§ 158.45 Criminal possession of public benefit cards in the second degree.

A person is guilty of criminal possession of public benefit cards in the second degree when he or she with intent to defraud, deceive or injure another, knowingly possesses ten or more public benefit cards in a name or names other than the person's own name.

Criminal possession of public benefit cards in the second degree is a class D felony.