§ 223. Public health and health planning council; compensation and expenses. The members of the public health and health planning council other than the commissioner of health shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties.