§ 2600. Helen Hayes Hospital; hospital care and treatment. 1. The Helen Hayes Hospital is continued for the care and treatment of persons who are physically disabled, deformed or are suffering from disease from which they are likely to become physically disabled or deformed.

2. The patients in such hospital shall be permitted to exercise and enjoy religious profession and worship freely and without discrimination or preference.