§ 2899-g. Right to rescind request; requirement to offer opportunity to rescind. 1. A patient may at any time rescind the request for medication under this article without regard to the patient's decision-making capacity.

2. A prescription for medication may not be written without the attending physician offering the qualified individual an opportunity to rescind the request.