§ 1108. Powers and duties with respect to comprehensive public water supply planning. The commissioner shall perform such duties and functions with respect to comprehensive public water supply planning as are provided in part five-A of article five of the conservation law, and shall have such powers and authority as may be necessary in that regard.