§ 23. Project monitoring. The commissioner shall establish such procedures deemed necessary for monitoring compliance of an eligible low-income building with the provisions of this article, and for notifying the commissioner of taxation and finance of any such noncompliance.