§ 2311. Sexually transmitted disease list. The commissioner shall promulgate a list of sexually transmitted diseases, such as gonorrhea and syphilis, for the purposes of this article. The commissioner, in determining the diseases to be included in such list, shall consider those conditions principally transmitted by sexual contact, other sections of this chapter addressing communicable diseases and the impact of particular diseases on individual morbidity and the health of newborns.