§ 1103. Entry into force, eligible parties, and withdrawal. This compact shall come into force when enacted by any four states. Thereafter, this compact shall become effective, as to any other party state that enacts this compact, upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the officials on the compact committee.