§ 2907. Review of hospital operations. The department shall continue to exercise all of the functions, powers and duties prescribed by this chapter in connection with hospital operations within the state with the objective of promoting the highest quality of hospital care for the citizens of the state.