§ 3652. Licensure required. No medical equipment service agency located in New York state, or located in another state and providing home medical equipment services in this state may provide home medical equipment services unless a valid license has been issued as provided in this article.