§ 1325. Tenement houses in cities; power of commissioner. 1. The commissioner shall have power to examine into the enforcement of the laws relating to tenement houses in any city.

2. Whenever required by the governor, the commissioner shall make such an examination and shall report the results thereof to the governor within the time prescribed by him therefor.