§ 176.70 Aggravated life settlement fraud.

A person is guilty of aggravated life settlement fraud when he or she commits a fraudulent life settlement act, and has been previously convicted within the preceding five years of any offense, an essential element of which is the commission of a fraudulent life settlement act.

Aggravated life settlement fraud is a class D felony.