activities of the authority shall be exempt from all taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including without limitation real estate taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes. The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom shall be free from such taxation, as aforestated herein, and that all revenues, moneys, and other property pledged to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from such taxes as aforestated herein.

§ 1048-v. Actions against authority and water board. 1. Except in an action for wrongful death, no action or proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority or the water board for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence or wrongful act of the authority or the board or of any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless (i) a notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority or the water board, as the case may be, within the time limit by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law, (ii) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused, and (iii) the action or proceeding shall be commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based. An action against the authority or water board for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

2. Wherever a notice of claim is served upon the authority or the water board, it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority or the water board may require any person presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatever against the authority or the water board, as the case may be, to be sworn before a member, counsel or an attorney, officer or employee thereof designated for such purpose, concerning such account or claim and when so sworn, to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority or the water board shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority or the water board, as the case may be.

4. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority or the water board upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment against the authority on bonds, shall not exceed the rate of interest on judgments and accrued claims against municipal corporations as provided in the general municipal law from time to time. Interest on payments of principal or interest on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate borne by such bonds from the due date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

§ 1048-w. Interest in contracts prohibited. It shall be a misdemeanor for any member or any officer, agent, servant or employee of the authority or of the water board to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly in the furnishing of work, materials, supplies or labor, or in any contract therefor which the authority or the board, as the case may be, is empowered by this title to make.

§ 1048-x. Authority, water board and city to take affirmative action. 1. Each contracting agency which awards contracts for design, construction, services or materials for water projects authorized by this title shall require that such contracts and documents soliciting bids or proposals therefor shall contain or make reference to the following provisions:

(a) The contractor will not discriminate against employees or applicants for employment because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or marital status, and will undertake or continue programs of affirmative action to insure that minority group persons and women are afforded equal employment opportunity without discrimination. Such action shall be taken with reference, but not be limited to recruitment, employment, job assignment, promotion, upgrading, demotion, transfer, layoff, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selections for training or retraining, including apprenticeship and on-the-job training.

(b) At the request of the contracting agency, the contractor shall request each employment agency, labor union, or authorized representative of workers with which he has a collective bargaining or other agreement or understanding, to furnish a written statement that such employment agency, labor union or representative shall not discriminate because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status and that such union or representative will cooperate in the implementation of the contractor's obligations hereunder.

(c) The contractor will state, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of the contractor, in performance of the contract that all qualified applicants will be afforded equal employment opportunity without discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status.

(d) The contractor will include the provisions of paragraphs (a) through (c) of this subdivision in every subcontract or purchase order in such a manner that such provisions will be binding upon each subcontractor or vendor as to its working connection with a contract.

2. Each contracting agency shall establish procedures and guidelines to ensure that contractors and subcontractors undertake programs of affirmative action as required by this section. Such procedures may require, after notice in a bid solicitation, the submission of an affirmative action program prior to the award of any contract, or at any time thereafter, and may require the submission of compliance reports relating to the operation and implementation of any affirmative action program adopted hereunder. Such procedures and guidelines shall be consistent with the guidelines promulgated by the office of federal contract compliance programs of the United States department of labor pursuant to presidential executive order eleven thousand two hundred forty-six, as amended, and any state statutory or regulatory requirements. A contracting agency shall, in the promulgation of procedures and guidelines pursuant to this section, cooperate with any federal, state or local agency established for the purpose of implementing affirmative action compliance programs.

3. Any contracting agency empowered to award contracts for design, construction, services or materials shall seek meaningful participation in the performance of contracts by minority business enterprises and shall establish measures and procedures to identify those contracts and items of work for which minority business enterprises may best bid to actively and affirmatively promote and assist their participation so as to facilitate the award of a fair share of contracts to such enterprises. For purposes hereof, "minority business enterprise" shall mean any business enterprise which is at least fifty-one per centum owned by, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least fifty-one per centum of the stock of which is owned by citizens or permanent resident noncitizens who are Black, Hispanic, Asian, American Indian or women, and such ownership interest is real, substantial and continuing. The provisions of this subdivision shall not be construed to limit the ability of any minority business enterprise to bid on any contract.

4. In the implementation of subdivisions two and three of this section, the contracting agency shall consider compliance by any contractor with the requirements of any federal, state or local law concerning minority business enterprises or equal employment opportunity, which may effectuate the requirements of this section. If the contracting agency determines that by virtue of the imposition of the requirements of any such law, in respect to contracts affected by this section, that the provisions thereof duplicate or conflict with such law, the contracting agency shall waive the applicability of this section to the extent of such duplication or conflict.

5. In order to implement the requirements and objectives of this section, contracting agencies shall be responsible for monitoring the contractors' compliance with the provisions hereof, for advising contractors on the availability of competing qualified minority business enterprises to perform contracts proposed to be awarded and for making recommendations to contractors to improve the access of minority business enterprises to such contracts.

§ 1048-y. Audit and annual report. The accounts of the authority and the water board shall be subject to the supervision of the city comptroller. The authority and the water board shall annually submit to the mayor, the comptroller and the director of the budget of the city a detailed report. In addition an annual audit of the authority shall be conducted by an independent certified public accountant. Such audited report shall be submitted to the mayor, the comptroller and the director of the budget of the city.

§ 1048-z. Limited liability. Neither the members of the authority nor of the water board, nor any officer or employee of the authority nor the water board acting in behalf thereof, while acting within the scope of his authority, shall be subject to any liability resulting from (i) the construction, ownership, maintenance or operation of any project financed with the assistance of the authority, (ii) the construction, ownership, maintenance or operation of any water system or facility owned by the water board, or (iii) carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title. A director, officer or employee of the authority shall be deemed an "employee" for the purposes of chapter three of section seventy-nine of the Buffalo city ordinances, provided however that any director, either appointed by the governor or an employee of the state shall be deemed an "employee" for the purposes of section eighteen of the public officers law for any action relating to their activities as a director of the authority created by this title.

§ 1048-aa. Separability clause. If any section, clause or provision in this title shall be held by a competent court to be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective, and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1048-bb. Effect of inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local or of the city charter or any local law, ordinance or resolution of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling, provided that nothing contained in this section shall be held to supplement or otherwise expand the powers or duties of the authority otherwise set forth in this title. Nothing contained in this title shall be held to alter or abridge the powers and duties of the state department of environmental conservation or the state department of health.

§ 1049. Buffalo water board. For the benefit of the city of Buffalo and the inhabitants thereof, a water board, to be known as the BUFFALO WATER BOARD, is hereby established for the accomplishment of any or all of the purposes specified in title two-B of article five of this chapter. It shall have the powers and duties now or hereafter conferred by title two-B of article five of this chapter upon a water board. It shall be organized in a manner prescribed by and be subject to the provisions of title two-B of article five of this chapter. The board, its members, officers and employees and its operations and activities shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of title two-B of article five of this chapter.

ERIE COUNTY WATER AUTHORITY

§ 1050. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Erie County Water Authority Act."

§ 1051. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context,

1. The term "district" shall mean the Erie county water authority district created by section one thousand fifty-two of this title;

2. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section one thousand fifty-three of this title;

3. The term "county" shall mean the county of Erie;

4. The term "treasurer" shall mean the treasurer of the authority;

5. The term "comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state of New York;

6. The term "personnel officer" shall mean the personnel officer of the county of Erie;

7. The term "properties" shall mean the water supply and distribution system or systems of the authority, including the plants, works, instrumentalities or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, approaches, connections, dams, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, or any other property, real, personal or mixed, incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions and betterments, situated within the county of Erie and any source of supply or water supply system or any part thereof, situated without the county of Erie;

8. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds, notes and obligations, issued by the authority, pursuant to this act;

9. The term "revenues" shall mean all rents, charges and other income derived from the operation of the properties of the authority;

10. The term "municipality" shall mean a city, town, or village.

§ 1052. Erie county water authority district. There is hereby created a district to be known as the "Erie county water authority district" which shall embrace so much of the territory included within the territorial limits of the county of Erie, as may be outside the territorial limits of the city of Buffalo, except the township of Tonawanda, including the village of Kenmore, in the state of New York.

§ 1053. Erie county water authority. 1. A corporation known as "Erie county water authority" is hereby created for the purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation. It shall consist of three members, all of whom shall be residents of the county. Not more than two members of the said authority in office at any time shall belong to the same political party. The appointment, pursuant to the provisions of chapter eight hundred forty-five of the laws of nineteen hundred forty-nine, of the first members, Richard F. Ball, Jerome D. Van De Water, and John Horner, for the terms, respectively, of one year, two years and three years from the twenty-seventh day of April, nineteen hundred forty-nine, is hereby ratified and confirmed. Any subsequent appointment shall be made for a term of three years and shall be made by the chairman of the board of supervisors of the county of Erie, pursuant to nominations in writing by the majority, respectively, of the supervisors of each political party represented on such board of supervisors, subject to confirmation by a majority of such board of supervisors. All members shall continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and qualify. The appointment of the first chairman, John Horner, pursuant to the provisions of chapter eight hundred forty-five of the laws of nineteen hundred forty-nine, for a term of one year from the twenty-seventh day of April, nineteen hundred forty-nine, is hereby ratified and confirmed. Subsequent chairmen shall be elected annually by the members of the authority. Vacancies, occurring otherwise than by expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointments by the board of supervisors for the unexpired terms. Members of the authority may be removed from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as may be provided by law for the removal of officers of the county. The members of the authority shall receive such compensation for their services as shall be fixed by the board of supervisors and be reimbursed for all expenses incurred in connection with the carrying out of the purposes of this title. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and be exercised by the members at a meeting duly called and held and two members shall constitute a quorum. No action shall be taken except pursuant to the favorable vote of at least two members. The authority may delegate to one or more of its members, officers, agents or employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

2. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue for a period of twelve years from the twenty-seventh day of April, nineteen hundred forty-nine, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged and thereupon all rights and properties of the authority shall pass to and be vested in the county of Erie.

3. The officers of the authority shall consist of a chairman, a vice-chairman and a treasurer who shall be members of the authority, and a secretary, who need not be a member of the authority. The vice-chairman, treasurer and secretary shall be appointed by the authority and shall serve at the pleasure of the authority. The authority may appoint an attorney and an engineer and such additional officers and employees as it may require for the performance of its duties, fix and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law of the state of New York and such rules as the personnel officer of the county of Erie may adopt and make applicable to such authority. The authority may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the authority and the premium therefor shall be paid by the authority.

4. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers, purposes and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the county of Erie and the state of New York, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that the said purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

5. Upon the creation of the authority and thereafter, the board of supervisors may, by resolution, from time to time appropriate sums of money to defray the preliminary expenses of the authority incurred in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall include among other costs, the costs incurred by the authority for administrative, engineering, accounting and legal services. Upon the issuance of bonds for any of the purposes authorized by this title the authority shall repay to the county of Erie that portion of the moneys appropriated by the county and expended by the authority in connection with and attributed to the purpose or purposes for which the bonds were issued. Any such allocation shall be subject to the approval of the comptroller of the county of Erie.

§ 1054. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, in the name of the authority, lease, hold and dispose of personal property or any interest therein for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the exercise of the power of condemnation hereinafter granted;

4. To purchase, in the name of the authority, any water supply system, water distribution system, including plants, works, instrumentalities or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, approaches, connections, dams, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, or any other property, real, personal or mixed, incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions, and betterments, situated within the county of Erie, provided however that the authority shall have the power to purchase any source of supply, or water supply system or any part thereof situated without the county of Erie; and in connection with the purchase of such properties the authority may assume any obligations of the owner of such properties and, to the extent required by the terms of any indentures or other instruments under which such obligations were issued, the authority may assume and agree to perform convenants and observe the restrictions contained in such instruments; and furthermore the owner of any properties, which the authority is authorized to acquire, is hereby authorized to sell or otherwise transfer the same to the authority, whereupon the authority shall become charged with the performance of all public duties with respect to such properties with which such owner was charged and such owner shall become discharged from the performance thereof, and in the case of a sale or other transfer of properties of a public utility corporation pursuant to this provision, it shall be lawful to dissolve such corporation;

5. To condemn, in the name of the authority, any water supply system, water distribution system, including plants, works, instrumentalities, or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, approaches, connections, dams, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, or any other property, real, personal or mixed, incidental to and included in any such source of supply or any such system or parts thereof, and any improvements, extensions and betterments, situated within the county of Erie, and to condemn any necessary source of supply or water supply system, or any parts thereof, situated without the county of Erie. The authority shall exercise the power of condemnation hereby granted in the manner provided in the condemnation law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the county of Erie. Upon the taking of the constitutional oath of office by the commissioners of appraisal and the filing of such oaths, title to the properties described in the condemnation proceedings shall become and be vested in the authority as hereinafter provided in this title and such authority shall be entitled to enter into possession of the property condemned and to operate the same for its corporate purposes. Upon the vesting of title in the authority, any person entitled to a final award shall have and retain a lien upon such property to secure the payment of such compensation with interest, as shall be directed to be paid by the final order in the condemnation proceeding. The lien shall be discharged and satisfied by payment of the compensation, with interest directed to be paid by the final order, less any sums, with interest paid in advance of the determination of the final award in condemnation as hereinafter provided. In the exercise of such power of condemnation, the property being condemned shall be deemed, when so determined by the authority, to be for a public use superior to the public use in the hands of any other person, association, or corporation, provided, however, that the authority shall have no power to condemn property the legal title to which is vested in a municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state unless such municipal corporation or political subdivision shall consent thereto;

6. To construct and develop any water supply system, water distribution system, including plants, works, instrumentalities, or parts thereof, and appurtenances thereto, dams, reservoirs, water mains, pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, or any other property incidental to or included in such system or part thereof, and to acquire, by condemnation in the manner provided by this title, or by purchase, lands, easements, rights in land, and water rights and rights-of-way in connection therewith; and to own and operate, maintain, repair, improve, reconstruct, enlarge and extend, subject to the provisions of this title, any of its properties acquired hereunder, all of which, together with the acquisition of such properties are hereby declared to be public purposes;

6-a. To do all things necessary to construct and maintain water transmission and distribution mains and appurtenances thereto to provide wholesale or retail supplies of water to the town of Hanover, village of Silver Creek, and the Seneca Nation of Indians, Cattaraugus reservation upon the adoption of a resolution of the governing body of any such municipality or Indian tribe requesting that the authority sell water to their municipality or tribe and the adoption of a consenting resolution by the governing body of the water utility serving such municipality or tribe should such a water utility then exist;

7. To sell, lease, convey, or otherwise dispose of any distribution system or improvements thereto which the authority may acquire or construct to any municipal corporation or town water district or to the county;

8. To produce, develop, distribute and sell water, water services, facilities and commodities within or without the territorial limits of the district; and to purchase water from any municipal corporation, town water district, person, association or corporation; provided, however, that water may be sold at retail to individual consumers only within the county of Erie and further provided that in exercising the powers granted by this title, the authority shall not sell water in any area which is served by a water system owned or operated by a municipality or special improvement district unless the governing board of such municipality or district shall adopt a resolution requesting the authority to sell water in such served area;

9. To acquire, hold, use, lease, mortgage, sell, transfer and dispose of any property, real, personal or mixed, or interest therein, for its corporate purposes;

10. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and subject to agreements with bondholders, rules for the sale of water and the collection of rents and charges therefor. Such rules may provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of the supply of water for non payment of water rents, rates or charges. The authority shall not discontinue or disconnect the supply of water except in the manner and upon such notice as is required of a water-works corporation pursuant to subdivision three-a of section eighty-nine-b of the public service law. A copy of such rules and by-laws, and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the authority shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county and thereafter published once in two newspapers having a general circulation in the county. Violation of such rules shall be a misdemeanor punishable by fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not longer than thirty days, or both. Exclusive jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the local criminal courts of the county, outside the city of Buffalo, which have trial jurisdiction, to hear and determine, subject to the provisions of the criminal procedure law, any violation of this title;

11. With the consent of the county to use the officers, employees, facilities and equipment of the county, paying a proper portion of the compensation or cost;

12. To make contracts and to execute all necessary or convenient instruments, including evidences of indebtedness, negotiable or non-negotiable;

13. To enter on any lands, waterways and premises for the purpose of making surveys, soundings and examinations;

14. To borrow money and to issue negotiable bonds, notes or other obligations and to fund or refund the same, and to provide for the rights of the holders of its obligations;

15. To fix rates and collect charges for the use of the facilities of, or services rendered by, or any commodities furnished by the authority such as to provide revenues sufficient at all times to pay, as the same shall become due, the principal and interest on the bonds of the authority together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, in addition to paying as the same shall become due the expense of operating and maintaining the properties of the authority together with proper reserves for depreciation, maintenance, and contingencies and all other obligations and indebtedness of the authority;

16. To enter into cooperative agreements with other water authorities, municipalities, counties, towns, villages, water districts, utility companies, individuals, firms or corporations, within or without the territorial limits of the district for the inter-connection of facilities, the exchange or interchange of services and commodities or for any other lawful purposes necessary or desirable to effect the purposes of this title;

17. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the county, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

18. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly given in this title.

19. To facilitate the determination of the economic practicability of any step contemplated by the authority or of any other fact or matter which the authority is now or may hereafter be authorized and empowered to decide or determine the authority may and in the case of any project involving an expenditure in excess of five hundred thousand dollars must conduct investigations, inquiries or hearings at such place or places as it shall appoint. Such investigations, inquiries or hearings may be held by or before one or more of any officers of the authority or by or before any person or persons appointed as its representative, and when ratified, approved or confirmed by the authority its action shall be and be determined to be the investigation, inquiry or hearing of the authority.

For the purpose of any such investigation, inquiry or hearing and for the purpose of such other action or powers as the authority may be authorized or empowered to take or exercise, it shall have jurisdiction of any and all persons, associations or corporations residing in or acting under and by virtue of the laws of or owning property within the state of New York and shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of any papers, books or other documents, and to administer oaths to all witnesses who may be called before it.

20. Upon the adoption of a resolution by the authority that it intends to acquire or to commence negotiations for the purpose of acquiring the property or any part thereof, of a public utility corporation, said public utility corporation shall give to the authority and its authorized representatives access to its books, records and accounts, or such portion thereof, as are descriptive of the property proposed to be acquired.

21. At any time after the entry of a judgment as provided in the condemnation law, the authority may make application to the court for an order directing that title to the property described in the proceeding shall vest in the authority in advance of the determination and payment of the final award in condemnation. Upon such application the court shall hear the proofs of the parties to the proceeding respecting the readiness and ability of the authority to pay to the person entitled such compensation with interest as the final order in the proceeding may direct to be paid. If the court shall be satisfied that the authority will be ready and able to pay said compensation with interest when ascertained, and that the person entitled thereto by such proofs and the provisions of this title, is reasonably assured of such payment, the court shall make an order vesting title to the property described in the authority, upon the taking and filing of the oath of office by the commissioners of appraisal, or at any stage of the proceeding thereafter.

Upon the entry of said order with proof of service upon the parties to the proceeding, the authority shall be entitled to enter into possession of the property and to operate the same for its corporate purposes. Such order shall be enforced to obtain delivery of possession of the property in the manner provided for in section seventeen of the condemnation law.

22. Upon the vesting of title in the authority of the property described in a condemnation proceeding, or at any time thereafter the authority on notice to the parties to the proceeding may pay to any party or person entitled to an award for the property acquired, in advance of the determination of the final award, a sum of money to be determined by the authority. Such payment shall be made to the parties as their interests shall be determined by the court.

If the authority shall decide to make a partial payment in advance to any party or person entitled to an award, the interest on any sum so decided to be paid in advance shall cease to run on and after a date five days after such party or person shall have been notified by mail or otherwise that the authority is ready to pay the same.

When any such payment in advance shall have been made, the authority upon paying the final award for the property acquired, shall deduct from the total amount allowed as compensation, any sum advanced plus interest thereon from the date of the payment of such advance to the date of the final award in the proceeding.

23. To enter into a contract or contracts with the board of supervisors of Erie county for the acquisition, construction and development of a water supply and distribution system, or any part or parts thereof, on behalf of a county water district, and to contract for the operation and management of such county water district, all as provided in article five-a of the county law and article five-b of the general municipal law. Such water authority shall be deemed the agent of Erie county under any such contract. If such contract shall authorize the water authority to purchase supplies or equipment or to construct public works, such authority shall be subject to all provisions of law to which Erie county would be subject in relation to advertising and awarding any such contracts for supplies, equipment or public works.

§ 1054-a. Deposit required where temporary possession is granted in condemnation proceeding. Whenever the authority, in any condemnation proceeding for the acquisition of any property, shall make application for temporary possession pursuant to the provisions of section twenty-four of the condemnation law, the sum to be fixed by the court for deposit, as a condition of granting such application, shall not exceed ten per centum of the assessed valuation of the real property sought to be acquired in such proceedings as such assessed valuation appears upon the last assessment rolls for county taxes prior to the commencement of such proceeding.

§ 1056. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any of its corporate purposes, including incidental expenses in connection therewith, and to secure the payment of the same by lien of the pledge of the revenues. The authority shall have power from time to time whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any of its corporate purposes. Except as may be otherwise expressly provided by the authority, every issue of bonds by the authority shall be general obligations payable out of any moneys, earnings or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys, earnings or revenues.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times not exceeding forty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates per annum payable at such times, be in such denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America, at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Such bonds of the authority may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine provided, however, that any private sale shall be subject to the approval of the state comptroller. The foregoing provisions shall be applicable to bonds issued by the authority notwithstanding the provisions of any other general, special or local law to the contrary.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the moneys, earnings, income and revenues derived from all or any part of the properties of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rates, rentals, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the earnings and other revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the properties in connection with which such bonds are issued;

(e) limitations in the purposes to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) the creation of special funds into which any earnings or revenues of the authority may be deposited;

(i) the terms and provisions of any mortgage or trust deed or indenture securing the bonds or under which bonds may be issued;

(j) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section one thousand sixty-six hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of its properties;

(l) any other matters, of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds;

(m) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from the properties to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) the protection and enforcement of the rights and remedies of the bondholders;

(o) the obligations of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repairs and insurance of the properties, the safeguarding and application of all moneys and as to the requirements for the supervision and approval of consulting engineers in connection with construction, reconstruction and operation;

(p) the payment of the proceeds of bonds and revenues of the properties to a trustee or other depositary, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine.

4. It is the intention of the legislature that any pledge of earnings, revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the earnings, revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority shall cancel such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture (instead of a resolution) by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain any of the provisions which a resolution authorizing bonds may contain.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or notes of the authority shall contain a covenant by the authority that it will at all times maintain rates, fees, rentals and other charges sufficient to pay, and that any contracts entered into by the authority for the sale or distribution of water shall contain rates, fees, rentals or other charges sufficient to pay, the cost of operation and maintenance of the properties, the principal of and interest on any obligations issued pursuant to such resolution or resolutions as the same severally become due and payable, and to maintain any reserves or other funds required by the terms of such resolution or resolutions.

§ 1057. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of such original note. Such notes shall be paid from any moneys of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged or from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as the bonds and such notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which the bonds or a bond resolution of the authority may contain. Such notes may be sold, at public or private sale for such price or prices and shall bear interest at such rate or rates per annum as the authority shall determine provided, however, that any private sale shall be subject to the approval of the state comptroller. The foregoing provisions shall be applicable to notes issued by the authority notwithstanding the provisions of any other general, special or local law to the contrary. Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority.

The maturity of notes issued by the authority for payments to any party or person entitled to an award in condemnation in advance of the determination of the final award, may be extended beyond five years and until such time as the final award is ascertained and paid.

§ 1058. Duty of authority to maintain and operate. It shall be the duty of the authority, subject to any limitation on the amount of revenues to be expended for such purpose, to maintain and operate and where necessary to reconstruct its properties.

§ 1059. Transfer of officers and employees. Any public officer or employee under civil service, selected by the authority may, with the consent of the commission, board or department by which he or she has been employed, be transferred to the authority and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to comparable offices, positions and employment under the authority. The salary or compensation of any such officer or employee shall after such transfer be paid by the authority. But notwithstanding the provisions of this act, any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority, pursuant to the provisions of this section, who are members of or beneficiaries under any existing pension or retirement system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund, system or systems as are now prescribed by law, but during the period of their employment by the authority, all contributions to any pension or retirement fund or system to be paid by the employer on account of such officers or employees, shall be paid by the authority; and all such officers and employees who have been appointed to positions under the rules and classifications of the personnel officer of the county of Erie shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. It is hereby declared that in the interest of efficiency and insofar as may be practicable, all employees engaged in the operation of any property or properties, except in an executive capacity, at the time such property or properties shall have been acquired by the authority, pursuant to the provisions of this act, shall become the employees of the authority. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law (constituting chapter seven of the consolidated laws) and such rules as the personnel officer of the county of Erie may adopt and make applicable to such authority.

§ 1060. Agreements of the state. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, operate, reconstruct and improve the properties, to establish and collect the revenues, rates, rentals, fees and other charges referred to in this title and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

§ 1061. State, county and municipalities not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the county or of any municipality in the county, and neither the state nor the county nor any municipality in the county shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1062. Bonds legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever, except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1063. Exemption from taxes. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the county of Erie and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any property owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision or upon its activities, or any filing, recording or transfer taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes. The revenues, monies and other properties and the activities of the authority shall be exempt from taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including real estate taxes, franchise taxes or other excise taxes.

§ 1065. Control by other boards or commissions. No certificate of convenience and necessity, license, consent or other authorization shall be required to be obtained by the authority or by a water-works corporation from any board, commission or other agency of the state in order that the authority may acquire, lease, own and operate, maintain, improve, extend or enlarge any property or properties referred to in this title, or that any water-works corporation may sell, transfer, or lease its franchise, works or system, or any part thereof to the authority, except that nothing in this section contained shall be construed to deprive the state water power and control commission of any jurisdiction which that commission may now or hereafter have pursuant to the provisions of the conservation law (constituting chapter sixty-five of the consolidated laws), or of any jurisdiction which the state commissioner of health may now or hereafter have pursuant to the provisions of article five of the public health law (constituting chapter forty-five of the consolidated laws). Neither the state public service commission nor any other board or commission of like character shall, unless expressly authorized hereafter, have jurisdiction over the authority in the management and control of its properties or operations or any power over the regulation of the rates fixed or charges collected by the authority.

§ 1066. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Erie and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues, rates, rentals, fees and other charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of such revenues, rates, rentals, fees and other charges and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the properties the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the properties and subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from such part or parts of the properties and proceed with any construction thereon or the acquisition of any property, real or personal in connection therewith which the authority is under obligation to do, and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the properties and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from the properties.

6. Such trustees shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 1067. Actions. 1. In any case founded upon tort a notice of claim shall be required as a condition precedent to the commencement of an action or special proceeding against the authority or any officer, appointee, agent or employee thereof, and the provisions of section fifty-e of the general municipal law shall govern the giving of such notice. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued.

2. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1068. Officers and employees not to be interested in transactions. It shall be a misdemeanor for any of the members of the authority, or any officer, agent, servant or employee thereof, employed or appointed by them to be in any way or manner interested directly or indirectly in the furnishing of work, materials, supplies or labor, or in any contract therefor which the authority is empowered by this act to make.

§ 1069. Contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction or purchase of supplies, materials, or equipment pursuant to sections one hundred one and one hundred three of the general municipal law. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority or to contract with a public utility, for a term not to exceed five years, for the operation and maintenance of a water supply system acquired from said public utility.

§ 1070. Annual report. The authority shall submit to the board of supervisors of the county, and to the comptroller, within the first month of each fiscal year, a detailed report setting forth the operations and fiscal transactions of the authority during the preceding fiscal year, the financial condition of such authority and a statement of all receipts and expenditures during such year.

§ 1071. Limitation of liability. Neither the members of the authority, nor any person or persons acting in its behalf, while acting within the scope of their authority, shall be subject to any personal liability resulting from the erection, construction, reconstruction, maintenance or operation of the properties or any of the improvements or from carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title.

§ 1072. Effect of inconsistent provisions. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

§ 1073. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be held unconstitutional, or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional, or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall, on account thereof, be deemed invalid or ineffective.

TITLE 4

SUFFOLK COUNTY WATER AUTHORITY

§ 1074. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Suffolk County Water Authority Act."

§ 1075. Statement of purpose. Prior to the enactment of section five of article ten of the constitution (effective on January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine) public benefit corporations could be created pursuant to general law and chapter eight hundred forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred thirty-four, as amended, authorized the creation of county water authorities. On the twenty-ninth day of March, nineteen hundred thirty-seven, the board of supervisors of Suffolk county pursuant to such chapter created the Suffolk county water authority, which since such date has been in continuous existence as a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation. Thereafter the provisions of such chapter were reenacted and continued as article seven of the county law by chapter one hundred ninety-five of the laws of nineteen hundred forty. The Suffolk county water authority is the only county water authority created pursuant to such chapter eight hundred forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred thirty-four, as amended, or pursuant to such article seven of the county law. Since the enactment of section five of article ten of the constitution public benefit corporations may be created only by special act of the legislature and, to the extent that the provisions of article seven of the county law purport to authorize the creation of county water authorities pursuant to its provisions subsequent to January first, nineteen hundred thirty-nine, such provisions of the county law are obsolete. The purpose of this title is to continue the existence of the Suffolk county water authority, to place the statutory provisions of law applicable thereto in the public authorities law where they appropriately belong, to provide for the powers and duties of the authority, and to repeal the provisions of present article seven of the county law.

§ 1076. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context,

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation heretofore created pursuant to the provisions of chapter eight hundred forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred thirty-four and thereafter continued pursuant to the provisions of article seven of the county law, and whose existence is continued by section one thousand seventy-seven of this title;

2. The term "municipality" shall mean any county, city, town, village, town water district, fire district, fire protection district, fire alarm district, school district, and any other political subdivision of the state;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds issued by the authority, pursuant to this title.

4. The designation board of supervisors shall mean the legislative body of the county of Suffolk.

§ 1077. Suffolk county water authority. 1. The corporate existence of the Suffolk county water authority, heretofore created pursuant to the provisions of chapter eight hundred forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred thirty-four and thereafter continued pursuant to the provisions of article seven of the county law, is hereby continued for the purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation. It shall consist of five members all of whom shall be residents of the county of Suffolk. The present members of the authority shall continue in office until the expiration of their several terms of office and the board of supervisors shall appoint two additional members whose terms of office shall in the first instance be fixed by such board of supervisors in such manner and for such periods of time that the office of one member of the authority shall expire each year. Their successors shall be appointed one member annually by the county board of supervisors for a term of five years. Vacancies in the membership of such authority, other than by expiration of term, shall be filled by the board of supervisors by appointment for the unexpired term. The chairman in office at the effective date of this title shall continue in such office until the expiration of his term of office. Thereafter the chairman of such authority shall be appointed by the county board of supervisors. The members of such authority shall receive such compensation for their services as shall be fixed by the board of supervisors and shall be reimbursed for all necessary and actual expenses incurred in connection with their duties as such members and in connection with the carrying out of the purposes of this title. The power of such authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the authority then in office. Said authority may delegate to one or more of its members, or its agents, or employees, such powers and duties as it may deem proper. The corporate existence of such authority shall continue until its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full. Upon ceasing to exist, all its rights and property shall pass to the county of Suffolk.

2. Neither the public service commission nor any other board or commission of like character, shall have jurisdiction over the authority in the management and control of its properties or operations or any power over the regulation of rates fixed or charges collected by the authority.

3. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers, purposes and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the county of Suffolk and the state of New York, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that the said purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

§ 1078. Powers. The powers and duties of the authority shall be as follows:

1. To sue and be sued.

2. To have a seal and alter the same.

3. To acquire, in the name of the authority, lease, hold and dispose of property or any interest therein for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the exercise of the power of condemnation hereinafter granted.

4. (a) To purchase, in the name of the authority, any water supply system, water distribution system, including plants, works, instrumentalities or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, approaches, connections, dams, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions and betterments, situated wholly within the county for the purpose of supplying water for domestic, commercial and public purposes at retail to individual consumers within the county of Suffolk or at wholesale in the manner provided by subdivision seven of this section as a means of so acquiring for such purposes, and subject to the approval of the public service commission, the authority may purchase all of the stock of any existing privately owned water corporation or company, and thereafter, within a reasonable time, such water corporation or company shall be dissolved.

(b) To condemn in the name of the authority, except where located in another county, any water supply system, water distribution system, including plants, works, instrumentalities, or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, approaches, connections, dams, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions and betterments for the purpose of supplying water for domestic, commercial and public purposes at retail to individual consumers within the county of Suffolk or at wholesale in the manner provided by subdivision seven of this section. The authority shall exercise the power of condemnation hereby granted in the manner provided either by the condemnation law or by the Suffolk county improvement act. In the exercise of such power of condemnation, the property being condemned shall be deemed, when so determined by the authority, to be for a public use superior to the public use in the hands of any other person, association, or corporation, provided, however, that the authority shall have no power to condemn property the legal title to which is vested in a municipality unless such municipality shall consent thereto.

(c) To construct, develop and operate any water supply system, water distribution system, including plants, works, instrumentalities, or parts thereof, and appurtenances thereto, dams, reservoirs, water mains, pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, or any other property incidental to or included in such system or part thereof within the county of Suffolk, and to acquire, by condemnation in the manner provided by this title, or by purchase, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights and rights-of-way in connection therewith within such county; and to own and operate, maintain, repair, improve, reconstruct, enlarge and extend, subject to the provisions of this title, any of its properties acquired or constructed under this title, all of which, together with the acquisition of such properties are hereby declared to be public purposes.

(d) To acquire, hold, use, lease, sell, transfer and dispose of any property, real, personal or mixed, or interest therein, for its corporate purposes.

5. To purchase water in bulk from any person, private corporation or municipality when necessary or convenient for the operation of such water supply and distribution system. To sell water in bulk to any not-for-profit corporation, public corporation, private corporation or person at its regular retail rates.

6. To fix, alter, charge and collect rates and other charges for the use of water by the inhabitants of the county or other consumers thereof, at reasonable rates to be determined by the authority for the purpose of providing for the payment of the expenses of the authority, the construction, improvement, repair, maintenance and operation of the water supply and distribution system of the authority, the payment of the principal of and interest on the obligations of the authority, and to fulfill the terms and provisions of any agreements made with the purchasers or holders of any such obligations.

7. To sell water by volume to any or all municipalities or privately owned public water supply and distribution systems in such county. The fact that any municipality has procured or is about to procure an independent source of water supply shall not prevent such municipality from purchasing water from the authority. Subject to the approval of the board of supervisors of Suffolk county to sell any water not needed in such county to any municipality or privately owned public water supply and distribution system outside of the county in which created. Not only may the authority sell any surplus water it may have developed, but it may, with the consent of such board of supervisors, develop and provide a sufficient amount of water so as to supply water outside of the county to any municipality or privately owned public water supply and distribution system.

8. To make contracts and execute all instruments necessary or convenient.

9. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs and the regulation of and the charges made for water sold.

10. To appoint officers, agents and employees.

11. To enter upon any lands, waters and premises for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, drillings and examinations.

12. To enter into cooperative agreements with other water authorities, municipalities, or utility companies, for the interconnection of facilities, the exchange or inter-change of services and commodities or for any other lawful purposes necessary or desirable to effect the purposes of this title, provided, however, that any such agreement with a municipality located in a county, other than Suffolk county, shall be subject to the approval of the board of supervisors of such county, if any.

12-a. To enter into a contract or contracts with the board of supervisors of Suffolk county for the acquisition, construction and development of a water supply and distribution system, or any part or parts thereof, on behalf of a county water district, and to contract for the operation and management of such county water district, all as provided in article five-a of the county law and article five-b of the general municipal law. Such water authority shall be deemed the agent of Suffolk county under any such contract. If such contract shall authorize the water authority to purchase supplies or equipment or to construct public works, such authority shall be subject to all provisions of law to which Suffolk county would be subject in relation to advertising and awarding any such contracts for supplies, equipment or public works.

13. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly given or necessarily implied in this title.

In exercising the powers granted by this title, the authority shall not sell water in any area which is served by a water system owned or operated by a municipality unless the governing board of such municipality shall adopt a resolution requesting the authority to sell water in such area.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the authority may not approve by resolution or otherwise make a final determination regarding a construction project for any new structure which exceeds thirty feet in height unless it holds a public hearing in the municipality where the construction will take place not less than fifteen days after notice has been given as hereinafter provided. Notice of such public hearing shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected by the proposed construction project.

§ 1078-a. Sale of water. The authority shall not refuse to sell water service to residential tenants for the sole reason that the premises of such tenants receiving water service are rented.

§ 1078-b. Discontinuance procedures. No discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water shall be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a water-works corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law.

§ 1078-c. Water metering. The authority shall meter service to its customers within two years of the effective date of this section.

§ 1078-d. Additional powers of the county of Suffolk and towns and villages within Suffolk county. 1. a. In addition to any powers granted by any general or special law, the board of supervisors of the county of Suffolk, acting on behalf of the county, and any town board or village board of trustees of any town or village within the county of Suffolk, acting on behalf of such town or village, either separately or pursuant to agreements among themselves, may, from time to time, appropriate by resolution sums of money to defray costs and expenses of the authority associated with the extension of authority mains to areas in the county within which the county department of health services has documented that private wells providing water to home owners have become contaminated with pollutants in concentrations greater than recommended by any drinking water guidelines or standard established by the federal government or this state, and may enter into a contract or contracts with the authority to so extend authority mains.

b. In areas of documented groundwater contamination where potable water may be more economically supplied by a municipal water authority, special district or improvement area established to provide a water improvement, or by a village, than by the Suffolk county water authority, the county board of supervisors and any town board or village board of trustees within Suffolk county may appropriate sums of money to said municipal water authority, special district or improvement area or village, and enter into a contract or contracts, in accordance with this subdivision.

2. Persons wishing to connect to mains that have been extended to areas of documented groundwater contamination with financial assistance by the county, or any town or village as provided herein, shall be solely responsible for costs and expenses associated with connecting to said mains.

3. Appropriations of money by the county board of supervisors and any town board or village board of trustees in the county of Suffolk to the authority or to a municipal water authority, special district or improvement area or village within Suffolk county, and any contract or contracts entered into with said authority or municipal water authority, special district or improvement area or village prior to the effective date of this section that are consistent with the authorization in subdivision one of this section are hereby legalized, validated, ratified and confirmed.

§ 1078-e. Acquisition by eminent domain. Notwithstanding any provision of the eminent domain procedure law to the contrary, in any proceeding brought by the authority pursuant to such law, title shall vest in the authority and compensation shall be paid only (a) upon a decision by the supreme court that compensation for the real property so condemned shall be determined solely by the income capitalization method of valuation, based on the actual net income as allowed by the public service commission, and (b) upon such court's determination of the amount of such compensation, based upon the income capitalization method, entry of the final judgment, the filing of the final decree, and the conclusion of any appeal or expiration of the time to file an appeal related to the condemnation proceeding. If any court shall utilize any method of compensation other than the income capitalization method, or if the proposed compensation is more than the rate base of the assets taken in condemnation as utilized by the public service commission in setting rates and as certified by the public service commission, the authority may withdraw the condemnation proceeding without prejudice or costs to any party.

§ 1078-f. Charges by authority; method of collection. All rates, fees and other charges for the use or availability of the facilities or services or commodities provided or made available by the authority and billed directly by the authority to the user or service recipient pursuant to a classification of person adopted by the authority as herein provided shall be a lien upon the real property upon which, or in connection with which, services are provided or are made available, as and from the first date fixed for a payment of such rates, fees and other charges. Any such lien shall take precedence over all other liens, or encumbrances, except taxes or assessments. The chief financial officer of the authority shall prepare and transmit to the receiver of taxes and assessments, on or before the first day of November in each year, a list of those properties using such facilities or for which such facilities, services or commodities were provided or made available and from which the payment of rates, fees and other charges are in arrears for a period of ninety days or more after the last day fixed for payment of such rates, fees and other charges without penalty. The list shall contain a brief description of such properties, the names of the persons or corporations liable to pay for the same, and the amount chargeable to each, including penalties and interest, as applicable, computed to December thirty-first of that year. The receiver of taxes and assessments shall levy such sums against the properties liable and shall state the amount thereof in a separate column in the annual tax rolls of the county under the heading "water charge." Such amounts, excluding penalties and interest imposed by the county when collected by the county collector or receivers of taxes, shall be paid over to the chief financial officer of the authority. County imposed penalties and interest shall be retained by the county collector or receiver of taxes which shall become a part of the general funds of the county. All of the provisions of the tax law of the state governing enforcement and collection of unpaid taxes or assessments for special improvements not inconsistent herewith shall apply to the collection of such unpaid rates, rentals, fees and other charges.

