§ 2998-d. Voluntary and collaborative reporting system. The center, in collaboration with health care providers, shall develop a voluntary and collaborative reporting system, for the purposes of obtaining information useful for maximizing patient safety, reducing medical errors, and improving the quality of health care pursuant to this title.