§ 1299-ff. Formulation, filing and adoption of master plan; amendments. The authority shall formulate a master plan for transportation within the district. In formulating such master plan, the authority shall consult and cooperate with the commissioner of transportation and planning authorities in the areas of its operations, and shall utilize state, local or regional transportation planning. The authority shall request and use existing studies, plans, surveys, data and other materials completed by or under development by any state agency or municipality or political subdivision of the state. The authority shall file copies of such plan with the commissioner of transportation, the Genesee-Finger Lakes Regional Planning Board, the city council of the city of Rochester, the legislature of the county of Monroe, and with the legislative body of any other county, within the district, affected by such plan, as hereinafter stated, except where applications for state or federal aid have been filed for any particular transportation undertaking prior to the enactment of this legislation. The plan shall contain information regarding the transportation system that the authority intends to provide including information regarding the facilities connected therewith, the services the authority contemplates providing and the estimated costs and the proposed method of financing. During sixty days after the filing of the master plan with the commissioner of transportation, in the Office of the Genesee-Finger Lakes Regional Planning Board and with the legislative bodies as aforesaid, said plan shall be available for public inspection at the office or offices of the authority and at such other places in the areas affected, within the district, as the authority may designate. Not earlier than thirty days after the filing of said master plan with the commissioner of transportation, the Genesee-Finger Lakes Regional Planning Board and such legislative bodies, a public hearing on said plan shall be held by the authority. Notice of such a hearing shall be given to the commissioner of transportation, the Genesee-Finger Lakes Regional Planning Board and the legislative bodies as aforesaid and by publication once a week for two weeks prior to the said hearing at the time and place fixed by the authority in newspapers of general circulation within the areas affected, to be selected by the authority. The last publication date shall not be less than five days before said hearing. Within thirty days following said public hearing, the authority shall provide a transcript of such hearing to the commissioner of transportation, the Genesee-Finger Lakes Regional Planning Board and the legislative bodies as aforesaid, together with any amendments the authority may propose to the master plan. The authority shall request approval of the master plan, including such amendments as the authority may propose, from the aforementioned legislative bodies and the commissioner of transportation. Any part of said plan which is disapproved by a political subdivision because it alters existing services or the financing thereof within said political subdivision shall not become operative. This disapproval of part or parts of the plan shall not make the entire plan inoperative. Any part of said plan which is disapproved by the commissioner of transportation because it conflicts with a state-wide comprehensive master plan for transportation or the Rochester Metropolitan transportation plan or, in the absence of such plans, would have an adverse effect upon sound transportation development policy and planning, shall not become operative. If the said legislative bodies or said regional planning board fail to act within said sixty days or in the case of the commissioner of transportation within ninety days after approval is requested, said failure shall be deemed approval, and the authority may adopt the master plan by a majority vote of its membership and may include changes, if any, recommended by said commissioner of transportation, planning board or said legislative bodies.

The master plan may be amended from time to time in the same manner using the procedures outlined herein for the original adoption, except that proposed changes made by the authority upon recommendations of the commissioner of transportation, said legislative bodies or the Genesee-Finger Lakes Regional Planning Board in the first plan may be embodied or continued by a majority vote of the authority without additional hearings thereon as required for the amendments proposed to be made.

§ 1299-fff. Filing five year performance, capital and operating finance plans. 1. (a) On or before October first, nineteen hundred ninety-four, and annually thereafter on or before April first, the authority shall adopt an operational performance plan for the five-year period commencing April first. The plan shall set operational performance plan goals and objectives, including but not limited to ridership and passenger revenue goals and objectives for the period, for fixed route bus operations, and shall establish performance indicators to measure standards of service and operations. The performance indicators shall include: revenue passengers, total passengers, revenue vehicle miles, revenue vehicle hours, number of employees by department, vehicle mean distance between failures, on-time performance for total service provided, the cost per passenger, the cost per revenue vehicle mile and the operating-revenue-to-cost ratio.

(b) Quarterly reports shall be prepared for authority members on operating performance of fixed route bus operations. The first such report shall cover the three-month period commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-five and shall be submitted no later than thirty days after the end of the quarter. Thereafter, quarterly reports shall be submitted on the last day of October, January, April, and July of each year. The report shall compare the performance indicators for the most recent quarter and the year-to-date performance indicators with the same time period in the previous year with the annual goals established pursuant to this subdivision.

2. (a) On or before October first, nineteen hundred ninety-four, and annually thereafter on or before April first, the authority shall adopt a capital program plan for the five-year period commencing April first. The plan shall contain the capital program, separately itemized, by the following functions: regular fixed route bus service, demand responsive bus service, and any aviation facilities and any marine facilities for which it currently has or shall assume responsibility.

(b) The plan shall set goals and objectives by function for capital spending, establish standards for service and operation, describe each capital project to be initiated in each of the years covered by the plan and explain how each proposed project supports the goals and objectives and the service and operational standards established in the performance plan. The plan shall list separately by function those projects contributing to the maintenance of the system infrastructure and those intended to enhance the system. The plan shall also include an estimated cost for each project and set forth an estimate of the amount of capital funding required for each year of the plan and the expected sources of such funding. It shall also include a project schedule for the initiation and completion of each project. Each plan subsequent to the first such plan shall describe the current status of each capital project which has a total estimated cost of one hundred thousand dollars or more and which was included in the previously adopted plan.

(c) In addition to the annual update, a quarterly capital plan status report shall be provided to the authority members and shall include, but not be limited to, a description of any material change in the scope, cost, funding or time of initiation or completion of a project which has a total estimated cost of one hundred thousand dollars or more, as adopted in the plan. The first such report shall cover the three-month period commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-five and shall be submitted no later than thirty days after the end of the quarter. Thereafter, quarterly reports shall be submitted on the last day of October, January, April, and July of each year.

3. (a) On or before October first, nineteen hundred ninety-four, and annually thereafter on or before April first, the authority shall adopt an operating finance plan for the five-year period commencing April first. The plan shall include the annual estimated operating cost for the following authority functions: fixed bus operations, demand responsive bus operations, and any aviation facilities and any marine facilities for which it currently has, or shall assume responsibility. The plan shall include the proposed method of financing for the level of service defined for each year of the plan and shall fully allocate the authority's general costs to each of the above separate functions. The plan shall provide a narrative describing the overall financial condition of the operating budget of the authority.

(b) In addition to the annual update, quarterly operating budget reports shall be prepared for the authority members on the financial condition of each of the authority's functions. The first such report shall cover the three-month period commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-five and shall be submitted no later than thirty days after the end of the quarter. Thereafter, quarterly reports shall be submitted on the last day of October, January, April, and July of each year. The reports shall include a budgetary comparison of the most recent quarter and year-to-date actual revenue and expenditures with the same time period in the previous year and with the projections for that time period based on the board approved budget. The reporting for fixed route bus operations shall be separate from the reporting for demand responsive bus service.

4. Any and all reports, including interim reports, shall be submitted to the director of the division of the budget, the commissioner of transportation and the chief executive officers of Genesee, Livingston, Monroe, and Wayne counties, the county legislatures of Genesee, Livingston, Monroe, and Wayne counties, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the chairpersons of the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee, and the chairpersons of the senate and assembly transportation committees.

 § 1299-gg. General powers of the authority. A. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To borrow money and issue negotiable notes, bonds or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. To invest any funds held in reserve or sinking funds, or any monies not required for immediate use or disbursement, at the discretion of the authority, in obligations of the state or the United States government or obligations the principal and interest of which are guaranteed by the state or the United States government; or certificates of deposit of banks or trust companies or in bank or trust accounts of banks in this state, secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit;

5. To make and alter by-laws for its organization and internal management, and rules and regulations governing the exercise of its powers and the fulfillment of its purposes under this title;

6. To enter into contracts and leases and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

7. To acquire, hold and dispose of real or personal property in the exercise of its powers;

8. To appoint a general manager, who shall serve at the pleasure of the authority, and such officers and employees as the authority may require for the performance of its duties, and to fix and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional, management or technical services and advice; such general manager, counsel, auditors, engineers, and private consultants, officers and employees may not be a member of the authority;

9. (a) Notwithstanding section one hundred thirteen of the retirement and social security law or any other general or special law, the authority and any of its subsidiary corporations may continue or provide to its affected officers and employees any retirement, disability, death or other benefits provided or required for railroad personnel pursuant to federal or state law. Notwithstanding any provisions of the civil service law, no officer or employee of a subsidiary corporation, of the authority, other than a public benefit subsidiary corporation, shall be a public officer or a public employee;

(b) The authority and any of its public benefit subsidiary corporations may be a "participating employer" in the New York state employees' retirement system with respect to one or more classes of officers and employees of such authority or any such public benefit subsidiary corporation, as may be provided by resolution of such authority or any such public benefit subsidiary corporation, as the case may be, or any subsequent amendment thereof, filed with the comptroller and accepted by him pursuant to section thirty-one of the retirement and social security law. In taking any action pursuant to this paragraph (b), the authority and any of its public benefit subsidiary corporations shall consider the coverages and benefits continued or provided pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision;

10. To make plans, surveys, and studies necessary, convenient or desirable to the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto and shall undertake a study of the port potential of Sodus Bay and shall undertake a feasibility study of the merging of the Rochester-Monroe County Port Authority into the Rochester-Genesee Regional Transportation Authority.

11. To enter upon such lands, waters or premises as in the judgment of the authority may be necessary, convenient or desirable for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable for actual damage done;

12. The authority may conduct investigations and hearings in the furtherance of its general purposes, and in aid thereof have access to any books, records or papers relevant thereto; and if any person whose testimony shall be required for the proper performance of the duties of the authority shall fail or refuse to aid or assist the authority in the conduct of any investigation or hearing, or to produce any relevant books, records or other papers, the authority is authorized to apply for process of subpoena, to issue out of any court of general original jurisdiction whose process can reach such person, upon due cause shown;

13. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

14. To enter into collective bargaining agreements with labor representatives duly elected by the employees of the authority.

15. To insure or provide for the insurance of the authority's property or operations as required by law and also against such other risks as the authority may deem advisable.

B. The authority shall file in the office of the commissioner of transportation of the state of New York annual reports, after the close of each of the authority's fiscal years, which shall be open to public inspection. Such reports shall include, in addition to any information which the commissioner may require, a statement with respect to its operations including the following data:

(a) Cost breakdown of real property acquired;

(b) Cost breakdown in appropriate units of facilities acquired;

(c) Operating revenues;

(d) Operating expenses.

The authority shall also file copies of such reports with the city council of the city of Rochester and with the county legislative bodies in all counties where such authority operates.

* NB There are 2 § 1299-gg's

§ 1299-hh. Special powers of the authority. In order to effectuate the purposes of this title: 1. The authority may acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease, or condemnation, any transportation facility, including port or related facilities wholly or partially within the Rochester-Genesee regional transportation district or any part thereof, or the use thereof, and may enter into any joint service arrangements as hereinafter provided. Any such acquisition or joint service arrangement shall be authorized only by resolution of the authority approved by not less than a majority vote of the authority.

2. The authority may on such terms and conditions as the authority may determine necessary, convenient or desirable itself establish, construct, effectuate, operate, maintain, renovate, improve, extend or repair any such transportation facility, or may provide for such establishment, construction, effectuation, operation, maintenance, renovation, improvement, extension or repair by contract, lease, or other arrangement on such terms as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable with any person, including but not limited to any common carrier or freight forwarder, the state, any state agency, the federal government, any other state or agency or instrumentality thereof, any public authority of this or any other state or any political subdivision or municipality of the state. In connection with the operation of any such transportation facility, the authority may establish, construct, effectuate, operate, maintain, renovate, improve, extend or repair or may provide by contract, lease or other arrangement for the establishment, construction, effectuation, operation, maintenance, renovation, improvement, extension or repair of any related services and activities it deems necessary, convenient or desirable, including but not limited to the transportation and storage of freight and the United States mail, feeder and connecting transportation, parking areas, transportation centers, ports, stations and related facilities.

3. The authority may establish, levy and collect or cause to be established, levied and collected and, in the case of a joint service arrangement, join with others in the establishment, levy and collection of such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees as it may deem necessary, convenient or desirable for the use and operation of any transportation facility and related services operated by the authority or by a subsidiary corporation of the authority or under contract, lease or other arrangement, including joint service arrangements, with the authority. Any such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges or other fees for the transportation of passengers shall be established and changed only if approved by resolution of the authority adopted by not less than a majority vote of the authority and only after a public hearing, provided however, that fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges or other fees for the transportation of passengers on any transportation facility which are in effect at the time that the then owner of such transportation facility becomes a subsidiary corporation of the authority or at the time that operation of such transportation facility is commenced by the authority or is commenced under contract, lease or other arrangement including joint service arrangements, with the authority may be continued in effect without such a hearing. Such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees shall be established as may in the judgment of the authority be necessary to maintain the combined operations of the authority and its subsidiary corporations on a self-sustaining basis. The said operations shall be deemed to be on a self-sustaining basis as required by this title, when the authority is able to pay or cause to be paid from revenue and any other funds or property actually available to the authority and its subsidiary corporations (a) as the same shall become due, the principal of and interest on the bonds and notes and other obligations of the authority and of such subsidiary corporations, together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, (b) the cost and expense of keeping the properties and assets of the authority and its subsidiary corporations in good condition and repair, and (c) the capital and operating expenses of the authority and its subsidiary corporations. The authority may contract with the holders of bonds and notes with respect to the exercise of the powers authorized by this section.

4. The authority may establish and, in the case of joint service arrangements, join with others in the establishment of such schedules and standards of operations and such other rules and regulations including but not limited to rules and regulations governing the conduct and safety of the public as it may deem necessary, convenient or desirable for the use and operation of any transportation facility and related services operated by the authority or under contract, lease or other arrangement, including joint service arrangements, with the authority. Such rules and regulations governing the conduct and safety of the public shall be filed with the department of state in the manner provided by section one hundred two of the executive law. In the case of any conflict between any such rule or regulation of the authority governing the conduct or safety of the public and any local law, ordinance, rule or regulation, such rule or regulation of the authority shall prevail. Violation of any such rule or regulation of the authority governing the conduct or the safety of the public in or upon any facility of the authority shall constitute an offense and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisonment for not more than thirty days or both.

5. The authority may acquire, hold, own, lease, establish, construct, effectuate, operate, maintain, renovate, improve, extend or repair any of its facilities through, and cause any one or more of its powers, duties, functions or activities to be exercised or performed by, one or more wholly owned subsidiary corporations of the authority and may transfer to or from any such corporation any moneys, real property or other property for any of the purposes of this title. The directors or members of each such subsidiary corporation shall be the same persons holding the offices of members of the authority. Each such subsidiary corporation and any of its property, functions and activities shall have all of the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions and other exemptions of the authority and of the authority's property, functions and activities. Each such subsidiary corporation shall be subject to the restrictions and limitations to which the authority may be subject. Each such subsidiary corporation shall be subject to suit in accordance with section twelve hundred ninety-nine-qq of this title. The employees of any such subsidiary corporation, except those who are also employees of the authority, shall not be deemed employees of the authority.

If the authority shall determine that one or more of its subsidiary corporations should be in the form of a public benefit corporation, it shall create each such public benefit corporation by executing and filing with the secretary of state a certificate of incorporation, which may be amended from time to time by filing, which shall set forth the name of such public benefit subsidiary corporation, its duration, the location of its principal office, and any or all of the purposes of acquiring, owning, leasing, establishing, constructing, effectuating, operating, maintaining, renovating, improving, extending or repairing one or more facilities of the authority. Each such public benefit subsidiary corporation shall be a body politic and corporate and shall have all those powers vested in the authority by the provisions of this title which the authority shall determine to include in its certificate of incorporation except the power to contract indebtedness.

Whenever any state, political subdivision, municipality, commission, agency, officer, department, board, division or person is authorized and empowered for any of the purposes of this title to co-operate and enter into agreements with the authority such state, political subdivision, municipality, commission, agency, officer, department, board, division or person shall have the same authorization and power for any of such purposes to co-operate and enter into agreements with a subsidiary corporation of the authority.

6. The authority, in its own name or in the name of the state, may apply for and receive and accept grants of property, money and services and other assistance offered or made available to it by any person, government or agency whatever, which it may use to meet capital or operating expenses and for any other use within the scope of its powers, and to negotiate for the same upon such terms and conditions as the authority may determine to be necessary, convenient or desirable.

7. The authority may do all things it deems necessary, convenient or desirable to manage, control and direct the maintenance and operation of transportation facilities, equipment or real property operated by or under contract, lease or other arrangement with the authority. Except as hereinafter specially provided, no municipality or political subdivision, including but not limited to a county, city, village, town or school or other district shall have jurisdiction over any facilities of the authority or any of its activities or operations. In the operation, maintenance and control of any facilities devoted to purposes other than direct transportation purposes, the authority shall be subject to all local laws, resolutions, ordinances, rules and regulations of a municipality or political subdivision. Each municipality or political subdivision, including but not limited to a county, city, village, town or district in which any facilities of the authority are located shall provide for such facilities police, fire and health protection services of the same character and to the same extent as those provided for residents of such municipality or political subdivision.

The authority may agree with the state department of transportation for the execution by such department of any grade crossing elimination project or any grade crossing separation reconstruction project along any railroad facility operated by the authority or by one of its subsidiary corporations or under contract, lease or other arrangement with the authority. Any such project shall be executed as provided in the grade crossing elimination act and the railroad law, respectively, and the costs of any such project shall be borne as provided in such laws, except that the authority's share of such costs shall be borne by the state.

8. The authority may accept unconditional grants of money or property as subsidy payments for expansion of service into areas where such service would not be self-supporting. The authority may accept unconditional grants of money or property from any city, village, town or county not wholly contained within a city the whole or any part of which shall be served or to be served by a transportation facility operated by the authority. Such grants of money or property would be for the purpose of assisting the authority in meeting its capital or operating expenses. The acceptance of any such grant shall not operate to make the authority an agency of the municipality making the grant. The provisions of this section are intended as enabling legislation only and shall not be interpreted as implying that absent their enactment an authority would lack the power to accept such grant or subsidy.

9. The authority may do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to design, develop, acquire, construct, maintain, operate, improve and reconstruct a rapid transit system in the Charlotte-Henrietta Corridor which is described generally as follows: commencing on the north at the Port of Rochester, thence southwesterly along the Penn Central railroad right of way to its intersection with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad-belt line division right of way, thence southerly along the Baltimore and Ohio railroad-belt line division to its intersection with the railroad right of way of the former "rapid transit and industrial railway", near Lexington Avenue, owned by the City of Rochester, thence southerly along said former "rapid transit and industrial railway" through certain abandoned canal lands owned by the State of New York to the point where it intersects with the Rochester branch of the Lehigh Valley railroad right of way, thence southerly along said Lehigh Valley railroad to the point where it intersects with the Erie railroad right of way, thence southerly along the Erie railroad right of way to a terminus near Erie Station Road at the Riverton new community, also thence southeasterly along said Lehigh Valley Railroad from the point where it intersects with the Erie Railroad right of way, to a terminus near Calkins Road. The Charlotte-Henrietta Corridor shall be deemed a "transportation facility" of the authority for all of the purposes of this title.

10. Notwithstanding any of the above provisions, no project may be undertaken by the authority unless such project is a part of or consistent with the adopted master plan.

§ 1299-ii. Acquisition and disposition of real property. 1. In addition to the powers provided in section twelve hundred ninety-nine-gg of this title to acquire transportation facilities, equipment and real property, the authority may acquire, by condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law and/or in accordance with the condemnation provisions of subdivision seven of this section, any real property it may deem necessary, convenient, or desirable to effectuate the purpose of this title, provided, however, that any such condemnation proceedings shall be brought only in the supreme court and the compensation to be paid shall be ascertained and determined by the court without a jury. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision, no real property may be acquired by the authority by condemnation or by purchase for purposes other than a transportation facility unless the governing body of the city, village or town in which such real property is located shall first consent to such acquisition.

2. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the authority from bringing any proceedings to remove a cloud on title or such other proceedings as it may, in its discretion, deem proper and necessary or from acquiring any such property by negotiation or purchase.

3. Where a person entitled to an award in the proceedings to condemn any real property for any of the purposes of this title remains in possession of such property after the time of the vesting of title in the condemnor, the reasonable value of his use and occupancy of such property subsequent to such time as fixed by agreement or by the court in such proceedings or by any court of competent jurisdiction shall be a lien against such award subject only to the liens of record at the time of vesting of title in the condemnor.

4. Title to all property acquired under this act shall vest in the authority.

5. The authority may, whenever it determines that it is in the interest of the authority, dispose of any real property or property other than real property, which it determines is not necessary, convenient or desirable for its purposes.

6. The authority may, whenever it shall determine that it is in the interest of the authority, rent, lease or grant easements or other rights in, any land or property of the authority.

7. The authority may adopt the following condemnation procedures. A certified copy of a resolution adopted by the authority authorizing the acquisition and identifying and describing the property and franchises, if any, sought to be acquired by condemnation shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such property is situated, held or maintained. A petition for an order vesting title to such property and franchises, if any, sought to be acquired by condemnation shall set forth a description of the said property and franchises, if any, and a prayer that title be vested in the authority, shall be presented, upon notice of the application to condemn published in five successive issues of a publication of general circulation within the county where such property and franchises, if any, are located, to a special term of the supreme court held at the time and place specified in such notice, within the judicial district in which the property being acquired or some part thereof is situated. Such proceedings shall have precedence over all other cases on the calendar of such court, any other provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding. Upon due proof to the satisfaction of the court of the filing of the resolution as hereinafter described, such court, not later than three days after the presentation of the petition, shall thereupon enter an order vesting title to such property and franchises, if any, in the authority. Upon such vesting of title the authority shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of such property. A notice of such acquisition shall be directed to the owners of the property and franchises, if any, so acquired and to any other person or persons having an estate, interest or easement in such property or a lien, charge or encumbrance thereon by personal service or by registered mail at the last known address within fifteen days after such vesting of title. Such notice shall set forth such resolution, the date of the submission to the court, the date of the order vesting title in such authority and such other matters as the authority may determine.

8. If funds are made available by the authority for the payment of the cost and expense of the acquisition thereof, the department of transportation of the state of New York, when requested by the authority, may acquire such real property in the name of the state as may be determined from time to time by the authority as being necessary, convenient or desirable to effectuate the purposes of this title, may remove the owner or occupant thereof where necessary, and obtain possession and, when requested by the authority, may dispose of any real property so acquired, all according to the procedure provided in section thirty of the highway law and pursuant to the procedure required under federal law, when applicable. The authority shall have the right to possess and use for its corporate purposes all such real property so acquired. Claims for the value of the property appropriated and for legal damages caused by any such appropriation shall be adjusted and determined by such department with the approval of the authority or by the court of claims as provided in section thirty of the highway law and as required by federal law, when applicable. When a claim has been filed with the court of claims, the claimant shall cause a copy of such claim to be served upon the authority and the authority shall have the right to be represented and heard before such court. All awards and judgments arising from such claims shall be paid out of moneys of the authority. No real property may be acquired pursuant to the provisions of this section for purposes other than a transportation facility unless the governing body of the city, village or town in which such real property is located shall first consent to such acquisition.

§ 1299-jj. Co-operation and assistance of other agencies. In the interest of economy and to promote coordination of authority projects with state, local, county and regional plans and also to carry out the objective of full participation of all agencies in the development of a transportation system and facilities to meet the objectives of this act, the authority shall request and use existing studies, master plans, surveys, data and other materials completed by or under development by any state agency or any municipality or political subdivision of the state. The authority shall consult with and cooperate with the commissioner of transportation and with planning authorities in the areas of its operations and shall utilize local or state planning. When a project is contemplated by the authority, the authority shall submit a preliminary prospectus thereof to the commissioner of transportation for review and comment and shall consider the report of the commissioner in formulating detailed plans for such project. When a project is contemplated by the authority within the jurisdiction of any county planning board or the Genesee-Finger Lakes Regional Planning Board, the authority shall prepare a preliminary prospectus thereof, describing the purpose, general location, and nature of the project contemplated, with such further data relative thereto that the authority shall consider pertinent. Within sixty days of receipt of such prospectus such planning board or boards shall prepare a report thereon, commenting on its conformity or lack of conformity with any related official plan of the state or region or any official planning agency within the region. Such report shall be considered by the authority in formulating detailed plans for such a project. At the request of the authority, each such agency, municipality or subdivision which is engaged in highway or other transportation activities or in land use or development planning, or which is charged with the duty of providing or regulating any transportation facility or any other public facility, is further authorized to provide the authority with information regarding its plans and programs affecting the transportation district so that the authority may have available to it current information with respect thereto. The officers and personnel of such agencies, municipalities or subdivisions, and of any other government or agency whatever, may serve at the request of the authority upon such advisory committees as the authority shall determine to create and such officers and personnel may serve upon such committees without forfeiture of office or employment and with no loss or diminution in the compensation, status, rights and privileges which they otherwise enjoy.

§ 1299-kk. Notes and bonds of the authority. 1. (a) The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to borrow money and issue its negotiable bonds and notes in such principal amount, as, in the opinion of the authority, shall be necessary to provide sufficient funds for achieving its purposes, including the acquisition, establishment, construction, effectuation, operation, maintenance, renovation, improvement, extension or repair of any transportation facility, the payment of interest on bonds and notes of the authority, establishment of reserves to secure such bonds and notes, the provision of working capital and all other expenditures of the authority and its subsidiary corporations incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out their purposes and powers;

(b) The authority shall have power, from time to time, to issue renewal notes, to issue bonds to pay notes and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and to issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose. The refunding bonds shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds to be refunded;

(c) Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, every issue of its notes or bonds shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any revenues or moneys of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular notes or bonds pledging any particular receipts or revenues;

(d) Whether or not the notes or bonds are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code, the notes or bonds shall be and hereby are made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of article eight of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the notes or bonds for registration.

2. The notes and bonds shall be authorized by resolution approved by not less than a majority vote of the authority, shall bear such date or dates, and shall mature at such time or times, as specified therein, and in the case of any such bond not exceeding fifty years from the date of issue, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The notes and bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The notes and bonds of the authority may be sold by the authority, at public or private sale, at such price or prices as the authority shall determine. No notes or bonds of the authority may be sold by the authority at private sale, however, unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by (a) the comptroller, where such sale is not to the comptroller, or (b) the director of the budget, where such sale is to the comptroller.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any notes or bonds or any issue thereof may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders thereof, as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees made or received by the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations, and other moneys received or to be received, to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any issue thereof, subject to such agreements with bondholders or noteholders as may then exist;

(b) pledging all or any part of the assets of the authority or of any of its subsidiary corporations to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any issue of notes or bonds, subject to such agreements with noteholders or bondholders as may then exist;

(c) the use, and disposition of fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees made or received by the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations;

(d) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of notes or bonds may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any issue thereof;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional notes or bonds; the terms upon which additional notes or bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other notes or bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with noteholders or bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of notes or bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys to be expended by the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine, which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to this title, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under this article or limiting the rights, powers and duties of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the notes or bonds.

4. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its notes and bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of notes and bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its monies or property or the monies or property of any of its subsidiary corporations, including the mortgaging of any such property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such monies or property and the doing of any act (including refraining from doing any act) which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of the notes and bonds of the authority.

5. It is the intention hereof that any pledge, mortgage or security instrument made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge, mortgage or security instrument is made; that the monies or property so pledged, mortgaged and entrusted and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge, mortgage or security instrument without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge, mortgage or security instrument shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any mortgage, security instrument or other instrument by which a pledge, mortgage lien or other security is created need be recorded or filed and the authority shall not be required to comply with any of the provisions of the uniform commercial code.

6. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the notes or bonds shall be liable personally on the notes or bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

7. The authority, subject to such agreements with noteholders or bondholders as may then exist, shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase notes or bonds of the authority, which shall thereupon be cancelled, at a price not exceeding (a) if the notes or bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date thereon, or (b) if the notes or bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the notes or bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to such date.

8. The state shall not be liable on notes or bonds of the authority and such notes and bonds shall not be a debt of the state, and such notes and bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect.

§ 1299-ll. Reserve funds and appropriations. 1. The authority may create and establish one or more reserve funds to be known as debt service reserve funds and may pay into such debt service reserve funds (a) any monies appropriated and made available by the state for the purposes of such funds, (b) any proceeds of sale of notes or bonds to the extent provided in the resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance thereof, and (c) any other monies which may be made available to the authority for the purpose of such funds from any other source or sources. The monies held in or credited to any debt service reserve fund established under this section, except as hereinafter provided, shall be used solely for the payment of the principal of bonds of the authority secured by such debt service reserve fund as the same mature, the purchase of such bonds of the authority, the payment of interest on such bonds of the authority or the payment of any redemption premium required to be paid when such bonds are redeemed prior to maturity; provided, however, that the authority shall have power to provide that monies in any such fund shall not be withdrawn therefrom at any time in such amount as would reduce the amount of such fund to less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on the bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such debt service reserve fund, except for the purpose of paying principal of and interest on such bonds of the authority secured by such debt service reserve fund maturing and becoming due and for the payment of which other monies of the authority are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or increment to, any such debt service reserve fund due to the investment thereof may be transferred by the authority to any other fund or account of the authority and the authority shall have power to provide that any such transfer shall not reduce the amount of such debt service reserve fund below the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on all bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such debt service reserve fund.

2. The authority shall have power to provide that it shall not issue bonds at any time if the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on the bonds outstanding and then to be issued and secured by a debt service reserve fund will exceed the amount of such debt service reserve fund at the time of issuance, unless the authority, at the time of the issuance of such bonds, shall deposit in such debt service reserve fund from the proceeds of the bonds so to be issued, or otherwise, an amount which, together with the amount then in such debt service reserve fund, will be not less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any such succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on the bonds then to be issued and on all other bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such debt service reserve fund.

3. In computing the amount of any debt service reserve fund for the purposes of this section, securities in which all or a portion of such fund shall be invested shall be valued at par, or if purchased at less than par, at their cost to the authority.

§ 1299-mm. Agreement of the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any notes or bonds issued under this title, that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders thereof, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders until such notes or bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses for which the authority is liable in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of such notes or bonds.

§ 1299-nn. Right of state to require redemption of bonds. Notwithstanding and in addition to any provisions for the redemption of bonds which may be contained in any contract with the holders of the bonds, the state may, upon furnishing sufficient funds therefor, require the authority to redeem, prior to maturity, as a whole, any issue of bonds on any interest payment date not less than twenty years after the date of the bonds of such issue at one hundred five per centum of their face value and accrued interest or at such lower redemption price as may be provided in the bonds in case of the redemption thereof as a whole on the redemption date. Notice of such redemption shall be published in at least two newspapers published and circulating in the city of Rochester at least twice, the first publication to be at least thirty days before the date of redemption.

§ 1299-oo. Remedies of noteholders and bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of notes or bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of notes or bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the notes or bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of any county in which the authority operates and has an office and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such notes or bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such notes or bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by suit, action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the noteholders or bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such notes or bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such notes or bonds;

(c) by action or suit, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such notes or bonds;

(d) by action or suit, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such notes or bonds;

(e) declare all such notes or bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then, with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such notes or bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders or noteholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceedings by the trustee on behalf of such noteholders or bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county in which the instrument or instruments are filed in accordance with subdivision one of this section.

5. Before declaring the principal of notes or bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the governor, to the authority, to the comptroller and to the attorney general of the state.

§ 1299-pp. Notes and bonds as legal investment. The notes and bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities and political subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or who may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the bonds of the authority are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and political subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1299-qq. Exemption from taxation. It is hereby found, determined and declared that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and is a public purpose, and that the authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title. Without limiting the generality of the following provisions of this section, property owned by the authority and used for transportation purposes, property leased by the authority and used for transportation purposes, and property used for transportation purposes by or for the benefit of the authority exclusively pursuant to the provisions of a joint service arrangement or of a joint facilities agreement or trackage rights agreement shall all be exempt from taxation and special ad valorem levies. The authority shall be required to pay no fees, taxes or assessments, whether state or local, except special benefit assessments if said property is located in a special benefit district, including but not limited to fees, taxes or assessments on real estate, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes, upon any of its property, or upon the uses thereof, or upon its activities in the operation and maintenance of its facilities or on any fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges or other fees, revenues or other income received by the authority and all bonds, notes and obligations of the authority and the income therefrom shall at all times be exempt from taxation, except for gift and estate taxes and taxes on transfers. This section shall constitute a covenant and agreement with the holders of all bonds, notes and obligations issued by the authority. The terms "taxation" and "special ad valorem levy" shall have the same meanings as defined in section one hundred two of the real property tax law and the term "transportation purposes" shall have the same meaning as used in titles two-a and two-b of article four of such law.

§ 1299-rr. Actions against the authority. 1. As a condition to the consent of the state to such suits against the authority, in every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority or other officer designated for such purpose and the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof.

2. An action against the authority founded on tort, except an action for wrongful death, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limited by and in compliance with all the requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

3. The authority shall be liable, and shall assume the liability to the extent that it shall save harmless any duly appointed officer or employee of the authority, for the negligence of such officer or employee, in the operation of a vehicle or other facility of transportation owned or otherwise under the jurisdiction and control of the authority in the discharge of a duty imposed upon such officer or employee at the time of the accident, injury or damages complained of, while otherwise acting in the performance of his duties and within the scope of his employment.

4. The authority may require any person, presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatever against the authority, to be sworn before a member, counsel or an attorney, officer or employee of the authority designated for such purpose, concerning such account or claim and when so sworn to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

5. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority upon any judgment for which it is liable shall not exceed four per centum per annum.

6. The provisions of this section which relate to the requirement for service of a notice of claim shall not apply to a subsidiary corporation of the authority. In all other respects, each subsidiary corporation of the authority shall be subject to the provisions of this section as if such subsidiary corporation were separately named herein, provided, however, that a subsidiary corporation of the authority which is a stock corporation shall not be subject to the provisions of this section except with respect to those causes of action arising on and after the first of the twelfth calendar month following that calendar month in which such stock corporation becomes a subsidiary corporation of the authority.

§ 1299-ss. Agreements relating to payment in lieu of taxes. To the end that municipal corporations, counties and school districts may not suffer undue loss of taxes or assessments:

If the authority acquires property for non-transportation purposes (e.g. for future transportation purposes but not to be so used immediately) the authority except as hereinafter provided, shall pay to the participating county and/or city, town or school district where the property is located, annually, in lieu of taxes, a sum equal to the sum last paid as taxes upon the property prior to the time of its acquisition by the authority. Should such property be subsequently developed and improved but still remain unused for transportation purposes, it shall during such period of disuse for transportation be subject to assessment, at the prevailing method of determining assessments, by the county and/or city and/or school district and the authority shall, based on such assessment, annually, in lieu of taxes, pay to the county and/or city and/or school district an amount fixed by it.

If the authority acquires property for transportation purposes but subsequently uses such property for non-transportation purposes, then the authority shall be required, except as hereinafter provided, to pay annually in lieu of taxes to the participating county and/or city and/or school district wherein such property is located, an amount equal to the sum which the said county and/or city and/or school district would ordinarily be imposed as taxes, pursuant to the prevailing method of determining assessments.

Properties acquired by the authority for transportation and used as such, shall not be subject to the payment of any taxes except that the authority shall pay such property special benefit assessments on the property if it is located in an existing special benefit district.

§ 1299-tt. Interest of members or employees of authority in contracts prohibited. It shall be a misdemeanor for a member of the authority or an officer, agent, servant or employee employed by or appointed by the authority, to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly, as principal, surety or otherwise, in a contract, the expense or consideration whereof is payable out of the funds of the authority.

§ 1299-uu. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the authority shall begin on the first day of April.

§ 1299-vv. Consent by the state. The commissioner of general services shall have power, in his discretion, from time to time to transfer and convey to the authority, or to one or more participating counties for the use of the authority, and for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as may be determined by him to be paid to the state, unappropriated state lands, abandoned canal lands and lands under water which the authority shall certify to be necessary or desirable for the corporate purposes of the authority.

§ 1299-ww. Separability. If any provision of any section of this title or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be adjudged invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such order or judgment shall be confined in its operation to the controversy in which it was rendered, and shall not affect or invalidate the remainder of any provision of any section of this title or the application of any part thereof to any other person or circumstance and to this end the provisions of each section of this title are hereby declared to be severable.

§ 1299-xx. Effect of inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

TITLE 11-C

CAPITAL DISTRICT TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY

§ 1300. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Capital District Transportation Authority Act".

§ 1301. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. "Authority" shall mean the corporation created by section thirteen hundred three of this title.

2. "Transportation district" and "district" shall mean the Capital District transportation district created by section thirteen hundred two of this title.

3. "Participating county" shall mean any of the counties defined in section thirteen hundred two of this title.

4. "Federal government" shall mean the United States of America, and any officer, department, board, commission, bureau, division, corporation, agency or instrumentality thereof.

5. "Governor" shall mean the governor of the state of New York.

6. "Comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state of New York.

7. "Director of the budget" shall mean the director of the budget of the state of New York.

8. "State" shall mean the state of New York.

9. "State agency" shall mean any officer, department, board, commission, bureau, division, public benefit corporation, agency or instrumentality of the state.

10. "Municipality" shall mean a city, town, village or county not wholly contained within a city.

11. "Municipal corporation" shall mean a city, town, village, county not wholly contained within a city, special transportation district, public benefit corporation or other public corporation, or two or more of the foregoing acting jointly.

12. "Personal property" shall mean chattels and other tangible things of a movable or removable nature.

13. "Property" shall mean both real and personal property.

14. "Master plan" shall mean the long range regional transportation plan for the upper Hudson planning and development region including, but not limited to that prepared by the capital district transportation study and approved by the commissioner.

15. "Joint service arrangement" shall mean agreements between or among the authority and any common carrier or freight forwarder, the state, any state agency, the federal government, any other state or agency or instrumentality thereof, any public authority of this or any other state, or any political subdivision or municipality of the state, relating to property, buildings, structures, facilities, services, rates, fares, classifications, divisions, allowances or charges (including charges between operators of railroad, omnibus, marine and aviation facilities), or rules or regulations pertaining thereto, for or in connection with or incidental to transportation in part or upon railroad, omnibus, marine or aviation facilities located within the district and in part in or upon railroad, omnibus, marine or aviation facilities located outside the district.

16. "Project" shall mean any undertaking by the authority within the district including but not limited to port or harbor facilities, transportation properties, access and service roads and bridges, serving railroad, omnibus, marine and air facilities, equipment, appurtenances, utilities, airport facilities and any other improvement under authority jurisdiction within the district.

17. "Facility" shall mean, among other things, such properties, structures, appurtenances, utilities, terminals, wharves, docks, piers, railroad trackage, warehouses, elevators, equipment for handling freight, passengers and vehicles and such other works, properties, buildings or allied items necessary or desirable in connection with development, operation, maintenance or improvement of port, airport and public transportation needs for the accommodation, safety or comfort of the public and commercial enterprise for the regional transportation district.

18. "Equipment" shall mean rolling stock, omnibuses, vehicles, air, marine or surface craft, motors, boilers, engines, and other instrumentalities used or useful therefor or in connection therewith.

19. "Omnibus facilities" shall mean motor vehicles, of the type operated by carriers subject to the jurisdiction of the public service commission, engaged in the transportation of passengers and their baggage, express and mail between points within the district or pursuant to joint service arrangements, and equipment, property, buildings, structures, improvements, loading or unloading areas, parking areas, berthing facilities or other facilities, necessary, convenient or desirable for the accommodation of such motor vehicles or their passengers, including but not limited to buildings, structures and areas notwithstanding that portions may not be devoted to any omnibus purpose other than the production of revenues available for the costs and expenses of all or any facilities of the authority.

20. "Railroad facilities" shall mean right-of-way and related trackage, rails, cars, locomotives, other rolling stock, signal, power, fuel, communication and ventilation systems, power plants, stations, terminals, storage yards, repair and maintenance shops, yards, equipment and parts, offices and other real estate or personalty used or held for or incidental to the operation, rehabilitation or improvement of any railroad operating or to operate between points within the district or pursuant to joint service arrangements, including but not limited to buildings, structures, and areas notwithstanding that portions thereof may not be devoted to any railroad purpose other than the production of revenues available for the costs and expenses of all or any facilities of the authority.

21. "Real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises and interests in land, waters, lands under water, riparian rights and any and all things and rights included within said term and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests including but not limited to easements, rights-of-way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise.

22. "Marine and aviation facilities" shall mean equipment and craft for the transportation of passengers, mail and cargo between points from and to and within the district or pursuant to joint service arrangements, by marine craft and aircraft of all types including but not limited to hydrofoils, ferries, lighters, tugs, barges, helicopters, amphibians, seaplanes or other contrivances now or hereafter used in navigation or movement on waterways or in the navigation of or flight in airspace. It shall also mean any airport facility within the transportation district, including but not limited to any facility or real property necessary, convenient or desirable for the landing, taking off, accommodation or servicing of such aircraft, and shall include such facilities, property, structures and appurtenances as may be necessary or convenient in the operation, maintenance, development or improvement of airports including facilities, property, structures, and appurtenances, leased by the authority to persons, firms or corporations engaged in air transportation or the production or development of materials, goods or equipment for airports or air transportation or in providing facilities for the accommodation, safety or comfort of the traveling public and for purposes related or incidental to one or more of the foregoing purposes. It shall also mean port facilities in the transportation district including, but not limited to, (a) one or more docks, elevators, wharves, piers, bulkheads, slips, basins, harbors, railroad connections, side tracks or sidings, freight terminals, warehouses, bridges, tunnels, and areas for storage of cargoes, materials, goods, wares, and merchandise of any kind and for the loading, unloading, interchange or transfer of any such cargoes, materials, goods, wares and merchandise; (b) other buildings, structures, facilities or improvements necessary to accommodate steamships or other vessels and their cargoes or passengers; and (c) all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, mechanical equipment and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are necessary, convenient or desirable for the development, control and operation of port facilities in the transportation district.

23. "Transportation facility" shall mean any railroad, omnibus, marine, aviation or parking facility and any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation which owns, leases or operates any such facility or any other facility used for service in the transportation of passengers, United States mail or personal property as a common carrier for hire and any portion thereof and the rights, leaseholds or other interest therein together with routes, tracks, extensions, connections, parking lots, garages, warehouses, yards, storage yards, maintenance and repair shops, terminals, stations and other related facilities thereof, the devices, appurtenances, and equipment thereof and power plants and other instrumentalities used or useful therefor or in connection therewith.

24. "Commissioner" shall mean commissioner of transportation of the state of New York.

25. "Action plan" shall mean a plan for implementation of improvements to such means of public transportation and related services by omnibus, railroad and marine and aviation facilities as the authority may contemplate within the capital district transportation district to effectuate the purposes of this act.

26. "Transit dependent individual" shall mean an individual who is limited to public transit as their primary mode of transportation because the individual has a permanent disability.

§ 1302. Capital District transportation district. There is hereby created and established a transportation district to be known as the Capital District transportation district. This district shall embrace the counties of Albany, Schenectady, Rensselaer, and Saratoga and such of the following counties as may elect to become members by action of their governing bodies as provided in subdivision ten of section thirteen hundred three: Greene, Columbia, Montgomery, Fulton, Warren and any other county included within the upper Hudson planning and development region as designated by the state. The transportation district shall also include all lands and water and all lands under water and all rivers, lakes, bays and harbors within any of the counties of said district.

§ 1303. Capital District transportation authority. 1. (a) There is hereby created the Capital District transportation authority. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation. It shall consist of not less than eight nor more than fifteen members, including a chairman and shall have one non-voting member as described in paragraph (b) of this subdivision. At least one voting member shall be a transit dependent individual who shall be appointed by the governor. If a vacancy occurs for such transit dependent individual member position, a replacement shall be appointed within six months, subject to the same appointment process within this paragraph. The members shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The governor shall make initial appointments to the authority in such number and from lists submitted as follows: three members shall be appointed to the authority from a list of six names, all of whom shall be residents of the county of Albany, four of which names shall be submitted to the governor by the majority party of the legislature of the county of Albany and two of which names shall be submitted by the minority party of such legislature; two members shall be appointed to the authority from a list of four names, all of whom shall be residents of the county of Schenectady, three of which names shall be submitted to the governor by the majority party of the legislature of the county of Schenectady and one of which names shall be submitted by the minority party of such legislature; two members shall be appointed to the authority from a list of four names, all of whom shall be residents of the county of Rensselaer, three of which names shall be submitted to the governor by the majority party of the legislature of the county of Rensselaer and one of which names shall be submitted by the minority party of such legislature; two members shall be appointed to the authority from a list of four names, all of whom shall be residents of the county of Saratoga, three of which names shall be submitted to the governor by the majority party of the legislature of the county of Saratoga and one of which names shall be submitted by the minority party of such legislature. Other counties electing to participate shall each submit to the governor a list of two persons each of whom shall be a resident of such county, one of which names shall be submitted to the governor by the majority party of the legislature of such county and one of which names shall be submitted by the minority party of such legislature, from which number the governor shall appoint one member for each such county so electing to participate. In addition to the members representing each county, the governor shall appoint one voting member who is a transit dependent individual who resides in a county within the district. Any local or statewide transit advocacy organization may recommend one or more transit dependent individuals to be considered for appointment pursuant to this section.

(b) The non-voting member of the authority, who shall not be considered in determining a quorum, shall be recommended to the governor by the labor organization representing the plurality of the employees within the authority and shall be a resident of the Capital District transportation district as described in section thirteen hundred two of this title. The non-voting member shall be appointed for a term of five years, provided, however, that if at any time during the term of appointment the non-voting member ceases to be affiliated with the labor organization representing the plurality of employees within the authority, then such labor organization may at any time during such term recommend a new member to the governor who shall serve the remainder of the term. If the local bargaining unit decertifies its existing union affiliation and certifies a new union, the union which represents the plurality of the employees may recommend a new member to the governor who shall serve the remainder of the term. The chairman of the authority, at his or her discretion, may exclude such non-voting member from attending any portion of a meeting of the authority or of any committee held for the purpose of discussing negotiations with labor organizations, pending litigation involving the labor organization, or the investigation, evaluation, or discipline of an employee.

2. The members of the authority shall continue in office until their successors are appointed and shall have qualified. One of the members appointed from the county of Albany shall be appointed for a term ending July thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-two; one of the members appointed from the counties of Albany, Schenectady, Rensselaer and Saratoga, respectively, shall be appointed for terms ending July thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-three, respectively; one of the members appointed from the counties of Albany, Schenectady, Rensselaer and Saratoga, respectively, shall be appointed for terms ending July thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-four, respectively. The member (or members) who is (or are) appointed from the other counties shall be appointed for a term (or terms) of five years, but all terminating on the thirty-first day of July of the fifth year. Thereafter, upon expiration of the term of a member of the authority a successor shall be appointed by the governor for a term expiring five years after the expiration of the term of his predecessor. If a vacancy shall occur by reason of a death, disqualification, resignation or removal of a member, the successor shall be appointed by the governor for the unexpired term of, from the same area and by the same procedure as his predecessor. Members of the authority shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, take the constitutional oath of office and file the same in the office of the secretary of state. No person while serving in any elective office shall be eligible to serve as a member of the authority.

3. The members of the authority shall not receive a salary or other compensation, but each member shall be entitled to reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his or her official duties.

4. A majority of the whole number of members of the authority shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power of the authority. Except as otherwise specified in this act, for the transaction of any business or the exercise of any power of the authority, the authority shall have power to act by a majority of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is in attendance.

5. The authority shall organize by the selection from its members of a chairman, vice-chairman and secretary. It shall adopt such rules as it may deem necessary and proper for the government of its own proceedings, and shall keep a record of such proceedings.

6. The authority shall be a "state agency" for the purposes of sections seventy-three and seventy-four of the public officers law.

7. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this or any other law, general, special or local, no officer or employee of the state, or of any public corporation as defined in the general corporation law, shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his office or employment or any benefits provided under the retirement and social security law or under any public retirement system maintained by the state or any of its subdivisions by reason of his acceptance of membership on or chairmanship of the authority; provided, however, a member or chairman who holds such other public office or employment shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of such services.

8. The governor may remove any member for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office after giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity to be heard, in person or by counsel in his defense, upon not less than ten days' notice. If any member shall be so removed, the governor shall file in the office of the department of state a complete statement of charges made against such member, and his findings thereon, together with a complete record of the proceedings.

9. The authority shall continue so long as it shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding and until its existence shall be terminated by law. Upon the termination of the existence of the authority, all its rights and properties shall pass to and be vested in the state.

10. Each of the counties that elect to become participating members of the Capital District transportation district may do so by resolution adopted by a majority of the membership of its governing body and such election by a county shall take effect upon the filing of a duly certified copy of such resolution with the authority and with the secretary of state, and the mailing of a certified copy thereof to the county clerk of each county which is granted the power of election under the provisions of this act.

§ 1304. Purposes of the authority. 1. The purposes of the authority shall be the continuance, further development and improvement of transportation and other services related thereto within the Capital District transportation district, by railroad, omnibus, marine and air, in accordance with the provisions of this title.

2. It is hereby found and declared that such purposes are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in carrying out its purposes and in exercising the powers granted by this title.

§ 1305. Formulation, filing and adoption of action plan; amendments. The authority shall formulate an action plan for transportation within the district. In formulating such action plan, the authority shall consult and cooperate with the commissioner, the capital district regional planning commission and the planning authorities in the area of its operations, and shall utilize state, local or regional transportation planning. The authority shall request and use existing studies, plans, surveys, data and other materials completed by or under development by any state agency or municipality or political subdivision of the state. The authority shall file copies of such plan with the commissioner, the capital district regional planning commission, the legislatures of the counties of Albany, Schenectady, Rensselaer and Saratoga, and with the legislative body of any other county within the district affected by such plan, as hereinafter stated, except where applications for state or federal aid have been filed for any particular transportation undertaking prior to the enactment of this legislation. The plan shall contain information regarding the transportation system that the authority intends to provide including information regarding the facilities connected therewith, the services the authority contemplates providing and the estimated costs and the proposed method of financing. During sixty days after the filing of the action plan with the commissioner, the capital district regional planning commission and with the legislative bodies as aforesaid, said plan shall be available for public inspection at the office or offices of the authority and at such other places in the areas affected, within the district, as the authority may designate. Not earlier than thirty days after the filing of said action plan with the commissioner, the capital district regional planning commission and such legislative bodies, a public hearing on said plan shall be held by the authority. Notice of such a hearing shall be given to the commissioner, the capital district regional planning commission, and the legislative bodies as aforesaid and by publication once a week for two weeks prior to the said hearing at the time and place fixed by the authority in newspapers of general circulation within the areas affected, to be selected by the authority. The last publication date shall not be less than five days before said hearing. Within thirty days following said public hearing, the authority shall provide a transcript of such hearing to the commissioner, the capital district regional planning commission and the legislative bodies as aforesaid, together with any amendments the authority may propose to the action plan. The authority shall request approval of the action plan, including such amendments as the authority may propose, from the commissioner and the aforementioned legislative bodies. Any part of said plan which is disapproved by a county because it alters existing services or the financing thereof within said county shall not become operative. The commissioner may disapprove any part of said plan if he finds that it conflicts with a state-wide comprehensive master plan for transportation or the capital district transportation plan or, in the absence of such plans, would have an adverse effect upon sound transportation development policy and planning. Any part of such plan so disapproved by the commissioner shall not become operative. Disapproval of part or parts of the plan shall not make the entire plan inoperative. If any of such legislative bodies fail to act within sixty days or in the case of the commissioner within ninety days after approval is requested, said failure shall be deemed approval, and the authority may adopt the action plan by a majority vote of its membership and may include changes, if any, recommended by said commissioner, planning commission or said legislative bodies.

The action plan may be amended from time to time in the same manner using the procedures outlined herein for the original adoption, except that a proposed amendment which is recommended by the legislative body or bodies of all the counties affected thereby and approved by the commissioner may be embodied or continued by a majority vote of the authority without additional hearings thereon as required for the amendments proposed to be made.

§ 1305-a. Filing five year performance, capital and operating finance plans. 1. (a) On or before October first, nineteen hundred ninety-four, and annually thereafter on or before April first, the authority shall adopt an operational performance plan for the five-year period commencing April first. The plan shall set operational performance plan goals and objectives, including but not limited to ridership and passenger revenue goals and objectives for the period, for fixed route bus operations, and shall establish performance indicators to measure standards of service and operations. The performance indicators shall include: revenue passengers, total passengers, revenue vehicle miles, revenue vehicle hours, number of employees by department, vehicle mean distance between failures, on-time performance for total service provided, the cost per passenger, the cost per revenue vehicle mile and the operating-revenue-to-cost ratio.

(b) Quarterly reports shall be prepared for authority members on operating performance of fixed route bus operations. The first such report shall cover the three-month period commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-five and shall be submitted no later than thirty days after the end of the quarter. Thereafter, quarterly reports shall be submitted on the last day of October, January, April, and July of each year. The report shall compare the performance indicators for the most recent quarter and the year-to-date performance indicators with the same time period in the previous year with the annual goals established pursuant to this subdivision.

2. (a) On or before October first, nineteen hundred ninety-four, and annually thereafter on or before April first, the authority shall adopt a capital program plan for the five-year period commencing April first. The plan shall contain the capital program, separately itemized, by the following functions: regular fixed route bus service, demand responsive bus service, and any aviation facilities and any marine facilities for which it currently has or shall assume responsibility.

(b) The plan shall set goals and objectives by function for capital spending, establish standards for service and operation, describe each capital project to be initiated in each of the years covered by the plan and explain how each proposed project supports the goals and objectives and the service and operational standards established in the performance plan. The plan shall list separately by function those projects contributing to the maintenance of the system infrastructure and those intended to enhance the system. The plan shall also include an estimated cost for each project and set forth an estimate of the amount of capital funding required for each year of the plan and the expected sources of such funding. It shall also include a project schedule for the initiation and completion of each project. Each plan subsequent to the first such plan shall describe the current status of each capital project which has a total estimated cost of one hundred thousand dollars or more and which was included in the previously adopted plan.

(c) In addition to the annual update, a quarterly capital plan status report shall be provided to the authority members and shall include, but not be limited to, a description of any material change in the scope, cost, funding or time of initiation or completion of a project which has a total estimated cost of one hundred thousand dollars or more, as adopted in the plan. The first such report shall cover the three-month period commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-five and shall be submitted no later than thirty days after the end of the quarter. Thereafter, quarterly reports shall be submitted on the last day of October, January, April, and July of each year.

3. (a) On or before October first, nineteen hundred ninety-four, and annually thereafter on or before April first, the authority shall adopt an operating finance plan for the five-year period commencing April first. The plan shall include the annual estimated operating cost for the following authority functions: fixed bus operations, demand responsive bus operations, and any aviation facilities and any marine facilities for which it currently has, or shall assume responsibility. The plan shall include the proposed method of financing for the level of service defined for each year of the plan and shall fully allocate the authority's general costs to each of the above separate functions. The plan shall provide a narrative describing the overall financial condition of the operating budget of the authority.

(b) In addition to the annual update, quarterly operating budget reports shall be prepared for the authority members on the financial condition of each of the authority's functions. The first such report shall cover the three-month period commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-five and shall be submitted no later than thirty days after the end of the quarter. Thereafter, quarterly reports shall be submitted on the last day of October, January, April, and July of each year. The reports shall include a budgetary comparison of the most recent quarter and year-to-date actual revenue and expenditures with the same time period in the previous year and with the projections for that time period based on the board approved budget. The reporting for fixed route bus operations shall be separate from the reporting for demand responsive bus service.

4. Any and all reports, including interim reports, shall be submitted to the director of the division of the budget, the commissioner of transportation and the chief executive officers of Albany, Rensselaer, Saratoga, and Schenectady counties, the county legislatures of Albany, Rensselaer, Saratoga, and Schenectady counties, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the chairpersons of the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee, and the chairpersons of the senate and assembly transportation committees.

§ 1306. General powers of the authority. A. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To borrow money and issue negotiable notes, bonds or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. To invest any funds held in reserve or sinking funds, or any monies not required for immediate use or disbursement, at the discretion of the authority, in obligations of the state or the United States government or obligations the principal and interest of which are guaranteed by the state or the United States government; or certificates of deposit of banks or trust companies or in bank or trust accounts of banks in this state secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit with the approval of the Comptroller;

5. To make and alter by-laws for its organization and internal management, and rules and regulations governing the exercise of its powers and the fulfillment of its purposes under this title;

6. To enter into contracts and leases and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

7. To acquire, hold and dispose of real or personal property in the exercise of its powers;

8. To appoint a general manager, who shall serve at the pleasure of the authority, and such officers and employees as the authority may require for the performance of its duties, and to fix and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional, management or technical services and advice; such general manager, counsel, auditors, engineers, and private consultants, officers and employees may not be a member of the authority;

9. (a) Notwithstanding section one hundred thirteen of the retirement and social security law or any other general or special law, the authority and any of its subsidiary corporations may continue or provide to its affected officers and employees any retirement, disability, death or other benefits provided or required for railroad personnel pursuant to federal or state law. Notwithstanding any provisions of the civil service law, no officer or employee of a subsidiary corporation, of the authority, other than a public benefit subsidiary corporation, shall be a public officer or a public employee;

(b) The authority and any of its public benefit subsidiary corporations may be a "participating employer" in the New York state employees' retirement system with respect to one or more classes of officers and employees of such authority or any such public benefit subsidiary corporation, as may be provided by resolution of such authority or any such public benefit subsidiary corporation, as the case may be, or any subsequent amendment thereof, filed with the comptroller and accepted by him pursuant to section thirty-one of the retirement and social security law. In taking any action pursuant to this paragraph (b), the authority and any of its public benefit subsidiary corporations shall consider the coverages and benefits continued or provided pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

10. To make plans, surveys, and studies necessary, convenient or desirable to the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto and shall undertake feasibility studies, at such time as the authority deems best, of merging into the authority the Port of Albany authority and of acquiring the Albany county airport, the Schenectady county airport, the United Traction Company, the Schenectady Transportation Corporation or any successor entities.

11. To enter upon such lands, waters or premises as in the judgment of the authority may be necessary, convenient or desirable for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable for actual damage done;

12. The authority may conduct investigations and hearings in the furtherance of its general purposes, and in aid thereof have access to any books, records or papers relevant thereto; and if any person whose testimony shall be required for the proper performance of the duties of the authority shall fail or refuse to aid or assist the authority in the conduct of any investigation or hearing, or to produce any relevant books, records or other papers, the authority is authorized to apply for process of subpoena, to issue out of any court of general original jurisdiction whose process can reach such person, upon due cause shown;

13. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

14. To enter into collective bargaining agreements with labor representatives duly elected by the employees of the authority.

15. To insure or provide for the insurance of the authority's property or operations as required by law and also against such other risks as the authority may deem advisable.

B. The authority shall file in the office of the commissioner and with the legislative bodies of each county in the district annual reports, after the close of each of the authority's fiscal years, which shall be open to public inspection. Such reports shall include, in addition to any information which the commissioner may require, a statement with respect to its operations including the following data:

(a) Cost breakdown of real property acquired for each system or facility acquired or operated by the authority;

(b) Cost breakdown in appropriate units of facilities acquired or operated by the authority;

(c) Operating revenues for each system or facility acquired or operated by the authority;

(d) Operating expenses for each system or facility acquired or operated by the authority.

C. The authority shall prepare and file with the commissioner and the legislative bodies of each county in the district an annual budget consisting of projected operating revenues and expenditures for the next fiscal year.

§ 1307. Special powers of the authority. In order to effectuate the purposes of this title: 1. The authority may acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease, or condemnation, any transportation facility, including port or related facilities wholly or partially within the Capital District transportation district or any part thereof, or the use thereof, and may enter into any joint service arrangements as hereinafter provided. Any such acquisition or joint service arrangement shall be authorized only by resolution of the authority approved by not less than a majority of the whole number of members of the authority then in office.

2. The authority may on such terms and conditions as the authority may determine necessary, convenient or desirable itself establish, construct, effectuate, operate, maintain, renovate, improve, extend or repair any such transportation facility, or may provide for such establishment, construction, effectuation, operation, maintenance, renovation, improvement, extension or repair by contract, lease, or other arrangement on such terms as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable with any person, including but not limited to any common carrier or freight forwarder, the state, any state agency, the federal government, any other state or agency or instrumentality thereof, any public authority of this or any other state or any political subdivision or municipality of the state. In connection with the operation of any such transportation facility, the authority may establish, construct, effectuate, operate, maintain, renovate, improve, extend or repair or may provide by contract, lease or other arrangement for the establishment, construction, effectuation, operation, maintenance, renovation, improvement, extension or repair of any related services and activities it deems necessary, convenient or desirable, including but not limited to the transportation and storage of freight and the United States mail, feeder and connecting transportation, parking areas, transportation centers, port, stations and related facilities.

3. The authority may establish, levy and collect or cause to be established, levied and collected and, in the case of a joint service arrangement, join with others in the establishment, levy and collection of such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees as it may deem necessary, convenient or desirable for the use and operation of any transportation facility and related services operated by the authority or by a subsidiary corporation of the authority or under contract, lease or other arrangement, including joint service arrangements, with the authority. Any such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges or other fees for the transportation of passengers shall be established and changed only if approved by resolution of the authority adopted by not less than a majority of the whole number of members of the authority then in office and only after a public hearing, provided however, that fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges or other fees for the transportation of passengers on any transportation facility which are in effect at the time that the then owner of such transportation facility becomes a subsidiary corporation of the authority or at the time that operation of such transportation facility is commenced by the authority or is commenced under contract, lease or other arrangement including joint service arrangements, with the authority may be continued in effect without such a hearing. Such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees shall be established as may in the judgment of the authority be necessary to maintain the combined operations of the authority and its subsidiary corporations on a self-sustaining basis. The said operations shall be deemed to be on a self-sustaining basis as required by this title, when the authority is able to pay or cause to be paid from revenue or any other funds or property actually available to the authority and its subsidiary corporations (a) as the same shall become due, the principal of and interest on the bonds and notes and other obligations of the authority and of such subsidiary corporations, together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, (b) the cost and expense of keeping the properties and assets of the authority and its subsidiary corporations in good condition and repair, and (c) the capital and operating expenses of the authority and its subsidiary corporations. The authority may contract with the holders of bonds and notes with respect to the exercise of the powers authorized by this section.

4. The authority may establish and, in the case of joint service arrangements, join with others in the establishment of such schedules and standards of operations and such other rules and regulations including but not limited to rules and regulations governing the conduct and safety of the public as it may deem necessary, convenient or desirable for the use and operation of any transportation facility and related services operated by the authority or under contract, lease or other arrangement, including joint service arrangements, with the authority. Such rules and regulations governing the conduct and safety of the public shall be filed with the department of state in the manner provided by section one hundred two of the executive law. In the case of any conflict between any such rule or regulation of the authority governing the conduct or safety of the public and any local law, ordinance, rule or regulation, such rule or regulation of the authority shall prevail. Violation of any such rule or regulation of the authority governing the conduct or the safety of the public in or upon any facility of the authority shall constitute an offense and shall be punishable by fine not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisonment for not more than thirty days or both.

5. The authority may acquire, hold, own, lease, establish, construct, effectuate, operate, maintain, renovate, improve, extend or repair any of its facilities through, and cause any one or more of its powers, duties, functions or activities to be exercised or performed by, one or more wholly owned subsidiary corporations of the authority and may transfer to or from any such corporation any moneys, real property or other property for any of the purposes of this title. The directors or members of each such subsidiary corporation shall be the same persons holding the offices of members of the authority. Each such subsidiary corporation and any of its property, functions and activities shall have all of the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions and other exemptions of the authority and of the authority's property, functions and activities. Each such subsidiary corporation shall be subject to the restrictions and limitations to which the authority may be subject. Each such subsidiary corporation shall be subject to suit in accordance with section thirteen hundred sixteen of this title. The employees of any such subsidiary corporation, except those who are also employees of the authority, shall not be deemed employees of the authority.

If the authority shall determine that one or more of its subsidiary corporations should be in the form of a public benefit corporation, it shall create each such public benefit corporation by executing and filing with the secretary of state a certificate of incorporation, which may be amended from time to time by filing, which shall set forth the name of such public benefit subsidiary corporation, its duration, the location of its principal office, and any or all of the purposes of acquiring, owning, leasing, establishing, constructing, effectuating, operating, maintaining, renovating, improving, extending or repairing one or more facilities of the authority. Each such public benefit subsidiary corporation shall be a body politic and corporate and shall have all those powers vested in the authority by the provisions of this title which the authority shall determine to include in its certificate of incorporation except the power to contract indebtedness.

Whenever any state, political subdivision, municipality, commission, agency, officer, department, board, division or person is authorized and empowered for any of the purposes of this title to cooperate and enter into agreements with the authority such state, political subdivision, municipality, commission, agency, officer, department, board, division or person shall have the same authorization and power for any of such purposes to cooperate and enter into agreements with a subsidiary corporation of the authority.

6. The authority, in its own name or in the name of the state, may apply for and receive and accept grants of property, money and services and other assistance offered or made available to it by any person, government or agency whatever, which it may use to meet capital or operating expenses and for any other use within the scope of its powers, and to negotiate for the same upon such terms and conditions as the authority may determine to be necessary, convenient or desirable. In no event, however, shall the authority submit to the state or federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof an application for a state or federal project unless the application shall have been first approved by the commissioner as being part of or consistent with such statewide plan, regional plan or transportation development policy and planning concept.

7. The authority may do all things it deems necessary, convenient or desirable to manage, control and direct the maintenance and operation of transportation facilities, equipment or real property operated by or under contract, lease or other arrangement with the authority. Except as hereinafter specially provided, no municipality or political subdivision, including but not limited to a county, city, village, town or school or other district shall have jurisdiction over any facilities of the authority or any of its activities or operations. In the operation, maintenance and control of any facilities devoted to purposes other than direct transportation purposes, the authority shall be subject to all local laws, resolutions, ordinances, rules and regulations of a municipality or political subdivision. Each municipality or political subdivision, including but not limited to a county, city, village, town or district in which any facilities of the authority are located shall provide for such facilities police, fire and health protection services of the same character and to the same extent as those provided for residents of such municipality or political subdivision.

The authority may agree with the state department of transportation for the execution by such department of any grade crossing elimination project or any grade crossing separation reconstruction project along any railroad facility operated by the authority or by one of its subsidiary corporations or under contract, lease or other arrangement with the authority. Any such project shall be executed as provided in the grade crossing elimination act and the railroad law, respectively, and the costs of any such project shall be borne as provided in such laws, except that the authority's share of such costs shall be borne by the state.

8. The authority may accept unconditional grants of money or property as subsidy payments for expansion of service into areas where such service would not be self-supporting. The authority may accept unconditional grants of money or property from any city, village, town or county not wholly contained within a city the whole or any part of which shall be served or to be served by a transportation facility operated by the authority. Such grants of money or property would be for the purpose of assisting the authority in meeting its capital or operating expenses. The acceptance of any such grant shall not operate to make the authority an agency of the municipality making the grant. The provisions of this section are intended as enabling legislation only and shall not be interpreted as implying that absent their enactment an authority would lack the power to accept such grant or subsidy.

9. Notwithstanding any of the above provisions, no project may be undertaken by the authority unless such project is a part of or consistent with the master plan.

§ 1308. Acquisition and disposition of real property. 1. In addition to the powers provided in section thirteen hundred six of this title to acquire transportation facilities, equipment and real property, the authority may acquire, by condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law and/or in accordance with the condemnation provisions of subdivision seven of this section, any real property it may deem necessary, convenient, or desirable to effectuate the purpose of this title, provided, however, that any such condemnation proceedings shall be brought only in the supreme court and the compensation to be paid shall be ascertained and determined by the court without a jury. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision, no real property may be acquired by the authority by condemnation or by purchase for purposes other than a transportation facility unless the governing body of the city, village or town in which such real property is located shall first consent to such acquisition.

2. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the authority from bringing any proceedings to remove a cloud on title or such other proceedings as it may, in its discretion, deem proper and necessary or from acquiring any such property by negotiation or purchase.

3. Where a person entitled to an award in the proceedings to condemn any real property for any of the purposes of this title remains in possession of such property after the time of the vesting of title in the condemnor, the reasonable value of his use and occupancy of such property subsequent to such time as fixed by agreement or by the court in such proceedings or by any court of competent jurisdiction shall be a lien against such award subject only to the liens of record at the time of vesting of title in the condemnor.

4. Title to all property acquired under this act shall vest in the authority.

5. The authority may, whenever it determines that it is in the interest of the authority, dispose of any real property or property other than real property, which it determines is not necessary, convenient or desirable for its purposes.

6. The authority may, whenever it shall determine that it is in the interest of the authority, rent, lease or grant easements or other rights in, any land or property of the authority.

7. The authority may adopt the following condemnation procedures. A certified copy of a resolution adopted by the authority authorizing the acquisition and identifying and describing the property and franchises, if any, sought to be acquired by condemnation shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such property is situated, held or maintained. A petition for an order vesting title to such property and franchises, if any, sought to be acquired by condemnation shall set forth a description of the said property and franchises, if any, and a prayer that title be vested in the authority, shall be presented, upon notice of the application to condemn published in five successive issues of a publication of general circulation within the county where such property and franchises, if any, are located, to a special term of the supreme court held at the time and place specified in such notice, within the judicial district in which the property being acquired or some part thereof is situated. Such proceedings shall have precedence over all other cases on the calendar of such court, any other provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding. Upon due proof to the satisfaction of the court of the filing of the resolution as hereinafter described, such court, not later than three days after the presentation of the petition, shall thereupon enter an order vesting title to such property and franchises, if any, in the authority. Upon such vesting of title the authority shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of such property. A notice of such acquisition shall be directed to the owners of the property and franchises, if any, so acquired and to any other person or persons having an estate, interest or easement in such property or a lien, charge or encumbrance thereon by personal service or by registered mail at the last known address within fifteen days after such vesting of title. Such notice shall set forth such resolution, the date of the submission to the court, the date of the order vesting title in such authority and such other matters as the authority may determine.

8. If funds are made available by the authority for the payment of the cost and expense of the acquisition thereof, the department of transportation of the state of New York, when requested by the authority, may acquire such real property in the name of the state as may be determined from time to time by the authority as being necessary, convenient or desirable to effectuate the purposes of this title, may remove the owner or occupant thereof where necessary, and obtain possession and, when requested by the authority, may dispose of any real property so acquired, all according to the procedure provided in section thirty of the highway law and pursuant to the procedure required under federal law, when applicable. The authority shall have the right to possess and use for its corporate purposes all such real property so acquired. Claims for the value of the property appropriated and for legal damages caused by any such appropriation shall be adjusted and determined by such department with the approval of the authority or by the court of claims as provided in section thirty of the highway law and as required by federal law, when applicable. When a claim has been filed with the court of claims the claimant shall cause a copy of such claim to be served upon the authority and the authority shall have the right to be represented and heard before such court. All awards and judgments arising from such claims shall be paid out of moneys of the authority. No real property may be acquired pursuant to the provisions of this section for purposes other than a transportation facility unless the governing body of the city, village or town in which such real property is located shall first consent to such acquisition.

§ 1309. Cooperation and assistance of other agencies. In the interest of economy and to promote coordination of authority projects with state, local, county and regional plans and also to carry out the objective of full participation of all agencies in the development of a transportation system and facilities to meet the objectives of this act, the authority shall request and use existing studies, master plans, surveys, data and other materials completed by or under development by any state agency or any municipality or political subdivision of the state. The authority shall consult with and cooperate with the commissioner of transportation and with planning authorities in the areas of its operations and shall utilize local and state planning. When a project is contemplated by the authority, the authority shall submit a preliminary prospectus thereof to the commissioner of transportation for review and comment and shall consider the report of the commissioner in formulating detailed plans for such project. When a project is contemplated by the authority within the jurisdiction of any county planning board or the capital district regional planning board, the authority shall prepare and submit to such planning board or boards a preliminary prospectus thereof, describing the purpose, general location, and nature of the project contemplated, with such further data relative thereto that the authority shall consider pertinent. Within sixty days of receipt of such prospectus such planning board or boards shall prepare a report thereon, commenting on its conformity or lack of conformity with any related official plan of the state or region or any official planning agency within the region. Such report shall be considered by the authority in formulating detailed plans for such a project. At the request of the authority, each such agency, municipality or subdivision which is engaged in highway or other transportation activities or in land use or development planning, or which is charged with the duty of providing or regulating any transportation facility or any other public facility, is further authorized to provide the authority with information regarding its plans and programs affecting the transportation district so that the authority may have available to it current information with respect thereto. The officers and personnel of such agencies, municipalities or subdivisions, and of any other government or agency whatever, may serve at the request of the authority upon such advisory committees as the authority shall determine to create and such officers and personnel may serve upon such committees without forfeiture of office or employment and with no loss or diminution in the compensation, status, rights and privileges which they otherwise enjoy.

§ 1310. Notes and bonds of the authority. 1. (a) The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to borrow money and issue its negotiable bonds and notes in such principal amount, as, in the opinion of the authority, shall be necessary to provide sufficient funds for achieving its purposes, including the acquisition, establishment, construction, effectuation, operation, maintenance, renovation, improvement, extension or repair of any transportation facility, the payment of interest on bonds and notes of the authority, establishment of reserves to secure such bonds and notes, the provision of working capital and all other expenditures of the authority and its subsidiary corporations incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out their purposes and powers;

(b) The authority shall have power, from time to time, to issue renewal notes, to issue bonds to pay notes and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and to issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purposes. The refunding bonds shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds to be refunded;

(c) Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, every issue of its notes or bonds shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any revenues or moneys of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular notes or bonds pledging any particular receipts or revenues;

(d) Whether or not the notes or bonds are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code, the notes or bonds shall be and hereby are made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of article eight of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the notes or bonds for registration.

2. The notes and bonds shall be authorized by resolution approved by not less than a majority of the whole number of members of the authority then in office, shall bear such date or dates, and shall mature at such time or times, as specified therein and in the case of any such bond not exceeding fifty years from the date of issue, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The notes and bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The notes and bonds of the authority may be sold by the authority, at public or private sale, at such price or prices as the authority shall determine. No notes or bonds of the authority may be sold by the authority at private sale, however, unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by (a) the comptroller, where such sale is not to the comptroller, or (b) the director of the budget, where such sale is to the comptroller.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any notes or bonds or any issue thereof may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders thereof, as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees made or received by the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations, and other moneys received or to be received, to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any issue thereof, subject to such agreements with bondholders or noteholders as may then exist;

(b) pledging all or any part of the assets of the authority or of any of its subsidiary corporations to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any issue of notes or bonds, subject to such agreements with noteholders or bondholders as may then exist;

(c) the use, and disposition of fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees made or received by the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations;

(d) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of notes or bonds may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any issue thereof;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional notes or bonds; the terms upon which additional notes or bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other notes or bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with noteholders or bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of notes or bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys to be expended by the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine, which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to this title, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under this article or limiting the rights, powers and duties of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the notes or bonds.

4. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its notes and bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of notes and bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its moneys or property or the moneys or property of any of its subsidiary corporations, including the mortgaging of any such property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such moneys or property and the doing of any act (including refraining from doing any act) which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of the notes and bonds of the authority.

5. It is the intention hereof that any pledge, mortgage or security instrument made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge, mortgage or security instrument is made; that the moneys or property so pledged, mortgaged and entrusted and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge, mortgage or security instrument without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge, mortgage or security instrument shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any mortgage, security instrument or other instrument by which a pledge, mortgage lien or other security is created need be recorded or filed and the authority shall not be required to comply with any of the provisions of the uniform commercial code.

6. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the notes or bonds shall be liable personally on the notes or bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

7. The authority, subject to such agreements with noteholders or bondholders as may then exist, shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase notes or bonds of the authority, which shall thereupon be cancelled, at a price not exceeding (a) if the notes or bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date thereon, or (b) if the notes or bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the notes or bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to such date.

8. The state shall not be liable on notes or bonds of the authority and such notes and bonds shall not be a debt of the state, and such notes and bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect.

§ 1311. Reserve funds and appropriations. 1. The authority may create and establish one or more reserve funds to be known as debt service reserve funds and may pay into such debt service reserve funds (a) any moneys appropriated and made available by the state for the purposes of such funds, (b) any proceeds of sale of notes or bonds to the extent provided in the resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance thereof, and (c) any other moneys which may be made available to the authority for the purpose of such funds from any other source or sources. The moneys held in or credited to any debt service reserve fund established under this section, except as hereinafter provided, shall be used solely for the payment of the principal of bonds of the authority secured by such debt service reserve fund as the same mature, the purchase of such bonds of the authority, the payment of interest on such bonds of the authority or the payment of any redemption premium required to be paid when such bonds are redeemed prior to maturity; provided, however, that the authority shall have power to provide that moneys in any such fund shall not be withdrawn therefrom at any time in such amount as would reduce the amount of such fund to less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on the bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such debt service reserve fund, except for the purpose of paying principal of and interest on such bonds of the authority secured by such debt service reserve fund maturing and becoming due and for the payment of which other moneys of the authority are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or increment to, any such debt service reserve fund due to the investment thereof may be transferred by the authority to any other fund or account of the authority and the authority shall have power to provide that any such transfer shall not reduce the amount of such debt service reserve fund below the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on all bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such debt service reserve fund.

2. The authority shall have power to provide that it shall not issue bonds at any time if the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on the bonds outstanding and then to be issued and secured by a debt service reserve fund will exceed the amount of such debt service reserve fund at the time of issuance, unless the authority, at the time of the issuance of such bonds, shall deposit in such debt service fund from the proceeds of the bonds so to be issued, or otherwise, an amount which, together with the amount then in such debt service reserve fund, will be not less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any such succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on the bonds then to be issued and on all other bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such debt service reserve fund.

3. In computing the amount of any debt service reserve fund for the purposes of this section, securities in which all or a portion of such fund shall be invested shall be valued at par, or if purchased at less than par, at their cost to the authority.

§ 1312. Agreement of the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any notes or bonds issued under this title, that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders thereof, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders until such notes or bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses for which the authority is liable in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of such notes or bonds.

§ 1313. Right of state to require redemption of bonds. Notwithstanding and in addition to any provisions for the redemption of bonds which may be contained in any contract with the holders of the bonds, the state may, upon furnishing sufficient funds therefor, require the authority to redeem, prior to maturity, as a whole, any issue of bonds on any interest payment date not less than twenty years after the date of the bonds of such issue at one hundred five per centum of their face value and accrued interest or at such lower redemption price as may be provided in the bonds in case of the redemption thereof as a whole on the redemption date. Notice of such redemption shall be published in at least two newspapers published and circulating in the counties of Albany, Schenectady, Rensselaer and Saratoga at least twice, the first publication to be at least thirty days before the date of redemption.

§ 1314. Remedies of noteholders and bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of notes or bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of notes or bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the notes or bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of any county in which the authority operates and has an office and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such notes or bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such notes or bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by suit, action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the noteholders or bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such notes or bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such notes or bonds;

(c) by action or suit, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such notes or bonds;

(d) by action or suit, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such notes or bonds;

(e) declare all such notes or bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then, with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such notes or bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders or noteholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceedings by the trustee on behalf of such noteholders or bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county in which the instrument or instruments are filed in accordance with subdivision one of this section.

5. Before declaring the principal of notes or bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the governor, to the authority, to the comptroller and to the attorney general of the state.

§ 1315. Notes and bonds as legal investment. The notes and bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities and political subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or who may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the bonds of the authority are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and political subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1316. Exemption from taxation. It is hereby found, determined and declared that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and is a public purpose, and that the authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title. Without limiting the generality of the following provisions of this section, property owned by the authority and used for transportation purposes, property leased by the authority and used for transportation purposes, and property used for transportation purposes by or for the benefit of the authority exclusively pursuant to the provisions of a joint service arrangement or of a joint facilities agreement or trackage rights agreement shall all be exempt from taxation and special ad valorem levies. The authority shall be required to pay no fees, taxes or assessments, whether state or local, except special benefit assessments if said property is located in a special benefit district, including but not limited to fees, taxes or assessments on real estate, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes, upon any of its property, or upon the uses thereof, or upon its activities in the operation and maintenance of its facilities or on any fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges or other fees, revenues or other income received by the authority and all bonds, notes and obligations of the authority and the income therefrom shall at all times be exempt from taxation, except for gift and estate taxes and taxes on transfers. This section shall constitute a covenant and agreement with the holders of all bonds, notes and obligations issued by the authority. The terms "taxation" and "special ad valorem levy" shall have the same meanings as defined in section one hundred two of the real property tax law and the term "transportation purposes" shall have the same meaning as used in titles two-a and two-b of article four of such law.

§ 1317. Actions against the authority. 1. As a condition to the consent of the state to such suits against the authority, in every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority or other officer designated for such purpose and the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof.

2. An action against the authority founded on tort, except an action for wrongful death, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limited by and in compliance with all the requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

3. The authority shall be liable, and shall assume the liability to the extent that it shall save harmless any duly appointed officer or employee of the authority, for the negligence of such officer or employee, in the operation of a vehicle or other facility of transportation owned or otherwise under the jurisdiction and control of the authority in the discharge of a duty imposed upon such officer or employee at the time of the accident, injury or damages complained of, while otherwise acting in the performance of his duties and within the scope of his employment.

4. The authority may require any person, presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatever against the authority, to be sworn before a member, counsel or an attorney, officer or employee of the authority designated for such purpose, concerning such account or claim and when so sworn to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

5. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority upon any judgment for which it is liable shall not exceed four per centum per annum.

6. The provisions of this section which relate to the requirement for service of a notice of claim shall not apply to a subsidiary corporation of the authority. In all other respects, each subsidiary corporation of the authority shall be subject to the provisions of this section as if such subsidiary corporation were separately named herein, provided, however, that a subsidiary corporation of the authority which is a stock corporation shall not be subject to the provisions of this section except with respect to those causes of action arising on and after the first of the twelfth calendar month following that calendar month in which such stock corporation becomes a subsidiary corporation of the authority.

§ 1318. Agreements relating to payment in lieu of taxes. To the end that municipal corporations, counties and school districts may not suffer undue loss of taxes or assessments:

If the authority acquires property for non-transportation purposes (e.g. for future transportation purposes but not to be so used immediately) the authority except as hereinafter provided, shall pay to the participating county and/or city, town or school district where the property is located, annually, in lieu of taxes, a sum equal to the sum last paid as taxes upon the property prior to the time of its acquisition by the authority. Should such property be subsequently developed and improved but still remain unused for transportation purposes, it shall during such period of disuse for transportation be subject to assessment, at the prevailing method of determining assessments, by the county and/or city and/or school district and the authority shall, based on such assessment, annually, in lieu of taxes, pay to the county and/or city and/or school district an amount fixed by it.

If the authority acquires property for transportation purposes but subsequently uses such property for non-transportation purposes, then the authority shall be required, except as hereinafter provided, to pay annually in lieu of taxes to the participating county and/or city and/or school district wherein such property is located, an amount equal to the sum which the said county and/or city and/or school district would ordinarily be imposed as taxes, pursuant to the prevailing method of determining assessments.

Properties acquired by the authority for transportation and used as such, shall not be subject to the payment of any taxes except that the authority shall pay such property special benefit assessments on the property if it is located in an existing special benefit district.

The authority may, in its discretion, enter into agreements to pay annual sums in lieu of taxes in respect of any real property which is owned by the authority and exempt from taxation pursuant to section thirteen hundred sixteen of this title to the participating county and for city, town or school district in which the property is located, provided, however, that the amount so paid for any year upon such property shall not exceed the sum last paid as taxes on such property to such county, city, town or school district prior to the time of its acquisition by the agency.

§ 1319. Interest of members or employees of authority in contracts prohibited. It shall be a misdemeanor for a member of the authority or an officer, agent, servant or employee employed by or appointed by the authority, to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly, as principal, surety or otherwise, in a contract, the expense or consideration whereof is payable out of the funds of the authority.

§ 1320. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the authority shall begin on the first day of April.

§ 1321. Consent by the state. The commissioner of general services shall have power, in his discretion, from time to time to transfer and convey to the authority, or to one or more participating counties for the use of the authority, and for such consideration as may be determined by him to be paid to the state, unappropriated state lands and lands under water which the authority shall certify to be necessary or desirable for the corporate purposes of the authority.

§ 1322. Separability. If any provision of any section of this title or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be adjudged invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such order or judgment shall be confined in its operation to the controversy in which it was rendered, and shall not affect or invalidate the remainder of any provision of any section of this title or the application of any part thereof to any other person or circumstance and to this end the provisions of each section of this title are hereby declared to be severable.

§ 1323. Effect of inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

TITLE 11-D

CENTRAL NEW YORK REGIONAL TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY

§ 1325. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Central New York Regional Transportation Authority Act".

§ 1326. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. "Authority" shall mean the corporation created by section thirteen hundred twenty-eight of this title.

2. "Transportation district" and "district" shall mean the central New York regional transportation district created by section thirteen hundred twenty-seven of this title.

3. "Participating county" shall mean any of the counties defined in section thirteen hundred twenty-seven of this title.

4. "Federal government" shall mean the United States of America, and any officer, department, board, commission, bureau, division, corporation, agency or instrumentality thereof.

5. "Governor" shall mean the governor of the state of New York.

6. "Comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state of New York.

7. "Director of the budget" shall mean the director of the budget of the state of New York.

8. "State" shall mean the state of New York.

9. "State agency" shall mean any officer, department, board, commission, bureau, division, public benefit corporation, agency or instrumentality of the state.

10. "Municipality" shall mean a city, town, village or county not wholly contained within a city.

11. "Municipal corporation" shall mean a city, town, village, county not wholly contained within a city, special transportation district, public benefit corporation or other public corporation, or two or more of the foregoing acting jointly.

12. "Personal property" shall mean chattels and other tangible things of a movable or removable nature.

13. "Property" shall mean both real and personal property.

14. "Master plan" shall mean the long range regional transportation plan for the central New York area including, but not limited to that prepared by the Syracuse metropolitan transportation study and the Oswego-Fulton area transportation study and approved by the commissioner.

15. "Joint service arrangement" shall mean agreements between or among the authority and any common carrier or freight forwarder, the state, any state agency, the federal government, any other state or agency or instrumentality thereof, any public authority of this or any other state, or any political subdivision or municipality of the state, relating to property, buildings, structures, facilities, services, rates, fares, classifications, divisions, allowances or charges (including charges between operators of railroad, omnibus, marine and aviation facilities) or rules or regulations pertaining thereto, for or in connection with or incidental to transportation in part or upon railroad, omnibus, marine or aviation facilities located within the district and in part in or upon railroad, omnibus, marine or aviation facilities located outside the district.

16. "Project" shall mean any undertaking by the authority within the district including but not limited to port or harbor facilities, transportation properties, access and service roads and bridges, serving railroad, omnibus, marine and air facilities, equipment, appurtenances, airport facilities and any other improvement under authority jurisdiction within the district.

17. "Facility" shall mean, among other things, such properties, structures, appurtenances, terminals, wharves, docks, piers, railroad trackage, warehouses, elevators, equipment for handling freight, passengers and vehicles and such other works, properties, buildings or allied items necessary or desirable in connection with development, operation, maintenance or improvement of port, airport and public transportation needs for the accommodation, safety or comfort of the public and commercial enterprise for the regional transportation district.

18. "Equipment" shall mean rolling stock, omnibuses, vehicles, air, marine or surface craft, motors, boilers, engines, and other instrumentalities used or useful therefor or in connection therewith.

19. "Omnibus facilities" shall mean motor vehicles, of the type operated by carriers subject to the jurisdiction of the public service commission, engaged in the transportation of passengers and their baggage, express and mail between points within the district or pursuant to joint service arrangements, and equipment, property, buildings, structures, improvements, loading or unloading areas, parking areas, berthing facilities or other facilities, necessary, convenient or desirable for the accommodation of such motor vehicles or their passengers, including but not limited to buildings, structures and areas notwithstanding that portions may not be devoted to any omnibus purpose other than the production of revenues available for the costs and expenses of all or any facilities of the authority.

20. "Railroad facilities" shall mean right-of-way and related trackage, rails, cars, locomotives, other rolling stock, signal, power, fuel, communication and ventilation systems, power plants, stations, terminals, storage yards, repair and maintenance shops, yards, equipment and parts, offices and other real estate or personalty used or held for or incidental to the operation, rehabilitation or improvement of any railroad operating or to operate between points within the district or pursuant to joint service arrangements, including but not limited to buildings, structures, and areas notwithstanding that portions thereof may not be devoted to any railroad purpose other than the production of revenues available for the costs and expenses of all or any facilities of the authority.

21. "Real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchise and interests in land, waters, lands under water, riparian rights and any and all things and rights included within said term and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests including but not limited to easements, rights-of-way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise.

22. "Marine and aviation facilities" shall mean equipment and craft for the transportation of passengers, mail and cargo between points from and to and within the district or pursuant to joint service arrangements, by marine craft and aircraft of all types including but not limited to hydrofoils, ferries, lighters, tugs, barges, helicopters, amphibians, seaplanes or other contrivances now or hereafter used in navigation or movement on waterways or in the navigation of or flight in airspace. It shall also mean any airport facility within the transportation district, including but not limited to any facility or real property necessary, convenient or desirable for the landing, taking off, accommodation or servicing of such aircraft, and shall include such facilities, property, structures and appurtenances as may be necessary or convenient in the operation, maintenance, development or improvement of airports including facilities, property, structures, and appurtenances, leased by the authority to persons, firms or corporations engaged in air transportation or the production or development of materials, goods or equipment for airports or air transportation or in providing facilities for the accommodation, safety or comfort of the traveling public and for purposes related or incidental to one or more of the foregoing purposes. It shall also mean port facilities in the transportation district including but not limited to, (a) one or more docks, elevators, wharves, piers, bulkheads, slips, basins, harbors, railroad connections, side tracks or sidings, freight terminals, warehouses, bridges, tunnels, and areas for storage of cargoes, materials, goods, wares, and merchandise of any kind and for the loading, unloading, interchange or transfer of any such cargoes, materials, goods, wares and merchandise; (b) other buildings, structures, facilities or improvements necessary to accommodate steamships or other vessels and their cargoes or passengers; and (c) all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, mechanical equipment and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are necessary, convenient or desirable for the development, control and operation of port facilities in the transportation district.

23. "Transportation facility" shall mean any railroad, omnibus, marine or aviation or parking facility and any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation which owns, leases or operates any such facility or any other facility used for service in the transportation of passengers, United States mail or personal property as a common carrier for hire and any portion thereof and the rights, leaseholds or other interest therein together with routes, tracks, extensions, connections, parking lots, garages, warehouses, yards, storage yards, maintenance and repair shops, terminals, stations and other related facilities thereof, the devices, appurtenances, and equipment thereof and power plants and other instrumentalities used or useful therefor or in connection therewith.

24. "Commissioner" shall mean commissioner of transportation of the state of New York.

25. "Action plan" shall mean a plan for implementation and improvement of such means of public transportation and related services by omnibus, railroad and marine and aviation facilities as the authority may contemplate within the transportation district to effectuate the purposes of this act.

26. "Transit dependent individual" shall mean an individual who is limited to public transit as their primary mode of transportation because the individual has a permanent disability.

§ 1327. Central New York regional transportation district. 1. There is hereby created and established a transportation district to be known as the central New York regional transportation district. This district shall embrace the county of Onondaga and such of the following counties as may elect to become members by action of their governing bodies: Cayuga, Cortland, Jefferson, Madison, Oneida and Oswego. The transportation district shall also include all lands and water and all lands under water and all rivers, lakes, bays and harbors within any of the counties of said district.

§ 1328. Central New York regional transportation authority. 1. (a) There is hereby created the central New York regional transportation authority. The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation. It shall consist of not more than twelve members, including a chairman and shall have one non-voting member as described in paragraph (b) of this subdivision. At least one voting member shall be a transit dependent individual who shall be appointed by the governor. If a vacancy occurs for such transit dependent individual member position, a replacement shall be appointed within six months, subject to the same appointment process within this paragraph. The members shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The governor shall make initial appointments to the authority in such number and from lists submitted as follows: three members shall be appointed to the authority from a list of not less than six names, submitted to the governor by the common council of the city of Syracuse, five members from a list of not less than ten names, submitted by the legislature of the county of Onondaga and two members shall be appointed from a list of not less than four names submitted by the legislature of the county of Oneida. Other counties electing to participate shall each submit to the governor a list of not less than two persons for each one hundred thousand or major fraction of the total population, as determined by the nineteen hundred seventy or any subsequent federal decennial or federal county-wide special census, of the counties outside the county of Onondaga which shall elect to participate, from which number the governor shall appoint one member for each one hundred thousand or major fraction of the total population, as determined by such federal decennial or federal county-wide special census, with a maximum of three members to represent such counties outside the county of Onondaga so electing to participate. In addition to the members specified above, the governor shall appoint a transit dependent individual as a voting member who resides within a county within the district. Any local or statewide transit advocacy organization may recommend one or more transit dependent individuals to be considered for appointment pursuant to this section.

(b) The non-voting member of the authority, who shall not be considered in determining a quorum, shall be recommended to the governor by the labor organization representing the plurality of the employees within the authority. The non-voting member shall be appointed for a term of seven years, provided, however, that if at any time during the term of appointment the non-voting member ceases to be affiliated with the labor organization representing the plurality of employees within the authority, then such labor organization may at any time during such term recommend a new member to the governor who shall serve the remainder of the term. If the local bargaining unit decertifies its existing union affiliation and certifies a new union, the union which represents the plurality of the employees may recommend a new member to the governor who shall serve the remainder of the term. The chairman of the authority, at his or her discretion, may exclude such non-voting member from attending any portion of a meeting of the authority or of any committee held for the purpose of discussing negotiations with labor organizations, pending litigation involving the labor organization, or the investigation, evaluation, or discipline of an employee.

2. The members of the authority shall continue in office until their successors are appointed and shall have qualified. One member recommended by the common council of the city of Syracuse and one member recommended by the legislature of the county of Onondaga shall be appointed for terms ending July thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-five; one member recommended by the common council of the city of Syracuse and two members recommended by the legislature of the county of Onondaga shall be appointed for terms ending July thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-six; and one member recommended by the common council of the city of Syracuse and two members recommended by the legislature of the county of Onondaga shall be appointed for terms ending July thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-seven. The member (or members) who is (or are) recommended by the other county legislatures or board of supervisors shall be appointed for a term (or terms) of seven years, but all terminating on the thirty-first day of July of the seventh year. Thereafter, upon expiration of the term of a member of the authority a successor shall be appointed by the governor for a term expiring seven years after the expiration of the term of his predecessor. If a vacancy shall occur by reason of death, disqualification, resignation or removal of a member, the successor shall be appointed by the governor for the unexpired term. Persons succeeding members recommended by the appropriate legislative bodies of the city of Syracuse and the counties of Onondaga and Oneida on the authority shall be appointed by the same procedure as the original appointments. The same procedure shall be followed for the filling of vacancies of members appointed from other counties. Members of the authority shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, take the constitutional oath of office and file the same in the office of the secretary of state.

3. The members of the authority shall not receive a salary or other compensation when rendering service as a member, but each member shall be entitled to reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his or her official duties.

4. A majority of the whole number of members of the authority shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power of the authority. Except as otherwise specified in this act, for the transaction of any business or the exercise of any power of the authority, the authority shall have power to act by a majority of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is in attendance.

5. The authority shall organize by the selection from its members of a chairman, vice-chairman and secretary. It shall adopt such rules as it may deem necessary and proper for the government of its own proceedings, and shall keep a record of such proceedings.

6. The authority shall be a "state agency" for the purposes of sections seventy-three and seventy-four of the public officers law.

7. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this or any other law, general, special or local, no officer or employee of the state, or of any public corporation as defined in the general corporation law, shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his office or employment or any benefits provided under the retirement and social security law or under any public retirement system maintained by the state or any of its subdivisions by reason of his acceptance of membership on or chairmanship of the authority; provided, however, a member or chairman who holds such other public office or employment shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of such services.

8. The governor may remove any member for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office after giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity to be heard, in person or by counsel in his defense, upon not less than ten days' notice. If any member shall be so removed, the governor shall file in the office of the department of state a complete statement of charges made against such member, and his findings thereon, together with a complete record of the proceedings.

9. The authority shall continue so long as it shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding and until its existence shall be terminated by law. Upon the termination of the existence of the authority, all its rights and properties shall pass to and be vested in the state.

10. Each of the counties that elect to become participating members of the transportation district may do so by resolution adopted by a majority of the membership of its governing body and such election by a county shall take effect upon the filing of a duly certified copy of such resolution with the authority and with the secretary of state, and the mailing of a certified copy thereof to the county clerk of each county which is granted the power of election under the provisions of this act.

§ 1329. Purposes of the authority. 1. The purposes of the authority shall be the continuance, further development and improvement of transportation and other services related thereto within the transportation district, by railroad, omnibus, marine and air, in accordance with the provisions of this title.

2. It is hereby found and declared that such purposes are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in carrying out its purposes and in exercising the powers granted by this title.

§ 1330. Formulation, filing and adoption of action plan; amendments. The authority shall formulate an action plan for transportation within the district. In formulating such plan, the authority shall consult and cooperate with the commissioner and the planning authorities in the area of its operations, and shall utilize state, local or regional transportation planning. The authority shall request and use existing studies, plans, surveys, data and other materials completed by or under development by any state agency or municipality. The authority shall file copies of such plan with the commissioner, the central New York regional planning and development board, the common council of the city of Syracuse, the county legislature of the county of Onondaga, and with the legislative body of any other county, within the district, affected by such plan, as hereinafter stated. The plan shall contain information regarding the transportation system that the authority intends to provide including information regarding the facilities connected therewith, the services the authority contemplates providing and the estimated costs and the proposed method of financing. During sixty days after the filing of the action plan with the commissioner, the central New York regional planning and development board and with the legislative body or bodies as aforesaid, said plan shall be available for public inspection at the office or offices of the authority and at such other places in the areas affected, within the district, as the authority may designate. Not earlier than thirty days after the filing of said action plan with the commissioner, the central New York regional planning and development board and such legislative body or bodies, a public hearing on said plan shall be held by the authority. Notice of such a hearing shall be given to the commissioner, the central New York regional planning and development board and the legislative body or bodies as aforesaid and by publication once a week for two weeks prior to the said hearing at the time and place fixed by the authority in newspapers of general circulation within the areas affected, to be selected by the authority. The last publication date shall not be less than five days before said hearing. Within thirty days following said public hearing, the authority shall provide a transcript of such hearing to the commissioner, the central New York regional planning and development board and the legislative body or bodies as aforesaid, together with any amendments the authority may propose to the action plan. The authority shall request approval of the action plan, including such amendments as the authority may propose, from the commissioner and the aforementioned legislative body or bodies. Any part of said plan which is disapproved by a political subdivision because it alters existing services or the financing thereof within said political subdivision shall not become operative. The commissioner may disapprove any part of said plan if he finds that it conflicts with a state-wide comprehensive master plan for transportation or the Syracuse metropolitan transportation study and the Oswego-Fulton area transportation study or, in the absence of such plans, would have an adverse effect upon sound transportation development policy and planning. Any part of such plan so disapproved by the commissioner shall not become operative. Disapproval of part or parts of the plan shall not make the entire plan inoperative. If the said legislative body or bodies fail to act within sixty days or in the case of the commissioner within ninety days after approval is requested, said failure shall be deemed approval, and the authority may adopt the action plan by a majority vote of its membership and may include changes, if any, recommended by the commissioner, said planning board or legislative body or bodies.

The action plan may be amended from time to time in the same manner using the procedures outlined herein for the original adoption, except that a proposed amendment which is recommended by the legislative body or bodies affected thereby and approval by the commissioner may be embodied or continued by a majority vote of the authority without additional hearings thereon as required for the amendments proposed to be made.

§ 1330-a. Filing five year performance, capital and operating finance plans. 1. (a) On or before October first, nineteen hundred ninety-four, and annually thereafter on or before April first, the authority shall adopt an operational performance plan for the five-year period commencing April first. The plan shall set operational performance plan goals and objectives, including but not limited to ridership and passenger revenue goals and objectives for the period, for fixed route bus operations, and shall establish performance indicators to measure standards of service and operations. The performance indicators shall include: revenue passengers, total passengers, revenue vehicle miles, revenue vehicle hours, number of employees by department, vehicle mean distance between failures, on-time performance for total service provided, the cost per passenger, the cost per revenue vehicle mile and the operating-revenue-to-cost ratio.

(b) Quarterly reports shall be prepared for authority members on operating performance of fixed route bus operations. The first such report shall cover the three-month period commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-five and shall be submitted no later than thirty days after the end of the quarter. Thereafter, quarterly reports shall be submitted on the last day of October, January, April, and July of each year. The report shall compare the performance indicators for the most recent quarter and the year-to-date performance indicators with the same time period in the previous year with the annual goals established pursuant to this subdivision.

2. (a) On or before October first, nineteen hundred ninety-four, and annually thereafter on or before April first, the authority shall adopt a capital program plan for the five-year period commencing April first. The plan shall contain the capital program, separately itemized, by the following functions: regular fixed route bus service, demand responsive bus service, and any aviation facilities and any marine facilities for which it currently has or shall assume responsibility.

(b) The plan shall set goals and objectives by function for capital spending, establish standards for service and operation, describe each capital project to be initiated in each of the years covered by the plan and explain how each proposed project supports the goals and objectives and the service and operational standards established in the performance plan. The plan shall list separately by function those projects contributing to the maintenance of the system infrastructure and those intended to enhance the system. The plan shall also include an estimated cost for each project and set forth an estimate of the amount of capital funding required for each year of the plan and the expected sources of such funding. It shall also include a project schedule for the initiation and completion of each project. Each plan subsequent to the first such plan shall describe the current status of each capital project which has a total estimated cost of one hundred thousand dollars or more and which was included in the previously adopted plan.

(c) In addition to the annual update, a quarterly capital plan status report shall be provided to the authority members and shall include, but not be limited to, a description of any material change in the scope, cost, funding or time of initiation or completion of a project which has a total estimated cost of one hundred thousand dollars or more, as adopted in the plan. The first such report shall cover the three-month period commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-five and shall be submitted no later than thirty days after the end of the quarter. Thereafter, quarterly reports shall be submitted on the last day of October, January, April, and July of each year.

3. (a) On or before October first, nineteen hundred ninety-four, and annually thereafter on or before April first, the authority shall adopt an operating finance plan for the five-year period commencing April first. The plan shall include the annual estimated operating cost for the following authority functions: fixed bus operations, demand responsive bus operations, and any aviation facilities and any marine facilities for which it currently has, or shall assume responsibility. The plan shall include the proposed method of financing for the level of service defined for each year of the plan and shall fully allocate the authority's general costs to each of the above separate functions. The plan shall provide a narrative describing the overall financial condition of the operating budget of the authority.

(b) In addition to the annual update, quarterly operating budget reports shall be prepared for the authority members on the financial condition of each of the authority's functions. The first such report shall cover the three-month period commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-five and shall be submitted no later than thirty days after the end of the quarter. Thereafter, quarterly reports shall be submitted on the last day of October, January, April, and July of each year. The reports shall include a budgetary comparison of the most recent quarter and year-to-date actual revenue and expenditures with the same time period in the previous year and with the projections for that time period based on the board approved budget. The reporting for fixed route bus operations shall be separate from the reporting for demand responsive bus service.

4. Any and all reports, including interim reports, shall be submitted to the director of the division of the budget, the commissioner of transportation and the chief executive officers of Cayuga, Onondaga, and Oswego counties, the county legislatures of Cayuga, Onondaga, and Oswego counties, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the chairpersons of the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee, and the chairpersons of the senate and assembly transportation committees.

§ 1331. General powers of the authority. A. Except as otherwise limited by this title, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To borrow money and issue negotiable notes, bonds or other obligations and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

4. To invest any funds held in reserve or sinking funds, or any monies not required for immediate use or disbursement, at the discretion of the authority, in obligations of the state or the United States government or obligations the principal and interest of which are guaranteed by the state or the United States government, or in certificates of deposit or other interest bearing depository accounts in banks or trust companies in this state if the certificate or account is secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit;

5. To make and alter by-laws for its organization and internal management, and rules and regulations governing the exercise of its powers and fulfillment of its purposes under this title;

6. To enter into contracts and leases and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

7. To acquire, hold and dispose of real or personal property in the exercise of its powers;

8. To appoint a general manager, who shall serve at the pleasure of the authority, and such officers and employees as the authority may require for the performance of its duties, and to fix and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation and to retain or employ counsel, auditors, engineers, and private consultants on a contract basis or otherwise for rendering professional, management or technical services and advice; such general manager, counsel, auditors, engineers, and private consultants, officers and employees may not be a member of the authority;

9. (a) Notwithstanding section one hundred thirteen of the retirement and social security law or any other general or special law, the authority and any of its subsidiary corporations may continue or provide to its affected officers and employees any retirement, disability, death or other benefits provided or required for railroad personnel pursuant to federal or state law. Notwithstanding any provisions of the civil service law, no officer or employee of a subsidiary corporation, of the authority, other than a public benefit subsidiary corporation, shall be a public officer or a public employee;

(b) The authority and any of its public benefit subsidiary corporations may be a "participating employer" in the New York state employees' retirement system with respect to one or more classes of officers and employees of such authority or any such public benefit subsidiary corporation, as may be provided by resolution of such authority or any such public benefit subsidiary corporation, as the case may be, or any subsequent amendment thereof, filed with the comptroller and accepted by him pursuant to section thirty-one of the retirement and social security law. In taking any action pursuant to this paragraph (b), the authority and any of its public benefit subsidiary corporations shall consider the coverages and benefits continued or provided pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision;

10. To make plans, surveys, and studies necessary, convenient or desirable to the effectuation of the purposes and powers of the authority and to prepare recommendations in regard thereto;

11. To enter upon such lands, waters or premises as in the judgment of the authority may be necessary, convenient or desirable for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, borings and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this title, the authority being liable for actual damage done;

12. The authority may conduct investigations and hearings in the furtherance of its general purposes, and in aid thereof have access to any books, records or papers relevant thereto; and if any person whose testimony shall be required for the proper performance of the duties of the authority shall fail or refuse to aid or assist the authority in the conduct of any investigation or hearing, or to produce any relevant books, records or other papers, the authority is authorized to apply for process of subpoena, to issue out of any court of general original jurisdiction whose process can reach such person, upon due cause shown;

13. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title;

14. To enter into collective bargaining agreements with labor representatives duly elected by the employees of the authority;

15. To insure or provide for the insurance of the authority's property or operations as required by law and also against such other risks as the authority may deem advisable.

B. The authority shall prepare and file with the commissioner and each county of the transportation district an annual budget consisting of projected operating revenues and expenditures for the next fiscal year.

C. The authority shall file in the office of the commissioner annual reports, after the close of each of the authority's fiscal years, which shall be open to public inspection. Such reports shall include, in addition to any information which the commissioner may require, a statement with respect to its operation including the following data:

(a) Cost breakdown of real property acquired for each system or facility acquired or operated by the authority;

(b) Cost breakdown in appropriate units of facilities acquired for each facility acquired or operated by the authority;

(c) Operating revenues for each facility acquired or operated by the authority;

(d) Operating expenses for each facility acquired or operated by the authority.

The authority shall also file copies of such reports with the legislative body or bodies of the city of Syracuse and all counties where such authority operates. In addition, the commissioner may request the authority to file interim reports with him containing such information which he may require and the authority shall file such reports.

§ 1332. Special powers of the authority. In order to effectuate the purposes of this title: 1. The authority may acquire, by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease, or condemnation, any transportation facility, including port or related facilities wholly or partially within the transportation district or any part thereof, or the use thereof, and may enter into any joint service arrangements as hereinafter provided. Any such acquisition or joint service arrangement shall be authorized only by resolution of the authority approved by not less than a majority of the whole number of members of the authority then in office.

2. The authority may on such terms and conditions as the authority may determine necessary, convenient or desirable itself establish, construct, effectuate, operate, maintain, renovate, improve, extend or repair any such transportation facility, or may provide for such establishment, construction, effectuation, operation, maintenance, renovation, improvement, extension or repair by contract, lease, or other arrangement on such terms as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable with any person, including but not limited to any common carrier or freight forwarder, the state, any state agency, the federal government, any other state or agency or instrumentality thereof, any public authority of this or any other state or any political subdivision or municipality of the state. In connection with the operation of any such transportation facility, the authority may establish, construct, effectuate, operate, maintain, renovate, improve, extend or repair or may provide by contract, lease or other arrangement for the establishment, construction, effectuation, operation, maintenance, renovation, improvement, extension or repair of any related services and activities it deems necessary, convenient or desirable, including but not limited to the transportation and storage of freight and the United States mail, feeder and connecting transportation, parking areas, transportation centers, port, stations and related facilities.

3. The authority may establish, levy and collect or cause to be established, levied and collected and, in the case of a joint service arrangement, join with others in the establishment, levy and collection of such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees as it may deem necessary, convenient or desirable for the use and operation of any transportation facility and related services operated by the authority or by a subsidiary corporation of the authority or under contract, lease or other arrangement, including joint service arrangements, with the authority. Any such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges or other fees for the transportation of passengers shall be established and changed only if approved by resolution of the authority adopted by not less than a majority of the whole number of members of the authority then in office and only after a public hearing, provided however, that fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges or other fees for the transportation of passengers on any transportation facility which are in effect at the time that the then owner of such transportation facility becomes a subsidiary corporation of the authority or at the time that operation of such transportation facility is commenced by the authority or is commenced under contract, lease or other arrangement including joint service arrangements, with the authority may be continued in effect without such a hearing. Such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees shall be established as may in the judgment of the authority be necessary to maintain the combined operations of the authority and its subsidiary corporations on a self-sustaining basis. The said operations shall be deemed to be on a self-sustaining basis as required by this title, when the authority is able to pay or cause to be paid from revenue and any other funds or property actually available to the authority and its subsidiary corporations (a) as the same shall become due, the principal of and interest on the bonds and notes and other obligations of the authority and of such subsidiary corporations, together with the maintenance of proper reserves therefor, (b) the cost and expense of keeping the properties and assets of the authority and its subsidiary corporations in good condition and repair, and (c) the capital and operating expenses of the authority and its subsidiary corporations. The authority may contract with the holders of bonds and notes with respect to the exercise of the powers authorized by this section.

4. The authority may establish and, in the case of joint service arrangements, join with others in the establishment of such schedules and standards of operations and such other rules and regulations including but not limited to rules and regulations governing the conduct and safety of the public as it may deem necessary, convenient or desirable for the use and operation of any transportation facility and related services operated by the authority or under contract, lease or other arrangement, including joint service arrangements, with the authority. Such rules and regulations governing the conduct and safety of the public shall be filed with the department of state in the manner provided by section one hundred two of the executive law. In the case of any conflict between any such rule or regulation of the authority governing the conduct or safety of the public and any local law, ordinance, rule or regulation, such rule or regulation of the authority shall prevail. Violation of any such rule or regulation of the authority governing the conduct or the safety of the public in or upon any facility of the authority shall constitute an offense and shall be punishable by fine not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisonment for not more than thirty days or both.

