§ 402-d. The governor may issue an executive order, pursuant to article two-B of the executive law and subject to the availability of a state appropriation, which shall govern the examination and remediation of conditions, including the construction or reconstruction as may be required, of residential properties owned by the authority and the development and execution of a plan to remediate such conditions.