§ 1079. Survey of water resources. The board of supervisors of Suffolk county may, by resolution, appropriate a sum of money to defray the preliminary expenses of such authority so created and may thereafter appropriate such sums as may be required, for the purpose of making a survey of the water resources of the said county, and the preparation of a map or plan for the development thereof. The authority shall, as soon as possible, make a survey of the water resources of the county, and prepare a map and plan for the development of the same showing in detail the proposed sources of water to be developed, and the municipalities and areas which may be served thereby. Application for approval of the project shall then be made to the water power and control commission as provided by article eleven of the conservation law. If so approved, the authority shall enter into such contracts or agreements as may be necessary to carry out the plan of such development. The authority may, however, acquire by purchase or condemnation any existing water supply and distribution system without making such survey and except as to properties to be acquired under condemnation proceedings instituted prior to February first, nineteen hundred fifty-two after first obtaining the approval of the board of supervisors of the county, provided, however, that the authority shall not acquire any existing water supply and distribution system owned by a municipality unless the governing board thereof shall adopt a resolution requesting the authority to make such acquisition.

§ 1080. Bonds. 1. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code. Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times in not exceeding forty years from their respective date or dates, subject to such option or options of redemption, as may be provided in the resolution authorizing such bonds, at par or at a price not exceeding one hundred five per centum of their face value, together with accrued interest, bear interest at such rate or rates that the cost to maturity of the money for any issue of such bonds shall not exceed six per centum per annum, payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, and in such form, either coupon or registered, and be executed in such manner, and be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution or resolutions may provide.

2. All bonds of the authority shall be sold at public sale upon sealed bids to the bidder who shall offer the lowest interest cost to the authority to be determined by the authority. The notice of sale shall be published at least once not less than ten nor more than forty days before the date of sale in a newspaper designated by the authority and shall call for the receipt of sealed bids and shall fix the date, time and place of sale.

3. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions requiring public sale, any bonds of the authority may be sold by the authority within two years of the effective date of this title at private sale at such price or prices as the authority shall determine not exceeding the interest cost herein provided, and the authority also may sell at private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine not exceeding the interest cost herein provided, any bonds authorized for the purpose of paying the cost of acquiring by condemnation a privately owned public water supply and distribution system provided such bonds are sold within one year of the date of completion of such condemnation and the proceedings for such condemnation were commenced prior to or not more than two years from the effective date of this title.

4. Any bonds of the authority, whether sold at public or private sale, shall be sold for a price not less than ninety-six per centum of the par value thereof, plus accrued interest provided always that the interest cost to maturity of the money for any issue of such bonds shall not exceed six per centum per annum. Such bonds may be issued for any corporate purpose of the authority.

5. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds, as to (a) pledging the revenue or water rents charged by the authority to secure the payment of the bonds;

(b) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(c) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of water and to alter or reduce rates or charges for the use of water;

(d) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds;

(e) the application of funds and the safeguarding of funds on hand or on deposit, including the requiring of the giving of security for deposit of such funds by depository banks or trust companies. Unless otherwise provided in said resolution, all deposits of funds of the authority shall be secured in the manner provided by law for securing deposits of county moneys. All banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits;

(f) defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver; provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall be not inconsistent with the general laws of this state.

6. The authority shall have power from time to time whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any of its corporate purposes. Refunding bonds may be delivered by the authority to the purchasers thereof at any time prior to the date of maturity or redemption date of the bonds proposed to be refunded, if the authority shall determine that such action shall be financially sound and advantageous to the authority. The rate or rates of interest of the refunding bonds shall not be limited by the rate or rates of interest borne by any of the bonds to be refunded by such bonds, but all of the provisions of this section with reference to the sale of bonds of the authority, and the interest cost of the money raised by the sale thereof, shall apply to such refunding bonds.

7. Except as may be otherwise expressly provided by the authority, every issue of bonds by the authority shall be general obligations payable out of any moneys, earnings or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys, earnings or revenues.

8. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be personally liable on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof. The authority shall have power, out of any funds available therefor, to purchase (as distinguished from the power of redemption hereinabove provided) any bonds issued by it at a price of not more than the principal amount thereof or the redemption price at which the bonds may be redeemed at the next ensuing redemption date and accrued interest. All bonds so purchased shall be cancelled.

9. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

§ 1080-a. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of such original note. Such notes shall be paid from any moneys of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged or from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued, or, subject to the contractual rights of the holders of any bonds or notes then outstanding, from the proceeds of the sale of any other bonds of the authority. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as the bonds and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which the bonds or a bond resolution of the authority may contain. Such notes may be sold at public or private sale at not less than par and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding six percent per annum. The provisions of sections ten hundred eighty-one, ten hundred eighty-two, ten hundred eighty-three and ten hundred eighty-four of the public authorities law relating to bonds of the Suffolk county water authority shall apply with the same full force and effect to notes of the authority herein authorized to be issued.

§ 1081. Bonds as legal investments. The bonds herein authorized are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whomsoever, except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them, provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1082. Bonds and property of the authority exempt from taxation. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the county, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any property owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision or upon its activities, or any filing, recording or transfer taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes. The revenues, monies and other properties and the activities of the authority shall be exempt from taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including real estate taxes, franchise taxes or other excise taxes. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds and notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds and notes that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds and notes, shall at all times be free from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes.

§ 1083. State, county and municipalities not liable on bonds. The bonds of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the county or of any municipality in the county, and neither the state nor the county nor any municipality in the county shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1084. Agreements of the state. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, operate, reconstruct and improve the properties, to establish and collect the revenues, rates, rentals, fees and other charges referred to in this title and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

§ 1085. Contracts for sale of water wholesale. Any municipality is hereby authorized to contract with the authority for the purchase of water from the authority at wholesale for a period not exceeding thirty years except that, in the case of a fire protection district or a fire alarm district such period shall not exceed five years, and in the case of a fire district, such period shall not exceed ten years. Such contract shall provide that the liability of such purchaser for the payment of any sums pursuant to such contract shall arise only at such time as such water has been actually delivered to such purchaser. Such contract shall state the rates, fees or charges to be paid for such water, shall provide for the adjustment thereof either by increase or decrease from time to time by mutual agreement of the parties thereto, subject however to any provisions contained in any resolution of the authority authorizing obligations relating to the imposition of rates, fees or charges and the revision or adjustment thereof. Prior to the execution of such contract the governing board of any such purchaser shall call a public hearing to consider the subject matter and the desirability of the execution of the proposed contract and shall publish notice thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in the territorial boundaries of such purchaser, at least once and not less than fifteen days before the date of such public hearing. Such notice shall briefly state the terms of the proposed contract, the date and place of the public hearing and further state that at such time and place the governing board will hear all persons interested. If after considering the evidence adduced at such hearing, such governing body shall conclude that the execution of such contract is in the public interest it may authorize the execution thereof by the adoption of a resolution to such effect.

§ 1086. Audit of authority; annual report. In conformity with the provisions of section five of article ten of the constitution, the accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller and such state comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and the books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing. The authority shall annually submit to the governor and to the legislature and also to the board of supervisors of Suffolk county a detailed report pursuant to the provisions of section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter. Notwithstanding the ninety day period set forth in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter, the authority shall submit such detailed report within one hundred and twenty days after the end of its fiscal year.

§ 1087. Interest in contracts prohibited. It shall be a misdemeanor for any of the members of the authority, or any officer, agent, servant or employee thereof, employed or appointed by them to be in any way or manner interested directly or indirectly in the furnishing of work, materials, supplies or labor, or in any contract therefor which the authority is empowered by this title to make.

§ 1088. Contracts. All contracts, or orders, for work, material or supplies performed or furnished in connection with construction shall be awarded by the authority pursuant to resolution. Such contracts, or orders, for work, material or supplies needed for any particular purpose involving an expenditure of more than five thousand dollars shall be awarded only after inviting sealed bids or proposals therefor. The notice inviting sealed proposals shall be published at least once in a newspaper or trade paper selected by the authority for such purpose, such publication to be at least ten days before the date for the receipt of bids. If the authority shall not deem it for the interest of the authority to reject all bids, it shall award the contract to the lowest bidder, unless the authority shall determine that it is for the public interest that a bid other than the lowest bid should be accepted. In any contract for work, material or supplies, there shall be inserted in the discretion of the authority a provision that additional work may be done or material or supplies furnished for the purpose of completing such contract at an expense not exceeding fifteen per centum of the amount of such contract if such additional work, materials or supplies shall be ordered by the authority. The bidder whose bid is accepted shall give security for the faithful performance of the contract, and such other security as the authority may require, and may be required to maintain for such period as shall be stipulated any construction done under the contract, all in the manner prescribed and required by the authority; and the sufficiency of such security shall, in addition to the justification and acknowledgment, be approved by the authority. All bids or proposals shall be publicly opened by the authority or its duly authorized agent. If the bidder whose bid has been accepted after advertising shall neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to him on his bid or proposal, or, if he accepts but does not execute the contract and give proper security the authority shall have the right to declare his deposit forfeited, and thereupon it shall be readvertised and relet as above provided. In case any work shall be abandoned by any contractor, the authority may, if the best interest of the authority be thereby served, adopt on behalf of the authority any or all sub-contracts made by such contractor for such work and all such sub-contractors shall be bound by such adoption if made; and the authority shall in the manner provided herein readvertise and relet the work specified in the original contract exclusive of so much thereof as shall be provided for in the sub-contract or sub-contracts so adopted. No bid shall be accepted from or any contracts awarded to, any person or corporation who is in arrears to the authority, or the county of Suffolk upon any debt or contract, or is a defaulter as surety or otherwise upon any obligation of the authority, or the county. Every contract involving an expenditure of more than five thousand dollars when made and entered into as herein provided for shall be executed in duplicate, one copy of which shall be held by the authority and one copy of which shall be delivered to the contractor. Upon the adoption of a resolution by a vote of two-thirds of all the members of the authority stating that, for reasons of efficiency or economy, there is need for standardization, purchase contracts for a particular type or kind of equipment, material or supplies of more than five thousand dollars may be awarded by the authority to the lowest responsible bidder furnishing the required security after advertisement for sealed bids therefor in the manner provided in this section. Such resolution shall contain a full explanation of the reasons for its adoption.

§ 1089. Actions. 1. In any case founded upon tort a notice of claim shall be required as a condition precedent to the commencement of an action or special proceeding against the authority or any officer, appointee or employee thereof, and the provisions of section fifty-e of the general municipal law shall govern the giving of such notice. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued.

2. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1090. Expenses of hearing. The expenses of any hearing, determination or other action which the provisions of this title require of the water power and control commission shall be paid by the applicant. Bills for such expenses shall be certified by said commission to the applicant and paid by the applicant directly to the claimant within thirty days of the date of such certification.

§ 1091. Separability clause. If any section, clause or provision in this title shall be held by a competent court to be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective, and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1092. Effect of inconsistent provisions. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of any city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling. Nothing contained in this title shall be held to alter or abridge the powers and duties of the state department of health or of the water power and control commission over water supply matters.

TITLE 5

MONROE COUNTY WATER AUTHORITY

§ 1093. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Monroe County Water Authority Act."

§ 1094. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context,

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section one thousand ninety-five of this title;

2. The term "county" shall mean the county of Monroe;

3. The term "treasurer" shall mean the treasurer of the authority;

4. The term "comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state of New York;

5. The term "civil service commission" shall mean the civil service commission of the county of Monroe;

6. The term "properties" shall mean the water supply and distribution system or systems of the authority, including the plants, works, instrumentalities or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, approaches, connections, dams, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, and also including, without limitation, facilities and appurtenances thereto, some part of the capacity or use of which is used or to be used by or for the benefit of a municipality or municipalities or other corporation or corporations pursuant to contracts authorized by subdivision sixteen of section ten hundred ninety-six of this title, or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions, and betterments, situated within the territorial limits of the county, or in Genesee county, or in the town or village of Victor and the towns of East Bloomfield and West Bloomfield in Ontario county, or in the village of Holley and the town of Clarendon in Orleans county;

7. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds, notes and obligations, issued by the authority, pursuant to this act;

8. The term "revenues" shall mean all rents, charges and other income derived from the operation of the properties of the authority;

9. The term "municipality" shall mean any county, city, town, village, town water district, fire district, fire protection district, fire alarm district, school district, and any other political subdivision of the state.

10. The term "Genesee county project" shall mean the construction, installation, equipping and/or financing of such properties, as such term is defined in subdivision six of this section, as are necessary for the authority to provide service to Genesee county or any municipality therein on the terms set forth in this title.

§ 1095. Monroe county water authority. 1. A corporation known as

"Monroe County Water Authority" is hereby created and continued for the purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation and shall be a "public district" for the purposes of section eighty-nine-l of the public service law. It shall consist of seven members, no more than five of whom shall belong to one political party and all of whom shall be residents of the county, who shall be appointed by the president of the county legislature of Monroe county subject to confirmation by a majority of the county legislature of Monroe county. The five persons serving as members of the authority on and immediately prior to the effective date of this act, or any person appointed to fill a vacancy for the unexpired term of such a member, shall continue as members of the authority for their present terms of office, or the term of his predecessor in the case of the filling of a vacancy, or until their successor is appointed and qualified and, thereafter, subsequent appointments to such membership positions shall be for terms of five years. After the effective date of this act the two additional members of the authority, in addition to the five memberships existing on and immediately prior to the effective date of this act, shall be appointed by the president of the county legislature of Monroe county subject to confirmation by a majority of the county legislature of Monroe county, one such appointment to be for a term of office expiring on April first, nineteen hundred eighty-one and one such appointment to be for a term of office expiring April first, nineteen hundred eighty-two; upon the expiration of the initial terms of office of such two additional members, subsequent appointments to fill such memberships shall be for terms of five years. In addition, such additional two appointments shall be made in such manner so as to provide that the membership of the authority be composed of seven members, of whom not more than five shall belong to the same political party.

Subsequent appointments shall be made in the same manner and for terms of five years. All members shall continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and qualify. The chairman shall be elected annually by the members of the authority. Vacancies, occurring otherwise than by expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointments by the county legislature for the unexpired terms. Members of the authority may be removed from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as may be provided by law for the removal of officers of the county. The members of the authority shall receive such compensation for their services as shall be fixed by the county legislature and shall be reimbursed for all their actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the carrying out of the purposes of this title. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and be exercised by the members at a meeting duly called and held and four members shall constitute a quorum. No action shall be taken except pursuant to the favorable vote of at least four members. The authority may delegate to one or more of its members, officers, agents or employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. The president of the Monroe county legislature shall further appoint two persons from such legislature for the term of their offices, one from the majority party and one from the minority party, to serve as legislative liaisons to the authority on behalf of such legislature.

2. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until all its liabilities have been met, other than its liabilities to the county pursuant to any agreements entered into pursuant to subdivision sixteen-b of section one thousand ninety-six, and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged and thereupon all rights and properties of the authority, including its water properties as defined in subdivision sixteen-b of section one thousand ninety-six, shall pass to and be vested in the county; provided, however, that if at the time all such rights and properties of the authority shall pass to and be vested in the county, the authority and such county are parties to any agreement and any supplemental agreements thereto entered into pursuant to subdivision sixteen-b of section one thousand ninety-six, then the authority and its corporate existence and the powers herein provided for shall continue so long as is necessary to enable the authority to exercise the rights and duties and fulfill the obligations imposed upon the authority by the provisions of any such agreement and any supplemental agreements thereto.

3. The officers of the authority shall consist of a chairman, a vice-chairman and a treasurer, who shall be members of the authority, and a secretary, who need not be a member of the authority. The vice-chairman, treasurer and secretary shall be appointed by the authority and shall serve at the pleasure of the authority. The authority may appoint and at pleasure remove an attorney and an engineer, which positions, in addition to the position of secretary, shall be in the exempt class of the civil service and such additional officers and employees as it may require for the performance of its duties, fix and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law of the state of New York and such rules as the civil service commission of the county of Monroe may adopt and make applicable to such authority. The authority may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the authority and the premium therefor shall be paid by the authority.

4. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers, purposes and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the county of Monroe and the state of New York, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that the said purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

5. Upon creation of the authority, from time to time the board of supervisors, may, by resolution, appropriate sums of money to defray the expenses of the authority. The moneys so appropriated shall be repaid by the authority to the county out of the proceeds of the first bond issue of the authority. The provisions of this subdivision shall not be applicable to payments made by the county for the financing of any water facilities in accordance with the provisions of subdivision sixteen-b of section one thousand ninety-six of this title.

6. Neither the public service commission nor any other board or commission of like character, shall have jurisdiction over the authority in the management and control of its properties or operations or any power over the regulation of rates fixed or charges collected by the authority.

§ 1096. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, in the name of the authority, lease, hold and dispose of personal property or any interest therein for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the exercise of the power of condemnation hereinafter granted;

4. To purchase or lease, in the name of the authority, any water supply system, water distribution system, including plants, works, instrumentalities or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, approaches, connections, dams, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions, and betterments, situated within the county, or in Genesee county, or in the town or village of Victor, the village of Bloomfield and the towns of East Bloomfield, Canadice, Richmond and West Bloomfield in Ontario county, or in the village of Holley and the towns of Clarendon and Kendall in Orleans county for the purpose of supplying water for domestic, commercial, and public purposes at retail to individual consumers within the county of Monroe or in the manner provided by subdivision seven of this section; and as a means of so acquiring for such purposes, and subject to the approval of the public service commission, the authority may purchase all of the stock of any existing privately owned water corporation or company, and thereafter, within a reasonable time, such water corporation or company shall be dissolved;

5. To condemn in the name of the authority in the counties of Monroe and Genesee, or in any other county or municipality specifically enumerated in the first sentence of subdivision six of this section, or in the name of the county in the case of any water facilities to be owned and financed by the county pursuant to subdivision sixteen-b of this section, except where located in any other county or municipality, any water supply system, water distribution system, including plants, works, instrumentalities, or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, approaches, connections, dams, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions, and betterments for the purpose of supplying water for domestic, commercial, and public purposes at retail to individual consumers within the counties of Monroe and Genesee or in any other county or municipality specifically enumerated in the first sentence of subdivision six of this section, or at wholesale in the manner provided by subdivision seven of this section. The authority shall exercise the power of condemnation hereby granted in the manner provided by the eminent domain procedure law or any such proceeding to condemn may be instituted by the authority before a justice of the supreme court or an official referee thereof. In the exercise of such power of condemnation, the property being condemned shall be deemed, when so determined by the authority, to be for a public use superior to the public use in the hands of any other person, association, or corporation; provided, however, that the authority shall have no power to condemn property the legal title to which is vested in a municipality or in a private corporation owning such property primarily for its own use, unless such municipality or private corporation shall consent thereto;

6. To construct and develop any water supply system, water distribution system, including plants, works, instrumentalities, or parts thereof, and appurtenances thereto, dams, reservoirs, water mains, pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, or any other property incidental to or included in such system or part thereof within the county of Monroe, or in Genesee county, or in the town or village of Victor, the village of Bloomfield and the towns of East Bloomfield, Canadice, Richmond and West Bloomfield in Ontario county, or in the village of Holley and the towns of Clarendon and Kendall in Orleans county. To acquire, by condemnation, in the name of the authority in the counties of Monroe and Genesee, or in any other county or municipality specifically enumerated in the first sentence of this subdivision, or in the name of the county of Monroe in the case of any water facilities to be owned and financed by such county pursuant to subdivision sixteen-b of this section, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, and rights-of-way within the counties of Monroe and Genesee, or in any other county or municipality specifically enumerated in the first sentence of this subdivision, in the manner provided by this title; or to purchase or lease lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, and rights-of-way in connection therewith within the county of Monroe or within Genesee county, or in any other county or municipality specifically enumerated in the first sentence of this subdivision; and to own and operate, maintain, repair, improve, reconstruct, enlarge, and extend, subject to the provisions of this title, any of its properties acquired or constructed under this title, all of which, together with the acquisition of such properties, are hereby declared to be public purposes;

6-a. The authority shall not exercise any of the powers granted in subdivisions four and six of this section with respect to the acquisition, purchase, leasing, construction, or development of property outside of the county without first having obtained the prior approval of such purchase, leasing, acquisition, construction, or development of such property outside of the county by resolution of the legislative body of the municipality wherein the affected property outside of the county is located. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of any general, special, or local law, ordinance, resolution, or charter, any public corporation or improvement district thereof may, by a majority vote of its governing body, give, grant, sell, convey, lend, license the use of, or lease to the authority any property or facilities, including any water supply system, water distribution system, including plants, works, instrumentalities or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, approaches, connections, dams, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions, and betterments for the purpose of supplying water for domestic, commercial, industrial and public purposes, which property or facilities are useful in connection with the exercise by the authority of its powers under this title. Any such gift, grant, sale, conveyance, loan, license, or lease shall be upon such terms and conditions, and for such term or terms of years, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds, as the authority and such public corporation or improvement district thereof may agree. Any such gift, grant, sale, conveyance, loan, license, or lease shall not be subject to referendum, permissive or mandatory. In the event that any public corporation or improvement district thereof gives, grants, sells, conveys, lends, licenses the use of, or leases any water supply system, water distribution system, or other improvements, extension or betterments for the purpose of supplying water, to the authority, such public corporation or improvement district thereof may contract with the authority to lease, borrow, license, operate, maintain, manage, and provide services for such facilities upon such terms and conditions, and for such term or terms of years, subject to the rights of holders of bonds, as the authority and such public corporation or improvement district thereof may agree. The authority, in furtherance of any purchase, conveyance, or lease of any property or facility from any public corporation or improvement district thereof, may assume the primary responsibility for the payment of the principal and interest on any bonds or notes issued by such public corporation or improvement district thereof for such property or facility. For purposes of section 136.00 of the local finance law, any agreement by the authority to assume the primary responsibility for the payment of the principal and interest on any bonds or notes issued by any such public corporation or improvement district thereof shall, so long as such agreement shall continue to be honored by the authority, cause such bonds or notes to be deemed to have been refunded, and any such public corporation or improvement district thereof may deduct from its gross indebtedness any outstanding indebtedness contracted for such property or facility to be acquired by the authority. The net proceeds of any purchase, conveyance, or lease of any property or facility from a public corporation or improvement district thereof may be used by such public corporation or improvement district thereof for any general or specific public use;

7. To sell water, however acquired, by volume and at retail to individual consumers within the county of Monroe for domestic, commercial, industrial, and public purposes, or by volume or in bulk and at wholesale to any or all municipalities or privately owned public water supply and distribution systems in such county. The fact that any municipality has procured or is about to procure an independent source of water supply shall not prevent such municipality from purchasing water from the authority. To sell any water not needed in such county by volume and at retail to individual consumers within the county of Genesee, or in the town or village of Victor, the village of Bloomfield and the towns of East Bloomfield, Canadice, Richmond and West Bloomfield in Ontario county, or in the village of Holley and the towns of Clarendon and Kendall in Orleans county, for domestic, commercial, industrial, and public purposes, or by volume or in bulk and at wholesale to any municipality or privately owned public water supply and distribution system outside of the county; provided that any costs incurred by the authority related to the Genesee county project shall be recovered by the authority solely from Genesee county or from rates and charges collected from customers within Genesee county; and further provided that the authority shall not sell water in any area outside of the county unless the governing board of the municipality wherein such area is located shall enter into an agreement with the authority for service or sale of water by it in such area or shall by resolution request the authority to sell water within such area. Any agreement between a municipality outside of the county and the authority for the sale of water to or within such municipality shall be subject to the approval of the legislative body of the contiguous county wherein such municipality is located. Not only may the authority sell any surplus water it may have developed, but it may develop and provide a sufficient amount of water so as to supply water outside of the county to individual consumers, any municipality, or privately owned public water supply and distribution system;

8. To purchase water in bulk or by volume from any person, private corporation or municipality when necessary or convenient for the operation of any water supply and distribution system developed by it, or when necessary or convenient for resale under the authority and provisions of subdivision seven of this section;

9. To acquire, hold, use, lease, sell, transfer and dispose of any property, real, personal or mixed, or interest therein, for its corporate purposes;

10. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and subject to agreements with bondholders, rules for the sale of water and the collection of rents and charges therefor. A copy of such rules and by-laws, and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the authority shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county and thereafter published once in two newspapers having a general circulation in the county. Violation of such rules shall be a misdemeanor, punishable by fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not longer than thirty days, or both. Exclusive jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the local criminal courts of the county, which have trial jurisdiction, to hear and determine, subject to the provisions of the criminal procedure law, any violation of this title;

11. To use the officers, employees, facilities and equipment of the county with the consent of the county, paying a proper portion of the compensation or cost;

12. To make contracts and to execute all necessary or convenient instruments, including evidences of indebtedness, negotiable or non-negotiable;

13. To enter on any lands, waterways and premises for the purpose of making surveys, soundings and examinations;

14. To borrow money and to issue negotiable bonds or notes and to fund or refund the same, and to provide for the rights of the holders of its obligations;

15. To fix rates and collect charges for the use of the facilities of, or services rendered by, or any commodities furnished by the authority such as to provide revenues sufficient at all times to pay, as the same shall become due, the principal and interest on the bonds or notes of the authority together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, in addition to paying as the same shall become due the expense of operating and maintaining the properties of the authority together with proper reserves for depreciation, maintenance, and contingencies and all other obligations and indebtedness of the authority;

16. To enter into cooperative agreements with other water authorities, municipalities, or utility companies, for the inter-connection of facilities, the exchange or inter-change of services and commodities, and to enter into contracts for the construction of water supply and distribution systems by the authority for any municipality which possesses express reciprocal powers and having power to construct and develop a water supply and distribution system, or contracts for the construction of a water supply and distributions systems for the authority by a municipality which possesses express reciprocal powers and having power to construct and develop a water supply and distribution system, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable including, but not limited to, the reimbursement of all costs of such construction, or for any other lawful purposes necessary or desirable to effect the purposes of this title, provided, however, that any such agreement with a municipality located in a county, other than Monroe county, shall be subject to the approval of the legislative body of such county. The authority shall also have the power to enter into contracts or agreements with other corporations, public or private, (i) for or with respect to the financing, construction, development, expansion or improvement of properties, facilities, and appurtenances owned by the authority, with a part of the capacity or use of such properties, facilities and appurtenances utilized or to be utilized by or for the benefit of any such corporation and (ii) for or with respect to the use, operation, management, repair and maintenance of such properties, facilities, and appurtenances of the authority, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable, which may include, without limitation, collection by the authority of rents, rates or other charges to pay for the cost of construction, including debt service on obligations of the authority issued to finance construction, operation, management, maintenance, repair and use of such facilities; and municipalities having power to construct and develop water supply and distribution systems shall have the power to enter into contracts or agreements contemplated herein with the authority, including any such contract to which another corporation is a party;

16-a. To enter into a contract or contracts with the board of supervisors of Monroe county for the acquisition, construction and development of a water supply and distribution system, or any part or parts thereof, on behalf of a county water district, and to contract for the operation and management of such county water district, all as provided in article five-a of the county law and article five-b of the general municipal law. Such water authority shall be deemed the agent of Monroe county under any such contract. If such contract shall authorize the water authority to purchase supplies or equipment or to construct public works, such authority shall be subject to all provisions of law to which Monroe county would be subject in relation to advertising and awarding any such contracts for supplies, equipment or public works.

16-b. (1) It is the purpose of this subdivision to provide a means whereby: (i) the authority shall plan, construct, operate and manage both the water properties owned by the authority and additional water facilities to be hereafter constructed by the authority but financed and owned by the county so that such water properties and such water facilities may be operated as an integrated water system; and (ii) the county shall finance the construction of and own additional water facilities and lease the same to or otherwise make the same available for use by the authority in order to assist the authority in providing such necessary improvements required for the operation of the water properties of the authority (the title to which water properties will, as provided by law, become vested in the county).

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision sixteen-b the term "water facilities" shall mean the acquisition, construction or reconstruction of or addition to a water supply or distribution system, whether or not including buildings, land or rights in land, original furnishings, equipment, machinery or apparatus, or the replacement of such equipment, machinery or apparatus, which water facilities are to be financed and owned by the county. For the purpose of this subdivision sixteen-b the term "water properties" means the source of water supply and the water supply and distribution system of the authority, including the plants, works, instrumentalities or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights of way, contract rights, franchises, approaches, connections, dams, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations and equipment, and any other property, real, personal or mixed, incidental to and included in such source of supply and such system or parts thereof, and any improvements, extensions and betterments, now or hereafter constructed, acquired or made by the authority, other than the water facilities constructed by the authority but financed and owned by the county in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

(3) The county may, by resolution of the legislative body of such county, enter into an agreement or agreements with the authority providing: (i) that water facilities shall be constructed by the authority, which water facilities shall be financed and owned by the county and leased or otherwise made available for the use of the authority; and (ii) for the transfer to the authority for use in the execution of its corporate purposes of such water facilities hereafter financed and owned by the county in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision; provided, however, that title to such facilities shall remain in the county.

Such agreement shall constitute a contract for the passing to and vesting in the county of all rights and properties, including water properties, of the authority when all liabilities of the authority, other than its liabilities to the county pursuant to any agreements entered into pursuant to this subdivision, and the bonds of the authority have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged.

Such agreement or agreements may be amended, modified, changed or extended by supplemental agreements authorized and executed in the same manner as the original agreement provided that the provisions of any such supplemental agreement shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this subdivision sixteen-b.

(4) Such agreement shall provide that until the rights and properties, including the water properties, of the authority shall pass to and be vested in the county as provided by law, the authority shall act as the agent of the county: (i) to provide water facilities deemed necessary by the authority (a) to provide a supply of water sufficient to serve all customers of the water properties of the authority and of the water facilities of the county operated and managed by the authority, or (b) water facilities for the distribution of water deemed necessary by the authority to serve the territory of the authority within the county; and (ii) to operate, manage, replace, maintain and repair such water facilities in conjunction with the water properties of the authority so that both the water properties of the authority and the water facilities owned and financed by the county shall be planned, operated and managed as an integrated water system.

(5) Such agreement shall provide for the transfer to and use by the authority of such water facilities by lease, license or other arrangement until such time as all rights and properties, including water properties, of the authority shall pass to and be vested in the county as provided by law and shall authorize the authority to take jurisdiction, control, possession and supervision of such water facilities and operate, manage, replace, maintain and repair the same together with the water properties of the authority as an integrated water system.

(6) Such agreement shall provide that the county shall pay an amount not to exceed twenty-seven million dollars to provide certain water facilities to be owned by the county and leased to or otherwise made available for use by the authority in accordance with the provisions of such agreement, which water facilities shall be described in terms sufficient for identification in the first agreement so executed by and between the county and the authority. The county may issue obligations pursuant to the local finance law in an amount not to exceed twenty-seven million dollars to pay the cost of such water facilities. The provisions of section four hundred of the county charter prohibiting the financing of permanent improvements by the issuance of obligations pursuant to the local finance law unless such permanent improvements are included in a budget of permanent improvements adopted and approved as provided by such section four hundred shall not be applicable to the financing of such water facilities by the issuance of such obligations of the county authority by this paragraph.

(7) Such agreement shall provide that the authority shall pay to the county for each fiscal year of the county an annual rental for the use of the water facilities financed and owned by the county which shall be an operating expense of the authority, and shall be equal to the sum of the following: (i) the principal of any bonds of the county becoming due in such fiscal year issued in accordance with any agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision; and (ii) the interest on any obligations of the county, including bonds and notes, issued in accordance with any such agreement and becoming due in such fiscal year. Such agreement shall provide such further details as the parties deem necessary with respect to the time and manner of the payment of such annual rentals in order to assure that such annual rentals shall be available to the the county at the times and in the amounts required for the payment of such principal of bonds of the county and such interest on obligations of the county. Notwithstanding that the payment of such annual rentals shall be an operating expense of the authority, such agreement may provide that payment thereof shall be subordinate to all or any of certain payments hereinafter described required to be made by a certain trust indenture between the authority and a trustee dated as of February first, nineteen hundred fifty-nine. Such payments are the payments required to be made by said trust indenture to the debt service fund and the debt service reserve fund both created by such indenture.

(8) Such agreement shall provide that to facilitate the further acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension or betterment of water facilities by the authority to be owned and financed by the county, other than and in addition to the water facilities to be financed by the county pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (6) of this subdivision, the authority, on or before September first in each year or on or before such earlier date in each year as such agreement may provide, may submit to the county manager a capital budget for the calendar year beginning on the succeeding January first of such proposed water facilities and the estimated cost thereof. Such capital budget shall be accompanied by a report of the consulting engineers retained by the authority pursuant to a certain trust indenture of the authority dated as of February one, nineteen hundred fifty-nine. Such report of the consulting engineers shall explain the need for or desirability of such proposed water facilities and shall state that the consulting engineers have approved the estimated cost thereof. Such capital budget of the authority and report of such consulting engineers shall describe such proposed water facilities in terms sufficient for identification. When received by the county manager, such capital budget of the authority and the report of the consulting engineers shall be used in the preparation of the budget of permanent public improvements of the county required to be prepared by section four hundred of the Monroe county charter in the same manner as if the providing of such additional water facilities originally were proposed by the county. The county shall pay the cost of any water facilities contained in a budget of permanent improvements after such budget has been adopted. At any time after the adoption of such budget of permanent improvements the county may finance any water facilities contained therein pursuant to the provisions of and in the manner provided by the local finance law. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this subdivision, in the event that any item for the providing of water facilities contained in the capital budget and report of the consulting engineers as submitted to the county manager shall not be made a part of the budget of permanent improvements of the county, the authority may, nevertheless, proceed to construct such proposed water facility as an addition to the water properties of the authority and finance the same by the issuance of obligations of the authority, subject, however, to: (i) the provisions of any resolutions or trust indentures heretofore or hereafter adopted or executed by the authority, as the case may be, with respect to the construction of water properties and the financing thereof by the authority; and (ii) the limitations, if any, on the issuance of bonds or obligations by the authority contained in any agreement executed pursuant to this subdivision sixteen-b.

(9) Such agreement may contain further provisions concerning the following, provided, however, that no provisions in any agreement or any supplemental agreement thereto shall require the authority to in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders of obligations of the authority pursuant to any resolution or trust indenture of the authority heretofore adopted or executed authorizing or securing obligations of the authority: (i) further provisions relating to the annual rentals due by the authority to the county as provided in this subdivision; (ii) provisions that the rates, fees, rentals and other charges for the sale or distribution of water or for other services rendered by the water properties of the authority shall be in an amount sufficient to fully comply with any covenants with holders of obligations of the authority and in addition sufficient to pay the annual rentals payable by the authority to the county as provided in this subdivision and in any agreements or supplemental agreements executed in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision; (iii) provisions limiting the issuance of bonds or obligations by the authority; (iv) provisions limiting the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of its water properties without the consent of the county; (v) providing that when the rights and properties of the authority shall pass to and be vested in the county as provided by law the authority shall act as the agent of the county to plan, construct, operate and manage the water properties and water facilities then vested in and owned by the county for such term and extensions of such term as may be provided by any such agreements; and (vi) such other provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this subdivision sixteen-b as the parties shall deem necessary or desirable to implement the purpose and provisions of this subdivision sixteen-b.

(10) The proceeds of sale of obligations of the county issued pursuant to any agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to the provisions of section one hundred sixty-five of the local finance law and shall be paid and disbursed by the director of finance of the county on requisition by the authority or such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions without further audit; provided, however, that the director of finance of the county may require that such requisitions shall be accompanied by properly itemized and verified or certified bills for materials, supplies or services.

(11) All contracts for the purchase of supplies or equipment or the construction of water facilities entered into with respect to the providing of water facilities to be financed and owned by the county and constructed by the authority shall be subject to all provisions of law which the county of Monroe would be subject to in relation to advertising and awarding any such contracts for supplies, equipment or the construction of water facilities

(12) The provisions of this subdivision sixteen-b shall be independent and cumulative power for the authority and the county to enter into the agreements authorized hereby and shall not be construed with or be limited by any of the provisions of article five-a of the county law and of this article of the public authorities law.

17. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the county, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

18. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly given in this title.

19. To contract for the purposes of subdivision twenty-four of section ten of article two of the highway law.

In exercising the powers granted by this title, the authority shall not sell water in any area which is served by a water system owned or operated by a municipality unless the governing board of such municipality shall adopt a resolution requesting the authority to sell water in such area.

§ 1096-a. Additional duties of the authority. 1. The authority shall submit to the president of the Monroe county legislature a copy of the authority's preliminary budget, annual budget or amended budget, certified by the treasurer of the authority, not later than thirty days prior to the date on which the annual budget is adopted or approved by the authority. The authority shall give notice in writing to the president of the Monroe county legislature not later than thirty days prior to anticipated final approval of any construction projects to be undertaken by the authority involving water mains in excess of twelve inches in size, construction of mains in geographical areas theretofore undeveloped or not supplied with a public water supply, storage facilities, pumping stations or water treatment facilities utilizing funds of either the authority or funds of the county of Monroe under subdivision sixteen-b of section one thousand ninety-six of this title provided, however, that the foregoing shall not in any event be deemed to include: modernization, renewal and replacement, repair, maintenance of or improvement in properties or facilities; preliminary undertakings such as studies, tests, evaluations, reports, preparation of engineering plans and specifications, obtaining property rights and obtaining of necessary governmental approvals; construction activities deemed necessary by the authority in an emergency to protect life, property, health or the public safety; changes during construction which do not materially change the essential service area affected by a project; and construction activities within the terms of the last sentence of this subdivision. In the event the Monroe county legislature, by its resolution adopted at any time within sixty days after receipt by the president of the county legislature of the notice from the authority herein provided for, requests any change in such project, the authority shall conduct a public informational meeting upon ten days' notice to be published twice consecutively in a newspaper of general circulation in the county of Monroe prior to the authority granting final approval or prior to the commencement of construction of such project. The authority shall give written notice to the president of the Monroe county legislature not less than thirty days prior to the date of any final action of the authority with respect to any change in the rates of the authority. The authority shall conduct a public informational meeting upon ten days' notice to be published twice consecutively in a newspaper of general circulation in the county of Monroe relative to any change in such rates prior to the effective date of such change. The foregoing provisions of this subdivision shall not be construed to or require the authority to in any way violate or impair the rights and remedies of or covenants with the holders of obligations of the authority pursuant to any resolution or trust indenture of or binding upon the authority adopted or executed authorizing or securing obligations of the authority or abrogate the rights and powers of the authority to fulfill its duties and obligations to comply with all the terms, covenants or requirements required or provided by any existing contractual agreement or provided or required by statute or the order or direction or approval of a federal, state or local governmental entity having appropriate jurisdiction or authority.

2. The authority shall be empowered to develop and adopt an administrative code, subject to amendment from time to time, concerning such cooperative interrelationships between the authority and the county of Monroe, including the duties of the authority under subdivision one of this section. Any such code, or any amendment thereto, shall be submitted to the president of the county legislature not less than ninety days prior to its adoption by the authority for approval by such legislature.

§ 1097. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks in the state of New York designated by the authority. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the treasurer on requisition by the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the comptroller or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York or of the county of a market value equal at all times to the amount of deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The comptroller and his legally authorized representatives, and the director of finance of the county of Monroe, if he so elect, are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority, or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

§ 1098. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any of its corporate purposes, including incidental expenses in connection therewith, and to secure the payment of the same by a lien or pledge covering all or part of its contracts, earnings or revenues except that no resolution or other action of the authority providing for the issuance of bonds may be adopted or otherwise made effective without the prior approval of the Monroe county legislature. The powers conferred by this section on such Monroe county legislature shall be exercised with due regard for the rights of the holders of bonds of the authority at any time outstanding, and nothing in, or done pursuant to, this section shall in any way limit, restrict or alter the obligation or powers of the authority or any member, director, officer or representative of the authority to carry out and perform in every detail each and every covenant, agreement or contract at any time made or entered into by or on behalf of the authority with respect to its bonds or for the benefit, protection, or security of the holders thereof. The authority shall have power from time to time whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any of its corporate purposes. Except as may be otherwise expressly provided by the authority, every issue of bonds by the authority shall be general obligations payable out of any moneys, earnings or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys, earnings or revenues.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times not exceeding forty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rates per annum not exceeding six per centum per annum payable at such times within the limitations as to interest cost hereinafter provided, be in such denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America, at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption, at par or at a price not exceeding one hundred five per centum of their face value, as such resolution or resolutions may provide.

All bonds of the authority may be sold at public or private sale. Such bonds shall be sold for a price not less than ninety-six per centum of the par value thereof, plus accrued interest, provided always that the interest cost to maturity of the monies realized from the sale of such bonds shall not exceed six per centum per annum.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the moneys, earnings, income and revenues derived from all or any part of the properties of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rates, rentals, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the earnings and other revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the properties in connection with which such bonds are issued;

(e) limitations on the purposes to which and the manner in which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds may be applied;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) the creation of special funds into which any earnings or revenues of the authority may be deposited;

(i) the terms and provisions of any trust deed or indenture securing the bonds or under which bonds may be issued;

(j) defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of this state;

(k) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of its properties;

(l) any other matters, of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds;

(m) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from the properties to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority.

