§ 2700. Bureau of chronic disease and geriatrics established. The state department of health shall establish a bureau of chronic disease and geriatrics, which shall develop a program designed to improve and protect the health and vitality of middle-aged and elderly citizens of the state.