§ 3350. Dispensing prohibition. Controlled substances may not be prescribed for, or administered or dispensed to persons with substance use disorder or habitual users of controlled substances, except as provided by this title or title III.