4. It is the intention of the legislature that any pledge of earnings, revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the earnings, revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase (as distinguished from the power of redemption hereinabove provided) any bonds issued by it at a price of not more than the principal amount thereof and accrued interest, and all such bonds shall be cancelled.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the properties, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the properties shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. The authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the properties to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation and repairs of the properties. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or notes of the authority shall contain a covenant by the authority that it will at all times maintain rates, fees, rentals or other charges sufficient to pay, and that any contracts entered into by the authority for the sale or distribution of water shall contain rates, fees, rentals or other charges sufficient to pay, the cost of operation and maintenance of the properties, the principal of and interest on any obligation issued pursuant to such resolution or resolutions as the same severally become due and payable, and to maintain any reserves or other funds required by the terms of such resolution or resolutions.

§ 1099. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of such original note. Such notes shall be paid from any moneys of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged or from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as the bonds and such notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which the bonds or a bond resolution of the authority may contain. Such notes may be sold at public or private sale at not less than par and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum. Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority.

§ 1100. Duty of authority to maintain and operate. It shall be the duty of the authority, subject to any limitation on the amount of revenues to be expended for such purpose, to maintain and operate and where necessary to reconstruct its properties.

§ 1101. Transfer of officers and employees. Any public officer or employee under civil service, selected by the authority may, with the consent of the commission, board or department by which he or she has been employed, be transferred to the authority and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to comparable offices, positions and employment under the authority. The salary or compensation of any such officer or employee shall after such transfer be paid by the authority. But notwithstanding the provisions of this act, any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority, pursuant to the provisions of this section, who are members of or beneficiaries under any existing pension or retirement system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund, system or systems as are now prescribed by law, but during the period of their employment by the authority, all contributions to any pension or retirement fund or system to be paid by the employer on account of such officers or employee, shall be paid by the authority; and all such officers and employees who have been appointed to positions under the rules and classifications of the civil service commission of the county of Monroe shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. It is hereby declared that in the interest of efficiency and insofar as may be practicable, all employees engaged in the operation of any property or properties, except in an executive capacity, at the time such property or properties shall have been acquired by the authority, pursuant to the provisions of this act, shall become the employees of the authority. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law (constituting chapter seven of the consolidated laws) and such rules as the civil service commission of the county of Monroe may adopt and make applicable to such authority.

§ 1102. Agreements of the state. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds or notes that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, operate, reconstruct and improve the properties, to establish and collect the revenues, rates, rentals, fees and other charges referred to in this title and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds or notes, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders or noteholders, until the bonds or notes, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders or noteholders, are fully met and discharged.

§ 1103. State, county and municipalities not liable on bonds or notes. The bonds or notes of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the county or of any municipality in the county, and neither the state nor the county nor any municipality in the county shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1104. Bonds and notes legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds or notes are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever, except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds or notes shall not be eligible for the investment of funds including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds or notes are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1105. Exemption from taxes. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the county of Monroe and its environments, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any property owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision or upon its activities, or any filing, recording or transfer taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes. The revenues, monies and other properties and the activities of the authority shall be exempt from taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including real estate taxes, franchise taxes or other excise taxes.

3. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the authority may make payments in lieu of taxes to municipalities and school districts on any property of the authority located within the jurisdiction of such municipality or school district. The amounts of such payments in lieu of taxes shall be as determined by the authority, provided, however, that the sum paid by the authority for any year shall in no case exceed the sum last levied by the municipality or school district as an annual tax upon the property prior to its acquisition by the authority.

§ 1106. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes, shall at all times be free from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes.

§ 1107. Officers and employees not to be interested in transactions. It shall be a misdemeanor for any of the members of the authority, or any officer, agent, servant or employee thereof, employed or appointed by them to be in any way or manner interested directly or indirectly in the furnishing of work, materials, supplies or labor, or in any contract therefor which the authority is empowered by this title to make.

§ 1108. Contracts. 1. All contracts, or orders, for work, material or supplies performed or furnished in connection with construction shall be awarded by the authority pursuant to resolution. Such contracts, or orders, for work, material or supplies needed for any particular purpose involving an expenditure of more than five thousand dollars shall be awarded only after inviting sealed bids or proposals therefor. The notice inviting sealed proposals shall be published at least once in a newspaper or trade paper selected by the authority for such purpose, such publication to be at least ten days before the date for the receipt of bids. If the authority shall not deem it for the interest of the authority to reject all bids, it shall award the contract to the lowest bidder, unless the authority shall determine that it is for the public interest that a bid other than the lowest bid should be accepted. In any contract for work, material or supplies, there shall be inserted in the discretion of the authority a provision that additional work may be done or material or supplies furnished for the purpose of completing such contract at an expense not exceeding fifteen percentum of the amount of such contract if such additional work, materials or supplies shall be ordered by the authority. The bidder whose bid is accepted shall give security for the faithful performance of the contract, and such other security as the authority may require, and may be required to maintain for such period as shall be stipulated any construction done under the contract, all in the manner prescribed and required by the authority; and the sufficiency of such security shall, in addition to the justification and acknowledgment, be approved by the authority. All bids or proposals shall be publicly opened by the authority or its duly authorized agent. If the bidder whose bid has been accepted after advertising shall neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to him on his bid or proposal, or, if he accepts but does not execute the contract and give proper security the authority shall have the right to declare his deposit forfeited, and thereupon it shall be readvertised and relet as above provided. In case any work shall be abandoned by any contractor, the authority may, if the best interests of the authority be thereby served, adopt on behalf of the authority any or all sub-contracts made by such contractor for such work and all such sub-contractors shall be bound by such adoption if made; and the authority shall in the manner provided herein readvertise and relet the work specified in the original contract exclusive of so much thereof as shall be provided for in the sub-contract or sub-contracts so adopted. No bid shall be accepted from or any contracts awarded to, any person or corporation who is in arrears to the authority, or the county of Monroe upon any debt or contract, or is a defaulter as surety or otherwise upon any obligation of the authority, or the county. Every contract involving an expenditure of more than five thousand dollars when made and entered into as herein provided for shall be executed in duplicate, one copy of which shall be held by the authority and one copy of which shall be delivered to the contractor. Upon the adoption of a resolution by a vote of two-thirds of all the members of the authority stating that, for reasons of efficiency or economy, there is need for standardization, purchase contracts for a particular type or kind of equipment, material or supplies of more than five thousand dollars may be awarded by the authority to the lowest responsible bidder furnishing the required security after advertisement for sealed bids therefor in the manner provided in this section. Such resolution shall contain a full explanation of the reasons for its adoption.

2. For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law only, the authority shall be deemed a state agency as that term is used in such article, and all contracts for procurement, design, construction, services and materials shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article.

§ 1109. Actions. 1. In any case founded upon tort a notice of claim shall be required as a condition precedent to the commencement of an action or special proceeding against the authority or any officer, appointee or employee thereof, and the provisions of section fifty-e of the general municipal law shall govern the giving of such notice. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued.

2. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1110. Audit of authority; annual report. In conformity with the provisions of section five of article ten of the constitution, the accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller and such state comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and the books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing. The authority shall annually submit to the governor and to the legislature a detailed report pursuant to the provisions of section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter.

§ 1111. Limitation of liability. Neither the members of the authority, nor any person or persons acting in its behalf, while acting within the scope of their authority, shall be subject to any personal liability resulting from the erection, construction, reconstruction, maintenance or operation of the properties or any of the improvements or from carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title.

§ 1112. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be held unconstitutional, or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional, or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall, on account thereof, be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1113. Effect of inconsistent provisions. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of any city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling. Nothing contained in this title shall be held to alter or abridge the powers and duties of the state department of health or of the water power and control commission over water supply matters.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-b's

 § 1114-c. South Nassau water authority district. 1. There is hereby created a district to be known as the "South Nassau water authority district" which shall be defined as all that portion of Nassau county being serviced by the New York American water service corporation as its Long Island Water operations district as of the effective date of this title, and lying south of the area serviced by the Town of Hempstead Department of Water.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-c's

 § 1114-d. South Nassau water authority. 1. A corporation known as "South Nassau water authority" is hereby created for the purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a corporate governmental agency constituting a public benefit corporation and shall be a "public district" for the purposes of section eighty-nine of the public service law. The authority shall be governed by a board of directors consisting of five members. The governing board of the town of Hempstead shall appoint three members, and the Nassau county legislature shall appoint two members who are residents serviced by the water authority of South Nassau. Each member shall serve for a period of two years. Each chief executive officer shall file with the secretary of state a certificate of appointment or reappointment of any member appointed or reappointed by such chief executive officer within thirty days of the appointment or reappointment. Members shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of their duties. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a chief executive officer of a municipality from appointing himself or herself to be a member of the board of directors.

2. If the authority decides to enter into a contract to purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in the New York American water service corporation or to initiate a condemnation proceeding pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law for the area it services within the South Nassau water authority district, prior to entering into any contract to purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in the New York American water service corporation or the initiation of any condemnation proceeding by the authority pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law for the area it services within the South Nassau water authority district, the authority shall provide ratepayers within the area serviced by the New York American water service corporation and the public with public forums for the expression and discussion of views regarding such purchase, acquisition or condemnation of the New York American water service corporation. The authority shall hold at least one forum in the town of Hempstead.

3. If the authority decides to enter into a contract to purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in the New York American water service corporation or to initiate a condemnation proceeding pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law for the area it services within the South Nassau water authority district, the authority is authorized to provide registered voters within the area serviced by the New York American water service corporation within the South Nassau water authority district prior to entering into such contract to purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in the New York American water service corporation or the initiation of any condemnation proceeding by the authority pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law for the area the New York American water service corporation services within the South Nassau water authority district, with a nonbinding referendum, regarding whether the authority should enter into a contract to purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in the New York American water service corporation or initiate condemnation proceedings pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law for the area it services within the South Nassau water authority district. The proposition shall be placed on the ballot and voted upon at a special election on a date to be determined by the Nassau county board of elections.

4. Any one or more of the members of the board of directors may be an official or an employee of a municipality situated within the district. In the event that an official or an employee of such municipality shall be elected as a member of the board of directors, acceptance or retention of such appointment shall not be deemed a forfeiture of his or her municipal office or employment, or incompatible therewith or affect his or her tenure or compensation in any way.

5. No action shall be taken by the authority except pursuant to the favorable vote of a simple majority of the board of directors.

6. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and shall be exercised by the board of directors at a meeting duly called and held. Three members of the board of directors, who together are authorized to cast a majority of the vote, shall constitute a quorum. The board of directors may delegate to one or more of its members, or to one or more of the officers, agents or employees of the authority, such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

7. The officers of the authority shall consist of a chairperson, vice chairperson, deputy chairperson, treasurer, and secretary, who shall not be members of the board of directors. The officers of the authority shall be appointed by the board of directors. The board of directors may appoint and at its pleasure remove an attorney and an engineer, which positions, in addition to the officers above named, shall be in the exempt class of the civil service and such additional officers and employees as it may require for the performance of its duties, fix and determine their qualifications, duties, compensations and terms of office or tenure, subject to the provisions of the civil service law of the state and such rules as the civil service commission may adopt and make applicable to the authority. The authority may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The duties of the officers shall be as follows:

(a) Chairperson. The chairperson shall be the chief executive officer of the authority and it shall be the responsibility of the chairperson to:

(i) preside at all meetings of the board of directors and of the officers;

(ii) manage the water facility, the transmission facility and the distribution system and to effectuate the decisions of the board of directors;

(iii) exercise supervision over the conduct of the officers and employees of the authority;

(iv) report annually to each customer, either by mail or by publication once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district; such report shall include but not be limited to the following information:

(1) a brief financial account on operations of the water system including, but not limited to, water rates, total revenues, operating and maintenance expenses, and interest on bonds and notes;

(2) the population served by the authority;

(3) the number of wells, towers and other storage facilities operated by the authority;

(4) the total pumpage of groundwater including the amount received through interdistrict interconnections and the estimated amount lost from the system;

(5) the single highest level from each well of each synthetic organic chemical, nitrate and chloride constituent tested for by the authority at any time during the year which exceeds the applicable county water quality standard or guideline, that standard or guideline, the site of each well at which each reported constituent was found, and the date on which each reported constituent was analyzed;

(6) the highest level from each well of each synthetic organic chemical, nitrate and chloride constituent tested for by the authority at any time during the year which does not exceed the applicable county water standard or guideline, but which contains a level equal to or greater than two-thirds of the amount permitted before exceeding a standard or guideline, that standard or guideline, the site of each well at which each reported constituent was found and the date on which each reported constituent was analyzed;

(7) once every five years, the highest level of any constituent discovered within the distribution system which contains a level equal to or greater than two-thirds of the amount permitted before exceeding a standard or guideline, that standard or guideline, and the resulting action taken by the authority;

(8) any well restricted, removed from service or otherwise limited in its use and the cause for such action;

(9) any actions taken to secure new supplies or replace lost capacity;

(10) the types of treatment which the water receives before entering the distribution system;

(11) any compliance activities required by regulations of the department of environmental conservation or the department of health or any local health department and any instances of noncompliance;

(12) the present condition of the distribution system and any significant actions, as determined by the authority, to improve or maintain the system;

(13) any special public services the authority provides during the year; and

(14) information on water conservation measures customers can implement, such as, but not limited to, retrofitting plumbing fixtures, altering irrigation timing, using irrigation sensors, leak detection, proper use of water-consuming appliances, daily conscientious use of water and estimated savings of water, energy, and money, from use of these measures;

(v) execute all contracts in the name of the authority;

(vi) institute, at the direction of the board of directors, all civil actions in the name of the authority;

(vii) provide for the enforcement of all of the rules and regulations of the authority and cause all violations thereof to be prosecuted;

(viii) sign orders to pay claims when authorized by the board of directors;

(ix) sign checks in the absence or inability of the treasurer or deputy treasurer, if any, when authorized by the board of directors; and a certified copy of a resolution of the board of directors to that effect shall be notice to the depository of such authorization;

(x) appoint, subject to the approval of the board of directors, nonelected officers, counsel, accountants, and other financial advisors, engineers and other technical advisors;

(xi) employ, promote and discharge managers, supervisors and employees; and

(xii) take all other reasonable and necessary actions to carry out his or her office as the chief executive of the authority. If the chairperson has not been appointed as a member of the board of directors of the authority pursuant to this section, such chairperson shall be deemed an ex officio member of the board of directors. Such status shall not carry with it the right to vote on matters coming before the board of directors nor shall the presence of such chairperson be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum.

(b) Vice chairperson. The vice chairperson shall perform all duties delegated to him or her by the chairperson and, in the absence or during the disability of the chairperson, the vice chairperson shall act as chairperson.

(c) Deputy chairperson. The deputy chairperson shall perform all duties delegated to him or her by the chairperson or the vice chairperson.

(d) Secretary. (i) The secretary shall be the recording and corresponding officer of the authority and the custodian of the records of the authority.

(ii) The secretary shall prepare and send required notices of all meetings when directed to do so by the chairperson or by the written request of four members who have specified the issues to be discussed at the meeting.

(iii) In the absence or disability of the secretary, the chairperson may appoint a temporary secretary.

(e) Treasurer. (i) The treasurer shall have custody of all moneys belonging to the authority and keep accounts of all receipts and expenditures in conformance with a uniform system of accounts formulated and prescribed by the comptroller pursuant to section thirty-six of the general municipal law.

(ii) The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the board of directors and the premium therefor shall be paid by the authority.

(iii) The treasurer shall deposit, within ten days after receipt thereof, in the name of the authority, in one or more banks, and/or trust companies, designated by the board of directors, all moneys received by him or her.

(iv) The treasurer may sign checks with the facsimile signature of the treasurer, as reproduced by a machine or device commonly known as a checksigner, when authorized by the board of directors.

(v) The treasurer shall pay out moneys from the authority treasury only as authorized by the board of directors and by law. All such payments, except as may be authorized by the board of directors for a petty cash account, shall be by check.

(vi) The treasurer shall issue a report on the finances of the authority at each regular meeting of the board of directors.

(vii) The treasurer shall file in the office of the authority, within sixty days after the end of the fiscal year, a statement showing in detail all revenues and expenditures during the previous fiscal year and the outstanding indebtedness of the authority as of the end of the fiscal year. The members shall, within ten days, cause to be published once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district, a notice that the annual financial statement has been filed and is available for inspection or a summary of such statement in a form approved by the comptroller, with an endorsement thereon that details thereof are on file in the office of the authority. The members shall cause to be audited by a certified public accountant engaged for that purpose, such report and supporting records.

8. The terms of the chairperson, vice chairperson and deputy chairperson first appointed shall be staggered, the chairperson first appointed shall serve for a period of four years, the vice chairperson first appointed shall serve for a period of three years and the deputy chairperson first appointed shall serve for a period of two years; thereafter their successors shall serve for terms of four years. The remaining officers shall each serve terms of one year. The board of directors shall have the right, at any time, to extend any such term, for a period of months, to provide that such term terminates contemporaneously with the end of the fiscal year of the authority.

9. The officers of the authority shall receive such compensation for their services as shall be fixed by the board of directors and shall be reimbursed for all necessary and actual expenses incurred in connection with their duties as such officers and in connection with the carrying out of the purposes of this title.

10. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law; provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the payment or satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and vest in the municipalities within the district. Such property shall be apportioned and distributed among the municipalities within the district in direct proportion to their voting on the date of the termination of the authority.

11. In addition to any powers granted to it by law, the governing body of each of the municipalities within the district, from time to time, may appropriate sums of money to defray project costs or any other costs and expenses of the authority. Subject to the rights of bondholders, each governing body may determine if the moneys so appropriated shall be subject to repayment by the authority to the municipalities, and in such event, the manner and time or times for such repayment.

12. Neither the public service commission nor any other board or commission of like character, shall have jurisdiction over the authority in the management and control of its properties or operations or any power over the regulation of rates fixed or charges collected by the authority.

13. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers, purposes and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the municipalities within the district and state, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that the said purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-d's

 § 1114-e. Powers of the authority. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the authority shall have the power to:

1. sue and be sued;

2. have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. borrow money and issue negotiable or non-negotiable notes, bonds, or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. enter into contracts and execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority to carry out any powers expressly given to it in this title;

5. acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease or by condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law, lease as lessee, hold and use and to sell, lease as lessor, transfer or otherwise dispose of, any real or personal property or any interest therein, within or without the district, but within the territorial limits of the town of Hempstead, as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the purpose of this title; provided, however, that the authority may not condemn real property of a municipality without the consent of the governing body of such municipality;

6. purchase, in the name of the authority, any water supply system, including plants, works, instrumentalities or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, permits, approaches, connections, dams, wells, pumps, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations, treatment facilities, meters, equipment and inventory, or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions and betterments, situated wholly within the district, provided, however, that the authority shall have the power to purchase any source of supply, or water supply system or any part thereof situated wholly or partly without the territorial limits of the district, provided same shall be necessary in order to supply water within the district and in connection with the purchase of such properties the authority may assume any obligations of the owner of such properties and, to the extent required by the terms of any indentures or other instruments under which such obligations were issued, the authority may assume and agree to perform covenants and observe the restrictions contained in such instruments; and furthermore the owner of any properties, which the authority is authorized to acquire, is hereby authorized to sell or otherwise transfer the same to the authority, whereupon the authority shall become charged with the performance of all public duties with respect to such properties with which such owner was charged and such owner shall become discharged from the performance thereof, as a means of so acquiring for such purpose, the authority may purchase all of the stock of any existing privately owned water corporation or company and in the case of a sale or other transfer of properties of a public utility corporation pursuant to this provision, upon the purchase of the stock of such corporation or company it shall be lawful to dissolve such corporation within a reasonable time;

7. construct, improve or rehabilitate water supply facilities required for the maintenance, development or expansion of water supply sources;

8. operate and manage and to contract for the operation and management of facilities of the authority;

9. enter into contracts, and carry out the terms thereof, for the wholesale provision of water produced by supply facilities constructed and operated by the authority, to municipalities and private water companies and to carry out the terms thereof, for the transmission of water from new or existing supply facilities;

10. apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal, state and local governments for such licenses, permits or approvals of its plans or projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate, to accept, in its discretion, such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies and officials;

11. take all necessary and reasonable actions within the district to conserve, preserve and protect the water supply to the district, including the making of plans and studies, the adoption of watershed rules and regulations, the enforcing of compliance with all current and future rules and regulations of the state sanitary code with regard to water supply and usage, the requiring of cross-connection controls, the providing of educational material and programs to the public, and the cooperating with water suppliers outside the district to conserve, preserve and protect the entire water reserve as it is affected within and outside the authority's supply area;

12. retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

13. make plans and studies necessary, convenient or desirable for the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

14. prepare a water supply emergency plan which shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) establishment of criteria and procedures to determine critical water levels or safe yield of system;

(b) identification of existing and future sources of water under normal conditions and emergency conditions;

(c) system capacity and ability to meet peak demand and fire flows concurrently;

(d) storage capacities;

(e) current condition of present interconnections and identification of additional interconnections to meet a water supply emergency;

(f) a specific action plan to be followed during a water supply emergency including a phased implementation of the plan;

(g) general water conservation programs and water use reduction strategies for water supply users;

(h) prioritization of water users;

(i) identification and availability of emergency equipment needed during a water supply emergency; and

(j) a public notification program coordinated with the phased implementation schedule; such plan shall not be adopted until a public hearing on such plan shall have been held, upon not less than fourteen days' notice thereof to each customer, either by mail or by publication once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district; every five years, such plan shall be reviewed and revised if necessary after a public hearing, with notice to each customer as aforesaid;

15. enter upon such lands, waters, or premises as in the judgment of the authority shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized

by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damage done;

16. apply for and to accept any gifts or grants or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from any other source, for any or all of the purposes specified in this title, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof;

17. obtain, store, treat, distribute, supply and sell water for domestic, commercial and public purposes at retail to individual consumers within the district;

18. purchase water from any municipal corporation, town water district, person, association or corporation;

19. produce, develop, distribute and sell water or water services within or without the territorial limits of the district; provided, however, that water may be sold at retail to individual consumers only within the district and further provided that in exercising the powers granted by this title, the authority shall not sell water in any area which is served by a water system owned or operated by a municipality or special improvement district unless the governing body of such municipality or district shall adopt a resolution requesting the authority to sell water in such served areas;

20. make bylaws for the management and regulation of its affairs and rules and regulations for the conservation, preservation and protection of the authority's water supply and, subject to agreements with bondholders, rules for the sale of water and the collection of rents and charges therefor. A copy of such rules, regulations and bylaws and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision eleven of this section, and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the authority shall be filed in the office of the municipalities within the district and thereafter published once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district. Violations of such rules and regulations shall be punishable by fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not longer than thirty days, or both;

21. fix rates and collect charges for the use of the facilities of, or services rendered by, or any commodities furnished by the authority such as to provide revenues sufficient at all times to pay, as the same shall become due, the principal and interest on the bonds, or other obligations of the authority together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, in addition to paying as the same shall become due, the expense of operating and maintaining the properties of the authority together with proper maintenance reserves, capital reserves, repair reserves, tax stabilization reserves and other contingency reserves, and all other obligations and indebtedness of the authority; however, no such rates or charges shall be changed until a public hearing on such changes shall have been held upon not less than fourteen days' notice thereof to each customer, either by mail or by publication once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district;

22. enter into cooperative agreements with other authorities, municipalities, counties, cities, towns, villages, water districts, utility companies, individuals, firms or corporations, within or without the territorial limits of the district for the interconnection of facilities, the exchange or interchange of services and commodities, the conservation, preservation and protection of the authority's water reserve as it is affected within and outside the authority's supply area, and, within the territorial limits of the district, to enter into a contract for the construction, operation and maintenance of a water supply and distribution system by the authority for any municipality having power to construct and develop a water supply and distribution system, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable including, but not limited to the reimbursement of all costs of such construction, or for any other lawful purposes necessary or desirable to effect the purposes of this title;

23. provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of the supply of water for nonpayment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the authority, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law;

24. contract for, provide and maintain such insurance as it deems necessary or reasonable to:

(a) secure and protect its real and personal property from fire, theft or other calamity or loss;

(b) secure and protect it against liability imposed by law for damages for injuries to persons or property;

(c) secure and protect it against any liability which may be imposed pursuant to section eighteen of the public officers law; and

(d) secure and protect it against any other liability, casualty or loss as it deems necessary or reasonable; and

25. do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-e's

 § 1114-f. Transfer of officers and employees. Any public officer or employee under civil service, selected by the authority may, with the consent of the commission, board, department or municipality by which he or she has been employed, be transferred to the authority and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to comparable offices, positions and employment under the authority. The salary or compensation of any such officer or employee shall after such transfer be paid by the authority, but notwithstanding the provisions of this title, any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority, pursuant to the provisions of this section, who are members of or beneficiaries under any existing pension or retirement system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund system or systems as are now prescribed by law, but during the period of their employment by the authority, all contributions to any pension or retirement fund or system to be paid by the employer on account of such officers and employees, shall be paid by the authority; and all such officers and employees who have been appointed to positions under the rules and classifications of the civil service commission shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and such rules as the civil service commission may adopt and make applicable to the authority.

 § 1114-g. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code, in such principal amounts as it may determine to be necessary to pay the cost of any water project or projects or for any other corporate purposes, including incidental expenses in connection therewith. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. Bonds issued by the authority may be general obligations secured by the faith and credit of the authority or may be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other moneys of the authority as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging particular revenues or moneys.

2. The authority is authorized to obtain from any department or agency of the United States of America or nongovernmental insurer any insurance or guaranty, or any other credit enhancement arrangement with any bank or other financial institution to the extent now or hereafter available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest or principal, or both, or any part thereof, on any bonds issued by the authority and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to any such insurance or guaranty, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of the bonds of the authority.

3. Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, and may be in such denominations and bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times as such resolution may provide except that bonds and any renewal thereof shall mature within forty years of the date of their original issuance and notes and any renewal thereof shall mature within five years of the date of their original issuance. Such bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates, which may vary from time to time, as may be necessary to effect the sale thereof and shall be payable at such times, be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Bonds may be sold at public sale or at private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, provided that no issue of bonds may be sold at private sale unless the terms of such sale shall have been approved in writing by:

(a) the comptroller, where such sale is not to the comptroller; or

(b) the director of the division of the budget of the state, where such sale is to the comptroller.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds by the authority may contain provisions which may be part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or part of its revenues, together with any other moneys, securities, contracts or property, to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rates, rentals, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the earnings and other revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(e) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of any project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which shall consent thereto and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or other moneys may be deposited;

(i) the terms and provisions of any trust, deed or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(j) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine, which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section eleven hundred fourteen-h of this title and limiting or abrogating the rights of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(l) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any system or any part thereof or other property;

(m) limitations on the amount of revenues and other moneys to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) the protection and enforcement of the rights and remedies of the bondholders;

(o) the obligations of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repairs and insurance of the properties, the safeguarding and application of all moneys and as to the requirements for the supervision and approval of consulting engineers in connection with construction, reconstruction and operation;

(p) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(q) any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of bondholders.

5. In addition to the powers conferred upon the authority in this section to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, consistent or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including remarketing agreements or other similar agreements for the bonds, the mortgaging of any property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys, or property and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act, which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

6. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

7. Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

8. Neither the members of the board of directors nor the officers of the authority nor any person executing bonds shall be liable personally thereon or be subject to any personal liability or accountability solely by reason of the issuance thereof.

9. The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as then may exist, shall have power out of any moneys available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority in lieu of redemption, at a price not exceeding:

(a) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable, plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date; or

(b) if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date.

10. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of such original note. Such notes shall be paid from any moneys of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged or from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as the bonds and such notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which the bonds or bond resolution of the authority may contain. Such notes may be sold at public sale or, upon the approval of the comptroller of the terms thereof, at private sale. Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority.

 § 1114-h. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the applicable county and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds outstanding shall, in his or her own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders and require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incidental to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The state supreme court, county of Nassau and the state shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders.

5. Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-h's

 § 1114-i. State and municipalities not liable on authority bonds. Neither the state nor any municipality shall be liable on the bonds of the authority and such bonds shall not be a debt of the state or of any municipality.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-i's

 § 1114-j. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer and shall be deposited forthwith in one or more banks and/or trust companies in the state designated by the authority. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on checks of the treasurer upon requisition by the chairperson of the authority or of such other officer or officers as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured by obligations of or guaranteed by the United States of America or of the state of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any moneys of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested in those obligations specified pursuant to the provisions of section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-j's

 § 1114-k. Bonds; legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officials and bodies of the state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities for any purposes for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or hereafter may be authorized.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-k's

 § 1114-l. Agreement with the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the state will not alter or limit the rights hereby vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of any agreement made with or for the benefit of the holders of bonds or in any way impair the rights and remedies of bondholders until the bonds together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with bondholders.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-l's

 § 1114-m. Exemption from taxes, assessments and certain fees; payments in lieu of taxes. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any real property owned by it or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf.

2. The authority may pay, or may enter into agreements with any municipality to pay, a sum or sums annually or otherwise or to provide other considerations to such municipality with respect to real property owned by the authority located within such municipality and constituting a part of its water system.

3. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title together with the income therefrom shall be exempt from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes. The revenues, moneys and all other property and all activities of the authority shall be exempt from all taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including without limitation real estate taxes, income taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes.

4. The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom shall be exempt from such taxation, as stated in subdivision three of this section, and that all revenues, moneys, and other property pledged to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from such taxes as stated in such subdivision.

5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions one, two, three and four of this section, nothing herein shall prevent the state from assessing a tax or surcharge against the water customers based on their water consumption, provided, however, that all such taxes and surcharges and the authority's obligation to collect and pay such taxes and surcharges shall be subordinate to the rights of holders of all of the authority's bonds and notes and to the payment of principal, premiums if any, and interest thereon.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-m's

 § 1114-n. Actions against the authority. 1. Except in an action for wrongful death, no action or proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence or wrongful act of the authority or any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless:

(a) a notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority within the time limit by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law;

(b) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused;

(c) the action or proceeding shall be commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based; and

(d) An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

2. Wherever a notice of claim is served upon the authority, it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority may require any person presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatsoever against the authority to be sworn before a member, counsel, or an attorney, officer or employee thereof designated for such purpose, concerning such account or claim and when so sworn, to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

4. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority or water board upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment against the authority on its bonds, shall not exceed the rate of interest on judgments and accrued claims against municipal corporations as provided in the general municipal law from time to time. Interest on payments of principal or interest on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate borne by such bonds from the date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-n's

 § 1114-o. Conflicts of interest of members of the board of directors and officers and employees of the authority. No member of the board of directors or officer or employee of the authority shall have any interest in any contract, or take any action or otherwise involve himself or herself in any activity which, pursuant to article eighteen of the general municipal law, would be deemed a conflict of interest for a municipal officer or employee holding a position with a municipality similar to the position held by the member, officer or employee with the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-o's

 § 1114-p. Construction and purchase contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction or purchase of supplies, materials, or equipment pursuant to section one hundred three of the general municipal law. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority or to contract with a public utility, for a term not to exceed five years, for the operation and maintenance of a water supply system acquired from said public utility.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-p's

 § 1114-q. Separability clause. If any section, clause or provision in this title shall be held by a competent court to be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective, and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-q's

 § 1114-r. Effect of inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local, or of any charter or any local ordinance or resolution of any municipality, the provisions of this title shall be controlling, provided that nothing contained in this title shall be held to supplement or otherwise expand the powers or duties of the authority otherwise set forth in this title. Nothing contained in this title shall be held to alter or abridge the powers and duties of the department of environmental conservation or the department of health.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-r's

 § 1114-s. Acquisition by eminent domain. Notwithstanding any provision of the eminent domain procedure law to the contrary, in any proceeding brought by the authority pursuant to said law, title shall vest in the authority and compensation shall be paid only:

1. upon a decision by the supreme court that compensation for the property so condemned shall be determined solely by the income capitalization method of valuation, based on the actual net income as allowed by the public service commission; and

2. upon such court's determination of the amount of such compensation, based upon the income capitalization method, entry of the final judgment, the filing of the final decree, and the conclusion of any appeal or expiration of the time to file an appeal related to the condemnation proceeding. Should any court determine that a method of compensation other than the income capitalization method be utilized, or if the proposed award is more than the rate base of the assets taken in condemnation as utilized by the public service commission in setting rates and as certified by the public service commission, the authority may withdraw the condemnation proceeding without prejudice or costs to any party.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-b's

 § 1114-c. Water authority of North Shore district. There is hereby created a district to be known as the "water authority of North Shore district" which shall be defined as all that portion of Nassau county being serviced by the New York American water service corporation as its sea cliff operations district as of January first, two thousand eighteen and lying north of the area serviced by Jericho water district.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-c's

 § 1114-d. Water authority of North Shore. 1. A corporation known as "water authority of North Shore" is hereby created for the purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a corporate governmental agency constituting a public benefit corporation and shall be a "public district" for the purposes of section eighty-nine of the public service law. The authority shall be governed by a board of directors consisting of six members. The governing boards of the villages of Old Brookville, Sea Cliff, Roslyn Harbor, and the City of Glen Cove shall each appoint one member. The governing board of the Town of Oyster Bay shall appoint two members representing the residents of the unincorporated hamlets of Glen Head and Glenwood Landing who are serviced by the water authority of North Shore. Each member shall serve for a period of two years. Each chief executive officer shall file with the secretary of state a certificate of appointment or reappointment of any member appointed or reappointed by such chief executive within thirty days of the appointment or reappointment. Members shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of their duties. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a chief executive officer of a municipality from appointing himself or herself to be a member of the board of directors.

2. If the authority decides to enter into a contract to purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in the New York American water service corporation or to initiate a condemnation proceeding pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law for the area it services within the water authority of North Shore district, prior to entering into any contract to purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in the New York American water service corporation or the initiation of any condemnation proceeding by the authority pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law for the area it services within the water authority of North Shore district, the authority shall provide ratepayers within the area serviced by the New York American water service corporation and the public with public forums for the expression and discussion of views regarding such purchase, acquisition or condemnation of the New York American water service corporation. The authority shall hold at least one forum in each of the towns of North Hempstead, Oyster Bay, and city of Glen Cove within the portions of the towns of North Hempstead and Oyster Bay and the city of Glen Cove serviced by the New York American water service corporation.

3. If the authority decides to enter into a contract to purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in the New York American water service corporation or to initiate a condemnation proceeding pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law for the area it services within the water authority of North Shore district, the authority is authorized to provide registered voters within the area serviced by the New York American water service corporation within the water authority of North Shore district prior to entering into such contract to purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in the New York American water service corporation or the initiation of any condemnation proceeding by the authority pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law for the area the New York American water service corporation services within the water authority of North Shore district, with a nonbinding referendum, regarding whether the authority should enter into a contract to purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in the New York American water service corporation or initiate condemnation proceedings pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law for the area it services within the water authority of North Shore district. The proposition shall be placed on the ballot and voted upon at a special election or a date to be determined by the Nassau county board of elections.

4. Any one or more of the members of the board of directors may be an official or an employee of a municipality situated within the district.

In the event that an official or an employee of such municipality shall be elected as a member of the board of directors, acceptance or retention of such appointment shall not be deemed a forfeiture of his or her municipal office or employment, or incompatible therewith or affect his or her tenure or compensation in any way.

5. No action shall be taken by the authority except pursuant to the favorable vote of fifty-one percent of the total authorized voting strength of the board of directors. The total authorized voting strength of the board of directors shall be:

(a) The number of weighted votes possessed by each member of the board of directors shall be determined in accordance with paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this subdivision, except each member shall possess equal weighted votes prior to the adjustment pursuant to paragraph (d) of this subdivision;

(b) No action shall be taken by the authority except pursuant to the favorable vote of at least: (i) fifty-one percent of the total authorized voting strength of the board of directors; and (ii) three members of the board of directors, at least two of whom shall be from among the four members of the board of directors possessing the greatest number of weighted votes;

(c) The vote of each member shall be equal to one hundred multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be equal to the quantity of water supplied by the authority to the owners, tenants, occupants and other water users in the municipality from which such member was appointed and the denominator of which shall be equal to the quantity of water supplied by the authority to the owners, tenants, occupants and other water users in all of the municipalities within the district; and

(d) Commencing on the first day of January, two thousand twenty-three, and every four years thereafter, the authorized number of votes of each member shall be adjusted in accordance with the formula set forth in paragraph (c) of this subdivision to reflect the total quantity of water supplied by the authority to owners, tenants, occupants and other water users in each municipality within the district during the two calendar years immediately preceding the date on which the adjustment is being made.

6. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and shall be exercised by the board of directors at a meeting duly called and held. Four members of the board of directors, who together are authorized to cast a majority of the weighted vote, shall constitute a quorum. The board of directors may delegate to one or more of its members, or to one or more of the officers, agents or employees of the authority, such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

7. The officers of the authority shall consist of a chairperson, vice chairperson, deputy chairperson, treasurer, and secretary, who shall not be members of the board of directors. The officers of the authority shall be appointed by the board of directors. The board of directors may appoint and at its pleasure remove an attorney and an engineer, which positions, in addition to the officers above named, shall be in the exempt class of the civil service and such additional officers and employees as it may require for the performance of its duties, fix and determine their qualifications, duties, compensations and terms of office or tenure, subject to the provisions of the civil service law of the state and such rules as the civil service commission may adopt and make applicable to the authority. The authority may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The duties of the officers shall be as follows:

(a) Chairperson. The chairperson shall be the chief executive officer of the authority and it shall be the responsibility of the chairperson to:

(i) preside at all meetings of the board of directors and of the officers;

(ii) manage the water facility, the transmission facility and the distribution system and to effectuate the decisions of the board of directors;

(iii) exercise supervision over the conduct of the officers and employees of the authority;

(iv) report annually to each customer, either by mail or by publication once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district; such report shall include but not be limited to the following information:

(1) a brief financial account on operations of the water system including, but not limited to, water rates, total revenues, operating and maintenance expenses, and interest on bonds and notes;

(2) the population served by the authority;

(3) the number of wells, towers and other storage facilities operated by the authority;

(4) the total pumpage of groundwater including the amount received through interdistrict interconnections and the estimated amount lost from the system;

(5) the single highest level from each well of each synthetic organic chemical, nitrate and chloride constituent tested for by the authority at any time during the year which exceeds the applicable county water quality standard or guideline, that standard or guideline, the site of each well at which each reported constituent was found, and the date on which each reported constituent was analyzed;

(6) the highest level from each well of each synthetic organic chemical, nitrate and chloride constituent tested for by the authority at any time during the year which does not exceed the applicable county water standard or guideline, but which contains a level equal to or greater than two-thirds of the amount permitted before exceeding a standard or guideline, that standard or guideline, the site of each well at which each reported constituent was found and the date on which each reported constituent was analyzed;

(7) once every five years, the highest level of any constituent discovered within the distribution system which contains a level equal to or greater than two-thirds of the amount permitted before exceeding a standard or guideline, that standard or guideline, and the resulting action taken by the authority;

(8) any well restricted, removed from service or otherwise limited in its use and the cause for such action;

(9) any actions taken to secure new supplies or replace lost capacity;

(10) the types of treatment which the water receives before entering the distribution system;

(11) any compliance activities required by regulations of the department of environmental conservation or the department of health or any local health department and any instances of noncompliance;

(12) the present condition of the distribution system and any significant actions, as determined by the authority, to improve or

maintain the system;

(13) any special public services the authority provides during the year; and

(14) information on water conservation measures customers can implement, such as, but not limited to, retrofitting plumbing fixtures, altering irrigation timing, using irrigation sensors, leak detection, proper use of water-consuming appliances, daily conscientious use of water and estimated savings of water, energy, and money, from use of these measures;

(v) execute all contracts in the name of the authority;

(vi) institute, at the direction of the board of directors, all civil actions in the name of the authority;

(vii) provide for the enforcement of all of the rules and regulations of the authority and cause all violations thereof to be prosecuted;

(viii) sign orders to pay claims when authorized by the board of directors;

(ix) sign checks in the absence or inability of the treasurer or deputy treasurer, if any, when authorized by the board of directors; and a certified copy of a resolution of the board of directors to that effect shall be notice to the depository of such authorization;

(x) appoint, subject to the approval of the board of directors, nonelected officers, counsel, accountants, and other financial advisors, engineers and other technical advisors;

(xi) employ, promote and discharge managers, supervisors and employees; and

(xii) take all other reasonable and necessary actions to carry out his or her office as the chief executive of the authority. If the chairperson has not been appointed as a member of the board of directors of the authority pursuant to this section, such chairperson shall be deemed an ex officio member of the board of directors. Such status shall not carry with it the right to vote on matters coming before the board of directors nor shall the presence of such chairperson be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum.

