§ 907. Reports. The commissioner, in conjunction with the commissioner of education, shall prepare and submit a report to the governor and the legislature, due on February first, nineteen hundred ninety-five, reporting the results and evaluating the effectiveness of the New York state primary care education and training act, including recommendations for the placement of primary care physicians and primary care practitioners in underserved areas.