§ 1609. Conflicting laws. Nothing in this article shall be deemed to derogate or detract from the functions, powers and duties of any department or agency of the state prescribed by law.