(b) Vice chairperson. The vice chairperson shall perform all duties delegated to him or her by the chairperson and, in the absence or during the disability of the chairperson, the vice chairperson shall act as chairperson.

(c) Deputy chairperson. The deputy chairperson shall perform all duties delegated to him or her by the chairperson or the vice chairperson.

(d) Secretary. (i) The secretary shall be the recording and corresponding officer of the authority and the custodian of the records of the authority.

(ii) The secretary shall prepare and send required notices of all meetings when directed to do so by the chairperson or by the written request of four members who have specified the issues to be discussed at the meeting.

(iii) In the absence or disability of the secretary, the chairperson may appoint a temporary secretary.

(e) Treasurer. (i) The treasurer shall have custody of all moneys belonging to the authority and keep accounts of all receipts and expenditures in conformance with a uniform system of accounts formulated and prescribed by the comptroller pursuant to section thirty-six of the general municipal law.

(ii) The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the board of directors and the premium therefor shall be paid by the authority.

(iii) The treasurer shall deposit, within ten days after receipt thereof, in the name of the authority, in one or more banks, and/or trust companies, designated by the board of directors, all moneys received by him or her.

(iv) The treasurer may sign checks with the facsimile signature of the treasurer, as reproduced by a machine or device commonly known as a checksigner, when authorized by the board of directors.

(v) The treasurer shall pay out moneys from the authority treasury only as authorized by the board of directors and by law. All such payments, except as may be authorized by the board of directors for a petty cash account, shall be by check.

(vi) The treasurer shall issue a report on the finances of the authority at each regular meeting of the board of directors.

(vii) The treasurer shall file in the office of the authority, within sixty days after the end of the fiscal year, a statement showing in detail all revenues and expenditures during the previous fiscal year and the outstanding indebtedness of the authority as of the end of the fiscal year. The members shall, within ten days, cause to be published once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district, a notice that the annual financial statement has been filed and is available for inspection or a summary of such statement in a form approved by the comptroller, with an endorsement thereon that details thereof are on file in the office of the authority. The members shall cause to be audited by a certified public accountant engaged for that purpose, such report and supporting records.

8. The terms of the chairperson, vice chairperson and deputy chairperson first appointed shall be staggered, the chairperson first appointed shall serve for a period of four years, the vice chairperson first appointed shall serve for a period of three years and the deputy chairperson first appointed shall serve for a period of two years; thereafter their successors shall serve for terms of four years. The remaining officers shall each serve terms of one year. The board of directors shall have the right, at any time, to extend any such term, for a period of months, to provide that such term terminates contemporaneously with the end of the fiscal year of the authority.

9. The officers of the authority shall receive such compensation for their services as shall be fixed by the board of directors and shall be reimbursed for all necessary and actual expenses incurred in connection with their duties as such officers and in connection with the carrying out of the purposes of this title.

10. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law; provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the payment or satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and vest in the municipalities within the district. Such property shall be apportioned and distributed among the municipalities within the district in direct proportion to their weighted voting on the date of the termination of the authority.

11. In addition to any powers granted to it by law, the governing body of each of the municipalities within the district, from time to time, may appropriate sums of money to defray project costs or any other costs and expenses of the authority. Subject to the rights of bondholders, each governing body may determine if the moneys so appropriated shall be subject to repayment by the authority to the municipalities, and in such event, the manner and time or times for such repayment.

12. Neither the public service commission nor any other board or commission of like character, shall have jurisdiction over the authority in the management and control of its properties or operations or any power over the regulation of rates fixed or charges collected by the authority.

13. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers, purposes and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the municipalities within the district and state, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that the said purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

 § 1114-e. Powers of the authority. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the authority shall have the power to:

1. sue and be sued;

2. have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. borrow money and issue negotiable or non-negotiable notes, bonds, or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. enter into contracts and execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title;

5. acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease or by condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law, lease as lessee, hold and use and to sell, lease as lessor, transfer or otherwise dispose of, any real or personal property or any interest therein, within or without the district, but within the territorial limits of the town of Oyster Bay or North Hempstead, as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the purpose of this title; provided, however, that the authority may not condemn real property of a municipality without the consent of the governing body of such municipality;

6. purchase, in the name of the authority, any water supply system, including plants, works, instrumentalities or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, permits, approaches, connections, dams, wells, pumps, reservoirs, water mains and pipe lines, pumping stations, treatment facilities, meters, equipment and inventory, or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions and betterments, situated wholly within the district, provided, however, that the authority shall have the power to purchase any source of supply, or water supply system or any part thereof situated wholly or partly without the territorial limits of the district, provided same shall be necessary in order to supply water within the district and in connection with the purchase of such properties the authority may assume any obligations of the owner of such properties and, to the extent required by the terms of any indentures or other instruments under which such obligations were issued, the authority may assume and agree to perform covenants and observe the restrictions contained in such instruments; and furthermore the owner of any properties, which the authority is authorized to acquire, is hereby authorized to sell or otherwise transfer the same to the authority, whereupon the authority shall become charged with the performance of all public duties with respect to such properties with which such owner was charged and such owner shall become discharged from the performance thereof, as a means of so acquiring for such purpose, the authority may purchase all of the stock of any existing privately owned water corporation or company and in the case of a sale or other transfer of properties of a public utility corporation pursuant to this provision, upon the purchase of the stock of such corporation or company it shall be lawful to dissolve such corporation within a reasonable time;

7. construct, improve or rehabilitate water supply facilities required for the maintenance, development or expansion of water supply sources;

8. operate and manage and to contract for the operation and management of facilities of the authority;

9. enter into contracts, and carry out the terms thereof, for the wholesale provision of water produced by supply facilities constructed and operated by the authority, to municipalities and private water companies and to carry out the terms thereof, for the transmission of water from new or existing supply facilities;

10. apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal, state and local governments for such licenses, permits or approvals of its plans or projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate, to accept, in its discretion, such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies and officials;

11. take all necessary and reasonable actions within the district to conserve, preserve and protect the water supply to the district, including the making of plans and studies, the adoption of watershed rules and regulations, the enforcing of compliance with all current and future rules and regulations of the state sanitary code with regard to water supply and usage, the requiring of cross-connection controls, the providing of educational material and programs to the public, and the cooperating with water suppliers outside the district to conserve, preserve and protect the entire water reserve as it is affected within and outside the authority's supply area;

12. retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

13. make plans and studies necessary, convenient or desirable for the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

14. prepare a water supply emergency plan which shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) establishment of criteria and procedures to determine critical water levels or safe yield of system;

(b) identification of existing and future sources of water under normal conditions and emergency conditions;

(c) system capacity and ability to meet peak demand and fire flows concurrently;

(d) storage capacities;

(e) current condition of present interconnections and identification of additional interconnections to meet a water supply emergency;

(f) a specific action plan to be followed during a water supply emergency including a phased implementation of the plan;

(g) general water conservation programs and water use reduction strategies for water supply users;

(h) prioritization of water users;

(i) identification and availability of emergency equipment needed during a water supply emergency; and

(j) a public notification program coordinated with the phased implementation schedule; such plan shall not be adopted until a public hearing on such plan shall have been held, upon not less than fourteen days' notice thereof to each customer, either by mail or by publication once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district; every five years, such plan shall be reviewed and revised if necessary after a public hearing, with notice to each customer as aforesaid;

soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damage done;

16. apply for and to accept any gifts or grants or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from any other source, for any or all of the purposes specified in this title, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof;

17. obtain, store, treat, distribute, supply and sell water for domestic, commercial and public purposes at retail to individual consumers within the district;

18. purchase water from any municipal corporation, town water district, person, association or corporation;

19. produce, develop, distribute and sell water or water services within or without the territorial limits of the district; provided, however, that water may be sold at retail to individual consumers only within the district and further provided that in exercising the powers granted by this title, the authority shall not sell water in any area which is served by a water system owned or operated by a municipality or special improvement district unless the governing body of such municipality or district shall adopt a resolution requesting the authority to sell water in such served areas;

20. make bylaws for the management and regulation of its affairs and rules and regulations for the conservation, preservation and protection of the authority's water supply and, subject to agreements with bondholders, rules for the sale of water and the collection of rents and charges therefor. A copy of such rules, regulations and bylaws and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision eleven of this section, and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the authority shall be filed in the office of the municipalities within the district and thereafter published once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district. Violation of such rules and regulations shall be punishable by fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not longer than thirty days, or both;

21. fix rates and collect charges for the use of the facilities of, or services rendered by, or any commodities furnished by the authority such as to provide revenues sufficient at all times to pay, as the same shall become due, the principal and interest on the bonds, or other obligations of the authority together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, in addition to paying as the same shall become due, the expense of operating and maintaining the properties of the authority together with proper maintenance reserves, capital reserves, repair reserves, tax stabilization reserves and other contingency reserves, and all other obligations and indebtedness of the authority; however, no such rates or charges shall be changed until a public hearing on such changes shall have been held upon not less than fourteen days' notice thereof to each customer, either by mail or by publication once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district;

22. enter into cooperative agreements with other authorities, municipalities, counties, cities, towns, villages, water districts, utility companies, individuals, firms or corporations, within or without the territorial limits of the district for the interconnection of facilities, the exchange or interchange of services and commodities, the conservation, preservation and protection of the authority's water reserve as it is affected within and outside the authority's supply area, and, within the territorial limits of the district, to enter into a contract for the construction, operation and maintenance of a water supply and distribution system by the authority for any municipality having power to construct and develop a water supply and distribution system, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable including, but not limited to the reimbursement of all costs of such construction, or for any other lawful purposes necessary or desirable to effect the purposes of this title;

23. provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of the supply of water for nonpayment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the authority, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law;

24. contract for, provide and maintain such insurance as it deems necessary or reasonable to:

(a) secure and protect its real and personal property from fire, theft or other calamity or loss;

(b) secure and protect it against liability imposed by law for damages for injuries to persons or property;

(c) secure and protect it against any liability which may be imposed pursuant to section eighteen of the public officers law; and

(d) secure and protect it against any other liability, casualty or loss as it deems necessary or reasonable; and

25. do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

 § 1114-f. Transfer of officers and employees. Any public officer or employee under civil service, selected by the authority may, with the consent of the commission, board, department or municipality by which he or she has been employed, be transferred to the authority and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to comparable offices, positions and employment under the authority. The salary or compensation of any such officer or employee shall after such transfer be paid by the authority, but notwithstanding the provisions of this title, any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority, pursuant to the provisions of this section, who are members of or beneficiaries under any existing pension or retirement system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund system or systems as are now prescribed by law, but during the period of their employment by the authority, all contributions to any pension or retirement fund or system to be paid by the employer on account of such officers and employees, shall be paid by the authority; and all such officers and employees who have been appointed to positions under the rules and classifications of the civil service commission shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and such rules as the civil service commission may adopt and make applicable to the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-f's

 § 1114-g. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code, in such principal amounts as it may determine to be necessary to pay the cost of any water project or projects or for any other corporate purposes, including incidental expenses in connection therewith. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. Bonds issued by the authority may be general obligations secured by the faith and credit of the authority or may be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other moneys of the authority as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging particular revenues or moneys.

2. The authority is authorized to obtain from any department or agency of the United States of America or nongovernmental insurer any insurance or guaranty, or any other credit enhancement arrangement with any bank or other financial institution to the extent now or hereafter available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest or principal, or both, or any part thereof, on any bonds issued by the authority and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to any such insurance or guaranty, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of the bonds of the authority.

3. Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, and may be in such denominations and bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times as such resolution may provide except that bonds and any renewal thereof shall mature within forty years of the date of their original issuance and notes and any renewal thereof shall mature within five years of the date of their original issuance. Such bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates, which may vary from time to time, as may be necessary to effect the sale thereof and shall be payable at such times, be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Bonds may be sold at public sale or at private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, provided that no issue of bonds may be sold at private sale unless the terms of such sale shall have been approved in writing by:

(a) the comptroller, where such sale is not to the comptroller; or

(b) the director of the division of the budget of the state, where such sale is to the comptroller.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds by the authority may contain provisions which may be part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or part of its revenues, together with any other moneys, securities, contracts or property, to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rates, rentals, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the earnings and other revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(e) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of any project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which shall consent thereto and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or other moneys may be deposited;

(i) the terms and provisions of any trust, deed or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(j) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine, which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section eleven hundred fourteen-h of this title and limiting or abrogating the rights of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(l) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any system or any part thereof or other property;

(m) limitations on the amount of revenues and other moneys to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) the protection and enforcement of the rights and remedies of the bondholders;

(o) the obligations of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repairs and insurance of the properties, the safeguarding and application of all moneys and as to the requirements for the supervision and approval of consulting engineers in connection with construction, reconstruction and operation;

(p) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(q) any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of bondholders.

5. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, consistent or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including remarketing agreements or other similar agreements for the bonds, the mortgaging of any property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys, or property and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act, which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

6. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

7. Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

8. Neither the members of the board of directors nor the officers of the authority nor any person executing bonds shall be liable personally thereon or be subject to any personal liability or accountability solely by reason of the issuance thereof.

9. The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as then may exist, shall have power out of any moneys available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority in lieu of redemption, at a price not exceeding:

(a) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable, plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date; or

(b) if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date.

10. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of such original note. Such notes shall be paid from any moneys of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged or from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as the bonds and such notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which the bonds or bond resolution of the authority may contain. Such notes may be sold at public sale or, upon the approval of the comptroller of the terms thereof, at private sale. Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-g's

 § 1114-h. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the applicable county and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds outstanding shall, in his or her own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders and require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incidental to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The state supreme court, county of Nassau and the state shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders.

5. Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-h's

 § 1114-i. State and municipalities not liable on authority bonds. Neither the state nor any municipality shall be liable on the bonds of the authority and such bonds shall not be a debt of the state or of any municipality.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-i's

 § 1114-j. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer and shall be deposited forthwith in one or more banks and/or trust companies in the state designated by the authority. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on checks of the treasurer upon requisition by the chairperson of the authority or of such other officer or officers as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured by obligations of or guaranteed by the United States of America or of the state of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any moneys of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested in those obligations specified pursuant to the provisions of section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-j's

 § 1114-k. Bonds; legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officials and bodies of the state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities for any purposes for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or hereafter may be authorized.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-k's

 § 1114-l. Agreement with the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the state will not alter or limit the rights hereby vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of any agreement made with or for the benefit of the holders of bonds or in any way impair the rights and remedies of bondholders until the bonds together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with bondholders.

 § 1114-m. Exemption from taxes, assessments and certain fees; payments in lieu of taxes. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any real property owned by it or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf.

2. The authority may pay, or may enter into agreements with any municipality to pay, a sum or sums annually or otherwise or to provide other considerations to such municipality with respect to real property owned by the authority located within such municipality and constituting a part of its water system.

3. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title together with the income therefrom shall be exempt from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes. The revenues, moneys and all other property and all activities of the authority shall be exempt from all taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including without limitation real estate taxes, income taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes.

4. The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom shall be exempt from such taxation, as stated in subdivision three of this section, and that all revenues, moneys, and other property pledged to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from such taxes as stated in such subdivision.

5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions one through four of this section, nothing herein shall prevent the state from assessing a tax or surcharge against the water customers based on their water consumption, provided, however, that all such taxes and surcharges and the authority's obligation to collect and pay such taxes and surcharges shall be subordinate to the rights of holders of all of the authority's bonds and notes and to the payment of principal, premiums if any, and interest thereon.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-m's

 § 1114-n. Actions against the authority. 1. Except in an action for wrongful death, no action or proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence or wrongful act of the authority or any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless:

(a) a notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority within the time limit by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law;

(b) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused;

(c) the action or proceeding shall be commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based; and

(d) An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

2. Wherever a notice of claim is served upon the authority, it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority may require any person presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatsoever against the authority to be sworn before a member, counsel, or an attorney, officer or employee thereof designated for such purpose, concerning such account or claim and when so sworn, to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

4. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority or the water board upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment against the authority on its bonds, shall not exceed the rate of interest on judgments and accrued claims against municipal corporations as provided in the general municipal law from time to time. Interest on payments of principal or interest on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate borne by such bonds from the due date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-n's

 § 1114-o. Conflicts of interest of members of the board of directors and officers and employees of the authority. No member of the board of directors or officer or employee of the authority shall have any interest in any contract, or take any action or otherwise involve himself or herself in any activity which, pursuant to article eighteen of the general municipal law, would be deemed a conflict of interest for a municipal officer or employee holding a position with a municipality similar to the position held by the member, officer or employee with the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-o's

 § 1114-p. Construction and purchase contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction or purchase of supplies, materials, or equipment pursuant to section one hundred three of the general municipal law. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority or to contract with a public utility, for a term not to exceed five years, for the operation and maintenance of a water supply system acquired from said public utility.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-p's

 § 1114-q. Separability clause. If any section, clause or provision in this title shall be held by a competent court to be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective, and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-q's

 § 1114-r. Effect of inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local, or of any charter or any local ordinance or resolution of any municipality, the provisions of this title shall be controlling, provided that nothing contained in this section shall be held to supplement or otherwise expand the powers or duties of the authority otherwise set forth in this title. Nothing contained in this title shall be held to alter or abridge the powers and duties of the department of environmental conservation or the department of health.

* NB There are 2 § 1114-r's

 § 1114-s. Acquisition by eminent domain. Notwithstanding any provision of the eminent domain procedure law to the contrary, in any proceeding brought by the authority pursuant to said law, title shall vest in the authority and compensation shall be paid only:

1. upon a decision by the supreme court that compensation for the property so condemned shall be determined solely by the income capitalization method of valuation, based on the actual net income as allowed by the public service commission, and

2. upon such court's determination of the amount of such compensation, based upon the income capitalization method, entry of the final judgment, the filing of the final decree, and the conclusion of any appeal or expiration of the time to file an appeal related to the condemnation proceeding. Should any court determine that a method of compensation other than the income capitalization method be utilized, or if the proposed award is more than the rate base of the assets taken in condemnation as utilized by the public service commission in setting rates and as certified by the public service commission, the authority may withdraw the condemnation proceeding without prejudice or costs to any party.

ALBANY MUNICIPAL WATER FINANCE AUTHORITY

§ 1115. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "Albany municipal water finance authority act".

§ 1115-a. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. "Agreement" shall mean any agreement entered into by the city pursuant to section one thousand one hundred fifteen-g or section one thousand one hundred fifteen-h of this title.

2. "Authority" shall mean the corporation created by section one thousand one hundred fifteen-b of this title.

3. "Bonds" shall mean the bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the authority pursuant to this title, and the provisions of this title relating to bonds and bondholders shall apply with equal force and effect to notes and noteholders, respectively, unless the context otherwise clearly requires.

4. "City" shall mean the city of Albany.

5. "Common council" or "council" shall mean the common council of the city.

6. "Civil service commission" shall mean the civil service commission of the city.

7. "Comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state.

8. "Construction" shall mean the acquisition, erection, building, alteration, improvement, increase, enlargement, extension, reconstruction, renovation or rehabilitation of a water, sewerage or water, and sewerage system or project, as the case may be; the inspection and supervision thereof; and the engineering, architectural, legal, fiscal and economic and environmental investigations and studies, surveys, designs, plans, working drawings, specifications, procedures and other actions preliminary or incidental thereto and claims arising therefrom.

9. "Contracting agency" shall mean the authority or the water board, as the case may be.

10. "Cost", as applied to any project, includes the cost of construction, the cost of the acquisition of all property, including both real, personal and mixed, the cost of demolishing, removing or relocating any buildings or structures on lands so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved or relocated, the cost of all systems, facilities, machinery, apparatus and equipment, financing charges, interest prior to, during and after construction to the extent not paid or provided for

from revenues or other sources, the cost of engineering and architectural surveys, plans and specifications, the cost of consultant and legal services, the cost of lease guarantee or bond insurance and the cost of other expenses necessary or incidental to the construction of such project and the financing of the construction thereof, including the amount authorized in the resolution of the authority providing for the issuance of bonds to be paid into any reserve or other special fund from the proceeds of such bonds and the financing of the placing of any project in operation, including reimbursement to the city, or any municipality, state agency, the state, the United States government, or any other person for expenditures that would be costs of the project hereunder.

11. "Governing body" shall mean the members of the authority or the water board, as the case may be, constituting and acting as the governing body of the authority or the water board, as the case may be.

12. "Mayor" shall mean the mayor of the city.

13. "Municipality" shall mean any county, city, town, village, improvement district under the town law, any other such instrumentality, including any agency, or public corporation of the state, or any of the foregoing or any combination thereof.

14. "Person" shall mean any natural person or any firm, partnership, association, joint venture or corporation, exclusive of public corporations as defined pursuant to article two-A of the general construction law.

15. "Project" shall mean any water facility, sewerage facility or water and sewerage facility, including the planning, development, financing or construction thereof.

16. "Properties" shall mean the water supply and distribution system or systems of the water board, and sewerage system or systems of the water board, whether situated within or without the territorial limits of the city, including the plants, works, structures, instrumentalities or part thereof and appurtenances thereto, real property, water facilities, sewerage facilities or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions and betterments.

17. "Real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises and interests in land, waters, lands underwater, ground water, riparian rights and air rights and any and all things and rights included within said term and includes not only fees simple absolute, but also any and all lesser interests including, but not limited to, easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise.

18. "Revenues" shall mean rates, rents, fees, charges, payments and other income and receipts derived from users of a water system or sewerage system of the city or the water board including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, investment proceeds and proceeds of insurance, condemnation, sale or other disposition of any part thereof, together with all federal, state or municipal aid therefor.

19. "Sewage" shall mean the water-carried human or animal wastes from residences, buildings, industrial establishments or other places, together with such groundwater infiltration and surface water as may be present. The admixture with sewage of industrial or other waste also shall be considered "sewage" within the meaning of this title.

20. "Sewerage facility" or "sewerage facilities" shall mean any plants, structures and other real and personal property acquired, rehabilitated or constructed or planned for the purpose of collecting, treating and disposing of sewage, including but not limited to main, trunk, intercepting, connecting, lateral, outlet or other sewers, outfalls, pumping stations, treatment and disposal plants, groundwater recharge basins, back-flow prevention devices, sludge dewatering or disposal equipment and facilities, clarifiers, filters, phosphorus removal equipment, and other plants, structures, equipment, vehicles, conveyances, real or personal property or rights therein and appurtenances thereto necessary or useful and convenient for the collection, conveyance, pumping, neutralizing, storing and disposing of sewage.

21. "Sewerage system" shall mean the sewage collection, pumping, treatment, neutralizing, storage and disposal system or systems owned by, in the possession of, or under the jurisdiction and control of the city or the water board, including all additions, increases, enlargements, extensions or improvements thereto.

22. "State" shall mean the state of New York.

23. "State agency" shall mean any state office, department, board, commission, bureau or division, or other agency or instrumentality of the state.

24. "Water board" shall mean the corporation created by a special act of the state legislature at the request of the city as provided in section one thousand one hundred fifteen-e of this title.

25. "Water facility" or "water facilities" shall mean any plants, structures and other real and personal property acquired, rehabilitated, constructed or planned for the purpose of accumulating, supplying, transmitting, treating or distributing water, including but not limited to surface or groundwater reservoirs, basins, dams, canals, aqueducts, standpipes, conduits, pipelines, mains, pumping stations, pumps, water distribution systems, compensating reservoirs, intake stations, waterworks or sources of water supply, wells, purification or filtration plants or other treatment plants and works, connections, water meters, rights of flowage or diversion and other plants, structures, equipment, vehicles, conveyances, real or personal property or rights therein and appurtenances thereto necessary or useful and convenient for the accumulation, supply, transmission, treatment or distribution of water.

26. "Water system" shall mean the water supply and distribution system or systems owned by, in the possession of, or under the jurisdiction, control and regulation of the city or the water board, including all additions, increases, enlargements, extensions or improvements thereto.

§ 1115-b. Albany municipal water finance authority. 1. A public corporation, to be known as the "Albany municipal water finance authority," is hereby created for the public purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation.

2. The authority shall consist of seven members, five of whom shall be residents of the city and be appointed by the mayor and two of whom shall be appointed by the governor from a list of names submitted by the mayor. Of the appointments made by the governor, one shall be a public member for a term ending on the thirty-first day of December of the third year in which this title shall have become a law and one shall be a public member for a term ending on the thirty-first day of December of the fourth year in which this title shall have become a law. The first members appointed by the mayor shall be appointed for the following terms of office: one for a term ending on December thirty-first of the second year following the year in which this title shall have become a law, two for a term ending on December thirty-first of the third year following the year in which this title shall have become a law, and two for a term ending on December thirty-first of the fourth year following the year in which this title shall have become a law. Subsequent appointments of members shall be made for a term of three years ending in each case on December thirty-first of the last year of such term. Any member appointed by the mayor or the governor who is not an employee of the city of Albany shall be deemed a public member. All members shall continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and qualify. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for original appointments. Vacancies, occurring otherwise than by expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired terms. Members may be removed from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as may be provided by law for the removal of officers of the city. Each public member shall be entitled to a salary of five thousand dollars per annum. No member shall receive any reimbursement for the ordinary expenses of attending meetings, but may by resolution of the authority be allowed their expenses of a special or extraordinary nature. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and be exercised by the governing body at a meeting duly called and held where a quorum of four members are present. No action shall be taken except pursuant to the favorable vote of at least three members. The governing body may delegate to one or more of its members, officers, agents or employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

3. The officers of the authority shall consist of a chairman, a vice-chairman and a treasurer, who shall be members of the authority, and a secretary, who need not be a member of the authority. Such officers shall be appointed by the governing body and shall serve in such capacities at the pleasure of the governing body. In addition to the secretary, the governing body may appoint and at pleasure remove such additional officers and employees as it may determine necessary for the performance of the powers and duties of the authority, and fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law. The governing body may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the governing body and the premium therefor shall be paid by the authority.

4. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of any general, special or local law, ordinance, resolution or charter, no officer, member or employee of the state, the city, any other municipality, or any public benefit corporation, shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his or her office or employment or any benefits provided under the retirement and social security law by reason of his or her acceptance of appointment as a member, officer, agent or employee of the authority, nor shall service as such member, officer, agent or employee be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office, membership or employment.

5. (a) The mayor shall file on or before March thirty-first of the year following the year in which this title shall have become a law, in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate signed by the mayor setting forth: (1) the name of the authority; (2) the names of the members appointed by the mayor and their terms of office; and (3) the effective date of this title. If such certificate is not filed with the secretary of state on or before such date, then the corporate existence of the authority shall thereupon terminate and it shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be dissolved.

(b) The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the payment or satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and vest in the city unless otherwise provided in an agreement between the city and the authority, and except as otherwise may be specified in such law.

6. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city and the state for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that such purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

7. Nothing in this title shall be construed to obligate the state in any way in connection with the operations or obligations of the authority.

§ 1115-c. General powers of the authority. The authority shall have the power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To borrow money and issue bonds or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. To enter into contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title;

5. To enter into agreements with the water board and the city for the financing by the authority of projects as herein provided;

6. To acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease or by condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law, lease as lessee, hold, and use any real or personal property or any interest therein, as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the purpose of this title, provided, however, the authority may not condemn real property of the city, or of any municipal corporation or district corporation, as such terms are defined in section sixty-six of the general construction law, without the consent of the city, or any such municipal corporation or district corporation, as the case may be; and, provided, further however, that the authority may not exercise the power of eminent domain with respect to real property outside the city which is owned by any individual, partnership, corporation (other than a municipal corporation or district corporation), association, trust, or legal entity without the consent of: (a) the governing body of a city, other than the city of Albany, if such real property is wholly located within such city, or (b) the town board if such real property is wholly located within such town, or (c) the governing body of a city, other than the city of Albany, and the town board if such real property is partly located within such city and partly located within such town; and to sell, lease as lessor, transfer and dispose of any property or interest therein at any time required by it in the exercise of its powers;

7. To make and amend by-laws for its organization and internal management, and rules and regulations governing the exercise of its powers and the fulfillment of its purposes under this title. A copy of such rules, regulations and by-laws, and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the authority shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the city;

8. To apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal, state and local governments for such licenses, permits or approvals of its plans or projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate, and to accept, in its discretion, such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies and officials;

9. To appoint such officers and employees as are required for the performance of its duties, and to fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation subject to provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the civil service commission of the city, and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

10. To make plans and studies necessary, convenient or desirable for the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

11. To make use of existing studies, surveys, plans, data and other material in the possession of any state agency, any municipality or the water board in order to avoid duplication of effort;

12. To enter upon such lands, waters or premises as in the judgment of the authority shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damage done;

13. To apply for and to accept any gifts or grants or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any agency or instrumentality thereof or from any other source, for any or all of the purposes specified in this title, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof; and

14. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title; provided that the authority shall not have power, within the city, to collect rentals, charges, rates or fees from the owners of real property, or the occupants of real property (other than the occupants of premises owned or controlled by the authority), for services or facilities furnished or supplied in connection with such real property, if such services or facilities are of a character or nature then or formerly furnished or supplied by the city.

§ 1115-d. Approval of projects. The authority shall not enter into any contract or agreement with the city or the water board with respect to the financing of any project pursuant to section one thousand one hundred fifteen-h of this title, unless the state commissioner of environmental conservation and the state commissioner of health shall have completed all statutory reviews and approvals with respect to such project which, as of the date of such contract or agreement, are required by law. Nothing herein shall be construed to diminish the full authority and responsibility of each department of the state for statutory reviews and approvals.

§ 1115-e. Water board. 1. A city water board may be created by a special act of the state legislature at the request of the city as a body corporate and politic, constituting a corporate municipal instrumentality of the state and having the powers and duties as provided in this title.

2. The water board shall consist of five members, who shall be residents of the city and appointed by the mayor. The first members appointed by the mayor shall be appointed for the following terms of office: one for a term ending on December thirty-first of the second year following the year in which the special act of the state legislature creating the water board shall have become law, two for a term ending on December thirty-first of the third year following the year in which such special act shall have become law, and two for a term ending on December thirty-first of the fourth year following the year in which such special act shall have become law. Subsequent appointments of members shall be made for a term of three years ending in each case on December thirty-first of the last year of such term. No member shall be a member of the governing body of the authority. Any member appointed by the mayor who is not an employee of the city of Albany shall be deemed a public member. All members shall continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for original appointments. Vacancies, occurring otherwise than by expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired terms. Members may be removed from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as may be provided by law for the removal of officers of the city. Each public member shall be entitled to a salary of five thousand dollars per annum. All members shall receive no reimbursement for the ordinary expenses of attending meetings, but may by resolution of the water board be allowed their expenses of a special or extraordinary nature. A public member may receive additional compensation to be fixed by the members, if appointed an officer of the water board. The powers of the water board shall be vested in and be exercised by the governing body at a meeting duly called and held where a quorum of three members is present. No action shall be taken except pursuant to the favorable vote of at least three members. The governing body may delegate to one or more of its members, officers, agents or employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

3. The officers of the water board shall consist of a chairman, a vice-chairman and a treasurer, who shall be members of the water board, and a secretary, who need not be a member of the water board. Such officers shall be appointed by the governing body and shall serve in such capacities at the pleasure of the governing body. In addition to the secretary, the governing body may appoint and at pleasure remove such additional officers and employees as it may determine necessary for the performance of the powers and duties of the authority, and fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law. The governing body may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the governing body and the premium therefor shall be paid by the water board.

4. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of any general, special or local law, ordinance, resolution or charter, no officer, member or employee of the state, the city, any other municipality, or any public benefit corporation, shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his or her office or employment or any benefits provided under the retirement and social security law by reason of his or her acceptance of appointment as a member, officer, agent or employee of the water board, nor shall service as such member, officer, agent or employee be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office, membership or employment.

5. (a) The mayor shall file on or before March thirty-first of the year following the year in which the special act of the state legislature creating the water board shall have become law, in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate signed by the mayor setting forth: (1) the name of the water board; (2) the names of the members appointed by the mayor and their terms of office; and (3) the effective date of the special act of the state legislature creating the water board. If such certificate is not filed with the secretary of state on or before such date, then the corporate existence of the water board shall thereupon terminate and it shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be dissolved.

(b) The water board and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the water board shall have contractual duties or obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the water board, all of the rights and properties of the water board then remaining shall pass to and vest in the city.

6. It is hereby determined and declared that the water board and the carrying out of its powers and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city and the state for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that such purposes are public purposes and that the water board is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

§ 1115-f. General powers of the water board. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the water board shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To enter into contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the water board to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title, provided nothing herein contained shall authorize the water board to borrow money or otherwise contract indebtedness;

4. To enter into agreements pursuant to sections one thousand one hundred fifteen-g and one thousand one hundred fifteen-h of this title with the authority and the city to provide a means whereby the authority shall finance the cost of constructing projects, as described in the agreement, and the water board may agree to assume title to the water or sewerage system, or both, and to raise revenues from users through fees, rates, rents or other service charges necessary or appropriate to secure such financing and to pay the cost of the operation, management and repair of such water or sewerage system;

5. To acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease or by condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law, lease as lessee, hold and use any property, real, personal or mixed or any interest therein, as the water board may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the purposes of this title; provided, however, that the water board may not condemn real property of the city, or of any municipal corporation or district corporation, as such terms are defined in section sixty-six of the general construction law, without the consent of the city, or any such municipal corporation or district corporation, as the case may be and, provided, further however, that the water board may not exercise the power of eminent domain with respect to real property outside the city which is owned by any individual, partnership, corporation (other than a municipal corporation or district corporation), association, trust, or legal entity without the consent of: (a) the governing body of a city, other than the city of Albany, if such real property is wholly located within such city, or (b) the town board if such real property is wholly located within such town, or (c) the governing body of a city, other than the city of Albany, and the town board if such real property is partly located within such city and partly located within such town; and, subject to any limitations in any agreement with the city entered into pursuant to section one thousand one hundred fifteen-g or section one thousand one hundred fifteen-h of this title, to sell, lease as lessor, transfer or otherwise dispose of any such property or interest therein;

6. To acquire from the city title to the sewerage system, water system, or both the sewerage and water systems, as the case may be, of such city;

7. To make and amend by-laws for its organization and internal management, and rules and regulations for the sale of water or collection of sewage and the collection of rents and charges therefor and otherwise governing the exercise of its powers and duties and the fulfillment of its purposes under this title. A copy of such rules, regulations and by-laws, and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the water board shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the city. In addition to the civil penalties described in section one thousand one hundred fifteen-g of this title, the common council, upon the written request of the water board, shall have power to prescribe that violation of specific by-laws, rules or regulations of the water board, published once in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city, shall be punishable by a fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not longer than thirty days, or both;

8. To establish, fix, revise, charge and collect and enforce the payment of all fees, rates, rents and other service charges for the use of, or services rendered by, or any commodities furnished by the water system or the sewerage system, so as to provide revenues which, together with other revenues available to the water board, if any, shall be at least sufficient at all times so that such system or systems shall be placed on a self-sustaining basis in accordance with section one thousand one hundred fifteen-i of this title;

9. To pledge its revenues and mortgage any or all of its properties to secure the obligations of the authority;

10. To construct, improve, maintain, develop, expand or rehabilitate water facilities or sewerage facilities;

11. To operate and manage and to contract for the operation and management of properties of the water board;

12. To enter into contracts, and carry out the terms thereof, for the wholesale provision of water produced by supply facilities constructed and operated by the water board, to municipalities and private water companies and to carry out the terms thereof, for the transmission of water from new or existing supply facilities;

13. To enter into contracts with municipalities for the collection, treatment and disposal of sewage;

14. To apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal, state and local governments for such licenses, permits or approvals of its plans or projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate, and to accept, in its discretion, such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies and officials;

15. To appoint such officers and employees as it may require for the performance of its duties, and to fix and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the civil service commission of the city, and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

16. To make plans and studies necessary, convenient or desirable for the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the water board and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

17. To make use of existing studies, surveys, plans, data and other material in the possession of any state agency, any municipality or the authority in order to avoid duplication of effort;

18. To enter upon such lands, waters or premises as in the judgment of the water board shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the water board being liable only for actual damage done;

19. To apply for and to accept any gifts or grants or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any agency or instrumentality thereof or from any other source, for any or all of the purposes specified in this title, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof;

20. To supply and sell water for domestic, commercial and public purposes at retail to individual consumers within the city and to collect, treat and discharge sewage produced for such purposes by such generators;

21. To purchase water in bulk from any person, private corporation or municipality when necessary or convenient for the operation of the water system;

22. To produce, develop, distribute and sell water or sewerage services within or without the territorial limits of the city; and to purchase water from any municipal corporation, town water district, person, association or corporation; provided, however, that water and sewerage services may be sold at retail to individual consumers only within the city and further provided that in exercising the powers granted by this title, the water board shall not sell water or sewerage services in any area which is served by a water system or sewerage system owned or operated by a municipality or special improvement district unless the governing body of such municipality or district shall adopt a resolution requesting the water board to sell water or sewerage services, as the case may be, in such served areas;

23. To enter into cooperative agreements with the authority, other authorities, the city, other municipalities, counties, towns, villages, water districts, utility companies, individuals, firms or corporations, within or without the territorial limits of the city, for the interconnection of facilities, the exchange or interchange of services and commodities, and within the territorial limits of the city to enter into a contract for the construction and operation and maintenance of a water or sewerage system by the water board for any municipality having power to construct and develop a water or sewerage system, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable including but not limited to the reimbursement of all costs of such construction, or for any other lawful purposes necessary or desirable to effect the purposes of this title;

24. To enter into agreements with the authority and the city, as herein provided;

25. To invest moneys not required for immediate use or disbursement, subject to such restrictions as may be imposed by any agreement with the authority, in such obligations or deposits with such banks or trust companies as it may determine and designate, provided that any such deposit with a bank or trust company shall be continuously and fully secured by direct obligations of the city, the state or the United States of America, or obligations, the principal of and interest on which are guaranteed by the state or the United States of America, of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit;

26. To establish and maintain such reserves, special funds and accounts, to be held in trust or otherwise, as may be required by any agreement with the authority and the city; and

27. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

§ 1115-g. Transfer of sewerage or water systems by the city to the water board. 1. The city may, by resolution of the common council of the city, enter into an agreement with the water board for the transfer to the water board, for use in the exercise of its corporate powers and purposes, of the sewerage system or water system, or both, of the city as the same then shall be owned by the city. Any such agreement may provide for the transfer of title of such system or systems by deed, lease or other arrangement to the water board. To the extent not inconsistent with this title, any such agreement may impose such limitations or conditions as may be agreed upon by and between the city and the water board with respect to the power of the water board to sell or otherwise dispose of any property acquired by the water board pursuant to such agreement, and may provide for or authorize the water board to surrender to the city property no longer required by the water board for its public purposes. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law or charter to the contrary, any action taken by the city pursuant to this subdivision shall not be subject to a permissive or mandatory referendum.

2. Any such agreement shall set forth the liabilities of the city which it is contemplated are to be paid by the water board from moneys available to it; provided, however, that such agreement does not require the water board to assume the liabilities of the city; provided further, notwithstanding the foregoing, any real property owned by the city outside its municipal boundaries for the purposes of the water system including all water facilities which are subject to real property taxation under city ownership shall remain subject to real property taxation as provided in section one thousand one hundred fifteen-j of this title upon transfer and conveyance to the water board as if the city remained the record owner of such water system and water facilities.

3. Any such agreement may provide for the payment by the city to the water board from any funds of the city, of such amount as may be determined appropriate for use by the water board.

4. The city and the water board are hereby authorized and empowered to make or enter into any contracts, agreements, deeds, leases, conveyances or other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this title, and they shall have power and authority to do so and to authorize the doing of all things incidental, desirable or necessary to implement the provisions of this title.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, no agreement comtemplated by this section shall become effective for any purpose unless and until the same shall have been approved in writing by resolution of the authority.

6. Upon the filing by the water board with the clerk of the city and the secretary of state of a copy of the instruments or documents effectuating the transfer authorized by this section, the water board shall take possession of the sewerage system or water system, or both, of the city thereby transferred.

7. Any application filed or proceeding heretofore commenced in relation to the sewerage system or water system, or both, transferred to the water board pending with the state departments of environmental conservation or health or any other state agency or with the United States environmental protection agency or any other federal agency or instrumentality shall inure to and for the benefit of the water board and be binding upon the water board to the same extent and in the same manner as if the water board had been a party to such application or proceeding from its inception, and the water board shall be deemed a party thereto to the extent not prohibited by any federal law. Any license, approval, permit or decision heretofore or hereafter issued or granted pursuant to or as a result of any such application or proceeding shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the water board and shall be assigned and transferred by the city to the water board unless such assignment and transfer is prohibited by federal law.