5. The authority may acquire, hold, own, lease, establish, construct, effectuate, operate, maintain, renovate, improve, extend or repair any of its facilities through, and cause any one or more of its powers, duties, functions or activities to be exercised or performed by, one or more wholly owned subsidiary corporations of the authority and may transfer to or from any such corporation any moneys, real property or other property for any of the purposes of this title. The directors or members of each such subsidiary corporation shall be the same persons holding the offices of members of the authority. Each such subsidiary corporation and any of its property, functions and activities shall have all of the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions and other exemptions of the authority and of the authority's property, functions and activities. Each such subsidiary corporation shall be subject to the restrictions and limitations to which the authority may be subject. Each such subsidiary corporation shall be subject to suit in accordance with section thirteen hundred forty-one of this title. The employees of any such subsidiary corporation, except those who are also employees of the authority, shall not be deemed employees of the authority.

If the authority shall determine that one or more of its subsidiary corporations should be in the form of a public benefit corporation, it shall create each such public benefit corporation by executing and filing with the secretary of state a certificate of incorporation, which may be amended from time to time by filing, which shall set forth the name of such public benefit subsidiary corporation, its duration, the location of its principal office, and any or all of the purposes of acquiring, owning, leasing, establishing, constructing, effectuating, operating, maintaining, renovating, improving, extending or repairing one or more facilities of the authority. Each such public benefit subsidiary corporation shall be a body politic and corporate and shall have all those powers vested in the authority by the provisions of this title which the authority shall determine to include in its certificate of incorporation except the power to contract indebtedness.

Whenever any state, political subdivision, municipality, commission, agency, officer, department, board, division or person is authorized and empowered for any of the purposes of this title to cooperate and enter into agreements with the authority such state, political subdivision, municipality, commission, agency, officer, department, board, division or person shall have the same authorization and power for any of such purposes to cooperate and enter into agreements with a subsidiary corporation of the authority.

6. The authority, in its own name or in the name of the state, may apply for and receive and accept grants of property, money, services and other assistance offered or made available to it by any person, government or agency whatever, which it may use to meet capital or operating expenses and for any other use within the scope of its powers, and to negotiate for the same upon such terms and conditions as the authority may determine to be necessary, convenient or desirable. In no event, however, shall the authority submit to the United States or to the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of them, an application for a federal or state project unless the application shall have been first approved by the commissioner as being part of or consistent with such statewide plan, regional plan or transportation development policy and planning concept.

7. The authority may do all things it deems necessary, convenient or desirable to manage, control and direct the maintenance and operation of transportation facilities, equipment or real property operated by or under contract, lease or other arrangement with the authority. Except as hereinafter specially provided, no municipality or political subdivision, including but not limited to a county, city, village, town or school or other district shall have jurisdiction over any facilities of the authority or any of its activities or operations. In the operation, maintenance and control of any facilities devoted to purposes other than direct transportation purposes, the authority shall be subject to all local laws, resolutions, ordinances, rules and regulations of a municipality or political subdivision. Each municipality or political subdivision, including but not limited to a county, city, village, town or district in which any facilities of the authority are located shall provide for such facilities police, fire and health protection services of the same character and to the same extent as those provided for residents of such municipality or political subdivision.

The authority may agree with the state department of transportation for the execution by such department of any grade crossing elimination project or any grade crossing separation reconstruction project along any railroad facility operated by the authority or by one of its subsidiary corporations or under contract, lease or other arrangement with the authority. Any such project shall be executed as provided in the grade crossing elimination act and the railroad law, respectively, and the costs of any such project shall be borne as provided in such laws.

8. The authority may accept unconditional grants of money or property as subsidy payments for expansion of service into areas where such service would not be self-supporting. The authority may accept unconditional grants of money or property from any city, village, town or county not wholly contained within a city the whole or any part of which shall be served or to be served by a transportation facility operated by the authority. Such grants of money or property would be for the purpose of assisting the authority in meeting its capital or operating expenses. The acceptance of any such grant shall not operate to make the authority an agency of the municipality making the grant. The provisions of this section are intended as enabling legislation only and shall not be interpreted as implying that absent their enactment an authority would lack the power to accept such grant or subsidy.

9. Notwithstanding any of the above provisions, no project may be undertaken by the authority unless such project is a part of or consistent with the action plan.

§ 1332-a. Restrictions. With respect to any statewide mass transportation operating assistance program established pursuant to section eighteen-a of the transportation law which by its terms makes available to the authority monies for operating expenses as mass transportation operating assistance service payments, no application therefor shall be made and no monies available under such program shall be accepted by the authority, notwithstanding the provision of any other law, unless the county legislature of any member county whose matching fund percentage for service payments under such section is at least eighty-five percent, authorizes the authority, by resolution adopted by a majority of the county legislature, to make such application.

§ 1333. Acquisition and disposition of real property. 1. In addition to the powers provided in section thirteen hundred thirty-one of this title to acquire transportation facilities, equipment and real property, the authority may acquire, by condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law and/or in accordance with the condemnation provisions of subdivision seven of this section, any real property it may deem necessary, convenient, or desirable to effectuate the purpose of this title, provided, however, that any such condemnation proceedings shall be brought only in the supreme court and the compensation to be paid shall be ascertained and determined by the court without a jury. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision, no real property may be acquired by the authority by condemnation or by purchase for purposes other than a transportation facility unless the governing body of the city, village or town in which such real property is located shall first consent to such acquisition.

2. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the authority from bringing any proceedings to remove a cloud on title or such other proceedings as it may, in its discretion, deem proper and necessary or from acquiring any such property by negotiation or purchase.

3. Where a person entitled to an award in the proceedings to condemn any real property for any of the purposes of this title remains in possession of such property after the time of the vesting of title in the condemnor, the reasonable value of his use and occupancy of such property subsequent to such time as fixed by agreement or by the court in such proceedings or by any court of competent jurisdiction shall be a lien against such award subject only to the liens of record at the time of vesting of title in the condemnor.

4. Title to all property acquired under this act shall vest in the authority.

5. The authority may, whenever it determines that it is in the interest of the authority, dispose of any real property or property other than real property, which it determines is not necessary, convenient or desirable for its purposes.

6. The authority may, whenever it shall determine that it is in the interest of the authority, rent, lease or grant easements or other rights in, any land or property of the authority.

7. The authority may adopt the following condemnation procedures. A certified copy of a resolution adopted by the authority authorizing the acquisition and identifying and describing the property and franchises, if any, sought to be acquired by condemnation shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such property is situated, held or maintained. A petition for an order vesting title to such property and franchises, if any, sought to be acquired by condemnation shall set forth a description of the said property and franchises, if any, and a prayer that title be vested in the authority, shall be presented, upon notice of the application to condemn published in five successive issues of a publication of general circulation within the county where such property and franchises, if any, are located, to a special term of the supreme court held at the time and place specified in such notice, within the judicial district in which the property being acquired or some part thereof is situated. Such proceedings shall have precedence over all other cases on the calendar of such court, any other provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding. Upon due proof to the satisfaction of the court of the filing of the resolution as hereinafter described, such court, not later than three days after the presentation of the petition, shall thereupon enter an order vesting title to such property and franchises, if any, in the authority. Upon such vesting of title the authority shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of such property. A notice of such acquisition shall be directed to the owners of the property and franchises, if any, so acquired and to any other person or persons having an estate, interest or easement in such property or a lien, charge or encumbrance thereon by personal service or by registered mail at the last known address within fifteen days after such vesting of title. Such notice shall set forth such resolution, the date of the submission to the court, the date of the order vesting title in such authority and such other matters as the authority may determine.

§ 1334. Cooperation and assistance of other agencies. In the interest of economy and to promote coordination of authority projects with state, local, county and regional plans and also to carry out the objective of full participation of all agencies in the development of a transportation system and facilities to meet the objectives of this act, the authority shall request and use existing studies, master plans, surveys, data and other materials completed by or under development by any state agency or any municipality or political subdivision of the state. The authority shall consult with and cooperate with the commissioner and with planning authorities in the areas of its operations and shall utilize local or state planning. When a project is contemplated by the authority, the authority shall submit a preliminary prospectus thereof to the commissioner for review and comment and shall consider the report of the commissioner in formulating detailed plans for such project. When a project is contemplated by the authority within the jurisdiction of any county planning board or the central New York regional planning and development board, the authority shall prepare and submit to such planning board or boards a preliminary prospectus thereof, describing the purpose, general location, and nature of the project contemplated, with such further data relative thereto that the authority shall consider pertinent. Within sixty days of receipt of such prospectus such planning board or boards shall prepare a report thereon, commenting on its conformity or lack of conformity with any related official plan of the state or region or any official planning agency within the region. Such report shall be considered by the authority in formulating detailed plans for such a project. At the request of the authority, each such agency, municipality or subdivision which is engaged in highway or other transportation activities or in land use or development planning, or which is charged with the duty of providing or regulating any transportation facility or any other public facility, is further authorized to provide the authority with information regarding its plans and programs affecting the transportation district so that the authority may have available to it current information with respect thereto. The officers and personnel of such agencies, municipalities or subdivisions, and of any other government or agency whatever, may serve at the request of the authority upon such advisory committees as the authority shall determine to create and such officers and personnel may serve upon such committees without forfeiture of office or employment and with no loss or diminution in the compensation, status, rights and privileges which they otherwise enjoy.

§ 1335. Notes and bonds of the authority. 1. (a) The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to borrow money and issue its negotiable bonds and notes in such principal amount, as, in the opinion of the authority, shall be necessary to provide sufficient funds for achieving its purposes, including the acquisition, establishment, construction, effectuation, operation, maintenance, renovation, improvement, extension or repair of any transportation facility, the payment of interest on bonds and notes of the authority, establishment of reserves to secure such bonds and notes, the provision of working capital and all other expenditures of the authority and its subsidiary corporations incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out their purposes and powers;

(b) The authority shall have power, from time to time, to issue renewal notes, to issue bonds to pay notes and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and to issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purposes. The refunding bonds shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds to be refunded;

(c) Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, every issue of its notes or bonds shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any revenues or moneys of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular notes or bonds pledging any particular receipts or revenues;

(d) Whether or not the notes or bonds are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code, the notes or bonds shall be and hereby are made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of article eight of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the notes or bonds for registration.

2. The notes and bonds shall be authorized by resolution approved by not less than a majority of the whole number of members of the authority then in office, shall bear such date or dates, and shall mature at such time or times, as specified therein and in the case of any such bond not exceeding fifty years from the date of issue, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The notes and bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The notes and bonds of the authority may be sold by the authority, at public or private sale, at such price or prices as the authority shall determine. No notes or bonds of the authority may be sold by the authority at private sale, however, unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by (a) the comptroller, where such sale is not to the comptroller, or (b) the director of the budget where such sale is to the comptroller.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any notes or bonds or any issue thereof may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders thereof, as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees made or received by the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations, and other moneys received or to be received, to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any issue thereof, subject to such agreements with bondholders or noteholders as may then exist;

(b) pledging all or any part of the assets of the authority or of any of its subsidiary corporations to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any issue of notes or bonds, subject to such agreements with noteholders or bondholders as may then exist;

(c) the use, and disposition of fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees made or received by the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations;

(d) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of notes or bonds may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any issue thereof;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional notes or bonds; the terms upon which additional notes or bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other notes or bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with noteholders or bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of notes or bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys to be expended by the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority or any of its subsidiary corporations;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine, which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to this title, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under this article or limiting the rights, powers and duties of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the notes or bonds.

4. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its notes and bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of notes and bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its moneys or property or the moneys or property of any of its subsidiary corporations, including the mortgaging of any such property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such moneys or property and the doing of any act (including refraining from doing any act) which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of the notes and bonds of the authority.

5. It is the intention hereof that any pledge, mortgage or security instrument made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge, mortgage or security instrument is made; that the moneys or property so pledged, mortgaged and entrusted and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge, mortgage or security instrument without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge, mortgage or security instrument shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any mortgage, security instrument or other instrument by which a pledge, mortgage lien or other security is created need be recorded or filed and the authority shall not be required to comply with any of the provisions of the uniform commercial code.

6. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the notes or bonds shall be liable personally on the notes or bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

7. The authority, subject to such agreements with noteholders or bondholders as may then exist, shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase notes or bonds of the authority, which shall thereupon be cancelled, at a price not exceeding (a) if the notes or bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date thereon, or (b) if the notes or bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the notes or bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to such date.

8. The state shall not be liable on notes or bonds of the authority and such notes and bonds shall not be a debt of the state, and such notes and bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect.

§ 1336. Reserve funds and appropriations. 1. The authority may create and establish one or more reserve funds to be known as debt service reserve funds and may pay into such debt service reserve funds (a) any moneys appropriated and made available by the state for the purposes of such funds, (b) any proceeds of sale of notes or bonds to the extent provided in the resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance thereof, and (c) any other moneys which may be made available to the authority for the purpose of such funds from any other source or sources. The moneys held in or credited to any debt service reserve fund established under this section, except as hereinafter provided, shall be used solely for the payment of the principal of bonds of the authority secured by such debt service reserve fund as the same mature, the purchase of such bonds of the authority, the payment of interest on such bonds of the authority or the payment of any redemption premium required to be paid when such bonds are redeemed prior to maturity; provided, however, that the authority shall have power to provide that moneys in any such fund shall not be withdrawn therefrom at any time in such amount as would reduce the amount of such fund to less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on the bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such debt service reserve fund, except for the purpose of paying principal of and interest on such bonds of the authority secured by such debt service reserve fund maturing and becoming due and for the payment of which other moneys of the authority are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or increment to, any such debt service reserve fund due to the investment thereof may be transferred by the authority to any other fund or account of the authority and the authority shall have power to provide that any such transfer shall not reduce the amount of such debt service reserve fund below the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on all bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such debt service reserve fund.

2. The authority shall have power to provide that it shall not issue bonds at any time if the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on the bonds outstanding and then to be issued and secured by a debt service reserve fund will exceed the amount of such debt service reserve fund at the time of issuance, unless the authority, at the time of the issuance of such bonds, shall deposit in such debt service fund from the proceeds of the bonds so to be issued, or otherwise, an amount which, together with the amount then in such debt service reserve fund, will be not less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any such succeeding calendar year or years not exceeding two such years on the bonds then to be issued and on all other bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such debt service reserve fund.

3. In computing the amount of any debt service reserve fund for the purposes of this section, securities in which all or a portion of such fund shall be invested shall be valued at par, or if purchased at less than par, at their cost to the authority.

§ 1337. Agreement of the state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any notes or bonds issued under this title, that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders thereof, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders until such notes or bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses for which the authority is liable in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of such notes or bonds.

§ 1338. Right of state to require redemption of bonds. Notwithstanding and in addition to any provisions for the redemption of bonds which may be contained in any contract with the holders of the bonds, the state may, upon furnishing sufficient funds therefor, require the authority to redeem, prior to maturity, as a whole, any issue of bonds on any interest payment date not less than twenty years after the date of the bonds of such issue at one hundred five per centum of their face value and accrued interest or at such lower redemption price as may be provided in the bonds in case of the redemption thereof as a whole on the redemption date. Notice of such redemption shall be published in at least two newspapers published and circulating in the counties of the transportation district, at least twice, the first publication to be at least thirty days before the date of redemption.

§ 1339. Remedies of noteholders and bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of notes or bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of notes or bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the notes or bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of any county in which the authority operates and has an office and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such notes or bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such notes or bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by suit, action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the noteholders or bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges and other fees and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such notes or bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such notes or bonds;

(c) by action or suit, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such notes or bonds;

(d) by action or suit, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such notes or bonds;

(e) declare all such notes or bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then, with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such notes or bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders or noteholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

4. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceedings by the trustee on behalf of such noteholders or bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county in which the instrument or instruments are filed in accordance with subdivision one of this section.

5. Before declaring the principal of notes or bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the governor, to the authority, to the comptroller and to the attorney general of the state.

§ 1340. Notes and bonds as legal investment. The notes and bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities and political subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or who may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the bonds of the authority are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and political subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1341. Exemption from taxation. It is hereby found, determined and declared that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and is a public purpose, and that the authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title. Without limiting the generality of the following provisions of this section, property owned by the authority and used for transportation purposes, property leased by the authority and used for transportation purposes, and property used for transportation purposes by or for the benefit of the authority exclusively pursuant to the provisions of a joint service arrangement or of a joint facilities agreement or trackage rights agreement shall all be exempt from taxation and special ad valorem levies. The authority shall be required to pay no fees, taxes or assessments, whether state or local, except special benefit assessments if said property is located in a special benefit district, including but not limited to fees, taxes or assessments on real estate, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other excise taxes, upon any of its property, or upon the uses thereof, or upon its activities in the operation and maintenance of its facilities or on any fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges or other fees, revenues or other income received by the authority and the bonds of the authority and the income therefrom shall at all times be exempt from taxation, except for gift and estate taxes and taxes on transfers. This section shall constitute a covenant and agreement with the holders of all bonds issued by the authority. The terms "taxation" and "special ad valorem levy" shall have the same meanings as defined in section one hundred two of the real property tax law and the term "transportation purposes" shall have the same meaning as used in titles two-a and two-b of article four of such law.

§ 1342. Actions against the authority. 1. As a condition to the consent of the state to such suits against the authority, in every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority or other officer designated for such purpose and the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof.

2. An action against the authority founded on tort, except an action for wrongful death, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limited by and in compliance with all the requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

3. The authority shall be liable, and shall assume the liability to the extent that it shall save harmless any duly appointed officer or employee of the authority, for the negligence of such officer or employee, in the operation of a vehicle or other facility of transportation owned or otherwise under the jurisdiction and control of the authority in the discharge of a duty imposed upon such officer or employee at the time of the accident, injury or damages complained of, while otherwise acting in the performance of his duties and within the scope of his employment.

4. The authority may require any person, presenting for settlement an account or claim for any cause whatever against the authority, to be sworn before a member, counsel or an attorney, officer or employee of the authority designated for such purpose, concerning such account or claim and when so sworn to answer orally as to any facts relative to such account or claim. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

5. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority upon any judgment for which it is liable shall not exceed four per centum per annum.

6. The provisions of this section which relate to the requirement for service of a notice of claim shall not apply to a subsidiary corporation of the authority. In all other respects, each subsidiary corporation of the authority shall be subject to the provisions of this section as if such subsidiary corporation were separately named herein, provided, however, that a subsidiary corporation of the authority which is a stock corporation shall not be subject to the provisions of this section except with respect to those causes of action arising on and after the first of the twelfth calendar month following that calendar month in which such stock corporation becomes a subsidiary corporation of the authority.

§ 1343. Agreements relating to payment in lieu of taxes. To the end that municipal corporations, counties and school districts may not suffer undue loss of taxes or assessments:

If the authority acquires property for non-transportation purposes (e.g. for future transportation purposes but not to be so used immediately) the authority except as hereinafter provided, shall pay to the participating county and/or city, town or school district where the property is located, annually, in lieu of taxes, a sum equal to the sum last paid as taxes upon the property prior to the time of its acquisition by the authority. Should such property be subsequently developed and improved but still remain unused for transportation purposes, it shall during such period of disuse for transportation be subject to assessment, at the prevailing method of determining assessments, by the county and/or city and/or school district and the authority shall, based on such assessment, annually, in lieu of taxes, pay to the county and/or city and/or school district an amount fixed by it.

If the authority acquires property for transportation purposes but subsequently uses such property for non-transportation purposes, then the authority shall be required, except as hereinafter provided, to pay annually in lieu of taxes to the participating county and/or city and/or school district wherein such property is located, an amount equal to the sum which the said county and/or city and/or school district would ordinarily be imposed as taxes, pursuant to the prevailing method of determining assessments.

Properties acquired by the authority for transportation and used as such, shall not be subject to the payment of any taxes except that the authority shall pay such property special benefit assessments on the property if it is located in an existing special benefit district.

§ 1344. Interest of members or employees of authority in contracts prohibited. It shall be a misdemeanor for a member of the authority or an officer, agent, servant or employee employed by or appointed by the authority, to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly, as principal, surety or otherwise, in a contract, the expense or consideration whereof is payable out of the funds of the authority.

§ 1345. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the authority shall begin on the first day of April.

§ 1346. Consent by the state. The commissioner of general services shall have power, in his discretion, from time to time to transfer and convey to the authority, or to one or more participating counties for the use of the authority, and for such consideration as may be determined by him to be paid to the state, unappropriated state lands and lands under water which the authority shall certify to be necessary or desirable for the corporate purposes of the authority.

§ 1347. Separability. If any provision of any section of this title or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be adjudged invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such order or judgment shall be confined in its operation to the controversy in which it was rendered, and shall not affect or invalidate the remainder of any provision of any section of this title or the application of any part thereof to any other person or circumstance and to this end the provisions of each section of this title are hereby declared to be severable.

§ 1348. Effect of inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

ARTICLE 6

PORT AUTHORITIES

TITLE 2

PORT OF OSWEGO AUTHORITY

§ 1350. Short title. This title may be cited as the "port of Oswego authority act."

§ 1351. Definitions. As used in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(1) The term "district" shall mean the Oswego port authority district created by section eighteen hundred twenty-seven of this title.

(2) The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section thirteen hundred fifty-three of this title.

(3) The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority.

(4) The term "bonds" shall mean bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title.

(5) The term "city" shall mean the city of Oswego.

(6) The term "town" shall mean the town of Scriba, Oswego county.

(7) The term "port facilities" shall mean, among other things, wharfs, docks, piers, terminals, railroad tracks or terminals, cold storage and refrigerating plants, warehouses, elevators, freight-handling machinery and such equipment as is used in the handling of freight and the establishment and operation of a port, and work of deepening parts of the Oswego river and Lake Ontario adjacent to the terminal exclusive of the harbor channel, within the port district, and any other works, properties, buildings, structures or other facilities necessary or desirable in connection with the development and operation of port facilities in the district.

(8) The term "common council" shall mean the common council of the city.

(9) The term "mayor" shall mean the mayor of the city.

(10) The term "town board" shall mean the town board of the town of Scriba.

(11) The term "industrial project" shall mean a project designed and intended for the purpose of providing facilities for manufacturing, warehousing, recreational opportunities, docking, historical appreciation, research, business or other industrial purposes, including but not limited to machinery and equipment deemed necessary for the operation thereof (excluding raw materials, work in process or stock in trade), on land acquired or to be acquired by the authority in the city of Oswego and the two parcels previously acquired by the authority in the town of Scriba.

§ 1352. Oswego port district. There is hereby created and established a district to be known as the "Oswego port district" which shall embrace the city of Oswego, the town of Scriba and all lands and water under and in the Oswego river and Lake Ontario lying or situated within the boundaries of the city of Oswego and/or the town of Scriba subject to the right, title, interest and control of the state under the constitution or any law of the state of New York and subject to the right, title, interest and control of the United States under any law of the United States of America.

§ 1353. Port of Oswego authority. The board heretofore created by this section and known as the Oswego port authority is hereby continued and shall hereafter be known and designated as the port of Oswego authority. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation. The board shall consist of nine members, seven of whom shall be residents of the city of Oswego and one of whom shall be a resident of the town of Scriba, with at least one thereof being a member of or recommended by the county planning board of the county of Oswego commencing with the expiration of the term occurring first after July first nineteen hundred seventy-five. The terms of office of all members of the authority heretofore appointed and in office on March thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty, shall expire and terminate on such date, provided, however, that they shall continue in office as such until the members first to be appointed by the governor as hereinafter in this section provided shall have qualified. The members of said authority shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate. Of the members first appointed by the governor two members shall be appointed for a term ending September first, nineteen hundred sixty-one, two for terms ending September first, nineteen hundred sixty-two, two for terms ending September first, nineteen hundred sixty-three, and one for a term ending September first, nineteen hundred sixty-four. Any member appointed by the governor to fill any newly created membership on the board shall be appointed for a term ending on the first day of September nineteen hundred seventy-six. Thereafter, upon the expiration of the term of a member, a successor shall be appointed by the governor for a term expiring four years after the expiration of the term of his predecessor. If a vacancy shall occur by reason of a death, disqualification, resignation or removal of a member, the successor shall be appointed by the governor for the unexpired term. The members of the authority shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, take the constitutional oath of office and file the same in the office of the secretary of state. The authority shall organize by the selection from its members of a chairman, vice chairman, and a secretary. It shall adopt such rules as it may deem necessary and proper for the government of its own proceedings and the regulation and use of port facilities and industrial projects in the district, and shall keep a record of its proceedings. Rules pertaining to the regulation and use of port facilities and industrial projects shall be fair, reasonable and impartial and shall be subject to any law, rule or regulation administered by the interstate commerce commission or the public service commission or the water resources commission, or any other department or commission of the United States of America or of the state of New York, which has the jurisdiction in such matters and shall not operate to deprive any person or corporation, private or public, of any property without due process of law. A majority of the members of the authority shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the concurrence of a majority of all members shall be necessary to the validity of any order of the authority. A member may be removed by the governor for cause after giving such member a copy of the charges and an opportunity to be heard thereon. The members of the authority shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

§ 1354. Purposes and powers of the authority. The authority shall have power over the survey, development and operation of port facilities and industrial projects in such port district as hereinafter more specifically set forth, and the coordination of the same with existing or future agencies of transportation with a view to the increase and efficiency of all such facilities and projects and the furtherance of commerce and industry, environmental protection, aesthetics, health, welfare, safety, recreational opportunities, and historical appreciation in the district. It shall make a thorough investigation of port conditions in the district and such other places as it may deem proper and shall prepare after conducting public hearings a comprehensive plan for the development of port facilities, industrial projects, and other structures in such district and the furtherance of recreational opportunities and historical appreciation in the district. This comprehensive plan shall include the present use of the land and water in the district, the general capability thereof for development and use based on commercial, ecological, recreational and historic considerations, a statement of proposed development and/or preservation thereof which would accomplish a coordinated and economic use of the district in accordance with present and future needs and resources and best promote the health, safety, order, enjoyment, convenience, appreciation and welfare of the citizens of the district. It shall be provided with an office which shall be located by such authority within the port district and it shall have power to equip the same with suitable furniture and supplies for the performance of the work of the authority. The authority also shall have the power to:

(1) Sue and be sued.

(2) Have a seal and alter the same at pleasure.

(3) Confer with the governing body of the city, the town and with any other body or official having to do with port and harbor facilities within and without the district, and to hold public hearings as to such facilities.

(4) Confer with railroad, steamship, warehouse and other officials in the district with reference to the development of transportation facilities in such district and the coordination of the same.

(5) Confer with the proper state officials as to means and measures for stimulating use of the Barge canal.

(6) Determine upon the location, type, size and construction of requisite port facilities, subject, however, to the approval of any department, commission or official of the United States of America or the state of New York where federal or state statute or regulation requires it.

(7) Lease, erect, construct, make, equip and maintain port facilities in the district and for any such purpose to acquire in the name of the authority by purchase, grant, gift or condemnation, except as hereinafter limited, real property, including easements therein, lands under water and riparian rights.

(8) Make surveys, maps and plans for, and estimates of the cost of, the development and operation of requisite port facilities and other structures and for the coordination of such facilities and structures with existing agencies, both public and private, with the view of increasing the efficiency of all such facilities and the appropriateness of all such structures in the furtherance of commerce and industry, environmental protection, aesthetics, health, welfare, safety, recreational opportunities, historical appreciation in the city.

(9) Make contracts and leases and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient.

(10) Issue negotiable bonds within the provisions and limitations of this title and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof.

(11) Issue notes within the provisions and limitations of this act.

(12) Fix fees, rates, rentals or other charges for the purpose of all port facilities owned by the authority and collect such fees, rates, rentals and other charges for such facilities owned by the authority, which fees, rates, rentals or other charges shall at all times be sufficient to comply fully with all covenants and agreements with the holders of any bonds issued under the provisions of this act.

(13) Operate and maintain all port facilities owned by it; use the revenues therefrom for the corporate purposes of the authority, and in accordance with any covenants or agreements contained in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of any bonds hereunder.

(14) Have power to regulate and supervise the construction of all port facilities constructed or installed by any private individual or corporation commenced after this act takes effect, and the power to regulate the operation of all privately owned port facilities insofar as such operation may adversely affect the flow of transportation or the enforcement of approved plans for the development of port facilities. The power granted by this subdivision shall be subject to the rules, regulations or other directives of any federal or state department, commission or other agency having jurisdiction, and such grant of power shall not operate to deprive any person or corporation, private or public, of any property without due process of law.

(15) Accept gifts, grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York or an agency or instrumentality of either of them, the county of Oswego, the city of Oswego or the town of Scriba, or a person or corporation, by conveyance, bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purpose of the authority, and to enter into a contract with the United States, the state of New York, or an agency or instrumentality of either of them, to accept gifts, grants, loans or contributions on such terms and conditions as may be provided by law authorizing the same. The county of Oswego, the city of Oswego and the town of Scriba are hereby authorized to loan, donate or contribute any available fund to the port authority for any of its corporate purposes, and to appropriate such moneys for such purposes; but neither the county, the city nor the town may borrow money or otherwise pledge its faith and credit for the purpose of making any such loan, donation or contribution.

(16) Have power to grant and maintain a traffic bureau in connection with the operation of port facilities.

(17) Use the officers, employees, facilities and equipment of the city, with the consent of the city, and of the town, with the consent of the town, paying a proper portion of the compensation or cost.

(18) Appoint officers, agents and employees and fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation subject to the provisions of the civil service law of the state of New York and such rules as the civil service commission of the city of Oswego may adopt and make applicable to such authority.

(19) Designate the depositories of its moneys.

(20) Have power to do all things necessary to make Oswego harbor and its port facilities useful and productive.

(21) Make application to the foreign-trade zones board established by an act of Congress, approved June eighteenth, nineteen hundred thirty-four, entitled "an act to provide for the establishment, operation and maintenance of foreign trade zones in ports of entry of the United States, to expedite and encourage foreign commerce, and for other purposes," for a grant to such authority of the privilege of establishing, operating and maintaining a foreign trade zone on premises owned by such authority within such city, pursuant to the provisions of such act, and if such application be granted, to accept such grant and to establish, operate and maintain such zone in accordance with law.

(22) With respect to industrial projects, to carry on any activities authorized for an industrial development agency as provided for in section eight hundred fifty-eight of the general municipal law as well as to provide for the financing of such projects pursuant to article eighteen-A of the general municipal law; provided, however, that where any of the provisions of this article are inconsistent with the provisions of section eight hundred fifty-eight of the general municipal law pertaining to industrial projects or, with respect to financing of such projects, article eighteen-A of the general municipal law, the provisions of this article shall be superceded and the provisions of such section eight hundred fifty-eight and such article eighteen-A shall apply.

§ 1354-a. Meetings and records of authority to be public. The regular meetings of the authority shall be public meetings open to the general public, except for executive sessions thereof. Subject to appropriate provisions of law and any reasonable regulations established by the authority, the records of the authority shall be public records.

§ 1355. Orders, service thereof and penalties. The authority may make, and cause to be served upon any corporation or individual, within the port district, excepting the city of Oswego and the town of Scriba, any reasonable order which it may determine to be necessary for the proper development, maintenance and use of the port, relating to the construction, equipment, repair, maintenance, use and rental of any dock, wharf, slip, terminal, warehouse or industrial project owned or leased by any such corporation or individual within the district. There shall be served with a copy of the order a notice specifying a day, not less than ten days after such service, when such corporation or individual may appear before the authority, present written objections to the making of the order and be heard on such objections. If no such objections are filed within the time stated, or if the order be sustained as the result of such hearing, either in its original or modified form, such order shall be final, subject only to review by a court of competent jurisdiction. When an order of the authority shall become final, including the termination of any court proceeding sustaining the order, or of the time for beginning such a proceeding if none be brought, if the corporation or individual shall fail to obey it, or if any corporation or individual shall violate a lawful rule of the authority, the authority may commence and maintain an action or proceeding in an appropriate court having jurisdiction, for the purpose of having such disobedience to an order or violation of a rule prevented or obedience enforced, either by mandamus or injunction.

§ 1356. Investigations. The authority, and any member thereof, when directed by the authority, may make any investigation which the authority may deem necessary to enable it effectually to carry out the provisions of this act, and for that purpose the authority, or such member, may take and hear proofs and testimony and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, records and documents, including public records. The authority, and its authorized agents, may enter upon any lands as in its judgment may be necessary for the purpose of making surveys and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this act, the authority being liable for actual damage done.

§ 1357. Real estate and title thereto. 1. The authority may lease or acquire title to real and personal property including water front property, ferries, bridges, wharf property, land under water, public landings, wharves and docks in the name of "Oswego port authority" by purchase, grant or gift from the city of Oswego, town of Scriba, state of New York, United States of America, or from any corporation or individual for the development of port facilities and industrial projects in the district, and shall have the power to sell, subject to approval by order of the supreme court, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes. Any instrument affecting real property shall be signed by the chairman of the authority, attested by its secretary and have the seal of the authority affixed thereto.

1-a. Authority is hereby conferred upon the city of Oswego and the town of Scriba to give, lease, sell, grant and convey real and personal property including water front property, ferries, bridges, wharf property, land under water, public landings, wharves and docks to the authority, with or without consideration as such city or town shall determine.

2. The authority shall have power to condemn real property located within its territorial limits and owned by any person or corporation, excepting a person or corporation subject to the jurisdiction, supervision and regulation of the Public Service Commission, which the authority deems necessary for the development of port facilities and industrial projects in the district. The authority shall exercise the power of condemnation hereby granted in the manner provided in the condemnation law.

3. The authority and the city of Oswego may enter into contracts for the acquisition by the city or the authority of real property for the benefit of and in the name of the city of Oswego for the purpose of widening existing streets, avenues, parkways, roads or highways or for new streets, avenues, parkways, roads or highways to port facilities within the port district, or partly for such purpose and partly for other city purposes. Such contracts may provide for the work of improvement by the city. The city may close such streets, avenues, parkways, roads or highways as may be necessary or convenient.

§ 1358. Grants from commissioner of general services. 1. The commissioner of general services shall have power, in his discretion, from time to time to transfer and convey to the authority for such consideration as may be determined by him to be paid to the state of New York, unappropriated state lands and lands under water which the authority shall certify to be necessary or desirable for the corporate purposes of the authority, and may, when the barge canal terminal and barge canal terminal lands in the city of Oswego become no longer necessary or useful for canal or terminal purposes, lease for a term or terms of years or convey said barge canal terminal and barge canal terminal lands as hereinafter described, to the authority for such consideration as may be determined by him to be paid to the people of the state of New York and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this act.

2. There is hereby ratified and confirmed in and to the authority title to the barge canal terminal and barge canal terminal lands described herein, conveyed to said authority by letters patent dated September tenth, nineteen hundred fifty-eight, pursuant to resolutions of the board of commissioners of the land office adopted July twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred fifty-eight, and September tenth, nineteen hundred fifty-eight, subject to the conditions set forth in said letters patent and in this title.

3. The authority shall establish and maintain a port facilities development fund and shall cause all moneys received by it from the operation of such port facilities to be deposited in such fund for the payment of all costs of operation, maintenance and repair of the port facilities and the repayment to the people of the state of New York of any advance made by the state to the authority, which repayment to the people of the state of New York shall not exceed in any one year fifty per cent of the moneys received by the authority in excess of the costs of operation, maintenance and repair of said port facilities.

4. Upon the issuance of said lease or grant by the commissioner of general services pursuant to this act the authority shall assume all expense of or incidental to the operation, maintenance, repair and administration of said port facilities.

5. Except as to moneys and rates accrued thereunder at the time of vesting in the authority all the right, title and interest of the state in and to said port facilities as herein provided, and as incident thereto, there shall also vest in the authority all the right, title and interest of the state in and to and in connection with the following contracts, agreements and permits with third persons: (a) any and all executory contracts, agreements and permits for the use of said port facilities by third persons as tenants, licensees, or otherwise, or for the docking, mooring or anchorage thereat of vessels owned by third persons, or for the loading, unloading, handling, storage, processing or manipulation of grain, freight, or other property of third persons, or for the rendering of any other services to third persons at said pier properties as wharfinger or warehouseman or otherwise; (b) any and all executory contracts and agreements for the furnishing by third persons of electricity, gas, steam, water or telephone service at said port facilities.

6. The authority shall not grant or convey title to said port facilities to any person or legal entity other than the people of the state of New York.

7. If the authority shall violate any of the conditions herein set forth or such other conditions as the board of commissioners of the land office heretofore included in any lease or grant of said port facilities or any other conditions as the office of general services may include in any lease or grant of said port facilities and such violation of any of said conditions shall not have been remedied by the authority within ninety days after the giving of notice of the existence of such violation by the commissioner of transportation of the state of New York, then at the option of the state such port facilities shall revert to the people of the state of New York.

8. If the port facilities revert to the people of the state of New York they shall be and shall be deemed to be unappropriated state lands.

9. Officers and employees of the state departments and agencies now employed at said port facilities may be transferred to the authority without loss of any civil service status or rights but no such transfer may be made except with the approval of the head of the state department or division thereof charged with the operation of such port facilities, the director of the budget, and in compliance with the rules and regulations of the state civil service commission.

10. a. The premises constituting the port facilities so to be transferred consist of:

All that tract or parcel or land situate, lying and being in the city of Oswego, county of Oswego and state of New York, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a monument in the west line of Water Street, said monument being 231 feet northerly along said street line from the center line of Van Buren Street; thence S 67 degrees -47' W along the Barge Canal Terminal Right of Way line 102 feet to a monument; thence N 22 degrees -13' W along a line parallel to the east line of West First Street and 2 feet distant westerly therefrom, a distance of 38 feet to its intersection with the original shore line of Lake Ontario (1838); thence westerly along said original shore line a distance of 100 feet to its intersection with the west line of West First Street; thence S 22 degrees -13' E along said west street line a distance of 126 feet to a monument set in the westerly line of W. First Street at a point therein 140' northerly from the center line of Van Buren Street, thence S 67 degrees -47' W along the division line between the property of the People of the State of New York on the north and the property of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Co. (reputed owner) on the south a distance of 193 feet to a monument; thence N 71 degrees -37' W along the aforementioned division line a distance of 9.22 feet to a monument set in the east line of West Second Street; thence N 22 degrees - 13' W along said street line and said street line extended into the waters of Lake Ontario a distance of 1430 feet to a point; thence N 67 degrees -47' E and for part of the distance along the line of the northerly wall of the New York State Lake Terminal Pier a distance of 425 feet to a point; thence S 22 degrees -13' E a distance of 888 feet to a point in line with the northerly line of Parcel No. T-88, Terminal Contract No. 33, appropriated by the State of New York on August 25, 1914 pursuant to Chapter 746, Laws of 1911; thence S 67 degrees -47' W a distance of 25 feet to the northeast corner of said Parcel No. T-88; thence S 22 degrees -13' E along the easterly line of said Parcel No. T-88 and for part of the distance along the westerly line of Water Street a distance of 485.8 feet to the point of beginning, containing 13.31 acres more or less.

All Bearings are referred to the true meridian.

The above described parcel constitutes all of Parcels Nos. T-86, T-87, T-88 and T-89, Terminal Contract No. 33, appropriated by the State of New York on August 25, 1914 pursuant to Chapter 746, Laws of 1911, and certain lands now or formerly under the waters of Lake Ontario.

b. It is hereby found and determined that the properties described in paragraph a hereof, heretofore constituting a portion of the barge canal terminal and barge canal terminal lands in the city of Oswego, are no longer necessary or useful for canal or terminal purposes and are hereby abandoned.

11. The commissioner of general services shall issue said lease or grant to said lands to the authority only upon the delivery to and filing with said commissioner a certified copy of a resolution of the authority signifying its willingness to accept said port facilities on the conditions hereinabove set forth, all of which may be made a part of said lease or grant, which lease or grant may also contain such other and further conditions as the commissioner of general services may determine to be appropriate.

§ 1359. Right of entry upon streets. The authority, with the consent of the city, the town superintendent of highways or the county superintendent of highways, as the case may be, or of the state department of transportation, if required, may enter upon streets, avenues, parkways, roads, highways, bridges or other public places for the construction of a project or part thereof or of an addition, betterment or extension to facilities or industrial projects. Whenever the authority has entered upon and damaged a street, avenue, parkway, road, highway, bridge or other public place, the authority shall restore the same to its former condition.

§ 1360. Contracts; manner of letting. Where the expense of the construction of a project, or a part thereof, or an addition, betterment or extension to the port facilities or industrial projects, or the purchase of materials, supplies and equipment involves an expense exceeding two thousand dollars, the authority shall advertise for bids and shall award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder fully complying with the plans and specifications. Such advertisement shall be published once, not less than one week prior to the date fixed for the opening of bids, in one newspaper having a general circulation in the city of Oswego. The authority may make rules and regulations for the submission of bids and award of contract thereon and may provide in such rules and regulations that no performance, bond or undertaking need be furnished by the contractor for the purchase of materials, supplies and equipment in an amount not exceeding two thousand dollars. No contract shall be entered into for the construction of a project, or a part thereof, or for an addition, betterment or extension to the facilities or for the purchase of materials, supplies and equipment in an amount exceeding two thousand dollars unless the contractor shall give an undertaking with a sufficient surety or sureties approved by the authority and in the amount fixed by the authority for the faithful performance of the contract. As to a contract entered into for the construction, the undertaking shall provide, among other things, that the person or corporation entering into such a contract will pay for all materials furnished and services rendered in the performance of the contract and that a person or corporation furnishing such materials or rendering such services may maintain an action to recover for the same against the obligor in the undertaking as though such person or corporation were named therein, provided the action is brought within one year after the time the cause of action accrued. In case of public emergency involving accident or other damage by which the port facilities, or any part thereof, shall become disabled, the authority may cause all necessary repairs thereto to be made without advertisement, bidding and the letting of a formal contract therefor.

§ 1361. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the authority shall be determined by resolution of the authority.

§ 1362. Special port development and improvement powers. 1. The port of Oswego authority shall have power to make rules and regulations for the development, improvement, promotion, preservation and utilization of the port improvement district and project and for the payment and collection of fees, charges, rentals and other receipts from the port improvement project hereinafter referred to as "port revenue." Until such time as the state of New York is fully reimbursed by the authority for the total amount of money advanced by the state to the authority no rule, regulation, schedule or rate in relation to or governing port revenue shall become effective or controlling unless approved by the director of the budget of the state of New York.

2. All port revenue received by the authority shall be paid to the state comptroller as agent of the authority and deposited in a separate account or accounts to be known as the "port of Oswego fund. " The moneys in such fund shall be available subject to the approval of the director of the budget of the state of New York for the payment of any and all costs and expenditures incurred in relation to the acquisition of property, construction, equipment, maintenance, repair and operation of the port improvement project. The moneys of the port of Oswego fund when made available shall be paid from such fund on the audit and warrant of the state comptroller on vouchers approved solely by the chairman of the authority or his duly designated officer.

3. All moneys in the port of Oswego fund in excess of the sum of three hundred fifty thousand dollars shall on the first day of each month be paid by the authority to the state comptroller provided, however, that effective March thirty-one, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, the director of the budget and the authority shall establish within the provisions of a written agreement between the authority and the director providing for the repayment to the state by the authority of state advances the maximum amount of moneys which the authority may retain in the port of Oswego fund. The comptroller is hereby authorized to receive from the authority such amounts as shall be paid to the comptroller pursuant to the provisions of this section and to credit all such amounts to the capital construction fund. Upon certification by the state comptroller that all moneys due the state have been paid in full, the remaining balance of such fund shall be available to such authority and may be used by such authority for any corporate purpose. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to examination by the state comptroller.

4. The comptroller of the state and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other matter relating to its financial standing and fiscal affairs.

§ 1363. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any corporate purpose of the authority, including the paying, funding or refunding of any notes theretofore issued by the authority under the provisions of section one thousand eight hundred thirty-nine of this act. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. Except as may be otherwise expressly provided by contract between the authority and the holders of its bonds, all bonds of the authority shall be general obligations payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds the payment of which is secured by a pledge of particular moneys or revenues.

2. Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption prior to maturity, at par or a price, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Such bonds may be sold, with or without advertisement, in such manner as the authority shall determine by resolution. If advertisement is made, a notice of sale shall be published at least once, not less than ten nor more than forty days before the date of sale, in a newspaper published and circulated in the city of Oswego and in a financial newspaper published and circulated in the city of New York and designated by the board. The notice shall call for the receipt of sealed bids and shall fix the date, time and place of sale. Bonds shall be sold at such price or prices as will yield to the purchasers income at a rate set forth in the resolution or resolutions to the maturity dates of said bonds, computed in accordance with standard tables of bond values.

3. Any resolutions authorizing the issuance of any bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to:

a. Pledging all or any part of the gross or net revenues of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

b. The rentals, fees and other charges to be charged for the use of projects of the authority, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of revenues of the authority;

c. The setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

d. The appointment of a bank or banks or trust company or trust companies as trustee or trustees for the custody and disposition of any moneys of the authority, including the proceeds of any bonds or other obligations and any revenues or income of the authority, and the execution of any trust agreements or indentures with such trustee or trustees with such provisions as may be deemed necessary or desirable in connection with the custody and disposition of such moneys of the authority and the rights and remedies of the holders of such bonds;

e. Limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of projects of the authority;

f. Limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of the sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied;

g. Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, including the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured.

h. The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must give consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given; and

i. Any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. Any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made. The revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall be immediately subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act. The lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability by reason of the issuance thereof, excepting solely for things willfully done or willfully omitted to be done with an intent to defraud.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase any of its outstanding bonds at a price not more than the then redemption price of such bonds. All bonds so purchased shall be cancelled.

§ 1364. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue its negotiable notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code whenever the board shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide moneys to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. Such notes may be renewed from time to time but such notes, including the renewals thereof, shall mature not later than three years from the date upon which such notes are issued. Such notes shall be issued in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions as to price and interest rate as bonds, except that the board may determine the manner in which such notes shall be sold. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

§ 1365. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Oswego and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name,

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Oswego.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part of parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercising of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 1366. Exemption from taxation. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of Oswego and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this act and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the properties acquired by the authority or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision, or upon its activities. Bonds or notes issued pursuant to this act, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority shall be exempt from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes.

§ 1367. Agreement of state on authority rights. The state of New York does pledge to and with the bondholders that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate a project or projects, to establish and collect rates, fees, rentals and other charges, and to fulfill the terms of agreements made with the bondholders, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with an action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged. No provision of this title shall be deemed to limit the power of the legislature to authorize the state or a political subdivision thereof to acquire properties of the authority and pay the indebtedness thereof.

§ 1368. State, city and town not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York, of the city or of the town, and neither the state, the city, nor the town shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1369. Bond legal investments. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of the state of New York and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions thereof, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons, except as hereinafter provided, who are now, or may hereafter be, authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital, in their control or belonging to them, provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, the bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of the state of New York and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions thereof for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now, or may hereafter be, authorized.

§ 1370. No control by other boards or commissions. Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the authority, in the issuance of its bonds or other obligations, and in the exercise of its powers provided in this act for the fixing, charging and collecting of fees, rentals, or other charges, shall not be subject to the jurisdiction, control or regulation of any commission, department, board, officer, or agency of the city, or of the state or any political subdivision thereof.

§ 1371. Punishment for irregular demeanor of members or employees of authority. It shall be a misdemeanor for a member of the authority or an officer, agent, servant or employee employed by or appointed by the authority, to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly, as principal, surety or otherwise, in a contract, the expense or consideration whereof is payable out of the funds of the authority.

§ 1372. Actions against authority. In any case founded upon a tort, except an action for wrongful death, a notice of claim shall be required as a condition precedent to the commencement of an action or special proceeding against the authority and the provisions of section fifty-e of the general municipal law shall apply. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued.

§ 1373. Separability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, part or provision of this title shall for any reason be adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional, ineffective or invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this title, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, part or provision thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

§ 1374. Effect of inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

TITLE 3

OGDENSBURG PORT AUTHORITY

§ 1375. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Ogdensburg port authority act."

§ 1376. Definitions. As used in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(1) The term "district" shall mean the Ogdensburg port authority district created by section thirteen hundred seventy-seven of this title.

(2) The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section thirteen hundred seventy-eight of this title.

(3) The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority.

(4) The term "bonds" shall mean bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title.

(5) The term "city" shall mean the city of Ogdensburg.

(6) The term "port facilities" shall mean, among other things, wharfs, docks, refrigerating plants, warehouses, elevators, freight-handling piers, terminals, railroad tracks or terminals, cold storage and machinery and such equipment as is used in the handling of freight and the establishment and operation of a port, and work of deepening parts of the St. Lawrence river within the port district, and any other works, properties, buildings, structures or other facilities necessary or desirable in connection with the development and operation of port facilities in the district.

(7) The term "common council" shall mean the common council of the city.

(8) The term "mayor" shall mean the mayor of the city.

(9) The term "Industrial Project" shall mean a project designed and intended for the purpose of providing facilities for manufacturing, warehousing, research, business or other industrial or commercial purposes, including but not limited to machinery and equipment deemed necessary for the operation thereof (excluding raw materials, work in process or stock in trade), on land acquired or to be acquired by the authority for the establishment of an industrial park.

§ 1377. Ogdensburg and Waddington port districts. There are hereby created and established two districts: the Ogdensburg port district and the Waddington port district. The Ogdensburg port district shall embrace the city of Ogdensburg and the town of Lisbon and the town of Oswegatchie; a strip of land five hundred feet in width in the towns of Madrid and Potsdam, in the county of St. Lawrence, being two hundred fifty feet on each side of the center line of that portion of the Rutland railway corporation right-of-way line extending from the city of Ogdensburg to the village of Norwood, town of Potsdam, which portion commences at the bounds of the said two-mile area and terminates at Rutland railway corporation chaining station 1325+48 and a further strip of land five hundred feet in width in the towns of Canton and DeKalb in the county of St. Lawrence, being two hundred fifty feet on each side of the center line of that portion of the Penn Central transportation company right-of-way extending from the city of Ogdensburg to the town of DeKalb which portion commences at the bounds of the said two mile area and terminates at Penn Central transportation company chaining station 0+0 (mile post 0.0) and all lands and water under and in the St. Lawrence river lying or situated within the boundaries of the city of Ogdensburg subject to the right, title, interest and control of the state under the constitution or any law of the state of New York and subject to the right, title, interest and control of the United States under any law of the United States of America. The Waddington port district should embrace the village of Waddington, and all lands and water under and in the St. Lawrence river and Little river bounded on the east by the northerly extension of the village of Waddington easterly bounds, on the west by the northerly extension of the village of Waddington westerly bounds and on the north by the international boundary line between Canada and the United States excluding therefrom Ogden island and all lands and water under and in the St. Lawrence river lying to the north of Ogden island; and a strip of land five hundred feet in width in the towns of Waddington, Madrid, Louisville and Norfolk being two hundred and fifty feet on each side of the center line of the Norwood and St. Lawrence railroad company extending from the village of Waddington, to and including the village of Norwood and an industrial site of approximately 40 acres adjacent to Norwood and St. Lawrence railroad company mile post number two, subject to the right, title, interest and control of the state under the constitution or any law of the state of New York and subject to the right, title, interest and control of the United States under any law of the United States of America.

§ 1378. Ogdensburg port authority. A board to be known as the Ogdensburg port authority is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation. The board shall consist of five members all of whom shall be residents of the city of Ogdensburg. The members of said authority shall be appointed by the mayor. One member shall be designated by the mayor to serve until December thirty-first, nineteen hundred fifty-eight; one to serve until December thirty-first, nineteen hundred fifty-nine; one to serve until December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty; one to serve until December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-one; and one to serve until December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-two. Upon the expiration of the term of a member, a successor shall be appointed by the mayor for a term expiring five years after the expiration of the term of his predecessor. If a vacancy shall occur by reason of a death, disqualification, resignation or removal of a member, the successor shall be appointed by the mayor for the unexpired term. The members of the authority shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, take the constitutional oath of office and file the same in the office of the clerk of the county of St. Lawrence. The authority shall organize by the selection from its members of a chairman, vice chairman, and a secretary. It shall adopt such rules as it may deem necessary and proper for the government of its own proceedings and the regulation and use of port facilities in the district, and shall keep a record of its proceedings. Rules pertaining to the regulation and use of port facilities shall be fair, reasonable and impartial and shall be subject to any law, rule or regulation administered by the interstate commerce commission or the public service commission or the water power and control commission, or any other department or commission of the United States of America or of the state of New York, which has the jurisdiction in such matters and shall not operate to deprive any person or corporation, private or public, of any property without due process of law. A majority of the members of the authority shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the concurrence of a majority of all members shall be necessary to the validity of any order of the authority. A member may be removed by the appointing power for cause after giving such member a copy of the charges and an opportunity to be heard in his own defense in person or by counsel upon not less than ten days' notice. The decision of the appointing power shall be subject to review pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice act. The members of the authority shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

§ 1379. Purposes and powers of the authority. The authority shall have power over the survey, development and operation of port facilities in such port district as hereinafter more specifically set forth, and the coordination of the same with existing or future agencies of transportation with a view to the increase and efficiency of all such facilities and the furtherance of commerce and industries in the district. It shall make a thorough investigation of port conditions in the district and such other places as it may deem proper and shall prepare a comprehensive plan for the development of port facilities in such district. It shall be provided with an office which shall be located by such authority within the port district and it shall have power to equip the same with suitable furniture and supplies for the performance of the work of the authority. The authority also shall have power to:

(1) Sue and be sued.

(2) Have a seal and alter the same at pleasure.

(3) Confer with the governing body of the city and with any other body or official having to do with port and harbor facilities within and without the district, and to hold public hearings as to such facilities.

(4) Confer with railroad, steamship, warehouse and other officials in the district with reference to the development of transportation facilities in such district and the coordination of the same, and assist and cooperate with the Ogdensburg bridge authority in the establishment, maintenance and operation of a public bus transportation system as authorized by subdivision eighteen of section seven hundred three of this chapter, including the payment of such financial assistance as may be required for the proper functioning of the said public bus transportation system.

(5) Confer with the proper state officials as to means and measures for stimulating use of the Ogdensburg port.

(6) Determine upon the location, type, size and construction of requisite port facilities, subject, however, to the approval of any department, commission or official of the United States of America or the state of New York where federal or state statute or regulation requires it.

(7) Lease, erect, construct, make, equip and maintain port facilities in the district and for any such purpose to acquire in the name of the authority by purchase, grant, gift or condemnation, except as hereinafter limited, real property, including easements therein, lands under water and riparian rights.

(8) Make surveys, maps and plans for, and estimates of the cost of, the development and operation of requisite port facilities and for the coordination of such facilities with existing agencies, both public and private, with the view of increasing the efficiency of all such facilities in the furtherance of commerce and industry in the city.

(9) Make contracts and leases and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient.

(10) Issue negotiable bonds within the provisions and limitations of this title and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof.

(11) Issue notes within the provisions and limitations of this act.

(11-a) Issue notes or other indentures to the federal government or any agency thereof secured by mortgages on real or personal property acquired from the proceeds of loans or grants or a combination of both obtained from the federal government or any agency thereof.

(12) Fix fees, rates, rentals or other charges for the purpose of all port facilities owned by the authority and collect such fees, rates, rentals and other charges for such facilities owned by the authority, which fees, rates, rentals or other charges shall at all times be sufficient to comply fully with all covenants and agreements with the holders of any bonds issued under the provisions of this act.

(13) Operate and maintain all port facilities owned by it; use the revenues therefrom for the corporate purposes of the authority, and in accordance with any covenants or agreements contained in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of any bonds hereunder.

(14) Have power to regulate and supervise the construction of all port facilities constructed or installed by any private individual or corporation commenced after this act takes effect, and the power to regulate the operation of all privately owned port facilities in so far as such operation may adversely affect the flow of transportation or the enforcement of approved plans for the development of port facilities.

The power granted by this subdivision shall be subject to the rules, regulations or other directives of any federal or state department, commission or other agency having jurisdiction, and such grant of power shall not operate to deprive any person or corporation, private or public, of any property without due process of law.

(15) Accept gifts, grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York or an agency or instrumentality of either of them, the city of Ogdensburg, or a person or corporation, by conveyance, bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purpose of the authority, and to enter into a contract with the United States, the state of New York or an agency or instrumentality of either of them, to accept gifts, grants, loans or contributions on such terms and conditions as may be provided by law authorizing the same. The city of Ogdensburg is hereby authorized to loan, donate or contribute any available fund to the port authority for any of its corporate purposes, and to appropriate such moneys for such purposes; but the city may not borrow money or otherwise pledge its faith and credit for the purpose of making any such loan, donation or contribution.

(16) Have power to grant and maintain a traffic bureau in connection with the operation of port facilities.

(17) Use the officers, employees, facilities and equipment of the city, with the consent of the city, and of the town, with the consent of the town, paying a proper portion of the compensation or cost.

(18) Appoint officers, agents and employees and fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation subject to the provisions of the civil service law of the state of New York and such rules as the civil service commission of the city of Ogdensburg may adopt and make applicable to such authority.

(19) Designate the depositories of its moneys.

(20) Have power to do all things necessary to promote and to make Ogdensburg bridge, harbor and its port facilities and industrial projects useful and productive and to assist and cooperate with the Ogdensburg bridge authority and other public agencies for such purposes.

(21) Negotiate with the officials of the city of Ogdensburg for the acquisition of the Ogdensburg international airport, to acquire such airport, and when so acquired, to operate, maintain and improve such airport and to construct, extend, operate and maintain runways, hangars, shops, passenger stations, control towers, and all facilities necessary or convenient in connection with a modern international airport; to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions; all on such terms and conditions as it may determine subject to all federal, state and local regulations.

(22) Proceed with the development of the port district and to improve, construct, develop, reconstruct and update such facilities as it may deem necessary including the leasing or rental of its properties and facilities for public or private purposes in order to make the development thereof economically feasible; provided, however, that no lease shall be made for a period of more than thirty years from the date of its execution.

(23) Make application to the Foreign-Trade Zones Board established by the act of Congress, approved June eighteenth, nineteen hundred thirty-four, entitled "an act to provide for the establishment, operation and maintenance of foreign trade zones in ports of entry of the United States, to expedite and encourage foreign commerce, and for other purposes," for a grant to such authority of the privilege of establishing, operating and maintaining a foreign trade zone on premises owned by such authority within the county of St. Lawrence, pursuant to the provisions of such act, and if such application be granted, to accept such grant and to establish, operate and maintain such zone in accordance with law.

(24) To develop and establish an industrial park on lands acquired or to be acquired by the authority for the purposes of building, constructing or causing the building or constructing of industrial projects thereon.

(25) To arrange or contract with a municipality for the planning, replanning, opening, grading or closing of streets, roads, roadways, alleys or other places or for the furnishing of facilities or for the furnishing of services in connection with an industrial project.

(26) To sell, lease, assign, transfer, convey, exchange, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of or encumber any industrial project, and in the case of the sale of any industrial project, to accept a purchase money mortgage in connection therewith; and to lease, repurchase or otherwise acquire and hold any industrial project which the authority has theretofore sold, leased or otherwise conveyed, transferred or disposed of.

(27) To grant options to purchase any industrial project or to renew any leases entered into by it in connection with any industrial project, on such terms and conditions as it may deem advisable.

(28) To prepare or cause to be prepared plans, specifications, designs and estimates of costs for the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, alteration or repair of any industrial project, and from time to time to modify such plans, specifications, designs or estimates.

(29) In connection with any property on which it has made a mortgage loan, to foreclose on any such property or commence any action to protect or enforce any right conferred upon it by any law, mortgage, contract or other agreement, and to bid for and purchase such property at any foreclosure or at any other sale, or acquire or take possession of any such property; and in such event the corporation may complete, administer, pay the principal of and interest on any obligations incurred in connection with such property, dispose of, and otherwise deal with such property, in such manner as may be necessary or desirable to protect the interests of the authority therein.

(30) To borrow money and to issue its negotiable bonds and notes in connection with any industrial project and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof.

(31) As security for the payment of the principal and interest on any bonds issued in connection with any industrial project and any agreements made in connection therewith, to mortgage and pledge any or all of its industrial projects and to pledge the revenues and receipts therefrom or from any industrial project thereof, and to assign or pledge the lease or leases on any portion or all of said industrial projects and to assign or pledge the income received by virtue of said lease or leases.

(32) To invest any funds held in reserve or sinking funds, or any monies not required for immediate use or disbursement, at the discretion of the authority, in obligations of the state, or of the United States government, or obligations the principal and interest of which are guaranteed by the state or the United States government.

(33) The authority may acquire by purchase, gift, grant, transfer, contract or lease any railroad transportation facility and may on such terms and conditions as the authority may determine necessary establish, construct, effectuate, operate, maintain, renovate, improve or repair such line of railroad.

(34) The authority may acquire, hold, own, lease, establish, construct, effectuate, operate, maintain, renovate, improve, extend or repair any of its facilities through, and cause any one or more of its powers, duties, functions or activities to be exercised or performed by, one or more wholly owned subsidiary corporations of the authority and may transfer to or from any such corporation any moneys, real property or other property for any of the purposes of this title. The directors or members of each such subsidiary corporation shall be the same persons holding the offices of members of the authority. Each such subsidiary corporation and any of its property, functions and activities shall have all of the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions and other exemptions of the authority and of the authority's property, functions and activities. Each such subsidiary corporation shall be subject to the restrictions and limitations to which the authority may be subject. Each such subsidiary corporation shall be subject to suit in accordance with section thirteen hundred sixteen of this title. The employees of any such subsidiary corporation, except those who are also employees of the authority, shall not be deemed employees of the authority.

If the authority shall determine that one or more of its subsidiary corporations should be in the form of a public benefit corporation, it shall create each such public benefit corporation by executing and filing with the secretary of state a certificate of incorporation, which may be amended from time to time by filing, which shall set forth the name of such public benefit subsidiary corporation, its duration, the location of its principal office, and any or all of the purposes of acquiring, owning, leasing, establishing, constructing, effectuating, operating, maintaining, renovating, improving, extending or repairing one or more facilities of the authority. Each such public benefit subsidiary corporation shall be a body politic and corporate and shall have all those powers vested in the authority by the provisions of this title which the authority shall determine to include in its certificate of incorporation except the power to contract indebtedness.

Whenever any state, political subdivision, municipality, commission, agency, officer, department, board, division or person is authorized and empowered for any of the purposes of this title to cooperate and enter into agreements with the authority such state, political subdivision, municipality, commission, agency, officer, department, board, division or person shall have the same authorization and power for any of such purposes to cooperate and enter into agreements with a subsidiary corporation of the authority.

§ 1380. Orders, service thereof, and penalties. The authority may make, and cause to be served upon any corporation or individual, within the port district, excepting the city, any reasonable order which it may determine to be necessary for the proper development, maintenance and use of the port, relating to the construction, equipment, repair, maintenance, use and rental of any dock, wharf, slip, terminal or warehouse owned or leased by any such corporation or individual within the district. There shall be served with a copy of the order a notice specifying a day, not less than ten days after such service, when such corporation or individual may appear before the authority, present written objections to the making of the order and be heard on such objections. If no such objections are filed within the time stated, or if the order be sustained as the result of such hearing, either on its original or modified form, such order shall be final, subject only to review by a court of competent jurisdiction. When an order of the authority shall become final, including termination of any court proceeding sustaining the order, or of the time for beginning such a proceeding if none be brought, if the corporation or individual shall fail to obey it, or if any corporation or individual shall violate a lawful rule of the authority, the authority may commence and maintain an action or proceeding in an appropriate court having jurisdiction, for the purpose of having such disobedience to an order or violation of a rule prevented or obedience enforced, either by mandamus or injunction.

§ 1381. Investigations. The authority, and any member thereof, when directed by the authority, may make any investigation which the authority may deem necessary to enable it effectually to carry out the provisions of this act, and for that purpose the authority, or such member, may take and hear proofs and testimony and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, records and documents, including public records. The authority, and its authorized agents, may enter upon any lands as in its judgment may be necessary for the purpose of making surveys and examinations to accomplish any purpose authorized by this act, the authority being liable for actual damage done.

§ 1382. Real estate and title thereto. 1. The authority may lease or acquire title to real and personal property including water front property, ferries, bridges, wharf property, land under water, public landings, wharves and docks in the name of "Ogdensburg port authority" by purchase, grant or gift from the city of Ogdensburg, state of New York, United States of America, or from any corporation or individual for the development of port facilities in the district, and shall have the power to sell, subject to approval by order of the supreme court, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes. Any instrument affecting real property shall be signed by the chairman of the authority, attested by its secretary and have the seal of the authority affixed thereto.

2. Authority is hereby conferred upon the city to give, lease, sell, grant and convey real and personal property including water front property, ferries, bridges, wharf property, land under water, public landings, wharves and docks to the authority, with or without consideration as such city shall determine.

3. The authority shall have power to condemn real property located within its territorial limits and owned by any person or corporation, excepting a person or corporation subject to the jurisdiction, supervision and regulation of the public service commission, which the authority deems necessary for the development of port facilities in the district. The authority shall exercise the power of condemnation hereby granted in the manner provided in the condemnation law.

4. The authority and the city may enter into contracts for the acquisition by the city or the authority of real property for the benefit of and in the name of the city for the purpose of widening existing streets, avenues, parkways, roads or highways or for new streets, avenues, parkways, roads or highways to port facilities within the port district, or partly for such purpose and partly for other city purposes. Such contracts may provide for the work of improvement by the city. The city may close such streets, avenues, parkways, roads or highways as may be necessary or convenient.

§ 1383. Grants from commissioner of general services. 1. The commissioner of general services shall have power, in his discretion, from time to time to transfer and convey to the authority for such consideration as may be determined by him to be paid to the state of New York unappropriated state lands and lands under water which the authority shall certify to be necessary or desirable for the corporate purposes of the authority. The state hereby further authorizes the commissioner of general services, with the consent of the commissioner of mental hygiene and approval of the director of the budget, to grant to the authority a portion of the lands of the Saint Lawrence state hospital located in the county of Saint Lawrence, upon such terms and conditions, including consideration, as such commissioner may determine. The portion of such lands of such hospital herein authorized to be granted shall be taken from the southerly end of the hospital property adjacent to state highway route number thirty-seven, together with two parcels of land acquired by two deeds, one from Orville Cruikshank and Cora Cruikshank McEwen, dated October 11, 1945, and recorded in Saint Lawrence county clerk's office on November 8, 1945, in Liber 365 of deeds at page 47, containing 96.42 acres, more or less, and the other from Hubert Webb and Irene Webb, dated October 13, 1945, and recorded in the Saint Lawrence county clerk's office on November 8, 1945, in Liber 365 of deeds at page 45, containing 34 acres, more or less, such lands being former farm lands of such hospital. The department of transportation shall make an accurate survey of the parcels of such farm land to be granted and the grant to the authority may describe the land according to such survey. The land so conveyed by the state to the authority shall be utilized and developed by the authority for the establishment of an industrial park.

2. Actual payment of the consideration for the grant as determined by the commissioner of general services shall not be required as a condition precedent to the issuance of such grant, but the amount thereof shall be certified by the commissioner to the state comptroller and shall be deemed an advance to the authority by the state, to be repaid out of the port facilities development fund herein provided for unless the authority shall issue bonds for the development of such facilities, in which event the advance to the authority by the state shall be repaid to the state out of the first proceeds of such issue of bonds.

3. The authority shall establish and maintain a port facilities development fund and shall cause all moneys received by it from the operation of such port facilities to be deposited in such fund for the payment of all costs of operation, maintenance and repair of the port facilities and the repayment to the people of the state of New York of any advance made by the state to the authority, which repayment to the people of the state of New York shall not exceed in any one year fifty per centum of the moneys received by the authority in excess of the costs of operation, maintenance and repair of said port facilities.

4. Upon the issuance of said lease or grant by the commissioner of general services pursuant to this act the authority shall assume all expense of or incidental to the operation, maintenance, repair and administration of said port facilities.

5. Except as to moneys and rates accrued thereunder at the time of vesting in the authority all the right, title and interest of the state in and to said port facilities as herein provided, and as incident thereto, there shall also vest in the authority all the right, title and interest of the state in and to and in connection with the following contracts, agreements and permits with third persons: (a) any and all executory contracts, agreements and permits for the use of said port facilities by third persons as tenants, licensees, or otherwise, or for the docking, mooring or anchorage thereat of vessels owned by third persons, or for the loading, unloading, handling, storage, processing or manipulation of grain, freight, or other property of third persons, or for the rendering of any other services to third persons at said pier properties as wharfinger or warehouseman or otherwise; (b) any and all executory contracts and agreements for the furnishing by third persons of electricity, gas, steam, water or telephone service at said port facilities.

6. The authority shall not grant or convey title to said port facilities to any person or legal entity other than the people of the state of New York.

7. If the authority shall violate any of the conditions herein set forth or such other conditions as the board of commissioners of the land office heretofore included in any lease or grant of said port facilities or any other conditions as the office of general services may include in any lease or grant of said port facilities and such violation of any of said conditions shall not have been remedied by the authority within ninety days after the giving of notice of the existence of such violation by the commissioner of transportation of the state of New York, then at the option of the state such port facilities shall revert to the people of the state of New York.

8. If the port facilities revert to the people of the state of New York they shall be and shall be deemed to be unappropriated state lands.

§ 1383-a. Sale or lease of industrial projects. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law, subject to any agreement with noteholders or bondholders, the authority may sell or lease any industrial project, without public bidding or public sale, for such price or rental and upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the authority and such purchaser or lessee, either prior to, at the date of, or subsequent to the completion of the industrial project by the authority, provided, however, that in the case of a lease, the term thereof shall not exceed thirty years. Where such contract for sale or lease is entered into after the commencement of construction and prior to the physical completion of the improvement to be conveyed or leased, the authority may complete the construction and development of such improvement prior to the actual conveyance or lease.

§ 1384. Right of entry upon streets. The authority, with the consent of the city, or of the state department of transportation, if required, may enter upon streets, avenues, parkways, roads, highways, bridges or other public places for the construction of a project or part thereof or of an addition, betterment or extension to the port facilities. Whenever the authority has entered upon and damaged a street, avenue, parkway, road, highway, bridge, or other public place, the authority shall restore the same to its former condition.

§ 1385. Contracts; manner of letting. Where the expense of the construction of a project, of a part thereof, or an addition, betterment or extension to the port facilities, or the purchase of materials, supplies and equipment involves an expense exceeding two thousand dollars, the authority shall advertise for bids and shall award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder fully complying with the plans and specifications. Such advertisement shall be published once, not less than one week prior to the date fixed for the opening of bids, in one newspaper having a general circulation in the city of Ogdensburg. The authority may make rules and regulations for the submission of bids and award of contract thereon and may provide in such rules and regulations that no performance, bond or undertaking need be furnished by the contractor for the purchase of materials, supplies and equipment in an amount not exceeding two thousand dollars. No contract shall be entered into for the construction of a project, or part thereof, or for an addition, betterment or extension to the facilities or for the purchase of materials, supplies and equipment in an amount exceeding two thousand dollars unless the contractor shall give an undertaking with a sufficient surety or sureties approved by the authority and in the amount fixed by the authority for the faithful performance of the contract. As to a contract entered into for the construction, the undertaking shall provide, among other things, that the person or corporation entering into such a contract will pay for all materials furnished and services rendered in the performance of the contract and that a person or corporation furnishing such materials or rendering such services may maintain an action to recover for the same against the obligor in the undertaking as though such person or corporation were named therein, provided the action is brought within one year after the time the cause of action accrued. In case of public emergency involving accident or other damage by which the port facilities, or any part thereof, shall become disabled, the authority may cause all necessary repairs thereto to be made without advertisement, bidding and the letting of a formal contract therefor.

§ 1386. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the authority shall be determined by resolution of the authority.

§ 1387. Special port development and improvement powers. 1. The authority shall have power to make rules and regulations: (a) for the development, improvement, promotion, preservation and utilization of the port district and projects, including the Ogdensburg municipal airport and the industrial park development on lands wholly or in part acquired pursuant to the provisions of subdivision one of section thirteen hundred eighty-three of this chapter; and (b) for the payment and collection of fees, charges, rentals and other receipts from its properties and facilities within the port district, including the Ogdensburg municipal airport and the industrial park development, which fees, charges, rentals and other receipts are hereinafter referred to as "port revenue." Until such time as the state of New York is fully reimbursed by the authority for the total amount of money advanced by the state to the authority no rule, regulation, schedule or rate in relation to or governing port revenue shall become effective or controlling unless approved by the director of the budget of the state of New York.

2. Until such time as the state of New York is fully reimbursed for the total amount of money advanced by the state to the authority all port revenue received by the authority shall be paid to the state comptroller as agent of the authority and deposited in a separate bank account or accounts to be known as the "Ogdensburg port fund." The moneys in such fund shall be available subject to the approval of the director of the budget of the state of New York for the payment of any and all costs and expenditures incurred in relation to the acquisition of property, construction, equipment, maintenance, repair, operation and improvement of the industrial park development, port and airport. The moneys of the Ogdensburg port fund when made available shall be paid from such fund on the audit and warrant of the state comptroller on vouchers approved solely by the chairman of the authority or his duly designated officer.

3. All moneys in the Ogdensburg port fund in excess of the sum of two hundred thousand dollars shall on the first day of each month be paid by the authority to the state comptroller provided, however, that effective June thirty, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, the director of the budget and the authority shall establish within the provisions of a written agreement between the authority and the director providing for the repayment to the state by the authority of state advances, the maximum amount of moneys which the authority may retain in the Ogdensburg port fund. The comptroller is hereby authorized to receive from the authority such amounts as shall be paid to the comptroller pursuant to the provisions of this section and to credit all such amounts to the capital construction fund. Upon certification by the state comptroller that all moneys due the state have been paid in full, the remaining balance of such fund shall be available to such authority and may be used by such authority for any corporate purpose. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to examination by the state comptroller. The state comptroller is hereby authorized and empowered to examine the accounts and books of the authority at such periods of time he may deem necessary, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases and any other matters relating to its financial standing and fiscal affairs.

4. The provisions of this section and section thirteen hundred eighty-three shall not apply to the Waddington port district nor shall it apply to the acquisition, operation, utilization, management, promotion and improvement at Ogdensburg of the Rutland Railway Corporation dock terminal, facilities, appurtenances and the Rutland Railway Corporation right-of-way, facilities and appurtenances within the port district, in the event the authority obtains a federal loan or grant or a combination of both to finance the acquisition and development of such Rutland Railway Corporation property within the port district, provided, however, that the state of New York be fully reimbursed for any advances made for these specific purposes as defined in this subdivision, except that such right of reimbursement shall be subordinate to the rights of holders of any obligations issued by the authority pursuant to the terms and conditions applicable to any such federal loan or grant or combination of both.

5. Nothing in this section shall prevent the authority and the state from entering into an agreement for the establishment of a revolving fund to be used to pay part of or all of the authority's operating expenses. This revolving fund shall be initially funded with moneys advanced from the Ogdensburg port fund and shall be replenished from time to time from such funds upon the audit and warrant of the comptroller.

§ 1388. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any corporate purpose of the authority, including the paying, funding or refunding of any notes theretofore issued by the authority under the provisions of section thirteen hundred eighty-nine of this act. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. Except as may be otherwise expressly provided by contract between the authority and the holders of its bonds, all bonds of the authority shall be general obligations payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds the payment of which is secured by a pledge of particular moneys or revenues.

2. Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding forty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding five per centum per annum payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption prior to maturity, at par or a price not exceeding one hundred five per centum of the face value, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Such bonds may be sold, with or without advertisement, in such manner as the authority shall determine by resolution. If advertisement is made, a notice of sale shall be published at least once, not less than ten nor more than forty days before the date of sale, in a newspaper published and circulated in the city of Ogdensburg and in a financial newspaper published and circulated in the city of New York and designated by the board. The notice shall call for the receipt of sealed bids and shall fix the date, time and place of sale. Bonds shall be sold at such price or prices as will yield to the purchasers income at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum to the maturity dates of said bonds, computed in accordance with standard tables of bond values.

3. Any resolutions authorizing the issuance of any bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to:

a. Pledging all or any part of the gross or net revenues of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

b. The rentals, fees and other charges to be charged for the use of projects of the authority, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of revenues of the authority;

c. The setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

d. The appointment of a bank or banks or trust company or trust companies as trustee or trustees for the custody and disposition of any moneys of the authority, including the proceeds of any bonds or other obligations and any revenues or income of the authority, and the execution of any trust agreements or indentures with such trustee or trustees with such provisions as may be deemed necessary or desirable in connection with the custody and disposition of such moneys of the authority and the rights and remedies of the holders of such bonds;

e. Limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of projects of the authority;

f. Limitations of the purpose to which the proceeds of the sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied;

g. Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, including the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured;

h. The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must give consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given; and

i. Any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. Any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made. The revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall be immediately subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act. The lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability by reason of the issuance thereof, excepting solely for things willfully done or willfully omitted to be done with an intent to defraud.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase any of its outstanding bonds at a price not more than the then redemption price of such bonds. All bonds so purchased shall be cancelled.

7. Issuance by the authority of one or more series of bonds for one or more purposes in connection with any industrial project shall not preclude it from issuing other bonds in connection with the same industrial project or any other industrial project, but the proceedings whereunder any subsequent bonds may be issued shall recognize and protect any prior pledge or mortgage made for any prior issue of bonds unless in the proceedings authorizing such prior issue the right is reserved to issue subsequent bonds on a parity with such prior issue.

§ 1389. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue its negotiable notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code whenever the board shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide moneys to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. Such notes may be renewed from time to time but such notes, including the renewals thereof, shall mature not later than five years from the date upon which such notes are issued. Such notes shall be issued in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions as to price and interest rate as bonds, except that the board may determine the manner in which such notes shall be sold. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

Issuance by the authority of one or more series of notes for one or more purposes in connection with any industrial project shall not preclude it from issuing other notes in connection with the same industrial project or any other industrial project, but the proceedings whereunder any subsequent notes may be issued shall recognize and protect any prior pledge or mortgage made for any prior issue of notes unless in the proceedings authorizing such prior issue the right is reserved to issue subsequent notes on a parity with such prior issue.

§ 1390. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of St. Lawrence and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name,

(a) by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of St. Lawrence.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercising of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 1391. Exemption from taxation. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of Ogdensburg and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this act and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the properties acquired by the authority or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision, or upon its activities. Bonds or notes issued pursuant to this act, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority shall be exempt from taxation except for transfer and estate taxes.

§ 1392. Agreement of state on authority rights. The state of New York does pledge to and with the bondholders that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate a project or projects, to establish and collect rates, fees, rentals and other charges, and to fulfill the terms of agreements made with the bondholders, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with an action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged. No provision of this title shall be deemed to limit the power of the legislature to authorize the state or a political subdivision thereof to acquire properties of the authority and pay the indebtedness thereof.

§ 1393. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1394. Bonds legal investments. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of the state of New York and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions thereof, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons, except as hereinafter provided, who are now, or may hereafter be, authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital, in their control or belonging to them, provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, the bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of the state of New York and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions thereof for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now, or may hereafter be, authorized.

§ 1395. No control by other boards or commissions. Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the authority, in the issuance of its bonds or other obligations, and in the exercise of its powers provided in this act for the fixing, charging and collecting of fees, rentals, or other charges, shall not be subject to the jurisdiction, control or regulation of any commission, department, board, officer, or agency of the city, or of the state or any political subdivision thereof.

§ 1396. Punishment for irregular demeanor of members or employees of authority. It shall be a misdemeanor for a member of the authority or an officer, agent, servant or employee employed by or appointed by the authority, to be in any way or manner interested, directly or indirectly, as principal, surety or otherwise, in a contract, the expense or consideration whereof is payable out of the funds of the authority.

§ 1397. Actions against authority. In any case founded upon a tort a notice of claim shall be required as a condition precedent to the commencement of an action or special proceeding against the authority and the provisions of section fifty-e of the general municipal law shall apply. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued.

§ 1398. Separability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, part or provision of this title shall for any reason be adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional, ineffective or invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this title, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, part or provision thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

§ 1399. Effect of inconsistent provisions. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

ARTICLE 7

PARKING AUTHORITIES

TITLE 2

WHITE PLAINS PARKING AUTHORITY

§ 1425. Short title. This title may be cited as the "White Plains parking authority act".

§ 1426. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section one thousand four hundred twenty-seven of this title;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of White Plains;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, machinery, apparatus and equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are determined to be necessary or convenient in connection with the operation of any such area or place;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

8. The term "bonds" shall mean bonds, notes or other obligations issued by the authority pursuant to this title;

9. The term "construction", as applied to any project, shall include the erection, building, acquisition, alteration, reconstruction, improvement, enlargement or extension thereof, as the case may be, including the inspection and supervision thereof, and the engineering, architectural, legal, fiscal and economic investigations, studies, surveys, designs, plans, working drawings, specifications, procedures and other actions incidental thereto;

10. The term "cost", as used with reference to any project or other corporate purpose of the authority, shall include the cost of the construction, the cost of the acquisition of all property, including real and personal property, improved or unimproved, and the cost of demolishing, removing or relocating any buildings, structures or other improvements on lands acquired for the project, the cost of all machinery, apparatus and equipment, the cost of all appurtenances and incidental facilities, financing charges, interest prior to and during construction, the cost of engineering and architectural surveys, plans and specifications, the cost of legal and other professional services, the cost of lease guarantee or bond insurance, other expenses necessary or incidental to the construction of the project and the financing thereof, including the amount authorized in the resolution of the authority providing for the issuance of bonds to be paid into any reserve or other special fund from the proceeds of such bonds and the financing of the placing of the project in operation, including reimbursement to the city, any state agency, the state, the United States government, or any other person, for expenditures made with the prior approval of the authority, that would be costs of the project hereunder had they been made directly by the authority;

11. The term "revenues" shall mean all rates, fees, rents, charges and all other income derived by the authority from its operations; and

12. The term "state" shall mean the state of New York.

§ 1427. White Plains parking authority. 1. A board to be known as "White Plains parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation. It shall consist of a chairman and six other members, who shall be appointed by the mayor of the city. On or before the first day of July, nineteen hundred eighty, the mayor shall appoint four members, two for terms of office expiring on the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred eighty-two, and two for terms of office expiring on the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred eighty-three. The two members appointed for terms of office expiring on the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred eighty-two, shall be deemed to have been appointed to fill two existing vacancies in such board occurring by the expiration of the terms of office of two members heretofore appointed for terms expiring on the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred seventy-nine. Each of three members whose term of office expires on the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred eighty-one, shall continue to serve until such date or until the appointment and qualification of his successor. The terms of office of all successor members shall be three years, so that the term of office of one-third of such members, as nearly as possible, shall expire on the thirtieth day of June in each year. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The mayor may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

2. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers, purposes, and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city of White Plains and the state of New York, for the improvement of their health, welfare and prosperity and that said purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

§ 1428. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the city. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire by purchase, grant, lease, gift, condemnation or otherwise, and use real property necessary or convenient for its corporate purposes and to sell, convey, mortgage, lease, pledge, exchange, or otherwise dispose of such property in such manner as the authority may determine; provided that the location of the site of any project shall be subject to the prior approval of the planning board of the city. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the eminent domain procedure law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the city;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees, and facilities of the city, including the corporation counsel, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

8. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

9. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary or convenient;

10. To construct, develop, maintain and operate the projects and to contract in relation thereto with the city and with other persons, and to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any project or part thereof to any person, provided such person shall undertake to operate and maintain any project or part thereof subject to such conditions and limitations as the authority may determine to be in the public interest and consistent with its public purposes;

11. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the city, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

12. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

13. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine.

14. To enter into agreements with one or more financing agencies to provide for the acceptance by the authority of credit cards as a means of payment of rentals, rates, fees and other charges owed by a person to the authority. Any such agreement shall govern the terms and conditions upon which a credit card proffered as means of payment of a fee, rate, rent or other charge shall be accepted or declined and the manner in and conditions upon which the financing agency shall pay to the authority the amount of fees, rates, rents or other charges paid by means of a credit card pursuant to such agreement. Any such agreement may provide for the payment by the authority to such financing agency of fees for the services provided by such financing agency pursuant to such agreement, which fees may consist of a discount deducted from or payable in respect to the amount of such fee, rate, rent or other charge or otherwise as the agreement may provide. If the authority has entered into an agreement pursuant to this subdivision, it may accept credit cards as a means of payment of fees, rates, rents or other charges, as provided in any such agreement and may pay such fees as are specified in such agreement to such financing agency thereunder. The authority may promulgate any rules or regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this subdivision. For the purposes of this subdivision, the terms "credit card," "financing agency" and "person" shall have the same meaning as provided in subdivision (a) of section five of the general municipal law.

§ 1429. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the city may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the city who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the city under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the city shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the city civil service commission.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter nor the provisions of any other law, rule or regulation, the position and title of director of the White Plains parking authority is hereby established. Such position shall be in the unclassified service as defined in the civil service law.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter or the provisions of any other law, rule or regulation, the positions and titles of deputy director I and deputy director II of the White Plains parking authority are hereby established. The positions of deputy director I and deputy director II shall be in the exempt class of the classified civil service as defined in the civil service law.

§ 1430. Conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city. 1. The city may, by resolution or resolutions of the common council or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority title to real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof.

2. The city may acquire real property to be conveyed to the authority pursuant to subdivision one of this section or for the widening of existing roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways or for new roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. The city may close such streets, roads, parkways, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, parkways, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, parkway, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The common council may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the common council may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. In case the authority shall determine that real property acquired at the cost and expense of the city is no longer required for its corporate purposes, the authority shall have power, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist, to reconveying such real property to the city without consideration.

§ 1431. Public work contracts. The authority shall let contracts for public work in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the city, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed five thousand dollars, such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

§ 1432. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the commissioner of finance of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the commissioner of finance on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by the commissioner of finance. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the commissioner of finance or the authority, be secured by direct or guaranteed obligations of the United States or its agencies or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The commissioner of finance and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller.

§ 1433. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in such principal amounts as may be determined by the authority to be necessary to pay all or part of the cost of any project or any other corporate purpose. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at private sale subject to the approval of the state comptroller or at a public sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues derived by the authority from the ownership or operation of, or otherwise in connection with, any project or projects or any part or parts thereof to secure the payment of the bonds, or of any issue thereof, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rates, rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of revenues;

(c) the creation and setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section one thousand four hundred thirty-nine hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other security instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded or filed.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section one thousand four hundred thirty-two, the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section one thousand four hundred thirty-nine upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

§ 1435. Agreements of the state. 1. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the city of White Plains, to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas or places except those constructed by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members of which are elected or are appointed by city officials, until all bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or adequate provision has been made for the payment thereof.

§ 1436. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1437. Bonds legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1438. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds, shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

§ 1439. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Westchester and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Westchester.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all revenues or other moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the construction, operation and maintenance of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any real property necessary or convenient in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate and maintain such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 1440. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limit established by, and in compliance with all requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1441. Termination of the authority and disposition of properties. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue only to the thirtieth day of June, two thousand four, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the city.

§ 1442. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective.

If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1443. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* TITLE 3-A

CITY OF ROME PARKING AUTHORITY

ineffective.

1470-s. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470. Short title. This title may be cited as the "City of Rome parking authority act".

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-a. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section fourteen hundred seventy of this title;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of Rome;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.
* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-b. City of Rome parking authority. A board to be known as "City of Rome parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of five members appointed by the mayor with the approval of the common council. The appointment of the chairman shall be made by the mayor for a term of five years. Of the other members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, and one for a period of four years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of such term, shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The mayor may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only to the thirty-first day of December, two thousand, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the city of Rome.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-c. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the city. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation, and use real property necessary or convenient. All real property acquired by condemnation by the authority shall be acquired in the manner provided in the condemnation law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the city;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees, and facilities of the city, including the corporation counsel, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

8. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

9. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary or convenient;

10. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects;

11. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them or the city, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

12. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

13. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the city of Rome, or any agency of the authority or city, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this title, and provided further that the location of sites of the projects shall be subject to the prior advice of the planning board of the city.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per §

1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-d. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the city may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the city who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the city under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the city shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the city civil service commission.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-e. Conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city or by the authority. 1. The city may, by resolution or resolutions of the common council or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the city but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The city may acquire by purchase or condemnation real property in the name of the city for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways or for new roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. The city may close such streets, roads, parkways, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, parkways, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, parkway, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The authority may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the authority may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the city at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the city. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the city, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the city, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have power to sell at public auction, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-f. Construction contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the city, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars, such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-g. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the treasurer of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the treasurer of the city on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by the authority. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the city of Rome or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The treasurer of the city and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller. The authority shall render a complete account of its proceedings to the city at such time or times as requested to do so by said city.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-h. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds for any purpose mentioned in section fourteen hundred seventy-c hereof, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction and repair of personal and real property of all kinds deemed by the board to be necessary or desirable to carry out such purpose, as well as to pay such expenses as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing the project or projects in operation in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding fifteen million dollars outstanding at any one time. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues. Notwithstanding the fact that the bonds may be payable from a special fund, if they are otherwise of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code the bonds shall be and are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of article eight of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of the bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all the rights, powers, and duties of the trustees appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section fourteen hundred seventy-o hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including convenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section fourteen hundred seventy-o of this title the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section fourteen hundred seventy-o upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-i. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue notes and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes) maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any time seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, over and above the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of section 1470-h of this title, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide funds to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.
* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-j. Agreements of the state. 1. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the city of Rome, to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas or spaces except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members of which are elected or are appointed by such officials, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-k. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-l. Bonds legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers, and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-m. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city of Rome and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

* § 1470-n. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds, shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

* § 1470-o. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Oneida and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Oneida.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any real property necessary or convenient in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-p. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limit established by, and in compliance with all requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per §

1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

§ 1470-q. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or canceled, and all its liabilities met or discharged, and the termination date of its corporate existence as set forth in section fourteen hundred seventy-b of this title shall have been reached, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles and interests and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the city of Rome.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

§ 1470-r. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

 § 1470-s. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* NB City of Rome Parking Authority ceased to exist 12/31/2000 per § 1470-b, and thereafter until all liabilities have been met/discharged, and all bonds paid/discharged

TITLE 4

SYRACUSE PARKING AUTHORITY

§ 1475-a. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Syracuse parking authority act".

§ 1475-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section fourteen hundred seventy-five-c of this title;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of Syracuse;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the authority pursuant to this title relating to bonds and bondholders and shall apply with equal force and effect to notes and noteholders, respectively, unless the context otherwise clearly requires;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "employee" or "employees" shall include employees of a contractor described in section fourteen hundred seventy-five-e of this title;

6. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within such term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate, in the area of the city;

7. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground, which are used or useable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles, in the area of the city; and

8. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

§ 1475-c. Syracuse parking authority. 1. A board to be known as "city of Syracuse parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as provided in this section. It shall consist of a chair and four other members, who shall be appointed by the mayor of the city. Of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, one for a period of four years, and one for a period of five years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice chair and may choose a secretary and treasurer who need not be members. The mayor may remove any member of the board for neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving such member a copy of the charges against him or her and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his or her defense upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of fifteen years, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the city.

2. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of any general, special or local law, ordinance, resolution or charter, no officer, member or employee of the state or of any public authority shall forfeit his or her office or employment by reason of his or her acceptance of appointment as a member, officer or employee of the authority, nor shall service as such member, officer or employee be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office, membership or employment.

3. The mayor shall file on or before December thirty-first of the year in which this title shall have become a law, in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate signed by the mayor setting forth: (a) a name of the authority; (b) the names of the members appointed by the mayor and their terms of office; and (c) the effective date of this title. If such certificate is not filed with the secretary of state on or before such date, then the corporate existence of the authority shall thereupon terminate and it shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be dissolved.

§ 1475-d. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the city. To carry out such purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the eminent domain procedure law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the city;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees and facilities of the city, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of section fourteen hundred seventy-five-c of this title;

8. To appoint an attorney, who may be the corporation counsel, and to fix his or her compensation;

9. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary;

11. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects;

12. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the city, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

13. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as provided in this title;

14. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the city, nor any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this title; and

15. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable, including ancillary and incidental activities, to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

§ 1475-e. Contract for employees. 1. The authority is hereby authorized to enter into a contract under which the contractor would provide employees to the authority for the purpose of operation and maintenance of the projects of the authority. The authority shall not begin operation of any project until such a contract shall be in force. Such contract shall provide that all employees engaged in the operation and maintenance of any authority project shall be employees of the contractor and not employees of the authority, and such employees shall receive their total compensation and employee benefits directly from the contractor. Except for titles that would be determined to be management or confidential pursuant to title fourteen of the civil service law, the authority shall have no employees other than the employees of the contractor pursuant to the contract referred to in this section.

2. Every contract entered into under subdivision one of this section shall require that the wages to be paid to any employees engaged in the operation and maintenance of any authority project shall be not less than wages that are comparable to those paid to employees doing similar work in the city of Syracuse.

§ 1475-f. Conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city or by the authority. 1. The city may, by ordinance or ordinances, local law or local laws or by instruments authorized by such ordinance or ordinances, local law or local laws, convey, with or without consideration, and upon appropriate conditions as to outstanding city bonds appertaining to the authority real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the city but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The city may acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation real property in the city for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, avenues or highways or for new roads, streets, avenues or highways within a radius of one mile to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. For like purposes, the city may close such streets, roads, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which shall not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The city common council may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the city common council may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the city at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the city. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the city, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the city, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

§ 1475-g. Construction contracts. 1. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the city, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed five thousand dollars, such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

2. For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law only, the authority shall be deemed a state agency as that term is used in such article, and all contracts for procurement, design, construction, services and materials shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article.

§ 1475-h. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the commissioner of finance of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the commissioner of finance on requisition of the chair of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by and upon the warrant of the commissioner of finance of the city. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the commissioner of finance or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York or of any municipality of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. To the extent practicable, consistent with the cash requirements of the authority, all such moneys shall be deposited in interest bearing accounts. The city commissioner of finance and his or her legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any monies of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested pursuant to section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law in accordance with guidelines established by the authority's board and amended from time to time. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders and with the approval of the state comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

§ 1475-i. Bonds or notes of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, notes or other obligations in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code to pay the cost of any project, the establishment of reserves to secure the bonds, the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the bonds and the payment of incidental expenses in connection therewith. The aggregate principal amount of such bonds, notes or other obligations shall not exceed fifty million dollars, excluding bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund or repay bonds, notes or other obligations therefor issued for such purposes; provided, however, that upon any such refunding or repayment the total aggregate principal amount of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations may be greater than three million dollars, only if the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations to be issued shall not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so to be refunded or repaid. For the purpose of this section, the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations refunded or repaid shall be calculated by utilizing the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations from payment of dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations and to the price bid including estimated accrued interest from the sale thereof. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to enter into such agreements and perform such acts as may be required under any applicable federal legislation to secure a federal guarantee to any bonds.

2. The authority shall have the power from time to time to renew bonds or to issue renewal bonds for such purpose, to issue bonds to pay bonds, and, whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bond by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds, partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose of the authority. Bonds issued for refunding purposes shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds or notes to be refunded.

3. Bonds issued by the authority may be general obligations secured by the faith and credit of the authority or may be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other monies as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject as to priority only to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular property, revenues or monies. The authority may also enter into loan agreements, lines of credit and other security agreements and obtain for or on its behalf letters of credit, insurance, guarantees or other credit enhancements to the extent now or hereafter available, in each case for securing its bonds or to provide direct payment of any costs which the authority is authorized to pay.

4. (a) Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, be in such denominations and bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times, as such resolution may provide, provided that bonds and renewals thereof shall mature within thirty years from the date of original issuance of any such bonds.

(b) Bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates, be payable at such times, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section shall be sold to the bidder offering the lowest true interest cost, taking into consideration any premium or discount not less than four nor more than fifteen days, Sunday excepted, after a notice of such sale has been published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the area served by the authority, which shall state the terms of the sale. The terms of the sale may not change unless notice of such change is published in such newspaper at least one day prior to the date of the sale as set forth in the original notice of sale. Advertisements shall contain a provision to the effect that the authority, in its discretion, may reject any or all bids made pursuant to such advertisements, and in the event of such rejection, the authority is authorized to negotiate a private or public sale or readvertise for bids in the form and manner above described as many times as, in its judgment, may be necessary to effect satisfactory sale.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, whenever in the judgment of the authority the interests of the authority will be served thereby, the members of the authority, on the written recommendation of the chairperson may authorize the sale of such bonds at private or public sale on a negotiated basis or on either a competitive or negotiated basis. The authority shall set guidelines governing the terms and conditions of any such private or public sales. The private or public bond sale guidelines set by the authority shall include, but not be limited to, a requirement that where the interests of the authority will be served by a private or public sale of bonds, the authority shall select underwriters taking into account, among other things, qualifications of underwriters as to experience, their ability to structure and sell authority bond issues, anticipated costs to the authority, the prior experience of the authority with the firm, if any, the capitalization of such firms, participation of qualified minority and women-owned business enterprise firms in such private or public sales of bonds of the authority and the experience and ability of firms under consideration to work with minority and women-owned business enterprises so as to promote and assist participation by such enterprises.

(d) The authority shall have the power from time to time to amend such private bond sale guidelines in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

(e) No private of public bond sale on a negotiated basis shall be conducted by the authority without prior approval of the state comptroller. The authority shall annually prepare and approve a bond sale report which shall include the private or public bond sale guidelines as specified in this subdivision, amendments to such guidelines since the last private or public bond sale report, an explanation of the bond sale guidelines and amendments, and the results of any sale of bonds conducted during the fiscal year. Such bond sale report may be a part of any other annual report that the authority is required to make.

(f) The authority shall annually submit its bond sale report to the state comptroller and copies thereof to the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee.

(g) The authority shall make available to the public copies of its bond sale report upon reasonable request thereof.

(h) Nothing contained in this subdivision shall be deemed to alter, affect the validity of, modify the terms of, or impair any contract or agreement made or entered into in violation of, or without compliance with, the provisions of this subdivision.

5. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds by the authority may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) Pledging all or part of the revenues, together with any other monies or property of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, or any costs of issuance thereof, including but not limited to, any contracts, earnings or proceeds of any grant to the authority received from any private or public source subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) The setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(c) Limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(d) The rates, rents, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected by the authority and the amount to be raised in each year thereby and the use and disposition of revenues;

(e) Limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(f) Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) The creation of special funds into which any revenues or monies may be deposited;

(i) The terms and provisions of any trust, mortgage, deed or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(j) Vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustees appointed by the bondholders pursuant to this title or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) Defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(l) Limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any project or any part thereof or other property;

(m) Limitations on the amount of revenues and other monies to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) The payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other monies to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(o) Any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of the bondholders.

6. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have the power in connection with the issuance of bonds to adopt resolutions and enter into such trust indentures, agreements or other instruments as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other monies or property, including the mortgaging of any property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, monies or property and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments. The provisions of any such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

7. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, monies, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

8. Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

9. Neither the members nor the officers of the authority nor any person executing its bonds shall be liable personally on its bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

10. Subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist, the authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority, in lieu of redemption, at a price not exceeding, if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date, or, if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date. Bonds so purchased shall thereupon be canceled.

11. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed two years from the date of issue of such original note.

§ 1475-j. Agreement with state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title and with those persons or public authorities who may enter into contracts with the authority pursuant to the provisions of this title that the state will not alter, limit or impair the rights hereby vested in the authority to purchase, construct, own and operate, maintain, repair, improve, reconstruct, renovate, rehabilitate, enlarge, increase and extend, or dispose of any project, or any part or parts thereof for which bonds of the authority shall have been issued, to establish and collect rates, rents, fees and other charges referred to in this title, to fulfill the terms of any contracts or agreements made with or for the benefit of the holders of bonds or with any person or public authority with reference to such project or part thereof, or in any way to impair the rights and remedies of the holders of bonds, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, including interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders of bonds, are fully met and discharged and such contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of bonds.

§ 1475-k. Agreements of the city. 1. The city is authorized to pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title and with those persons or public authorities who may enter into contracts with the authority pursuant to the provisions of this title that the city will not alter, limit or impair the rights hereby vested in the authority to purchase, construct, own and operate, maintain, repair, improve, reconstruct, renovate, rehabilitate, enlarge, increase and extend, or dispose of any project, or any part or parts thereof, for which bonds of the authority shall have been issued, to establish, collect and adjust rates, rents, fees and other charges referred to in this title, to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds or with any public authority or person with reference to such project or part thereof, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders of bonds, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, including interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders of bonds, are fully met and discharged and such contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the city to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members or some of which are elected or are appointed by city officials, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more, provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to impair the right of the city to install and operate parking meters on the public streets of the city.

§ 1475-l. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1475-m. Bonds; legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever, except as provided in this section, who are authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. Such bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1475-n. Tax exemptions and tax contract by the state. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and is a public purpose. Accordingly, the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title, and the authority shall not be required to pay any fees, taxes, special ad valorem levies or assessments of any kind, whether state or local, including but not limited to fees, taxes, special ad valorem levies or assessments on real property, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other taxes, upon or with respect to any property owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision, or upon the uses thereof, or upon or with respect to its activities or operations in furtherance of the powers conferred upon it by this title, or upon or with respect to any fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges, fees, revenues or other income received by the authority.

2. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title together with the income therefrom shall at all times be exempt from taxation.

3. The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom and all revenues, monies, and other property pledged to pay or to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from taxation.

4. The authority may pay, or may enter into agreements with the county or any municipality to pay, a sum or sums annually or otherwise or to provide other considerations with respect to the real property owned by the authority located within the county or such municipality.

§ 1475-o. Audit and annual reports. 1. In conformity with the provisions of section five of article ten of the constitution, the accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller and an annual audit shall be performed by an independent certified public accountant. The authority shall annually submit to the governor and the state comptroller and to the chairperson of the senate finance committee and the chairperson of the assembly ways and means committee a detailed report pursuant to the provisions of section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter.

2. The authority shall render a complete annual account of its proceedings to the city common council at its first meeting in January of each and every year.

§ 1475-p. Remedies of bondholders. Subject to any resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to this title:

1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Onondaga and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes provided in this section.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Onondaga.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the aforegoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 1475-q. Actions against the authority. 1. Except in an action for wrongful death, no action or special proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority, its members, officers or employees for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence, tort or wrongful act of the authority or of any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless (a) notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority within the time limit set by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law, (b) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused, and the action or special proceeding shall be commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

2. Whenever a notice of claim is served upon the authority, it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

4. Any action or proceeding to which the authority or the people of the state may be parties, in which any question arises as to the validity of this title, shall be preferred over all other civil causes of action or cases, except election causes of action or cases, in all courts of the state and shall be heard and determined in preference to all other civil business pending therein except election causes, irrespective of position on the calendar. The same preference shall be granted upon application of the authority or its counsel in any action or proceeding questioning the validity of this title in which the authority may be allowed to intervene. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the supreme court of the county of Onondaga.

5. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment on its bonds, shall be the rate prescribed by section five thousand four of the civil practice law and rules. Interest on payments of principal or interest on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate borne by such bonds from the due date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

6. All actions or proceedings against the authority of whatever nature shall be brought in the supreme court of the county of Onondaga.

§ 1475-r. Defense and indemnification. The authority shall not execute any of its powers except as necessary to commence its corporate existence, until it has elected to make the provision of section eighteen of the public officers law applicable to its employees (as such term is defined in section eighteen of the public officers law) pursuant to subdivision two of such section; provided, however, that nothing contained within this section shall be deemed to permit the authority to extend the provisions of section eighteen of the public officers law upon any independent contractor.

§ 1475-s. Code of ethics. 1. Definition. As used in this section the term "authority employee" shall mean any member, officer or employee of the authority.

2. Rule with respect to conflicts of interest. No authority employee should have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engage in any business or transaction or professional activity or incur any obligation of any nature, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest.

3. Standards. (a) No authority employee should accept other employment, which will impair his or her independence of judgment in the exercise of his or her official duties.

(b) No authority employee should accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which will require the employee to disclose confidential information which he or she has gained by reason of his or her official position or authority.

(c) No authority employee should disclose confidential information acquired by the employee in the course of his or her official duties nor use such information to further his or her personal interests.

(d) No authority employee should use or attempt to use his or her official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for himself or herself or others.

(e) No authority employee should engage in any transaction as representative or agent of the authority with any business entity in which he or she has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with the proper discharge of his or her official duties.

(f) An authority employee should not by his or her conduct give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence such employee or unduly enjoy his or her favor in the performance of his or her official duties, or that he or she is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person.

(g) An authority employee should abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which he or she has reason to believe may be directly involved in decisions to be made by the employee or which will otherwise create substantial conflict between his or her duty in the public interest and his or her private interest.

(h) An authority employee should endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not raise suspicion among the public that he or she is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his or her trust.

(i) No authority employee employed on a full-time basis nor any firm or association of which such an employee is a member nor authority a substantial portion of the stock of which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such employee should sell goods or services to any person, firm, corporation or association which is licensed or whose rates are fixed by the authority in which such employee serves or is employed.

(j) If any authority employee shall have a financial interest, direct or indirect, having a value of ten thousand dollars or more in any activity which is subject to the jurisdiction of a regulatory agency, he or she should file with the secretary of state a written statement that he or she has such a financial interest in such activity which statement shall be open to public inspection.

4. Violations. In addition to any penalty contained in any other provision of law any such authority employee who shall knowingly and intentionally violate any of the provisions of this section may be fined, suspended or removed from office or employment.

§ 1475-t. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or cancelled, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles, and interest and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the city.

§ 1475-u. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this title shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid and after exhaustion of all further judicial review, the judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this title directly involved in the controversy in which the judgment shall have been rendered.

§ 1475-v. Inconsistent provisions in other laws superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

TITLE 4-A
CITY OF ALBANY PARKING AUTHORITY

§ 1493-a. Short title. This title may be cited as the "City of Albany Parking Authority Act."

§ 1493-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section fourteen hundred ninety-three-c of this title;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of Albany;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interest, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate, in the area of the city;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles or any area or place which use is supported by the authority's parking or storing of such vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities proximate to, on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the city or which facilitates increased supply or demand for parking;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

§ 1493-c. Albany parking authority. A board to be known as "Albany Parking Authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chairman and four other members, who shall be appointed by the mayor, with the advice and consent of the common council. The members shall serve at the pleasure of the mayor. Of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, one for a period of four years, and one for a period of five years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of fifteen years, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met, and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the city.

§ 1493-d. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the city. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the eminent domain procedure law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the city;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees and facilities of the city, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

8. To appoint an attorney, and to fix his compensation;

9. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary;

11. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects;

12. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the city, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

13. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

14. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided however, that neither the authority, the city of Albany or any agency of the authority or city, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this title, and provided further that the location of sites of the projects shall be subject to the prior advice of the planning commission of the city.

§ 1493-e. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the city may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the city who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the city under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the city shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the city civil service commission.

§ 1493-f. Conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city or by the authority. 1. The city may, by resolution or resolutions of the common council or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, and upon appropriate conditions as to outstanding city bonds appertaining thereto, to the authority real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the city but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The city may acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation real property in the city for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, avenues or highways, or for new roads, streets, avenues or highways within a radius of one mile to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. For like purposes, the city may close such streets, roads, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The common council may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the common council may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provisions therefor shall have first been made in the annual appropriations of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each annual appropriation of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may, subject to the approval of the common council of the city of Albany, itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the city at the cost and expense of the authority by gift, purchase, or condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the city. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such property was acquired at the cost and expense of the city, the authority shall have the power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the city, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have the power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals, or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

§ 1493-g. Construction and purchase contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the city, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed five thousand dollars, such contracts may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority. Contracts for the purchase of supplies, material and equipment shall be let in the same manner as is provided by law for contracts of the city.

§ 1493-h. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the treasurer of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The money in such accounts shall be paid out by the treasurer on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by and upon the warrant of the city comptroller. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the treasurer or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or the state of New York at a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The treasurer and his legally authorized representative are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The account of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller and he or his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, sinking funds, investments and any other matter relating to its financial standing and fiscal affairs. The authority shall render a complete annual account of its proceedings to the common council at its first meeting in January of each and every year.

§ 1493-i. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds for any purpose mentioned in section fourteen hundred ninety-three-d hereof, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction and repair of personal and real property of all kinds deemed by the board to be necessary or desirable to carry out such purpose, as well as to pay such expenses as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing the project or projects in operation in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding seventy-five million dollars outstanding at any one time. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues. Notwithstanding the fact that the bonds may be payable from a special fund, if they are otherwise of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code the bonds shall be and are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of article eight of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates as such resolution may provide, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine provided, however, that any private sale shall be subject to the approval of the state comptroller, where such sale is not to the comptroller, or the director of the budget, where such sale is to the comptroller.

3. Any resolution or resolutions, authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to (a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereof, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all the rights, powers and duties of the trustees appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section fourteen hundred ninety-three-p hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims, of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section fourteen hundred ninety-three-h of this title the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section fourteen hundred ninety-three-p upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

§ 1493-j. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue notes and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes) maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any time five million dollars, over and above the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of section fourteen hundred ninety-three-i of this title, for any purpose or purposes for which bonds may be issued, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide funds to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

§ 1493-k. Agreements of the state. 1. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the city of Albany to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members or some of which are elected or are appointed by city officials, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more, provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to impair the right of the city to install and operate parking meters on the public streets of the city.

§ 1493-l. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1493-m. Bonds legal investments for public officers. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1493-n. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city of Albany and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for estate or gift taxes and taxes on transfers.

§ 1493-o. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate or gift taxes and taxes on transfers.

§ 1493-p. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Albany and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or special proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or special proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Albany.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 1493-q. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least ninety days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for ninety days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limit established by, and in compliance with all requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1493-r. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1493-s. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

TITLE 5

CITY OF BUFFALO PARKING AUTHORITY

§ 1500-a. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "city of Buffalo parking authority act".

§ 1500-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section fifteen hundred-c of this title;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of Buffalo;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the authority pursuant to this title relating to bonds and bondholders;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interest, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate, in the area of the city;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the city or which facilitates electric vehicle charging infrastructure;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one covered projects.

8. The term "covered project" shall mean a project located on a public parking facility owned by the city at the time this title shall take effect.

9. The term "Buffalo fiscal stability authority" shall mean the public benefit corporation established pursuant to title two of article ten-D of this chapter.

