§ 3390. Revocation of licenses and certificates of approval. Any license or certificate of approval granted pursuant to this article may be revoked by the commissioner in whole or in part upon a finding that the licensee or certificate holder has:

1. falsified any application, report, or record required by this article;

2. wilfully failed to furnish the department with timely reports or information required to be filed with the department;

3. been convicted of an offense in any jurisdiction relating to any substance listed in this article as a controlled substance;

4. wilfully or negligently failed to comply with any of the provisions of the federal controlled substances act, this article, or the regulations promulgated thereunder;

5. failed to maintain effective control against diversion of controlled substances; or

6. wilfully and unreasonably refused to permit an inspection authorized by this article.
