§ 382. State park health district; board of health; powers and duties. The board of health of a state park health district shall have all the powers and duties of local boards of health and shall appoint a health officer qualified as provided by the sanitary code.