§ 76. Pledge of subsidy. Payments under any contracts for periodic subsidies by the state may be pledged by an authority as security for loans obtained from any source for the project to which such periodic subsidies relate.