§ 1304. Nuisances; local health officers; general powers. The local health officer of a health district having no local board of health and each county health commissioner shall have authority equal to a local board of health to investigate and abate public nuisances which may affect health.