§ 383. State park health district; health officer; powers and duties. The health officer of a state park health district shall have all the powers and duties under the law of the state and the sanitary code which local health officers now have or hereafter shall have within their respective localities.