§ 1343. Exclusion, ejection of certain persons. 1. A gaming facility licensee may exclude or eject from its gaming facility any person who is known to it to have been convicted of a crime or disorderly conduct committed in or on the premises of any gaming facility.

2. Nothing in this section or in any other law of this state shall limit the right of a gaming facility licensee to exercise its common law right to exclude or eject permanently from its gaming facility any person who disrupts the operations of its premises, threatens the security of its premises or its occupants, or is disorderly or intoxicated.