8. The rules and regulations of the water board may provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of the supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, by the city or the water board for non-payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the water board, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law. A copy of all by-laws, rules and regulations and amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the water board, shall be filed in the offices of the clerk of the city and the secretary of state within ninety days and thereafter published once in the official newspaper of the city. Violation of such rules and regulations shall subject the offending party to a civil penalty in an action brought by the water board, not exceeding one hundred dollars for each day the violation continues. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the city court of the city to hear and determine, subject to the provisions of the civil practice law and rules, any violation of such rules and regulations.

§ 1115-h. Agreement among the water board, the city and the authority for the provision of projects. 1. The authority, the water board and the city, acting by resolution of the common council of the city, may enter into agreements for the purpose of providing for the construction and financing of a project.

2. Any such agreements (i) shall describe in sufficient detail for reasonable identification the particular project to be financed in whole or in part by the authority, (ii) shall describe the plan for the financing of the cost of the construction of such project, including the amount, if any, to be provided by the water board and the source or sources thereof, (iii) shall set forth the method by which and by whom and the terms and conditions upon which moneys provided by the authority shall be disbursed, (iv) may require, in the discretion of the authority, the payment to the authority of the proceeds of any state and federal grants available to the water board, (v) shall provide for the establishment of user fees, rates, rents and other charges and the charging and collection thereof by the water board for the use of, or services furnished, rendered or made available by such system such as to provide that the water board receive revenues at least sufficient, together with other revenues of the water board, if any, to meet the requirements of subdivision one of section one thousand one hundred fifteen-i of this title, provided that revenues received by the water board shall be deposited in a special fund established pursuant to this title and disbursed to, and upon certification of, the authority, (vi) may provide for the transfer by the city to the water board pursuant to section one thousand one hundred fifteen-g of this title of ownership of the water system or sewerage system, or both as the case may be, of which such project will form a part, (vii) may provide for the construction and completion of such project by the city or the water board and for the operation, maintenance and repair thereof as an integrated part of the system of which such project forms a part, subject to such terms and conditions, not inconsistent with this title, which may be in the public interest and necessary or desirable properly and adequately to secure the holders of bonds of the authority, (viii) shall provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of the supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, for non-payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the water board, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law, and (ix) in the discretion of the authority, require reports concerning the project from the water board to the authority and the city.

3. If the city executes an agreement pursuant to this section, relating to the financing of projects by revenue bonds, it shall have and shall be deemed to have annulled its power to levy user fees, rents and other charges on participating properties or customers for the cost of financing, operating and maintaining such projects under its jurisdiction until all bonds of the authority shall have been paid or discharged in accordance with the agreement and the resolution of the authority authorizing such bonds. If the city has outstanding general obligation bonds issued for acquiring or constructing water or sewerage facilities, whether the bonds are payable from revenues, special assessments, or taxes, it may authorize the authority pursuant to the agreement to issue its revenue bonds under this title for the purpose of retiring the outstanding bonds.

4. No such agreement shall be executed until the city and water board shall have held a public hearing at which users of the water system or sewerage system, or both, as the case may be, shall have had opportunity to be heard concerning the proposed provisions thereof. Notice of such hearing shall be published at least thirty days in advance in the official newspaper or newspapers of the city.

5. Such agreement shall be effective upon the issuance by the authority of bonds to finance the cost of constructing projects of the city or the water board.

6. Any such agreement may be amended, revised or extended by supplemental agreements authorized and executed in the same manner as the original agreement, provided that any such supplemental agreement shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this title.

7. (a) Following the execution of the agreement by and between the authority, the water board and the city pursuant to this section, the clerk of the city shall publish a notice in substantially the following form: "Notice is hereby given that the city of Albany has on the day of   entered into an agreement with the Albany municipal water finance authority in relation to the construction and financing of (here insert a brief description of the sewerage or water facility or facilities to which such agreement relates) pursuant to the Albany municipal water finance authority act for the purpose of placing its sewerage or water system or water and sewerage system, as the case may be, on an independent basis, imposing fees and rents on sewerage or water system users, or both, which, together with other revenues available for such purposes, if any, are sufficient to pay to the authority debt service on bonds issued by the authority pursuant to the agreement and for operation and maintenance of the facility (title to which is transferred to the water board pursuant to the agreement). Such agreement in general terms provides (here insert a brief summary of the substantive provisions of such agreement). A copy of the complete agreement is on file for public inspection in the office of the clerk of the city where the same may be examined by any interested person during regular business hours. The validity of this agreement may be hereafter contested only upon the ground or grounds that (i) such agreement violates, or the performance of any provision thereof by any party thereto would violate, the provisions of any law or the state constitution or (ii) the provisions of law which should have been complied with in relation to the authorization and execution thereof were not substantially complied with, and in any event an action, suit or proceeding is commenced within sixty days after the date of this notice.

clerk of the city of Albany

(b) The publication authorized by this subdivision shall be in the official newspaper or newspapers of the city.

(c) After the expiration of the sixty day period set forth in such notice, the validity of such agreement shall be conclusively presumed and the validity thereof shall not thereafter be questioned by either a party plaintiff or a party defendant and no court shall have jurisdiction in any action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity.

(d) Neither any error or omission in the notice of publication provided for in this subdivision shall affect or impair the validity of an agreement executed pursuant to this section so long as the notice substantially conforms to the provisions of this section.

§ 1115-i. Imposition and disposition of fees, rates, rents or charges. 1. The water board shall establish, fix and revise, from time to time, fees, rates, rents or other charges for the use of, or services furnished, rendered or made available by, the water system or sewerage system, or both, as the case may be, owned by the water board pursuant to this title in such amount at least sufficient at all times so as to provide funds in an amount sufficient, together with other revenues available to the board, if any, (i) to pay to the authority, in accordance with any agreement with the authority, an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying the principal of and the interest on the outstanding bonds of the authority as the same shall become due and payable and maintaining or funding a capital or debt service reserve fund therefor and, to the extent requested by the city in, or annually pursuant to, any agreement, to pay to the city, in accordance with any agreement, an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on general obligation bonds of the city issued for or allocable to the water system or sewerage system, or both, as the case may be, as the same shall become due and payable, and to maintain or fund reserves therefor, (ii) to pay to the city, in accordance with any agreement, an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying the costs of administering, maintaining, repairing and operating and the cost of constructing capital improvements to the water system or sewerage system, or both, as the case may be, (iii) to pay to the city in accordance with any agreement entered into pursuant to section eleven hundred fifteen-h of this title an amount sufficient for the purpose of paying liabilities issued for or allocable to the water system or sewerage system, or both, as the same shall become due and payable, (iv) to meet any requirements of any agreement including requirements relating to the establishment of reserves for renewal and replacement and for uncollected charges and covenants respecting rates, (v) to pay all other reasonable and necessary expenses of the authority and the water board in relation thereto, and (vi) to the extent requested by the city in or pursuant to any agreement to pay or provide for such other purposes or projects as such city considers appropriate and in the public interest. Any surplus of funds remaining in the water board after such payments have been made shall be returned to the city for deposit in the general fund.

2. There is hereby established in the custody of the water board a special fund to be known as the local water fund. Such fund shall consist of the revenues derived from the fees, rates, rents and service charges established, charged and collected pursuant to this title and any other income earned or moneys received by the water board. Revenues in the local water fund shall be kept separate and shall not be commingled with any other moneys in the custody of the water board. All moneys, properties and assets acquired by the water board, whether as revenues or otherwise, shall be held by it in trust for the purposes of carrying out its powers and duties, and shall be used and reused in accordance with the purposes and provisions of this article.

3. The water board shall deposit promptly, to the credit of the local water fund, revenues collected under this article in a bank, banking house or trust company as may be designated in or pursuant to the agreements.

4. No such fee, rate, rent or other charge shall be established, fixed or revised unless and until the water board has held a public hearing at which the users of the water system or sewerage system, or both, as the case may be, the owners of property served or to be served and other interested persons, have had an opportunity to be heard concerning the same. Notice of such public hearing shall be published by the water board at least twenty days before the date set therefor in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the city. Such notice shall set forth the date, time and place of such hearing and shall include a brief description of the matters to be considered at such hearing. A copy of the notice shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the city and shall be available for inspection by the public. At all such hearings, any users of the water system or sewerage system, or both, as the case may be, owners of property served or to be served and any other interested persons shall have an opportunity to be heard concerning the matters under consideration. Any decision of the water board on matters considered at such public hearing shall be in writing and be made available in the office of the water board for public inspection during regular office hours. Such decision shall be published in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the city within thirty days after such decision is made. The fees, rates, rents or other charges so established for any class of users of property served shall be extended to cover any additional premises thereafter served which are within the same class, without the necessity of a hearing thereon.

5. The fees, rates, rents or other charges established, fixed and revised from time to time by the water board shall be collected by the water board at such times and in such manner as may be determined by the rules and regulations adopted by the water board consistent with the provisions of this title.

6. Such fees, rates, rents or other charges, if not paid when due, shall constitute a lien upon the premises served and a charge against the owners thereof, which lien and charge shall bear interest at the same rate as would unpaid taxes of the city. Such lien shall take precedence over all other liens or encumbrances, except taxes, and may be foreclosed against the lot or building served in the same manner as a lien for such taxes. The amount which remains due and unpaid for sixty days may, with interest thereon at the same rate as unpaid city taxes and with reasonable attorneys' fees, be recovered by the water board in a civil action in the name of the water board against such owners. The city and any state agency shall be subject to the same fees, rates, rents or other charges under the same conditions as other users of such water system or sewerage system, or both, as the case may be. Any agreement for the supply of water services or sewerage services between the city or an agency thereof and any other municipality or water supply system, or any administrative determination by a state agency, or any other arrangement in this regard, in effect at the time the water board shall be established, shall remain in full force and effect and be binding upon the water board as if it were a party to such agreement, determination or other arrangement. All rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions provided by law with respect to the fixing of charges or rates for the supply of water or sewerage services to users outside the city, including but not limited to those set forth in the environmental conservation law, shall be deemed to apply, as appropriate, to the water board established pursuant to this title. In addition to any other lawful enforcement methods and pursuant to rules and regulations of the water board promulgated pursuant to this title, the payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges for water service or sewerage service to any premises may be enforced by discontinuing the water service or sewerage service to such premises provided that such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a water-works corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law.

7. The water board shall pay to the authority such amounts at such times and in such manner as may be provided in the agreement by and among the authority, the water board and the city consistent with the priorities set forth in such agreement. There is hereby created a lien, by this title made a statutory lien within the meaning of the uniform commercial code and any other state or federal law, upon the gross revenues of the water board, in favor of the payment of all amounts due pursuant to such agreement and in the order and priority set forth therein and which lien shall be a first lien upon such gross revenues. The gross revenues so subject to such statutory lien shall be and remain subject to such statutory lien until the payment in full of each such item in accordance with such priority. Said statutory lien shall not be construed to give any holder or owner of any bond of the authority power to compel the sale of any water system or sewerage system, as the case may be.

8. If there be any default by the water board, in the making of the payments to the authority required under this section, as a result of the failure by the water board to impose sufficient fees, rates, rents or other charges, the authority may petition for the appointment by any court having jurisdiction in any proper action of a receiver to administer on behalf of the water board, under the direction of said court, the affairs of the water board in order to achieve system revenues at least sufficient to make such payments; and by and with the approval of said court, to establish, fix and revise, from time to time, fees, rates, rents or other charges at least sufficient therefor in conformity with this title, and the resolution or trust indenture of the authority providing for the issuance of its bonds and in accordance with such orders as the court shall make.

9. The water board shall prepare and transmit to the city on or before the first day of December in each year a list of those persons or property owners within such city who are in arrears in the payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges for a period of sixty days or more after the last day fixed for payment thereof without penalty. The list shall contain a brief description of the properties for which the services were provided, the names of the persons liable to pay for the same and the amounts chargeable to each, including penalties and interest computed to the next succeeding December thirty-first. The city shall levy such sums against the properties liable and shall state the amount thereof in a separate column in the annual tax rolls of such city under the name of "delinquent water charges" or "delinquent sewerage charges" or "delinquent water and sewerage charges" as may be appropriate and as may be directed by the water board. Such amounts, as and when collected by the city, shall be paid over to the water board. All of the provisions of the tax laws of the state covering the enforcement and collection of unpaid taxes of the city shall apply to the collection of such unpaid fees, rates, rents or other charges.

10. Neither the public service commission, nor any city or state agency, shall have any jurisdiction over the water board or the authority or any power over the regulation of the fees, rates, rents or other charges established, fixed or revised by the water board except as provided by law with respect to the supply of water or sewerage services to users outside the city.

§ 1115-j. Tax exemption of the water board property and activities. 1.

It is hereby determined that the creation of a water board and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the city and is a public purpose and the water board shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any real property owned by it, or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf. The water board shall be deemed a public authority for the purposes of section four hundred twelve of the real property tax law.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions one and four of this section, any real property of the water board located outside the boundaries of the city, shall be exempt from the payment of taxes, special ad valorem levies and special assessments only if and to the extent that such real property would have been exempt if owned by the city.

3. Notwithstanding any provision in this section to the contrary, the water board may pay, or may enter into agreements with any municipality to pay, a sum or sums, annually or otherwise, or to provide other considerations to such municipality, with respect to real property of the water board located within such municipality and provided that any such payment or agreement to pay shall be subject to approval by the authority.

4. The water board shall not be required to pay any taxes or other governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including without limitation franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes, or any other tax or charge upon its property or activities or upon any of its revenues or other income.

§ 1115-k. Pledge effective without filing or recording. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues or other personal property made or created by the authority, the water board or the city pursuant to this title shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority, the water board or the city, as the case may be, irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

§ 1115-l. Governmental capacity of the authority, the water board and the city. The authority, the water board and the city in carrying out their respective powers and duties under this title, shall be deemed to be acting in a governmental capacity and in the performance of an essential governmental function.

§ 1115-m. Transfer of officers and employees. Any officer or employee of the city under civil service who is selected by the authority or the water board may, with the consent of the mayor, be transferred to the authority or the water board, as the case may be, and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to comparable offices, positions and employment under the authority or the water board, as the case may be. The salary or compensation of any such officer or employee, after such transfer, shall be paid by the authority or the water board, as the case may be. Any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority or the water board, as the case may be, pursuant to this section, who are members of or benefit under any existing pension or retirement fund or system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund or system as are now prescribed by law, but during the period of their employment by the authority or the water board, as the case may be, all contributions to such funds or systems to be paid by the employer on account of such officers or employees shall be paid by the authority or the water board, as the case may be. All such officers or employees so transferred to the authority or the water board, as the case may be, who have been appointed to positions under the rules and classifications of the personnel officer of the city shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority or the water board, as the case may be, as they had under their original appointment.

§ 1115-n. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds in conformance with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in such principal amounts as it may determine to be necessary to pay the cost of any project or projects, or for any other corporate purpose, including incidental expenses in connection therewith. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. Bonds issued by the authority shall be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other moneys as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject to any agreements entered into between the authority and the city, and the authority, the water board and the city, and subject to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular revenues or moneys.

2. The authority is authorized to obtain from any department or agency of the United States of America or the state or any non-governmental insurer or financial institution any insurance, guaranty or other credit support device, to the extent now or hereafter available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest or principal, or both, or any part thereof, on any bonds issued by the authority and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to any such insurance or guaranty, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of bonds or notes of the authority as may then exist.

3. Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, be in such denominations, bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times as such resolution may provide, except that bonds and any renewals thereof shall mature within forty years of the date of their original issuance and notes and any renewal thereof shall mature within five years of the date of their original issuance. Such bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates payable at such times, be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine provided that no issue of bonds may be sold by the authority at private sale unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by (i) the comptroller, where such sale is not to such comptroller, or (ii) by the state director of the budget, where such sale is to be to the comptroller.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or part of its revenues, together with any other moneys, securities, contracts or property, to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with holders of bonds or notes of the authority as may then exist;

(b) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(c) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(e) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(f) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(g) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or moneys may be deposited;

(h) the terms and provisions of any trust, deed, mortgage or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section one thousand one hundred fifteen-o of this title and limiting or abrogating the rights of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(k) limitations on the amount of revenues and other moneys to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(l) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(m) any other matters of like or different character which may in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of bondholders.

5. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including the mortgaging of any property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys or properties and the doing of any act (including refraining from doing any act) which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

6. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

7. Whether or not the bonds are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

8. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing bonds shall be liable personally thereon or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

9. The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as then may exist, shall have power out of any moneys available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority, which shall thereupon be cancelled at a price not exceeding (i) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date, or (ii) if the bonds are not redeemable then redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption, plus accrued interest to interest payment date.

§ 1115-o. Remedies of bondholders. Subject to any resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to paragraph (i) of subdivision four of section one thousand one hundred fifteen-n of this title:

1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the city and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purpose herein provided.

2. Such trustee may and, upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders and require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders. The venue of any such action shall be laid in the county of Albany.

5. Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days notice in writing to the authority.

6. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the properties the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the properties and shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from such part or parts of such properties and proceed with any construction thereon or the acquisition of any property, real or personal, in connection therewith which the authority is under obligation to do, and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the properties and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from the properties.

§ 1115-p. State, city and water board not liable on authority bonds. Neither the state, nor the city, nor the water board nor any subdivision thereof shall be liable on the bonds of the authority and such bonds shall not be a debt of the state, the city, or such water board.

§ 1115-q. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks in the state designated by the governing body. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the treasurer upon requisition by the governing body or of such other person or persons as the governing body may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured by obligations of or guaranteed by the United States or of the state or of the city of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

§ 1115-r. Bonds legal investment for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officials and bodies of the state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities for any purposes for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or hereafter may be authorized.

§ 1115-s. Agreement of the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the state will not alter or limit the rights hereby vested in the authority or the water board to fulfill the terms of any agreement made with or for the benefit of the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with bondholders.

§ 1115-t. Exemption from taxes, assessments and certain fees; payments in lieu of taxes. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city and of the state and is a public purpose and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any real property owned by it or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf. The authority shall be deemed a public authority for purposes of section four hundred twelve of the real property tax law.

2. Notwithstanding any provision in this section to the contrary, the authority may pay, or may enter into agreements with any municipality to pay, a sum or sums, annually or otherwise, or to provide other considerations to such municipality with respect to real property owned by the authority located within such municipality.

3. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title together with the income therefrom shall be exempt from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes. The revenues, moneys and all other property and activities of the authority shall be exempt from all taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including without limitation real estate taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes.

4. The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom shall be free from such taxation, as aforestated in subdivision three of this section, and that all revenues, moneys, and other property pledged to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from such taxation as aforestated in such subdivision.

§ 1115-u. Actions against authority and water board. 1. Except in an action for wrongful death, no action or proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority or the water board for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence or wrongful act of the authority or the water board or of any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless (a) a notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority or the water board, as the case may be, within the time limit by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law, (b) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused, and (c) the action or proceeding shall be commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based. An action against the authority or water board for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

2. Wherever a notice of claim is served upon the authority or the water board it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority or the water board may require any person, presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatever against the authority or the water board, as the case may be, to be sworn before a member, counsel, or an attorney, officer or employee designated for such purpose concerning such account or claim when so sworn, to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority or the water board shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority or the water board, as the case may be.

4. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority or the water board upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment against the authority on its bonds, shall not exceed the rate of interest on judgements and accrued claims against municipal corporations as provided in the general municipal law from time to time. Interest on payments of principal or interest on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate borne by such bonds from the due date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

§ 1115-v. Contracts. 1. All contracts or orders for work, material or supplies performed or furnished in connection with construction shall be awarded by the contracting agency pursuant to resolution of its governing body. Such awards shall be made in compliance with section one hundred three of the general municipal law. In any construction contract, the contracting agency may provide a program for the payment of damages for delays and incentive awards in order to encourage timely project completion. An action, suit or proceeding contesting the validity of a contract awarded pursuant to this section, or the validity of the procedures relating to such award, shall be governed by the provisions of section one hundred three of the general municipal law and the term "political subdivision" as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law shall be deemed to include the contracting agency for the purposes of such section one hundred three.

2. The bidder whose bid is accepted shall give security for the faithful performance of the contract, and such other security as the contracting agency may require, and may be required to maintain any construction done under the contract for such period as shall be stipulated, all in the manner prescribed and required by the contracting agency, and the sufficiency of such security shall, in addition to the justification and acknowledgement, be approved by the contracting agency. All bids or proposals shall be publicly opened by the governing body or its duly authorized agent. If the bidder whose bid or proposal has been accepted after advertising shall neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him on his bid or proposal, or if he accepts but does not execute the contract and give proper security, the contracting agency shall have the right to declare his deposit forfeited. In case any work shall be abandoned by any contractor, the contracting agency may, if it determines that the public interest is thereby served, adopt on its own behalf any or all subcontracts made by such contractor for such work and all such subcontractors shall be bound by such adoption if made. No bid or proposal shall be accepted from, or any contract awarded to, any person or corporation who is in arrears to the contracting agency or the city upon any obligation of the contracting agency or of the city. Every contract involving an expenditure of more than five thousand dollars when made and entered into as herein provided for shall be executed in duplicate, one copy of which shall be held by the authority and one copy of which shall be delivered to the contractor. The contracting agency may adopt, utilize, ratify and confirm any request for proposals, invitation for sealed bids, plans, specifications and notices heretofore or hereafter published by the city with respect to any proposed project, and the contracting agency may adopt, utilize, accept and confirm any bids or proposals submitted to the city and heretofore or hereafter received and publicly opened by the city. The provisions of this section shall supersede any inconsistent provisions of the general municipal law, any other general, special or local law, or the charter of the city.

§ 1115-w. Interest in contracts prohibited. It shall be a misdemeanor for any member of the governing body or any officer, agent, servant or employee of the authority or the water board to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly, in the furnishing of work, materials, supplies or labor, or in any contract therefor which the authority or the water board, as the case may be, is empowered by this title to make.

§ 1115-x. Authority, water board and city to take affirmative action. 1. Each contracting agency which awards contracts for design, construction, services or materials for projects authorized by this title shall require that such contracts and documents soliciting bids or proposals therefor shall contain or make reference to the following provisions:

(a) The contractor will not discriminate against employees or applicants for employment because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or marital status, and will undertake or continue programs of affirmative action to insure that minority group persons and women are afforded equal employment opportunity without discrimination. Such action shall be taken with reference, but not be limited to recruitment, employment, job assignment, promotion, upgrading, demotion, transfer, layoff, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selections for training or retraining, including apprenticeship and on-the-job training.

(b) At the request of the contracting agency, the contractor shall request each employment agency, labor union, or authorized representative of workers with which he has a collective bargaining or other agreement or understanding, to furnish a written statement that such employment agency, labor union or representative shall not discriminate because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status and that such union or representative will cooperate in the implementation of the contractor's obligations hereunder.

(c) The contractor will state, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of the contractor, in performance of the contract that all qualified applicants will be afforded equal employment opportunity without discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status.

(d) The contractor will include the provisions of paragraphs (a) through (c) of this subdivision in every subcontract or purchase order in such a manner that such provisions will be binding upon each subcontractor or vendor as to its working connection with a contract.

2. Each contracting agency shall establish procedures and guidelines to ensure that contractors and subcontractors undertake programs of affirmative action as required by this section. Such procedures may require, after notice in a bid solicitation, the submission of an affirmative action program prior to the award of any contract, or at any time thereafter, and may require the submission of compliance reports relating to the operation and implementation of any affirmative action program adopted hereunder. Such procedures and guidelines shall be consistent with the guidelines promulgated by the office of federal contract compliance programs of the United States department of labor pursuant to presidential executive order eleven thousand two hundred forty-six, as amended, and any state statutory or regulatory requirements. A contracting agency shall, in the promulgation of procedures and guidelines pursuant to this section, cooperate with any federal, state or local agency established for the purpose of implementing affirmative action compliance programs.

3. Any contracting agency empowered to award contracts for design, construction, services or materials shall seek meaningful participation in the performance of contracts by minority business enterprises and shall establish measures and procedures to identify those contracts and items of work for which minority business enterprises may best bid to actively and affirmatively promote and assist their participation so as to facilitate the award of a fair share of contracts to such enterprises. For purposes hereof, "minority business enterprise" shall mean any business enterprise which is at least fifty-one per centum owned by, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least fifty-one per centum of the stock of which is owned by citizens or permanent resident noncitizens who are Black, Hispanic, Asian, American Indian or women, and such ownership interest is real, substantial and continuing. The provisions of this subdivision shall not be construed to limit the ability of any minority business enterprise to bid on any contract.

4. In the implementation of subdivisions two and three of this section, the contracting agency shall consider compliance by any contractor with the requirements of any federal, state or local law concerning minority business enterprises or equal employment opportunity, which may effectuate the requirements of this section. If the contracting agency determines that by virtue of the imposition of the requirements of any such law, in respect to contracts affected by this section, that the provisions thereof duplicate or conflict with such law, the contracting agency shall waive the applicability of this section to the extent of such duplication or conflict.

5. In order to implement the requirements and objectives of this section, contracting agencies shall be responsible for monitoring the contractors' compliance with the provisions hereof, for advising contractors on the availability of competing qualified minority business enterprises to perform contracts proposed to be awarded and for making recommendations to contractors to improve the access of minority business enterprises to such contracts.

§ 1115-y. Audit and annual report. The accounts of the authority and the water board shall be subject to the supervision of the city comptroller. The authority shall annually submit to the governor and comptroller and to the state legislature a detailed report pursuant to the provisions of section two thousand five hundred of title one of article nine of this chapter, and a copy of such report shall be filed with the mayor. The authority shall comply with the provisions of sections two thousand five hundred one, two thousand five hundred two, and two thousand five hundred three of title one of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1115-z. Limited liability. Neither the members of the authority or the water board, nor any officer or employee of the authority or the water board acting in behalf thereof, while acting within the scope of his authority, shall be subject to any liability resulting from (i) the construction, ownership, maintenance or operation of any project financed with the assistance of the authority, (ii) the construction, ownership, maintenance or operation of any sewerage system or facility or water system or facility owned by the water board, or (iii) carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title. Any member of the authority, either appointed by the governor or an employee of the state shall be deemed an "employee" for purposes of section eighteen of the public officers law for any actions relating to their activities as a member of the authority created by this state.

§ 1115-aa. Separability. If any section, clause or provision in this title shall be held by a competent court to be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective, and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1115-bb. Effect of inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of the city charter, or any local law, ordinance or resolution of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling, provided that, nothing contained in this section shall be held to supplement or otherwise expand the powers or duties of the authority otherwise set forth in this title. Nothing contained in this title shall be held to alter or abridge the powers and duties of the state department of environmental conservation or the state department of health.

TITLE 6-A

ALBANY WATER BOARD

§ 1116. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "Albany water board act".

§ 1118. Albany water board. For the benefit of the city of Albany and the inhabitants thereof, a water board to be known as the Albany water board is hereby established for the accomplishment of any or all of the purposes specified in title six of article five of this chapter. It shall have the powers and duties now or hereafter conferred by title six of article five of this chapter upon a water board. It shall be organized in a manner prescribed by and be subject to the provisions of title six of article five of this chapter. The water board, its members, officers and employees and its operations and activities shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of title six of article five of this chapter.

TITLE 6-B

CLIFTON PARK WATER AUTHORITY

§ 1120. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "Clifton Park water authority act".

27. "Watershed rules" means the rules and regulations made by the department of health pursuant to section eleven hundred of the public health law.

§ 1120-b. Clifton Park water district. There is hereby defined and established an area to be known as the "Clifton Park water district" which shall embrace all the territory located within the town of Clifton Park, provided that the authority shall only be empowered to exercise its corporate powers under this article within the Rexford Water District No. 1 with respect to sewer districts located therein.

§ 1120-c. Clifton Park water authority. 1. A public corporation to be known as the Clifton Park water authority, is hereby created for the public purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation, the objects of which in the judgment of the legislature cannot be attained under general laws. The authority shall be governed by a board of five members, who shall be residents of the town of Clifton Park and be appointed by the Clifton Park town board. The first members shall be appointed for the following terms of office: the two most junior council members on the town board shall each appoint one member for a term ending on December thirty-first of the third year following the year in which this title shall have become law; the other two council members on the town board shall each appoint one member for a term ending on December thirty-first of the fourth year following the year in which this title shall have become law; and the town supervisor shall appoint a member for a term ending on December thirty-first of the fifth year following the year in which this title shall have become law. No elected officials shall be members of the water authority. Subsequent appointments of members shall be made by a vote of the majority of the members of the town board for a term of five years ending in each case on December thirty-first of the last year of such term. All members shall continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and qualify. In no event shall more than three members belong to the same political party. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for subsequent appointments. Vacancies, occurring otherwise than by expiration of term of office, shall be filled for the unexpired terms. Members may be removed from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as may be provided by law for the removal of officers of the town. They shall receive no reimbursement for the ordinary expenses of attending meetings, but may by resolution of the authority be allowed their expenses of a special or extraordinary nature.

2. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and be exercised by the board at a meeting duly called and held where a quorum of three members are present. No action shall be taken except pursuant to the favorable vote of at least three members. The board may delegate to one or more of its members, officers, agents or employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

3. The officers of the authority shall consist of a chairman, vice-chairman and a treasurer, who shall be members of the authority, and a secretary, who need not be a member of the authority. The chairman shall be appointed by the town supervisor for a one year term coinciding with the calendar year and the remaining officers shall be appointed by the chairman and shall act in such capacities at the pleasure of the chairman. The chairman may be appointed to subsequent terms without limitations. In addition to the secretary, the board may appoint and at pleasure remove such additional officers and employees as it may determine necessary or desirable for the performance of the powers and duties of the authority which positions shall be in exempt class of civil service, and fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law of the state and such rules as the civil service commission may adopt and make applicable to the authority. The board may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the board and the premium therefor shall be paid by the authority.

4. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of any general, special or local law, ordinance, resolution or charter, no officer, member or employee of the state, any municipality, or any public benefit corporation, shall forfeit his or her office or employment by reason of his or her acceptance or appointment as a member, officer, agent or employee of the authority, nor shall service as such member, officer, agent or employee be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office, membership or employment; provided, however, that no elected official shall be a member of the authority.

5. (a) The town supervisor shall file on or before March thirty-first of the year following the year in which this title shall have become a law, in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate signed by the town supervisor setting forth:

(1) the name of the authority;

(2) the names of the members appointed by the town board and their terms of office; and

(3) the effective date of this title. The authority shall be perpetual in duration, except that if such certificate is not filed with the secretary of state on or before such date, then the corporate existence of the authority shall thereupon terminate and it shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be dissolved. The town supervisor may file in the office of the secretary of state an amended certificate signed by him or her setting forth any change in the name of the authority. The failure of the town supervisor to file an amended certificate shall not in any way affect the corporate existence of the authority.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the payment or satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and vest in the town.

6. Neither the public service commission nor any other board or commission of like character, shall have jurisdiction over the authority in the management and control of its properties or operations or any power over the regulations of rates fixed or charges collected by the authority.

7. It is hereby determined and declared, that the authority and the carrying out of its powers and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the town and the state for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that such purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

8. In carrying out its functions the authority shall take into consideration the local zoning and planning regulations as well as local comprehensive land use plans.

§ 1120-d. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have the power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To borrow money and issue bonds or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. To enter into contracts and execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title;

5. To acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease or by condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law, lease as lessee, hold, and use any real or personal property or any interest therein, as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the purpose of this title; provided however, that the authority may not condemn real property of a municipality without the consent of the governing body of such municipality;

6. To purchase, in the name of the authority, any water facility, and any improvements, extensions and betterments, situated wholly within the district, provided, however, that the authority shall have the power to purchase any source of supply, supply facility, water supply system or transmission facility or any part thereof situated wholly or partly without the territorial limits of the district, provided the same shall be necessary in order to supply water within the district; and in connection with the purchase of such properties, the authority may assume any obligations of the owner of such properties and, to the extent required by the terms of any indentures or other instruments under which such obligations were issued, the authority may assume and agree to perform covenants and observe the restrictions contained in such instruments; and furthermore, the owner of any properties, which the authority is authorized to acquire, is hereby authorized to sell or otherwise transfer the same to the authority, whereupon the authority shall have become charged with the performance of all public duties with respect to such properties with which such owner was charged and such owner shall have become discharged from the performance thereof, and as a means of so acquiring for such purpose, the authority may purchase all of the stock of any existing privately owned water corporation or company and in the case of a sale or other transfer of properties of a public utility corporation pursuant to this provision, upon the purchase of the stock of such corporation or company it shall be lawful to dissolve such corporation within a reasonable time;

7. To construct, improve, maintain, develop, expand or rehabilitate water facilities and to pay the costs thereof;

8. To operate and manage and to contract for the operation and management of properties of the authority;

9. To enter into contracts, and carry out the terms thereof, for the wholesale provision of water produced by supply facilities constructed, owned or operated by the authority, to municipalities and private water companies and to carry out the terms thereof, for the transmission of water from new or existing supply facilities;

9-a. To enter into cooperative agreements and contracts with the town of Clifton Park pursuant to article five-G of the general municipal law to render maintenance and repair services to sewer districts located in the town of Clifton Park.

10. To take all necessary and reasonable actions within the district to conserve, preserve and protect the water supply to the district, including the making of plans and studies, the adoption of watershed rules and regulations, the enforcing of compliance with all current and future rules and regulations of the state sanitary code with regard to water supply and usage, the requiring of cross-connection controls, the providing of educational material and programs to the public, and the cooperating with water suppliers outside the district to conserve, preserve and protect the entire water reserve as it is affected within and outside the authority's supply area;

11. To apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal, state and local governments for such licenses, permits or approvals of its plans or projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate, and to accept, in its discretion, such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies and officials;

12. To appoint such officers and employees as are required for the performance of its duties, to fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers, and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

13. To make plans and studies necessary, convenient or desirable for the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

14. To enter upon such lands, waters or premises as in the judgment of the authority shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purposes authorized by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damage done;

15. To apply for and to accept any gifts or grants or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any agency or instrumentality thereof or from any other source, for any or all of the purposes specified in this title, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof;

16. To obtain, store, treat, distribute, supply and sell water for domestic, commercial and public purposes at retail to individual consumers within the district;

17. To purchase water in bulk from any person, private corporation, public corporation or municipality when necessary or convenient for the operation of such water system;

18. To produce, develop, distribute and sell water or water services within or without the territorial limits of the district; and to purchase water from any public corporation, town water district, municipality, person, association or corporation; provided, however, that water services may be sold at retail to individual consumers only within the district and further provided that in exercising the powers granted by this title, the authority shall not sell water services in any area outside of the town (a) without town board approval and (b) in any area which is served by a water system owned or operated by a municipality or special improvement district unless the governing body of such municipality or district shall adopt a resolution requesting the authority to sell water services in such served area;

19. To make and amend from time to time by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs and rules and regulations for the construction, preservation and protection of the authority's water supply and, subject to agreements with bondholders, rules for the sale of water and the collection of rents and charges therefor. A copy of such rules, regulations and by-laws, and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision eleven of this section, and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the authority shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the town. In addition, the town board by local law shall have power to prescribe that violation of specific by-laws, rules and regulations of the authority, published once in a newspaper having a general circulation in the town, shall be punishable by fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not longer than thirty days, or both;

20. To fix rates and collect charges for the use of the facilities of, or services rendered by, or any commodities furnished by the authority such as to provide revenues sufficient at all times to pay, as the same shall become due, the principal and interest on the bonds or other obligations of the authority together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, in addition to paying as the same shall become due the expense of operating and maintaining the properties of the authority together with proper maintenance reserves, capital reserves, repair reserves, tax stabilization reserves and other contingency reserves and all other obligations and indebtedness of the authority;

21. To enter into cooperative agreements with other authorities, municipalities, water districts, utility companies, individuals, firms or corporations, within or without the territorial limits of the district, for the interconnection of facilities, the exchange or interchange of services and commodities, and within the territorial limits of the district to enter into a contract for the construction and operation and maintenance of a water system by the authority for any municipality, public corporation or water district having power to construct and develop a water system, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable including but not limited to the reimbursement of all costs of such construction, or for any other lawful purpose necessary or desirable to effect the purposes of this title;

22. To provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of water service, for non-payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the authority, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any water service, shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law;

23. With the consent of the governing body of a municipality, to use officers and employees of such municipality and to pay a proper proportion of the compensation or costs for the services for such officers or employees; and

24. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

§ 1120-e. Advances on behalf of the authority; transfer of property to authority; acquisition of property by town for authority. 1. In addition to any powers granted to it by law, the town, from time to time, may appropriate sums of money to or on behalf of the authority to defray project costs or any other costs and expenses of the authority. Subject to the rights of bondholders, the town may determine if the moneys so appropriated shall be subject to repayment by the authority to the town and, in such event, the manner and time or times for such repayment.

2. The town or any other municipality may give, grant, sell, convey, loan, license the use of or lease to the authority any property or facility which is useful to the authority in order to carry out its powers under this title. Any such transfer of property shall be upon such terms and conditions, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds, as the authority and the town or other municipality may agree.

3. The town may acquire by purchase or by exercise of the power of eminent domain real property in the name of the town for any corporate purpose of the authority.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, general, special or local to the contrary, real property acquired by the authority or the town from the state may be used for any corporate purpose of the authority.

§ 1120-f. Governmental capacity of the authority and municipalities. The authority, the town and the other municipalities, in carrying out their respective powers and duties under this title, shall be deemed to be acting in a governmental capacity and in the performance of an essential governmental function.

§ 1120-g. Transfer of officers and employees. Any public officer or employee in the public service who is selected by the authority may, with the consent of the commission, board, or chief executive officer of the municipality by which he or she has been employed, be transferred to the authority and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to comparable offices, positions and employment under the authority. The salary or compensation of any such officer or employee, after such transfer, shall be paid by the authority. Any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority pursuant to this section, who are members of or benefit under any existing pension or retirement fund or system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund or system as are now prescribed by law, but during the period of their employment by the authority, all contributions to such fund or system to be paid by the employer on account of such officers and employees shall be paid by the authority. All such officers or employees so transferred to the authority who have been appointed to positions under the rules and classifications of the civil service commission shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointment.

§ 1120-h. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds in such principal amounts as it may determine to be necessary to pay the cost of any project or for any other corporate purpose, including incidental expenses in connection therewith. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to enter into such agreements and perform such acts as may be required under any applicable federal legislation to secure a federal guarantee of any bonds. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. Bonds issued by the authority may be general obligations secured by the faith and credit of the authority or may be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other moneys as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject only to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular revenues, earnings, or moneys.

2. The authority is authorized to obtain from any department or agency of the United States of America or the state or any nongovernmental insurer or financial institution any insurance, guarantee or other credit support device, to the extent now or hereafter available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest or principal or premium, or any of the foregoing, or any part thereof, on any bonds issued by the authority and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to any such insurance or guarantee, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of outstanding bonds of the authority.

3. Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, and may be in such denominations and bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times as such resolution may provide, except that bonds and any renewals thereof shall mature within forty years from the date of original issuance of any such bonds. Obligations with a maturity of five years or less from the date of their original issuance may be designated as notes. Bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates per annum payable at such times, be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, provided that no bonds of the authority, other than obligations designated as notes, may be sold by the authority at private sale unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by the comptroller, where such sale is not to be to such comptroller, or by the state director of the division of the budget, where such sale is to be to the comptroller. The authority may pay all expenses, premiums and commissions which it may deem necessary or advantageous in connection with the issuance and sale of bonds.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the authority, together with any other moneys or property of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, including, but not limited to, any contracts, earnings or proceeds of any grant to the authority received from any private or public source;

(b) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(c) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(d) the rates, rents, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected by the authority and the amount to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of revenues;
(e) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;
(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;
(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;
(h) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or moneys may be deposited;
(i) the terms and provisions of any trust, deed, mortgage or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;
(j) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section eleven hundred twenty-i of this title and limiting or abrogating the rights of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;
(k) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;
(l) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any project or any part thereof;
(m) limitations on the amount of revenues and other moneys to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(o) any other matters of like or different character which may in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of bondholders.

5. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including the mortgaging of any of its property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys or properties and the doing of any act (including refraining from doing any act) which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have the power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

6. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

7. Whether or not the bonds are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

8. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing bonds shall be liable personally thereon or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

9. The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as then may exist, shall have power out of any moneys available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority, which shall thereupon be cancelled, at a price not exceeding:

(a) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable, plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date;

(b) if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date.

§ 1120-i. Remedies of bondholders. Subject to any resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to paragraph (j) of subdivision four of section one thousand one hundred twenty-h of this title:

1. In the event that the authority shall default in the principal of or interest on any issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the town and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purpose herein provided.

