§ 2001. Physicians and facilities; duty to report. An attending physician or a person representing or employed by a facility as defined by the commissioner shall report the existence of Alzheimer's disease to the department when the physician or other person diagnoses or confirms the presence of that illness.