§ 695-c. Technical assistance. The department shall provide or arrange to provide technical assistance as requested and necessary to programs to develop appropriate services and train staff, improve coordination with other appropriate support services, the criminal justice system and other appropriate officials and services.