2. Such trustee may and, upon written request of the holders of twenty-five percent in principal amount of such bonds outstanding, shall in his, her or its own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect rents, rates and charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such rents, rates and charges and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five percent of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Saratoga, New York.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the properties the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and subject to any pledge or agreement with holders of such bonds, such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of such properties and proceed with any construction thereon or the acquisition of any property, real or personal, in connection therewith which the authority is under obligation to do, and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the properties and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from the properties.

§ 1120-j. State and town not liable on authority bonds. Neither the state nor the town shall be liable on the bonds of the authority and such bonds shall not be a debt of the state, or the town, and such bonds shall contain, on the face thereof, a statement to such effect.

§ 1120-k. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks in the state designated by the board. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the treasurer upon requisition by the board or of such other person or persons as the board may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state or of the town of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any moneys of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested in those obligations specified pursuant to the provisions of section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders and with the approval of the comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

§ 1120-l. Bonds legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officials and bodies of the state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and be received by all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities for any purposes for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or hereafter may be authorized.

§ 1120-m. Agreement of the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the state will not alter or limit the rights hereby vested in the authority to negotiate, purchase, construct, maintain, operate, repair, improve, increase, enlarge, extend, reconstruct, renovate, rehabilitate or dispose of any project or any part or parts thereof, for which bonds of the authority shall have been issued, to establish and collect rates, rents, fees and other charges referred to in this title and to fulfill the terms of any agreement made with or for the benefit of the holders of the bonds or with any public corporation or person with reference to the bondholders, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, including interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the bondholders.

§ 1120-n. Exemption from taxes, assessments and certain fees. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the town and the state and is a public purpose and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any property owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision or upon its activities, or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf; provided, however, that any real property owned or under the jurisdiction, supervision or control of the authority outside of the district shall be exempt from real property taxes, ad valorem levies or special assessments only pursuant to and to the extent provided by an agreement with the governing body of the municipality in which said real property is located. The construction, use, occupation or possession of any property owned by the authority or the town, including improvements thereon, by any person or public corporation under a lease, lease and sublease or any other agreement shall not operate to abrogate or limit the foregoing exemption, notwithstanding that the lessee, user, occupant or person in possession shall claim ownership for federal income tax purposes.

2. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, shall be exempt from taxation. For purposes of this subdivision, the phrase "exempt from taxation" means exempt from direct taxation in conformity with established judicial interpretation of the tax exempt status of the obligations of the state and its agencies, entities, authorities and political subdivisions and thus, the meaning of such phrase is in conformity with the legislative intent expressed by section twenty-two of chapter one hundred sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one regarding the tax exempt status of obligations of the state and its agencies. The revenues, moneys and other properties and activities of the authority shall be exempt from taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including real estate taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes except as otherwise provided in subdivision one of this section with respect to real property located outside the district.

3. The state hereby covenants with the purchaser and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the interest thereon shall be exempt from taxation. The state further covenants with the holders of such bonds that all revenues, moneys, and other property pledged to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from such taxation. For purposes of this subdivision, the phrase "exempt from taxation" means exempt from direct taxation in conformity with established judicial interpretation of the tax exempt status of the obligations of the state and its agencies, entities, authorities and political subdivisions and thus, the meaning of such phrase is in conformity with the legislative intent expressed by section twenty-two of chapter one hundred sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one regarding the tax exempt status of obligations of the state and its agencies.

§ 1120-o. Actions against the authority. 1. No action or special proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence or wrongful act of the authority or of any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless:

(a) a notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority within the time limit prescribed by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law;

(b) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused; and

(c) the action or special proceeding shall be commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based.

2. Wherever a notice of claim is served upon the authority, it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority may require any person, presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatever against the authority to be sworn before a member, counsel, officer or employee of the authority designated for such purpose concerning such account or claim and, when so sworn, to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

4. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment against its bonds, shall be the rate prescribed by section three-a of the general municipal law. Interest on payments of principal or interest on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate or rates set forth in such bonds from the due date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

§ 1120-p. Contracts. 1. All contracts or orders for work, material or supplies performed or furnished in connection with construction shall be awarded by the authority pursuant to resolution of the governing body except as hereinafter provided. Such awards, when applicable, shall be made in compliance with paragraph (e) of subdivision four and subdivision seven of section one hundred twenty-w of the general municipal law. In any construction contract, the authority may provide a program for the payment of damages for delays and incentive awards in order to encourage timely project completion. An action, suit or proceeding contesting the validity of a contract awarded pursuant to this section, or the validity of the procedures relating to such award, shall be governed by the provisions of subdivision six of section one hundred twenty-w of the general municipal law and the term "municipality" as used in such subdivision six shall mean the authority.

2. The bidder whose bid is accepted shall give security for the faithful performance of the contract, and such other security as the authority may require, and may be required to maintain any construction done under the contract for such period as shall be stipulated, all in the manner prescribed and required by the authority, and the sufficiency of such security shall, in addition to the justification and acknowledgment, be approved by the authority. All bids or proposals shall be publicly opened by the governing body or its duly authorized agent. If the bidder whose bid or proposal has been accepted after advertising shall neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him on his bid or proposal, or if he accepts but does not execute the contract and give proper security, the authority shall have the right to declare his deposit forfeited. In case any work shall be abandoned by any contractor, the authority may, if it determines that the public interest is thereby served, adopt on behalf of the authority any or all subcontracts made by such contractor for such work and all such subcontractors shall be bound by such adoption, if made. Every contract involving an expenditure of more than five thousand dollars when made and entered into as herein provided for shall be executed in duplicate, one copy of which shall be held by the authority and one copy of which shall be delivered to the contractor. The authority may adopt, utilize, ratify and confirm any request for proposals, invitation for sealed bids, plans, specifications and notices heretofore or hereafter published by the town with respect to any proposed project, and the authority may adopt, utilize, ratify, accept and confirm any bids or proposals submitted to the town and heretofore or hereafter received and publicly opened by the town. The provisions of this section shall supersede any inconsistent provisions of the general municipal law, and other general, special or local law, or the charter of the town; provided, however, the provisions of the ethics law of the town shall apply to the authority and its members. The authority shall be deemed to be an authority for purposes of section twenty-eight hundred seventy-eight of this chapter.

§ 1120-q. Interest in contracts prohibited. It shall be a misdemeanor for any member of the governing body or any officer, agent, servant or employee of the authority to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly, in the furnishing of work, materials, supplies or labor, in any contract therefor which the authority is empowered by this title to make.

§ 1120-r. Audit and annual report. In conformity with the provisions of section five of article ten of the constitution, the accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the comptroller. The authority shall annually submit to the governor and state comptroller and to the state legislature a detailed report pursuant to the provisions of section two thousand five hundred of title one of article nine of this chapter, and a copy of such report shall be filed with the town supervisor. The authority shall comply with the provisions of sections two thousand five hundred one, two thousand five hundred two, and two thousand five hundred three of title one of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1120-s. Limited liability. Neither the members of the governing body, nor any municipality, officer or employee acting in its behalf, while acting within the scope of their authority, shall be subject to any personal liability resulting from the construction, maintenance or operation of any of the properties of the authority or from carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title; provided, however, that this section shall not be held to apply to any independent contractor.

§ 1120-t. Environmental applications, proceedings, approvals and permits. 1. Any application in relation to the purposes of or contemplated by this title heretofore filed, or any proceeding heretofore commenced, by the town with the state department of environmental conservation, the department of transportation or any other state agency or instrumentality or with the United States environmental protection agency or any other federal agency or instrumentality shall inure to and for the benefit of the authority to the same extent and in the same manner as if the authority had been a party to such application or proceeding from its inception, and the authority shall be deemed a party thereto, to the extent not prohibited by any federal law. Any license, approval, permit or decision heretofore or hereafter issued or granted pursuant to or as a result of any such application or proceeding shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the authority and shall be assigned and transferred by the town to the authority, unless such assignment and transfer is prohibited by federal law.

2. All such applications, proceedings, licenses, approvals, permits and decisions shall further inure to and for the benefit of and be binding upon any person leasing, acquiring, constructing, maintaining, using or occupying any facility financed in whole or in part by the authority.

§ 1120-u. Town may levy tax within district. Should it appear to the town board at any time that the revenue of the authority is or will be insufficient to provide for the payment of any bonds issued under this title and to reimburse the town for any moneys that it may have advanced to the authority, the town board shall determine the amount of money necessary to be raised for such purpose, and shall levy a tax on the territory of the district located within the town and upon the several parcels of real estate in the district located within the town in an amount sufficient to produce the amount necessary to be raised as aforesaid; provided that such tax shall not be levied to pay any bonds of the authority unless the authority with the consent of the town board has pledged such tax prior to the issuance of such bonds. Such tax shall be levied and apportioned upon such territory located within the town and collected from the several parcels of real estate in the district located within the town in like manner as other town taxes. It is hereby determined that the liability imposed upon the territory included in the district located within the town is based upon the special benefit to such territory accruing under this title and that the tax to be levied because of such liability and in proportion to the taxable value of real estate in such territory will be in proportion to such benefits.

§ 1120-v. Contracts for design, construction, service and materials. For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law only, the authority shall be deemed a state agency as that term is used in such article, and its contracts for design, construction, services and materials shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article.

§ 1120-w. Separability. If any section, clause or provisions of this title shall be held by a competent court to be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective, and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1120-x. Effect of inconsistent provisions. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any charter, local law, ordinance or resolution of the town, or other municipality, the provisions of this title shall be controlling. Nothing contained in this section shall be held to supplement or otherwise expand the powers or duties of the authority otherwise set forth in this title.

* TITLE 6-C

DUTCHESS COUNTY WATER AND WASTEWATER AUTHORITY

Section 1121*2. Short title.

* NB There are 2 Title 6-C's

 § 1121. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "Dutchess county water and wastewater authority act".
* NB There are 2 § 1121's

1. "Authority" means the corporation created by section eleven hundred twenty-three of this title.

2. "Bonds" means the bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the authority pursuant to this title, and the provisions of this title relating to bonds and bondholders shall apply with equal force and effect to notes and noteholders, respectively, unless the context otherwise clearly requires.

3. "Civil service commission" means the civil service commission of the county of Dutchess.

4. "Comptroller" means the comptroller of the state.

5. "Construct", "construction" or "constructed" means the acquisition, erection, building, alteration, improvement, increase, enlargement, extension, reconstruction, renovation or rehabilitation of a water, sewerage or water and sewerage facility, as the case may be; the inspection and supervision thereof; and the engineering, architectural, legal, fiscal and economic investigations and studies, surveys, designs, plans, working drawings, specifications, procedure and other actions preliminary or incidental thereto.

6. "Cost" as applied to any project, includes the cost of construction, the cost of the acquisition of all property, including real property and other property, both real, personal and mixed and improved and unimproved, the cost of the demolishing, removing or relocating any buildings or structures on lands so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved or relocated, the cost of all water facilities, sewerage facilities, water and sewerage facilities, machines, apparatus and equipment, financing charges and bond discount, interest prior to, during and after construction to the extent not paid or provided for

from revenues or other sources, the cost of engineering and architectural surveys, plans and specifications, the cost of consultant and legal services, the cost of bond or lease guarantee, bond insurance or any other credit support device and the cost of other expenses necessary or incidental to the construction of any project and the financing of the construction thereof, including the amount authorized in the resolution of the authority providing for the issuance of bonds to be paid into any reserve or other special funds from the proceeds of such bonds and the financing of the placing of any project in operation, including reimbursement to the county, or any municipality, state agency, the state, the United States government, or any other person for expenditures that would be costs of the project hereunder had they been made directly by the authority.

7. "County" means the county of Dutchess.

8. "County executive" means the county executive of the county, being the chief executive officer of the county.

9. "County legislature" means the county legislature of the county.

11. "Governing body" means the members of the authority constituting and acting as the governing body of the authority.

12. "Municipality" means any county, city, town, village, or improvement district under the town law, any other such instrumentality, including any agency, or public corporation of the state, or any of the foregoing or any combination thereof.

13. "Person" means any natural person, partnership, association, joint venture or corporation, exclusive of a public corporation.

14. "Project" means any water, sewerage or water and sewerage facility, as the case may be.

15. "Properties" means water, sewerage or water and sewerage facility or facilities, including the plants, works, structures, instrumentalities or part thereof and appurtenances thereto, real property, or any other property incidental to and included in such facility or facilities or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions and betterments.

16. "Real property" means lands, structures, franchise, rights and interests in land, waters, lands under water, riparian rights and air rights and any and all things and rights included within said term and includes not only fees simple absolute, but also any and all lesser interests including, but not limited to, easements, rights-of-way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise.

17. "Revenues" means all rates, fees, charges, payments and other income and receipts derived from the operation of the properties of the authority including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, investment proceeds and proceeds of insurance, condemnation, and sale or other disposition of assets, together with all federal, state or municipal aid, if any.

18. "Sewage" means the water-carried human or animal wastes from residences, buildings, industrial establishments or other places, together with such groundwater infiltration and surface water as may be present. The admixture with sewage of industrial or other waste also shall be considered "sewage" within the meaning of this title.

19. "Sewerage facility" or "sewerage facilities" means any plants, structures and other real and personal property acquired, rehabilitated or constructed or planned for the purpose of collecting, treating and disposing of sewage, including main, trunk, intercepting, connecting, lateral, outlet or other sewers, outfall, pumping stations, treatment and disposal plants, groundwater recharge basins, back-flow prevention devices, sludge dewatering or disposal equipment and facilities, clarifiers, filters, phosphorus removal equipment, and other plants, structures, equipment, vehicles, conveyances, real or personal property or rights therein and appurtenances thereto necessary or useful and convenient for the collection, conveyance, pumping, treatment, neutralizing, storing and disposing of sewage.

* NB There are 2 § 1122's

 § 1123. Dutchess county water and wastewater authority. 1. A public corporation, to be known as the "Dutchess county water and wastewater authority" is hereby created for the public purpose and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation and shall be a "public district" for purposes of section eighty-nine-l of the public service law, the objects of which in the judgment of the legislature cannot be attained under general laws. The governing body of the authority shall consist of a total of five voting members, two of whom shall be appointed by the county executive, without confirmation of the county legislature, two of whom shall be appointed by the chairman of the county legislature, without confirmation of the county legislature and without county executive right to veto, and one of whom shall be appointed jointly by the county executive and the chairman of the county legislature, subject to confirmation by the county legislature, and of three non-voting ex officio members, one of whom shall be the manager of the county soil and water conservation district, one of whom shall be the executive director of the environmental management council and one of whom shall be the county commissioner of planning, or their designated representatives. No voting member shall, either at the time of his or her appointment or at any time during which he or she shall serve as a voting member, be a member of the county legislature, a town board, village board of trustees, city council, common council, board of estimate and apportionment, board of estimate and contract, or member of a body serving a similar function in a city, or a member of a body serving a similar function of a sewer or water district which, as of December thirty-first, nineteen hundred thirty-eight, possessed both the power to contract indebtedness in its own name and to levy taxes or benefit assessments upon real property or require the levy of such taxes or benefit assessments. The election or appointment of a voting member to any such office or membership shall result in a vacancy in the position of such voting member effective the date of the assumption of such office or membership. The first members appointed by the county executive shall be appointed for the following terms of office: one for a term ending on December thirty-first of the second year following the year in which this title shall have become law and one for a term ending on December thirty-first of the fifth year following the year in which this title shall have become law. The first members appointed by the county legislature shall have the following terms: one for a term ending on December thirty-first of the first year following the year in which this title shall have become law and one for a term ending on December thirty-first of the fourth year following the year in which this title shall have become law. The first member jointly appointed by the county executive and the county legislature shall have a term of office ending on December thirty-first of the third year following the year in which this title shall have become law. Subsequent appointments of voting members shall be made for a term of five years ending in each case on December thirty-first of the last year of such term. No person who has served as a voting member for two consecutive terms shall be eligible for reappointment as a member for a third term, except after an interval of at least two years. Any initial term or unexpired term greater than two years shall be considered to be a five year term. All voting members shall continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and qualify. Vacancies shall be filed in the manner provided for original appointment. Vacancies, occurring otherwise than by expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired terms. Voting members may be removed from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as may be provided by law for the removal of officers of the county. The members of the authority shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the carrying out of the purposes of this title. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and be exercised by the governing body at a meeting duly called and held where a quorum of three voting members are present. No action shall be taken except pursuant to the favorable vote of at least three voting members. The governing body may delegate to one or more of its members, officers, agents or employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

2. The officers of the authority shall consist of a chairman, who shall be a voting member of the authority, and a vice-chairman and a treasurer, who shall be voting members of the authority, and a secretary, who need not be either a voting member or a non-voting member of the authority. Such officers shall be appointed by the voting member of the governing body and shall serve in such capacities at the pleasure of the voting members of the governing body. In addition to the secretary, the voting members of the governing body may appoint and at pleasure remove such additional officers and employees as it may determine necessary for the performance of the powers and duties of the authority and fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law. The voting members of the governing body may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the governing body and the premium therefor shall be paid by the authority.

3. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of any general, special or local law, ordinance, resolution or charter, no officer, member or employee of the state, any municipality, or any public benefit corporation, shall forfeit his or her office or employment by reason of his or her acceptance of appointment as a member, officer, agent or employee of the authority, nor shall service as such member, officer, agent or employee be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office, membership or employment and any such officer, member or employee may accept such appointment and serve as a member, officer, agent or employee of the authority without forfeiture of any other office or position of public employment by reason thereof.

4. (a) The county executive shall file on or before December thirty-first of the year in which this title shall have become a law, in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate signed by the county executive setting forth: (1) the name of the authority; (2) the names of the voting members initially appointed, and their terms of office; (3) the names of the ex officio members, and (4) the effective date of this title. The authority shall be perpetual in duration, except that if such certificate is not filed with the secretary of state on or before such date, then the corporate existence of the authority shall thereupon terminate and it shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be dissolved.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law; provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the payment or satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and vest in the county.

5. It is hereby determined and declared, that the authority and the carrying out of its powers and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the county and the state for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that such purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

* NB There are 2 § 1123's

 § 1124. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have the power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To borrow money and issue bonds or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. To enter into contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title;

5. To acquire by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease or by condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law, lease as lessee, hold, and use any real or personal property or any interest therein, as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the purpose of this title. In connection with the acquisition of such properties, the authority may assume any obligations of the owner of such properties and, to the extent required by the terms of any indentures or other instruments under which such obligations were issued, the authority may assume and agree to perform covenants and observe the restrictions contained in such instruments; and furthermore the owner or any properties which the authority is authorized to acquire, is hereby authorized to sell or otherwise transfer the same to the authority, whereupon the authority shall become charged with the performance of all public duties with respect to such properties with which such owner was charged and such owner shall become discharged from the performance thereof, and as a means of so acquiring for such purpose, the authority may purchase all of the stock of any existing privately owned water or sewage corporation or company and in the case of a sale or other transfer of properties of a public utility corporation pursuant to this provision, upon the purchase of the stock of such corporation or company it shall be lawful to dissolve such corporation within a reasonable time, and in the case of an acquisition of properties from a municipality pursuant to this provision, it may assume the primary responsibility for the payment of any bonds or notes issued by such municipality for such properties;

6. To develop, construct or maintain a project; provided, however, that the authority shall not enter into any contract for the construction of a project without having first submitted such project, following completion of compliance with the requirements of the state environmental quality review act and the regulations promulgated in connection therewith in connection with such project, to the county legislature for county legislative review, as herein described. For purposes of such county legislative review, construction shall not include such engineering, architectural, legal, fiscal and economic investigations and studies, surveys, designs, plans, procedures and other actions necessary or reasonably required to develop a project or to present a project to the county legislature for county legislative review. County legislative review shall encompass a process by which the county legislature shall have the opportunity to review and deny a project proposed to be constructed by the authority. County legislative review shall commence with the authority's delivering, by mail or personally, to the clerk of the county legislature a notification that the authority proposes to construct a project. Such notification shall include a description of the project, the proposed cost and the proposed plan for the financing of such cost and such engineering, architectural, fiscal and economic investigations and studies, surveys, designs and plans prepared by the authority in connection with the project. Following receipt of such notification, the county legislature shall take such action as it may determine in its discretion to be appropriate in connection with its review of the project, which action may include adoption of a resolution, by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the entire voting strength of the county legislature, to deny to the authority the right to construct the project, which vote, to be effective, shall be cast at a meeting held no later than the second consecutive regular meeting of the county legislature following delivery to the clerk of the county legislature of the notification herein described. The date of delivery of notification shall be the date on which such notification shall be actually received by the clerk of the county legislature. If the then current rules and regulations of the county legislature require the filing of a resolution with the clerk of the county legislature to be a specified number of days prior to a meeting of the county legislature for introduction of such resolution at such meeting, such notification shall be deemed to be a resolution and shall be subject to such filing requirement. If the county legislature shall so vote to deny to the authority the right to construct a project, the resolution to so deny shall be submitted to the county executive in such manner and at such time as is provided in the county charter for resolutions subject to approval or disapproval by the county executive. If the county executive shall, within the time permitted for such action, disapprove such resolution, such resolution shall be of no force and effect unless the county legislature shall override such disapproval in such manner and at such time as is provided in the county charter for such action. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the resubmission by the authority to the county legislature at any time of a proposed project which has been previously disapproved;

7. To operate and manage and to contract for the operation and management of properties of the authority;

8. To lease properties of the authority to the county or any other municipality in the county, or any instrumentality thereof, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined by the authority, the county, the municipality or such instrumentality, as the case may be;

9. To apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal, state and local governments for such licenses, permits or approvals of its plans or projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate, and to accept, in its discretion, such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies and officials;

10. To appoint such officers and employees as are required for the performance of its duties, to fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

11. To make plans and studies necessary, convenient or desirable for the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

12. To enter upon such lands, waters or premises as in the judgment of the authority shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damage done;

13. To apply for and to accept any gifts or grants or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any agency or instrumentality thereof or from any other source, for any or all of the purposes specified in this title, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof;

14. To supply and sell water for domestic, commercial and public purposes at retail to individual consumers within the county or wholesale to municipalities, water districts or district corporations within the county and to collect, treat and discharge sewage produced for such purposes by such generators; provided, however, that the authority shall not sell water at retail to individual consumers or contract with individual consumers for the collection or treatment of sewage where such individual consumers are located in a municipality, water district, sewer district or district corporation which is empowered to provide water or sewer services, as the case may be, unless the authority shall have first notified, in writing, by certified mail, such municipality, water district, sewer district or district corporation that it intends to sell water at retail to individual consumers located therein or collect or treat sewage from individual consumers located therein, as the case may be, identified either by name or location or by the area to be served, and such municipality, water district, sewer district or district corporation does not notify the authority, within sixty days of receipt of such notice, that it objects to the authority selling water or collecting or treating sewage, as the case may be, to such individual consumers;

15. To purchase water in bulk from any person, private corporation or municipality when necessary or convenient for the operation of any water facility;

16. To enter into cooperative agreements with other authorities, municipalities, water districts, sewer districts, district corporations, utility companies, individuals, or corporations, within or without the county, for any lawful purposes necessary or desirable to effect the purposes of this title upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable;

17. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs and subject to agreements with bondholders, rules for the sale of water or the collection of sewage and the collection of rates, rents and charges therefor. A copy of such rules and by-laws, and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the authority shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county and shall be published thereafter once in each of two newspapers having a general circulation in the county. Violations of such rules shall be punishable by fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not longer than thirty days, or both;

18. To fix rates and collect charges for the use of the facilities of, any services rendered by or any commodities furnished by the authority such as to provide revenues sufficient at all times to pay, as the same shall become due, the principal and interest on the bonds or other obligations of the authority together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, in addition to paying as the same shall become due the expense of operating and maintaining the properties of the authority together with proper reserves for maintenance, contingencies and all other obligations and indebtedness of the authority; provided, however, that nothing contained in this subdivision, or in this title, shall empower the authority to collect rentals, charges, rates or fees from the owners of real estate, or the occupants of real estate (other than the occupants of premises owned or occupied by the authority or by the state or any civil division thereof) located in any city unless the electors of such city shall approve the granting to the authority of such powers by a majority vote at a general or special election in such city;

19. To utilize the service of officers and employees of the county and to pay a proper portion of compensation or costs for the services of such officers or employees with the consent of the county executive, and upon notice to the chair of the county legislature;

20. To provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of the supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, for non-payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the authority, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any supply of water or the provision of sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law; and

21. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.
* NB There are 2 § 1124's

 § 1125. Appropriations for purposes of the authority; transfer of property to authority; acquisition of property by county or other municipality within the county for authority; contracts with county or other municipality. 1. In addition to any powers granted to it by law, the county legislature, or the finance board, as such term is defined in the local finance law, of any other municipality in the county, may, from time to time, appropriate by resolution sums of money for purposes of the authority to defray project costs or any other costs and expenses of the authority or to pay amounts payable or anticipated to be payable to the authority pursuant to any contract or lease authorized by this title. Subject to the rights of bondholders, such county legislature or finance board may determine if the moneys so appropriated shall be subject to repayment by the authority to the appropriate municipality and, in such event, the manner and time or times for such repayment. In the event there shall remain at the end of any fiscal year of the county or any such municipality an unexpended balance of any such appropriation, such unexpended balance shall remain on deposit in the fund or account and such appropriation shall not lapse.

2. The county or any other municipality with the county, may give, grant, sell, convey, loan, license the use of or lease to the authority any properties which are useful to the authority in order to carry out its powers under this title. Any such transfer of properties shall be for such term and upon such terms and conditions, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds, as the authority and the county or such other municipality may agree, including provision for the authority to assume the primary responsibility for the payment of any bonds or notes issued by the county or such other municipality for such properties.

3. The county or any other municipality within the county may acquire by purchase or by exercise of the power of eminent domain real property in the name of the county or such other municipality for any corporate purpose of the authority.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, general, special or local to the contrary, real property acquired by the authority, the county or any other municipality within the county from the state may be used for any corporate purpose of the authority.

5. The county, one or more of the municipalities within the county, and the authority shall have the power to contract, from time to time, between or among themselves, in relation to the purchase, sale, production, accumulation, supply, transmission or treatment of water, the collection, transmission or treatment or disposal of sewage or both of the aforesaid, or the construction, use, sale and/or leasing, of any water, sewerage or water and sewerage facility of the authority, which contracts may include any or all of the following provisions: (i) requiring the purchase by the county or any such municipality of specified amounts of water; (ii) requiring the transmission by the county or any such municipality of specified amounts of sewage to the authority and the payment for the treatment or disposal of such sewage; (iii) requiring the use by the county or any such municipality of a water, sewerage or water and sewerage facility; (iv) limiting the right, including a prohibition, of the county or any such municipality to construct a water, sewerage or water and sewerage facility which will serve the same, or substantially the same, function as a water, sewerage or water and sewerage facility constructed or to be constructed by the authority; (v) requiring the authority to reserve capacity in any water, sewerage or water and sewerage facility to assure the availability to the county or any such municipality of a specified amount of water, the treatment or disposal of a specified amount of sewage, or of the use of any water, sewerage or water and sewerage facility; (vi) providing for specified minimum periodic payments whether or not water is actually taken and used, sewage is actually treated or disposed of, or such water, sewerage or water and sewerage facility is actually used, subject to such limitations, exceptions and provisions therein; (vii) requiring the county or any such municipality to pay to the authority such amounts as shall be necessary to assure the continued operation of the authority; and (viii) requiring any such municipality to pay to the county such amount as shall be necessary to assure that the periodic payments by the county to the authority will not result in an undue burden upon the residents of the county. All such payments shall be determined and paid in such manner and at such times as may be provided in such contracts.

6. Any gift, grant, sale, conveyance, loan, contract or lease authorized by this section may be made or entered into by the county, any other such municipality and, or, the authority and no such gift, grant, sale, conveyance, loan, contract or lease shall be subject to referendum, permissive or otherwise.

* NB There are 2 § 1125's

 § 1126. Governmental capacity of the authority and municipalities. The authority, the county and the other municipalities, in carrying out their respective powers and duties under this title, shall be deemed to be acting in a governmental capacity and in the performance of an essential governmental function.

* NB There are 2 § 1126's

 § 1127. Transfer of officers and employees. Any public officer or employee under civil service who is selected by the authority may, with the consent of the commission, board or chief executive officer of the municipality by which he or she has been employed, be transferred to the authority and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to comparable offices, positions and employment under the authority. The salary or compensation of any such officer or employee, after such transfer, shall be paid by the authority. Any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority pursuant to this section, who are members of or benefit under any existing pension or retirement fund or system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund or system as are now prescribed by law, but during the period of their employment by the authority, all contributions to such funds or systems to be paid by the employer on account of such officers or employee shall be paid by the authority. All such officers or employees so transferred to the authority who have been appointed to positions under the rules and classifications of the civil service commission shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointment.

 § 1128. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds in such principal amounts as it may determine to be necessary to pay the cost of any project or for any other corporate purpose, including incidental expenses in connection therewith. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. Bonds issued by the authority may be general obligations secured by the faith and credit of the authority or may be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other moneys as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject only to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular revenues, earnings or moneys.

2. The authority is authorized to obtain from any insurer or financial institution any insurance, guaranty or other credit support device, to the extent now or hereafter available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest or principal, or both, or any part thereof, on any bonds issued by the authority and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to any such insurance, guaranty or other credit support device, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of outstanding bonds of the authority.

3. (a) Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, be in such denominations, bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times as such resolution may provide, except that bonds and any renewals thereof shall mature within forty years from the date of their original issuance and notes and any renewals thereof shall mature within five years from the date of their original issuance. Bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates per annum, which may vary from time to time, as may be necessary to effect the sale thereof and shall be payable at such times, be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be subject to tender to the authority, with or without extinction or cancellation, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, provided that no bonds of the authority may be sold by the authority at private sale unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by the comptroller, where such sale is not to be to such comptroller, or by the state director of the budget, where such sale is to be to the comptroller.

(b) The state comptroller shall promulgate rules in conformance with the state administrative procedure act governing the sale on a negotiated basis of bonds, notes and certificates of participation by public authorities and public benefit corporations made subject to such rules by law. No such sale by the authority on a negotiated basis shall be conducted without prior approval of the state comptroller except as provided in such rules, which shall set forth the circumstances under which such approval shall not be required. Such rules shall be reviewed at least annually and updated as may be necessary. The corporation shall annually deliver to the senate finance committee, the assembly ways and means committee and the director of the division of the budget a report listing all such sales conducted in the previous year, including but not limited to the name of the issuer, the amount of the issue, the interest rate and interest cost per year for each such sale.

(c) Agreements for credit enhancement. (1) The authority is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into such agreements as it deems reasonable and appropriate, with any department or agency of the United States of America, the state, or any other financially responsible party, to facilitate the issuance, sale, resale and payment of bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of the authority, including, but not limited to letters of credit, lines of credit, revolving credit, bond insurance or other credit enhancements. Such agreements may provide for: (i) the advance or advances of funds on behalf of the authority to pay bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of the authority on their date or dates of maturity or redemption; and (ii) the reimbursement of such advance or advances by the authority.

(2) Such agreements may be executed on or before the date of issuance of the obligations to be paid pursuant thereto, provided, however, that any reimbursement obligation of the authority shall be deemed indebtedness of the authority; (i) only as of the date that the corresponding advance is made pursuant to subparagraph one of this paragraph; and (ii) only in the amount of the advance made pursuant to such subparagraph. Such agreements may include a pledge by the authority of its faith and credit for the payment of any indebtedness deemed to be contracted as set forth in this paragraph, and may provide that any such indebtedness arising from a reimbursement obligation contracted pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with the terms of such agreement. Such indebtedness shall be excluded in ascertaining the power of the authority to contract indebtedness pursuant to this chapter. Such agreements shall also include such terms and conditions as the authority shall deem appropriate, including provisions for the payment of reasonable fees by the authority in return for a commitment to advance funds pursuant to such agreement. Such fees shall be deemed part of the cost of the object or purpose in connection with which they are incurred.

(3) Prior to procurement of any credit or liquidity enhancements, the authority shall, to the extent practicable:

(i) consider the ability of the credit or liquidity enhancement provider to make required payments as and when due under the terms of the appropriate governing instruments;

(ii) consider the business reputation of the credit or liquidity enhancement provider;

(iii) consider the maximum term of the credit or liquidity enhancement relative to the maturity of the bonds, notes or other obligations being credit or liquidity enhanced;

(iv) provide for the right of substitution for the credit or liquidity enhancement provider in all agreements, including a provision permitting such substitution when the rating of the credit or liquidity enhancement provider falls below the probable credit rating of the issue without considering the credit or liquidity enhancer; and

(v) consider the cost of the credit or liquidity enhancement relative to the savings or other benefit likely to be achieved through the utilization of the credit or liquidity enhancement.

(4) Where the credit or liquidity enhancement procured is an irrevocable letter of credit or an acquisition arrangement with a liquidity enhancer, such instrument shall be:

(i) issued or confirmed by a bank holding company or its direct subsidiaries, a federally chartered bank or its subsidiaries, or a state chartered bank or its subsidiaries, licensed or authorized to do business in this state; and

(ii) issued or confirmed by an agency or branch of a foreign banking institution licensed to do business in this state with total worldwide assets in excess of five billion dollars.

(5) Any such issuing banking organization referred to in subparagraph four of this paragraph shall meet the regulatory guidelines for capital adequacy as promulgated by the appropriate federal banking agency as defined in the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. 1813(q).

(6) Where the credit or liquidity enhancement procured is provided by an insurance company, such insurer shall be licensed to write financial guarantee insurance in this state.

(7) The failure of the authority to comply with subparagraphs three through six of this paragraph shall not invalidate or impair any credit or liquidity enhancement contract or instrument.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of the authority, together with any other moneys or property of the authority, to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(c) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(d) the rates, rents, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected by the authority and the amount to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of revenues;

(e) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of any project or part hereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the portion of bondholders which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or moneys may be deposited;

(i) the terms and provisions of any trust, deed, mortgage or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(j) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section one thousand one hundred twenty-nine of this title and limiting or abrogating the rights of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(l) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any project or any part thereof;

(m) limitations on the amount of revenues and other moneys to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the

authority;

(n) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(o) any other matters of like or different character which may in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of bondholders.

5. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including the mortgaging of any of its properties and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys or properties and the doing of any act (including refraining from doing any act) which the authority would have to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

6. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge, or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

7. Whether or not the bonds are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

8. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing bonds shall be liable personally thereon or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

9. The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as then may exist, shall have power out of any moneys available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority, which shall thereupon be cancelled at a price not exceeding; (i) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date, or (ii) if the bonds are not then immediately redeemable then the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption, plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date.

 § 1129. Remedies of bondholders. Subject to any resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to paragraph (j) of subdivision four of section one thousand one hundred twenty-eight of this title:

1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal or of interest on any issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument of instruments filed in the office of the clerk of Dutchess county and provided or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purpose herein provided.

2. Such trustee may and, upon written request of the holders of twenty-five percent in principal amount of such bonds outstanding, shall in his, her or its own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect lease payments, rates and charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such lease payments, rates and charges and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the county and any other municipality and, or, the holders of such bonds to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five percent of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in Dutchess county.

5. Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days notice in writing to the authority.

6. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the properties the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and, subject to any pledge or agreement with holders of such bonds, such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the properties and shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from such part or parts of such properties and proceed with any construction thereon or the acquisition of any property, real or personal, in connection therewith which the authority is under obligation to do, and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the properties and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenue derived from the properties.

* NB There are 2 § 1129's

 § 1130. State, county nor other municipality, other than authority, not liable on authority bonds. Neither the state, the county nor any other municipality, other than the authority, shall be liable on the bonds of the authority and such bonds shall not be a debt of the state, the county nor any such municipality, and each such bond shall contain, on the face thereof, a statement to such effect.

* NB There are 2 § 1130's

 § 1131. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks in the state designated by the governing body. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the treasurer upon requisition by the governing body or of such other person or persons as the governing body may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of the county or of any other municipality within the county of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds as to the custody collection, security, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any moneys of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested in those obligations specified pursuant to the provisions of section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders and with the approval of the comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

* NB There are 2 § 1131's

 § 1132. Bonds legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officials and bodies of the state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever, who are not or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities for any purposes for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or hereafter may be authorized.

* NB There are 2 § 1132's

 § 1133. Agreement of the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the state will not alter or limit the rights hereby vested in the authority to purchase, construct, maintain, operate, repair, improve, increase, enlarge, extend, reconstruct, renovate, rehabilitate or dispose of any project, or any part or parts thereof, for which bonds of the authority shall have been issued, to establish and collect lease payments, rates, fees and other charges referred to in this title and to fulfill the terms of any agreement made with or for the benefit of the holders of the bonds or with any public corporation or person with reference to such project or part thereof, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, including interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged; provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to limit in any manner the ability of the state to alter, amend or enforce laws or regulations to protect public health and the environment. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with bondholders.
* NB There are 2 § 1133's

 § 1134. Exemption from taxes, assessments and certain fees. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the county and the state and is a public purpose and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any properties owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision or upon its activities, or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf; provided, however, that any real property acquired by the authority outside of the county shall be exempt from real property taxes, ad valorem levies and special assessments only pursuant to and to the extent provided by an agreement with the governing body of the municipality in which such real property is located. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the authority may enter into an agreement with any municipality in which real property of the authority is located or is to be located, to pay a sum or sums, annually or otherwise, or to provide other consideration to such municipality with respect to such real property.

2. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, shall be exempt from taxation. The revenues, moneys and other properties and activities of the authority, shall be exempt from all taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including real estate taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes. Any real property owned by the authority outside the county shall be subject to the provisions of subdivision one of this section. The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the interest thereon shall be exempt from taxation. The state further covenants with the holder of such bonds that all revenues, moneys and other property pledged to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from taxation, except for real property taxes on real property owned by the authority outside the county. For purposes of this subdivision, the phrase "exempt from taxation" means exempt from direct taxation in conformity with established judicial interpretation of the tax exempt status of the obligations of the state and its agencies, entities, authorities and political subdivisions and thus, the meaning of such phrase is in conformity with the legislative intent expressed by section twenty-two of chapter one hundred sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one regarding the tax exempt status of obligations of the state and its agencies.

* NB There are 2 § 1134's

 § 1135. Actions against authority. 1. No action or special proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence or wrongful act of the authority or of any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless (a) a notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority within the time limit prescribed by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law, (b) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused, and (c) the action or special proceeding shall be commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based.

2. Wherever a notice of claim is served upon the authority, it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority may require any person presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatever against the authority, to be sworn before a member, counsel, officer or employee of the authority designated for such purpose concerning such account or claim and, when so sworn, to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

4. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment on its bonds, shall be the rate prescribed by section three-a of the general municipal law. Interest on payments of principal or interest on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate or rates set forth in such bonds from the due date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

* NB There are 2 § 1135's

 § 1136. Construction and purchase contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction or purchase of supplies, materials or equipment pursuant to sections one hundred one and one hundred three of the general municipal law. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the powers of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1136's

 § 1137. Interest in contracts prohibited. It shall be a misdemeanor for any member of the governing body or any officer, agent, servant or employee of the authority to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly, in the furnishing or work, materials, supplies or labor, or in any contract therefor which the authority is empowered by this title to make.

* NB There are 2 § 1137's

 § 1138. Authority to take affirmative action. 1. The authority in awarding contracts for designs, construction, services or materials for projects authorized by this title shall ensure that all employees and applicants for employment are afforded equal opportunity without discrimination.

2. For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law only, the authority shall be deemed a state agency as that term is used in such article, and its contracts for design, construction, services and materials shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article.

* NB There are 2 § 1138's

 § 1139. Audit, annual report and information. In conformity with the provisions of section five of article ten of the constitution, the accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the comptroller. The authority shall annually submit to the governor and comptroller and to the state legislature a detailed report pursuant to the provisions of section two thousand five hundred of title one of article nine of this chapter, and a copy of such report shall be filed with both the county executive and with the county legislature. The authority shall comply with the provisions of sections two thousand five hundred one, two thousand five hundred two and two thousand five hundred three of title one of article nine of this chapter.

The county executive and the chairman of the county legislature may each designate a representative to act as a liaison to the authority. Each such liaison shall have the right to attend all meetings of the authority and request, from time to time, such information as the liaison may deem reasonably necessary for the purpose of informing the county executive and the county legislature, respectively, of the activities of the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1139's

 § 1140. Limited liability. Neither the members of the governing body, nor any municipality, officer or employee acting in its behalf, while acting within the scope of their authority, shall be subject to any personal liability resulting from the construction, maintenance or operation of any of the properties of the authority or from carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title; provided, however, that this section shall not be held to apply to any independent contractor.

