§ 3120. Blood collection; permit required; procedure.

No person, firm or corporation shall collect human blood for the purpose of transfusion into another human being unless a permit has been issued pursuant to the provisions of title five of article five of this chapter.