§ 2988. Requiring or prohibiting execution of proxy. No person may require or prohibit the execution of a health care proxy by an individual as a condition for providing health care services or insurance to such individual.