* NB There are 2 § 1140's

 § 1141. Environmental applications, proceedings, approvals and permits. 1. Any application in relation to the purposes of or contemplated by this title heretofore filed, or any proceeding heretofore commenced, or any determination or decision heretofore made by the county, any municipality within the county or any water district, sewer district or district corporation and sent to or filed with the state department of environmental conservation, the department of transportation or any other state agency or instrumentality or with the United States environmental protection agency or any other federal agency or instrumentality shall inure to and for the benefit of the authority to the same extent and in the same manner as if the authority had been a party to such application or proceeding from its inception, and the authority shall be deemed a party thereto, to the extent not prohibited by any federal law. Any license, approval, permit or decision heretofore or hereafter issued or granted pursuant to or as a result of any such application or proceeding shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the authority and shall be assigned and transferred by the county or any such municipality to the authority, unless such assignment and transfer is prohibited by federal law.

2. All such applications, proceedings, licenses, approvals, permits and decisions shall further inure to and for the benefit of and be binding upon any person leasing, acquiring, constructing, maintaining, using or occupying any facility financed in whole or in part by the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1141's

 § 1142. Dutchess county water district. There is hereby defined and established an area to be known as the "Dutchess county water district" which shall embrace all the territory located within the county. After the establishment of the Dutchess county water district, such district shall have such powers as are provided in and shall be governed in accordance with the provisions of article five-A of the county law, including, without limitation, the power to enter into contracts, and carry out the terms thereof, with the city of New York, the New York city municipal finance authority, New York city water board, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, for the purchase of water.

* NB There are 2 § 1142's

 § 1143. Separability. If any section, clause or provision in this title shall be held by a competent court to be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective, and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB There are 2 § 1143's

 § 1144. Effect of inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any charter, local law, ordinance or resolution of the county, or other municipality, the provisions of this title shall be controlling. Nothing contained in this section shall be held to supplement or otherwise expand the powers or duties of the authority otherwise set forth in this title. Nothing contained in this title shall be held to alter or abridge the powers and duties of the department of environmental conservation or the department of health.

 § 1123. Town of Wilton water and sewer district. There is hereby defined and established an area to be known as the "town of Wilton water and sewer district" which shall embrace all the territory located within the town.

* NB There are 2 § 1123's

 § 1124. Town of Wilton water and sewer authority. 1. A public corporation to be known as the town of Wilton water and sewer authority, is hereby created for the public purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation, the objects of which in the judgment of the legislature cannot be attained under general laws. The authority shall be governed by a board of five members, who shall be residents of the town and be appointed by a majority vote of the town board. The first members shall be appointed for the following terms of office: two shall be appointed for a term ending on December thirty-first of the third year following the year in which this title shall have become law; two shall be appointed for a term ending on December thirty-first of the fourth year following the year in which this title shall have become law; one shall be appointed for a term ending on December thirty-first of the fifth year following the year in which this title shall have become law. No elected officials shall be members of the water and sewer authority. In the event the town board shall not make any appointment within twenty days of the effective date of this title, then in such event the town supervisor shall make the appointment. Subsequent appointments of members shall be made by a vote of the majority of the members of the town board for a term of five years ending in each case on December thirty-first of the last year of such term. All members shall continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and qualify. In no event shall more than three members belong to the same political party. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for subsequent appointments. Vacancies, occurring otherwise than by expiration of term of office, shall be filled for the unexpired terms; and if not filled by the town board within twenty days of such vacancy, then the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the town supervisor. Members may be removed from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as may be provided by law for the removal of officers of the town. They shall receive no reimbursement for the ordinary expenses of attending meetings, but may by resolution of the authority be allowed their expenses of a special or extraordinary nature.

2. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and be exercised by the board at a meeting duly called and held where a quorum of three members are present. No action shall be taken except pursuant to the favorable vote of at least three members. The board may delegate to one or more of its members, officers, agents or employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

3. The officers of the authority shall consist of a chairman, vice-chairman and a treasurer, who shall be members of the authority, and a secretary, who need not be a member of the authority. The chairman shall be appointed by the town supervisor for a one year term coinciding with the calendar year and the remaining officers shall be appointed by the chairman and shall act in such capacities at the pleasure of the chairman. The chairman may be appointed to subsequent terms without limitations. In addition to the secretary, the board may appoint and at pleasure remove such additional officers and employees as it may determine necessary or desirable for the performance of the powers and duties of the authority which positions shall be in the exempt class of civil service, and fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, subject to the provisions of the civil service law of the state and such rules as the civil service commission may adopt and make applicable to the authority. The board may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the board and the premium therefor shall be paid by the authority.

4. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of any general, special or local law, ordinance, resolution or charter, no officer, member or employee of the state, any municipality, or any public benefit corporation, shall forfeit his or her office or employment by reason of his or her acceptance or appointment as a member, officer, agent or employee of the authority, nor shall service as such member, officer, agent or employee be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office, membership or employment; provided, however, that no elected official shall be a member of the authority.

5. (a) The town supervisor shall file on or before March thirty-first of the year following the year in which this title shall have become a law, in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate signed by the town supervisor setting forth:

(1) the name of the authority;

(2) the names of the members appointed by the town board and their terms of office; and

(3) the effective date of this title. The authority shall be perpetual in duration, except that if such certificate is not filed with the secretary of state on or before such date, then the corporate existence of the authority shall thereupon terminate and it shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be dissolved.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the payment or satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and vest in the town.

6. It is hereby determined and declared, that the authority and the carrying out of its powers and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the town and the state for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that such purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

7. In carrying out its functions the authority shall take into consideration the local zoning and planning regulations as well as local comprehensive land use plans.

* NB There are 2 § 1124's

 § 1125. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have the power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To borrow money and issue bonds or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. To enter into contracts and execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title;

5. To acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease or by condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law, lease as lessee, hold, and use any real or personal property or any interest therein, as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the purpose of this title; provided however, that the authority may not condemn real property of a municipality without the consent of the governing body of such municipality;

6. To purchase, in the name of the authority, any water facility or sewerage facility, and any improvements, extensions and betterments, situated wholly within the district, provided, however, that the authority shall have the power to purchase any source of supply, supply facility, water supply system, transmission facility, sewerage system or sewerage facility or any part thereof situated wholly or partly without the territorial limits of the district, provided the same shall be necessary in order to supply water within the district; and in connection with the purchase of such properties, the authority may assume any obligations of the owner of such properties and, to the extent required by the terms of any indentures or other instruments under which such obligations were issued, the authority may assume and agree to perform covenants and observe the restrictions contained in such instruments; and furthermore, the owner of any properties, which the authority is authorized to acquire, is hereby authorized to sell or otherwise transfer the same to the authority, whereupon the authority shall have become charged with the performance of all public duties with respect to such properties with which such owner was charged and such owner shall have become discharged from the performance thereof, and as a means of so acquiring for such purpose, the authority may purchase all of the stock of any existing privately owned water corporation or company and in the case of a sale or other transfer of properties of a public utility corporation pursuant to this provision, upon the purchase of the stock of such corporation or company it shall be lawful to dissolve such corporation within a reasonable time;

7. To construct, improve, maintain, develop, expand or rehabilitate water facilities or sewerage facilities and to pay the costs thereof;

8. To operate and manage and to contract for the operation and management of properties of the authority;

9. To enter into contracts, and carry out the terms thereof, for the wholesale provision of water produced by supply facilities constructed, owned or operated by the authority, to municipalities and private water companies and to carry out the terms thereof, for the transmission of water from new or existing supply facilities;

10. To enter into contracts with municipalities for the collection, treatment and disposal of sewerage;

11. To take all necessary and reasonable actions within the district to conserve, preserve and protect the water supply to the district, including the making of plans and studies, the adoption of watershed rules and regulations, the enforcing of compliance with all current and future rules and regulations of the state sanitary code with regard to water supply and usage, the requiring of cross-connection controls, the providing of educational material and programs to the public, and the cooperating with water suppliers outside the district to conserve, preserve and protect the entire water reserve as it is affected within and outside the authority's supply area;

12. To apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal, state and local governments for such licenses, permits or approvals of its plans or projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate, and to accept, in its discretion, such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies and officials;

13. To appoint such officers and employees as are required for the performance of its duties, to fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers, and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

14. To make plans and studies necessary, convenient or desirable for the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

15. To enter upon such lands, waters or premises as in the judgment of the authority shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purposes authorized by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damage done;

16. To apply for and to accept any gifts or grants or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any agency or instrumentality thereof or from any other source, for any or all of the purposes specified in this title, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof;

17. To obtain, store, treat, distribute, supply and sell water for domestic, commercial and public purposes at retail to individual consumers within the district, and to collect, treat and discharge sewerage for such purposes by such generators;

18. To purchase water in bulk from any person, private corporation, public corporation or municipality when necessary or convenient for the operation of such water system;

19. To produce, develop, distribute and sell water or sewerage services within or without the territorial limits of the district; and to purchase water from any public corporation, town water district, municipality, person, association or corporation; provided, however, that water and sewerage services may be sold at retail to individual consumers only within the district and further provided that in exercising the powers granted by this title, the authority shall not sell water or sewerage services in any area outside of the town (a) without town board approval and (b) in any area which is served by a water, sewerage or water and sewerage system owned or operated by a municipality or special improvement district unless the governing body of such municipality or district shall adopt a resolution requesting the authority to sell water or sewerage services, as the case may be, in such served area;

20. To make and amend from time to time by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs and rules and regulations for the construction, preservation and protection of the authority's water supply and, subject to agreements with bondholders, rules for the sale of water or collection of sewerage and the collection of rents and charges therefor. A copy of such rules, regulations and by-laws, and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision twelve of this section, and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the authority shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the town. In addition, the town board by local law shall have power to prescribe that violation of specific by-laws, rules and regulations of the authority, published once in a newspaper having a general circulation in the town, shall be punishable by fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not longer than thirty days, or both;

21. To fix rates and collect charges for the use of the facilities of, or services rendered by, or any commodities furnished by the authority such as to provide revenues sufficient at all times to pay, as the same shall become due, the principal and interest on the bonds or other obligations of the authority together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, in addition to paying as the same shall become due the expense of operating and maintaining the properties of the authority together with proper maintenance reserves, capital reserves, repair reserves, tax stabilization reserves and other contingency reserves and all other obligations and indebtedness of the authority;

22. To enter into cooperative agreements with other authorities, municipalities, water districts, utility companies, individuals, firms or corporations, within or without the territorial limits of the district, for the interconnection of facilities, the exchange or interchange of services and commodities, and within the territorial limits of the district to enter into a contract for the construction and operation and maintenance of a water or sewerage system by the authority for any municipality, public corporation or water or sewer district having power to construct and develop a water or sewer system, as the case may be, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable including but not limited to the reimbursement of all costs of such construction, or for any other lawful purpose necessary or desirable to effect the purposes of this title;

23. To provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of water or sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, for non-payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the authority, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any water service, shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law;

24. With the consent of the governing body of a municipality, to use officers and employees of such municipality and to pay a proper proportion of the compensation or costs for the services for such officers or employees; and

25. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.
* NB There are 2 § 1125's

 § 1126. Advances on behalf of the authority; transfer of property to authority; acquisition of property by town for authority. 1. In addition to any powers granted to it by law, the town, from time to time, may appropriate sums of money to or on behalf of the authority to defray project costs or any other costs and expenses of the authority. Subject to the rights of bondholders, the town may determine if the moneys so appropriated shall be subject to repayment by the authority to the town and, in such event, the manner and time or times for such repayment.

2. The town or any other municipality may give, grant, sell, convey, loan, license the use of or lease to the authority any property or facility which is useful to the authority in order to carry out its powers under this title. Any such transfer of property shall be upon such terms and conditions, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds, as the authority and the town or other municipality may agree.

3. The town may acquire by purchase or by exercise of the power of eminent domain real property in the name of the town for any corporate purpose of the authority.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, general, special or local to the contrary, real property acquired by the authority or the town from the state may be used for any corporate purpose of the authority.
* NB There are 2 § 1126's

 § 1127. Governmental capacity of the authority and municipalities. The authority, the town and the other municipalities, in carrying out their respective powers and duties under this title, shall be deemed to be acting in a governmental capacity and in the performance of an essential governmental function.

* NB There are 2 § 1127's

 § 1128. Transfer of officers and employees. Any public officer or employee in the public service who is selected by the authority may, with the consent of the commission, board, or chief executive officer of the municipality by which he or she has been employed, be transferred to the authority and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to comparable offices, positions and employment under the authority. The salary or compensation of any such officer or employee, after such transfer, shall be paid by the authority. Any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority pursuant to this section, who are members of or benefit under any existing pension or retirement fund or system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund or system as are now prescribed by law, but during the period of their employment by the authority, all contributions to such fund or system to be paid by the employer on account of such officers and employees shall be paid by the authority. All such officers or employees so transferred to the authority who have been appointed to positions under the rules and classifications of the civil service commission shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointment.

 § 1129. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds in such principal amounts as it may determine to be necessary to pay the cost of any project or for any other corporate purpose, including incidental expenses in connection therewith. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to enter into such agreements and perform such acts as may be required under any applicable federal legislation to secure a federal guarantee of any bonds. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. Bonds issued by the authority may be general obligations secured by the faith and credit of the authority or may be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other moneys as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject only to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular revenues, earnings, or moneys.

2. The authority is authorized to obtain from any department or agency of the United States of America or the state or any nongovernmental insurer or financial institution any insurance, guarantee or other credit support device, to the extent now or hereafter available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest or principal or premium, or any of the foregoing, or any part thereof, on any bonds issued by the authority and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to any such insurance or guarantee, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of outstanding bonds of the authority.

3. Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, and may be in such denominations and bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times as such resolution may provide, except that bonds and any renewals thereof shall mature within forty years from the date of original issuance of any such bonds. Obligations with a maturity of five years or less from the date of their original issuance may be designated as notes. Bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates per annum payable at such times, be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, provided that no bonds of the authority, other than obligations designated as notes, may be sold by the authority at private sale unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by the comptroller, where such sale is not to be to such comptroller, or by the state director of the division of the budget, where such sale is to be to the comptroller. The authority may pay all expenses, premiums and commissions which it may deem necessary or advantageous in connection with the issuance and sale of bonds.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the authority, together with any other moneys or property of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, including, but not limited to, any contracts, earnings or proceeds of any grant to the authority received from any private or public source;

(b) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(c) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(d) the rates, rents, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected by the authority and the amount to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of revenues;

(e) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or moneys may be deposited;

(i) the terms and provisions of any trust, deed, mortgage or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(j) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section eleven hundred thirty of this title and limiting or abrogating the rights of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(l) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any project or any part thereof;

(m) limitations on the amount of revenues and other moneys to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(o) any other matters of like or different character which may in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of bondholders.

5. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including the mortgaging of any of its property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys or properties and the doing of any act (including refraining from doing any act) which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have the power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

6. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

7. Whether or not the bonds are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

8. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing bonds shall be liable personally thereon or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

9. The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as then may exist, shall have power out of any moneys available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority, which shall thereupon be cancelled, at a price not exceeding:

(a) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable, plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date;

(b) if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date.

* NB There are 2 § 1129's

* § 1130. Remedies of bondholders. Subject to any resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to paragraph (j) of subdivision four of section one thousand one hundred twenty-nine of this title:

1. In the event that the authority shall default in the principal of or interest on any issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the town and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purpose herein provided.

2. Such trustee may and, upon written request of the holders of twenty-five percent in principal amount of such bonds outstanding, shall in his, her or its own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect rents, rates and charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such rents, rates and charges and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five percent of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Saratoga, New York.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the properties the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and subject to any pledge or agreement with holders of such bonds, such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of such properties and proceed with any construction thereon or the acquisition of any property, real or personal, in connection therewith which the authority is under obligation to do, and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the properties and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from the properties.

* NB There are 2 § 1130's

 § 1131. State and town not liable on authority bonds. Neither the state nor the town shall be liable on the bonds of the authority and such bonds shall not be a debt of the state, or the town, and such bonds shall contain, on the face thereof, a statement to such effect.

* NB There are 2 § 1131's

 § 1132. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks in the state designated by the board. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the treasurer upon requisition by the board or of such other person or persons as the board may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state or of the town of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any moneys of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested in those obligations specified pursuant to the provisions of section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders and with the approval of the comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

* NB There are 2 § 1132's

 § 1133. Bonds legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officials and bodies of the state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and be received by all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities for any purposes for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or hereafter may be authorized.

* NB There are 2 § 1133's

 § 1134. Agreement of the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the state will not alter or limit the rights hereby vested in the authority to negotiate, purchase, construct, maintain, operate, repair, improve, increase, enlarge, extend, reconstruct, renovate, rehabilitate or dispose of any project or any part or parts thereof, for which bonds of the authority shall have been issued, to establish and collect rates, rents, fees and other charges referred to in this title and to fulfill the terms of any agreement made with or for the benefit of the holders of the bonds or with any public corporation or person with reference to the bondholders, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, including interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the bondholders.

 § 1135. Exemption from taxes, assessments and certain fees. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the town and the state and is a public purpose and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any property owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision or upon its activities, or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf; provided, however, that any real property owned or under the jurisdiction, supervision or control of the authority outside of the district shall be exempt from real property taxes, ad valorem levies or special assessments only pursuant to and to the extent provided by an agreement with the governing body of the municipality in which said real property is located. The construction, use, occupation or possession of any property owned by the authority or the town, including improvements thereon, by any person or public corporation under a lease, lease and sublease or any other agreement shall not operate to abrogate or limit the foregoing exemption, notwithstanding that the lessee, user, occupant or person in possession shall claim ownership for federal income tax purposes.

2. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, shall be exempt from taxation. For purposes of this subdivision, the phrase "exempt from taxation" means exempt from direct taxation in conformity with established judicial interpretation of the tax exempt status of the obligations of the state and its agencies, entities, authorities and political subdivisions and thus, the meaning of such phrase is in conformity with the legislative intent expressed by section twenty-two of chapter one hundred sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one regarding the tax exempt status of obligations of the state and its agencies. The revenues, moneys and other properties and activities of the authority, shall be exempt from taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including real estate taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes except as otherwise provided in subdivision one of this section with respect to real property located outside the district.

3. The state hereby covenants with the purchaser and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the interest thereon shall be exempt from taxation. The state further covenants with the holders of such bonds that all revenues, moneys, and other property pledged to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from such taxation. For the purposes of this subdivision, the phrase "exempt from taxation" means exempt from direct taxation in conformity with established judicial interpretation of the tax exempt status of the obligations of the state and its agencies, entities, authorities and political subdivisions and thus, the meaning of such phrase is in conformity with the legislative intent expressed by section twenty-two of chapter one hundred sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one regarding the tax exempt status of obligations of the state and its agencies.

 § 1136. Actions against the authority. 1. No action or special proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence or wrongful act of the authority or of any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless:

(a) a notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority within the time limit prescribed by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law;

(b) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused; and

(c) the action or special proceeding shall be commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based.

2. Wherever a notice of claim is served upon the authority, it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority may require any person, presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatever against the authority to be sworn before a member, counsel, officer or employee of the authority designated for such purpose concerning such account or claim and, when so sworn, to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

4. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment against its bonds, shall be the rate prescribed by section three-a of the general municipal law. Interest on payments of principal or interest on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate or rates set forth in such bonds from the due date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

* NB There are 2 § 1136's

 § 1137. Construction and purchase contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction or purchase of supplies, materials, or equipment pursuant to sections one hundred one and one hundred three of the general municipal law. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1137's

 § 1138. Interest in contracts prohibited. It shall be a misdemeanor for any member of the governing body or any officer, agent, servant or employee of the authority to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly, in the furnishing of work, materials, supplies or labor, in any contract therefor which the authority is empowered by this title to make.

* NB There are 2 § 1138's

 § 1139. Audit and annual report. In conformity with the provisions of section five of article ten of the constitution, the accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the comptroller. The authority shall annually submit to the governor and state comptroller and to the state legislature a detailed report pursuant to the provisions of section two thousand eight hundred of this chapter, and a copy of such report shall be filed with the town supervisor. The authority shall comply with the provisions of sections two thousand eight hundred one, two thousand eight hundred two, and two thousand eight hundred three of this chapter.

* NB There are 2 § 1139's

 § 1140. Limited liability. Neither the members of the governing body, nor any municipality, officer or employee acting in its behalf, while acting within the scope of their authority, shall be subject to any personal liability resulting from the construction, maintenance or operation of any of the properties of the authority or from carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title; provided, however, that this section shall not be held to apply to any independent contractor.

* NB There are 2 § 1140's

 § 1141. Environmental applications, proceedings, approvals and permits. 1. Any application in relation to the purposes of or contemplated by this title heretofore filed, or any proceeding heretofore commenced, by the town with the state department of environmental conservation, the department of transportation or any other state agency or instrumentality or with the United States environmental protection agency or any other federal agency or instrumentality shall inure to and for the benefit of the authority to the same extent and in the same manner as if the authority had been a party to such application or proceeding from its inception, and the authority shall be deemed a party thereto, to the extent not prohibited by any federal law. Any license, approval, permit or decision heretofore or hereafter issued or granted pursuant to or as a result of any such application or proceeding shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the authority and shall be assigned and transferred by the town to the authority, unless such assignment and transfer is prohibited by federal law.

2. All such applications, proceedings, licenses, approvals, permits and decisions shall further inure to and for the benefit of and be binding upon any person leasing, acquiring, constructing, maintaining, using or occupying any facility financed in whole or in part by the authority.

* NB There are 2 § 1141's

 § 1142. Town may levy tax within district. Should it appear to the town board at any time that the revenue of the authority is or will be insufficient to provide for the payment of any bonds issued under this title and to reimburse the town for any moneys that it may have advanced to the authority, the town board shall determine the amount of money necessary to be raised for such purpose, and shall levy a tax on the territory of the district located within the town and upon the several parcels of real estate in the district located within the town in an amount sufficient to produce the amount necessary to be raised as aforesaid; provided that such tax shall not be levied to pay any bonds of the authority unless the authority with the consent of the town board has pledged such tax prior to the issuance of such bonds. Such tax shall be levied and apportioned upon such territory located within the town and collected from the several parcels of real estate in the district located within the town in like manner as other town taxes. It is hereby determined that the liability imposed upon the territory included in the district located within the town is based upon the special benefit to such territory accruing under this title and that the tax to be levied because of such liability and in proportion to the taxable value of real estate in such territory will be in proportion to such benefits.

* NB There are 2 § 1142's

 § 1143. Contracts for design, construction, service and materials. For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law only, the authority shall be deemed a state agency as that term is used in such article, and its contracts for design, construction, services and materials shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article.

* NB There are 2 § 1143's

 § 1144. Authority to take affirmative action. The authority shall ensure that all employees and applicants for employment are afforded equal opportunity without discrimination.

* NB There are 2 § 1144's

§ 1145. Separability. If any section, clause or provisions of this title shall be held by a competent court to be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective, and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1146. Effect of inconsistent provisions. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any charter, local law, ordinance or resolution of the town, or other municipality, the provisions of this title shall be controlling. Nothing contained in this section shall be held to supplement or otherwise expand the powers or duties of the authority otherwise set forth in this title. Nothing contained in this title shall be held to alter or abridge the powers and duties of the department of environmental conservation or the department of health.

TITLE 6-D

ALFRED, ALMOND, HORNELLSVILLE SEWER AUTHORITY

§ 1147. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Alfred, Almond, Hornellsville Sewer Authority Project Act".

§ 1147-a. Definitions. As used in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section eleven hundred forty-seven-c of this title.

2. "Board of directors" shall mean the governing board of the authority.

3. "Bonds" shall mean the bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the authority.

4. "Calendar year and official year" shall mean the twelve month period from January first through December thirty-first.

5. "Chief executive officer" when referring to a municipality shall mean the chief elected official of such municipality and, when referring to the authority, shall mean the chairperson of the authority.

6. "Civil service commission" shall mean the civil service commission of the county of Allegany.

7. "Comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state of New York.

8. The term "project" shall mean a system of trunk, intercepting and connecting, lateral and outlet sewers, pumping and ventilating stations, disposal or treatment plants or works and other appliances and structures, which in the judgment of the authority will provide an effectual and advantageous means for relieving the area which the authority encompasses and any waters within or passing through or any ground waters from pollution by the sewage and waste of the area encompassing the authority and relieving such area from inadequate sanitary drainage and for the sanitary disposal or treatment of the sewage thereof, or such sections or parts of such system as the authority may from time to time deem it proper or convenient to construct, consistent with the plan or purpose of this title.

9. "Construction" shall mean the negotiation, acquisition, erection, building, alteration, improvement, testing, increase, enlargement, extension, reconstruction, interconnection, renovation or rehabilitation of a sewer facility of a project as defined herein; the inspection and supervision thereof; and the engineering, architectural, legal, appraisal, fiscal, economic and environmental investigations, services and studies, surveys, designs, plans, working drawings, specifications, procedures and other actions incidental thereto.

10. "Costs", as applied to any project, shall include the cost of construction, the cost of the acquisition of all property, including both real, personal and mixed, the cost of demolishing, removing or relocating any building or structures on lands so acquired including the cost of acquiring any land to which such buildings or structures may be moved or relocated, the cost of all systems, facilities, machinery, apparatus and equipment, financing charges and bond discount, interest to the extent not paid or provided for from revenues or other sources, the cost of engineering and architectural surveys, plans and specifications, bond insurance, bond credit enhancement arrangements, other expenses necessary or incidental to the construction of such project and the financing of the construction thereof, including the cost of legal and financial advice and credit arrangements with banks or other financial institutions, the amount authorized in the resolution of the authority providing for the issuance of bonds to be paid into any reserve or special fund from the proceeds of such bonds and the financing of the placing of any project in operation.

11. "County" shall mean, unless otherwise specifically stated, the county of Allegany.

12. "Governing body" shall mean:

(a) In the case of a village, county, town or village or district corporation the finance board, as such term is defined in subdivision four of section 2.00 of the local finance law;

(b) In the case of a public benefit corporation, the members thereof.

13. "Members" shall mean the members of the board of directors.

14. "Municipality" shall mean any city, county, town, village or county or town acting on behalf of an improvement district.

15. "Real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises and interests in lands, waters, lands under water, groundwater riparian rights and air rights and any and all things and rights customarily included within the term "real property" and includes not only fee simple absolute, but also any and all lesser interests including, but not limited to easements, rights-of-way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgment, mortgages or otherwise.

16. "State sanitary code" shall mean regulations adopted pursuant to section two hundred twenty-five of the public health law.

17. "State" shall mean the state of New York.

18. "State agency" shall mean any state office, public benefit corporation, department, board, commission, bureau or division, or other agency or instrumentality of the state.

19. "System revenues" shall mean rates, rents, fees, charges, payments, assessments and other income and receipts derived from users of the facilities of the authority without limiting the generality of the foregoing, investment proceeds and proceeds of insurance, condemnation sales or other dispositions of assets together with all federal, state or municipal aid as well as any other income derived from the operation of the sewer facilities of the authority.

20. "Treasurer" shall mean the treasurer of the authority.

§ 1147-b. Sewer districts created. There are hereby created four separate sewer districts: one encompassing the village of Almond, to be known as the Almond village sewer district; one encompassing all of that portion of the town of Alfred outside the village of Alfred, to be known as sewer district number one of the town of Alfred; one encompassing all that portion of the town of Almond outside the village of Almond, to be known as sewer district number one of the town of Almond; and one encompassing that portion of the town of Hornellsville within the bounds of the authority created by this title to be known as sewer district number one of the town of Hornellsville. The lands within such Hornellsville sewer district number one begin at the common boundary of Allegany and Steuben counties and are within (a) a corridor one thousand feet from and parallel to the westerly side of state route twenty-one and one thousand feet from and parallel to the easterly side of state route twenty-one as extended northerly to where the Morris bridge crosses the Canacada creek, and (b) a corridor beginning where the westerly line of the corridor described in clause (a) above intersects a point one thousand feet west of the westerly side of Webbs Crossing Road and a point where such westerly line of such corridor intersects a point one thousand feet from the easterly side of Webbs Crossing Road thence extending north one thousand feet west of Webbs Crossing Road and one thousand feet east of Webbs Crossing Road to a point one thousand feet past the northerly line of the intersection of Doorley Road and Webbs Crossing Road.

Each town board of each of such towns shall, on behalf of their respective districts and the board of trustees of such village, have the power to contract with the authority to carry out the purposes and intent of this title including the power to levy and collect fees, charges and assessments upon real property within each such district to pay for any charges, expenses, costs or amounts agreed upon with such authority.

§ 1147-c. Sewer authority created. 1. A corporation known as the Alfred, Almond, Hornellsville Sewer Authority is hereby created for the purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority shall be a corporate governmental agency constituting a public benefit corporation. The geographic boundaries of the authority shall be all of the territory within the sewer districts created by section eleven hundred forty-seven-b of this title. The authority shall be governed by a board of directors consisting of eight members, two of whom shall be appointed by the mayor of the village of Almond, subject to the approval of the board of trustees of the village, two of whom shall be appointed by the town board of the town of Alfred, two of whom shall be appointed by the town board of the town of Almond and two of whom shall be appointed by the town board of the town of Hornellsville. One member of the authority from each town and village in which the authority is wholly or partially located shall be an elected member of the legislative body of such town or village and shall hold office for a single term commencing on the date of their appointment and expiring on the thirty-first day of December of the third year following the first day of January after their appointment. Their successors shall thereafter be appointed for full terms of three years. In the event any such member ceases to hold office as elected member of the legislative body of such town or village, such office shall become vacant and the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term. One member shall be appointed by the mayor of Almond, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, who shall serve a single term commencing on the date of appointment and ending on the thirty-first day of December following the first day of January of the second year after such appointment. His or her successor shall be appointed for a full three year term. One member shall be appointed by the town board of the town of Alfred for a single term commencing on the date of the appointment and ending on the thirty-first day of December following the first day of January of the second year after such appointment. His or her successor shall be appointed for a full three year term. One member shall be appointed by the town board of the town of Almond to serve a single term commencing on the day of appointment and ending on the thirty-first day of December following the first day of January of the year after such appointment. His or her successor shall be appointed for a full three year term. One member shall be appointed by the town board of the town of Hornellsville for a single term commencing on the date of the appointment and ending on the thirty-first day of December following the first day of January of the second year after such appointment. His or her successor shall be appointed for a full three year term. Each chief executive officer shall file with the secretary of state a certificate of appointment of any member appointed or reappointed to the board of directors within thirty days of the appointment or reappointment. Members of the board of directors shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their actual and necessary expenses, incurred in the discharge of their duties.

2. Any one or more of the members of the board of directors may be an official or an employee of a municipality situated, wholly or partially within the district. In the event that an official or an employee of such municipality shall be appointed as a member of the board of directors, acceptance or retention of such appointment shall not be deemed a forfeiture of his or her municipal office or employment, or incompatible therewith or effect his or her tenure or compensation in any way.

3. No action shall be taken by the authority except pursuant to the favorable vote of a majority of the members of the board of directors. Six members of the board shall constitute a quorum. Notwithstanding the presence of a quorum, no action shall be taken by the board of directors at such meeting unless board members who were appointed by not less than three different towns or villages wholly or partially within the bounds of the authority are present.

4. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and shall be exercised by the board of directors at a meeting duly called and held. The board of directors may delegate to one or more of its members, or to one or more of the officers, agents or employees of the authority, such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

5. The officers of the authority shall consist of a chairperson, treasurer, and secretary, who may, but need not be members of the board of directors. The officers of the authority shall be appointed by the board of directors. The board of directors may appoint and at its pleasure remove an attorney and an engineer, which positions, in addition to the officers above named, shall be in the exempt class of the civil service, and such additional officers and employees as it may require for the performance of its duties, fix and determine their qualifications, duties, compensations and terms of office or tenure, subject to the provisions of the civil service law and such rules as the civil service commission may adopt and make applicable to the authority. The authority may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The duties of the officers shall be as follows:

(a) Chairperson. The chairperson shall be the chief executive officer of the authority and it shall be the responsibility of the chairperson to:

(i) preside at all meetings of the board of directors and of the officers;

(ii) manage the facilities, projects and construction of the authority and to effectuate the decisions of the board of directors;

(iii) exercise supervision over the conduct of the officers and employees of the authority;

(iv) report annually to the residents and businesses within the bounds of the authority by publication once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district that a report has been filed in the office of the authority and in the offices of the clerks of the towns of Alfred, Almond and Hornellsville and the village of Almond and is available for public inspection; such report shall include but not be limited to the following:

(1) a brief financial account on operations of the sewer system including, but not limited to, sewer rates, total revenues and sources of such revenues, operating and maintenance expenses, outstanding indebtedness and interest on bonds and notes;

(2) the number of users of the sewer system by classification in the event users are classified;

(3) the extensions made of the system in the previous year, if any;

(4) any actions taken to make any capital improvements to the system including any extension of the system;

(5) the types of treatment to which the sewage is subjected before leaving the treatment plant or plants;

(6) any compliance activities required by regulations of the department of environmental conservation or the department of health or any local health department and any instances of noncompliance;

(7) the present condition of the sewer system and any appurtenances thereto and any significant actions, as determined by the authority, to improve, extend or maintain the system;

(8) any special public services the authority provides during the year;

(v) execute all contracts in the name of the authority;

(vi) institute, at the direction of the board of directors, all civil actions in the name of the authority;

(vii) provide for the enforcement of all rules and regulations of the authority and cause all violations thereof to be prosecuted;

(viii) sign orders to pay claims when authorized by the board of directors;

(ix) sign checks in the absence or inability of the treasurer or deputy treasurer, if any, when authorized by the board of directors; and a certified copy of the resolution of the board of directors to that effect shall be notice to the depository of such authorization;

(x) appoint, subject to the approval of the board of directors, non-elected officers, counsel, accountants and other financial advisors, engineers and other technical advisors;

(xi) employ, promote and discharge managers, supervisors and employees; and

(xii) take all other reasonable and necessary actions to carry out his or her office as the chief executive officer of the authority. If the chairperson has not been appointed as a member of the board of directors of the authority pursuant to this section, such chairperson shall be deemed an ex officio member of the board of directors. Such status shall not carry with it the right to vote on matters coming before the board of directors nor shall the presence of such chairperson be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum.

(b) Secretary. (i) The secretary shall be the recording and corresponding officer of the authority and the custodian of the records of the authority.

(ii) The secretary shall prepare and send required notices of all meetings when directed to do so by the chairperson or by the written request of four members who have specified the issues to be discussed at the meeting.

(iii) In the absence or disability of the secretary, the chairperson may appoint a temporary secretary.

(c) Treasurer. (i) The treasurer shall have custody of all moneys belonging to the authority and keep accounts of all receipts and expenditures in conformance with a uniform system of accounts formulated and prescribed by the comptroller pursuant to section thirty-six of the general municipal law.

(ii) The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the board of directors and the premium therefor shall be paid by the authority.

(iii) The treasurer shall deposit within ten days after receipt thereof, in the name of the authority, in one or more banks, and/or trust companies, designated by the board of directors, all moneys received by him or her.

(iv) The treasurer may sign checks with the facsimile signature of the treasurer, as reproduced by a machine or device, when approved and authorized by the board of directors.

(v) The treasurer shall pay out moneys from the authority treasury only as authorized by the board of directors and by law. All such payments, except as may be authorized by the board of directors for a petty cash account, shall be by check.

(vi) The treasurer shall issue a report on the finances of the authority at each regular meeting of the board of directors.

(vii) The treasurer shall file in the office of the authority, within sixty days after the end of the fiscal year, a statement showing in detail all revenues and expenditures during the previous fiscal year and the outstanding indebtedness of the authority as of the end of the fiscal year. The members shall within ten days cause to be published once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district, a notice that the financial statement has been filed and is available for inspection or a summary of such statement in a form approved by the comptroller, with an endorsement thereon that details thereof are on file in the office of the authority.

6. The officers of the authority, other than members of the board of directors, shall receive such compensation as may be determined by the board of directors and shall be reimbursed for all necessary and actual expenses incurred in connection with their duties as such officers and in connection with carrying out the purposes of this title.

7. In addition to any powers granted to it by law, the governing body of each of the towns and of the village wholly or partially within the bounds of the authority, from time to time, may appropriate sums of money to defray project costs or any other costs and expenses of the authority. Subject to the rights of bondholders, each governing body may determine if the moneys so appropriated shall be subject to repayment by the authority to such towns and such village, and in such event, the manner and time for such repayment.

8. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers, purposes and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the municipalities within the bounds of the authority and state, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that the said purposes are a public purpose and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

9. (a) The mayor of the village of Almond and the supervisors of the towns of Alfred, Almond and Hornellsville shall each, pursuant to the authority granted to them by their respective governing boards, file on or before March thirty-first of the year following the year in which this title shall take effect, in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate signed by such mayor or supervisor setting forth: the name of the authority; the names of the members of the authority appointed by the mayor of that village or by the town board of that town; and the effective date of the authority. The authority shall be perpetual in duration, except that if any such certificate is not filed with the secretary of state on or before such date, then the corporate existence of the authority shall thereupon terminate and shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be dissolved.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the payment or satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the authority, all facilities, rights and property shall be disposed of as shall be agreed upon by all of the members of the authority. In the event no such agreement can be reached, the issue of the disposition of such facilities, rights and property shall be submitted to arbitration in the manner provided by article seventy-five of the civil practice law and rules.

§ 1147-d. Responsibilities of the authority. The authority shall have the responsibility to investigate, analyze and evaluate various options for the collection, treatment and disposal of sewage generated within the district, including, but not limited to the following:

1. The purchase, in the name of the authority, of any existing sewer system or portion thereof deemed necessary by the authority in order to carry out the purposes of the authority;

2. The operation of any sewer system or sewage treatment facility and any related facilities necessary to carry out the functions and goals of the authority.

§ 1147-e. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have power:

1. To prepare or cause to be prepared plans, designs and estimates of costs for the construction of the project, and from time to time modify such plans, designs or estimates.

2. To construct the project and any additions, betterments and extensions to the facilities of the authority by contract or contracts, or through or by means of its own officers, agents and employees.

3. To have jurisdiction, control, possession and supervision of any existing sewer system acquired by the authority and the project; to maintain, operate, reconstruct and improve the same as a comprehensive sewerage system and to make additions, betterments and extensions thereto, and to have all the rights, privileges and jurisdiction necessary or proper for carrying such power into execution. No enumeration of powers in this or any other general, special or local law shall operate to restrict the meaning of this general grant of power or to exclude other powers comprehended within this general grant.

4. To sue and be sued.

5. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure.

6. To borrow money and issue negotiable notes, bonds or other obligations and provide for the rights of the holders thereof.

7. To enter into contracts and execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title.

8. To acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease or by condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law, lease as lessee, hold and use and to sell, lease as lessor, transfer or otherwise dispose of, any real or personal property or any interest therein, within or without the district, as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the purposes of this title; provided, however, that the authority may not condemn real property of a municipality without the consent of the governing body of such municipality.

9. To purchase in the name of the authority, any sewer system, including but not limited to trunk, intercepting and connecting, lateral and outlet sewers, pumping and ventilating stations, disposal or treatment plants or works, and other appliances and structures, which in the judgment of the authority will provide an effective and advantageous means of relieving the area within the bounds of the authority, including surface and ground waters from inadequate sanitary drainage and for the sanitary disposal or treatment of the sewage thereof, or such sections or parts of such system as the authority may from time to time deem it proper or convenient.

10. To construct, improve or rehabilitate sewage disposal facilities and appurtenances required for the maintenance, development or expansion of the sewage disposal system within the bounds of the authority.

11. To operate and manage and to contract for the operation and management of facilities of the authority.

12. To enter into contracts, and carry out the terms thereof, for the wholesale provision of sewerage disposal with municipalities and private individuals or corporations.

13. To apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal, state and local governments for such licenses, permits or approval of its plans or projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate, to accept, in its discretion, such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies and officials.

14. To take all necessary and reasonable actions within the bounds of the authority to protect from pollution surface and ground waters within the district, including the making of plans and studies, the adoption of rules and regulations relating to the disposal of sewage, the enforcing of compliance with all current and future rules and regulations of the state sanitary code with regard to sewage disposal, and the providing of educational materials and programs to the public relating to sewage disposal.

15. To retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice.

16. To make plans and studies necessary, convenient or desirable for the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto.

17. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs and rules and regulations for the conservation, preservation and protection of the authority's property, facilities and personnel and, subject to agreements with bondholders, rules, regulations and by-laws relating to the use of the facilities of the authority, including use of the sewer system including the imposition and collection of rents and charges therefor. A copy of each rule or regulation and each by-law and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the authority, shall be filed in the office of the municipalities within the district and thereafter a summary thereof shall be published once in a newspaper having general circulation in the district. Such notice shall state that a copy of such rule or regulation, by-law or amendment is on file in the office of each municipality in the district and available for public review. Violations of such rules and regulations shall be punishable by fine, not exceeding fifty dollars.

