§ 200. Department of health; continuation. There shall continue to be in the state government a department of health. The head of the department shall be the commissioner of health of the state of New York.