§ 2812. Construction. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law, or any city charter or administrative code to the contrary, no county, town, village or city shall enact and enforce regulations and standards for hospitals, except for hospitals maintained and operated by the health services administration of the city of New York or the New York city health and hospitals corporation.