§ 1500-c. City of Buffalo parking authority. 1. A board to be known as the "city of Buffalo parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chair and four other members, who shall be appointed by the mayor of the city of Buffalo, with the advice and consent of the city of Buffalo common council. The mayor of the city may remove any member of the board for neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving such member a copy of the charges against them and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in their defense upon not less than ten days notice. Of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, one for a period of four years, and one for a period of five years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of a successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chair. The members of the board shall not be compensated for their services, however, members shall be entitled to reimbursement for any actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of such member's official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

2. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of any general, special or local law, ordinance, resolution or charter, no officer, member or employee of the state or of any public authority shall forfeit such officer, member or employee's office or employment by reason of such acceptance of appointment as a member, officer or employee of the authority, nor shall service as such member, officer or employee be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office, membership or employment.

3. (a) The mayor of the city shall file on or before December thirty-first of the year in which this title shall take effect, in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate signed by the mayor setting forth:

(i) the name of the authority;

(ii) the names of the members of the board and their terms of office; and

(iii) the effective date of this title.

(b) If such certificate is not filed with the secretary of state on or before such date, then the corporate existence of the authority shall thereupon terminate and it shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be dissolved.

4. The city of Buffalo parking authority shall not be authorized to exercise the powers, duties, and functions outlined in this article until all initial members and the initial chair are appointed.

§ 1500-d. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to aquire, reconstruct, operate and maintain one or more covered projects in the city. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes;

4. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the covered projects;

5. With the consent of the city, to use agents, employees and facilities of the city, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

6. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

7. To appoint an attorney, who may be the corporation counsel of the city, and to fix such attorney's compensation;

8. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary for its corporate purpose;

9. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary for its corporate purpose;

10. To reconstruct, improve, maintain, repair and operate the covered projects;

11. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the city, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

12. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the covered projects subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided; and

13. To construct, operate or maintain in the covered projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided however, that neither the authority, the city or any agency of the authority or city, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any covered project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this title, and provided further that the location of sites of the covered projects shall be subject to the prior approval of the planning board and common council of the city.

§ 1500-e. Conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city or by the authority. 1. The city may, by resolution or resolutions of the common council or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, and upon appropriate conditions as to outstanding city bonds appertaining thereto, to the authority real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a covered project or covered projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the city but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The city may acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation real property in the city for any of the covered projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, avenues or highways, or for new roads, streets, avenues or highways within a radius of one mile to any of the covered projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. For like purposes, the city may close such streets, roads, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which shall not be closed without the consent of the New York state commissioner of transportation.

3. Subject to the approval of the common council, contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The common council may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the common council may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provisions therefor shall have first been made in the annual appropriations of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each annual appropriation of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may, subject to the approval of the common council of the city, itself acquire real property for a covered project in the name of the city at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a covered project then, if such property was acquired at the cost and expense of the city, the authority shall have the power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the city, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have the power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, subject to applicable provisions of law, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals, or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

§ 1500-f. Construction and purchase contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the city, including but not limited to section one hundred three of the general municipal law. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority. Contracts for the purchase of supplies, material and equipment shall be let in the same manner as is provided by law for contracts of the city.

§ 1500-g. Contract for employees. The authority is hereby authorized to enter into contracts under which such contractor would provide employees to the authority for the purpose of operation and maintenance of the projects of the authority. All employees currently employed by the city or by a contractor to support operations currently managed by the city shall be retained by any contractor retained pursuant to this section. The authority shall not begin operation of any project until such a contract shall be in force. Such contract shall provide that all employees engaged in the operation and maintenance of any authority project shall be employees of the contractor and not employees of the authority. Such employees shall receive their total compensation and any employee benefits directly from the contractor for whom they are employed provided any relevant local regulation, rule or ordinance related to wage shall apply. Except for roles considered to be management or confidential pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law, including the board of the authority, established by section fifteen hundred-c of this title, the authority shall have no employees other than the employees of the contractor pursuant to any contract authorized by this section.

§ 1500-h. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The money in such accounts shall be paid out by the treasurer on requisition of the chair of the authority or of such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by and upon the warrant of the city comptroller. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the treasurer or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or the state of New York or of any municipality of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. To the extent practicable, consistent with the cash requirements of the authority, all such monies shall be deposited in interest bearing accounts. The treasurer and a legally authorized representative of the treasurer are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The account of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the New York state comptroller, and such comptroller or legally authorized representatives of the comptroller are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing and fiscal affairs. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any monies of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested pursuant to section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law in accordance with guidelines established by the board and amended from time to time. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders and with the approval of the state comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts, provided however, the authority shall render a complete annual account of its proceedings to the common council at its first meeting in January of each and every year. The authority shall enter into agreement with the city to pay and transfer a certain portion of excess revenues of the authority to the city each fiscal year. Within ninety days after the end of each fiscal year, an annual financial and management audit of the authority's performance and operations shall be prepared by an independent certified public accountancy firm. Such firm shall be chosen from an approved list of auditors prescribed by the city comptroller, the expense of which shall be treated as an expense of the authority.

§ 1500-i. Bonds or notes of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, notes, or other obligations in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code to: (a) pay the cost of acquisition of property in any covered project; (b) pay the cost of reconstructing, maintaining, improving or repairing any covered project; (c) pay such expenses as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing such covered project in operation; (d) establish reserves to secure the bonds; and (e) pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the bonds and the payment of incidental expenses in connection therewith. The aggregate principal amount of such bonds, notes or other obligations shall not exceed sixty-five million dollars, excluding bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund or repay bonds, notes or other obligations therefore issued for such purposes; provided, however, that upon any such refunding or repayment the total aggregate principal amount of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations may be greater than sixty-five million dollars, only if the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations to be issued shall not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so to be refunded or repaid. For the purpose of this section, the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations refunded or repaid shall be calculated by utilizing the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations from payment of dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations and to the price bid including estimated accrued interest from the sale thereof. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to enter into such agreements and perform such acts as may be required under any applicable federal law, rule or regulation to secure a federal guarantee to any bonds. With respect to any proposed borrowing by the authority, the authority shall notify the Buffalo fiscal stability authority of each proposed issue of bonds or notes to be issued to give the Buffalo fiscal stability authority an opportunity to review the terms of and comment on the prudence of each proposed issue of bonds or notes to be issued by the parking authority for a period of no less than ten days prior to issuing such bonds or notes.

2. The authority shall have the power from time to time to renew bonds or to issue renewal bonds for such purpose, to issue bonds to pay bonds, and, whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bond by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds, partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose of the authority. Bonds issued for refunding purposes shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds or notes to be refunded.

3. Bonds issued by the authority may be general obligations secured by the faith and credit of the authority or may be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other monies as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject as to priority only to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular property, revenues or monies. The authority may also enter into loan agreements, lines of credit and other security agreements and obtain for or on its behalf letters of credit, insurance, guarantees or other credit enhancements to the extent now or hereafter available, in each case for securing its bonds or to provide direct payment of any costs which the authority is authorized to pay.

4. (a) Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority be in such denominations and bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times, as such resolution may provide, provided that bonds and renewals thereof shall mature within thirty years from the date of original issuance of any such bonds.

(b) Bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates, be payable at such times, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section shall be sold to the bidder offering the lowest true interest cost, taking into consideration any premium or discount not less than four nor more than fifteen days, Sunday excepted, after a notice of such sale has been published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the area served by the authority, which shall state the terms of the sale. The terms of the sale may not change unless notice of such change is published in such newspaper at least one day prior to the date of the sale as set forth in the original notice of sale. Advertisements shall contain a provision to the effect that the authority, in its discretion, may reject any or all bids made pursuant to such advertisements, and in the event of such rejection, the authority is authorized to negotiate a private or public sale or readvertise for bids in the form and manner described above in this paragraph as many times as, in its judgment, may be necessary to effect satisfactory sale.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, whenever in the judgment of the authority the interests of the authority will be served thereby, the board, on the written recommendation of the chairperson may authorize the sale of such bonds at private or public sale on a negotiated basis or on either a competitive or negotiated basis. The authority shall set guidelines governing the terms and conditions of any such private or public sales. The private or public bond sale guidelines set by the authority shall include, but not be limited to, a requirement that where the interests of the authority will be served by a private or public sale of bonds, the authority shall select underwriters taking into account, among other things, qualifications of underwriters as to experience, their ability to structure and sell authority bond issues, anticipated costs to the authority, the prior experience of the authority with the firm, if any, the capitalization of such firms, participation of qualified minority and women-owned business enterprise firms in such private or public sales of bonds of the authority and the experience and ability of firms under consideration to work with minority and women-owned business enterprises so as to promote and assist participation by such enterprises.

(d) The authority shall have the power from time to time to amend such private bond sale guidelines in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

(e) No private or public bond sale on a negotiated basis shall be conducted by the authority without prior approval of the state comptroller. The authority shall annually prepare and approve a bond sale report which shall include the private or public bond sale guidelines as specified in this subdivision, amendments to such guidelines since the last private or public bond sale report, an explanation of the bond sale guidelines and amendments, and the results of any sale of bonds conducted during the fiscal year. Such bond sale report may be a part of any other annual report that the authority is required to make.

(f) The authority shall annually submit its bond sale report to the Buffalo fiscal stability authority and the state comptroller and copies thereof to the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee.

(g) The authority shall make available to the public copies of its bond sale report upon reasonable request thereof.

(h) Nothing contained in this subdivision shall be deemed to alter, affect the validity of, modify the terms of, or impair any contract or agreement made or entered into in violation of, or without compliance with, the provisions of this subdivision.

5. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds by the authority may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) pledging all or part of the revenues, together with any other monies or property of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, or any costs of issuance thereof, including but not limited to, any contracts, earnings or proceeds of any grant to the authority received from any private or public source subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(c) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(d) the rates, rents, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected by the authority and the amount to be raised in each year thereby and the use and disposition of revenues;

(e) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the covered project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or monies may be deposited;

(i) the terms and provisions of any trust, mortgage, deed or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(j) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustees appointed by the bondholders pursuant to this title or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(l) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any covered project or any part thereof or other property;

(m) limitations on the amount of revenues and other monies to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other monies to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(o) any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of the bondholders.

6. In addition to the powers conferred by this section upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have the power in connection with the issuance of bonds to adopt resolutions and enter into such trust indentures, agreements or other instruments as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other monies or property, including the mortgaging of any property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, monies or property and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments. The provisions of any such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

7. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, monies, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

8. Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

9. Neither the members nor the officers of the authority nor any person executing its bonds shall be liable personally on its bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

10. Subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist, the authority shall have the power to purchase the bonds of the authority, in lieu of redemption, out of any funds available therefor, at a price not exceeding, if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date, or, if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date. Bonds so purchased shall there upon be canceled.

11. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with the applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed two years from the date of issue of such original note.

§ 1500-j. Agreements of New York state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title and with those persons or public authorities who may enter into contracts with the authority pursuant to the provisions of this title that the state will not alter, limit or impair the rights vested in the authority by this title to purchase, construct, own and operate, maintain, repair, improve, reconstruct, renovate, rehabilitate, enlarge, increase and extend, or dispose of any covered project, or any part or parts thereof for which bonds of the authority shall have been issued, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges referred to in this title, to fulfill the terms of any contracts or agreements made with or for the benefit of the holders of the bonds, or with any person or public authority with reference to such covered project or part thereof, or in any way to impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, including interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders of bonds, are fully met and discharged and such contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of bonds.

§ 1500-k. Agreements of the city. 1. The city is authorized to pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title and with those persons or public authorities who may enter into contracts with the authority pursuant to the provisions of this title that the city will not alter, limit or impair the rights hereby vested in the authority by this title to purchase, construct, own and operate, maintain, repair, improve, reconstruct, renovate, rehabilitate, enlarge, increase and extend, or dispose of any covered project, or any part or parts thereof, for which bonds of the authority shall have been issued, to establish, collect and adjust rates, rents, fees and other charges referred to in this title, to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds or with any public authority or person with reference to such project or part thereof, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders of bonds, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, including interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders of bonds, are fully met and discharged and such contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and subject to approval by the common council and the mayor, to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem to be in the public interest, that no public parking areas except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members or some of which are elected or are appointed by city officials, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more, provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to impair the right of the city to install and operate parking meters on the public streets of the city.

§ 1500-l. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1500-m. Bonds legal investments for public officers. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1500-n. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for estate or gift taxes and taxes on transfers.

§ 1500-o. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate or gift taxes and taxes on transfers.

§ 1500-p. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Erie and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in such trustee's own name:

(a) by action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or special proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or special proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Erie.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the covered project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the covered project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the covered project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the covered project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the covered project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 1500-q. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least ninety days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for ninety days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limit established by, and in compliance with all requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1500-r. Defense and indemnification. The authority shall not execute any of its powers, except as necessary to commence its corporate existence, until the authority confers upon its members the provisions of section eighteen of the public officers law, pursuant to subdivision two of such section; provided, however, that nothing contained within this section shall be deemed to permit the authority to extend the provisions of section eighteen of the public officers law upon any independent contractor.

§ 1500-s. Code of ethics. 1. As used in this section, the term "authority employee" shall mean any member, officer, employee, or contracted employee of the authority.

2. No authority employee shall have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engage in any business or transaction or professional activity or incur any obligation of any nature, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of such authority employee's duties in the public interest.

3. (a) No authority employee shall accept other employment, which will impair such authority employee's independence of judgment in the exercise of such employee's official duties.

(b) No authority employee shall accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which will require the employee to disclose confidential information which such employee has gained by reason of their official position or authority.

(c) No authority employee shall disclose confidential information acquired by the employee in the course of such employee's official duties nor use such information to further any personal interests.

(d) No authority employee shall use or attempt to use such employee's official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for personal gain or the personal gain of others.

(e) No authority employee shall engage in any transaction as representative or agent of the authority with any business entity in which such employee has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with the proper discharge of such employee's official duties.

(f) An authority employee shall not by such employee's conduct give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence such employee or unduly enjoy such employee's favor in the performance of their official duties, or that such employee is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person.

(g) An authority employee shall abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which such authority employee has reason to believe may be directly involved in decisions to be made by the employee or which will otherwise create substantial conflict between such employee's duty in the public interest and their private interest.

(h) An authority employee shall endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not raise suspicion among the public that such employee is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of public trust.

(i) No authority employee who is employed on a full-time basis by any firm, company, or association, is a member of such firm, company or, association, or owns or controls, directly or indirectly, a substantial portion of stock of such firm, company, or association which sells goods or services shall sell such goods or services to any person, firm, corporation or association which is licensed or whose rates are fixed by the authority in which such employee serves or is employed.

(j) If any authority employee shall have any financial interest, direct or indirect, having a value of ten thousand dollars or more in any activity which is subject to the jurisdiction of a regulatory agency, such authority employee shall file with the secretary of state a written statement that such employee has such a financial interest in such activity. Such statement shall be open to public inspection.

4. In addition to any applicable provision of law, any authority employee who shall knowingly and intentionally violate any of the provisions of this section may be fined, suspended, or removed from office or employment.

§ 1500-t. Contracting for municipal services. In addition to any other general or special powers vested in public benefit corporations for the performance of their respective functions, powers or duties on an individual, cooperative, joint, or contract basis, the authority shall have power to enter into, amend, cancel, and terminate agreements with the city of Buffalo for the provision and reimbursement of services. Any agreement entered into hereunder shall be subject to prior approval of the common council of the city of Buffalo and the authority by a majority vote of the voting strength of its governing body.

§ 1500-u. Termination of authority. Whenever all bonds or notes issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or cancelled, and all transactions, debt, and such other obligations have been satisfied or otherwise terminated, the agency shall cease to exist and all rights, titles, interest, and assets thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the city of Buffalo.

§ 1500-v. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1500-w. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* TITLE 7

TUCKAHOE PARKING AUTHORITY

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 A7 T7's

 § 1545. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Tuckahoe parking authority act."

* NB Dissolved December 1977

 § 1546. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section fifteen hundred forty-seven of this title;

2. The term "village" shall mean the village of Tuckahoe;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate, in the area of the village;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the village;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

 § 1547. Tuckahoe parking authority. A board to be known as "Tuckahoe parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chairman and four other members, who shall be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the board of trustees of the village. Of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, one for a period of four years, and one for a period of five years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The board of trustees may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of five years, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the village.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

 § 1548. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the village. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire, in the name of the village by purchase or condemnation, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the condemnation law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the village;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the village to use agents, employees and facilities of the village, paying to the village its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

8. To appoint an attorney, who may be the corporation counsel, and to fix his compensation;

9. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary;

11. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects;

12. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the village, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

13. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

14. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the village of Tuckahoe, or any agency of the authority or village, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this title.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

 § 1549. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the village may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the village who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the village under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the village shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the village civil service commission.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

 § 1550. Conveyance of property by the village to the authority; acquisition of property by the village or by the authority. 1. The village may, by resolution or resolutions of the board of trustees or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority real and personal property owned by the village for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the village but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The village may acquire in the name of the village by purchase or condemnation real property in the village for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, avenues or highways, or for new roads, streets, avenues or highways, within a radius of one mile to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other village purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the village. For like purposes, the village may close such streets, roads, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the village and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the village to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the village and so conveyed, the streets, roads, avenues, and highways to be closed by the village and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain convenants by the village as to the road, street, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the village. Any such contracts between the village and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The board of trustees may authorize such contracts between the village and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the village for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the village and in such manner as the board of trustees may determine, and the payments required to be made by the village may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the village. All contractual or other obligations of the village incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the village thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the village at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the village. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the village, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the village, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals, or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1550's

 § 1551. Construction contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the village, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed five hundred dollars, such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1551's

 § 1552. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the treasurer of the village as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the treasurer on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by the treasurer. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the treasurer or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The treasurer and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller and he or his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, sinking funds, investments and any other matter relating to its financial standing and fiscal affairs. The authority shall render a complete annual account of its proceedings to the board of trustees at its first meeting in January of each and every year.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1552's

 § 1553. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any purpose mentioned in section fifteen hundred forty-eight hereof, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction and repair of personal and real property of all kinds deemed by the board to be necessary or desirable to carry out such purposes, as well as to pay such expenses as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing the project or projects in operation in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding one million dollars outstanding at any one time. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding five per centum per annum payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, but which shall not at the time of sale yield more than five per centum per annum.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all the rights, powers and duties of the trustees appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section fifteen hundred sixty hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims, of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section fifteen hundred fifty-two of this title the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section fifteen hundred sixty upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1553's

 § 1554. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue its negotiable notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes) maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any time one hundred thousand dollars, over and above the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of section fifteen hundred fifty-three of this title, for any purpose or purposes for which bonds may be issued, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide funds to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1554's

 § 1555. Agreements of the village. 1. The village of Tuckahoe is authorized to pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the village will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the village of Tuckahoe to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the village by the village, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members or some of which are elected or are appointed by village officials, until either

(a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or

(b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1555's

 § 1556. State and village not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the village, and neither the state nor the village shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1556's

 § 1557. Bonds legal investments for public officers. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them, provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1557's

 § 1558. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the village of Tuckahoe and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1558's

 § 1559. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1559's

 § 1560. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Westchester and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by suit, action or special proceedings enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds:

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Westchester.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

* NB Dissolved December 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1560's

 § 1561. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least ninety days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for ninety days after such presentment.

2. An action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of intention to commence such action and of the time when and place where the damages or personal injuries or death were incurred or sustained, together with a verified statement showing in detail the property alleged to have been damaged or destroyed and the value thereof, or the personal injuries alleged to have been sustained and by whom, shall have been filed with the secretary of the authority in the principal office of the authority within six months after such cause of action shall have accrued.

* NB Dissolved December 1977
* NB There are 2 § 1561's

 § 1562. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or cancelled, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles and interest and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the village of Tuckahoe.

* NB Dissolved December 1977
* NB There are 2 § 1562's

 § 1563. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB Dissolved December 1977
* NB There are 2 § 1563's

 § 1564. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the village, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.
* NB Dissolved December 1977
* NB There are 2 § 1564's

* TITLE 7

ENDICOTT PARKING AUTHORITY

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 A7 T7's

 § 1550. Short title. This title may be cited as the Endicott parking authority act.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977
* NB There are 2 § 1550's

 § 1551. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section entitled "Endicott parking authority";

2. The term "village" shall mean the village of Endicott;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate; in the area of the village;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the village;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1551's

 § 1552. Endicott parking authority. A board to be known as "Endicott parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chairman and four other members, who shall be appointed by the board of trustees of the village. Of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, one for a period of four years, and one for a period of five years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled by the village board of trustees for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The village board of trustees may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten days notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of five years, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the village.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977
* NB There are 2 § 1552's

 § 1553. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the village. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire in the name of the village by purchase or condemnation, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the condemnation law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the village;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the village to use agents, employees, and facilities of the village, paying to the village its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

8. To appoint an attorney, who may be the corporation counsel, and to fix his compensation;

9. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary;

11. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects:

12. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the village, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

13. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

14. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the village of Endicott, or any agency of the authority or village, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this section; provided further, that the location of sites of the projects shall be subject to the prior approval of the board of trustees of the village.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1553's

 § 1554. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the village may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the village who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the village under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the village shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the village civil service commission.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1554's

 § 1555. Conveyance of property by the village to the authority; acquisition of property by the village or by the authority. 1. The village may, by resolution or resolutions of the village board of trustees or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority real and personal property owned by the village for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the village but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The village may acquire in the name of the village by purchase or condemnation real property in the village for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, avenues or highways or for new roads, streets, avenues or highways, within a radius of one mile to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other village purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the village. For like purposes, the village may close such streets, roads, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the village and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the village to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the village and so conveyed, the streets, roads, avenues, and highways to be closed by the village and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the village as to the road, street, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the village. Any such contracts between the village and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The village board of trustees may authorize such contracts between the village and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the village for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the village and in such manner as the village board of trustees may determine, and the payments required to be made by the village may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the village. All contractual or other obligations of the village incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the village thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the village at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the village. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project

then, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the village, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the village, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals, or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1555's

 § 1556. Construction or purchase contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction or purchase in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the village, except that where a construction contract involves an expenditure of five thousand dollars or less or a purchase contract involves an expenditure of three thousand dollars or less, such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1556's

 § 1557. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the treasurer of the village as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the village treasurer on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by the village treasurer. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the village treasurer or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The village treasurer and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1557's

 § 1558. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any purpose mentioned in section entitled, purpose and powers of the authority, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction and repair of personal and real property of all kinds deemed by the board to be necessary or desirable to carry out such purpose, as well as to pay such expenses as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing the project or projects in operation in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding one million dollars outstanding at any one time. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding five per centum per annum payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, but which shall not at the time of sale yield more than five per centum per annum.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues:

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section one thousand five hundred sixty-five hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section entitled moneys of the authority, the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section entitled remedies of bondholders upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1558's

 § 1559. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue its negotiable notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes) maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any time one hundred thousand dollars, over and above the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of bonds of the authority, for any purpose or purposes for which bonds may be issued, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide funds to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1559's

 § 1560. Agreements of the village. 1. The village of Endicott is authorized to pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the village will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the village of Endicott to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the village by the village, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members or some of which are elected or are appointed by village officials, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1560's

 § 1561. State and village not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the village, and neither the state nor the village shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1561's

 § 1562. Bonds legal investments for public officers. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1562's

 § 1563. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the village of Endicott and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1563's

§ 1564. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

* NB There are 2 § 1564's

 § 1565. Remedies of bondholders. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Broome and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name.

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bond;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Broome.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver, or any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

  * NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

 § 1566. Actions against the authority. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of intention to commence such action and of the time when and place where the damages or personal injuries were incurred or sustained, together with a verified statement showing in detail the property alleged to have been damaged or destroyed and the value thereof, or the personal injuries alleged to have been sustained and by whom, shall have been filed with the secretary of the authority in the principal office of the authority within six months after such cause of action shall have accrued. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.
  * NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

 § 1567. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

 § 1568. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the village, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.
* NB Dissolved December 31, 1977

TITLE 8-A

HARRISON PARKING AUTHORITY

§ 1570. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Harrison parking authority act".

§ 1570-a. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section fifteen hundred seventy-b of this title;

2. The term "village" shall mean the village of Harrison;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the authority pursuant to this title relating to bonds and bondholders and shall apply with equal force and effect to notes and noteholders, respectively, unless the context otherwise clearly requires;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within such term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate, in the area of the village;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting such definition, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the village;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

§ 1570-b. Harrison parking authority. 1. A board to be known as "Harrison parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as provided in this section. It shall consist of a chairperson, who shall be appointed by the mayor of the village and the village board of trustees, and four board members, who shall be appointed by the mayor of the village and the village board of trustees. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairperson. The mayor of the village may remove any member of the board for neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving such member a copy of the charges against him or her and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his or her defense upon not less than ten days notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue until December thirty-first, two thousand fifty-four, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full, or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the village.

2. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of any general, special or local law, ordinance, resolution or charter, no officer, member or employee of the state or of any public authority shall forfeit his or her office or employment by reason of his or her acceptance of appointment as a member, officer or employee of the authority, nor shall service as such member, officer or employee be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office, membership or employment.

3. The mayor of the village shall file on or before December thirty-first of the year in which this title shall take effect, in the office of the secretary of state, a certificate signed by the mayor setting forth:

(a) the name of the authority;

(b) the names of the members of the board and their terms of office; and

(c) the effective date of this title.

If such certificate is not filed with the secretary of state on or before such date, then the corporate existence of the authority shall thereupon terminate and it shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be dissolved.

§ 1570-c. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the village. To carry out such purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire in the name of the village by purchase or condemnation, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the eminent domain procedure law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the village;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the village to use agents, employees and facilities of the village, paying to the village its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as provided in this title;

8. To appoint an attorney, who may be the corporation counsel, and to fix his or her compensation;

9. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary;

11. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects;

12. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the village, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

13. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as provided in this title;

14. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the village nor any agency of the authority or the village, nor any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this title; and

15. To do all things necessary, convenient or desirable, including ancillary and incidental activities, to carry out its purposes and for the exercise of the powers granted in this title.

§ 1570-d. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the village may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the village who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the village under the rules of the municipal civil service commission or personnel officer of the county shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the municipal civil service commission or personnel officer of the county.

§ 1570-e. Conveyance of property by the village to the authority; acquisition of property by the village or by the authority. 1. The village may, by resolution or resolutions of the board of trustees of the village or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, and upon appropriate conditions as to outstanding village bonds appertaining thereto, to the authority real and personal property owned by the village for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the village but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The village may acquire in the name of the village by purchase or condemnation real property in the village for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, avenues or highways, or for new roads, streets, avenues or highways within a radius of one mile to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other village purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the village. For like purposes, the village may close such streets, roads, avenues or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which shall not be closed without the consent of the commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the village and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the village to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the village and so conveyed, the streets, roads, avenues and highways to be closed by the village, and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the village as to the road, street, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the village. Any such contracts between the village and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and shall not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The board of trustees of the village may authorize such contracts between the village and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the village for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the village and in such manner as the board of trustees of the village may determine, and the payments required to be made by the village may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provisions therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the village. All contractual or other obligations of the village incurred in carrying out the provision of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the village thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the village at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the village. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such property was acquired at the cost and expense of the village, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the village, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have the power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

§ 1570-f. Construction contracts. 1. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the village, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed five thousand dollars, such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

2. For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law only, the authority shall be deemed a state agency as that term is used in such article, and all contracts for procurement, design, construction, services and materials shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article.

§ 1570-g. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the village, as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The money in such accounts shall be paid out by such treasurer on requisition of the chairperson of the authority or of such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by and upon the warrant of the treasurer of the village. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by such treasurer or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or the state of New York or of any municipality of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. To the extent practicable, consistent with the cash requirements of the authority, all such monies shall be deposited in interest bearing accounts. The treasurer of the village and his or her legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any monies of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested pursuant to section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law in accordance with guidelines established by the board and amended from time to time. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders and with the approval of the state comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

§ 1570-h. Bonds or notes of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, notes or other obligations in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code to pay the cost of any project, or for any other corporate purpose, the establishment of reserves to secure the bonds, the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the bonds and the payment of incidental expenses in connection therewith. The aggregate principal amount of such bonds, notes or other obligations shall not exceed twenty million dollars, excluding bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund or repay bonds, notes or other obligations therefore issued for such purposes; provided, however, that upon any such refunding or repayment the total aggregate principal amount of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations may be greater than twenty million dollars, only if the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations to be issued shall not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations so to be refunded or repaid. For the purpose of this section, the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations and the aggregate debt service of the bonds, notes or other obligations refunded or repaid shall be calculated by utilizing the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations from payment of dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment of bonds, notes or other obligations and to the price bid including estimated accrued interest from the sale thereof. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to enter into such agreements and perform such acts as may be required under any applicable federal law, rule or regulation to secure a federal guarantee to any bonds.

2. The authority shall have the power from time to time to renew bonds or to issue renewal bonds for such purpose, to issue bonds to pay bonds, and, whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bond by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds, partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose of the authority. Bonds issued for refunding purposes shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds or notes to be refunded.

3. Bonds issued by the authority may be general obligations secured by the faith and credit of the authority or may be special obligations payable solely out of particular revenues or other monies as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject as to priority only to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular property, revenues or monies. The authority may also enter into loan agreements, lines of credit and other security agreements and obtain for or on its behalf letters of credit, insurance, guarantees or other credit enhancements to the extent now or hereafter available, in each case for securing its bonds or to provide direct payment of any costs which the authority is authorized to pay.

4. (a) Bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, be in such denominations and bear such date or dates and mature at such time or times, as such resolution may provide, provided that bonds and renewals thereof shall mature within thirty years from the date of original issuance of any such bonds.

(b) Bonds shall be subject to such terms of redemption, bear interest at such rate or rates, be payable at such times, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms and conditions as such resolution may provide. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section shall be sold to the bidder offering the lowest true interest cost, taking into consideration any premium or discount not less than four nor more than fifteen days, Sunday excepted, after a notice of such sale has been published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the area served by the authority, which shall state the terms of the sale. The terms of the sale may not change unless notice of such change is published in such newspaper at least one day prior to the date of the sale as set forth in the original notice of sale. Advertisements shall contain a provision to the effect that the authority, in its discretion, may reject any or all bids made pursuant to such advertisements, and in the event of such rejection, the authority is authorized to negotiate a private or public sale or readvertise for bids in the form and manner described above in this paragraph as many times as, in its judgment, may be necessary to effect satisfactory sale.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, whenever in the judgment of the authority the interests of the authority will be served thereby, the board, on the written recommendation of the chairperson may authorize the sale of such bonds at private or public sale on a negotiated basis or on either a competitive or negotiated basis. The authority shall set guidelines governing the terms and conditions of any such private or public sales. The private or public bond sale guidelines set by the authority shall include, but not be limited to, a requirement that where the interests of the authority will be served by a private or public sale of bonds, the authority shall select underwriters taking into account, among other things, qualifications of underwriters as to experience, their ability to structure and sell authority bond issues, anticipated costs to the authority, the prior experience of the authority with the firm, if any, the capitalization of such firms, participation of qualified minority and women-owned business enterprise firms in such private or public sales of bonds of the authority and the experience and ability of firms under consideration to work with minority and women-owned business enterprises so as to promote and assist participation by such enterprises.

(d) The authority shall have the power from time to time to amend such private bond sale guidelines in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

(e) No private or public bond sale on a negotiated basis shall be conducted by the authority without prior approval of the state comptroller. The authority shall annually prepare and approve a bond sale report which shall include the private or public bond sale guidelines as specified in this subdivision, amendments to such guidelines since the last private or public bond sale report, an explanation of the bond sale guidelines and amendments, and the results of any sale of bonds conducted during the fiscal year. Such bond sale report may be a part of any other annual report that the authority is required to make.

(f) The authority shall annually submit its bond sale report to the state comptroller and copies thereof to the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee.

(g) The authority shall make available to the public copies of its bond sale report upon reasonable request thereof.

(h) Nothing contained in this subdivision shall be deemed to alter, affect the validity of, modify the terms of, or impair any contract or agreement made or entered into in violation of, or without compliance with, the provisions of this subdivision.

5. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds or any issue of bonds by the authority may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized as to:

(a) Pledging all or part of the revenues, together with any other monies or property of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, or any costs of issuance thereof, including but not limited to, any contracts, earnings or proceeds of any grant to the authority received from any private or public source subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) The setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(c) Limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale of bonds may be applied;

(d) The rates, rents, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected by the authority and the amount to be raised in each year thereby and the use and disposition of revenues;

(e) Limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of the project or part thereof in connection with which bonds are issued;

(f) Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, including the proportion of bondholders which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) The creation of special funds into which any revenues or monies may be deposited;

(i) The terms and provisions of any trust, mortgage, deed or indenture securing the bonds under which the bonds may be issued;

(j) Vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustees appointed by the bondholders pursuant to this title or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(k) Defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(l) Limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any project or any part thereof or other property;

(m) Limitations on the amount of revenues and other monies to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(n) The payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other monies to a trustee or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(o) Any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or the rights and remedies of the bondholders.

6. In addition to the powers conferred by this section upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have the power in connection with the issuance of bonds to adopt resolutions and enter into such trust indentures, agreements or other instruments as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other monies or property, including the mortgaging of any property and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, monies or property and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments. The provisions of any such resolutions, trust indentures, agreements or other instruments may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

7. Any provision of the uniform commercial code to the contrary notwithstanding, any pledge of or other security interest in revenues, monies, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge is made or other security interest attaches without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act, and the lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed.

8. Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

9. Neither the members nor the officers of the authority nor any person executing its bonds shall be liable personally on its bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

10. Subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist, the authority shall have the power to purchase the bonds of the authority, in lieu of redemption, out of any funds available therefor, at a price not exceeding, if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date, or, if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date. Bonds so purchased shall thereupon be canceled.

11. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bond anticipation notes in conformity with the applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and may renew the same from time to time but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed two years from the date of issue of such original note.

§ 1570-i. Agreement with state. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title and with those persons or public authorities who may enter into contracts with the authority pursuant to the provisions of this title that the state will not alter, limit or impair the rights vested in the authority by this title to purchase, construct, own and operate, maintain, repair, improve, reconstruct, renovate, rehabilitate, enlarge, increase and extend, or dispose of any project, or any part or parts thereof for which bonds of the authority shall have been issued, to establish and collect rates, rents, fees and other charges referred to in this title, to fulfill the terms of any contracts or agreements made with or for the benefit of the holders of bonds or with any person or public authority with reference to such project or part thereof, or in any way to impair the rights and remedies of the holders of bonds, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, including interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders of bonds, are fully met and discharged and such contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of bonds. Nothing contained in this title shall be deemed to restrict the right of the state to amend, modify, repeal or otherwise alter laws, ordinances, resolutions or agreements imposing or relating to taxes or fees, or appropriations relating thereto. There shall not be included in any resolution, contract or agreement with holders of the bonds or other obligations any provision which provides that a default shall occur as a result of the state exercising its right to amend, repeal, modify or otherwise alter such laws, ordinances, resolutions or agreements.

§ 1570-j. Agreements of the village. 1. The village is authorized to pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title and with those persons or public authorities who may enter into contracts with the authority pursuant to the provisions of this title that the village will not alter, limit or impair the rights hereby vested in the authority by this title to purchase, construct, own and operate, maintain, repair, improve, reconstruct, renovate, rehabilitate, enlarge, increase and extend, or dispose of any project, or any part or parts thereof, for which bonds of the authority shall have been issued, to establish, collect and adjust rates, rents, fees and other charges referred to in this title, to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds or with any public authority or person with reference to such project or part thereof, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders of bonds, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, including interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders of bonds, are fully met and discharged and such contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority. Nothing contained in this title shall be deemed to restrict any right of the village to amend, modify, or otherwise alter local laws, ordinances, resolutions or agreements imposing or relating to taxes or fees or appropriations relating thereto. There shall not be included in any resolution, contract or agreement with the holders of its bonds or other obligations any provision which provides that a default shall occur as a result of the village exercising its right to amend, repeal, modify or otherwise alter such laws, ordinances, resolutions or agreements.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and subject to approval by the village board of trustees and the mayor, to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem to be in the public interest, that no public parking areas except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the village by the village, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members or some of which are elected or are appointed by village officials, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more, provided that nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to impair the right of the village to install and operate parking meters on the public streets of the village.

§ 1570-k. State and village not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the village, and neither the state nor the village shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1570-l. Bonds; legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever except as otherwise provided in this section, who are authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. Such bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is authorized.

§ 1570-m. Tax exemptions and tax contract by the state. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and is a public purpose. Accordingly, the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title, and the authority shall not be required to pay any fees, taxes, special ad valorem levies or assessments of any kind, whether state or local, including but not limited to fees, taxes, special ad valorem levies or assessments on real property, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other taxes, upon or with respect to any property owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision, or upon the uses thereof, or upon or with respect to its activities or operations in furtherance of the powers conferred upon it by this title, or upon or with respect to any fares, tolls, rentals, rates, charges, fees, revenues or other income received by the authority.

2. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title together with the income therefrom shall at all times be exempt from taxation.

3. The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom and all revenues, monies and other property pledged to pay or to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from taxation.

4. The authority may pay, or may enter into agreements with the county of Westchester or any municipality to pay, a sum or sums annually or otherwise or to provide other considerations with respect to the real property owned by the authority located within such county or any such municipality.

§ 1570-n. Audit and annual reports. 1. In conformity with the provisions of section five of article ten of the constitution, the accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller and an annual audit shall be performed by an independent certified public accountant. The authority shall annually submit to the county legislature of the county of Westchester, governor, state comptroller, chairperson of the senate finance committee and chairperson of the assembly ways and means committee a detailed report pursuant to the provisions of section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter, and a copy of such report shall be filed with the clerk of such county legislature.

2. The authority shall render a complete annual account of its proceedings to the board of trustees of the village at its first meeting in January of each and every year.

§ 1570-o. Remedies of bondholders. Subject to any resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to this title:

1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Westchester and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes provided in this section.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Westchester.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the powers specified in this section, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth in this section or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 1570-p. Actions against the authority. 1. Except in an action for wrongful death, no action or special proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority, its members, officers or employees for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence, tort or wrongful act of the authority or of any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, unless (a) notice of claims shall have been made and served upon the authority within the time limit set by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law, and (b) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused, and the action or special proceeding shall be commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

2. Whenever a notice of claim is served upon the authority, it shall have the right to demand an examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

3. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

4. Any action or proceeding to which the authority or the people of the state may be parties, in which any question arises as to the validity of this title, shall be preferred over all other civil causes of action or cases, except election causes of action or cases, in all courts of the state and shall be heard and determined in preference to all other civil business pending therein except election causes, irrespective of position on the calendar. The same preference shall be granted upon application of the authority or its counsel in any action or proceeding questioning the validity of this title in which the authority may be allowed to intervene. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the supreme court of the county of Westchester.

5. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority upon any judgment for which it is liable, other than a judgment on its bonds, shall be the rate prescribed by section five thousand four of the civil practice law and rules. Interest on payments of principal or interest on any bonds in default shall accrue at the rate borne by such bonds from the due date thereof until paid or otherwise satisfied.

6. All actions or proceedings against the authority of whatever nature shall be brought in the supreme court of the county of Westchester.

§ 1570-q. Defense and indemnification. The authority shall not execute any of its powers except as necessary to commence its corporate existence, until it has elected to make the provision of section eighteen of the public officers law applicable to its employees (as such term is defined in such section) pursuant to subdivision two of such section; provided, however, that nothing contained within this section shall be deemed to permit the authority to extend the provisions of section eighteen of the public officers law upon any independent contractor.

§ 1570-r. Code of ethics. 1. Definition. As used in this section, the term "authority employee" shall mean any member, officer or employee of the authority.

2. Rule with respect to conflicts of interest. No authority employee shall have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engage in any business or transaction or professional activity or incur any obligation of any nature, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest.

3. Standards. (a) No authority employee shall accept other employment, which will impair his or her independence of judgment in the exercise of his or her official duties.

(b) No authority employee shall accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which will require the employee to disclose confidential information which he or she has gained by reason of his or her official position or authority.

(c) No authority employee shall disclose confidential information acquired by the employee in the course of his or her official duties nor use such information to further his or her personal interests.

(d) No authority employee shall use or attempt to use his or her official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for him or herself or others.

(e) No authority employee shall engage in any transaction as representative or agent of the authority with any business entity in which he or she has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with the proper discharge of his or her official duties.

(f) An authority employee shall not by his or her conduct give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence such employee or unduly enjoy his or her favor in the performance of his or her official duties, or that he or she is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person.

(g) An authority employee shall abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which he or she has reason to believe may be directly involved in decisions to be made by the employee or which will otherwise create substantial conflict between his or her duty in the public interest and his or her private interest.

(h) An authority employee shall endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not raise suspicion among the public that he or she is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his or her trust.

(i) No authority employee employed on a full-time basis nor any firm or association of which such an employee is a member nor authority a substantial portion of the stock of which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such employee, shall sell goods or services to any person, firm, corporation or association which is licensed or whose rates are fixed by the authority in which such employee serves or is employed.

(j) If any authority employee shall have a financial interest, direct or indirect, having a value of ten thousand dollars or more in any activity which is subject to the jurisdiction of a regulatory agency, he or she shall file with the secretary of state a written statement that he or she has such a financial interest in such activity which statement shall be open to public inspection.

4. Violations. In addition to any penalty contained in any other provision of law, any authority employee who shall knowingly and intentionally violate any of the provisions of this section may be fined, suspended or removed from office or employment.

§ 1570-s. Equal employment opportunity. The authority shall ensure that all employees or applicants for employment are afforded equal employment opportunity without discrimination.

§ 1570-t. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or cancelled, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles, and interest and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the village.

§ 1570-u. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1570-v. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other provision of law, or of any local law of the village, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

TITLE 11

CITY OF YONKERS PARKING AUTHORITY

§ 1596-a. Short title. This title may be cited as the "City of Yonkers parking authority act".

§ 1596-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section fifteen hundred ninety-six-c of this title;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of Yonkers;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

§ 1596-c. City of Yonkers parking authority. A board to be known as "City of Yonkers parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chairman, appointed by the mayor of the city of Yonkers, and four other members, who shall also be appointed by the mayor. The appointment of the chairman shall be for a term of five years and of each of the other members for terms of one, two, three and four years from the first day of April, nineteen hundred sixty-four. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years so that the term of office of one-fifth of such members shall expire on the thirty-first day of March in each year. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of such term, shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The mayor may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only to the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred ninety-nine, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the city.

§ 1596-d. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the city. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation, and use real property necessary or convenient. All real property acquired by condemnation by the authority shall be acquired in the manner provided in the condemnation law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the city;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees, and facilities of the city, including the corporation counsel, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

7-a. To designate officers and employees, appointed or used by the authority, as hereinabove specified, who shall be empowered to issue appearance tickets as provided for in article one hundred fifty of the criminal procedure law. Persons so designated are hereby authorized to issue and serve such tickets for traffic infractions relating to parking within project areas as defined herein, in accordance with law and when authorized by local law of the city to issue and serve such tickets for traffic infractions committed anywhere in the city at parking spaces controlled by parking meters.

8. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

9. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary or convenient;

10. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects;

11. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the city, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

12. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

13. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the city of Yonkers, or any agency of the authority or city, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this title, and provided further that the location of sites of the projects shall be subject to the prior advice of the planning board of the city.

§ 1596-e. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the city may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the city who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the city under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the city shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the city civil service commission.

§ 1596-f. Conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city or by the authority. 1. The city may, by resolution or resolutions of the common council or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the city but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The city may acquire by purchase or condemnation real property in the name of the city for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways or for new roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. The city may close such streets, roads, parkways, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial highways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, parkways, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, parkway, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The common council may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the common council may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the city at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the city. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the city, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the city, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

§ 1596-g. Construction contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the city, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars, such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

§ 1596-h. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the comptroller of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the comptroller of the city on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by the comptroller of the city. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the comptroller of the city or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The comptroller of the city and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller. The authority shall render a complete account of its proceedings to the common council at such time or times as requested to do so by said common council.

§ 1596-i. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any purpose mentioned in section fifteen hundred ninety-six-d of this title, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction and repair of personal and real property of all kinds deemed by the board to be necessary or desirable to carry out such purpose, as well as to pay such expenses as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing the project or projects in operation in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding sixty million dollars. Said bonds must be issued no later than June thirtieth, two thousand thirty-one. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds, including the unpaid balance of the authority's revenue bonds, Series 1999A, dated June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred ninety-nine, the issuance of which is hereby ratified and confirmed, by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine; provided, however, that any private sale shall be subject to the approval of the state comptroller where such sale is not to the comptroller, or the director of the budget where such sale is to the comptroller.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the

authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section fifteen hundred ninety-six-o of this title hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section fifteen hundred ninety-six-h of this title, the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section fifteen hundred ninety-six-o of this title upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

§ 1596-j. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue its negotiable notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes) maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any time seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, over and above the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of section fifteen hundred ninety-six-i of this title, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide funds to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

§ 1596-k. Agreements of the state. 1. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the city of Yonkers, to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas or spaces except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members of which are elected or are appointed by city officials, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more.

§ 1596-l. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1596-m. Bonds legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers, and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever, except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for investment of funds, including capital of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1596-mm. Exemptions from taxation. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city of Yonkers and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

§ 1596-n. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds, shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

§ 1596-o. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Westchester and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Westchester.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any real property necessary or convenient in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 1596-p. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limit established by and in compliance with all requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1596-q. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or canceled, and all its liabilities met or discharged, and the termination date of its corporate existence as set forth in section fifteen hundred ninety-six-c of this title shall have been reached, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles and interests and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the city of Yonkers.

§ 1596-r. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1596-s. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* TITLE 14

CITY OF BINGHAMTON PARKING AUTHORITY

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99
* NB There are 4 A7 T14's

 § 1599-a. Short title. This title may be cited as the "City of Binghamton parking authority act".
* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99
* NB There are 4 § 1599-a's

 § 1599-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section one of this article;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of Binghamton;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-b's

 § 1599-c. City of Binghamton parking authority. A board to be known as "City of Binghamton parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chairman, appointed by the mayor of the city of Binghamton, and four other members, who shall also be appointed by the mayor. The appointment of the chairman shall be for a term of five years and of each of the other members for terms of one, two, three and four years from the first day of July, nineteen hundred sixty-nine. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years so that the term of office of one-fifth of such members shall expire on the thirtieth day of June in each year. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of such term, shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The mayor may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only to the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred ninety-nine, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the city.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-c's

 § 1599-d. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the city. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation, and use real property necessary or convenient. All real property acquired by condemnation by the authority shall be acquired in the manner provided in the condemnation law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the city;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees, and facilities of the city, including the corporation counsel, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

8. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

9. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary or convenient;

10. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects;

11. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the city, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

12. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

13. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the city of Binghamton, or any agency of the authority or city, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this title, and provided further that the location of sites of the projects shall be subject to the prior advice of the planning board of the city.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-d's

 § 1599-e. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the city may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the city who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the city under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the city shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the city civil service commission.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-e's

 § 1599-f. Conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city or by the authority. 1. The city may, by ordinance or ordinances or resolutions of the common council or by instruments authorized by such ordinances, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In the case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the city but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The city may acquire by purchase or condemnation real property in the name of the city for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways or for new roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. The city may close such streets, roads, parkways, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, parkways, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, parkway, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The common council may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the common council may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the city at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the city. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the city, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the city, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-f's

 § 1599-g. Construction contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the city, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars, such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-g's

 § 1599-h. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the comptroller and treasurer of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts.

The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the comptroller and treasurer of the city on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by the comptroller of the city. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the comptroller and treasurer of the city or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The comptroller and the mayor and the members of the common council of the city and their legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller. The authority shall render a complete account of its proceedings to the common council at such time or times as requested to do so by said common council.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-h's

 § 1599-i. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds for any purpose mentioned in section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-d of this title, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction and repair of personal and real property of all kinds deemed by the board to be necessary or desirable to carry out such purpose, as well as to pay such expenses as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing the project or projects in operation in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding twenty million dollars outstanding at any one time. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded; provided, however, that bonds issued or to be issued shall be excluded from such limitation if such bonds are issued to refund bonds of the authority issued in connection with such purposes and the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding bonds does not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service on the bonds refunded thereby. For purposes hereof, the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding bonds and the aggregate debt service of the bonds refunded, shall be calculated by utilizing the true interest cost of the refunding bonds, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding bonds from the payment dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding bonds to the purchase price of the refunding bonds, including interest accrued thereon prior to the issuance thereof. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues. Whether or not the bonds are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the general obligations law (constituting chapter twenty-four-a of the consolidated laws) the bonds shall be and are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the general obligations law, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding twenty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding the rate of interest prescribed for serial bonds by the local finance law, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, but which shall not at the time of sale yield more than the rate of interest prescribed for serial bonds by the local finance law.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-o of this title hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-h of this title, the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-o of this title upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-i's

 § 1599-j. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue notes and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes) maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any time one million dollars, over and above the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-i of this title, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide funds to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-j's

 § 1599-k. Agreements of the state. 1. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the city of Binghamton, to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas or spaces except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members of which are elected or are appointed by city officials, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-k's

 § 1599-l. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-l's

 § 1599-m. Bonds legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers, and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-m's

 § 1599-n. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds, shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-n's

 § 1599-o. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Broome and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carrying out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Broome.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any real property necessary or convenient in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-o's

 § 1599-p. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of intention to commence such an action and of the time when and place where the damages or personal injuries were incurred or sustained, together with a verified statement showing in detail the property alleged to have been damaged or destroyed and the value thereof, or the personal injuries alleged to have been sustained and by whom, shall have been filed with the secretary of the authority in the principal office of the authority within six months after such cause of action shall have accrued. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-p's

 § 1599-q. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or canceled, and all its liabilities met or discharged, and the termination date of its corporate existence as set forth in section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-c of this title shall have been reached, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles and interests and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the city of Binghamton.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-q's

 § 1599-r. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-r's

 § 1599-s. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 12/31/99

* NB There are 4 § 1599-s's

* TITLE 14

CITY OF COHOES PARKING AUTHORITY

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 A7 T14's

 § 1599-a. Short title. This title may be cited as the "City of Cohoes Parking Authority Act."

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-a's

 § 1599-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-c of this title;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of Cohoes;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interest, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporated hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate, in the area of the city;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the city;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-b's

 § 1599-c. Cohoes parking authority. A board to be known as "Cohoes Parking Authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided.

It shall consist of a chairman and four other members, who shall be appointed by the mayor, with the advice and consent of the common council. The members shall serve at the pleasure of the mayor. Of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, one for a period of four years, and one for a period of five years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of five years, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met, and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the city.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-c's

 § 1599-d. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the city. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the condemnation law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the city;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees and facilities of the city, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

8. To appoint an attorney, and to fix his compensation;

9. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary;

11. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects;

12. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the city, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

13. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

14. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided however, that neither the authority, the city of Cohoes or any agency of the authority or city, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this title, and provided further that the location of sites of the projects shall be subject to the prior advice of the planning commission of the city.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-d's

 § 1599-e. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the city may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the city who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the city under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the city shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the city civil service commission.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-e's

 § 1599-f. Conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city or by the authority. 1. The city may, by resolution or resolutions of the common council or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, and upon appropriate conditions as to outstanding city bonds appertaining thereto, to the authority real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the city but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The city may acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation real property in the city for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, avenues or highways, or for new roads, streets, avenues or highways within a radius of one mile to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. For like purposes, the city may close such streets, roads, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The common council may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the common council may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provisions therefor shall have first been made in the annual appropriations of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each annual appropriations of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may, subject to the approval of the common council of the city of Cohoes, itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the city at the cost and expense of the authority by gift, purchase, or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the city. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such property was acquired at the cost and expense of the city, the authority shall have the power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the city, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have the power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals, or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-f's

 § 1599-g. Construction contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the city, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed five hundred dollars, such contracts may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-g's

 § 1599-h. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the treasurer of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The money in such accounts shall be paid out by the treasurer on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by and upon the warrant of the city comptroller. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the treasurer or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The treasurer and his legally authorized representative are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The account of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller and he or his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, sinking funds, investments and any other matter relating to its financial standing and fiscal affairs. The authority shall render a complete annual account of its proceedings to the common council at its first meeting in January of each and every year.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-h's

 § 1599-i. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds for any purpose mentioned in section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-d hereof, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction and repair of personal and real property of all kinds deemed by the board to be necessary or desirable to carry out such purpose, as well as to pay such expenses as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing the project or projects in operation in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding three hundred thousand dollars outstanding at any one time. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues. Notwithstanding the fact that the bonds may be payable from a special fund, if they are otherwise of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code the bonds shall be and are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of article eight of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding five per centum per annum payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, but which shall not at the time of sale yield more than five per centum per annum.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to (a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereof, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all the rights, powers and duties of the trustees appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-p hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims, of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-h of this title the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-p upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-i's

 § 1599-j. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue notes and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes) maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any time one hundred thousand dollars, over and above the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-i of this title, for any purpose or purposes for which bonds may be issued, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide funds to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-j's

 § 1599-k. Agreements of the state. 1. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the city of Cohoes to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members or some of which are elected or are appointed by city officials, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more, provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to impair the right of the city to install and operate parking meters on the public streets of the city.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-k's

 § 1599-l. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-l's

 § 1599-m. Bonds legal investments for public officers. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-m's

 § 1599-n. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city of Cohoes and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-n's

 § 1599-o. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-o's

 § 1599-p. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Albany and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name;

(a) by action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or special proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or special proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Albany.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974
* NB There are 4 § 1599-p's

 § 1599-q. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least ninety days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for ninety days after such presentment.

2. An action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of intention to commence such action and of the time when and place where the damages or personal injuries or death were incurred or sustained, together with a verified statement showing in detail the property alleged to have been damaged or destroyed and the value thereof, or the personal injuries alleged to have been sustained and by whom, shall have been filed with the secretary of the authority in the principal office of the authority within six months after such cause of action shall have accrued.
* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974
* NB There are 4 § 1599-q's

 § 1599-r. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or cancelled, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles, and interest and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the city of Cohoes.
* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-r's

 § 1599-s. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-s's

 § 1599-t. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* NB Authority terminated 07/01/1974

* NB There are 2 § 1599-t's

* TITLE 14

CITY OF NIAGARA FALLS PARKING AUTHORITY

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974
* NB There are 4 A7 T14's

 § 1599. Short title. This title may be cited as the "City of Niagara Falls Parking Authority Act."
* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

 § 1599-a. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-b of this title;

2. The term "city" shall mean the City of Niagara Falls, New York;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interests in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interest, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporated hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate, in the area of the city;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the city;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-a's

 § 1599-b. Niagara Falls parking authority. A board to be known as "Niagara Falls Parking Authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members by the City Council. The board shall consist of the Mayor of the City of Niagara Falls who shall serve as Chairman; the City Manager; the Comptroller; Chief Planning Officer and Traffic Engineer. Each member of the board shall continue to serve so long as he shall serve in his city position. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of five years, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met, and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the city.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-b's

 § 1599-c. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the city. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the condemnation law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the city;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees and facilities of the city, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

8. To appoint an attorney, the Corporation Counsel and to fix his compensation;

9. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary;

11. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects;

12. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the city, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

13. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

14. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, including the air space and air rights over such premises or portions thereof and and sub-surface areas or portions thereof; provided further that the location of sites of the projects shall be subject to the prior advice of the planning commission of the city.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-c's

 § 1599-d. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the city may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the city who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the city under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the city shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the city civil service commission.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-d's

 § 1599-e. Conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city or by the authority. 1. The city may, by resolution or resolutions of the common council or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, and upon appropriate conditions as to outstanding city bonds appertaining thereto, to the authority real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the city but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The city may acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation real property in the city for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, avenues, or highways, or for new roads, streets, avenues or highways within a radius of one mile to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. For like purposes, the city may close such streets, roads, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The common council may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the common council may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provisions therefor shall have first been made in the annual budget of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each annual budget of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may, subject to the approval of the common council of the city of Niagara Falls, itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the city at the cost and expense of the authority by gift, purchase or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the city. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such property was acquired at the cost and expense of the city, the authority shall have the power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the city, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have the power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals, or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-e's

 § 1599-f. Construction contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the city, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed one thousand dollars, such contracts may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-f's

 § 1599-g. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the treasurer of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The money in such accounts shall be paid out by the treasurer on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by and upon the warrant of the city comptroller. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the treasurer or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The comptroller and his legally authorized representative are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The account of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller. The authority shall render a complete annual account of its proceedings to the common council at its first regular meeting in January of each and every year.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-g's

 § 1599-h. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds for any purpose mentioned in section 1599-c hereof, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction and repair of personal and real property of all kinds deemed by the board to be necessary or desirable to carry out such purpose, as well as to pay such expenses as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing the project or projects in operation in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding twenty million dollars outstanding at any one time. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues. Notwithstanding the fact that the bonds may be payable from a special fund, if they are otherwise of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code the bonds shall be and are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of article eight of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding five per centum per annum payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, but which shall not at the time of sale yield more than five per centum per annum.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to (a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereof, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all the rights, powers and duties of the trustees appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section 1599-o hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims, of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1599-g of this title the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section 1599-o upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-h's

 § 1599-i. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue notes and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes) maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any time one hundred thousand dollars, over and above the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of section 1599-h of this title, for any purpose or purposes for which bonds may be issued, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide funds to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-i's

 § 1599-j. Agreements of the state. 1. The city of Niagara Falls does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the city will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the city of Niagara Falls to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members or some of which are elected or are appointed by city officials, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more, provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to impair the right of the city to install and operate parking meters on the public streets of the city.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-j's

 § 1599-k. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-k's

 § 1599-l. Bonds legal investments for public officers. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974
* NB There are 4 § 1599-l's

 § 1599-m. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city of Niagara Falls and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974
* NB There are 4 § 1599-m's

 § 1599-n. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-n's

 § 1599-o. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the County of Niagara and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to or, pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or special proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or special proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five percentum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Niagara.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-o's

 § 1599-p. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least ninety days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for ninety days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of intention to commence such action and of the time when and place where the damages or personal injuries were incurred or sustained, together with a verified statement showing in detail the property alleged to have been damaged or destroyed and the value thereof, or the personal injuries alleged to have been sustained and by whom, shall have been filed with the secretary of the authority in the principal office of the authority within six months after such cause of action shall have accrued. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-p's

 § 1599-q. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or cancelled, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles, and interest and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the city of Niagara Falls.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-q's

 § 1599-r. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-r's

 § 1599-s. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. In so far as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 07/01/1974

* NB There are 4 § 1599-s's

* TITLE 14

CITY OF SCHENECTADY PARKING AUTHORITY

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002
* NB There are 4 A7 T14's

 § 1599-a. Short title. This title may be cited as the "City of Schenectady Parking Authority Act."
* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002
* NB There are 4 § 1599-a's

 § 1599-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-c of this title;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of Schenectady;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds and notes authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the city;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project;

8. The term "property" shall mean the project or projects of the authority, including all real and personal property or any other property incidental to and included in such project or projects or part thereof, and any improvements, extensions and betterments;

9. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interest, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate, in the area of the city;

10. The term "state" shall mean the state of New York.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-b's

 § 1599-c. Schenectady parking authority. 1. A board to be known as "Schenectady Parking Authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chairman and four other members, who shall be appointed by the mayor, with the advice and consent of the city council. Of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, one for a period of four years, and one for a period of five years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. A member may be removed at will by the mayor with the approval of the city council, giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten day's notice. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term by the mayor, with the advice and consent of the city council. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman and such other officers deemed desirable by the board. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of fifteen years, and thereafter until all its liabilities and duties have been met, and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities and duties or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the city.

2. No public officer or employee shall be ineligible for appointment as a member or officer of the authority and any public officer or employee may accept such appointment and serve as a member or officer without forfeiture of any other public office or position of public employment by reason thereof. Any one or more members or officers of the authority may be an officer or employee of the city. In the event that an officer or employee of the city shall be appointed as a member or officer of the authority, acceptance or retention of such appointment shall not be deemed a forfeiture of his city office or employment, or incompatible therewith or affect his tenure or compensation in any way.

3. It is hereby determined and declared that the authority and the carrying out of its powers, purposes and duties are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city of Schenectady and the state of New York, and that said purposes are public purposes and that the authority is and will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-c's

 § 1599-d. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to provide, construct, operate and maintain, or any combination thereof, one or more projects in the city. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have the power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the acquisition of real property by the exercise of the power of eminant domain;

4. To acquire in the name of the authority by purchase, eminant domain or gift, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by eminant domain shall be acquired in the manner provided in the eminent domain procedure law or in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of land through eminant domain by the city;

5. To determine its fiscal year, and to make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees and facilities of the city, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents employees and such clerical, engineering and other professional assistants and consultants as it may deem necessary for the purposes of this title to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

8. To appoint an attorney, and to fix his compensation;

9. To borrow money, make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, equip and furnish any project as may be necessary and convenient;

11. To maintain and operate the projects;

12. To apply for and to accept gifts or grants or contributions or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or the city, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, or from any other source, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes specified in this title, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof;

13. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them and to pledge the same, all subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

14. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine;

15. To do whatever may be necessary to give effect to the purposes of this title, and in general to have and exercise all other powers necessary or incidental to the purposes of this title.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-d's

 § 1599-e. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the city may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the city who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the city under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the city shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the city civil service commission.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-e's

 § 1599-f. Advances on behalf of the authority; conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city or by the authority.

1. In addition to any powers granted to it by law, the city from time to time may appropriate sums of money to or on behalf of the authority to defray project costs or any other costs and expenses of the authority. Subject to the rights of bondholders, the city may determine if the moneys so appropriated shall be subject to repayment by the authority to the city and, in such event, the manner and time or times for such repayment.

2. The city may, by resolution or resolutions of the city council or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, and upon appropriate conditions as to outstanding city bonds appertaining thereto, to the authority real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In the case of real and/or personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

3. The city may acquire in the name of the city by gift, purchase or eminant domain real property in the city for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, avenues or highways, or for new roads, streets, avenues or highways within a radius of one mile to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by gift, purchase or eminent domain in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. For like purposes, the city may close such streets, roads, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

4. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city and as to such matters which pertain to any conveyance of property to the authority. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of such contract and such pledge. The city council may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the city council may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provisions therefor shall have first been made in the annual appropriations of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each annual appropriation of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

5. The authority may itself acquire real property necessary or convenient in connection with any project in the name of the authority at the cost and expense of the authority by gift, purchase, or eminent domain pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law or pursuant to the laws relating to the acquisition of land by eminant domain by the city.

6. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such property was acquired at the cost and expense of the city, the authority shall have the power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the city, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have the power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals, or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-f's

 § 1599-g. Construction and purchase contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner as is provided by law for contracts of the city, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed five thousand dollars, such contracts may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority. Contracts for the purchase of supplies, material and equipment shall be let in the same manner as is provided in this section. If the authority shall deem it in the public interest or necessary or desirable to effectuate the purposes of this chapter or the economy and efficiency in construction and operation of a project, the authority by majority vote of its members may either reject all bids or readvertise for bids or by two-thirds vote of its members may accept a bid other than the lowest bid; provided however that the reasons for any such vote shall be stated in the authority's official minutes.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-g's

 § 1599-h. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the director of finance of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The money in such accounts shall be paid out by the director of finance on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by and upon the warrant of the director of finance. All deposits of such moneys shall, to the extent required by section two thousand nine hundred twenty-five of this chapter be secured by obligations of the United States or the state of New York at a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The director of finance and his legally authorized representative are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The account of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller and he or his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, sinking funds, investments and any other matter relating to its financial standing and fiscal affairs. The authority shall render a complete annual account of its proceedings to the Mayor and the city council at or prior to its first meeting of the city council in March of each and every year and at such other times as may reasonably be requested by the city council.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-h's

 § 1599-i. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds for any purpose mentioned in section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-d hereof, as well as to pay such expenses, premiums and commissions as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to or in connection with the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improving, equipping and furnishing of any project and the financing thereof, including surveys, planning, provisions for capitalized interest, reserve funds and appropriate feasibility studies, and for the placing of the project or projects in operation and to secure the payment of the same by, including but not limited to, a pledge of the revenues of the authority or by a lien on the property of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, payment or redemption of the bonds to be refunded. The amount of bonds issued by the authority shall not exceed twenty-five million dollars outstanding at any one time. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of any particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues. Notwithstanding the fact that the bonds may be payable from a special fund, if they are otherwise of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code the bonds shall be and are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of article eight of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

2. The authority is authorized to obtain from any department or agency of the United States of America or the state or any nongovernmental insurer or financial institution any insurance, guaranty or other credit support device, to the extent now or hereafter available, as to, or for the payment or repayment of interest of principal, or both, or any part thereof, on any bonds issued by the authority and to enter into any agreement or contract with respect to any such insurance or guaranty, except to the extent that the same would in any way impair or interfere with the ability of the authority to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of outstanding bonds of the authority.

3. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, except that bonds and any renewal thereof shall mature within thirty years of the date of their original issuance, bear interest at such rate or rates as such resolution or resolutions may provide, be payable at such times, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such privileges, be executed in a manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine provided, however, that no issue of bonds may be sold at private sale unless the terms of such sale shall have been approved in writing by (i) the comptroller, where such sale is not to such comptroller, or (ii) the state director of the budget, where such sale is to the comptroller. The foregoing provisions shall be applicable to bonds issued by the authority notwithstanding the provisions of any other general, special or local law to the contrary.

4. Any resolution or resolutions, authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects, together with any other moneys, securities, contracts or property of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the earnings and the other revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) the creation of special funds into which any revenues or other moneys of the authority may be deposited;

(j) the terms and provisions of any mortgage or trust deed or indenture securing the bonds or under which bonds may be issued;

(k) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all the rights, powers and duties of the trustees appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-p hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(l) defining the acts or omissions to act which may constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of this title;

(m) limitations on the power of the authority to sell or otherwise dispose of its properties or any part thereof;

(n) limitations on the amount of moneys or revenues to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(o) the payment of the proceeds of bonds, revenues and other moneys to a trustee or other depositary, and for the method of disbursement thereof with such safeguards and restrictions as the authority may determine; and

(p) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

5. In addition to the powers herein conferred upon the authority to secure its bonds, the authority shall have power in connection with the issuance of bonds to enter into such agreements as the authority may deem necessary, convenient or desirable concerning the use or disposition of its revenues or other moneys or property, including the mortgaging of any of its properties and the entrusting, pledging or creation of any other security interest in any such revenues, moneys or properties and the doing of any act, including refraining from doing any act, which the authority would have the right to do in the absence of such agreements. The authority shall have power to enter into amendments of any such agreements within the powers granted to the authority by this title and to perform such agreements. The provisions of any such agreements may be made a part of the contract with the holders of bonds of the authority.

6. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims, of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

7. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

8. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds upon such terms and conditions as the authority may determine. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

9. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-h of this title the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-p upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-i's

 § 1599-j. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue notes and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes), maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any time the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-i of this title minus the amount of bonds outstanding on the date of calculation, for any purpose or purposes for which bonds may be issued, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide funds to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders. Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-j's

 § 1599-k. Agreements of the city and the state. 1. The city is authorized to, and the state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the city will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct, improve, equip, furnish and operate any project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds or notes, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders or noteholders, until the bonds or notes, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders or noteholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, subject to approval of the city council to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest and in the interests of the authority's bondholders and noteholders, that no public parking areas except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members or some of which are elected or are appointed by city officials, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more, provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to impair the right of the city to install and operate parking meters on the public streets of the city.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-k's

 § 1599-l. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-l's

 § 1599-m. Bonds and notes legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-m's

 § 1599-n. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city of Schenectady and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes, special ad valorem levies or special assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities, or any filing, recording or transfer fees or taxes in relation to instruments filed, recorded or transferred by it or on its behalf. The construction, use, occupation or possession of any property owned by the authority, including improvements thereon, by any person or public benefit corporation under a lease, lease and sublease or any other agreement shall not operate to abrogate or limit the foregoing exemption, notwithstanding that the lessee user, occupant or person in possession shall claim ownership for federal income tax purposes.

2. Any bonds issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-n's

 § 1599-o. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes, shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-o's

 § 1599-p. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Schenectady and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or special proceeding, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or special proceeding, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Schenectady.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any real property necessary or convenient in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-p's

 § 1599-q. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least ninety days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for ninety days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of intention to commence such action and of the time when and place where the damages or personal injuries were incurred or sustained, together with a verified statement showing in detail the property alleged to have been damaged or destroyed and the value thereof, or the personal injuries alleged to have been sustained and by whom, shall have been filed with the secretary of the authority in the principal office of the authority within six months after such cause of action shall have accrued. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-q's

 § 1599-r. Officers and employees not to be interested in transactions. It shall be a misdemeanor for any of the members of the authority, or any officer, agent, servant or employee thereof, employed or appointed by them to be in any way or manner interested directly or indirectly in the furnishing of work, materials, supplies or labor, or in any contract therefor which the authority is empowered by this title to make.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-r's

 § 1599-s. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds and notes issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or cancelled, and all its liabilities and duties met or discharged, and the termination date of its corporate existence as set forth in section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-c of this title shall have been reached, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, title and interests and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the city.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 4 § 1599-s's

 § 1599-t. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* NB There are 2 § 1599-t's

 § 1599-u. Limited liability. Neither the members of the authority, nor any officer or employee of the authority acting in behalf thereof, while acting within the scope of his authority, shall be subject to any personal liability resulting from the construction, maintenance or operation of any of the properties of the authority or any project financed with the assistance of the authority, carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title; provided, however, that this section shall not be held to apply to any independent contractor.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

 § 1599-v. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

 § 1599-w. Equal employment opportunity. The authority shall ensure that, where possible, all employees or applicants for employment are afforded equal employment opportunity without discrimination.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 08/05/2002

* TITLE 16

VILLAGE OF MOUNT KISCO PARKING AUTHORITY

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976
* NB There are 2 A7 T16's

 § 1599-aaa. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Mount Kisco Parking Authority Act."
* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976
* NB There are 2 § 1599-aaa's

 § 1599-bbb. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(a) The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section three of this title;

(b) The term "village" shall mean the village of Mount Kisco;

(c) The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

(d) The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

(e) The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate, in the area of the village;

(f) The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the village;

(g) The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-bbb's

 § 1599-ccc. Mount Kisco parking authority. A board to be known as "Mount Kisco parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chairman and four other members, who shall be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the board of trustees of the village. Of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, one for a period of four years, and one for a period of five years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The board of trustees may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of five years, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the village.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-ccc's

 § 1599-ddd. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the village. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

(a) To sue and be sued;

(b) To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

(c) To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

(d) To acquire, in the name of the village by purchase or condemnation, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the condemnation law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the village, and further provided, that the authority shall give the board of trustees of the village written notice of its intent to acquire any land by condemnation, whereupon said board of trustees, within a period of forty-five days after the giving of such notice, by resolution voted upon affirmatively by at least four members of such board of trustees, may determine that such land shall not be so acquired, in which event the authority shall be without further power to so acquire the same by condemnation;

(e) To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

(f) With the consent of the village to use agents, employees and facilities of the village, paying to the village its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

(g) To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided; to designate officers and employees, appointed or used by the authority, as hereinabove specified, who shall be empowered to issue appearance tickets as provided for in article one hundred fifty of the criminal procedure law. Persons so designated are hereby authorized to issue and serve such tickets for traffic infractions relating to parking within "project" areas as defined herein, in accordance with law and when authorized by local law of the town of Mount Kisco or the village to issue and serve such tickets for traffic infractions committed anywhere in such town or such village including at parking spaces controlled by parking meters;

(h) To appoint an attorney, who may be the village attorney, and to fix his compensation;

(i) To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

(j) To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary;

(k) To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects;

(l) To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the village, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

(m) To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

(n) To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the village of Mount Kisco, or any agency of the authority or village, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this title.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976
* NB There are 2 § 1599-ddd's

 § 1599-eee. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the village may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the village who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the village under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the village shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the village civil service commission.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976
* NB There are 2 § 1599-eee's

 § 1599-fff. Conveyance of property by the village to the authority; acquisition of property by the village or by the authority. (a) The village may, by resolution or resolutions of the board of trustees or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority real and personal property owned by the village for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the village but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

(b) The village may acquire in the name of the village by purchase or condemnation real property in the village for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, avenues or highways, or for new roads, streets, avenues or highways, within a radius of one mile to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other village purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the village. For like purposes, the village may close such streets, roads, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

(c) Contracts may be entered into between the village and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the village to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the village and so conveyed, the streets, roads, avenues, and highways to be closed by the village and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the village as to the road, street, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the village. Any such contracts between the village and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The board of trustees may authorize such contracts between the village and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the village for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the village and in such manner as the board of trustees may determine, and the payments required to be made by the village may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the village. All contractual or other obligations of the village incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the village thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

(d) Subject to the provisions of subsection (d) of section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-ccc hereof, the authority may itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the village at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the village. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

(e) In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the village, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the village, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals, or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-fff's

 § 1599-ggg. Construction contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law, for contracts of the village, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars, such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-ggg's

 § 1599-hhh. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the treasurer of the village as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the treasurer on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by the treasurer. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the treasurer or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The treasurer and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller and he or his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, sinking funds, investments and any other matter relating to its financial standing and fiscal affairs. The authority shall render a complete annual account of its proceedings to the board of trustees at its second meeting in September of each and every year.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-hhh's

 § 1599-iii. Bonds of the authority. (a) The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code for any purpose mentioned in section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-ddd hereof, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction and repair of personal and real property of all kinds deemed by the board to be necessary or desirable to carry out such purposes, as well as to pay such expenses as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing the project or projects in operation in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding twenty-five per cent of the bonded indebtedness limitation from time to time imposed by section 104.00 of the local finance law upon bonded indebtedness of the village outstanding at any one time. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues.

(b) The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding six per centum per annum payable annually or semiannually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine, but which shall not at the time of sale yield more than five per centum per annum.

(c) Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to

(1) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(2) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(3) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(4) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(5) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(6) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(7) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(8) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(9) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all the rights, powers and duties of the trustees appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-ppp hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(10) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

(d) It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims, of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

(e) Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

(f) The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

(g) In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-hhh of this title the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-ppp upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-iii's

 § 1599-jjj. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue its negotiable notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes) maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any time one hundred thousand dollars, over and above the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of section fifteen hundred ninety-nine-iii of this title, for any purpose or purposes for which bonds may be issued, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide funds to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-jjj's

 § 1599-kkk. Agreements of the village. (a) The village of Mount Kisco is authorized to pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the village will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

(b) The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the village of Mount Kisco to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the village by the village, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members or some of which are elected or are appointed by village officials, until either

(1) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or

(2) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-kkk's

 § 1599-lll. State and village not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the village, and neither the state nor the village shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-lll's

 § 1599-mmm. Bonds legal investments for public officers. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them, provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-mmm's

 § 1599-nnn. Tax exemptions. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-nnn's

 § 1599-ooo. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-ooo's

* § 1599-ppp. Remedies of bondholders. (a) In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Westchester and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

(b) Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(1) by suit, action or special proceedings enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(2) bring suit upon such bonds;

(3) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(4) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(5) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

(c) The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Westchester.

(d) Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

(e) Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

(f) Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-ppp's

 § 1599-qqq. Actions against the authority. (a) In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least ninety days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for ninety days after such presentment.

(b) Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of intention to commence such action and of the time when and place where the damages or personal injuries were incurred or sustained, together with a verified statement showing in detail the property alleged to have been damaged or destroyed and the value thereof, or the personal injuries alleged to have been sustained and by whom, shall have been filed with the secretary of the authority in the principal office of the authority within six months after such cause of action shall have accrued. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-qqq's

 § 1599-rrr. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or cancelled, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles and interest and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the village of Mount Kisco.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-rrr's

 § 1599-sss. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-sss's

 § 1599-ttt. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the village, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 06/01/1976

* NB There are 2 § 1599-ttt's

* TITLE 16

JAMESTOWN PARKING AUTHORITY

1599-rrr*2. Termination of the authority.
1599-sss*2. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective.
1599-ttt*2. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977
* NB There are 2 A7 T16's

 § 1599-aaa. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Jamestown parking authority act".

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977
* NB There are 2 § 1599-aaa's

 § 1599-bbb. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section one thousand five hundred ninety-nine-ccc of this title;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of Jamestown;

3. The term "bonds" shall mean the bonds authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate; in the area of the city;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground, which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the city.

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-bbb's

 § 1599-ccc. Jamestown parking authority. A board to be known as "Jamestown parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chairman and four other members, who shall be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the city council of the city. Of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, one for a period of four years, and one for a period of five years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman. The city council may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of five years, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the city.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-ccc's

 § 1599-ddd. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to construct, operate and maintain one or more projects in the city. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the condemnation law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the city;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees, and facilities of the city, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint officers, agents and employees, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

8. To appoint attorneys, including the corporation counsel, and to fix their compensation;

9. To make contracts and leases, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To construct such buildings, structures and facilities as may be necessary;

11. To reconstruct, improve, maintain and operate the projects;

12. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the city, or an individual, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

13. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of the projects or any of them subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

14. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the construction, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the city of Jamestown, or any agency of the authority or city, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facility authorized by this title.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-ddd's

 § 1599-eee. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the city may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the city who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the city under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the city shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and the rules of the city civil service commission.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-eee's

 § 1599-fff. Conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city or by the authority. 1. The city may, by resolution or resolutions of the council or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the city but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The city may acquire in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation real property in the city for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, avenues or highways or for new roads, streets, avenues or highways within a radius of one mile to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. For like purposes, the city may close such streets, roads, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of the pledge. The council may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the council may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by such capital budget of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. The authority may itself acquire real property for a project in the name of the city at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the city. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project then, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the city, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the city, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-fff's

 § 1599-ggg. Construction contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts of the city except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed five thousand dollars, such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-ggg's

 § 1599-hhh. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the city comptroller of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the city comptroller on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by the city comptroller. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the city comptroller or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The city comptroller and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be acquired in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-hhh's

 § 1599-iii. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds for any purposes mentioned in section one thousand five hundred ninety-nine-ddd of this title, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction and repair of personal and real property of all kinds deemed by the board to be necessary or desirable to carry out such purpose, as well as to pay such expenses as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing the project or projects in operation in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding three million dollars outstanding at any one time. The authority shall have power from time to time whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues. Notwithstanding the fact that the bonds may be payable from a special fund, if they are otherwise of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the negotiable instruments law (constituting chapter thirty-seven of the consolidated laws) the bonds shall be and are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the negotiable instruments law, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding seven per centum per annum payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such forms, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds or sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bond or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section one thousand five hundred ninety-nine-ppp of this title hereof, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. It is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section one thousand five hundred ninety-nine-hhh of this title, the authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section one thousand five hundred ninety-nine-ooo of this title upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-iii's

 § 1599-jjj. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue notes and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes) maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any time two million dollars, over and above the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of section one thousand five hundred ninety-nine-iii of this title, for any purpose or purposes for which bonds may be issued, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. Such notes may, among other things, be issued to provide funds to pay preliminary costs of surveys, plans or other matters relating to any proposed project. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977
* NB There are 2 § 1599-jjj's

 § 1599-kkk. Agreements of the city. 1. The city of Jamestown is authorized to pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the city will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, reconstruct and operate the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of bonds or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders, until the bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and the city of Jamestown, to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest, that no public parking areas except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city, or by any public benefit or other corporation the members or some of which are elected or are appointed by city officials, except that meters may be installed and operated on public streets of the city, until either (a) the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-kkk's

 § 1599-lll. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-lll's

 § 1599-mmm. Bonds legal investments for public officers. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other person carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other person carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever, except as hereinafter provided, who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or special law to the contrary, such bonds shall not be eligible for the investment of funds, including capital, of trusts, estates or guardianships under the control of individual administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other individual fiduciaries. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-mmm's

 § 1599-nnn. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city of Jamestown and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-nnn's

 § 1599-ooo. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes, shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-ooo's

 § 1599-ppp. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Chautauqua and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name

(a) by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Chautauqua.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any necessary real property in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and any pledge thereof or agreement thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the aforegoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-ppp's

 § 1599-qqq. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have lapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of intention to commence such action and of the time when and place where the damages or personal injuries were incurred or sustained, together with a verified statement showing in detail the property alleged to have been damaged or destroyed and the value thereof, or the personal injuries alleged to have been sustained and by whom, shall have been filed with the secretary of the authority in the principal office of the authority within six months after such cause of action shall have accrued. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-qqq's

 § 1599-rrr. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or canceled, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles and interests and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the city of Jamestown.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-rrr's

 § 1599-sss. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-sss's

 § 1599-ttt. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* NB Authority ceased to exist 04/01/1977

* NB There are 2 § 1599-ttt's

* TITLE 18

TARRYTOWN PARKING AUTHORITY

Section 1600-a. Short title.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-a. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Tarrytown Parking Authority Act".
* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section sixteen hundred-c of this title;

2. The term "village" shall mean the village of Tarrytown;

3. The term "bonds" and "notes" shall mean the bonds and notes, respectively, authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, air rights, sub-surface rights, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate in the area of the village;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the village;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.
* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-c. Tarrytown parking authority. A board to be known as "Tarrytown parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chairman and four other members, all of whom shall be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the board of trustees of the village. The appointment of the chairman shall be for a term of five years. Of the other members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, one for a period of four years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of such term, shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman and such other officers deemed desirable by the board. The board of trustees may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only to the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred ninety-nine, and thereafter until all its liabilities and duties have been met and its bonds and notes have been paid in full or such liabilities, bonds and notes have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the village.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-d. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to provide, operate or maintain or any combination thereof one or more projects in the village. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire real property subject to the approval of at least four members of the board of trustees in the name of the village by purchase or condemnation or gift, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the condemnation law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the village, and further provided, that the authority shall give the board of trustees of the village written notice of its intent to acquire any land by condemnation, whereupon said board of trustees, within a period of forty-five days after the giving of such notice, by resolution voted upon affirmatively by at least four members of such board of trustees, may determine that such land shall not be so acquired, in which event the authority shall be without further power to so acquire the same by condemnation.

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the village to use agents, employees, and facilities of the village, including the village attorney, paying to the village its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint an attorney, and to fix his compensation;

8. To appoint officers, agents, employees, and consultants, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

9. To make contracts, leases, as lessor or lessee, and any operating agreement, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, equip and furnish any project as may be necessary or convenient;

11. To maintain and operate any project;

12. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the village, or any person, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

13. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of any project and to pledge the same, all subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

14. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities and equipment necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the providing, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the village, or any agency of the authority or village, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facilities authorized by this title.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-e. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the village may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the village who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the village shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and all employees of the authority may have the same rights and benefits as village employees.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-f. Conveyance of property by the village to the authority; acquisition of property by the village or by the authority. 1. The village may, by resolution or resolutions of the village board or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority real and personal property owned by the village for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof or in connection therewith and pledge and pay to the authority, as security for its bonds, notes or other liabilities, certain revenues and income of the village from parking facilities owned or operated by the village. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the village but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue, unless otherwise provided for by the authority and the village. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The village may acquire by gift, purchase or condemnation real property in the name of the village for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways or for new roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other village purposes, by gift, purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the village. For like purposes, the village may close such streets, roads, parkways, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the village and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed or pledged and paid by the village to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the village and so conveyed, the streets, roads, parkways, avenues, and highways to be closed by the village and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the village as to the road, street, parkway, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the village and as to such matters which pertain to any conveyance or pledge and payment of moneys or property to the authority. Any such contracts between the village and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and notes and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of such contract and such pledge. The village board of trustees may authorize such contracts between the village and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the village for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the village and in such manner as the village board of trustees may determine, and the payments required to be made by the village may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the village. All contractual or other obligations of the village incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the village thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. Subject to subsection (4) of section sixteen hundred-d hereof, the authority may itself, subject to prior approval of the village board of trustees, acquire, in the name of the village, real property necessary or convenient in connection with any project at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the condemnation law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the village. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project, then, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the village, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the village, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-g. Construction contracts. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts for the village, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed twenty-four hundred dollars such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-h. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the village treasurer of the village as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the village treasurer of the village on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by the village treasurer of the village. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the village treasurer of the village or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The treasurer of the village and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds or notes as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or in any way to secure bonds or notes, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller. The authority shall render a complete account of its proceedings to the village board of trustees at such time or times as required to do so by said village board of trustees.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-i. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds, without limitation as to amount, for any of its corporate purposes and to pay such expenses, costs and payments as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to or in connection with the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improving, equipping and furnishing of any project and the financing thereof, including surveys, planning, provisions for capitalized interest, reserve funds and appropriate feasibility studies, and for the placing of the project or projects in operation. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, payment or redemption of the bonds to be refunded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues. Whether or not the bonds are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code, the bonds shall be, and are hereby made, negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects and revenues and income of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section sixteen hundred-p of this title, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded or filed in order to protect the security interest granted.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds upon such terms and conditions as the authority may determine. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company, bank or national banking association having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. The authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects or other revenues of the authority to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section sixteen hundred-p of this title upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-j. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue notes and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes) for any purpose or purposes for which bonds may be issued, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues or source thereof (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be sold and issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchaser shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders. Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-k. Agreements of the village and the state. 1. The village is authorized to, and the state of New York does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds or notes that neither the village nor the state, respectively, will limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, equip, furnish, maintain or operate any project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds or notes, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders or noteholders, until the bonds or notes, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders or noteholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and, subject to approval by the village board of trustees and mayor, the village of Tarrytown, to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds or notes, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest and in the interests of the authority's bondholders and noteholders, that no public parking areas or spaces, including the installation and operation of parking meters on the public streets of the village, except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the village by the village (except as hereinafter provided), or by any public benefit or other corporation, the members of which are elected or appointed by the village officials, until either (a) the bonds or notes, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders or noteholders are fully met and discharged; or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds or notes shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more; provided, however, nothing herein contained shall be deemed to impair the right of the village to continue to operate the presently existing municipal parking facilities and any replacements thereof.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-l. State and village not liable on bonds. The bonds, notes and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the village, and neither the state nor the village shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-m. Bonds and notes legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The bonds and notes are hereby made securities in which all public officers, and bodies of the state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds and notes are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-n. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the village of Tarrytown and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-o. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds or notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes, shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-p. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Westchester and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding, at law or in equity, enforce all rights to the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceedings shall be laid in the county of Westchester.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any real property necessary or convenient in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-q. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of intention to commence such an action and of the time when and place where the damages or personal injuries were incurred or sustained, together with a verified statement showing in detail the property alleged to have been damaged or destroyed and the value thereof, or the personal injuries alleged to have been sustained and by whom, shall have been filed with the secretary of the authority in the principal office of the authority within six months after such cause of action shall have accrued. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

* NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-r. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds and notes issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or cancelled, and all its liabilities and duties met or discharged, and the termination date of its corporate existence as set forth in section sixteen hundred-c of this title shall have been reached, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles and interests and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the village of Tarrytown.

  * NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-s. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.
  * NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

 § 1600-t. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the village, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.
  * NB Ceased to exist December 31, 1999

* TITLE 21

MIDDLETOWN PARKING AUTHORITY

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-a. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "Middletown parking authority act."
* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section sixteen hundred twenty-one-c of this title;

2. The term "city" shall mean the city of Middletown;

3. The term "bonds" and "notes" shall mean the bonds and notes, respectively, authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the board established pursuant to section sixteen hundred twenty-one-c of this title;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, and rights, sub-surface rights, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate, in the area of the city; and

6. The term "project" or "projects" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the city.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-c. Middletown parking authority. 1. A board to be known as the "Middletown parking authority" is hereby created. The board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as provided in this section.

2. (a) The board shall consist of a chairperson and four other members, all of whom shall be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the common council of the city. The appointment of the chairperson shall be for a term of four years. Of the other members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, and one for a period of four years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of the successors of the board members shall be four years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor. A board member may be appointed for additional terms.

(b) Vacancies on the board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term, shall be filled for the unexpired term by the mayor with the approval of the common council.

(c) The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairperson and such other officers deemed desirable by the board.

3. The common council may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving the board member a copy of the charges against the board member and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his or her defense, upon not less than ten days' notice.

4. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

5. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office.

6. The board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-d. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to provide, operate or maintain, or any combination thereof, one or more projects in the city. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire real property subject to the approval of at least four members of the common council in the name of the city by purchase or condemnation or gift, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the eminent domain procedure law, and further provided, that the authority shall give the common council of the city written notice of its intent to acquire any land by condemnation, whereupon said common council, within a period of forty-five days after the giving of such notice, by resolution voted upon affirmatively by at least two members of such common council, may determine that such land shall not be so acquired, in which event the authority shall be without further power to so acquire the same by condemnation;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the city to use agents, employees, and facilities of the city, including the corporation counsel, paying to the city its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint an attorney, and to fix his or her compensation;

8. To appoint officers, agents, employees, and consultants, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as provided in this section;

9. To designate officers and employees, appointed or used by the authority, as specified in this section, who shall be empowered to issue appearance tickets as provided for in article one hundred fifty of the criminal procedure law. Persons so designated are hereby authorized to issue and serve such tickets for traffic infractions relating to parking within "project" areas as defined herein, in accordance with law and when authorized by local law of the city to issue and serve such tickets for traffic infractions committed anywhere in such city including at parking spaces controlled by parking meters;

10. To make contracts, leases, as lessor or lessee, and any operating agreement, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

11. To acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, equip and furnish any project as may be necessary or convenient;

12. To maintain and operate any projects;

13. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the city, or any person, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

14. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of any project and to pledge the same, all subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

15. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities and equipment necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the providing, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the city, or any agency of the authority or city, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facilities authorized by this title.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-e. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the city may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. Officers and employees of the city who are members or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement system shall continue to have the rights, privileges, obligations and status with respect to such system or systems as are now prescribed by law, and all such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the city under the rules of the municipal civil service commission of the city shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and all employees of the authority shall have the same rights and benefits as city employees.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-f. Conveyance of property by the city to the authority; acquisition of property by the city or by the authority. 1. The city may, by resolution or resolutions of the common council or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority real and personal property owned by the city for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof or in connection therewith and pledge and pay to the authority, as security for its bonds, notes or other liabilities, certain revenues and income of the city from parking facilities owned or operated by the city. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the city but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue, unless otherwise provided for by the authority and the city. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The city may acquire by gift, purchase or condemnation real property in the name of the city for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways or for new roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other city purposes, by gift, purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the city. For like purposes, the city may close such streets, roads, parkways, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the city and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed or pledged or paid by the city to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the city and so conveyed, the streets, roads, parkways, avenues, and highways to be closed by the city and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the city as to the road, street, parkway, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the city and as to such matters which pertain to any conveyance or pledge and payment of moneys or property to the authority. Any such contracts between the city and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and notes and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of such contract and such pledge. The common council may authorize such contracts between the city and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the city for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the city and in such manner as the common council may determine, and the payments required to be made by the city may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the city. All contractual or other obligations of the city incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the city thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. Subject to subdivision four of section sixteen hundred twenty-one-d of this title, the authority may itself, subject to prior approval of the common council, acquire, in the name of the city, real property necessary or convenient in connection with any project at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project, then, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the city, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the city, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-g. Construction and purchase contracts. 1. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts for the city, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed five thousand dollars such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority. Contracts for the purchase of supplies, materials and equipment shall be let in the same manner as is provided by law for contracts of the city.

2. For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law only, the authority shall be deemed a state agency, as the term is used in such article, and its contracts for design, construction, services and materials shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-h. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the city treasurer of the city as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the city treasurer of the city on requisition of the chairperson of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by the city treasurer of the city. All deposits of such moneys shall be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The treasurer of the city and his or her legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds or notes as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or in any way to secure bonds or notes, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller. The authority shall render a complete account of its proceedings to the common council at its first meeting of each year and at such other times as may reasonably be requested by the common council.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-i. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds for any of its corporate purposes and to pay such expenses, costs and payments as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to or in connection with the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improving, equipping and furnishing of any project and the financing thereof, including surveys, planning, provisions for capitalized interest, reserve funds and appropriate feasibility studies, and for the placing of the project or projects in operation. The aggregate principal amount of such bonds outstanding at any one time shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the bonded indebtedness limitation from time to time imposed by section 104.00 of the local finance law. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose described in this subdivision. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, payment or redemption of the bonds to be refunded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues. Whether or not the bonds are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code, the bonds shall be, and are hereby made, negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine; provided, however, that any private sale shall be subject to the approval of the state comptroller where such sale is not to the comptroller, or the director of the budget where such sale is to the comptroller.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects and revenues and income of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;
(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;
(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;
(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;
(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;
(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;
(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;
(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all, the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section sixteen hundred twenty-one-p of this title, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;
(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded or filed in order to protect the security interest granted.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds upon such terms and conditions as the authority may determine. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company, bank or national banking association having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. The authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects or other revenues of the authority to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section sixteen hundred twenty-one-p of this title upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-j. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue notes and from time to time to issue renewal notes (hereafter "notes"), maturing not later than five years from their respective original dates in an amount not exceeding at any one time one hundred thousand dollars, over and above the amount of bonds authorized by subdivision one of section sixteen hundred twenty-one-i of this title, for any purpose or purposes for which bonds may be issued, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues or source thereof (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be sold and issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchaser shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders. Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-k. Agreements of the city and the state. 1. The city is authorized to, and the state of New York does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds or notes that neither the city nor the state, respectively, will limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, equip, furnish, maintain or operate any project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds or notes, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders or noteholders, until the bonds or notes, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders or noteholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and, subject to approval by the common council and the mayor of the city of Middletown, to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds or notes, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest and in the interests of the authority's bondholders and noteholders, that no public parking areas or spaces, including the installation and operation of parking meters on the public streets of the city, except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the city by the city (except as hereinafter provided), or by any public benefit or other corporation, the members of which are elected or appointed by city officials, until either: (a) the bonds or notes, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders or noteholders are fully met and discharged; or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds or notes shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more; provided, however, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to impair the right of the city to continue to operate the presently existing municipal parking facilities and any replacements thereof.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-l. State and city not liable on bonds. The bonds, notes and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the city, and neither the state nor the city shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-m. Bonds and notes legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The bonds and notes are hereby made securities in which all public officers, and bodies of the state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds and notes are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-n. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the city of Middletown and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-o. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds or notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes, shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate taxes and taxes on transfers by or in contemplation of death.
* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-p. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Orange and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes provided in this section.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in the trustee's own name:
(a) by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding, at law or in equity, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Orange.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any real property necessary or convenient in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth in this section or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-q. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least ninety days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for ninety days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limit established by and in compliance with all requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-r. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds and notes issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or cancelled, and all its liabilities and duties met or discharged, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, title and interests and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the city of Middletown.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-s. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this article shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature that this article would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions had not been included herein.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

 § 1621-t. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the city, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

* NB Repealed per § 1621-r (see chapter 597 of 2023 § 2 for specifics)

TITLE 22

VILLAGE OF NYACK PARKING AUTHORITY

§ 1622-a. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Village of Nyack Parking Authority Act".

§ 1622-b. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section sixteen hundred twenty-two-c of this title;

2. The term "village" shall mean the village of Nyack;

3. The term "bonds" and "notes" shall mean the bonds and notes, respectively, authorized in this title;

4. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority;

5. The term "real property" shall mean lands, structures, franchises, and interest in lands, and any and all things usually included within the said term, and includes not only fees simple absolute but also any and all lesser interests, such as easements, rights of way, air rights, sub-surface rights, uses, leases, licenses, and all other incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms of years, and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also claims for damage to real estate in the area of the village;

6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other vehicles and shall, without limiting the foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads, approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechanical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities either on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the village;

7. The term "projects" shall mean more than one project.

§ 1622-c. Village of Nyack parking authority. A board to be known as "Village of Nyack parking authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein provided. It shall consist of a chairman and four other members, all of whom shall be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the board of trustees of the village. The appointment of the chairman shall be for a term of five years. Of the other members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three years, one for a period of four years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of such term, shall be filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chairman and such other officers deemed desirable by the board. The board of trustees may remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in person, or by counsel, in his defense upon not less than ten days' notice. The members of the board shall be entitled to no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the members of the board then in office. Such board may delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and its corporate existence shall continue only to the thirty-first day of December, twenty hundred fifteen, and thereafter until all its liabilities and duties have been met and its bonds and notes have been paid in full or such liabilities, bonds and notes have otherwise been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and properties shall pass to the village.

§ 1622-d. Purpose and powers of the authority. The purpose of the authority shall be to provide, operate or maintain or any combination thereof one or more projects in the village. To carry out said purpose, the authority shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes, including the power to purchase prospective or tentative awards in connection with the condemnation of real property;

4. To acquire real property subject to the approval of at least four members of the board of trustees in the name of the village by purchase or condemnation or gift, and use necessary real property. All real property acquired by the authority by condemnation shall be acquired in the manner provided in the eminent domain procedure law or in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of land by the village, and further provided, that the authority shall give the board of trustees of the village written notice of its intent to acquire any land by condemnation, whereupon said board of trustees, within a period of forty-five days after the giving of such notice, by resolution voted upon affirmatively by at least four members of such board of trustees, may determine that such land shall not be so acquired, in which event the authority shall be without further power to so acquire the same by condemnation;

5. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs, and, subject to agreements with bondholders, for the regulation of the project;

6. With the consent of the village to use agents, employees, and facilities of the village, including the village attorney, paying to the village its agreed proportion of the compensation or costs;

7. To appoint an attorney, and to fix his compensation;

8. To appoint officers, agents, employees, and consultants, to prescribe their qualifications and to fix their compensation; subject, however, to the provisions of the civil service law, as hereinafter provided;

9. To make contracts, leases, as lessor or lessee, and any operating agreement, and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

10. To designate officers and employees, appointed or used by the authority, as hereinabove specified, who shall be empowered to issue appearance tickets as provided for in article one hundred fifty of the criminal procedure law. Persons so designated are hereby authorized to issue and serve such tickets for traffic infractions relating to parking within "project" areas as defined herein, in accordance with law and when authorized by local law of the village to issue and serve such tickets for traffic infractions committed anywhere in such village including at parking spaces controlled by parking meters.

11. To acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, equip and furnish any project as may be necessary or convenient;

12. To maintain and operate any project;

13. To accept grants, loans or contributions from the United States, the state of New York, or any agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the village, or any person, by bequest or otherwise, and to expend the proceeds for any purposes of the authority;

14. To fix and collect rentals, fees and other charges for the use of any project and to pledge the same, all subject to and in accordance with such agreements with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter provided;

15. To construct, operate or maintain in the projects all facilities and equipment necessary or convenient in connection therewith; and to contract for the providing, operation or maintenance of any parts thereof or for services to be performed; to rent parts thereof, and grant concessions, all on such terms and conditions as it may determine; provided, however, that neither the authority, the village, or any agency of the authority or village, or any other person, firm or corporation shall, within or on any property comprising a part of any project authorized by this title, sell, dispense or otherwise handle any product used in or for the servicing of any motor vehicle using any project or facilities authorized by this title.

§ 1622-e. Civil service status of officers and employees. Officers and employees of any board, commission or department of the village may be transferred to the authority in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and shall be eligible for such transfer and appointment without examination to offices and positions under the authority. All such employees who have been appointed to positions in the service of the village shall have the same status with respect thereto after transfer to the authority as they had under their original appointments. The appointment and promotion of all employees of the authority shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the civil service law and all employees of the authority may have the same rights and benefits as village employees.

§ 1622-f. Conveyance of property by the village to the authority; acquisition of property by the village or by the authority. 1. The village may, by resolution or resolutions of the village board or by instruments authorized by such resolutions, convey, with or without consideration, to the authority real and personal property owned by the village for use by the authority as a project or projects or a part thereof or in connection therewith and pledge and pay to the authority, as security for its bonds, notes or other liabilities, certain revenues and income of the village from parking facilities owned or operated by the village. In case of real property so conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the village but the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so long as its corporate existence shall continue, unless otherwise provided for by the authority and the village. In the case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall pass to the authority.

2. The village may acquire by gift, purchase or condemnation real property in the name of the village for any of the projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways or for new roads, streets, parkways, avenues or highways to any of the projects, or partly for such purposes and partly for other village purposes, by gift, purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by law for the acquisition of real property by the village. For like purposes, the village may close such streets, roads, parkways, avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient, except as to state highways and arterial ways which may not be closed without the consent of the state commissioner of transportation.

3. Contracts may be entered into between the village and the authority providing for the property to be conveyed or pledged and paid by the village to the authority, the additional property to be acquired by the village and so conveyed, the streets, roads, parkways, avenues, and highways to be closed by the village and the amounts, terms and conditions of payment to be made by the authority. Such contracts may also contain covenants by the village as to the road, street, parkway, avenue and highway improvements to be made by the village and as to such matters which pertain to any conveyance or pledge and payment of moneys or property to the authority. Any such contracts between the village and the authority may be pledged by the authority to secure its bonds and notes and may not be modified thereafter except as provided by the terms of such contract and such pledge. The village board of trustees may authorize such contracts between the village and the authority and no other authorization on the part of the village for such contracts shall be necessary. Any such contracts may be so authorized and entered into by the village and in such manner as the village board of trustees may determine, and the payments required to be made by the village may be made and financed notwithstanding that no provision therefor shall have first been made in the capital budget of the village. All contractual or other obligations of the village incurred in carrying out the provisions of this title shall be included in and provided for by each capital budget of the village thereafter made, if and to the extent that they may appropriately be included therein.

4. Subject to subdivision four of section sixteen hundred twenty-two-d hereof, the authority may itself, subject to prior approval of the village board of trustees, acquire, in the name of the village, real property necessary or convenient in connection with any project at the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or condemnation pursuant to the eminent domain procedure law or pursuant to the laws relating to the condemnation of land by the village. The authority shall have the use and occupancy of such real property so long as its corporate existence shall continue.

5. In case the authority shall have the use and occupancy of any real property which it shall determine is no longer required for a project, then, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the village, the authority shall have power to surrender its use and occupancy thereof to the village, or, if such real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the authority, then the authority shall have power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said real property at public or private sale, and shall retain and have the power to use the proceeds of sale, rentals or other moneys derived from the disposition thereof for its purposes.

§ 1622-g. Construction and purchase contracts. 1. The authority shall let contracts for construction in the same manner, so far as practicable, as is provided by law for contracts for the village, except that where the estimated expense of a contract does not exceed twenty-four hundred dollars such contract may be entered into without public letting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the authority to do any construction directly by the officers, agents and employees of the authority. Contracts for the purchase of supplies, materials and equipment shall be let in the same manner as is provided by law for contracts of the village.

2. For the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law only, the authority shall be deemed a state agency, as the term is used in such article, and its contracts for design, construction, services and materials shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article.

§ 1622-h. Moneys of the authority. All moneys of the authority shall be paid to the village treasurer of the village as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out by the village treasurer of the village on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions after audit by the village treasurer of the village. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the village treasurer of the village or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The treasurer of the village and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds or notes as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or in any way to secure bonds or notes, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions of this section. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The accounts of the authority shall be subject to the supervision of the state comptroller. The authority shall render a complete account of its proceedings to the village board of trustees at such time or times as required to do so by said village board of trustees.

§ 1622-i. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds, in the aggregate principal amount not to exceed ten million dollars outstanding at one time, for any of its corporate purposes and to pay such expenses, costs and payments as may be deemed by the board necessary or desirable to or in connection with the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improving, equipping and furnishing of any project and the financing thereof, including surveys, planning, provisions for capitalized interest, reserve funds and appropriate feasibility studies, and for the placing of the project or projects in operation. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded with such cash adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, payment or redemption of the bonds to be refunded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues. Whether or not the bonds are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial code, the bonds shall be, and are hereby made, negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

2. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine; provided, however, that any private sale shall be subject to the approval of the state comptroller, where such sale is not to the comptroller, or the director of the budget, where such sale is to the comptroller.

3. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to:

(a) pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or projects and revenues and income of the authority to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

(b) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues;

(c) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(d) limitations on the right of the authority to restrict and regulate the use of a project;

(e) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue of the bonds;

(f) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(g) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(h) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from a project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

(i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section sixteen hundred twenty-two-p of this title, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(j) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it is the intention hereof that any pledge of revenues or other moneys made by the authority shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded or filed in order to protect the security interest granted.

5. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds upon such terms and conditions as the authority may determine. The authority may hold, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

7. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company, bank or national banking association having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project or projects, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that the project or projects shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. The authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of the project or projects or other revenues of the authority to the trustee under such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation, and repairs of the project or projects. If the bonds shall be secured by a trust indenture, the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them, and the trustee under such trust indenture shall have and possess all of the powers which are conferred by section sixteen hundred twenty-two-p of this title upon a trustee appointed by bondholders.

§ 1622-j. Notes of the authority. The authority shall have power from time to time to issue notes and from time to time to issue renewal notes (herein referred to as notes), in an amount not exceeding at any time one million dollars, for any purpose or purposes for which bonds may be issued, whenever the authority shall determine that payment thereof can be made in full from any moneys or revenues which the authority expects to receive from any source. The authority may pledge such moneys or revenues or source thereof (subject to any other pledge thereof) for the payment of the notes and may in addition secure the notes in the same manner and with the same effect as herein provided for bonds. The notes shall be sold and issued in the same manner as bonds. The authority shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of the notes, by which the purchaser shall be committed to purchase the notes from time to time on terms and conditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments. In case of default on its notes, or violation of any of the obligations of the authority to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all the remedies provided herein for bondholders. Such notes shall be as fully negotiable as the bonds of the authority.

§ 1622-k. Agreements of the village and the state. 1. The village is authorized to, and the state of New York does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds or notes that neither the village nor the state, respectively, will limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, equip, furnish, maintain or operate any project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds or notes, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders or noteholders, until the bonds or notes, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders or noteholders, are fully met and discharged.

2. The authority is hereby authorized, in its discretion, for and on behalf of itself and, subject to approval by the village board of trustees and mayor, the village of Nyack, to covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds or notes, with such exceptions and limitations as it may deem in the public interest and in the interests of the authority's bondholders and noteholders, that no public parking areas or spaces, including the installation and operation of parking meters on the public streets of the village, except those acquired and operated by the authority will be constructed or operated in the village by the village (except as hereinafter provided), or by any public benefit or other corporation, the members of which are elected or appointed by the village officials, until either (a) the bonds or notes, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders or noteholders are fully met and discharged; or (b) principal or interest of any of the bonds or notes shall be overdue and unpaid for a period of three years or more; provided, however, nothing herein contained shall be deemed to impair the right of the village to continue to operate the presently existing municipal parking facilities and any replacements thereof.

§ 1622-l. State and village not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York or of the village, and neither the state nor the village shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1622-m. Bonds and notes legal investments for public officers and fiduciaries. The bonds and notes are hereby made securities in which all public officers, and bodies of the state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds and notes are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1622-n. Tax exemptions. 1. It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the village of Nyack and its environs, and is a public purpose, and the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title and shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction or control or supervision or upon its activities.

2. Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this title, together with the income therefrom, as well as the property of the authority, shall be exempt from taxation.

§ 1622-o. Tax contract by the state. The state of New York covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds or notes, that the bonds or notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds or notes, shall at all times be exempt from taxation.

§ 1622-p. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Rockland and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(a) by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding, at law or in equity, enforce all rights to the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out by any agreement as to, or pledge of, such revenues, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

(e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceedings shall be laid in the county of Rockland.

4. Before declaring the principal of all such bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not the issue of bonds represented by such trustee has been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver of any part or parts of the project the revenues of which are pledged for the security of the bonds of such issue, and such receiver may enter and take possession of such part or parts of the project and, subject to any pledge or agreement with bondholders, shall take possession of all moneys and other property derived from or applicable to the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and reconstruction of such part or parts of the project and proceed with the acquisition of any real property necessary or convenient in connection with the project that the authority has covenanted to construct, and with any construction which the authority is under obligation to do and to operate, maintain and reconstruct such part or parts of the project and collect and receive all revenues thereafter arising therefrom subject to any pledge thereof or agreement with bondholders relating thereto and perform the public duties and carry out the agreements and obligations of the authority under the direction of the court. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee, the fee, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues derived from such project.

6. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 1622-q. Actions against the authority. 1. In every action against the authority for damages, for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries or death, the complaint shall contain an allegation that at least thirty days have elapsed since the demand, claim or claims upon which such action is founded were presented to a member of the authority, or to its secretary, or to its chief executive officer and that the authority has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof for thirty days after such presentment.

2. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for damages for injuries to real or personal property, or for the destruction thereof, or for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained, shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limit established by and in compliance with all requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1622-r. Termination of the authority. Whenever all of the bonds and notes issued by the authority shall have been redeemed or cancelled, and all its liabilities and duties met or discharged, and the termination date of its corporate existence as set forth in section sixteen hundred twenty-two-c of this title shall have been reached, the authority shall cease to exist and all rights, titles and interests and all obligations and liabilities thereof vested in or possessed by the authority shall thereupon vest in and be possessed by the village of Nyack.

§ 1622-s. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1622-t. Inconsistent provisions in other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, or of any local law of the village, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

ARTICLE 8

MISCELLANEOUS AUTHORITIES

(§§ 1940--1949-k).
11. Troy Industrial Development Authority (§§ 1950-1969).
12. Battery Park City Authority (§§ 1970-1988).
13. Onondaga County Solid Waste Disposal Authority (§§ 2015-2037).
13-AA. Montgomery, Otsego, Schoharie Solid Waste Management Authority (§§ 2041--2041-x).
13-B. Onondaga County Resource Recovery Agency (§§ 2045-a--2045-x).
13-C. Town of Islip Resource Recovery Agency (§§ 2046-a--2046-u).
13-D. Dutchess County Resource Recovery Agency (§§ 2047-a--2047-x).
13-F. Town of North Hempstead Solid Waste Management Authority (§§ 2049-a--2049-x).
13-FF. Oneida-Herkimer Solid Waste Management Authority (§§ 2049-aa--2049-yy).
13-G. Ulster County Resource Recovery Agency (§§ 2050-a--2050-z).
13-H. Eastern Rensselaer County Solid Waste Management Authority (§§ 2050-aa--2050-yy).
13-I. County of Franklin Solid Waste Management Authority (§§ 2051-a--2051-x).
13-L. Oneida County Sports Facility Authority Act (§§ 2052-a--2052-s).
13-M. Rockland County Solid Waste Management Authority (§§ 2053-a--2053-z).
14. *Broome County Sports Center Authority (§§ 2050-2069).
* NB Authority dissolved September 1, 1977
15. Auburn Industrial Development Authority (§§ 2300-2338).
17. State of New York Mortgage Agency Act (§§ 2400--2429-f).
18. State of New York Municipal Bond Bank Agency Act (§§ 2430-2454).
19. New York Sports Authority (§§ 2460-2488).
21. Saratoga Springs City Center Authority

TITLE 4

DORMITORY AUTHORITY

§ 1675. Short title. This title may be cited as the "Dormitory Authority Act."

