§ 4309. Application. The provisions of this article shall not be deemed to supersede or affect the provisions of the public health law relating to the functions, powers and duties of coroners, coroner's physicians or medical examiners.