§ 2799-q. Participation in New York wellness works. The commissioner, in consultation with the advisory panel, shall establish criteria for implementation and operation of the New York wellness works program, which at a minimum shall include:

(a) applicant eligibility and selection criteria;

(b) program operating requirements and standards;

(c) employee safeguards.