§ 2897-c. Disposition of fees, fines, penalties and other moneys. All fees, fines, penalties and other moneys derived from the operation of this article shall be paid to the department and shall be paid by the department to the state treasury, as provided in the state finance law.