§ 560. Laboratory supply stations; districts; establishment. 1. The commissioner or his authorized representative may establish district laboratory supply stations, for the distribution of laboratory supplies furnished by the department.

2. The commissioner may designate districts to be served by such district laboratory supply stations, each such district to include one or more municipalities provided, however, that no such district shall include the whole or part of more than one county.