§ 156-c. Statement required for termination of lease. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an authority must incorporate into a written notice of termination of a lease the specific grounds upon which it has made its determination for termination.