§ 1676. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning appears from the context,

1. The term "authority" shall mean the corporation created by section sixteen hundred seventy-seven of this chapter;

2. The term "dormitory" shall mean any of the following: (a) a housing unit, including an emergency temporary dormitory constructed pursuant to section sixteen hundred seventy-nine of this title, or any other emergency temporary housing operated by the authority, including all necessary and usual attendant and related facilities and equipment, acquired, designed, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated and improved, or otherwise provided under the jurisdiction of the dormitory authority for the use of students at a state-operated institution or statutory or contract college under the jurisdiction of the State University of New York, as defined in section three hundred fifty of the education law.

(b) It shall also include a housing unit for the use of students, married students, faculty, staff and the families of such married students, faculty and staff, an academic building, administration building, library, laboratory, classroom, health facility or other building or structure essential, necessary or useful in the academic, cultural, health or research program, including all necessary and usual attendant and related facilities and equipment at any institution for higher education located in this state and authorized to confer degrees by law or by the board of regents, other than a state-operated institution or statutory or contract college under the jurisdiction of the State University of New York, as defined in section three hundred fifty of the education law, or at any non-profit institution or hospital at which the training of nurses is provided by a program approved by the department of education of the state of New York, or for New York Academy of Sciences, or for any of the following:

Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, Incorporated.

Center for the Arts at Ithaca, Incorporated.

Affiliated Colleges and Universities, Inc.

Brookdale Hospital Center.

Albany Medical Center Hospital.

St. Vincent's Hospital and Medical Center of New York.

Mount Vernon Hospital.

New York Medical College of New York, Incorporated.

Cortland Memorial Hospital.

Highland Hospital of Rochester, Incorporated.

Onondaga County Historical Museum.

Columbia Memorial Hospital.

St. Peter's Hospital of the city of Albany.

The department of health of the state of New York.

Beekman-Downtown Hospital.

Geneva General Hospital.

Optometric Center of New York.

Brookhaven Memorial Association, Incorporated, doing business as the Brookhaven Memorial Hospital.

Calvary Hospital, Inc.

Montefiore Hospital and Medical Center.

The Saratoga Hospital.

Booth Memorial Medical Center, Queens, New York.

Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital.

The improvement and modernization of the Dazian, Silver, Karpas and Linsky buildings of the Beth Israel Medical Center and the vertical expansion above the said Silver Building located between East sixteenth and East seventeenth streets and between First Avenue and Nathan D. Perlman Place in New York city; nothing in the foregoing shall be deemed to authorize the said Beth Israel Medical Center to apply any funds or credit obtained pursuant to this title toward the development of any other property or properties it presently owns or controls or may own or control in the future.

Our Lady of Lourdes Memorial Hospital, Inc.

St. Francis Hospital, Poughkeepsie.

The Staten Island Hospital.

Carthage Area Hospital, Inc.

Mount Sinai Hospital.

Hospital for Joint Diseases and Medical Center.

Catholic Medical Center of Brooklyn and Queens, Incorporated.

The Clifton Springs Sanitarium Company.

Children's Hospital of Buffalo.

St. Joseph's Hospital Health Center.

General Hospital of Saranac Lake.

The Church Charity Foundation of Long Island.

Buffalo General Hospital.

Crouse-Irving Memorial Hospital, Inc.

Misericordia Hospital Medical Center.

Samaritan Hospital of Brooklyn.

Benedictine Hospital.

The Society of the Home for Incurables.

The White Plains Hospital Association.

The Cornwall Hospital.

Memorial Hospital, Albany, New York.

The Rochester General Hospital.

Our Lady of Victory Hospital of Lackawanna.

Mercy Hospital Association.

The Hebrew Home for the Aged at Riverdale, Inc.

Charles S. Wilson Memorial Hospital.

Aurelia Osborn Fox Memorial Hospital Society.

Retirement Home of Central New York Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

The Trustees of the Jones Fund for the Support of the Poor.

St. Mary's Hospital of Troy.

The Roosevelt Hospital in relation to the Smithers Alcoholism Treatment and Training Center on a site known as 516 West 59th Street and the Arthur J. Antenucci Research Building on a site known as 432 West 58th Street in New York City, nothing in the foregoing shall be deemed to authorize the said Roosevelt Hospital to apply any funds or credit obtained pursuant to this title toward the development of any other property or properties it presently owns or controls or may own or control in the future.

Queens Hospital Center of the borough of Queens, city of New York.

Franklin General Hospital.

St. Vincent's Medical Center of Richmond.

Long Island Jewish-Hillside Medical Center.

Eastman Dental Center.

United Hospital.

The Brooklyn Educational and Cultural Alliance (B.E.C.A.) when and if incorporated by the Board of Regents of the University of the state of New York.

St. Mary's Hospital at Amsterdam.

The New York Public Library, Astor, Lenox and Tilden Foundations.

The Village Nursing Home, Inc. for the acquisition, improvement and modernization of the Village Nursing Home, located on the southwest corner of the intersection of Twelfth Street and Hudson Street on a site known as 607 Hudson Street in New York City; nothing in the foregoing shall be deemed to authorize the said Village Nursing Home, Inc. to apply any funds or credit obtained pursuant to this title toward the development of any other property or properties it presently owns or controls or may own or control in the future.

The Elizabeth A. Horton Memorial Hospital.

The Community Hospital of Brooklyn, Inc.

Methodist Hospital, Brooklyn.

Maimonides Medical Center.

Lutheran Medical Center, Brooklyn.

The Faxton Hospital in the city of Utica.

Lawrence Hospital.

The New Rochelle Hospital Medical Center.

Putnam Community Hospital.

New York Blood Center, Inc.

South Nassau Communities Hospital, in Oceanside, New York.

St. Joseph's Hospital, Yonkers, New York.

St. Elizabeth's Hospital at Utica.

Arden Hill Hospital, Goshen, New York

St. Luke's Hospital of Newburgh, New York.

Vassar Brothers Hospital

The Nyack Hospital, North Midland Avenue, Nyack, New York.

Yonkers General Hospital.

Nassau Hospital, Mineola, Long Island, New York.

Sheehan Memorial Emergency Hospital, Buffalo.

Good Samaritan Hospital, West Islip, New York.

The Community Hospital at Glen Cove.

Flushing Hospital and Medical Center.

St. John's Riverside Hospital at Yonkers.

Jamaica Hospital of Jamaica, New York

Ellis Hospital, Schenectady, New York.

The Moses Ludington Hospital.

Society of New York Hospital.

Jewish Board of Family and Children's Services, Inc.

Dobbs Ferry Hospital, Dobbs Ferry, New York.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art in relation to any construction within the area bounded by the perimeter and elevation described by the plans for the museum building and the new wings and courts contained in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Master Plan Report dated July fifteenth, nineteen hundred seventy-one prepared for the Department of Parks, Recreation and Cultural Affairs of the city of New York.

New York state teachers' retirement system.

F.I.T. student housing corporation.

Community Memorial Hospital, Inc., Hamilton, New York.

The College Entrance Examination Board.

Museum of American Folk Art.

The Human Resources Center.

The Museums at Stony Brook.

Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center.

Associated Universities, Inc.

New York Zoological Society

International House, Inc.

YM and YWHA of Mid-Westchester of the Associated YM-YWHA's of Greater New York.

The New York Foundling Charitable Corporation located on the southeast corner of the intersection of the Avenue of the Americas, formerly Sixth Avenue, and Seventeenth Street on a site known as 578-590 Avenue of the Americas in New York City; nothing in the foregoing shall be deemed to authorize the said New York Foundling Charitable Corporation to apply any funds or credit obtained pursuant to this title toward the development of any other property or properties it presently owns or controls or may own or control in the future.

New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Albany County Chapter for the financing, construction and development of a day programming facility and necessary ancillary and related facilities in Albany county to replace the existing day programming facility now operated by the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Albany County Chapter at 155 Washington Avenue, Albany, New York.

March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation.

Association for the Help of Retarded Children, Suffolk Chapter, for the financing, construction and development of a seventy-five thousand square foot adult training and treatment center for the severely developmentally disabled on five acres of agency owned land located on Scouting Blvd. (formerly Industrial Blvd.), West Yaphank, N.Y.

United Cerebral Palsy of Ulster County, Inc., for the construction of a forty-six thousand square foot program services building at Lake Road and Tuytenbridge Road in the Town of Ulster, Ulster County.

Hillside Children's Center for the financing, construction, and equipping of a residential facility and an educational facility for children with handicapping conditions, as such term is defined in subdivision one of section forty-four hundred one of the education law, on County House Road in the town of Sennett, county of Cayuga, New York; and for the upgrading of the facilities and equipment owned and controlled by the Hillside Children's Center, located at 1183 Monroe Avenue in the city of Rochester, county of Monroe, New York.

United Way of Tri-State, Inc. for the acquisition and improvement of office space and related facilities in New York county for use by the following entities: United Way of Tri-State, United Way of New York City, Greater New York Fund/United Way, and the United Way of America, Northeast Regional Office.

New Dimensions in Living, Inc., as a real estate holding company operated in conjunction with the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Montgomery County Chapter, for the financing, construction and development of a thirty-five thousand square foot day treatment facility on land owned by New Dimensions in Living, Inc. on Route 5-S in Amsterdam to replace an existing day treatment facility in the former Tribes Hill School.

Associated Residential Centers, Inc., as a real estate holding company operated in conjunction with the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc. Rensselaer County Chapter, for the financing, construction and development of a twenty-one thousand square foot day treatment facility and necessary ancillary and related facilities in Rensselaer county to replace existing day treatment facilities now operated by the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Rensselaer County Chapter in Pittstown and North Greenbush, New York.

New York Society for the Deaf for the financing, construction and development of a six-story expansion of residential facilities for the deaf and deaf-blind at Tanya Towers located at 620 East 13 Street, New York city.

The Devereux Foundation for the financing, construction and equipping of facilities subject to the approval of the commissioner of education, the commissioner of social services and the commissioner of the office for people with developmental disabilities for a residential and educational program for children with handicapping conditions, as such term is defined in subdivision one of section forty-four hundred one of the education law, including, but not limited to, those students who were publicly placed at the Rhinebeck Country School during the nineteen hundred eighty-six--eighty-seven school year and in furtherance of the state's overall goal of reducing the number of children with handicapping conditions requiring out-of-state placements: nothing in the foregoing shall be deemed to authorize The Devereux Foundation to apply any funds or credit obtained pursuant to this section toward the financing, construction or equipping of facilities on any other property or properties it presently owns or controls or owns or controls in the future.

New Hope Community, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation, for the financing, construction and development of residences for adults with a developmental disability on forty acres of land purchased from Leon and Dave Scharf, d.b.a. New Hope Rehabilitation Center, located on State Route 52 in the Town of Fallsburg, to replace existing residential facilities operated by New Hope Rehabilitation Center.

For the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation of or otherwise provided for United Cerebral Palsy of New York City, Inc., for (1) an intermediate care facility for the developmentally disabled at Avenue S and Lake Street, Brooklyn; (2) a pre-school program service facility at Mason and Seaview Avenues, Staten Island; (3) a children and adult program service facility at Stillwell Avenue, Bronx; (4) a children and adult program service facility at Lawrence Avenue, Brooklyn; (5) a pre-school program service building at Lawrence Avenue, Brooklyn; (6) an adult program service building at Port Richmond Avenue, Staten Island; (7) children's program services building at Lawrence Avenue, Brooklyn; and for the leasehold improvements to Manhattan and adult programs services sites.

Special act school districts listed in chapter five hundred sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-seven, as amended.

State-supported schools for the instruction of deaf and blind students and children with other handicapping conditions pursuant to article eighty-five of the education law and chapter one thousand sixty of the laws of nineteen hundred seventy-four.

Westchester School for Special Children, Westchester county, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for a new school building, provided that the location within Westchester County is designated and bonds are issued on or before July first, two thousand eight.

Guided Growth, Inc. of Hawthorne, Westchester county, for the financing, construction and development of a new school building and attendant facilities to be located at five Bradhurst Avenue, Hawthorne, Westchester county.

Saint Christopher-Ottilie, Nassau County, for the renovation and expansion of its Ottilie Campus Residential Treatment Facility on one hundred forty-eighth street in Jamaica, County of Queens.

Snug Harbor Cultural Center, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation, for the financing, construction and renovation of such center's existing buildings at 1000 Richmond Terrace, Staten Island, New York, 10301, into residences for artists.

The education department of the state of New York, including the New York state school for the blind, the New York state school for the deaf, and schools established by the commissioner of education pursuant to section forty-one hundred one of the education law, for facilities owned, operated by, or provided by the state for the use of, the education department of the state of New York, including, but not limited to, the premises commonly known as the state education building, located at 89 Washington Avenue in the city of Albany, New York, the New York state school for the blind, located at Richmond Avenue in the city of Batavia, New York, the New York state school for the deaf, located at 401 Turin Street in the city of Rome, New York, schools established by the commissioner of education pursuant to the provisions of subdivision one of section four thousand one hundred one of the education law, and the premises commonly known as the cultural education center located in the empire state plaza in the city of Albany, New York, and attendant and related facilities.

The National Center for the Study of Wilson's Disease, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation for the financing, construction and equipping of replacement laboratories, offices and clinical out-patient facilities for the center at the Antenucci Institute of the Roosevelt St. Luke's Hospital, 432 W. 58th Street, New York, New York, 10019; provided that the location is designated and bonds are issued on or before July first, nineteen hundred ninety-two.

Vesta Community Housing Development Board, Inc. of Altamont for the financing, construction and equipping of facilities for persons recovering from an addiction to alcohol or a controlled substance.

The Utica College Foundation, for the financing, refinancing, reimbursement and development of student dormitory and academic facilities at its Utica campus, including Burrstone House to serve as a dormitory for students residing at the college; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of such issuance of bonds shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars.

Gateway Youth and Family Services for the financing, construction and development of new facilities for a diagnostic and evaluation program and a pre-independent living program, and to expand existing facilities in a special education school on real property located on Main Street, Williamsville, county of Erie.

Orleans County Chapter-New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc. for the financing, construction and development, of a preschool facility and necessary ancillary and related facilities in Orleans county to replace the existing preschool facility now operated by the Orleans County Chapter-New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc. at 151 Platt Street, Albion, N.Y. 14411.

New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Westchester County Chapter for the financing, construction and development, of a preschool facility and necessary ancillary and related facilities in Westchester county to replace the existing preschool facilities now operated by the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Westchester County Chapter at 12 Green Street, Mt. Kisco, New York and 50 Washington Avenue, New Rochelle, New York.

New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc.-Livingston-Wyoming County Chapter for the financing, acquisition and rehabilitation, of a preschool facility and necessary ancillary and related facilities in Livingston county to expand existing preschool facilities now operated by the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc.-Livingston-Wyoming County Chapter located at 18 Main Street, Mount Morris, N.Y. 14510.

Orange County Cerebral Palsy Association, Inc. for the improvement of its headquarters facilities on Fletcher Street in the village of Goshen.

New York Association for the Learning Disabled, Capital District Chapter, Inc., renamed Wildwood Programs, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for facilities for Wildwood Programs, Inc.

AMDA INC./The American Musical and Dramatic Academy, for the financing, refinancing, reimbursement and development of a dormitory for students residing at the academy and an academic facility.

Private not-for-profit schools.

For the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation of or otherwise provide for United Cerebral Palsy of Westchester County, Inc., for (1) a twelve bed intermediate care facility for the developmentally disabled and (2) for expansion of the day program service facility at Rye Brook, New York.

Hospice, Buffalo, for the financing, construction and development of new and renovated facilities for the care and treatment of terminally ill individuals.

The National Sports Academy at Lake Placid, for the financing, refinancing, reimbursement and development of a dormitory for students residing at the academy and an academic facility.

Ferncliff Manor as a not-for-profit residential school serving children who are severely mentally disabled and medically involved, who will also on a not-for-profit basis operate an intermediate care facility, for the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation and development of five twelve bed dormitories in Westchester County for such children.

The Leake and Watts Children's Home (Incorporated), Yonkers, New York for the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation or otherwise for (1) a new school building for the junior high and high school vocational programs including a field house; (2) a new children's cottage and renovation and reconstruction of eight existing children's cottages to provide more efficient heating and cooling systems, more secure supervision and to increase the number of beds; (3) renovation and reconstruction of the main building to provide new electrical and plumbing systems and internal rehabilitation; and (4) renovation and reconstruction of the old school building for multiple use.

Oxford University and the Oxford University Press, Incorporated; or either of them for the financing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation and rehabilitation of facilities to be located in the borough of Manhattan, in the city of New York.

Berkshire Farm Center and Services for Youth, Canaan, New York for the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, equipping or otherwise providing for a dining facility on the existing campus of Berkshire Farm Center and Services for Youth in Canaan, New York.

A public library.

South Street Seaport Museum, Inc.

United Cerebral Palsy Association of the Capital District, Inc., for the financing, construction, reimbursement, and development of residences and program facilities on lands owned by the Center, at locations within Albany county.

Phoenix House Foundation, Inc., New York, New York, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of facilities, excluding general hospitals as defined in article twenty-eight of the public health law, located in the county of New York, or at sites owned, leased or operated by Phoenix House at the following locations: 34-01, 34-11 and 34-25 Vernon Boulevard, Long Island City, New York; 480 East 185th Street and 2329 Bassford Avenue, Bronx, New York; 43-44 and 46-50 Jay Street, Brooklyn, New York; and Shrub Oak, Westchester county, New York; for the provision of drug abuse prevention and treatment, medical, psychiatric and clinic services, remedial education, secondary education, vocational training and recreational facilities for adolescent and adult substance and polysubstance abusers, mentally ill chemical abusers, and their families, and related administrative and support services.

Irish American Heritage Museum, a not-for-profit corporation, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, design, construction, improvement, renovation, equipping, furnishing or otherwise providing for facilities within the city of Albany, New York.

The Crown Heights Jewish Community Council, Inc. a not-for-profit corporation, for the financing, refinancing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation, rehabilitation of, furnishing, equipping and otherwise providing for buildings to serve as dormitories for students enrolled in various professional or post-secondary educational institutions.

The Rosalind and Joseph Gurwin Jewish Geriatric Center of Long Island, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation, for the financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, furnishing, equipping, improvement, renovation or otherwise providing for facilities to serve the aged, disabled and chronically impaired persons.

Staten Island Institute of Arts & Sciences.

The DePaul Group, Inc. and its affiliates and subsidiaries, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of certain educational, administrative and residential facilities, to be located in the state of New York.

The Roswell Park Cancer Institute corporation and its subsidiary corporations.

University Heights Association, Inc.

Little Flower Children's Services of New York, Brooklyn, New York for the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, equipping or otherwise providing for four residential facilities for learning disabled children.

The department of audit and control of the state of New York.

The New York state and local employees' retirement system.

The New York state and local police and fire retirement system.

The office of general services of the state of New York.

Public school districts receiving aid for the financing of eligible school construction projects for rebuilding schools to uphold education (RESCUE).

Harlem Dowling-West Side Center for Children and Family Services, a not-for-profit corporation for the financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, furnishing, equipping, improvement, renovation or otherwise providing for facilities to serve and assist children and their families in crisis and distress.

Yeshiva Beis Leivy.

Roberson Memorial, Inc., doing business as Roberson Museum and Science Center.

* Not-for-profit members of the New York State Rehabilitation Association and the New York Alliance for Inclusion and Innovation and any successor in interest to any such organization, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of certain educational, administrative, residential, clinical, day programming, job training and workforce development facilities to be located in the state of New York.

* NB Repealed December 31, 2028

* NYSARC, Inc. for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, and equipping of clinical, day programming and residential facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities throughout the state.

* NB Repealed December 31, 2028

Educational Housing Services Inc., a not-for-profit corporation, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, and equipping of housing for students and/or faculty at institutions of higher education located within the five boroughs of the city of New York and Westchester county either by directly or by creation of a wholly-owned not-for-profit subsidiary corporation or controlled corporations, limited liability companies or partnerships, that are not subject to federal income taxation (except with respect to any unrelated business income).

* Terence Cardinal Cooke Health Care Center for the financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, and equipping of facilities to serve aged, disabled, and chronically impaired, and persons who have a developmental disability.

* NB Repealed December 31, 2028

United States Military Academy for the purpose of providing construction related services in connection with the construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development or expansion of facilities owned by the United States Military Academy located at West Point, New York.

The Helen Keller National Center for Deaf-Blind Youths and Adults, a not-for-profit corporation located in Sands Point, New York, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of facilities.

The Green Chimneys Children's Services, Inc., Brewster, New York for the financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, equipping or otherwise for new children's cottages.

The state university construction fund or any other public or private entity in connection with financing, refinancing, acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, a pharmaceutical research, development, which may also include a manufacturing facility at the state university of New York college of technology at Farmingdale. The authority shall exercise only those powers or duties set forth in this section as shall be set forth in an agreement by and between the state university construction fund, the authority and any such public or private entity.

MSMC realty corporation, a support organization of the Mount Sinai hospital, Mount Sinai school of medicine of the city university of New York and the Mount Sinai medical center, inc. (collectively, "Mount Sinai"), for the purpose of providing facilities and equipment for Mount Sinai. As used in this paragraph and for purposes of chapter five hundred fifty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-nine, MSMC Realty Corporation shall be deemed to include any other entity that is created by MSMC Realty Corporation or Mount Sinai for the purpose of entering into an agreement with the dormitory authority pursuant to this paragraph.

The state university construction fund or any other public or private entity in connection with financing, refinancing, acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for approved university-related economic development facilities authorized by section three hundred seventy-two-a of the education law. The authority shall exercise only those powers or duties set forth in this section as shall be set forth in an agreement by and between the state university construction fund, the authority and any such public or private entity.

The Capital District YMCA and related branches, administrative offices and satellite facilities located in New York state including: Albany YMCA, Camp Chingachgook, Guilderland YMCA, Parkside Family YMCA, Schenectady YMCA, Southern Saratoga YMCA, Troy Family YMCA and any successor in interest to any such organization for the financing and/or refinancing of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

UCPA of the Capital District, Inc., UCPA of Cayuga County, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Children's Association of Chemung County, Inc., Finger Lakes United Cerebral Palsy, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Associations of Fulton and Montgomery Counties, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the Tri-Counties, Inc., Franziska Racker Centers, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Nassau County, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of New York City, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Niagara County, Inc., Orange County Cerebral Palsy Association, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of Queens, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the Rochester Area, Inc., Jawonio, Inc., The Handicapped Children's Association of Southern New York, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Greater Suffolk, Inc., SDTC - The Center for Discovery, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Children's Association of Syracuse, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of Ulster County Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Person's Association of the Utica Area, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Westchester, Inc. and Unified Creative Programs, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Western New York, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Putnam and Southern Dutchess Counties, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the North Country, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Associations of New York State, Inc., any not-for-profit affiliates or members of Cerebral Palsy Associations of New York State, Inc., and any successor in interest to any such organization for the financing and/or refinancing of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities throughout the state of New York, including educational, residential, administrative, clinical, and day programming facilities used in the provision of services to individuals with disabilities.

The university at Albany foundation, or an associated not-for-profit corporation controlled by the university at Albany foundation which has been formed or is formed within one year of the effective date of this paragraph, for the purpose of financing or refinancing the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for a facility to serve as an incubator and research facility located at the east campus of the university at Albany; and Fuller road management corporation, for the purpose of financing or refinancing the design, construction, improvement, furnishing and equipping of incubator and research facilities at the center for environmental sciences and technology management.

Baker Hall, Lackawanna, New York for the financing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation and improvement for facilities in Lackawanna, New York.

The Abyssinian Cultural Building Corporation, a New York not-for-profit corporation, with respect to the financing and/or refinancing of the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing, purchasing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, an educational facility for the Thurgood Marshall Academy for Learning and Social Change to be leased to the New York city school construction authority or to the board of education of the city school district of the city of New York for school purposes.

Any school district in the state with respect to the financing or refinancing of all or a portion of school district capital facilities and school district capital equipment for such school districts, provided, however, that financing of such projects shall be limited to financing of projects eligible for an apportionment pursuant to subparagraph three of paragraph e of subdivision six of section thirty-six hundred two of the education law.

A qualified zone academy located in a city having one hundred twenty-five thousand or more inhabitants for the purpose of issuing qualified zone academy bonds in accordance with section 1397E of the internal revenue code, as the same may be amended.

The NDC housing and economic development corporation and its affiliates for the financing, refinancing, acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, renovation, rehabilitation, improvement, expansion, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for one building to be located at 160 East 24th Street, New York, N.Y. to serve as a dormitory for students attending institutions of higher education within the city of New York.

School Districts having Eligible School District Projects

Political subdivisions financing eligible wireless 911 capital equipment.

Natural History Museum of the Adirondacks.

Women's Interart Center, Inc. of New York City, for the acquisitions, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for facilities for the Interart Rehearsal Studio and Cultural Center Complex located at 543-551 West 52nd Street in the Clinton Urban Renewal area of Manhattan.

The Center for Jewish History, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for facilities as a centralized location for preserving and advancing scholarship, art, history, and culture through its archival collection, in a one hundred twenty thousand square foot facility located at 15 West 16th Street in Manhattan.

The Kaatsbaan International Dance Center, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, furnishing and equipping or otherwise providing for a professional creative residence and performance facility on one hundred fifty-three rural acres in Tivoli, New York.

Eyebeam Atelier, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for facilities devoted to the collaboration of art and technology in New York state and the construction of a new ninety thousand square foot building located in the Chelsea area of New York city.

Youth Environmental Services, d/b/a Yes Community Counseling, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, furnishing and equipping or otherwise providing for the purchase of a building for such not-for-profit group located in Massapequa, New York.

The New York military academy, an education corporation chartered by the board of regents located in Cornwall-on-Hudson, New York, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of facilities.

Preventive Medicine Institute, doing business as Strang Cancer Prevention Center.

Any residential institution for children as defined in subdivision forty-four of this section for the financing, refinancing, design, replacement (including acquisition and construction), reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, renovation, and equipping of existing residential facilities.

The Museum of African American Cinema, Inc., a New York not-for-profit educational corporation created by a provisional charter from the board of regents of the state university of New York, with respect to the financing, refinancing, acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, otherwise providing for facilities as a centralized location for preserving and advancing scholarship, art, history, and culture through its archival collection, in a building located in Harlem, New York city.

34th Street Cancer Center, Inc., with respect to the financing and/or refinancing of the acquisition, purchasing and equipping of a certain building located at 160 East 34th Street, New York, New York, for use as a cancer center.

The Beacon Institute, Inc., a domestic not-for-profit corporation formerly known as the Rivers and Estuaries Center on the Hudson, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, furnishing and equipping or otherwise providing for facilities for conducting a program of research and education that advances the understanding of rivers and estuaries and develops policies and practices that benefit the human and natural communities that depend upon these ecosystems, located at Beacon Harbor and Denning's Point in Beacon, New York, The Upper Hudson Research Center at Troy, located at the waterfront in Troy, New York and the Center for Tributary Study, located at Creek Road in Beacon, New York, and the Old Main Building at Clarkson University located in Potsdam, New York.

The Rochester school construction board for the financing of projects authorized pursuant to the city of Rochester and the board of education of the city school district of the city of Rochester school facilities modernization program act.

Albany Convention Center Authority

The YMCA of Greater Syracuse and related branches, administrative offices and satellite facilities located in New York state including: Downtown YMCA, East Area YMCA, North Area YMCA, Northwest YMCA, Camp

Iroquois and any successor in interest to any such organization for the financing and/or refinancing of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

The United States Maritime Resource Center for the purpose of financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, expansion and equipping of a facility to serve as a classroom and student residence building in support of professional education and training programs to be located on the campus of the United States Merchant Marine Academy located in Kings Point, New York.

Not-for-profit members of the Alliance of Long Island Agencies, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of certain educational, administrative, clinical, day program and residential facilities to be located in the state of New York.

Fordham Preparatory School, Inc., for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for construction of additional educational facilities located on Fordham University Rose Hill Campus, the Bronx, New York.

The Reece School, for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of, the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, additional floors or facilities for education and therapy at their facility located at twenty-five East One Hundred Fourth Street in the city of New York, to serve as a school for special education students; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Reece School shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the United States, any agency thereof, the state, any agency thereof, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, any social services district in the state or any other governmental entity in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by the Reece School to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between the Reece School and the dormitory authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued, pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Friends Academy, Glen Cove, Nassau County, for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, the complete renovation of the lower school located on the campus at Glen Cove, Nassau County, provided however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed six million five hundred thousand dollars.

Not-for-profit members of InterAgency Council of Developmental Disabilities Agencies, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of certain educational, administrative, clinical, day program and residential facilities to be located in the state of New York.

Broad Channel Volunteers, Inc. doing business as Broad Channel Volunteer Fire Department and Ambulance Corps for the purpose of providing construction related services in connection with the construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development or expansion of facilities owned by Broad Channel Volunteers, Inc. doing business as Broad Channel Volunteer Fire Department and Ambulance Corps located at 305 Crossbay Boulevard, County of Queens, block 15304, lot 450, New York 11693.

The Convent of the Sacred Heart School, for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of, the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, the Convent of the Sacred Heart School at their facility located at: 406 East 91st Street in the city of New York, to serve as a school for students in grades pre-kindergarten through twelve; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed fifty-five million dollars.

Mercy Flight, Inc., of Western New York, for the financing and/or refinancing of equipment or the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

The Trevor Day School, for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of, the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, the Trevor Day School at their facility located at 312-318 East 95th Street in the city of New York, to serve as a school for students in grades seven through twelve; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed seventy-five million dollars.

Richardson Center Corporation.

Williamsburg Infant & Early Childhood Development Center, Inc. at 22 Middleton Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Randolph Academy union free school district for the financing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation and improvement for facilities located in Erie county, New York.

Medical Missions for Children, Inc.

Primary Care Development Corporation for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, and equipping of facilities offering primary health care services and related ambulatory care and ancillary services in the state of New York.

Poly Prep Country Day School, for the refinancing of outstanding indebtedness, the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of, the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, the Poly Prep Country Day School at its facilities located at 9216 Seventh Avenue and/or 50 Prospect Park West in Brooklyn, New York, to serve as a school for students in grades Nursery through twelve; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed fifteen million dollars.

St. Andrew's Foundation, the Scottish Society of Hudson's Valley, Ltd., a not-for-profit corporation, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, design, construction, improvement, renovation, equipping, furnishing or otherwise providing for facilities within the Hudson Valley.

Xavier High School, for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of the aquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, Xavier High School at its facility located at 30 West 16th Street in the city of New York, to serve as a school for students in grades nine through twelve; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed fifty-five million dollars.

Mercy Flight Central, Inc., of Central New York, for the financing and/or refinancing of equipment or the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

Young Men's Christian Association-Women's Community Center of Rome, New York Incorporated, for the financing and/or refinancing of equipment or the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

Dancewave, Inc., for the financing, acquisition, construction, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

Summit Educational Resources, Inc., a not-for-profit organization, for the acquisition, financing and/or refinancing, design, construction, renovation, reconstruction, development, improvement, furnishing, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

An authorized agency as defined by subdivision ten of section three hundred seventy-one of the social services law, or a local probation department as defined by sections two hundred fifty-five and two hundred fifty-six of the executive law for the provision of detention facilities certified by the office of children and family services or by such office in conjunction with the state commission of correction or for the provision of residential facilities licensed by the office of children and family services including all necessary and usual attendant and related facilities and equipment.

The office of children and family services of the state of New York.

North Country School, Lake Placid, New York, for the acquisition, financing and/or refinancing, design, construction, renovation, reconstruction, development, improvement, furnishing, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

New York Military Academy

Any not-for-profit corporation formed pursuant to an inter-municipal agreement among two or more counties within this state to assist said counties in acquiring, financing, constructing, reconstructing, remodeling, enlarging, altering, repairing, operating, managing, leasing, selling or otherwise disposing of a joint county detention facility established in accordance with section two hundred eighteen-a of the county law.

The New York Racing Association, Inc. for capital projects.

The New York Academy of Medicine.

The Young Men's and Young Women's Hebrew Association (dba 92nd Street Y)

Masonic Medical Research Laboratory, a not-for-profit corporation, for the design, acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, rehabilitation, development, improvement, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for a facility and/or facilities, including any necessary or ancillary facilities, for the purpose of conducting scientific research or conducting testing for public health in the city of Utica.

Mary Cariola Children's Center, Inc.

Sandy Ground Historical Museum at 1538 Woodrow Road, Staten Island, New York for the restoration or replacement of the museum building located at such address.

the office of cannabis management.

the cannabis control board.

the private debt or equity fund in which the state or any state agency, public authority or public benefit corporation, or division thereof, has invested and is selected pursuant to subdivision thirty-two of section one thousand six hundred seventy-eight of this title to the extent authorized in subdivision thirty of such section.

Saint Ann's School, Brooklyn, New York.

Dutchess Community College Association, Inc. for the purpose of financing or refinancing the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for residential housing located on the campus of Dutchess Community College.

SB Clinical Practice Management Plan, Inc., for the purpose of financing or refinancing for up to four advanced specialty care centers.

(c) It shall also include, a laboratory, which may include academic facilities, together with all necessary and usual attendant and related facilities and equipment, erected for rental to the state of New York or the government of the United States of America for research, laboratory or other related operations at any institution for higher education located in this state, and authorized to confer degrees by law or by the board of regents, other than a state-operated institution or statutory or contract college under the jurisdiction of the State University of New York, as defined in section three hundred fifty of the education law.

(d) It shall also include, a board of cooperative educational services school facility, any building, library, laboratory, classroom or other building or structure essential, necessary or useful for instruction in a program of any board of cooperative educational services and located in the state of New York.

(e) It shall also include, facilities, which may include a combined occupancy or multi-use building or portion thereof, for the Gananda educational facilities corporation, a not-for-profit corporation, and used in whole or in part by the Gananda school district pursuant to a lease or other agreement entered into under the provisions of chapter nine hundred twenty-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred seventy-two, as amended.

(f) It shall also include, a facility for the aged.

(g) It shall also include a child care facilities development project.

(h) It shall also include equipment, intellectual property or other intangible property, including information technology and software, eligible for tax-exempt financing under the United States internal revenue code.

3. The term "bond" shall mean bonds or notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title;

5. The term "board" shall mean the members of the authority.

6. The term "facility for the aged" shall mean any real property, building, unit within a building, or any structure on or improvement to real property of any kind or description essential, necessary or useful in a program to provide facilities for the aged, including all usual attendant and related facilities, fixtures, equipment and connections for utility services or any combinations thereof, acquired, designed, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated and improved, or otherwise provided by the dormitory authority for persons sixty years of age or older, and any other person who is the spouse of and resides with a person sixty years of age or older.

7. The term "locally sponsored community college" shall mean a college established and administered pursuant to article one hundred twenty-six of the education law;

8. The term "city university" shall mean the city university of New York, comprised of the senior colleges and community colleges governed and administered by the board of higher education in the city of New York pursuant to article one hundred twenty-five of the education law;

9. The term "facility", when used with respect to a locally sponsored community college, shall mean a dormitory as defined in subdivision two (b) of this section.

10. The term "federally guaranteed security" means any security, investment or evidence of indebtedness which is issued pursuant to the national housing act or any successor provision of law, each as amended from time to time, and which is either, directly or indirectly, insured or guaranteed, in whole as to the repayment of principal and interest by the United States of America or any instrumentality thereof.

11. The term "federally insured mortgage note" means any loan secured by a mortgage for any hospital or health care institution facility which is either, directly or indirectly, insured or guaranteed, in whole or in part, as to the repayment of principal and interest by the United States of America or an instrumentality thereof, or any commitment by the United States of America or an instrumentality thereof to so insure or guarantee such a loan secured by a mortgage.

12. The term "direct loan" shall mean a loan by the authority to a student or the parents of a student or both for the purpose of financing the cost of attendance by the student at a public institution for higher education located in this state, recognized and approved by the regents of the university of the state of New York, which provides a course of study leading to the granting of a post-secondary degree, which is serviced and administered by a financial institution, the New York state higher education services corporation or other qualified loan origination and servicing organization pursuant to the supplemental higher education loan financing program authorized by section sixteen hundred seventy-nine of this title.

13. The term "education loan" shall mean a loan by the authority to an independent institution for higher education located in this state, recognized and approved by the regents of the university of the state of New York, which provides a course of study leading to the granting of a post-secondary degree pursuant to the supplemental higher education loan financing program authorized by section sixteen hundred seventy-nine of this title.

14. The term "student loan" shall mean a loan by an independent institution for higher education located in this state, recognized and approved by the regents of the university of the state of New York, which provides a course of study leading to the granting of a post-secondary degree to a student or the parents of a student or both for the purpose of financing the cost of attendance by the student at such institution pursuant to the supplemental higher education loan financing program authorized by section sixteen hundred seventy-nine of this title.

15. The term "cost of attendance" shall mean, for the period for which the loan is sought, the tuition and fees applicable to the student, together with the estimate of the institution for higher education of other expenses reasonably related to attendance at such institution, including, but not limited to, the cost of room and board, reasonable commuting costs and costs for books, and, in the case of a student who receives or has received a HEAL direct loan or a HEAL student loan, the amount of the insurance premium and the interest due and payable on any such loan.

16. The term "borrower" shall mean a student or a parent who has received or agreed to pay a student loan or a direct loan.

17. The term "student loan series portfolio" shall mean student loans made by a specific institution for higher education which are funded from the proceeds of an education loan to such institution out of the proceeds of a related specific bond issue through the authority or which is purchased, acquired or taken by assignment or otherwise by the authority.

18. The term "student" shall mean any full-time or half-time student, as such terms are defined by the commissioner of education, enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student in a public or independent institution for higher education located in this state, recognized and approved by the regents of the university of the state of New York, which provides a course of study leading to the granting of a post-secondary degree.

19. The term "parent" shall mean one or both of the birth parents, step-parents or adoptive parents or the spouse of an adoptive parent or the legal guardian or guardians of a student.

20. The term "HEAL direct loan" shall mean a loan by the authority to a student for the purpose of financing the cost of attendance by the student at a public or independent institution for higher education located in this state where such loan is insured by the United States of America pursuant to title IV, part C, of the "Health Professions Educational Assistance Act of 1976", as now or hereafter amended, with respect to the health education assistance loan program authorized thereunder.

21. The term "HEAL education loan" shall mean a loan by the authority to an independent institution for higher education located in this state, which is designated as a HEAL school pursuant to title IV, part C, of the "Health Professions Educational Assistance Act of 1976", as now or hereafter amended with respect to the health education assistance program authorized thereunder.

22. The term "HEAL student loan" shall mean a loan by an independent institution for higher education in this state, to a student for the purpose of financing the cost of attendance by the student at such institution which is insured by the United States of America pursuant to title IV, part C, of the "Health Professions Educational Assistance Act of 1976", as now or hereafter amended, with respect to the health education assistance loan program authorized thereunder.

23. The term "HEAL student loan series portfolio" shall mean HEAL student loans made by a specific institution for higher education which are funded from the proceeds of a HEAL education loan to such institution out of the proceeds of a related specific bond issue through the authority or which is purchased, acquired or taken by assignment or otherwise by the authority.

24. The term "judicial facilities" means facilities, in any county, within the tenth judicial district, that does not contain a city, designed for the use of the judiciary, including without limitation, civil and criminal courts, administrative tribunals and government offices and facilities for the administration of justice, and all necessary and usual attendant and related facilities and equipment and the acquisition of land necessary therefor.

25. The term "court facilities" shall mean facilities suitable and sufficient for the transaction of business by the state-paid courts and court-related agencies of the unified court system and the judicial and nonjudicial personnel thereof, including rooms and accommodations for the courts of the unified court system, the judges, justices and the clerical, administrative and other personnel thereof, law libraries, conference rooms or centers, facilities for the temporary detention of persons in connection with appearance or production in court when the court is in session, any other necessary or desirable facilities incidental to the operation or administration of the unified court system, fixtures, furnishings or equipment in connection therewith and buildings and improvements used for the foregoing.

26. The term "participating municipality" means a political subdivision of the state identified in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section thirty-nine of the judiciary law.

27. The term "combined occupancy structure" shall mean any building or other improvement on real property or an interest therein, containing both court facilities and facilities intended to be used for purposes not directly or indirectly related to the court facilities and occupied by one or more public officials, public bodies or not-for-profit corporations, together with any other necessary or desirable facilities incidental to such purposes. Not more than forty-nine percent of a combined occupancy structure shall be used for purposes unrelated to the function of the court facilities therein.

28. The term "state university educational facility" shall mean an academic building, administrative building, housing unit for the use of faculty and staff and the families of such faculty and staff who are living with such faculty or staff, library, laboratory, classroom, lecture hall, health facility, or other building or structure essential, necessary or useful in the academic, cultural, health or research program, including all necessary and attendant and related facilities and equipment, at any state-operated institution or statutory or contract college under the jurisdiction of the state university of New York, as defined in section three hundred fifty of the education law.

29. The term "state university athletic facility" shall mean an athletic facility which includes an outdoor stadium for athletic competitions at the state university of New York at Buffalo. Such facility shall not be considered for any purpose to be a state university educational facility within the meaning of this chapter; nor shall any bonds issued in connection with a state university athletic facility be considered for any purpose to have been issued in connection with a state university educational facility.

30. The term "private not-for-profit schools" shall mean those private not-for-profit schools approved by the commissioner of education pursuant to article eighty-nine of the education law as set forth in this chapter.

31. The term "ambulatory care training facility" shall mean a facility at the health sciences center at state university of New York at Stony Brook which is to be used for the provision of on-site ambulatory care services and the instruction and training of medical students, resident physicians and fellows and other health sciences students in attendance at the health sciences center. Such facility shall not be considered for any purpose to be a state university educational facility within the meaning of this chapter; nor shall any bonds issued in connection with such facility be considered for any purpose to have been issued in connection with a state university educational facility.

32. The term "public library" shall mean those libraries set forth in section five of the chapter of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-three which added this subdivision, as defined as a public library or as an association library pursuant to section two hundred fifty-three of the education law.

33. The term "equipment loan" shall mean a loan made by the authority to any private entity for the benefit of which the dormitory authority is authorized to issue bonds or other obligations of the dormitory authority.

34. The term "private entity" shall mean any corporation formed other than for profit, including any institution of higher education.

35. "Eligible school construction project" means a project for the design, planning, construction, acquisition, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of a public school building used primarily for instruction that is an accessibility project, an educational technology project, a health and safety project, and/or a physical capacity expansion project, that has been approved by the voters of the school district, or approved by the trustees or board of education for school districts where voter approval is not required, or, a construction emergency project. Each of the types of projects included within this definition shall have the same meaning ascribed thereto pursuant to subdivision ten of section thirty-six hundred forty-one of the education law.

* 36. The term "child care facilities development project" shall mean any project that provides for rehabilitation or construction to establish, expand, or develop a licensed child care center or a registered school-age program which is intended to serve the needs of low-income working families or an area with demonstrated child care need or to provide care for children through the age of twelve years and enrolled in school following the completion of the school day or the school year. Such projects shall be used as licensed or registered forms of child care for a period of at least ten years with an average of twenty-five percent of its available child care slots set aside for families eligible for low-income child care subsidies or for referrals of low-income or public assistance families from local social services districts.

* NB There are 2 sub. 36's

* 36. "Eligible capital facility program project" shall mean a project for the design, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, or improvement of research and development facilities, including equipment, or for the reconstruction, rehabilitation, or improvement of existing laboratory facilities, as specified in subdivision four of section two hundred nine-p of article ten-B of the executive law.

* NB There are 2 sub. 36's

38. "Eligible biomedical facilities program project" shall mean a project for the design, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, or improvement of biomedical facilities, including the reconstruction and expansion by the state university construction fund of an academic incubator facility for use as a pharmaceutical technology/manufacturing building under section three hundred seventy-two-a of the education law.

39. "Eligible courthouse improvements" shall mean a project for the design, acquisition, construction, rehabilitation or improvement of courthouse facilities as set forth in an agreement between the authority and the director of the budget providing for the financing of such improvements.

* 40. The term "school district" shall mean a common school district, a consolidated school district, a union free school district, a central school district, a central high school district, or a city school district in a city having a population of less than one hundred twenty thousand inhabitants or a city acting on behalf of a city school district in a city having a population in excess of one hundred twenty-five thousand but less than one million inhabitants according to the latest federal census. Provided, however, that for the purposes of subparagraph four of paragraph e of subdivision six of section thirty-six hundred two of the education law, such term shall not include special act school districts listed in chapter five hundred sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-seven, as amended. Provided, further, that for the purposes of section sixteen hundred eighty-nine-i of this title, such term shall also include a city acting on behalf of a city school district in a city having a population in excess of one million inhabitants according to the latest federal census.

* NB Effective until December 31, 2029

* 40. The term "school district" shall mean a common school district, a consolidated school district, a union free school district, a central school district, a central high school district, or a city school district in a city having a population of less than one hundred twenty thousand inhabitants or a city acting on behalf of a city school district in a city having a population in excess of one hundred twenty-five thousand but less than one million inhabitants according to the latest federal census. Provided, however, that for the purposes of subparagraph four of paragraph e of subdivision six of section thirty-six hundred two of the education law, such term shall not include special act school districts listed in chapter five hundred sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-seven, as amended.

* NB Effective December 31, 2029

41. The term "school board" shall mean the board of education, trustee or board of trustees of a school district, or, for purposes of any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to subdivisions thirty-eight and thirty-nine of section sixteen hundred eighty of this article, a city acting on behalf of a city school district in a city having a population in excess of one hundred twenty-five thousand inhabitants but less than one million inhabitants according to the latest federal census.

42. The term "school district capital facilities" shall mean any school district project for the construction, reconstruction or acquisition of a school facility for which a cost allowance or incidental cost allowance would be available pursuant to subdivision six of section thirty-six hundred two of the education law, a laboratory, library, classroom, lecture hall, or other building or structure essential, necessary or useful in an educational program of any school district, including all necessary and attendant and related facilities and equipment.

43. The term "school district capital equipment" shall mean any type of capital equipment essential, necessary or useful in an educational program of any school district and telecommunication systems, computer systems, local area networks or wide-area networks, including the original purchase and installation of computer hardware, conduit, wiring, in-building elements of networks and equipment for powering of hardware installation in buildings.

44. The term "residential institution for children" shall mean any not-for-profit corporation that operates a residential facility for thirteen or more foster children and/or children placed by the committee on special education of a school district for which the office of children and family services establishes a payment rate pursuant to the social services law or the education law.

* 45. "EXCEL project" shall mean capital projects eligible for an expanding our children's education and learning (EXCEL) grant aid apportionment pursuant to subdivision fourteen of section thirty-six hundred forty-one of the education law.

* NB Repealed December 31, 2029

§ 1676-a. Payment on authority public work projects. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, all contracts for public work awarded by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title shall be in accordance with section one hundred thirty-nine-f of the state finance law. For the purposes of this section, public work by the dormitory authority shall include but not be limited to the construction of dormitories and other related structures as defined in paragraph a of subdivision two of section sixteen hundred seventy-six of this title, boards of cooperative educational services as defined in paragraph d of subdivision two of section sixteen hundred seventy-six of this title, locally sponsored community colleges as defined in subdivision seven of section sixteen hundred seventy-six of this title, and the city university as defined in subdivision eight of section sixteen hundred seventy-six of this title.

§ 1677. Dormitory Authority. A board, to be known as the "Dormitory Authority," is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation. Such board shall consist of the commissioner of education, the commissioner of health, the comptroller or one member appointed by him or her who shall serve until his or her successor is appointed, the director of the budget, one member appointed by the temporary president of the senate, one member appointed by the speaker of the assembly, and five members to be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, for a term of three years. The governor shall also fill any vacancy which may occur by reason of the death, disqualification, resignation or removal of any member theretofore appointed. The commissioner of education, the commissioner of health and the director of the budget each may appoint a person or persons to represent such commissioner or director, respectively, at all meetings of such board from which such commissioner or director, as the case may be, may be absent. Any such representative so designated shall have the power to attend and to vote at any meeting of such board from which the officer so designating him as a representative is absent with the same force and effect as if the officer designating him were present and voting. The powers of the board shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the whole number of the members thereof. The members of the board shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The governor shall appoint a chair from among the members appointed by him or her who shall serve as such until his or her successor is appointed. At the first meeting of the board and at the first meeting thereof in each fiscal year thereafter the members of the board shall choose from their number a vice-chair and a secretary. The authority may also use the facilities, employees, records and equipment of the state department of education with the consent of the regents.

§ 1678. Powers of the authority. The authority shall have power

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To acquire in the name of the state by purchase or condemnation, gift or devise real property or rights of easement on terms necessary or convenient for its corporate purposes; to acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes;

4. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs;

5. To appoint officers, agents and employees and fix their compensation, provided, however, that the appointment of the executive director shall be subject to confirmation by the senate in accordance with section twenty-eight hundred fifty-two of this chapter;

6. To make contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient;

7. To prepare or cause to be prepared plans, specifications, designs and estimates of costs for the construction and equipment of dormitories and appurtenant facilities for the institutions specified in section sixteen hundred seventy-six, and from time to time to modify such plans, specifications, designs or estimates;

8. By contract or contracts or by its own employees to construct, acquire, reconstruct, rehabilitate and improve, and furnish and equip, dormitories and necessary and usual attendant facilities for state-operated institutions and statutory and contract colleges under the jurisdiction of the state university of New York pursuant to agreement with the state university construction fund created by section three hundred seventy-one of the education law;

9. To maintain, reconstruct and operate such dormitories until the cost thereof and the outstanding bonds thereon have been liquidated;

10. To fix and collect rentals and other charges for the use of dormitories and judicial facilities, court facilities or combined occupancy structures or any parts thereof; to contract with holders of its bonds to fix such rentals and charges at rates at least sufficient to pay for all costs of operation, maintenance and repairs of the dormitories and judicial facilities, court facilities or combined occupancy structures, and the interest on and amortization of, or payment of its bonds issued to finance dormitories, judicial facilities, court facilities or combined occupancy structures; to provide by contract for the promulgation, by the appropriate officer or body, in relation to any institution described in subdivision two of section sixteen hundred seventy-six of this title, of such reasonable and proper rules and regulations as may be necessary to assure the maximum use of the facilities of any dormitory at all times;

11. To borrow money and to issue negotiable bonds or notes and to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;

12. To do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of this authority.

13. In connection with court facilities or combined occupancy structures:

(a) To acquire by purchase, condemnation, gift, devise, lease or other agreement such real property or an interest therein as may be necessary or convenient for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement or provision of court facilities or combined occupancy structures;

(b) To prepare or cause to be prepared plans, specifications, designs and estimates of costs for the design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of court facilities or combined occupancy structures, and the equipping and furnishing thereof;

(c) To prepare or cause to be prepared a facility design and performance plan with each participating municipality relating to court facilities and combined occupancy structures in any case where the authority and the participating municipality have agreed that the authority will award contracts for the design and construction of the project. Such plan shall set forth the terms and conditions associated with the construction management process, including, but not limited to, provisions relating to the selection of architects, construction consultants, construction managers and contractors, the relative responsibilities of the authority and the participating municipality with respect to the initial project budget and the court facilities program, the preparation of working drawings and budgets, the project construction process, beneficial occupancy including formal notifications, punch lists and acceptance by all parties, notification of construction completion, project close-out, and the commencement of responsibility for maintenance of the facility. Such plan shall also include provisions relating to the responsibility of the authority to require appropriate performance and surety bonds, the diligent pursuit by the authority of remedies against architects, contractors and sureties deemed to be in default in the performance of their obligations, and, generally, the management of the construction process in a professional manner in accordance with prevailing construction industry standards. The authority shall submit the facility design and performance plan to the chief administrator for submission to the court facilities capital review board in accordance with section sixteen hundred eighty-c of this chapter;

(d) To design, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate or improve court facilities or combined occupancy structures and to enter into contracts to cause court facilities or combined occupancy structures to be designed, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated or improved;

(e) To enter into leases, subleases or other agreements with participating municipalities in connection with court facilities and jointly with participating municipalities and other persons, firms, associations, corporations or agencies, including public bodies, in accordance with section sixteen hundred eighty-b of this article;

(f) To sell, convey, lease, sublease or otherwise transfer any real property or interest therein held by the authority to any person, firm, association, corporation or agency, including a public body, for the purpose of constructing or otherwise providing thereon a combined occupancy structure, provided that, simultaneously therewith, the authority enters into an agreement for the reconveyance, purchase, lease, sublease or other acquisition of the court facilities to be contained in such combined occupancy structures.

Any contract undertaken or financed by the dormitory authority for any construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of any court facilities or combined occupancy structures shall comply with the provisions of sections one hundred one and one hundred three of the general municipal law.

14. To adopt resolutions providing for a program of self-insurance to pay for uninsured losses incurred by the dormitory authority by reason of a deductible feature in a policy or policies of insurance or to prevent a default in the compliance with any provision of any agreement, lease or resolution of the authority relating to or authorizing the issuance of obligations of the authority. When such program is approved by the superintendent of financial services of the state of New York, such program shall for all purposes of compliance by the dormitory authority with any provision of an agreement, lease or resolution of the authority relating to or authorizing the issuance of obligations of the authority be deemed to be an insurance policy issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in the state of New York. The approval of the superintendent shall be based upon such standards as he shall from time to time determine to be appropriate in light of the said program, including but not limited to reasonable requirements regarding the amounts and kinds of coverage provided and the minimum financing maintained, and provided that the superintendent shall determine that such program will not be prejudicial to the best interests of the people of this state.

15. The authority shall, notwithstanding any other law, have the power to mortgage, pledge or assign any real or personal property of any dormitory or board of cooperative educational services school facility as and to the extent authorized by any agreement or lease between the authority and any educational institution as defined in section sixteen hundred eighty of this title or any board of cooperative educational services to secure any and all liabilities of such educational institution or board of cooperative educational services under such agreement or lease in respect of such dormitory or board of cooperative educational services facility not theretofore paid or discharged, or other real or personal property of the authority. Any such mortgage, pledge or assignment by the authority, unless otherwise provided therein, shall be superior to any right an educational institution or a board of cooperative educational services may have with respect to the property subject to such mortgage, pledge or assignment, and upon foreclosure of any such mortgage or enforcement of any such pledge or assignment any such right shall be extinguished.

16. To acquire and to enter into commitments to acquire any federally guaranteed security and to pledge or otherwise use any such federally guaranteed security in such manner as the authority deems in its best interest to secure or otherwise provide a source of repayment on any of its bonds issued on behalf of any hospital designated as an educational institution in section sixteen hundred eighty of this title or to enter into any appropriate agreement with any hospital designated as an educational institution in section sixteen hundred eighty of this title whereby the authority may make a loan to any such hospital for the purpose of acquiring and entering into commitments to acquire any federally guaranteed security. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision may contain such provisions which are deemed necessary or desirable by the authority for the security or protection of the authority or the holders of such bonds; provided, however, that the authority, prior to making any such acquisition, commitment or loan, shall first determine, and shall first enter into an agreement with any such hospital or any other appropriate institution or corporation to require, that the proceeds derived from the acquisition of any such federally guaranteed security will be used for the purpose of providing or refinancing any dormitory for any hospital designated as an educational institution in section sixteen hundred eighty of this title, including any facility, real property, equipment and appurtenant and related facilities.

17. To make and undertake commitments to make education loans to any independent institution for higher education located in this state, recognized and approved by the regents of the university of the state of New York, which provides a course of study leading to the granting of a post-secondary degree, for the purpose of enabling any such institution for higher education to make student loans to any student attending such independent institution for higher education, the parents of any such student or both for the purpose of financing the cost of attendance by such student at such independent institution for higher education, to make and to commit to make direct loans to a student or the parents of a student or both for the purpose of financing the cost of attendance by such student at a public institution for higher education, and to purchase, acquire or take by assignment or otherwise student loans from such an independent institution for higher education. Each loan and purchase of a student loan by the authority authorized by this subdivision shall be premised upon an agreement, agreements, or supplements thereto, between the authority and such institution for higher education, such student or the parents of the student or both, which agreement, agreements, or supplements thereto, may make provisions as to payment, security, payment of any expenses or costs of the authority and any other matters deemed appropriate by the authority.

All provisions of this title not inconsistent with the provisions of this subdivision shall be applicable with respect to any bonds of the authority issued to obtain funds for any purpose authorized under this subdivision, and with respect to the powers of the authority and any such institution for higher education provided, however, that the use of any such powers in order to effectuate the purpose of section sixteen hundred seventy-nine of this chapter be expressed by guidelines subject to the review of the advisory committee pursuant to paragraph ten of section sixteen hundred seventy-nine of this chapter. Bonds of the authority issued for the purposes of this subdivision shall be deemed to be issued for the financing and construction of a project within the meaning of section fifty-one of this chapter.

18. To make and undertake commitments to make HEAL education loans to any independent institution for higher education located in this state, which is an eligible institution pursuant to title IV, part C, of the "Health Professions Educational Assistance Act of 1976", as now or hereafter amended, for the purpose of enabling any such institution to make HEAL student loans, to make and to commit to make HEAL direct loans to an eligible student attending a public or independent institution for higher education, and to purchase, acquire or take by assignment or otherwise HEAL student loans, and to sell and commit to sell HEAL direct loans, HEAL education loans and HEAL student loans purchased, acquired or taken by assignment or otherwise by the authority to the extent necessary to assure the marketability of and the adequacy of the security for the bonds of the authority. Each loan and purchase of a HEAL student loan by the authority authorized by this subdivision shall be premised upon an agreement, agreements, or supplements thereto, between the authority and such institution for higher education or such student, which agreement, agreements, or supplements thereto, may, to the extent permitted by federal law and regulations, make provisions as to payment, security, payment of any expenses or costs of the authority and any other matters deemed appropriate by the authority. The authority shall be deemed to be and is authorized to act as an eligible lender as defined in title IV, part C, of the "Health Professions Educational Assistance Act of 1976", as now or hereafter amended, for purposes of the health education assistance loan program authorized thereunder.

All provisions of this title not inconsistent with the provisions of this subdivision shall be applicable with respect to any bonds of the authority issued to obtain funds for any purpose authorized under this subdivision, and with respect to the powers of the authority and any such institution for higher education, provided, however, that the use of any such powers in order to effectuate the purpose of sections sixteen hundred seventy-nine and sixteen hundred seventy-nine-a of this chapter be expressed by guidelines subject to the review of the advisory committee pursuant to subdivision ten of section sixteen hundred seventy-nine of this chapter. Bonds of the authority issued for the purposes of this subdivision shall be deemed to be issued for the financing and construction of a project within the meaning of section fifty-one of this chapter.

19. By contract or contracts or by its own employees to design, contruct, acquire, reconstruct, rehabilitate and improve, and furnish and equip, or otherwise provide judicial facilities.

All provisions of this title not inconsistent with the provisions of this subdivision shall be applicable with respect to any bonds of the authority issued to obtain funds for any purpose authorized under this subdivision, and with respect to the powers of the authority; provided, however, that the authority shall not undertake the provision of judicial facilities authorized by this subdivision unless the governing body of any county, within the tenth judicial district, that does not contain a city for whose use judicial facilities are to be provided consents thereto.

20. To enter into a contract or contracts with the commissioner of health for the purpose of implementing the health facility restructuring pool pursuant to section twenty-eight hundred fifteen of the public health law, and to receive, hold, invest and pay out moneys deposited in the restructuring pool. In connection therewith, the authority shall exercise all of its powers under article eight of this chapter.

21. (a) To enter into one or more agreements with the state university of New York to provide financial assistance on behalf of the state, as provided in subdivision eight of section six thousand three hundred four of the education law, to the local sponsors of community colleges for the design, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of one or more facilities for locally sponsored community colleges and the furnishing or equipping of such facilities. Each such agreement shall provide for annual payments to the dormitory authority from the state aid or other financial assistance provided to the local sponsor of such community college and paid into the community college tuition and instructional fund pursuant to paragraph (iii) of subdivision two of section ninety-seven-p of the state finance law, and contain such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, including, but not limited to, provisions relating to the establishment of reserve funds and indemnities. Each such agreement shall be subject to the approval of the director of the budget.

(b) Any such agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision may provide that the provisions thereof shall remain in force and effect until the issue of bonds of the dormitory authority to which it relates, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and the fees and expenses of the dormitory authority, are fully met and discharged, and any payments to be made by the state may be pledged by the dormitory authority to secure such bonds.

(c) No agreement entered into pursuant to this section shall be construed to limit or diminish the power of the dormitory authority with respect to a locally sponsored community college with respect to providing construction related services in connection with the construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development or expansion of locally sponsored community college facilities.

23. To make equipment loans pursuant to section sixteen hundred seventy-nine-b of this article and, in connection with such equipment loans, to enter into all necessary or useful agreements with respect to such loans.

24. To acquire bonds, notes or other obligations of any school district or city of the state issued to finance or refinance school district capital facilities and school district capital equipment and to make loan commitments and loans to school districts and to cities for such purposes, and to enter into arrangements with school districts and cities for the purchase of such bonds, notes or other obligations.

* 25. (a) To form one or more subsidiaries for the purpose of limiting the potential liability of the authority when exercising the powers and duties conferred upon the authority by this article in connection with the exercise of remedies by the authority against any borrower regulated under article twenty-eight of the public health law that has defaulted in its obligations under its loan agreement or mortgage with the authority and for which an event of default has been declared by the authority. Each such subsidiary created pursuant to this subdivision may exercise and perform one or more of the purposes, powers, duties, functions, rights and responsibilities of the authority (other than the issuance of indebtedness) in connection with real and personal property with respect to which the authority holds or held a mortgage, security interest or other collateral interest including: (i) bidding for, taking, holding, selling, conveying, assigning or transferring title to such property; (ii) entering into leases, subleases, operating agreements, security agreements, loan agreements or other encumbrances or arrangements with regard to such property and acting in a manner consistent with the rights, obligations or responsibilities of the owner of such property pursuant to such agreements or encumbrances; (iii) assuming any indebtedness or other liabilities secured by such property. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, but in all instances subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders, the transfer of title to any such subsidiary or any other actions taken by the authority or such subsidiary to enforce the authority's rights under the mortgage, security interest or other collateral interest or to protect, acquire, manage or dispose of the property shall be deemed to be a corporate purpose of the authority and shall not impair the validity of any bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority to which the mortgage, security interest or other collateral interest relates.

(b) Each such subsidiary authorized by paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be established in the form of a public benefit corporation by executing and filing with the secretary of state a certificate of incorporation which shall identify the authority as the entity organizing such subsidiary and set forth the name of such subsidiary public benefit corporation, its duration, the location of its principal office and its corporate purposes as provided in this subdivision and which certificate may be amended from time to time by the filing of amendments thereto with the secretary of state. Each such subsidiary shall be organized as a public benefit corporation, shall be a body politic and corporate, and shall have all the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions and other exemptions of the authority. The members of each such subsidiary shall be the same as the members of the authority and the provisions of subdivision two of section sixteen hundred ninety-one of this title shall in all respects apply to such members when acting in such capacity.

(c) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to impose any liabilities, obligations or responsibilities of any such subsidiary upon the authority and the authority shall have no liability or responsibility therefor unless the authority expressly agrees to assume the same.

(d) Each such subsidiary created pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to any other provision of this chapter pertaining to subsidiaries of public authorities.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, including but not limited to title five-A of article nine of this chapter, the Atlantic Avenue Healthcare Property Holding Corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to sell, exchange, lease, transfer and convey certain real property located at 483-503 Herkimer Street, 1028-1038 Broadway, 528 Prospect Place and/or 1366 East New York Avenue, all in Brooklyn, New York as directed by the commissioner of New York state division of homes and community renewal, upon such terms and conditions as such commissioner may fix and determine.

Such sale, exchange, lease, transfer and conveyance shall be consistent with and made pursuant to a plan to increase access and quality of health care services and preventative care and create affordable housing approved by the commissioner of New York state division of homes and community renewal, the commissioner of health and the director of the division of the budget to transform the Central

Brooklyn region. Such plan shall include any combination of initiatives intended to: increase access to open spaces, transform health care by increasing access and quality of health care services and preventative care, create affordable housing, improve youth development, prevent community violence, address social determinants of health, and provide any ancillary services thereto.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such sale, exchange, transfer, lease or conveyance shall be permitted pursuant to this section, unless in the opinion of bond counsel to the authority, such sale, exchange, transfer, lease or conveyance does not impair the tax-exempt status of any outstanding bonds or other obligations, if any, issued by the authority to finance or refinance the subject property. For the purposes of such opinion, the valuation of such property being sold, exchanged, transferred, leased or conveyed may reflect the terms and conditions set forth in the plan.

(f) The description in paragraph (e) of this subdivision of the lands to be transferred and conveyed is not intended to be a legal description, but is intended only to identify the premises to be conveyed. As a condition of transfer and conveyance, the Atlantic Avenue Healthcare Property Holding Corporation shall receive an accurate survey and description of the lands generally described in paragraph (e) of this subdivision, which may be used in the conveyance thereof.

* NB Effective until July 1, 2028

* 25. (a) To form a subsidiary for the purpose of limiting the potential liability of the authority when exercising the powers and duties conferred upon the authority by article eight of this chapter in connection with the exercise of remedies by the authority against North General Hospital, an eligible secured borrower (as defined in chapter five hundred ninety of the laws of two thousand two) located in the borough of Manhattan, New York that has defaulted in its obligations under its loan agreement or mortgage with the authority and for which an event of default has been declared by the authority. Such subsidiary created pursuant to this subdivision may exercise and perform one or more of the purposes, powers, duties, functions, rights and responsibilities of the authority other than the issuance of indebtedness, in connection with real and personal property with respect to which the authority holds or held a mortgage, security interest or other collateral interest including: (i) bidding for, taking, holding, selling, conveying, assigning or transferring title to such property; (ii) entering into leases, subleases, operating agreements, security agreements, loan agreements or other encumbrances or arrangements with regard to such property and acting in a manner consistent with the rights, obligations or responsibilities of the owner of such property pursuant to such agreements or encumbrances; (iii) assuming any indebtedness or other liabilities secured by such property. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, but in all instances subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders, the transfer of title to such subsidiary or any other actions taken by the authority or the subsidiary to enforce the authority's rights under the mortgage, security interest or other collateral interest or to protect, acquire, manage or dispose of the property shall be deemed to be a corporate purpose of the authority and shall not impair the validity of any bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority to which the mortgage, security interest or other collateral interest relates.

(b) Such subsidiary authorized by paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be established in the form of a public benefit corporation by executing and filing with the secretary of state a certificate of incorporation which shall identify the authority as the entity organizing such subsidiary and set forth the name of such subsidiary public benefit corporation, its duration, the location of its principal office and its corporate purposes as provided in this subdivision and which certificate may be amended from time to time by the filing of amendments thereto with the secretary of state. Such subsidiary shall be organized as a public benefit corporation, shall be a body politic and corporate, and shall have all the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions and other exemptions of the authority. The members of such subsidiary shall be the same as the members of the authority and the provisions of subdivision two of section sixteen hundred ninety-one of this title shall in all respects apply to such members when acting in such capacity.

(c) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to impose any liabilities, obligations or responsibilities of such subsidiary upon the authority and the authority shall have no liability or responsibility therefor unless the authority expressly agrees to assume the same.

(d) Such subsidiary created pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to any other provision of this chapter pertaining to subsidiaries of public authorities.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, including but not limited to title five-A of article nine of this chapter, the Atlantic Avenue Healthcare Property Holding Corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to sell, exchange, lease, transfer and convey certain real property located at 483-503 Herkimer Street, 1028-1038 Broadway, 528 Prospect Place and/or 1366 East New York Avenue, all in Brooklyn, New York as directed by the commissioner of New York state division of homes and community renewal, upon such terms and conditions as such commissioner may fix and determine.

Such sale, exchange, lease, transfer and conveyance shall be consistent with and made pursuant to a plan to increase access and quality of health care services and preventative care and create affordable housing approved by the commissioner of New York state division of homes and community renewal, the commissioner of health and the director of the division of the budget to transform the Central Brooklyn region. Such plan shall include any combination of initiatives intended to: increase access to open spaces, transform health care by increasing access and quality of health care services and preventative care, create affordable housing, improve youth development, prevent community violence, address social determinants of health, and provide any ancillary services thereto.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such sale, exchange, transfer, lease or conveyance shall be permitted pursuant to this section, unless in the opinion of bond counsel to the authority, such sale, exchange, transfer, lease or conveyance does not impair the tax-exempt status of any outstanding bonds or other obligations, if any, issued by the authority to finance or refinance the subject property. For the purposes of such opinion, the valuation of such property being sold, exchanged, transferred, leased or conveyed may reflect the terms and conditions set forth in the plan.

(f) The description in paragraph (e) of this subdivision of the lands to be transferred and conveyed is not intended to be a legal description, but is intended only to identify the premises to be conveyed. As a condition of transfer and conveyance, the Atlantic Avenue Healthcare Property Holding Corporation shall receive an accurate survey and description of the lands generally described in paragraph (e) of this subdivision, which may be used in the conveyance thereof.

* NB Effective July 1, 2028

* 26. To enter into a design and construction management agreement with the department of environmental conservation, pursuant to which one or more facilities are to be designed, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved, furnished or equipped for such department. Any such design and construction management agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for the following: the scope of design and construction management services to be provided by the authority, the manner in which those services will be provided, the fees to be charged by the authority and the sources of funds for the projects. No design-build contract as defined in chapter fifty-six of the laws of two thousand eleven shall be awarded pursuant to this subdivision.

* NB Repealed April 1, 2027

* 27. To enter into a design and construction management agreement with the office of parks, recreation and historic preservation, pursuant to which one or more facilities are to be designed, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved, furnished or equipped for such office. Any such design and construction management agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for the following: the scope of design and construction management services to be provided by the authority, the manner in which those services will be provided, the fees to be charged by the authority and the sources of funds for the projects. No design-build contract as defined in chapter fifty-six of the laws of two thousand eleven shall be awarded pursuant to this subdivision.

* NB Repealed April 1, 2027

28. To enter into a construction management agreement with the New York city housing authority, pursuant to which one or more facilities owned or operated by the New York city housing authority located in the city of New York are to be constructed, reconstructed, demolished, improved, modernized, renovated or expanded for such authority.

* 29. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, to establish a pilot program for the award of contracts up the maximum dollar amount specified in paragraph (e) of this subdivision, for the procurement of goods or services from, or for the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of facilities by, small businesses as defined in section one hundred thirty-one of the economic development law and minority-owned and women-owned business enterprises as defined in section three hundred ten of the executive law, notwithstanding the expiration of such section pursuant to subdivision (h) of section one hundred twenty-one of chapter two hundred sixty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred eight-eight, as amended, in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) Procurements made pursuant to this subdivision shall be governed by the authority's procurement policy and guidelines adopted pursuant to section twenty-eight hundred seventy-nine of this chapter, with participation in the pilot program confined to small businesses, as defined in section one hundred thirty-one of the economic development law, and minority-owned and women-owned business enterprises, as defined in section three hundred ten of the executive law.

(b) Procurements made pursuant to this subdivision shall be designated as such by the authority, in its sole discretion, pursuant to pre-established criteria contained in the authority's procurement and policy guidelines described in paragraph (a) of this subdivision. Such designation shall be made prior to the advertisement and request for bids or proposals, and any such advertisement or request shall indicate this designation clearly.

(c) If the total number of parties responding and considered capable of meeting the specifications and terms of the advertisement and request for bids or proposals is less than three, or if the authority determines that acceptance of any bid or proposal will result in the payment of an unreasonable price, the authority shall reject all responses and withdraw the designation made pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision.

(d) Procurements made pursuant to this subdivision may be undertaken in conjunction with section one hundred forty-seven of the state finance law authorizing a mentor-protege program to foster long-term relationships between approved mentor firms and small business concerns and minority and women-owned businesses certified pursuant to article fifteen-A of the executive law.

(e) The total value of contracts awarded pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed the greater of twenty million dollars or five percent of the value of all contracts awarded by the authority in a given fiscal year.

The authority shall submit a report, no later than September thirtieth, two thousand twenty-four, and annually thereafter, to the governor, the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly regarding procurements made pursuant to this subdivision. Such report shall include a description of each procurement made pursuant to this subdivision, information regarding the procurement process for each such procurement contract, including the list of responding entities that demonstrated the capability to meet the specifications and terms of the procurement made pursuant to this subdivision if such procurement did not use lowest responsible bidding, the project identification number and a description for each such project, the completion date or projected completion date as applicable for each such project, the status of each such project, the total cost or projected cost and cost modifications of each such project procured pursuant to this subdivision, indication of whether the party awarded a contract pursuant to this subdivision served as a general contractor or subcontractor in fulfilling the contract, and the total dollar value of monies paid to minority-owned and women-owned business enterprises pursuant to this subdivision itemized by year and including the total dollar values for the five years preceding the respective annual report's release date. For annual reports any new procurements and changes during the period covered by the report shall be identified separately.

* NB Repealed July 1, 2027

30. To enter into one or more agreements with the office of cannabis management, the cannabis control board, or the private debt or equity fund, selected pursuant to subdivision thirty-two of this section, in which the state or any state agency, public authority, public benefit corporation, or division thereof has invested and is formed for the limited purpose of funding the capital costs associated with establishing conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensaries for operation by social equity licensees duly licensed pursuant to article two of the cannabis law, for the following purposes:

(a) (i) To acquire by lease or sublease such real property or any interest therein as may be necessary or convenient for the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, or provision of conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensaries for operation by social equity licensees, as agent, and (ii) to acquire by purchase or other agreement, personal property or interest therein as may be necessary for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement or provision of such dispensaries, whether as principal or agent;

(b) To prepare or cause to be prepared, whether as principal or agent, plans, specifications, designs, and estimates of costs for the design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing or equipping of conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensaries for operation by social equity licensees;

(c) To design, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate, or to cause the design, construction, rehabilitation or improvement of, whether as principal or agent, conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensaries for operation by social equity licensees and to enter into contracts to cause such facilities to be designed, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved, furnished, or equipped;

(d) To enter, as lessor or as agent for the lessor, into leases, subleases, or other agreements with the social equity licensees operating for the conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensaries; provided that (i) the authority shall only enter in lease agreements as agent of the private debt or equity fund selected pursuant to subdivision thirty-two of this section, (ii) any general terms of such lease agreement, and any material deviations or changes therefrom, are approved by the office of cannabis management; and

(e) To enter, as lender or as agent to the lender, into a non-recourse loan or other agreements with the social equity licensees operating the conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensaries, provided that any general terms of such non-recourse loan agreements, and any material deviations or changes therefrom, are approved by the office of cannabis management and that the terms of the non-recourse loan agreement do not include a penalty for early termination but will allow for the inclusion of a make-whole provision and shall not, at the time the loan is established, exceed the prime lending rate plus one-half the interest rate specified under subdivision one of section fourteen-a of the banking law, nor include terms or conditions that would allow for an equity position in the social equity licensee's conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensary business or that would entitle a share in, or claim to, any revenue or profit generated by such business.

31. (a) To form one or more subsidiaries for the purpose of limiting the potential liability of the authority when exercising the powers and duties conferred upon the authority by subdivision thirty of this section in connection with certain work performed on behalf of the office of cannabis management, the cannabis control board, or the private debt or equity fund in which the state or any state agency, public authority, public benefit corporation, or division thereof has invested and has been selected pursuant to subdivision thirty-two of this section. Such subsidiary created pursuant to this subdivision may exercise and perform one or more of the purposes, powers, duties, functions, rights and responsibilities of the authority other than the issuance of indebtedness, in connection with real and personal property with respect to which the authority holds title or a leasehold interest, in its own name or as agent for the titleholder or leaseholder including, but not limited to: (i) entering into leases, subleases, or other arrangements with regard to such property and acting in a manner consistent with the rights, obligations or responsibilities of the owner, landlord or tenant of such property pursuant to such lease or sublease agreements; (ii) servicing non-recourse loan payments; (iii) furnishing property management services; and (iv) providing general operational and administrative support services.

(b) Such subsidiary authorized by paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be established in the form of a public benefit corporation by executing and filing with the secretary of state a certificate of incorporation which shall identify the authority as the entity organizing such subsidiary and set forth the name of such subsidiary public benefit corporation, its duration, the location of its principal office and its corporate purposes as provided in this subdivision and which certificate may be amended from time to time by the filing of amendments thereto with the secretary of state. Such subsidiary shall be organized as a public benefit corporation, shall be a body politic and corporate, and shall have all the privileges, immunities, tax exemptions and other exemptions of the authority. The members of such subsidiary shall be the same as the members of the authority and the provisions of subdivision two of section sixteen hundred ninety-one of this title shall in all respects apply to such members when acting in such capacity.

(c) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to impose any liabilities, obligations, or responsibilities of such subsidiary upon the authority and the authority shall have no liability or responsibility therefor unless the authority expressly agrees to assume the same.

(d) Such subsidiary created pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to any other provision of this chapter pertaining to subsidiaries of public authorities.

32. (a) (i) To select a private debt or equity fund formed for the sole purpose of funding the capital costs, including closely related ancillary and administrative costs, associated with establishing conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensaries for operation by social equity licensees deemed to be eligible by the office of cannabis management for financing through such fund or related costs, provided that any partnership agreement between the fund and the authority, shall be subject to the written approval or resolution of the cannabis control board, the board of the dormitory authority, and the director of the division of the budget, and the selection of such general partner shall be made in consultation with the office of cannabis management.

(ii) The organizational structure and investment policy of the selected fund and the provisions of the partnership agreement shall satisfy the following parameters and requirements:

(1) The fund shall have a public policy committee composed of the chair of the cannabis control board, executive director of the office of cannabis management, and the president of the authority, or their representatives, who shall guide the decisions of the selected fund to achieve the public policy goals of the state, which includes providing advice and direction to the fund where matters implicate public policy and confirming the fund's adherence to its public purpose, which includes compliance with stated objectives or mission of the cannabis law and the marihuana regulation and taxation act, generally and more specifically, to provide social equity conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensary licensees with the opportunity of acquiring commercially viable retail operations;

(2) Such committee shall:

(A) review and approve of the fund's investment policy statement and any changes thereto;

(B) review and approve any changes to the use and distribution of investment funds;

(C) review and approve the fund's strategic plan, particularly those pertaining to the investor class, the establishment, management, and liquidation of investments by the fund;

(D) monitor the fund's risk profile, investment activity, and performance;

(E) approve the maximum amount of promised return on investment, management fees, and compensation of the general partner;

(F) review and approve any changes or amendments to the fund's organizational structure, partnership agreements, and the fund manager or servicer's agreement to ensure that they are consistent with the fund's public purpose;

(G) take reasonable steps, at the direction of the office of cannabis management, to provide geographic equity and representation in establishing such conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensaries for operation by social equity licensees, to the extent practicable, in support of the public purpose of the fund and further, at the direction of the office of cannabis management that the site selection for such dispensaries comports with the requirements of the cannabis law and the marihuana regulation and taxation act, and its rules and regulations governing the location of conditional adult-use cannabis dispensaries; and

(H) confirm that any real property leases and loan agreements issued by or on behalf of the fund shall be provided to social equity licensees, duly licensed pursuant to article two of the cannabis law;

(3) The general partner and the fund shall to the extent allowable by section one of article five of the state constitution, authorize the comptroller of the state, or the comptroller's legally authorized representatives, to access, examine, or audit the accounts and books of the fund including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, investments, and any other items directly relating to its financial standing and cooperate with any such financial examination or financial audit on an annual basis. The general partner shall agree to cause the key officers to be available to discuss the fund and the partnership and its activities at the time of the audit;

(4) The general partner shall agree to cause the key officers to be available to discuss the fund and the partnership and its activities at the request of the public policy committee;

(5) Any real property subleased out by the fund to a social equity licensee shall be at the same rate on which the fund has leased such property;

(6) The fund shall not be authorized to borrow any money or to incur any indebtedness, including guarantees, except when approved by the public policy committee;

(7) The fund shall not be voluntarily terminated early without the prior consent of the public policy committee;

(8) The fund shall have a conflict-of-interest policy approved by the public policy committee;

(9) Any loan agreement the fund enters into with social equity licensees shall be a non-recourse loan and shall allow prepayment of the debt without any penalty imposed by the fund but will allow for the inclusion of a make-whole provision and shall not, at the time that the non-recourse loan is established, exceed the prime lending rate plus one-half the maximum interest rate specified under subdivision one of section fourteen-a of the banking law;

(10) The fund shall not accept more than two hundred million dollars in total investment over the course of its life and the state's contribution to the fund shall not exceed fifty million dollars; and

(11) The fund shall not take any equity positions in, issue equity loans to, or enter into revenue or profit sharing agreements with any social equity adult-use cannabis retail dispensary business or include any terms and conditions in an agreement with such business to that effect; the fund shall also not include any excessive penalties within the loan agreements; and

(12) Any other requirement as the dormitory authority may deem appropriate, in consultation with the office of cannabis management, or the cannabis control board.

(b) (i) After the funding of the private debt or equity fund as provided pursuant to this subdivision, the authority shall prepare an annual report beginning on December thirtieth, two thousand twenty-two and annually thereafter, which report shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) the number of conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensaries assisted by the authority pursuant to this subdivision;

(2) the geographic distribution of sites designated by the office of cannabis management and prepared by the authority for conditional adult-use cannabis retail dispensaries for operation by licensed social equity businesses; and

(3) any other such data and information, including information about subsidiary or subsidiaries created pursuant to subdivision thirty-one of this section.

(4) Additionally, for the first report, the authority shall report on the procurement and selection of the general partner.

(ii) Such report shall be published on the authority's website and presented to the governor, the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly, no later than December thirtieth, two thousand twenty-two and annually thereafter; and

(iii) The authority shall further submit a copy of the partnership agreement between the fund and the authority, to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly no later than fifteen days after such agreement has been fully executed.

§ 1679. Supplemental higher education loan financing program. 1. The purpose of the supplemental loan financing program is to make available to students attending public and independent sector institutions of higher education financial assistance beyond the grants and loans available from state, federal and private sources where such students demonstrate remaining financial need.

2. In furtherance of its powers under this title with respect to the supplemental higher education loan financing program, the authority is authorized:

(a) to receive and accept from any source loans, contributions or grants for or in aid of a supplemental higher education loan financing program or any portion thereof and, when desirable, to use such funds, property or labor only for the purposes for which it was loaned, contributed or granted;

(b) to make education loans to participating institutions for higher education, and require that the proceeds of such education loans be used for making student loans, funding reserves, providing for capitalized interest and paying other costs and fees involved in making student loans or issuing bonds;

(c) to issue bonds not in excess of two hundred million dollars for the purpose of making direct loans, education loans for the express purpose of providing student loans, and the purchasing, acquiring or taking by assignment or otherwise of student loans, provided, however, that each such sale of bonds shall be subject to the approval of the public authorities control board;

(d) to purchase student loans from participating institutions for higher education under terms and conditions which require that such loans were originated after the effective date of this section in contemplation of participation by such institutions for higher education in a supplemental higher education loan financing program of the authority authorized by this section and in anticipation of the purchase of such loans by the authority, provided, however, that, prior to the sale of bonds any portion of the proceeds of which shall be used for the purchase, acquisition or taking by assignment or otherwise of student loans, the authority shall by resolution adopt specific guidelines setting forth the terms and conditions upon which such purchases, acquisitions and taking by assignment or otherwise shall be made. No such resolution shall be adopted until at least forty-five days after the delivery of a copy of such proposed guidelines to the governor, the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly for comment.

3. The authority shall adopt guidelines, subject to review by the advisory committee, created pursuant to subdivision ten of this section, and consistent with federal law and regulations to the extent applicable which shall include but not be limited to: (a) eligibility criteria for making education loans and direct loans; (b) limitations upon the principal amounts and the terms of education loans and direct loans; (c) qualifications and characteristics of borrowers; and (d) procedures for allocating education loans among independent institutions and for allocating direct loans among students and parents of students attending public institutions. Such guidelines shall also include such eligibility standards for borrowers as the authority shall determine are necessary or desirable in order to effectuate the purposes of this section including the following: (a) each student shall have a certificate of enrollment or acceptance for enrollment at a specific participating institution for higher education; (b) each student or his or her parents shall satisfy such financial qualifications as the authority shall establish to effectuate the purposes of this section; and (c) each student and his or her parents shall submit such information as may be required by the authority to his or her institution for higher education. Such guidelines shall also establish specific criteria governing the making of direct loans, education loans and student loans, provisions for default, the establishment of default reserve funds, the purchase of default insurance, the provision of debt service reserve funds, and the furnishing by participating independent institutions for higher education of such additional guarantees of, and security with respect to, education loans, student loans or the bonds as the authority shall determine, all of such criteria to be established to assure the marketability of the bonds and the adequacy of the security for the bonds.

4. The authority shall contract with financial institutions, the New York state higher education services corporation established by the provisions of section six hundred fifty-two of the education law or other qualified loan origination and servicing organizations, which may assist in pre-qualifying borrowers for student loans and direct loans and which may service and administer each student loan and direct loan and each institution's respective loan series portfolio. The fees or interest costs of each student loan or direct loan shall include a portion, if necessary, to cover the applicable pro rata cost of such a servicing organization.

5. The maximum amount of a student loan or direct loan shall not exceed:

(a) in the case of a borrower who is a student, the student's cost of attendance for the period of time for which the loan is made, minus the following amounts applicable to such period of time:

(1) the amount of grant which the student receives, or would receive had the student made application, under the federal Pell Grant program authorized under title IV, part A, of the "Higher Education Act of 1965", as now or hereafter amended;

(2) the maximum net loan proceeds which the student receives, or would receive had the student made application, under the guaranteed student loan program as defined under (i) title IV, part B, of the "Higher Education Act of 1965", as now or hereafter amended, and (ii) the regulations implementing such program promulgated at 34 Code of Federal Regulations, part 682, as now or hereafter amended;

(3) the maximum net loan proceeds which the student's parents receive, or would receive had the student's parents made application, under the parent loan to undergraduate students program as defined under (i) title IV, part B, of the "Higher Education Act of 1965", as now or hereafter amended, and (ii) the regulations implementing such program promulgated at 34 Code of Federal Regulations, part 683, as now or hereafter amended;

(4) the maximum net loan proceeds which the student receives, or would receive had the student made application, under the auxiliary loan to assist students program as defined under title IV, part B, of the "Higher Education Act of 1965", as now or hereafter amended;

(5) the maximum net loan proceeds which the student receives, or would receive had the student made application, under the health education assistance loan program as defined under (i) title IV, part C, of the "Health Professions Educational Assistance Act of 1976", as now or hereafter amended, and (ii) the regulations implementing such program promulgated at 42 Code of Federal Regulations, part 60-C, as now or hereafter amended;

(6) the amount of scholarships, grants or other nonrepayable assistance received from government agencies, educational institutions or private institutions or organizations;

(7) except in the case of a student who is eligible for a loan under the auxiliary loan to assist students program as defined under Title IV, part B, of the "Higher Education Act of 1965", as now or hereafter amended, the expected family contribution computed pursuant to section 428 of the "Higher Education Act of 1965", as now or hereafter amended with respect to families in which the total adjusted gross income of all members of the family exceeds thirty thousand dollars; and

(b) (1) in the case of a borrower who is a parent of an eligible student, the student's cost of attendance minus (i) the amounts determined pursuant to subparagraphs one, two and six of paragraph (a) of this subdivision; and (ii) the amount of loan which the student receives pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision;

(2) the combined maximum loan amount of both parents shall not exceed the maximum amount as determined under this paragraph.

6. Notwithstanding any other provisions contained in this title, but pursuant to guidelines, the authority may commingle and pledge as security for a series or issue of bonds, with the consent of all of the institutions for higher education which are participating in such series or issue, the student loan series portfolios and some or all future student loan series portfolios of such institutions for higher education provided that student loan series portfolios and other security and moneys set aside in any fund or funds pledged for any series of bonds or issue of bonds shall be held for the sole benefit of such series or issue separate and apart from student loan series portfolios and other security and moneys pledged for any other series or issue of bonds of the authority. Bonds may be issued in series under one or more resolutions in the discretion of the authority.

7. The authority shall require that education loans be used solely to make student loans and that direct loans be used solely for the purpose of financing the cost of attendance at public institutions for higher education. The authority shall require that independent institutions for higher education shall require that each borrower under a student loan shall use the proceeds solely for such cost of attendance and that each such borrower shall so certify.

8. Any student otherwise eligible for a student loan or for a direct loan shall not be disqualified by reason of his or her being under the age of eighteen years and, for the purposes of applying for, receiving and repaying such a loan, any such student shall be deemed to have full legal capacity to act; provided, however, that the signatures of both parents of an unemancipated applicant shall be required for the purpose of receiving such a loan unless the authority determines in accordance with guidelines established by the board of the authority that unusual family circumstances preclude the availability of such signatures.

9. The authority may charge to and apportion among participating institutions of higher education and students or their parents or both its administrative and operating costs and expenses incurred in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred by this section.

10. There is hereby created an advisory committee on the supplemental higher education loan financing program to the dormitory authority which shall consist of the chairman of the authority, who shall serve as the chairman of such committee, the commissioner of education, the chancellor of the state university of New York, the chancellor of the city university of New York, the president of the higher education services corporation, the chairman of the board of trustees of the commission on independent colleges and universities, the president of the New York state financial aid administrators association and an undergraduate student appointed by the governor who is in attendance at a public or independent institution of higher education located in this state. Such committee shall participate in the development of and review the program guidelines to be established by the authority as required by this section and may make recommendations on, comment upon and advise the members of the board of the authority with respect to such guidelines. Each of the members of such committee may designate in writing to the chairman of the committee a representative to serve on such committee in the place of such member. The members of the committee shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be entitled to reimbursement by the dormitory authority for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

11. The authority shall report annually to the governor and the legislature on or before February first concerning its findings, conclusions and recommendations with respect to the operation of the program provided for in this section.

§ 1679-a. Health education assistance loan financing program. 1. The purpose of the health education assistance loan financing program, hereafter referred to as the HEAL loan financing program, is to make available to students attending public and independent institutions for higher education financial assistance beyond the grants and loans available from state, federal and private sources, other than supplemental higher education loans pursuant to section sixteen hundred seventy-nine of this chapter, where such students demonstrate remaining financial need. Such program is created to encourage the participation of HEAL eligible institutions in conjunction with, but not in substitution for, the participation of financial or credit institutions in increasing the availability of HEAL loans to all eligible students. The authority and institutions for higher education participating in such program shall to the extent practicable ensure that borrowers of such loans include individuals who are underrepresented or unrepresented in the health professions.

2. In furtherance of its powers under this title with respect to the HEAL loan financing program, the authority is authorized:

(a) to receive and accept from any source loans, contributions or grants for or in aid of the HEAL loan financing program or any portion thereof and, when desirable, to use such funds, property or labor only for the purposes for which it was loaned, contributed or granted;

(b) to make HEAL direct loans to students attending, and HEAL education loans to participating independent institutions for higher education, and require that the proceeds of HEAL education loans be used for making HEAL student loans, funding reserves, providing for capitalized interest and paying other costs and fees involved in making

HEAL student loans or issuing bonds; and

(c) to purchase HEAL student loans solely from participating independent institutions for higher education under terms and conditions which require that such loans were originated after the effective date of this section in contemplation of participation by such institutions for higher education in the HEAL loan financing program of the authority authorized by this section and in anticipation of the purchase of such loans by the authority, provided, however, that prior to the sale of bonds any portion of the proceeds of which shall be used for the purchase, acquisition or taking by assignment or otherwise of HEAL student loans, the authority shall by resolution adopt specific guidelines setting forth the terms and conditions upon which such purchases, acquisitions and taking by assignment or otherwise shall be made. No such resolution shall be adopted until at least forty-five days after the delivery of a copy of such proposed guidelines to the governor, the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly for comment.

(d) to sell HEAL direct loans, HEAL education loans and HEAL student loans purchased, acquired or taken by assignment or otherwise by the authority to the extent necessary to assure the marketability of and adequacy of the security for the bonds of the authority.

3. The authority shall adopt guidelines, subject to review by the advisory committee, created pursuant to subdivision ten of section sixteen hundred seventy-nine of this chapter, and consistent with federal law and regulations to the extent applicable, which shall include but not be limited to: (a) eligibility criteria for making HEAL education loans and HEAL direct loans; (b) limitations upon the principal amounts and the terms of HEAL education loans and HEAL direct loans; (c) qualifications and characteristics of borrowers; and (d) procedures for allocating HEAL education loans among independent institutions and for allocating direct loans among students attending public institutions. Such guidelines shall also include such eligibility standards for borrowers as the authority shall determine are necessary or desirable in order to effectuate the purposes of this section including the following: (a) each student shall have a certificate of enrollment or acceptance for enrollment at a specific participating institution for higher education; (b) each student shall satisfy such financial qualifications as the authority shall establish to effectuate the purposes of this section; and (c) each student shall submit such information as may be required by the authority to his or her institution for higher education. Such guidelines shall also establish specific criteria governing the making of HEAL direct loans, HEAL education loans and HEAL student loans, provisions for default, the establishment of default reserve funds, the purchase of default insurance, the provision of debt service reserve funds and the furnishing by the participating independent institutions for higher education of such additional guarantees of, and security with respect to, HEAL education loans, HEAL student loans or the bonds as the authority shall determine, all of such criteria to be established to assure the marketability of the bonds and the adequacy of the security for the bonds to finance fully federally insured HEAL direct loans, HEAL education loans, and HEAL student loans.

4. The authority shall contract with financial institutions, the New York state higher education services corporation established by the provisions of section six hundred fifty-two of the education law or other qualified loan origination and servicing organizations, which may assist in pre-qualifying borrowers for HEAL student loans and HEAL direct loans and which may service and administer each HEAL student loan and HEAL direct loan and each institution's respective HEAL loan series portfolio.

5. The maximum amount of a HEAL student loan or HEAL direct loan shall not exceed the student's cost of attendance for the period of time for which the loan is made, minus the following amounts applicable to such period of time:

(a) the maximum net loan proceeds which the student receives, or will receive, under the guaranteed student loan program as defined under (i) title IV, part B, of the "Higher Education Act of 1965", as now or hereafter amended, and (ii) the regulations implementing such program promulgated at 34 Code of Federal Regulations, part 682, as now or hereafter amended;

(b) the maximum net loan proceeds which the student's parents receive, or will receive, under the parent loan to undergraduate students program as defined under (i) title IV, part B, of the "Higher Education Act of 1965", as now or hereafter amended, and (ii) the regulations implementing such program promulgated at 34 Code of Federal Regulations, part 683, as now or hereafter amended;

(c) the maximum net loan proceeds which the student receives, or will receive, under the auxiliary loan to assist students program as defined under (i) title IV, part B, of the "Higher Education Act of 1965", as now or hereafter amended, and (ii) the regulations implementing such program promulgated at 34 Code of Federal Regulations, part 683, as now or hereafter amended;

(d) the amount of scholarships, grants or other nonrepayable assistance received from government agencies, educational institutions or private institutions or organizations.

6. Notwithstanding any other provisions contained in this title, but pursuant to guidelines, the authority may commingle and pledge as security for a series or issue of bonds, with the consent of all of the institutions for higher education which are participating in such series or issue, the HEAL student loan series portfolios and some or all future HEAL student loan series portfolios of such institutions for higher education provided that HEAL student loan series portfolios and other security and moneys set aside in any fund or funds pledged for any series of bonds or issue of bonds shall be held for the sole benefit of such series or issue separate and apart from HEAL student loan series portfolios and other security and moneys pledged for any other series or issue of bonds of the authority, and provided further that in no event shall HEAL student loan series portfolios be commingled with student loan series portfolios comprised of student loans made pursuant to the supplemental higher education loan financing program authorized by section sixteen hundred seventy-nine of this act or with any other loan portfolio. Bonds may be issued in series under one or more resolutions in the discretion of the authority.

7. The authority shall require that HEAL education loans be used solely to make HEAL student loans and that HEAL direct loans be used solely for the purpose of financing the cost of attendance at public institutions for higher education. The authority shall require that independent institutions for higher education shall require that each borrower under a HEAL student loan shall use the proceeds solely for such cost of attendance and that each such borrower shall so certify.

8. Any student otherwise eligible for a HEAL student loan or for a HEAL direct loan shall not be disqualified by reason of his or her being under the age of eighteen years and, for the purposes of applying for, receiving and repaying such a loan, any such student shall be deemed to have full legal capacity to act; provided, however, that the signatures of one parent of an unemancipated applicant shall be required for the purpose of receiving such a loan unless the authority determines in accordance with guidelines established by the board of the authority that unusual family circumstances preclude the availability of such signature.

9. The authority may charge to and apportion among participating institutions of higher education and students its administrative and operating costs and expenses incurred in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred by this section.

10. Bonds issued by the authority for the HEAL loan financing program shall be within the two hundred million dollar limitation set forth in paragraph (c) of subdivision two of section sixteen hundred seventy-nine of this chapter and each such issuance shall be subject to the approval of the public authorities control board.

11. The authority shall report annually to the governor and the legislature on or before February first concerning its findings, conclusions and recommendations with respect to the operation of the programs provided for in this section.

§ 1679-b. Equipment loans. 1. The dormitory authority may make an equipment loan to any private entity for the benefit of which the dormitory authority is authorized to issue bonds or other obligations of the dormitory authority. The proceeds of such a loan are to be used substantially to finance the acquisition through purchase or lease of equipment including construction and rehabilitation related to the installation of such equipment or the acquisition of intellectual property or other intangible property, including information technology and software, that is eligible for tax-exempt financing under the United States internal revenue code. The dormitory authority may make an equipment loan by the purchase, lease or sublease of equipment by the dormitory authority and the lease or sublease of such equipment to any such private entity for the purpose of providing for the acquisition of such equipment and the construction and rehabilitation related to the installation thereof or pursuant to an installment purchase agreement.

2. Except to the extent otherwise expressly prohibited by law, each private entity described in subdivision one of this section shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be appropriated, apportioned or otherwise made payable to such private entity by the federal government, any agency thereof, the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by such private entity pursuant to any necessary or useful agreement entered into between such private entity and the dormitory authority for an equipment loan. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

3. The making of equipment loans by the authority shall be a corporate purpose of the authority.

§ 1679-c. The New York higher education loan program. 1. For purposes of this section, the following words and terms shall have the following meaning unless the context shall indicate another or different meaning or intent:

(a) "Corporation" shall mean the New York state higher education services corporation.
(b) "Education loan" shall mean a loan made under the New York higher education loan program established pursuant to part v of article fourteen of the education law.

2. In addition to the powers of the authority pursuant to the other sections of this title, the authority shall have power:
(a) To enter into one or more agreements with the corporation, which agreement may provide for the securing of education loans in accordance with part V of article fourteen of the education law, and to perform or contract for the performance of its obligations under any such agreement;
(b) To make and contract to make and to acquire and contract to acquire education loans and to enter into advance commitments for the purchase of said education loans;
(c) Subject to any agreement with bondholders or noteholders, to invest moneys of the authority not required for immediate use, including proceeds from the sale of any bonds or notes, in education loans;
(d) To service and execute contracts for the servicing of education loans acquired by the authority pursuant to this title, and to pay the reasonable value of services rendered to the authority pursuant to those contracts;
(e) To prescribe standards and criteria for education loans purchases, insofar as such standards and criteria are not inconsistent with the applicable agreement with the corporation;
(f) Subject to any agreement with bondholders or noteholders, to sell any education loans made or acquired by the authority at public or private sale and at such price or prices and on such terms as the authority shall determine; and
(g) To establish, revise from time to time, charge and collect such premiums or fees in connection with education loans and its participation in the New York higher education loan program as the authority shall determine.

3. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds and notes, including without limitation for the purposes of financing and refinancing education loans and of refunding any bonds or notes issued for such purpose pursuant to part V of article fourteen of the education law.

§ 1680. Dormitories at certain educational institutions other than state operated institutions and statutory or contract colleges under the jurisdiction of the state university of New York. 1. For all purposes of this section sixteen hundred eighty, the term "educational institution" shall mean any of the following:

Any institution for higher education, other than a state-operated institution or statutory or contract college under the jurisdiction of State University of New York, as defined in section three hundred fifty of the education law, located in this state, and authorized to confer degrees by law or by the board of regents.

Any non-profit institution or hospital at which the training of nurses is provided by a program approved by the department of education of the state of New York.

New York Academy of Sciences.

Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, Incorporated.

Center for the Arts at Ithaca, Incorporated.

Affiliated Colleges and Universities, Inc.

Brookdale Hospital Center.

Albany Medical Center Hospital.

St. Vincent's Hospital and Medical Center of New York.

Mount Vernon Hospital.

Onondaga County Historical Museum.

The department of health of the state of New York.

Columbia Memorial Hospital.

New York Medical College of New York, Incorporated.

Highland Hospital of Rochester, Incorporated.

St. Peter's Hospital of the city of Albany.

Geneva General Hospital.

Optometric Center of New York.

Brookhaven Memorial Association, Incorporated, doing business as Brookhaven Memorial Hospital.

Calvary Hospital, Inc.

A local sponsor as defined by subdivision three of section sixty-three hundred one of the education law, or as defined by subdivision four of section sixty-three hundred one of the education law with respect to a community college region, a community college regional board of trustees, or, with respect to locally sponsored community colleges in the city of New York, the city of New York or the board of education, as the case may be.

Beth Israel Medical Center.

Our Lady of Lourdes Memorial Hospital, Inc.

St. Francis Hospital, Poughkeepsie.

The Staten Island Hospital.

Carthage Area Hospital, Inc.

Mount Sinai Hospital.

Hospital for Joint Diseases and Medical Center.

Beekman-Downtown Hospital.

Catholic Medical Center of Brooklyn and Queens, Incorporated.

The Clifton Springs Sanitarium Company.

Children's Hospital of Buffalo.

St. Joseph's Hospital Health Center.

General Hospital of Saranac Lake.

The Church Charity Foundation of Long Island.

Buffalo General Hospital.

Crouse-Irving Memorial Hospital, Inc.

Samaritan Hospital of Brooklyn.

Benedictine Hospital.

The Society of the Home for Incurables.

The White Plains Hospital Association.

Misericordia Hospital Medical Center.

The Cornwall Hospital.

Memorial Hospital, Albany, New York.

The Rochester General Hospital.

Our Lady of Victory Hospital of Lackawanna.

Mercy Hospital Association.

The Hebrew Home for the Aged at Riverdale, Inc.

Charles S. Wilson Memorial Hospital.

Aurelia Osborn Fox Memorial Hospital Society.

Retirement Home of Central New York Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

Gananda educational facilities corporation.

The Trustees of the Jones Fund for the Support of the Poor.

St. Mary's Hospital of Troy.

The Roosevelt Hospital.

Queens Hospital Center of the borough of Queens, city of New York.

A not-for-profit corporation or any political subdivision of the state of New York or the state of New York to provide facilities for the aged.

Franklin General Hospital.

St. Vincent's Medical Center of Richmond.

Long Island Jewish-Hillside Medical Center.

Eastman Dental Center.

United Hospital.

The Brooklyn Educational and Cultural Alliance (B.E.C.A.) when and if incorporated by the Board of Regents of the University of the state of New York.

St. Mary's Hospital at Amsterdam.

The New York Public Library, Astor, Lenox and Tilden Foundations.

The Village Nursing Home, Inc.

The Elizabeth A. Horton Memorial Hospital.

The Community Hospital of Brooklyn, Inc.

Putnam Community Hospital.

Lawrence Hospital.

The New Rochelle Hospital Medical Center.

Methodist Hospital, Brooklyn.

Maimonides Medical Center.

Lutheran Medical Center, Brooklyn.

The Faxton Hospital in the city of Utica.

Booth Memorial Medical Center, Queens, New York.

New York Blood Center, Inc.

South Nassau Communities Hospital, in Oceanside, New York.

Montefiore Hospital and Medical Center.

The Saratoga Hospital.

St. Joseph's Hospital, Yonkers, New York.

St. Elizabeth's Hospital at Utica.

Arden Hill Hospital, Goshen, New York

St. Luke's Hospital of Newburgh, New York.

Vassar Brothers Hospital

The Nyack Hospital, North Midland Avenue, Nyack, New York.

Yonkers General Hospital.

Nassau Hospital, Mineola, Long Island, New York.

Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital.

Sheehan Memorial Emergency Hospital, Buffalo.

Good Samaritan Hospital, West Islip, New York.

The Community Hospital at Glen Cove.

Flushing Hospital and Medical Center.

Cortland Memorial Hospital.

St. John's Riverside Hospital at Yonkers.

The Moses Ludington Hospital.

Jamaica Hospital of Jamaica, New York

Ellis Hospital, Schenectady, New York.

Society of New York Hospital.

Jewish Board of Family and Children's Services, Inc.

Dobbs Ferry Hospital, Dobbs Ferry, New York.

New York state teachers' retirement system.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art

F.I.T. student housing corporation.

Community Memorial Hospital, Inc., Hamilton, New York.

The College Entrance Examination Board.

Museum of American Folk Art.

The Human Resources Center.

The Museums at Stony Brook.

Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center.

Associated Universities, Inc.

New York Zoological Society

The New York Foundling Charitable Corporation.

International House, Inc.

New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Albany County Chapter.

March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation.

YM and YWHA of Mid-Westchester of the Associated YM-YWHA's of Greater New York.

Association for the Help of Retarded Children, Suffolk Chapter.

New York Society for the Deaf.

Hillside Children's Center

United Way of Tri-State, Inc.

New Dimensions in Living, Inc.

Associated Residential Centers, Inc.

Snug Harbor Cultural Center, Inc.

The National Center for the Study of Wilson's Disease, Inc.

The Westchester School for Special Children, Westchester County.

The Devereux Foundation for the financing, construction and equipping of facilities subject to the approval of the commissioner of education, the commissioner of social services and the commissioner of the office for people with developmental disabilities for a residential and educational program for children with handicapping conditions, as such term is defined in subdivision one of section forty-four hundred one of the education law, including, but not limited to, those students who were publicly placed at the Rhinebeck Country School during the nineteen hundred eighty-six--eighty-seven school year and in the furtherance of the state's overall goal of reducing the number of children with handicapping conditions requiring out-of-state placements: nothing in the foregoing shall be deemed to authorize The Devereux Foundation to apply any funds or credits obtained pursuant to this section toward the financing, construction or equipping of facilities on any other property or properties it presently owns or controls or owns or controls in the future.

New Hope Community, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation, for the financing, construction and development of residences for adults with a developmental disability on forty acres of land purchased from Leon and Dave Scharf, d.b.a. New Hope Rehabilitation Center, located on State Route 52 in the Town of Fallsburg, to replace existing residential facilities operated by New Hope Rehabilitation Center.

For the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation of or otherwise provided for United Cerebral Palsy of New York City, Inc., for (1) an intermediate care facility for the developmentally disabled at Avenue S and Lake Street, Brooklyn; (2) a pre-school program service facility at Mason and Seaview Avenues, Staten Island; (3) a children and adult program service facility at Stillwell Avenue, Bronx; (4) a children and adult program service facility at Lawrence Avenue, Brooklyn; (5) a pre-school program service building at Lawrence Avenue, Brooklyn; (6) an adult program service building at Port Richmond Avenue, Staten Island; (7) children's program services building at Lawrence Avenue, Brooklyn; and for the leasehold improvements to Manhattan and adult programs services sites.

Special act school districts listed in chapter five hundred sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-seven, as amended.

State-supported schools for the instruction of deaf and blind students and children with other handicapping conditions pursuant to article eighty-five of the education law and chapter one thousand sixty of the laws of nineteen hundred seventy-four.

The education department of the state of New York, including the New York state school for the blind, the New York state school for the deaf, and schools established by the commissioner of education pursuant to section forty-one hundred one of the education law, for facilities owned, operated by, or provided by the state for the use of, the education department of the state of New York, including, but not limited to, the premises commonly known as the education department building, located at 89 Washington Avenue in the city of Albany, New York, the New York state school for the blind, located at Richmond Avenue in the city of Batavia, New York, the New York state school for the deaf, located at 401 Turin Street in the city of Rome, New York, schools established by the commissioner of education pursuant to the provisions of subdivision one of section four thousand one hundred one of the education law, and the premises commonly known as the cultural education center located in the empire state plaza in the city of Albany, New York, and attendant and related facilities.

Vesta Community Housing Development Board, Inc. of Altamont for the financing, construction and equipping of facilities for persons recovering from an addiction to alcohol or a controlled substance.

The Utica College Foundation, for the financing, refinancing, reimbursement and development of student dormitory and academic facilities at its Utica campus, including Burrstone House to serve as a dormitory for students residing at the college; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of such issuance of bonds shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars.

Gateway Youth and Family Services for the financing, construction and development of new facilities for a diagnostic and evaluation program and a pre-independent living program, and to expand existing facilities in a special education school on real property located on Main Street, Williamsville, county of Erie.

Orleans County Chapter-New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc. for the financing, construction and development, of a preschool facility and necessary ancillary and related facilities in Orleans county to replace the existing preschool facility now operated by the Orleans County Chapter-New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc. at 151 Platt Street, Albion, N.Y. 14411.

New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., for the financing, construction and development, of a preschool facility and necessary ancillary and related facilities in Westchester county to replace the existing preschool facilities now operated by the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Westchester County Chapter at 12 Green Street, Mt. Kisco, New York and 50 Washington Avenue, New Rochelle, New York.

New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc.-Livingston-Wyoming County Chapter for the financing, acquisition and rehabilitation, of a preschool facility and necessary ancillary and related facilities in Livingston county to expand existing preschool facilities now operated by the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc.-Livingston-Wyoming County Chapter located at 18 Main Street, Mount Morris, N.Y. 14510.

New York Association for the Learning Disabled, Capital District Chapter, Inc., renamed Wildwood Programs, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for facilities for Wildwood Programs, Inc.

AMDA INC./The American Musical and Dramatic Academy, for the financing, refinancing, reimbursement and development of a dormitory for students residing at the academy and an academic facility.

Private not-for-profit schools.

For the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation of or otherwise provide for United Cerebral Palsy of Westchester County, Inc., for (1) a twelve bed intermediate care facility for the developmentally disabled and (2) for expansion of the day program service facility at Rye Brook, New York. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, United Cerebral Palsy of Westchester County, Inc. shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by United Cerebral Palsy of Westchester County, Inc. pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph. No agreement or lease by United Cerebral Palsy of Westchester County, Inc. shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of the various state agencies that have jurisdiction over the project.

