§ 2497. Availability of written summary. The commissioner shall make the summary provided for in section twenty-four hundred ninety-six of this article available free of charge to all clinics, health maintenance organizations, hospitals, and physician offices.