§ 2498. Provision of summary by physician. The summary shall be provided by a physician to each person under such physician's care, when a hysterectomy is under consideration for that person.