Hospice, Buffalo, for the financing, construction and development of new and renovated facilities for the care and treatment of terminally ill individuals.

The National Sports Academy at Lake Placid, for the financing, refinancing, reimbursement and development of a dormitory for students residing at the academy and an academic facility.

Ferncliff Manor as a not-for-profit residential school serving children who are severely mentally disabled and medically involved, who will also on a not-for-profit basis operate an intermediate care facility, for the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation and development of five twelve bed dormitories in Westchester County for such children, subject to the approval of the commissioners of education, social services, and the office for people with developmental disabilities, and subject further to the approval of the director of the budget as to project need and project cost. Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, Ferncliff Manor shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority, together with any pledge of its own assets and other income, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by Ferncliff Manor pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between Ferncliff Manor and the authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section. No agreement or lease by Ferncliff Manor shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of education, social services, and the office for people with developmental disabilities, and subject further to the approval of the director of the budget as to project need and project cost.

The Leake and Watts Children's Home (Incorporated), Yonkers, New York for the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation or otherwise for (1) a new school building for the junior high and high school vocational programs including a field house; (2) a new children's cottage and renovation and reconstruction of eight existing children's cottages to provide more efficient heating and cooling systems, more secure supervision and to increase the number of beds; (3) renovation and reconstruction of the main building to provide new electrical and plumbing systems and internal rehabilitation; and (4) renovation and reconstruction of the old school building for multiple use; subject to the approval of the commissioners of education, social services and the office for people with developmental disabilities, and subject further to the approval of the director of the budget including as to project need and project cost. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, The Leake and Watts Children's Home (Incorporated) shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority, together with any other assets so pledged, any and all property rights to, and property interests in, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by The Leake and Watts Children's Home (Incorporated) pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between The Leake and Watts Children's Home (Incorporated) and the authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section. No lease, sublease or other agreement by The Leake and Watts Children's Home (Incorporated) shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of education, social services and the office for people with developmental disabilities and subject further to the approval of the director of the budget including as to project need and project cost.

Oxford University and the Oxford University Press, Incorporated; or either of them for the financing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation and rehabilitation of facilities to be located at thirty-fourth street and Madison avenue in the borough of Manhattan, in the city of New York.

Berkshire Farm Center and Services for Youth, Canaan, New York for the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, equipping or otherwise providing for a dining facility on the existing campus of Berkshire Farm Center and Services for Youth in Canaan, New York.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Berkshire Farm Center and Services for Youth shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by Berkshire Farm Center and Services for Youth pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between Berkshire Farm Center and Services for Youth and the dormitory authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

A public library.

South Street Seaport Museum, Inc.

United Cerebral Palsy Association of the Capital District, Inc., for the financing, construction, reimbursement, and development of residences and program facilities on lands owned by the Center, at locations within Albany county.

Phoenix House Foundation, Inc., New York, New York, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of facilities, excluding general hospitals as defined in article twenty-eight of the public health law, located in the county of New York, or at sites owned, leased or operated by Phoenix House at the following locations: 34-01, 34-11 and 34-25 Vernon Boulevard, Long Island City, New York; 480 East 185th Street and 2329 Bassford Avenue, Bronx, New York; 43-44 and 46-50 Jay Street, Brooklyn, New York; and Shrub Oak, Westchester county, New York; for the provision of drug abuse prevention and treatment, medical, psychiatric and clinic services, excluding those services provided by a general hospital as defined in article twenty-eight of the public health law, remedial education, secondary education, vocational training and recreational facilities for adolescent and adult substance and polysubstance abusers, mentally ill chemical abusers, and their families, and related administrative and support services.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Phoenix House Foundation, Inc. shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by Phoenix House Foundation, Inc. pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between Phoenix House Foundation, Inc. and the dormitory authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issue, pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Irish American Heritage Museum.

The Crown Heights Jewish Community Council, Inc. a not-for-profit corporation, for the financing, refinancing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation, rehabilitation of, furnishing, equipping and otherwise providing for buildings to serve as a dormitories for students enrolled in various professional or post-secondary educational institutions.

The Rosalind and Joseph Gurwin Jewish Geriatric Center of Long Island, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation, for the financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, furnishing, equipping, improvement, renovation or otherwise providing for facilities to serve the aged, disabled and chronically impaired persons.

Staten Island Institute of Arts & Sciences.

The DePaul Group, Inc. and its affiliates and subsidiaries, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of certain educational, administrative and residential facilities, to be located in the state of New York.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the DePaul Group, Inc. and its affiliates and subsidiaries shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by the DePaul Group, Inc. pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between the DePaul Group, Inc. and the dormitory authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issue, pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

University Heights Association, Inc.

Little Flower Children's Services of New York, Brooklyn, New York for the financing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, equipping or otherwise providing for four residential facilities for learning disabled children, subject to the approval of the commissioners of education and social services and subject further to the approval of the director of the budget as to project need and project cost. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Little Flower Children's Services of New York shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by Little Flower Children's Services of New York pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between Little Flower Children's Services of New York and the authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority, or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section. No lease, sublease or other agreement by Little Flower Children's Services of New York shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of education and social services and further approved by the director of the budget as to project need and project cost.

The Roswell Park Cancer Institute corporation and its subsidiary corporations.

The department of audit and control of the state of New York.

The New York state and local employees' retirement system.

The New York state and local police and fire retirement system.

The office of general services of the state of New York.

Harlem Dowling-West Side Center for Children and Family Services, a not-for-profit corporation, for the financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, furnishing, equipping, improvement, renovation or otherwise providing for facilities to serve and assist children and their families in crisis and distress.

Yeshiva Beis Leivy.

Roberson Memorial, Inc., doing business as Roberson Museum and Science Center.

* Not-for-profit members of the New York State Rehabilitation Association and the New York Alliance for Inclusion and Innovation and any successor in interest to any such organization, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of certain educational, administrative, residential, clinical, day programming, job training and workforce development facilities to be located in the state of New York.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, not-for-profit members of the New York State Rehabilitation Association and the New York Alliance for Inclusion and Innovation and any successor in interest to any such organization, with the concurrence of the applicable association shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the United States, any agency thereof, the state, any agency thereof to the extent permitted by law, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, any social services district in the state or any other governmental entity in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by such members pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such members and the dormitory authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issue, pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this section. The New York State Rehabilitation Association's responsibilities and the responsibilities of the New York Alliance for Inclusion and Innovation and any successor in interest to any such organization, in relation to any lease, sublease, or other agreement between the dormitory authority and the applicable association's members shall include, but not be limited to, coordinating and facilitating any required financial disclosure and any other matters heretofore or hereafter deemed necessary or appropriate.

* NB Repealed December 31, 2028

* NYSARC, Inc. for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, and equipping of clinical, day programming and residential facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities throughout the state.

* NB Repealed December 31, 2028

* Notwithstanding any other provision of law, NYSARC, Inc. shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be appropriated, apportioned or otherwise made payable by the federal government, any agency thereof, the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by such entity pursuant to any necessary or useful agreement entered into between such entity and the dormitory authority.

* NB Repealed December 31, 2028

* All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB Repealed December 31, 2028

Educational Housing Services Inc., a not-for-profit corporation, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, and equipping of housing for students and/or faculty at institutions of higher education located within the five boroughs of the city of New York and Westchester county either directly or by creation of a wholly-owned not-for-profit subsidiary corporation or controlled corporations, limited liability companies, or partnerships that are not subject to federal income taxation (except with respect to any unrelated business income).

* Terence Cardinal Cooke Health Care Center for the financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, and equipping of facilities to serve aged, disabled, and chronically impaired, and persons who have a developmental disability.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Terence Cardinal Cooke Health Care Center shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be appropriated, apportioned or otherwise made payable by the federal government, any agency thereof, the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by such entity pursuant to any necessary or useful agreement entered into between such entity and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB Repealed December 31, 2028

United States Military Academy for the purpose of providing construction related services in connection with the construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development or expansion of facilities owned by the United States Military Academy located at West Point, New York.

The Helen Keller National Center for Deaf-Blind Youths and Adults, a not-for-profit corporation located in Sands Point, New York, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of facilities.

The Green Chimneys Children's Services, Inc., Brewster, New York for the financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, equipping or otherwise for new children's cottages. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, The Green Chimneys Children's Services, Inc. shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by The Green Chimneys Children's Services, Inc. pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between The Green Chimneys Children's Services, Inc. and the authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section. No agreement or lease by The Green Chimneys Children's Services, Inc. shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of the various state agencies that have jurisdiction over the project.

The state university construction fund or any other public or private entity in connection with financing, refinancing, acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of or otherwise providing for, a pharmaceutical research, development, which may also include a manufacturing facility at the state university of New York college of technology at Farmingdale. The authority shall exercise only those powers or duties set forth in this section as shall be set forth in an agreement by and between the state university construction fund, the authority and any such public or private entity.

MSMC realty corporation, a support organization of the Mount Sinai hospital, Mount Sinai school of medicine of the city university of New York and the Mount Sinai medical center, inc. (collectively, "Mount Sinai"), for the purpose of providing facilities and equipment for Mount Sinai. As used in this paragraph and for purposes of chapter five hundred fifty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-nine, MSMC Realty Corporation shall be deemed to include any other entity created by MSMC Realty Corporation or Mount Sinai for the purpose of entering into an agreement with the dormitory authority pursuant to this paragraph.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, MSMC realty corporation shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be appropriated, apportioned or otherwise made payable by the federal government, any agency thereof, the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by such entity pursuant to any necessary or useful agreement entered into between such entity and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issue pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

The state university construction fund or any other public or private entity in connection with financing, refinancing, acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of or otherwise providing for approved university-related economic development projects authorized by section three hundred seventy-two-a of the education law. The authority shall exercise only those powers or duties set forth in this section as shall be set forth in an agreement by and between the state university construction fund, the authority and any such public or private entity.

The Capital District YMCA and related branches, administrative offices and satellite facilities located in New York state including: Albany YMCA, Camp Chingachgook, Guilderland YMCA, Parkside Family YMCA, Schenectady YMCA, Southern Saratoga YMCA, Troy Family YMCA and any successor in interest to any such organization for the financing and/or refinancing of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities, provided that the aggregate amount of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000).

UCPA of the Capital District, Inc., UCPA of Cayuga County, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Children's Association of Chemung County, Inc., Finger Lakes United Cerebral Palsy, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Associations of Fulton and Montgomery Counties, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the Tri-Counties, Inc., Franziska Racker Centers, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Nassau County, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of New York City, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Niagara County, Inc., Orange County Cerebral Palsy Association, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of Queens, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the Rochester Area, Inc., Jawonio, Inc., The Handicapped Children's Association of Southern New York, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Greater Suffolk, Inc., SDTC - The Center for Discovery, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Children's Association of Syracuse, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of Ulster County Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Person's Association of the Utica Area, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Westchester, Inc. and Unified Creative Programs, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Western New York, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Putnam and Southern Dutchess Counties, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the North Country, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Associations of New York State, Inc., any not-for-profit affiliates or members of Cerebral Palsy Associations of New York State, Inc., and any successor in interest to any such organization for the financing and/or refinancing of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities throughout the state of New York, including educational, residential, administrative, clinical, and day programming facilities used in the provision of services to individuals with disabilities.

The university at Albany foundation, or an associated not-for-profit corporation controlled by the university at Albany foundation which has been formed or is formed within one year of the effective date of this paragraph, for the purpose of financing or refinancing the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for a facility to serve as an incubator and research facility located at the East Campus of the university at Albany, provided that the amount of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed twelve million dollars ($12,000,000); and Fuller road management corporation, for the purpose of financing or refinancing the design, construction, improvement, furnishing and equipping of incubator and research facilities at the center for environmental sciences and technology management, provided that the amount of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed ten million dollars ($10,000,000), and provided, further, that any such borrowing and such projects shall have been approved by the state university of New York.

Baker Hall, Lackawanna, New York for the financing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation and improvement for facilities in Lackawanna, New York. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Baker Hall, Lackawanna, New York shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by Baker Hall, Lackawanna, New York pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between Baker Hall, Lackawanna, New York and the authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section. No agreement or lease by Baker Hall, Lackawanna, New York shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of the various state agencies that have jurisdiction over the project.

The Abyssinian Cultural Building Corporation, a New York not-for-profit corporation, with respect to the financing and/or refinancing of the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing, purchasing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, an educational facility for the Thurgood Marshall Academy for Learning and Social Change to be leased to the New York city school construction authority or to the board of education of the city school district of the city of New York for school purposes; provided that the aggregate amount of bonds issued by the dormitory authority issued for the Abyssinian Cultural Building Corporation shall not exceed thirty million dollars ($30,000,000). In furtherance of the aforesaid purposes and notwithstanding any other provision of law, the following provisions shall apply:

(i) The Abyssinian Cultural Building Corporation shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all funds payable to it by the New York city school construction authority or the board of education of the city school district of the city of New York pursuant to any lease entered into by and between the Abyssinian Cultural Building Corporation and the New York city school construction authority or the board of education of the city school district of the city of New York;

(ii) The New York city school construction authority or the board of education of the city school district of the city of New York is hereby authorized to pay all lease payments assigned and pledged by the Abyssinian Cultural Building Corporation pursuant to subparagraph (i) of this paragraph to the dormitory authority or, upon direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any bonds issued by the authority;

(iii) Any lease by and between the Abyssinian Cultural Building Corporation and the New York city school construction authority or the board of education of the city school district of the city of New York relating to an educational facility for the Thurgood Marshall Academy for Learning and Social Change shall provide that the obligation of the school district to make annual lease payments to the Abyssinian Cultural Building Corporation or to the dormitory authority shall not constitute a debt of the city of New York within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of moneys made available to the New York city school construction authority or the board of education of the city school district of the city of New York, and that no liability on account thereof shall be incurred by the New York city school construction authority or the board of education of the city school district of the city of New York beyond the moneys available for the purpose thereof;

(iv) Any lease by and between the Abyssinian Cultural Building Corporation and the New York city school construction authority or the board of education of the city school district of the city of New York shall not be deemed to be an installment purchase contract, contract for public work or purchase contract within the meaning of article five-A of the general municipal law or any other law; and

(v) No agreement of lease by the Abyssinian Cultural Building

Corporation pursuant to this paragraph shall be effective unless, and until, it is approved by the board of education and the chancellor of the city school district of the city of New York.

Any school district in the state with respect to the financing or refinancing of all or a portion of school district capital facilities and school district capital equipment for such school districts provided, however, that financing of such projects shall be limited to financing of projects eligible for an apportionment pursuant to subparagraph three of paragraph e of subdivision six of section thirty-six hundred two of the education law.

A qualified zone academy located in a city having one hundred twenty-five thousand or more inhabitants for the purpose of issuing qualified zone academy bonds in accordance with section 1397E of the internal revenue code, as the same may be amended. In connection with the issuance of qualified zone academy bonds as aforesaid and notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the following provisions shall apply:

(1) The dormitory authority and a city acting on behalf of a city school district in a city having one hundred twenty-five thousand or more inhabitants shall each be empowered and authorized to enter into a lease, sublease or other agreement pursuant to which the dormitory authority may finance the rehabilitation or repair of a school facility, the provision of equipment for use at such facility, or any other expenditure in connection with such facility which would be a "qualified purpose" as defined in section 1397E of the internal revenue code, provided that such financing shall be for such projects contained within the city school district's approved application to the state education department for projects pursuant to section 1397E of the internal revenue code and, if applicable, is included in the city school district's five year capital facilities plan pursuant to the applicable provisions of section twenty-five hundred ninety-p and subdivision six of section thirty-six hundred two of the education law. Such lease, sublease or other agreement may provide for annual or other payments to the dormitory authority by or on behalf of the city school district and may contain such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, including, but not limited to, the establishment of reserve funds and indemnities.

(2) In a city school district of a city having a population of one hundred twenty-five thousand or more, no lease, sublease or other agreement entered by such city on behalf of the board of education of such city school district pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph shall be effective unless, and until, it is approved by the board of education of such city school district and the mayor of such city.

(3) Any such lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to this paragraph may provide that the provisions thereof shall remain in force and effect until the bonds, notes or other obligations of the dormitory authority are no longer outstanding, together with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and the fees and expenses of the dormitory authority, are fully met and discharged, and any payments to be made by a city on behalf of the city school district to the dormitory authority may be pledged to secure such bonds.

(4) (i) In the event of the failure in whole or in part of a city to make payments when due pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to this paragraph, the dormitory authority shall forthwith make and deliver to the state comptroller, a certificate stating the amount of the payment required to have been made by the city, the amount paid by the city and the amount remaining unpaid by the city. The state comptroller shall, in accordance with the provisions of section ninety-nine-b of the state finance law, pay to the dormitory authority not later than thirty days after the certificate shall have been filed by the dormitory authority with the state comptroller the amount set forth in such certificate as remaining unpaid.

(ii) For purposes of section ninety-nine-b of the state finance law and notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, the following shall apply in connection with any certificate filed by the dormitory authority pursuant to this subparagraph: (A) all leases, subleases or other agreements entered into by and between a city pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed "bonds or notes issued for school district purposes"; (B) the certificate filed by the dormitory authority with the state comptroller as provided herein shall be deemed to be a "verified statement" of "the holder or owner of a bond or note" of the city; (C) the dormitory authority, or the trustee for the holders of any bonds issued by the dormitory authority, shall be deemed to be the "paying agent"; and (D) the amount payable by the state comptroller to the dormitory authority shall include principal, interest and other amounts payable to the dormitory authority under any lease, sublease or other agreement.

The NDC housing and economic development corporation and its affiliates for the financing, refinancing, acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, renovation, rehabilitation, improvement, expansion, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for one building to be located at 160 East 24th Street, New York, N.Y. to serve as a dormitory for students attending institutions of higher education within the city of New York.

School Districts having Eligible School District Projects

Political subdivisions financing eligible wireless 911 capital equipment.

Natural History Museum of the Adirondacks.

Women's Interart Center, Inc. of New York City, for the acquisitions, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for facilities for the Interart Rehearsal Studio and Cultural Center Complex located at 543-551 West 52nd Street in the Clinton Urban Renewal area of Manhattan.

The Center for Jewish History, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for facilities as a centralized location for preserving and advancing scholarship, art, history, and culture through its archival collection, in a one hundred twenty thousand square foot facility located at 15 West 16th Street in Manhattan.

The Kaatsbaan International Dance Center, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, furnishing and equipping or otherwise providing for a professional creative residence and performance facility on one hundred fifty-three rural acres in Tivoli, New York.

Eyebeam Atelier, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for facilities devoted to the collaboration of art and technology in New York state and the construction of a new ninety thousand square foot building located in the Chelsea area of New York city.

Youth Environmental Services, d/b/a Yes Community Counseling, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, furnishing and equipping or otherwise providing for the purchase of a building for such not-for-profit group located in Massapequa, New York.

The New York military academy, an education corporation chartered by the board of regents located in Cornwall-on-Hudson, New York, for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of facilities.

Preventive Medicine Institute, doing business as Strang Cancer Prevention Center.

Any residential institution for children as defined in subdivision forty-four of section sixteen hundred seventy-six of this title for the financing, refinancing, design, replacement (including acquisition and construction), reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, renovation, and equipping of existing residential facilities.

The Museum of African American Cinema, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for such facilities in Harlem, New York city.

34th Street Cancer Center, Inc., with respect to the financing and/or refinancing of the acquisition, purchasing and equipping of a certain building located at 160 East 34th Street, New York, New York, for use as a cancer center. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the following provisions shall apply:

(i) 34th Street Cancer Center, Inc. shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be appropriated, apportioned, or otherwise made payable by the federal government, any agency thereof, the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by such entity pursuant to any agreement entered into between such entity and the dormitory authority necessary or useful for the purposes set forth in this paragraph.

(ii) All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph.

The Beacon Institute, Inc., a domestic not-for-profit corporation formerly known as the Rivers and Estuaries Center on the Hudson, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, furnishing and equipping or otherwise providing for facilities for conducting a program of research and education that advances the understanding of rivers and estuaries and develops policies and practices that benefit the human and natural communities that depend upon these ecosystems, located at Beacon Harbor and Denning's Point in Beacon, New York, The Upper Hudson Research Center at Troy, located at the waterfront in Troy, New York and the Center for Tributary Study, located at Creek Road in Beacon, New York, and the Old Main Building at Clarkson University located in Potsdam, New York.

The Rochester school construction board for the financing of projects authorized pursuant to the city of Rochester and the board of education of the city school district of the city of Rochester school facilities modernization program act.

Albany Convention Center Authority

The YMCA of Greater Syracuse and related branches, administrative offices and satellite facilities located in New York state including: Downtown YMCA, East Area YMCA, North Area YMCA, Northwest YMCA, Camp Iroquois and any successor in interest to any such organization for the financing and/or refinancing of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

The United States Maritime Resource Center for the purpose of financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, expansion and equipping of a facility to serve as a classroom and student residence building in support of professional education and training programs to be located on the campus of the United States Merchant Marine Academy located in Kings Point, New York.

Not-for-profit members of the Alliance of Long Island Agencies, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of certain educational, administrative, clinical, day program and residential facilities to be located in the state of New York. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, not-for-profit members of the Alliance of Long Island Agencies, Inc. shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the United States, any agency thereof, the state, any agency thereof, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, any social services district in the state or any other governmental entity in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by such members pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such members and the dormitory authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued, pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Fordham Preparatory School, Inc., for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for construction of additional educational facilities located on Fordham University Rose Hill Campus, the Bronx, New York.

The Reece School, for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of, the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, additional floors or facilities for education and therapy at their facility located at twenty-five East One Hundred Fourth Street in the city of New York, to serve as a school for special education students; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Reece School shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the United States, any agency thereof, the state, any agency thereof, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, any social services district in the state or any other governmental entity in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by the Reece School to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between the Reece School and the dormitory authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued, pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Friends Academy, Glen Cove, Nassau County, for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, the complete renovation of the lower school located on the campus at Glen Cove, Nassau County, provided however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed six million five hundred thousand dollars.

Not-for-profit members of InterAgency Council of Developmental Disabilities Agencies, Inc., for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion and equipping of certain educational, administrative, clinical, day program and residential facilities to be located in the state of New York. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, not-for-profit members of the InterAgency Council of Developmental Disabilities Agencies, Inc. shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the United States, any agency thereof, the state, any agency thereof, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, any social services district in the state or any other governmental entity in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by such members pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such members and the dormitory authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued, pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Broad Channel Volunteers, Inc. doing business as Broad Channel Volunteer Fire Department and Ambulance Corps for the purpose of providing construction related services in connection with the construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development or expansion of facilities owned by Broad Channel Volunteers, Inc. doing business as Broad Channel Volunteer Fire Department and Ambulance Corps located at 305 Crossbay Boulevard, County of Queens, block 15304, lot 450, New York 11693.

The Convent of the Sacred Heart School, for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of, the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, the Convent of the Sacred Heart School at their facility located at: 406 East 91st Street in the city of New York, to serve as a school for students in grades pre-kindergarten through twelve; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed fifty-five million dollars.

Mercy Flight, Inc., of Western New York, for the financing and/or refinancing of equipment or the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

The Trevor Day School, for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of, the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, the Trevor Day School at their facility located at 312-318 East 95th Street in the city of New York, to serve as a school for students in grades seven through twelve; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed seventy-five million dollars.

Richardson Center Corporation.

Williamsburg Infant & Early Childhood Development Center, Inc. at 22 Middleton Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Randolph Academy union free school district, for the financing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, renovation and improvement for facilities located in Erie county, New York. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Randolph Academy union free school district shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by Randolph Academy union free school district pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between Randolph Academy union free school district and the authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section. No agreement or lease by Randolph Academy union free school district pursuant to this paragraph shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioner of education.

Medical Missions for Children, Inc.

Primary Care Development Corporation for the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, development, improvement, expansion, and equipping of facilities offering primary health care services and related ambulatory care and ancillary services in the state of New York.

Poly Prep Country Day School, for the refinancing of outstanding indebtedness, the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of, the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, the Poly Prep Country Day School at its facilities located at 9216 Seventh Avenue and/or 50 Prospect Park West in Brooklyn, New York, to serve as a school for students in grades Nursery through twelve; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed fifteen million dollars.

St. Andrew's Foundation, the Scottish Society of Hudson's Valley, Ltd.

Xavier High School, for the financing or refinancing, or reimbursement of the costs of the aquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for, Xavier High School at its facility located at 30 West 16th Street in the city of New York, to serve as a school for students in grades nine through twelve; provided, however, that the aggregate sum of any bonds issued for such purpose shall not exceed fifty-five million dollars.

Mercy Flight Central, Inc., of Central New York, for the financing and/or refinancing of equipment or the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

Young Men's Christian Association-Women's Community Center of Rome, New York Incorporated, for the financing and/or refinancing of equipment or the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

Dancewave, Inc., for the financing, acquisition, construction, development, improvement, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

Summit Educational Resources, Inc., a not-for-profit organization, for the acquisition, financing and/or refinancing, design, construction, renovation, reconstruction, development, improvement, furnishing, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

An authorized agency as defined by subdivision ten of section three hundred seventy-one of the social services law, or a local probation department as defined by sections two hundred fifty-five and two hundred fifty-six of the executive law for the provision of detention facilities certified by the office of children and family services or by such office in conjunction with the state commission of correction or for the provision of residential facilities licensed by the office of children and family services including all necessary and usual attendant and related facilities and equipment.

North Country School, Lake Placid, New York, for the acquisition, financing and/or refinancing, design, construction, renovation, reconstruction, development, improvement, furnishing, expansion and/or equipping of a facility or facilities and necessary ancillary and related facilities.

New York Military Academy

Any not-for-profit corporation formed pursuant to an inter-municipal agreement among two or more counties within this state to assist said counties in acquiring, financing, constructing, reconstructing, remodeling, enlarging, altering, repairing, operating, managing, leasing, selling or otherwise disposing of a joint county detention facility established in accordance with section two hundred eighteen-a of the county law.

The New York Racing Association, Inc. for capital projects.

The New York Academy of Medicine.

The Young Men's and Young Women's Hebrew Association (dba 92nd Street Y)

Masonic Medical Research Laboratory, a not-for-profit corporation, for the design, acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, renovation, rehabilitation, development, improvement, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for a facility and/or facilities, including any necessary or ancillary facilities, for the purpose of conducting scientific research or conducting testing for public health in the city of Utica.

Mary Cariola Children's Center, Inc.

Sandy Ground Historical Museum at 1538 Woodrow Road, Staten Island, New York for the restoration or replacement of the museum building located at such address.

the office of cannabis management.

the cannabis control board.

the private debt or equity fund in which the state or any agency, authority or division thereof has invested and is selected pursuant to subdivision thirty-two of section one thousand six hundred seventy-eight of this title to the extent authorized in subdivision thirty of such section.

Saint Ann's School, Brooklyn, New York.

Dutchess Community College Association, Inc. for the purpose of financing or refinancing the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of, or otherwise providing for residential housing located on the campus of Dutchess Community College.

SB Clinical Practice Management Plan, Inc., for the purpose of financing or refinancing for up to four advanced specialty care centers.

2. a. The dormitory authority is hereby authorized and empowered upon application of the educational institution concerned to acquire, design, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate and improve, or otherwise provide and furnish and equip dormitories and attendant facilities for any educational institution, provided that any contract undertaken or financed by the dormitory authority for any construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of any building or structure commenced after September first, nineteen hundred seventy-four for the Gananda school district or the Gananda educational facilities corporation, or any agency, board or commission therein, or any official thereof, shall comply with the provisions of section one hundred one of the general municipal law and the specifications for such contract may provide for assignment of responsibility for coordination of any of the contracts for such work to a single responsible and qualified person, firm or corporation; provided, however, that all contracts for construction of buildings on behalf of Queens Hospital Center shall be in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred one of the general municipal law; provided that any contracts for the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of any public work project undertaken by the dormitory authority of any facility for the aged for any political subdivision of the state or any district therein or agency, department, board or commission thereof, or any official thereof, shall comply with the provisions of section one hundred thirty-five of the state finance law; and provided further that any contract undertaken or financed by the dormitory authority for any construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of any building commenced after January first, nineteen hundred eighty-nine for the department of health shall comply with the provisions of section one hundred thirty-five of the state finance law.

Each educational institution defined in subdivision one of this section, except the department of health of the state of New York, shall, when authorized by an appropriate resolution adopted by its governing board or, when permitted, adopted by an appropriate committee of such governing board, have power: (i) to convey or cause to be conveyed to the authority real property or rights in real property required in connection with the construction and financing of a dormitory by the authority for such educational institution; or (ii) to enter into agreements or leases or both with the dormitory authority pursuant to subdivision sixteen of section sixteen hundred seventy-eight of this title and to paragraph e of this subdivision, or both, or, in the case of the department of health of the state of New York, providing that legislation or appropriations which specifies the facilities to be acquired, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated or improved for the department of health of the state of New York and the total estimated costs for each such facility, not to exceed four hundred ninety-five million dollars in the aggregate, shall have been approved by the legislature, the commissioner of health shall have power: (i) to convey or cause to be conveyed to the authority real property or rights in real property required in connection with the construction and financing of a dormitory by the authority for such educational institution; or (ii) to enter into agreements or leases or both with the dormitory authority pursuant to subdivision sixteen of section sixteen hundred seventy-eight of this title and to paragraph e of this subdivision or both. The educational institution for which such dormitory and attendant facility is intended to be provided shall approve the plans and specifications and location of such dormitory and attendant facility. The dormitory authority shall have the same power and authority in respect to such dormitories and attendant facilities provided pursuant to this subdivision that it has relative to other dormitories.

b. The dormitory authority shall have power to acquire, in the name of the authority, on terms necessary or convenient by purchase, gift or devise, real property or rights of easement in relation to dormitories and attendant facilities provided pursuant to this subdivision, and for the purposes of paragraph f of this subdivision, the dormitory authority shall also have power to acquire such real property or rights of easement by condemnation.

c. The dormitory authority shall have power to accept gifts of personal property in the name of the authority for the purposes of this subdivision.

d. (1) The dormitory authority may operate and manage any dormitory and attendant facility provided pursuant to this subdivision, or the authority may lease any such dormitory and attendant facility to the educational institution for which such dormitory and attendant facility is provided.

(2) At such time as the liabilities of the dormitory authority incurred for any such dormitory and attendant facility have been met and the bonds of the authority issued therefor have been paid or such liabilities and bonds have otherwise been discharged, the authority shall take action as follows:

(a) In the case of any dormitory and attendant facility other than one provided pursuant to paragraph f of this subdivision, the authority shall transfer title to all the real and personal property of such dormitory and attendant facility, vested in the authority, to the educational institution in connection with which such dormitory and attendant facility is then being operated, or to which such dormitory and attendant facility is then leased, provided, however, that if at any time prior thereto such educational institution ceases to offer educational facilities then such title shall vest in the people of the state of New York;

(b) In the case of any dormitory and attendant facility provided pursuant to paragraph f of this subdivision, the authority shall transfer such right, title and interest as it may have in or to the real property of such dormitory and attendant facility to the city of New York and in and to all personal property of such dormitory and attendant facility to the board of higher education in such city; provided, however, that if the authority has title to such dormitory and attendant facility and the city university shall cease to offer educational facilities before any such liabilities and bonds have been so paid or discharged, the title to all of the real and personal property thereof shall vest in the people of the state of New York;

(3) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, if requested by the city university construction fund and the board of higher education in the city of New York, and with the prior written approval of the director of the budget of the state of New York or his designee, the authority may sell all or any part of any dormitory and attendant facility provided by the authority for the city university pursuant to paragraph f of subdivision two, including any real and personal property comprising said dormitory and attendant facility. Such sale may be made by private or public sale. Such sale may be made only if the dormitory and attendant facility or portion thereof being sold is abandoned or withdrawn from the applicable project in accordance with (i) the applicable agreement entered into by the authority with the city university construction fund and the board of higher education in the city of New York and (ii) the applicable resolution of the authority, and if the net proceeds of such sale are applied by the authority in accordance with such agreement and resolution. The difference, if any, between the net proceeds of such sale, and, if greater, the amount required to be paid by the board of higher education in the city of New York to the authority pursuant to the terms of the applicable agreement by reason of the abandonment or withdrawal of such dormitory and attendant facility or portion thereof shall be paid to the authority by the state of New York, the city of New York, in which case the written approval of the director of the office of management and budget of the city of New York, or his designee, shall also be required, the city university construction fund or such board of higher education or any number of the foregoing at the closing of such sale and shall likewise be applied by the authority in accordance with the applicable agreement and resolution. Provided, however, that the foregoing provisions of this subparagraph only to the extent that they otherwise require a request for and approval by the city university construction fund or the board of higher education in the city of New York shall not apply to any sale of the parcels which constitute one hundred twenty-three and one hundred twenty-seven West one hundred eighty-third street in the city of New York being in section eleven, block three thousand two hundred twenty-five, lot forty-eight in Bronx county (also known as Sedgwick dormitory and North hall). The abandonment or withdrawal of such dormitory and attendant facility or portion thereof being sold and the payment to the authority in full of the difference between the net proceeds of sale and the amount required to be paid by such board of higher education to permit the abandonment or withdrawal shall be conditions to the closing of any sale pursuant to this subparagraph. In the event of a sale pursuant to this subparagraph, the authority shall be relieved of any obligation to transfer the dormitory and attendant facility or portion thereof being sold to the city of New York, the state of New York or the board of higher education in the city of New York pursuant to clause (b) of subparagraph two of this paragraph. Any and all rights of the city of New York, the state of New York and such board of higher education in and to such dormitory and attendant facility or portion thereof shall be deemed to be fully satisfied and extinguished by a sale pursuant to this subparagraph. At the request of the authority, the city of New York, the state of New York and such board of higher education shall join in the deed or execute a quitclaim or other legal instrument of conveyance of their respective interests, if any, therein.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the authority, if requested by the city university construction fund and the board of higher education in the city of New York, may lease all or any part of any dormitory and attendant facility provided by the authority for the city university pursuant to paragraph f of this subdivision to a third party upon such terms and conditions as the authority, the city university construction fund and the board of higher education in the city of New York shall deem appropriate and as are consistent with the provisions of the applicable agreement entered into by the authority with the city university construction fund and the board of higher education in the city of New York and the applicable resolution of the authority. Provided, however, that the foregoing provisions of this subparagraph only to the extent that they otherwise require a request for and approval by the city university construction fund or the board of higher education in the city of New York shall not apply to any lease of the parcels which constitute one hundred twenty-three and one hundred twenty-seven West one hundred eighty-third street in the city of New York being in section eleven, block three thousand two hundred twenty-five, lot forty-eight in Bronx county (also known as Sedgwick dormitory and North hall). Any rentals or other moneys received by the authority pursuant to such lease shall be applied by the authority in accordance with the terms of the applicable agreement and resolution. Any leasing of such dormitory and attendant facility or portion thereof by the authority pursuant to the terms of this subparagraph shall not be deemed to constitute a breach by the authority of the terms and conditions of, or a default by the authority under any agreement which the authority may have entered into with the city university construction fund and the board of higher education in the city of New York, or any resolution of the authority, applicable to the dormitory and attendant facility or portion thereof being leased.

e. Any lease of a dormitory and attendant facility authorized by this subdivision shall be a general obligation of the lessee and may contain certain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds of the authority issued for such dormitory, as to

(1) pledging all or any part of the moneys, earnings, income and revenues derived by the lessee from such dormitory or any part or parts thereof, or other personal property of the lessee, to secure payments required under the terms of such lease;

(2) the rates, rentals, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected by the lessee, the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of such moneys, earnings, income and revenues;

(3) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of special funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(4) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of such lease may be amended, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(5) vesting in a trustee or trustees such specified properties, rights, powers and duties as shall be deemed necessary or desirable for the security of the holders of the bonds of the authority issued for such dormitory;

(6) the obligations of the lessee with respect to the replacement, reconstruction, maintenance, operation, repairs and insurance of such dormitory;

(7) defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the lessee, and providing for the rights and remedies of the authority and of its bondholders in the event of such default;

(8) any other matters, of like or different character, which may be deemed necessary or desirable for the security or protection of the authority or the holders of its bonds.

f. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, general or special, the dormitory authority is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire, design, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate, and improve or otherwise provide and furnish and equip dormitories and attendant facilities for the use of the city university, in accordance with the terms of any lease, sublease, or other agreement entered into by the authority, pursuant to article one hundred twenty-five-B of the education law, with the city university construction fund, or with such fund and the board of higher education in the city of New York. The dormitory authority may issue its bonds to finance the cost of senior college facilities either together with or separate from bonds issued to finance the cost of community college facilities, and may issue its bonds to finance the local sponsor's portion of the cost of community college facilities either together with or separate from its bonds issued to finance the state's portion of the cost of such community college facilities.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, general or special, the dormitory authority may acquire, design, construct or otherwise provide and furnish and equip dormitories and attendant facilities for the use of Hunter College, which may include therein a police and fire station, upon a site set forth in and in accordance with the terms of any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into by the authority pursuant to article one hundred twenty-five-B of the education law with the city university construction fund, the city of New York and the board of higher education in such city. The police and fire station portions of such facility shall be deemed capital projects of the city of New York within the meaning of chapter nine of the New York city charter. Any conveyance of real property or rights and interests therein by the city to the dormitory authority with respect to such facility shall not include title to that portion of the real property to be occupied by the police and fire station portions thereof but shall include the air rights over such police and fire stations and subsurface rights thereunder.

(2) The provisions of this subdivision shall apply to projects undertaken by the dormitory authority pursuant to this paragraph provided, however, that wherever any provision of this subdivision authorizes or requires action on the part of an educational institution such provision, so far as it applies to any such project, shall be deemed to refer to action on the part of the city university construction fund or the board of higher education of the city of New York, as the case may be.

h. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, general or special, the dormitory authority is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire dormitories, including existing dormitories, from any educational institution for such consideration and upon such terms as may be approved by the authority.

i. Notwithstanding any other provision of law the dormitory authority is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into any agreement, lease or sublease with any not-for-profit corporation or any political subdivision of the state of New York or the state of New York to allow a dormitory to be used and occupied by persons sixty-five years of age or older.

j. Subject to the provisions of chapter fifty-nine of the laws of two thousand, the maximum amount of bonds and notes to be issued after March thirty-first, two thousand two for a housing unit for the use of students at a state-operated institution or statutory or contract college under the jurisdiction of the state university of New York shall be one billion five hundred sixty-one million dollars. Such amount shall be exclusive of bonds and notes issued to fund any reserve fund or funds, costs of issuance, and to refund any outstanding bonds and notes relating to a housing unit under the jurisdiction of the state university of New York.

k. (1) For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to the powers in connection with the provision of detention facilities certified by the office of children and family services or by such office in conjunction with the state commission of correction or for the provision of residential facilities licensed by the office of children and family services including all necessary and usual attendant and related facilities and equipment.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any entity as listed above shall have full power and authority to enter into such agreements with the dormitory authority as are necessary to finance and/or construct detention or residential facilities described above, including without limitation, the provision of fees and amounts necessary to pay debt service on any obligations issued by the dormitory authority for same, and to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the United States, any agency thereof, the state, any agency thereof, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, any social services district in the state or any other governmental entity in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such entity as listed above pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between any such entity as listed above and the dormitory authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued, pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

l. (1) For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to the powers in connection with the provision of detention facilities certified by the office of children and family services or by such office in conjunction with the state commission of correction, including any joint county detention facility established in accordance with section two hundred eighteen-a of the county law, or for the provision of residential facilities licensed by the office of children and family services including all necessary and usual attendant and related facilities and equipment.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the office of children and family services, the division of the budget, any county and any entity as listed above shall have full power and authority to enter into such agreements with the dormitory authority as are necessary or useful to finance and/or construct detention or residential facilities described above, including without limitation, such agreements that may provide for or warrant the uninterrupted provision of fees and amounts necessary to pay debt service on any obligations issued by the dormitory authority for same, and to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority, any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the United States, any agency thereof, the state, any agency thereof, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, any social services district in the state or any other governmental entity in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such entity as listed above pursuant to any lease, sublease, pledge agreement or other agreement entered into between any such entity as listed above, any county and the dormitory authority; any such agreement shall not constitute indebtness for purposes of the state constitution or section 20.00 of the local finance law, and shall not be deemed either executory or to create any contractual obligation in excess of the amounts appropriated annually for such purpose. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued, pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

3. a. The authority also shall have power to make loans to any educational institution for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation and improvement, or otherwise providing, furnishing and equipping of dormitories and attendant facilities, for the purpose of financing or refinancing the cost thereof or for the purpose of acquiring any federally guaranteed security in accordance with subdivision sixteen of section sixteen hundred seventy-eight of this chapter. Each such loan shall be premised upon an agreement, agreements, or supplements thereto, between the authority and the institution, which agreement, agreements, or supplements thereto, may make provisions as to payment, security, maturity, redemption, interest, payment of any expenses of the authority and other appropriate matters.

b. The authority shall likewise have power to make loans to any educational institution to refund existing bonds, mortgages or advances given or made by such institution for the construction of dormitories to the extent that this will enable such educational institution to offer greater security for loans for new dormitory construction or to effect savings in interest cost or more favorable amortization terms.

c. For the purpose of obtaining loans under subdivision three of this section every educational institution shall, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, have power to mortgage and pledge any of its real or personal property, to pledge any of its income from whatever source, and to purchase and pledge a federally guaranteed security for the repayment of the principal of and interest on any loan made to it by the authority or to pay the interest on and principal and redemption premium, if any, of any note, bond or other evidence of indebtedness evidencing the debt created by any such loan; provided that the foregoing shall not be construed to authorize actions in conflict with specific legislation, trusts, endowment, or other agreements relating to specific properties or funds.

d. Moneys of the authority received from any educational institution in payment of any sum due to the authority pursuant to the terms of any loan or other agreement or any bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness, shall be deposited in an account in which only moneys received from educational institutions under this subdivision shall be deposited and shall be kept separate and apart from and not commingled with any other moneys of the authority. Moneys deposited in such account shall be paid out on checks signed by the chairman of the authority or by such other person or persons as the authority may authorize.

4. Whenever the dormitory authority under subdivision two of this section undertakes to construct, acquire or otherwise provide and operate and manage a dormitory and attendant facilities, the dormitory authority shall be responsible for the direct operation and maintenance costs of such dormitory but each educational institution in connection with which such a dormitory is provided and operated and managed shall be responsible at its own expense for the over-all supervision of each dormitory, for the overhead and general administrative costs of the educational institution which are incurred because of such dormitory and for the integration of each dormitory operation into the institution's educational program so that in so far as practicable the declaration of policy as outlined in section one of chapter eight hundred fifty of the laws of nineteen hundred fifty-five and a declaration of policy contained in section one of an act of the legislature of nineteen hundred fifty-nine amending this subdivision may be fully achieved. Whenever the dormitory authority under subdivision two of this section undertakes to construct, acquire or otherwise provide a dormitory and attendant facilities and to lease the same to an educational institution, the lessee shall be responsible for the direct operation and maintenance costs of such dormitory and in addition shall be responsible for the over-all supervision of each dormitory, for the overhead and general administrative costs of the lessee which are incurred because of such dormitory and for the integration of each dormitory operation into the lessee's educational program so that in so far as practicable the declaration of policy as outlined in section one of chapter eight hundred fifty of the laws of nineteen hundred fifty-five and a declaration of policy contained in section one of an act of the legislature of nineteen hundred fifty-nine amending this subdivision may be fully achieved. Whenever the dormitory authority under subdivision three of this section makes loans for the construction of a dormitory, the educational institution at which such dormitory is located shall be responsible for the direct operation and maintenance costs of such dormitory and in addition shall be responsible for the over-all supervision of each dormitory, for the overhead and general administrative costs of the educational institution which are incurred because of such dormitory and for the integration of each dormitory operation into the institution's educational program so that in so far as practicable the declaration of policy as outlined in section one of chapter eight hundred fifty of the laws of nineteen hundred fifty-five and a declaration of policy contained in section one of an act of the legislature of nineteen hundred fifty-nine amending this subdivision may be fully achieved.

5. All the provisions of this title four not inconsistent with the provisions of this section sixteen hundred eighty, shall be applicable with respect to any bonds of the authority issued to obtain funds for any purpose authorized under this section sixteen hundred eighty, and with respect to the powers of the authority hereunder.

6. To obtain funds for construction, acquisition or provision of dormitories and loans under this section, the authority shall have power from time to time to issue negotiable bonds or notes.

7. Any pledge of or other security interest in moneys, earnings, income, revenues, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge or other security interest attaches, without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act. The lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or other security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed. This subdivision shall apply notwithstanding the provisions of the uniform commercial code.

8. For all purposes of this section sixteen hundred eighty, the term "dormitory" shall include and mean a housing unit, including all necessary and usual attendant and related facilities and equipment, provided for the use of married students, faculty, staff and the families thereof.

9. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, each local sponsor shall have power to convey or cause to be conveyed to the authority real property or rights in real property required in connection with the providing and financing of a facility by the authority for a locally sponsored community college for which such local sponsor is the sponsor or one of the sponsors and who also enters into agreements and leases with the dormitory authority pursuant to paragraph e of subdivision two of this section. The authority to make any such conveyance shall not be subject to a mandatory or permissive referendum.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law, charter or ordinance to the contrary, on request of the local sponsor of a locally sponsored community college in the city of New York and with the approval of the city board of estimate, the city of New York may sell, convey, lease, exchange or otherwise make available to the dormitory authority, for a nominal consideration, any interest in real property of the city designated by such local sponsor as suitable for a facility. Such sale, conveyance, lease, exchange, or other disposition may be made at a nominal cost and without the requirement of public auction or sealed bids, or restriction as to the term of any such lease or arrangement, and the provisions of subdivision b of section three hundred eighty-four of the New York city charter shall not apply in such cases. Conveyances made pursuant to this section shall include but shall not be limited to real property on which are situated facilities of, or are under the jurisdiction of, or assigned to, the board of education of the city school district of the city of New York.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law, charter or ordinance to the contrary, the city board of estimate on behalf of the city of New York may grant revocable or irrevocable consents or rights of any kind or nature whatsoever, providing for or involving or relating to the occupation or use of any of the streets of the city, whether on, under or over the surface thereof, to the dormitory authority, on such terms and conditions and for such period of time or duration as may be determined by the board of estimate to be in the public interest.

(d) The following provisions shall be applicable to agreements and leases entered into between the authority and a local sponsor in relation to the providing and financing by the authority of facilities for locally sponsored community colleges, and to agreements and leases entered into between the authority and the city university construction fund in relation to the providing and financing by the authority of facilities for city university community colleges.

(1) In addition to the provisions authorized by subdivision four of section sixteen hundred eighty-two of this title four, any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds for the purpose of financing the cost of providing facilities for locally sponsored or city university community colleges may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of such bonds providing for the creation and establishment and maintenance of reserve funds and payments to such reserve funds as hereinafter in this paragraph set forth.

(2) The authority may create and establish one or more reserve funds to be known as debt service reserve funds and may pay into such reserve funds (i) any moneys appropriated and made available by the state for the purposes of such funds, (ii) any proceeds of the sale of bonds and notes to the extent provided in the resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance thereof, and (iii) any other moneys which may be made available to the authority for the purposes of such funds from any other source or sources. The moneys held in or credited to any debt service reserve fund established under this paragraph, except as hereinafter provided, shall be used solely for the payment of the principal of bonds of the authority secured by such reserve fund, as the same mature, the purchase of such bonds of the authority, the payment of interest on such bonds of the authority or the payment of any redemption premium required to be paid when such bonds are redeemed prior to maturity; provided, however, that moneys in any such fund shall not be withdrawn therefrom at any time in such amount as would reduce the amount of such fund to less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on the bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such reserve fund, except for the purpose of paying principal and interest on the bonds of the authority secured by such reserve fund maturing and becoming due and for the payment of which other moneys of the authority are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or increment to, any such debt service reserve fund due to the investment thereof may be transferred to any other fund or account of the authority to the extent it does not reduce the amount of such debt service reserve fund below the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such reserve fund.

(3) The authority shall not issue bonds at any time if the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in a succeeding calendar year on the bonds outstanding and then to be issued and secured by a debt service reserve fund will exceed the amount of such reserve fund at the time of issuance, unless the authority at the time of issuance of such bonds, shall deposit in such reserve fund from the proceeds of the bonds so to be issued, or otherwise, an amount which together with the amount then in such reserve fund, will be not less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on the bonds then to be issued and on all other bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such reserve fund.

(4) To ensure the continued operation and solvency of the authority for the carrying out of the public purposes relating to providing facilities for locally sponsored or city university community colleges provision is made in the foregoing provisions of this paragraph d for the accumulation in each debt service reserve fund of an amount equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such reserve fund. In order further to ensure the maintenance of such debt service reserve funds, there shall be annually apportioned and paid to the authority for deposit in each debt service reserve fund such sum, if any, as shall be certified by the chairman of the authority to the governor and state director of the budget as necessary to restore such reserve fund to an amount equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on the bonds of the authority then outstanding and secured by such reserve fund. The chairman of the authority shall annually, on or before December first, make and deliver to the governor and state director of the budget his certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore each such debt service reserve fund to the amount aforesaid, and the sum or sums so certified, if any, shall be apportioned and paid to the authority during the then current state fiscal year. The principal amount of bonds secured by a debt service reserve fund or funds to which state funds are apportionable pursuant to this subparagraph shall be limited to the total amount of bonds and notes outstanding on the effective date of this act, plus the total amount of bonds and notes contracted after the effective date of this act to finance projects in progress on the effective date of this act as determined by the New York state public authorities control board created pursuant to section fifty of this chapter whose affirmative determination shall be conclusive as to all matters of law and fact solely for the purposes of the limitations contained in this subparagraph, but in no event shall the total amount of bonds so secured by such a debt service reserve fund or funds exceed two hundred seventy million dollars for locally sponsored community colleges and four hundred seventy million dollars for city university community colleges, excluding bonds issued to refund such outstanding bonds until the date of redemption of such outstanding bonds. As outstanding bonds so secured are paid, the amount so secured shall be reduced accordingly but the redemption of such outstanding bonds from the proceeds of refunding bonds shall not reduce the amount so secured.

(5) In computing any debt service reserve fund for the purposes of this paragraph, securities in which all or a portion of such reserve fund shall be invested shall be valued at par, or if purchased at less than par, at their cost to the authority.

(e) All the provisions of this title four not inconsistent with the provisions of this section sixteen hundred eighty shall be applicable with respect to any bonds of the authority issued to obtain funds for the purpose of providing facilities for locally sponsored community colleges.

(f) No agreement by the dormitory authority with a local sponsor shall be effective unless and until it is approved by the state university trustees and the state director of the budget or his designee and, in the case of a locally sponsored community college in the city of New York, it is also approved by the director of the budget of the city of New York or his designee.

(g) No agreement by the dormitory authority with the city university construction fund or with such fund and the city university with respect to a city university community college, entered into prior to July first, nineteen hundred eighty-five and no agreement entered into on or after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-five which is supplemental to any agreement entered into prior to such July first, shall be effective unless and until it is approved by the state director of the budget or his designee and by the director of the budget of the city of New York or his designee.

10. The local sponsor shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by a local sponsor or by the state of New York to the local sponsor for purposes of the locally sponsored community college pursuant to the provisions of subdivision eight of section sixty-three hundred four of the education law and any tuition and instructional fees received from students attending such locally sponsored community college.

All state officers and local sponsors concerned are hereby authorized to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the commissioner of taxation and finance for deposit in the community college tuition and instructional income fund.

10-a. Subject to the provisions of chapter fifty-nine of the laws of two thousand, but notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the maximum amount of bonds and notes to be issued after March thirty-first, two thousand two, on behalf of the state, in relation to any locally sponsored community college, shall be one billion six hundred twenty-three million eight hundred eighty-four thousand dollars $1,623,884,000. Such amount shall be exclusive of bonds and notes issued to fund any reserve fund or funds, costs of issuance and to refund any outstanding bonds and notes, issued on behalf of the state, relating to a locally sponsored community college.

11. In the case of any locally sponsored community college, other than a locally sponsored community college in the city of New York or a locally sponsored community college where the local sponsor has entered into an agreement with the dormitory authority to finance and construct a facility for such college, construction of the facilities may be performed by the local sponsor under existing statute.

12. In the case of a locally sponsored community college in the city of New York or in the case of a locally sponsored community college where the local sponsor has entered into an agreement with the dormitory authority to finance and construct a facility for such college, any construction of such facility shall be performed by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this title four.

13. Upon application of a local sponsor of a locally sponsored community college, which application has been approved by the state university trustees and the state director of the budget or his designee and, in the case of a locally sponsored community college in the city of New York, has also been approved by the director of the budget of the city of New York or his designee, the dormitory authority may acquire, design, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate and improve, and furnish and equip or otherwise provide facilities pursuant to the provisions of this title four and in such event the obligations of the authority issued to finance the cost of such project shall be repaid pursuant to an agreement between such local sponsor and the dormitory authority. The dormitory authority may issue its bonds to finance the local sponsor's portion of the cost of such project either together with or separate from the bonds issued by the dormitory authority to finance the state's portion of the cost of such project.

14. (a) During any twelve month period beginning with a July first and ending on a June thirtieth, hereinafter referred to in this subdivision as a "school year", the dormitory authority shall not deliver a series of bonds for any locally sponsored community college project, except to refund or to be substituted for or in lieu of other bonds in relation to such locally sponsored community college, unless (1) the amount of tuition and instructional fees received by the local sponsor from students attending such locally sponsored community college for the school year immediately preceding the school year in which such bonds are proposed to be delivered shall exceed the amount which the commissioner of taxation and finance is required to maintain on deposit in the community college tuition and instructional income fund pursuant to the provisions of subdivision five of section ninety-seven-p of the state finance law for such locally sponsored community college, or

(2) the local sponsor of such locally sponsored community college shall submit proof in form satisfactory to the dormitory authority that the amount of tuition and instructional fees to be received by the local sponsor from students attending such college for the third school year after the school year in which such bonds are proposed to be delivered shall exceed the amount which the commissioner of taxation and finance is required to maintain on deposit in the community college tuition and instructional income fund pursuant to the provisions of subdivision five of section ninety-seven-p of the state finance law for such college.

(b) The provisions of paragraph a of this subdivision shall not apply to facilities for a locally sponsored community college in the city of New York other than the fashion institute of technology.

(c) Subject to the provisions of chapter fifty-nine of the laws of two thousand, (i) the dormitory authority shall not deliver a series of bonds for city university community college facilities, except to refund or to be substituted for or in lieu of other bonds in relation to city university community college facilities pursuant to a resolution of the dormitory authority adopted before July first, nineteen hundred eighty-five or any resolution supplemental thereto, if the principal amount of bonds so to be issued when added to all principal amounts of bonds previously issued by the dormitory authority for city university community college facilities, except to refund or to be substituted in lieu of other bonds in relation to city university community college facilities will exceed the sum of four hundred twenty-five million dollars and (ii) the dormitory authority shall not deliver a series of bonds issued for city university facilities, including community college facilities, pursuant to a resolution of the dormitory authority adopted on or after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-five, except to refund or to be substituted for or in lieu of other bonds in relation to city university facilities and except for bonds issued pursuant to a resolution supplemental to a resolution of the dormitory authority adopted prior to July first, nineteen hundred eighty-five, if the principal amount of bonds so to be issued when added to the principal amount of bonds previously issued pursuant to any such resolution, except bonds issued to refund or to be substituted for or in lieu of other bonds in relation to city university facilities, will exceed thirteen billion one million four thousand dollars $13,001,004,000, excluding bonds issued after April first, two thousand twenty-five to (i) fund one or more debt service reserve funds, (ii) pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and (iii) refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued, provided that nothing herein shall affect the exclusion of refunding debt issued prior to such date. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal such limit, and the state of New York, the dormitory authority, the city university, and the fund are prohibited from covenanting or making any other agreements with or for the benefit of bondholders which might in any way affect such right.

15. In order to effectuate the purposes of this title, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of facilities for locally sponsored community colleges except a facility for a locally sponsored community college in the city of New York or a facility for a community college sponsored by a community college region:

(a) (1) The local sponsor by resolution of its governing body may enter into a lease, sublease or other agreement for the provision of facilities by the authority for such local sponsor upon such terms and conditions as the authority shall determine to be reasonable, including but not limited to the reimbursement of all costs of such construction and claims arising therefrom.

(2) No such lease, sublease or other agreement shall be deemed to be a contract for public work or purchase within the meaning of the general municipal law.

(b) Any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into by the authority and any local sponsor may provide that at the termination thereof the title to the facility shall vest in the local sponsor or its successor in interest, if any, free and clear of any indebtedness contracted by the authority. Any such lease, sublease or other agreement entered into by the authority and any local sponsor which shall provide that the local sponsor shall be liable for the payment of rentals and other payments due and payable to the dormitory authority pursuant to such lease, sublease, or other agreement shall be subject to the following provisions:

(1) The term of any such lease, sublease or other agreement shall not exceed forty years which is hereby determined to be the period of probable usefulness of any facility for a locally sponsored community college authorized to be provided pursuant to this title, which term shall be computed from the date of the first indebtedness contracted by the authority for such facility.

(2) The annual payments to be made by the local sponsor to the authority to enable the authority to pay the principal of any such indebtedness contracted by it to finance the cost of such works or facility shall commence within two years after any such indebtedness or portion thereof shall have been contracted and no such annual payment shall be more than fifty per centum in excess of the smallest prior annual payment for such purpose.

(3) The local sponsor shall pledge its full faith and credit for the payment of such annual payments described in subparagraph two of this paragraph and also for the payments required to be made to the authority to enable it to pay the interest on such indebtedness.

(4) The total amount of any unpaid annual payments in relation to the principal of any such indebtedness shall be deemed to be indebtedness of the local sponsor for a capital improvement within the meaning of subparagraph b of subdivision three of paragraph a of section 135.00 of the local finance law.

(5) The annual payments by a local sponsor in relation to such indebtedness and interest shall be deemed to be "indebtedness" and "interest" within the meaning of section ten of article eight of the state constitution.

(6) The lease, sublease or other agreement shall not be renegotiated, or amended, in such manner as to constitute a refunding within the meaning of section two of article eight of the state constitution.

(7) The lease, sublease or other agreement shall not be applicable to any facility constructed or reconstructed to effectuate the purposes of article eighteen of the state constitution.

(8) The provisions of this title may be utilized by any local sponsor notwithstanding the provision of any general or special law, or county or city charter which (i) requires that any project must be constructed, operated and maintained by the local sponsor, (ii) limits the period of time for which a local sponsor may contract, (iii) requires that the cost shall be paid for by taxes levied for the fiscal year in which the expenditure is to be made, (iv) requires that the cost shall be financed pursuant to the local finance law, or (v) only permits any such project to be constructed subject to either mandatory or permissive referendum.

16. Any lease, sub-lease or other agreement entered into by the authority and any local sponsor in connection with the provision of a facility for a locally sponsored community college may provide for the deduction or withholding from any state financial aid payable to any such local sponsor, other than state financial aid apportioned and paid pursuant to the provisions of subdivision eight of section sixty-three hundred four of the education law, of an amount which has been determined after audit by the state comptroller to have been expended in excess of one-half of the total cost of acquiring, designing, constructing, reconstructing, rehabilitating and improving and furnishing and equipping or otherwise providing such facility for such local sponsor except for the costs of establishing and maintaining reserves and other costs of the authority incurred in connection with the financing of such facility.

* 17. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Albany County Chapter by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Albany County Chapter shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 5 sub 17's

* 17. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for the Association for the Help of Retarded Children, Suffolk Chapter by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, the Association for the Help of Retarded Children, Suffolk Chapter shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 5 sub 17's

* 17. For the purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for United Cerebral Palsy of Ulster County, Inc., hereinafter called the organization, by the authority pursuant to this title.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the organization shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

No agreement or lease by such organization shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of the various state agencies that have jurisdiction over the project.

* NB There are 5 sub 17's

* 17. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for Hillside Children's Center by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, Hillside Children's Center shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 5 sub 17's

* 17. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for New Dimensions in Living, Inc. and Associated Residential Centers, Inc. by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Rensselaer County Chapter, the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Montgomery County Chapter, New Dimensions in Living, Inc. and Associated Residential Centers, Inc. shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 5 sub 17's

18. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for the New York Society for the Deaf by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, the New York Society for the Deaf shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.
* 19. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the purchase and renovation of a new site for the library for the blind and physically handicapped by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title:

a. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, and subject to the making of annual appropriations therefor by the legislature, in order to assist the dormitory authority in the purchase and renovation of a site in the county of New York for the library for the blind and physically handicapped, and in consideration of the undertaking thereof and the benefits to be derived therefrom by the people of the state, the director of the budget is authorized in any state fiscal year to enter into one or more service contracts, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, with the dormitory authority, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree;

b. Any service contract entered into pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the dormitory authority as security for its bonds and notes;

c. Any such service contract shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision in the event the dormitory authority assigns or pledges service contract payments as security for its bonds or notes and shall be deemed executory only to the extent moneys are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for the purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriation by the legislature;

d. Any service contract or contracts for projects entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the dormitory authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund, or to fund the debt service requirements of any bonds or notes, including bonds issued to fund any required debt service reserve requirement for bonds, of the dormitory authority issued to fund such projects having a cost not in excess of sixteen million dollars; and

e. The New York public library, Astor, Lenox and Tilden foundations shall not be required to pledge all or any part of its moneys, earnings, income, revenues, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles, other personal property, or assets to secure bonds issued by the dormitory authority to finance the purchase and renovation of a new site for the library for the blind and physically handicapped. The dormitory authority shall possess and retain all the rights, title and interest in and to the assets acquired with the proceeds of a bond or bonds issued pursuant to this subdivision provided, however, that upon payment of all outstanding debt service due on such bond or bonds all rights, title and interest in and to such assets shall without any further payment by the state of New York be vested in the state of New York. Within amounts provided by the dormitory authority, the New York public library, Astor, Lenox and Tilden foundation shall be responsible for the conduct of necessary renovations of the acquired site.

* NB There are 4 sub 19's

* 19. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for New Hope Community, Inc., by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, New Hope Community, Inc., shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the federal government, any agency thereof, the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 4 sub 19's

* 19. (a) The dormitory authority is empowered and authorized to enter into a lease, sublease or other agreement with the state university construction fund pursuant to which one or more state university educational facilities are to be designed, acquired, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved or otherwise provided, or state university educational facilities are to be furnished or equipped, provided that such lease, sublease, or other agreement has been approved by the state university of New York, which shall be a party thereto. Such lease, sublease or other agreement may provide for the payment of annual rentals and other payments by the state university construction fund to the authority and contain such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, including, but not limited to, provisions relating to the maintenance and operation of the state university educational facilities, the establishment of reserve funds, indemnities and the disposition of a facility or the interest of the authority therein prior to or upon the termination or expiration of such lease, sublease or other agreement. Such lease, sublease or other agreement shall be subject to the approval of the director of the budget.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of the public lands law or any other law to the contrary, the state of New York, the state university of New York and the state university construction fund may sell, convey, lease, exchange or otherwise make available to the authority, for nominal consideration, the title to or an interest in real property for the purpose of providing state university educational facilities and may enter into any lease, sublease or other agreement with the authority in connection with state university educational facilities without public auction or bidding or restriction as to the term of such lease, sublease or other agreement.

(c) Subject to the provisions of chapter fifty-nine of the laws of two thousand, the dormitory authority shall not issue any bonds for state university educational facilities purposes if the principal amount of bonds to be issued when added to the aggregate principal amount of bonds issued by the dormitory authority on and after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-eight for state university educational facilities will exceed twenty-one billion eight hundred ninety-eight million one hundred sixty-four thousand dollars $21,898,164,000, excluding bonds issued after April first, two thousand twenty-five to (i) fund one or more debt service reserve funds, (ii) pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and (iii) refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued, provided that nothing herein shall affect the exclusion of refunding debt issued prior to such date. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal such limit, and the state of New York, the dormitory authority, the state university of New York, and the state university construction fund are prohibited from covenanting or making any other agreements with or for the benefit of bondholders which might in any way affect such right.

(d) (1) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds of the authority issued for state university educational facilities purposes shall be sold to the bidder offering the lowest true interest cost, taking into consideration any premium or discount, not less than four nor more than fifteen days, Sundays excepted, after a notice of such sale has been published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the area served by the authority, which shall state the terms of the sale. The terms of the sale may not change unless notice of such change is published in such newspaper at least one day prior to the date of the sale as set forth in the original notice of sale. Advertisements shall contain a provision to the effect that the authority, in its discretion, may reject any or all bids made in pursuance of such advertisements, and in the event of such rejection, the authority is authorized to negotiate a private or public sale or readvertise for bids in the form and manner above described as many times as, in its judgment, may be necessary to effect a satisfactory sale.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (i) of this subparagraph, whenever in the judgment of the authority the interest of the authority will be served thereby, the members of the authority, on the written recommendation of the executive director, may authorize the sale of such bonds at private or public sale on a negotiated basis or on either a competitive or negotiated basis. The authority shall set guidelines governing the terms and conditions of any such private or public sales.

(2) The private or public bond sale guidelines set by the authority shall include, but not be limited to, a requirement that where the interests of the state will be served by a private or public sale of bonds, the authority shall select underwriters for private or public bond sales conducted pursuant to a request for proposal process undertaken in accordance with the authority's procurement guidelines adopted pursuant to section twenty-eight hundred seventy-nine of this chapter from qualified underwriters taking into account, among other things, qualifications of underwriters as to experience, their ability to structure and sell authority bond issues, anticipated costs to the authority, the prior experience of the authority with the firm, and, if any, the capitalization of such firms.

(3) The authority shall have the power from time to time to amend such private or public bond sale guidelines in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(4) No such private or public bond sale on a negotiated basis shall be conducted by the authority without prior approval of the comptroller.

(5) The authority shall annually prepare and approve a bond sale report which shall include the private or public bond sale guidelines as specified in subparagraph two of this paragraph, amendments to such guidelines since the last private or public bond sale report, an explanation of the bond sale guidelines and amendments, and the results of any sale of bonds conducted during the fiscal year. Such bond sale report may be a part of any other annual report that the authority is required to make.

(6) (i) The authority shall annually submit its bond sale report to the comptroller and copies thereof to the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee.

(ii) The authority shall make available to the public copies of its bond sale report upon reasonable request therefor.

(7) Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be deemed to alter, affect the validity of, modify the terms of or impair any contract or agreement made or entered into in violation of, or without compliance with, the provisions of this section.

(e) The state shall, in addition to any other moneys appropriated and made available for the support of the state university of New York, annually appropriate and pay to the state university construction fund an amount equal to the aggregate of all annual rentals and other payments due to the dormitory authority from the state university construction fund on account of state university educational facilities, which rentals and other payments are payable by the fund pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between the dormitory authority and the state university construction fund on or after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-eight, for the year commencing April first immediately succeeding the filing of the report required to be submitted by the state university construction fund pursuant to subdivision two of section three hundred eighty-two of the education law. Such amount shall be paid to the state university construction fund as follows:

(1) on or before the fifteenth day of September of the fiscal year of the state, the amount required to be paid by the state university construction fund on account of state university educational facilities under any such lease, sublease or other agreement on or before the tenth day of October of such state fiscal year;

(2) no later than three business days prior to the tenth day of April of the fiscal year of the state, the amount required to be paid by the state university construction fund on account of state university educational facilities under any such lease, sublease or other agreement on or before the tenth day of April of such state fiscal year; and

(3) on such day or days as shall be prescribed under any such lease, sublease, or other agreement, the amount required to be paid by the state university construction fund for the purpose of making payments under any interest rate exchange or similar agreements entered into pursuant to article five-D of the state finance law for state university educational facilities.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state comptroller shall annually encumber that portion of the amount appropriated for payment to the state university construction fund equal to the amount required to be paid pursuant to subparagraphs two and three of this paragraph in the fiscal year following the year in which the appropriation is made pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement between the fund, the authority and the state university of New York with respect to authority bonds issued or interest rate exchange and similar agreements entered into for state university educational facilities, before the end of the fiscal year in which the appropriation is made. The amount so encumbered shall be payable to the fund pursuant to subparagraphs two and three of this paragraph, in the manner prescribed by law.

In the event of the failure of the state to pay the state university construction fund when due pursuant to this subdivision all or part of such amounts, the state university construction fund shall forthwith make and deliver to the state comptroller a certificate stating the amount of the payment required to have been made by the state, the amount paid by the state and the amount remaining unpaid by the state. The state comptroller, after giving written notice to the director of the budget, shall pay to the state university construction fund the amount set forth in such certificate as remaining unpaid, which amount shall be paid from any moneys appropriated by the state for or on account of the operating costs of the state university of New York and not yet paid. The amount required to be paid by the state comptroller pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid to the state university construction fund as soon as practicable after receipt of the certificate of the state university construction fund and notice to the director of the budget is given, whether or not the moneys from which such payment is to be made are then due and payable to the state university.

(f) The amount of state appropriations payable to the state university of New York from which the state comptroller has made a payment pursuant to this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount so paid to the state university construction fund, notwithstanding the amount appropriated and apportioned by the state to the state university of New York, and the state shall not be obligated to make and the state university of New York shall not be entitled to receive any additional apportionment or payment of state moneys.

(g) The amount of money required to be paid pursuant to this subdivision shall be determined from the report required to be submitted by the state university construction fund pursuant to subdivision two of section three hundred eighty-two of the education law. Nothing contained in this subdivision shall be construed to create an obligation upon the state to appropriate moneys for or on account of the operating costs of state university educational facilities, to preclude the state from reducing the amount of moneys appropriated or level of support provided for the operating costs of the state university of New York from the amount appropriated or level of support provided in any prior state fiscal year, or to preclude the state from altering or modifying the manner in which it provides for the operating costs of the state university of New York.

* NB There are 4 sub 19's

* 19. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for United Cerebral Palsy of New York City, Inc. by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, United Cerebral Palsy of New York City, Inc. shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issue pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 4 sub 19's

20. Subject to the provisions of any lease, sublease or other agreement with the state university of New York and state university construction fund or with the city university of New York and the city university construction fund to the contrary, in any case where the authority and the respective fund are authorized to and have agreed that the authority will award contracts for the design and construction of a project, the authority shall prepare or cause to be prepared a facility design and performance plan with the state university of New York and state university construction fund or with the city university of New York and the city university construction fund. Such plan shall set forth the terms and conditions associated with the construction management process, including, but not limited to, provisions relating to the selection of architects, construction consultants, construction managers and contractors, the relative responsibilities of the authority and the respective fund with respect to the initial project budget, the preparation of working drawings and budgets, the project construction process, beneficial occupancy including formal notifications, punch lists and acceptance by all parties, notification of construction completion, project close-out, and the commencement of responsibility for maintenance of the facility. Such plan shall also include provisions relating to the responsibility of the authority to require appropriate performance and surety bonds, the diligent pursuit by the authority of remedies against architects, contractors and sureties deemed to be in default in the performance of their obligations, and, generally, the management of the construction process in a professional manner in accordance with prevailing construction industry standards. The authority shall submit the facility design and performance plan to the respective fund for inclusion in the capital program plan submitted by the respective university to the director of the budget.

* 21. For the purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the acquisition, financing, refinancing, construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, development, expansion, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for a new school building and provision of dormitories for the Westchester School for Special Children, Westchester county, hereinafter called the organization, by the authority pursuant to this title.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the organization shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

No agreement or lease by such organization shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of the various state agencies that have jurisdiction over the project.

* NB There are 3 sub 21's

* 21. For the purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the construction of a new school building and provision of dormitories for the Guided Growth, Inc. of Hawthorne, Westchester county, hereinafter called the organization, by the authority pursuant to this title.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the organization shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

No agreement or lease by such organization shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of the various state agencies that have jurisdiction over the project.

* NB There are 3 sub 21's

* 21. For the purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for Saint Christopher-Ottilie, Nassau county, hereinafter called the organization, by the authority pursuant to this title.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the organization shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

No agreement or lease by such organization shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of the various state agencies that have jurisdiction over the project.

* NB There are 3 sub 21's

* 22. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for The National Center for the Study of Wilson's Disease, Inc. by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, The National Center for the Study of Wilson's Disease, Inc. shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 3 sub 22's

* 22. For the purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for Orange County Cerebral Palsy Association, Inc., hereinafter called the organization, by the authority pursuant to this title.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the organization shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

No agreement or lease by such organization shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of the various state agencies that have jurisdiction over the project.

* NB There are 3 sub 22's

* 22. For the purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of facilities for Wildwood Programs, Inc. (formerly a school building for the Wildwood School program of New York Association for the Learning Disabled, Capital District Chapter, Inc.) by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, Wildwood Programs, Inc., (formerly New York Association for the Learning Disabled, Capital District Chapter, Inc.) shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease, or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 3 sub 22's

25. For the purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for The Devereux Foundation by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, The Devereux Foundation shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

26. a. The dormitory authority is empowered and authorized to enter into a lease, sublease or other agreement with the department of health of the state of New York pursuant to which one or more facilities are to be designed, acquired, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved or otherwise provided for the department of health, or such facilities are to be furnished or equipped. Such lease, sublease or other agreement may provide for the payment of annual rentals and other payments by the department of health to the authority from appropriations, as provided in paragraph c of this subdivision and contain such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, including, but not limited to, provisions relating to the maintenance and operation of the facilities, the establishment of reserve funds, indemnities and the disposition of a facility or the interest of the authority therein prior to or upon the termination or expiration of such lease, sublease or other agreement. Such lease, sublease or other agreement shall be subject to the approval of the director of the budget.

b. Any such lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision may provide that the provisions thereof shall remain in force and effect until the issue of bonds of the authority to which it relates, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and the fees and expenses of the authority, are fully met and discharged, and any payments to be made by the state may be pledged by the authority to secure such bonds.

c. The state shall, in addition to any other moneys appropriated and made available for the support of the department of health, annually appropriate and pay to the dormitory authority an amount equal to the aggregate of all annual rentals and other payments due to the dormitory authority from the department of health on account of facilities for the department of health, which rentals and other payments are payable by the department of health pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between the dormitory authority and the department of health on or after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-nine, for the year commencing April first immediately succeeding the filing of the report required to be submitted by the department of health pursuant to paragraph d of this subdivision. Such amount shall be paid to the dormitory authority as follows: (i) on or before the fifteenth day of May for the fiscal year of the state, the amount required to be paid by the department of health on account of facilities for the department of health under any such lease, sublease or other agreement; and, (ii) on or before the fifteenth day of November of the fiscal year of the state, the amount required to be paid by the department of health under any such lease, sublease or other agreement. The amount of money required to be paid pursuant to this subdivision shall be determined from the report required to be submitted by the commissioner of health pursuant to paragraph d of this subdivision.

d. On or before November fifteenth of each year, the commissioner of health shall submit and thereafter may resubmit, to the director of the budget, the state comptroller, the chairperson of the senate finance committee and the chairperson of the assembly ways and means committee, a report setting forth the amounts, if any, of all annual rentals and other payments estimated to become due in the succeeding state fiscal year to the dormitory authority from the department of health pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement between the dormitory authority and the department of health entered into on or after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-nine, to provide facilities for the department of health.

* 27. a. The dormitory authority is empowered and authorized to enter into a lease, sublease or other agreement with the commissioner of education of the state of New York pursuant to which one or more facilities are to be designed, acquired, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved or otherwise provided for the education department or such facilities are to be furnished or equipped. Such lease, sublease or other agreement may provide for the payment of annual rentals and other payments by the education department to the dormitory authority from appropriations, as provided in paragraph c of this subdivision, and contain such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, including, but not limited to, provisions relating to the maintenance and operation of the facilities, the establishment of reserve funds, indemnities and the disposition of a facility or the interest of the dormitory authority therein, if any, prior to or upon the termination or expiration of such lease, sublease or other agreement. Such lease, sublease or other agreement shall be subject to the approval of the director of the budget.

b. Any such lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision may provide that the provisions thereof shall remain in force and effect until the issue of bonds of the dormitory authority to which it relates, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and the fees and expenses of the dormitory authority, are fully met and discharged, and any payments to be made by the state may be pledged by the dormitory authority to secure such bonds.

c. The state shall, in addition to any other moneys appropriated and made available for the support of the education department, annually appropriate to the education department for payment to the dormitory authority an amount equal to the aggregate of all annual rentals and other payments due to the dormitory authority from the education department on account of facilities for the education department which rentals and other payments are payable by the education department pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between the dormitory authority and the education department on or after July first, nineteen hundred ninety for the year commencing April first, immediately succeeding the filing of the report required to be submitted by the education department pursuant to paragraph d of this subdivision. Such amount shall be paid to the dormitory authority as follows: (i) on or before the fifteenth day of March for the fiscal year of the state, the amount required to be paid by the education department on account of facilities for the education department under any such lease, sublease or other agreement; and, (ii) on or before the fifteenth day of September of the fiscal year of the state, the amount required to be paid by the education department under any such lease, sublease or other agreement. The amount of money required to be paid pursuant to this subdivision shall be determined from the report required to be submitted by the commissioner of education pursuant to paragraph d of this subdivision.

d. On or before November fifteenth of each year, the commissioner of education shall submit and thereafter may resubmit, to the director of the budget, the state comptroller, the chairperson of the senate finance committee and the chairperson of the assembly ways and means committee, a report setting forth the amounts, if any, of all annual rentals and other payments estimated to become due in the succeeding state fiscal year to the dormitory authority from the education department pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement between the dormitory authority and the commissioner of education entered into on or after July first, nineteen hundred ninety to provide facilities for the education department.

e. The dormitory authority shall not issue obligations for the provision of a facility for the education department unless a certificate of availability has been approved by the director of the budget and an appropriation for such facility has been enacted. Except for notes or bonds issued to refund outstanding bonds, no notes or bonds shall be issued for the purposes authorized by this subdivision after the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred ninety-nine.

f. Any contract entered into by the dormitory authority for the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of any building which constitutes all or part of a facility for the education department of the state of New York, shall comply with the provisions of section one hundred thirty-five of the state finance law.

* NB There are 3 sub 27's

* 27. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for Vesta Community Housing Development Board, Inc. of Altamont by the dormitory authority pursuant to title four of article eight of this chapter.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, Vesta Community Housing Development Board, Inc. of Altamont shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of

New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issue pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

No agreement or lease by such organization shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of the various state agencies that have jurisdiction over the project.

* NB There are 3 sub 27's

* 27. For the purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the construction of new facilities for a diagnostic and evaluation program and a pre-independent living program and to expand existing facilities in a special education school for Gateway Youth and Family Services, hereinafter called the organization, by the authority pursuant to this title.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the organization shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority or upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

No agreement or lease by such organization shall be effective unless and until it is approved by or on behalf of the commissioners of the various state agencies that have jurisdiction over the project.

* NB There are 3 sub 27's

* 28. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for the Orleans County Chapter-New York State Association of Retarded Children, Inc. by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, the Orleans County Chapter-New York State Association of Retarded Children, Inc. shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 3 sub 28's

* 28. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Westchester County Chapter by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc., Westchester County Chapter shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the State of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 3 sub 28's

* 28. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc.-Livingston-Wyoming County Chapter by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, the New York State Association for Retarded Children, Inc.-Livingston-Wyoming County Chapter shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 3 sub 28's

31. a. The dormitory authority may enter into leases, subleases or other agreements with private not-for-profit schools for the financing of and the design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, renovation, acquisition or otherwise providing for, furnishing or equipping of capital facilities which are educational facilities where the total estimated cost of such facilities exceeds ten thousand dollars. The plans and specifications of such capital facilities shall be subject to the approval of the commissioner of education with respect to educational facilities. Such capital facilities may be constructed only on land owned by such private not-for-profit school or, if the land is leased, where the lease is for a period at least equal to the appropriate period of probable usefulness for such facilities as listed in section 11.00 of the local finance law, or the length of the lease, sublease or other agreement with the dormitory authority, whichever is longer.

b. Each such private not-for-profit school shall, notwithstanding any other provision of law, have the power to convey, lease, sublease or otherwise make available to the dormitory authority without consideration, title or any other rights in real property satisfactory to the dormitory authority.

c. In addition to providing for all other matters deemed necessary and proper, such leases, subleases and other agreements shall (1) require such private not-for-profit school to pay to the dormitory authority annual rentals which shall include the amount required to pay the principal of and interest on obligations of the dormitory authority issued in relation to providing such facilities and all incidental expenses of the dormitory authority incurred in relation thereto, (2) require the private not-for-profit school to include an amount sufficient to meet its obligations under the lease, sublease or other agreement in each proposed budget submitted during the term of the lease, sublease or other agreement, and (3) not be executed until such capital facilities are approved by the commissioner of education with respect to educational facilities.

d. Title or other real property rights to the capital facilities financed pursuant to this section shall remain with the dormitory authority until the dormitory authority certifies to the commissioner of education with respect to educational facilities and the comptroller the receipt by it of the amount necessary to pay the total aggregate amount of annual rentals to the dormitory authority. At such time, title or other real property rights thereto shall be transferred by the dormitory authority to such private not-for-profit school for use for educational purposes. In order to avail itself of the provisions of this section, each such private not-for-profit school must also agree to continue to operate a program for the education of children pursuant to contract with public school districts or social services districts, and such lease, sublease or other agreement with the dormitory authority shall provide that, if the private not-for-profit school shall cease to operate such a program at any time during the term of the agreement, the state will have the option to take such title or other real property rights of the dormitory authority in land, buildings, equipment and other properties which the private not-for-profit school uses for its program upon, subject to appropriations, payment by the state to the dormitory authority of the amount required to pay the total aggregate amount of annual rentals to the dormitory authority.

e. On or before November fifteenth of each year, the dormitory authority shall submit, and thereafter may resubmit, to the director of the budget, the state comptroller, the chairman of the senate finance committee and the chairman of the assembly ways and means committee a report setting forth the amounts, if any, of all annual rentals estimated to become due in the succeeding state fiscal year to the dormitory authority from the private not-for-profit school pursuant to any leases, subleases or other agreements between the dormitory authority and such private not-for-profit school to provide educational facilities for such private not-for-profit school. The state comptroller shall pay over to the dormitory authority pursuant to appropriations therefor solely from moneys available in the private not-for-profit school capital facilities financing reserve fund the amount set forth in such report at the times and in the amounts set forth in the certificate filed with the comptroller by the dormitory authority pursuant to clause (iv) of subparagraph two of paragraph f of this subdivision.

f. Method of payment; reserve fund. (1) Each private not-for-profit school which elects to avail itself of the provisions of this section shall have established with the state comptroller a private not-for-profit school capital facilities financing reserve account which shall be used to pay to the dormitory authority the annual rentals payable to the dormitory authority by private not-for-profit schools which have entered into leases, subleases or other agreements with the dormitory authority to provide educational facilities pursuant to the provisions of this section. The dormitory authority shall identify to the state comptroller and to the commissioner of education with respect to educational facilities, the private not-for-profit schools with which it has leases, subleases or other agreements pursuant to this section and shall annually certify the amount of annual rentals required to be paid pursuant to such leases, subleases or other agreements.

(2) (i) There is hereby established in the custody of the state comptroller a special fund to be known as the private not-for-profit school capital facilities financing reserve fund. Within such fund, there is hereby established a special account for each private not-for-profit school which enters into a lease, sublease or other agreement with the dormitory authority pursuant to this section.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, such fund shall consist of part of the tuition payments from public school districts and social services districts as determined by the commissioner of education. The comptroller shall maintain sufficient amounts in the fund in order to pay when due the annual rentals due to the dormitory authority from each such private not-for-profit school pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to the provisions of this section. The dormitory authority shall certify to the state comptroller the dates and amount of such annual payments as scheduled in its leases, subleases or other agreements with such private not-for-profit schools. The commissioner of education with respect to educational facilities shall certify the amount of payments due the fund from public school districts and social services districts, respectively and such public school districts and social services districts shall make such payments to the fund at such times as shall be prescribed by the commissioner with respect to educational facilities, subject to the approval of the director of the budget, and after consultation with the dormitory authority.

(iii) Revenues in any special account in the private not-for-profit school capital facilities financing reserve fund may be commingled with any other monies in such fund. All deposits of such revenues with banks and trust companies shall be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of New York or its political subdivisions. Such obligations shall have a market value at least equal at all times to, but not less than, one hundred five percent of the amount of such deposits. All banks and trust companies are authorized to give security for such deposits. Any such revenues in such fund may, in the discretion of the comptroller, be invested in obligations of the United States or the state or obligations the principal of and interest on which are guaranteed by the United States or by the state. Any interest earned shall be credited to such fund.

(iv) Upon receipt by the comptroller of a certificate or certificates from the dormitory authority that it requires a payment or payments from the appropriate special account established for a private not-for-profit school in order for such private not-for-profit school to comply with any lease, sublease or other agreement pursuant to this section, each of which certificates shall specify the required payment or payments and the date when the payment or payments is required, the comptroller shall pay from such special account on or before the specified date or within thirty days after receipt of such certificate or certificates, whichever is later, to the paying agent designated by the dormitory authority in any such certificate, the amount or amounts so certified.

(v) All payments of money from the private not-for-profit school capital facilities financing reserve fund shall be made on the audit and warrant of the state comptroller.

g. Notwithstanding the provisions of any contract pursuant to article eighty-one or eighty-nine of the education law between a social services district or a public school district and a private not-for-profit school. If the private not-for-profit school enters into a lease, sublease or other agreement with the dormitory authority pursuant to this section, payments due from the public school district or social services district shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

h. All state and local officials are authorized and required to take whatever actions are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section and the provisions of any leases, subleases or other agreements entered into pursuant to this section, including making the required payments to the dormitory authority.

i. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the dormitory authority may execute leases, subleases, or other agreements with private not-for-profit schools authorized pursuant to this section and chapter six hundred ninety-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one for financing of the design, construction, rehabilitation, improvement, renovation, acquisition or provision, furnishing or equipping of capital facilities; provided, however, that during the two year period commencing July first, nineteen hundred ninety-five, the amount of bonds inclusive of principal, interest and issuance costs to be issued for each individual lease, sublease, or other agreement shall not exceed fifteen million dollars annually; and provided further that the total amount of such bonds for all such leases, subleases, or agreements with private not-for-profit schools during such period exclusive of bonds for projects already approved by the division of budget as of such date shall not exceed one hundred fifteen million dollars.

On or before September first of each year, the commissioner of education shall submit to the chairs of the assembly ways and means committee, the senate finance committee and the director of the budget, a capital plan for those projects expected to be bonded for private not-for-profit schools pursuant to this section, within such one hundred fifteen million dollar allowance. After application of the principles of the capital assets preservation program pursuant to education law, such plan shall accord priority to health and safety considerations and shall specify the name, location, estimated total cost of the project at the time the project is to be bid, the anticipated bid date and the anticipated completion date and may contain any further recommendations the commissioner may deem appropriate.

* 32. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of dormitories for Hospice, Buffalo by the dormitory authority pursuant to this title.

Except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law, Hospice, Buffalo shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state of New York, a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, or any social services district in the state of New York in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by any such organization pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into between such organization and the dormitory authority.

All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

* NB There are 2 sub 32's

* 32. (a) The dormitory authority is empowered and authorized to enter into a lease, sublease or other agreement with the state university construction fund pursuant to which an ambulatory care training facility is to be acquired, designed, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved or otherwise provided, and furnished and equipped, provided that such lease, sublease or other agreement has been approved by the state university of New York which shall be a party thereto. Such lease, sublease or other agreement may provide for the payment of annual rentals and other payments by the state university construction fund to the dormitory authority and contain such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, including, but not limited to, provisions relating to the maintenance and administration of the ambulatory care training facility, the establishment of reserve funds, the amounts, the source, the pledge and the timing of payments of annual rentals and other payments by the fund to the authority indemnification and the disposition of the facility or the interest of the authority therein, if any, prior to or upon the termination or expiration of such lease, sublease or other agreement. Such lease, sublease or other agreement shall be subject to the approval of the director of the budget.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of the public lands law or any other law to the contrary, the state of New York, the state university of New York and the state university construction fund may sell, convey, lease, exchange or otherwise make available to the authority, for nominal consideration, the title to or an interest in real property for the purpose of providing an ambulatory care training facility and may enter into any lease, sublease or other agreement with the authority in connection with an ambulatory care training facility without public auction or bidding or restriction as to the term of such lease, sublease or other agreement.

(c) The state university construction fund shall pay over to the dormitory authority, from amounts received by the fund from the tenants, subtenants and other users of the ambulatory care training facility that are engaged in medical practice at the health sciences center at state university of New York at Stony Brook, pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement between the fund and the university and such tenants, subtenants and other users, an amount equal to the annual rentals and other payments due to the authority from the fund pursuant to a lease, sublease or other agreement between the authority and the fund with respect to the ambulatory care training facility. Any such lease, sublease or other agreement with any tenant, subtenant or other user shall be a general obligation of such tenant, subtenant or other user, as the case may be, and the aggregate amounts due under all such leases, subleases or other agreements shall at least equal the annual rentals and other amounts due to the dormitory authority from the state university construction fund pursuant to the lease, sublease or other agreement between the authority and the fund with respect to the ambulatory care training facility. In addition, any lease, sublease or other agreement with any tenant, subtenant or other user of the ambulatory care training facility shall provide that all revenues received by the tenants, subtenants and other users including, but not limited to, the revenues received by the medical clinical practice management plan established pursuant to the policies of the board of trustees of the state university of New York at the health sciences center at state university of New York at Stony Brook, shall be pledged and assigned to the dormitory authority to the extent required to make the annual rentals and other payments due to the authority from the fund pursuant to a lease, sublease or other agreement between the authority and the fund with respect to the ambulatory care training facility to secure the obligations of the state university construction fund undertaken pursuant thereto, and the authority shall have a first lien on any such revenues to the same extent. The state university of New York, the state university construction fund, any tenant, subtenant or other user which has entered into a lease, sublease or other agreement with the state university construction fund and the university with respect to the possession and use of such ambulatory care training facility, and the medical clinical practice management plan at the health sciences center at state university of New York at Stony Brook acting by and through any authorized representatives thereof; shall agree in writing to the pledge and assignment of all such revenues. Such pledge and assignment shall provide that (i) all revenues of such medical clinical practice management plan, including any amounts receivable by the state university of New York from such medical clinical practice management plan for the benefit of the state university of New York, shall be pledged and assigned to the dormitory authority, to the extent required to make the annual rentals and other payments due to the authority from the fund pursuant to a lease, sublease or other agreement between the authority and the fund with respect to the ambulatory care training facility and the authority shall have a first lien on any such revenues to the same extent to secure the obligations of the state university construction fund undertaken pursuant thereto; and (ii) the foregoing pledge and assignment shall be pursuant to the obligation under such medical clinical practice management plan to reimburse the state for the costs of clinical practice in accordance with such clinical practice management plan. Any such pledge and assignment of revenues to the authority may be further pledged and assigned to the holders of obligations of the dormitory authority issued to finance the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement or other provision furnishing and equipping of the ambulatory care training facility or to a trustee acting on behalf of the holders of such obligations. To the extent not so pledged and assigned, revenues of such medical clinical practice management plan shall be available for any lawful purposes of the state university of New York health sciences center at Stony Brook. Notwithstanding the provisions of article fourteen of the civil service law or any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, neither the state of New York, the state university of New York, the medical clinical practice management plan at the state university of New York at Stony Brook, nor any other person, corporation, organization or entity shall take any action in such manner as to impair or diminish the rights and remedies of the dormitory authority pursuant to any such pledge and assignment and any lien or other security interest created pursuant hereto.

(d) In the event of the failure of the state university construction fund to receive when due, either pursuant to the leases, subleases or other agreements with the tenants, subtenants or other users of the ambulatory care training facility or pursuant to the pledge and assignment of the revenues of such tenants, subtenants or other users, including the pledge and assignment of revenues received by the medical clinical practice management plan, amounts which, in the aggregate, equal the annual rentals and other payments required to be made by the fund to the dormitory authority pursuant to the lease, sublease or other agreement between the fund and the authority with respect to the ambulatory care training facility, and subject to the right of the state university construction fund to receive payments from the state comptroller pursuant to the provisions of subdivision nineteen of this section, as added by chapter six hundred seventy-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred eighty-eight, the state university construction fund shall forthwith make and deliver to such state comptroller a certificate stating the amount of the aggregate payments required to have been made by such tenants, subtenants or other users, the amount received from such tenants, subtenants or other users and the amount remaining unpaid by such tenants, subtenants or other users. The state comptroller, after giving written notice to the director of the budget and the chancellor of state university of New York, shall pay the state university construction fund the amount set forth in such certificate as remaining unpaid, which amount shall be paid from any moneys appropriated or allocated by the state for or on account of the activities of the state university of New York at Stony Brook hospital and not yet paid. The amount required to be paid by the state comptroller pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid to the state university construction fund as soon as practicable after receipt of the certificate of the state university construction fund and notice to the director of the budget and the chancellor of the state university of New York is given, whether or not the moneys from which such payment is to be made are then due and payable to the state university.

(e) The amount of state appropriations and allocations payable to the state university of New York for the Stony Brook hospital from which the state comptroller has made a payment pursuant to this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount so paid to the state university construction fund, notwithstanding the amount appropriated or allocated and apportioned by the state to the state university of New York for the Stony Brook hospital, and the state shall not be obligated to make and the state university of New York shall not be entitled to receive for the Stony Brook hospital any additional apportionment or payment of state moneys on account of said amount paid to the state university construction fund.

(f) In the event of the failure of the state university construction fund to receive when due, either pursuant to the leases, subleases or other agreements provided for in paragraph (c) of this subdivision or pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (d) of this subdivision, and subject to the right of the state university construction fund to receive payments from the state comptroller pursuant to the provisions of subdivision nineteen of this section, as added by chapter six hundred seventy-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred eighty-eight, the state university construction fund shall forthwith make and deliver to such state comptroller a certificate stating the amount of the aggregate payments required to have been made by such tenants, subtenants or other users. The state comptroller, after giving written notice to the director of the budget and the chancellor of state university of New York, shall pay the state university construction fund the amount set forth in such certificate as remaining unpaid, which amount shall be paid from any moneys appropriated or allocated by the state for or on account of the operating costs of the state university of New York at Stony Brook and not yet paid. The amount required to be paid by the state comptroller pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid to the state university construction fund as soon as practicable after receipt of the certificate of the state university construction fund and notice to the director of the budget and the chancellor of state university of New York is given, whether or not the moneys from which such payment is to be made are then due and payable to the state university.

(g) The amount of state appropriations and allocations payable to the state university of New York at Stony Brook from which the state comptroller has made a payment pursuant to this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount so paid to the state university construction fund, notwithstanding the amount appropriated or allocated and apportioned by the state to the state university of New York at Stony Brook and the state shall not be obligated to make and the state university of New York at Stony Brook shall not be entitled to receive any additional apportionment or payment of state moneys on account of said amount paid to the state university construction fund.

(h) Bonds issued by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision to finance an ambulatory care training facility shall not be subject to the provisions of such subdivision nineteen of this section.

* NB There are 2 sub 32's

33. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subject to the approval of the voters pursuant to sections two hundred fifty-five and two hundred sixty of the education law, a public library shall have full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise made payable by the state, or a political subdivision, as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by such public library pursuant to any agreement entered into between such public library and the dormitory authority. All state and local officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or upon the direction of the authority to any trustee of any authority bond or note issued, pursuant to a certificate filed with any such state or local officer by the authority as required by such agreement.

34. a. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, and subject to the making of an annual appropriation therefor by the legislature, in order to assist the dormitory authority in providing for the financing of the payment of the remaining principal balance of the amount to be amortized as defined in section sixteen-a of the retirement and social security law and interest accrued from March first, nineteen hundred ninety-six to the date of such payment of the remaining principal balance, into the pension accumulation fund and the New York state public employees group life insurance plan, and in consideration of the undertaking thereof and the benefits to be derived therefrom by the people of the state, the director of the budget is authorized to enter into an agreement which shall not exceed ten years in duration with the dormitory authority, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree;

b. Any agreement entered into pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the dormitory authority as security for its bonds and notes;

c. Any such agreement shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provisions in the event the dormitory authority assigns or pledges the payments received pursuant to such agreement as security for its bonds or notes and shall be deemed executory only to the extent moneys are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for that purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriations by the legislature;

d. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the dormitory authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund the debt service requirements of any bonds or notes of the dormitory authority issued pursuant to this subdivision; and

e. The dormitory authority shall not issue its bonds or notes to finance the amounts as described in paragraph a of this subdivision in an aggregate principal amount greater than seven hundred eighty-seven million dollars; provided, however, that in addition to such bonds, the authority may issue an aggregate principal amount of bonds sufficient to fund any reserve funds established in connection therewith, to provide capitalized interest on the bonds or notes and pay the costs incurred by the authority in connection with the issuance and servicing of any of such bonds.

35. (a) The dormitory authority is empowered and authorized to enter into a lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement with the office of general services of the state of New York on behalf of the department of audit and control of the state of New York pursuant to which one or more facilities are to be designed, acquired, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved or otherwise provided for the department of audit and control of the state of New York, the New York state and local employees' retirement system and the New York state and local police and fire retirement system and pursuant to which such facilities are to be furnished or equipped provided, however, that any contract or lease for construction, reconstruction or rehabilitation authorized by this subdivision shall be governed by article eight of the labor law. Such lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement may provide for the payment of annual rentals and other payments by the department of audit and control of the state of New York to the dormitory authority from appropriations as provided in paragraph (c) of this subdivision or from payments made pursuant to any lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement authorized pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subdivision and contain such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, including but not limited to, provisions relating to the maintenance and operation of the facilities, the establishment of reserve funds, indemnities and the disposition of a facility or the interest of the dormitory authority therein, if any, prior to or upon termination or expiration of such lease, sublease or other agreement. Such lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement shall be subject to the approval of the director of the budget.

(b) Any such lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision may provide that the provisions thereof shall remain in full force and effect until the issue of the bonds of the dormitory authority to which it relates, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and the fees and expenses of the dormitory authority, are fully met and discharged, and any payments to be made by the state, the New York state and local employees' retirement system and the New York state and local police and fire retirement system pursuant to any lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement authorized pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subdivision may be pledged by the dormitory authority to secure such bonds.

(c) Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision by and between the dormitory authority and the office of general services on behalf of the department of audit and control shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the department of audit and control an amount equal to the aggregate amount of all annual rentals due to the dormitory authority from the department of audit and control on account of such facilities for the department of audit and control, the New York state and local employees' retirement system and the New York state and local police and fire retirement system pursuant to any such lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement. Any such lease, sublease, lease purchase or other agreement shall further provide that the obligation of the state to appropriate amounts to the department of audit and control to pay annual rentals due to the dormitory authority from the department of audit and control on account of facilities for the department of audit and control, the New York state and local employees' retirement system and the New York state and local police and fire retirement system pursuant to any such lease, sublease, lease purchase or other agreement shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional and/or statutory provisions and shall be deemed executory only to the extent state moneys are appropriated and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys appropriated for that purpose and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriations by the legislature.

(d) On or before November fifteenth of each year, the dormitory authority shall submit and thereafter may resubmit to the commissioner of general services, the director of the budget, the comptroller, the chairperson of the senate finance committee and the chairperson of the assembly ways and means committee, a report setting forth the amounts, if any, of all annual rentals and other payments estimated to be due in the succeeding state fiscal year to the dormitory authority from the department of audit and control pursuant to any lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement between the dormitory authority and the office of general services on behalf of the department of audit and control entered into on or after July first, nineteen hundred ninety-seven to provide facilities for the department of audit and control, the New York state and local employees' retirement system and the New York state and local police and fire retirement system.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any lease, sublease, lease purchase or other agreement, including any contract for construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall not be subject to public auction or bidding or any restriction as to the term of such lease, sublease, lease purchase or other agreement; provided however, that, with respect to any lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement for facilities for the department of audit and control, the New York state and local employees' retirement system and the New York state and local police and fire retirement system, the dormitory authority shall determine that there has been a competitive process sufficient to comply with the authority's procurement contract guidelines as required pursuant to section twenty-eight hundred seventy-nine of this chapter.

(f) Nothing herein shall be construed to diminish the authority of the comptroller, in his capacity as trustee of the New York state and local employees' retirement system and the New York state and local police and fire retirement system, to be a party to any agreement authorized pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision or, in accordance with the provisions of this title to enter into separate leases, subleases, lease purchases or other agreements with the dormitory authority pursuant to which one or more facilities are to be designed, acquired, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved or otherwise provided for the New York state and local employees' retirement system and the New York state and local police and fire retirement system.

36. (a) The dormitory authority is empowered and authorized to enter into a lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement with the office of general services of the state of New York pursuant to which one or more facilities are to be acquired, designed, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved or otherwise made available for the provision of parking facilities for the state of New York in the city of Albany, New York and pursuant to which such facilities are to be furnished or equipped and in furtherance of such authorization, the commissioner of general services is hereby empowered to grant or convey to the dormitory authority, such lands as may be necessary for such purposes upon such terms and conditions as the commissioner of general services may fix and determine provided, however, that any contract or lease for construction, reconstruction or rehabilitation authorized by this subdivision shall be governed by article eight of the labor law. Such lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement may provide for the payment of annual rentals and other payments by the state of New York on behalf of the departments or agencies having occupancy or use thereof to the dormitory authority from appropriations as provided in paragraph (c) of this subdivision and may contain such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, including but not limited to, provisions relating to the maintenance and operation of the facilities, the establishment of reserve funds, indemnities and the disposition of a facility or the interest of the dormitory authority therein, if any, prior to or upon termination or expiration of such lease, sublease, lease purchase or other agreement. Such lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement shall be subject to the approval of the director of the budget.

(b) Any such lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision may provide that the provisions thereof shall remain in full force and effect until the issue of the bonds of the dormitory authority to which it relates, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and the fees and expenses of the dormitory authority, are fully met and discharged, and any payments to be made by the state, pursuant to any lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement authorized pursuant to this subdivision may be pledged by the dormitory authority to secure such bonds.

(c) Any lease, sublease, lease purchase or other agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision by and between the dormitory authority and the state of New York by the office of general services with respect to such parking facilities shall provide for state commitments to provide annually an amount equal to the aggregate amount of all annual rental due to the dormitory authority from the state on behalf of the state departments and agencies having occupancy or use of such facilities. Any such lease, sublease, lease purchase or other agreement shall further provide that the obligation of the state to appropriate amounts to pay annual rentals due to the dormitory authority pursuant to any such lease, sublease, lease purchase or other agreement shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional and/or statutory provisions and shall be deemed executory only to the extent state moneys are appropriated and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys appropriated for that purpose and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriations by the legislature.

(d) On or before November fifteenth of each year, the dormitory authority shall submit to the commissioner of general services, the director of the budget, the comptroller, the chairperson of the senate finance committee and the chairperson of the assembly ways and means committee, a report setting forth the amounts, if any, of all annual rentals and other payments estimated to be due in the succeeding state fiscal year to the dormitory authority pursuant to any lease, sublease, lease purchase, or other agreement between the dormitory authority and the office of general services on behalf of the state entered into hereafter to provide for parking facilities for the state of New York in the city of Albany.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any lease, sublease, lease purchase or other agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall not be subject to public auction or bidding or any restrictions as to the term of such lease, sublease, lease purchase or other agreement for the provisions of parking services in the city of Albany.

37. For purposes of this section, the following provisions shall apply to powers in connection with the provision of facilities for UCPA of the Capital District, Inc., UCPA of Cayuga County, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Children's Association of Chemung County, Inc., Finger Lakes United Cerebral Palsy, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Associations of Fulton and Montgomery Counties, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the Tri-Counties, Inc., Franziska Racker Centers, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Nassau County, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of New York City, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Niagara County, Inc., Orange County Cerebral Palsy Association, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of Queens, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the Rochester Area, Inc., Jawonio, Inc., The Handicapped Children's Association of Southern New York, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Greater Suffolk, Inc., SDTC - The Center for Discovery, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Children's Association of Syracuse, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of Ulster County Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Person's Association of the Utica Area, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Westchester, Inc. and Unified Creative Programs, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Western New York, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Putnam and Southern Dutchess Counties, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the North Country, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Associations of New York State, Inc., any not-for-profit affiliates or members of Cerebral Palsy Associations of New York State, Inc., and any successor in interest to any such organization, by the authority pursuant to this title.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, UCPA of the Capital District, Inc., UCPA of Cayuga County, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Children's Association of Chemung County, Inc., Finger Lakes United Cerebral Palsy, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Associations of Fulton and Montgomery Counties, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the Tri-Counties, Inc., Franziska Racker Centers, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Nassau County, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of New York City, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Niagara County, Inc., Orange County Cerebral Palsy Association, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of Queens, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the Rochester Area, Inc., Jawonio, Inc., The Handicapped Children's Association of Southern New York, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Greater Suffolk, Inc., SDTC - The Center for Discovery, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Children's Association of Syracuse, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy of Ulster County Inc., United Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Person's Association of the Utica Area, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Westchester, Inc. and Unified Creative Programs, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Western New York, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of Putnam and Southern Dutchess Counties, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Association of the North Country, Inc., United Cerebral Palsy Associations of New York State, Inc., any not-for-profit affiliates or members of Cerebral Palsy Associations of New York State, Inc., and any successor in interest to any such organization shall have the full power and authority to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority any and all public funds to be appropriated, apportioned or otherwise made payable by the federal government, any agency thereof, the state government, any agency thereof, a political subdivision as defined in section one hundred of the general municipal law, any social service district in the state of New York or by any other governmental entity in an amount sufficient to make all payments required to be made by such entity pursuant to any necessary or useful agreements entered into between such entity and the dormitory authority. All state and local officials are hereby authorized and required to pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority or, upon the direction of the dormitory authority, to any trustee of any dormitory authority bond or note issued pursuant to a certificate filed with any state or local officer by the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

38. a. The dormitory authority is empowered and authorized to enter into a lease, sublease or other agreement with any school district pursuant to which the dormitory authority may finance or refinance all or any portion of school district capital facilities and school district capital equipment for such school districts. Any such lease, sublease or other agreement may provide for joint facilities pursuant to section thirty-six hundred two of the education law pursuant to an agreement with participating school districts as authorized in such section. Such lease, sublease or other agreement may provide for annual or other payments to the dormitory authority by or on behalf of the school district. Such lease, sublease or other agreement may contain such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, including, but not limited to, the establishment of reserve funds and indemnities. A lease, sublease or other agreement entered into by a school district with the dormitory authority pursuant to the provisions of this section shall not be deemed to be an installment purchase contract, contract for public work or purchase contract within the meaning of article five-A of the general municipal law or any other law.

b. (1) Except as provided in subparagraph two of this paragraph, any such lease, sublease, or other agreement shall not constitute or create indebtedness of the state or a political subdivision for purposes of article seven or eight of the state constitution or section 20.00 of the local finance law, shall be deemed executory only to the extent of money appropriated annually therefor by the state or political subdivision and shall not constitute a contractual obligation in excess of the amounts so appropriated; provided however that the total amount of unpaid payments due under any such lease, sublease or agreement on account of principal due on bonds issued by the authority shall be deemed to be indebtedness within the meaning of subdivision three of paragraph a of section 135.00 of the local finance law except to the extent that any portion of the indebtedness, if issued by the school district, would be excluded pursuant to section 136.00 of the local finance law.

(2) A school district shall have full power and authority to pledge its full faith and credit for the payment of its obligations to the dormitory authority pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision. Any such lease, sublease or other agreement shall be authorized in the same manner as is required for the adoption of a bond resolution by the school district under the local finance law. The total amount of all unpaid annual payments constituting the principal of any indebtedness for which the school district shall have pledged its faith and credit shall be deemed to be indebtedness of the school district within the meaning of subparagraph (b) of subdivision three of paragraph a of section 135.00 of the local finance law and section ten of article eight of the state constitution and such lease, sublease or other agreement shall constitute indebtedness for purposes of article eight of the constitution and the local finance law.

c. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, school districts may, subject to the requirements, if any, of voter approval contained in the education law or any other law, transfer title or grant any other property interests or rights to the dormitory authority and the dormitory authority may transfer title or grant any other real property interests to such school districts.

d. Any such lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision may provide that the provisions thereof shall remain in force and effect until the bonds, notes or other obligations of the dormitory authority are no longer outstanding, together with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and the fees and expenses of the dormitory authority, are fully met and discharged, and any payments to be made by or on behalf of the school district to the dormitory authority may be pledged to secure such bonds. Any such lease, sublease or other agreement may provide for joint facilities pursuant to section thirty-six hundred two of the education law through an agreement with participating districts as authorized in such section.

e. (1) Whenever the dormitory authority issues bonds, notes or other obligations for a school district pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement, the school district is authorized to assign and pledge to the dormitory authority a sufficient portion of any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise to be made payable by the state of New York to the school district to cover the payments required under the lease, sublease or other agreement between the authority and the school district. All state and local officials concerned are hereby authorized to apportion and pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the dormitory authority. Such assignment and pledge by any school district shall be irrevocable and shall continue until the date on which the liabilities of the school district and the authority for such school district capital facilities and school district capital equipment have been discharged and the bonds of the authority issued therefor have been paid or such bonds have otherwise been discharged.

(2) The total amount payable annually to the dormitory authority shall be certified by the authority to the commissioner of education, and the authority shall annually prepare and certify to the commissioner of education a statement of the total amount necessary to be paid by all school districts for the ensuing school year. The dormitory authority may provide the commissioner of education such additional statements as the authority deems necessary.

(3) The commissioner of education shall include in the certificate he or she files with the state comptroller the amount to be owed by the school district to the dormitory authority for the ensuing school year.

(4) The state comptroller shall pay to the dormitory authority and shall deduct from any state funds to become due to any such school district an amount equal to the amount required to be paid by such school district to the dormitory authority as shown by the certificate of the commissioner of education filed with the state comptroller as required by subparagraph three of this paragraph.

(5) In the event that the amount paid to the authority pursuant to subparagraph four of this paragraph by the state comptroller is insufficient to meet any payment required by the school district to the authority, any such amount still due and owing shall be paid directly to the authority by the school district pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement between the authority and the school district.

