§ 1110. Immunity from liability. No official of a party state or employee of the compact committee shall be held personally liable for any reasonable action taken in good faith that occurs during the performance and within the scope of his or her responsibilities and duties under this compact.