§ 2580. Children with physical disabilities; policy. It is the policy of the state of New York to provide medical service for the treatment and rehabilitation of children with physical disabilities.