39. The dormitory authority shall not issue its obligations for a school district pursuant to subdivision thirty-eight of this section to refund or refinance all or any portion of any outstanding indebtedness of such school district except: (i) to refund dormitory authority obligations previously issued for such school district; or (ii) to refund or refinance all or any portion of any outstanding indebtedness issued by a school district prior to December first, two thousand one, or prior to thirty days after the effective date of this subdivision, whichever is later, for the purpose of financing facilities which were eligible for building aid pursuant to section thirty-six hundred two of the education law and for which the approved expenditures for debt service payable in any year are subsequently reduced; or (iii) to refund or refinance all or any portion of any outstanding indebtedness issued by a school district prior to December first, two thousand one or prior to thirty days after the effective date of this subdivision whichever is later provided that present value of the total payments to become due to the authority from the school district on account of principal and interest are less than the present value of the principal and interest payments to become due on the bonds to be refunded with such present value savings to be computed as provided in subparagraph (a) of subdivision two of paragraph b of section 90.10 of the local finance law; or (iv) to refinance all or any portion of any bond anticipation notes of a school district issued to finance a school construction project. In the event that the dormitory authority issues its obligations on behalf of a school district as provided in this subdivision: (i) no lease, sublease or other agreement entered into by the school district pursuant to this subdivision shall, notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, be subject to the approval of voters of the school district and (ii) the proceeds of any refunding bonds issued by the authority, including any interest earnings thereon, shall be held in trust under the terms of an escrow agreement for the benefit of the holders of such refunded obligations in an amount sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal, redemption price and interest due on the refunded obligations of the school district to their stated maturities or, if such bonds are to be called, to the call date.

40. a. Any lease, sublease or other agreement by and between the dormitory authority and any residential institution for children shall, in addition to any other provisions deemed necessary by the dormitory authority, contain the following:

(1) a requirement that the residential institution for children establish an account with a bank or trust company acceptable to the dormitory authority into which the residential institution for children shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, all amounts received by such residential institution for children from any school district, social service district or any other payor on account of the residential services provided by such residential institution for children. The residential institution for children shall grant to the dormitory authority a security interest in such account and the moneys on deposit therein shall be subject to withdrawal by the residential institution for children only after the payment of amounts then due to the dormitory authority as provided in such lease, sublease or other agreement;

(2) a requirement that the residential institution for children grant to the dormitory authority either a mortgage on the real property used by the residential institution for children to provide residential services or such other interest in real property as is acceptable to the dormitory authority;

(3) a requirement that the residential institution for children continue to operate a residential program for foster children and/or children placed by the committee on special education of a school district pursuant to contracts with social services districts or school districts for the term of the lease, sublease or other agreement and in the event such residential institution for children fails to do so, provide for the transfer and operation of the residential facilities to a replacement not-for-profit operator that is qualified to provide such services and that has assumed the obligations of such residential institution for children pursuant to such agreement;

(4) a requirement that the residential institution for children include in each of its contracts with a social service district, school district or any other payor a provision requiring that the residential institution for children will deposit, or cause to be deposited, all of its maintenance rate payments from such social service district, school district or other payor into the separate account required by subparagraph one of this paragraph. In the event of the failure of the applicable social services district or school district to make a maintenance rate payment to the residential institution for children for residential care provided to a child in the residential institution for children, the state comptroller shall withhold state reimbursement to the applicable social services district or school district in an amount equal to the unpaid obligation for the capital financing add-on rate and pay over such sum to the dormitory authority or its trustee upon certification of the commissioner of the office of children and family services or the state education department, as applicable; and

(5) a requirement that the residential institution for children pay to the dormitory authority the amount required to pay the principal of and interest on obligations of the dormitory authority issued in relation to providing such facilities and all incidental expenses of the dormitory authority incurred in relation thereto.

b. The dormitory authority shall not issue any bonds or notes in excess of sixty million dollars for the purpose of financing the costs related to residential institutions for children as defined in subdivision forty-four of section sixteen hundred seventy-six of this title. In calculating the amount of bonds or notes outstanding pursuant to this subdivision, the principal amount of bonds or notes issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, the principal amount of bonds or notes issued to pay the costs of issuance of such bonds, and the principal amount of bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds and bonds or notes previously issued shall be excluded therefrom. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds or notes.

§ 1680-a. Judicial facilities in certain counties. 1. In order to effectuate the purposes of this title, the following provisions shall apply to the authority and any county, within the tenth judicial district, that does not contain a city (a "county") in connection with the provision of judicial facilities;

(a)(1) Any county for whose use judicial facilities are to be designed, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved or otherwise provided may enter into a lease, sublease or other agreement for the provision of judicial facilities with the authority in accordance with the provisions of either paragraph b or c of this subdivision and otherwise upon such terms and conditions as the authority and the county shall determine to be reasonable, including, but not limited to, the reimbursement to the authority of all costs of such design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement and claims arising therefrom and provisions setting forth or providing for the calculation of rental and other payments for the use and occupancy of such judicial facilities, which payment shall be at least sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds of the authority issued to finance the cost of the design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, or improvement of such judicial facilities and the fees and expenses of the authority incurred in connection therewith.

(2) Such lease, sublease or other agreement shall not be deemed to be a contract for public work or purchase within the meaning of the general municipal law.

(3) Such lease, sublease or other agreement shall provide that if the authority undertakes to design, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate, improve, furnish or equip any judicial facilities for a county, any contract or contracts for the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement of judicial facilities shall be awarded based upon the authority's evaluation of proposals submitted to the authority in response to a request for proposals. Such request for proposals shall be prepared in accordance with standards to be developed by the authority designed to assure the award of all contracts to contractors evidencing proven experience with projects of the scope, magnitude and complexity of the judicial facilities that are the subject of the contract and the ability to perform all work required in a professional and timely manner. The procedures governing the request for proposals shall assure that, wherever practicable, responsible contractors, meeting the above criteria, located or regularly doing business in the county for whose benefit the judicial facilities are to be provided are given the opportunity to be considered. Any contract or contracts for the purchase of furnishings and equipment shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred three of the general municipal law.

(4) Any such lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to this paragraph (a) may provide that the provisions thereof shall remain in force and effect until the issue of bonds of the authority to which it relates, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments of interest and the fees and expenses of the authority, are fully met and discharged, and any payments to be made by a county may be pledged by the authority to secure such bonds.

(5) A county entering into such a lease, sublease or other agreement is hereby authorized to raise and appropriate such sums as shall be necessary from time to time to make any payment pursuant thereto.

(6) Any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into by the authority and a county may provide that at the termination thereof the title to the judicial facilities shall vest in the county, free and clear of any indebtedness contracted by the authority.

(b) (1) A lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to this paragraph shall be executory only to the extent of moneys appropriated and available therefor, be for the periods agreed by the parties thereto, but not exceeding thirty years.

(2) The annual payment obligation pursuant to a lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to this paragraph shall not be deemed to be "indebtedness" for the purpose of determining the gross indebtedness of a county pursuant to the provisions of section 135.00 of the local finance law or section ten of article eight of the state constitution nor shall it be deemed an evidence of indebtedness within the meaning of section 20.00 of the local finance law.

(c) (1) A lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to this paragraph may be for the periods agreed by the parties thereto, but not exceeding thirty years which is hereby determined to be the period of probable usefulness of any judicial facilities authorized to be provided pursuant to this title, which term shall be computed from the date of the first indebtedness contracted by the authority for such judicial facilities.

(2) The portion of the annual payment obligation to be made by a county to the authority pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement entered into pursuant to this paragraph to enable the authority to pay the principal of any indebtedness contracted by it to finance the cost of such judicial facilities shall commence within two years after any such indebtedness or portion thereof shall have been contracted and no such portion of the annual payment obligation shall be more than fifty per centum in excess of the smallest prior portion of the annual payment for such purpose.

(3) The county shall pledge its faith and credit for the payment of the portion of the annual payment described in subparagraph two of this paragraph and also for the payments required to be made to the authority to enable it to pay the interest on such indebtedness.

(4) The total amount of all unpaid annual payments in relation to the principal of any such indebtedness for which the county has pledged its faith and credit shall be deemed to be indebtedness of the county for a capital improvement within the meaning of subparagraph b of subdivision three of paragraph a of section 135.00 of the local finance law.

(5) The portion of the annual payment by a county to the authority to enable the authority to pay the principal of any indebtedness contracted by it to finance the cost of such judicial facilities for which a county has pledged its faith and credit and the portion of the annual payment by a county to the authority to enable the authority to pay interest on any indebtedness contracted by it to finance the cost of such judicial facilities shall be deemed to be "indebtedness" and "interest" within the meaning of section ten of article eight of the state constitution.

(d) (i) In the event that a county for whose use judicial facilities are to be or have been provided fails to make its required payment, in whole or in part, to the authority pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement, the authority shall certify to the state comptroller that such county has failed to make such payment. Such certificate shall set forth the exact amount of payment required to satisfy the obligations of such county and the date such payment was due.

(ii) The state comptroller, upon receipt of such certificate from the authority, shall withhold from the next succeeding payment or payments of state aid or local assistance payable to such county for whose use judicial facilities are to be or have been provided, the amount of the deficiency set forth in such certificate and shall thereafter immediately pay over to the authority the amount so withheld.

(iii) The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply in any case where either the payment of the principal of or interest on bonds issued by the authority for the purpose of financing the design, construction, acquisition, reconstruction, rehabilitation and improvement, and the furnishing and equipping of judicial facilities for a county or the payment of the obligations of any such county are secured by a policy of municipal bond insurance, an irrevocable letter of credit, or other financial guarantee or credit enhancement provided by a bank, insurance company or other financial institution. Any such policy of municipal bond insurance, letter of credit, or other financial guarantee or credit enhancement shall be approved by the authority and notice of such approval shall be provided to the state comptroller.

(e) The provisions of this title may be utilized by a county, notwithstanding the provision of any general or special law, or county charter that (i) requires that any project must be constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated or improved, operated and maintained by the county, (ii) limits the period of time for which a county may enter into a lease, sublease or otherwise agree, (iii) limits the period of time for which a county may lease its real property to any other entity, including the authority, a county being hereby authorized to lease its real property to the authority for any period of time as the county and the authority may agree where such real property will constitute the site on which judicial facilities for the use of such county will be constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated or improved, (iv) requires that the cost shall be paid for by taxes levied for the fiscal year in which the expenditure is to be made, (v) requires that the cost shall be financed pursuant to the local finance law, or (vi) only permits any such project to be constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated or improved subject to either mandatory or permissive referendum.

2. The state hereby covenants with the holders from time to time of bonds issued by the authority to pay the cost of the design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of judicial facilities pursuant to this section that it will not limit, impair or impede the rights and remedies granted hereby to such holders; provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph contained shall be deemed or construed as giving or pledging the credit of the state or as requiring the state to continue the payment of any specific type or types of state aid or local assistance to a county, within the tenth judicial district, that does not include a city for whose benefit judicial facilities are to be or have been provided or as limiting or prohibiting the state from repealing or amending any law heretofore or hereafter enacted relating to state aid and local assistance to such county, the manner and time or payment or apportionment thereof, or the amount thereof, nor shall such bonds be a debt of the state and the state shall not be liable thereon.

§ 1680-b. Court facilities and combined occupancy structures. 1. The authority may enter into a lease, sublease or other agreement with a participating municipality pursuant to which one or more court facilities or combined occupancy structures are to be designed, acquired, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated or improved, or a court facility is to be furnished or equipped, provided that such lease, sublease or other agreement has been approved by the chief administrator of the courts. The authority shall not enter into any such lease, sublease or other agreement unless such lease, sublease or other agreement provides that (a) the parties thereto shall comply with such standards and administrative policies relating to court facilities as may be promulgated pursuant to section twenty-eight of article six of the constitution and (b) the court facilities or combined occupancy structures to which such lease, sublease or other agreement related shall be constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, improved, furnished or equipped substantially in accordance with the plans, specifications and designs approved by the chief administrator of the courts. Such lease, sublease or other agreement may contain such other terms and conditions as the authority may require, including, but not limited to, provisions relating to the maintenance and operation of the court facilities, the establishment of reserve funds and the disposition of a court facility or a combined occupancy structure or the interest of the authority therein prior to or upon the termination or expiration of such lease, sublease or other agreement. In connection with court facilities and combined occupancy structures, the authority is hereby authorized to issue bonds in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed three billion dollars; provided, however, that bonds issued or to be issued shall be excluded from such limitation if such bonds are issued to refund bonds of the authority issued in connection with court facilities and combined occupancy structures and the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding bonds does not exceed the present value of the aggregate debt service on the bonds refunded thereby. For purposes hereof, the present value of the aggregate debt service of the refunding bonds and the aggregate debt service of the bonds refunded, shall be calculated by utilizing the true interest cost of the refunding bonds, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding bonds from the payment dates thereof to the date of issue of the refunding bonds to the purchase price of the refunding bonds, including interest accrued thereon prior to the issuance thereof. The maturity of such bonds, other than bonds issued to refund outstanding bonds, shall not exceed the weighted average economic life, as certified by the office of court administration, of the facilities in connection with which the bonds are issued, and in any case not later than the earlier of forty years or the expiration of the term of any lease, sublease or other agreement relating thereto; provided that no note, including renewals thereof, shall mature later than five years after the date of issuance of such note.

2. No bonds may be issued by the authority in connection with a court facility or combined occupancy structure unless:

(a) the chief administrator of the courts has certified that the court facility or facilities in connection with which such bonds are to be issued are consistent with the capital plan approved pursuant to section sixteen hundred eighty-c of this chapter; and

(b) the lease, sublease or other agreement with the participating municipality relating to such court facilities provides that the plans, specifications, designs and cost estimates for the design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing or equipping of the court facilities in connection with such bonds are to be issued subject to the approval of the chief administrator of the courts pursuant to paragraph (u) of subdivision one of section two hundred twelve of the judiciary law.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law, charter or ordinance to the contrary, a participating municipality may sell, convey, lease, exchange or otherwise make available to the authority, for nominal consideration, the title to or an interest in real property for the purpose of providing court facilities or combined occupancy structures and may enter into any lease, sublease or other agreement with the authority in connection with court facilities or combined occupancy structures without public auction or bidding or restriction as to the term of such lease, sublease or other agreement, provided that such sale, conveyance, lease, exchange, or other disposition to the authority or lease, sublease or other agreement with the authority is authorized by the board of county supervisors or the county legislature of a participating municipality which is a county, or the common council of a participating municipality which is a city other than the city of New York or, if the participating municipality is the city of New York, the board of estimate of the city of New York.

4. In the event that a participating municipality fails to pay to the authority when due all or part of the rentals and other payments payable pursuant to any lease, sublease or agreement with the authority, the chairman or another officer of the authority shall certify at the times provided in this subdivision the amount of rentals and other payments then due from such participating municipality and unpaid. The state comptroller, upon receipt of such certificate, shall deduct the amount of such rentals and other payments as remains unpaid to the authority first from the aid payable to such participating municipality from the court facilities incentive aid fund established by section ninety-four of the state finance law and, then, from the next succeeding payments of state aid apportioned to such participating municipality, as revenue sharing, per capita aid, and any other aid pursuant to section fifty-four of the state finance law and, then, from the next succeeding payments of state aid for any local governmental administrative costs that are reimbursable to the participating municipality pursuant to state law and, then, from the next succeeding payments of state aid from moneys appropriated pursuant to section six hundred eight of the public health law and pursuant to section ten-c of the highway law; provided, however, that the right of the authority to the payment of any amount deducted by the state comptroller pursuant to this section from per capita aid apportioned to the city of New York shall be subject and subordinate to the rights of the city university construction fund pursuant to section sixty-two hundred seventy-nine of the education law, the New York city housing development corporation pursuant to section six hundred fifty-six of the private housing finance law, the trustees of the police pension fund pursuant to paragraph e of subdivision seven of section fifty-four of the state finance law, and the municipal assistance corporation for the city of New York pursuant to section three thousand thirty-six-a of this chapter and subdivision one of section ninety-two-e of the state finance law. In order to insure that the amount of rentals and other payments due and unpaid by a participating municipality are paid, the authority on or within thirty days prior to January twenty-fifth, April twenty-fifth, July twenty-fifth and October twenty-fifth of each year shall certify to the state comptroller the amount of rentals and other payments then due and unpaid by each participating municipality pursuant to any lease, sublease or other agreement. The amount required to be deducted by the state comptroller pursuant to this subdivision shall be deducted from such aid, whether or not the state aid from which such deduction is to be made is then payable to the participating municipality, and thereupon paid to the authority. The amount of state aid payable to such participating municipality shall be reduced by the amount deducted by the state comptroller notwithstanding the amount appropriated and apportioned by the state to such participating municipality, and the state shall not be obligated to make and the participating municipality shall not be entitled to receive any additional apportionment or payment of such state aid. Nothing shall be construed to create an obligation upon the state to appropriate moneys, to preclude the state from reducing the amount of moneys appropriated or level of assistance provided, or to preclude the state from altering or modifying the manner in which it provides for or provides assistance.

5. On and after the effective date of this subdivision, when bonds are issued by the authority pursuant to this section, the authority and the participating municipality shall agree in any lease, sublease or other agreement to finance the acquisition, construction, reconstruction or rehabilitation of a court facility or combined occupancy structure that, so long as such bonds remain outstanding, the participating municipality shall retain title to such court facility or combined occupancy structure free of all liens and encumbrances except as shall be expressly permitted by such lease, sublease or other agreement.

§ 1680-c. Creation of the court facilities capital review board. 1. There is hereby created a court facilities capital review board. The voting membership of the board shall consist of four persons appointed by the governor, of which one shall be upon the recommendation of the temporary president of the senate, one upon the recommendation of the speaker of the assembly, and one upon the recommendation of the chief judge of the court of appeals. The members of the board shall vote among themselves to determine who shall serve as chairman. Any determination of the board shall be evidenced by a certificate thereof executed by all the members entitled to vote on the matter so certified. Each member of the board shall be entitled to designate a representative to attend meetings of the board in his place and to vote or otherwise act on his behalf in his absence. Notice of such designation shall be furnished in writing to the board by the designating member. A representative shall serve at the pleasure of the designating member during the member's term of office. A representative shall not be authorized to delegate any of his duties or functions to any other person.

2. The governor shall also appoint two nonvoting members to the court facilities capital review board of which one shall be upon the recommendation of the minority leader of the senate and one upon the recommendation of the minority leader of the assembly. Each nonvoting member shall be entitled to designate a representative to attend meetings of the board in his place.

3. The chief executive officer of each participating municipality shall submit the capital plan pursuant to section two hundred nineteen of the judiciary law to the chief administrator of the courts. On or before January first, April first, July first, and October first of each year commencing with the year nineteen hundred eighty-eight, the chief administrator of the courts shall submit to the court facilities capital review board the capital plan of each political subdivision that has submitted such a plan pursuant to section two hundred nineteen of the judiciary law, together with the appropriate facility design and performance plan, if any, prepared by the dormitory authority pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision thirteen of section sixteen hundred seventy-eight of this chapter.

The court facilities capital review board shall act on each capital plan within sixty days of the submission of such plan to the board. As part of its consideration of each capital plan, the board shall review and approve overall plans and cost estimates for the design, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing or equipping of facilities of the courts and court-related agencies of the unified court system. Before approving any such plans or cost estimates, the court facilities capital review board must be satisfied that the facilities to which they relate are suitable and sufficient for the transaction of the business of the unified court system. Approval of each political subdivision's capital plan shall be by unanimous vote of the voting membership of the board. In the event that the chief administrator of the courts and the chief executive officer of the political subdivision submitting a capital plan agree on the plan, the capital plan may be disapproved only by an affirmative vote of at least two voting members of the board. If the board does not act on a capital plan within sixty days of the submission of such plan to the board, the capital plan shall be approved or disapproved by the chief administrator of the courts.

The court facilities capital review board shall consider, in approving or disapproving a capital plan for each political subdivision, the legal obligation of the political subdivision under section thirty-nine of the judiciary law to provide goods, services and facilities suitable and sufficient for the transaction of the business of the unified court system, and such political subdivision's fiscal capacity, including but not limited to total taxes raised, total income generated, existing municipal debt and overall capital needs.

4. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit or diminish the authority of the chief administrator of the courts pursuant to subdivision three of section thirty-nine and section thirty-nine-a of the judiciary law to determine whether a political subdivision has ceased or failed to provide goods, services or facilities suitable and sufficient for the transaction of business, and to notify the state comptroller of such determination.

§ 1680-d. Sale of bonds by the authority. 1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to section one thousand six hundred eighty-b of this chapter shall be sold to the bidder offering the lowest true interest cost, taking into consideration any premium or discount not less than four nor more than fifteen days, Sundays excepted, after a notice of such sale has been published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the area served by the authority, which shall state the terms of the sale. The terms of the sale may not change unless notice of such change is published in such newspaper at least one day prior to the date of the sale as set forth in the original notice of sale. Advertisements shall contain a provision to the effect that the authority, in its discretion, may reject any or all bids made in pursuance of such advertisements, and in the event of such rejection, the authority is authorized to negotiate a private or public sale or readvertise for bids in the form and manner above described as many times as, in its judgment, may be necessary to effect a satisfactory sale.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, whenever in the judgment of the authority the interests of the authority will be served thereby, the members of the authority, on the written recommendation of the executive director, may authorize the sale of such bonds at private or public sale on a negotiated basis or on either a competitive or negotiated basis. The authority shall set guidelines governing the terms and conditions of any such private or public sales.

2. The private or public bond sale guidelines set by the authority shall include, but not be limited to a requirement that where the interests of the state will be served by a private or public sale of bonds, the authority shall select underwriters for private or public bond sales conducted pursuant to a request for proposal process undertaken in accordance with the authority's procurement guidelines adopted pursuant to section twenty-eight hundred seventy-nine of this chapter from qualified underwriters taking into account, among other things, qualifications of underwriters as to experience, their ability to structure and sell authority bond issues, anticipated costs to the authority, the prior experience of the authority with the firm, if any, the capitalization of such firms, participation of qualified minority and women-owned business enterprise firms in such private or public sales of bonds of the authority and the experience and ability of firms under consideration to work with minority and women-owned business enterprises so as to promote and assist participation by such enterprises.

3. The authority shall have the power from time to time to amend such private bond sale guidelines in accordance with the provisions of this section.

4. No private or public bond sale on a negotiated basis shall be conducted by the authority without prior approval of the comptroller.

5. The authority shall annually prepare and approve a bond sale report which shall include the private or public bond sale guidelines as specified in subdivision two of this section, amendments to such guidelines since the last private or public bond sale report, an explanation of the bond sale guidelines and amendments, and the results of any sale of bonds conducted during the fiscal year. Such bond sale report may be a part of any other annual report that the authority is required to make.

6. (a) The authority shall annually submit its bond sale report to the comptroller and copies thereof to the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee.

(b) The authority shall make available to the public copies of its bond sale report upon reasonable request therefor.

7. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to alter, affect the validity of, modify the terms of or impair any contract or agreement made or entered into in violation of, or without compliance with, the provisions of this section.

§ 1680-e. State university athletic facilities. 1. The authority may design, acquire, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate, improve or otherwise provide, furnish and equip a state university athletic facility and for that purpose may issue its bonds in accordance with the provisions of this article.

2. The state shall annually appropriate to the authority and on June tenth and December tenth of each year pay to or upon the order of the authority on account of state university athletic facilities the sum of:

(a) the interest on bonds issued in connection with state university athletic facilities payable on the interest payment date next succeeding such June tenth or December tenth;

(b) one-half of the principal or sinking fund installments of such bonds payable on the July first next succeeding such June tenth or December tenth;

(c) the amount required by the agreement of the authority with the holders of such bonds to be paid to maintain or restore any reserve fund to the requirement for such reserve fund; and

(d) one-half of the fees, expenses, administrative costs and overhead of the authority incurred or to be incurred in connection with or allocated to state university athletic facilities or bonds issued in connection therewith, including amounts, if any, to be rebated to the department of the treasury of the United States of America pursuant to the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, or the regulations adopted thereunder.

The amount of money required to be paid pursuant to this subdivision shall be determined from the report required to be submitted by the authority pursuant to subdivision five of this section.

The state shall receive a credit against the payments required to be made pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision in an amount equal to the amount by which the amount in the debt service fund established pursuant to the agreement of the authority and the holders of bonds issued in connection with state university athletic facilities on the date of any such payment is to be made exceeds the amount required pursuant to such resolution to be on deposit in such fund or required to pay the purchase price or redemption price, including accrued interest to the date of purchase or redemption, of bonds outstanding theretofore contracted to be purchased or called for redemption.

3. Any payments to be made by the state may be pledged and assigned by the authority to secure the payment of the principal of and interest on bonds issued by the authority to finance the cost of the design and construction of a state university athletic facility and other costs and necessary or incidental expenses related thereto. The right of the authority to receive the payment of amounts appropriated shall be enforceable by the authority. All public officers are authorized and required to pay all such money due to the authority to the authority or its designee pursuant to a certificate filed with any such public officer pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

4. The state university of New York may, with respect to such state university athletic facility, transfer title or grant any other real property interests or rights to the authority, and the authority may transfer title or grant any other real property interests to the state university of New York.

5. Not later than one hundred twenty days prior to the beginning of the fiscal year of the state, the authority shall submit to the director of the budget, the state comptroller, the chairperson of the senate finance committee and the chairperson of the assembly ways and means committee, a report setting forth in connection with a state university athletic facility the following:

(a) the principal and sinking fund installments of and interest on bonds issued in connection with state university athletic facilities, payable during the next succeeding fiscal year of the state;

(b) the amount required to be paid during the next succeeding fiscal year of the state pursuant to the agreement of the authority with the holders of such bonds to restore or maintain any reserve fund established pursuant to such agreement; and

(c) the fees, expenses, administrative costs and overhead estimated by the authority to be incurred by it during the next succeeding fiscal year of the state in connection with or to be allocated during the next succeeding fiscal year of the state to state university athletic facilities or bonds issued in connection therewith, including amounts, if any, to be rebated to the department of the treasury of the United States of America pursuant to the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, or the regulations adopted thereunder.

The report submitted by the authority pursuant to this subdivision may be amended from time to time prior to any date on which payment is required to be made by the state pursuant to subdivision two of this section.

6. The state university trustees shall, notwithstanding any other provision of law, be empowered to allow employees, representatives, agents of, and persons or entities under contract to the authority to enter upon the campus of the state university of New York at Buffalo for purposes of managing the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of the state university athletic facility, including, but not limited to, the connection of such facility with the existing infrastructure of the campus. Upon the determination by the authority that the right to enter upon the campus of the state university of New York at Buffalo created hereunder is no longer necessary for such acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing or equipping of such state university athletic facility by the authority, the authority shall relinquish its right established hereunder to enter upon the campus of the state university of New York at Buffalo. The authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with individuals, partnerships, corporations or any other entity in order to take whatever actions are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

7. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, or any other provision of law, funds for any payments to the authority on account of a state university athletic facility shall be paid exclusively from appropriations intended for this purpose.

8. The authority shall not issue its bonds to finance the design, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, furnishing and equipping of a state university athletic facility in an aggregate principal amount greater than twenty-two million dollars; provided, however, that, in addition to such bonds, the authority may issue an aggregate principal amount of bonds sufficient to fund any reserve funds established in connection therewith to pay the costs incurred in connection with the issuance of any of such bonds and the cost of the management of the design and construction of the state university athletic facility.

9. With respect to the financing, design, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, or otherwise providing, furnishing and equipping of a state university athletic facility, any member, officer or employee of the authority is deemed to be an employee as such term is defined in and for all of the purposes of the provisions of section seventeen of the public officers law, which shall be applicable to any such member, officer or employee.

10. If a state university athletic facility or part thereof is taken by eminent domain or condemnation, or damaged or destroyed, then and in such event:

(a) if, within one hundred twenty days from the occurrence, the state university of New York notifies the authority in writing of its intention to replace or restore such state university athletic facility, the state university of New York shall proceed to replace or restore such state university athletic facility, including all fixtures, furniture, equipment and effects, to its original condition insofar as possible. The moneys required for such replacement or restoration shall be paid from the proceeds of any condemnation award or insurance received by reason of such occurrence and, to the extent that such proceeds are not sufficient, from any moneys available therefor in any fund established pursuant to the agreement of the authority with the holders of bonds issued in connection with a state university athletic facility, if any, or from moneys to be provided by the state university of New York; or

(b) if the authority has not within such one hundred twenty day period been notified in writing of the intention of the state university of New York to restore or replace such state university athletic facility, the dormitory authority in its discretion may determine that such state university athletic facility has been abandoned and is no longer useful or necessary in the operation of the state university of New York. In such event, the proceeds of any condemnation award or insurance received by reason of such occurrence shall be applied and paid in the manner and order of priority as provided in such agreement with the holders of such bonds.

§ 1680-f. Roswell Park Cancer Institute development account. The dormitory authority shall create and establish a special account to be known as the Roswell Park Cancer Institute development account and shall pay into such account any moneys which may be made available to the authority for the purpose of such account from any source, including but not limited to, moneys appropriated by and made available pursuant to appropriations by the state and any increase or interest earned by or increments to the account due to the investment thereof prior to expenditures from such account for the purposes of the Roswell Park Cancer Institute. The moneys held in or credited to the Roswell Park Cancer Institute development account established under this section shall be expended solely to carry out the development of the Roswell Park Cancer Institute by the authority.

§ 1680-g. Child care facilities development program; authority financing of eligible child care facilities development projects. 1. The dormitory authority is hereby authorized to finance eligible child care facilities development projects which are intended to serve the needs of low-income working families or an area with demonstrated child care need or to provide care for children through the age of twelve years and enrolled in school following the completion of the school day or the school year. Such projects shall be used as licensed or registered forms of child care for a period of at least ten years with an average of twenty-five percent of its available child care slots set aside for families eligible for low-income child care subsidies or for referrals of low-income or public assistance families from local social services districts. Such project shall have a useful life of at least ten years.

2. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, and subject to the making of annual appropriations therefor by the legislature, in order to assist the dormitory authority in providing for the financing of eligible child care facilities development projects, the director of the budget is authorized in any state fiscal year commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-nine or any state fiscal year thereafter to enter into one or more service contracts, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, with the dormitory authority, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree.

(b) Any service contract entered into pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the dormitory authority as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations.

(c) Any such service contracts shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision in the event the dormitory authority assigns or pledges the service contract payments as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations and shall be deemed executory only to the extent monies are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for the purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriations by the legislature.

(d) Any service contract or contracts entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the dormitory authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund the principal, interest, or other related payments required for any bonds, notes, or other obligations of the dormitory authority issued pursuant to this section.

3. The dormitory authority in conjunction with the office of children and family services shall develop a request for applications soliciting potential applicants seeking assistance for the development of licensed child care center projects. The office of children and family services shall receive, initially review, and assess applications to determine which projects should be referred to the authority and to rank by groups the referred projects according to the capacity of such projects to meet identified needs for child care. In assessing such applications, the office of children and family services shall consider:

(a) the needs for child care services in the area;

(b) the potential viability for a child care center to succeed in the area;

(c) the qualifications of the proposed provider to operate the proposed child care center;

(d) the potential for meeting applicable regulatory requirements;

(e) the appropriateness of the site for licensing as a child care center; and

(f) such other matters as the office of children and family services determines necessary to properly and completely evaluate an application.

Upon the timely completion of the office of children and family services' initial review and selection of applications meeting criteria, the office shall submit such selected applications and the group rankings of such applications to the dormitory authority which shall select grant recipients.

4. (a) The dormitory authority shall, from any appropriations made available for this purpose, establish a child care facilities development program that shall offer child care facilities development grants pursuant to paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of this subdivision.

(b) Financing for child care facilities development projects authorized pursuant to this section shall only be made upon the determination by the authority, in consultation with the office of children and family services, that such a center or school-age program will increase supply and access to child care. Such centers or school-age programs shall demonstrate the potential to obtain from the office of children and family services and other appropriate governmental agencies, all necessary approvals, licenses, and other supports to operate the center.

(c) Such financing shall consist of grants for the establishment, expansion, and development of licensed child care centers.

(d) Grants shall be used for general project development costs, including but not limited to: (i) the acquisition, design, construction, improvement, or renovation of the site, and (ii) the purchase of necessary equipment.

(e) For the purposes of this subdivision, grants shall not exceed ninety percent of the total project costs. Child care facilities development grants shall not be limited to funds appropriated therefor and may consist of monies from any source, public or private, made available for such grants.

(f) Child care facilities development grants awarded pursuant to this section shall be available for not-for-profit child care facilities development projects owned or to be owned by not-for-profit corporations for use as child day care centers that will be duly approved, licensed, inspected, supervised, and regulated as may be determined to be necessary and appropriate by the authority.

5. (a) To obtain funds for the purposes of this section, the authority shall have power from time to time to issue negotiable bonds or notes. Unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise, whenever the words "bond" or "bonds" are used in this section, such words shall include a note or notes of the authority.

(b) The dormitory authority shall not issue any bonds or notes in an amount in excess of thirty million dollars for the purposes of this section; excluding bonds or notes issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

(c) In computing for the purposes of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the aggregate amount of indebtedness evidenced by bonds and notes of the dormitory authority issued pursuant to this title, there shall be excluded the amount of such indebtedness represented by such bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds or notes, provided that the amount so excluded under this paragraph may exceed the principal amount of such bonds or notes that were issued to refund or otherwise repay only if the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes shall not have at the time of their issuance exceeded the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds or notes they were issued to refund or repay, such present value in each case being calculated by using the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes from the payment date thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes and to the price bid therefor, or to the proceeds received by the dormitory authority from the sale thereof, in each case including estimated accrued interest.

(d) The state of New York hereby covenants with the purchasers, holders and owners from time to time of the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section that it will not, subject to the provisions of subparagraph (c) of subdivision two of this section, repeal, revoke, rescind, modify or amend the provisions of this section which relate to the making of annual service contract payments to the authority with respect to such bonds as to limit, impair or impede the rights and remedies granted to bondholders under this title or otherwise diminish the security pledged to such purchasers, holders and owners or significantly impair the prospect of payment of any such bond.

§ 1680-h. Sale of bonds by the authority. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to section sixteen hundred eighty-g of this article shall be sold to the bidder offering the lowest true interest cost, taking into consideration any premium or discount not less than four nor more than fifteen days, Sundays excepted, after a notice of such sale has been published at least once in a definitive trade publication of the municipal bond industry, which shall state the terms of the sale. The terms of the sale may not change unless notice of such change is sent via a definitive trade wire service of the municipal bond industry which in general makes available information regarding activity in sales of municipal bonds at least one day prior to the date of the sale as set forth in the original notice of sale. Advertisements shall contain a provision to the effect that the authority, in its discretion, may reject any or all bids made in pursuance of such advertisements, and in the event of such rejection, the authority is authorized to negotiate a private or public sale or readvertise for bids in the form and manner above described as many times as, in its judgement, may be necessary to effect a satisfactory sale.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, whenever in the judgement of the authority the interests of the authority will be served thereby, the authority may authorize the sale of such bonds at private or public sale on a negotiated basis or on either a competitive or negotiated basis. The authority shall set guidelines governing the terms and conditions of any such private or public sales.

§ 1680-i. Judiciary; authority financing of courthouse improvements.
1. The dormitory authority is hereby authorized to finance eligible courthouse improvements.

2. (a) Subject to the provisions of chapter fifty-nine of the laws of two thousand and to the making of annual appropriations therefor by the legislature, in order to assist the dormitory authority in providing for the financing of courthouse improvements, the director of the budget is authorized in any state fiscal year commencing April first, two thousand two or any state fiscal year thereafter to enter into one or more service contracts, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, with the dormitory authority, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree.

(b) Any service contract entered into pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the dormitory authority as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations.

(c) Any such service contracts shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision in the event the dormitory authority assigns or pledges the service contract payments as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations and shall be deemed executory only to the extent monies are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for the purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriations by the legislature.

(d) Any service contract or contracts entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the dormitory authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund the principal, interest, or other related payments required for any bonds, notes, or other obligations of the dormitory authority issued pursuant to this section.

3. (a) To obtain funds for the purposes of this section, the authority shall have power from time to time to issue negotiable bonds or notes. Unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise, whenever the words "bond" or "bonds" are used in this section, such words shall include a note or notes of the authority.

(b) The dormitory authority shall not issue any bonds or notes in an amount in excess of thirty-seven million six hundred thousand dollars for the purposes of this section; excluding bonds or notes issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

(c) In computing for the purposes of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the aggregate amount of indebtedness evidenced by bonds and notes of the dormitory authority issued pursuant to this title, there shall be excluded the amount of such indebtedness represented by such bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds or notes; provided that the amount so excluded under this paragraph may exceed the principal amount of such bonds or notes that were issued to refund or otherwise repay only if the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes shall not have at the time of their issuance exceeded the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds or notes they were issued to refund or repay, such present value in each case being calculated by using the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes from the payment date thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes and to the price bid therefor, or to the proceeds received by the dormitory authority from the sale thereof, in each case including estimated accrued interest.

(d) The state of New York hereby covenants with the purchasers, holders, and owners from time to time of the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section that it will not, subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of subdivision two of this section, repeal, revoke, rescind, modify, or amend the provisions of this section which relate to the making of annual service contract payments to the authority with respect to such bonds as to limit, impair, or impede the rights and remedies granted to bondholders under this title or otherwise diminish the security pledged to such purchasers, holders, and owners or significantly impair the prospect of payment of any such bond.

 § 1680-j. New York state higher education capital matching grant board; creation; procedure. 1. Creation. (a) The New York state higher education capital matching grant board is hereby created to have and exercise the powers, duties and prerogatives provided by the provisions of this section and any other provision of law. The board shall remain in existence during the period of the New York state higher education capital matching grant program from the effective date of this section through March thirty-first, two thousand nine, or the date on which the last of the funds available for grants under this section shall have been disbursed, whichever is earlier; provided, however, that the termination of the existence of the board shall not effect the power and authority of the dormitory authority to perform its obligations with respect to any bonds, notes, or other indebtedness issued or incurred pursuant to authority granted in this section.

(b) The membership of the board shall consist of three persons appointed by the governor, of which one shall be upon the recommendation of the temporary president of the senate and one upon the recommendation of the speaker of the assembly. The term of the members first appointed shall continue until March thirty-first, two thousand five, and thereafter their successors shall serve for a term of one year ending on March thirty-first in each year. Upon recommendation of the nominating party, the governor shall replace any member in accordance with the provision contained in this subdivision for the appointment of members. The members of the board shall vote among themselves to determine who shall serve as chair. The board shall act by unanimous vote of the members of the board. Any determination of the board shall be evidenced by a certification thereof executed by all the members. Each member of the board shall be entitled to designate a representative to attend meetings of the board on the designating member's behalf, and to vote or otherwise act on the designating member's behalf in the designating member's absence. Notice of such designation shall be furnished in writing to the board by the designating member. A representative shall serve at the pleasure of the designating member during the member's term of office. A representative shall not be authorized to delegate any of his or her duties or functions to any other person.

(c) Every officer, employee, or member of a governing board or other board of any college or group or association of colleges, and every New York state regent, every officer or employee of the board of regents or the department of education and every trustee, officer or employee of the state university of New York or the city university of New York shall be ineligible for appointment as a member, representative, officer, employee or agent of the board.

(d) The members of the board shall serve without salary or per diem allowance but shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties pursuant to this section or other provision of law, provided however that such members and representatives are not, at the time such expenses are incurred, public officers or employees otherwise entitled to such reimbursement.

(e) The members, their representatives, officers and staff to the board shall be deemed employees within the meaning of section seventeen of the public officers law.

2. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the respective meanings:

(a) "Base grant amount" shall mean a grant equal to $17.5 million distributed equally among independent colleges, provided however that for an eligible independent college with a final fall full-time equivalent enrollment for the two thousand three--two thousand four academic year as published by the state education department of less than one hundred final full-time equivalent students the base grant amount shall be one hundred thousand dollars.

(b) "Board" shall mean the New York state higher education capital matching grant board created by paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section.

(c) "College" shall mean a public or independent college.

(d) "Endowment" shall mean the total unrestricted assets whose principal is nonexpendable and is held to the benefit of the college and invested to provide earnings for institutional use as reported within a college's independently audited financial statements as submitted to the dormitory authority. Such total shall exclude assets whose principal supports employee annuity or pension costs, or assets whose purpose is restricted to the support of the current operations of the college.

(e) "Full-time equivalent students" shall mean a college's final fall full-time equivalent enrollment for the two thousand three-two thousand four academic year as published by the state education department.

(f) "Independent college" shall mean each independent not-for-profit institution of higher education, as defined in subdivision two of section sixty-four hundred one of the education law.

(g) "Non-state funds" shall mean any funds received no earlier than one hundred eighty days before the effective date of this section, except state funds, accessible by the college for the project including, but not limited to, federal funds, local funds, private funds, and in-kind contributions provided, however that public colleges may not use funds resulting from the imposition of student tuition or fees as non-state funds.

(h) "Project" shall mean the design, acquisition, reconstruction, rehabilitation, or equipping of a facility on or near a college campus within the state of New York, including critical academic facilities, economic development and/or high technology projects, and urban renewal and/or historical preservation projects that would enhance the programmatic offerings or the student life at the college or provide economic development benefits to the area surrounding such college campus.

(i) "Public college" shall mean each component of the state university, as defined in subdivision three of section three hundred fifty-two of the education law and in subdivision two of section sixty-three hundred one of the education law and each senior college and community college of the city university of New York, as defined in subdivisions four and five of section sixty-two hundred two of the education law.
(j) "Total academic square footage amount" shall mean an amount equal to the product of (i) 26.25 million dollars for the state university of New York or 17.5 million dollars for the city university of New York, multiplied by (ii) the eligible college's proportion of the total square footage of academic facilities operated by all components of the state university of New York, as defined in subdivision three of section three hundred fifty-two and in subdivision two of section sixty-three hundred one of the education law or all senior colleges and community colleges of the city university of New York, as defined in subdivisions four and five of section sixty-two hundred two of the education law, respectively.
(k) "Total full-time equivalent amount" shall mean an amount equal to the product of (i) 78.75 million dollars for independent colleges or 52.5 million dollars for colleges of the state university of New York or thirty-five million dollars for colleges of the city university of New York, multiplied by (ii) the eligible college's proportion of the total full-time equivalent students for all eligible independent colleges, all components of the state university of New York, as defined in subdivision three of section three hundred fifty-two and in subdivision two of section sixty-three hundred one of the education law, or all senior colleges and community colleges of the city university of New York, as defined in subdivisions four and five of section sixty-two hundred two of the education law, respectively, and calculated from an eligible college's final fall full-time equivalent enrollment for the two thousand three--two thousand four academic year as published by the state education department.
(l) "Total TAP expenditure amount" shall mean an amount equal to the product of (i) the product of forty-five percent of one hundred seventy-five million dollars for independent colleges or the product of twenty-five percent of one hundred five million dollars for colleges of the state university of New York or the product of twenty-five percent of seventy million dollars for colleges of the city university of New York, multiplied by (ii) an eligible college's proportion of the total funding received under section six hundred sixty-seven of the education law by all eligible independent colleges, all components of the state university of New York, as defined in subdivision three of section three hundred fifty-two and in subdivision two of section sixty-three hundred one of the education law, or all senior colleges and community colleges of the city university of New York, as defined in subdivisions four and five of section sixty-two hundred two of the education law, respectively, as estimated by the higher education services corporation for the two thousand three-two thousand four academic year.

3. Powers, functions and duties of the New York state higher education capital grant board; limitations. (a) The New York state higher education capital grant board shall have the power and it shall be its duty to approve or deny applications received from colleges for higher education capital matching grants. In making such determination, the board shall verify that the criteria set forth in paragraph (e) of subdivision four of this section have been met. If necessary, the board may request additional information from the college when making such determination.

(b) Within amounts appropriated therefor, the board is hereby authorized and directed to award matching capital grants totaling three hundred fifty million dollars. The public college sector and the independent college sector shall each be eligible to receive grants totaling not more than one hundred seventy-five million dollars. Each public college and independent college shall be eligible for a grant award amount as determined by the calculations pursuant to subdivision five of this section. In addition, such public colleges and independent colleges shall be eligible to compete for additional funds pursuant to paragraph (h) of subdivision four of this section.

(c) The board shall approve or disapprove the methodology and the resulting matching ratios developed by the dormitory authority pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision four of this section.

(d) The board shall approve or deny applications for waivers of the standard matching requirement under paragraph (d) of subdivision four of this section.

4. New York state higher education capital matching grant program administration and financing.

(a) The dormitory authority is hereby authorized and directed to administer the New York state higher education capital matching grant program.

(b) The dormitory authority shall serve as staff to the New York state higher education capital matching grant board, including, with the cooperation of any other state agency, the preparation of information which would assist the board in carrying out its duties.

(c) The dormitory authority of the state of New York shall develop a methodology to determine the required non-state funds contribution for colleges. Such methodology shall consider endowment per full-time equivalent student and tuition and fees. Such methodology shall require a greater contribution from those colleges with greater fiscal resources as measured by endowment per full-time equivalent student and tuition and fees. For public colleges the numerator in the matching ratio of non-state funds to grant award amount shall not be greater than two or less than 0.5 and the denominator shall be equal to one for public community colleges, the numerator in the matching ratio of non-state funds to grant award amount shall not be greater than one or less than 0.5 and the denominator shall be equal to one; and for independent colleges the numerator in the matching ratio of non-state funds to grant award amount shall not be greater than three or less than 0.5 and the denominator shall be equal to one. Such methodology and the resulting matching ratios shall be submitted to the board for approval within thirty days after the effective date of this section and shall be made available to potential applicants once approved.

(d) The standard matching requirement for the purposes of determining a college's required non-state funds contribution shall be as provided in this paragraph. For public colleges the numerator in the standard matching requirement of non-state funds to grant award amount shall be equal to two and the denominator shall be equal to one for public community colleges the numerator in the standard matching requirement of non-state funds to grant award amount shall be equal to one and the denominator shall be equal to one; and for independent colleges the numerator in the standard matching requirement of non-state funds to grant award amount shall be equal to three and the denominator shall be equal to one. Colleges may apply for a waiver of such standard matching requirement. If such waiver is approved by the board, the required non-state funds contribution shall be determined by the methodology set forth in paragraph (c) of subdivision four of this section.

(e) The dormitory authority shall develop a standard application for such grants. Such application shall require colleges to provide, at a minimum, the following:

(i) The amount of grant request, such request not to exceed the eligible grant award amount, as provided for in subdivision five of this section. No more than three and one-half of one percent of any capital matching grant issued under this program may be allocated to any college or to any subsidiary or organization associated therewith for purposes which may include, but not be limited to, any direct or indirect costs of administering the program not contained in the application requesting such capital matching grant, provided however, that no monies granted under the program shall be used to supplant any direct or indirect costs of the grant recipient;

(ii) A statement that the proposed project would enhance the programmatic offerings or the student life at the college or provide economic development benefits to the surrounding area;

(iii) Whether the project is eligible for funding under the state university or city university capital plan;

(iv) Whether the project has the participation and financial support of a consortium of colleges and/or public or private partnerships;

(v) A detailed description of the project, including projected costs including the sources and uses of funds, completion timeline, and funds necessary at each stage of project completion;

(vi) A description of the type or types of non-state funds to be utilized and the source of such funds;

(vii) Information to demonstrate the ability to access sufficient non-state funds to meet the matching ratio requirement, as provided for in paragraph (c) of this subdivision or the standard matching requirement as provided for in paragraph (d) of this subdivision;

(viii) A statement that as of the effective date of this section, construction had not begun and equipment had not been purchased for such project;

(ix) A statement whether a recurring source of revenue shall be available to support facility operations and maintenance for the project that the capital matching grant is funding; and

(x) A statement whether, the project has received all necessary regulatory approvals or can demonstrate a reasonable expectation that such approvals will be secured.

(f) Upon receipt of a matching grant application, the dormitory authority shall review such grant application for technical sufficiency and compliance with the application criteria as provided for in paragraph (e) of this subdivision. If necessary, the dormitory authority may request additional information from the applicant. When the application is complete, the dormitory authority shall submit such application with an analysis to the capital grant board for its approval or denial.

(g) In order to be eligible for such grants, colleges must provide notification to the dormitory authority of an intent to apply for a grant no later than March thirty-first, two thousand seven and must apply for such grant no later than March thirty-first, two thousand eight.

(h) If a college does not apply for a grant by March thirty-first, two thousand eight, funds associated with such potential grant shall be awarded, on a competitive basis, to other colleges. Public colleges shall be eligible to apply for unutilized public college grants within their respective systems and independent colleges shall be eligible to apply for unutilized independent college grants. The dormitory authority shall develop a request for proposals and application process, in consultation with the board, for such grants and shall develop criteria, subject to review by the board, for the awarding of such grants. Such criteria shall incorporate the matching criteria contained in paragraph (c) of this subdivision, and the application criteria set forth in paragraph (e) of this subdivision. The dormitory authority shall require all applications in response to the request for proposals to be submitted by September first, two thousand eight, and the board shall act on each application for such matching grants by November first, two thousand eight.

(i) The dormitory authority shall develop a model contract provision to be used in any contract which involves a project for which a college has received a matching grant. Such provision shall indemnify and hold the state of New York harmless from any and all claims for loss or liability alleged to have been caused or resulting from any work involving such project.

(j) (i) The dormitory authority is hereby authorized and directed to assist in financing higher education projects by providing to eligible colleges higher education capital matching grants that have been approved by the New York state higher education capital matching grant board.

(ii)(A) Notwithstanding the provision of any general or special law to the contrary, and subject to the provisions of chapter fifty-nine of the laws of two thousand and to the making of annual appropriations therefor by the legislature, in order to assist the dormitory authority in providing such higher education capital matching grants, the director of the budget is authorized in any state fiscal year commencing April first, two thousand four or any state fiscal year thereafter for a period ending on March thirty-first, two thousand nine, to enter into one or more service contracts, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, with the dormitory authority, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree.

(B) Any service contract entered into pursuant to clause (A) of this subparagraph or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the dormitory authority as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations.

(C) Any such service contracts shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision in the event the dormitory authority assigns or pledges the service contract payments as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations and shall be deemed executory only to the extent monies are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for the purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriations by the legislature.

(D) Any service contract or contracts entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the dormitory authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund the principal, interest, or other related payments required for any bonds, notes, or other obligations of the dormitory authority issued pursuant to this section.

(iii)(A) To obtain funds for the purposes of this section, the authority shall have power from time to time to issue negotiable bonds or notes. Unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise, whenever the words "bond" or "bonds" are used in this section, such words shall include a note or notes of the authority.

(B) The dormitory authority shall not issue any bonds or notes in an amount in excess of three hundred fifty million dollars for the purposes of this section; excluding bonds or notes issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

(C) In computing for the purposes of clause (B) of this subparagraph, the aggregate amount of indebtedness evidenced by bonds and notes of the dormitory authority issued pursuant to this title, there shall be excluded the amount of such indebtedness represented by such bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds or notes; provided that the amount so excluded under this clause may exceed the principal amount of such bonds or notes that were issued to refund or otherwise repay only if the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes shall not have at the time of their issuance exceeded the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds or notes they were issued to refund or repay, such present value in each case being calculated by using the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes from the payment date thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes and to the price bid therefor, or to the proceeds received by the dormitory authority from the sale thereof, in each case including estimated accrued interest.

(D) The state of New York hereby covenants with the purchasers, holders, and owners from time to time of the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section that it will not, subject to the provisions of clause (C) of subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, repeal, revoke, rescind, modify, or amend the provisions of this section which relate to the making of annual service contract payments to the authority with respect to such bonds as to limit, impair, or impede the rights and remedies granted to bondholders under this title or otherwise diminish the security pledged to such purchasers, holders, and owners or significantly impair the prospect of payment of any such bond.

(iv) In addition to the authority with respect to financing higher education projects provided to the dormitory authority in subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph, the dormitory authority is hereby authorized to finance that portion of any higher education project approved to receive a higher education capital matching grant that is in excess of the amount of such grant and which shall be the non-state funds portion of the cost of such project to the same extent and under the same powers and procedures as if such project were named in paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section sixteen hundred seventy-six of this title and in subdivision one of section sixteen hundred eighty of this title.

5. Limitation on awards. Colleges eligible for participation in the higher education capital matching grants program pursuant to this section shall be eligible to receive a higher education capital matching grant pursuant to the following calculations:

(a) Each independent college shall be eligible to receive a grant equal to the sum of its total full-time equivalent amount, its total TAP expenditure amount and its base grant amount; and

(b) Each public college shall be eligible to receive a grant equal to the sum of its total full-time equivalent amount, its total TAP expenditure amount and its total academic square footage amount.

Provided, however, that an Independent non-profit comprehensive, non-traditional, non-instructional assessment institution whose external degree programs only validated a candidate's education experience and granted over four thousand degrees in the two thousand one--two thousand two academic year shall be eligible to receive a base grant equal to the product of (i) $17.5 million dollars; and (ii) its proportion of the total number of non-associate degrees conferred by all colleges and universities statewide for the two thousand one--two thousand two academic year as reported by the state education department.

The dormitory authority shall calculate the amount of the grants that each independent college and each public college shall be eligible to receive in accordance with the limitations set forth in this subdivision as soon as practicable but no more than forty-five days after the effective date of this section and shall make such information conveniently available to the colleges including by the use of electronic dissemination methods.

6. Contracts. (a) Each contract entered into by a college, which involves a project for which the college has received a capital grant award, shall be subject to the approval of the comptroller and, as to form and manner of execution, by the attorney general of the state of New York.

(b) Each contract entered into by a college shall include the provision as provided for in paragraph (i) of subdivision four of this section, which shall indemnify and hold the state of New York harmless from any and all claims for loss or liability alleged to have been caused or resulting from any work involving such project.

(c) Each contract entered into by a public college or made in connection with a capital matching grant made to a consortium of colleges that includes a public college regardless of which member of the consortium shall be the contracting party shall be awarded by a competitive process and shall be deemed a state contract for the purposes of article nine of the state finance law, provided, however, that any contract which would not be a state contract except for the application of this paragraph shall not be subject to section one hundred thirty-five of the state finance law.

(d) Each contract entered into by a public college or made in connection with a capital matching grant made to a consortium of colleges that includes a public college regardless of which member of the consortium shall be the contracting party shall require that the work covered by such contract shall be deemed "public work" and subject to and performed in accordance with articles eight, nine and ten of the labor law and, for the purposes of article fifteen-A of the executive law, the contracting party under such contracts shall be deemed a state agency as that term is defined in such article and such contracts shall be deemed state contracts within the meaning of that term as set forth in such article.

(e) Independent colleges whose contracts are not state contracts for the purposes of article nine of the state finance law and article fifteen-A of the executive law and whose projects under such contracts do not involve public work so as to be subject to articles eight, nine, and ten of the labor law, shall execute an undertaking, as a condition of receiving any capital matching grant, to voluntarily comply with article nine of the state finance law, except section one hundred thirty-five of such law, article fifteen-A of the executive law, and articles eight, nine, and ten of the labor law so far as the same would be applicable to the contracts of a public college, and to be subject to the enforcement provisions of said articles to the same extent.

7. Reporting. (a) The New York state higher education capital matching grant board shall, annually on or before December first, prepare and submit an annual report to the governor and the chair of the assembly ways and means committee and the chair of the senate finance committee. Such report shall contain at a minimum the following information: (i) a list of all applications filed by any college for a grant under the higher education capital grant program including the name of the applying college, a brief description of the project, and the amount of the grant requested; (ii) a list of the applications granted by the board specifying the amount of the grant approved if such amount is different from the amount applied for; and (iii) a statement showing the dollar amount of all grants approved by the board and the dollar amount of the remaining capacity for future grants.

(b) Any eligible institution receiving a grant pursuant to this article shall report to the dormitory authority no later than June first, two thousand seven, on the use of funding received and its programmatic and economic impact. The dormitory authority shall submit a report no later than November first, two thousand seven to the board, the governor, the director of the budget, the temporary president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly on the aggregate impact of the higher education capital matching grant program. Such report shall provide information on the progress and economic impact of each project.

* NB There are 2 § 1680-j's

* § 1680-j. Authorization for the issuance of bonds for the health care efficiency and affordability law for New Yorkers (HEAL NY) capital grant program. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the dormitory authority of the state of New York is hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed seven hundred fifty million dollars excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued, for the purposes of financing project costs authorized under section twenty-eight hundred eighteen of the public health law. Of such seven hundred fifty million dollars, ten million dollars shall be made available to the community health centers capital program established pursuant to section twenty-eight hundred seventeen of the public health law.

1. Such bonds and notes of the dormitory authority shall not be a debt of the state and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the authority for debt service and related expenses pursuant to any service contract executed pursuant to subdivision two of this section, and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds. All of the provisions of the dormitory authority act relating to bonds and notes which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section shall apply to obligations authorized by this section, including but not limited to the power to establish adequate reserves therefore and to issue renewal notes or refunding bonds thereof. The issuance of any bonds or notes hereunder shall further be subject to the approval of the director of the division of the budget, and any projects funded through the issuance of bonds or notes hereunder shall be approved by the New York state public authorities control board, as required under section fifty-one of this chapter.

2. Notwithstanding any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, in order to assist the dormitory authority in undertaking the administration and financing of projects authorized under this section, the director of the budget is hereby authorized to enter into one or more service contracts with the dormitory authority, none of which shall exceed more than thirty years in duration, upon such terms and conditions as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree, so as to annually provide to the dormitory authority, in the aggregate, a sum not to exceed the annual debt service payments and related expenses required for the bonds and notes issued pursuant to this section. Any service contract entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide that the obligation of the state to pay the amount therein provided shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of monies available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for such purposes, subject to annual appropriation by the legislature. Any such contract or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned or pledged by the dormitory authority as security for its bonds and notes, as authorized by this section.

3. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, and in accordance with section four of the state finance law, the comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to transfer from the health care reform act (HCRA) resources fund (061) to the general fund, upon the request of the director of the budget, up to $6,500,000 on or before March 31, 2006, and the comptroller is further hereby authorized and directed to transfer from the healthcare reform act (HCRA); Resources fund (061) to the Capital Projects Fund, upon the request of the director of budget, up to $139,000,000 for the period April 1, 2006 through March 31, 2007, up to $171,100,000 for the period April 1, 2007 through March 31, 2008, up to $208,100,000 for the period April 1, 2008 through March 31, 2009, up to $151,600,000 for the period April 1, 2009 through March 31, 2010, up to $215,743,000 for the period April 1, 2010 through March 31, 2011, up to $433,366,000 for the period April 1, 2011 through March 31, 2012, up to $150,806,000 for the period April 1, 2012 through March 31, 2013, up to $78,071,000 for the period April 1, 2013 through March 31, 2014, and up to $86,005,000 for the period April 1, 2014 through March 31, 2015, and up to $86,005,000 for the period April 1, 2015 through December 31, 2017.

* NB There are 2 § 1680-j's

§ 1680-k. Financing of department of agriculture and markets facilities. In order to effectuate the purpose of this title, the dormitory authority shall have the following additional powers:

1. Subject to the provisions of chapter fifty-nine of the laws of two thousand, but notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, the dormitory authority is hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed forty-one million two hundred ninety thousand dollars $41,290,000, excluding bonds issued to finance one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued, for the purpose of financing the construction of the New York state agriculture and markets food laboratory. Eligible project costs may include, but not be limited to the cost of design, financing, site investigations, site acquisition and preparation, demolition, construction, rehabilitation, acquisition of machinery and equipment, and infrastructure improvements. Such bonds and notes of such authorized issuers shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to such authorized issuers for debt service and related expenses pursuant to any service contract executed pursuant to subdivision two of this section and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

2. Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, in order to assist such authorized issuers in undertaking the administration and financing of the projects authorized pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the director of the budget is hereby authorized to enter into one or more service contracts with such authorized issuers, none of which shall exceed more than twenty years in duration, upon such terms and conditions as the director of the budget and such authorized issuers shall agree, so as to annually provide to such authorized issuers, in the aggregate, a sum not to exceed the annual debt service payments and related expenses required for the bonds and notes issued pursuant to this section. Any service contract entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide that the obligation of the state to pay the amount therein provided shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executor only to the extent of monies available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for such purposes, subject to annual appropriation by the legislature. Any such contract or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned or pledged by such authorized issuers as security for its bonds and notes, as authorized by this section.

§ 1680-l. The special disability fund financing. 1. As used in this section the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Ancillary bond facility" means any interest rate exchange or similar agreement or any bond insurance policy, letter of credit or other credit enhancement facility, liquidity facility, guaranteed investment or reinvestment agreement, or other similar agreement, arrangement or contract.

(b) "Benefited party" means any person, firm or corporation that enters into an ancillary bond facility with the authority according to the provisions of this section.

(c) "Bonds" means any bonds, notes, certificates of participation and other evidence of indebtedness issued by the authority pursuant to subdivision five of this section.

(d) "Bond owners or owners of bonds" means any registered owners of bonds.

(e) "Chair" means the chair of the workers' compensation board.

(f) "Code" means the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(g) "Costs of issuance" means any item of expense directly or indirectly payable or reimbursable by the authority and related to the authorization, sale, or issuance of bonds, including, but not limited to, underwriting fees and fees and expenses of professional consultants and fiduciaries.

(h) "Debt service" means actual debt service, comprised of principal, interest and associated costs, as defined in subparagraph five of paragraph (h) of subdivision eight of section fifteen of the workers' compensation law.

(i) "Director of the budget" or "director" means the director of the budget of the state of New York.

(j) "Financing agreement" means any agreement authorized pursuant to subdivision four of this section between the chair and the commissioner of taxation and finance, and the authority.

(k) "Financing costs" means all costs of issuance, capitalized interest, capitalized operating expenses of the authority and, pursuant to the financing agreement, the initial capitalized operating expenses of the waiver agreement management office and debt service reserves, fees, cost of any ancillary bond facility, and any other fees, discounts, expenses and costs related to issuing, securing and marketing the bonds including, without limitation, any net original issue discount.

(l) "Investment securities" means: (i) general obligations of, or obligations guaranteed by, any state of the United States of America or political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia or any agency or instrumentality of any of them, receiving one of the three highest long-term unsecured debt rating categories available for such securities of at least one independent rating agency, or (ii) certificates of deposit, savings accounts, time deposits or other obligations or accounts of banks or trust companies in the state, secured, if the authority shall so require, in such manner as the authority may so determine, or (iii) obligations in which the comptroller is authorized to invest pursuant to either section ninety-eight or ninety-eight-a of the state finance law, or (iv) investments which the commissioner of taxation and finance is permitted to make with surplus or reserve moneys of the special disability fund under subparagraph seven of paragraph (h) of subdivision eight of section fifteen of the workers' compensation law.

(m) "Interest rate exchange or similar agreement" means a written contract entered into in connection with the issuance of bonds or with such bonds outstanding with a counterparty to provide for an exchange or swap of payments based upon fixed and/or variable interest rates, and shall be for exchanges in currency of the United States of America only.

(n) "Net proceeds" means the amount of proceeds remaining following each sale of bonds which are not required by the authority for purposes of this section to pay or provide for debt service or financing costs, as provided in the financing agreement.

(o) "Operating expenses" means the reasonable or necessary operating expenses of the authority for purposes of this section, including, without limitation, the costs of: retention of auditors, preparation of accounting and other reports, maintenance of the ratings on the bonds, any operating expense reserve fund, insurance premiums, ancillary bond facilities, rebate payments, annual meetings or other required activities of the authority, and professional consultants and fiduciaries.

(p) "Outstanding", when used with respect to bonds, shall exclude bonds that shall have been paid in full at maturity, or shall have otherwise been refunded, redeemed, defeased or discharged, or that may be deemed not outstanding pursuant to agreements with the holders thereof.

(q) "Pledged assessments revenues", "pledged revenues" or "pledged assessments" means receipts of special disability fund assessments imposed pursuant to subparagraph four of paragraph (h) of subdivision eight of section fifteen of the workers' compensation law and pledged for the payment of debt service on the bonds or amounts due pursuant to an ancillary bond facility, including the right to receive same.

(r) "State" means the state of New York.

(s) "Special disability fund financing agreement" means an agreement authorized and created pursuant to subparagraph five of paragraph (h) of subdivision eight of section fifteen of the workers' compensation law, as same by its terms and bond proceedings, may be amended.

(t) "Waiver agreement" means waiver agreements entered into pursuant to section thirty-two of the workers' compensation law.

(u) "Waiver agreement management office" shall mean the office described in paragraph (e) of section thirty-two of the workers' compensation law.

2. The authority is hereby authorized to finance the special disability fund established by paragraph (h) of subdivision eight of section fifteen of the workers' compensation law and to enter into one or more special disability fund financing agreements described in such subdivision. All of the provisions of the authority relating to bonds and notes which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section shall apply to obligations authorized by this section, including but not limited to the power to establish adequate reserves therefor and to issue renewal notes or refunding bonds thereof. The provisions of this section shall apply solely to obligations authorized by this section and shall not include liabilities, assets or revenues other than liabilities, assets or revenues derived from the authority solely from the special disability fund.

3. It is found and declared that the special disability fund no longer serves the purposes for which it was created, adds to the time and expense of proceedings before the workers' compensation board and to employers' costs for workers' compensation insurance; that the creation and operation of a waiver agreement management office of the workers' compensation board, to manage, maintain and negotiate waiver agreements on behalf of the special disability fund can reduce the special disability fund's unfunded liability; that the reduction of such liability and the closing of the fund to new claims will over the long term reduce assessments paid to the fund by insurance carriers, self-insurers and the state insurance fund, as well as the employers to whom these costs are passed on; that in the absence of this section the annual cost of such assessments is expected to rise; that the settlement of claims and other actions undertaken by the waiver agreement management office will lower the administrative costs of insurance carriers, self-insurers and the state insurance fund; that revenue obligations issued by the authority and secured by a special assessment annually levied, imposed and collected on and from insurance carriers, self-insurers and the state insurance fund for the governmental purpose of funding waiver agreements amortized over a substantial period would allow the state to settle and otherwise manage claims as a means for reducing the fund's liabilities and the assessments needed to pay them, thereby furthering the policy of the state to reduce the costs of workers' compensation and to improve the business climate in the state while compensating injured workers and honoring the obligations of the special disability fund; that all costs of the authority in relation to this section shall be paid from assessments set forth in paragraph (h) of subdivision eight of section fifteen of the workers' compensation law; and that, therefore, the provisions of this section are for the public benefit and good and the authorization as provided in this section of the issuance of revenue obligations of the authority is declared to be for a public purpose and the exercise of an essential governmental function.

4. (a) The authority, the commissioner of taxation and finance and the chair, in consultation with the special disability fund advisory committee shall execute a financing agreement prior to the issuance of any bonds. Such agreement shall contain such terms and conditions as are necessary to carry out and effectuate the purposes of this section, including covenants with respect to the assessment and enforcement of the assessments, the application and use of the proceeds of the sale of bonds to preserve the tax-exemption on the bonds, the interest on which is intended to be exempt from taxation. The state shall not be authorized to make any covenant, pledge, promise or agreement purporting to bind the state with respect to pledged revenues, except as otherwise specifically authorized by this section.

(b) The net proceeds of the bonds shall be deposited in accordance with the financing agreement and this section. The financing agreement shall provide for the application of the net bond proceeds, and such bond proceeds shall be used, for any of the following purposes: (i) funding of waiver agreements, (ii) payment of financing costs, (iii) funding anticipated liabilities of the special disability fund, (iv) funding contract awards pursuant to subparagraph two of paragraph (h) of section thirty-two of the workers' compensation law and (v) such other purposes as are set forth in the financing agreement. Not inconsistent with this section, the authority may provide restrictions on the use and investment of net proceeds of the bonds and other amounts in the financing agreement or otherwise in a tax regulatory agreement as necessary or desirable to assure that they are exempt from taxation.

5. (a) (i) The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue its bonds at such times and in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed an amount to be determined by the superintendent of financial services as necessary to address all or a portion of the incurred unfunded liabilities of the special disability fund, but in no case exceeding twenty-five percent of the unfunded liability of the special disability fund as of a date no later than July first, two thousand seven, as certified to the authority by a qualified third party. The bonds shall be issued for the following corporate purposes: (A) funding of waiver agreements, (B) payment of financing costs, (C) funding anticipated liabilities of the special disability fund, (D) funding contract awards pursuant to paragraph two of subdivision (h) of section thirty-two of the workers' compensation law and (E) such other purposes as are set forth in the financing agreement. The foregoing limitation on outstanding aggregate principal shall not apply to prevent the issuance of bonds to refund bonds.

(ii) Each issuance of bonds shall be authorized by a resolution of the authority, provided, however, that any such resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds may delegate to an officer of the authority the power to issue such bonds from time to time and to fix the details of any such issues of bonds by an appropriate certificate of such authorized officer. Every issue of the bonds of the authority for the special disability fund shall be special revenue obligations payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues and other assets, including those proceeds of such bonds deposited in a reserve fund for the benefit of bondholders, earnings on funds of the authority and such other funds and assets as may become available, upon such terms and conditions as specified by the authority in the resolution under which the bonds are issued or in a related trust indenture.

(iii) The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, in consultation with the special disability fund advisory committee to refund any bonds issued under this section by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and to issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any of its other corporate purposes under this section. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded or sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of such bonds.

(b) The bonds of the authority of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest (which, in the opinion of bond counsel to the authority, may be includable in or excludable from the gross income of the owners for federal income tax purposes) at such fixed or variable rates, payable at or prior to maturity, and shall mature at such time or times, as may be determined by the authority and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the authority, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the authority. The principal and interest of such bonds may be made payable in any lawful medium. The resolution or the certificate of the authorized officer shall determine the form of the bonds, either registered or book-entry form, and the manner of execution of the bonds and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest thereof, which may be at any bank or trust company within or outside the state. If any officer whose signature or a facsimile thereof appears on any bonds shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if such officer had remained in office until such delivery. The authority may also provide for temporary bonds and for the replacement of any bond that shall become mutilated or shall be destroyed or lost.

(c) The authority may sell such bonds in such manner, either at a public or private sale and either on a competitive or negotiated basis, provided no such bonds may be sold by the authority at private sale unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by the comptroller of the state of New York. The proceeds of such bonds shall be disbursed for the purposes for which such bonds were issued under such restrictions as the financing agreement and the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or the related trust indenture may provide. Such bonds shall be issued upon approval of the authority and without any other approvals, filings, proceedings or the happening of any other conditions or things other than the approvals, findings, proceedings, conditions, and things that are specified and required by this section. Provided, however, that any issuance of bonds under the authority of this section shall be considered a project for the purposes of section fifty-one of this chapter, and subject to approval under such section.

(d) Any pledge made by the authority shall be valid and binding at the time the pledge is made. The assets, property, revenues, reserves or earnings so pledged shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act and the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind against the authority, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, neither the bond resolution nor any indenture or other instrument, including the financing agreement, by which a pledge is created or by which the authority's interest in pledged assets, property, revenues, reserves or earnings thereon is assigned need be filed, perfected or recorded in any public records in order to protect the pledge thereof or perfect the lien thereof as against third parties, except that a copy thereof shall be filed in the records of the authority.

(e) Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments for all purposes, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

(f) At the sole discretion of the authority, any bonds issued by the authority and any ancillary bond facility made under the provisions of this subdivision may be secured by a resolution or trust indenture by and between the authority and the trust indenture trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company, whether located within or outside the state, provided it is carried out in accordance with section sixty-nine-d of the state finance law. Such trust indenture or resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds may provide for the creation and maintenance of such reserves as the authority shall determine to be proper and may include covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the bonds, the income of the authority, or the financing agreement. Such trust indenture or resolution may contain provisions: (i) respecting the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys and securities; (ii) protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies (pursuant to the trust indenture and the financing agreement) of the owners of the bonds and any other benefited party as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law; (iii) concerning the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by bondholders pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subdivision; or (iv) limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds or of any other funds or obligations received on behalf of the authority to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the authority. Any such trust indenture or resolution may contain such other provisions as the authority may deem reasonable and proper for priorities and subordination among the owners of the bonds and other beneficiaries. For purposes of this section, a "resolution" of the authority shall include any trust indenture authorized thereby.

(g) The authority may enter into, amend or terminate, as it determines to be necessary or appropriate, any ancillary bond facility in consultation with the special disability fund advisory committee (i) to facilitate the issuance, sale, resale, purchase, repurchase or payment of bonds, interest rate savings or market diversification or the making or performance of interest rate exchange or similar agreements, including without limitation bond insurance, letters of credit and liquidity facilities, (ii) to attempt to manage or hedge risk or achieve a desirable effective interest rate or cash flow, or (iii) to place the obligations or investments of the authority, as represented by the bonds or the investment of reserved bond proceeds or other pledged revenues or other assets, in whole or in part, on the interest rate, cash flow or other basis decided in consultation with the special disability fund advisory committee, which facility may include without limitation contracts commonly known as interest rate exchange or similar agreements, forward purchase contracts or guaranteed investment contracts and futures or contracts providing for payments based on levels of, or changes in, interest rates. These contracts or arrangements may be entered into by the authority in connection with, or incidental to, entering into, or maintaining any (i) agreement which secures bonds of the authority or (ii) investment, or contract providing for investment of reserves or similar facility guaranteeing an investment rate for a period of years not to exceed the underlying term of the bonds. The determination by the authority that an ancillary bond facility or the amendment or termination thereof is necessary or appropriate as aforesaid shall be conclusive. Any ancillary bond facility may contain such payment, security, default, remedy, and termination provisions and payments and other terms and conditions as determined by the authority, after giving due consideration to the creditworthiness of the counterparty or other obligated party, including any rating by any nationally recognized rating agency, and any other criteria as may be appropriate.

(h) The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist (including provisions which restrict the power of the authority to purchase bonds), or with the providers of any applicable ancillary bond facility, shall have the power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority, which may or may not thereupon be cancelled, at a price not substantially exceeding:

(i) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable, including any accrued interest; or

(ii) if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price and accrued interest applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption.

(i) Neither the members of the authority nor any other person executing the bonds or an ancillary bond facility of the authority shall be subject to any personal liability by reason of the issuance or execution and delivery thereof.

(j) The maturities of the bonds shall not exceed thirty years from their respective issuance dates.

6. Neither any bond issued pursuant to this section nor any ancillary bond facility of the authority shall constitute a debt or moral obligation of the state or a state supported obligation within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision or a pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of the taxing power of the state, and the state shall not be liable to make any payments thereon nor shall any bond or any ancillary bond facility be payable out of any funds or assets other than pledged revenues and other assets of the authority and other funds and assets of or available to the authority pledged therefor, and the bonds and any ancillary bond facility of the authority shall contain on the face thereof or other prominent place thereon a statement to the foregoing effect.

7. (a) Subject to the provisions of subdivision five of this section in the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of, or interest on, or sinking fund payment on, any issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, or in the event that the authority or the state shall fail to comply with any agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Albany and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

(b) Such trustee, may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five percent in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(i) by suit, action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to carry out any agreement with such holders and to perform its duties under this section;

(ii) bring suit upon such bonds;

(iii) by action or suit, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(iv) by action or suit, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(v) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then, with the consent of the holders of twenty-five percent of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences, provided, however, that nothing in this subdivision shall preclude the authority from agreeing that consent of the provider of an ancillary bond facility is required for an acceleration of related bonds in the event of a default other than a failure to pay principal of or interest on the bonds when due.

(c) The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Albany.

(d) Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days notice in writing to the authority.

8. All monies of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks designated by the authority. The monies in such accounts shall be paid out or withdrawn on the order of such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such monies shall either be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state or of any municipality of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit, or monies of the authority may be deposited in money market funds rated in the highest short-term or long-term rating category by at least one nationally recognized rating agency. To the extent practicable, and consistent with the requirements of the authority, all such monies shall be deposited in interest bearing accounts. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any monies of the authority or any monies held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or any way to secure bonds, and carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the provisions of this section. Monies held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as monies of the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any monies of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested in accordance with law and such guidelines as are approved by the authority.

9. (a) It is hereby determined that the carrying out by the authority of its corporate purposes under this section are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and are public purposes. Accordingly, the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this section. The property of the authority, its income and its operations shall be exempt from taxation, assessments, special assessments and ad valorem levies. The authority shall not be required to pay any fees, taxes, special ad valorem levies or assessments of any kind, whether state or local, including, but not limited to, real property taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other taxes, upon or with respect to any property owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision, or upon the uses thereof, or upon or with respect to its activities or operations in furtherance of the powers conferred upon it by this section, or upon or with respect to any assessments, rates, charges, fees, revenues or other income received by the authority.

(b) Any bonds issued pursuant to this section, their transfer and the income therefrom shall, at all times, be exempt from taxation except for estate or gift taxes and taxes on transfers.

(c) The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this section, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section and the income therefrom and all assessments, revenues, moneys, and other property received by the authority and pledged to pay or to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be exempt from taxation.

(d) In the case of any bonds of the authority, interest on which is intended to be exempt from federal income tax, the authority shall prescribe restrictions on the use of the proceeds thereof and related matters only as are necessary or desirable to assure such exemption, and the recipients of such proceeds shall be bound thereby to the extent such restrictions shall be made applicable to them. Any such recipient, including, but not limited to, the state, the state insurance fund, a public benefit corporation, and a school district or municipality is authorized to execute a tax regulatory agreement with the authority or the state, as the case may be, and the execution of such an agreement may be treated by the authority or the state as a condition to receiving any such proceeds.

10. (a) The state, solely with respect to the resources of the special disability fund and as set forth in the special disability fund financing agreement, covenants with the purchasers and all subsequent owners and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this section in consideration of the acceptance of the payment of the bonds, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installment of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding on behalf of the owners, are fully met and discharged or unless expressly permitted or otherwise authorized by the terms of each special disability fund financing agreement and any contract made or entered into by the authority with or for the benefit of such owners, (i) that in the event bonds of the authority are sold as federally tax-exempt bonds, the state shall not take any action or fail to take action that would result in the loss of such federal tax exemption on said bonds, (ii) that the state will cause the workers' compensation board to impose, charge, raise, levy, collect and apply the pledged assessments and other revenues, receipts, funds or moneys pledged for the payment of debt service requirements in each year in which bonds are outstanding, and (iii) further, that the state (A) will not materially limit or alter the duties imposed on the workers' compensation board, the authority and other officers of the state by the special disability fund financing agreement and the bond proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds with respect to application of pledged assessments or other revenues, receipts, funds or moneys pledged for the payment of debt service requirements, (B) will not issue any bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness, other than the bonds, having any rights arising out of paragraph (h) of subdivision eight of section fifteen of the workers' compensation law or this section or secured by any pledge of or other lien or charge on the pledged revenues or other receipts, funds or moneys pledged for the payment of debt service requirements, (C) will not create or cause to be created any lien or charge on the pledged revenues, other than a lien or pledge created thereon pursuant to said sections, (D) will carry out and perform, or cause to be carried out and performed, each and every promise, covenant, agreement or contract made or entered into by the special disability fund financing agreement, by the authority or on its behalf with the bond owners of any bonds, (E) will not in any way impair the rights, exemptions or remedies of the bond owners, and (F) will not limit, modify, rescind, repeal or otherwise alter the rights or obligations of the appropriate officers of the state to impose, maintain, charge or collect the assessments and other revenues or receipts constituting the pledged revenues as may be necessary to produce sufficient revenues to fulfill the terms of the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds, including pledged revenue coverage requirements, provided, however, (i) the remedies available to the authority and the bondholders for any breach of the pledges and agreements of the state set forth in this subclause shall be limited to injunctive relief, (ii) nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the authority from issuing evidences of indebtedness (A) which are secured by a pledge or lien which is, and shall on the face thereof, be expressly subordinate and junior in all respects to every lien and pledge created by or pursuant to said sections, or (B) which are secured by a pledge of or lien on moneys or funds derived on or after the date every pledge or lien thereon created by or pursuant to said sections shall be discharged and satisfied, and (iii) nothing in this subdivision shall preclude the state from exercising its power, through a change in law, to limit, modify, rescind, repeal or otherwise alter the character of the pledged assessments or revenues or to substitute like or different sources of assessments, taxes, fees, charges or other receipts as pledged revenues if and when adequate provision shall be made by law for the protection of the holders of outstanding bonds pursuant to the proceedings under which the bonds are issued, including changing or altering the method of establishing the special assessments.

The authority is authorized to include this covenant of the state, as a contract of the state, in any agreement with the owner of any bonds issued pursuant to this section and in any credit facility or reimbursement agreement with respect to such bonds. Notwithstanding these pledges and agreements by the state, the attorney general may in his or her discretion enforce any and all provisions related to the special disability fund, without limitation.

(b) Prior to the date which is one year and one day after the authority no longer has any bonds issued pursuant to this section outstanding, the authority shall have no authority to file a voluntary petition under chapter nine of the federal bankruptcy code or such corresponding chapter or sections as may, from time to time, be in effect, and neither any public officer nor any organization, entity or other person shall authorize the authority to be or become a debtor under chapter nine or any successor or corresponding chapter or sections during such period. The state hereby covenants with the owners of the bonds of the authority that the state will not limit or alter the denial of authority under this subdivision during the period referred to in the preceding sentence. The authority is authorized to include this covenant of the state, as a contract of the state, in any agreement with the owner of any bonds issued pursuant to this section.

(c) To the extent deemed appropriate by the authority any pledge and agreement of the state with respect to the bonds as provided in this section may be extended to, and included in, any ancillary bond facility as a pledge and agreement of the state with the authority and the benefited party.

11. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and political subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or in other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital, in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities, political subdivisions and public corporations for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

12. (a) An action against the authority for death, personal injury or property damage or founded on tort shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action thereof shall have accrued nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on a member of the authority or officer or employee thereof designated by the authority for such purpose, within the time limited by, and in compliance with the requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law.

(b) The venue of every action, suit or special proceeding brought against the authority or concerning the validity of this section shall be laid in the county of Albany.

(c) The bonds, and any obligation of the authority under any ancillary bond facility, may contain a recital that they are issued or executed, respectively, pursuant to this section, which recital shall be conclusive evidence of the validity of the bonds and any such obligation, respectively, and the regularity of the proceedings of the authority relating thereto.

13. Any action or proceeding to which the authority or the people of the state may be parties, in which any question arises as to the validity of this section, shall be preferred over all other civil causes of action or cases, except election causes of action or cases, in all courts of the state and shall be heard and determined in preference to all other civil business pending therein, except election causes, irrespective of position on the calendar. The same preference shall be granted upon application of the authority or its counsel in any action or proceeding questioning the validity of this section in which the authority may be allowed to intervene.

§ 1680-m. Cultural education facilities. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, the authority and the urban development corporation are hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of funding project costs for construction and rehabilitation associated with the cultural education facilities, including but not limited to acquisition costs and other state costs associated with such capital projects, and the St. Regis Mohawk elementary school. The aggregate principal amount of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed seventy-nine million dollars, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the authority and the urban development corporation shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the authority for principal, interest, and related expenses pursuant to a service contract and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in order to assist the authority and the urban development corporation in undertaking the financing for construction and rehabilitation associated with the cultural education facilities, including but not limited to acquisition costs and other state costs associated with such capital projects, and the St. Regis Mohawk elementary school, the director of the budget is hereby authorized to enter into one or more service contracts with the authority and the urban development corporation, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, upon such terms and conditions as the director of the budget and the authority and the urban development corporation agree, so as to annually provide to the authority and the urban development corporation, in the aggregate, a sum not to exceed the principal, interest, and related expenses required for such bonds and notes. Any service contract entered into pursuant to this section shall provide that the obligation of the state to pay the amount therein provided shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of monies available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for such purpose, subject to annual appropriation by the legislature. Any such contract or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the authority and the urban development corporation as security for its bonds and notes, as authorized by this section.

§ 1680-n. Acquisition of state buildings and other facilities. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, the authority and the urban development corporation are hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of funding project costs for the acquisition of state buildings and other facilities. The aggregate principal amount of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed one hundred sixty-five million dollars, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the authority and the urban development corporation shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the authority and the urban development corporation for principal, interest, and related expenses pursuant to a service contract and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in order to assist the authority and the urban development corporation in undertaking the financing of the acquisition of state buildings and other facilities, the director of the budget is hereby authorized to enter into one or more service contracts with the authority and the urban development corporation, none of which shall exceed twenty-two years in duration, upon such terms and conditions as the director of the budget and the authority and the urban development corporation agree, so as to annually provide to the authority and the urban development corporation, in the aggregate, a sum not to exceed the principal, interest, and related expenses required for such bonds and notes. Any service contract entered into pursuant to this section shall provide that the obligation of the state to pay the amount therein provided shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of monies available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for such purpose, subject to annual appropriation by the legislature. Any such contract or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the authority and the urban development corporation as security for its bonds and notes, as authorized by this section.

§ 1680-o. Courthouse improvements and training facilities. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, the authority and the urban development corporation are hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of funding project costs for eligible courthouse improvements and training facilities. The aggregate principal amount of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed seventy-six million one hundred thousand dollars, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the authority and the urban development corporation shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the authority and the urban development corporation for principal, interest, and related expenses pursuant to a service contract and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in order to assist the authority and the urban development corporation in undertaking the financing of eligible courthouse improvements and training facilities, the director of the budget is hereby authorized to enter into one or more service contracts with the authority and the urban development corporation, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, upon such terms and conditions as the director of the budget and the authority and the urban development corporation agree, so as to annually provide to the authority and the urban development corporation, in the aggregate, a sum not to exceed the principal, interest, and related expenses required for such bonds and notes. Any service contract entered into pursuant to this section shall provide that the obligation of the state to pay the amount therein provided shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of monies available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for such purpose, subject to annual appropriation by the legislature. Any such contract or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the authority and the urban development corporation as security for its bonds and notes, as authorized by this section.

§ 1680-p. Longitudinal data system. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, the authority is hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of funding project costs for the implementation of a state longitudinal data system. The aggregate principal amount of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed twenty million four hundred thousand dollars, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the authority shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the authority for principal, interest, and related expenses pursuant to a service contract and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in order to assist the authority in undertaking the financing of construction of a state longitudinal data system but not limited to the development and purchase of computer hardware, software, and related equipment, such amount shall include expenses made by the State University of New York, the City University of New York and the department of education, the director of the budget is hereby authorized to enter into one or more service contracts with the authority, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, upon such terms and conditions as the director of the budget and the authority agree, so as to annually provide to the authority, in the aggregate, a sum not to exceed the principal, interest, and related expenses required for such bonds and notes. Any service contract entered into pursuant to this section shall provide that the obligation of the state to pay the amount therein provided shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of monies available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for such purpose, subject to annual appropriation by the legislature. Any such contract or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the authority as security for its bonds and notes, as authorized by this section.

 § 1680-q. State university of New York dormitory facilities. 1. As used in or referred to in this section, unless a different meaning appears from the context, the following terms shall have the following respective meanings:

(a) "Agreement" means an agreement by and between the authority and the state university entered into pursuant to this section.

(b) "Dormitory facilities revenue fund" means the fund established pursuant to subdivision three of this section.

(c) "Dormitory facilities revenues" means all moneys, including rents, fees and charges, derived from the use or occupancy of dormitory facilities.

(d) "Dormitory facility" means a dormitory, as such term is defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section sixteen hundred seventy-six of this title.

(e) "Dormitory facility revenue bond" means any note or bond of the authority (i) issued on or after the first day of April, two thousand thirteen for the purposes of financing dormitory facilities or refinancing notes or bonds issued previously in connection with dormitory facilities, including notes or bonds issued to pay costs incurred in connection with the issuance of such notes or bonds, to fund any reserve for the payment of debt service on such bonds, to fund any reserve established for the improvement, repair, maintenance or operations of dormitory facilities, or to pay or provide for the payment of any note or bond previously issued for any such purpose, and (ii) is payable from moneys on deposit in the dormitory facilities revenue fund and is not payable from any revenue of the state.

(f) "Prior dormitory facility bond" means any note or bond of the authority issued prior to April first, two thousand thirteen in connection with dormitory facilities.

(g) "State university" means the state university of New York, a corporation within the state education department and within the university of the state of New York created by section three hundred fifty-two of the education law.

2. The authority may, from and after April first, two thousand thirteen, issue dormitory facility revenue bonds in an amount not to exceed one billion eight hundred forty-four million dollars. Notwithstanding any other rule or law, such bonds shall not be a debt of the state of New York or the state university nor shall the state or the state university be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority constituting dormitory facilities revenues. Such amount shall be exclusive of bonds and notes issued to fund any reserve fund or funds, cost of issuance, original issue premium, and to refund any prior dormitory facility bonds or any dormitory facility revenue bonds. The authority and the state university are hereby authorized to enter into agreements relating to, among other things, the acquisition of property or interests therein, the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, equipping and furnishing of dormitory facilities, the operation and maintenance of dormitory facilities, and the billing, collection and disbursement of dormitory facilities revenues, the title to which has been conveyed, assigned or otherwise transferred to the authority pursuant to paragraph y of subdivision two of section three hundred fifty-five of the education law. In no event shall the state university have any obligation under the agreement to make payment with respect to, on account of or to pay dormitory facilities revenue bonds, and such bonds shall be payable solely from the dormitory facilities revenues assigned to the authority by the state university. No debt shall be contracted except to finance capital works or purposes. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, dormitory facility revenues shall not be deemed to be revenues of the state. Notwithstanding any other rule or law, the state shall not be liable for any payments on any dormitory facility revenue bonds, and such bonds shall not be a debt of the state and shall not be payable out of any funds other than the dormitory facilities revenues assigned to the authority by the state university.

3. (a) There is hereby established in the custody of the commissioner of taxation and finance a special fund to be known as the dormitory facilities revenue fund. Such fund shall consist of all dormitory facilities revenues conveyed, assigned or otherwise transferred to the authority pursuant to paragraph y of subdivision two of section three hundred fifty-five of the education law, which upon receipt by the commissioner of taxation and finance shall be deposited in such fund and held by the commissioner of taxation and finance pursuant to subdivision four of section four of the state finance law. The moneys in the fund shall be the sole and exclusive property of the authority. The moneys held in the fund shall be held separate and apart from and not commingled with any moneys of the state or any other moneys in the custody of the commissioner of taxation and finance. All deposits of moneys shall, if required by the commissioner of taxation and finance, be secured by obligations of the United States of America or of the state having a market value equal at all times to the amount of such deposits and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give security for such deposits. Any moneys in such fund may, in the discretion of the commissioner of taxation and finance, be invested in obligations described in section ninety-eight of the state finance law. The commissioner of taxation and finance shall certify to the authority and the state university not later than the fifteenth day of each month the amount of dormitory facilities revenues deposited in the fund during the preceding calendar month and the amount held in the fund as of the last day of such preceding calendar month.

(b) During each twelve month period commencing July first of a calendar year and ending on June thirtieth of the succeeding calendar year, the commissioner of taxation and finance shall pay, without appropriation, to or upon the order of the authority from the moneys in the fund the amount certified to the commissioner of taxation and finance by the authority pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision. Any moneys remaining in the fund after payment to the authority of the amount so certified shall be paid by the commissioner of taxation and finance in accordance with the agreement. All rights, title and interest in and to any moneys paid to or upon the order of the state university pursuant to the agreement shall vest in the state university and be the absolute property of the state university, and the authority shall no longer have any interest in such moneys.

(c) The authority shall, not later than by the first day of June of each calendar year, certify to the commissioner of taxation and finance and to the state university: (i) the amount of the rentals, including the amounts required for payment of the principal of, and interest on prior dormitory facility bonds required to be made by the state university to the authority during the twelve month period commencing on the succeeding July first and ending on the succeeding June thirtieth pursuant to the agreement between the authority and the state university, dated as of the twentieth day of September, nineteen hundred ninety-five, as amended and restated; (ii) the amount required to maintain any reserves for the repair and replacement of dormitory facilities or the operations and maintenance of dormitory facilities in connection with the prior dormitory facility bonds; (iii) the amount required for payment of the principal of, whether at maturity or due through mandatory redemption, and interest on dormitory facility revenue bonds payable on January first of such twelve month period and on July first next succeeding such twelve month period; (iv) the amount required to maintain any reserves for the repair and replacement of dormitory facilities or the operations and maintenance of dormitory facilities in connection with the dormitory facility revenue bonds; (v) the amount required to restore any reserve for the payment of debt service on dormitory facility revenue bonds to its requirement; and (vi) the costs, expenses and overhead of the dormitory authority to be incurred during such twelve month period in connection with and reasonably related to dormitory facilities financed through the issuance of dormitory facility revenue bonds. Each such amount shall be separately stated and identified in such certificate. Any such certificate submitted by the dormitory authority may be amended by the dormitory authority from time to time as necessary to adjust the amounts set forth therein. The moneys paid to the authority pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision shall be applied by the authority in the order of priority in which the amounts set forth in such certification are stated in this paragraph.

4. (a) The dormitory authority, in consultation with the state university of New York, shall prepare an annual report due on September thirtieth, commencing on September thirtieth, two thousand fourteen, of every calendar year relating to the provisions of paragraph y of subdivision two of section three hundred fifty-five of the education law; subdivision eight of section three hundred fifty-five of the education law; and this section. The report shall include, but not be limited to: (i) the total dormitory facilities revenues assigned or otherwise transferred from the state university of New York to the dormitory authority in the prior state university fiscal year and the sum of such transfers made in the five prior fiscal years; (ii) the sum of monies, if any, transferred to the state university of New York from the dormitory facilities revenue fund in the prior state university fiscal year; (iii) a list of any increase in rents, fees and other charges that relate to dormitory facilities per campus to students; (iv) a summary of all costs associated with the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, equipping, furnishing, repair, maintenance and operations of dormitory facilities that the dormitory authority funded with dormitory facilities revenues and the proceeds of dormitory facility revenue bonds; (v) a summary and justification of dormitory authority administrative expenses and costs incurred related to the dormitory facilities revenue fund; (vi) the issuance amounts, debt service costs and savings, if any, of all state university of New York dormitory bonds issued prior to April first, two thousand thirteen and refinanced by the dormitory authority with dormitory facility revenue bonds; (vii) total amount of debt service payments made per year on dormitory facility revenue bonds; and (viii) an estimated date when the dormitory authority will reach the cap on dormitory facility revenue bonds.

(b) The report authorized by this section shall be submitted to the governor, the director of the budget, the speaker of the assembly, the temporary president of the senate, chairs of the senate and assembly higher education committees, the chair of the senate finance committee and the chair of the assembly ways and means committee.

* NB There are 2 § 1680-q's

 § 1680-q. Self-insured bond financing. 1. As used in this section the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Ancillary bond facility" means any interest rate exchange or similar agreement or any bond insurance policy, letter of credit or other credit enhancement facility, liquidity facility, guaranteed investment or reinvestment agreement, or other similar agreement, arrangement or contract.

(b) "Benefited party" means any person, firm or corporation that enters into an ancillary bond facility with the authority according to the provisions of this section.

(c) "Bonds" means any bonds, notes, certificates of participation and other evidence of indebtedness issued by the authority pursuant to subdivision five of this section.

(d) "Bond owners or owners of bonds" means any registered owners of bonds.

(e) "Chair" means the chair of the workers' compensation board.

(f) "Code" means the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(g) "Costs of issuance" means any item of expense directly or indirectly payable or reimbursable by the authority and related to the authorization, sale, or issuance of bonds, including, but not limited to, underwriting fees and fees and expenses of professional consultants and fiduciaries.

(h) "Debt service" means actual debt service, comprised of principal, interest and associated costs, as defined in section fifty-c of the workers' compensation law.

(i) "Director of the budget" or "director" means the director of the budget of the state of New York.

(j) "Financing costs" means all costs of issuance, capitalized interest, capitalized operating expenses of the authority and, pursuant to the self-insured bond financing agreement, fees, cost of any ancillary bond facility, and any other fees, discounts, expenses and costs related to issuing, securing and marketing the bonds including, without limitation, any net original issue discount.

(k) "Investment securities" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section one thousand six hundred eighty-l of this title.

(l) "Interest rate exchange or similar agreement" means a written contract entered into in connection with the issuance of bonds or with such bonds outstanding with a counterparty to provide for an exchange or swap of payments based upon fixed and/or variable interest rates, and shall be for exchanges in currency of the United States of America only.

(m) "Net proceeds" means the amount of proceeds remaining following each sale of bonds which are not required by the authority for purposes of this section to pay or provide for debt service or financing costs, as provided in the self-insured bond financing agreement.

(n) "Operating expenses" means the reasonable or necessary operating expenses of the authority for purposes of this section, including, without limitation, the costs of: retention of auditors, preparation of accounting and other reports, maintenance of the ratings on the bonds, any operating expense reserve fund, insurance premiums, ancillary bond facilities, rebate payments, annual meetings or other required activities of the authority, and professional consultants and fiduciaries.

(o) "Outstanding", when used with respect to bonds, shall exclude bonds that shall have been paid in full at maturity, or shall have otherwise been refunded, redeemed, defeased or discharged, or that may be deemed not outstanding pursuant to agreements with the holders thereof.

(p) "Pledged assessments revenues", "pledged revenues" or "pledged assessments" means receipts of the assessments imposed pursuant to section one hundred fifty-one of the workers' compensation law and pledged for the payment of debt service on the bonds or amounts due pursuant to an ancillary bond facility, including the right to receive same.

(q) "Self-insurer offset fund" shall mean the fund composed of revenues, including those obtained by the bonds issued under this section, which shall be used solely for the purposes described in subdivision four of this section.

(r) "Self-insured employer" means individual and group self-insured employers established in accordance with section fifty of the workers' compensation law.

(s) "State" means the state of New York.

(t) "Self-insured bond financing agreement" or "financing agreement" means an agreement authorized and created pursuant to subdivision four of this section and section fifty-c of the workers' compensation law, as same by its terms and bond proceedings, may be amended.

2. The authority is hereby authorized to issue bonds to reduce assessments imposed on self-insured employers under section fifty of the workers' compensation law as a result of the unfunded claims of individual and group self-insurers. The authority may enter into one or more self-insured bond financing agreements described in section fifty-c of the workers' compensation law. All of the provisions of the public authorities law relating to bonds and notes of the dormitory authority which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section shall apply to obligations authorized by this section, including but not limited to the power to establish adequate reserves therefor and to issue renewal notes or refunding bonds thereof. The provisions of this section shall apply solely to obligations authorized by this section.

3. It is found and declared that unfunded claims in either the individual or group self-insurance trust program will, absent provision for long-term financing, result in imposition of costs on all self-insurers through assessments; that such unfunded claims and assessments may have a detrimental impact on businesses and not-for-profit corporations in New York state and on the provision of services to New York residents; that without financing the board may be required to impose higher assessments to pay such unfunded claims; that financing will allow the workers' compensation board to purchase one or more assumptions of workers' compensation liability policies that will limit the long term losses from these unfunded claims; that the bonds will provide a more efficient means of covering unfunded claims than the current system of assessment on all self-insureds; that bonds issued by the authority and secured by assessments levied, for the governmental purpose of funding assumption of workers' compensation liability policies, amortized over a substantial period would allow the state to limit liabilities and the assessments needed to pay them, thereby furthering the policy of the state to reduce the costs of workers' compensation and to improve the business climate in the state and the ability of not-for-profit corporations to perform essential services while compensating injured workers; that all costs of the authority in relation to this section shall be paid from assessments provided for in the workers' compensation law; and that, therefore, the provisions of this section are for the public benefit and good and the authorization as provided in this section for the issuance of revenue obligations of the authority is declared to be for a public purpose and the exercise of an essential governmental function.

4. (a) The authority, the commissioner of taxation and finance and the chair, in consultation with the director of the budget shall execute a financing agreement prior to the issuance of any bonds. Such agreement shall contain such terms and conditions as are necessary to carry out and effectuate the purposes of this section, including covenants with respect to the assessments and enforcement of the assessments, the application and use of the proceeds of the sale of bonds to preserve the tax exemption on the bonds, the interest on which is intended to be exempt from taxation. The state shall not be authorized to make any covenant, pledge, promise or agreement purporting to bind the state with respect to pledged revenues, except as otherwise specifically authorized by this section.

(b) The net proceeds of the bonds shall be deposited in accordance with the self-insured bond financing agreement and this section. The self-insured bond financing agreement shall provide for the application of the net bond proceeds, and such bond proceeds shall be used, for any of the following purposes: (i) to pay unmet compensation or benefits of individual and group self-insured employers; (ii) to purchase one or more assumption of workers' compensation liability policies to discharge the liabilities incurred or to be incurred under subdivision three or three-a of section fifty of the workers' compensation law; or (iii) to pay financing costs of the bonds issued under this section. Not inconsistent with this section, the authority may provide restrictions on the use and investment of net proceeds of the bonds and other amounts in the self-insured bond financing agreement or otherwise in a tax regulatory agreement as necessary or desirable to assure that they are exempt from taxation.

5. (a) (i) The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue its bonds at such times and in such aggregate principal amounts not to exceed an amount to be determined by the chair as necessary to fund the purposes of this section, but in no case exceeding nine hundred million dollars exclusive of any bonds issued to refund bonds previously issued pursuant to this chapter and any bonds issued to fund any reserve funds cost of issuance or original issue premium. The bonds shall be issued for the following corporate purposes: (A) to pay current unmet compensation or benefits of individual and group self-insured employers; (B) to purchase one or more assumptions of workers' compensation liability policies to discharge the liabilities incurred or to be incurred under subdivision three or three-a of section fifty of the workers' compensation law; or (C) to pay financing costs of the bonds issued under this section.

(ii) Each issuance of bonds shall be authorized by a resolution of the authority, provided, however, that any such resolution may delegate to an officer of the authority the power to issue such bonds from time to time and to fix the details of any such issues of bonds by an appropriate certificate of such authorized officer. Every issue of the bonds of the authority for the self-insurer offset fund shall be special revenue obligations payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues and other assets, including those proceeds of such bonds deposited in a reserve fund for the benefit of bondholders, earnings on such funds and such other funds and assets as may become available, upon such terms and conditions as specified by the authority in the resolution under which the bonds are issued or in a related trust indenture.

(iii) The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, in consultation with the chair, the commissioner of taxation and finance and the director of the budget, to refund any bonds issued under this section by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and to issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any of its other corporate purposes under this section. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded or sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of such bonds.

(b) The bonds of the authority of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest (which, in the opinion of bond counsel to the authority, may be includable in or excludable from the gross income of the owners for federal income tax purposes) at such fixed or variable rates, payable at or prior to maturity, and shall mature at such time or times, as may be determined by the authority and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the authority, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the authority. The principal and interest of such bonds may be made payable in any lawful medium. The resolution or the certificate of the authorized officer shall determine the form of the bonds, either registered or book-entry form, and the manner of execution of the bonds and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest thereof, which may be at any bank or trust company within or outside the state. If any officer whose signature or a facsimile thereof appears on any bonds shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if such officer had remained in office until such delivery. The authority may also provide for temporary bonds and for the replacement of any bond that shall become mutilated or shall be destroyed or lost.

(c) The authority may sell such bonds, either at a public or private sale and either on a competitive or negotiated basis, provided no such bonds may be sold by the authority at private sale unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by the comptroller of the state of New York. The proceeds of such bonds shall be disbursed for the purposes for which such bonds were issued under such restrictions as the financing agreement and the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or the related trust indenture may provide. Such bonds shall be issued without any other approvals, filings, proceedings or the happening of any other conditions other than any approvals, findings, proceedings, or other conditions that are specified and expressly required by this section; provided, however, that any issuance of bonds under the authority of this section shall be considered a project for the purposes of section fifty-one of this chapter and subject to approval under such section.

(d) Any pledge made by the authority shall be valid and binding at the time the pledge is made. The assets, property, revenues, reserves or earnings so pledged shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act and the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind against the authority, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, neither the bond resolution nor any indenture or other instrument, including the financing agreement, by which a pledge is created or by which the authority's interest in pledged assets, property, revenues, reserves or earnings thereon is assigned need be filed, perfected or recorded in any public records in order to protect the pledge thereof or perfect the lien thereof as against third parties, except that a copy thereof shall be filed in the records of the authority.

(e) Whether or not the bonds of the authority are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments for all purposes, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

(f) At the sole discretion of the authority, any bonds issued by the authority and any ancillary bond facility made under the provisions of this subdivision may be secured by a resolution or trust indenture by and between the authority and the trust indenture trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company, whether located within or outside the state, provided it is carried out in accordance with section sixty-nine-d of the state finance law. Such trust indenture or resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds may provide for the creation and maintenance of such reserves as the authority shall determine to be proper and may include covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the bonds, or the financing agreement. Such trust indenture or resolution may contain provisions: (i) respecting the custody, safe-guarding and application of all moneys and securities; (ii) protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies (pursuant to the trust indenture and the financing agreement) of the owners of the bonds and any other benefited party as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law; (iii) concerning the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by bondholders pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subdivision; or (iv) limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds or of any other funds or obligations received on behalf of the authority to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the authority. Any such trust indenture or resolution may contain such other provisions as the authority may deem reasonable and proper for priorities and subordination among the owners of the bonds and other beneficiaries. For purposes of this section, a "resolution" of the authority shall include any trust indenture authorized thereby.

(g) The authority may enter into, amend or terminate, as it determines to be necessary or appropriate, any ancillary bond facility in consultation with the chair and director of the budget (i) to facilitate the issuance, sale, resale, purchase, repurchase or payment of bonds, interest rate savings or market diversification or the making or performance of interest rate exchange or similar agreements, including without limitation bond insurance, letters of credit and liquidity facilities, (ii) to attempt to manage or hedge risk or achieve a desirable effective interest rate or cash flow, or (iii) to place the obligations or investments of the authority, as represented by the bonds or the investment of reserved bond proceeds or other pledged revenues or other assets, in whole or in part, on the interest rate, cash flow or other basis decided in consultation with the chair and director of the budget, which facility may include without limitation contracts commonly known as interest rate exchange or similar agreements, forward purchase contracts or guaranteed investment contracts and futures or contracts providing for payments based on levels of, or changes in, interest rates. These contracts or arrangements may be entered into by the authority in connection with, or incidental to, entering into, or maintaining any agreement which secures bonds of the authority or investment, or contract providing for investment of reserves or similar facility guaranteeing an investment rate for a period of years not to exceed the underlying term of the bonds. The determination by the authority that an ancillary bond facility or the amendment or termination thereof is necessary or appropriate as aforesaid shall be conclusive. Any ancillary bond facility may contain such payment, security, default, remedy, and termination provisions and payments and other terms and conditions as determined by the authority, after giving due consideration to the creditworthiness of the counterparty or other obligated party, including any rating by any nationally recognized rating agency, and any other criteria as may be appropriate.

(h) The authority, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist (including provisions which restrict the power of the authority to purchase bonds), or with the providers of any applicable ancillary bond facility, shall have the power out of any funds available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority, which may or may not thereupon be cancelled, at a price not substantially exceeding:

(i) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable, including any accrued interest; or

(ii) if the bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price and accrued interest applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption.

(i) Neither the members of the authority nor any other person executing the bonds or an ancillary bond facility of the authority shall be subject to any personal liability by reason of the issuance or execution and delivery thereof.

(j) The maturities of the bonds shall not exceed thirty years from their respective issuance.

6. Neither any bond issued pursuant to this section nor any ancillary bond facility of the authority shall constitute a debt or moral obligation of the state or a state supported obligation within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision or a pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of the taxing power of the state, and the state shall not be liable to make any payments thereon nor shall any bond or any ancillary bond facility be payable out of any funds or assets other than pledged revenues and other assets of the authority and other funds and assets of or available to the authority pledged therefor, and the bonds and any ancillary bond facility of the authority shall contain on the face thereof or other prominent place thereon a statement to the foregoing effect.

7. (a) Subject to the provisions of subdivision five of this section in the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of, or interest on, or sinking fund payment on, any issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, or in the event that the authority or the state shall fail to comply with any agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds, the holders of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Albany and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

(b) Such trustee, may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five percent in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(i) by suit, action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority to carry out any agreement with such holders and to perform its duties under this section;

(ii) bring suit upon such bonds;

(iii) by action or suit, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

(iv) by action or suit, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds; and

(v) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then, with the consent of the holders of twenty-five percent of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences, provided, however, that nothing in this subdivision shall preclude the authority from agreeing that consent of the provider of an ancillary bond facility is required for an acceleration of related bonds in the event of a default other than a failure to pay principal of or interest on the bonds when due.

(c) The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Albany.

(d) Before declaring the principal of bonds due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days notice in writing to the authority.

8. All monies of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks designated by the authority. The monies in such accounts shall be paid out or withdrawn on the order of such person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such monies shall either be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state or of any municipality of a market value equal at all times to the amount on deposit, or monies of the authority may be deposited in money market funds rated in the highest short-term or long-term rating category by at least one nationally recognized rating agency. To the extent practicable, and consistent with the requirements of the authority, all such monies shall be deposited in interest bearing accounts. The authority shall have power, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, to contract with the holders of any bonds as to the custody, collection, security, investment and payment of any monies of the authority or any monies held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or any way to secure bonds, and carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with the provisions of this section. Monies held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as monies of the authority and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. Any monies of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested in accordance with law and such guidelines as are approved by the authority.

9. (a) It is hereby determined that the carrying out by the authority of its corporate purposes under this section are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York and are public purposes. Accordingly, the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this section. The property of the authority, its income and its operations shall be exempt from taxation, assessments, special assessments and ad valorem levies. The authority shall not be required to pay any fees, taxes, special ad valorem levies or assessments of any kind, whether state or local, including, but not limited to, real property taxes, franchise taxes, sales taxes or other taxes, upon or with respect to any property owned by it or under its jurisdiction, control or supervision, or upon the uses thereof, or upon or with respect to its activities or operations in furtherance of the powers conferred upon it by this section, or upon or with respect to any assessments, rates, charges, fees, revenues or other income received by the authority.

(b) Any bonds issued pursuant to this section, their transfer and the income therefrom shall, at all times, be exempt from taxation except for estate or gift taxes and taxes on transfers.

(c) The state hereby covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this section, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section and the income therefrom and all assessments, revenues, moneys, and other property received by the authority and pledged to pay or to secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be exempt from taxation.

(d) In the case of any bonds of the authority, interest on which is intended to be exempt from federal income tax, the authority shall prescribe restrictions on the use of the proceeds thereof and related matters only as are necessary or desirable to assure such exemption, and the recipients of such proceeds shall be bound thereby to the extent such restrictions shall be made applicable to them. Any such recipient, including, but not limited to, the state, the state insurance fund, a public benefit corporation, and a school district or municipality is authorized to execute a tax regulatory agreement with the authority or the state, as the case may be, and the execution of such an agreement may be treated by the authority or the state as a condition to receiving any such proceeds.

