§ 18-b. Procedures in the course of education or training; consent. In the case of any health care procedure or examination, the fact that it is performed in the course of education or training shall not diminish the requirement for informed consent for the procedure or examination.