§ 2803-y. Provision of residency agreement. The operator of a residential health care facility shall provide to prospective residents who inquire about admission, and post on its website, a copy of the facility's entire approved residency agreement, including the non-governmental rates charged to residents.