10. (a) The state, solely with respect to the resources of the self-insurer offset fund and as set forth in the self-insured bond financing agreement, covenants with the purchasers and all subsequent owners and transferees of bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this section in consideration of the acceptance of the payment of the bonds, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installment of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding on behalf of the owners, are fully met and discharged or unless expressly permitted or otherwise authorized by the terms of each financing agreement and any contract made or entered into by the authority with or for the benefit of such owners:

(i) that in the event bonds of the authority are sold as federally tax-exempt bonds, the state shall not take any action or fail to take action that would result in the loss of such federal tax exemption on said bonds;

(ii) that the state will cause the workers' compensation board to impose, charge, raise, levy, collect and apply the pledged assessments for the payment of debt service requirements in each year in which bonds are outstanding; and

(iii) that the state, subsequent to the issuance of bonds under this section:

(A) will not materially limit or alter the duties imposed on the workers' compensation board, the authority, and other officers of the state by the self-insured bond financing agreement and the bond proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds with respect to application of pledged assessments for the payment of debt service requirements;

(B) will not issue any bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness, other than the bonds authorized by this section, having any rights arising out of subparagraph two of paragraph c of subdivision five of section fifty of the workers' compensation law or this section or secured by any pledge of or other lien or charge on the revenues pledged for the payment of debt service requirements; except for bonds authorized under subdivision eight of section fifteen of the workers' compensation law.

(C) will not create or cause to be created any lien or charge on the pledged revenues, other than a lien or pledge created thereon pursuant to said sections;

(D) will carry out and perform, or cause to be carried out and performed, each and every promise, covenant, agreement or contract made or entered into by the financing agreement, by the authority or on its behalf with the bond owners of any bonds;

(E) will not in any way impair the rights, exemptions or remedies of the bond owners; and

(F) will not limit, modify, rescind, repeal or otherwise alter the rights or obligations of the appropriate officers of the state to impose, maintain, charge or collect the assessments constituting the pledged revenues as may be necessary to produce sufficient revenues to fulfill the terms of the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds, including pledged revenue coverage requirements.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision:

(i) the remedies available to the authority and the bondholders for any breach of the pledges and agreements of the state set forth in this subdivision shall be limited to injunctive relief;

(ii) nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the authority from issuing evidences of indebtedness:

(A) which are secured by a pledge or lien which is, and shall on the face thereof, be expressly subordinate and junior in all respects to every lien and pledge created by or pursuant to said sections; or

(B) which are secured by a pledge of or lien on moneys or funds derived on or after the date every pledge or lien thereon created by or pursuant to said sections shall be discharged and satisfied; and

(iii) nothing in this subdivision shall preclude the state from exercising its power, through a change in law, to limit, modify, rescind, repeal or otherwise alter the character of the pledged assessments or revenues or to substitute like or different sources of assessments, taxes, fees, charges or other receipts as pledged revenues if and when adequate provision shall be made by law for the protection of the holders of outstanding bonds pursuant to the proceedings under which the bonds are issued, including changing or altering the method of establishing the special assessments.

(c) The authority is authorized to include this covenant of the state, as a contract of the state, in any agreement with the owner of any bonds issued pursuant to this section and in any credit facility or reimbursement agreement with respect to such bonds. Notwithstanding these pledges and agreements by the state, the attorney general may in his or her discretion enforce any and all provisions related to the self-insured bond fund, without limitation.

(d) Prior to the date which is one year and one day after the authority no longer has any bonds issued pursuant to this section outstanding, the authority shall have no authority to file a voluntary petition under chapter nine of the federal bankruptcy code or such corresponding chapter or sections as may be in effect, and neither any public officer nor any organization, entity or other person shall authorize the authority to be or become a debtor under chapter nine or any successor or corresponding chapter or sections during such period. The state hereby covenants with the owners of the bonds of the authority that the state will not limit or alter the denial of authority under this subdivision during the period referred to in the preceding sentence. The authority is authorized to include this covenant of the state, as a contract of the state, in any agreement with the owner of any bonds issued pursuant to this section.

(e) To the extent deemed appropriate by the authority any pledge and agreement of the state with respect to the bonds as provided in this section may be extended to, and included in, any ancillary bond facility as a pledge and agreement of the state with the authority and the benefited party.

11. The bonds of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and political subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or in other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital, in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities, political subdivisions and public corporations for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

12. (a) An action against the authority for death, personal injury or property damage or founded on tort shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action thereof shall have accrued nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on a member of the authority or officer or employee thereof designated by the authority for such purpose, within the time limited by, and in compliance with the requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law.

(b) The venue of every action, suit or special proceeding brought against the authority or concerning the validity of this section shall be laid in the county of Albany.

(c) The bonds, and any obligation of the authority under any ancillary bond facility, may contain a recital that they are issued or executed, respectively, pursuant to this section, which recital shall be conclusive evidence of the validity of the bonds and any such obligation, respectively, and the regularity of the proceedings of the authority relating thereto.

13. Any action or proceeding to which the authority or the people of the state may be parties, in which any question arises as to the validity of this section, shall be preferred over all other civil causes of action or cases, except election causes of action or cases, in all courts of the state and shall be heard and determined in preference to all other civil business pending therein, except election causes, irrespective of position on the calendar. The same preference shall be granted upon application of the authority or its counsel in any action or proceeding questioning the validity of this section in which the authority may be allowed to intervene.

14. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, no funds of the self-insurer offset fund may be used for any purpose other than those set forth in this section and section fifty-a of the workers' compensation law.

* NB There are 2 § 1680-q's

§ 1680-r. Authorization for the issuance of bonds for the capital restructuring financing program, the health care facility transformation programs, and the essential health care provider program. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation are hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in one or more series for the purpose of funding project costs for the capital restructuring financing program for health care and related facilities licensed pursuant to the public health law or the mental hygiene law and other state costs associated with such capital projects, the health care facility transformation programs, the essential health care provider program, and other health care capital project costs. The aggregate principal amount of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed seven billion one hundred seventy-eight million dollars $7,178,000,000, excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued. Such bonds and notes of the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation shall not be a debt of the state, and the state shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those appropriated by the state to the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation for principal, interest, and related expenses pursuant to a service contract and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect. Except for purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in order to assist the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation in undertaking the financing for project costs for the capital restructuring financing program for health care and related facilities licensed pursuant to the public health law or the mental hygiene law and other state costs associated with such capital projects, the health care facility transformation programs, and the essential health care provider program, the director of the budget is hereby authorized to enter into one or more service contracts with the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, upon such terms and conditions as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation agree, so as to annually provide to the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation, in the aggregate, a sum not to exceed the principal, interest, and related expenses required for such bonds and notes. Any service contract entered into pursuant to this section shall provide that the obligation of the state to pay the amount therein provided shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of monies available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the monies available for such purpose, subject to annual appropriation by the legislature. Any such contract or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the dormitory authority and the urban development corporation as security for its bonds and notes, as authorized by this section.

§ 1681. Moneys of the authority. 1. The moneys of the authority shall, except as otherwise provided in this section, be deposited in a general account and such other accounts as the authority may deem necessary for the transaction of its business and shall be paid out on checks signed by the chairman of the authority or by such other person or persons as the authority may authorize.

2. All moneys of the authority derived from state appropriations or the sale of bonds and all moneys constituting reserve funds shall be paid to the comptroller of the state as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on check of the comptroller on requisition of the chairman of the authority or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the comptroller or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States of America or of the state of New York of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

3. The authority shall have power notwithstanding the provisions of this title, to contract with or for the benefit of the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority, or any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds, and to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such contract may be inconsistent with other provisions of this title. In any contract with or for the benefit of the holders of any of its bonds, the authority may pledge or assign any moneys payable or to become payable to the authority and, upon notification by the authority to any public officer directed or authorized by law to pay to the authority any moneys so pledged or assigned of the existence and the terms and conditions of such pledge or assignment, such public officer shall thereafter pay any such moneys otherwise payable directly to the authority in accordance with the terms of such pledge and assignment. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the authority shall have the power, for more efficient and economic management of its affairs, to establish one or more accounts from which to pay moneys and into which it may temporarily transfer moneys of the authority held in various accounts or funds for the providing of dormitories or other facilities and, subject to such use, maintained for the benefit of various bond and noteholders; provided that (a) any such account or accounts shall be under the exclusive management and control of the authority and shall be kept separate and apart from any other moneys or assets of the authority; (b) the authority shall keep a separate accounting and accurate records of the various moneys to be transferred into such account or accounts and that any moneys to be paid from any such account to meet such liabilities of the authority shall be derived from the appropriate account or fund held to meet such liability; and (c) any pledge or security interest created for the benefit of others in the moneys to be transferred into any such account shall continue to exist while such moneys are in such account until such moneys are paid by the authority for the appropriate contractual liability and, prior to such payment by the authority, such moneys so transferred shall not be subject to the claims of others who were not previously the beneficiary of any such pledge or security interest.

5. The comptroller of the state and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, sinking funds, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing.

§ 1681-a. Distribution of board materials. On or before November first, nineteen hundred ninety-five, the authority shall provide to the chair of the senate finance committee and the chair of the assembly ways and means committee, copies of all board-adopted guidelines, if any, related to the financing, underwriting and programmatic review of projects related to each program of the authority. Thereafter, all materials, including but not limited to, authority board agendas and all attachments thereto, shall be provided to the chair and ranking minority member of the senate finance committee and the chair and ranking minority member of the assembly ways and means committee at such time as those materials are provided to board members.

§ 1682. Bonds of the authority. 1. The authority shall have power as hereby authorized from time to time to issue negotiable bonds in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code. The authority shall have power from time to time to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other corporate purpose. In computing the total amount of bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, every issue of the bonds shall be general obligations payable out of any moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or revenues.

2. Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board, be in such denominations and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times not exceeding forty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates payable at such times, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Such bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine.

3. Such bonds may be issued for any corporate purposes of the authority.

4. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds may contain provisions which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds, as to

(a) pledging all or any part of the moneys or property of the authority to secure the payment of its bonds, including, but not limited to, the revenues of designated dormitories, the proceeds of any grant in aid of the authority received from any private or public source, any federally guaranteed security and moneys received therefrom whether such security is initially acquired by the authority or an educational institution, any moneys received under the terms of any lease, loan or other agreement executed pursuant to section sixteen hundred seventy-eight, section sixteen hundred eighty or sixteen hundred eighty-a of this chapter or any other revenues, state aid, local assistance payments, user charges or surcharges made available in accordance with law for such purpose;

(b) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation or disposition thereof;

(c) the purpose and limitations thereon to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied, including as authorized purposes, all costs and expenses necessary or incidental to the issuance of bonds, to the acquisition of or commitment to acquire any federally guaranteed security and to the issuance and obtaining of any federally insured mortgage note;

(d) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

(e) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(f) the creation of special funds into which any moneys of the authority may be deposited;

(g) vesting in a trustee or trustees such properties, rights, powers and duties in trust as the authority may determine which may include any or all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the bondholders pursuant to section sixteen hundred eighty-six of this chapter, and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders to appoint a trustee under such section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee;

(h) defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies of the bondholders in the event of such default, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver, providing, that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of this state and other provisions of this title;

(i) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security and protection of the bonds.

4-a. Any pledge of or other security interest in moneys, earnings, income, revenues, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge or other security interest attaches, without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act. The lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or other security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed. This subdivision shall apply notwithstanding the provisions of the uniform commercial code. Any moneys, earnings, income, revenues, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property held or received by the authority or on behalf of the authority by any lender, servicer, trustee, custodian, collection agent or institution of higher education, pursuant to any resolution, trust agreement or other agreement authorized by, or entered into in connection with, the program established pursuant to section sixteen hundred seventy nine-c of this title and pledged by the authority pursuant to a resolution, trust agreement or such other agreement for the benefit of bondholders shall constitute moneys, earnings, income, revenues, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property pledged by the authority for all purposes of this subdivision.

4-b. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds for the purpose of providing facilities for the city university pursuant to a lease, sublease or other agreement entered into by the city university construction fund and the dormitory authority on or after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-five, refunding any such bonds, or establishing or funding reserves for such bonds shall state the principal amount of bonds being issued in connection with senior college facilities and the principal amount of bonds being issued in connection with community college facilities. The proceeds of such bonds to be applied to the payment of the costs of providing senior college facilities shall be held separate and apart from the proceeds of such bonds to be applied to the payment of the costs of providing community college facilities. The proceeds to be applied to the payment of the costs of providing senior college facilities shall not be applied to the payment of the costs of providing community college facilities and the proceeds to be applied to the payment of the costs of providing community college facilities shall not be applied to the payment of the costs of providing senior college facilities.

5. Neither the members of the board nor any person executing such bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

6. The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase any bonds issued by it at a price not exceeding the redemption price thereof. All bonds so purchased shall be cancelled.

7. In the discretion of the authority the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state of New York. Such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the dormitories or of any dormitory, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and may provide that any dormitory shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers. The authority may provide by such trust indenture for the payment of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues of any dormitory or moneys received under the terms of any lease or loan executed pursuant to section sixteen hundred eighty of this chapter, as the case may be, to the trustee of such trust indenture or other depository, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. Notwithstanding the provisions of section sixteen hundred eighty-six of this chapter, if the bonds shall be secured by trust indenture the bondholders shall have no authority to appoint a separate trustee to represent them.

§ 1682-a. Financial monitoring. The authority shall periodically monitor the financial and managerial standing of each entity which has received financing from the proceeds of bonds of either the authority or the medical care facilities finance agency, for the term of such bonds.

§ 1683. State not liable on bonds. The bonds and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of New York nor shall the state be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

§ 1684. Bonds legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations, all savings banks and savings institutions, including savings and loan associations, administrators, guardians, executors, trustees, committees, conservators and other fiduciaries in the state may properly and legally invest funds in their control.

§ 1685. Exemptions from taxation. It is hereby found, determined and declared that the creation of the authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of New York, for the improvement of their education, welfare and prosperity, and is a public purpose, and that the dormitories of the authority are an essential part of the state education system, and that the authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this title, and the state of New York covenants with the holders of the bonds that the authority shall be required to pay no taxes or assessments upon any of the property acquired by it or under its jurisdiction, control, possession or supervision or upon its activities in the operation and maintenance of such dormitories or any moneys, revenues or other income received by the authority and that the bonds of the authority and the income therefrom shall at all times be exempt from taxation, except for transfer and estate taxes.

§ 1686. Remedies of bondholders. 1. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any of the bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of the bonds, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds then outstanding by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the dormitory is located and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded may appoint a trustee to represent the bondholders for the purposes herein provided;

2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of the bonds then outstanding upon any dormitory shall, in his or its own name

(a) by suit, action or special proceeding enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the authority and the board to collect rental and other revenues of any dormitory adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such rental and other revenues, and to require the authority and the board to carry out any other agreements with the bondholders and to perform its and their duties under this title;

(b) bring suit upon the bonds;

(c) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the bondholders;

(d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the bondholders;
(e) declare all bonds due and payable upon any dormitory, and if all defaults shall be made good, annul, upon the written consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of the bonds then outstanding, such declaration and its consequences.

3. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of the bondholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county in which the dormitory is located.

4. Before declaring the principal of all bonds due and payable the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the authority.

5. Any such trustee, whether or not all bonds have been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver who may enter and take possession of the dormitory or any part or parts thereof and operate and maintain the same and collect and receive all rentals and other revenues thereafter arising therefrom in the same manner as the authority itself might do and shall deposit all such moneys in a separate account and apply the same in such manner as the court shall direct. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any rentals and other revenues derived from the dormitory.

6. Such trustees shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of the bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

§ 1686-a. Security by authority. Upon an appeal taken by the authority in any action or other proceeding to which the authority is a party, the service of notice of appeal shall perfect the appeal and shall stay the execution of the judgment or order appealed from without any undertaking or other security being furnished by the authority.

§ 1687. Members and employees not to profit. No officer, member or employee of the corporation shall receive or may be lawfully entitled to receive any pecuniary profit from the operation thereof except reasonable compensation for services in effecting one or more of its purposes herein set forth.

§ 1688. Visitation by regents. The regents, or the commissioner of education, or their representatives, may visit, examine into and inspect, the authority as an institution under the educational supervision of the state, and may require, as often as desired, duly verified reports therefrom giving such information and in such form as the regents or the commissioner of education shall prescribe.

§ 1689. Board of cooperative educational services school facilities. 1. For all the purposes of this section sixteen hundred eighty-nine the term "board of cooperative educational services school facilities" shall mean any interest in real property, any building, library, laboratory, classroom, or other building or structure essential, necessary or useful in a career education or other program of any board of cooperative educational services.

2. a. The authority is hereby authorized and empowered upon application of the board of cooperative educational services concerned to construct, acquire, reconstruct, rehabilitate and improve, and furnish and equip or otherwise provide a board of cooperative educational services school facility. The board for whose students any such board of cooperative educational services school facility is intended to be provided shall approve plans and specifications and the location of such board of cooperative educational services facilities.

The authority shall have the same power and authority in respect to such board of cooperative educational services school facilities erected pursuant to this section that it has relative to dormitories.

b. The authority shall have power to acquire, in the name of the authority, on terms necessary or convenient by purchase, condemnation, gift or devise, real property, leasehold interest in real property or rights of easement in relation to the board of cooperative educational services school facilities erected pursuant to this section.

c. When authorized by the voters of the board of cooperative educational services, any board of cooperative educational services shall have power to convey to the authority real property, leasehold interest in real property or rights of easement, the title of which is vested in the board, in relation to the board of cooperative educational services school facilities to be erected pursuant to this section, and, when so authorized, any board of cooperative educational services shall have power to enter into any lease or other agreement with the authority in connection with the provision of a board of cooperative educational services school facility.

d. The authority shall have power to accept gifts of real and personal property in the name of the authority for the purposes of this section.

e. The authority may lease any such board of cooperative educational services school facilities to the board for which such board of cooperative educational services school facilities are erected. At such time as the liabilities of the authority incurred for any such board of cooperative educational services school facilities have been discharged and the bonds of the authority issued therefor have been paid or such liabilities and bonds have otherwise been discharged, the authority shall transfer title to all real and personal property of such board of cooperative educational services school facilities vested in the authority to the board to which such board of cooperative educational services school facilities are then leased, provided, however, that if at such time the board of cooperative educational services school facilities are not located in any board or any successor thereto in the state of New York, then such title shall vest in the people of the state of New York.

f. Any lease of a board of cooperative educational services school facility authorized by this section may contain provisions which shall be a part of the contract with the holder of the bonds of the authority issued for such board of cooperative educational services school facility, as to

(1) pledging all or any part of the moneys, income or revenues of the lessee or other personal property of the lessee, to secure payments required under the terms of such lease;

(2) the setting aside of reserves and the creation of special funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(3) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of such lease may be amended, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(4) vesting in a trustee or trustees such specified properties, rights, powers and duties as shall be deemed necessary or desirable for the security of the holders of the bonds of the authority issued for such board of cooperative educational services school facilities;

(5) the obligations of the lessee with respect to the replacement, reconstruction, maintenance, operations, repairs and insurance of such board of cooperative educational services school facilities;

(6) defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the lessee, and providing for the rights and remedies of the authority and of its bondholders in the event of such default;

(7) any other matters, of like or different character, which may be deemed necessary or desirable for the security or protection of the authority or the holders of its bonds.

3. Whenever the authority under the provisions of this section undertakes to construct or otherwise provide a board of cooperative educational services school facility and to lease the same to a board of cooperative educational services, such lease shall be the general obligation of the board and any successor thereto. Such lessee shall be responsible for the direct costs of operation, maintenance, repair and replacement of such board of cooperative educational services school facility, and in addition shall be responsible for the over-all supervision of each board of cooperative educational services school facility, for the overhead and general administrative costs of the lessee which are incurred because of such board of cooperative educational services school facility and for the integration of the operation of each such board of cooperative educational services school facility into the lessee's educational program.

4. All the provisions of this title four not inconsistent with the provisions of this section sixteen hundred eighty-nine shall be applicable with respect to any bonds of the authority issued to obtain funds for any purpose authorized under this section sixteen hundred eighty-nine and with respect to the powers of the authority hereunder.

5. To obtain funds for the purposes of this section, the authority shall have power from time to time to issue negotiable bonds or notes of the authority. Unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise whenever the words "bond" or "bonds" are used in this section, such words shall include a note or notes of the authority.

6. Any pledge of or other security interest in moneys, earnings, income, revenues, accounts, contract rights, general intangibles or other personal property made or created by the authority shall be valid, binding and perfected from the time when such pledge or other security interest attaches, without any physical delivery of the collateral or further act. The lien of any such pledge or other security interest shall be valid, binding and perfected as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether or not such parties have notice thereof. No instrument by which such a pledge or other security interest is created nor any financing statement need be recorded or filed. This subdivision shall apply notwithstanding the provisions of the uniform commercial code.

7. Whenever the authority undertakes under the provisions of this section to construct, acquire, reconstruct, rehabilitate and improve, and furnish and equip or otherwise provide a board of cooperative educational services school facility, each board of cooperative educational services in connection with which such board of cooperative educational services school facility is built is authorized to assign and pledge to the authority a sufficient portion of any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise to be made payable by the state of New York to the board of cooperative educational services to cover the payments required under the lease between the authority and the board of cooperative educational services. All state and local officials concerned are hereby authorized to apportion and pay all such funds so assigned and pledged to the authority. Such assignment and pledge by any board of cooperative educational services shall be irrevocable and shall continue until the date on which the liabilities of the authority and any such board of cooperative educational services school facilities have been discharged and the bonds of the authority issued therefor have been paid or such bonds have otherwise been discharged.

8. No board of cooperative educational services school facility shall be constructed or otherwise provided by the authority under the provisions of this section unless approved by the voters of the board of cooperative educational services and unless any and all necessary approvals of the commissioner of education under section four hundred eight of the education law have been obtained.

9. Any payment required to be made by a board of cooperative educational services to the authority shall be deemed an administrative or capital expense within the meaning of section nineteen hundred fifty of the education law.

10. a. The total amount payable annually to the authority by a board shall be certified by the authority to the commissioner of education and the authority shall annually prepare and certify to the commissioner of education a statement of the total amount necessary to be paid by all boards of cooperative educational services for the ensuing school year.

b. The commissioner of education shall include in the certificate which he files with the state comptroller showing the amount of state funds apportioned to the board of cooperative educational services a statement showing the amount to be owed by the board to the authority for the ensuing school year.

c. The comptroller shall deduct from any state funds to become due to any such board of cooperative educational services an amount equal to the amount required to be paid by such board to the authority as shown by the certificate of the commissioner of education filed with the comptroller as required by paragraph b of this subdivision.

d. The state of New York hereby covenants with the purchasers, holders and owners from time to time of the bonds of the authority that it will not repeal, revoke, rescind, modify or amend the provisions of this subdivision ten so as to limit, impair or impede the rights and remedies granted hereby or otherwise diminish the security pledged to such purchasers, holders and owners or significantly impair the prospect of payment of any such bond, nor shall any lien or charge on or pledge, assignment, diversion, withholding, payment or other use of or deduction from any state funds due or to become due or appropriated to or to be appropriated to or to be apportioned and paid to any board of cooperative educational services be created which is prior in time or superior in right to the deduction required by paragraph c of this subdivision; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed as requiring the state to continue the payment of the state aid or assistance to any board of cooperative educational services or as limiting or prohibiting the state from repealing or amending any law theretofore or hereafter enacted providing for the payment or apportionment of state aid to a board of cooperative educational services or the manner, time or amount thereof.

11. In the event that the amount paid to the authority pursuant to the provisions of subdivision ten of this section is insufficient to meet any payment required by the board of cooperative educational services to the authority any such amount still due and owing shall be paid directly to the authority by the board.

12. (a) After: (i) a proposition has been approved by the voters of a board of cooperative educational services for the construction or providing by the authority of a board of cooperative educational services school facility or facilities and any and all necessary approvals of the commissioner of education have been obtained, all as provided by subdivision eight of this section; (ii) an agreement and a lease have been executed by and between such board of cooperative educational services and the dormitory authority relating to the construction or otherwise providing of such board of cooperative educational services school facility or facilities, the leasing thereof by the dormitory authority to such board of cooperative educational services and the financing thereof by the dormitory authority by the issuance of its obligations; and (iii) the dormitory authority has adopted its resolution authorizing obligations of the dormitory authority for such purpose, the dormitory authority may determine to provide that the validity of such agreement, lease, resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance of obligations and the obligations authorized and issued pursuant thereto may be contested only if:

1. Such agreement, lease, resolution and the obligations to be issued pursuant to such resolution are authorized for a board of cooperative educational services school facility or facilities for which the board of cooperative educational services and the dormitory authority are not authorized to execute an agreement and a lease or for which the dormitory authority is not authorized to issue obligations, or

2. The provisions of law which should be complied with at the date of the publication of the notice hereinafter provided for, are not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the date of such publication, or

3. Such obligations are authorized in violation of the provisions of the constitution.

(b) If the dormitory authority shall determine to utilize the provisions of this subdivision, the dormitory authority shall publish or shall cause a notice to be published in the manner hereinafter provided, which notice shall be in substantially the following form:

The (here insert the name of the board of cooperative educational services) and the dormitory authority of the state of New York have entered into an agreement dated as of the ----- day of -----, 19---, and a lease dated as of the ----- day of -----, 19---, and the dormitory authority has adopted a resolution on the ----- day of -----, 19---, and the validity of such agreement, lease, resolution and the obligations issued pursuant thereto may be hereafter contested only if such agreement, lease, resolution and the obligations issued pursuant thereto were authorized for a board of cooperative educational services school facility or facilities for which such board of cooperative educational services and the dormitory authority are not authorized to enter into an agreement, lease and for which the dormitory authority is not authorized to issue such obligations or if the provisions of law which should have been complied with as of the date of publication of this notice were not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the date of publication of this notice, or such obligations were authorized in violation of the provisions of the constitution.

By such agreement and lease such board of cooperative educational services and the dormitory authority have agreed that the dormitory authority shall provide the board of cooperative educational services school facility or facilities described therein, that the dormitory authority shall lease the same to such board of cooperative educational services, which board of cooperative educational services shall pay annual rentals as agreed upon in such lease sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the obligations of the authority issued to finance such facility or facilities, the amounts required by such resolution to establish and maintain the reserve funds, if any, required by such resolution, any expenditures of the authority for insurance, fees and expenses of auditing and fees and expenses of the trustee, all as required by the resolution, all other expenditures reasonably and necessarily incurred by the authority by reason of its ownership, financing and leasing of the project and the annual administrative fee payable to the authority. Such resolution authorizes an issue of $----- obligations of the authority, which amount is equal to the sum of: (i) the estimated cost of construction and equipment of such board of cooperative educational services school facility or facilities after first deducting federal grants-in-aid to be received; (ii) the amount required by the authority, if any, to be paid to reserve funds created by the resolution of the authority authorizing the bonds; and (iii) the amounts required to make payments for legal, financing, administrative and other costs and expenses of the authority in connection with such board of cooperative educational services school facilities and the financing thereof.

Executed counterparts of such agreement and lease and a certified copy of the resolution of the dormitory authority authorizing such obligations are on file in the office of the clerk of such board of cooperative educational services at (here insert the address of the office of such clerk) and at the office of the dormitory authority (here insert the address of such office) and such documents may be inspected at either of said offices during regular business hours.

DORMITORY AUTHORITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK and (here insert the name of the board of cooperative educational services)

(c) The notice described in subparagraph (b) of this subdivision shall be published once in each of two newspapers, if there shall be two, or in one newspaper, if there shall be but one, having general circulation within the board of cooperative educational services, but if no newspaper shall then have general circulation therein, such notice shall be posted in at least twenty of the most public places in said board of cooperative educational services.

(d) After the publication of such notice, the validity of the obligations authorized thereby may be contested only if:

1. Such agreement, lease, resolution of the dormitory authority authorizing the obligations, and the obligations of the dormitory authority were authorized for a board of cooperative educational services school facility or facilities for which such board of cooperative educational services and the dormitory authority were not authorized to execute an agreement and a lease or for which the dormitory authority is not authorized to issue obligations, or

2. The provisions of law which should be complied with at the date of publication of the notice hereinabove provided for, are not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the date of such publication, or

3. Such obligations are authorized in violation of the provisions of the constitution.

(e) If an action, suit or proceeding contesting the validity of such agreement, lease, resolution authorizing the obligations or the obligations authorized thereby is commenced within twenty days from the date of publication of such notice, the court in which such action, suit or proceeding is commenced shall determine whether or not such agreement, lease, resolution and obligations were authorized for a board of cooperative educational services school facility or facilities for which the board of cooperative educational services and the dormitory authority were authorized to enter into an agreement and a lease and for which the authority was authorized to issue obligations or the provisions of law which should have been complied with were substantially complied with. The court may determine that the provisions of law which should have been complied with were substantially complied with if:

1. The aggregate amount of obligations authorized does not exceed an amount equal to the sum of; (i) the estimated cost of construction and equipment of such a board of cooperative educational services school facility or facilities after first deducting federal grants-in-aid to be received; (ii) the amount, if any, required by the authority by the resolution to be paid to reserve funds created by the resolution of the authority authorizing the obligations; and (iii) the amounts estimated by the authority to be required to make payments for legal, financing, administrative and other costs and expenses of the authority in connection with the providing of the facilities and the financing thereof.

2. Such agreement and lease were executed after a proposition authorizing the same had been submitted to and approved by a majority of the duly qualified voters of such board of cooperative educational services.

(f) Such determination of the court as described in subparagraph (e) hereof may be arrived at notwithstanding any irregularity or failure to observe a technicality in:

1. The form of such proposition approved by the duly qualified voters of such board of cooperative educational services.

2. The notice of the meeting at which such proposition was submitted.

3. The time or manner of the publication of such notice.

4. The conduct of the meeting at which such proposition was adopted.

5. Like matters in such proceedings.

(g) If the dormitory authority shall have utilized the provisions of this subdivision, the obligations of the authority issued pursuant to the resolution authorizing the same shall contain a recital substantially to the effect that the procedure for the validation of such bonds set forth in this section have been complied with and such recital shall bind the board of cooperative educational services and the dormitory authority, and twenty days after such notice shall have been published and after such obligations have been purchased in good faith and for fair value by any person, the validity of such agreement, lease, resolution and of the obligations issued pursuant to such resolution shall not be questioned by such board of cooperative educational services or by any taxpayer thereof in any court.

(h) If the dormitory authority and such board of cooperative educational services shall deem it necessary to increase the amount of obligations of the authority to be issued in connection with the construction or providing of a board of cooperative educational services school facility or facilities and shall have authorized the issuance of such additional obligations by the execution of a supplemental agreement and a supplemental lease between the dormitory authority and such board of cooperative educational services and the authority has adopted a supplemental resolution authorizing such additional obligations, the provisions of this subdivision also shall be applicable to such supplemental agreement, supplemental lease, supplemental resolution and additional obligations authorized and issued pursuant thereto.

13. No authorization given by the voters of a board of cooperative educational services prior to April first, nineteen hundred seventy-six of a lease or other agreement with the authority in connection with the provision of a board of cooperative educational services school facility shall be held invalid by reason of any irregularity or failure to observe a technicality in:

a. The form of such proposition approved by the duly qualified voters of such board of cooperative educational services,

b. The notice of the meeting at which such proposition was submitted,

c. The time or manner of the publication of such notice, d. The conduct of the meeting at which such proposition was adopted,

e. Like matters in such proceedings, in any action or proceeding commenced more than two years after the date of approval by such voters of the proposition authorizing such lease or other agreement. The foregoing limitation shall not be construed as extending any limitation period otherwise provided by law or authorizing any action or proceeding.

§ 1689-a. Public school districts; authority financing of eligible school construction projects; rebuilding schools to uphold education (RESCUE). 1. The dormitory authority is authorized to finance eligible school construction projects for those public school districts which are approved by the commissioner of education to receive aid apportionment for rebuilding schools to uphold education (RESCUE) pursuant to subdivision ten of section thirty-six hundred forty-one of the education law.

2. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, and subject to the making of annual appropriations therefor by the legislature, in order to assist the dormitory authority in the financing and refinancing of such eligible school construction projects, the director of the budget is authorized in any state fiscal year commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-nine through and inclusive of the state fiscal year commencing April first, two thousand five to enter into one or more service contracts, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, with the dormitory authority, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree;

(b) Any service contract entered into pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the dormitory authority as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations;

(c) Any such service contract shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision in the event the dormitory authority assigns or pledges the service contract payments as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations and shall be deemed executory only to the extent moneys are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for the purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriation by the legislature;

(d) Any service contract or contracts entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the dormitory authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund the principal, interest, or other related expenses required for any bonds, notes, or other obligations.

3. (a) The commissioner of education shall certify, from time to time, to the dormitory authority, the comptroller, the director of the division of the budget, the chairman of the senate finance committee and the chairman of the assembly ways and means committee each school district for which he has approved an aid apportionment for authority financing of an eligible school construction project pursuant to subdivision ten of section thirty-six hundred forty-one of the education law. Such certification, which shall be made within thirty days after such approval or as soon thereafter as is practicable, shall identify the amount of aid apportionment which has been approved for such school district and shall estimate the date or dates when such project will be undertaken to assist the authority in establishing a schedule for financing such project. The commissioner shall notify the authority if there is a change in such date.

(b) On or before November fifteenth of each year and again on or after February fifteenth of each year, the dormitory authority shall submit, and thereafter may resubmit, to the director of the budget, the state comptroller, the commissioner of education, the chairman of the senate finance committee and the chairman of the assembly ways and means committee a report setting forth the amounts, if any, of all annual payments estimated to be appropriated to the dormitory authority pursuant to such service contracts between the dormitory authority and the director of the division of the budget pursuant to this section. An eligible school construction project shall not be financed pursuant to this section prior to the state fiscal year commencing April first, nineteen hundred ninety-nine, provided that application for approval of any such project by the commissioner of education may be processed prior to such date.

4. (a) To obtain funds for the purposes of this section, the authority shall have power from time to time, in accordance with a schedule certified to the authority by the commissioner of education identifying eligible school construction projects approved for the payment of aid apportionments pursuant to subdivision ten of section thirty-six hundred forty-one of the education law, to issue negotiable bonds or notes of the authority. Unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise, whenever the words "bond" or "bonds" are used in this section, such words shall include a note or notes of the authority.

(b) The dormitory authority shall not issue any bonds or notes in an amount in excess of one hundred ninety-five million dollars for the purposes of this section, excluding a principal amount of bonds or notes issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay for the costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds, and bonds or notes previously issued. Except for the purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds or notes.

In computing for the purposes of this paragraph, the aggregate amount of indebtedness evidenced by bonds and notes of the dormitory authority issued pursuant to this section, there shall be excluded the amount of such indebtedness represented by such bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds or notes, provided that the amount so excluded under this clause may exceed the principal amount of such bonds or notes that were issued to refund or otherwise repay only if the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes shall not have at the time of their issuance exceeded the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds or notes they were issued to refund or repay, such present value in each case being calculated by using the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes from the payment date thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes and to the price bid therefor, or to the proceeds received by the dormitory authority from the sale thereof, in each case including estimated accrued interest.

5. The state of New York hereby covenants with the purchasers, holders and owners from time to time of the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section that it will not repeal, revoke, rescind, modify or amend the provisions of this section which relate to the making of annual service contract payments to the authority with respect to such bonds as to limit, impair or impede the rights and remedies granted to bondholders under this title or otherwise diminish the security pledged to such purchasers, holders and owners or significantly impair the prospect of payment of any such bond.

§ 1689-b. Sale of bonds by the authority. 1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to section one thousand six hundred eighty-nine-a of this article shall be sold to the bidder offering the lowest true interest cost, taking into consideration any premium or discount not less than four nor more than fifteen days, Sundays excepted, after a notice of such sale has been published at least once in a definitive trade publication of the municipal bond industry, which shall state the terms of the sale. The terms of the sale may not change unless notice of such change is sent via a definitive trade wire service of the municipal bond industry which, in general, make available information regarding activity and sales of municipal bonds. Advertisements shall contain a provision to the effect that the authority, in its discretion, may reject any or all bids made in pursuance of such advertisements, and in the event of such rejection, the authority is authorized to negotiate a private or public sale or readvertise for bids in the form and manner above described as many times as, in its judgment, may be necessary to effect a satisfactory sale.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, whenever in the judgment of the authority the interests of the authority will be served thereby, the members of the authority, on the written recommendation of the executive director, may authorize the sale of such bonds at private or public sale on a negotiated basis or on either a competitive or negotiated basis. The authority shall set guidelines governing the terms and conditions of any such private or public sales.

2. The authority shall annually prepare and approve a bond sale report which shall identify results of any sale of bonds pursuant to this section conducted during the fiscal year. Such bond sale report may be a part of any other annual report that the authority is required to make.

3. The authority shall annually submit such bond sale report to the comptroller and copies thereof to the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee and the director of the budget.

§ 1689-c. Capital facility program, authority financing of eligible projects. 1. The authority is authorized to finance eligible capital facility program projects pursuant to the Jobs two thousand for New York State (J2K) Act.

2. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, and subject to the making of annual appropriations therefor by the legislature, in order to assist the authority in the financing and refinancing of such eligible capital facility program projects, the director of the budget is authorized to enter into one or more service contracts, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, with the authority, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree;

(b) Any service contract entered into pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the authority as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations;

(c) Any such service contract shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision in the event the authority assigns or pledges the service contract payments as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations and shall be deemed executory only to the extent moneys are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for the purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriation by the legislature;

(d) Any service contract or contracts entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund the principal, interest, or other related expenses required for any such bonds, notes, or other obligations.

(e) On or before November fifteenth of each year and again on or after February fifteenth of each year, the authority shall submit, and thereafter may resubmit, to the director of the budget, the state comptroller, the executive director of the New York state office of science, technology and academic research, the chair of the senate finance committee and the chair of the assembly ways and means committee a report setting forth the amounts, if any, of all annual payments estimated to be appropriated to the authority pursuant to such service contracts between the authority and the director of the division of the budget pursuant to this subdivision.

3. (a) To obtain funds for the purposes of this subdivision, the authority shall have power from time to time, in accordance with a schedule certified to the authority by the executive director of the New York state office of science, technology and academic research identifying eligible capital facility program projects approved for payment pursuant to the Jobs two thousand for New York State (J2K) Act, to issue negotiable bonds or notes of the authority. Unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise, whenever the words "bond" or "bonds" are used in this section, such words shall include a note or notes of the authority.

(b) The authority shall not issue any bonds or notes in an amount in excess of forty-seven million five hundred thousand dollars for the purposes of this subdivision, excluding a principal amount of bonds or notes issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay for the costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds, and bonds or notes previously issued. Except for the purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds or notes.

In computing for the purposes of this subdivision, the aggregate amount of indebtedness evidenced by bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this subdivision, there shall be excluded the amount of such indebtedness represented by such bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds or notes, provided that the amount so excluded under this paragraph may exceed the principal amount of such bonds or notes that were issued to refund or otherwise repay only if the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes shall not have at the time of their issuance exceeded the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds or notes they were issued to refund or repay, such present value in each case being calculated by using the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes from the payment date thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes and to the price bid therefor, or to the proceeds received by the dormitory authority from the sale thereof, in each case including estimated accrued interest.

§ 1689-d. Bidding requirements. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to section one thousand six hundred eighty-nine-c of this title shall be sold to the bidder offering the lowest true interest cost, taking into consideration any premium or discount not less than four nor more than fifteen days, Sundays excepted, after a notice of such sale has been published at least once in a definitive trade publication of the municipal bond industry, which shall state the terms of the sale. The terms of the sale may not change unless notice of such change is sent via a definitive trade wire service of the municipal bond industry which, in general, make available information regarding activity and sales of municipal bonds. Advertisements shall contain a provision to the effect that the authority, in its discretion, may reject any or all bids made in pursuance of such advertisements, and in the event of such rejection, the dormitory authority is authorized to negotiate a private or public sale or readvertise for bids in the form and manner above described as many times as, in its judgment, may be necessary to effect a satisfactory sale.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, whenever in the judgment of the authority the interests of the authority will be served thereby, the authority may authorize the sale of such bonds at private or public sale on a negotiated basis or on either a competitive or negotiated basis. The authority shall set guidelines governing the terms and conditions of any such private or public sales.

§ 1689-e. Biomedical facilities program, authority financing of eligible projects. 1. The authority is authorized to finance eligible biomedical facilities program projects pursuant to an appropriation contained in a chapter of the laws of 2000 to the New York state office of science, technology and academic research.

2. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, and subject to the making of annual appropriations therefor by the legislature, in order to assist the authority in the financing and refinancing of such eligible biomedical facilities program projects, the director of the budget is authorized to enter into one or more service contracts, none of which shall exceed twenty years in duration, with the authority, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree;

(b) Any service contract entered into pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the authority as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations;

(c) Any such service contract shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision in the event the authority assigns or pledges the service contract payments as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations and shall be deemed executory only to the extent moneys are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for the purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriation by the legislature;

(d) Any service contract or contracts entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund the principal, interest, or other related expenses required for any such bonds, notes, or other obligations.

3. (a) To obtain funds for the purposes of this subdivision, the authority shall have power from time to time, in accordance with a schedule certified to the authority by the executive director of the New York state office of science, technology and academic research identifying eligible biomedical facilities program projects approved for payment pursuant to a biomedical facilities program appropriation to the New York state office of science, technology and academic research, to issue negotiable bonds or notes of the authority. Unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise, whenever the words "bond" or "bonds" are used in this section, such words shall include a note or notes of the authority.

(b) The authority shall not issue any bonds or notes in an amount in excess of ten million dollars for the purposes of this subdivision, excluding a principal amount of bonds or notes issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay for the costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds, and bonds or notes previously issued. Except for the purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds or notes.

In computing for the purposes of this subdivision, the aggregate amount of indebtedness evidenced by bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this subdivision, there shall be excluded the amount of such indebtedness represented by such bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds or notes, provided that the amount so excluded under this paragraph may exceed the principal amount of such bonds or notes that were issued to refund or otherwise repay only if the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes shall not have at the time of their issuance exceeded the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds or notes they were issued to refund or repay, such present value in each case being calculated by using the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes from the payment date thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes and to the price bid therefor, or to the proceeds received by the dormitory authority from the sale thereof, in each case including estimated accrued interest.

§ 1689-f. Public school districts; dormitory authority financing of payments made or to be made by the state on account of certain approved expenditures for capital outlays.

1. (a) "Eligible school district projects" shall mean capital projects eligible for a capital outlay transition grant aid apportionment pursuant to subdivision twelve of section thirty-six hundred forty-one of the education law for which payments are made, as reimbursement of approved expenditures, from a school district's general fund, capital fund, or reserved funds for capital outlays as defined in subdivision six of section thirty-six hundred two of the education law, that are incurred by the school district on or after July first, two thousand one and on or before June thirtieth, two thousand two, and are not otherwise reimbursable in the two thousand two--two thousand three school year pursuant to subdivision six of section thirty-six hundred two of the education law.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, for purposes of this section, the term "school district" shall mean a common school district, a consolidated school district, a union free school district, a central school district, a central high school district, or a city school district.

2. (a) Subject to chapter fifty-nine of the laws of two thousand, but notwithstanding any other provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, and subject to the making of annual appropriations therefor by the legislature, the dormitory authority is authorized to enter into one or more service contracts, none of which shall exceed ten years in duration, with the director of the budget, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree, for the purpose of financing eligible school district projects.

(b) Any service contract entered into pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the dormitory authority as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations; and may contain such other items and conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, including, but not limited to, the establishment of reserve funds and indemnities.

(c) Any such service contract shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision and shall be deemed executory only to the extent moneys are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for the purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriation by the legislature;

(d) Any service contract or contracts entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the dormitory authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund the principal, interest, or related expenses required for any bonds, notes, or other obligations, including bonds issued to fund any required debt service reserve fund for bonds, of the dormitory authority issued pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision four of this section.

3. (a) The commissioner of education shall certify, by September thirtieth, two thousand two, to the dormitory authority, and the director of the budget, each school district for which he has approved a capital outlay transition grant pursuant to subdivision twelve of section thirty-six hundred forty-one of the education law for an eligible school district project as reimbursement of approved expenditures for capital outlays in lieu of aid previously payable pursuant to subdivision six of section thirty-six hundred two of the education law, (1) a description of the eligible school district projects for which such aid is granted for each school district, including the cost of each project, and such other information regarding the expenditures for capital outlays requested by the dormitory authority as is necessary for the issuance of bonds, notes, or other obligations, pursuant to this section and (2) the amount of that grant.

(b) On or before October first of each year, the dormitory authority shall submit, and thereafter may resubmit, to the director of the budget a report setting forth the amounts, if any, of all annual payments required in the next state fiscal year and for the four state fiscal years following such fiscal year estimated to be appropriated to the dormitory authority pursuant to such service contract agreements between the dormitory authority and the director of the budget pursuant to this section. Such report may be incorporated into other reports required to be given by the dormitory authority to the director of the budget on or before those dates.

4. (a) To obtain funds for the purposes of this section, the authority shall have power from time to time to issue negotiable bonds or notes of the authority. Unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise, whenever the words "bond" or "bonds" are used in this section, such words shall include a note or notes of the authority. All the provisions of this title not inconsistent with the provisions of this section shall be applicable with respect to any bonds of the authority issued to obtain funds for the purposes authorized under this section.

(b) The dormitory authority shall not issue any bonds or notes in an amount in excess of one hundred forty million dollars for the purposes of this section, plus a principal amount of bonds or notes:

(1) to fund any debt service reserve fund, and

(2) to provide for the payment of fees and other charges and expenses, including underwriters' discount, related to the issuance of such bonds or notes, or related to the provision of any applicable bond or note facilities.

In computing for the purposes of this paragraph, the aggregate amount of indebtedness evidenced by bonds and notes of the dormitory authority issued pursuant to this title, there shall be excluded the amount of such indebtedness represented by such bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds or notes, provided that the amount so excluded under the clause may exceed the principal amount of such bonds or notes that were issued to refund or otherwise repay only if the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes shall not have at the time of their issuance exceeded the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds or notes they were issued to refund or repay, such present value in each case being calculated by using the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes from the payment date thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes from the payment date thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes and to the price bid therefor, or to the proceeds received by the dormitory authority from the sale thereof, in each case including estimated accrued interest.

5. The state hereby covenants with the purchasers, holders and owners from time to time of the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section that it will not repeal, revoke, rescind, modify or amend the provisions of this section which relate to the making of annual service contract payments to the authority with respect to such bonds as to limit, impair or impede the rights and remedies granted to bondholders under this title or otherwise diminish the security pledged to such purchasers, holders and owners or significantly impair the prospect of payment of any such bond.

§ 1689-g. Local government infrastructure; authority financing of eligible wireless 911 capital equipment. 1. Definition. For the purposes of this section "eligible wireless 911 capital equipment" shall include, but not be limited to, radio equipment, computer equipment, dispatch equipment, including consoles and monitors, telecommunications switches and any other equipment necessary and attendant to a 911 wireless telecommunications system.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the authority is hereby authorized to issue bonds, notes or other obligations in one or more series including bonds, notes or other obligations issued to finance one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay the cost of issuance of such bonds, notes or other obligations, and bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds, notes or other obligations previously issued, for the purpose of financing the costs of eligible wireless 911 capital equipment for any political subdivisions eligible to receive aid pursuant to a chapter of the laws of two thousand two. Such bonds, notes or other obligations issued by the authority shall not be a debt of the state or the political subdivision, and the state and the political subdivision shall not be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those made available by an eligible political subdivision subject to annual appropriation by the political subdivision as provided in subdivision three of this section or state aid pledged and assigned by a political subdivision to the authority for debt service payments and related expenses pursuant to any financing agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision three of this section.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in order to assist the authority in undertaking the administration and financing of wireless 911 capital equipment authorized pursuant to subdivision two of this section, an eligible political subdivision is hereby authorized to enter into one or more financing agreements with the authority none of which shall exceed ten years in duration, upon such terms and conditions as the authority and an eligible political subdivision agree, so as to annually provide to the authority, in the aggregate, a sum not to exceed the annual debt service payments and related expenses required for the bonds, notes or other obligations issued pursuant to this section. Any financing agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall not constitute debt of an eligible political subdivision within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provisions and shall be deemed executory only to the extent of moneys available for such purposes, subject to annual appropriations of the eligible political subdivision. Any such financing agreement or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned or pledged by the authority as security for its bonds, notes or other obligations authorized by this section. The provisions of section one hundred nine-b of the general municipal law shall not be applicable to any financing agreement entered into between an eligible political subdivision and the authority for the issuance of any bonds, notes, or other obligations for any eligible 911 wireless capital equipment which may be financed pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any political subdivision entering into an agreement with the authority shall be subject to the provisions of subdivision five and paragraph (c) of subdivision 6 of section one hundred nine-b of the general municipal law.

4. Whenever the authority enters into a financing agreement with an eligible political subdivision, each eligible political subdivision is hereby authorized, in connection with the financing agreement, to assign and pledge to the authority, a sufficient portion of any and all public funds to be apportioned or otherwise to be made payable to the eligible political subdivision by the state of New York, for payments required under the financing agreement between the eligible political subdivision and the authority.

5. All local and state officers are hereby authorized and required to pay all funds so assigned and pledged pursuant to subdivisions three and four of this section to the authority or, upon the direction of the authority, to any trustee of any authority bond, note or other obligation issued pursuant to a certificate filed by the authority pursuant to the provisions of this section.

6. The authority shall submit annually to the governor, and the chairs of the assembly ways and means and senate finance committees a report which shall include but not be limited to, detailed information on the financing activity pursuant to this section, and a detailed summary of the financing agreements entered into with any political subdivision.

§ 1689-h. Expedited deployment funding. The authority is hereby authorized to finance eligible costs associated with expedited deployment funding in accordance with the provisions of section three hundred thirty-three of the county law.

1. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, and subject to appropriations by the legislature, in order to assist the authority in the financing and refinancing of such eligible costs, the director of the budget is authorized to enter into one or more service contracts, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, with the authority, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the authority agree;

(b) Any service contract entered into pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the authority as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations;

(c) Any such service contract shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision in the event the authority assigns or pledges the service contract payments as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations and shall be deemed executory only to the extent moneys are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for the purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriation by the legislature;

(d) Any service contract or contracts entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund the principal, interest, or other related expenses required for any such bonds, notes, or other obligations.

2. The department of state shall, from any appropriations made available for this purpose, offer expedited deployment funding grants pursuant to section three hundred thirty-three of the county law. Financing for such grants authorized pursuant to this section shall only be made upon the determination by the authority, in consultation with and upon recommendation of the 911 board, that such grants will result in the expedited deployment of enhanced wireless 911 service.

3. To obtain funds for the purposes of this subdivision, the authority is hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes in an amount not to exceed one hundred million dollars excluding bonds issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds or notes previously issued, for payment of the costs of expedited deployment funding in accordance with the provisions of section three hundred thirty-three of the county law.

4. In computing, for the purposes of this subdivision, the aggregate amount of indebtedness evidenced by bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this subdivision, there shall be excluded the amount of such indebtedness represented by such bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds or notes, provided that the amount so excluded under this subdivision may exceed the principal amount of such bonds or notes that were issued to refund or otherwise repay only if the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes shall not have at the time of their issuance exceeded the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds or notes they were issued to refund or repay, such present value in each case being calculated by using the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes from the payment date thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes and to the price bid therefor, or to the proceeds received by the authority from the sale thereof, in each case including estimated accrued interest.

 § 1689-i. Library construction. 1. The dormitory authority is authorized to issue bonds, at the request of the commissioner of education, to finance eligible library construction projects pursuant to section two hundred seventy-three-a of the education law, in amounts certified by such commissioner not to exceed a total principal amount of four hundred ninety-nine million dollars $499,000,000.

2. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, and subject to the making of annual appropriations therefor by the legislature, in order to assist the dormitory authority in the financing and refinancing of such eligible library construction projects, the director of the budget is authorized in state fiscal year commencing April first, two thousand six to enter into one or more service contracts, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, with the dormitory authority, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree;

(b) Any service contract entered into pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the dormitory authority as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations;

(c) Any such service contract shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision in the event the dormitory authority assigns or pledges the service contract payments as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations and shall be deemed executory only to the extent moneys are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for the purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriation by the legislature;

(d) Any service contract or contracts entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the dormitory authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund the principal, interest, or other related expenses required for any bonds, notes, or other obligations.

3. The commissioner of education shall issue one or more certifications to the dormitory authority, the comptroller, the director of the division of the budget, the chairman of the senate finance committee and the chairman of the assembly ways and means committee the names of all public libraries and library systems for which he has approved construction aid apportionments for authority financing of library construction projects pursuant to section two hundred seventy-three-a of the education law. Such certification, which shall be made within thirty days after such approval or as soon thereafter as is practicable, shall contain one or more projects such that the total of amounts to be financed shall be in excess of minimum amounts of bonds, in accordance with guidelines of the dormitory authority, which may be issued so as to minimize the issuing costs of such bonds, and shall identify the amount of aid apportionment which has been approved for each such public library and library system and shall estimate the date or dates when such project will be undertaken to assist the authority in establishing a schedule for financing such project. The commissioner shall notify the authority if there is a change in such dates.

4. To obtain funds for the purposes of this section, the authority shall have power from time to time, in accordance with a schedule certified to the authority by the commissioner of education identifying eligible library construction projects approved for the payment of aid apportionments pursuant to section two hundred seventy-three-a of the education law, to issue negotiable bonds or notes of the authority. Unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise, whenever the words "bond" or "bonds" are used in this section, such words shall include a note or notes of the authority.

5. The state of New York hereby covenants with the purchasers, holders and owners from time to time of the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section that it will not repeal, revoke, rescind, modify or amend the provisions of this section which relate to the making of annual service contract payments to the authority with respect to such bonds as to limit, impair or impede the rights and remedies granted to bondholders under this title or otherwise diminish the security pledged to such purchasers, holders and owners or significantly impair the prospect of payment of any such bond.

* NB There are 2 § 1689-i's

 § 1689-i. Public school districts; authority financing of projects under the expanding our children's education and learning (EXCEL) program. 1. The dormitory authority is authorized to finance EXCEL projects for those school districts which are eligible to receive an apportionment for expanding our children's education and learning (EXCEL) pursuant to subdivision fourteen of section thirty-six hundred forty-one of the education law.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, and subject to the making of annual appropriations therefor by the legislature, in order to assist the dormitory authority in the financing of such EXCEL projects, the director of the budget is authorized in any state fiscal year commencing April first, two thousand six and thereafter to enter into one or more service contracts, none of which shall exceed thirty years in duration, with the dormitory authority, upon such terms as the director of the budget and the dormitory authority agree.

3. Any service contract entered into pursuant to this section or any payments made or to be made thereunder may be assigned and pledged by the dormitory authority as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations.

4. Any such service contract shall provide that the obligation of the director of the budget or of the state to fund or to pay the amounts therein provided for shall not constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision in the event the dormitory authority assigns or pledges the service contract payments as security for its bonds, notes, or other obligations and shall be deemed executory only to the extent moneys are available and that no liability shall be incurred by the state beyond the moneys available for the purpose, and that such obligation is subject to annual appropriation by the legislature.

5. Any service contract or contracts entered into pursuant to this section shall provide for state commitments to provide annually to the dormitory authority a sum or sums, upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the director of the budget, to fund the principal, interest, or other related expenses required for any bonds, notes, or other obligations.

6. The commissioner of education shall certify, from time to time, to the dormitory authority, the comptroller, the director of the division of the budget, the chair of the senate finance committee and the chair of the assembly ways and means committee each school district for which he or she has determined an aid apportionment for authority financing of an EXCEL project pursuant to subdivision fourteen of section thirty-six hundred forty-one of the education law. Such certification, which shall be made within thirty days after such determination or as soon thereafter as is practicable, shall identify the amount of aid apportionment which has been approved for such school district and shall estimate the date or dates when such project will be undertaken.

7. On or before November fifteenth of each year and again on or after February fifteenth of each year, the dormitory authority shall submit, and thereafter may resubmit, to the director of the division of the budget, the state comptroller, the commissioner of education, the chair of the senate finance committee and the chair of the assembly ways and means committee a report setting forth the estimated amounts, if any, of all annual payments required to be appropriated to the dormitory authority pursuant to such service contracts between the dormitory authority and the director of the division of the budget pursuant to this section.

8. To obtain funds for the purposes of this section, the authority shall have power from time to time, to issue negotiable bonds or notes of the authority. Unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise, whenever the words "bond" or "bonds" are used in this section, such words shall include a note or notes of the authority.

9. The dormitory authority shall not issue any bonds or notes in an amount in excess of two billion six hundred million dollars for the purposes of this section, excluding a principal amount of bonds or notes issued to fund one or more debt service reserve funds, to pay for the costs of issuance of such bonds, and bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay such bonds, and bonds or notes previously issued. Except for the purposes of complying with the internal revenue code, any interest income earned on bond proceeds shall only be used to pay debt service on such bonds or notes.

10. In computing for the purposes of this subdivision, the aggregate amount of indebtedness evidenced by bonds and notes of the dormitory authority issued pursuant to this section, there shall be excluded the amount of such indebtedness represented by such bonds or notes issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds or notes, provided that the amount so excluded under this clause may exceed the principal amount of such bonds or notes that were issued to refund or otherwise repay only if the present value of the aggregate debt service on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes shall not have at the time of their issuance exceeded the present value of the aggregate debt service of the bonds or notes they were issued to refund or repay, such present value in each case being calculated by using the effective interest rate of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes, which shall be that rate arrived at by doubling the semi-annual interest rate (compounded semi-annually) necessary to discount the debt service payments on the refunding or repayment bonds or notes from the payment date thereof to the date of issue of the refunding or repayment bonds or notes and to the price bid therefor, or to the proceeds received by the dormitory authority from the sale thereof, in each case including estimated accrued interest.

11. The state of New York hereby covenants with the purchasers, holders and owners from time to time of the bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this section that it will not repeal, revoke, rescind, modify or amend the provisions of this section which relate to the making of annual service contract payments to the authority with respect to such bonds as to limit, impair or impede the rights and remedies granted to bondholders under this title or otherwise diminish the security pledged to such purchasers, holders and owners or significantly impair the prospect of payment of any such bond.

* NB Repealed December 31, 2029

* NB There are 2 § 1689-i's

§ 1690. Contract of the state. The state of New York does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, reconstruct, equip and operate dormitories and facilities, to establish and collect rentals and other charges referred to in this title and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders of such obligations until the bonds, together with interest thereon, interest on any unpaid installments on interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders are fully met and discharged.

§ 1691. Actions against authority. 1. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority for personal injury or property damage or founded on tort shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall be served on an officer or employee of the authority designated by the authority for such purpose, within the time limited by, and in compliance with the requirements of, section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

2. Neither any member of the authority nor any officer, employee, or agent of the authority, while acting within the scope of their authority, shall be subject to any personal liability resulting from the exercise or carrying out of any of the authority's purposes or powers.

§ 1693. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any section, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective it shall be valid and effective and no other section, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1694. Termination of authority. 1. The authority shall continue to operate and manage each such dormitory until such time as its liabilities thereon have been met and the bonds outstanding against such dormitory have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise been discharged. Thereupon, the jurisdiction of the authority over such dormitory shall cease and all the real and personal property and the title to all of the real and personal property of such dormitory vested in the authority shall pass to the state of New York and the management and authority shall thereafter be under rules and regulations of the commissioner of education approved by the regents.

2. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds, notes and other obligations outstanding, unless adequate provision has been made for the payment thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of its rights and properties shall pass to and be vested in the state.

* TITLE 4-A

SMALL BUSINESS CONCERNS SET-ASIDE PURCHASES AND CONTRACTS FOR PROPERTY AND SERVICES AT THE HOSTOS COMMUNITY COLLEGE

* NB There are 2 A8 T4-A's

 § 1695. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context requires otherwise:

a. "Chairman" means the chairman of the dormitory authority.

b. "Minority business concern" means a socially and economically disadvantaged applicant concern which is owned or controlled by one or more persons who have been deprived of the opportunity to develop and maintain a competitive position in the economy because of social or economic disadvantages. Such disadvantages may arise from cultural, social or economic circumstances. Such persons include, but are not limited to, Black Americans, American Indians, Spanish-Americans, Oriental-Americans, Eskimos, Aleuts and servicemen in the armed forces during the Vietnam era.

c. "Small business" means a business which is independently owned and operated, and which is not dominant in the field of operation. The authority shall establish a detailed definition by rule, using in addition to the foregoing criteria, other criteria, including the number of employees and the dollar volume of business. When computing the size status of a bidder, annual sales and receipts of the bidder and all of its affiliates shall be included. The maximum number of employees and the maximum dollar volume which a small business may have under the rules promulgated by the authority shall vary from industry to industry to the extent necessary to reflect differing characteristics of such industries based on the criteria used by the federal Small Business Administration for loans to small businesses as set forth in Section 121.3-10 and Schedules A, C and D (or for awarding government procurements as set forth in Section 121.3-S and Schedule B) of Part 121 of Chapter I of Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as amended, subject to the following general limitations unless the above regulations provide for other size or annual receipts standards for any industry or subindustry;

(1) No wholesale business is a small business if its annual sales for its most recently completed fiscal year, nor is a construction business if its average annual receipts for the preceding three fiscal years, exceed five million dollars.

(2) No retail business or business selling services is a small business if its annual sales and receipts exceed one million dollars.

(3) No manufacturing business is a small business if it employs more than two hundred fifty persons.

d. "Small business set-aside" means a purchase request for which bids are to be invited and accepted only from small businesses by the chairman.

* NB There are 2 § 1695's

 § 1696. Designation of small business set-asides at the Hostos Community College. The chairman has authority to designate as small business set-asides specified commodities, equipment or services or contracts for construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of college facilities for which purchase or work contract have been requested by the board of trustees of either the Bronx Community College or the Hostos Community College under the provisions of this title. The designation shall be made prior to the advertisement for bids as provided by law, and when the advertisement is published it shall indicate the purchases which have been designated small business set-asides. To effectuate the purposes of this title, the chairman may exercise this authority whenever there is a reasonable expectation that bids will be obtained from at least three small businesses capable of furnishing the desired property or service at a fair and reasonable price.

In the case of purchases or work contracts designated as small business set-asides, invitations to bid shall be confined to small businesses and bids from other businesses shall be rejected. The purchase, contract or expenditure of funds shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder among the small businesses (considering conformity with specifications and terms) in accordance with the rules and regulations for purchasing published by the authority.

It is hereby declared that a portion of small business set-asides, shall be set aside in turn as exclusively as possible, to small businesses owned or controlled by minority entrepreneurs as previously defined, and that such aforementioned businesses, shall constitute not less than twenty-five percent of the successful bidders under this title. Other contracts and business that in the opinion of the chairman can be judged to be substantially beneficial to socially or economically disadvantaged individuals may also be excluded from the general provisions and procedures applicable to the larger set-aside contracts.

Minority business concerns eligible hereunder shall be excluded from stipulated limitations of sales volume, number of employees and other factors defined in this title.

Offers must be advertised in the locality where a contract is to be effectuated. In locations where twenty-five percent or more of the population is non-English-speaking, notices shall be published in appropriate translated form. The procurement officer shall cooperate with county-wide business development organizations servicing minority communities in the formulation and maintenance of lists of qualified contractors, and shall notify such contractors of opportunities to submit bids for set-aside contracts. Minority bidders will be notified of reasons why their bids were unsuccessful. That each minority small business concern which bids is notified of reasons for failure to secure a successful bid, and that where responsibility as defined by the procurement officer or officers, agent or agents is a factor, such responsibility will be defined, and such reasons for determination of lack of responsibility will be provided the minority small business bidders.

Bonding requirements shall be negotiable for minority bidders.
* NB There are 2 § 1696's

 § 1697. Withdrawal of designation of small business set-asides. If the total number of small businesses responding to the invitation to bid and considered capable of meeting the specifications and terms of the invitation to bid is less than three, or if the chairman determines that acceptance of the best bid will result in the payment of an unreasonable price, the chairman shall reject all bids and withdraw the designation of small business set-aside.

If the chairman withdraws the designation of small business set-aside it shall notify the bidders of the reason why the bids were rejected. Invitations to bid containing the same or rewritten specifications and terms shall then be re-issued as otherwise so provided under this title, without the designation of small business set-aside.

* NB There are 2 § 1697's

 § 1698. Submission of purchase order or work contract to successful bidder. After the successful bidder has been determined, the chairman shall place an advertisement as provided by law indicating that all bids submitted on a small business set-aside have been opened and reporting the name and address of the successful bidder. The chairman shall send a purchase order or work contract to the successful bidder no sooner than fourteen days after the appearance of the advertisement announcing the successful bidder.

* NB There are 2 § 1698's

 § 1699. Designation of contract negotiator for small business set-asides. The chairman shall designate an experienced contract negotiator to serve as its small business procurement specialist whose duties shall include:

a. Compiling and maintaining a comprehensive bidders' list of small businesses. In this duty, he shall cooperate with the federal Small Business Administration in locating potential sources for various products and services.

b. Assisting small businesses in complying with the procedures for bidding on authority contracts at such educational institutions.

c. Examining requests from the board of trustees of the Hostos Community College for the purchase of property or services or for construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of college facilities to help determine which invitations to bid are to be designated small business set-asides.

d. Making recommendations to the chairman for the simplification of procurement specifications and terms in order to increase the opportunities for small business participation.

e. Assisting in investigations by the chairman to determine the responsibility of bidders on small business set-asides.

* NB There are 2 § 1699's

 § 1699-a. Legislative report. The chairman shall annually before December first, report in writing to the legislature concerning the awarding of contracts, for specified commodities, equipment or services or for the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of college facilities at the Hostos Community College to small businesses and minority businesses. The report shall include the total value of awards made in the preceding fiscal year under the designation of small business set-aside.

* NB There are 2 § 1699-a's

* TITLE 4-A

SMALL BUSINESS CONCERNS SET-ASIDE PURCHASES AND CONTRACTS FOR PROPERTY AND SERVICES AT THE BRONX COMMUNITY COLLEGE

* NB There are 2 A8 T4-A's

 § 1695. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context requires otherwise:

a. "Chairman" means the chairman of the dormitory authority.

b. "Minority business concern" means a socially and economically disadvantaged applicant concern which is owned or controlled by one or more persons who have been deprived of the opportunity to develop and maintain a competitive position in the economy because of social or economic disadvantages. Such disadvantages may arise from cultural, social or economic circumstances. Such persons include, but are not limited to, Black Americans, American Indians, Spanish-Americans, Oriental-Americans, Eskimos, Aleuts and servicemen in the armed forces during the Vietnam era.

c. "Small business" means a business which is independently owned and operated, and which is not dominant in the field of operation. The authority shall establish a detailed definition by rule, using in addition to the foregoing criteria, other criteria, including the number of employees and the dollar volume of business. When computing the size status of a bidder, annual sales and receipts of the bidder and all of its affiliates shall be included. The maximum number of employees and the maximum dollar volume which a small business may have under the rules promulgated by the authority shall vary from industry to industry to the extent necessary to reflect differing characteristics of such industries based on the criteria used by the federal Small Business Administration for loans to small businesses as set forth in Section 121.3-10 and Schedules A, C and D (or for awarding government procurements as set forth in Section 121.3-S and Schedule B) of Part 121 of Chapter I of Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as amended, subject to the following general limitations unless the above regulations provide for other size or annual receipts standards for any industry or subindustry;

(1) No wholesale business is a small business if its annual sales for its most recently completed fiscal year, nor is a construction business if its average annual receipts for the preceding three fiscal years, exceed five million dollars.

(2) No retail business or business selling services is a small business if its annual sales and receipts exceed one million dollars.

(3) No manufacturing business is a small business if it employs more than two hundred fifty persons.

d. "Small business set-asides" means a purchase request for which bids are to be invited and accepted only from small businesses by the chairman.

* NB There are 2 § 1695's

 § 1696. Designation of small business set-asides at the Bronx community college and York college. The chairman has authority to designate as small business set-asides specified commodities, equipment or services or contracts for construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of college facilities for which purchase or work contract have been requested by the board of trustees of the Bronx community college and York college under the provisions of this title. The designation shall be made prior to the advertisement for bids as provided by law, and when the advertisement is published it shall indicate the purchases which have been designated small business set-asides. To effectuate the purposes of this title, the chairman may exercise this authority whenever there is a reasonable expectation that bids will be obtained from at least three small businesses capable of furnishing the desired property or service at a fair and reasonable price.

In the case of purchases or work contracts designated as small business set-asides, invitations to bid shall be confined to small businesses and bids from other businesses shall be rejected. The purchase, contract or expenditure of funds shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder among the small businesses (considering conformity with specifications and terms) in accordance with the rules and regulations for purchasing published by the authority.

It is hereby declared that a portion of small business set-asides, shall be set aside in turn as exclusively as possible, to small businesses owned or controlled by minority entrepreneurs as previously defined, and that such aforementioned businesses, shall constitute not less than twenty-five percent of the successful bidders under this title. Other contracts and business that in the opinion of the chairman can be judged to be substantially beneficial to socially or economically disadvantaged individuals may also be excluded from the general provisions and procedures applicable to the larger set-aside contracts.

Minority business concerns eligible hereunder shall be excluded from stipulated limitations of sales volume, number of employees and other factors defined in this title.

Offers must be advertised in the locality where a contract is to be effectuated. In locations where twenty-five percent or more of the population is non-English-speaking, notices shall be published in appropriate translated form. The procurement officer shall cooperate with county-wide business development organizations servicing minority communities in the formulation and maintenance of lists of qualified contractors, and shall notify such contractors of opportunities to submit bids for set-aside contracts. Minority bidders will be notified of reasons why their bids were unsuccessful. That each minority small business concern which bids is notified of reasons for failure to secure a successful bid, and that where responsibility as defined by the procurement officer or officers, agent or agents is a factor, such responsibility will be defined, and such reasons for determination of lack of responsibility will be provided the minority small business bidders.

Bonding requirements shall be negotiable for minority bidders.

* NB There are 2 § 1696's

 § 1697. Withdrawal of designation of small business set-asides. If the total number of small businesses responding to the invitation to bid and considered capable of meeting the specifications and terms of the invitation to bid is less than three, or if the chairman determines that acceptance of the best bid will result in the payment of an unreasonable price, the chairman shall reject all bids and withdraw the designation of small business set-aside.

If the chairman withdraws the designation of small business set-aside it shall notify the bidders of the reason why the bids were rejected. Invitations to bid containing the same or rewritten specifications and terms shall then be re-issued as otherwise so provided under this title, without the designation of small business set-aside.

* NB There are 2 § 1697's

 § 1698. Submission of purchase order or work contract to successful bidder. After the successful bidder has been determined, the chairman shall place an advertisement as provided by law indicating that all bids submitted on a small business set-aside have been opened and reporting the name and address of the successful bidder. The chairman shall send a purchase order or work contract to the successful bidder no sooner than fourteen days after the appearance of the advertisement announcing the successful bidder.

* NB There are 2 § 1698's

 § 1699. Designation of contract negotiator for small business set-asides. The chairman shall designate an experienced contract negotiator to serve as its small business procurement specialist whose duties shall include:

a. Compiling and maintaining a comprehensive bidders' list of small businesses. In this duty, he shall cooperate with the federal Small Business Administration in locating potential sources for various products and services.

b. Assisting small businesses in complying with the procedures for bidding on authority contracts at such educational institutions.

c. Examining requests from the board of trustees of the Bronx community college for the purchase of property or services or for construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of college facilities to help determine which invitations to bid are to be designated small business set-asides.

d. Making recommendations to the chairman for the simplification of procurement specifications and terms in order to increase the opportunities for small business participation.

e. Assisting in investigations by the chairman to determine the responsibility of bidders on small business set-asides.

* NB There are 2 § 1699's

 § 1699-a. Legislative report. The chairman shall annually before December first, report in writing to the legislature concerning the awarding of contracts, for specified commodities, equipment or services or for the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of college facilities at the Bronx community college and York college to small businesses and minority businesses. The report shall include the total value of awards made in the preceding fiscal year under the designation of small business set-asides.

* NB There are 2 § 1699-a's

TITLE 4-B

HEALTH CARE FINANCING CONSOLIDATION ACT

§ 1699-d. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "health care financing consolidation act."

§ 1699-e. Definitions. 1. "Agency" shall mean the New York state medical care facilities finance agency created by section four of section one of chapter three hundred ninety-two of the laws of nineteen hundred seventy-three, as amended, and operating pursuant to the New York state medical care facilities finance agency act.

2. "Authority" shall mean the dormitory authority created by section sixteen hundred seventy-seven of this article and operating pursuant to the dormitory authority act.

3. "Corporation" shall mean the facilities development corporation created by section four of section one of chapter three hundred fifty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-eight, as amended, and operating pursuant to the facilities development corporation act.

§ 1699-f. Succession by authority to powers, duties and functions of the agency and corporation. 1. The authority hereby succeeds to the powers, duties and functions of each of the agency and the corporation, each of which shall continue its corporate existence in and through the authority. The agency shall not be deemed to have been terminated under subdivision eight of section four of section one of chapter three hundred ninety-two of the laws of nineteen hundred seventy-three.

2. The authority, subject to the provisions of this title, shall hereafter possess all the rights, privileges, immunities, powers and purposes of each of the agency and the corporation. All the property, real and personal, including moneys, investments, causes of action and every other asset, of each of the agency and the corporation hereby vests in the authority without further act or deed; and the title to any real estate, or interest therein, vested in the agency, corporation or authority shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the succession effected hereby.

3. The authority hereby assumes and is liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the agency and the corporation without further act or deed, including, without limitation, the obligation of the agency to make payments on its outstanding bonds, and notes or other obligations. No liability or obligation due or to become due, claim or demand for any cause existing against the agency or the corporation, respectively, or any officer or member thereof, shall be released or impaired, or in any respect expanded in regard to the source of payment thereof or otherwise, by the succession effected hereby. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon, or security interests in, the property of the agency, the corporation or the authority shall be impaired by the succession effected hereby. No action or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, pending by or against the agency or the corporation, respectively, or any officer or member thereof, shall abate or be discontinued by the succession effected hereby, but may be enforced, prosecuted, settled or compromised as if such succession had not occurred, or the authority may be substituted in such action or special proceeding in place of either the agency or the corporation, as the case may be.

4. With respect to contracts, agreements, leases, and other similar arrangements previously made by and between the agency and the corporation or by and among the agency, the corporation and any other party, the authority shall, in succeeding to the powers, duties and functions of each of the agency and the corporation, perform all the obligations and duties of, and shall have all the rights, powers, and functions of, each of the agency and the corporation under and pursuant to such contracts, agreements, leases or other similar arrangements.

5. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of subdivision six of this section, nothing in this title shall limit or otherwise affect the power of the authority to issue bonds, notes and other obligations under and pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the dormitory authority act, as amended. In addition, in succeeding to the powers, duties and functions of the agency, the authority is authorized to issue bonds, notes and other obligations for any purpose for which the agency has been authorized by law to issue bonds, notes or other obligations, under and pursuant to, in accordance with the terms and conditions of, and subject to the limitations in, the New York state medical care facilities finance agency act, as amended in the public health law, the mental hygiene law, the facilities development corporation act, sections sixteen hundred ninety-nine-h through sixteen hundred ninety-nine-j of this act, and any other law.

6. (a) The exercise of powers, duties and functions of the agency to which the authority has succeeded, including without limitation the execution of contracts in connection therewith, shall be governed by applicable provisions of the medical care facilities finance agency act. The exercise of powers, duties and functions of the corporation to which the authority has succeeded, including without limitation the execution of contracts in connection therewith, shall be governed by applicable provisions of the facilities development corporation act.

(b) The financing of any project initiated on or after the effective date of this section, the entirety of which the agency would be authorized to undertake by the provisions of the medical care facilities finance agency act prior to such effective date, shall be governed by such act.

§ 1699-g. Separability. If any section, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid or effective and no other section, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1699-h. Reports. The board of directors of the dormitory authority shall report on progress in implementing the succession of the medical care facilities finance agency and the facilities development corporation into the dormitory authority by March first, nineteen hundred ninety-six and shall issue a final report on September first, nineteen hundred ninety-six. Such reports shall be provided to the chair and ranking minority member of the senate finance committee and the chair and ranking minority member of the assembly ways and means committee. Such report shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

1. Operational, financial, procedural and organizational improvements obtained or planned as a result of the succession;

2. The source and amount of each reserve fund or account, pledged and unpledged, held by the agency or authority on March thirty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-five and on March thirty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-six with an explanation of the differences in amounts within each fund or account including identification of the amounts transferred to the state's general fund;

3. The impact, if any, on any programs and/or projects affected by such succession;

4. A list of positions affected by the succession, including but not limited to, positions of the housing finance agency estimated to have spent more than fifty percent of their time performing duties for the medical care facilities finance agency. Such list shall identify those positions transferred to the dormitory authority under provisions of this chapter and shall include each dormitory authority position's or transferred position's bargaining unit, if any, civil service status, if any, and job title; and

5. Legislative proposals to achieve further operational, financial, procedural and organizational improvements.

§ 1699-i. Transfer of employees. A transfer of employees effected as a consequence of the transfer of functions pursuant to any provision of this title shall be governed by this section:

1. Such transfers shall be subject to section seventy of the civil service law; or, where not subject to civil service, the provisions of such section seventy shall be deemed applicable, except where the context clearly requires otherwise. Any such employee who, at the time of such transfer, has a temporary or provisional appointment shall be transferred subject to the same right of removal, examination or termination as though such transfer had not been made except to the extent such rights are modified by a collective bargaining agreement.

2. A transferred employee shall remain in the same collective bargaining unit as was the case prior to his or her transfer; successor employees to the positions held by such transferred employees shall, consistent with the provisions of article fourteen of the civil service law, be included in the same unit as their predecessors. Employees, other than managerial or confidential persons (as defined in article fourteen of the civil service law), serving in positions in newly created titles shall be assigned to the appropriate bargaining unit. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to affect: (a) the rights of employees pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement; (b) the representational relationships among employee organizations or the bargaining relationships between the state and an employee organization; or (c) existing law with respect to an application to the public employment relations board, provided, however, that the merger of such negotiating units of employees shall be effected only with the consent of the recognized and certified representatives of such units and of the authority.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, all lawful appointees holding positions which hereinbefore were subject to the civil service law and are transferred to the authority shall continue to hold their positions without further examination or qualifications.

§ 1699-j. Audit and annual report. In conformity with the provisions of section five of article ten of the constitution, the accounts of the authority shall be subject to an annual management and financial audit performed by an independent certified accountant selected by the authority. The authority shall annually submit to the chair and ranking minority member of the senate finance committee and the chair and ranking minority member of the assembly ways and means committee a copy of this audit.

TITLE 4-C

SMALL BUSINESS CONCERNS SET-ASIDE PURCHASES AND CONTRACTS FOR PROPERTY AND SERVICES AT THE MEDGAR EVERS COLLEGE, CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

§ 1699-m. Definitions. In this article:

a. "Chairman" means the chairman of the dormitory authority.

b. "Minority business concern" means a socially and economically disadvantaged applicant concern which is owned or controlled by one or more persons who have been deprived of the opportunity to develop and maintain a competitive position in the economy because of social or economic disadvantages. Such disadvantages may arise from cultural, social or economic circumstances. Such persons include, but are not limited to, Black Americans, American Indians, Spanish-Americans, Oriental-Americans, Eskimos, Aleuts and servicemen in the armed forces during the Vietnam era.

c. "Small business" means a business which is independently owned and operated, and which is not dominant in the field of operation. The authority shall establish a detailed definition by rule, using in addition to the foregoing criteria, other criteria, including the number of employees and the dollar volume of business. When computing the size status of a bidder, annual sales and receipts of the bidder and all of its affiliates shall be included. The maximum number of employees and the maximum dollar volume which a small business may have under the rules promulgated by the authority shall vary from industry to industry to the extent necessary to reflect differing characteristics of such industries based on the criteria used by the federal Small Business Administration for loans to small businesses as set forth in Section 121.3-10 and Schedules A, C and D (or for awarding government procurements as set forth in Section 121.3-S and Schedule B) of Part 121 of Chapter I of Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as amended, subject to the following general limitations unless the above regulations provide for other size or annual receipts standards for any industry or subindustry;

(1) No wholesale business is a small business if its annual sales for its most recently completed fiscal year, nor is a construction business if its average annual receipts for the preceding three fiscal years, exceed one million dollars.

(2) No retail business or business selling services is a small business if its annual sales and receipts exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(3) No manufacturing business is a small business if it employs more than two hundred fifty persons.

d. "Small business set-asides" means a purchase request for which bids are to be invited and accepted only from small businesses by the chairman.

§ 1699-n. Designation of small business set-asides at the Medgar Evers college, city university of New York. The chairman has authority to designate as small business set-asides specified commodities, equipment or services or contracts for construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of college facilities for which purchase or work contract have been requested by the board of trustees for the Medgar Evers college, city university of New York under the provisions of this title. The designation shall be made prior to the advertisement for bids as provided by law, and when the advertisement is published it shall indicate the purchases which have been designated small business set-asides. To effectuate the purposes of this title, the chairman may exercise this authority whenever there is a reasonable expectation that bids will be obtained from at least three small businesses capable of furnishing the desired property or service at a fair and reasonable price.

In the case of purchases or work contracts designated as small business set-asides, invitations to bid shall be confined to small businesses and bids from other businesses shall be rejected. The purchase, contract or expenditure of funds shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder among the small businesses (considering conformity with specifications and terms) in accordance with the rules and regulations for purchasing published by the authority.

It is hereby declared that a portion of small business set-asides, shall be set aside in turn as exclusively as possible, to small businesses owned or controlled by minority entrepreneurs as previously defined, and that such aforementioned businesses, shall constitute not less than twenty-five percent of the successful bidders under this title. Other contracts and business that in the opinion of the chairman can be judged to be substantially beneficial to socially or economically disadvantaged individuals may also be excluded from the general provisions and procedures applicable to the larger set-aside contracts.

Minority business concerns eligible hereunder shall be excluded from stipulated limitations of sales volume, number of employees and other factors defined in this title.

Offers must be advertised in the locality where a contract is to be effectuated. In locations where twenty-five percent or more of the population is non-English-speaking, notices shall be published in appropriate translated form. The procurement officer shall cooperate with county-wide business development organizations servicing minority communities in the formulation and maintenance of lists of qualified contractors, and shall notify such contractors of opportunities to submit bids for set-aside contracts. Minority bidders will be notified of reasons why their bids were unsuccessful. That each minority small business concern which bids is notified of reasons for failure to secure a successful bid, and that where responsibility as defined by the procurement officer or officers, agent or agents is a factor, such responsibility will be defined, and such reasons for determination of lack of responsibility will be provided the minority small business bidders.

Bonding requirements shall be negotiable for minority bidders.

§ 1699-o. Withdrawal of designation of small business set-asides. If the total number of small businesses responding to the invitation to bid and considered capable of meeting the specifications and terms of the invitation to bid is less than three, or if the chairman determines that acceptance of the best bid will result in the payment of an unreasonable price, the chairman shall reject all bids and withdraw the designation of small business set-aside.

If the chairman withdraws the designation of small business set-aside it shall notify the bidders of the reason why the bids were rejected. Invitations to bid containing the same or rewritten specifications and terms shall then be re-issued as otherwise so provided under this title, without the designation of small business set-aside.

§ 1699-p. Submission of purchase order or work contract to successful bidder. After the successful bidder has been determined, the chairman shall place an advertisement as provided by law indicating that all bids submitted on a small business set-aside have been opened and reporting the name and address of the successful bidder. The chairman shall send a purchase order or work contract to the successful bidder no sooner than fourteen days after the appearance of the advertisement announcing the successful bidder.

§ 1699-q. Designation of contract negotiator for small business set-asides. The chairman shall designate an experienced contract negotiator to serve as its small business procurement specialist whose duties shall include:

a. Compiling and maintaining a comprehensive bidders' list of small businesses. In this duty, he shall cooperate with the federal Small Business Administration in locating potential sources for various products and services.

b. Assisting small businesses in complying with the procedures for bidding on authority contracts at such educational institutions.

c. Examining requests from the board of trustees for the Medgar Evers college for the purchase of property or services or for construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of college facilities to help determine which invitations to bid are to be designated small business set-asides.

d. Making recommendations to the chairman for the simplification of procurement specifications and terms in order to increase the opportunities for small business participation.

e. Assisting in investigations by the chairman to determine the responsibility of bidders on small business set-asides.

§ 1699-r. Legislative report. The chairman shall annually before December first, report in writing to the legislature concerning the awarding of contracts, for specified commodities, equipment or services or for the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or improvement of college facilities at the Medgar Evers college to small businesses and minority businesses. The report shall include the total value of awards made in the preceding fiscal year under the designation of small business set-asides.

TITLE 6

THE NEW YORK CITY SCHOOL CONSTRUCTION AUTHORITY ACT

§ 1725. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "New York city school construction authority act".

§ 1726. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. "Authority" shall mean the New York city school construction authority.

2. "Board" shall mean the board of trustees of the New York city school construction authority.

3. "Council" shall mean the council of the city of New York.

4. "Chancellor" shall mean the chancellor of the city school district of the city of New York.

5. "City" shall mean the city of New York.

6. "City board" shall mean the board of education of the city school district of the city of New York.

7. "Comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the city of New York.

8. "Director of management and budget" shall mean the director of management and budget of the city of New York.

9. "Educational facilities" shall have the meaning set forth in subdivision nine of section twenty-five hundred ninety-a of the education law.

10. "Mayor" shall mean the mayor of the city of New York.

11. "Project" shall have the meaning set forth in subdivision ten of section twenty-five hundred ninety-a of the education law.

12. "State" shall mean the state of New York.

§ 1727. New York city school construction authority. 1. There is hereby established a public benefit corporation to be known as the "New York city school construction authority".

2. The authority shall be governed by and its powers shall be exercised by a board of trustees consisting of three members. The members shall be the chancellor, or acting chancellor if the position of chancellor is vacant, and two other members, to be appointed by the mayor. The chancellor or acting chancellor shall serve as the chairperson of the board of trustees. No member of the city board or of a community school board shall be one of the appointed members of the board, nor shall an officer or employee of the city or state be one of the appointed members of the board. The appointed members shall serve at the pleasure of the mayor.

3. Each appointed member shall continue in office until a successor has been appointed and qualifies. In the event a vacancy occurs in the office of an appointed member, the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as was the original appointment of the trustee whose office became vacant.

4. Appointed members may engage in private employment, or in a profession or business; provided, however, that notwithstanding any otherwise applicable provision of general law, the members shall be subject to the limitations contained in sections twenty-six hundred three, twenty-six hundred four, twenty-six hundred five, and twenty-six hundred six of the New York city charter. The authority shall, for the purposes of such sections be an "agency" and such trustees shall be "public servants" for the purposes of such sections. In addition, such trustees shall be subject to the provisions of section eleven hundred sixteen of such charter and shall for the purposes of such section be "officers of the city". Notwithstanding any otherwise applicable provision of general law, employees of the authority shall be subject to such provisions of such charter and shall be deemed to be officers and employees of the city of New York for purposes of the financial disclosure requirements of section 12-110 of the administrative code of such city.

5. The board shall provide for the holding of regular meetings and such special meetings at the call of the chairman, as may be necessary. A majority of the whole number of trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The powers of the board shall be vested in and exercised by a majority of the whole number of the members thereof.

6. Trustees shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred by them in the performance of their official duties as trustees of the authority.

7. The board shall appoint as president of the authority an individual who has extensive executive-level construction experience. The president, who shall not be a member of the board, shall be the chief executive officer of the authority and shall be responsible for the discharge of the executive and administrative functions and powers of the authority. The president shall serve at the pleasure of the board.

8. The authority shall continue in its corporate existence until terminated by law. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the property interests of the authority shall pass to and vest in the city and the city shall assume any outstanding contractual duties or obligations of the authority, except as otherwise may be specified by law.

§ 1728. Powers and duties of the authority. The authority shall have the following powers and duties:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal or alter the same at pleasure;

3. To make and alter by-laws for the organization and the management and regulation of its affairs;

4. To appoint officers and employees, fix their compensation and require background investigations, including but not limited to the criminal history of all applicants for employment to determine the suitability of such applicants for employment. Such investigation shall include but not be limited to the taking of fingerprints of such officers and employees as a prerequisite for employment; provided, however, that every set of fingerprints taken pursuant to this subdivision shall be promptly submitted to the division of criminal justice services where it shall be appropriately processed and forwarded to the federal bureau of investigation, at a rate required by such agencies for state and national criminal history record checks;

5. To design, construct, reconstruct, improve, rehabilitate, maintain, furnish, repair, equip and otherwise provide for educational facilities, as defined in section twenty-five hundred ninety-a of the education law, for the city board pursuant to agreements with the city board;

6. To acquire real and personal property, or any interest therein, by any method, including but not limited to purchase or condemnation, for the purpose of constructing, reconstructing, improving, rehabilitating, maintaining, repairing, furnishing, equipping or otherwise providing for educational facilities for the city board; provided, however, that the authority shall use such condemnation power only if the authority is unable to purchase property by negotiation or bidding and provided further that, except to the extent permitted by subdivision two of section seventeen hundred twenty-nine of this title, the authority may not condemn property dedicated to use, used or mapped as a city street or any other property owned by, or subject to any interest therein, of the city of New York;

7. To make and execute contracts and all other instruments necessary or convenient for the exercise of its functions, powers and duties, provided that the authority may not unless otherwise specifically authorized by law issue negotiable bonds or notes;

8. To engage the services of private consultants on a contract basis for rendering professional and technical assistance and advice;

9. To enter into agreements with the city board pursuant to which the authority will be responsible for the acquisition, design, construction, reconstruction, improvement, rehabilitation, maintaining, repairing, furnishing, equipping of and otherwise providing for educational facilities for the city board, provided, however, that (i) any agreement under which the authority shall engage in maintenance shall be limited to maintenance that is attendant to the authority's implementation of a five-year educational facilities capital plan; (ii) nothing herein shall be deemed to diminish the rights of school custodians and custodian engineers as established in the existing collective bargaining agreement with the city board or other custodian or maintenance employees as established in their respective collective bargaining agreements; and (iii) further provided that the authority is not empowered to engage in custodial operations;

10. Notwithstanding the provisions of section two thousand five hundred four of the insurance law or any other law, to procure insurance on behalf of itself and others against any loss in connection with its activities, properties and other assets, in such amounts and from such insurers as it deems desirable; provided that the authority may enter into agreements with the city, acting by the mayor alone, providing for indemnification by the city of the authority against tort and contract judgments and claims, which agreements may contain provisions requiring legal representation of the authority by the corporation counsel of the city and specifying any insurance to be carried by the authority, which provisions shall supersede any agreements with the city board on such subject;

11. Upon completion of the design, construction, reconstruction, improvement, rehabilitation, maintaining, repairing, furnishing, equipping of or otherwise providing for educational facilities, to convey title to any such facilities to the city for use as educational facilities by the city board. In the case of educational facilities leased by the authority, the city board may occupy or sublet such facilities from the authority without compensation and without further approval and, upon transfer or assignment of the authority's interest in these facilities to the city board, the city board shall assume all rights and obligations of the authority under such lease;

12. To dispose of personal property and, with the consent of the city, acting by the mayor and the council, to dispose of real property, or any interest therein, held by the authority and not required for educational purposes of the city board, by sale, lease, sublease or otherwise, provided that such disposition is pursuant to the implementation of a five-year educational facilities capital plan;

13. To enter into agreements with the city's department of city planning to render any services the authority may request, including but not limited to professional and technical assistance by planning experts, engineers, architects and any other staff as may be necessary, and the use of the premises, personnel, equipment, access to relevant data and personal property of the department of city planning;

13-a. To enter into agreements with the city's department of health and mental hygiene to render any services the authority may request, including but not limited to access to data necessary to develop reasonable student population projections citywide, for each community school district and for each community board;

13-b. To enter into agreements with the city's department of buildings to render any services the authority may request, including but not limited to access to building permit and construction data, including the number and size of units within buildings;

13-c. To enter into agreements with the city's department of housing preservation and development to render any services the authority may request, including but not limited to access to building permit and construction data, including the number and size of units within buildings;

13-d. To coordinate with the office of city planning, the department of buildings, the department of housing preservation and development, the department of health and mental hygiene and community boards to create uniform, citywide student population projections, community school district and community board, for a minimum of five years, based on data produced by the office of city planning, the department of buildings, the department of housing preservation and development and the department of health and mental hygiene. Such projections shall be used in the creation and implementation of the authority's five-year educational facilities capital plan;

14. To enter into agreements with the city board to render services, including but not limited to the use of the premises, personnel and personal property of the city board, and to provide for reimbursement to the city board from the authority for any expenses incurred by the city board in carrying out the terms of these agreements;

15. To enter into agreements with the city board pursuant to which the city board may make available to the authority the services of employees of the city board who are contemplated to be transferred to the authority pursuant to a plan for such transfers for the purpose of rendering assistance in establishing the operations of the authority; provided, however, that such employees shall no longer be available to the authority pursuant to the terms of this subdivision beyond one year following the effective date of this title;

* 15-a. To establish employment goals in accordance with the program established pursuant to section thirty-five hundred two of the New York city charter, including but not limited to employment goals established pursuant to paragraph seven of subdivision a and the corresponding best efforts provisions set forth in subdivision d of such section; provided, however, that where a provision of such section requires action by the director of the office of community hiring and workforce development, such action shall not be taken by the director of the office of community hiring and workforce development but shall be taken by the president of the authority or his or her designee;

* NB Effective May 15, 2024

* NB Repealed May 15, 2029

16. To apply for or accept any gifts, grants or loans of funds or property or financial or other aid in any form from the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, from the state or any agency or instrumentality thereof, from the city or any agency or instrumentality thereof or from any other source, for any or all of the purposes specified in this title, and it may comply, subject to the provisions of this title, with the terms and conditions thereof; and

17. To do any and all things necessary or convenient to carry out and exercise the powers given and granted by this section.

§ 1729. Transfer of property. 1. The city board and the city, acting by the mayor alone or by resolution of the council, may convey or transfer to the authority, with or without consideration and without any further authorization, any real, personal or mixed property (including inalienable property of the city, except for land mapped as parks), or any interest therein, in order to assist the authority in implementing a five-year educational facilities capital plan.

2. In the event the authority wishes to obtain city property for use as an educational facility pursuant to an approved five-year educational facilities capital plan, the authority shall request such property in writing and shall submit such request directly to the mayor. The mayor shall have thirty days to respond to such request. If the request is denied, the mayor shall set forth in writing the reasons for such denial, including whether the city intends to use such property for other public uses. Such response shall be made available to the public upon request. If the mayor fails to respond to such request, the authority may, at the expiration of the thirty-day period, condemn such property pursuant to its powers under subdivision six of section seventeen hundred twenty-eight of this title.

§ 1730. Exemption from land use review procedures and other requirements. 1. Except for the provisions of article eight of the environmental conservation law and article fourteen of the parks, recreation and historic preservation law, neither (a) the establishment or amendment of an educational facilities capital plan and actions relating to the financing thereof, nor (b) the establishment or revision of an educational facilities master plan and actions relating to the financing thereof, nor (c) the selection of sites for educational facilities pursuant to a five-year educational facilities capital plan, nor (d) any conveyance or other grant of property or of any interest therein by the city, the city board or any other person, firm or organization to the authority or to the city board pursuant to a five-year educational facilities capital plan, nor (e) the design, construction, reconstruction, improvement, rehabilitation, maintaining, furnishing, repairing, equipping or use of educational facilities by the authority, including any contracts, approvals, consents, agreements, permits or authorizations necessary to accomplish the same, which are pursuant to a five-year educational facilities capital plan, nor (f) the reconveyance or transfer of property to the city board or to the city by the authority or any disposition of property pursuant to a five-year educational facilities capital plan, shall be subject to the provisions of any general, special or local law, city charter, administrative code, ordinance or resolution governing uniform land use review procedures, any other land use planning review and approvals, historic preservation procedures, architectural reviews, franchise approvals and other state or local review and approval procedures governing the use of land and the improvements thereon within the city. Capital projects for educational facilities to be undertaken by the authority shall not be subject to the provisions of the charter of the city relating to site selection, land use review procedures, art commission review procedures, general standards and cost limits, project scope and design procedures, or contract registration and vouchering procedures.

2. The authority shall be deemed the lead agency for purposes of the implementation of the environmental review procedures prescribed by article eight of the environmental conservation law and the rules and regulations promulgated by the department of environmental conservation pursuant thereto.

3. The authority shall be subject to zoning regulations to the same extent that the city board is subject to such regulations, if at all.

§ 1731. Community participation. 1. Prior to the commencing of new construction or building additions of an educational facility, or the acquisition of real property or any interest therein for such purpose, the authority shall file a copy of the site plan of such facility in its offices and shall provide a copy thereof to the city board, the city planning commission and the community school district education council and the community board of the district in which the facility will be located. The authority shall also provide a copy of such plan to the council member, senator and member of assembly representing the district in which the facility will be located. Such plan shall include data on projected student population for the community school district or districts and the community board or boards affected, the source of that data and the reason the proposed action is necessary and how such plan factors and accounts for student population projections. Upon request, any other person shall be furnished with such plan or a summary thereof. The authority shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation in the city a notice of the filing of such plan and the availability of the plan and a summary thereof. Such plan shall include, in the case of any project for which the acquisition of real property or interest therein is proposed, the recommended site, any alternate sites considered, and any rationale as to why the alternate sites were not selected.

2. Within thirty days after publication of the notice required under subdivision one of this section, a public hearing with sufficient public notice shall be held by each affected community school district education council on any or all aspects of the site plan and by each affected community board on aspects of the site plan which relate to the general public use of the educational facility and to its impact on the surrounding community, including but not limited to the responsiveness of the site plan to projected changes in student population in the affected community board or boards and how such plan factors and accounts for student population projections. The affected board may request the attendance of representatives of the authority or the city board at a hearing and the authority or the city board shall comply with such requests. If the proposed project affects two or more school districts or community boards, then a hearing may be held jointly by the affected community school district education council and/or the affected community boards. Any affected community school district education council, together with any affected community board, may at their mutual discretion, elect to conduct a hearing jointly.

3. Within forty-five days after publication of such notice, each affected community school district education council or community board shall prepare and submit to the authority, written comments on the site plan. Any other organization or person shall also have the opportunity to present written comments on the plan during this period. Each comment received by the authority on such plan at any time prior to action being taken by the authority on the plan shall be considered by the authority in connection with such action.

4. After due consideration of such comments, if any, the authority may affirm, modify or withdraw the plan.

5. Nothing herein shall preclude the authority from holding hearings on the site plan, provided, however, that any such hearings on the site plan shall be conducted within the period specified in subdivision three of this section.

§ 1732. City approval of sites. 1. Following the hearings held pursuant to section seventeen hundred thirty-one of this title, but prior to initiating construction of new educational facilities, the authority shall submit the site plan of such projects to the mayor and the council for review, provided, however, that such review shall be limited to the site selected for the project.

2. The site plan shall be deemed to be approved by the city unless within twenty days of such submission by the authority it is disapproved by the mayor or by the council, acting by a two-thirds vote. The council may, by a two-thirds vote, override any disapproval of the mayor within twenty days following receipt of notice of such disapproval from the mayor. The notice provision contained herein shall be deemed sufficient for action by the mayor and the council notwithstanding any provision of law, local or general, or charter to the contrary.

3. The city may not require the authority to conduct any further hearings or seek any further approvals as a condition for receiving city approval.

4. If the council or mayor disapproves the site plan, (a) the authority may, after consultation with the city board, revise such site plan for resubmission pursuant to section seventeen hundred thirty-one of this title and this section or (b) the authority may, with the agreement of the city board and chancellor, eliminate such site plan from the five-year educational facilities capital plan.

§ 1733. Compliance with codes. The authority shall, in the design, construction, reconstruction, improvement, rehabilitation, maintenance, repair, furnishing, equipping of or otherwise providing for educational facilities, comply with the requirements of the city building code, fire code and electrical code.

§ 1734. Contracts of the authority. 1. a. All contracts for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, rehabilitation, maintenance, repair, furnishing, equipping of or otherwise providing for educational facilities for the city board may be awarded in accordance with the provisions of this section, notwithstanding the provisions of section eight of the public buildings law, section one hundred three of the general municipal law, section one hundred thirty-five of the state finance law, section seven of the New York state financial emergency act for the city of New York or of any other provision of general, special or local law, charter or administrative code.

b. The authority shall be subject to the provisions of section one hundred one of the general municipal law.

2. a. Except as otherwise provided in this section, all purchase contracts for supplies, materials or equipment involving an estimated expenditure in excess of ten thousand dollars and all contracts for public work involving an estimated expenditure in excess of fifty thousand dollars shall be awarded by the authority to the lowest responsible bidder after obtaining sealed bids in the manner hereinafter set forth. For purposes hereof, contracts for public work shall exclude contracts for personal, engineering and architectural, or professional services.

b. The authority may reject all bids and obtain new bids in the manner provided by this section when it deems it in the public interest to do so or, in cases where two or more responsible bidders submit identical bids which are the lowest bids, award the contract to any of such bidders or obtain new bids from such bidders. Nothing herein shall obligate the authority to seek new bids after the rejection of bids or after cancellation of an invitation to bid. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the evaluation of bids on the basis of costs or savings including life cycle costs of the item to be purchased, discounts, and inspection services so long as the invitation to bid reasonably sets forth the criteria to be used in evaluating such costs or savings. Life cycle costs may include but shall not be limited to costs or savings associated with installation, energy use, maintenance, operation and salvage or disposal.

3. a. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph a of subdivision two of this section, the authority shall establish guidelines governing the qualifications of bidders entering into contracts for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, rehabilitation, maintenance, repair, furnishing, equipping of or otherwise providing for educational facilities for the city board. The bidding may be restricted to those who have qualified prior to the receipt of bids according to standards fixed by the authority; provided, however, that the award of contracts shall, to the extent not inconsistent with this paragraph, be in accordance with paragraph b of subdivision two of this section.

b. In determining whether a prospective bidder qualifies for inclusion on a list of pre-qualified bidders, the authority shall consider (1) the experience and past performance of the prospective bidder; (2) the prospective bidder's ability to undertake work; and (3) the financial capability, responsibility and reliability of prospective bidders. The authority may also consider such other factors as it deems appropriate.

c. The authority shall, not less than twice each year, publish, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city of New York, an advertisement requesting prospective bidders to submit qualification statements. Lists of pre-qualified bidders shall be reviewed and updated not less than annually by the authority. The authority shall delete from the list of pre-qualified bidders any bidder who has failed to perform adequately or satisfactorily for the authority, the city board or any other city or state agency or authority.

d. Lists of pre-qualified bidders may be established on a project-specific basis; provided, however, that any such list shall have no less than five bidders.

4. a. Advertisement for bids, when required by this section, shall be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the city of New York. Publication in such a newspaper shall not be required (i) if bids for contracts for supplies, materials or equipment are of a type regularly purchased by the authority and are to be solicited from a list of potential suppliers, if such list is or has been developed consistent with the provisions of subdivision six of this section or (ii) if bids are to be solicited from a list of pre-qualified bidders pursuant to the provisions of paragraph d of subdivision three of this section. Any such advertisement shall contain a statement of the time and place where all bids received pursuant to such notice will be publicly opened and read. At least fourteen days shall elapse between the first publication of such advertisement or the solicitation of bids, as the case may be, and the date of opening and reading of bids.

b. The authority may designate any officer or employee to open the bids at the time and place bids are to be opened and may designate an officer to award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder. Such designee shall make a record of all bids in such form and detail as the authority shall prescribe. All bids received shall be publicly opened and read at the time and place specified in the advertisement or at the time of solicitation, or to which the opening and reading have been adjourned by the authority. All bidders shall be notified of the time and place of any such adjournment.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the authority may by resolution approved by a vote of its members declare (i) that competitive bidding for non-construction contracts is impractical or inappropriate because of the existence of any of the circumstances hereinafter set forth or (ii) that competitive bidding for construction contracts is impractical or inappropriate because of the existence of the circumstances set forth in paragraph a of this subdivision. Thereafter the authority may proceed to award contracts without complying with the requirements of subdivision two or three of this section. In each case where the authority declares competitive bidding impractical or inappropriate, it shall state the reason therefor in writing and summarize any negotiations that have been conducted and shall be made available upon request. Except for contracts awarded pursuant to paragraphs a, b and c of this subdivision, the authority shall not award any contract pursuant to this subdivision earlier than thirty days from the date on which the authority declares that competitive bidding is impractical or inappropriate. Competitive bidding may only be declared impractical or inappropriate where:

a. the existence of an emergency involving danger to life, safety or property requires immediate action and cannot await competitive bidding or the item to be purchased is essential to efficient operation or the adequate provision of service by the city board or the authority and as a consequence of unforeseen circumstance such purchase cannot await competitive bidding;

b. the authority receives no responsive bids or only a single responsive bid in response to an invitation for competitive bids;

c. the item is available through an existing contract between a vendor and (i) another public authority provided that such other authority utilized a process of competitive bidding or a process of competitive requests for proposals to award such contracts, or (ii) the city board, or (iii) the state of New York, or (iv) the city of New York, provided that in any case when under this paragraph the authority determines that obtaining such item thereby would be in the public interest and sets forth the reason for such determination. The authority shall accept sole responsibility for any payment due the vendor as a result of the authority's order; or

d. the authority determines that it is in the public interest to award contracts pursuant to a process for competitive requests for proposals as hereinafter set forth. For purposes of this section, a process for competitive requests for proposals shall mean a method of soliciting proposals and awarding a contract on the basis of a formal evaluation of the characteristics, such as quality, cost, delivery schedule and financing of such proposals against stated selection criteria. Public notice of the requests for proposals shall be given in the same manner as provided in subdivision three of this section and shall include the selection criteria. In the event the authority makes a material change in the selection criteria from those previously stated in the notice, it will inform all proposers of such change and permit proposers to modify their proposals.

(i) The authority may award a contract pursuant to this paragraph only after a resolution approved by a vote of its members at a public meeting of the authority with such resolution (A) disclosing the other proposers and the substance of their proposals, (B) summarizing the negotiation process including the opportunities, if any, available to proposers to present and modify their proposals, and (C) setting forth the criteria upon which the selection was made.

(ii) Nothing in this paragraph shall require or preclude (A) negotiations with any proposers following the receipt of responses to the request for proposals or (B) the rejection of any or all proposals at any time. Upon the rejection of all proposals, the authority may solicit new proposals or bids in any manner prescribed in this section.

6. Upon the adoption of a resolution by the authority stating, for reasons of efficiency, economy, compatibility or maintenance reliability, that there is a need for standardization, the authority may establish procedures whereby particular supplies, materials or equipment are identified on a qualified products list. Such procedures shall provide for products or vendors to be added to or deleted from such list and shall include provisions for public advertisement of the manner in which such lists are compiled. The authority shall review such list no less than twice a year for the purpose of making such modifications.

Contracts for particular supplies, materials or equipment identified on a qualified products list may be awarded by the authority to the lowest responsible bidder after obtaining sealed bids in accordance with this section or without competitive sealed bids in instances when the item is available from only a single source, except that the authority may dispense with advertising provided that it mails copies of the invitation to bid to all vendors of the particular item on the qualified products list.

7. The authority shall compile a list of potential sources of supplies, materials or equipment regularly purchased. The authority shall, by resolution, set forth the procedures it has established to identify new sources and to notify such new sources of the opportunity to bid for contracts for the purchase of supplies, materials or equipment. Such procedures shall include, but not be limited to advertising in trade journals.

8. The authority shall be subject to the provisions of section twenty-eight hundred seventy-nine of this chapter in awarding contracts for personal services.

9. The board shall, by resolution, establish procedures for the fair and equitable resolution of contract disputes. Prior to the establishment of such policy, the board shall publish in appropriate publications a notice of such policy and invite comment from interested parties, including, but not limited to representatives of construction organizations. Such notice shall also state that the authority will hold a public hearing to consider the policy at a specified time and place on a date not less than ten days after such publication, and the authority shall conduct the public hearing pursuant to such notice.

10. The provisions of article eight of the labor law shall be applicable to all contracts entered into directly or indirectly by the authority.

11. The provisions of subdivision one of section one hundred six-b of the general municipal law shall apply to the authority, provided, however, that the authority may retain up to four times the value of any remaining items to be completed.

 § 1735. Certain contracts of the authority. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph b of subdivision one of section seventeen hundred thirty-four of this title, the award of construction contracts by the authority between July first, nineteen hundred eighty-nine and June thirtieth, two thousand twenty-eight, shall not be subject to the provisions of section one hundred one of the general municipal law.

2. Notice of the invitation for bids for contracts to be awarded pursuant to this section shall state the time and place of the receipt and opening of bids.

3. All bidders shall submit to the authority, prior to the opening of a bid for the award of a contract under this section, a sealed list identifying the names of each subcontractor each contractor proposes to utilize under the contract for the performance of the following subdivisions of work:

a. Plumbing and gas fitting;

b. Steam heating, hot water heating, ventilating and air conditioning apparatus; and

c. Electric wiring and standard illuminating fixtures.

The low bidder shall specify in such list the estimated value to be paid each such subcontractor for the work to be performed by such subcontractor. After the authority has announced the low bidder at the bid opening, the authority shall open only such low bidder's separate sealed list and shall read aloud such subcontractors listed therein. All such sealed lists except those of the low bidder shall be returned unopened to their respective contractors following the awarding of a contract.

4. The authority shall establish a committee to review and report on contracts issued pursuant to this section and on the procedures and methodology of the authority in awarding such contracts. The review shall include, but not be limited to, the degree to which contractors awarded contracts pursuant to such paragraph, and the subcontractors utilized by them, utilize employees who are represented by labor organizations, comply with existing labor standards, maintain harmonious labor relations and recognize state approved apprentice programs. The committee shall, from time to time, issue economic and statistical reports dealing with the costs of construction under this article. Such reports shall deal with the costs of labor, material, equipment and profit. The committee shall have no authority to approve or disapprove contracts. The committee shall be composed of two representatives from the authority, one representative from the board, two representatives from construction-related labor organizations and two representatives from the construction industry, at least one of whom shall be involved in the subdivisions of work described in subdivision three of this section. The president of the authority shall designate the members of the committee, provided, however, that the president shall designate the representatives of labor organizations from a list of names submitted by the New York state AFL-CIO.

5. In awarding contracts pursuant to this section the authority shall, in addition to the factors set forth in subdivision three of section seventeen hundred thirty-four of this title, consider the following factors when establishing a list of pre-qualified bidders for construction work: (a) the degree to which a contractor or subcontractor utilizes employees who are represented by a labor organization; (b) the absence of any intentional misrepresentation with regard to lists of subcontractors previously submitted pursuant to the provisions of subdivision two of this section; and (c) the record of the bidder in complying with existing labor standards, maintaining harmonious labor relations and recognizing state approved apprentice programs.