18. To fix rates and collect charges for the use of the facilities of, or services rendered by, or any commodities furnished by the authority such as to provide revenues sufficient at all times to pay, as the same shall become due, the principal and interest on the bonds, or other obligations of the authority together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, in addition to paying as the same shall become due, the expense of operating and maintaining the properties of the authority together with proper maintenance reserves, capital reserves, repair reserves, and other contingency reserves, and all other obligations and indebtedness of the authority; however, no such rates or charges shall be changed until a public hearing on such changes shall have been held upon not less than fourteen days notice thereof to each customer, either by mail or by publication once in a newspaper having general circulation within the bounds of the authority.

19. To accept gifts, grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or any municipality or from any person or corporation, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for the purposes of the authority.

20. To contract with any town or village wholly or partially within the bounds of the authority for the purpose of undertaking or paying for any capital improvements made by the authority or its agents and such contract may provide, among other things consistent with the purposes of this title, (a) that any town, acting on behalf of any sewer district within the bounds of the authority, shall pay the districts agreed share of the cost of such capital improvements and such town shall have the authority to levy and collect special assessments upon real property within that area of the town which is benefited by such sewer facilities and pay such assessments to the authority as provided in such contract, and (b) that any village within the bounds of the authority shall pay its agreed share of the cost of such capital improvements and such village shall have the authority to levy and collect special assessments upon real property within the village which is benefited by such sewer facilities and pay such special assessments to the authority as provided in such contract. In order to carry out the terms of any such contract each town board shall have the authority to levy special assessments upon the lands benefited in the same manner as special assessments are levied for district improvements within a town and each board of trustees shall have the authority to levy special assessments upon the lands benefited in the manner provided in article fourteen of the village law.

21. To enter into cooperative agreements with other authorities, municipalities, sewer districts and other public corporations for the interconnection of facilities, the exchange or interchange of services and commodities and, within the territorial limits of the authority, enter into contracts for the construction and operation and maintenance of all or a portion of the sewer system, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable including but not limited to the reimbursement of all costs of such construction, or for any other lawful purposes necessary or desirable to effect the purposes of this title.

22. To enter upon such lands, waters or premises as in the judgment of the authority shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damages done.

23. For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law only the authority shall be deemed a state agency as that term is defined in such article and its contracts for procurement, design, construction, services and materials shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article.

24. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly given in this title.

§ 1147-f. Charges by the authority; method of collection. The authority may fix and collect, on any equitable basis, rates, fees and other charges for the use of its facilities or of the services or commodities provided by the authority. Such rates, rentals, fees and other charges may be fixed and collected from any person or corporation to which such facilities, services or commodities are provided or made available from the authority. Such rates, rentals, fees and other charges may be the same or different for each classification of user or service recipient and may, by way of example, reflect the source and composition of the sewage. The authority shall not establish, fix or revise any classification of user or rate, rental or fee or other charge unless and until the authority has held a public hearing at which interested persons shall have an opportunity to be heard concerning the same. Notice of any such public hearing shall be published at least ten days before the date set therefor, in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the boundaries of the authority. Such notice shall set forth the date, time and place of such hearing and shall include a brief description of matters to be considered at such meeting. A copy of such notice shall be available for inspection by the public. At any such hearing, any interested persons shall have an opportunity to be heard concerning the matters under consideration. Any decision by the authority at such public hearing or relating to the matters under consideration at such hearing shall be in writing and made available in the office of the authority for public inspection during regular business hours.

All rates, fees and other charges for the use of the facilities or services provided or made available by the authority and billed directly by the authority to the user or service recipient pursuant to a classification of users or service recipients adopted by the authority as herein provided shall be lien upon the real property upon which, or in connection with which, services are provided or are made available, as and from the first date fixed for payment of such rates, rentals, fees and other charges. Any such lien shall take precedent over all other liens or encumbrances, except taxes or assessments. The treasurer of the authority shall prepare and transmit to the respective legislative body of each town or village wholly or partially within the bounds of the authority, on or before the first day of December in each year, a list of those properties within each respective town or village using such facilities or for which such services were provided or made available and from which the payment of rates, rentals, fees and other charges are in arrears for a period of thirty days or more after the last day fixed for payment of such rates, rentals, fees and other charges without penalty. The list shall contain a brief description of such properties, the names of the persons or corporations liable to pay for the same, and the amount chargeable to each, including penalties and interest computed to December thirty-first of that year. Each governing body shall levy such sums against the properties liable and shall state the amount thereof in a separate column in the annual tax rolls of the various towns and villages under the heading "sewer disposal charge". Such amounts, excluding penalties and interest when collected by the several town or village collectors or receivers of taxes, shall be paid over to the treasurer of the authority. Penalties and interest shall be retained by the collectors which shall become a part of the general funds of the collecting town or village. All of the provisions of the tax law of the state governing enforcement and collection of unpaid taxes or assessments for special improvements not inconsistent herewith shall apply to the collection of such unpaid rates, rentals, fees and other charges.

§ 1147-g. Governmental capacity of the authority and municipalities. The authority, the county and the other municipalities, in carrying out their respective powers and duties under this title, shall be deemed to be acting in a governmental capacity and in the performance of an essential governmental function.

§ 1147-h. Transfer of officers and employees. 1. In accordance with the provisions of section seventy of the civil service law, any officer or employee of the municipality served by the authority, may, at the request of the authority and with the consent of the chief executive officer of such municipality be transferred to the authority and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment, without further examination, to applicable offices, positions and employment under the authority. Any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority pursuant to this section, who are members of or benefit under any existing pension or retirement fund or system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund or system as are now prescribed by law, but during the period of their employment by the authority, all contributions to such funds or systems to be paid by the employer on account of such officers or employees shall be paid by the authority.

2. A transferred employee shall remain in the same collective bargaining unit as was the case prior to his or her transfer; successor employees to the positions held by such transferred employees shall, consistent with the provisions of article fourteen of the civil service law, be included in the same unit as their predecessors. Employees serving in positions in newly created titles shall be assigned to the same collective bargaining unit as they would have been assigned to such unit were such titles created prior to the establishment of the authority. Nothing contained in this title shall be construed (a) to diminish the rights of employees pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement or (b) to affect existing law with respect to an application to the public employment relations board seeking a designation by the board that certain persons are managerial or confidential.

§ 1147-i. Environmental applications, proceedings, approvals and permits. Any application in relation to the purposes of or contemplated by this title heretofore filed, or any proceeding heretofore commenced, by the county or any agency thereof with the state department of environmental conservation, the department of transportation or any other state agency or instrumentality or with the United States environmental protection agency or any other federal agency or instrumentality shall inure to and for the benefit of the authority to the same extent and in the same manner as if the authority had been a party to such application or proceeding from its inception, and the authority shall be deemed a party thereto, to the extent not prohibited by any federal law. Any license, approval, permit or decision heretofore or hereafter issued or granted pursuant to or as a result of any such application or proceeding shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the authority and shall be assigned and transferred by the municipalities served by the authority or any agency thereof to the authority, unless such assignment and transfer is prohibited by federal law.

§ 1147-j. Limited liability. Neither the members of the authority, nor any municipality, officer or employee acting on behalf of the authority, while acting within the scope of their authority, shall be subject to any personal liability resulting from the construction, maintenance or operation of any of the properties of the authority or from carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title; provided however, that this section shall not be held to apply to any independent contractor.

§ 1147-k. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, notes or other obligations to pay the cost of any project or for any other corporate purpose, including the establishment of reserves to secure the bonds, the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the bonds and the payment of incidental expenses in connection therewith. The aggregate principal amount of such bonds, notes or other obligations shall not exceed twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), excluding bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds, notes or other obligations theretofore issued for such purposes provided, however, that upon any such refunding or repayment the total aggregate principal amount of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations may be greater than twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) only if the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations to be issued shall not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so to be refunded or repaid. For purposes hereof, the present values of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so refunded or repaid, shall be calculated by utilizing the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations from the payment dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and to the price bid including estimated accrued interest or proceeds received by the authority including estimated accrued interest from the sale thereof. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to enter into such agreements and perform such acts as may be required under any applicable federal legislation to secure a federal guarantee of any bonds.

2. The authority shall have power from time to time to renew bonds or to issue renewal bonds for such purpose, to issue bonds to pay bonds, and, whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bond by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose of the authority. Bonds (other than notes or other evidence of indebtedness) issued for refunding purposes, which have a final maturity date longer than the maturity of the bonds being refunded, shall be approved by the chief executive officers of the municipalities served by the authority. Bonds issued for refunding purposes shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds or notes to be refunded.

3. Bonds issued by the authority may be general obligations secured by the faith and credit of the authority or may be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other moneys as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject as to priority only to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular property, revenues or moneys. The authority may also enter into loan agreements, lines of credit and other security agreements and obtain for or on its behalf letters of credit, insurance, guarantees or other credit enhancements to the extent not or hereafter available, in each case for securing its bonds or to provide direct payment of any costs which the authority is authorized to pay.

4. Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, be in such denominations and bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times, as such resolution may provide, provided that bonds and renewals thereof shall mature within forty years from the date of original issuance of any such bonds.

Bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates, be payable at such times, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section shall be sold to the bidder offering the lowest true interest cost, taking into consideration any premium or discount not less than four nor more than fifteen days, Sundays excepted, after a notice of such sale has been published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the area served by the authority, which shall state the terms of the sale. The terms of the sale may not change unless notice of such change is published in such newspaper at least one day prior to the date of the sale as set forth in the original notice of sale. Advertisements shall contain a provision to the effect that the authority, in its discretion, may reject any or all bids made in pursuance of such advertisements, and in the event of such rejection, the authority is authorized to negotiate a private or public sale or readvertise for bids in the form and manner above described as many times as, in its judgment, may be necessary to effect satisfactory sale.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, whenever in the judgment of the authority the interests of the authority will be served thereby, the members of the authority, on the written recommendation of the chairperson, may authorize the sale of such bonds at private or public sale on a negotiated basis or on either a competitive or negotiated basis. The authority shall set guidelines governing the terms and conditions of any such private or public sales. The private or public bond sale guidelines set by the authority shall include, but not be limited to a requirement that where the interests of the authority will be served by a private or public sale of bonds, the authority shall select underwriters for each private or public bond sale conducted pursuant to a request for proposal process and consideration of proposals from qualified underwriters taking into account, among other things, qualifications of underwriters as to experience, their ability to structure and sell authority bond issues, anticipated costs to the authority, the prior experience of the authority with the firm, if any, the capitalization of such firms, participation of qualified minority and women-owned business enterprise firms in such private or public sales of bonds of the authority and the experience and ability of firms under consideration to work with minority and women-owned business enterprises so as to promote and assist participation by such enterprises.

The authority shall have the power from time to time to amend such private bond sale guidelines in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

No private or public bond sale on a negotiated basis shall be conducted by the authority without prior approval of the state comptroller. The authority shall annually prepare and approve a bond sale report which shall include the private or public bond sale guidelines as specified in this subdivision, amendments to such guidelines since the last private or public bond sale report, an explanation of the bond sale guidelines and amendments, and the results of any sale of bonds conducted during the fiscal year. Such bond sale report may be a part of any other annual report that the authority is required to make.

The authority shall annually submit its bond sale report to the state comptroller and copies thereof to the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee.

The authority shall make available to the public copies of its bond sale report upon reasonable request thereof.

Nothing contained in this subdivision shall be deemed to alter, affect the validity of, modify the terms of or impair any contract or agreement made or entered into in violation of, or without compliance with, the provisions of this subdivision.

5. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds by the authority may contain provisions which may be part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or part of its revenues, together with any other moneys, or property of the authority, to secure the payment of the bonds or any costs of issuance thereof, including but not limited to any contracts, earnings or proceeds of any grant to the authority received from any private or public source, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rates, rentals, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected by the authority and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(e) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of any project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or other moneys may be deposited;

(i) the terms and provisions of any trust, deed, mortgage or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(j) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine, which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section one thousand one hundred forty-seven-l of this title or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(l) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any project or any part thereof or other property;

(m) limitations on the amount of revenues and other moneys to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(o) any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of bondholders.

6. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to adopt resolutions and to enter into trust indentures, agreements and other instruments as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including the mortgaging of any property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys, or property and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act, which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements.

The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

7. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

8. Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

9. Neither the members nor the officers of the authority nor any person executing bonds shall be liable personally thereon or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

10. The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as then may exist, shall have power out of any moneys available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority in lieu of redemption, at a price not exceeding:

(a) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable, plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date;

(b) if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date. Bonds so purchased shall thereupon be cancelled.

11. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of such original note.

§ 1147-l. Remedies of bondholders. Subject to any resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to subdivision five of section eleven hundred forty-seven-k of this title:

1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Allegany and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purpose herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds outstanding, shall in its own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect rents, rates, fees and charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such rents, rates, fees and charges and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of any express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The state supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Allegany.

5. Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

6. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the properties the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and, subject to any pledge or agreement with holders of such bonds, such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the properties and shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from such part or parts of such properties and proceed with any construction thereon or the acquisition of any property, real or personal, in connection therewith which the authority is under obligation to do, and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the properties and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from the properties.

§ 1147-m. State, county and municipalities not liable on bonds of the authority. Neither the state, county nor any other municipality or public corporation shall be liable on the bonds of the authority and such bonds shall not be a debt of the state, county or any other municipality or public corporation, and such bonds shall contain, on the face thereof, a statement to such effect.

§ 1147-n. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in interest bearing accounts in a bank or banks in the state designated by the governing body. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the treasurer, upon requisition by the governing body or of such other person or persons as the governing body may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured by obligations of the United States and the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds, as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds, or in any way to secure bonds, and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any moneys of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested in those obligations specified pursuant to the provisions of section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law, as amended from time to time. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders and with the approval of the comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

§ 1147-o. Bonds and notes as legal investment. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officials and bodies of the state and all municipalities, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or notes, or other obligations of the state may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds and notes are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities for any purposes for which the deposit of bonds or notes or other obligations of this state is now or hereafter may be authorized.

§ 1147-p. Agreement with the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title that the state will not alter or limit the rights hereby vested in the authority to purchase, construct, maintain, operate, repair, improve, increase, enlarge, extend, reconstruct, renovate, rehabilitate or dispose of any project, or any part or parts thereof, for which bonds of the authority shall have been issued, to establish and collect rates, rents, fees and other charges referred to in this title to fulfill the terms of any agreement made with or for the benefit of the holders of bonds or notes or with any public corporation or person with reference to such project or part thereof, or in any way to impair the rights and remedies of bondholders until the bonds or notes, together with the interest thereon, including interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged, provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to limit in any manner, the ability of the state to alter, amend or enforce laws or regulations to protect public health and the environment. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with bondholders.

§ 1147-q. Exemption from taxes, assessments and certain fees. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the village of Almond and the people of the towns of Almond, Alfred and that portion of the town of Hornellsville within the boundaries of the authority and the state and is a public purpose and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall not be required to pay any taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any property owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision or upon its activities or any filing, recording, or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf. The construction, use, occupation or possession of any property owned by the authority including improvements thereon, by any person or public corporation under a lease, lease and sublease or any other agreement shall not operate to abrogate or limit the foregoing exemption, notwithstanding that the lessee, user, occupant or person in possession shall claim ownership for federal income tax purposes. Mortgages made or financed, directly or indirectly, by the authority shall be exempt from the mortgage recording taxes imposed by article eleven of the tax law. The authority shall be deemed a public authority for the purposes of section four hundred twelve of the real property tax law.

2. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title together with the income therefrom as well as the property of the authority shall be exempt from taxes, except for transfer and estate taxes. The revenues, moneys and all other property and all transactions and activities of the authority shall be exempt from all taxes and governmental fees or charges, whether imposed by the state or any municipality, including without limitation real estate taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes. The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of any payment of the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom and all revenues, moneys, and other property pledged to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes.

§ 1147-s. Actions against the authority. 1. Except in an action for wrongful death, no action or special proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence or wrongful act of the authority or of any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless (a) a notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority within the time limit by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law, or (b) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused, and (c) the action or special proceeding shall be commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

2. Wherever a notice of claim is served upon the authority, it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claim relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provision of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority may require any person, presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatever against the authority, to be sworn before a member, counsel or an attorney, officer or employee of the authority designated for such purpose concerning such account or claim and, when so sworn, to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

4. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment on its bonds, shall be the rate prescribed by section five thousand four of the civil practice law and rules. Interest on payments of principal or interest on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate borne by such bonds from the due date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

5. Any action or proceeding to which the authority or the people of the state may be parties, in which any question arises as to the validity of this title, shall be preferred over all other civil causes of action or cases, except election causes of action or cases, in all courts of the state and shall be heard and determined in preference to all civil business pending therein, except election causes, irrespective of position on the calendar. The same preference shall be granted upon application of the authority or its counsel in any action or proceeding questioning the validity of this title in which the authority may be allowed to intervene. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the supreme court of the county in which the principal office of the authority is located.

§ 1147-t. Arbitration of disputes. In the event any dispute arises relating to the construction, improvement, extension, operation, funding or any other matter pertaining to the providing of sewer facilities or the operation of the sewer system and which any village or town wholly or partially within the boundaries of the authority has the right to participate in determining if, when and how the carrying out of that construction, improvement, extension, operation, funding or any other matter pertaining to the providing of sewer facilities or the operation of the sewer system shall be undertaken then such dispute shall be resolved by arbitration in the manner provided in article seventy-five of the civil practice law and rules.

§ 1147-u. Construction and purchase contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction or purchase of supplies, materials, or equipment pursuant to sections one hundred one and one hundred three of the general municipal law and shall be let in accordance with the provisions of state law pertaining to prevailing wages, labor standards, and working hours. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

§ 1147-v. Code of ethics. 1. Definition. As used in this section the term "authority employee" shall mean any member, officer or employee of the authority.

2. Rule with respect to conflicts of interest. No authority employee should have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engage in any business or transaction or professional activity or incur any obligation of any nature, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest.

3. Standards. a. No authority employee should accept other employment which will impair his or her independence of judgment in the exercise of his or her official duties.

b. No authority employee should accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which will require the employee to disclose confidential information which he or she has gained by reason of his or her official position or authority.

c. No authority employee should disclose confidential information acquired by the employee in the course of his or her official duties nor use such information to further his or her personal interests.

d. No authority employee should use or attempt to use his or her official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for himself or herself or others.

e. No authority employee should engage in any transaction as representative or agent of the authority with any business entity in which he or she has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with the proper discharge of his or her official duties.

f. An authority employee should not by his or her conduct give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence such employee or unduly enjoy his or her favor in the performance of his or her official duties, or that he or she is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person.

g. An authority employee should abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which he or she has reason to believe may be directly involved in decisions to be made by the employee or which will otherwise create substantial conflict between his or her duty in the public interest and his or her private interest.

h. An authority employee should endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not raise suspicion among the public that he or she is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his or her trust.

i. No authority employee employed on a full-time basis nor any firm or association of which such an employee is a member nor corporation a substantial portion of the stock of which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such employee, should sell goods or services to any person, firm, corporation or association which is licensed or whose rates are fixed by the authority in which such employee serves or is employed.

j. If any authority employee shall have a financial interest, direct or indirect, having a value of ten thousand dollars or more in any activity which is subject to the jurisdiction of a regulatory agency, he or she should file with the secretary of state a written statement that he or she has such a financial interest in such activity which statement shall be open to public inspection.

4. Violations. In addition to any penalty contained in any other provision of law any such authority employee who shall knowingly and intentionally violate any of the provisions of this section may be fined, suspended or removed from office or employment.

§ 1147-w. Equal employment opportunity. The authority shall ensure that all employees or applicants for employment are afforded equal employment opportunity without discrimination.

§ 1147-x. Audit and annual report. In conformity with the provisions of section five of article ten of the constitution, the accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the comptroller and an annual audit shall be performed by an independent certified accountant. The authority shall annually submit to the governor and comptroller and to the chairs of the senate finance and assembly ways and means committees a detailed report pursuant to the provisions of section two thousand eight hundred of this chapter, and a copy of such report shall be filed with the clerk of each town and village in the service area.

§ 1147-y. Separability clause. If any section, clause or provision in this title shall be held by a competent court to be unconstitutional or ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective, and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1147-z. Effect of inconsistent provisions. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any charter, local law, ordinance or resolution of any municipality, the provisions of this title shall be controlling. Nothing contained in this section shall be held to supplement or otherwise expand the powers or duties of the authority otherwise set forth in this title. Except as specifically provided for in this title, in the performance of any of its functions, powers and duties, the authority shall be subject to all applicable general or special laws of the state, the county charter, and any local law, ordinance or resolution of the county.

TITLE 6-E

SENECA COUNTY WATER AND SEWER AUTHORITY

§ 1149. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "Seneca county water and sewer authority act".

16. "Real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, rights and interests in land, waters, lands underwater, groundwater, riparian rights and air rights and any and all things and rights included within said term "real property" and includes not only fee simple absolute, but also any and all lesser interests including, but not limited to, easements, rights-of-way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise.

17. "State sanitary code" shall mean regulations adopted pursuant to section two hundred twenty-five of the public health law.

18. "Sewage" means the water-carried human or animal wastes from residences, buildings, industrial establishments or other places, together with such groundwater infiltration and surface water as may be present. The admixture with sewage of industrial or other waste also shall be considered "sewage" within the meaning of this title.

19. "Sewerage facility" or "sewerage facilities" means any plants, structures and other real and personal property acquired, rehabilitated or constructed or planned for the purpose of collecting, conveying, pumping, treating, neutralizing, storing and disposing of sewage, including but not limited to main, trunk, intercepting, connecting, lateral, outlet or other sewers, outfalls, pumping stations, treatment and disposal plants, groundwater recharge basins, back-flow prevention devices, sludge dewatering or disposal equipment and facilities, clarifiers, filters, phosphorus removal equipment and other plants, works, structures, equipment, vehicles, conveyances, contract rights, franchises, approaches, connections, permits, real or personal property or rights therein and appurtenances thereto necessary or useful and convenient for the collection, conveyance, pumping, treatment, neutralizing, storing and disposing of sewage.

20. "State" shall mean the state of New York.

21. "State agency" shall mean any state office, public benefit corporation, department, board, commission, bureau or division, or other agency or instrumentality of the state.

22. "Supply facility" shall mean a water facility employed to make groundwater or surface water available for delivery into a transmission facility or distribution system.

23. "System revenues" shall mean all rates, rents, fees, charges, payments and other income and receipts derived by the authority including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, investment proceeds and proceeds of insurance, condemnation, sales or other dispositions of assets, together with all federal, state or municipal aid as well as any other income derived from the operation of the water facility of the authority.

24. "Transmission facility" shall mean a water facility used to carry water from a supply facility to a distribution system.

25. "Treasurer" shall mean the treasurer of the authority.

26. "Water facility" or "water facilities" shall mean any plants, structures or other real and personal property acquired, rehabilitated or constructed or planned for the purpose of accumulating, supplying, transmitting, distributing or treating water, including but not limited to surface or groundwater reservoirs, basins, dams, canals, aqueducts, standpipes, conduits, pipelines, mains, pumping stations, pumps, water distribution systems, compensating reservoirs, intake stations, waterworks or sources of water supply, wells, purification or filtration plants or other treatment plants and works, approaches, connections, water meters, rights of flowage or diversion and other plants, structures, equipment, vehicles, towers, conveyances, real or personal property or rights therein and appurtenances thereto necessary or useful and convenient for the accumulation, supply, transmission, treatment or distribution of water.

27. "Water project" shall mean any sewerage facility, water facility or water and sewerage facility, as the case may be, including the planning, development, financing or construction thereof.

28. "Watershed rules" shall mean the rules and regulations made by the department of health pursuant to section eleven hundred of the public health law.

§ 1149-b. Seneca county water and sewer authority district. There is hereby defined and established a district to be known as the "Seneca county water and sewer authority district" which shall embrace all of the territory located within the county of Seneca.

§ 1149-c. Seneca county water and sewer authority. 1. A public corporation known as the "Seneca county water and sewer authority" is hereby created for the public purposes and charged with the duties and having the powers provided in this title.

The authority shall be a corporate governmental agency constituting a public benefit corporation and shall be a "public district" for the purposes of section eighty-nine-l of the public service law. The authority shall be governed by a board consisting of nine members, who shall be residents of the county and be appointed by the chairperson of the board of supervisors and confirmed by the board of supervisors.

The first members appointed shall be appointed for the following terms: three for a term ending on December thirty-first of the year following the year in which this title shall have become law; three for a term ending on December thirty-first of the second year following the year in which this title shall have become law; and three for a term ending on December thirty-first of the third year following the year in which this title shall have become law.

Subsequent appointment of members shall be made in the same manner and for terms of three years ending in each case on December thirty-first of the last year of such term. All members shall continue to hold office until their successors are appointed and have qualified.

Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for original appointment. Vacancies occurring otherwise than by expiration of terms of office, shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired terms.

Members may be removed from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as may be provided by law for the removal of officers of the county. In addition, members may be removed from office by the board of supervisors for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, after the board of supervisors has given such member a copy of the charges against such member and opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel in such member's defense, upon not less than ten days notice.

If a member fails to attend three consecutive regular meetings of the authority, unless such absence is for good cause and is excused by the chairperson of the authority or other presiding officers, or in the case of the chairperson of the authority, by the chairperson of the board of supervisors, the office may be deemed vacant for purposes of the nomination and appointment of a successor.

The officers of the authority shall receive from the authority such salary, if any, as shall be determined from time to time by the board of supervisors. In addition, members and officers shall be entitled to reimbursement of their actual and necessary expenses, including travel expenses, incurred in the discharge of their duties.

2. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and shall be exercised by the board at a meeting duly called and held where a quorum of five members is present. No action shall be taken by the authority except pursuant to the favorable vote of at least five members. The board may delegate to one or more of its members, or to one or more of the officers, agents or employees of the authority, such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

3. The officers of the authority shall consist of a chairperson, vice chairperson, and treasurer who shall be members of the board and a secretary who need not be a member of the board. The officers of the authority shall be appointed by the board and shall serve in such capacities at the pleasure of the board.

In addition, the board may appoint and at its pleasure remove such additional officers and employees as it may determine necessary for the performance of the powers and duties of the authority, which positions shall be in the exempt class of the civil service, and fix and determine the qualifications, duties and compensation of such additional officers and employees, subject to the provisions of the civil service law of the state and such rules as the civil service commission may adopt and make applicable to the authority.

The authority may also from time to time contract for expert professional services. The treasurer shall execute a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of such treasurer's office, the amount and sufficiency of which shall be approved by the board, and the premium therefor shall be paid by the authority.

4. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of any general, special or local law, ordinance, resolution or charter, no officer, member or employee of the state, any municipality, or any public benefit corporation, shall forfeit such officer, member or employee's office or employment by reason of such officer, member or employee's acceptance of appointment as a member, officer, agent or employee of the authority, nor shall service as such member, officer, agent or employee be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office, membership or employment, and one or more members of the board of supervisors may be appointed to serve as a member of the authority.

5. (a) The chairperson of the board of supervisors shall file within one year after the effective date of this title, in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate signed by the chairperson of the board of supervisors setting forth: (i) the name of the authority; (ii) the names of the initial members of the board and their terms of office; and (iii) the effective date of this title. If such certificate is not filed with the secretary of state on or before such date, then the corporate existence of the authority shall thereupon terminate and it shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be dissolved.

(b) The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding unless adequate provision has been made for the payment or satisfaction thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and vest in the county.

6. Neither the public service commission nor any other board or commission of like character, shall have jurisdiction over the authority in the management and control of its properties or operations of any power over the regulation of rates fixed or charges collected by the authority.

7. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers, purposes and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the county and the state, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that such purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

§ 1149-d. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have the power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To borrow money and issue negotiable notes, bonds, or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. To enter into contracts and execute all instruments necessary or convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority to carry out any powers expressly given it in this title;

5. To acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease or by condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law within the district, lease as lessee, hold and use and to sell, lease as lessor, transfer or otherwise dispose of, any real or personal property or any interest therein, within or without the district, as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the purpose of this title and to pay the costs thereof; provided, however, that the authority may not condemn real property of a municipality without the consent of the governing body of such municipality;

6. To purchase or refuse to purchase in the name of the authority, any water or sewerage facility, including plants, works, instrumentalities or parts thereof and appurtenances thereto, lands, easements, rights in land and water rights, rights-of-way, contract rights, franchises, permits, approaches, connections, dams, wells, pumps, reservoirs, water or sewer mains and pipe lines, pumping stations, treatment facilities, meters, equipment and inventory, or any other property incidental to and included in such system or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions and betterments, situated wholly within the district and to pay the costs thereof; provided, however that prior to the acquisition of any existing water or sewer district, the authority shall discuss and consider the status of current employees of the water or sewer district; and further provided, however, that the authority shall have the power to purchase any source of supply, supply facility, water supply system, or transmission facility or any part thereof situated wholly or partly without the territorial limits of the district, provided same shall be necessary in order to supply water within the district; and in connection with the purchase of such properties the authority may assume any obligations of the owner of such properties and, to the extent required by the terms of any indentures or other instruments under which such obligations were issued, the authority may assume and agree to perform covenants and observe the restrictions contained in such instruments; and furthermore the owner of any properties, which the authority is authorized to acquire, is hereby authorized to sell or otherwise transfer the same to the authority, whereupon the authority shall become charged with the performance of all public duties with respect to such properties with which such owner was charged and such owner shall become discharged from the performance thereof, and as a means of so acquiring for such purpose, the authority may purchase all of the stock or any existing privately owned water corporation or company and in the case of a sale or other transfer of properties of a public utility corporation pursuant to this provision, upon the purchase of the stock of such corporation or company it shall be lawful to dissolve such corporation within a reasonable time;

7. To construct, improve, maintain, develop, expand or rehabilitate water or sewerage facilities and to pay the costs thereof;

8. To operate and manage and to contract for the operation and management of facilities of the authority;

9. To enter into contracts, and carry out the terms thereof, for the wholesale provision of water produced by supply facilities constructed, owned or operated by the authority, to municipalities and private water companies and to carry out the terms thereof, for the transmission of water from new or existing supply facilities;

10. To enter into contracts with municipalities or other persons for the collection, treatment and disposal of sewage;

11. To apply to the appropriate agencies and officials of the federal, state and local governments for such licenses, permits or approvals of its plans or projects as it may deem necessary or advisable, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate, to accept, in its discretion, such licenses, permits or approvals as may be tendered to it by such agencies and officials;

12. To take all necessary and reasonable actions within the district to conserve, preserve and protect the water supply to the district, including the making of plans and studies, the adoption of watershed rules and regulations, the enforcing of compliance with all current and future rules and regulations of the state sanitary code with regard to water supply and usage, the requiring of cross-connection controls, the providing of educational material and programs to the public, and the cooperating with water suppliers outside the district to conserve, preserve and protect the entire water reserve as it is affected within and outside the authority's supply area;

13. To appoint such officers and employees as are required for the performance of its duties, to fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation, and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers, and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional or technical services and advice;

14. With the consent of the governing body of a municipality, to use officers and employees of such municipality and to pay a proper proportion of the compensation or costs for the services for such officers or employees;

15. To make plans and studies necessary, convenient or desirable for the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

16. To prepare a water supply emergency plan which may include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) establishment of criteria and procedures to determine critical water levels or safe yield of system;

(b) identification of existing and future sources of water under normal conditions and emergency conditions;

(c) system capacity and ability to meet peak demand and fire flows concurrently;

(d) storage capacities;

(e) current condition of present interconnections and identification of additional interconnections to meet a water supply emergency;

(f) specific action plan to be followed during a water supply emergency including a phased implementation of the plan;

(g) general water conservation programs and water use reduction strategies for water supply users;

(h) prioritization of water users;

(i) identification and availability of emergency equipment needed during a water supply emergency; and

(j) public notification program coordinated with the phased implementation schedule;

Such plan shall not be adopted until a public hearing on such plan shall have been held, upon not less than fourteen days' notice thereof to each customer, either by mail or by publication once in a newspaper having general circulation within the district; every five years, such plan shall be reviewed and revised if necessary after a public hearing, with notice to each customer as aforesaid;

17. To enter upon such lands, waters, or premises as in the judgment of the authority shall be necessary for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable only for actual damage done;

18. To apply for and to accept any gifts or grants or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from the state or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from any other source, for any or all of the purposes specified in this title, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof;

19. To supply and sell water for domestic, commercial and public purposes at retail to individual consumers within the district or to collect, treat or discharge sewage produced within the district;

20. To purchase water in bulk from any person, private or public benefit corporation or municipality when necessary or convenient for the operation of such water system;

21. To produce, develop, distribute and sell water or sewerage services within or without the territorial limits of the district; and to purchase water from any municipality, town water district, person, association or corporation, provided, however, that water or sewerage services may be sold at retail to individual consumers only within the district and further provided that in exercising the powers granted by this title, the authority shall not sell water in any area which is served by a water system or sewerage services in any area which is served by a sewerage system owned or operated by a municipality or special improvement district unless the governing body of such municipality or district shall adopt a resolution requesting the authority to sell water or sewerage services, as the case may be, in such served areas;

22. To make bylaws for the management and regulation of its affairs and rules and regulations for the conservation, preservation and protection of the authority's water supply and, subject to agreements with bondholders, rules for the sale of water or collection of sewage and the collection of rents and charges therefor. A copy of such rules, regulations and bylaws and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision eleven of this section, and all amendments thereto, duly certified by the secretary of the authority shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county. In addition, the board of supervisors by local law shall have power to prescribe that violation of specific bylaws, rules, or rules and regulations of the authority, published once in a newspaper having general circulation within the county, shall be punishable as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction;

23. To fix rates and collect charges for the use of the facilities of, or services rendered by, or any commodities furnished by the authority such as to provide revenues sufficient at all times to pay, as the same shall become due, the principal of and interest on the bonds, notes, or other obligations of the authority together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, in addition to paying as the same shall become due, the expense of operating and maintaining the properties of the authority together with proper maintenance reserves, capital reserves, repair reserves, other contingency reserves, and all other obligations and indebtedness of the authority;

24. To enter into cooperative agreements with other authorities, municipalities, counties, cities, towns, villages, water districts, utility companies, individuals, firms or corporations, within or without the territorial limits of the district for the interconnection of facilities, the provision, exchange or interchange of services and commodities, the conservation, preservation and protection of the authority's water reserve as it is affected within and outside the authority's supply area, and, within the territorial limits of the district, to enter into a contract for the construction, operation and maintenance of a water supply and distribution system by the authority for any municipality having power to construct and develop a water supply and distribution system or sewerage system or facilities, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined to be reasonable, including but not limited to the reimbursement of all costs of such construction, or for any other lawful purposes necessary or desirable to effect the purposes of this title;

25. To provide for the discontinuance or disconnection of the supply of water or sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, for nonpayment of fees, rates, rents or other charges therefor imposed by the authority, provided such discontinuance or disconnection of any water or sewerage service, or both, as the case may be, shall not be carried out except in the manner and upon the notice as is required of a waterworks corporation pursuant to subdivisions three-a, three-b and three-c of section eighty-nine-b and section one hundred sixteen of the public service law;

26. To act as a county water agency in accordance with the provisions of article five-A of the county law;

27. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for all exercise of the powers granted in this title.

§ 1149-e. Advances on behalf of the authority; transfer of property to the authority; acquisition of property by county for authority. 1. In addition to any powers granted to it by law, the county from time to time may appropriate sums of money, after approval by the board of supervisors, to or on behalf of the authority to defray project costs or any other costs and expenses of the authority. Subject to the rights of bondholders, the county at the time of the appropriation shall determine if the moneys so appropriated shall be subject to repayment by the authority to the county and, in such event, the manner and time or times for such repayment.

2. The county or any other municipality may give, grant, sell, convey, loan, license the use of or lease to the authority any property or facility which is useful to the authority in order to carry out its powers under this title. Any such transfer of property shall be upon such terms and conditions, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds, as the authority and the county or other municipality may agree.

3. The county may acquire by purchase or by exercise of the power of eminent domain real property in the name of the county for any corporate purpose of the authority.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, general, special or local to the contrary, real property acquired by the authority or the county from the state may be used for any corporate purpose of the authority.

§ 1149-f. Transfer of officers and employees. Any officer or employee under civil service who is selected by the authority and may be transferred to the authority and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to comparable offices, positions and employment under the authority.

The salary or compensation of any such officer or employee, as determined by the authority, shall after such transfer be paid by the authority.

Any such officers or employees so transferred to the authority pursuant to this section, who are members of or beneficiaries under any existing pension or retirement fund or system, shall continue to have all rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such fund or system as are now prescribed by law, but during the period of their employment by the authority, all contributions to such funds or systems to be paid by the employer on account of such officers or employees shall be paid by the authority.

All such officers and employees so transferred to the authority who have been appointed to positions under the rules and classifications of the civil service commission shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and such rules as the civil service commission may adopt and make applicable to the authority.

§ 1149-g. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds in conformance with the applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in such principal amounts as it may determine to be necessary to pay the cost of any water project or projects or for any other corporate purposes, including incidental expenses in connection therewith.

The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose.

Bonds issued by the authority shall be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other moneys of the authority as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging particular revenues or moneys.

2. The authority is authorized to obtain from any department or agency of the United States of America of the state or nongovernmental insurer or financial institution any insurance, guaranty, or other credit enhancement arrangement, to the extent now or hereafter available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest or principal, or both, or any part thereof, on any bonds or notes issued by the authority and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to such insurance, guaranty or credit enhancement arrangement, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holder of the bonds or notes of the authority.

3. Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, and may be in such denominations and bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times as such resolution may provide, except that bonds and renewals thereof shall mature within forty years from the date their original issuance and notes and any renewals thereof shall mature within five years from the date of their original issuance. Such bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates, which may vary from time to time, as may be necessary to effect the sale thereof and shall be payable at such times, be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide.

Bonds may be sold at public sale or at private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, provided that no issue of bonds may be sold by the authority at private sale unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by the comptroller, where such sale is not to the comptroller, or by the state director of the budget, where such sale is to be to the comptroller.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds by the authority may contain provisions which may be part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or part of its revenues, together with any other moneys, or property of the authority, to secure the payment of the bonds, including but not limited to any contracts, earnings or proceeds of any grant to the authority received from any private or public source, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rates, rentals, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected by the authority and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(e) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of any water project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or other moneys may be deposited;

(i) the terms and provisions of any trust, deed, mortgage or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(j) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine, which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to applicable sections of this title and limiting or abrogating the rights of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(l) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any water facility or any part thereof or other property;

(m) limitations on the amount of revenues and other moneys to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) the protection and enforcement of the rights and remedies of the bondholders;

(o) the obligations of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repairs and insurance of its properties, the safeguarding and application of all moneys and as to the requirements for the supervision and approval of consulting engineers in connection with construction, reconstruction and operation;

(p) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(q) any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of bondholders.

5. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including remarketing agreements or other similar agreements for the bonds, the mortgaging of any property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys, or property and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act, which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements.

The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

6. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, moneys, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

7. Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

8. Neither the members nor the officers of the authority nor any person executing bonds shall be liable personally thereon or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

9. The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as then may exist, shall have power out of any moneys available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority in lieu of redemption, at a price not exceeding:

(a) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable, plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date;

(b) if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date.

10. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of issue of such original note.

Such notes shall be paid from any moneys of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged or from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds and such notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which the bonds or bond resolution of the authority may contain. Such notes may be sold at public sale or, upon the approval of the comptroller of the terms thereof, at private sale. Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority.

§ 1149-h. Remedies of bondholders. Subject to any resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to applicable provisions of this title:

1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds outstanding shall, in such trustee's own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders including the right to require the authority to collect rents, rates, fees, and charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such rents, rates and charges, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring an action or proceeding upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incidental to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The state supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders. Venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the county.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the properties the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and, subject to any pledge or agreement with holders of such bonds, such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the properties and shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from such part or parts of such properties and proceed with any construction thereon or the acquisition of any property, real or personal, in connection therewith which the authority is under obligation to do, and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the properties and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from the properties.

6. Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days notice in writing to the authority.

§ 1149-i. State and municipalities not liable on authority bonds. Neither the state nor any municipality shall be liable on the bonds of the authority and such bonds shall not be a debt of the state or of any municipality.

§ 1149-j. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in one or more banks and/or trust companies in the state designated by the authority. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on checks of the treasurer upon requisition by the board or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions.

All deposits of such moneys shall be secured by obligations of (or guaranteed by) the United States or of the state or of the county of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any moneys of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested in those obligations specified pursuant to the provisions of section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law.
