§ 4800. Applicability. It is the purpose of this article to ensure that employees are given information by their employers concerning the nature of toxic substances which they may encounter in the workplace in the course of their employment.