§ 2999. Contracting with private entities. The center may contract with one or more private entities to undertake the duties delineated in this title. Such entities shall remain subject to existing confidentiality protections.