6. The authority shall provide in its construction, erection or alteration contracts which implement a five year educational facilities capital plan a provision that shall require each contractor to make prompt payment to its subcontractors performing each subdivision of work listed in subdivision three of this section. Within seven calendar days of the receipt of any payment from the authority, the contractor shall pay to each such subcontractor that portion of the proceeds of such payment representing the value of the work performed by such subcontractor, based upon the actual value of the subcontract, which has been approved and paid for by the authority, less an amount necessary to satisfy any claims, liens or judgments against the subcontractor which have not been suitably discharged and less any amount retained by the contractor as provided herein. For such purpose, the subcontract may provide that the contractor may retain not more than five per centum of each payment to the subcontractor or not more than ten per centum of each such payment if prior to entering into the subcontract the subcontractor is unable or unwilling to provide, at the request of the contractor, a performance bond and a labor and material bond both in the amount of the subcontract.

At the time of making a payment to the contractor for work performed by the subcontractors set forth in subdivision three of this section, the authority shall file in its office for review a record of such payment. If any such subcontractor shall notify the authority and the contractor in writing that the contractor has failed to make a payment to it as provided herein and the contractor shall fail, within five calendar days after receipt of such notice, to furnish either proof of such payment or notice that the amount claimed by the subcontractor is in dispute, the authority shall withhold from amounts then or thereafter becoming due and payable to the contractor, other than from amounts becoming due and payable to the contractor representing the value of work approved by the authority and performed by other subcontractors and which the contractor is required to pay to such subcontractors within seven calendar days as herein provided, an amount equal to one hundred fifty percent of that portion of the authority's prior payment to the contractor which the subcontractor claims to be due it, shall remit the amount when and so withheld to the subcontractor and deduct such payment from the amounts then otherwise due and payable to the contractor, which payment shall, as between the contractor and the authority, be deemed a payment by the authority to the contractor. In the event the contractor shall notify the authority as above provided that the claim of the subcontractor is in dispute, the authority shall withhold from amounts then or thereafter becoming due and payable to the contractor, other than from amounts becoming due and payable to the contractor representing the value of work approved by the authority and performed by other subcontractors and which the contractor is required to pay to such subcontractors within seven calendar days as herein provided, an amount equal to one hundred fifty percent of that portion of the authority's prior payment to the contractor which the subcontractor claims to be due it and deposit such amount when and so withheld in a separate interest-bearing account pending resolution of the dispute, and the amount so deposited together with the interest thereon shall be paid to the party or parties ultimately determined to be entitled thereto, or until the contractor and subcontractor shall otherwise agree as to the disposition thereof. In the event the authority shall be required to withhold amounts from a contractor for the benefit of more than one subcontractor, the amounts so withheld shall be applied to or for such subcontractors in the order in which the written notices of nonpayment have been received by the authority, and if more than one such notice was received on the same day, proportionately based upon the amount of the subcontractor claims received on such day. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in lieu of withholding such amount or amounts in dispute, the contractor may post a bond or other form of undertaking guaranteeing payment of such disputed amounts. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the authority from commencing an interpleader action to determine entitlement to a disputed payment in accordance with section one thousand six of the civil practice law and rules, or any successor provision thereto. In the event the authority does not withhold the required amounts within sixty days after the written notification from the subcontractor regarding failure of the contractor to make payment, the subcontractor may file a lien under article two of the lien law as the sole remedy in lieu of the remedy provided under this subdivision.

Payment to a subcontractor shall not relieve the contractor from responsibility for the work covered by the payment. Except as otherwise provided, nothing contained herein shall create any obligation on the part of the authority to pay any subcontractor, nor shall anything provided herein serve to create any relationship in contract or otherwise, implied or expressed, between the subcontractor and the authority.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not be applicable to the subcontractors of a contractor whose contract is limited to the performance of a single subdivision of work listed in subdivision three of this section.

7. The provisions of this section shall cease to be in effect in the event any of the provisions of this section shall be adjudged to be invalid by the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction from which judgment all appeals or applications for relief have been exhausted or the time therefor has expired, provided, however, that such appeals or applications are pursued promptly.

* NB Repealed June 30, 2028

§ 1736. Funding of the authority. 1. Each year the authority shall prepare and the board shall adopt an itemized estimate of the sum of money it deems necessary from the city board to cover the authority's operating expenses for the ensuing fiscal year. Such estimate shall take into account any prior year's surplus and shall be delivered to the city board for review at least ten business days prior to the date for submission of the city board's annual estimate pursuant to section twenty-five hundred seventy-six of the education law and shall be included as part of such city board estimate. Upon appropriation of the city's expense budget for such ensuing fiscal year, the amount of the authority's estimate shall be paid to the authority by the city in twelve equal payments, each payable on the first day of each month of the fiscal year. The authority shall not be required to present any vouchers for such payments, but shall issue quarterly reports not later than thirty days after the end of each quarter comparing actual expenditures to estimated expenditures and analyzing any significant variances. The authority shall develop procedures to ensure that it operates at all times within the amounts payable to it pursuant to this section, after taking into account funds available to the authority for such purpose from sources other than the city. Expenditures of the authority from funds paid to it by the city shall be subject to audit by the comptroller, who may recommend procedures designed to improve the authority's accounting and expenditure control expenditures. In the event the authority's cash flow projections require that funds be advanced more rapidly during a fiscal year than would occur pursuant to the payment dates set forth in this section, the authority shall advise the city board, the director of management and budget and the comptroller of such requirement. Such officials shall, in consultation with the authority, develop a schedule of advance payments to the authority designed to cover projected cash shortfalls during a fiscal year and to provide the authority with cash balances at all times sufficient to permit prompt payment of the authority's creditors.

2. The authority shall present vouchers for payment of costs incurred for projects the detailed scope of which approval has been obtained and for activities for which no such scope approval is required as provided in section twenty-five hundred ninety-p of the education law to the comptroller, which vouchers shall contain the following information: the amounts to be paid; the payees; the project or purpose for which the costs were incurred; a statement that the amounts to be paid are within city capital budget appropriations available therefor; and, with respect to projects for which scope approval has been obtained, a statement that the amounts to be paid are in accordance with such approved project scope. The authority shall not be required to furnish any additional information prior to payment of a voucher pursuant to this subdivision, and the comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to take such actions as may be necessary to make such payment.

3. The authority shall not be deemed a "covered organization" as defined in the New York state financial emergency act for the city of New York.

§ 1737. Civil service. 1. a. The authority, for the purpose of administering the state civil service law, shall be deemed to be a municipal commission provided, however, that (i) the authority may elect to delegate the administration of any or all of the provisions of the civil service law, except article fourteen of such law, to the department of personnel of the city of New York with respect to titles established at the authority and which the city has also established and promulgates; (ii) the civil service commission of the city of New York shall exercise on behalf of the authority the powers and duties of review assigned under sections fifty, seventy-two, and seventy-six of the civil service law; and (iii) the New York city office of administrative trials and hearings will be designated the hearing office and shall conduct on behalf of the authority such hearings as are required by sections seventy-one, seventy-two, seventy-three, seventy-five and eighty-one of the civil service law.

b. In the event the authority elects to delegate administration of any or all of the provisions of the civil service law pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision, the city department of personnel shall enter into a contract with such authority for the rendition of such services. The authority shall compensate the city of New York for such services only with respect to such services rendered for or on behalf of the authority. If the city of New York and the authority cannot agree on the amount of such compensation, the city comptroller shall determine the fair and reasonable value of such services and the authority shall pay such sum to the city of New York.

2. a. Any person on an eligible list for a position with the city board in effect on the effective date of this title shall continue to hold such position on such list and shall be entitled to the same civil service rights.

b. The authority shall continue to use any new or existing civil service lists promulgated by the city department of personnel until such time as successor titles are established.

3. With respect to persons employed by the city board on the effective date of this section, the authority and the city board shall be deemed to be the same public employer only for purposes of transfer of employment under the civil service law. No civil service right of an employee of the city board employed on the effective date of this title shall be lost, impaired or affected by reason of the enactment of this section into law.

4. A tripartite panel shall be established, consisting of one person representing the authority, one person representing the appropriate public employee organization and an impartial person selected by these representatives. This panel shall hear complaints filed by such public employee organization with respect to the creation and classification of new titles and shall render non-binding written recommendations to the public employee organization and the authority prior to the public hearing required of a municipal civil service commission pursuant to section twenty of the civil service law, provided that the hearing of the tripartite panel shall be expedited so as to avoid delay.

§ 1738. Retirement of employees. 1. Employees of the authority shall be eligible to join the board of education retirement system as established in section twenty-five hundred seventy-five of the education law and pursuant to the usual rules of that system, provided that a new employee who upon appointment by or transfer to the authority is a member of the New York city employees retirement system may remain a member of the New York city employees retirement system if, within ninety days of the effective date of the transfer to or appointment by the authority, the employee exercises an election to do so. Furthermore, the retirement rights of employees of the city board employed on the effective date of this title shall not be impaired by reason of the enactment of this title into law.

2. a. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other general or local law, administrative code or ordinance to the contrary, any employee of the authority who was suspended on or after December first, two thousand two because of economy measures taken by the authority, and who returned to such service prior to January eighth, two thousand eight, shall be deemed to have been in continuous service in determining length of service for retirement purposes; provided, however, that for retirement purposes, a member receiving such service credit shall pay the additional member contributions prescribed by paragraph b of this subdivision. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a person who otherwise meets the requirements of this paragraph for obtaining retirement service credit for such period of suspension, and who, after returning to such service from such period of suspension, retired for service or disability from a position with the authority prior to the effective date of this subdivision, may obtain retirement service credit for such period of suspension by (i) filing with the retirement system an application to purchase such retirement service credit within one hundred twenty days after the effective date of this subdivision, and (ii) paying to the retirement system the amount required by paragraph b of this subdivision within one year after the effective date of this subdivision.

b. In addition to the regular member contributions that may be payable for his or her current service, such member shall pay by deductions from his or her compensation the following additional member contributions:

(i) all regular member contributions which such member would have been required to pay to the retirement system for such period of suspension if he or she had been in service during such period of suspension; and

(ii) if such member is a participant in a special plan, the additional member contributions attributable to participation in such special plan which he or she would have been required to pay to the retirement system for such period of suspension if he or she had been in service during such period of suspension; and

(iii) an amount equivalent to the additional costs to the employer of providing retirement service credit to such member for such period of suspension, as determined by the actuary for the retirement system.

c. The deductions for the additional member contributions referred to in paragraph b of this subdivision shall be made in accordance with such equitable method and over such equitable period of time as shall be prescribed by the executive director of the member's retirement system with the approval of the board of trustees.

d. The additional member contributions referred to in subparagraph (i) of paragraph b of this subdivision shall be paid into the account established by the retirement system for the deposit and accumulation of such member's regular member contributions. The additional member contributions referred to in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph b of this subdivision shall be paid into the contingent reserve fund of such retirement system and shall be subject to the provisions of law which govern additional member contributions in the special plan in which such member is a participant. The additional member contributions referred to in subparagraph (iii) of paragraph b of this subdivision shall be paid into the contingent reserve fund of such retirement system and shall not be subject to any retirement system right or privilege of such member, unless such right or privilege is granted by other provisions of law which specifically refer to additional member contributions made pursuant to subparagraph (iii) of paragraph b of this subdivision.

e. At any time prior to completion of the deductions for the additional member contributions referred to in paragraph b of this subdivision, payment of the remainder of the total of such additional contributions required by such paragraph may be made in a lump sum.

§ 1739. Collective negotiation. 1. For the purpose of article fourteen of the civil service law, the authority shall be deemed to be the public employer and as such shall negotiate with and enter into written agreements with employee organizations representing the staff of the authority that have been certified or recognized under such article. In carrying on such negotiations, the authority shall consult with and seek assistance from the office of labor relations and collective bargaining of the city board and the New York city office of municipal labor relations. The state public employment relations board shall have exclusive jurisdiction for the purpose of administering the provisions of such article and the provisions of section two hundred twelve of such article shall not be applicable to any such negotiations.

2. Employees transferred from the city board to the authority shall be included in an appropriate employer-employee negotiating unit pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law except for those employees who are designated managerial or confidential. With respect to such employees, the existing public employee organization recognized or certified to represent the employees of the existing negotiating unit shall be recognized as the representative for the negotiating unit of the authority.

3. Future alterations of the negotiating unit shall be made pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law.

4. a. The authority shall consult with the appropriate public employee organization on the establishment of, and bargain all terms and conditions of, any new titles it establishes which have a community of interest with titles already represented by the public employee organization which presently has representation rights for those titles at the city board or at the city of New York.

b. Any such titles for which terms and conditions are bargained pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision shall be deemed to be successor titles within the meaning of applicable law and, so long as the responsibilities of employees in these titles are reasonably related to the responsibilities of employees currently represented by a public employee organization, shall be accreted to the appropriate bargaining certificates for which such public employee organization shall be voluntarily recognized as the bargaining agent under procedures acceptable to the state public employment relations board.

§ 1740. Use of outside design, drafting or inspection services. 1. All design, drafting or inspection services necessary in connection with the approved educational facilities capital plan shall be performed by appropriate employees of the authority, except as otherwise provided in this section.

2. a. The authority will undertake design, drafting and inspection services with employees of the authority so that (i) not less than twenty percent of such work performed in the years ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred eighty-nine, and June thirtieth, nineteen hundred ninety will be so undertaken; (ii) not less than thirty percent of such work performed in the year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred ninety-one will be so undertaken; and (iii) not less than forty percent of such work performed in the year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred ninety-two and thereafter will be so undertaken. Each such percentage shall be determined by the value of the work performed for its respective fiscal year for such design, drafting and inspection services in the approved educational facilities capital plan.

b. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph a of this subdivision, design, drafting and inspection services may be performed by persons other than employees of the authority in any given fiscal year when the amount of services allowed to be performed by persons other than employees of the authority pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision have been exhausted for that fiscal year, and when:

(1) Performance by persons other than employees of the authority is necessary to avoid a conflict of interest, as defined in regulations promulgated by the authority, and is a direct consequence of an accident or other unforeseen circumstance; or

(2) (A) Current employees of the authority are otherwise engaged and cannot be reassigned to perform the services; (B) new employees cannot be hired within a reasonable time to perform such services; and (C) such services are needed in connection with work undertaken in response to an emergency. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "emergency" shall mean a situation involving danger to life, safety or property which requires immediate action, is essential to efficient operation or the adequate provision of service by the city board or the authority, and is a direct consequence of an accident or other unforeseen circumstance.

3. a. Design, drafting or inspection services above the minimum percentages reserved for employees of the authority pursuant to paragraph a of subdivision two of this section may be performed by other than appropriate employees of the authority if to do so is (i) cost effective, (ii) required to obtain special expertise not available through the appropriate employees of the authority, (iii) required to perform a service of short duration, (iv) required to respond to an emergency, or (v) required to avoid a conflict of interest.

b. Prior to executing a contract for design, drafting or inspection services pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision, the authority shall prepare a specific statement which sets forth the objective data supporting the reasons why the proposed contract meets one or more of the requirements set forth in such paragraph. Where use of the contract is stated to be in compliance with subparagraph (i) of such paragraph, such statement shall include certification that the contract will not cause the displacement of authority employees.

c. (1) Prior to the scheduled award of the contract proposed to be awarded pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision, the authority shall provide all employee organizations that represent authority employees who would otherwise perform such work with copies of the statement rendered pursuant to paragraph b of this subdivision and the proposed contract so that each such employee organization shall have at least fifteen days to object to the proposed contract. Any employee organization which provides a timely written notice of objection and the reasons therefor shall, unless the authority agrees in writing to withdraw the proposed contract, be permitted to be heard by the authority's trustees prior to the award of the contract.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions contained within subparagraph one of this paragraph, the employee organization may be provided less than the required fifteen days to object to the proposed contract when the contract is required to respond to an emergency as defined in subparagraph two of paragraph b of subdivision two of this section; provided, however, that all other provisions of such clause shall be observed.

4. No later than ten days prior to the date set by the city charter for the holding of hearings on the mayor's annual preliminary budget statements for capital projects, the authority shall prepare a report specifying the projects from the approved educational facilities plan which the authority plans to commit to during the next fiscal year. If the authority intends to contract for design, drafting or inspection services in connection with any project so specified, the report shall further specify (i) for which projects the services are needed; (ii) the type of services to be provided pursuant to contract; (iii) the estimated cost of the contract; and (iv) the reason or reasons why award of the contract is consistent with this subdivision. The report shall be filed in the authority's office and in the office of the city board, and shall be available to the public upon request. The authority shall file revisions to the report so as to provide advance notice of not less than thirty days of additional projects that the authority plans to undertake on which the authority intends to contract for design, drafting or inspection services. Such revisions shall be in accordance with the criteria of this subdivision. Such revisions shall also identify projects which the authority included in its report but which the authority does not intend to pursue in the applicable fiscal year. The authority shall file such revisions in the authority's office and in the office of the city board, and such revisions shall be available to the public upon request. Such report and revisions shall not preclude the authority from entering into contracts or undertaking projects.

5. Nothing herein shall be deemed to create a cause of action against the authority challenging the board's determination to award a contract pursuant to subdivision three of this section, except to challenge a failure by the authority to adhere to the process set forth in paragraphs b and c of subdivision three of this section.

§ 1741. Deposit and investment of moneys of the authority. 1. The authority may establish and maintain funds for the purpose of receiving and expending moneys received by the authority.

2. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the authority and shall be deposited in accounts held in the authority's name in the bank or banks in the state designated by the authority. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on checks of the authority upon requisition by the chairman or such other officer or officers as the authority may authorize to make such requisitions.

3. Any moneys on deposit in the accounts of the authority not required for immediate expenditure shall be invested in obligations in which a municipality may be authorized to invest in accordance with section eleven of the general municipal law, provided, however, that such funds shall not be invested in instruments commonly known as repurchase agreements.

4. The authority shall provide the city with records and other information regarding (i) the nature of work performed by the authority's employees so as to enable the city to determine the extent to which the cost of such services may be treated as capital costs of the city and the educational facilities to which such costs pertain and (ii) the investment of funds received from the city so as to enable the city to comply with the requirements of federal tax laws and preserve the tax-exempt status of obligations issued by the city. The authority shall cooperate with the city in all respects to ensure that all investments are made in a manner that preserves the tax-exempt status of such obligations.

§ 1742. Exemption of the authority. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any real or personal property, while owned or subject to any rights of the authority, shall be exempt from all taxes, special assessments and special ad valorem levies and from the payment of any and all charges, rents or other payments to the city, other than charges for services provided by the city's water and sewer systems. In addition, any in rem actions or proceedings brought against such property by the city or any other actions or proceedings concerning any of the above brought against the authority by the city, and any such actions or proceedings shall be void and shall be subject to dismissal upon application of the authority at the sole expense of the city of New York. In no instance shall title to any such property pass to the city of New York except by deed or other appropriate document of sale, release or conveyance executed by the authority.

2. Debts of the authority shall not be considered debts of the state or debts of the city.

§ 1743. Equal employment opportunity program and minority and women-owned business enterprise program. 1. Notwithstanding any other inconsistent provision of law, sections 8-107 and 8-108.1 of the administration code of the city of New York shall apply to the activities of the authority.

2. a. The provisions of section 6-108.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York with respect to the award of contracts to locally based enterprises shall apply to contracts entered into by the authority provided, however, that notwithstanding any provision of such section or of chapter thirteen-A of the charter of the city of New York, the authority shall exercise the powers of the mayor set forth in such section with respect to: the establishment of procedures for the certification of businesses; the approval or granting of waivers of the requirements of such section; the promulgation of rules and regulations for the purpose of implementing the provisions of such section; and the submission of annual reports concerning the administration of the program established pursuant to such section. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the limitation on gross receipts of qualified locally based enterprises set forth in clause (a) of subdivision six of paragraph a of section 6-108.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York may be raised by the authority upon a determination that a higher limitation is necessary to meet the goals of the locally based enterprise program.

b. The authority shall establish and implement reasonable procedures to secure the meaningful participation of minority and women owned business enterprises in its procurement process. In addition to procedures it has already adopted for such purpose, the authority may use the same measures, to enhance minority and women owned business enterprise participation, as are available to the city of New York pursuant to article five-A of the general municipal law, section thirteen hundred four of the New York city charter, paragraphs one and two of subdivision i of section three hundred eleven of the New York city charter, and section 6-129 of the administrative code of the city of New York.

3. The provisions of executive order fifty of the mayor of the city of New York, dated April twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred eighty, as amended, shall apply to contracts of the authority unless and until such provisions are revoked, and the requirements of chapter thirteen-B of the charter of such city shall apply to contracts of the authority; provided, however, that with respect to such order, or any other program concerning equal employment opportunity or affirmative action to which contracts entered into by the authority are subject, such program shall be administered by an officer of the authority designated by the authority, and no other agency shall have jurisdiction over the compliance by the authority with the requirements of any such program.

§ 1744. Claims and actions against the authority. 1. Except in an action for wrongful death, no action or proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority, or any member, officer, agent, or employee thereof, for personal injury or damage to real or personal property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence or wrongful act of the authority or of any such member, officer, agent or employee thereof, or for any other alleged tort of the authority or of such member, officer, agency or employee thereof, unless (i) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers that a notice of claim shall have been made and served upon the authority, within the time limit prescribed by and in compliance with section fifty-e of the general municipal law, and that at least thirty days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused, and (ii) the action or proceeding shall be commenced within one year after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

2. No action or proceeding for any cause whatever, other than the one for personal injury, death, property damage or tort, which shall be governed by subdivision one of this section, relating to the design, construction, reconstruction, improvement, rehabilitation, repair, furnishing or equipping of educational facilities, shall be prosecuted or maintained against the authority or any member, officer, agent, or employee thereof, unless (i) it shall appear by and as an allegation in the complaint or moving papers, that a detailed, written, verified notice of each claim upon which any part of such action or proceeding is founded was presented to the board within three months after the accrual of such claim, that at least thirty days have elapsed since such notice was so presented and that the authority or the officer or body having the power to adjust or pay said claim has neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof, and (ii) the action or proceeding shall have been commenced within one year after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based; provided, however, that nothing contained in this subdivision shall be deemed to modify or supersede any provision of law or contract specifying a shorter period of time in which to commence such action or proceeding, or to excuse compliance with any other conditions required by contract to be satisfied prior to the commencement of such action or proceeding. In the case of an action or special proceeding for monies due arising out of contract, accrual of such claim shall be deemed to have occurred as of the date payment for the amount claimed was denied.

3. The notice of each claim presented pursuant to subdivision two of this section must set forth in detail with respect to such claim; (i) the amount of the claim; (ii) a specific and detailed description of the grounds for the claim, relating the dollar amount claimed to the event purportedly giving rise to the claim and indicating how the dollar amount is arrived at; and (iii) the date of the event allegedly underlying the claim.

4. The provisions of subdivision two of section twenty-five hundred sixty-two of the education law shall apply to all claims made against the authority.

5. The authority shall have power to settle or adjust all claims in favor of or against the authority.

6. Whenever a notice of claim is served upon the authority alleging personal injury, it shall have the right to demand a physical examination of the claimant relative to the occurrence and extent of the injuries or damages for which claim is made, in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-h of the general municipal law.

7. The rate of interest to be paid by the authority upon any judgment for which it is liable, shall not exceed the rate of interest on judgments and accrued claims against municipal corporations as provided in the general municipal law from time to time.

§ 1745. Limited liability. Neither the members of the board nor any officers or employee of the authority acting on behalf thereof, while acting within the scope of such person's authority, shall be subject to any liability resulting from carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this title. A trustee, officer or employee of the authority shall be deemed an "employee" for the purposes of section fifty-k of the general municipal law, provided, however, that any trustee appointed by the governor or any employee of the state shall be deemed an "employee" for the purposes of section eighteen of the public officers law for any actions relating to their activities as a trustee of the authority created by this title.

§ 1746. Audit, annual and quarterly reports. 1. Beginning in nineteen hundred ninety and every year thereafter, the authority shall, within one hundred twenty days of the end of the city's fiscal year, submit to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate, the minority leader of the assembly, the chairs of the senate and assembly education committees and the chairs of the senate and assembly committees on corporations, authorities and commissions, the chairman of the senate committee on investigations, taxation, and government operations, the chairman of the assembly committee on oversight, analysis, and investigations, the mayor and the city board a report on its operations during such fiscal year. An annual audit of the authority shall be conducted by an independent certified public accountant, and the authority's independently audited financial statements shall be included in this report.

2. Beginning in nineteen hundred ninety, and every year thereafter, the authority shall, on the last day of April, July, October, and January, submit to all persons set forth in subdivision one of this section a report detailing the extent of completion of all projects for construction, reconstruction, improvement, rehabilitation, maintenance, repair, furnishing, equipping of or otherwise providing for educational facilities for the city board, including, by project, identified shortfalls in schedule performance and providing explanation for such shortfalls. Such reports shall detail the extent of completion as existed on the last day of the month preceding each report, respectively.

§ 1747. Effect of inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local or of the city charter or any local law, ordinance or resolution of the city, the provision of this title shall be controlling, provided that nothing contained in this section shall be held to supplement or otherwise expand the powers or duties of the authority otherwise set forth in this title.

§ 1748. Investigations. The department of investigation of the city of New York shall be authorized to conduct investigations relating to the authority pursuant to chapter thirty-four of the New York city charter.

TITLE 8

NEW YORK JOB DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

SUBTITLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SUBTITLE II

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FROM SPECIAL PURPOSE FUNDS

SUBTITLE III

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FROM POLLUTION CONTROL FUNDS

SUBTITLE IV

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE GENERALLY

SUBTITLE V

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SUBTITLE V-A

LOANS TO LENDERS PROGRAM

SUBTITLE VI

EMPLOYEE OWNERSHIP ASSISTANCE

SUBTITLE VII

SPECIAL PROJECT DEVELOPMENT

SUBTITLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1800. Short title. This title may be cited as the "New York job development authority act."

§ 1801. Definitions. As used or referred to in this title, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. "Assisted project" shall mean any project in respect of which the authority has granted a loan or guaranteed a loan.

2. "Authority" shall mean the New York job development authority created by subdivision one of section eighteen hundred two of this title.

3. "Banking organization" when used in this title shall mean (a) any organization defined by subdivision eleven of section two of the banking law, (b) any agency or branch of a foreign banking corporation licensed by the department of financial services under article five of the banking law, (c) any national bank, federal savings and loan association and federal credit union, (d) any authorized insurer defined by paragraph ten of subsection (a) of section one hundred seven of the insurance law and (e) any public or private pension or investment fund required to file a report with any state or federal regulatory or supervisory body.

4. "Comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state.

5. "Eligible business facility" shall mean any type of business facility to be used or occupied by any person in an enterprise deemed to offer a reasonable likelihood for promoting the creation or retention of job opportunities in the state, and includes, but is not limited to, industrial or manufacturing plants, facilities for research and development purposes, facilities for conducting wholesale, receiving and distributing operations, facilities for conducting office operations, warehousing operations, or any other operation dealing in the exchange of goods, wares, services or other types of property of any type or description.

6. "Federal agency" shall mean the United States of America, and any officer, department, board, commissioner, bureau, division, corporation, agency or instrumentality thereof.

7. "Industrial plant" shall include a manufacturing plant and a plant used in connection with extracting, smelting, recovering, developing, preparing, compounding, converting, assembling or producing in any manner, minerals, raw materials, chemicals, compounds, alloys, fibers, commodities and materials, products or substances of any kind or nature, and shall include facilities related thereto for storage, warehousing or distribution, for research and development or for the discovery of new and the refinement of known substances, processes and products.

8. "Local development corporation" shall mean a non-profit corporation incorporated or reincorporated under the laws of this state, regardless of its particular name, which shall meet the additional requirements of section eighteen hundred twenty-five of this title.

9. "Manufacturing plant" shall include a plant used in connection with making, creating, working, preparing, processing, milling, manufacturing, finishing, fashioning, fabricating, or producing in any manner, goods, wares, merchandise, metals, fabrics, materials, products or substances of any kind or nature.

10. "Municipality" shall mean any county, city, town or village in the state.

11. a. "Loan" shall mean (i) a mortgage loan evidenced by a bond, note or other obligation of a local development corporation secured by a mortgage on a project, defined in subdivision fourteen (i) and (ii) of this section, made by a local development corporation, a project occupant or other person, firm or corporation; (ii) a loan evidenced by a bond, note or other obligation of a local development corporation, a project occupant, or other person, firm or corporation secured by a loan agreement, contract or such other instrument deemed necessary or convenient on a project defined in subdivision fourteen (iii) of this section; (iii) a loan evidenced by a bond, note or other obligation of a local development corporation, a project occupant, or other person, firm or corporation secured by a security interest in machinery and equipment as provided in section eighteen hundred fourteen; and (iv) an employee ownership assistance loan made pursuant to paragraph (v) of subdivision fourteen of this section.

b. "Loan guarantee" shall mean the guaranteeing by the authority of a loan made by a banking organization on a project as defined in subdivision fourteen of this section.

12. "Pollution control facilities" shall mean real or personal property having to do with, or the end purpose of which, is the control, abatement or prevention of land, sewer, water, air, thermal, radiational, noise or general environmental pollution resulting from the operation of an industrial, manufacturing or research plant.

13. "Plant" shall mean real property, the buildings, improvements and structures thereon and the fixtures thereon other than machinery or equipment used by a project occupant in its operations.

14. "Project" shall mean (i) the construction of a new industrial or manufacturing plant, a new research and development building or other new eligible business facility, (ii) the acquisition, rehabilitation or improvement of a former or existing industrial or manufacturing plant, of a former or existing building to be used for research and development, of a former or existing other eligible business facility, (iii) the construction, acquisition, rehabilitation or improvement of pollution control facilities, (iv) the purchase of machinery and equipment, for which financial assistance from the authority is sought, or (v) assistance to employees under an employee ownership assistance loan agreement made pursuant to subtitle six of this title; provided, however, that any such plant, building, facility or machinery and equipment therefore shall not be primarily used in making retail sales of goods or services to customers who personally visit such facilities to obtain such goods or services, or used primarily as a hotel, apartment house or other place of business which furnishes dwelling space or accommodations to either residents or transients.

15. "Project cost" shall mean the aggregate costs incurred to finance the construction, acquisition, rehabilitation, or improvement of a project, and which are determined by the authority to be or to have been reasonably necessary therefor, including, without intending thereby to limit the generality of such costs: the cost of acquiring real property therefor; the cost of constructing or reconstructing buildings and improvements thereon, including, to the extent such costs are not borne by the municipality or other taxing district within which the project is located, the cost of constructing means of access to and from such project; the cost of constructing extensions to the project site of existing utility systems if such costs are customarily borne by the consumer; insurance premiums, financing charges, interest costs, commitment fees and the like incurred prior to or during the period of construction, acquisition, rehabilitation or improvement; any fees or charges imposed by the authority in respect of an application for a mortgage loan; the cost of preparing project specifications, maps, plans, surveys, estimates, applications and other documents, including costs related to determination of the feasibility of the project in the planning stages; and all such other costs, charges, fees, and expenses, including labor costs, overhead costs, the costs of materials and supplies, and engineering, accounting and legal expenses, as may be reasonably incident to the construction, acquisition, rehabilitation or improvement of the project; provided, however, that the term "project cost" except when used in subtitle III of this title shall not include the cost of any machinery or equipment (other than fixtures) or personal property to be used by the project occupant in its operations or any expenses related to the installation, replacement or rehabilitation thereof.

16. "Project occupant" shall mean the business enterprise which proposes to use a project after construction, acquisition, rehabilitation or improvement.

17. "Real property" shall mean lands, waters, rights in lands or waters, structures, franchises and interests in land, including lands under water and riparian rights, and any and all other things and rights usually included within the said term and includes also any and all interests in such property less than full title, such as easements permanent or temporary, rights-of-way, uses, leases, licenses and all other incorporeal hereditaments in every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable.

18. "State" shall mean the state of New York.

19. "State agency" shall mean any officer, department, board, commission, bureau, division, public corporation, agency or instrumentality of the state.

§ 1802. New York job development authority. 1. There is hereby created the "New York job development authority." The authority shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit corporation. Its members shall consist of the commissioner of economic development, the commissioner of labor, the commissioner of agriculture and markets, and the superintendent of financial services, serving ex officio, and seven members to be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. Each member appointed by the governor shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state.

1-a. The commissioner of economic development, the commissioner of labor, the commissioner of agriculture and markets, and the superintendent of financial services each may designate a person from his department to represent him at all meetings of the authority from which such member may be absent. Any representative so designated shall have the power to attend and to vote at any meeting of the authority from which the member so designating him is absent, with the same force and effect as if the member designating him were present and voting. Such designation shall be by written notice to the chairman by the member making the designation. Such designation shall not limit the power of the member making the designation to attend and vote in person at any meeting of the authority.

2. Members shall continue in office until the expiration of their terms and until their successors have been appointed and confirmed. Persons appointed for full terms as their successors shall serve for four years each commencing as of January first. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of a member by death, resignation or otherwise, the governor shall appoint a successor with the advice and consent of the senate to serve for the balance of the unexpired term.

3. The members of the authority shall serve without salary or other compensation, but each member shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his or her official duties.

4. The members of the authority may engage in private employment, or in a profession or business, subject to the limitations contained in sections seventy-three and seventy-four of the public officers law. The authority shall, for the purposes of such sections, be a "state agency", and such members shall be "officers" of the agency for the purposes of said sections. In addition, the authority may adopt such standards and procedures as it considers necessary to ensure compliance with the provisions of sections seventy-three and seventy-four of the public officers law.

5. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of law, general, special or local, no officer or employee of the state, or of any civil division thereof, shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his office or employment by reason of his acceptance of membership on the authority created by this section, provided, however, that a member who holds such other public office or employment shall receive no additional compensation or allowance for services rendered pursuant to this title, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of such services.

6. The governor may remove any member for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office after giving him a copy of the charges against him, and an opportunity to be heard, in person or by counsel, in his defense, upon not less than ten days' notice. If any such member shall be removed, the governor shall file in the office of the department of state a complete statement of charges made against such member, and his findings thereon, together with a complete record of the proceedings.

7. The commissioner of economic development shall be the chairman of the authority and shall preside over all meetings of the authority and shall have such other duties as the authority may direct. A vice-chairman may be elected by the authority from among its other members for one or more terms of one year each. The vice-chairman shall preside over all meetings of the authority in the absence of the commissioner of economic development and shall have such other duties as the authority may direct.

8. Six members of the authority shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business or the exercise of any power or function of the authority. Resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes of the authority and resolutions authorizing the granting of mortgage loans shall be approved by not less than six members of the authority at a meeting duly called for such purpose, but for the transaction of any other business or the performance of any other power or function of the authority, the authority may act by a majority of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is in attendance.

8-a. Determination on mortgage loan applications. The chairman of the authority shall convene meetings for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the authority at regular intervals, and whenever prudent and practical, the authority shall render a determination on an application for a mortgage loan and notify the applicant of the determination within four weeks of the receipt of such completed application. In the event that a determination cannot be reached within the four week period, the authority shall submit to the applicant a statement of the reasons for such delay upon or prior to the expiration of such four week period.

9. The authority may appoint such persons to serve as officers of the authority as it may deem advisable, including a president and a counsel, and such employees as it deems advisable, and may prescribe their duties and fix their compensation, subject to the civil service law and the rules and regulations of the civil service commission of the state.

10. The authority may appoint one or more advisory committees consisting of not more than seven members each to consider and advise the authority upon all matters submitted to them by the authority and to recommend to the authority such changes in the administration of this title and the operations of the authority as the advisory committee may deem desirable. Members of advisory committees shall serve without salary for such terms, not to exceed four years, as the authority may determine. Each member of an advisory committee shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary travel expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

§ 1803. Purposes of the authority. The purposes of the authority shall be:

1. To assist, promote, encourage, develop and advance the general prosperity and economic welfare of the people of the state and to improve their standard of living.

2. To improve employment opportunities in any area of the state by assisting in financing of:

(a) the cost of projects for the construction, acquisition, rehabilitation or improvement of any new, existing or former (i) industrial or manufacturing plant, (ii) building used for research and development, or (iii) other eligible business facility within the state, including the acquisition of real property therefor, by means of loans to non-profit local development corporations not to exceed forty percent of the cost of such project, the repayment of which shall be secured by a mortgage which shall not be a junior encumbrance thereon by more than fifty percent of such cost, and by means of the guarantees of the loans made by banking organizations which guaranty shall not exceed eighty percent of the cost of the project, provided, however, that such loans may be in excess of forty percent but shall not exceed sixty percent of the cost of such project for loans in economically distressed areas and to companies in need of special assistance pursuant to the provisions of subdivision seven of section eighteen hundred twenty-three of this chapter.

(b) the purchase of machinery and equipment for use within the state, by means of loans to non-profit local development corporations not to exceed forty percent of the cost of such purchase which shall be secured by a security interest in such project, and by means of the guarantee of loans made by banking organizations which guaranty shall not exceed eighty percent of the cost of the project, provided, however, that such loans may be in excess of forty percent but shall not exceed sixty percent of the cost of such project for loans in economically distressed areas and to companies in need of special assistance pursuant to the provisions of subdivision seven of section eighteen hundred twenty-three of this chapter.

3. To advance the development of industrial, manufacturing, research and development, or other eligible business enterprises throughout the state, including those defined as small business concerns under the act of congress entitled "Small Business Investment Act of 1958".

4. To assist in financing the cost of projects for the construction, acquisition, rehabilitation or improvement of pollution control facilities, by means of loans of pollution control funds to non-profit local development corporations not to exceed ninety percent of the cost of any such project.

In carrying out the purposes of this section and in exercising the powers granted under this act, the authority shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function.

§ 1803-a. Additional duties of the authority. It shall be the duty of the authority to make rules and regulations governing the exercise of its corporate powers and the fulfillment of its corporate purposes under this title, which rules and regulations shall be promulgated under the state administrative procedure act with the assistance of the commissioner of economic development and in consultation with the department of economic development and shall be consistent with the program plan required by subdivision nineteen of section one hundred of the economic development law.

§ 1804. General powers and duties of the authority. Subject to the other provisions of this title and the provisions of any contract with bondholders or noteholders, the authority shall have the following powers in addition to the powers specifically conferred upon the authority elsewhere in this title:

1. To sue and be sued;

2. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;

3. To make and alter by-laws for its organization and internal management;

4. To make rules and regulations governing the exercise of its corporate powers and the fulfillment of its corporate purposes under this title, which rules and regulations shall be filed with the department of state in the manner provided by section one hundred two of the executive law and to maintain its system of internal controls in conformity with the relevant standards specified by authoritative national standard setting bodies;

5. To make loans and loan guaranties secured by loan agreements, mortgages, contracts and all other instruments necessary or convenient for the exercise of its corporate powers and the fulfillment of its corporate purposes under this title; and to require the inclusion in any lease or other agreement in respect of a project (a) such provisions as to the use of the project as the authority may deem necessary or desirable for the fulfillment of its corporate purposes and (b) such provisions as to the reporting to it by the parties to such lease or other agreement of such information as it deems necessary to monitor (i) compliance by such parties with the provisions of this title and with the provisions of any rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this title and (ii) the progress of the project occupant or of the business enterprise described in section eighteen hundred twenty-seven of this title in achieving the representations made in the application submitted pursuant to section eighteen hundred twenty-four of this title;

6. In connection with loans, loan guarantees, or any applications or commitments therefor, to make and collect such fees and charges as the authority shall determine to be reasonable;

7. To purchase, receive, lease or otherwise acquire, and hold in the name of the state or otherwise, or contract to acquire from any person, firm, corporation, municipality, federal or state agency, by grant, purchase, or otherwise, and to sell, convey, mortgage, lease, pledge or otherwise dispose of, upon such terms and conditions as the authority may deem advisable, real and personal property, together with such rights and privileges as may be incidental and appurtenant thereto and to the use thereof, including but not restricted to any real or personal property acquired by the authority from time to time upon foreclosure of any mortgage or in the satisfaction of debts or in the enforcement of obligations; provided, however, that the terms and conditions of any sale or other disposition by the authority of property conveyed to it pursuant to section eighteen hundred thirty-a of this title including the consideration involved, shall be subject to the approval of the director of the budget, prior to such sale or other disposition;

8. To sell at public or private sale, or pledge or assign, any loan made by the authority and any mortgage or other obligation securing a loan made by the authority;

9. To foreclose on any real or personal property in respect of which it has made a loan or issued a loan guarantee or commence or join in any action or proceeding to protect or enforce any right conferred upon it by law or by contract and to bid for and purchase such property at any foreclosure or at any other sale or acquire or take possession of any such property; and in such event the authority may operate, maintain, administer, pay the principal of and interest on any obligation incurred in connection with such property, and otherwise deal with, such property, in such manner as may be necessary or desirable to protect the interest of the authority therein; and further with regard to loans and loan guarantees made by the authority, it shall have the right to require at the time of the making of the loan or issuance of the loan guarantee, or at any time thereafter, in a form acceptable to it, a deed to all rights and interest in the real or personal property as a security interest, such deed to be termed a "deed in lieu of foreclosure", and shall be empowered hereby to record such deed upon a default in the payment or terms of any loan made by or guaranteed by the authority, and to thereby transfer to the authority by such recording both title and all rights of ownership in such property in accordance with section eighteen hundred four-a of this article;

10. To enter into agreements to pay annual sums in lieu of taxes to any municipality or taxing district of the state in respect of any real property which is owned by the authority and located in such municipality or taxing district, provided, however, that the amount so paid for any year upon any such property shall not exceed the sum last paid as taxes on such property to such municipality or taxing district prior to the time of its acquisition by the authority;

11. To procure insurance against any loss in connection with loans or with real and personal property or other assets of the authority of any nature whatsoever in such amounts, and from such insurers, as it deems desirable;

12. To consent to the modification of the time of payment of any installment of principal or interest, the rate of interest (within the limits prescribed by sections eighteen hundred sixteen and eighteen hundred twenty-one), the security, or any other terms of any loan, loan guarantee, loan commitment, contract or agreement of any kind to which the authority is a party whenever it deems it necessary or desirable in the fulfillment of the purposes of this title;

13. To encourage the organization of local development corporations and to cooperate with such corporations in the formation of plans for improving employment opportunities within their areas of operation;

13-a. To develop and annually update a five year strategic plan setting forth the goals and objectives of the authority for each of the next five years and annual operational targets that are designed to ensure the efficient and effective use of the authority's resources in meeting such goals and objectives. Such strategic plan shall also include, but not be limited to, information as to the areas of the state, if any, and the categories of project occupants or business enterprises as described in section eighteen hundred twenty-seven of this title, if any, where, and in regard to which, it will seek to increase its lending activity, and information as to the steps which it plans on taking to so direct its lending activity. In developing and updating such strategic plan the authority shall utilize any area employment opportunity improvement plans formulated in accordance with subdivision thirteen of this section and such other information which it deems appropriate. Such categories shall include but not be limited to minority and women-owned businesses; firms located in economically distressed rural and urban communities; firms employing displaced workers or economically disadvantaged individuals, or participants in job training programs for economically disadvantaged individuals or displaced workers; or firms, including, but not limited to, cooperative corporations, involved in acquiring existing businesses that the current owners have proposed closing or have closed;

13-b. To adopt and, as necessary, revise criteria and methods to be used by the authority and by local development corporations in evaluating loan applications in accordance with the provisions of section eighteen hundred twenty-six of this title and with such other standards and procedures which it deems necessary and appropriate.

13-c. To adopt and, as necessary, revise criteria to be used in determining the portion of the cost of individual projects which should be financed by the authority. Such criteria shall encourage different levels or degrees of financial assistance by the authority. Copies of such criteria and methods shall be provided to all local development corporations;

13-d. To require that any new employment opportunities created in connection with industrial or commercial projects financed through loans or loan guarantees from the authority shall be listed with the New York state department of labor job service division and with the administrative entity of the service delivery area created pursuant to the federal job training partnership act (P.L. 97-300) in which the project is located and shall first consider for such employment opportunities persons eligible to participate in federal job training partnership act programs who shall be referred to such firms by such administrative entities or by the job service division of the department of labor; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to require project occupants or business entities as defined in section eighteen hundred twenty-seven of this title, to violate any existing collective bargaining agreement with respect to the hiring of new employees. Such listing shall be in a manner and form prescribed by the authority in consultation with the commissioner of labor and the commissioner of economic development.

13-e. To implement, on behalf of any local development corporation so requesting, the responsibilities assigned to such corporation by subdivision four of section eighteen hundred twenty-five of this title.

14. To cooperate and act in conjunction with any organization, public or private, or federal or state agency the objects of which within any area of the state are similar to the purposes of the authority;

15. To accept gifts, grants or loans from, and enter into contracts or other transactions with, any federal or state agency, any municipality, any private organization or any other source;

16. To engage the services of bond counsel, accountants or other private consultants on a contract basis for rendering professional and technical assistance and advice;

17. To procure insurance to secure the payment of principal and interest on any bonds, notes or other obligations of the authority;

18. To do any and all things necessary or convenient to (a) carry out its corporate purposes, (b) exercise the powers given and granted in this title, and (c) further the goals and objectives and achieve the operational targets set forth in the strategic plan adopted pursuant to subdivision thirteen of this section.

§ 1804-a. Deed in lieu of foreclosure. 1. The authority is hereby authorized to require at the time of the making of the loan or issuance of the loan guarantee, or at any time thereafter, in a form acceptable to it, a deed to all rights and interests in the real or personal property, as a security interest, such deed to be termed a "deed in lieu of foreclosure", and is empowered hereby to record such deed upon a default in the payment or terms of any loan made or guaranteed by the authority. By such recording title to and all rights of ownership in such property shall be thereby transferred to the authority notwithstanding the existence of any other deeds which are, or may be, recorded after the filing of a notice by the authority concerning the existence of such deed in lieu of foreclosure in accordance with subdivision six of this section and such later recorded deeds except for the deed in lieu of foreclosure shall be void and unenforceable.

2. Notwithstanding such transfer, all liens upon such property which are duly perfected prior to the recording of such deed in lieu of foreclosure, including any lien of the authority, shall continue in full effect and shall be subject to foreclosure at the suit of any of the lienholders, including the authority, and such lienholders' mortgage or other security interest shall not be deemed merged or unenforceable by such transfer.

3. Such deed given prior to recording shall be fully effective in passing title and all rights of ownership upon recording thereof by the authority notwithstanding the passage of time or changes in the ownership and officers of the project owner.

4. Notice that such deed in lieu of foreclosure exists shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county where such real or personal property is situated and shall be in the form prescribed in subdivision six of this section.

5. After the recording of such deed by the authority, the authority shall commence a foreclosure action upon its lien within one hundred twenty days in accordance with the real property actions and proceedings law. The grantor and former project owner may commence an action to compel the authority to foreclose its lien after such period of time, and is entitled to the excess of funds received from the foreclosure sale over the total liens outstanding on the property.

6. Such notice shall be in the form of a deed, duly acknowledged by the grantor and stating on its face "This is a security interest held by the New York job development authority and shall pass title to the within described property upon the recording of such deed in accordance with section eighteen hundred four-a of the public authorities law".

§ 1805. Issuance of bonds and notes by the authority. 1. Subject to the limitations of other provisions of this title, the authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to borrow money and to issue its negotiable bonds and notes in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code in such principal amounts as, in the opinion of the authority, shall be necessary to provide sufficient funds for achieving its corporate purposes, including the making of loans, the issuing of loan guarantees, the payment of interest on bonds and notes of the authority, the establishment of reserves to secure such bonds and notes, and all other expenditures of the authority incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out its corporate purposes and powers.

2. Bonds and notes shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, and shall be dated and shall mature as such resolution or resolutions may provide, except that no note or any renewal thereof shall mature more than seven years after the date of issue of the original note and no bond shall mature more than thirty years from the date of its issue. Bonds and notes shall bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption as such resolution or resolutions may provide.

3. Special purpose bonds and notes may be sold by the authority at public or private sale in such manner and on such terms and at such price or prices as the authority, with the approval of the comptroller, shall determine. If special purpose bonds are sold by the authority at public sale, such sale shall take place not less than six nor more than forty days after a notice of such sale has been published at least once in a newspaper published in Albany and in a financial newspaper published and circulating in New York city, which shall state the terms of sale as determined by the authority. Pollution control bonds and notes of the authority may be sold by the authority, at public or private sale, in such manner and on such terms and at such price or prices as the authority shall determine but shall not be sold by the authority at private sale unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by the comptroller where such sale is not to the comptroller, or by the director of the budget where such sale is to the comptroller.

4. In the discretion of the authority any bonds or issue of bonds or notes or issue of notes may be secured under resolutions of the authority or by a trust indenture by and between the authority and a corporate trustee which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company in the state or by a secured loan agreement or other instrument. The authority, in connection with any bonds or issue of bonds or notes or issue of notes and for the security or protection thereof and as a part of the contract with the holders thereof, by means of any such resolution, trust indenture, loan agreement or other instrument may (a) make and enter into any and all such covenants and agreements with the holders of such bonds or notes as the authority may determine to be necessary or desirable, including without limitation of the foregoing, covenants, provisions, limitations and agreements as to the application, use and disposition of the proceeds of any bonds or notes or of sale or other disposition of any mortgage or other property or of any other receipts, moneys or assets of the authority, or in which it has an interest, the exercise by the authority of its powers under this title with respect to loans and the revenues and receipts to be derived by the authority from such loans, the assignment of any right, title and interest in any mortgage in which the authority has an interest, the terms and amount of other bonds or notes to be issued by the authority, and the vesting in a trustee or trustees of funds or other property, rights, powers and duties in trust which may include any and all of the rights, powers and duties of a trustee appointed pursuant to section eighteen hundred eighteen of this title and limiting or abrogating the right of the bondholders or noteholders to appoint a trustee under said section or limiting the rights, duties and powers of such trustee, (b) pledge or assign any moneys, mortgages, loan agreements, leases or agreements as to the use of projects or other assets of the authority either presently in hand or to be received in the future, or both, and any right, title and interest in any mortgage or evidence of indebtedness secured thereby or other assets or property, and (c) provide for any other matters of like or different character which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds or notes, provided, however, that the principal of bonds and notes shall not be declared due and payable prior to maturity under or pursuant to any such resolution, trust indenture, loan agreement or other instrument by any trustee or agent for the bondholders or noteholders, unless the trustee or agent shall first give notice in writing to the governor, to the authority, to the comptroller and to the attorney general of the state, and if when any such notice is given the legislature shall be in session, the trustee or agent shall not declare the principal of bonds or notes due and payable before the legislature adjourns sine die, or if the legislature be not then in session, the trustee or agent shall not declare the principal of such bonds and notes due and payable until the adjournment sine die of the next regular session of the legislature. If at such session the legislature shall take any action as a result of which the past due principal and interest on such bonds and notes, with interest, together with the fees, counsel fees and expenses of the trustee or agent, and all costs and disbursements allowed by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be paid within sixty days of adjournment sine die, default in the payment thereof shall thereby be cured.

5. It is the intention of the legislature that any pledge made in respect of such bonds or notes shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; that the money or property so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution, trust indenture nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

6. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds or notes shall be liable personally on the bonds or notes or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

7. Subject to such agreements with bondholders or noteholders as may then exist, the authority shall have power to purchase special purpose bonds or notes of the authority out of any special purpose funds available therefor and to purchase pollution control bonds or notes of the authority out of any pollution control funds available therefor, at a price not exceeding (a) if the bonds or notes are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment due thereon, or (b) if the bonds or notes are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the bonds or notes become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to said date. Bonds and notes so purchased shall thereupon be cancelled.

8. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds or notes issued under this title and with any federal agency which loans or contributes funds in respect of an assisted project, that the state will not limit or alter the rights and powers vested in the authority by this title to fulfill the terms of any contract made by the authority with such holders or federal agency, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders until such bonds and notes, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state, insofar as it refers to holders of any bonds or notes of the authority, in any contract with such holders and insofar as it relates to a federal agency, in any contract with such agency.

§ 1806. Exemption from taxation of the property and income of the authority. The property of the authority and its income and operations shall be exempt from taxation.

§ 1807. Exemption from taxation of bonds and notes of the authority. The state covenants with the purchasers and with all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds and notes issued by the authority pursuant to this title, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds and notes, that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom, and all moneys, funds and revenues pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from taxation, except for estate and gift taxes and taxes on transfers.

§ 1808. Bonds and notes of the authority legal investments for fiduciaries. The bonds and notes of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of the state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks, savings associations, including savings and loan associations and building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or who may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds and notes of the authority are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

§ 1809. Right of state to require redemption of bonds. Notwithstanding and in addition to any provisions for the redemption of bonds which may be contained in any contract with the holders of the bonds, the state may, upon furnishing sufficient funds therefor, require the authority to redeem, prior to maturity, as a whole, any issue of bonds on any interest payment date not less than twenty years after the date of the bonds of such issue at one hundred five per cent of their face value and accrued interest or at such lesser redemption price as may be provided in the bonds in case of the redemption thereof as a whole on the redemption date. Notice of such redemption shall be published in at least two newspapers published and circulating respectively in the cities of Albany and New York at least twice, the first publication to be at least thirty days before the date of redemption.

§ 1810. Moneys of the authority. 1. All moneys of the authority, from whatever source derived, shall be paid to the commissioner of taxation and finance as agent of the authority, who shall not commingle such moneys with any other moneys. Such moneys shall be deposited in a separate bank account or accounts. The moneys in such accounts shall be paid out on checks signed by the commissioner of taxation and finance on requisition of the president of the authority or of such other officer or employee or officers or employees of the authority as the authority shall authorize to make such requisition. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the commissioner of taxation and finance or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States of America or of the state of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, the authority shall have power, subject to the approval of the commissioner of taxation and finance, to contract with the holders of any of its bonds or notes, as to the custody, collection, securing, investment and payment of any moneys of the authority, or of any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes, and to carry out such contracts. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or in any way to secure bonds or notes and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

3. Any moneys of the authority not required for immediate use or disbursement may, at the discretion of the authority, be invested by the commissioner of taxation and finance in accordance with all of the otherwise consistent provisions of section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law.

4. Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders and noteholders and to the approval of the comptroller, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

SUBTITLE II

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FROM SPECIAL PURPOSE FUNDS

§ 1811. Application of subtitle. Subject to the provisions of sections eighteen hundred twenty-two and eighteen hundred twenty-three of this title, the authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to make mortgage loans to local development corporations and loan guarantees to banking organizations with special purpose funds pursuant to this subtitle for costs of projects and to make loans and loan guarantees as provided in section eighteen hundred fourteen to improve employment opportunities in any area of the state.

§ 1812. Special purpose bonds and notes. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to issue at one time or in series from time to time special purpose bonds in an aggregate principal amount which shall not at any one time exceed seven hundred fifty million dollars, excluding special purpose bonds issued to refund outstanding special purpose bonds, and special purpose notes in anticipation of the issuance of such special purpose bonds.

2. The authority shall have power from time to time to renew special purpose notes or to issue renewal notes for such purpose, to issue special purpose bonds to pay special purpose notes, and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any special purpose bond by the issuance of new special purpose bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue special purpose bonds partly to refund special purpose bonds then outstanding and partly for the purposes specified in this subtitle. The bonds issued for refunding purposes shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds to be refunded.

§ 1813. Guaranty by the state. To the extent authorized by the constitution at the time of the issuance of the special purpose bonds or notes of the authority, the punctual payment of such special purpose bonds and notes shall be, and the same hereby is, fully and unconditionally guaranteed by the state, both as to principal and interest, according to their terms; and such guaranty shall be expressed upon the face thereof by the signature or facsimile signature of the comptroller or a deputy comptroller. In the event that the authority shall fail to pay when due, the principal of, or interest on, such special purpose bonds or notes, the comptroller shall set apart from the first revenues thereafter received, applicable to the general fund of the state, a sum sufficient to pay such principal or interest, as the case may be, and shall so apply the moneys thus set apart and thereupon the state shall be subrogated to the rights of the bondholders or noteholders so paid. The comptroller may be required to set aside and apply such revenues as aforesaid, at the suit of any holder of such bonds or notes.

§ 1814. Loans and loan guarantees for machinery and equipment. 1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, the authority may make loans to local development corporations to assist in financing the cost of machinery and equipment, provided, however,

(a) that the amount of such loan shall not exceed forty percent of the cost of such machinery and equipment, except as provided in paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section eighteen hundred three and paragraph (a) of subdivision seven of section eighteen hundred twenty-three of this chapter;

(b) that the loan shall be evidenced by a bond, note or other obligation of a local development corporation, a project occupant, or other person, firm or corporation and secured by a security agreement, chattel paper, loan agreement, or such other instruments or documents deemed necessary or convenient to perfect a security interest in the machinery and equipment financed and to protect the interests of the authority; and

(c) that such security interest taken by the authority shall not be subordinate, but may be a participating interest which, when added to the security interests of other lenders, does not exceed ninety percent of the cost of such machinery and equipment.

2. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, the authority may issue a loan guarantee to a banking organization to assist in financing the cost of machinery and equipment, provided, however,

(a) that the amount of the loan guarantee shall not exceed eighty percent of the amount of the cost of the machinery and equipment; and

(b) that the loan of the banking organization shall be evidenced by a bond, note or other obligation of a project occupant, or other person, firm or corporation and secured by a security agreement, chattel paper, loan agreement, or such other instruments or documents deemed necessary or convenient by the authority to perfect a security interest in the machinery and equipment financed and to protect the interests of the authority.

§ 1815. Special purpose funds. 1. The following shall constitute special purpose funds of the authority and shall, except as provided in paragraph (g) of subdivision two of this section, be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the authority: (a) the proceeds of sale of special purpose bonds and notes, (b) any moneys made available by the state for the purposes of this subtitle only, (c) any moneys made available to the authority for the purposes of this subtitle only from any other source or sources, including, without limitation, any federal agency, (d) any moneys received by the authority as payments on account of loans and loan guarantees made by the authority pursuant to this subtitle and any moneys now on hand or hereafter received by the authority as payments on account of mortgage loans heretofore made by the authority pursuant to subtitle three, (e) any fees, charges or other moneys received by the authority in respect of projects assisted by the authority pursuant to this subtitle or on account of applications therefor, (f) any income or interest earned by, or increment to, any special purpose funds due to the investment thereof, and (g) the proceeds of the sale of general purpose bonds or notes heretofore issued; provided, however, amounts received by the authority in respect of loan guarantees, issued or to be issued, shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the authority in a special purpose loan guarantee insurance fund as provided in subdivision three of this section.

2. Subject to the terms of any agreement with special purpose bondholders and noteholders, special purpose funds may be used by the authority only (a) to make mortgage loans to local development corporations for costs of projects and loans for machinery and equipment as provided in section eighteen hundred fourteen hereof to improve employment opportunities in any area of the state, (b) to pay the expenses of the authority referred to in clause (i) of subdivision one of section eighteen hundred twenty-eight of this title, (c) to repay advances from the state for use as special purpose funds in accordance with any provision of law or repayment agreement between the authority and the director of the budget, (d) to pay the principal and redemption price of or interest on special purpose bonds or notes, (e) to purchase special purpose bonds or notes, (f) to pay the principal and redemption price of or interest on any general purpose bonds or notes heretofore issued, (g) to make deposits in the special purpose loan guarantee insurance fund created by paragraph a of subdivision three of this section, or (h) in connection with projects financed with special purpose funds to exercise any of the powers conferred in this title.

3. Special purpose loan guarantee insurance fund.

a. There is hereby created a special purpose loan guarantee insurance fund for special purpose funds in respect of loan guarantees which shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the authority.

b. The authority is hereby directed and authorized to charge the following expenses against the special purpose loan guarantee insurance fund:

(i) any expenses which are clearly attributable, in the opinion of the authority, to the exercise of any of the authority's powers in respect of loan guarantees issued or reasonably expected to be issued;

(ii) any payments and all expenses attendant thereto which are required to be paid by the authority because of a default in the payment or in the other terms of a loan guaranteed by the authority;

(iii) all expenses and payments for the protection of the authority's interests in connection with defaulted or delinquent loans guaranteed by the authority, or in property possessed in consequences thereof;

(iv) all amounts required in the opinion of the authority to be set aside to provide a reasonable reserve for losses expected to be incurred by the authority as a result of defaults or expected defaults in the terms and payment of loans guaranteed by the authority;

(v) all amounts required to repay advances from the state for use as special purpose funds in respect of loan guarantees in accordance with any provision of law or repayment agreement between the authority and the director of the budget;

(vi) all amounts required to pay the principal and redemption price of or interest on special purpose bonds and notes specially issued for the purpose of providing funds to the special purpose loan guarantee insurance fund; and

(vii) all amounts required to purchase special purpose bonds or notes issued for the purpose of providing funds to the special purpose loan guarantee insurance fund.

c. The following shall constitute special purpose funds in respect of a loan guarantee:

(i) the proceeds of the issuance and sale of special purpose bonds and notes issued for the purpose of providing funds to the special purpose loan guarantee insurance fund;

(ii) any moneys made available by the state for the purposes of providing funds to the special purpose loan guarantee insurance fund and any other moneys made available for the purpose of providing funds to the special purpose loan guarantee insurance fund from any other source or sources, including, without limitation, any federal agency;

(iii) any moneys received in respect of loan guarantees including amounts received as loan guarantee insurance premiums or fees, or assets or property of any kind or nature received by the authority as a result of a default or delinquency with respect to loans guaranteed by the authority including the proceeds from the sale, disposal, lease or rental of real or personal property which the authority may receive in respect of a loan guarantee;

(iv) any moneys deposited in the special purpose loan guarantee insurance fund pursuant to paragraph (g) of subdivision two of this section.

§ 1816. Rate of interest. Any loan made by the authority with special purpose funds shall bear interest at such rate as the authority may determine but such rate shall not be less than a rate which is one percent below the average annual net interest cost to the authority, as determined by the authority, on special purpose bonds the proceeds of which, in the opinion of the authority, are available to make such loan, or if no such proceeds are then available in a sufficient amount to make such loan, the average annual net interest cost to the authority, as determined by the authority not more than six months previous to the making of such loan, which would have been incurred by the authority on special purpose bonds having an average maturity of twenty years if such bonds had been issued on a date within thirty days of such determination. The rental or other amount required to be paid by a project occupant or by a business enterprise described in section eighteen hundred twenty-seven to a local development corporation under a lease or other agreement for use of the said project shall include an interest element computed at such rate as the authority shall determine but such rate shall not be less than the interest rate charged by the authority to the local development corporation in accordance with the preceding sentence of this section.

SUBTITLE III

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FROM POLLUTION CONTROL FUNDS

§ 1817. Application of subtitle. Subject to the provisions of sections eighteen hundred twenty-two and eighteen hundred twenty-three of this title, the authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to make loans with pollution control funds pursuant to this subtitle to local development corporations for costs of projects located in any area of the state for the acquisition, construction, rehabilitation or improvement of pollution control facilities.

§ 1818. Pollution control bonds and notes. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to issue at one time or in series from time to time (a) pollution control bonds in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding seventy-five million dollars, excluding pollution control bonds issued to refund outstanding pollution control bonds, and (b) pollution control notes in anticipation of the issuance of such pollution control bonds.

2. The authority shall have power from time to time to renew pollution control notes or to issue pollution control renewal notes for such purpose, to issue pollution control bonds to pay pollution control notes, and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any pollution control bonds by the issuance of new pollution control bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue pollution control bonds partly to refund pollution control bonds then outstanding and partly for the purposes specified in this subtitle. The bonds issued for refunding purposes shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds to be refunded.

3. The holders of pollution control bonds and notes shall have the following rights and remedies, subject to the terms of the resolution authorizing such bonds and notes or any trust indenture, secured loan agreement or other instrument related thereto.

a. In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any issue of pollution control bonds or notes after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any contract made with the holders of any issue of pollution control bonds or notes, the holders of twenty-five per cent in aggregate principal amount of the bonds or notes of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk in the county of Albany and approved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds or notes for the purposes herein provided.

b. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per cent in principal amount of such bonds or notes then outstanding shall, in his or its own name:

(i) by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity enforce all rights of the pollution control bondholders or noteholders, including any right to require the authority to collect revenues adequate to carry out the provisions of any agreement with the holders of such bonds or notes and to perform its duties under this title;

(ii) bring suit upon such bonds or notes;

(iii) by action or suit in equity, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds or notes;

(iv) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds or notes;

(v) subject to the provisions of subdivision four of section eighteen hundred five of this title, declare all such bonds or notes due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then, with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per cent of the principal amount of such bonds or notes then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

c. Such trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of the pollution control bondholders or noteholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

d. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such bondholders or noteholders. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county of Albany.

§ 1819. State not liable on pollution control bonds and notes. The state shall not be liable on pollution control bonds and notes of the authority, and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to that effect.

§ 1820. Pollution control funds. 1. The following shall constitute pollution control funds of the authority and shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the authority: (a) the proceeds of sale of pollution control bonds and notes (b) any moneys appropriated and made available by the state for the purposes of this subtitle only, (c) any moneys made available to the authority for the purposes of this subtitle only from any other source or sources, (d) any moneys received by the authority as payments on account of loans made by the authority pursuant to this subtitle, (e) any fees, charges or other moneys received by the authority in respect of projects assisted by the authority pursuant to this subtitle or on account of applications therefor, and (f) any income or interest earned by, or any increment added to, any pollution control funds due to the investment thereof.

2. The authority shall further create and establish a separate fund to be known as the "pollution control capital reserve fund" and shall pay into such capital reserve fund (1) any moneys apportioned and paid by the state for the purposes of such fund pursuant to subdivision two of section eighteen hundred twenty-eight of this title, (2) any proceeds of sale of pollution control bonds or notes to the extent provided in the resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance thereof, (3) any pollution control funds directed to be transferred by the authority to such capital reserve fund, and (4) any other moneys which may be made available to the authority for the purposes of such fund from any other source or sources.

The moneys credited to such pollution control capital reserve fund shall be used, except as hereinafter provided, solely for the payment of the principal of pollution control bonds of the authority, as the same mature, the purchase of pollution control bonds, the payment of interest on pollution control bonds, and the payment of principal and any redemption premium required to be paid upon a redemption of such bonds prior to maturity; provided, however, that moneys in such fund shall not be withdrawn therefrom at any time in such amount as would reduce the amount of such fund to less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all pollution control bonds of the authority then outstanding, except for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the pollution control bonds of the authority maturing and becoming due for the payment of which other moneys of the authority are not available.

Moneys in the pollution control capital reserve fund not required for immediate use or disbursement may be invested in accordance with all the otherwise consistent provisions of section ninety-eight-a of the state finance law. In computing the amount of the pollution control capital reserve fund for the purposes of this section, securities in which all or a portion of such fund are invested shall be valued at par or, if purchased at less than par, at their cost to the authority. The authority shall not issue pollution control bonds at any time secured by the pollution control capital reserve fund if the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on the pollution control bonds then to be issued and on all other pollution control bonds of the authority then outstanding will exceed the amount of the pollution control capital reserve fund at the time of issuance unless the authority, at the time of issuance of such pollution control bonds, shall deposit in such fund from the proceeds of the pollution control bonds to be issued, or otherwise, an amount which, together with the amount then in such fund, will be not less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on the pollution control bonds then to be issued and on all other pollution control bonds of the authority then outstanding.

Any excess in the pollution control capital reserve fund at the close of any fiscal year of the authority over the maximum amount of the principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all pollution control bonds of the authority then outstanding shall be withdrawn by the authority from said capital reserve fund and, subject to the provisions of subdivision four of section eighteen hundred twenty-eight of this title, used as pollution control funds.

3. Subject to the terms of any agreement with pollution control bondholders and noteholders, pollution control funds may be used by the authority (a) to make loans to local development corporations for costs of projects specified in section eighteen hundred seventeen in any area of the state, (b) to pay the expenses of the authority referred to in any of the clauses of subdivision one of section eighteen hundred twenty-eight of this title, (c) to make payments to the pollution control capital reserve fund, (d) to repay advances from the state for use as pollution control funds in accordance with any provision of law or repayment agreement between the authority and the director of the budget, (e) to pay the principal and redemption price of or interest on pollution control bonds or notes, (f) to purchase pollution control bonds or notes, or (g) in connection with projects financed with pollution control funds to exercise any of the powers conferred in this title. Investment proceeds and repayments from borrowers credited to the pollution control fund may, to the extent that they are not required pursuant to the preceding sentence of this subdivision, be used for other purposes of the authority.

§ 1821. Rate of interest to project occupant. Any loan made by the authority pursuant to this subtitle to a local development corporation for a project shall bear interest at such rate as the authority may determine but such rate shall not be less than the average annual net interest cost to the authority, as determined by the authority, on pollution control bonds the proceeds of which, in the opinion of the authority, are available to make such loan, or if no such proceeds are then available in a sufficient amount to make such loan, the average annual net interest cost to the authority, as determined by the authority not more than six months previous to the making of such loan, which would have been incurred by the authority on pollution control bonds having an average maturity of twenty years if such bonds had been issued on a date within thirty days of such determination. The rental or other amount required to be paid by a project occupant to a local development corporation under a lease or other agreement for use of the said project shall include an interest element computed at such rate as the authority shall determine but such rate shall not be less than the interest rate charged by the authority to the local development corporation in accordance with the preceding sentence of this section.

SUBTITLE IV

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE GENERALLY

§ 1822. Loans to local development corporations. a. No mortgage loan shall be made by the authority under the provisions of subtitle II with respect to a project unless: (1) the local development corporation has obtained firm commitments satisfactory to the authority from responsible financial sources, which may but need not include a federal agency or the project occupant, for the total project cost exclusive of any loan requested from the authority, (2) the local development corporation has obtained a firm commitment satisfactory to the authority from the project occupant or from a business enterprise described in section eighteen hundred twenty-seven to lease or use the project after construction, acquisition, rehabilitation or improvement is completed, (3) the authority approves the terms of such lease or use and is satisfied that the project occupant or a business enterprise described in section eighteen hundred twenty-seven may reasonably be expected to comply with the terms thereof, (4) the principal amount of such loan is forty percent or less of the project cost, except as set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision two of section eighteen hundred three and paragraph (a) of subdivision seven of section eighteen hundred twenty-three of this chapter, (5) such loan is secured by a mortgage on the project, and (6) such mortgage is not a junior encumbrance on the project by more than fifty percent of the project cost.

b. No loan shall be made by the authority under the provisions of subtitle III with respect to a project unless: (1) the local development corporation has obtained firm commitments satisfactory to the authority from responsible financial sources, which may but need not include a federal agency or the project occupant, for the total project cost exclusive of any loan requested from the authority, (2) the local development corporation has obtained a firm commitment satisfactory to the authority from the project occupant to lease or use the project after construction, acquisition, rehabilitation or improvement is completed, (3) the authority approves the terms of such lease or use and is satisfied that the project occupant may reasonably be expected to comply with the terms thereof, (4) the amount of such loan is ninety per cent or less of the project cost and the term of such loan is twenty years or less, (5) the authority finds that the facilities to be financed through the loan are intended to meet or exceed applicable state or federal requirements to abate, prevent or control a pollution, and the commissioner of environmental conservation approves the construction plans for any such facilities.

c. No loan shall be guaranteed by the authority with respect to a project unless: (1) the project occupant has obtained firm commitments satisfactory to the authority from banking organizations for the financing of the project cost exclusive of the amount to be provided by the project occupant, (2) the authority is satisfied that the project occupant may be reasonably expected to comply with the terms of any loan for which a guarantee is sought, (3) the amount of the guarantee is eighty percent or less of the project cost, (4) the loan is secured by a mortgage or security instrument which is not a junior encumbrance on the project.

§ 1823. Further restrictions on loans and loan guarantees. In addition to other provisions of this title limiting the power of the authority to make loans to local development corporations in respect of a particular project, and to guarantee loans made by banking organizations, the following restrictions shall also apply:

1. No funds of the authority shall be used in respect of any project if the completion thereof would result in the removal of an industrial or manufacturing plant or research and development facility or other eligible business facility of the project occupant from one area of the state to another area of the state or in the abandonment of one or more plants or facilities of the project occupant located within the state, provided, however, that neither restriction shall apply if the authority shall determine on the basis of the application before it that the project is reasonably necessary to discourage the project occupant from removing such other plant or facility to a location outside the state or is reasonably necessary to preserve the competitive position of the project occupant in its respective industry.

2. No funds of the authority shall be used in respect of any project if the authority would be required to operate, service or maintain the project pursuant to any lease or other agreement except upon foreclosure or except upon the occurrence of a default in the payment or terms of any loan guaranteed by the authority, provided, however, notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle, the authority may take title to a project under a financing lease which does not require the authority to operate, service or maintain the project itself, and which provides for payments in lieu of property taxes as approved by the local taxing jurisdiction which are equal to or less than any property taxes which would have been due had the authority not taken title to the property. Nothing shall prevent the authority from transferring such property to the project occupant or its designee at the end of the term of such financing.

3. No funds of the authority shall be used for a project unless the applicant shows to the satisfaction of the authority that funds equal to the amount of the proposed loan from the authority are not reasonably available from other sources at a comparable cost of borrowing.

4. No funds of the authority shall be used in violation of any further restrictions imposed by general rule or regulation of the authority in relation to assisted projects and the authority is hereby authorized to adopt rules and regulations containing such restrictions as it may deem necessary or appropriate to effectuate its corporate purposes.

5. No provision of this title shall prevent the inclusion in a mortgage, lease or other agreement relating to an assisted project of a provision granting the project occupant the right to purchase such project upon such terms and conditions as the authority may approve.

6. No funds of the authority shall be loaned or used for any project unless the applicant demonstrates to the authority that such project has a valid permit or permits for the following, when such permits are required pursuant to applicable federal, state or local law: the generation, treatment, storage and disposal of hazardous wastes; the discharge of pollutants into the waters of the state, or, if such a plant or facility is in violation thereof, that the project contemplated includes the elimination of any such violation or violations.

7. Loans in economically distressed areas and to companies in need of special assistance. (a) Loans by the authority pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision two of section eighteen hundred three of this chapter may exceed forty percent but shall not exceed sixty percent of the cost of the project for:

(i) projects which are or will be located in empire zones designated pursuant to article eighteen-b of the general municipal law or in areas that meet, in accordance with the most recent census data available, the following criteria:

(A) the area must have a poverty rate of at least twenty percent for the year to which the data relate; and

(B) the area must have an unemployment rate of at least one hundred twenty-five percent of the statewide unemployment rate for the year to which the data relate;

(ii) projects involving companies in need of special assistance as determined by the findings of the members of the authority that such companies are unable to obtain a sufficient amount of financing at prevailing market rates of interest for businesses of similar size in the same industry in New York state.

(b) In determining eligibility for loans involving companies in need of special assistance pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the members of the authority shall consider:

(i) the applicant's potential for creating jobs in New York state;

(ii) the benefits derived from the project in the community in which the project is or will be located;

(iii) the interaction of a project with economic development programs administered by the department of economic development, the New York state urban development corporation and the New York state science and technology foundation;

(iv) the meaningful participation of minority and women-owned business enterprises and minority group members and women in a project;

(v) the degree to which the project will support apprenticeship training;

(vi) compliance with the provisions of section eighteen hundred twenty-six of this chapter with regard to the project occupant; and

(vii) in consultation with the department of economic development, the eligibility of the applicant for assistance under the industrial effectiveness program pursuant to article seven of the economic development law.

(c) In addition to the rules and regulations promulgated with regard to loans made by the authority under other provisions of this title, the members of the authority shall also promulgate rules and regulations pertaining to the loans made under subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision by December first, nineteen hundred ninety-two.

(d) On an annual basis, the authority shall compile and publish:

(i) in consultation with the department of economic development, a listing of economically distressed areas as defined in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

(ii) the criteria for determining the eligibility of a project that is in need of special assistance under subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

(e) All otherwise applicable requirements and restrictions of this title shall apply to projects that are described in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, provided, however, that in the case of projects which involve the relocation of economic activity from another municipality within New York state, the authority shall also find that the project occupant has made reasonable efforts to carry out the project within the municipality from which the project occupant intends to move an industrial, or manufacturing plant, or research and development facility, or other eligible business facility.

§ 1824. Applications for loans and for loan guarantees. a. A local development corporation may request a loan from the authority pursuant to the provisions of this title by filing an application therefor, which shall be verified by an officer of the corporation duly authorized so to do, in such form and with such exhibits and supporting data as the authority may prescribe and by paying the fees or charges, if any, established by the authority to defray the cost of investigating and processing applications for loans and to the extent that the application contains information or representations provided to or made to the corporation by the project occupant or by a business enterprise described in section eighteen hundred twenty-seven of this title, such officer, in such application, shall, in a form to be prescribed by the authority, certify the nature of the corporation's review of such information and representations.

b. A banking organization may request a loan guarantee from the authority pursuant to the provisions of this title by filing an application therefor, which shall be verified by an officer of the banking organization duly authorized to do so, in such form and with such exhibits and supporting data as the authority may prescribe and by paying the fees or charges, if any, established by the authority to defray the cost of investigating and processing applications for loan guarantees.

§ 1825. Local development corporations. To be eligible for loans from the authority, a local development corporation shall meet the following requirements in addition to any others imposed by the provisions of this title:

1. The corporation shall (a) be incorporated or reincorporated under section fourteen hundred eleven of the not-for-profit corporation law, or (b) be incorporated under article four of the not-for-profit corporation law, in addition to other purposes, to construct new industrial or manufacturing plants or new research and development buildings and acquire machinery and equipment deemed related thereto or acquire, rehabilitate, and improve for use by others, industrial or manufacturing plants in the area of the state in which an assisted project is to be located, to assist financially in such construction, acquisition, rehabilitation and improvement and to maintain such plants, buildings and equipment for others, and may also be authorized to study and promote, alone or in concert with local officials and interested local groups, the economic growth and business prosperity of the area and the solution of other civic problems of the region which includes such areas.

2. The corporation shall have no member or employee thereof who owns beneficially more than five per cent of the capital stock of the project occupant, or of the business enterprise described in section eighteen hundred twenty-seven and if any member or employee of the corporation has any material financial interest in, is employed by, or is a consultant to any such project occupant or business enterprise or any other business enterprise including a bank or other lending institution having a material financial relationship with such project occupant or business enterprise, such member or employee shall fully disclose any such interest or involvement to the corporation and to the authority in such form and manner as the authority board shall prescribe and such member or employee shall not participate in any evaluation of, or decision concerning, an application pursuant to section eighteen hundred twenty-four of this title regarding such project applicant or business enterprise.

3. The corporation shall agree to be bound by the rules and regulations of the authority relating to assisted projects and the operations of local development corporations, including the use of the loan evaluation criteria and methods established by the authority pursuant to subdivision thirteen-b of section eighteen hundred four of this title and the criteria established by the authority pursuant to subdivision thirteen-c of section eighteen hundred four of this title, and shall submit to examination of its books of account and corporate records by the authority at such times as the authority may require during the term of any loan made to it by the authority.

4. The corporation shall develop, promote and ensure that, where possible, minority groups which traditionally have been disadvantaged, and women, are afforded equal opportunity for loans from the authority through the corporation and for contracts in connection with the construction of the projects financed by loans from the authority through the corporation; provided, however, that the corporation may request that the authority implement the provisions of this subdivision.

§ 1826. The project occupant. The project occupant must be found by the authority to be financially responsible and presumptively able to comply with the terms and conditions of any lease, mortgage or other agreement made by it with the authority or a local development corporation in respect of the project. In making this finding, the authority shall consider all information reasonably available to it, including information as to the business reputation of the project occupant, the character and ability of its management, the adequacy of its financial resources, the market demand for its products, the adequacy of its distribution methods, its past earnings and the likelihood that it can successfully meet any required payments under such lease, mortgage or other agreement out of current income.

§ 1827. Loans for multi-tenant facilities. When in the judgment of the authority a need exists for additional space for industrial, manufacturing, research and development use or other eligible business facilities in an area of the state, it may make a loan to a local development corporation or issue a loan guarantee to a banking organization to assist in financing a project for a business enterprise which proposes to lease the project to two or more tenants to be used for manufacturing, industrial or research and development purposes, or to be used as an eligible business facility, provided that the authority shall make a finding in lieu of the findings referred to in section eighteen hundred twenty-six, that such business enterprise is financially responsible and presumptively able to comply with any lease, mortgage or other agreement made by it with the authority, banking organization or a local development corporation in connection with the project.

SUBTITLE V

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 1828. Expenses and reserve funds. 1. There shall be included in the financial information to be submitted annually by the authority pursuant to the provisions of section eighteen hundred twenty-nine of the public authorities law, and in the annual report referred to in said section, items separately showing the respective totals during the last completed fiscal year of the authority, of (i) all expenses of the authority clearly attributable to its operations under subtitle II of this title, (ii) all expenses of the authority clearly attributable to its operations under subtitle III of this title, and (iii) expenses of the authority not clearly attributable to a category set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) of this subdivision.

2. To assure the continued operation and solvency of the authority for the fulfillment of its corporate purposes with pollution control funds, provision is made in subdivision two of section eighteen hundred twenty of this title for the accumulation in the pollution control capital reserve fund of an amount equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all pollution control bonds of the authority then outstanding. In order further to secure such maintenance of the pollution control capital reserve fund, there shall be annually apportioned and paid to the authority for deposit in the pollution control capital reserve fund such sum, if any, as shall be certified by the chairman of the authority to the governor and director of the budget as necessary to restore the pollution control capital reserve fund to an amount equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on the pollution control bonds of the authority then outstanding. The chairman of the authority shall annually, on or before December first, make and deliver to the governor and director of the budget his certificate stating the amount, if any, required to restore the pollution control capital reserve fund to the amount aforesaid and the amount so stated in said certificate, if any, shall be apportioned and paid to the authority during the then current state fiscal year. No amount or amounts shall be apportioned and paid to the authority pursuant to this subdivision two until the authority has entered into a written agreement with the director of the budget providing for the repayment thereof to the state. Any such agreement shall provide, in lieu of any other provisions required by law regarding such repayment, that the authority will repay the state in full from pollution control funds the amount or amounts so apportioned and paid on the date one year after all pollution control bonds and notes of the authority outstanding at the date of such agreement or thereafter issued, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders thereof, are fully met and discharged. The principal amount of bonds secured by the pollution control capital reserve fund to which state funds are apportionable pursuant to this subdivision shall be limited to the total amount of bonds and notes outstanding on the effective date of this act, plus the total amount of bonds and notes contracted after the effective date of this act to finance projects in progress on the effective date of this act, as determined by the New York state public authorities control board created pursuant to section fifty of this chapter whose affirmative determination shall be conclusive as to all matters of law and fact solely for the purposes of the limitations contained in this subdivision, but in no event shall the total amount of bonds so secured by such a capital reserve fund or funds exceed five million dollars, excluding bonds issued to refund such outstanding bonds until the date of redemption of such outstanding bonds. As outstanding bonds so secured are paid, the amount so secured shall be reduced accordingly but the redemption of such outstanding bonds from the proceeds of refunding bonds shall not reduce the amount so secured.

3. The authority may make and enter into all such covenants and agreements with respect to accounting for or paying its expenses with holders of any of its bonds and notes, or of any issue thereof, as it may determine to be necessary and desirable.

4. To assure the continued operation and solvency of the authority for the fulfillment of its corporate purposes, there shall be annually paid to the authority such sum as shall have been appropriated for the expenses of the authority. The chairman of the authority shall make and deliver to the governor and director of the budget on or before December first, nineteen hundred sixty-six and on or before December first in each year thereafter, a certificate stating the amount estimated to be required for payment of or provision for expenses of the authority for the next ensuing state fiscal year. The amount so stated for any such ensuing state fiscal year shall be the sum of the amounts, if any, estimated for such fiscal year, by which pollution control expenses exceed pollution control available revenues, by which special purpose expenses in respect of loans and the special purpose expenses in respect of loan guarantees exceed special purpose available revenues. The entire amount appropriated for each such fiscal year for the expenses of the authority shall be paid to the authority not later than the tenth day of each such fiscal year. As used in this subdivision, (i) the term "expenses" for the fiscal year means ordinary expenditures for operation and administration of the authority, including interest paid by the authority on its bonds and notes, and, in addition, such amounts as the authority may determine to be reasonable and necessary as a reserve against defaults on its loans and as a reserve against defaults in the payment or terms of loans guaranteed by the authority, but shall not include amounts required to be paid to the state under or pursuant to any written agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision two of this section; and (ii) the term "available revenues" for the fiscal year means all amounts received on account of loans (exclusive of principal repayments), and loan guarantees and applications therefor, and income or interest earned or added to funds of the authority due to investment thereof, and not required under the terms or provisions of any covenant or agreement with holders of any bonds or notes of the authority to be applied to any purposes other than payment of expenses of the authority.

5. The members of the authority shall formulate a plan and policy to provide an expedited financial assistance process for fixed asset financing and other financing assistance programs provided by the authority for new businesses and expansions of existing businesses within areas designated as empire zones pursuant to article eighteen-B of the general municipal law.

§ 1828-a. Federal trust fund administration. 1. (a) Where the authority, in its capacity as a trustee or administrator of the Altech trust fund established pursuant to a grant agreement with the federal economic development agency, has, on or before March thirty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-five, entered into an agreement or agreements with any local development corporation, banking organization or public benefit corporation, or combination thereof, which obligates the authority to make payments from such trust fund for the purpose of paying or guaranteeing, in whole or in part, the cost of financing the construction of any facility the object of which is to promote economic development within the counties of Albany and Chautauqua, the authority, for the purpose of refinancing its payment obligations under such agreement or agreements, shall:

(i) pursuant to a memorandum of understanding executed with the subject county, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire such facility, including the site thereof, and sell, convey, lease, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of such facility, together with the site thereof, upon such terms and conditions as the authority deems advisable, and in connection therewith, may borrow money from any banking organization and issue its notes or other obligations in evidence thereof and may pledge to the repayments of such obligations any funds of the authority legally available for such purposes;

(ii) pursuant to a repayment agreement executed with the federal economic development agency, replace Altech trust fund monies expended on activities deemed to be ineligible by the United States department of commerce; and

(iii) enter into any and all agreements as the authority shall deem necessary, convenient or desirable to carry out the powers conferred by subparagraph (a) of this subdivision.

(b) (i) Prior to the execution of a repayment agreement by the authority pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the authority shall submit a plan to the federal economic development agency and to the director of the budget, and the chairs of the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee, which provides for:

(A) the replacement by the authority of cash or other assets of the trust fund for the purposes of promoting economic development within the counties of Albany and Chautauqua;

(B) the development of a new revolving loan fund plan to provide for the investment of the trust fund for the promotion of economic development within such counties; and

(C) a schedule and strategy for the implementation of any federal administrative requirements governing the administration of the fund by the authority.

(ii) a report submitted to the director of the budget, the chairs of the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee detailing the disposition by the authority of a facility or the repayment of any funds and any amendments to the plan pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

(c) Subject to the terms of any special purpose bondholders and noteholders, the special purpose funds described in clauses (b) through (g) of subdivision one of section eighteen hundred fifteen of this title, to the extent that they are not required pursuant to subdivision two of such section, may also be used to pay or discharge any other obligation of the authority imposed thereon by the provisions of this section or by the provision of any contract executed in accordance with this section.

2. The authority shall annually submit to the director of the budget, and the chairs of the senate finance committee and the assembly ways and means committee for approval a resolution setting forth its responsibilities as a fiduciary agent and trustee of any fund the authority administers on behalf of the federal government and describing the terms and conditions of any financial assistance to be provided from such fund.

§ 1829. Submission of certain financial information. 1. The authority shall submit to the governor, the chairman of the senate finance committee, the chairman of the assembly ways and means committee and the director of the budget, annually sixty days prior to the commencement of its fiscal year, (a) a copy of its strategic plan, for its next five fiscal years, adopted in accordance with the requirements of subdivision thirteen-a of section eighteen hundred four of this title; and (b) in such form or forms as may be prescribed by the director of the budget, financial information on its operations and loans setting forth its estimated income and moneys to be otherwise available, its expenditures and its loan activity for the next fiscal year and the current fiscal year of the authority, the actual moneys, income, expenditures and loan activity for the last completed fiscal year of the authority, (c) proposed changes, if any, in its charges and fees in respect of project applications and loans and (d) information regarding the manner in which, and the extent to which, the authority's activities during the last completed fiscal year and during the first half of the current fiscal year have served to further the goals and objectives and achieve the operational targets set forth in the strategic plan adopted pursuant to subdivision thirteen-a of section eighteen hundred four of this title.

2. The annual report submitted by the authority pursuant to the provisions of section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter shall set forth, in addition to the items enumerated in such section, (a) a schedule of its loans which shall indicate the local development corporation through which financial assistance has been granted by the authority and the project occupant or the business enterprise described in section eighteen hundred twenty-seven of this chapter for each assisted project, and information on the number of jobs projected to be created and the number projected to be retained by each of such assisted projects; and, based on the latest information available to the authority, the number of jobs actually created to date and the number actually retained to date by each of such assisted projects; and

(b) a listing of all bond counsel, accountants and other private consultants engaged by the authority on a contract basis and a statement of the total amount paid and yet to be paid under each such contract; and

(c) a schedule of all disbursements and commitments provided by the authority from funds the authority administers on behalf of the federal government including:

(i) grants, loans and loan guarantees for all projects undertaken by the fund;

(ii) administrative and operating expenses charged to the fund;

(iii) transfers of moneys from the fund to other fund accounts of the authority; and

(iv) any and all other information that may be requested by the director of the budget, chair of the senate finance committee and chair of the assembly ways and means committee; and

(d) a schedule of all receipts and receivables received by the authority into the funds the authority administers on behalf of the federal government including:

(i) transfer of moneys to the fund from other fund accounts of the authority;

(ii) income received by the fund from loans, loan guarantees, charges and all other sources; and

(iii) any and all other information that may be requested by the director of the budget, chair of the senate finance committee and chair of the assembly ways and means committee.

§ 1829-a. Submission of certain program information. 1. Annual program report. The authority shall report on an annual basis beginning December thirty-first, nineteen hundred ninety-three, and on each December thirty-first thereafter, to the governor, the speaker of the assembly and the temporary president of the senate on each of the financial assistance programs, and for each program, each category of assistance administered by the authority, identifying each proposal for assistance through such program for which the authority has received a formal application or otherwise has begun to undertake an analysis.

(a) For those requests which are currently being evaluated but which have not yet been approved such description shall include, but not be limited to, the name and location of the applicant, the amount of assistance requested, the date of receipt of such request, and the status of such request.

(b) In providing such report, where necessary to promote the development of proposed projects, the authority may delete references to the specific names of the participants, instead making references to them in some other form so as to make it possible to identify the progress of specific proposals.

(c) Such report shall provide a breakdown, for each of the regions established pursuant to section two hundred thirty of the economic development law, of proposals for assistance through each program. In addition, such report shall summarize, by program, the data reported pursuant to this paragraph.

(d) For those requests which have been evaluated and for which no further action has been recommended, the corporation shall present summary data indicating why no further action was taken.

(e) Such report shall include a description of the efforts and activities of the authority to meet the financing needs of economically distressed areas as described in paragraph (a) of subdivision seven of section eighteen hundred twenty-three of this chapter, and a description of the authority's efforts and activities with regard to companies in need of special assistance as described in such paragraph (a).

2. Evaluations. (a) In addition to any other requirements imposed by this chapter or otherwise regarding evaluations of programs administered by the authority, each evaluation shall include an analysis of the job creation effect of such program, the number of small businesses that received assistance, the number of minority and women-owned firms that received assistance, the number of projects undertaken in economically distressed areas as described in paragraph (a) of subdivision seven of section eighteen hundred twenty-three of this chapter, the number of projects involving companies in need of special assistance as described in such paragraph (a) and, if applicable, the repayment experience of borrowers of funds from the authority.

(b) The authority shall submit to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, and the temporary president of the senate an evaluation of such programs prepared by an entity independent of the authority. Such evaluations shall be submitted by September first, nineteen hundred ninety-four and by September first every four years thereafter.

§ 1830. Cooperation and assistance from other state agencies. The department of economic development, the department of labor, the department of financial services, the department of state and all other state agencies shall cooperate with and assist the authority in the fulfillment of its corporate purposes and in the exercise of its corporate powers under this title and may render such services to the authority within their respective functions as may be requested by the authority.

§ 1830-a. Conveyance of state land. Notwithstanding section thirty-three of the public lands law the commissioner of general services shall have power, in his discretion, from time to time to grant and convey to the authority, upon such terms and conditions including consideration as the commissioner of general services may fix and determine, unappropriated state lands, lands under water, abandoned canal lands and salt springs lands which the authority shall certify to be in conformity with its corporate purposes. Certification shall be evidenced by a formal request from the authority and shall be subject to the approval of the director of the budget.

§ 1831. Authority subject to certain other provisions of law. Nothing contained in any provision of this title shall be construed to relieve the authority of the obligation on its part to comply with the provisions of article nine of the public authorities law in force on the effective date of this title.

§ 1831-a. Actions. Except in an action for wrongful death, an action against the authority founded on tort shall not be commenced more than one year and ninety days after the cause of action therefor shall have accrued, nor unless a notice of claim shall have been served on the authority within the time limited by, and in compliance with all the requirements of section fifty-e of the general municipal law. An action against the authority for wrongful death shall be commenced in accordance with the notice of claim and time limitation provisions of title eleven of article nine of this chapter.

§ 1832. Termination of the authority. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds, notes or other obligations outstanding. Upon termination of the existence of the authority all its rights, property, assets and funds shall pass to and be vested in the state. For the purposes of this section, any appropriation or advance made to the authority by the state, which has not been repaid, shall not be deemed to be an outstanding obligation of the authority.

§ 1833. Title not affected if in part unconstitutional or ineffective. If any subtitle, section, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause or provision of this title shall be unconstitutional or be ineffective in whole or in part, to the extent that it is not unconstitutional or ineffective, it shall be valid or effective and no other subtitle, section, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause or provision shall on account thereof be deemed invalid or ineffective.

§ 1834. Inconsistent provisions of other acts superseded. Insofar as the provisions of this title are inconsistent with the provisions of any other act, general or special, the provisions of this title shall be controlling.

SUBTITLE V-A

LOANS TO LENDERS PROGRAM

§ 1835. Statement of legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds that agriculture is one of the largest industries in the state. The legislature has continuously acknowledged the importance of farming by establishing a variety of programs to promote a strong agricultural economy. Of particular importance to farmers and the rural economy is the health of businesses that serve farmers. Such businesses provide processing and storage facilities for agricultural commodities, equipment and material for use in farming and other products and services for farmers.

The legislature further declares that these businesses are confronted by the need to adapt to rapidly changing economic circumstances and market demands for the goods and services they produce. Their ability to adapt to and meet the challenges of emerging economic conditions and market opportunities is often impaired by high interest rates, an uncertain economic climate and their inability to attract investment capital upon reasonable terms. This problem is particularly acute in rural communities which neither possess nor are able to attract sufficient capital resources to meet their needs.

Significant strides in assisting and promoting certain business sectors have been made in this state. In this effort, the legislature has provided tax exempt financing to reduce interest rates for a wide variety of economic development programs as well as housing production programs. The legislature hereby finds that such financing of rural agricultural businesses would encourage rural economic activity, provide employment opportunities and enhance the quality of rural life. It is therefore the purpose of this subtitle to authorize the job development authority to issue bonds and notes to the investment community in order to make loans to lenders which will, in turn, provide financing to businesses that serve farmers and which would otherwise face difficulties in obtaining capital at a reasonable cost for establishing or expanding their enterprises and businesses.

The legislature further declares that it is the policy of the state, in authorizing the New York job development authority to create a loans to lenders program, to promote the economic well-being of rural communities, expand opportunities for minority and women owned businesses and enterprises and enlarge the employment opportunities available to residents of the state.

§ 1835-a. Definitions. As used or referred to in this subtitle, unless a different meaning appears from the context:

1. "Borrower" means the person, firm, partnership, corporation or other entity which receives a loan from a lender to pay the cost of a business project.

2. "Agricultural business project" means any land, any building or other improvement and any real and personal properties located within the state, including but not limited to, machinery, equipment and other facilities deemed necessary or desirable in connection therewith, or incidental thereto, whether or not now in existence or under construction, which shall be used for manufacturing, warehousing, research, commercial, industrial or other business purposes in support of the state's agricultural industry.

3. "Lender" means (a) any organization defined by subdivision eleven of section two of the banking law, (b) any agency or branch of a foreign banking corporation licensed by the department of financial services under article five of the banking law, (c) any national bank, federal savings and loan association and federal credit union, (d) any authorized insurer defined by subdivision six of section four of the insurance law and (e) any other institution within the state authorized to originate and service loans including, but not limited to, credit unions, mortgage loan companies and the New York business development corporation established under article five-A of the banking law, which shall be treated as a lender for all purposes of this subtitle.

4. "Loan for agricultural business project" means a loan received by a borrower from a lender to pay the cost of an agricultural business project.

5. "Loan to lender" means a loan made by the authority to a lender and evidenced by a bond, note, certificate of deposit or other obligation of such lender, secured or unsecured, as provided in this subtitle.

§ 1835-b. Additional powers of the authority. The authority shall have the following additional powers only with respect to making loans to lenders for the purpose of financing loans for agricultural business projects pursuant to this subtitle:

1. To prescribe standards and criteria for the granting of applications for loans to lenders and for the making of loans for agricultural business projects, which standards and criteria shall implement the intent and purposes of this subtitle. In developing such standards and criteria the authority shall consult with the superintendent of financial services regarding the qualifications of lenders and with the commissioner of agriculture and markets and the commissioner of economic development regarding the standards and criteria for the making of loans for business projects.

2. To make, and undertake commitments to make, loans to lenders under such terms and conditions as shall require the proceeds of such loans to lenders to be used by lenders to make loans for agricultural business projects;

3. To make and execute contracts for the administration or servicing of any loan to lender made by the authority and to pay the reasonable value of services rendered to the authority pursuant to such contracts;

4. To borrow money and issue bonds and notes as provided in section one thousand eight hundred thirty-five-d of this subtitle; and

5. To do any and all things necessary or convenient to carry out its corporate purposes and exercise the powers given and granted in this subtitle.

§ 1835-c. Loans to lenders. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized to make and contract to make loans to lenders on such terms and conditions as it shall determine, and all lenders are authorized to borrow from the authority in accordance with the provisions of this section and upon such terms and conditions as the authority may impose, provided that the business development corporation established under article five-A of the banking law shall receive no more than five million dollars and any other lender shall receive no more than two million dollars in loans to lenders from the authority in any twelve month period.

2. The authority shall require as a condition of each loan to a lender that such lender enter into written commitments to make within such period of time as the authority may require loans for agricultural business projects in accordance with the standards and criteria prescribed by the authority. Such loans for agricultural business projects shall be in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such loan to the lender and shall require the disbursement of such loan proceeds by the lender to borrowers to pay the costs of such projects; provided that no borrower shall receive more than two hundred thousand dollars in loans for agricultural business projects that are financed by loans to lenders from the authority in any twelve month period.

3. The authority shall require the submission to it by each lender to which the authority has made a loan to lender such documentation and other evidence satisfactory to the authority that the lender has made loans for agricultural business projects in accordance with the standards and criteria prescribed by the authority, and in this connection the authority through its members, agents and employees may inspect the books and records of such lender.

4. The authority shall require that each lender receiving a loan to lender pursuant to this section shall issue and deliver to the authority an evidence of its indebtedness to the authority which shall constitute an unconditional obligation of such lender and shall bear such date or dates, shall mature at such times or times, shall be subject to prepayment and shall contain such other provisions consistent with this subtitle as the authority shall require.

5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle, the interest rate and other terms of loans to lenders made from the proceeds of any issue of loans to lenders bonds or notes of the authority shall be at least sufficient to assure the payment of principal, redemption premium, if any, and interest on such bonds and notes as the same become due and payable.

6. The authority may require that loans to lenders made pursuant to this subtitle shall be secured as to the payment of both principal and interest by a pledge of collateral security in such amounts as the authority may determine to be necessary to assure the payment of such loans and the interest thereon as the same become due and payable. Such collateral security may consist of (a) obligations of or guaranteed by the United States of America, (b) obligations of the state or obligations the principal and interest of which are guaranteed by the state, excluding any obligations of the authority, (c) obligations of any corporation wholly owned by the United States of America, (d) obligations of any corporation sponsored by the United States of America which are or may become eligible as collateral for advances to member banks as determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system, or (e) certificates of deposit or time deposits secured in such manner, if any, as the authority shall determine.

7. The authority may require that any collateral security for loans to lenders be deposited with a bank, trust company or other financial institution (other than the lender pledging such collateral security) which shall be located in the state and designated by the authority as custodian therefor or may require each lender to enter into an agreement with the authority containing such provisions as the authority shall require to (a) adequately identify and maintain such collateral security, (b) service such collateral security, and (c) require the lender to hold such collateral security in trust for the authority and be accountable to the authority as the trustee of an express trust. The authority may also establish such additional requirements as it shall deem necessary with respect to the pledging, assigning, setting aside or holding of such collateral security and the making of substitutions of or additions thereto and the disposition of income and receipts therefrom.

8. The authority may require as a condition of any loans to lenders such representations and warranties as it shall determine to be necessary to secure such loans and carry out the purposes of this subtitle, and may make and execute contracts for the administration, servicing or collection of any loans to lenders or other financing with a lender and may pay the reasonable value of services rendered to the authority pursuant to such contracts.

§ 1835-d. Loans to lenders bonds and notes. 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized, for the purposes of this subtitle, to issue at one time or in series from time to time loans to lenders bonds and loans to lenders notes issued in anticipation of the issuance of such loans to lenders bonds, including renewals thereof, in an aggregate principal amount which shall not at any one time exceed fifty million dollars, excluding loans to lenders bonds issued to refund outstanding loans to lenders bonds.

2. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, all loans to lenders bonds and notes shall be limited obligations of the authority and payable solely from the revenues derived by the authority from loans to lenders.

3. Loans to lenders bonds and notes shall be authorized by resolution of the authority and bear such date or dates, shall mature at such time or times, shall bear interest at such rate or rates, shall be of such denominations, shall be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America and at such terms of redemption prior to maturity as may be provided by such resolution or resolutions with respect to such bonds or notes, as the case may be; provided, however that the maximum maturity of such bonds shall not exceed thirty years from the date thereof and the maximum maturity of such notes or any renewals thereof shall not exceed seven years from the date of the original issue of such notes.

4. The authority shall have power from time to time to renew loans to lenders notes or to issue loans to lenders notes for such purpose, to issue loans to lenders bonds to pay loans to lenders notes, and whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any loans to lenders bonds by the issuance of new loans to lenders bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue loans to lenders bonds partly to refund loans to lenders bonds then outstanding and partly for the purposes specified in this subtitle. Any loans to lenders bonds issued for refunding purposes shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds to be refunded.

5. Loans to lenders bonds and notes of the authority may be sold by the authority at public or private sale in such manner and on such terms and at such price or prices as the authority shall determine but shall not be sold by the authority at private sale unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved in writing by the comptroller where such sale is not to the comptroller, or by the director of the budget where such sale is to the comptroller.

§ 1835-e. State not liable on loans to lenders bonds and notes. The state shall not be liable on loans to lenders bonds and notes of the authority, and such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to that effect.

§ 1835-f. Loans to lenders funds. 1. The following shall constitute loans to lenders funds of the authority and shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the authority: (a) the proceeds of sale of loans to lenders bonds and notes hereafter issued, (b) any moneys appropriated and made available by the state for the purposes of this subtitle, (c) any moneys made available to the authority for the purposes of this subtitle from any other source, including without limitation, any federal agency, (d) any moneys received by the authority as principal, interest and other payments on account of loans hereafter made by the authority pursuant to this subtitle, (e) any fees, charges or other moneys received by the authority in respect of loans to lenders hereinafter made by the authority pursuant to this subtitle or on account of applications therefor, and (f) any income or interest hereafter earned by or any increment hereafter added to any loans to lenders funds due to the investment thereof.

2. Subject to the terms of any agreement with lenders, bondholders and noteholders, loans to lenders funds may be used by the authority solely: (a) to make loans to lenders for the purpose of financing loans for agricultural business projects in any area of the state, (b) to pay expenses of the authority referred to in any of the clauses of subdivision one of section eighteen hundred twenty-eight of this title, (c) to repay advances from the state for use as loans to lenders funds in accordance with any provision of law or repayment agreement between the authority and the state, (d) to pay the principal, redemption premium or interest on loans to lenders bonds or notes, (e) to purchase outstanding loans to lenders bonds and notes or (f) to exercise any of the powers conferred in this subtitle.

SUBTITLE VI

EMPLOYEE OWNERSHIP ASSISTANCE

§ 1836-a. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds and declares that the health, safety and general welfare of the people of this state are directly dependent upon the state economy, and that one of the principal problems of our present economy is the permanent closing of industrial and manufacturing plants, and their relocation out of state, which results in the loss of jobs and increasing unemployment.

It is the purpose of this subtitle to encourage the employees of plants that are about to be permanently closed, or relocated, to acquire such plants and to continue to operate them as employee-owned enterprises, thereby retaining the jobs that would otherwise be lost, and strengthening the economic base of this state.

§ 1836-b. Definitions. When used in this subtitle, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Agreement" means an employee ownership assistance loan agreement made pursuant to this subtitle.

2. "Authority" means the job development authority created by section one thousand eight hundred two of this chapter.

3. "Eligible project" means the acquisition or rehabilitation by an employee ownership association of an existing industrial or manufacturing plant located in this state for the purpose of operating it as an employee-owned enterprise.

4. "Employee ownership association" means a corporation or other association formed by or on behalf of the employees of an industrial or manufacturing plant located in this state for the purpose of assuming ownership or control of the plant and operating it as an employee-owned enterprise or as a worker cooperative as defined in section eighty-one of the cooperative corporations law.

5. "Employee-owned enterprise" means a business in which the employees are represented on the board of directors and the employees control the majority of the voting stock, or if the business is held in a trust which controls the majority of the voting stock, the trustees are elected by the employees. The term "employee-owned enterprise" shall also refer to a worker cooperative as defined in section eighty-one of the cooperative corporations law.

6. "Funding partner" means an entity which singly or in combination with other entities has agreed to finance a portion of the project cost of an eligible project, and may include the employee ownership association undertaking the project as well as any financial entity.

7. "Plant" includes the site, structure, building and equipment and all real and personal property in connection therewith, whether or not in existence, and may include any road, railroad, or utility or equipment appurtenant thereto.

8. "Project cost" includes all reasonable and necessary costs to be incurred in the course of an eligible project, including any anticipated acquisition, construction, land acquisition, improvements, equipment, pertinent rights and easements, and associated technical, engineering, legal and financial services.

§ 1836-c. Applications for loans. 1. Any employee ownership association may apply to a local development corporation serving the municipality in which the eligible project is located for an employee ownership assistance loan to be used to help finance an eligible project. Such application must include a written statement from the entity from which the project is being acquired, stating that such entity consents to the acquisition. The application shall include in detail:

(a) the history and membership of the association;

(b) the history and circumstances of the plant to be acquired;

(c) financial and marketing projections and analyses sufficient to allow the authority to evaluate the continued economic viability of the project;

(d) estimate of the number of jobs to be saved or created by the project; and

(e) total anticipated project cost.

2. The application shall also include a detailed financial statement of funding partner participation in the project, which shall include:

(a) the identity of all funding partners; and

(b) the terms of the financing agreements with the funding partners, including any repayment schedules and finance charges to be included in such agreements.

§ 1836-d. Loan preferences. In approving applications for loans under this subtitle, the authority shall give preference to projects which:

1. have a higher level of funding from the funding partners;

2. have the most direct impact on local economic development and the creation or retention of employment opportunities;

3. are most likely to stimulate other private sector investments; and

4. are least speculative, and provide greatest assurance of repayment of the loan.

§ 1836-e. Loan agreements. 1. If the authority approves an application for a loan under this subtitle, the local development corporation may enter into a loan agreement with the employee ownership association whereby the local development corporation agrees to loan to the employee ownership association the remaining funds necessary for the eligible project.

2. No such loan may exceed forty percent of the cost of the project and the repayment of such loan shall be secured by a mortgage thereon which shall not be a junior encumbrance thereon by more than fifty percent of such cost, and by means of the guarantees of the loans made by banking organizations which guaranty shall not exceed eighty percent of the cost of the project, except as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision two of section eighteen hundred three and paragraph (a) of subdivision seven of section eighteen hundred twenty-three of this chapter.

3. The local development corporation may not enter into any loan agreement unless the authority determines through an appropriate method that there is reasonable assurance of repayment. The authority shall establish such requirements or terms as it may deem necessary or desirable to secure the repayment of the loan and to protect the interests of the authority and the holders of its bonds.

4. Subject to the requirements of this subtitle, the authority is authorized to determine the form and substance of any loan agreement made pursuant to this subtitle.

§ 1836-f. Repayment of loans; interest. The entire amount loaned shall be repaid by the employee ownership association to the authority or its designee.

§ 1836-g. Rules and regulations of the authority. 1. The authority shall make, promulgate and enforce such reasonable rules and regulations relating to its duties under this subtitle as it may deem appropriate.

2. To effectuate the purposes of this subtitle, the authority may request from any authority, division, board, bureau, commission or other agency of the state or from any public corporation, and the same are authorized to provide, such services, assistance and data as will enable the authority to properly carry out its functions, powers and duties under this subtitle.

3. The authority shall also cooperate with the department of economic development to permit the department to carry out its responsibilities under section one hundred four-a of the economic development law.

SUBTITLE VII

SPECIAL PROJECT DEVELOPMENT

§ 1837. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds that one of the major concerns of the existing economy is the limited access to financing assistance of businesses and services that support or facilitate employment and economic development, but are not themselves directly involved in manufacturing or industrial production.

It is the purpose of this subtitle to encourage the development of community development projects that promote and enhance economic development by providing loans and loan guarantees at a reasonable cost.

§ 1837-a. Definitions. When used in this subtitle unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Eligible project" means the acquisition, renovation, rehabilitation or development of property necessary to commence and complete operation of projects that are not primarily residential nor retail businesses or enterprises, other than manufacturing and industrial plants, that promote, facilitate or encourage employment and economic development, including day care, commercial production and incubators primarily used for commercial purposes that will result in the creation or retention of employment.

2. "Eligible project cost" includes all reasonable and necessary costs and fees related to the acquisition, renovation, or rehabilitation of the project, including, but not limited to, acquisition, construction, land acquisition, improvements, easements, rights of way, equipment, contract and/or license rights, and related technical, engineering, legal and financial services.

§ 1837-b. Loans to local development corporations. 1. No loan shall be made by the authority under the provisions of this subtitle with respect to an eligible project unless: (a) the local development corporation has obtained firm commitments satisfactory to the authority from responsible financial sources, which may include a federal agency or the project occupant, for the total project cost exclusive of any loan requested from the authority; (b) the local development corporation has obtained a firm commitment satisfactory to the authority from the project occupant to lease or use the project after it has been completed; (c) the principal amount of such loan is forty percent or less of the project cost, except as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision two of section eighteen hundred three and paragraph (a) of subdivision seven of section eighteen hundred twenty-three of this chapter; and (d) if such loan is secured by a mortgage on the project, such mortgage is not a junior encumbrance on the project by more than fifty percent of the project cost.

